23:10 But he knows the way that I take; When he has tried me, I shall come forth as gold.
23:11 My foot has held fast to his steps; His way have I kept, and turned not aside.
23:12 I have not gone back from the commandment of his lips; I have treasured up the words of his mouth more than my necessary food.
23:13 But he is in one mind, and who can turn him? And what his soul desires, even that he does.
23:14 For he performs that which is appointed for me: And many such things are with him.
23:15 Therefore am I terrified at his presence; When I consider, I am afraid of him.
23:16 For God has made my heart faint, and the Almighty has terrified me;
23:17 Because I was not cut off before the darkness, Neither did he cover the thick darkness from my face.

24:1 Why are times not laid up by the Almighty? And why do not they that know him see his days?
24:2 There are that remove the landmarks; They violently take away flocks, and feed them.
24:3 They drive away the donkey of the fatherless; They take the widow's ox for a pledge.
24:4 They turn the needy out of the way: The poor of the earth all hide themselves.
24:5 Behold, as wild donkeys in the desert They go forth to their work, seeking diligently for food; The wilderness yields them bread for their children.
24:6 They cut their provender in the field; And they glean the vintage of the wicked.
24:7 They lie all night naked without clothing, and have no covering in the cold.
24:8 They are wet with the showers of the mountains, and embrace the rock for want of a shelter.
24:9 There are that pluck the fatherless from the breast, and take a pledge of the poor;
24:10 So that they go about naked without clothing, and being hungry they carry the sheaves.
24:11 They make oil within the walls of these men; They tread their winepresses, and suffer thirst.
24:12 From out of the populous city men groan, And the soul of the wounded cries out: Yet God regards not the folly.
24:13 These are of them that rebel against the light; They know not the ways thereof, Nor abide in the paths thereof.
24:14 The murderer rises with the light; He kills the poor and needy; And in the night he is as a thief.
24:15 The eye also of the adulterer waits for the twilight, Saying, No eye shall see me: And he disguises his face.
24:16 In the dark they dig through houses: They shut themselves up in the day-time;
They know not the light.
24:17 For the morning is to all of them as thick darkness; For they know the terrors of the thick darkness.
24:18 Swiftly they pass away upon the face of the waters; Their portion is cursed in the earth: They turn not into the way of the vineyards.
24:19 Drought and heat consume the snow waters: So does Sheol those that have sinned.
24:20 The womb shall forget him; The worm shall feed sweetly on him; He shall be no more remembered; And unrighteousness shall be broken as a tree.
24:21 He devours the barren that bears not, and does not good to the widow.
24:22 Yet God preserves the mighty by his power: He rises up that has no assurance of life.
24:23 God gives them to be in security, and they rest upon it; And his eyes are upon their ways.
24:24 They are exalted; yet a little while, and they are gone; Yes, they are brought low, they are taken out of the way as all others, and are cut off as the tops of the ears of grain.
24:25 And if it be not so now, who will prove me a liar, and make my speech nothing worth?
25:1 Then answered Bildad the Shuhite, and said,
25:2 Dominion and fear are with him; He makes peace in his high places.
25:3 Is there any number of his armies? And upon whom does not his light arise?
25:4 How then can man be just with God? Or how can he be clean that is born of a woman?
25:5 Behold, even the moon has no brightness, and the stars are not pure in his sight:
25:6 How much less man, that is a worm! And the son of man, that is a worm!
26:1 Then Job answered and said,
26:2 How have you helped him that is without power! How have you saved the arm that has no strength!

26:3 How have you counselled him that has no wisdom, and plentifully declared sound knowledge!
26:4 To whom have you uttered words? And whose spirit came forth from you?
26:5 They that are deceased tremble Beneath the waters and the inhabitants thereof.
26:6 Sheol is naked before God, and Abaddon has no covering.
26:7 He stretches out the north over empty space, and hangs the earth upon nothing.
26:8 He binds up the waters in his thick clouds; And the cloud is not rent under them.
26:9 He incloses the face of his throne, and spreads his cloud upon it.
26:10 He has described a boundary upon the face of the waters, To the confines of light and darkness.
26:11 The pillars of heaven tremble And are astonished at his rebuke.
26:12 He stirs up the sea with his power, and by his understanding he strikes through Rahab.
26:13 By his Spirit the heavens are garnished; His hand has pierced the swift serpent.
26:14 Lo, these are but the outskirts of his ways: And how small a whisper do we hear of him! But the thunder of his power who can understand?
27:1 And Job again took up his parable, and said,
27:2 As God lives, who has taken away my right, and the Almighty, who has vexed my soul:
27:3 (For my life is yet whole in me, and the spirit of God is in my nostrils);
27:4 Surely my lips shall not speak unrighteousness, Neither shall my tongue utter deceit.
27:5 Far be it from me that I should justify you: Till I die I will not put away my integrity from me.
27:6 My righteousness I hold fast, and will not let it go: My heart shall not reproach me so long as I live.
27:7 Let my enemy be as the wicked, and let him that rises up against me be as the unrighteous.
27:8 For what is the hope of the godless, though he get him gain, When God takes away his soul?
27:9 Will God hear his cry, When trouble comes upon him?
27:10 Will he delight himself in the Almighty, and call upon God at all times?
27:11 I will teach you concerning the hand of God; That which is with the Almighty I will not conceal.
27:12 Behold, all ye yourselves have seen it; Why then are ye become altogether vain?
27:13 This is the portion of a wicked man with God, and the heritage of oppressors, which they receive from the Almighty:
27:14 If his children be multiplied, it is for the sword; And his offspring shall not be satisfied with bread.
27:15 Those that remain of him shall be buried in death, and his widows shall make no lamentation.
27:16 Though he heap up silver as the dust, and prepare raiment as the clay;
27:17 He may prepare it, but the just shall put it on, and the innocent shall divide the silver.
27:18 He builds his house as the moth, and as a booth which the keeper makes.
27:19 He lies down rich, but he shall not be gathered to his fathers; He opens his eyes, and he is not.
27:20 Terrors overtake him like waters; A tempest steals him away in the night.
27:21 The east wind carries him away, and he departs; And it sweeps him out of his place.
27:22 For God shall hurl at him, and not spare: He would fain flee out of his hand.
27:23 Men shall clap their hands at him, and shall hiss him out of his place.
28:1 Surely there is a mine for silver, And a place for gold which they refine.
28:2 Iron is taken out of the earth, and copper is molten out of the stone.
28:3 Man sets an end to darkness, and searches out, to the furthest bound, The stones of obscurity and of thick darkness.

28:4 He breaks open a shaft away from where men sojourn; They are forgotten of the foot; They hang afar from men, they swing to and fro.
28:5 As for the earth, out of it comes bread; And underneath it is turned up as it were by fire.
28:6 The stones thereof are the place of sapphires, and it has dust of gold.
28:7 That path no bird of prey knows, Neither has the falcon's eye seen it:
28:8 The proud beasts have not trodden it, Nor has the fierce lion passed thereby.
28:9 He puts forth his hand upon the flinty rock; He overturns the mountains by the roots.
28:10 He cuts out channels among the rocks; And his eye sees every precious thing.
28:11 He binds the streams that they trickle not; And the thing that is hid brings he forth to light.
28:12 But where shall wisdom be found? And where is the place of understanding?
28:13 Man knows not the price thereof; Neither is it found in the land of the living.
28:14 The deep says, It is not in me; And the sea says, It is not with me.
28:15 It cannot be gotten for gold, Neither shall silver be weighed for the price thereof.
28:16 It cannot be valued with the gold of Ophir, With the precious onyx, or the sapphire.
28:17 Gold and glass cannot equal it, Neither shall it be exchanged for jewels of fine gold.
28:18 No mention shall be made of coral or of crystal: Yes, the price of wisdom is above rubies.
28:19 The topaz of Ethiopia shall not equal it, Neither shall it be valued with pure gold.
28:20 From where then comes wisdom? And where is the place of understanding?
28:21 Seeing it is hid from the eyes of all living, and kept close from the birds of the heavens.
28:22 Destruction and Death say, We have heard a rumor thereof with our ears.
28:23 God understands the way thereof, and he knows the place thereof.
28:24 For he looks to the ends of the earth, and sees under the whole heaven;
28:25 To make a weight for the wind: Yes, he metes out the waters by measure.
28:26 When he made a decree for the rain, and a way for the lightning of the thunder;
28:27 Then did he see it, and declare it; He established it, yes, and searched it out.
28:28 And to man he said, Behold, the fear of the Lord, that is wisdom; And to depart from evil is understanding.
29:1 And Job again took up his parable, and said,
29:2 Oh that I were as in the months of old, as in the days when God watched over me;
29:3 When his lamp shined upon my head, and by his light I walked through darkness;
29:4 As I was in the ripeness of my days, When the friendship of God was upon my tent;
29:5 When the Almighty was yet with me, and my children were about me;
29:6 When my steps were washed with butter, and the rock poured me out streams of oil!
29:7 When I went forth to the gate to the city, When I prepared my seat in the street,
29:8 The young men saw me and hid themselves, and the aged rose up and stood;
29:9 The princes refrained from talking, and laid their hand on their mouth;
29:10 The voice of the nobles was hushed, and their tongue cleaved to the roof of their mouth.
29:11 For when the ear heard me, then it blessed me; And when the eye saw me, it gave witness to me:
29:12 Because I delivered the poor that cried, The fatherless also, that had no one to help him.
29:13 The blessing of him that was ready to perish came upon me; And I caused the widow's heart to sing for joy.

29:14 I put on righteousness, and it clothed me: My justice was as a robe and a diadem.
29:15 I was eyes to the blind, and feet was I to the lame.
29:16 I was a father to the needy: And the cause of him that I knew not I searched out.
29:17 And I broke the jaws of the unrighteous, and plucked the prey out of his teeth.
29:18 Then I said, I shall die in my nest, and I shall multiply my days as the sand:
29:19 My root is spread out to the waters, and the dew lies all night upon my branch;
29:20 My glory is fresh in me, and my bow is renewed in my hand.
29:21 To me men gave ear, and waited, and kept silence for my counsel.
29:22 After my words they spoke not again; And my speech distilled upon them.
29:23 And they waited for me as for the rain; And they opened their mouth wide as for the latter rain.
29:24 I smiled on them, when they had no confidence; And the light of my countenance they cast not down.
29:25 I chose out their way, and sat as chief, and dwelt as a king in the army, as one that comforts the mourners.
30:1 But now they that are younger than I have me in derision, Whose fathers I disdained to set with the dogs of my flock.
30:2 Yes, the strength of their hands, whereto should it profit me? Men in whom ripe age is perished.
30:3 They are gaunt with want and famine; They gnaw the dry ground, in the gloom of wasteness and desolation.
30:4 They pluck salt-wort by the bushes; And the roots of the broom are their food.
30:5 They are driven forth from the midst of men; They cry after them as after a thief;
30:6 So that they dwell in frightful valleys, In holes of the earth and of the rocks.
30:7 Among the bushes they bray; Under the nettles they are gathered together.
30:8 They are children of fools, yes, children of base men; They were scourged out of the land.
30:9 And now I am become their song, Yes, I am a byword to them.
30:10 They abhor me, they stand aloof from me, and spare not to spit in my face.
30:11 For he has loosed his cord, and afflicted me; And they have cast off the bridle before me.
30:12 Upon my right hand rise the rabble; They thrust aside my feet, and they cast up against me their ways of destruction.
30:13 They mar my path, They set forward my calamity, even men that have no helper.
30:14 As through a wide breach they come: In the midst of the ruin they roll themselves upon me.
30:15 Terrors are turned upon me; They chase my honor as the wind; And my welfare is passed away as a cloud.
30:16 And now my soul is poured out within me; Days of affliction have taken hold upon me.
30:17 In the night season my bones are pierced in me, and the pains that gnaw me take no rest.
30:18 By God's great force is my garment disfigured; It binds me about as the collar of my coat.
30:19 He has cast me into the mire, and I am become like dust and ashes.
30:20 I cry to you, and you do not answer me: I stand up, and you gaze at me.
30:21 You are turned to be cruel to me; With the might of your hand you persecutest me.
30:22 You lift me up to the wind, you causest me to ride upon it; And you dissolvest me in the storm.
30:23 For I know that you will bring me to death, and to the house appointed for all living.

30:24 Yet does not one stretch out the hand in his fall? Or in his calamity therefore cry for help?
30:25 Did not I weep for him that was in trouble? Was not my soul grieved for the needy?
30:26 When I looked for good, then evil came; And when I waited for light, there came darkness.
30:27 My heart is troubled, and rests not; Days of affliction are come upon me.
30:28 I go mourning without the sun: I stand up in the assembly, and cry for help.
30:29 I am a brother to jackals, and a companion to ostriches.
30:30 My skin is black, and falls from me, and my bones are burned with heat.
30:31 Therefore is my harp turned to mourning, and my pipe into the voice of them that weep.
31:1 I made a covenant with my eyes; How then should I look upon a virgin?
31:2 For what is the portion from God above, and the heritage from the Almighty on high?
31:3 Is it not calamity to the unrighteous, and disaster to the workers of iniquity?
31:4 Does not he see my ways, and number all my steps?
31:5 If I have walked with falsehood, and my foot has hasted to deceit
31:6 (Let me be weighed in an even balance, That God may know my integrity);
31:7 If my step has turned out of the way, and my heart walked after my eyes, and if any spot has cleaved to my hands:
31:8 Then let me sow, and let another eat; Yes, let the produce of my field be rooted out.
31:9 If my heart has been enticed to a woman, and I have laid wait at my neighbor's door;
31:10 Then let my wife grind for another, and let others bow down upon her.[23]
31:11 For that would be a heinous crime; Yes, it would be an iniquity to be punished by the judges:
31:12 For it is a fire that consumes to Destruction, and would root out all my increase.
31:13 If I have despised the cause of my man-servant or of my maid-servant, When they contended with me;
31:14 What then shall I do when God rises up? And when he visiteth, what shall I answer him?
31:15 Did not he that made me in the womb make him? And did not one fashion us in the womb?
31:16 If I have withheld the poor from their desire, Or have caused the eyes of the widow to fail,
31:17 Or have eaten my morsel alone, and the fatherless has not eaten thereof
31:18 (Nay, from my youth he grew up with me as with a father, And her have I guided from my mother's womb);
31:19 If I have seen any perish for want of clothing, Or that the needy had no covering;
31:20 If his loins have not blessed me, and if he has not been warmed with the fleece of my sheep;
31:21 If I have lifted up my hand against the fatherless, Because I saw my help in the gate:
31:22 Then let my shoulder fall from the shoulder-blade, and my arm be broken from the bone.
31:23 For calamity from God is a terror to me, and by reason of his majesty I can do nothing.
31:24 If I have made gold my hope, and have said to the fine gold, You are my confidence;
31:25 If I have rejoiced because my wealth was great, and because my hand had gotten much;
31:26 If I have beheld the sun when it shined, Or the moon walking in brightness,

[23] "bow down upon her" = "have sex with her"

31:27 And my heart has been secretly enticed, and my mouth has kissed my hand:
31:28 This also were an iniquity to be punished by the judges; For I should have denied the God that is above.
31:29 If I have rejoiced at the destruction of him that hated me, Or lifted up myself when evil found him;
31:30 (Yes, I have not allowed by mouth to sin By asking his life with a curse);
31:31 If the men of my tent have not said, Who can find one that has not been filled with his meat?
31:32 (The sojourner has not lodged in the street; But I have opened my doors to the traveller);
31:33 If like Adam I have covered my transgressions, By hiding my iniquity in my bosom,
31:34 Because I feared the great multitude, and the contempt of families terrified me, So that I kept silence, and went not out of the door-
31:35 Oh that I had one to hear me! (Lo, here is my signature, let the Almighty answer me); And that I had the indictment which my adversary has written!
31:36 Surely I would carry it upon my shoulder; I would bind it to me as a crown:
31:37 I would declare to him the number of my steps; As a prince would I go near to him.
31:38 If my land cries out against me, and the furrows thereof weep together;
31:39 If I have eaten the fruits thereof without money, Or have caused the owners thereof to lose their life:
31:40 Let thistles grow instead of wheat, and cockle instead of barley. The words of Job are ended.
32:1 So these three men ceased to answer Job, because he was righteous in his own eyes.
32:2 Then was kindled the wrath of Elihu the son of Barachel the Buzite, of the family of Ram: against Job was his wrath kindled, because he justified himself rather than God.
32:3 Also against his three friends was his wrath kindled, because they had found no answer, and yet had condemned Job.
32:4 Now Elihu had waited to speak to Job, because they were elder than he.
32:5 And when Elihu saw that there was no answer in the mouth of these three men, his wrath was kindled.
32:6 And Elihu the son of Barachel the Buzite answered and said, I am young, and ye are very old; Wherefore I held back, and durst not show you my opinion.
32:7 I said, Days should speak, and multitude of years should teach wisdom.
32:8 But there is a spirit in man, and the breath of the Almighty gives them understanding.
32:9 It is not the great that are wise, Nor the aged that understand justice.
32:10 Therefore I said, Hearken to me; I also will show my opinion.
32:11 Behold, I waited for your words, I listened for your reasonings, Whilst ye searched out what to say.
32:12 Yes, I attended to you, and, behold, there was no one that convinced Job, Or that answered his words, among you.
32:13 Beware lest ye say, We have found wisdom; God may vanquish him, not man:
32:14 For he has not directed his words against me; Neither will I answer him with your speeches.
32:15 They are amazed, they answer no more: They have not a word to say.
32:16 And shall I wait, because they speak not, Because they stand still, and answer no more?
32:17 I also will answer my part, I also will show my opinion.
32:18 For I am full of words; The spirit within me constrains me.
32:19 Behold, my breast is as wine which has no vent; Like new wine-skins it is ready to burst.
32:20 I will speak, that I may be refreshed; I will open my lips and answer.
32:21 Let me not, I pray you, respect any man's person; Neither will I give flattering titles to any man.

32:22 For I know not to give flattering titles; Else would my Maker soon take me away.
33:1 But now, Job, I pray you, hear my speech, and hearken to all my words.
33:2 Behold now, I have opened my mouth; My tongue has spoken in my mouth.
33:3 My words shall utter the uprightness of my heart; And that which my lips know they shall speak sincerely.
33:4 The Spirit of God has made me, and the breath of the Almighty gives me life.
33:5 If you can, answer you me; Set your words in order before me, stand forth.
33:6 Behold, I am toward God even as you are: I also am formed out of the clay.
33:7 Behold, my terror shall not make you afraid, Neither shall my pressure be heavy upon you.
33:8 Surely you have spoken in my hearing, and I have heard the voice of your words, saying,
33:9 I am clean, without transgression; I am innocent, neither is there iniquity in me:
33:10 Behold, he finds occasions against me, He counts me for his enemy:
33:11 He puts my feet in the stocks, He marks all my paths.
33:12 Behold, I will answer you, in this you are not just; For God is greater than man.
33:13 Why do you strive against him, For that he gives not account of any of his matters?
33:14 For God speaks once, Yes twice, though man regards it not.
33:15 In a dream, in a vision of the night, When deep sleep falls upon men, In slumberings upon the bed;
33:16 Then he opens the ears of men, and seals their instruction,
33:17 That he may withdraw man from his purpose, and hide pride from man;
33:18 He keeps back his soul from the pit, and his life from perishing by the sword.
33:19 He is chastened also with pain upon his bed, and with continual strife in his bones;
33:20 So that his life abhors bread, and his soul dainty food.
33:21 His flesh is consumed away, that it cannot be seen; And his bones that were not seen stick out.
33:22 Yes, his soul draws near to the pit, and his life to the destroyers.
33:23 If there be with him an angel, an interpreter, one among a thousand, To show to man what is right for him;
33:24 Then God is gracious to him, and says, Deliver him from going down to the pit, I have found a ransom.
33:25 His flesh shall be fresher than a child's; He returns to the days of his youth.
33:26 He prays to God, and he is favorable to him, So that he sees his face with joy: And he restores to man his righteousness.
33:27 He sings before men, and says, I have sinned, and perverted that which was right, and it gained me nothing:
33:28 He has redeemed my soul from going into the pit, and my life shall behold the light.
33:29 Lo, all these things does God work, Twice, yes thrice, with a man,
33:30 To bring back his soul from the pit, that he may be enlightened with the light of the living.
33:31 Mark well, O Job, hearken to me: Hold your peace, and I will speak.
33:32 If you have anything to say, answer me: Speak, for I desire to justify you.
33:33 If not, hearken to me: Hold your peace, and I will teach you wisdom.
34:1 Moreover Elihu answered and said,
34:2 Hear my words, ye wise men; and give ear to me, ye that have knowledge.
34:3 For the ear tries words, as the palate tastes food.
34:4 Let us choose for us that which is right: Let us know among ourselves what is good.
34:5 For Job has said, I am righteous, and God has taken away my right:
34:6 Notwithstanding my right I am accounted a liar; My wound is incurable, though I am without transgression.
34:7 What man is like Job, Who drinks up scoffing like water, 34:8 Who goes in company with the workers of iniquity, and walks with wicked men?

34:9 For he has said, It profits a man nothing That he should delight himself with God.
34:10 Therefore hearken to me, ye men of understanding: Far be it from God, that he should do wickedness, and from the Almighty, that he should commit iniquity.
34:11 For the work of a man will he render to him, and cause every man to find according to his ways.
34:12 Yes, of a surety, God will not do wickedly, Neither will the Almighty pervert justice.
34:13 Who gave him a charge over the earth? Or who has disposed the whole world?
34:14 If he set his heart upon himself, If he gather to himself his spirit and his breath;
34:15 All flesh shall perish together, and man shall turn again to dust.
34:16 If now you have understanding, hear this: Hearken to the voice of my words.
34:17 Shall even one that hates justice govern? And will you condemn him that is righteous and mighty?-
34:18 him that says to a king, You are vile, Or to nobles, You are wicked;
34:19 That respects not the persons of princes, Nor regards the rich more than the poor; For they all are the work of his hands.
34:20 In a moment they die, even at midnight; The people are shaken and pass away, and the mighty are taken away without hand.
34:21 For his eyes are upon the ways of a man, and he sees all his goings.
34:22 There is no darkness, nor thick gloom, Where the workers of iniquity may hide themselves.
34:23 For he needs not further to consider a man, That he should go before God in judgment.
34:24 He breaks in pieces mighty men in ways past finding out, and sets others in their stead.
34:25 Therefore he takes knowledge of their works; And he overturns them in the night, so that they are destroyed.
34:26 He punishes them like the wicked, in the open sight of others;
34:27 Because they turned aside from following him, and would not have regard in any of his ways:
34:28 So that they caused the cry of the poor to come to him, and he heard the cry of the afflicted.
34:29 When he gives quietness, who then can condemn? And when he hides his face, who then can behold him? Alike whether it be done to a nation, or to a man:
34:30 That the godless man reign not, That there be no one to ensnare the people.
34:31 For has any said to God, I have borne chastisement, I will not offend any more:
34:32 That which I see not teach you me: If I have done iniquity, I will do it no more?
34:33 Shall his recompense be as you will, that you refuse it? For you must choose, and not I: Therefore speak what you know.
34:34 Men of understanding will say to me, Yes, every wise man that hears me:
34:35 Job speaks without knowledge, and his words are without wisdom.
34:36 Would that Job were tried to the end, Because of his answering like wicked men.
34:37 For he adds rebellion to his sin; He claps his hands among us, and multiplies his words against God.
35:1 Moreover Elihu answered and said,
35:2 Do you think this is right, Or do you say, I am more right than God,
35:3 That you say, What advantage will it be to me? And, What profit shall I have, more than if I had sinned?
35:4 I will answer you, and your companions along with you.
35:5 Look to the heavens, and see; And behold the skies, which are higher than you.

35:6 If you have sinned, what effect do you have against him? And if your transgressions are multiplied, what do you do to him?
35:7 If you be righteous, what do you give him? Or what receives he from your hand?
35:8 Your wickedness may hurt another man like you; And your righteousness may profit some son of man.
35:9 By reason of the multitude of oppressions they cry out; They cry for help by reason of the arm of the mighty.
35:10 But no one says, Where is God my Maker, Who gives songs in the night,
35:11 Who teaches us more than he teaches the beasts of the earth, and makes us wiser than the birds of the heavens?
35:12 There they cry, but no one gives answer, Because of the pride of evil men.
35:13 Surely God will not hear an empty cry, Neither will the Almighty regard it.
35:14 How much less when you say you behold him not, that the cause is before him, and you are waiting for him!
35:15 But now, because he has not visited in his anger, and does not closely watch arrogance;
35:16 Therefore does Job open his mouth in vanity; He multiplies words without knowledge.
36:1 Elihu also proceeded, and said,
36:2 Allow me a little, and I will show you; For I have yet somewhat to say on God's behalf.
36:3 I will fetch my knowledge from afar, and will ascribe righteousness to my Maker.
36:4 For truly my words are not false: One that is perfect in knowledge is with you.
36:5 Behold, God is mighty, and despises not any: He is mighty in strength of understanding.
36:6 He preserves not the life of the wicked, But gives to the afflicted their right.
36:7 He withdraws not his eyes from the righteous: But with kings upon the throne He sets them for ever, and they are exalted.
36:8 And if they be bound in fetters, and be taken in the cords of afflictions;
36:9 Then he shows them their work, and their transgressions, that they have behaved themselves proudly.
36:10 He opens also their ear to instruction, and commands that they return from iniquity.
36:11 If they hearken and serve him, They shall spend their days in prosperity, and their years in pleasures.
36:12 But if they hearken not, they shall perish by the sword, and they shall die without knowledge.
36:13 But they that are godless in heart lay up anger: They cry not for help when he binds them.
36:14 They die in youth, and their life perishes among the unclean.
36:15 He delivers the afflicted by their affliction, and opens their ear in oppression.
36:16 Yes, he would have allured you out of distress Into a broad place, where there is no straitness; And that which is set on your table would be full of fatness.
36:17 But you are full of the judgment of the wicked: Judgment and justice take hold on you.
36:18 For let not wrath stir you up against chastisements; Neither let the greatness of the ransom turn you aside.
36:19 Will your cry avail, that you be not in distress, Or all the forces of your strength?
36:20 Desire not the night, When peoples are cut off in their place.
36:21 Take heed, regard not iniquity: For this have you chosen rather than affliction.
36:22 Behold, God does loftily in his power: Who is a teacher like him?
36:23 Who has enjoined him his way? Or who can say, You have wrought unrighteousness?
36:24 Remember that you magnify his work, About which men have sung.
36:25 All men have looked upon it; Man beholds it afar off.

36:26 Behold, God is great, and we know him not; The number of his years is unsearchable.
36:27 For he draws up the drops of water, Which distill in rain from his vapor, 36:28 Which the skies pour down and drop upon man abundantly.
36:29 Yes, can any understand the spreadings of the clouds, the thunderings of his pavilion?
36:30 Behold, he spreads his light around him; And he covers the bottom of the sea.
36:31 For by these he judges the peoples; He gives food in abundance.
36:32 He covers his hands with the lightning, and gives it a charge that it strikes the mark.
36:33 The noise of tells about him, The cattle also concerning the storm that comes up.
37:1 Yes, at this my heart trembles, and is moved out of its place.
37:2 Hear, oh, hear the noise of his voice, and the sound that goes out of his mouth.
37:3 He sends it forth under the whole heaven, and his lightening to the ends of the earth.
37:4 After it a voice roareth; He thunders with the voice of his majesty; And he restrains not the lightnings when his voice is heard.
37:5 God thunders marvellously with his voice; Great things does he, which we cannot comprehend.
37:6 For he says to the snow, Fall you on the earth; Likewise to the shower of rain, and to the showers of his mighty rain.
37:7 He seals up the hand of every man, That all men whom he has made may know it.
37:8 Then the beasts go into coverts, and remain in their dens.
37:9 Out of the chamber of the south comes the storm, and cold out of the north.
37:10 By the breath of God ice is given; And the breadth of the waters is straitened.
37:11 Yes, he loads the thick cloud with moisture; He spreads abroad the cloud of his lightning:
37:12 And it is turned round about by his guidance, That they may do whatsoever he commands them Upon the face of the habitable world,
37:13 Whether it be for correction, or for his land, Or for lovingkindness, that he cause it to come.
37:14 Hearken to this, O Job: Stand still, and consider the wondrous works of God.
37:15 Do you know how God lays his charge upon them, and causes the lightning of his cloud to shine?
37:16 Do you know the balancings of the clouds, The wondrous works of him who is perfect in knowledge?
37:17 How your garments are warm, When the earth is still by reason of the south wind?
37:18 Can you with him spread out the heaven, which is strong, and as a molten looking glass?
37:19 Teach us what we shall say to him; For we cannot set our speech in order by reason of darkness.
37:20 Shall it be told him that I would speak? Or should a man wish that he were swallowed up?
37:21 And now men see not the light which is bright in the skies; But the wind passes, and clears them.
37:22 Out of the north comes golden splendor: God has upon him terrible majesty.
37:23 Touching the Almighty, we cannot find him out He is excellent in power; And in justice and plenteous righteousness he will not afflict.
37:24 Men do therefore fear him: He regards not any that are wise of heart.
38:1 Then Yehovah answered Job out of the whirlwind, and said,
38:2 Who is this that darkens counsel by words without knowledge?
38:3 Gird up now your loins like a man; For I will demand from you, and you declare to me.
38:4 Where were you when I laid the foundations of the earth? Declare, if you have understanding.

38:5 Who determined the measures thereof, if you know? Or who stretched the line upon it?
38:6 Whereupon were the foundations thereof fastened? Or who laid the corner-stone thereof, 38:7 When the morning stars sang together, and all the sons of God shouted for joy?
38:8 Or who shut up the sea with doors, When it broke forth, as if it had issued out of the womb;
38:9 When I made clouds the garment thereof, and thick darkness a swaddling-band for it,
38:10 And marked out for it my bound, and set bars and doors,
38:11 And said, Up to here shall you come, but no further; And here shall your proud waves be stayed?
38:12 Have you commanded the morning since your days began, a*nd* caused the dayspring to know its place;
38:13 That it might take hold of the ends of the earth, and the wicked be shaken out of it?
38:14 It is changed as clay under the seal; and its features stand stand out like those of a garment:
38:15 And from the wicked their light is withheld, and their upraised arm is broken.
38:16 Have you entered into the springs of the sea? Or have you walked in the recesses of the deep?
38:17 Have the gates of death been revealed to you? Or have you seen the gates of the shadow of death?
38:18 Have you comprehended the earth in its breadth? Declare, if you know it all.
38:19 Where is the way to the dwelling of light? And as for darkness, where is the place thereof,
38:20 That you should take it to the bound thereof, and that you should discern the paths to the house thereof?
38:21 Doubtless, you know, for you were then born, and the number of your days is great!
38:22 Have you entered the treasuries of the snow, or have you seen the treasures of the hail,
38:23 Which I have reserved against the time of trouble, against the day of battle and war?
38:24 By what way is the light parted, or the east wind scattered upon the earth?
38:25 Who has cleft a channel for the waterflood, or the way for the lightning of the thunder;
38:26 To cause it to rain on a land where no man is; on the wilderness, in which there is no man;
38:27 To satisfy the waste and desolate ground, and to cause the tender grass to spring forth?
38:28 Has the rain a father? Or who has begotten the drops of dew?
38:29 Out of whose womb came the ice? And the hoary frost of heaven, who has gendered it?
38:30 The waters hide themselves and become like stone, and the face of the deep is frozen.
38:31 Can you bind the cluster of the Pleiades, Or loose the bands of Orion?
38:32 Can you lead forth the Mazzaroth in their season? Or can you guide the Bear with her train?
38:33 Know you the ordinances of the heavens? Can you establish the dominion thereof in the earth?
38:34 Can you lift up your voice to the clouds, That abundance of waters may cover you?
38:35 Can you send forth lightnings, that they may go, and say to you, Here we are?
38:36 Who has put wisdom in the inward parts? Or who has given understanding to the mind?
38:37 Who can number the clouds by wisdom? Or who can pour out the bottles of heaven, 38:38 When the dust runs into a mass, and the clods cleave fast together?

38:39 Can you hunt the prey for the lioness, Or satisfy the appetite of the young lions, 38:40 When they crouch in their dens, a*nd* abide in the covert to lie in wait?
38:41 Who provides for the raven his prey, When his young ones cry to God, a*nd* wander for lack of food?
39:1 Know you the time when the wild goats of the rock bring forth? Or can you mark when the hinds do calve?
39:2 Can you number the months that they fulfil? Or know you the time when they bring forth?
39:3 They bow themselves, they bring forth their young, They cast out their pains.
39:4 Their young ones become strong, they grow up in the open field; They go forth, and return not again.
39:5 Who has sent out the wild donkey free? Or who has loosed the bonds of the swift donkey, 39:6 Whose home I have made the wilderness, and the salt land his dwelling-place?
39:7 He scorns the tumult of the city, Neither hears he the shoutings of the driver.
39:8 The range of the mountains is his pasture, and he searches after every green thing.
39:9 Will the wild-ox be content to serve you? Or will he abide by your crib?
39:10 Can you bind the wild-ox with his band in the furrow? Or will he harrow the valleys after you?
39:11 Will you trust him, because his strength is great? Or will you leave to him your labor?
39:12 Will you confide in him, that he will bring home your seed, and gather the grain of your threshing-floor?
39:13 The wings of the ostrich wave proudly; But are they the pinions and plumage of love?
39:14 For she leaves her eggs on the earth, and warms them in the dust,
39:15 And forgets that the foot may crush them, Or that the wild beast may trample them.
39:16 She deals hardly with her young ones, as if they were not hers: Though her labor be in vain, she is without fear;
39:17 Because God has deprived her of wisdom, Neither has he imparted to her understanding.
39:18 What time she lifts up herself on high, She scorns the horse and his rider.
39:19 Have you given the horse his might? Have you clothed his neck with the quivering mane?
39:20 Have you made him to leap as a locust? The glory of his snorting is terrible.
39:21 He paws in the valley, and rejoices in his strength: He goes out to meet the armed men.
39:22 He mocks at fear, and is not dismayed; Neither turns he back from the sword.
39:23 The quiver rattles against him, The flashing spear and the javelin.
39:24 He swallows the ground with fierceness and rage; Neither believes he that it is the voice of the trumpet.
39:25 As oft as the trumpet sounds he says, aha! And he smells the battle afar off, The thunder of the captains, and the shouting.
39:26 Is it by your wisdom that the hawk soareth, (And) stretches her wings toward the south?
39:27 Is it at your command that the eagle mounts up, and makes her nest on high?
39:28 On the cliff she dwells, and makes her home, Upon the point of the cliff, and the stronghold.
39:29 From there she spies out the prey; Her eyes behold it afar off.
39:30 Her young ones also suck up blood: And where the slain are, there is she.
40:1 Moreover Yehovah answered Job, and said,
40:2 Shall he that finds fault contend with the Almighty? He that argues with God, let him answer it.
40:3 Then Job answered Yehovah, and said,

40:4 Behold, I am of small account; What shall I answer you? I lay my hand upon my mouth.
40:5 Once have I spoken, and I will not answer; Yes, twice, but I will proceed no further.
40:6 Then Yehovah answered Job out of the whirlwind, and said,
40:7 Gird up your loins now like a man: I will demand of you, and declare you to me.
40:8 Will you even annul my judgment? Will you condemn me, that you may be justified?
40:9 Or have you an arm like God? And can you thunder with a voice like him?
40:10 Deck yourself now with excellency and dignity; And array yourself with honor and majesty.
40:11 Pour forth the overflowings of your anger; And look upon every one that is proud, and abase him.
40:12 Look on every one that is proud, and bring him low; And tread down the wicked where they stand.
40:13 Hide them in the dust together; Bind their faces in the hidden place.
40:14 Then I will also confess of you That your own right hand can save you.
40:15 Behold now, behemoth, which I made as well as you; He eats grass as an ox.
40:16 Lo now, his strength is in his loins, and his force is in the muscles of his belly.
40:17 He moves his tail like a cedar: The sinews of his thighs are knit together.
40:18 His bones are as tubes of brass; His limbs are like bars of iron.
40:19 He is the chief of the ways of God: He only that made him gives him his sword.
40:20 Surely the mountains bring him forth food, Where all the beasts of the field do play.
40:21 He lies under the lotus-trees, In the covert of the reed, and the fen.
40:22 The lotus-trees cover him with their shade; The willows of the brook compass him about.
40:23 Behold, if a river overflows, he trembles not; He is confident, though a Jordan swell even to his mouth.
40:24 Shall any take him when he is on the watch, Or pierce through his nose with a snare?
41:1 Can you draw out leviathan with a fishhook? Or press down his tongue with a cord?
41:2 Can you put a rope into his nose? Or pierce his jaw through with a hook?
41:3 Will he make many supplications to you? Or will he speak soft words to you?
41:4 Will he make a covenant with you, That you should take him for a servant for ever?
41:5 Will you play with him as with a bird? Or will you bind him for your maidens?
41:6 Will the bands of fishermen make traffic of him? Will they part him among the merchants?
41:7 Can you fill his skin with barbed irons, Or his head with fish-spears?
41:8 Lay your hand upon him; Remember the battle, and do so no more.
41:9 Behold, the hope of him is in vain: Will not one be cast down even at the sight of him?
41:10 No one is so fierce that he dare stir him up; Who then is he that can stand before me?
41:11 Who has first given to me, that I should repay him? Whatsoever is under the whole heaven is mine.
41:12 I will not keep silence concerning his limbs, Nor his mighty strength, nor his goodly frame.
41:13 Who can strip off his outer garment? Who shall come within his jaws?
41:14 Who can open the doors of his face? Round about his teeth is terror.
41:15 his strong scales are his pride, Shut up together as with a close seal.
41:16 One is so near to another, That no air can come between them.

41:17 They are joined one to another; They stick together, so that they cannot be sundered.
41:18 His sneezings flash forth light, and his eyes are like the eyelids of the morning.
41:19 Out of his mouth go burning torches, and sparks of fire leap forth.
41:20 Out of his nostrils a smoke goes, as of a boiling pot and burning rushes.
41:21 His breath kindles coals, and a flame goes forth from his mouth.
41:22 In his neck abides strength, and terror dances before him.
41:23 The flakes of his flesh are joined together: They are firm upon him; they cannot be moved.
41:24 His heart is as firm as a stone; Yes, firm as the nether millstone.
41:25 When he raises himself up, the mighty are afraid: By reason of consternation they are beside themselves.
41:26 If one lay at him with the sword, it cannot avail; Nor the spear, the dart, nor the pointed shaft.
41:27 He counts iron as straw, a*nd* brass as rotten wood.
41:28 The arrow cannot make him flee; with him, sling-stones are turned into stubble.
41:29 Clubs are counted as stubble: He laughs at the rushing of the javelin.
41:30 His underparts are as sharp pot shards: He spreads as it were a threshing-wain upon the mire.
41:31 He makes the deep to boil like a pot: He makes the sea like a pot of ointment.
41:32 He makes a path to shine after him; One would think the deep to be hoary.
41:33 Upon earth there is not his like, That is made without fear.
41:34 He beholds everything that is high: He is king over all the sons of pride.
42:1 Then Job answered Yehovah, and said,
42:2 I know that you can do all things, and that no purpose of yours can be restrained.
42:3 Who is this that hides counsel without knowledge? Therefore have I uttered that which I understood not, Things too wonderful for me, which I knew not.
42:4 Hear, I beseech you, and I will speak; I will demand of you, and declare you to me.
42:5 I had heard of you by the hearing of the ear; But now my eye sees you:
42:6 Wherefore I abhor myself, and repent in dust and ashes.
42:7 And it was so, that, after Yehovah had spoken these words to Job, Yehovah said to Eliphaz the Temanite, My wrath is kindled against you, and against your two friends; for ye have not spoken of me the thing that is right, as my servant Job has.
42:8 Now therefore, take to you seven bullocks and seven rams, and go to my servant Job, and offer up for yourselves a burnt offering; and my servant Job shall pray for you; for him I will accept, that I deal not with you after your folly; for ye have not spoken of me the thing that is right, as my servant Job has.
42:9 So Eliphaz the Temanite and Bildad the Shuhite and Zophar the Naamathite went, and did according as Yehovah commanded them: and Yehovah accepted Job.
42:10 And Yehovah turned the captivity of Job, when he prayed for his friends: and Yehovah gave Job twice as much as he had before.
42:11 Then came there to him all his brethren, and all his sisters, and all they that had been of his acquaintance before, and did eat bread with him in his house: and they bemoaned him, and comforted him concerning all the evil that Yehovah had brought upon him: every man also gave him a piece of money, and every one a ring of gold.
42:12 So Yehovah blessed the latter end of Job more than his beginning: And he had fourteen thousand sheep, and six thousand camels, and a thousand yoke of oxen, and a thousand she-donkeys.
42:13 He had also seven sons and three daughters.
42:14 And he called the name of the first, Jemimah: and the name of the second, Keziah; and the name of the third, Keren-happuch.
42:15 And in all the land were no women found so fair as the daughters of Job: and their father gave them inheritance among their brethren.

42:16 And after this Job lived a hundred and forty years, and saw his sons, and his sons' sons, even four generations.
42:17 So Job died, being old and full of days.

End of Job

Psalms

Book I

Psalm 1

1:1 Blessed is the man that walks not in the counsel of the wicked, nor stands in the way of sinners, nor sits in the seat of scoffers:
1:2 But his delight is in the law of Yehovah; and on his law does he meditate day and night.
1:3 And he shall be like a tree planted by the streams of water, that brings forth its fruit in its season, whose leaf also does not wither; and whatever he does shall prosper.
1:4 The wicked are not so, but are like the chaff which the wind drives away.
1:5 Therefore the wicked shall not stand in the judgment, nor sinners in the congregation of the righteous.
1:6 For Yehovah knows the way of the righteous; but the way of the wicked shall perish.

Psalm 2

2:1 Why do the nations rage, and the peoples meditate a vain thing?
2:2 The kings of the earth set themselves, and the rulers take counsel together, against Yehovah, and against his anointed, saying,
2:3 Let us break their bonds asunder, and cast away their cords from us.
2:4 He that sits in the heavens will laugh: the Lord will have them in derision.
2:5 Then will he speak to them in his wrath, and vex them in his sore displeasure:
2:6 Yet I have set my king upon my holy hill of Zion.
2:7 I will tell of the decree: Yehovah said to me, You are my son; this day have I begotten you.
2:8 Ask of me, and I will give the nations for your inheritance, and the uttermost parts of the earth for your possession.
2:9 You shall break them with a rod of iron; you shall dash them in pieces like a potter's vessel.
2:10 Now therefore be wise, O ye kings: Be instructed, ye judges of the earth.
2:11 Serve Yehovah with fear, and rejoice with trembling.
2:12 Kiss the son, lest he be angry, and ye perish in the way; for his wrath will soon be kindled. Blessed are all they that take refuge in him.

Psalm 3

A Psalm of David, when he fled from Absalom his son.

3:1 Yehovah, how increased are my adversaries! Many are they that rise up against me.
3:2 Many there are that say of my soul, There is no help for him in God. Selah
3:3 But you, O Yehovah, are a shield about me; my glory and the lifter of my head.
3:4 I cry to Yehovah with my voice, and he answers me out of his holy hill. Selah
3:5 I laid me down and slept; I awoke; for Yehovah sustains me.
3:6 I will not be afraid of ten thousands of the people that have set themselves against me round about.
3:7 Arise, O Yehovah; save me, O my God: For you have smitten all my enemies upon the cheek bone; You have broken the teeth of the wicked.[24]

[24] made the wicked powerless, as when you break the teeth of a predatory animal.

3:8 Salvation belongs to Yehovah: Your blessing be upon your people. Selah.

Psalm 4

For the Chief Musician; on stringed instruments. A Psalm of David.

4:1 Answer me when I call, O God of my righteousness. You have set me free when I was in distress. Have mercy upon me, and hear my prayer.
4:2 O ye sons of men, how long shall my glory be turned into dishonor? How long will ye love vanity, and seek after falsehood? Selah
4:3 But know that Yehovah has set apart for himself him who is godly: Yehovah will hear when I call to him.
4:4 Stand in awe, and sin not: Commune with your own heart upon your bed, and be still. Selah
4:5 Offer the sacrifices of righteousness, and put your trust in Yehovah.
4:6 Many there are that say, Who will show us any good? Yehovah, lift up the light of your countenance upon us.
4:7 You have put gladness in my heart, more than they get when their grain and their new wine are increased.
4:8 In peace I will both lay me down and sleep; For you, Yehovah, you alone make me dwell in safety.

Psalm 5

For the Chief Musician; with the Nehiloth. A Psalm of David.

5:1 Give ear to my words, O Yehovah; consider my meditation.
5:2 Hearken to the voice of my cry, my King, and my God; for unto you do I pray.
5:3 O Yehovah, in the morning you shall hear my voice; in the morning I will order my prayer unto you, and will keep watch.
5:4 For you are not a God that has pleasure in wickedness. Evil shall not sojourn with you.
5:5 The arrogant shall not stand in your sight. You hate all workers of iniquity.
5:6 You will destroy them that speak lies: Yehovah abhors the blood-thirsty and deceitful man.
5:7 But as for me, in the abundance of your lovingkindness I will come into your house: In your fear I will worship toward your holy temple.
5:8 Lead me, O Yehovah, in your righteousness because of my enemies; Make your way straight before my face.
5:9 For there is no faithfulness in their mouth; Their inward part is destruction itself; Their throat is an open grave; They flatter with their tongue.
5:10 Hold them guilty, O God; Let them fall by their own counsels; Thrust them out in the multitude of their transgressions; For they have rebelled against you.
5:11 But let all those that take refuge in you rejoice, Let them ever shout for joy, because you defend them: Let those also that love your name be joyful in you.
5:12 For you will bless the righteous; O Yehovah, you will surround him with favor as with a shield.

Psalm 6

For the Chief Musician; on stringed instruments, set to the Sheminith. A Psalm of David.

6:1 O Yehovah, rebuke me not in your anger, Neither chasten me in your hot displeasure.
6:2 Have mercy upon me, O Yehovah; for I am withered away: O Yehovah, heal me; for my bones are troubled.
6:3 My soul also is sore troubled: And you, O Yehovah, how long?
6:4 Return, O Yehovah, deliver my soul: Save me for your lovingkindness' sake.

6:5 For in death there is no remembrance of you: In Sheol who shall give you thanks?
6:6 I am weary with my groaning; Every night make I my bed to swim; I water my couch with my tears.
6:7 My eye wastes away because of grief; It grows old because of all my adversaries.
6:8 Depart from me, all ye workers of iniquity; For Yehovah has heard the voice of my weeping.
6:9 Yehovah has heard my supplication; Yehovah will receive my prayer.
6:10 All my enemies shall be put to shame and sore troubled: They shall turn aback, they shall be put to shame asuddenly.

Psalm 7

Shiggaion of David, which he sang to Yehovah, concerning the words of Cush a Benjamite.
7:1 O Yehovah my God, in you do I take refuge: Save me from all them that pursue me, and deliver me,
7:2 Lest they tear my soul like a lion, rending it in pieces, while there is no one to deliver.
7:3 O Yehovah my God, if I have done this; if there be iniquity in my hands;
7:4 If I have repaid evil to him that was at peace with me; (Yes, I have delivered him that without cause was my adversary;)
7:5 Let the enemy pursue my soul, and overtake it; yes, let him tread my life down to the earth, and lay my glory in the dust. Selah
7:6 Arise, O Yehovah, in your anger; lift up yourself against the rage of my adversaries, and awake for me; you have commanded judgment.
7:7 And let the congregation of the peoples compass you about; and over them return thou on high.
7:8 Yehovah ministers judgment to the peoples: Judge me, O Yehovah, according to my righteousness, and to my integrity that is in me.
7:9 O let the wickedness of the wicked come to an end, but establish thou the righteous. For the righteous God tries the minds and hearts.
7:10 My shield is with God, who saves the upright in heart.
7:11 God is a righteous judge; Yes, a God that has indignation every day.
7:12 If a man turn not, He will whet his sword; He has bent his bow, and made it ready.
7:13 He has also prepared for him the instruments of death; He makes his arrows fiery shafts.
7:14 Behold, he travails with iniquity; Yes, he has conceived mischief, and brought forth falsehood.
7:15 He has made a pit, and dug it, and is fallen into the ditch which he made.
7:16 His mischief shall return upon his own head, and his violence shall come down upon his own pate.
7:17 I will give thanks to Yehovah according to his righteousness, and will sing praise to the name of Yehovah Most High.

Psalm 8

For the Chief Musician; set to the Gittith. A Psalm of David.

8:1 O Yehovah, our Lord, how excellent is your name in all the earth, who have set your glory upon the heavens!
8:2 Out of the mouth of babes and sucklings have you established strength, because of your adversaries, that you might still the enemy and the avenger.
8:3 When I consider your heavens, the work of your fingers, the moon and the stars, which you have ordained;

8:4 What is man, that you are mindful of him? And the son of man, that you visit him?
8:5 For you have made him but a little lower than God, and you crown him with glory and honor.
8:6 You cause him to have dominion over the works of your hands; you have put all things under his feet:
8:7 All sheep and oxen, yes, and the beasts of the field,
8:8 The birds of the heavens, and the fish of the sea, whatsoever passes through the paths of the seas.
8:9 O Yehovah, our Lord, how excellent is your name in all the earth!

Psalm 9

For the Chief Musician; set to Muthlabben. A Psalm of David.

9:1 I will give thanks to Yehovah with my whole heart; I will show forth all your marvellous works.
9:2 I will be glad and exult in you; I will sing praise to your name, O you Most High.
9:3 When my enemies turn back, they stumble and perish at your presence.
9:4 For you have maintained my right and my cause; you sit in the throne judging righteously.
9:5 You have rebuked the nations, you have destroyed the wicked; you have blotted out their name for ever and ever.
9:6 The enemy have come to an end, they are desolate for ever; and the cities which you have overthrown, the very remembrance of them is perished.
9:7 But Yehovah sits as king for ever: He has prepared his throne for judgment;
9:8 And he will judge the world in righteousness, he will minister judgment to the peoples in uprightness.
9:9 Yehovah also will be a high tower for the oppressed, a high tower in times of trouble;
9:10 And they that know your name will put their trust in you; for you, Yehovah, have not forsaken them that seek you.
9:11 Sing praises to Yehovah, who dwells in Zion: declare among the people his doings.
9:12 For he that makes inquisition for blood remembers them; he forgets not the cry of the poor.
9:13 Have mercy upon me, O Yehovah; behold my affliction which I suffer by them that hate me, you who lift me up from the gates of death;
9:14 that I may show forth all your praise. In the gates of the daughter of Zion I will rejoice in your salvation.
9:15 The nations are sunk down in the pit that they made: in the net which they hid, their own foot is taken.
9:16 Yehovah has made himself known, he has executed judgment: the wicked man is snared in the work of his own hands. Higgaion. Selah
9:17 The wicked shall be turned back to Sheol, even all the nations that forget God.
9:18 For the needy shall not always be forgotten, nor the expectation of the poor perish for ever.
9:19 Arise, O Yehovah; let not man prevail: let the nations be judged in your sight.
9:20 Put them in fear, O Yehovah: let the nations know themselves to be but men. Selah

Psalm 10

10:1 Why do you stand afar off, O Yehovah? Why do you hide yourself in times of trouble?
10:2 In the pride of the wicked the poor is hotly pursued; Let them be taken in the devices that they have conceived.

10:3 For the wicked person boasts of his heart's desire, and the covetous renounces, yes, he spurns Yehovah.
10:4 The wicked, in the pride of his countenance, says, He will not require it. All his thoughts are, There is no God.
10:5 His ways are firm at all times; your judgments are far above out of his sight: as for all his adversaries, he puffs at them.
10:6 He says in his heart, I shall not be moved; to all generations I shall not be in adversity.
10:7 His mouth is full of cursing and deceit and oppression: Under his tongue is mischief and iniquity.
10:8 He sits in the lurking-places of the villages; In the secret places does he murder the innocent; His eyes are privily set against the helpless.
10:9 He lurks in secret as a lion in his covert; He lies in wait to catch the poor: He does catch the poor, when he draws him in his net.
10:10 He croucheth, he bows down, and the helpless fall by his strong ones.
10:11 He says in his heart, God has forgotten; He hides his face; he will never see it.
10:12 Arise, O Yehovah; O God, lift up your hand: Forget not the poor.
10:13 Why does the wicked spurn God, and say in his heart, You will not require it?
10:14 You have seen it; for you behold mischief and spite, to requite it with your hand: The helpless commits himself to you; You have been the helper of the fatherless.
10:15 Break you the arm of the wicked; And as for the evil man, seek out his wickedness till you find none.
10:16 Yehovah is King for ever and ever: The nations are perished out of his land.
10:17 Yehovah, you have heard the desire of the meek: You will prepare their heart, you will cause your ear to hear;
10:18 To judge the fatherless and the oppressed, That man who is of the earth may be terrible no more.

Psalm 11

For the Chief Musician. [A Psalm] of David.

11:1 In Yehovah do I take refuge: How say ye to my soul, Flee as a bird to your mountain;
11:2 For, lo, the wicked bend the bow, they make ready their arrow upon the string, that they may shoot in darkness at the upright in heart;
11:3 If the foundations be destroyed, what can the righteous do?
11:4 Yehovah is in his holy temple; Yehovah, his throne is in heaven; his eyes behold, his eyelids try, the children of men.
11:5 Yehovah tries the righteous; but the wicked and him that loves violence his soul hates.
11:6 Upon the wicked he will rain snares; Fire and brimstone and burning wind shall be their destiny.[25]
11:7 For Yehovah is righteous; he loves righteousness: The upright shall behold his face.

Psalm 12

For the Chief Musician; set to the Sheminith. A Psalm of David.

12:1 Help, Yehovah; for the godly man ceases; For the faithful fail from among the children of men.
12:2 They speak falsehood every one with his neighbor: With flattering lip, and with a double heart, do they speak.
12:3 Yehovah will cut off all flattering lips, The tongue that speaks great things;

[25] For "shall be their destiny," the Hebrew idiom is "shall be the portion of their cup." Compare Revelation 14:10.

12:4 Who have said, With our tongue will we prevail; Our lips are our own: who is lord over us?
12:5 Because of the oppression of the poor, because of the sighing of the needy one, Now I will arise, says Yehovah; I will set him in the safety he pants for.
12:6 The words of Yehovah are pure words; as silver tried in a furnace of clay, purified seven times.
12:7 You will keep us, O Yehovah. You will protect us[26] from this generation for ever.
12:8 The wicked walk on every side, When vileness is exalted among the sons of men.

Psalm 13

For the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David.

13:1 How long, O Yehovah? will you forget me for ever? How long will you hide your face from me?
13:2 How long shall I take counsel in my soul, Having sorrow in my heart all the day? How long shall my enemy be exalted over me?
13:3 Consider and answer me, O Yehovah my God: Lighten my eyes, lest I sleep the sleep of death;
13:4 Lest my enemy say, I have prevailed against him; Lest my adversaries rejoice when I am moved.
13:5 But I have trusted in your lovingkindness; My heart shall rejoice in your salvation.
13:6 I will sing to Yehovah, Because he has dealt bountifully with me.

Psalm 14

For the Chief Musician. [A Psalm] of David.

14:1 The fool has said in his heart, There is no God. They are corrupt, they have done abominable works; there is no one that does good.
14:2 Yehovah looked down from heaven upon the children of men, to see if there were any that did understand, that did seek after God.
14:3 They are all gone aside; they are together become filthy; there is no one that does good, no, not one.
14:4 Have all the workers of iniquity no knowledge, who eat up my people as they eat bread, and call not upon Yehovah?
14:5 There were they in great fear; for God is in the generation of the righteous.
14:6 You put to shame the counsel of the poor, because Yehovah is his refuge.
14:7 Oh that the salvation of Israel were come out of Zion! When Yehovah brings back the captivity of his people, then shall Jacob rejoice, and Israel shall be glad.

Psalm 15

A Psalm of David.

15:1 Yehovah, who shall sojourn in your tabernacle? Who shall dwell in your holy hill?
15:2 He that walks uprightly, and works righteousness, and speaks truth in his heart;

[26] The original KJV of 1611 says in a marginal note that this pronoun in the Hebrew is singular, that it means "him." The "them" in the KJV therefore is referring to the godly, the poor, and the needy mentioned in v. 5, as just a more idiomatic expression. The same with the pronoun "us" here. This verse is clearly not referring to "the words of God," but to the godly person. It is the godly person that David is saying God will perserve. It is high time for those who use the KJV's mistranslation of this verse as a basis for doctrine, to repent of their false teaching.

15:3 He that slanders not with his tongue, Nor does evil to his friend, Nor takes up a reproach against his neighbor;
15:4 In whose eyes a reprobate is despised, But who honors them that fear Yehovah; He that swears to his own hurt, and changes not;
15:5 He that puts not out his money to interest, Nor takes reward against the innocent. He that does these things shall never be moved.

Psalm 16

Michtam of David.

16:1 Preserve me, O God; for in you do I take refuge.
16:2 O my soul, you have said to Yehovah, You are my Lord: I have no good beyond you.
16:3 As for the saints that are in the earth, They are the excellent in whom is all my delight.
16:4 Their sorrows shall be multiplied that give gifts for another god: Their drink offerings of blood I will not offer, Nor take their names upon my lips.
16:5 Yehovah is the portion of my inheritance and of my cup: You maintain my lot.
16:6 The lines are fallen to me in pleasant places; Yes, I have a goodly heritage.
16:7 I will bless Yehovah, who has given me counsel; Yes, my heart instructs me in the night seasons.
16:8 I have set Yehovah always before me: Because he is at my right hand, I shall not be moved.
16:9 Therefore my heart is glad, and my glory rejoices; My flesh also shall dwell in safety.
16:10 For you will not leave my soul to Sheol; Neither will you allow your holy one to see corruption.
16:11 You will show me the path of life: In your presence is fulness of joy; In your right hand there are pleasures for evermore.

Psalm 17

A Prayer of David.

17:1 Hear the right, O Yehovah, attend to my cry; Give ear to my prayer, that goes not out of feigned lips.
17:2 Let my sentence come forth from your presence; Let your eyes look upon equity.
17:3 You have proved my heart; you have visited me in the night; You have tried me, and find nothing; I am purposed that my mouth shall not transgress.
17:4 As for the works of men, by the word of your lips I have kept me from the ways of the violent.
17:5 My steps have held fast to your paths, My feet have not slipped.
17:6 I have called upon you, for you will answer me, O God: Incline your ear to me and hear my speech.
17:7 Show your marvellous lovingkindness, O you that save by your right hand them that take refuge in you From those that rise up against them.
17:8 Keep me as the apple of the eye; Hide me under the shadow of your wings, 17:9 From the wicked that oppress me, My deadly enemies, that compass me about.
17:10 They are inclosed in their own fat: With their mouth they speak proudly.
17:11 They have now surrounded our steps; They set their eyes to cast us down to the earth.
17:12 He is like a lion that is greedy of his prey, and as it were a young lion lurking in secret places.
17:13 Arise, O Yehovah, Confront him, cast him down: Deliver my soul from the wicked by your sword;

17:14 From men by your hand, O Yehovah, From men of the world, whose portion is in this life, and whose belly you fill with your treasure: They are satisfied with children, and leave the rest of their substance to their babes.
17:15 As for me, I shall behold your face in righteousness; I shall be satisfied, when I awake, with beholding your form.

Psalm 18

For the Chief Musician. [A Psalm] of David the servant of Yehovah, who spoke to Yehovah the words of this song in the day that Yehovah delivered him from the hand of all his enemies, and from the hand of Saul: and he said,

18:1 I love you, O Yehovah, my strength.
18:2 Yehovah is my rock, and my fortress, and my deliverer; My God, my rock, in whom I will take refuge; My shield, and the horn of my salvation, my high tower.
18:3 I will call upon Yehovah, who is worthy to be praised: So shall I be saved from my enemies.
18:4 The cords of death encompassed me, and the floods of ungodliness made me afraid.
18:5 The cords of Sheol were round about me; The snares of death came upon me.
18:6 In my distress I called upon Yehovah, and cried to my God: He heard my voice out of his temple, and my cry before him came into his ears.
18:7 Then the earth shook and trembled; The foundations also of the mountains quaked And were shaken, because he was angry.
18:8 There went up a smoke out of his nostrils, and fire out of his mouth devoured: Coals were kindled by it.
18:9 He bowed the heavens also, and came down; And thick darkness was under his feet.
18:10 And he rode upon a cherub, and did fly; Yes, he soared upon the wings of the wind.
18:11 He made darkness his hiding place, his pavilion round about him, Darkness of waters, thick clouds of the skies.
18:12 At the brightness before him his thick clouds passed, Hailstones and coals of fire.
18:13 Yehovah also thundered in the heavens, and the Most High uttered his voice, Hailstones and coals of fire.
18:14 And he sent out his arrows, and scattered them; Yes, lightnings manifold, and discomfited them.
18:15 Then the channels of waters appeared, and the foundations of the world were laid bare, at your rebuke, O Yehovah, at the blast of the breath of your nostrils.
18:16 He sent from on high, he took me; He drew me out of many waters.
18:17 He delivered me from my strong enemy, and from them that hated me; for they were too mighty for me.
18:18 They came upon me in the day of my calamity; But Yehovah was my stay.
18:19 He brought me forth also into a large place; He delivered me, because he delighted in me.
18:20 Yehovah has rewarded me according to my righteousness; According to the cleanness of my hands has he recompensed me.
18:21 For I have kept the ways of Yehovah, and have not wickedly departed from my God.
18:22 For all his ordinances were before me, and I put not away his statutes from me.
18:23 I was also perfect with him, and I kept myself from my iniquity.
18:24 Therefore has Yehovah recompensed me according to my righteousness, according to the cleanness of my hands in his eyesight.
18:25 With the merciful you will show yourself merciful; With the perfect man you will show yourself perfect;
18:26 With the pure you will show yourself pure; And with the perverse you will show yourself froward.

18:27 For you will save the afflicted people; But the haughty eyes you will bring down.
18:28 For you will light my lamp: Yehovah my God will lighten my darkness.
18:29 For by you I run upon a troop; And by my God do I leap over a wall.
18:30 As for God, his way is perfect: The word of Yehovah is tried; He is a shield for all them that take refuge in him.
18:31 For who is God, except Yehovah? And who is a rock, besides our God, 18:32 The God that girds me with strength, and makes my way perfect?
18:33 He makes my feet like hinds' feet: And sets me upon my high places.
18:34 He teaches my hands to war; So that my arms do bend a bow of brass.
18:35 You have also given me the shield of your salvation; And your right hand has holden me up, and your gentleness has made me great.
18:36 You have enlarged my steps under me, and my feet have not slipped.
18:37 I will pursue my enemies, and overtake them; Neither will I turn again till they are consumed.
18:38 I will smite them through, so that they shall not be able to rise: They shall fall under my feet.
18:39 For you have girded me with strength for the battle: You have subdued under me those that rose up against me.
18:40 You have also made my enemies turn their backs to me, That I might cut off them that hate me.
18:41 They cried, but there was no one to save; Even to Yehovah, but he answered them not.
18:42 Then did I beat them small as the dust before the wind; I did cast them out as the mire of the streets.
18:43 You have delivered me from the strivings of the people; You have made me the head of the nations: A people whom I have not known shall serve me.
18:44 As soon as they hear of me they shall obey me; The foreigners shall submit themselves to me.
18:45 The foreigners shall fade away, and shall come trembling out of their close places.
18:46 Yehovah lives; and blessed be my rock; And exalted be the God of my salvation,
18:47 Even the God that executes vengeance for me, and subdues peoples under me.
18:48 He rescues me from my enemies; Yes, you lift me up above them that rise up against me; You deliver me from the violent man.
18:49 Therefore I will give thanks to you, O Yehovah, among the nations, and will sing praises to your name.
18:50 Great deliverance gives he to his king, and shows lovingkindness to his anointed, To David and to his seed, for evermore.

Psalm 19

For the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David.

19:1 The heavens declare the glory of God; And the firmament shows his handiwork.
19:2 Day unto day utters speech, and night unto night imparts knowledge.
19:3 There is no speech or language; their voice is not heard.
19:4 Their line[27] is gone out through all the earth, and their words unto the ends of the world. In them he has set a tabernacle for the sun,
19:5 which is like a bridegroom coming out of his chamber, and rejoicing as a strong man to run his course.
19:6 His going forth is from the end of heaven, and his circuit unto the ends of it; and there is nothing hidden from its heat.

[27] "line" is the reading of the Hebrew Masoretic Text, and "sound" is the reading of the Septuagint and Syriac. A measuring line makes sense in the context of "setting a tabernacle in them." But the renderings with "sound" also make sense.

19:7 The law of Yehovah is perfect, restoring the soul: The testimony of Yehovah is sure, making wise the simple.
19:8 The precepts of Yehovah are right, rejoicing the heart: The commandment of Yehovah is pure, enlightening the eyes.
19:9 The fear of Yehovah is clean, enduring for ever: The ordinances of Yehovah are true, and righteous altogether.
19:10 More to be desired are they than gold, yes, than much fine gold; Sweeter also than honey and the droppings of the honeycomb.
19:11 Moreover by them is your servant warned: In keeping them there is great reward.
19:12 Who can discern his errors? Clear thou me from hidden faults.
19:13 Keep back your servant also from presumptuous sins; Let them not have dominion over me: Then shall I be upright, and I shall be clear from great transgression.
19:14 Let the words of my mouth and the meditation of my heart Be acceptable in your sight, O Yehovah, my rock, and my redeemer.

Psalm 20

For the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David.

20:1 May Yehovah answer you in the day of trouble; The name of the God of Jacob set you up on high;
20:2 Send you help from the sanctuary, and strengthen you out of Zion;
20:3 Remember all your offerings, and accept your burnt-sacrifice; Selah
20:4 May he grant you your heart's desire, and fulfil all your counsel.
20:5 We will triumph in your salvation, and in the name of our God we will set up our banners: Yehovah fulfil all your petitions.
20:6 Now know I that Yehovah saves his anointed; He will answer him from his holy heaven With the saving strength of his right hand.
20:7 Some trust in chariots, and some in horses; But we will make mention of the name of Yehovah our God.
20:8 They are bowed down and fallen; But we are risen, and stand upright.
20:9 Save, Yehovah: Let the King answer us when we call.

Psalm 21

For the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David.

21:1 The king shall joy in your strength, O Yehovah; And in your salvation how greatly shall he rejoice!
21:2 You have given him his heart's desire, and have not withheld the request of his lips. Selah
21:3 For you meet him with the blessings of goodness: You set a crown of fine gold on his head.
21:4 He asked life of you, you gave it to him, Even length of days for ever and ever.
21:5 His glory is great in your salvation: Honor and majesty do you lay upon him.
21:6 For you make him most blessed for ever: You make him glad with joy in your presence.
21:7 For the king trusts in Yehovah; And through the lovingkindness of the Most High he shall not be moved.
21:8 Your hand will find out all your enemies; Your right hand will find out those that hate you.
21:9 You will make them as a fiery furnace in the time of your anger: Yehovah will swallow them up in his wrath, and the fire shall devour them.
21:10 Their fruit will you destroy from the earth, and their seed from among the children of men.
21:11 For they intended evil against you; They conceived a device which they are not able to perform.

21:12 For you will make them turn their back; You will make ready with your bowstrings against their face.
21:13 Be thou exalted, O Yehovah, in your strength: So will we sing and praise your power.

Psalm 22

For the Chief Musician; set to Aijaleth hash-Shahar. A Psalm of David.

22:1 My God, my God, why have you forsaken me? Why are you so far from helping me, and from the words of my groaning?
22:2 O my God, I cry in the daytime, but you answer not; And in the night season, and am not silent.
22:3 But you are holy, O you that inhabit the praises of Israel.
22:4 Our fathers trusted in you: They trusted, and you did deliver them.
22:5 They cried to you, and were delivered: They trusted in you, and were not put to shame.
22:6 But I am a worm, and no man; A reproach of men, and despised by the people.
22:7 All they that see me laugh me to scorn: They shoot out their lip, they shake their head, saying,
22:8 Commit yourself to Yehovah; Let him deliver him: Let him rescue him, seeing he delights in him.
22:9 But you are he that took me out of the womb; You did make me trust when I was upon my mother's breasts.
22:10 I was cast upon you from the womb; You are my God since my mother bore me.
22:11 Be not far from me; for trouble is near; For there is no one to help.
22:12 Many bulls have compassed me; Strong bulls of Bashan have beset me around.
22:13 They gape upon me with their mouth, as a ravening and a roaring lion.
22:14 I am poured out like water, and all my bones are out of joint: My heart is like wax; It is melted within me.
22:15 My strength is dried up like a potsherd; And my tongue cleaves to my jaws; And you have brought me into the dust of death.
22:16 For dogs have encircled me: A company of evil-doers have inclosed me; They pierced[28] my hands and my feet.
22:17 I can count all my bones; They look and stare upon me.
22:18 They part my garments among them, and upon my clothing they cast lots.
22:19 But be not far off, O Yehovah: O you my succor, make haste to help me.
22:20 Deliver my soul from the sword, My dear life from the power of the dog.
22:21 Save me from the lion's mouth; Yes, from the horns of the wild oxen you have answered me.
22:22 I will declare your name to my brethren: In the midst of the assembly I will praise you.
22:23 You that fear Yehovah, praise him; All ye the seed of Jacob, glorify him; And stand in awe of him, all ye the seed of Israel.
22:24 For he has not despised nor abhorred the affliction of the afflicted; Neither has he hid his face from him; But when he cried to him, he heard.
22:25 Of you comes my praise in the great assembly: I will pay my vows before them that fear him.
22:26 The meek shall eat and be satisfied; They shall praise Yehovah that seek after him: Let your heart live for ever.
22:27 All the ends of the earth shall remember and turn to Yehovah; and all the kindreds of the nations shall worship before you.
22:28 For the kingdom is Yehovah's; and he is the ruler over the nations.

[28] A Hebrew manuscript older than the Masoretic text has been found that confirms this reading of the Septuagint.

22:29 All the fat ones of the earth shall eat and worship: all they that go down to the dust shall bow before him, even he that cannot keep his soul alive.
22:30 A seed shall serve him; it shall be told of the Lord to the next generation.
22:31 They shall come and shall declare his righteousness To a people that shall be born, that he has done it.

Psalm 23

A Psalm of David.

23:1 Yehovah is my shepherd; I shall not want.
23:2 He makes me to lie down in green pastures; He leads me beside still waters.
23:3 He restores my soul: He guides me in the paths of righteousness for his name's sake.
23:4 Yea, though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I will fear no evil; for you are with me; Your rod and your staff, they comfort me.
23:5 You prepare a table before me in the presence of my enemies: You have anointed my head with oil; My cup is running over.
23:6 Surely goodness and lovingkindness shall follow me all the days of my life; And I shall dwell in the house of Yehovah for ever.

Psalm 24

A Psalm of David.

24:1 The earth is Yehovah's, and the fulness thereof; the world, and they that dwell therein.
24:2 For he has founded it upon the seas, and established it upon the floods.
24:3 Who shall ascend into the hill of Yehovah? And who shall stand in his holy place?
24:4 He that has clean hands, and a pure heart; Who has not lifted up his soul to falsehood, and has not sworn deceitfully.
24:5 He shall receive a blessing from Yehovah, and righteousness from the God of his salvation.
24:6 This is the generation of them that seek after him, That seek your face, even Jacob. Selah 24:7 Lift up your heads, O ye gates; and be ye lifted up, ye everlasting doors: and the King of glory will come in.
24:8 Who is the King of glory? Yehovah strong and mighty, Yehovah mighty in battle.
24:9 Lift up your heads, O ye gates; Yes, lift them up, ye everlasting doors: and the King of glory will come in.
24:10 Who is this King of glory? Yehovah of hosts, He is the King of glory. Selah

Psalm 25

[A Psalm] of David.

25:1 To you, O Yehovah, do I lift up my soul.
25:2 O my God, in you have I trusted, Let me not be put to shame; Let not my enemies triumph over me.
25:3 Yes, none that wait for you shall be put to shame: Those shall be put to shame who deal treacherously without cause.
25:4 Show me your ways, O Yehovah; Teach me your paths.
25:5 Guide me in your truth, and teach me; For you are the God of my salvation; For you do I wait all the day.
25:6 Remember, O Yehovah, your tender mercies and your lovingkindness; For they have been ever of old.

25:7 Remember not the sins of my youth, nor my transgressions: According to your lovingkindness remember thou me, For your goodness' sake, O Yehovah.
25:8 Good and upright is Yehovah: Therefore will he instruct sinners in the way.
25:9 The meek will he guide in justice; And the meek will he teach his way.
25:10 All the paths of Yehovah are lovingkindness and truth To such as keep his covenant and his testimonies.
25:11 For your name's sake, O Yehovah, Pardon my iniquity, for it is great.
25:12 What man is he that fears Yehovah? Him shall he instruct in the way that he shall choose.
25:13 His soul shall dwell at ease; And his seed shall inherit the land.
25:14 The friendship of Yehovah is with those who fear him; and he will show them his covenant.
25:15 Mine eyes are ever toward Yehovah; For he will pluck my feet out of the net.
25:16 Turn thou to me, and have mercy upon me; For I am desolate and afflicted.
25:17 The troubles of my heart are enlarged: Oh bring me out of my distresses.
25:18 Consider my affliction and my travail; And forgive all my sins.
25:19 Consider my enemies, for they are many; And they hate me with cruel hatred.
25:20 Oh keep my soul, and deliver me: Let me not be put to shame, for I take refuge in you.
25:21 Let integrity and uprightness preserve me, For I wait for you.
25:22 Redeem Israel, O God, Out all of his troubles.

Psalm 26

[A Psalm] of David.

26:1 Judge me, O Yehovah, for I have walked in my integrity: I have trusted also in Yehovah without wavering.
26:2 Examine me, O Yehovah, and prove me; Try my heart and my mind.
26:3 For your lovingkindness is before my eyes; And I have walked in your truth.
26:4 I have not sat with men of falsehood; Neither will I go in with dissemblers.
26:5 I hate the assembly of evil-doers, and will not sit with the wicked.
26:6 I will wash my hands in innocency: So I will compass your altar, O Yehovah;
26:7 That I may make the voice of thanksgiving to be heard, and tell of all your wondrous works.
26:8 Yehovah, I love the habitation of your house, and the place where your glory dwells.
26:9 Gather not my soul with sinners, Nor my life with men of blood;
26:10 In whose hands is wickedness, and their right hand is full of bribes.
26:11 But as for me, I will walk in my integrity: Redeem me, and be merciful to me.
26:12 My foot stands in an even place: In the congregations I will bless Yehovah.

Psalm 27

[A Psalm] of David.

27:1 Yehovah is my light and my salvation; Whom shall I fear? Yehovah is the strength of my life; of whom shall I be afraid?
27:2 When evil-doers came upon me to eat up my flesh, Even my adversaries and my foes, they stumbled and fell.
27:3 Though a host should encamp against me, my heart shall not fear: Though war should rise against me, even then I will be confident.
27:4 One thing have I asked of Yehovah, and that will I seek after; that I may dwell in the house of Yehovah all the days of my life, to behold the beauty of Yehovah, and to inquire in his temple.
27:5 For in the day of trouble he will keep me secretly in his pavilion: In the covert of his tabernacle will he hide me; He will lift me up upon a rock.

27:6 And now shall my head be lifted up above my enemies round about me. And I will offer in his tabernacle sacrifices of joy; I will sing, yes, I will sing praises to Yehovah.
27:7 Hear, O Yehovah, when I cry with my voice: Have mercy also upon me, and answer me.
27:8 When you said, Seek ye my face; My heart said to you, your face, Yehovah, I will seek.
27:9 Hide not your face from me; put not your servant away in anger: you have been my help; Cast me not off, neither forsake me, O God of my salvation.
27:10 When my father and my mother forsake me, then Yehovah will take me up.
27:11 Teach me your way, O Yehovah; and lead me in a plain path, because of my enemies.
27:12 Deliver me not over to the will of my adversaries: For false witnesses are risen up against me, and such as breathe out cruelty.
27:13 I would have fainted, unless I had believed to see the goodness of Yehovah in the land of the living.
27:14 Wait for Yehovah: Be strong, and let your heart take courage; Yes, you wait for Yehovah.

Psalm 28

[A Psalm] of David.

28:1 To you, O Yehovah, I will call: My rock, be not deaf to me; Lest, if you be silent to me, I become like those that go down into the pit.
28:2 Hear the voice of my supplications, when I cry to you, When I lift up my hands toward your holy oracle.
28:3 Draw me not away along with the wicked, and with the workers of iniquity; who speak peace with their neighbors, but mischief is in their hearts.
28:4 Give them according to their work, and according to the wickedness of their doings: Give them after the operation of their hands; Render to them their desert.
28:5 Because they regard not the works of Yehovah, Nor the operation of his hands, He will break them down and not build them up.
28:6 Blessed be Yehovah, Because he has heard the voice of my supplications.
28:7 Yehovah is my strength and my shield; My heart has trusted in him, and I am helped: Therefore my heart greatly rejoices; And with my song I will praise him.
28:8 Yehovah is their strength, and he is a stronghold of salvation to his anointed.
28:9 Save your people, and bless your inheritance: Be their shepherd also, and bear them up for ever.

Psalm 29

A Psalm of David.

29:1 Ascribe to Yehovah, O ye sons of the mighty, ascribe to Yehovah glory and strength.
29:2 Ascribe to Yehovah the glory due his name; worship Yehovah in holy array.
29:3 The voice of Yehovah is upon the waters: the God of glory thunders, even Yehovah upon many waters.
29:4 The voice of Yehovah is powerful; the voice of Yehovah is full of majesty.
29:5 The voice of Yehovah breaks the cedars; yes, Yehovah breaks in pieces the cedars of Lebanon.
29:6 He makes them also to skip like a calf; Lebanon and Sirion like a young wild ox.
29:7 The voice of Yehovah splits the flames of fire.
29:8 The voice of Yehovah shakes the wilderness; Yehovah shakes the wilderness of Kadesh.
29:9 The voice of Yehovah causes the deer to calve, and strips the forests bare: And in his temple everything says, Glory.

29:10 Yehovah sat as King at the Flood; Yes, Yehovah sits as King for ever.
29:11 Yehovah will give strength to his people; Yehovah will bless his people with peace.

Psalm 30

A Psalm; a Song at the Dedication of the House. [A Psalm] of David.

30:1 I will extol you, O Yehovah; for you have raised me up, and have not made my foes to rejoice over me.
30:2 O Yehovah my God, I cried to you, and you have healed me.
30:3 O Yehovah, you have brought up my soul from Sheol; You have kept me alive, that I should not go down to the pit.
30:4 Sing praise to Yehovah, O ye saints of his, and give thanks to his holy name.
30:5 For his anger is but for a moment; His favor is for a life-time: Weeping may tarry for the night, But joy comes in the morning.
30:6 As for me, I said in my prosperity, I shall never be moved.[29]
30:7 You, Yehovah, of your favor had made my mountain to stand strong. You hid your face; I was troubled.
30:8 I cried to you, O Yehovah; And to Yehovah I made supplication:
30:9 What profit is there in my destruction, when I go down to the pit? Shall the dust praise you? shall it declare your truth?
30:10 Hear, O Yehovah, and have mercy upon me: Yehovah, be thou my helper.
30:11 You have turned my mourning into dancing for me; You have put off my sackcloth, and girded me with gladness,
30:12 to the end that my glory may sing praise to you, and not be silent. O Yehovah my God, I will give thanks to you for ever.

Psalm 31

For the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David.

31:1 In you, O Yehovah, do I take refuge; Let me never be put to shame: Deliver me in your righteousness.
31:2 Bow down your ear to me; deliver me speedily: Be thou to me a strong rock, a house of defence to save me.
31:3 For you are my rock and my fortress; Therefore for your name's sake lead me and guide me.
31:4 Pluck me out of the net that they have laid secretly for me; For you are my stronghold.
31:5 Into your hand I commend my spirit: You have redeemed me, O Yehovah, you God of truth.
31:6 I hate them that regard lying vanities; But I trust in Yehovah.
31:7 I will be glad and rejoice in your lovingkindness; For you have seen my affliction: You have known my soul in adversities;
31:8 And you have not shut me up into the hand of the enemy; You have set my feet in a large place.
31:9 Have mercy upon me, O Yehovah, for I am in distress: Mine eye wastes away with grief, yes, my soul and my body as well.
31:10 For my life is spent with sorrow, and my years with sighing: My strength fails because of my iniquity, and my bones are wasted away.
31:11 Because of all my adversaries I am become a reproach, Yes, to my neighbors exceedingly, and a fear to my acquaintance: those who did see me outside fled away from me.
31:12 I am forgotten as a dead man out of mind: I am like a broken vessel.

[29] He committed a great sin, in saying this. That is why God then hid himself from him. Verse 9 soon after, was a theme of Jesus: "What shall it profit a man to gain the whole world, but lose his very self?"

31:13 For I have heard the defaming of many, Terror on every side: While they took counsel together against me, They devised to take away my life.
31:14 But I trusted in you, O Yehovah: I said, You are my God.
31:15 My times are in your hand: Deliver me from the hand of my enemies, and from them that persecute me.
31:16 Make your face to shine upon your servant: Save me in your lovingkindness.
31:17 Let me not be put to shame, O Yehovah; for I have called upon you: Let the wicked be put to shame, let them be silent in Sheol.
31:18 Let the lying lips be mute, Which speak against the righteous insolently, With pride and contempt.
31:19 Oh how great is your goodness, Which you have laid up for them that fear you, Which you have wrought for them that take refuge in you, Before the sons of men!
31:20 In the cover of your presence will you hide them from the plottings of man: You will keep them secretly in a pavilion from the strife of tongues.
31:21 Blessed be Yehovah; For he has shown me his marvellous lovingkindness in a strong city.
31:22 As for me, I said in my haste, I am cut off from before your eyes: Nevertheless you heard the voice of my supplications When I cried to you.
31:23 Oh love Yehovah, all ye his saints: Yehovah preserves the faithful, and plentifully repays him that deals proudly.
31:24 Be strong, and let your heart take courage, all ye who hope in Yehovah.

Psalm 32

[A Psalm] of David. Maschil.

32:1 Blessed is he whose transgression is forgiven, whose sin is covered.
32:2 Blessed is the man to whom Yehovah imputes not iniquity, and in whose spirit there is no guile.
32:3 When I kept silence, my bones wasted away through my groaning all the day long.
32:4 For day and night your hand was heavy upon me: my moisture was changed as with the drought of summer. Selah
32:5 I acknowledged my sin to you, and my iniquity I did not hide: I said, I will confess my transgressions to Yehovah. And you forgave the iniquity of my sin. Selah
32:6 For this let every one that is godly pray to you in a time when you may be found: Surely when the great waters overflow they shall not reach to him.
32:7 You are my hiding-place; you will preserve me from trouble; you will compass me about with songs of deliverance. Selah
32:8 I will instruct you and teach you in the way which you shall go: I will counsel you with my eye upon you.
32:9 Be ye not as the horse, or as the mule, which have no understanding; whose trappings must be bit and bridle to hold them in, else they will not come near to you.
32:10 Many sorrows shall be to the wicked; but he that trusts in Yehovah, lovingkindness shall compass him about.
32:11 Be glad in Yehovah, and rejoice, ye righteous; and shout for joy, all ye that are upright in heart.

Psalm 33

33:1 Rejoice in Yehovah, O ye righteous: Praise is comely for the upright.
33:2 Give thanks to Yehovah with the lyre: Sing praises to him with the harp of ten strings.
33:3 Sing to him a new song; Play skillfully with a loud noise.
33:4 For the word of Yehovah is right; And all his work is done in faithfulness.
33:5 He loves righteousness and justice: The earth is full of the lovingkindness of Yehovah.

33:6 By the word of Yehovah were the heavens made, and all the host of them by the breath of his mouth.
33:7 He gathers the waters of the sea together as a heap: He lays up the deeps in store-houses.
33:8 Let all the earth fear Yehovah: Let all the inhabitants of the world stand in awe of him.
33:9 For he spoke, and it was done; He commanded, and it stood fast.
33:10 Yehovah brings the counsel of the nations to nothing; He makes the thoughts of the peoples to be of no effect.
33:11 The counsel of Yehovah stands fast for ever, The thoughts of his heart to all generations.
33:12 Blessed is the nation whose God is Yehovah, The people whom he has chosen for his own inheritance.
33:13 Yehovah looks from heaven; He beholds all the sons of men;
33:14 From the place of his habitation he looks forth Upon all the inhabitants of the earth, 33:15 He that fashions the hearts of them all, That considers all their works.
33:16 There is no king saved by the multitude of an army: A mighty man is not delivered by great strength.
33:17 A horse is a vain thing for safety; Neither does he deliver any by his great power.
33:18 Behold, the eye of Yehovah is upon them that fear him, Upon them that hope in his lovingkindness;
33:19 To deliver their soul from death, and to keep them alive in famine.
33:20 Our soul has waited for Yehovah: He is our help and our shield.
33:21 For our heart shall rejoice in him, Because we have trusted in his holy name.
33:22 Let your lovingkindness, O Yehovah, be upon us, according as we have hoped in you.

Psalm 34

A Psalm of David; when he changed his behavior before Abimelech, who drove him away, and he departed.

34:1 I will bless Yehovah at all times: His praise shall continually be in my mouth.
34:2 My soul shall make its boast in Yehovah: The meek shall hear of it, and be glad.
34:3 Oh magnify Yehovah with me, and let us exalt his name together.
34:4 I sought out Yehovah, and he answered me, and delivered me from all my fears.
34:5 They looked to him, and were radiant; and their faces shall never be confounded.
34:6 This poor man cried, and Yehovah heard him, and saved him out of all his troubles.
34:7 The angel of Yehovah encamps round about those who fear him, and delivers them.
34:8 Oh taste and see that Yehovah is good: Blessed is the man that takes refuge in him.
34:9 Oh fear Yehovah, ye his saints; for there is no lack to them that fear him.
34:10 The young lions do lack, and suffer hunger; but they that seek Yehovah shall not go without any good thing.
34:11 Come, ye children, hearken to me: I will teach you the fear of Yehovah.
34:12 What man is he that desires life, and loves many days, that he may see good?
34:13 Keep your tongue from evil, and your lips from speaking guile.
34:14 Depart from evil, and do good; Seek peace, and pursue it.
34:15 The eyes of Yehovah are toward the righteous, and his ears are open to their cry.
34:16 The face of Yehovah is against them that do evil, To cut off the remembrance of them from the earth.

34:17 The righteous cried, and Yehovah heard, and delivered them out of all their troubles.
34:18 Yehovah is near to them that are of a broken heart, and saves such as are of a contrite spirit.
34:19 Many are the afflictions of the righteous; But Yehovah delivers him out of them all.
34:20 He preserves all his bones: Not one of them is broken.
34:21 Evil shall slay the wicked; And they that hate the righteous shall be condemned.
34:22 Yehovah redeems the soul of his servants; And none of them that take refuge in him shall be condemned.

Psalm 35

[A Psalm] of David.

35:1 Strive, O Yehovah, with them that strive with me: Fight thou against them that fight against me.
35:2 Take hold of shield and buckler, and stand up for my help.
35:3 Draw out also the spear, and stop the way against those who pursue me: Say to my soul, I am your salvation.
35:4 Let them be put to shame and brought to dishonor that seek after my soul: Let them be turned back and confounded that devise my hurt.
35:5 Let them be as chaff before the wind, and the angel of Yehovah driving them on.
35:6 Let their way be dark and slippery, and the angel of Yehovah pursuing them.
35:7 For without cause have they hid for me their net in a pit; Without cause have they dug a pit for my soul.
35:8 Let destruction come upon him unawares; And let his net that he has hid catch himself: With destruction let him fall therein.
35:9 And my soul shall be joyful in Yehovah: It shall rejoice in his salvation.
35:10 All my bones shall say, Yehovah, who is like you, Who delivers the poor from him that is too strong for him, Yes, the poor and the needy from him that robs him?
35:11 Unrighteous witnesses rise up; They ask me about things that I know not.
35:12 They repay me evil for good, To the bereaving of my soul.
35:13 But as for me, when they were sick, my clothing was sackcloth: I afflicted my soul with fasting; And my prayer returned into my own bosom.
35:14 I behaved myself as though it had been my friend or my brother: I bowed down mourning, as one that bewails his mother.
35:15 But in my adversity they rejoiced, and gathered themselves together: The abjects gathered themselves together against me, and I knew it not; They tore at me, and they ceased not:
35:16 Like the profane mockers in feasts, They gnashed upon me with their teeth.
35:17 Lord, how long will you look on? Rescue my soul from their destructions, My dear life from the lions.
35:18 I will give you thanks in the great assembly: I will praise you among much people.
35:19 Let not them who are my enemies wrongfully rejoice over me; Neither let those wink with the eye who hate me without a cause.
35:20 For they speak not peace; But they devise deceitful words against those who are quiet in the land.
35:21 Yes, they opened their mouth wide against me; They said, aha, aha, our eye has seen it.
35:22 You have seen it, O Yehovah; keep not silence: O Lord, be not far from me.
35:23 Stir up yourself, and awake to the justice due to me, Even to my cause, my God and my Lord.
35:24 Judge me, O Yehovah my God, according to your righteousness; And let them not rejoice over me.

35:25 Let them not say in their heart, aha, this is what we wanted: Let them not say, We have swallowed him up.
35:26 Let them be put to shame and confounded together that rejoice at my hurt: Let them be clothed with shame and dishonor that magnify themselves against me.
35:27 Let them shout for joy, and be glad, that favor my righteous cause: Yes, let them say continually, Yehovah be magnified, Who has pleasure in the prosperity of his servant.
35:28 And my tongue shall talk of your righteousness And of your praise all the day long.

Psalm 36

For the Chief Musician. [A Psalm] of David the servant of Yehovah.

36:1 The transgression of the wicked says within my heart, There is no fear of God before his eyes.
36:2 For he flatters himself in his own eyes, thinking that his iniquity will not be found out and be hated.
36:3 The words of his mouth are iniquity and deceit: He has ceased to be wise and to do good.
36:4 He devises iniquity upon his bed; He sets himself in a way that is not good; He does not abhor evil.
36:5 Your lovingkindness, O Yehovah, is in the heavens; Your faithfulness reaches to the skies.
36:6 Your righteousness is like the mountains of God; Your judgments are a great deep: O Yehovah, you preserve man and beast.
36:7 How precious is your lovingkindness, O God! And the children of men take refuge under the shadow of your wings.
36:8 They shall be abundantly satisfied with the fatness of your house; And you will make them drink of the river of your pleasures.
36:9 For with you is the fountain of life: In your light shall we see light.
36:10 Oh continue your lovingkindness to them that know you, and your righteousness to the upright in heart.
36:11 Let not the foot of pride come against me, and let not the hand of the wicked drive me away.
36:12 There are the workers of iniquity fallen: They are thrust down, and shall not be able to rise.

Psalm 37

[A Psalm] of David.

37:1 Fret not yourself because of evil-doers, Neither be envious against them that work unrighteousness.
37:2 For they shall soon be cut down like the grass, and wither as the green herb.
37:3 Trust in Yehovah, and do good; Dwell in the land, and feed on his faithfulness.
37:4 Delight yourself also in Yehovah; And he will give you the desires of your heart.
37:5 Commit your way to Yehovah; Trust also in him, and he will bring it to pass.
37:6 And he will cause your righteousness to go forth as the light, and your justice as the noon-day.
37:7 Rest in Yehovah, and wait patiently for him: Fret not yourself because of him who prospers in his way, Because of the man who brings wicked devices to pass.
37:8 Cease from anger, and forsake wrath: Fret not yourself, it tends only to evil-doing.
37:9 For evil-doers shall be cut off; But those that wait for Yehovah, they shall inherit the land.
37:10 For yet a little while, and the wicked shall not be: Yes, you shall diligently consider his place, and he shall not be there.

37:11 But the meek shall inherit the land, and shall delight themselves in the abundance of peace.
37:12 The wicked plots against the just, and gnashes at him with his teeth.
37:13 The Lord will laugh at him; For He sees that his day is coming.
37:14 The wicked have drawn out the sword, and have bent their bow, To cast down the poor and needy, To slay such as are upright in the way.
37:15 Their sword shall enter into their own heart, and their bows shall be broken.
37:16 Better is a little that the righteous person has, than the abundance of many wicked.
37:17 For the arms of the wicked shall be broken; But Yehovah upholds the righteous.
37:18 Yehovah knows the days of the perfect; And their inheritance shall be for ever.
37:19 They shall not be put to shame in the time of evil; And in the days of famine they shall be satisfied.
37:20 But the wicked shall perish, and the enemies of Yehovah shall be as the fat of lambs: They shall consume; In smoke shall they consume away.
37:21 The wicked borrows, and pays not back; But the righteous deals graciously, and gives.
37:22 For such as are blessed by him shall inherit the land; And they that are cursed by him shall be cut off.
37:23 A man's goings are established from Yehovah; And he delights in his way.
37:24 Though he may fall, he shall not be utterly cast down; For Yehovah upholds him with his hand.
37:25 I have been young, and now am old; Yet I have not seen the righteous forsaken, Nor his seed begging bread.
37:26 All the day long he deals graciously, and lends; And his seed is blessed.
37:27 Depart from evil, and do good; And abide for evermore.
37:28 For Yehovah loves justice, and forsakes not his saints; They are preserved for ever: But the seed of the wicked shall be cut off.
37:29 The righteous shall inherit the land, and dwell therein for ever.
37:30 The mouth of the righteous talks of wisdom, and his tongue speaks justice.
37:31 The law of his God is in his heart; None of his steps shall slide.
37:32 The wicked watches the righteous, and seeks to slay him.
37:33 Yehovah will not leave him in his hand, Nor condemn him when he is judged.
37:34 Wait for Yehovah, and keep his way, and he will exalt you to inherit the land: When the wicked are cut off, you shall see it.
37:35 I have seen the wicked in great power, and spreading himself like a green tree in its native soil.
37:36 But one passed by, and, lo, he was not: Yes, I sought him, but he could not be found.
37:37 Mark the perfect man, and behold the upright; For there is a happy end to the man of peace.
37:38 As for transgressors, they shall be destroyed together; The end of the wicked shall be cut off.
37:39 But the salvation of the righteous is of Yehovah; He is their stronghold in the time of trouble.
37:40 And Yehovah helps them, and rescues them; He rescues them from the wicked, and saves them, Because they have taken refuge in him.

Psalm 38

A Psalm of David, to bring to remembrance.

38:1 O Yehovah, rebuke me not in your wrath; Neither chasten me in your hot displeasure.
38:2 For your arrows stick fast in me, and your hand presses me sore.
38:3 There is no soundness in my flesh because of your indignation; Neither is there any health in my bones because of my sin.

38:4 For my iniquities are gone over my head: As a heavy burden they are too heavy for me.
38:5 My wounds are loathsome and corrupt, Because of my foolishness.
38:6 I am pained and bowed down greatly; I go mourning all the day long.
38:7 For my loins are filled with burning; And there is no soundness in my flesh.
38:8 I am faint and sore bruised: I have groaned by reason of the disquietness of my heart.
38:9 Lord, all my desire is before you; And my groaning is not hidden from you.
38:10 My heart throbs, my strength fails me: As for the light of my eyes, it also is gone from me.
38:11 My lovers and my friends stand aloof from my plague; And my kinsmen stand afar off.
38:12 Those also who seek after my life lay snares for me; And those who seek my hurt speak mischievous things, and meditate deceits all the day long.
38:13 But I, as a deaf man, hear not; And I am like a mute man who opens not his mouth.
38:14 Yes, I am as a man that hears not, and in whose mouth are no reproofs.
38:15 For in you, O Yehovah, do I hope: You will answer, O Lord my God.
38:16 For I said, Lest they rejoice over me: When my foot slips, they magnify themselves against me.
38:17 For I am ready to fall, and my sorrow is continually before me.
38:18 For I will declare my iniquity; I will be sorry for my sin.
38:19 But my enemies are lively, and are strong; And those who hate me wrongfully are multiplied.
38:20 They also who render evil for good Are adversaries to me, because I follow the thing that is good.
38:21 Forsake me not, O Yehovah: O my God, be not far from me.
38:22 Make haste to help me, O Lord, my salvation.

Psalm 39

For the Chief Musician, Jeduthun. A Psalm of David.

39:1 I said, I will take heed to my ways, That I sin not with my tongue: I will keep my mouth with a bridle, While the wicked is before me.
39:2 I was mute in silence, I held my peace, even from good; And my sorrow was stirred.
39:3 My heart was hot within me; While I was musing the fire burned: Then spoke I with my tongue:
39:4 Yehovah, make me to know my end, and the measure of my days, what it is; Let me know how frail I am.
39:5 Behold, you have made my days as handbreadths; And my life-time is as nothing before you: Surely every man at his best estate is altogether vanity. Selah
39:6 Surely every man walks in a vain show; Surely they are disquieted in vain: He heaps up riches, and knows not who shall gather them.
39:7 And now, Lord, what wait I for? My hope is in you.
39:8 Deliver me from all my transgressions: Make me not the reproach of the foolish.
39:9 I was mute, I opened not my mouth; Because you did it.
39:10 Remove your stroke away from me: I am consumed by the blow of your hand.
39:11 When you with rebukes do correct man for iniquity, You cause his beauty to consume away like a moth: Surely every man is vanity. Selah
39:12 Hear my prayer, O Yehovah, and give ear to my cry; Hold not your peace at my tears: For I am a stranger with you, a sojourner, as all my fathers were.
39:13 Oh spare me, that I may recover strength, Before I go away from here, and be no more.

Psalm 40

For the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David.

40:1 I waited patiently for Yehovah; And he inclined to me, and heard my cry.
40:2 He brought me up also out of a horrible pit, out of the miry clay; And he set my feet upon a rock, and established my goings.
40:3 And he has put a new song in my mouth, even praise to our God: Many shall see it, and fear, and shall trust in Yehovah.
40:4 Blessed is the man that makes Yehovah his trust, and respects not the proud, nor such as turn aside to lies.
40:5 Many, O Yehovah my God, are the wonderful works which you have done, and your thoughts which are to us-ward; They cannot be set in order for you. If I would declare and speak of them, they would be more than can be numbered.
40:6 Sacrifice and offering you have no delight in; My ears you have opened: Burnt-offering and sin offering you have not required.
40:7 Then said I, Lo, I am come; In the roll of the book it is written of me:
40:8 I delight to do your will, O my God; Yes, your law is within my heart.
40:9 I have proclaimed glad tidings of righteousness in the great assembly; Lo, I will not refrain my lips, O Yehovah, you know.
40:10 I have not hid your righteousness within my heart; I have declared your faithfulness and your salvation; I have not concealed your lovingkindness and your truth from the great assembly.
40:11 Withhold not thou your tender mercies from me, O Yehovah; Let your lovingkindness and your truth continually preserve me.
40:12 For innumerable evils have compassed me about; My iniquities have overtaken me, so that I am not able to look up; They are more than the hairs of my head; And my heart has failed me.
40:13 Be pleased, O Yehovah, to deliver me: Make haste to help me, O Yehovah.
40:14 Let them be put to shame and confounded together That seek after my soul to destroy it: Let them be turned backward and brought to dishonor Who delight in my hurt.
40:15 Let them be desolate by reason of their shame That say to me, aha, aha.
40:16 Let all those that seek you rejoice and be glad in you: Let such as love your salvation say continually, Yehovah be magnified.
40:17 But I am poor and needy; Yet the Lord thinks upon me: You are my help and my deliverer; Make no tarrying, O my God.

Psalm 41

For the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David.

41:1 Blessed is he that considers the poor: Yehovah will deliver him in the day of evil.
41:2 Yehovah will preserve him, and keep him alive, and he shall be blessed upon the earth; And do not deliver him into the will of his enemies.
41:3 Yehovah will support him upon the couch of languishing: You make all his bed in his sickness.
41:4 I said, O Yehovah, have mercy upon me: Heal my soul; for I have sinned against you.
41:5 My enemies speak evil against me, saying, When will he die, and his name perish?
41:6 And if he comes to see me, he speaks falsehood; His heart gathers iniquity to itself: When he goes abroad, he tells it.
41:7 All that hate me whisper together against me; Against me do they devise my hurt.
41:8 An evil disease, say they, cleaves fast to him; And now that he lies he shall rise up no more.

41:9 Yes, my own familiar friend, in whom I trusted, who did eat of my bread, has lifted up his heel against me.
41:10 But you, O Yehovah, have mercy upon me, and raise me up, that I may repay them.
41:11 By this I know that you delight in me, because my enemy does not triumph over me.
41:12 And as for me, you uphold me in my integrity, and set me before your face for ever.
41:13 Blessed be Yehovah, the God of Israel, From everlasting and to everlasting. Amen, and Amen.

Book II

Psalm 42

For the Chief Musician. Maschil of the sons of Korah.

42:1 As the deer pants after the water brooks, so pants my soul after you, O God.
42:2 My soul thirsts for God, for the living God: when shall I come and appear before God?
42:3 My tears have been my food day and night, as they continually say to me, Where is your God?
42:4 These things I remember, and pour out my soul within me, how I went with the throng, and led them to the house of God, with the voice of joy and praise, a multitude keeping holyday.
42:5 Why are you cast down, O my soul? why are you disquieted within me? Hope thou in God; for I shall yet praise him for the help of his countenance.
42:6 O my God, my soul is cast down within me: therefore do I remember you from the land of the Jordan, and the Hermons, from the hill Mizar.
42:7 Deep calls unto deep at the noise of your waterfalls: all your waves and your billows are gone over me.
42:8 Yet Yehovah will command his lovingkindness in the day-time; and in the night his song shall be with me, e*ven* a prayer to the God of my life.
42:9 I will say to God my rock, Why have you forgotten me? Why go I mourning because of the oppression of the enemy?
42:10 As with a sword in my bones, my adversaries reproach me, as they continually say to me, Where is your God?
42:11 Why are you cast down, O my soul? And why are you disquieted within me? Hope thou in God; for I shall yet praise him, who is the help of my countenance, and my God.

Psalm 43

43:1 Judge me, O God, and plead my cause against an ungodly nation: Oh deliver me from the deceitful and unjust man.
43:2 For you are the God of my strength. Why have you cast me off? Why go I mourning because of the oppression of the enemy?
43:3 Oh send out your light and your truth; let them lead me. Let them bring me to your holy hill, and to your tabernacles.
43:4 Then I will go to the altar of God, to God my exceeding joy. And upon the harp I will praise you, O God, my God.
43:5 Why are you cast down, O my soul? And why are you disquieted within me? Hope thou in God; for I shall yet praise him, Who is the help of my countenance, and my God.

Psalm 44

For the Chief Musician. [A Psalm] of the sons of Korah. Maschil.

44:1 We have heard with our ears, O God; our fathers have told us, what work you did in their days, in the days of old.
44:2 You did drive out the nations with your hand; but our fathers you did plant: You did afflict the peoples; but them you did spread abroad.
44:3 For they got not the land in possession by their own sword. Neither did their own arm save them; but rather by your right hand, and your arm, and the light of your countenance. Because you were favorable to them.
44:4 You are my King, O God: command deliverance for Jacob.
44:5 Through you will we push down our adversaries: through your name will we tread them under who rise up against us.
44:6 For I will not trust in my bow, neither shall my sword save me.
44:7 Rather you have saved us from our adversaries, and have put those to shame who hate us.
44:8 In God have we made our boast all the day long, and we will give thanks to your name for ever. Selah
44:9 But now you have cast us off, and brought us to dishonor, and do not go forth with our armies.
44:10 You cause us to turn back from the adversary; and those that hate us take spoil for themselves.
44:11 You have made us like sheep appointed for food, and scattered us among the nations.
44:12 You sell your people for nothing, and not increased your wealth by their price.
44:13 You make us a reproach to our neighbors, a scoffing and derision to those round about us.
44:14 You make us a byword among the nations, a cause for shaking of the head among the peoples.
44:15 All the day long is my dishonor before me, and the shame of my face has covered me,
44:16 because of the voice of him that reproaches and blasphemes; by reason of the enemy and the avenger.
44:17 All this is come upon us; yet we have not forgotten you, neither have we dealt falsely in your covenant.
44:18 Our heart is not turned back, neither have our steps declined from your way
44:19 because you have sore broken us in the place of jackals, and covered us with the shadow of death.
44:20 If we have forgotten the name of our God, or spread forth our hands to a strange god, 44:21 will not God search this out? For he knows the secrets of the heart.
44:22 Yes, for your sake are we killed all the day long; we are accounted as sheep for the slaughter.
44:23 Awake, why do you sleep, O Lord? Arise, do not cast us off for ever.
44:24 Why do you hide your face, and forget our affliction and our oppression?
44:25 For our soul is bowed down to the dust. Our body cleaves to the ground.
44:26 Rise up as our help, and redeem us for your lovingkindness' sake.

Psalm 45

For the Chief Musician; set to Shoshannim. [A Psalm] of the sons of Korah. Maschil. A Song of loves.

45:1 My heart overflows with a goodly matter; I speak the things which I have made touching the king: my tongue is the pen of a ready writer.
45:2 You are fairer than the children of men; Grace is poured into your lips: Therefore God has blessed you for ever.

45:3 Gird your sword upon your thigh, O mighty one, Your glory and your majesty.
45:4 And in your majesty ride on prosperously, Because of truth and meekness and righteousness: And your right hand shall teach you terrible things.
45:5 Your arrows are sharp; The peoples fall under you; They are in the heart of the king's enemies.
45:6 Your throne, O God, is for ever and ever: A sceptre of equity is the sceptre of your kingdom.
45:7 You have loved righteousness, and hated wickedness: Therefore God, your God, has anointed you With the oil of gladness above your fellows.
45:8 All your garments smell of myrrh, and aloes, and cassia; Out of ivory palaces stringed instruments have made you glad.
45:9 Kings' daughters are among your honorable women: At your right hand does stand the queen in gold of Ophir.
45:10 Hearken, O daughter, and consider, and incline your ear; Forget also your own people, and your father's house:
45:11 So will the king desire your beauty; For he is your lord; and reverence you him.
45:12 And the daughter of Tyre shall be there with a gift; The rich among the people shall entreat your favor.
45:13 The king's daughter within the palace is all glorious: Her clothing is inwrought with gold.
45:14 She shall be led to the king in broidered work: The virgins her companions that follow her Shall be brought to you.
45:15 With gladness and rejoicing shall they be led: They shall enter into the king's palace.
45:16 Instead of your fathers shall be your children, Whom you shall make princes in all the earth.
45:17 I will make your name to be remembered in all generations: Therefore shall the peoples give you thanks for ever and ever.

Psalm 46

For the Chief Musician. [A Psalm] of the sons of Korah; set to Alamoth. A Song.

46:1 God is our refuge and strength, a very present help in trouble.
46:2 Therefore will we not fear, though the earth does change, and though the mountains be shaken into the heart of the seas;
46:3 Though the waters thereof roar and be troubled, Though the mountains tremble with the swelling of it. Selah
46:4 There is a river, the streams of which make glad the city of God, The holy place of the tabernacles of the Most High.
46:5 God is in the midst of her; she shall not be moved: God will help her, and that right early.
46:6 The nations raged, the kingdoms were moved: He uttered his voice, the earth melted.
46:7 Yehovah of hosts is with us; The God of Jacob is our refuge. Selah
46:8 Come, behold the works of Yehovah, What desolations he has made in the earth.
46:9 He makes wars to cease to the end of the earth; He breaks the bow, and cuts the spear in sunder; He burns the chariots in the fire.
46:10 Be still, and know that I am God: I will be exalted among the nations, I will be exalted in the earth.
46:11 Yehovah of hosts is with us; The God of Jacob is our refuge. Selah

Psalm 47

For the Chief Musician. A Psalm of the sons of Korah.

47:1 Oh clap your hands, all ye peoples; Shout to God with the voice of triumph.

47:2 For Yehovah Most High is fearsome; He is a great King over all the earth.
47:3 He subdues peoples under us, and nations under our feet.
47:4 He chooses our inheritance for us, The glory of Jacob whom he loved. Selah
47:5 God is gone up with a shout, Yehovah with the sound of a trumpet.
47:6 Sing praise to God, sing praises: Sing praises to our King, sing praises.
47:7 For God is the King of all the earth: Sing ye praises with understanding.
47:8 God reigns over the nations: God sits upon his holy throne.
47:9 The princes of the peoples are gathered together To be the people of the God of Abraham: For the shields of the earth belong to God; He is greatly exalted.

Psalm 48

A Song; a Psalm of the sons of Korah.

48:1 Great is Yehovah, and greatly to be praised, In the city of our God, in his holy mountain.
48:2 Beautiful in elevation, the joy of the whole earth, Is mount Zion, on the sides of the north, The city of the great King.
48:3 God has made himself known in her citadels for a refuge.
48:4 For, lo, the kings assembled themselves, They passed by together.
48:5 They saw it, then were they amazed; They were dismayed, they hastened away.
48:6 Trembling took hold of them there, Pain, as of a woman in labor.
48:7 With the east wind You break the ships of Tarshish.
48:8 As we have heard, so have we seen In the city of Yehovah of hosts, in the city of our God: God will establish it for ever. Selah
48:9 We have thought on your lovingkindness, O God, In the midst of your temple.
48:10 As is your name, O God, So is your praise to the ends of the earth: Your right hand is full of righteousness.
48:11 Let mount Zion be glad, Let the daughters of Judah rejoice, Because of your judgments.
48:12 Walk about Zion, and go round about her; Number the towers thereof;
48:13 Mark ye well her bulwarks; Consider her citadels: That ye may tell it to the generation following.
48:14 For this God is our God for ever and ever: He will be our guide even unto death.

Psalm 49

For the Chief Musician. A Psalm of the sons of Korah.

49:1 Hear this, all ye peoples; Give ear, all ye inhabitants of the world,
49:2 Both low and high, Rich and poor together.
49:3 My mouth shall speak wisdom; And the meditation of my heart shall be of understanding.
49:4 I will incline my ear to a parable: I will open my dark saying upon the harp.
49:5 Why should I fear in the days of evil, When iniquity at my heels compasses me about?
49:6 They that trust in their wealth, and boast themselves in the multitude of their riches;
49:7 None of them can by any means redeem his brother, Nor give to God a ransom for him;
49:8 (For the redemption of their life is costly, and it fails for ever;)
49:9 That he should still live alway, That he should not see corruption.
49:10 For he shall see it. Wise men die; The fool and the brutish alike perish, and leave their wealth to others.
49:11 Their inward thought is, that their houses shall continue for ever, a*nd* their dwelling-places to all generations; They call their lands after their own names.
49:12 But man being in honor abides not: He is like the beasts that perish.

49:13 This their way is their folly: Yet after them men approve their sayings. Selah
49:14 They are appointed as a flock for Sheol; Death shall be their shepherd; And the upright shall have dominion over them in the morning; And their beauty shall be for Sheol to consume, That there be no habitation for it.
49:15 But God will redeem my soul from the power of Sheol; For he will receive me. Selah
49:16 Be you not afraid when one is made rich, When the glory of his house is increased.
49:17 For when he dies he shall carry nothing away; His glory shall not descend after him.
49:18 Though while he lived he blessed his soul (And men praise you, when you do well for yourself,) 49:19 He shall go to the generation of his fathers; They shall never see the light.
49:20 Man that is in honor, and understands not, Is like the beasts that perish.

Psalm 50

A Psalm of Asaph.

50:1 The Mighty One, God, Yehovah, has spoken, and called the earth from the rising of the sun to the going down thereof.
50:2 Out of Zion, the perfection of beauty, God has shined forth.
50:3 Our God comes, and does not keep silence: A fire devours before him, and it is very tempestuous round about him.
50:4 He calls to the heavens above, and to the earth, that he may judge his people:
50:5 Gather my saints together to me, Those that have made a covenant with me by sacrifice.
50:6 And the heavens shall declare his righteousness; For God is judge himself. Selah
50:7 Hear, O my people, and I will speak; O Israel, and I will testify to you: I am God, even your God.
50:8 I will not reprove you for your sacrifices; And your burnt offerings are continually before me.
50:9 I will take no bullock out of your house, Nor he-goats out of your folds.
50:10 For every beast of the forest is mine, and the cattle upon a thousand hills.
50:11 I know all the birds of the mountains; And the wild beasts of the field are mine.
50:12 If I were hungry, I would not tell you; For the world is mine, and the fulness thereof.
50:13 Will I eat the flesh of bulls, Or drink the blood of goats?
50:14 Offer to God the sacrifice of thanksgiving; And pay your vows to the Most High:
50:15 And call upon me in the day of trouble; I will deliver you, and you shall glorify me.
50:16 But to the wicked God says, What have you to do to declare my statutes, and that you have taken my covenant in your mouth,
50:17 Seeing you hate instruction, and cast my words behind you?
50:18 When you saw a thief, you consented with him, and have been partaker with adulterers.
50:19 You give your mouth to evil, and your tongue frames deceit.
50:20 You sit and speak against your brother; You slander your own mother's son.
50:21 These things have you done, and I kept silence; You thought that I was altogether such a one as yourself: But I will reprove you, and set them in order before your eyes.
50:22 Now consider this, ye that forget God, Lest I tear you in pieces, and there be no one to deliver:
50:23 Whoso offers the sacrifice of thanksgiving glorifies me; And to him that orders his way aright Will I show the salvation of God.

Psalm 51

For the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David; when Nathan the prophet came to him, after he had gone in to Bathsheba.

51:1 Have mercy upon me, O God, according to your lovingkindness: According to the multitude of your tender mercies blot out my transgressions.
51:2 Wash me thoroughly from my iniquity, and cleanse me from my sin.
51:3 For I know my transgressions; And my sin is ever before me.
51:4 Against you, you only, have I sinned, and done that which is evil in your sight; That you may be justified when you speak, and be clear when you judge.
51:5 Behold, I was brought forth in iniquity; And in sin did my mother conceive me.
51:6 Behold, you desire truth in the inward parts; And in the hidden part you will make me to know wisdom.
51:7 Purify me with hyssop, and I shall be clean: Wash me, and I shall be whiter than snow.
51:8 Cause me to hear joy and gladness, That the bones which you have broken may rejoice.
51:9 Hide your face from my sins, and blot out all my iniquities.
51:10 Create in me a clean heart, O God; And renew a right spirit within me.
51:11 Cast me not away from your presence; And take not your holy Spirit from me.
51:12 Restore to me the joy of your salvation; And uphold me with a willing spirit.
51:13 Then I will teach transgressors your ways; And sinners shall be converted to you.
51:14 Deliver me from bloodguiltiness, O God, you God of my salvation; And my tongue shall sing aloud of your righteousness.
51:15 O Lord, open thou my lips; And my mouth shall show forth your praise.
51:16 For you delight not in sacrifice; else would I give it: You have no pleasure in burnt offering.
51:17 The sacrifices of God are a broken spirit: A broken and contrite heart, O God, you will not despise.
51:18 Do good in your good pleasure to Zion: Build thou the walls of Jerusalem.
51:19 Then will you delight in the sacrifices of righteousness, In burnt offering and in whole burnt offering: Then will they offer bullocks upon your altar.

Psalm 52

For the Chief Musician. Maschil of David; when Doeg the Edomite came and told Saul, and said to him, David is come to the house of Abimelech.

52:1 Why do you boast yourself in mischief, O mighty man? The lovingkindness of God endures continually.
52:2 Your tongue devises very wickedness, Like a sharp razor, working deceitfully.
52:3 You love evil more than good, and lying rather than to speak righteousness. Selah
52:4 You love all devouring words, you deceitful tongue.
52:5 God will likewise destroy you for ever; He will take you up, and pluck you out of your tent, and root you out of the land of the living. Selah
52:6 The righteous also shall see it, and fear, and shall laugh at him, saying,
52:7 Lo, this is the man that made not God his strength, But trusted in the abundance of his riches, and strengthened himself in his wickedness.
52:8 But as for me, I am like a green olive-tree in the house of God: I trust in the lovingkindness of God for ever and ever.
52:9 I will give you thanks for ever, because you have done it; And I will hope in your name, for it is good, in the presence of your saints.

Psalm 53

For the Chief Musician; set to Mahalath. Maschil of David.

53:1 The fool has said in his heart, There is no God. Corrupt are they, and have done abominable iniquity; There is no one that does good.
53:2 God looked down from heaven upon the children of men, To see if there were any that did understand, That did seek after God.
53:3 Every one of them is gone back; they are together become filthy; There is no one that does good, no, not one.
53:4 Have the workers of iniquity no knowledge, Who eat up my people as they eat bread, and call not upon God?
53:5 There they were in great fear, where no fear was; For God has scattered the bones of him that encamps against you: You have put them to shame, because that God has rejected them.
53:6 Oh that the salvation of Israel were come out of Zion! When God brings back the captivity of his people, Then shall Jacob rejoice, and Israel shall be glad.

Psalm 54

For the Chief Musician; on stringed instruments. Maschil of David; when the Ziphites came and said to Saul, Does not David hide himself with us?

54:1 Save me, O God, by your name, and judge me in your might.
54:2 Hear my prayer, O God; Give ear to the words of my mouth.
54:3 For strangers are risen up against me, and violent men have sought after my soul: They have not set God before them. Selah
54:4 Behold, God is my helper: The Lord is of them that uphold my soul.
54:5 He will repay the evil to my enemies: Destroy thou them in your truth.
54:6 With a freewill-offering I will sacrifice to you: I will give thanks to your name, O Yehovah, for it is good.
54:7 For he has delivered me out of all trouble; And my eye has seen my desire upon my enemies.

Psalm 55

For the Chief Musician; on stringed instruments. Maschil of David.

55:1 Give ear to my prayer, O God; And hide not yourself from my supplication.
55:2 Attend to me, and answer me: I am restless in my complaint, and moan,
55:3 Because of the voice of the enemy, Because of the oppression of the wicked; For they cast iniquity upon me, and in anger they persecute me.
55:4 My heart is sore pained within me: And the terrors of death are fallen upon me.
55:5 Fearfulness and trembling are come upon me, and horror has overwhelmed me.
55:6 And I said, Oh that I had wings like a dove! Then would I fly away, and be at rest.
55:7 Lo, then would I wander far off, I would lodge in the wilderness. Selah
55:8 I would hasten me to a shelter, from the stormy wind and tempest.
55:9 Destroy, O Lord, and divide their tongue; for I have seen violence and strife in the city.
55:10 Day and night they go about it upon the walls thereof: Iniquity also and mischief are in the midst of it.
55:11 Wickedness is in the midst of it: Oppression and guile depart not from its streets.
55:12 For it was not an enemy that reproached me. That I could have endured. Neither was it he who hated me that magnified himself against me; then I would have hidden from him:
55:13 But it was you, a man my peer, my companion, and my familiar friend.

55:14 We took sweet counsel together; we walked in the house of God with the throng.
55:15 Let death come suddenly upon them, Let them go down alive into Sheol; for wickedness is in their dwelling, in the midst of them.
55:16 As for me, I will call upon God; and Yehovah will save me.
55:17 Evening, and morning, and at noonday, I will complain, and moan; and He will hear my voice.
55:18 He has redeemed my soul in peace from the battle that was against me; for they were many that strove with me.
55:19 God will hear, and respond to them, even He that abides of old, Selah The men who make no changes, and who fear not God.
55:20 He has put forth his hands against those who were at peace with him: he has profaned his covenant.
55:21 His mouth was smooth as butter, but his heart was war: his words were softer than oil, yet they were drawn swords.
55:22 Cast your burden upon Yehovah, and he will sustain you: He will never allow the righteous to be moved.
55:23 But you, O God, will bring them down into the pit of destruction: Bloodthirsty and deceitful men shall not live out half their days; but I will trust in you.

Psalm 56

For the Chief Musician; set to Jonath elem rehokim. [A Psalm] of David. Michtam: when the Philistines took him in Gath.

56:1 Be merciful to me, O God; for man would swallow me up: All the day long he with fighting oppresses me.
56:2 My enemies would swallow me up all the day long; for they are many that fight proudly against me.
56:3 What time I am afraid, I will put my trust in you.
56:4 In God (I will praise his word), In God have I put my trust, I will not be afraid; What can flesh do to me?
56:5 All the day long they twist my words: All their thoughts are against me for evil.
56:6 They gather themselves together, they hide themselves, they mark my steps, even as they have waited for my soul.
56:7 Shall they escape by iniquity? In anger cast down the peoples, O God.
56:8 You number my wanderings: Put thou my tears into your bottle; Are they not in your ledger?
56:9 Then shall my enemies turn back in the day that I call. This I know, that God is for me.
56:10 In God (I will praise his word), In Yehovah (I will praise his word), 56:11 In God have I put my trust, I will not be afraid; What can man do to me?
56:12 Your vows are upon me, O God: I will render thank offerings to you.
56:13 For you have delivered my soul from death: Have you not delivered my feet from falling, that I may walk before God in the light of the living?

Psalm 57

For the Chief Musician; [set to] Al-tash-heth. [A Psalm] of David. Michtam; when he fled from Saul, in the cave.

57:1 Be merciful to me, O God, be merciful to me; For my soul takes refuge in you: Yes, in the shadow of your wings I will take refuge, Until these calamities be overpast.
57:2 I will cry to God Most High, to God that performs all things for me.
57:3 He will send from heaven, and save me, When he who would swallow me up reproaches; Selah God will send forth his lovingkindness and his truth.

57:4 My soul is among lions; I lie among them that are set on fire, Even the sons of men, whose teeth are spears and arrows, and their tongue a sharp sword.
57:5 Be thou exalted, O God, above the heavens; Let your glory be above all the earth.
57:6 They have prepared a net for my steps; My soul is bowed down: They have dug a pit before me; They are fallen into the midst of it themselves. Selah
57:7 My heart is fixed, O God, my heart is fixed: I will sing, yes, I will sing praises.
57:8 Awake up, my glory; awake, harp and lyre: I myself will awake right early.
57:9 I will give thanks to you, O Lord, among the peoples: I will sing praises to you among the nations.
57:10 For your lovingkindness is great unto the heavens, and your truth unto the skies.
57:11 Be thou exalted, O God, above the heavens; Let your glory be above all the earth.

Psalm 58

For the Chief Musician; [set to] Al-tashheth. [A Psalm] of David. Michtam.

58:1 Do ye indeed in silence speak righteousness? Do ye judge uprightly, O ye sons of men?
58:2 Nay, in heart ye work wickedness; Ye weigh out the violence of your hands in the earth.
58:3 The wicked are estranged from the womb: They go astray as soon as they are born, speaking lies.
58:4 Their poison is like the poison of a serpent: They are like the deaf adder that stops her ear, 58:5 Which hearkens not to the voice of charmers, Charming never so wisely.
58:6 Break their teeth, O God, in their mouth: Break out the great teeth of the young lions, O Yehovah.
58:7 Let them melt away as water that runs apace: When he aims his arrows, let them be as though they were cut off.
58:8 Let them be as a snail which melts and passes away, Like the untimely birth of a woman, that has not seen the sun.
58:9 Before your pots can feel the thorns, He will take them away with a whirlwind, the green and the burning alike.
58:10 The righteous shall rejoice when he sees the vengeance: He shall wash his feet in the blood of the wicked;
58:11 So that men shall say, Truly there is a reward for the righteous: Truly there is a God that judges in the earth.

Psalm 59

For the Chief Musician; [set to] Al-tashheth. [A Psalm] of David. Michtam; when Saul sent, and they watched the house to kill him.

59:1 Deliver me from my enemies, O my God: Set me on high from them that rise up against me.
59:2 Deliver me from the workers of iniquity, and save me from the bloodthirsty men.
59:3 For, lo, they lie in wait for my soul; The mighty gather themselves together against me: Not for my transgression, nor for my sin, O Yehovah.
59:4 They run and prepare themselves without my fault: Awake thou to help me, and behold.
59:5 Even you, O Yehovah God of hosts, the God of Israel, arise to visit all the nations: Be not merciful to any wicked transgressors. Selah
59:6 They return at evening, they howl like a dog, and go round about the city.
59:7 Behold, they belch out with their mouth; Swords are in their lips: For who, say they, will hear?

59:8 But you, O Yehovah, will laugh at them; You will have all the nations in derision.
59:9 Because of his strength I will give heed to you; For God is my high tower.
59:10 My God with his lovingkindness will meet me: God will let me see my desire upon my enemies.
59:11 Slay them not, lest my people forget: Scatter them by your power, and bring them down, O Lord our shield.
59:12 For the sin of their mouth, and the words of their lips, Let them even be taken in their pride, and for cursing and lying which they speak.
59:13 Consume them in wrath, consume them, so that they shall be no more: And let them know that God rules in Jacob, To the ends of the earth. Selah
59:14 And at evening let them return, let them howl like a dog, and go round about the city.
59:15 They shall wander up and down for food, and tarry all night if they be not satisfied.
59:16 But I will sing of your strength; Yes, I will sing aloud of your lovingkindness in the morning: For you have been my high tower, and a refuge in the day of my distress.
59:17 To you, O my strength, I will sing praises: For God is my high tower, the God of my mercy.

Psalm 60

For the Chief Musician; [set to] Shushan Eduth. Michtam of David, to teach; and when he strove with Aram-naharaim and with Aram-zobah, and Joab returned, and smote of Edom in the Valley of Salt twelve thousand.

60:1 O God you have cast us off, you have broken us down; You have been angry; oh restore us again.
60:2 You have made the land to tremble; you have rent it: Heal the breaches thereof; for it shakes.
60:3 You have shown your people hard things: You have made us to drink the wine of staggering.
60:4 You have given a banner to them that fear you, That it may be displayed because of the truth. Selah
60:5 That your beloved may be delivered, Save with your right hand, and answer us.
60:6 God has spoken in his holiness: I will exult; I will divide Shechem, and portion out the valley of Succoth.
60:7 Gilead is mine, and Manasseh is mine; Ephraim also is the defence of my head; Judah is my sceptre.
60:8 Moab is my washpot; Upon Edom I will cast my shoe: Philistia, shout you because of me.
60:9 Who will bring me into the strong city? Who has led me to Edom?
60:10 Have not you, O God, cast us off? And you go not forth, O God, with our hosts.
60:11 Give us help against the adversary; For vain is the help of man.
60:12 Through God we shall do valiantly; For he it is that will tread down our adversaries.

Psalm 61

For the Chief Musician; on a stringed instrument. [A Psalm] of David.

61:1 Hear my cry, O God; Attend to my prayer.
61:2 From the end of the earth I will call to you, when my heart is overwhelmed: Lead me to the rock that is higher than I.
61:3 For you have been a refuge for me, a strong tower from the enemy.
61:4 I will dwell in your tabernacle for ever: I will take refuge in the cover of your wings. Selah

61:5 For you, O God, have heard my vows: You have given me the heritage of those that fear your name.
61:6 You will prolong the king's life; His years shall be as many generations.
61:7 He shall abide before God for ever: Oh prepare lovingkindness and truth, that they may preserve him.
61:8 So I will sing praise to your name for ever, That I may daily perform my vows.

Psalm 62

For the Chief Musician; after the manner of Jeduthan. A Psalm of David.

62:1 My soul waits in silence for God only: From him comes my salvation.
62:2 He only is my rock and my salvation: H*e is* my high tower; I shall not be greatly moved.
62:3 How long will ye set upon a man, That ye may slay him, all of you, Like a leaning wall, like a tottering fence?
62:4 They only consult to thrust him down from his dignity; They delight in lies; They bless with their mouth, but they curse inwardly. Selah
62:5 My soul, wait thou in silence for God only; For my expectation is from him.
62:6 He only is my rock and my salvation: He is my high tower; I shall not be moved.
62:7 With God is my salvation and my glory. The rock of my strength, and my refuge, is in God.
62:8 Trust in him at all times, ye people; Pour out your heart before him: God is a refuge for us. Selah
62:9 Surely men of low degree are vanity, and men of high degree are a lie: In the balances they will go up; They are together lighter than a breath.
62:10 Trust not in oppression, and become not vain in robbery: If riches increase, set not your heart upon it.
62:11 God has spoken once, Twice have I heard this, That power belongs to God.
62:12 Also to you, O Lord, belongs lovingkindness; For you render to every man according to his work.

Psalm 63

A Psalm of David when he was in the wilderness of Judah.

63:1 O God, you are my God; earnestly I will seek you: My soul thirsts for you, my flesh longs for you, In a dry and weary land, where no water is.
63:2 So have I looked upon you in the sanctuary, To see your power and your glory.
63:3 Because your lovingkindness is better than life, My lips shall praise you.
63:4 So I will bless you while I live: I will lift up my hands in your name.
63:5 My soul shall be satisfied as with marrow and fatness; And my mouth shall praise you with joyful lips;
63:6 When I remember you upon my bed, a*nd* meditate upon you in the night-watches.
63:7 For you have been my help, and in the shadow of your wings I will rejoice.
63:8 My soul follows hard after you: Your right hand upholds me.
63:9 But those that seek my soul, to destroy it, Shall go into the lower parts of the earth.
63:10 They shall be given over to the power of the sword: They shall be a portion for foxes.
63:11 But the king shall rejoice in God: Every one that swears by him shall glory; For the mouth of them that speak lies shall be stopped.

Psalm 64

For the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David.

64:1 Hear my voice, O God, in my complaint: Preserve my life from fear of the enemy.
64:2 Hide me from the secret counsel of evil-doers, From the tumult of the workers of iniquity;
64:3 Who have whet their tongue like a sword, and have aimed their arrows, even bitter words,
64:4 That they may shoot in secret places at the perfect: Suddenly do they shoot at him, and fear not.
64:5 They encourage themselves in an evil purpose; They commune of laying snares privily; They say, Who will see them?
64:6 They search out iniquities; We have accomplished, say they, a diligent search: And the inward thought and the heart of every one is deep.
64:7 But God will shoot at them; With an arrow suddenly shall they be wounded.
64:8 So they shall be made to stumble, their own tongue being against them: All that see them shall wag the head.
64:9 And all men shall fear; And they shall declare the work of God, and shall wisely consider of his doing.
64:10 The righteous shall be glad in Yehovah, and shall take refuge in him; And all the upright in heart shall glory.

Psalm 65

For the Chief Musician. A Psalm. A song of David.

65:1 Praise waits for you, O God, in Zion; And to you shall the vow be performed.
65:2 O you that hear prayer, To you shall all flesh come.
65:3 Iniquities prevail against me: As for our transgressions, you will forgive them.
65:4 Blessed is the man whom you choose, and cause to approach you, That he may dwell in your courts: We shall be satisfied with the goodness of your house, Your holy temple.
65:5 By terrible things you will answer us in righteousness, Oh God of our salvation, You that are the confidence of all the ends of the earth, and of them that are afar off upon the sea:
65:6 Who by his strength sets fast the mountains, Being girded about with might;
65:7 Who stills the roaring of the seas, The roaring of their waves, and the tumult of the peoples.
65:8 They also that dwell in the uttermost parts are afraid at your tokens: You cause the outgoings of the morning and evening to rejoice.
65:9 You visit the earth, and water it, You greatly enrich it; The river of God is full of water: You provide them grain, when you have so prepared the earth.
65:10 You water its furrows abundantly; You settle the ridges thereof: You make it soft with showers; You bless the springing thereof.
65:11 You crown the year with your goodness; And your paths drop fatness.
65:12 They drop upon the pastures of the wilderness; And the hills are girded with joy.
65:13 The pastures are clothed with flocks; The valleys also are covered over with grain; They shout for joy, they also sing.

Psalm 66

For the Chief Musician. A song, a Psalm.

66:1 Make a joyful noise to God, all the earth:
66:2 Sing forth the glory of his name: Make his praise glorious.

66:3 Say to God, How terrible are your works! Through the greatness of your power shall your enemies submit themselves to you.
66:4 All the earth shall worship you, and shall sing to you; They shall sing to your name. Selah
66:5 Come, and see the works of God; He is terrible in his doing toward the children of men.
66:6 He turned the sea into dry land; They went through the river on foot: There did we rejoice in him.
66:7 He rules by his might for ever; His eyes observe the nations: Let not the rebellious exalt themselves. Selah
66:8 Oh bless our God, ye peoples, and make the voice of his praise to be heard;
66:9 Who holds our soul in life, and permits not our feet to be moved.
66:10 For you, O God, have proved us: You have tried us, as silver is tried.
66:11 You brought us into the net; You layed a sore burden upon our loins.
66:12 You did cause men to ride over our heads; We went through fire and through water; But you brought us out into a wealthy place.
66:13 I will come into your house with burnt offerings; I will pay you my vows, 66:14 Which my lips uttered, and my mouth spoke, when I was in distress.
66:15 I will offer to you burnt offerings of fatlings, With the incense of rams; I will offer bullocks with goats. Selah
66:16 Come, and hear, all ye that fear God, and I will declare what he has done for my soul.
66:17 I cried to him with my mouth, and he was extolled with my tongue.
66:18 If I regard iniquity in my heart, The Lord will not hear:
66:19 But verily God has heard; He has attended to the voice of my prayer.
66:20 Blessed be God, Who has not turned away my prayer, Nor his lovingkindness from me.

Psalm 67

For the Chief Musician; on stringed instruments. A Psalm, a song.

67:1 God be merciful to us, and bless us, a*nd* cause his face to shine upon us; Selah
67:2 That your way may be known upon earth, Your salvation among all nations.
67:3 Let the peoples praise you, O God; Let all the peoples praise you.
67:4 Oh let the nations be glad and sing for joy; For you will judge the peoples with equity, and govern the nations upon earth. Selah
67:5 Let the peoples praise you, O God; Let all the peoples praise you.
67:6 The earth has yielded its increase: God, even our own God, will bless us.
67:7 God will bless us; And all the ends of the earth shall fear him.

Psalm 68

For the Chief Musician; A Psalm of David, a song.

68:1 Let God arise, let his enemies be scattered; Let those also who hate him flee before him.
68:2 As smoke is driven away, so drive them away: As wax melts before the fire, So let the wicked perish at the presence of God.
68:3 But let the righteous be glad; let them exult before God: Yes, let them rejoice with gladness.
68:4 Sing to God, sing praises to his name: Cast up a highway for him that rides through the deserts; His name is Yehovah; and exult ye before him.
68:5 A father of the fatherless, and a judge of the widows, Is God in his holy habitation.
68:6 God sets the solitary in families: He brings out the prisoners into prosperity; But the rebellious dwell in a parched land.

68:7 O God, when you went forth before your people, When you did march through the wilderness; Selah
68:8 The earth trembled, The heavens also dropped rain at the presence of God: Yon Sinai trembled at the presence of God, the God of Israel.
68:9 You, O God, did send a plentiful rain, You did confirm your inheritance, when it was weary.
68:10 Your congregation dwelt therein: You, O God, did prepare of your goodness for the poor.
68:11 The Lord gives the word: The women that publish the tidings are a great host.
68:12 Kings of armies flee, they flee; And she that tarries at home divides the spoil.
68:13 When ye lie among the sheepfolds, It is as the wings of a dove covered with silver, and her pinions with yellow gold.
68:14 When the Almighty scattered kings therein, It was as when it snows in Zalmon.
68:15 A mountain of God is the mountain of Bashan; A high mountain is the mountain of Bashan.
68:16 Why look ye askance, ye high mountains, at the mountain which God has desired for his abode? Yes, Yehovah will dwell in it for ever.
68:17 The chariots of God are twenty thousand, even thousands upon thousands; The Lord is among them, as in Sinai, in the sanctuary.
68:18 You have ascended on high, you have led away captives; You have distributed gifts among men, Yes, among the rebellious also, that Yehovah God might dwell with them.
68:19 Blessed be the Lord, who daily bears our burden, Even the God who is our salvation. Selah
68:20 God is to us a God of deliverances; And to Yehovah the Lord belongs escape from death.
68:21 But God will smite through the head of his enemies, The hairy scalp of such a one as goes on still in his guiltiness.
68:22 The Lord said, I will bring back from Bashan, I will bring them back from the depths of the sea;
68:23 That you may crush them, dipping your foot in blood, That the tongue of your dogs may have its portion from your enemies.
68:24 They have seen your goings, O God, Even the goings of my God, my King, into the sanctuary.
68:25 The singers went before, the minstrels followed after, In the midst of the damsels playing with timbrels.
68:26 Bless ye God in the congregations, Even the Lord, ye that are of the fountain of Israel.
68:27 There is little Benjamin their ruler, The princes of Judah and their council, The princes of Zebulun, the princes of Naphtali.
68:28 Your God has commanded your strength: Strengthen, O God, that which you have wrought for us.
68:29 Because of your temple at Jerusalem Kings shall bring presents to you.
68:30 Rebuke the wild beast of the reeds, The multitude of the bulls, with the calves of the peoples, Trampling under foot the pieces of silver: He has scattered the peoples that delight in war.
68:31 Princes shall come out of Egypt; Ethiopia shall haste to stretch out her hands to God.
68:32 Sing to God, ye kingdoms of the earth; Oh sing praises to the Lord; Selah
68:33 To him that rides upon the heaven of heavens, which are of old; Lo, he utters his voice, a mighty voice.
68:34 Ascribe ye strength to God: His excellency is over Israel, and his strength is in the skies.
68:35 O God, you are terrible out of your holy places: The God of Israel, he gives strength and power to his people. Blessed be God.

Psalm 69

For the Chief Musician; set to Shoshanim. [A Psalm] of David.

69:1 Save me, O God; For the waters are come in to my soul.
69:2 I sink in deep mire, where there is no standing: I am come into deep waters, where the floods overflow me.
69:3 I am weary with my crying; my throat is dried: My eyes fail while I wait for my God.
69:4 They that hate me without a cause are more than the hairs of my head: They that would cut me off, being my enemies wrongfully, are mighty: That which I did not steal I have to restore.
69:5 O God, you know my foolishness; And my sins are not hidden from you.
69:6 Let not them that wait for you be put to shame through me, O Lord Yehovah of hosts: Let not those that seek you be brought to dishonor through me, O God of Israel.
69:7 Because for your sake I have borne reproach; Shame has covered my face.
69:8 I am become a stranger to my brethren, and an alien to my mother's children.
69:9 For the zeal of your house has consumed me; And the reproaches of them that reproach you are fallen upon me.
69:10 When I wept, and chastened my soul with fasting, That was to my reproach.
69:11 When I made sackcloth my clothing, I became a byword to them.
69:12 They that sit in the gate talk of me; And I am the song of the drunkards.
69:13 But as for me, my prayer is to you, O Yehovah. In an acceptable time, O God, in the abundance of your lovingkindness, answer me in the truth of your salvation.
69:14 Deliver me out of the mire, and let me not sink: Let me be delivered from them that hate me, and out of the deep waters.
69:15 Let not the waterflood overwhelm me, Neither let the deep swallow me up; And let not the pit shut its mouth upon me.
69:16 Answer me, O Yehovah; for your lovingkindness is good: According to the multitude of your tender mercies turn thou to me.
69:17 And hide not your face from your servant; For I am in distress; answer me speedily.
69:18 Draw near to my soul, and redeem it: Ransom me because of my enemies.
69:19 You know my reproach, and my shame, and my dishonor: My adversaries are all before you.
69:20 Reproach has broken my heart; and I am full of heaviness: And I looked for some to take pity, but there was no one; And for comforters, but I found none.
69:21 They gave me also gall for my food; And in my thirst they gave me vinegar to drink.
69:22 Let their table before them become a snare; And when they are in peace, let it become a trap.
69:23 Let their eyes be darkened, so that they cannot see; And cause their loins continually to shake.
69:24 Pour out your indignation upon them, and let the fierceness of your anger overtake them.
69:25 Let their habitation be desolate; Let no one dwell in their tents.
69:26 For they persecute him whom you have smitten; And they tell of the sorrow of those whom you have wounded.
69:27 Add iniquity to their iniquity; And let them not come into your righteousness.
69:28 Let them be blotted out of the book of life, and not be written with the righteous.
69:29 But I am poor and sorrowful: Let your salvation, O God, set me up on high.
69:30 I will praise the name of God with a song, and will magnify him with thanksgiving.
69:31 And it will please Yehovah better than an ox, Or a bullock that has horns and hoofs.

69:32 The meek have seen it, and are glad: You that seek after God, let your heart live.
69:33 For Yehovah hears the needy, and despises not his prisoners.
69:34 Let heaven and earth praise him, The seas, and everything that moves therein.
69:35 For God will save Zion, and build the cities of Judah; And they shall abide there, and have it in possession.
69:36 The seed also of his servants shall inherit it; And those who love his name shall dwell therein.

Psalm 70

For the Chief Musician. [A Psalm] of David; to bring to remembrance.

70:1 Make haste, O God, to deliver me; Make haste to help me, O Yehovah.
70:2 Let them be put to shame and confounded That seek after my soul: Let them be turned backward and brought to dishonor That delight in my hurt.
70:3 Let them be turned back by reason of their shame That say, aha, aha.
70:4 Let all those that seek you rejoice and be glad in you; And let such as love your salvation say continually, Let God be magnified.
70:5 But I am poor and needy; Make haste to me, O God: You are my help and my deliverer; O Yehovah, make no tarrying.

Psalm 71

71:1 In you, O Yehovah, do I take refuge: Let me never be put to shame.
71:2 Deliver me in your righteousness, and rescue me: Bow down your ear to me, and save me.
71:3 Be to me a rock of habitation, to which I may continually resort: You have given commandment to save me; For you are my rock and my fortress.
71:4 Rescue me, O my God, out of the hand of the wicked, Out of the hand of the unrighteous and cruel man.
71:5 For you are my hope, O Lord Yehovah: You are my trust from my youth.
71:6 By you have I been holden up since the womb; You are he that took me out of my mother's bowels: My praise shall be continually of you.
71:7 I am as a wonder to many; But you are my strong refuge.
71:8 My mouth shall be filled with your praise, and with your honor all the day.
71:9 Cast me not off in the time of old age; Forsake me not when my strength fails.
71:10 For my enemies speak concerning me; And they that watch for my soul take counsel together,
71:11 Saying, God has forsaken him: Pursue and take him; for there is no one to deliver.
71:12 O God, be not far from me; O my God, make haste to help me.
71:13 Let them be put to shame and consumed that are adversaries to my soul; Let them be covered with reproach and dishonor that seek my hurt.
71:14 But I will hope continually, and will praise you yet more and more.
71:15 My mouth shall tell of your righteousness, a*nd* of your salvation all the day; For I know not the numbers thereof.
71:16 I will come with the mighty acts of the Lord Yehovah: I will make mention of your righteousness, even of yours only.
71:17 O God, you have taught me from my youth; And all this far have I declared your wondrous works.
71:18 Yes, even when I am old and grayheaded, O God, forsake me not, Until I have declared your strength to the next generation, Your might to every one that is to come.
71:19 Your righteousness also, O God, is very high; You who have done great things, O God, who is like you?
71:20 You, who have shown us many and sore troubles, Will revive us again, and will bring us up again from the depths of the earth.
71:21 Increase thou my greatness, and turn again and comfort me.

71:22 I will also praise you with the psaltery, Even your truth, O my God: To you I will sing praises with the harp, O you Holy One of Israel.
71:23 My lips shall shout for joy when I sing praises to you; And my soul, which you have redeemed.
71:24 My tongue also shall talk of your righteousness all the day long; For they are put to shame, for they are confounded, that seek my hurt.

Psalm 72

[A Psalm] of Solomon.

72:1 Give the king your judgments, O God, and your righteousness to the king's son.
72:2 He will judge your people with righteousness, and your poor with justice.
72:3 The mountains shall bring peace to the people, and the hills, in righteousness.
72:4 He will judge the poor of the people, He will save the children of the needy, and will break in pieces the oppressor.
72:5 They shall fear you while the sun remains, and so long as the moon, throughout all generations.
72:6 He will come down like rain upon the mown grass, as showers that water the earth.
72:7 In his days shall the righteous flourish, and abundance of peace, till the moon be no more.
72:8 He shall have dominion also from sea to sea, and from the River to the ends of the earth.
72:9 They that dwell in the wilderness shall bow before him; And his enemies shall lick the dust.
72:10 The kings of Tarshish and of the isles shall render tribute: The kings of Sheba and Seba shall offer gifts.
72:11 Yes, all kings shall fall down before him; All nations shall serve him.
72:12 For he will deliver the needy when he cries, and the poor, that has no helper.
72:13 He will have pity on the poor and needy, and the souls of the needy he will save.
72:14 He will redeem their soul from oppression and violence; And precious will their blood be in his sight:
72:15 And they shall live; and to him shall be given of the gold of Sheba: And men shall pray for him continually; They shall bless him all the day long.
72:16 There shall be abundance of grain in the earth upon the top of the mountains; The fruit thereof shall shake like Lebanon: And they of the city shall flourish like grass of the earth.
72:17 His name shall endure for ever; His name shall be continued as long as the sun: And men shall be blessed in him; All nations shall call him happy.
72:18 Blessed be Yehovah God, the God of Israel, Who only does wondrous things:
72:19 And blessed be his glorious name for ever; And let the whole earth be filled with his glory. Amen, and Amen.
72:20 The prayers of David the son of Jesse are ended.

BOOK III

Psalm 73

A Psalm of Asaph.

73:1 Surely God is good to Israel, even to such as are pure in heart.
73:2 But as for me, my feet were almost gone; my steps had well near slipped.
73:3 For I was envious of the arrogant, when I saw the prosperity of the wicked.
73:4 For there are no pangs in their death; but their strength is firm.
73:5 They are not in trouble as other men; neither are they plagued like other men.

73:6 Therefore pride is as a chain around their neck; violence covers them as a garment.
73:7 Their eyes stand out with fatness: they have more than heart could wish.
73:8 They scoff, and in wickedness speak oppression: they speak loftily.
73:9 They have set their mouth against the heavens, and their tongue walks through the earth.[30]
73:10 Therefore his people return here: and waters of a full cup are drained by them.
73:11 And they say, How does God know? And is there knowledge in the Most High?
73:12 Behold, these are the wicked; and, though always at ease, they increase in riches.
73:13 Surely in vain have I cleansed my heart, and washed my hands in innocence;
73:14 For all the day long have I been plagued, and chastened every morning.
73:15 If I had said, I will speak thus; behold, I had dealt treacherously with the generation of your children.
73:16 When I thought how I might understand this, it was too painful for me;
73:17 Until I went into the sanctuary of God, and considered their latter end.
73:18 Surely you set them in slippery places: you cast them down to destruction.
73:19 How are they become a desolation in a moment! They are utterly consumed with terrors.
73:20 As a dream when one awakes, so, O Lord, when you awake, you will despise their image.
73:21 For my soul was grieved, and I was pricked in my heart:
73:22 So brutish was I, and ignorant; I was as a beast before you.
73:23 Nevertheless I am continually with you: you hold my right hand.
73:24 You will guide me with your counsel, and afterward receive me into glory.
73:25 Whom have I in heaven but you? And there is no one on earth that I desire besides you.
73:26 My flesh and my heart fails; but God is the strength of my heart, and my portion for ever.
73:27 For, lo, they that are far from you shall perish: you have destroyed all those that play the harlot, departing from you.
73:28 But it is good for me to draw near to God: I have made the Lord Yehovah my refuge, that I may tell of all your works.

Psalm 74

Maschil of Asaph.

74:1 O God, why have you cast us off for ever? Why does your anger smoke against the sheep of your pasture?
74:2 Remember your congregation, which you have gotten of old, which you have redeemed to be the tribe of your inheritance; and mount Zion, in which you have dwelt.
74:3 Lift up your feet to the perpetual ruins, all the evil that the enemy has done in the sanctuary.
74:4 Your adversaries have roared in the midst of your assembly; They have set up their ensigns for signs.
74:5 They seemed as men that lifted up Axes upon a thicket of trees.
74:6 And now all the carved work thereof They break down with hatchet and hammers.
74:7 They have set your sanctuary on fire; They have profaned the dwelling-place of your name by casting it to the ground.
74:8 They said in their heart, Let us make havoc of them altogether: They have burned up all the synagogues of God in the land.

[30] They feel free to order everyone around.

74:9 We see not our signs: There is no more any prophet; Neither is there among us any that knows how long.
74:10 How long, O God, shall the adversary reproach? Shall the enemy blaspheme your name for ever?
74:11 Why draw you back your hand, even your right hand? Pluck it out of your bosom and consume them.
74:12 Yet God is my King of old, Working salvation in the midst of the earth.
74:13 You did divide the sea by your strength: You broke the heads of the sea-monsters in the waters.
74:14 You broke the heads of leviathan in pieces; You gave him to be food to the people inhabiting the wilderness.
74:15 You did split fountain and flood: You dried up mighty rivers.
74:16 The day is yours, the night also is yours: You have prepared the light and the sun.
74:17 You have set all the borders of the earth: You have made summer and winter.
74:18 Remember this, that the enemy has reproached, O Yehovah, and that a foolish people has blasphemed your name.
74:19 Oh deliver not the soul of your turtle-dove to the wild beast: Forget not the life of your poor for ever.
74:20 Have respect to the covenant; For the dark places of the earth are full of the habitations of violence.
74:21 Oh let not the oppressed return ashamed: Let the poor and needy praise your name.
74:22 Arise, O God, plead your own cause: Remember how the foolish man reproaches you all the day.
74:23 Forget not the voice of your adversaries: The tumult of those that rise up against you ascends continually.

Psalm 75

For the Chief Musician; [set to] Al-tash-heth. A Psalm of Asaph; a song.

75:1 We give thanks to you, O God; We give thanks, for your name is near: Men tell of your wondrous works.
75:2 When I shall find the set time, I will judge uprightly.
75:3 The earth and all the inhabitants thereof are dissolved: I have set up the pillars of it. Selah
75:4 I said to the arrogant, Deal not arrogantly; And to the wicked, Lift not up the horn:
75:5 Lift not up your horn on high; Speak not with a stiff neck.
75:6 For neither from the east, nor from the west, Nor yet from the south, comes lifting up.
75:7 But God is the judge: He puts down one, and lifts up another.
75:8 For in the hand of Yehovah there is a cup, and the wine foams; It is full of mixture, and he pours out of the same: Surely the dregs thereof, all the wicked of the earth shall drain them, and drink them.
75:9 But I will declare for ever, I will sing praises to the God of Jacob.
75:10 All the horns of the wicked also I will cut off; But the horns of the righteous shall be lifted up.

Psalm 76

For the Chief Musician; on stringed instruments. A Psalm of Asaph, a song.

76:1 In Judah is God known: His name is great in Israel.
76:2 In Salem also is his tabernacle, and his dwelling-place in Zion.
76:3 There he broke the arrows of the bow; The shield, and the sword, and the battle. Selah 76:4 Glorious are you and excellent, From the mountains of prey.

76:5 The stouthearted are made a spoil, They have slept their sleep; And none of the men of might have found their hands.
76:6 At your rebuke, O God of Jacob, Both chariot and horse are cast into a deep sleep.
76:7 You, even you, are to be feared; And who may stand in your sight when once you are angry?
76:8 You did cause sentence to be heard from heaven; The earth feared, and was still,
76:9 When God arose to judgment, To save all the meek of the earth. Selah
76:10 Surely the wrath of man shall praise you: The residue of wrath shall you gird upon you.
76:11 Vow, and pay to Yehovah your God: Let all that are round about him bring presents to him that ought to be feared.
76:12 He will cut off the spirit of princes: He is terrible to the kings of the earth.

Psalm 77

For the Chief Musician; after the manner of Jeduthan. A Psalm of Asaph.

77:1 I will cry to God with my voice, Even to God with my voice; and he will give ear to me.
77:2 In the day of my trouble I sought the Lord: My hand was stretched out in the night, and slacked not; My soul refused to be comforted.
77:3 I remember God, and am disquieted: I complain, and my spirit is overwhelmed. Selah
77:4 You hold my eyes watching: I am so troubled that I cannot speak.
77:5 I have considered the days of old, The years of ancient times.
77:6 I call to remembrance my song in the night: I commune with my own heart; And my spirit makes diligent search.
77:7 Will the Lord cast off for ever? And will he be favorable no more?
77:8 Is his lovingkindness clean gone for ever? Does his promise fail for evermore?
77:9 Has God forgotten to be gracious? Has he in anger shut up his tender mercies? Selah
77:10 And I said, This is my infirmity; But I will remember the years of the right hand of the Most High.
77:11 I will make mention of the deeds of Yehovah; For I will remember your wonders of old.
77:12 I will meditate also upon all your work, and muse on your doings.
77:13 Your way, O God, is in the sanctuary: Who is a great god like to God?
77:14 You are the God that do wonders: You have made known your strength among the peoples.
77:15 You have with your arm redeemed your people, The sons of Jacob and Joseph. Selah
77:16 The waters saw you, O God; The waters saw you, they were afraid: The depths also trembled.
77:17 The clouds poured out water; The skies sent out a sound: Your arrows also went abroad.
77:18 The voice of your thunder was in the whirlwind; The lightnings lightened the world: The earth trembled and shook.
77:19 Your way was in the sea, and your paths in the great waters, and your footsteps were not known.
77:20 You led your people like a flock, By the hand of Moses and Aaron.

Psalm 78

Maschil of Asaph.

78:1 Give ear, O my people, to my law: Incline your ears to the words of my mouth.

78:2 I will open my mouth in a parable; I will utter dark sayings of old,
78:3 Which we have heard and known, and our fathers have told us.
78:4 We will not hide them from their children, Telling to the generation to come the praises of Yehovah, and his strength, and his wondrous works that he has done.
78:5 For he established a testimony in Jacob, and appointed a law in Israel, Which he commanded our fathers, That they should make them known to their children;
78:6 That the generation to come might know them, even the children that should be born; Who should arise and tell them to their children,
78:7 That they might set their hope in God, and not forget the works of God, But keep his commandments,
78:8 And might not be as their fathers, a stubborn and rebellious generation, a generation that set not their heart aright, and whose spirit was not stedfast with God.
78:9 The children of Ephraim, being armed and carrying bows, Turned back in the day of battle.
78:10 They kept not the covenant of God, and refused to walk in his law;
78:11 And they forgat his doings, and his wondrous works that he had shown them.
78:12 Marvellous things did he in the sight of their fathers, In the land of Egypt, in the field of Zoan.
78:13 He split the sea, and caused them to pass through; And he made the waters to stand as a heap.
78:14 In the day-time also he led them with a cloud, and all the night with a light of fire.
78:15 He split rocks in the wilderness, and gave them drink abundantly as out of the depths.
78:16 He brought streams also out of the rock, and caused waters to run down like rivers.
78:17 Yet went they on still to sin against him, To rebel against the Most High in the desert.
78:18 And they tempted God in their heart By asking food according to their desire.
78:19 Yes, they spoke against God; They said, Can God prepare a table in the wilderness?
78:20 Behold, he smote the rock, so that waters gushed out, and streams overflowed; Can he give bread also? Will he provide flesh for his people?
78:21 Therefore Yehovah heard, and was angry; And a fire was kindled against Jacob, and anger also went up against Israel;
78:22 Because they believed not in God, and trusted not in his salvation.
78:23 Yet he commanded the skies above, and opened the doors of heaven;
78:24 And he rained down manna upon them to eat, and gave them food from heaven.
78:25 Man did eat the bread of the mighty: He sent them food to the full.
78:26 He caused the east wind to blow in the heavens; And by his power he guided the south wind.
78:27 He rained flesh also upon them as the dust, and winged birds as the sand of the seas:
78:28 And he let it fall in the midst of their camp, Round about their habitations.
78:29 So they did eat, and were well filled; And he gave them their own desire.
78:30 They were not estranged from that which they desired, Their food was yet in their mouths,
78:31 When the anger of God went up against them, and slew of the fattest of them, and smote down the young men of Israel.
78:32 For all this they sinned still, and believed not in his wondrous works.
78:33 Therefore their days did he consume in vanity, and their years in terror.
78:34 When he slew them, then they inquired after him; And they returned and sought God earnestly.
78:35 And they remembered that God was their rock, and the Most High God their redeemer.
78:36 But they flattered him with their mouth, and lied to him with their tongue.
78:37 For their heart was not right with him, Neither were they faithful in his covenant.

78:38 But he, being merciful, forgave their iniquity, and destroyed them not: Yes, many a time turned he his anger away, and did not stir up all his wrath.
78:39 And he remembered that they were but flesh, a wind that passes away, and comes not again.
78:40 How oft did they rebel against him in the wilderness, and grieve him in the desert!
78:41 And they turned again and tempted God, and provoked the Holy One of Israel.
78:42 They remember not his hand, Nor the day when he redeemed them from the adversary;
78:43 How he set his signs in Egypt, and his wonders in the field of Zoan,
78:44 And turned their rivers into blood, and their streams, so that they could not drink.
78:45 He sent among them swarms of flies, which devoured them; And frogs, which destroyed them.
78:46 He gave also their increase to the caterpillar, and their labor to the locust.
78:47 He destroyed their vines with hail, and their sycomore-trees with frost.
78:48 He gave over their cattle also to the hail, and their flocks to hot thunderbolts.
78:49 He cast upon them the fierceness of his anger, Wrath, and indignation, and trouble, a band of angels of evil.
78:50 He made a path for his anger; He spared not their soul from death, But gave their life over to the pestilence, 78:51 And smote all the first-born in Egypt, The chief of their strength in the tents of Ham.
78:52 But he led forth his own people like sheep, and guided them in the wilderness like a flock.
78:53 And he led them safely, so that they feared not; But the sea overwhelmed their enemies.
78:54 And he brought them to the border of his sanctuary, To this mountain, which his right hand had gotten.
78:55 He drove out the nations also before them, and allotted them for an inheritance by line, and made the tribes of Israel to dwell in their tents.
78:56 Yet they tempted and rebelled against the Most High God, and kept not his testimonies;
78:57 But turned back, and dealt treacherously like their fathers: They were turned aside like a deceitful bow.
78:58 For they provoked him to anger with their high places, and moved him to jealousy with their graven images.
78:59 When God heard this, he was angry, and greatly abhorred Israel;
78:60 So that he forsook the tabernacle of Shiloh, The tent which he placed among men;
78:61 And delivered his strength into captivity, and his glory into the adversary's hand.
78:62 He gave his people over also to the sword, and was angry with his inheritance.
78:63 Fire devoured their young men; And their virgins had no marriage-song.
78:64 Their priests fell by the sword; And their widows made no lamentation.
78:65 Then the Lord awaked as one out of sleep, Like a mighty man that shouts by reason of wine.
78:66 And he smote his adversaries backward: He put them to a perpetual reproach.
78:67 Moreover he refused the tent of Joseph, and chose not the tribe of Ephraim, 78:68 But chose the tribe of Judah, The mount Zion which he loved.
78:69 And he built his sanctuary like the heights, Like the earth which he has established for ever.
78:70 He chose David also his servant, and took him from the sheepfolds:
78:71 From following the ewes that have their young he brought him, To be the shepherd of Jacob his people, and Israel his inheritance.
78:72 So he was their shepherd according to the integrity of his heart, and guided them by the skilfulness of his hands.

Psalm 79

A Psalm of Asaph.

79:1 O God, the nations are come into your inheritance; Your holy temple have they defiled; They have laid Jerusalem in heaps.
79:2 The dead bodies of your servants have they given to be food to the birds of the heavens, The flesh of your saints to the beasts of the earth.
79:3 Their blood have they shed like water round about Jerusalem; And there was no one to bury them.
79:4 We are become a reproach to our neighbors, a scoffing and derision to them who are round about us.
79:5 How long, O Yehovah? will you be angry for ever? Shall your jealousy burn like fire?
79:6 Pour out your wrath upon the nations that know you not, and upon the kingdoms that call not upon your name.
79:7 For they have devoured Jacob, and laid waste his habitation.
79:8 Remember not against us the iniquities of our forefathers: Let your tender mercies speedily meet us; For we are brought very low.
79:9 Help us, O God of our salvation, for the glory of your name; And deliver us, and forgive our sins, for your name's sake.
79:10 Why should the nations say, Where is their God? Let the avenging of the blood of your servants which is shed Be known among the nations in our sight.
79:11 Let the sighing of the prisoner come before you: According to the greatness of your power preserve those that are appointed to death;
79:12 And render to our neighbors sevenfold into their bosom Their reproach, with which they have reproached you, O Lord.
79:13 So we your people and sheep of your pasture Will give you thanks for ever: We will show forth your praise to all generations.

Psalm 80

For the Chief Musician, set to Shoshanim Eduth. A Psalm of Asaph.

80:1 Give ear, O Shepherd of Israel, You that lead Joseph like a flock; You that sit above the cherubim, shine forth.
80:2 Before Ephraim and Benjamin and Manasseh, stir up your might, and come to save us.
80:3 Turn us again, O God; And cause your face to shine, and we shall be saved.
80:4 O Yehovah God of hosts, how long will you be angry against the prayer of your people?
80:5 You have fed them with the bread of tears, and given them tears to drink in large measure.
80:6 You make us a strife to our neighbors; and our enemies laugh among themselves.
80:7 Turn us again, O God of hosts; and cause your face to shine, and we shall be saved.
80:8 You brought a vine out of Egypt: You drove out the nations, and planted it.
80:9 You prepared room before it, and it took deep root, and filled the land.
80:10 The mountains were covered with the shadow of it, and the boughs thereof were like cedars of God.
80:11 It sent out its branches to the sea, and its shoots to the River.
80:12 Why have you broken down its walls, So that all they that pass by the way do pluck it?
80:13 The boar out of the wood ravages it, and the wild beasts of the field feed on it.
80:14 Turn again, we beseech you, O God of hosts: Look down from heaven, and behold, and visit this vine, 80:15 And the stock which your right hand planted, and the branch that you made strong for yourself.

80:16 It is burned with fire, it is cut down: They perish at the rebuke of your countenance.
80:17 Let your hand be upon the man of your right hand, Upon the son of man whom you made strong for yourself.
80:18 So shall we not go back from you: Quicken us, and we will call upon your name.
80:19 Turn us again, O Yehovah God of hosts; Cause your face to shine, and we shall be saved.

Psalm 81

For the Chief Musician; set to the Gittith. [A Psalm] of Asaph.

81:1 Sing aloud to God our strength: Make a joyful noise to the God of Jacob.
81:2 Raise a song, and bring here the timbrel, The pleasant harp with the psaltery.
81:3 Blow the trumpet at the new moon, at the full moon, on our feast-day.
81:4 For it is a statute for Israel, an ordinance of the God of Jacob.
81:5 He appointed it in Joseph for a testimony, When he went out over the land of Egypt, Where I heard a language that I knew not.
81:6 I removed his shoulder from the burden: His hands were freed from the basket.
81:7 You called in trouble, and I delivered you; I answered you in the secret place of thunder; I proved you at the waters of Meribah. Selah
81:8 Hear, O my people, and I will testify to you: O Israel, if you would hearken to me!
81:9 There shall no strange god be among you; Neither shall you worship any foreign god.
81:10 I am Yehovah your God, Who brought you up out of the land of Egypt: Open your mouth wide, and I will fill it.
81:11 But my people hearkened not to my voice; And Israel would not submit to me.
81:12 So I let them go after the stubbornness of their heart, That they might walk in their own counsels.
81:13 Oh that my people would hearken to me, That Israel would walk in my ways!
81:14 I would soon subdue their enemies, and turn my hand against their adversaries.
81:15 The haters of Yehovah would cower themselves before him, and their doom would endure for ever.
81:16 He would feed them also with the finest of the wheat; And with honey out of the rock would I satisfy you.

Psalm 82

A Psalm of Asaph.

82:1 God stands in the congregation of God; He judges among the gods.
82:2 How long will ye judge unjustly, and respect the persons of the wicked? Selah
82:3 Judge the poor and fatherless: Do justice to the afflicted and destitute.
82:4 Rescue the poor and needy: Deliver them out of the hand of the wicked.
82:5 They know not, neither do they understand; They walk to and fro in darkness: All the foundations of the earth are shaken.
82:6 I said, Ye are gods, and all of you sons of the Most High.
82:7 Nevertheless ye shall die like men, and fall like one of the princes.
82:8 Arise, O God, judge the earth; For you shall inherit all the nations.

Psalm 83

A song. A Psalm of Asaph.

83:1 O God, do not keep silence: Hold not your peace, and be not still, O God.
83:2 For, lo, your enemies make a tumult; And they that hate you have lifted up the head.
83:3 They take crafty counsel against your people, and consult together against your hidden ones.
83:4 They have said, Come, and let us cut them off from being a nation; That the name of Israel may be no more in remembrance.
83:5 For they have consulted together with one consent; Against you do they make a covenant:
83:6 The tents of Edom[31] and the Ishmaelites;[32] Moab, and the Hagarenes;
83:7 Gebal,[33] and Ammon,[34] and Amalek; Philistia[35] with the inhabitants of Tyre:[36]
83:8 Assyria[37] also is joined with them; They have helped the children of Lot. Selah
83:9 Do to them as to Midian, as to Sisera, as to Jabin, at the river Kishon;
83:10 Who perished at Endor, Who became as dung for the earth.
83:11 Make their nobles like Oreb and Zeeb; Yes, all their princes like Zebah and Zalmunna;
83:12 Who said, Let us take to ourselves in possession The habitations of God.
83:13 O my God, make them like the whirling dust; As stubble before the wind.
83:14 As the fire that burns the forest, and as the flame that sets the mountains on fire, 83:15 So pursue them with your tempest, and terrify them with your storm.
83:16 Fill their faces with confusion, That they may seek your name, O Yehovah.
83:17 Let them be put to shame and dismayed for ever; Yes, let them be confounded and perish;
83:18 That they may know that you alone, whose name is Yehovah, are the Most High over all the earth.

Psalm 84

For the Chief Musician; set to the Gittith. A Psalm of the sons of Korah.

84:1 How amiable are your tabernacles, O Yehovah of hosts!
84:2 My soul longs, yes, even faints for the courts of Yehovah; My heart and my flesh cry out to the living God.
84:3 Yes, the sparrow has found her a house, and the swallow a nest for herself, where she may lay her young, Even your altars, O Yehovah of hosts, My King, and my God.
84:4 Blessed are they that dwell in your house: They will be still praising you. Selah
84:5 Blessed is the man whose strength is in you; In whose heart are the highways to Zion.
84:6 Passing through the valley of Weeping they make it a place of springs; Yes, the early rain covers it with blessings.
84:7 They go from strength to strength; Every one of them appears before God in Zion.

84:8 O Yehovah God of hosts, hear my prayer; Give ear, O God of Jacob. Selah
84:9 Behold, O God our shield, and look upon the face of your anointed.
84:10 For a day in your courts is better than a thousand elsewhere. I would rather be a doorkeeper in the house of my God, Than to dwell in the tents of wickedness.
84:11 For Yehovah God is a sun and a shield: Yehovah will give grace and glory; No good thing will he withhold from them that walk uprightly.
84:12 O Yehovah of hosts, Blessed is the man that trusts in you.

Psalm 85

For the Chief Musician. A Psalm of the sons of Korah.

85:1 Yehovah, you have been favorable to your land; You have brought back the captivity of Jacob.
85:2 You have forgiven the iniquity of your people; You have covered all their sin. Selah
85:3 You have taken away all your wrath; You have turned yourself from the fierceness of your anger.
85:4 Turn us, O God of our salvation, and cause your indignation toward us to cease.
85:5 Will you be angry with us for ever? Will you draw out your anger to all generations?
85:6 Will you not quicken us again, That your people may rejoice in you?
85:7 Show us your lovingkindness, O Yehovah, and grant us your salvation.
85:8 I will hear what God Yehovah will speak; For he will speak peace to his people, and to his saints: But let them not turn again to folly.
85:9 Surely his salvation is near them that fear him, That glory may dwell in our land.
85:10 Mercy and truth are met together; Righteousness and peace have kissed each other.
85:11 Truth springs out of the earth; And righteousness has looked down from heaven.
85:12 Yes, Yehovah will give that which is good; And our land shall yield its increase.
85:13 Righteousness shall go before him, and shall make his footsteps a way to walk in.

Psalm 86

A Prayer of David

86:1 Bow down your ear, O Yehovah, and answer me; For I am poor and needy.
86:2 Preserve my soul; for I am godly: O thou my God, save your servant that trusts in you.
86:3 Be merciful to me, O Lord; For to you do I cry all the day long.
86:4 Rejoice the soul of your servant; For to you, O Lord, do I lift up my soul.
86:5 For you, Lord, are good, and ready to forgive, and abundant in loving-kindness to all them that call upon you.
86:6 Give ear, O Yehovah, to my prayer; And hearken to the voice of my supplications.
86:7 In the day of my trouble I will call upon you; For you will answer me.
86:8 There is none like you among the gods, O Lord; Neither are there any works like your works.
86:9 All nations whom you have made shall come and worship before you, O Lord; And they shall glorify your name.
86:10 For you are great, and do wondrous things: You are God alone.
86:11 Teach me your way, O Yehovah; I will walk in your truth: Unite my heart to fear your name.

86:12 I will praise you, O Lord my God, with my whole heart; And I will glorify your name for evermore.
86:13 For great is your lovingkindness toward me; And you have delivered my soul from the lowest Sheol.
86:14 O God, the proud are risen up against me, and a company of violent men have sought after my soul, and have not set you before them.
86:15 But you, O Lord, are a God merciful and gracious, Slow to anger, and abundant in lovingkindness and truth.
86:16 Oh turn to me, and have mercy upon me; Give your strength to your servant, and save the son of your handmaid.
86:17 Show me a token for good, That they who hate me may see it, and be put to shame, Because you, Yehovah, have helped me, and comforted me.

Psalm 87

A Psalm of the sons of Korah; a Song.

87:1 His foundation is in the holy mountains.
87:2 Yehovah loves the gates of Zion More than all the dwellings of Jacob.
87:3 Glorious things are spoken of you, O city of God. Selah
87:4 I will make mention of Rahab and Babylon as among them that know me: Behold, Philistia, and Tyre, with Ethiopia: This one was born there.
87:5 Yes, of Zion it shall be said, This one and that one was born in her; And the Most High himself will establish her.
87:6 Yehovah will count, when he writes up the peoples, This one was born there. Selah
87:7 They that sing as well as they that dance shall say, all my fountains are in you.

Psalm 88

A Song, a Psalm of the sons of Korah; for the Chief Musician; set to Mahalath Leannoth. Maschil of Heman the Ezrahite.

88:1 O Yehovah, the God of my salvation, I have cried day and night before you.
88:2 Let my prayer enter into your presence; Incline your ear to my cry.
88:3 For my soul is full of troubles, and my life draws near to Sheol.
88:4 I am reckoned with them that go down into the pit; I am as a man that has no help,
88:5 Cast off among the dead, Like the slain that lie in the grave, Whom you remember no more, and they are cut off from your hand.
88:6 You have laid me in the lowest pit, In dark places, in the deeps.
88:7 Your wrath lies hard upon me, and you have afflicted me with all your waves. Selah
88:8 You have put my acquaintances far from me; You have made me an abomination to them: I am shut up, and I cannot come forth.
88:9 My eye wastes away by reason of affliction: I have called daily upon you, O Yehovah; I have spread forth my hands to you.
88:10 Will you show wonders to the dead? Shall they that are deceased arise and praise you? Selah 88:11 Shall your lovingkindness be declared in the grave? Or your faithfulness in Destruction?
88:12 Shall your wonders be known in the dark? And your righteousness in the land of forgetfulness?
88:13 But to you, O Yehovah, have I cried; And in the morning shall my prayer come before you.
88:14 Yehovah, why do you cast off my soul? Why do you hide your face from me?
88:15 I am afflicted and ready to die from my youth up: While I suffer your terrors I am distracted.

88:16 Your fierce wrath is gone over me; Your terrors have cut me off.
88:17 They came round about me like water all the day long; They compassed me about together.
88:18 Lover and friend have you put far from me, and my acquaintance into darkness.

Psalm 89

Maschil of Ethan the Ezrahite.

89:1 I will sing of the lovingkindness of Yehovah for ever: With my mouth I will make known your faithfulness to all generations.
89:2 For I have said, Mercy shall be built up for ever; Your faithfulness will you establish in the very heavens.
89:3 I have made a covenant with my chosen, I have sworn to David my servant:
89:4 Your seed I will establish for ever, and build up your throne to all generations. Selah
89:5 And the heavens shall praise your wonders, O Yehovah; Your faithfulness also in the assembly of the holy ones.
89:6 For who in the skies can be compared to Yehovah? Who among the sons of the mighty is like Yehovah,
89:7 A God very terrible in the council of the holy ones, and to be feared above all them that are round about him?
89:8 O Yehovah God of hosts, Who is a mighty one, like unto you, O Yehovah? And your faithfulness is round about you.
89:9 You rule the pride of the sea: When the waves thereof arise, you still them.
89:10 You have broken Rahab in pieces, as one that is slain; You have scattered your enemies with the arm of your strength.
89:11 The heavens are yours, the earth also is yours: The world and the fulness thereof, you have founded them.
89:12 The north and the south, you have created them: Tabor and Hermon rejoice in your name.
89:13 You have a mighty arm; Strong is your hand, and high is your right hand.
89:14 Righteousness and justice are the foundation of your throne: Lovingkindness and truth go before your face.
89:15 Blessed is the people that know the joyful sound: They walk, O Yehovah, in the light of your countenance.
89:16 In your name do they rejoice all the day; And in your righteousness are they exalted.
89:17 For you are the glory of their strength; And in your favor our horn shall be exalted.
89:18 For our shield belongs to Yehovah; And our king to the Holy One of Israel.
89:19 Then you spoke in vision to your saints, and said, I have laid help upon one that is mighty; I have exalted one chosen out of the people.
89:20 I have found David my servant; With my holy oil have I anointed him:
89:21 With whom my hand shall be established; Mine arm also shall strengthen him.
89:22 The enemy shall not exact from him, Nor the son of wickedness afflict him.
89:23 And I will beat down his adversaries before him, and smite them that hate him.
89:24 But my faithfulness and my lovingkindness shall be with him; And in my name shall his horn be exalted.
89:25 I will set his hand also on the sea, and his right hand on the rivers.
89:26 He shall cry to me, You are my Father, My God, and the rock of my salvation.
89:27 I also will make him my first-born, The highest of the kings of the earth.
89:28 My lovingkindness I will keep for him for evermore; And my covenant shall stand fast with him.

89:29 His seed also I will make to endure for ever, and his throne as the days of heaven.
89:30 If his children forsake my law, and walk not in my ordinances;
89:31 If they break my statutes, and keep not my commandments;
89:32 Then I will visit their transgression with the rod, and their iniquity with stripes.
89:33 But my lovingkindness I will not utterly take from him, Nor allow my faithfulness to fail.
89:34 My covenant I will not break, Nor alter the thing that is gone out of my lips.
89:35 Once have I sworn by my holiness: I will not lie to David:
89:36 His seed shall endure for ever, and his throne as the sun before me.
89:37 It shall be established for ever as the moon, and as the faithful witness in the sky. Selah
89:38 But you have cast off and rejected, You have been angry with your anointed.
89:39 You have abhorred the covenant of your servant: You have profaned his crown to the ground.
89:40 You have broken down all his hedges; You have brought his strongholds to ruin.
89:41 All that pass by the way rob him: He is become a reproach to his neighbors.
89:42 You have exalted the right hand of his adversaries; You have made all his enemies to rejoice.
89:43 Yes, you turn back the edge of his sword, and have not made him to stand in the battle.
89:44 You have made his brightness to cease, and cast his throne down to the ground.
89:45 The days of his youth have you shortened: You have covered him with shame. Selah
89:46 How long, O Yehovah? will you hide yourself for ever? How long shall your wrath burn like fire?
89:47 Oh remember how short my time is: For what vanity have you created all the children of men!
89:48 What man is he that shall live and not see death, That shall deliver his soul from the power of Sheol? Selah
89:49 Lord, where are your former lovingkindnesses, Which you swore to David in your faithfulness?
89:50 Remember, Lord, the reproach of your servants; How I do bear in my bosom the reproach of all the mighty peoples,
89:51 With which your enemies have reproached, O Yehovah, With which they have reproached the footsteps of your anointed.
89:52 Blessed be Yehovah for evermore. Amen, and Amen.

BOOK IV

Psalm 90

A Prayer of Moses the man of God.

90:1 Lord, you have been our dwelling-place In all generations.
90:2 Before the mountains were brought forth, Or ever you had formed the earth and the world, even from everlasting to everlasting, you are God.
90:3 You turn man to dust, and say, Return, ye children of Adam.
90:4 For a thousand years in your sight are as but the day just gone past, and as a watch in the night.
90:5 You carry them away as by a flood; they are like a dream: In the morning they are like grass which springs up--
90:6 In the morning it flourishes and grows up, in the evening it fades and withers away.

90:7 For we are destroyed by your anger, and by your wrath we are troubled.
90:8 You have set our iniquities before you, our secret sins in the light of your presence.
90:9 For all our days are passed away under your wrath: We finish our years as a sigh.
90:10 The days of our years are seventy, or even by reason of strength eighty years; yet the best of them are but labor and sorrow. For soon they are gone, and we fly away.
90:11 Who knows the power of your anger, and your wrath according to the fear that is due you?
90:12 So teach us to number our days,[38] that we may get us a heart of wisdom.
90:13 Return, O Yehovah! How long? And may you feel sorry about your servants.
90:14 Oh satisfy us in the morning with your lovingkindness, That we may rejoice and be glad all our days.
90:15 Make us glad as many days as in which you have afflicted us, and as many years as in which we have seen evil.
90:16 Let your work appear to your servants, and your glory show upon their children.
90:17 And let the favor of the Lord our God be upon us; And establish the work of our hands upon us; Yes, the work of our hands, establish it.

Psalm 91

91:1 He that dwells in the secret place of the Most High shall abide under the shadow of the Almighty.
91:2 I will say of Yehovah, He is my refuge and my fortress; My God, in whom I trust.
91:3 For he will deliver you from the snare of the fowler, and from the deadly pestilence.
91:4 He will cover you with his pinions, and under his wings shall you take refuge: His truth is a shield and a buckler.
91:5 You shall not be afraid for the terror by night, nor for the arrow that flies by day;
91:6 for the pestilence that walks in darkness, nor for the destruction that wastes at noonday.
91:7 A thousand shall fall at your side, and ten thousand at your right hand; But it shall not come near to you.
91:8 Only with your eyes shall you behold, and see the reward of the wicked.
91:9 For you, O Yehovah, are my refuge! You have made the Most High your habitation;
91:10 There shall no evil befall you, neither shall any plague come near your tent.
91:11 For he shall give his angels charge over you, to keep you in all your ways.
91:12 They shall bear you up in their hands, lest you dash your foot against a stone.
91:13 You shall tread upon the lion and adder: The young lion and the serpent shall you trample underfoot.
91:14 Because he has set his love upon me, therefore I will deliver him: I will set him on high, because he has known my name.
91:15 He shall call upon me, and I will answer him; I will be with him in trouble: I will deliver him, and honor him.
91:16 With long life I will satisfy him, and show him my salvation.

[38] "number our days" means "use our time wisely"

Psalm 92

A Psalm, a Song for the sabbath day.

92:1 It is a good thing to give thanks to Yehovah, and to sing praises to your name, O Most High;
92:2 To show forth your lovingkindness in the morning, and your faithfulness every night,
92:3 With an instrument of ten strings, and with the psaltery; With a solemn sound upon the harp.
92:4 For you, Yehovah, have made me glad through your work: I will triumph in the works of your hands.
92:5 How great are your works, O Yehovah! Your thoughts are very deep.
92:6 A brutish man knows not; Neither does a fool understand this:
92:7 When the wicked spring as the grass, and when all the workers of iniquity do flourish; It is that they shall be destroyed for ever.
92:8 But you, O Yehovah, are on high for evermore.
92:9 For, lo, your enemies, O Yehovah, For, lo, your enemies shall perish; All the workers of iniquity shall be scattered.
92:10 But my horn have you exalted like the horn of the wild-ox: I am anointed with fresh oil.
92:11 My eye also has seen my desire on my enemies, My ears have heard my desire for the evil-doers that rise up against me.
92:12 The righteous shall flourish like the palm-tree: He shall grow like a cedar in Lebanon.
92:13 They are planted in the house of Yehovah; They shall flourish in the courts of our God.
92:14 They shall still bring forth fruit in old age; They shall be full of sap and green:
92:15 To show that Yehovah is upright; He is my rock, and there is no unrighteousness in him.

Psalm 93

93:1 Yehovah reigns; he is clothed with majesty; Yehovah is clothed with strength; he has girded himself with it: The world also is established, such that it cannot be moved.
93:2 Your throne is established of old: You are from everlasting.
93:3 The floods have lifted up, O Yehovah, The floods have lifted up their voice; The floods lift up their waves.
93:4 Above the voices of many waters, the mighty breakers of the sea, Yehovah on high is mighty.
93:5 Your testimonies are very sure: Holiness becomes your house, O Yehovah, for ever more.

Psalm 94

94:1 O Yehovah, you God to whom vengeance belongs, You God to whom vengeance belongs, shine forth.
94:2 Lift up yourself, you judge of the earth: Render to the proud their desert.
94:3 Yehovah, how long shall the wicked, How long shall the wicked triumph?
94:4 They prate, they speak arrogantly: All the workers of iniquity boast themselves.
94:5 They break in pieces your people, O Yehovah, and afflict your heritage.
94:6 They slay the widow and the sojourner, and murder the fatherless.
94:7 And they say, Yehovah will not see, Neither will the God of Jacob consider.
94:8 Consider, ye brutish among the people. And ye fools, when will ye be wise?

94:9 He that planted the ear, shall he not hear? He that formed the eye, shall he not see?
94:10 He that chastises the nations, shall not he correct, Even he that teaches man knowledge?
94:11 Yehovah knows the thoughts of man, That they are vanity.
94:12 Blessed is the man whom you chasten, O Yehovah, and teach out of your law;
94:13 That you may give him rest from the days of adversity, until the pit be dug for the wicked.
94:14 For Yehovah will not cast off his people, Neither will he forsake his inheritance.
94:15 For judgment shall return to righteousness; And all the upright in heart shall follow it.
94:16 Who will rise up for me against the evil-doers? Who will stand up for me against the workers of iniquity?
94:17 Unless Yehovah had been my help, my soul had soon dwelt in silence.
94:18 When I said, My foot slips; your lovingkindness, O Yehovah, held me up.
94:19 In the multitude of my thoughts within me your comforts delight my soul.
94:20 Shall the throne of wickedness have fellowship with you, which frames mischief by statute?
94:21 They gather themselves together against the soul of the righteous, and condemn the innocent blood.
94:22 But Yehovah has been my high tower, and my God the rock of my refuge.
94:23 And he has brought upon them their own iniquity, and will cut them off in their own wickedness; Yehovah our God will cut them off.

Psalm 95

95:1 Oh come, let us sing to Yehovah; Let us make a joyful noise to the rock of our salvation.
95:2 Let us come before his presence with thanksgiving; Let us make a joyful noise to him with psalms.
95:3 For Yehovah is a great God, and a great King above all gods.
95:4 In his hand are the deep places of the earth; The heights of the mountains are his as well.
95:5 The sea is his, and he made it; And his hands formed the dry land.
95:6 Come, let us worship and bow down; Let us kneel before Yehovah who is our Maker:
95:7 For he is our God, and we are the people of his pasture, and the sheep of his hand. Today, oh that ye would hear his voice!
95:8 Harden not your heart, as at Meribah, as in the day of Massah in the wilderness;
95:9 When your fathers tempted me, Proved me, and saw my work.
95:10 Forty years long was I grieved with that generation, and said, It is a people that do err in their heart, and they have not known my ways:
95:11 Wherefore I swore in my wrath, That they should not enter into my rest.

Psalm 96

96:1 Oh sing to Yehovah a new song: Sing to Yehovah, all the earth.
96:2 Sing to Yehovah, bless his name; Show forth his salvation from day to day.
96:3 Declare his glory among the nations, His marvellous works among all the peoples.
96:4 For great is Yehovah, and greatly to be praised: He is to be feared above all gods.
96:5 For all the gods of the peoples are idols; But Yehovah made the heavens.
96:6 Honor and majesty are before him: Strength and beauty are in his sanctuary.
96:7 Ascribe to Yehovah, ye kindreds of the peoples, ascribe to Yehovah glory and strength.

96:8 Ascribe to Yehovah the glory due his name: Bring an offering, and come into his courts.
96:9 Oh worship Yehovah in holy array: Tremble before him, all the earth.
96:10 Say among the nations, Yehovah reigns: The world also is established that it cannot be moved: He will judge the peoples with equity.
96:11 Let the heavens be glad, and let the earth rejoice; Let the sea roar, and the fulness thereof;
96:12 Let the field exult, and all that is therein; Then shall all the trees of the wood sing for joy
96:13 Before Yehovah; for he comes, For he comes to judge the earth: He will judge the world with righteousness, and the peoples with his truth.

Psalm 97

97:1 Yehovah reigns; let the earth rejoice; Let the multitude of isles be glad.
97:2 Clouds and darkness are round about him: Righteousness and justice are the foundation of his throne.
97:3 A fire goes before him, and burns up his adversaries round about.
97:4 His lightnings lightened the world: The earth saw, and trembled.
97:5 The mountains melted like wax at the presence of Yehovah, at the presence of the Lord of the whole earth.
97:6 The heavens declare his righteousness, and all the peoples have seen his glory.
97:7 Let all those be put to shame who serve graven images, That boast themselves of idols: Worship him, all ye gods.
97:8 Zion heard and was glad, and the daughters of Judah rejoiced, Because of your judgments, O Yehovah.
97:9 For you, Yehovah, are most high above all the earth: You are exalted far above all gods.
97:10 O ye that love Yehovah, hate evil: He preserves the souls of his saints; He delivers them out of the hand of the wicked.
97:11 Light is sown for the righteous, and gladness for the upright in heart.
97:12 Be glad in Yehovah, ye righteous; And give thanks to his holy memorial name.

Psalm 98

A Psalm.

98:1 Oh sing to Yehovah a new song; For he has done marvellous things: His right hand, and his holy arm, have wrought salvation for him.
98:2 Yehovah has made known his salvation: His righteousness has he openly shown in the sight of the nations.
98:3 He has remembered his lovingkindness and his faithfulness toward the house of Israel: All the ends of the earth have seen the salvation of our God.
98:4 Make a joyful noise to Yehovah, all the earth: Break forth and sing for joy, yes, sing praises.
98:5 Sing praises to Yehovah with the harp; With the harp and the voice of melody.
98:6 With trumpets and sound of cornet Make a joyful noise before the King, Yehovah.
98:7 Let the sea roar, and the fulness thereof; The world, and they that dwell therein;
98:8 Let the floods clap their hands; Let the hills sing for joy together
98:9 Before Yehovah; for he comes to judge the earth: He will judge the world with righteousness, and the peoples with equity.

Psalm 99

99:1 Yehovah reigns; let the peoples tremble: He sits above the cherubim; let the earth be moved.
99:2 Yehovah is great in Zion; And he is high above all the peoples.
99:3 Let them praise your great and terrible name: Holy is he.
99:4 The king's strength also loves justice; You do establish equity; You execute justice and righteousness in Jacob.
99:5 Exalt ye Yehovah our God, and worship at his footstool: Holy is he.
99:6 Moses and Aaron among his priests, and Samuel among them that call upon his name; They called upon Yehovah, and he answered them.
99:7 He spoke to them in the pillar of cloud: They kept his testimonies, and the statute that he gave them.
99:8 You answered them, O Yehovah our God: You were a God that forgave them, Though you took vengeance of their doings.
99:9 Exalt ye Yehovah our God, and worship at his holy hill; For Yehovah our God is holy.

Psalm 100

A Psalm of thanksgiving.

100:1 Make a joyful noise to Yehovah, all ye lands.
100:2 Serve Yehovah with gladness: Come before his presence with singing.
100:3 Know ye that Yehovah, he is God: It is he that has made us, and we are his; We are his people, and the sheep of his pasture.
100:4 Enter into his gates with thanksgiving, and into his courts with praise: Give thanks to him, and bless his name.
100:5 For Yehovah is good; his lovingkindness endures for ever, and his faithfulness to all generations.

Psalm 101

A Psalm of David.

101:1 I will sing of lovingkindness and justice: To you, O Yehovah, I will sing praises.
101:2 I will behave myself wisely in a perfect way: Oh when will you come to me? I will walk within my house with a perfect heart.
101:3 I will set no base thing before my eyes: I hate the work of them that turn aside; It shall not cleave to me.
101:4 A perverse heart shall depart from me: I will know no evil thing.
101:5 Whoso privately slanders his neighbor, him I will destroy: Him that has a high look and a proud heart I will not endure.
101:6 Mine eyes shall be upon the faithful of the land, that they may dwell with me: He that walks in a perfect way, he shall minister to me.
101:7 He that works deceit shall not dwell within my house: He that speaks falsehood shall not be established before my eyes.
101:8 Morning by morning I will destroy all the wicked of the land; To cut off all the workers of iniquity from the city of Yehovah.

Psalm 102

A Prayer of the afflicted, when he is overwhelmed, and pours out his complaint before Yehovah.

102:1 Hear my prayer, O Yehovah, and let my cry come to you.
102:2 Hide not your face from me in the day of my distress: Incline your ear to me; In the day when I call, answer me speedily.

102:3 For my days consume away like smoke, and my bones are burned as a firebrand.
102:4 My heart is smitten like grass, and withered; For I forget to eat my bread.
102:5 By reason of the voice of my groaning My bones cleave to my flesh.
102:6 I am like a pelican of the wilderness; I am become as an owl of the waste places.
102:7 I watch, and am become like a sparrow that is alone upon the house-top.
102:8 My enemies reproach me all the day; They that are mad against me do curse by me.
102:9 For I have eaten ashes like bread, and mingled my drink with weeping, 102:10 Because of your indignation and your wrath: For you have taken me up, and cast me away.
102:11 My days are like a shadow that is declining; And I am withered like grass.
102:12 But you, O Yehovah, will abide for ever; And your memorial name to all generations.
102:13 You will arise, and have mercy upon Zion; For it is time to have pity upon her, Yes, the set time is come.
102:14 For your servants take pleasure in her stones, and have pity upon her dust.
102:15 So the nations shall fear the name of Yehovah, and all the kings of the earth your glory.
102:16 For Yehovah has built up Zion; He has appeared in his glory.
102:17 He has regarded the prayer of the destitute, and has not despised their prayer.
102:18 This shall be written for the generation to come; And a people which shall be created shall praise Yehovah.
102:19 For he has looked down from the height of his sanctuary; From heaven did Yehovah behold the earth;
102:20 To hear the sighing of the prisoner; To set free those that are appointed to death;
102:21 That men may declare the name of Yehovah in Zion, and his praise in Jerusalem;
102:22 When the peoples are gathered together, and the kingdoms, to serve Yehovah.
102:23 He weakened my strength in the way; He shortened my days.
102:24 I said, O my God, take me not away in the midst of my days: Your years are throughout all generations.
102:25 Of old did you lay the foundation of the earth; And the heavens are the work of your hands.
102:26 They shall perish, but you shall endure; Yes, all of them shall grow old like a garment; As a vesture shall you change them, and they shall be changed:
102:27 But you are the same, and your years shall have no end.
102:28 The children of your servants shall continue, and their seed shall be established before you.

Psalm 103

[A Psalm] of David.

103:1 Bless Yehovah, O my soul; And all that is within me, bless his holy name.
103:2 Bless Yehovah, O my soul, and forget not all his benefits:
103:3 Who forgives all your iniquities; Who heals all your diseases;
103:4 Who redeems your life from destruction; Who crowns you with lovingkindness and tender mercies;
103:5 Who satisfies your desire with good things, So that your youth is renewed like the eagle.
103:6 Yehovah executes righteous acts, and judgments for all that are oppressed.
103:7 He made known his ways to Moses, His doings to the children of Israel.
103:8 Yehovah is merciful and gracious, Slow to anger, and abundant in lovingkindness.

103:9 He will not always chide; Neither will he keep his anger for ever.
103:10 He has not dealt with us according to our sins, Nor rewarded us according to our iniquities.
103:11 For as the heavens are high above the earth, So great is his lovingkindness toward them that fear him.
103:12 As far as the east is from the west, So far has he removed our transgressions from us.
103:13 Like as a father pities his children, So Yehovah pities them that fear him.
103:14 For he knows our frame; He remembers that we are dust.
103:15 As for man, his days are as grass; As a flower of the field, so he flourishes.
103:16 For the wind passes over it, and it is gone; And the place thereof shall know it no more.
103:17 But the lovingkindness of Yehovah is from everlasting to everlasting upon them that fear him, and his righteousness to children's children;
103:18 To such as keep his covenant, and to those that remember his precepts to do them.
103:19 Yehovah has established his throne in the heavens; And his kingdom rules over all.
103:20 Bless Yehovah, ye his angels, That are mighty in strength, that fulfil his word, Hearkening to the voice of his word.
103:21 Bless Yehovah, all ye his hosts, You ministers of his, that do his pleasure.
103:22 Bless Yehovah, all ye his works, In all places of his dominion: Bless Yehovah, O my soul.

Psalm 104

104:1 Bless Yehovah, O my soul. O Yehovah my God, you are very great; You are clothed with honor and majesty:
104:2 Who cover yourself with light as with a garment; Who stretch out the skies like a canopy;
104:3 Who lays the beams of his chambers in the waters; Who makes the clouds his chariot; Who walks upon the wings of the wind;
104:4 Who makes winds his messengers; Flames of fire his ministers;
104:5 Who laid the foundations of the earth, that it should not be moved for ever.
104:6 You covered it with the deep as with a vesture; The waters stood above the mountains.
104:7 At your rebuke they fled; At the voice of your thunder they hastened away
104:8 (The mountains rose, the valleys sank down) To the place which you had founded for them.
104:9 You have set a bound that they may not pass over; That they turn not again to cover the earth.
104:10 He sends forth springs into the valleys; They run among the mountains;
104:11 They give drink to every beast of the field; The wild donkeys quench their thirst.
104:12 By them the birds of the heavens have their habitation; They sing among the branches.
104:13 He waters the mountains from his chambers: The earth is filled with the fruit of your works.
104:14 He causes the grass to grow for the cattle, and herb for the service of man; That he may bring forth food out of the earth,
104:15 And wine that makes glad the heart of man, a*nd* oil to make his face to shine, and bread that strengthens man's heart.
104:16 The trees of Yehovah are filled with moisture, The cedars of Lebanon, which he has planted;
104:17 Where the birds make their nests: As for the stork, the fir trees are her house.
104:18 The high mountains are for the wild goats; The rocks are a refuge for the badger.
104:19 He appointed the moon for seasons: The sun knows his going down.

104:20 You make darkness, and it is night, during which all the beasts of the forest creep forth.
104:21 The young lions roar after their prey, and seek their food from God.
104:22 The sun arises, they get them away, and lay themselves down in their dens.
104:23 Man goes forth to his work And to his labor until the evening.
104:24 O Yehovah, how manifold are your works! In wisdom have you made them all: The earth is full of your riches.
104:25 Yonder is the sea, great and wide, in which are things creeping innumerable, both small and great beasts.
104:26 There go the ships; There is leviathan, whom you have formed to play therein.
104:27 These wait all for you, That you may give them their food in due season.
104:28 You give to them, they gather; You open your hand, they are satisfied with good.
104:29 You hide your face, they are troubled; You take away their breath, they die, and return to their dust.
104:30 You send forth your Spirit, they are created; And you renew the face of the ground.
104:31 Let the glory of Yehovah endure for ever; Let Yehovah rejoice in his works:
104:32 Who looks on the earth, and it trembles; He touches the mountains, and they smoke.
104:33 I will sing to Yehovah as long as I live: I will sing praise to my God while I have any being.
104:34 Let your meditation be sweet to him: I will rejoice in Yehovah.
104:35 Let sinners be consumed out of the earth. And let the wicked be no more. Bless Yehovah, O my soul. Praise ye Yehovah.

Psalm 105

105:1 Oh give thanks to Yehovah, call upon his name; Make known among the peoples his doings.
105:2 Sing to him, sing praises to him; Talk ye of all his marvelous works.
105:3 Glory ye in his holy name: Let the heart of them rejoice that seek Yehovah.
105:4 Seek ye Yehovah and his strength; Seek his face evermore.
105:5 Remember his marvellous works that he has done, His wonders, and the judgments of his mouth,
105:6 O ye seed of Abraham his servant, Ye children of Jacob, his chosen ones.
105:7 He is Yehovah our God: His judgments are in all the earth.
105:8 He has remembered his covenant for ever, The word which he commanded to a thousand generations,
105:9 The covenant which he made with Abraham, and his oath to Isaac,
105:10 And confirmed the same to Jacob for a statute, To Israel for an everlasting covenant,
105:11 Saying, To you I will give the land of Canaan, The lot of your inheritance;
105:12 When they were but a few men in number, Yes, very few, and sojourners in it.
105:13 And they went about from nation to nation, From one kingdom to another people.
105:14 He allowed no man to do them wrong; Yes, he reproved kings for their sakes, 105:15 Saying, Touch not my anointed ones, and do my prophets no harm.
105:16 And he called for a famine upon the land; He broke the whole staff of bread.
105:17 He sent a man before them; Joseph was sold for a servant:
105:18 His feet they hurt with fetters: He was laid in chains of iron,
105:19 Until the time that his word came to pass, The word of Yehovah tried him.
105:20 The king sent and released him; Even the ruler of peoples, and let him go free.
105:21 He made him lord of his house, and ruler of all his substance;

105:22 To bind his princes at his pleasure, and teach his elders wisdom.
105:23 Israel also came into Egypt; And Jacob sojourned in the land of Ham.
105:24 And he increased his people greatly, and made them stronger than their adversaries.
105:25 He turned their heart to hate his people, To deal subtly with his servants.
105:26 He sent Moses his servant, a*nd* Aaron whom he had chosen.
105:27 They set among them his signs, and wonders in the land of Ham.
105:28 He sent darkness, and made it dark; And they rebelled not against his words.
105:29 He turned their waters into blood, and slew their fish.
105:30 Their land swarmed with frogs In the chambers of their kings.
105:31 He spoke, and there came swarms of flies, and lice in all their borders.
105:32 He gave them hail for rain, a*nd* flaming fire in their land.
105:33 He struck their vines also and their fig-trees, and broke the trees of their borders.
105:34 He spoke, and the locust came, and the grasshopper, and that without number,
105:35 And did eat up every herb in their land, and did eat up the fruit of their ground.
105:36 He struck also all the first-born in their land, The chief of all their strength.
105:37 And he brought them forth with silver and gold; And there was not one feeble person among his tribes.
105:38 Egypt was glad when they departed; For the fear of them had fallen upon them.
105:39 He spread a cloud for a covering, and fire to give light in the night.
105:40 They asked, and he brought quails, and satisfied them with the bread of heaven.
105:41 He opened the rock, and waters gushed out; They ran in the dry places like a river.
105:42 For he remembered his holy word, a*nd* Abraham his servant.
105:43 And he brought forth his people with joy, his chosen with singing.
105:44 And he gave them the lands of the nations; And they took the labor of the peoples in possession:
105:45 That they might keep his statutes, and observe his laws. Praise ye Yehovah.

Psalm 106

106:1 Praise ye Yehovah. Oh give thanks to Yehovah; for he is good; For his lovingkindness endures forever.
106:2 Who can utter the mighty acts of Yehovah, Or show forth all his praise?
106:3 Blessed are they that keep justice, and he that does righteousness at all times.
106:4 Remember me, O Yehovah, with the favor that you bear to your people; Oh visit me with your salvation,
106:5 That I may see the prosperity of your chosen, That I may rejoice in the gladness of your nation, That I may glory with your inheritance.
106:6 We have sinned along with our fathers, We have committed iniquity, we have done wickedly.
106:7 Our fathers understood not your wonders in Egypt; They remembered not the multitude of your lovingkindnesses, But were rebellious at the sea, even at the Red Sea.
106:8 Nevertheless he saved them for his name's sake, That he might make his mighty power to be known.
106:9 He rebuked the Red Sea also, and it was dried up: So he led them through the depths, as through a wilderness.
106:10 And he saved them from the hand of him that hated them, and redeemed them from the hand of the enemy.
106:11 And the waters covered their adversaries; There was not one of them left.
106:12 Then believed they his words; They sang his praise.

106:13 They soon forgot his works; They waited not for his counsel, 106:14 But lusted exceedingly in the wilderness, and tempted God in the desert.
106:15 And he gave them their request, But sent leanness into their soul.
106:16 They envied Moses also in the camp, a*nd* Aaron the saint of Yehovah.
106:17 The earth opened and swallowed up Dathan, and covered the company of Abiram.
106:18 And a fire was kindled in their company; The flame burned up the wicked.
106:19 They made a calf in Horeb, and worshipped a molten image.
106:20 Thus they exchanged their glory For the likeness of an ox that eats grass.
106:21 They forgot God their Saviour, Who had done great things in Egypt, 106:22 Wondrous works in the land of Ham, a*nd* terrible things by the Red Sea.
106:23 Therefore he said that he would destroy them, Had not Moses his chosen stood before him in the breach, To turn away his wrath, lest he should destroy them.
106:24 Yes, they despised the pleasant land, They believed not his word, 106:25 But murmured in their tents, and hearkened not to the voice of Yehovah.
106:26 Therefore he swore to them, That he would overthrow them in the wilderness, 106:27 And that he would overthrow their seed among the nations, and scatter them in the lands.
106:28 They joined themselves also to Baal-peor, and ate the sacrifices of the dead.
106:29 Thus they provoked him to anger with their doings; And the plague broke in upon them.
106:30 Then stood up Phinehas, and executed judgment; And so the plague was stayed.
106:31 And that was reckoned to him for righteousness, To all generations for evermore.
106:32 They angered him also at the waters of Meribah, So that it went ill with Moses on their account;
106:33 Because they were rebellious against his spirit, and he spoke unadvisedly with his lips.
106:34 They did not destroy the peoples, as Yehovah commanded them,
106:35 But mingled themselves with the nations, and learned their works, 106:36 And served their idols, Which became a snare to them.
106:37 Yes, they sacrificed their sons and their daughters to demons,
106:38 And shed innocent blood, Even the blood of their sons and of their daughters, Whom they sacrificed to the idols of Canaan; And the land was polluted with blood.
106:39 Thus were they defiled with their works, and played the harlot in their doings.
106:40 Therefore was the wrath of Yehovah kindled against his people, and he abhorred his inheritance.
106:41 And he gave them into the hand of the nations; And they that hated them ruled over them.
106:42 Their enemies also oppressed them, and they were brought into subjection under their hand.
106:43 Many times did he deliver them; But they were rebellious in their counsel, and were brought low in their iniquity.
106:44 Nevertheless he regarded their distress, When he heard their cry:
106:45 And he remembered for them his covenant, and repented according to the multitude of his lovingkindnesses.
106:46 He made them also to be pitied By all those that carried them captive.
106:47 Save us, O Yehovah our God, and gather us from among the nations, To give thanks to your holy name, and to triumph in your praise.
106:48 Blessed be Yehovah, the God of Israel, From everlasting even to everlasting. And let all the people say, amen. Praise ye Yehovah.

BOOK V

Psalm 107

107:1 O give thanks to Yehovah; for he is good; for his lovingkindness endures for ever.
107:2 Let the redeemed of Yehovah say so, whom he has redeemed from the hand of the adversary, 107:3 And gathered out of the lands, from the east and from the west, from the north and from the south.
107:4 Some wandered in the wilderness in a desert way; they found no city of habitation.
107:5 Hungry and thirsty, their soul fainted in them.
107:6 Then they cried to Yehovah in their trouble, and he delivered them out of their distresses, 107:7 He led them also by a straight way, that they might go to a city of habitation.
107:8 Oh that men would praise Yehovah for his lovingkindness, and for his wonderful works to the children of men!
107:9 For he satisfies the longing soul, and the hungry soul he fills with good.
107:10 Some sat in darkness and in the shadow of death, bound in affliction and iron,
107:11 because they rebelled against the words of God, and spurned the counsel of the Most High:
107:12 Therefore he brought down their heart with labor; they fell down, and there was no one to help.
107:13 Then they cried to Yehovah in their trouble, and he saved them out of their distresses.
107:14 He brought them out of darkness and the shadow of death, and broke their bonds asunder.
107:15 Oh that men would praise Yehovah for his lovingkindness, and for his wonderful works to the children of men!
107:16 For he has broken the gates of brass, and cut the bars of iron asunder.
107:17 Some were fools because of their transgression, and because of their iniquities, they are afflicted.
107:18 Their soul abhors any kind of food; and they draw near to the gates of death.
107:19 Then they cry to Yehovah in their trouble, and he saves them out of their distresses.
107:20 He sends his word, and heals them, and delivers them from their traps.
107:21 Oh that men would praise Yehovah for his lovingkindness, and for his wonderful works to the children of men!
107:22 And let them offer the sacrifices of thanksgiving, and declare his works with singing.
107:23 Some, who go down to the sea in ships, who do business in great waters, 107:24 These see the works of Yehovah, and his wonders in the deep.
107:25 For he commands, and raises the stormy wind, which lifts up the waves of it.
107:26 They mount up to the sky, they go back down to the depths: and their soul melts away from the trouble.
107:27 They reel to and fro, and stagger like a drunken man, and are at their wits' end.
107:28 Then they cry to Yehovah in their trouble, and he brings them out of their distresses.
107:29 He makes the storm a calm, so that the waves of it are still.
107:30 Then are they glad because they are quiet; so he brings them to their desired haven.
107:31 Oh that men would praise Yehovah for his lovingkindness, and for his wonderful works to the children of men!

107:32 Let them exalt him also in the assembly of the people, and praise him in the seat of the elders.
107:33 He turns rivers into a wilderness, and watersprings into a thirsty ground;
107:34 A fruitful land into a salt desert, because of the wickedness of those who dwell in it.
107:35 He turns a wilderness into a pool of water, and a dry land into watersprings.
107:36 And there he causes the hungry to dwell, that they may prepare a city of habitation, 107:37 and sow fields, and plant vineyards, and get them fruits of increase.
107:38 He blesses them also, so that they are multiplied greatly; and does not allow their cattle to decrease.
107:39 Again, some are diminished and bowed down, through oppression, trouble, and sorrow.
107:40 He pours contempt upon princes, and causes them to wander in the waste, where there is no way.
107:41 Yet he sets the needy high up from affliction, and makes for him families like a flock.
107:42 The upright shall see it, and be glad; and all iniquity shall shut her mouth.
107:43 Whoso is wise will give heed to these things; and they will consider the lovingkindnesses of Yehovah.

Psalm 108

A Song, a Psalm of David.

108:1 My heart is fixed, O God; I will sing, yes, I will sing praises, even with my glory.
108:2 Awake, psaltery and harp: I myself will awake right early.
108:3 I will give thanks to you, O Yehovah, among the peoples; And I will sing praises to you among the nations.
108:4 For your lovingkindness is great above the heavens; And your truth reaches to the skies.
108:5 Be thou exalted, O God, above the heavens, and your glory above all the earth.
108:6 That your beloved may be delivered, Save with your right hand, and answer us.
108:7 God has spoken in his holiness: I will exult; I will divide Shechem, and portion out the valley of Succoth.
108:8 Gilead is mine; Manasseh is mine; Ephraim also is the defense of my head; Judah is my sceptre.
108:9 Moab is my washpot; Upon Edom I will cast my shoe; Over Philistia I will shout.
108:10 Who will bring me into the fortified city? Who has led me to Edom?
108:11 Have you not cast us off, O God? And you do not go forth, O God, with our hosts.
108:12 Give us help against the adversary; For vain is the help of man.
108:13 Through God we shall do valiantly: For he it is that will tread down our adversaries.

Psalm 109

For the Chief Musicion. A Psalm of David.

109:1 Hold not your peace, O God of my praise;
109:2 For the mouth of the wicked and the mouth of deceit have they opened against me: They have spoken to me with a lying tongue.
109:3 They have compassed me about also with words of hatred, and fought against me without a cause.
109:4 For my love they are my adversaries: But I give myself to prayer.

109:5 And they have rewarded me evil for good, and hatred for my love.
109:6 Set a wicked man over him; And let an adversary stand at his right hand.
109:7 When he is judged, let him come forth guilty; And let his prayer be turned into sin.
109:8 Let his days be few; And let another take his office.
109:9 Let his children be fatherless, and his wife a widow.
109:10 Let his children be vagabonds, and beg; And let them seek their bread out of their desolate places.
109:11 Let the extortioner catch all that he has; And let strangers make spoil of his labor.
109:12 Let there be no one to extend kindness to him; Neither let there be any to have pity on his fatherless children.
109:13 Let his posterity be cut off; In the generation following let their name be blotted out.
109:14 Let the iniquity of his fathers be remembered with Yehovah; And let not the sin of his mother be blotted out.
109:15 Let them be before Yehovah continually, That he may cut off the memory of them from the earth;
109:16 Because he remembered not to show kindness, But persecuted the poor and needy man, and the broken in heart, to slay them.
109:17 Yes, he loved cursing, and it came to him; And he delighted not in blessing, and it was far from him.
109:18 He clothed himself also with cursing as with his garment, and it came into his inward parts like water, and like oil into his bones.
109:19 Let it be to him as the raiment with which he covers himself, and for the girdle with which he is girded continually.
109:20 This is the reward of my adversaries from Yehovah, and of those who speak evil against my soul.
109:21 But deal thou with me, O Yehovah the Lord, for your name's sake: Because your lovingkindness is good, deliver me;
109:22 For I am poor and needy, and my heart is wounded within me.
109:23 I am gone like the shadow when it declines: I am tossed up and down as the locust.
109:24 My knees are weak through fasting; And my flesh fails of fatness.
109:25 I am become also a reproach to them: When they see me, they shake their head.
109:26 Help me, O Yehovah my God; Oh save me according to your lovingkindness:
109:27 That they may know that this is your hand; That you, Yehovah, have done it.
109:28 Let them curse, but bless you: When they arise, they shall be put to shame, But your servant shall rejoice.
109:29 Let my adversaries be clothed with dishonor, and let them cover themselves with their own shame as with a robe.
109:30 I will give great thanks to Yehovah with my mouth; Yes, I will praise him among the multitude.
109:31 For he will stand at the right hand of the needy, To save him from those who judge his soul.

Psalm 110

A Psalm of David.

110:1 Yehovah says to my Lord, Sit at my right hand, Until I make your enemies your footstool.
110:2 Yehovah will send forth the rod of your strength out of Zion: Rule thou in the midst of your enemies.
110:3 Your people offer themselves willingly In the day of your power, in holy array: Out of the womb of the morning You have the dew of your youth.

110:4 Yehovah has sworn, and will not repent: You are a priest for ever After the order of Melchizedek.
110:5 The Lord at your right hand Will strike through kings in the day of his wrath.
110:6 He will judge among the nations, He will fill the places with dead bodies; He will strike through the head in many countries.
110:7 He will drink of the brook in the way: Therefore will he lift up the head.

Psalm 111

111:1 Praise ye Yehovah. I will give thanks to Yehovah with my whole heart, In the council of the upright, and in the congregation.
111:2 The works of Yehovah are great, Sought out of all them that have pleasure therein.
111:3 His work is honor and majesty; And his righteousness endures for ever.
111:4 He has made his wonderful works to be remembered: Yehovah is gracious and merciful.
111:5 He has given food to them that fear him: He will ever be mindful of his covenant.
111:6 He has shown his people the power of his works, In giving them the heritage of the nations.
111:7 The works of his hands are truth and justice; All his precepts are sure.
111:8 They are established for ever and ever; They are done in truth and uprightness.
111:9 He has sent redemption to his people; He has commanded his covenant for ever: Holy and reverend is his name.
111:10 The fear of Yehovah is the beginning of wisdom; A good understanding have all they that do his commandments: His praise endures for ever.

Psalm 112

112:1 Praise ye Yehovah. Blessed is the man that fears Yehovah, That delights greatly in his commandments.
112:2 His seed shall be mighty upon earth: The generation of the upright shall be blessed.
112:3 Wealth and riches are in his house; And his righteousness endures for ever.
112:4 To the upright there arises light in the darkness: He is gracious, and merciful, and righteous.
112:5 Well is it with the man that deals graciously and lends; He shall maintain his cause in judgment.
112:6 For he shall never be moved; The righteous shall be had in everlasting remembrance.
112:7 He shall not be afraid of evil tidings: His heart is fixed, trusting in Yehovah.
112:8 His heart is established, he shall not be afraid, Until he see his desire upon his adversaries.
112:9 He has dispersed, he has given to the needy; His righteousness endures for ever: His horn shall be exalted with honor.
112:10 The wicked shall see it, and be grieved; He shall gnash with his teeth, and melt away: The desire of the wicked shall perish.

Psalm 113

113:1 Praise ye Yehovah. Praise, O ye servants of Yehovah, Praise the name of Yehovah.
113:2 Blessed be the name of Yehovah From this time forth and for evermore.
113:3 From the rising of the sun to the going down of the same Yehovah's name is to be praised.
113:4 Yehovah is high above all nations, and his glory above the heavens.
113:5 Who is like Yehovah our God, That has his seat on high,

113:6 That humbles himself to behold The things that are in heaven and in the earth?
113:7 He raises up the poor out of the dust, and lifts up the needy from the dunghill;
113:8 That he may set him with princes, Even with the princes of his people.
113:9 He makes the barren woman to keep house, a*nd to be* a joyful mother of children. Praise ye Yehovah.

Psalm 114

114:1 When Israel went forth out of Egypt, The house of Jacob from a people of strange language;
114:2 Judah became his sanctuary, Israel his dominion.
114:3 The sea saw it, and fled; The Jordan was driven back.
114:4 The mountains skipped like rams, The little hills like lambs.
114:5 What ails you, O sea, that you flee? You Jordan, that you turn back?
114:6 You mountains, that ye skip like rams; You little hills, like lambs?
114:7 Tremble, you earth, at the presence of the Lord, at the presence of the God of Jacob, 114:8 Who turned the rock into a pool of water, The flint into a fountain of waters.

Psalm 115

115:1 Not to us, O Yehovah, not to us, But to your name give glory, For your lovingkindness, and for your truth's sake.
115:2 Why should the nations say, Where is now their God?
115:3 But our God is in the heavens: He has done whatsoever he pleased.
115:4 Their idols are silver and gold, The work of men's hands.
115:5 They have mouths, but they speak not; Eyes have they, but they see not;
115:6 They have ears, but they hear not; Noses have they, but they smell not;
115:7 They have hands, but they handle not; Feet have they, but they walk not; Neither speak they through their throat.
115:8 They that make them shall be like to them; Yes, every one that trusts in them.
115:9 O Israel, trust in Yehovah: He is their help and their shield.
115:10 O house of Aaron, trust ye in Yehovah: He is their help and their shield.
115:11 You that fear Yehovah, trust in Yehovah: He is their help and their shield.
115:12 Yehovah has been mindful of us; he will bless us: He will bless the house of Israel; He will bless the house of Aaron.
115:13 He will bless them that fear Yehovah, Both small and great.
115:14 May Yehovah increase you more and more, You and your children.
115:15 Blessed are ye of Yehovah, Who made heaven and earth.
115:16 The heavens are the heavens of Yehovah; But the earth he has given to the children of men.
115:17 The dead praise not Yehovah, Neither any that go down into silence;
115:18 But we will bless Yehovah From this time forth and for evermore. Praise ye Yehovah.

Psalm 116

116:1 I love Yehovah, because he hears My voice and my supplications.
116:2 Because he has inclined his ear to me, Therefore I will call upon him as long as I live.
116:3 The cords of death compassed me, and the pains of Sheol got hold upon me: I found trouble and sorrow.
116:4 Then called I upon the name of Yehovah: O Yehovah, I beseech you, deliver my soul.
116:5 Gracious is Yehovah, and righteous; Yes, our God is merciful.
116:6 Yehovah preserves the simple: I was brought low, and he saved me.
116:7 Return to your rest, O my soul; For Yehovah has dealt bountifully with you.

116:8 For you have delivered my soul from death, My eyes from tears, a*nd* my feet from falling.
116:9 I will walk before Yehovah In the land of the living.
116:10 I believe, for I will speak: I was greatly afflicted:
116:11 I said in my haste, all men are liars.
116:12 What shall I render to Yehovah for all his benefits toward me?
116:13 I will take the cup of salvation, and call upon the name of Yehovah.
116:14 I will pay my vows to Yehovah, Yes, in the presence of all his people.
116:15 Precious in the sight of Yehovah Is the death of his saints.
116:16 O Yehovah, truly I am your servant: I am your servant, the son of your handmaid; You have loosed my bonds.
116:17 I will offer to you the sacrifice of thanksgiving, and will call upon the name of Yehovah.
116:18 I will pay my vows to Yehovah, Yes, in the presence of all his people, 116:19 In the courts of Yehovah's house, In the midst of you, O Jerusalem. Praise ye Yehovah.

Psalm 117

117:1 O praise Yehovah, all ye nations; Laud him, all ye peoples.
117:2 For his lovingkindness is great toward us; And the truth of Yehovah endures for ever. Praise ye Yehovah.

Psalm 118

118:1 Oh give thanks to Yehovah; for he is good; For his lovingkindness endures for ever.
118:2 Let Israel now say, That his lovingkindness endures for ever.
118:3 Let the house of Aaron now say, That his lovingkindness endures for ever.
118:4 Let them now that fear Yehovah say, That his lovingkindness endures for ever.
118:5 Out of my distress I called upon Yehovah: Yehovah answered me and set me in a large place.
118:6 Yehovah is on my side; I will not fear: What can man do to me?
118:7 Yehovah is on my side among them that help me: Therefore shall I see my desire upon them that hate me.
118:8 It is better to take refuge in Yehovah Than to put confidence in man.
118:9 It is better to take refuge in Yehovah Than to put confidence in princes.
118:10 All nations surrounded me: In the name of Yehovah I will cut them off.
118:11 They surrounded me; yes, they surrounded me: In the name of Yehovah I will cut them off.
118:12 They surrounded me like bees; They are quenched as the fire of thorns: In the name of Yehovah I will cut them off.
118:13 You did thrust hard at me that I might fall; But Yehovah helped me.
118:14 Yehovah is my strength and my song; And is become my salvation.
118:15 The voice of rejoicing and salvation is in the tents of the righteous: The right hand of Yehovah does valiantly.
118:16 The right hand of Yehovah is exalted: The right hand of Yehovah does valiantly.
118:17 I shall not die, but live, and declare the works of Yehovah.
118:18 Yehovah has chastened me severely; But he has not given me over to death.
118:19 Open to me the gates of righteousness: I will enter into them, I will give thanks to Yehovah.
118:20 This is the gate of Yehovah; The righteous shall enter into it.
118:21 I will give thanks to you; for you have answered me, and are become my salvation.
118:22 The stone which the builders rejected is become the head of the corner.

118:23 This is Yehovah's doing; It is marvellous in our eyes.
118:24 This is the day which Yehovah has made; We will rejoice and be glad in it.
118:25 Save now, we beseech you, O Yehovah: O Yehovah, we beseech you, send now prosperity.
118:26 Blessed be he that comes in the name of Yehovah: We have blessed you out of the house of Yehovah.
118:27 Yehovah is God, and he has given us light: Bind the sacrifice with cords, even to the horns of the altar.
118:28 You are my God, and I will give thanks to you: You are my God, I will exalt you.
118:29 Oh give thanks to Yehovah; for he is good. His lovingkindness endures for ever.

Psalm 119

ALEPH - א

119:1 Blessed are they that are perfect in the way, Who walk in the law of Yehovah.
119:2 Blessed are they that keep his testimonies, That seek him with the whole heart.
119:3 Yes, they do no unrighteousness; They walk in his ways.
119:4 You have commanded us your precepts, That we should observe them diligently.
119:5 Oh that my ways were established To observe your statutes!
119:6 Then I shall not be put to shame, When I have respect unto all your commandments.
119:7 I will give thanks to you with uprightness of heart, When I learn your righteous judgments.
119:8 I will observe your statutes: Oh forsake me not utterly.

BETH - ב

119:9 With what shall a young man cleanse his way? By taking heed thereto according to your word.
119:10 With my whole heart have I sought you: Oh let me not wander from your commandments.
119:11 Your word have I laid up in my heart, That I might not sin against you.
119:12 Blessed are you, O Yehovah: Teach me your statutes.
119:13 With my lips have I declared All the ordinances of your mouth.
119:14 I have rejoiced in the way of your testimonies, as much as in all riches.
119:15 I will meditate on your precepts, and have respect unto your ways.
119:16 I will delight myself in your statutes: I will not forget your word.

GIMEL - ג

119:17 Deal bountifully with your servant, that I may live; So I will observe your word.
119:18 Open thou my eyes, that I may behold Wondrous things out of your law.
119:19 I am a sojourner in the earth: Hide not your commandments from me.
119:20 My soul breaks for the longing that it has unto your ordinances at all times.
119:21 You have rebuked the proud that are cursed, That do wander from your commandments.
119:22 Take away from me reproach and contempt; For I have kept your testimonies.
119:23 Princes also sat and talked against me; But your servant did meditate on your statutes.
119:24 Your testimonies also are my delight And my counsellors.

DALETH - ד

119:25 My soul cleaves to the dust: Quicken thou me according to your word.
119:26 I declared my ways, and you answered me: Teach me your statutes.
119:27 Make me to understand the way of your precepts: So shall I meditate on your wondrous works.
119:28 My soul melts for heaviness: Strengthen thou me according to your word.
119:29 Remove from me the way of falsehood; And grant me your law graciously.
119:30 I have chosen the way of faithfulness: Your ordinances have I set before me.
119:31 I cleave to your testimonies: O Yehovah, put me not to shame.
119:32 I will run the way of your commandments, When you shall enlarge my heart.

HE - ה

119:33 Teach me, O Yehovah, the way of your statutes; And I shall keep it to the end.
119:34 Give me understanding, and I shall keep your law; Yes, I shall observe it with my whole heart.
119:35 Make me to go in the path of your commandments; For therein do I delight.
119:36 Incline my heart to your testimonies, and not to covetousness.
119:37 Turn away my eyes from beholding vanity, and give me life in your ways.
119:38 Confirm to your servant your word, which is so you may be feared.
119:39 Turn away my reproach of which I am afraid; For your ordinances are good.
119:40 Behold, I have longed after your precepts: Give me life in your righteousness.

VAV - ו

119:41 Let your lovingkindnesses also come to me, O Yehovah, Even your salvation, according to your word.
119:42 So shall I have an answer for him who reproaches me; For I trust in your word.
119:43 And take not the word of truth utterly out of my mouth; For I have hoped in your ordinances.
119:44 So shall I observe your law continually For ever and ever.
119:45 And I shall walk at liberty; For I have sought your precepts.
119:46 I will also speak of your testimonies before kings, and shall not be put to shame.
119:47 And I will delight myself in your commandments, Which I have loved.
119:48 I will lift up my hands also to your commandments, which I have loved; And I will meditate on your statutes.

ZAYIN - ז

119:49 Remember the word to your servant, Because you have made me to hope.
119:50 This is my comfort in my affliction; For your word has given me life.
119:51 The proud have had me greatly in derision: Yet I have not swerved from your law.
119:52 I have remembered your ordinances of old, O Yehovah, and have comforted myself.
119:53 Hot indignation has taken hold on me, Because of the wicked that forsake your law.
119:54 Your statutes have been my songs In the house of my pilgrimage.
119:55 I have remembered your name, O Yehovah, in the night, and have observed your law.

119:56 This I have had, Because I have kept your precepts.

HETH - ח

119:57 Yehovah is my portion: I have said that I would observe your words.
119:58 I entreated your favor with my whole heart: Be merciful to me according to your word.
119:59 I thought on my ways, and turned my feet toward your testimonies.
119:60 I made haste, and delayed not, to observe your commandments.
119:61 The cords of the wicked have wrapped me round; But I have not forgotten your law.
119:62 At midnight I will rise to give thanks to you Because of your righteous ordinances.
119:63 I am a companion of all them that fear you, and of them that observe your precepts.
119:64 The earth, O Yehovah, is full of your lovingkindness: Teach me your statutes.

TETH - ט

119:65 You have dealt well with your servant, O Yehovah, according to your word.
119:66 Teach me good judgment and knowledge; For I have believed in your commandments.
119:67 Before I was afflicted I went astray; But now I observe your word.
119:68 You are good, and do good; Teach me your statutes.
119:69 The proud have forged a lie against me: With my whole heart I will keep your precepts.
119:70 Their heart is as fat as grease; But I delight in your law.
119:71 It is good for me that I have been afflicted; That I may learn your statutes.
119:72 The law of your mouth is better to me Than thousands of gold and silver.

YODH - י

119:73 Your hands have made me and fashioned me: Give me understanding, that I may learn your commandments.
119:74 They that fear you shall see me and be glad, Because I have hoped in your word.
119:75 I know, O Yehovah, that your judgments are righteous, and that in faithfulness you have afflicted me.
119:76 Let, I pray you, your lovingkindness be for my comfort, according to your word to your servant.
119:77 Let your tender mercies come to me, that I may live; For your law is my delight.
119:78 Let the proud be put to shame; For they have overthrown me wrongfully: But I will meditate on your precepts.
119:79 Let those that fear you turn to me; And they shall know your testimonies.
119:80 Let my heart be perfect in your statutes, That I be not put to shame.

KAPH - כ

119:81 My soul faints for your salvation; But I hope in your word.
119:82 My eyes fail for your word, While I say, When will you comfort me?
119:83 For I am become like a wine-skin in the smoke; Yet I do not forget your statutes.
119:84 How many are the days of your servant? When will you execute judgment on them that persecute me?
119:85 The proud have dug pits for me, who are not according to your law.

119:86 All your commandments are faithful: They persecute me wrongfully; help thou me.
119:87 They had almost consumed me upon earth; But I forsook not your precepts.

LAMEDH - ל

119:88 Give me life in your lovingkindness; So shall I observe the testimony of your mouth.
119:89 For ever, O Yehovah, Your word is settled in heaven.
119:90 Your faithfulness is to all generations: You have established the earth, and it abides.
119:91 They abide this day according to your ordinances; For all things are your servants.
119:92 Unless your law had been my delight, I should then have perished in my affliction.
119:93 I will never forget your precepts; For with them you have given me life.
119:94 I am yours, save me; For I have sought your precepts.
119:95 The wicked have waited for me, to destroy me; But I will consider your testimonies.

MEM - מ

119:96 I have seen an end of all perfection; But your commandment is exceedingly broad.
119:97 Oh how love I your law! It is my meditation all the day.
119:98 Your commandments make me wiser than my enemies; For they are ever with me.
119:99 I have more understanding than all my teachers; For your testimonies are my meditation.
119:100 I understand more than the aged, Because I have kept your precepts.
119:101 I have refrained my feet from every evil way, That I might observe your word.
119:102 I have not turned aside from your ordinances; For you have taught me.
119:103 How sweet are your words to my taste! Yes, sweeter than honey to my mouth!
119:104 Through your precepts I get understanding: Therefore I hate every false way.

NUN - נ

119:105 Your word is a lamp to my feet, and light to my path.
119:106 I have sworn, and have confirmed it, That I will observe your righteous ordinances.
119:107 I am afflicted very much: Give me life, O Yehovah, according to your word.
119:108 Accept, I beseech you, the freewill-offerings of my mouth, O Yehovah, and teach me your ordinances.
119:109 My soul is continually in my hand; Yet I do not forget your law.
119:110 The wicked have laid a snare for me; Yet I have not gone astray from your precepts.
119:111 Your testimonies I have taken as a heritage for ever; For they are the rejoicing of my heart.
119:112 I have inclined my heart to perform your statutes For ever, even to the end.

SAMEKH - ס

119:113 I hate them that are of a double mind; But your law do I love.

119:114 You are my hiding-place and my shield: I hope in your word.
119:115 Depart from me, ye evil-doers, That I may keep the commandments of my God.
119:116 Uphold me according to your word, that I may live; And let me not be ashamed of my hope.
119:117 Hold me up, and I shall be safe, and shall have respect for your statutes continually.
119:118 You have set at nought all them that go astray from your statutes; For their deceit is falsehood.
119:119 You put away all the wicked of the earth like dross: Therefore I love your testimonies.
119:120 My flesh trembles for fear of you; And I am afraid of your judgments.

AYIN - ע

119:121 I have done justice and righteousness: Leave me not to my oppressors.
119:122 Be surety for your servant for good: Let not the proud oppress me.
119:123 My eyes fail for your salvation, and for your righteous word.
119:124 Deal with your servant according to your lovingkindness, and teach me your statutes.
119:125 I am your servant; give me understanding, That I may know your testimonies.
119:126 It is time for Yehovah to work; For they have made void your law.
119:127 Therefore I love your commandments Above gold, yes, above fine gold.
119:128 Therefore I esteem all your precepts concerning all things to be right; And I hate every false way.

PE - פ

119:129 Your testimonies are wonderful; Therefore does my soul keep them.
119:130 The opening of your words gives light; It gives understanding to the simple.
119:131 I opened wide my mouth, and panted; For I longed for your commandments.
119:132 Turn thou to me, and have mercy upon me, as is your way with those that love your name.
119:133 Establish my footsteps in your word; And let not any iniquity have dominion over me.
119:134 Redeem me from the oppression of man: So I will observe your precepts.
119:135 Make your face to shine upon your servant; And teach me your statutes.
119:136 Streams of water run down my eyes, Because they observe not your law.

TSADHE - צ

119:137 Righteous are you, O Yehovah, and upright are your judgments.
119:138 You have appointed your testimonies in righteousness And all faithfulness.
119:139 My zeal has consumed me, Because my adversaries have forgotten your words.
119:140 Your word is very pure; Therefore your servant loves it.
119:141 I am small and despised; Yet I do not forget your precepts.
119:142 Your righteousness is an everlasting righteousness, and your law is truth.
119:143 Trouble and anguish have taken hold on me; Yet your commandments are my delight.
119:144 Your testimonies are righteous for ever: Give me understanding, and I shall live.

QOPH - ק

119:145 I have called with my whole heart; answer me, O Yehovah: I will keep your statutes.
119:146 I have called to you; save me, and I shall observe your testimonies.
119:147 I anticipated the dawning of the morning, and cried: I hoped in your words.
119:148 My eyes anticipated the night-watches, That I might meditate on your word.
119:149 Hear my voice according to your lovingkindness: Make me alive, O Yehovah, according to your ordinances.
119:150 They draw near that follow after wickedness; They are far from your law.
119:151 You are near, O Yehovah; And all your commandments are truth.
119:152 Of old have I known from your testimonies, That you have founded them for ever.

RESH - ר

119:153 Consider my affliction, and deliver me; For I do not forget your law.
119:154 Plead thou my cause, and redeem me: Quicken me according to your word.
119:155 Salvation is far from the wicked; For they seek not your statutes.
119:156 Great are your tender mercies, O Yehovah: Give me life according to your ordinances.
119:157 Many are my persecutors and my adversaries; Yet I have not swerved from your testimonies.
119:158 I beheld the treacherous, and was grieved, Because they observe not your word.
119:159 Consider how I love your precepts: Give me life, O Yehovah, according to your lovingkindness.
119:160 The sum of your word is truth; And every one of your righteous ordinances endures for ever.

SHIN - ש

119:161 Princes have persecuted me without a cause; But my heart stands in awe of your words.
119:162 I rejoice at your word, as one that finds great spoil.
119:163 I hate and abhor falsehood; But your law do I love.
119:164 Seven times a day do I praise you, Because of your righteous ordinances.
119:165 Great peace have they that love your law; And they have no occasion of stumbling.
119:166 I have hoped for your salvation, O Yehovah, and have done your commandments.
119:167 My soul has observed your testimonies; And I love them exceedingly.
119:168 I have observed your precepts and your testimonies; For all my ways are before you.

TAV - ת

119:169 Let my cry come near before you, O Yehovah: Give me understanding according to your word.
119:170 Let my supplication come before you: Deliver me according to your word.
119:171 Let my lips utter praise; For you teach me your statutes.
119:172 Let my tongue sing of your word; For all your commandments are righteousness.
119:173 Let your hand be ready to help me; For I have chosen your precepts.
119:174 I have longed for your salvation, O Yehovah; And your law is my delight.
119:175 Let my soul live, and it shall praise you; And let your ordinances help me.

119:176 I have gone astray like a lost sheep; Seek your servant; For I do not forget your commandments.

Psalm 120

A Song of Ascents.

120:1 In my distress I cried to Yehovah, and he answered me.
120:2 Deliver my soul, O Yehovah, from lying lips, a*nd* from a deceitful tongue.
120:3 What shall be given to you, and what shall be done more to you, You deceitful tongue?
120:4 Sharp arrows of the mighty, With coals of juniper.
120:5 Woe is me, that I sojourn in Meshech, That I dwell among the tents of Kedar!
120:6 My soul has long had her dwelling With him that hates peace.
120:7 I am for peace: But when I speak, they are for war.

Psalm 121

A Song of Ascents.

121:1 I will lift up my eyes to the hills: From where shall my help come?
121:2 My help comes from Yehovah, who made heaven and earth.
121:3 He will not let your foot be moved: He who keeps you will not slumber.
121:4 Behold, he who keeps Israel will neither slumber nor sleep.
121:5 Yehovah he is your keeper: Yehovah is your shade at your right hand.
121:6 The sun will not smite you by day, nor the moon by night.
121:7 Yehovah will keep you from all evil; he will keep your life.
121:8 Yehovah will keep your going out and your coming in from this time forth, and for evermore.

Psalm 122

A Song of Ascents; of David.

122:1 I was glad when they said to me, Let us go to the house of Yehovah.
122:2 And now our feet are standing within your gates, O Jerusalem.
122:3 Jerusalem, you are built as a city compact together;
122:4 To which the tribes go up, even the tribes of Yehovah; it is an ordinance for Israel, to give thanks to the name of Yehovah.
122:5 For there, thrones for judgment are set, the thrones of the house of David.
122:6 Pray for the peace of Jerusalem: They shall prosper who love you.
122:7 Peace be within your walls, and security within your towers.
122:8 For my brethren and companions' sakes, I will now say, Peace be within you.
122:9 For the sake of the house of Yehovah our God I will seek your welfare.

Psalm 123

A Song of Ascents.

123:1 To you do I lift up my eyes, O you sitting in the heavens.
123:2 Behold, as the eyes of servants look to the hand of their master, as the eyes of a maid to the hand of her mistress; so our eyes look to Yehovah our God, till he has mercy upon us.
123:3 Have mercy upon us, O Yehovah, have mercy upon us. For we have had more than our fill of contempt.
123:4 Our soul has had more than its fill of the scoffing of those who are at ease, and of the contempt of the proud.

Psalm 124

A Song of Ascents; of David.

124:1 If it had not been Yehovah who was on our side, Let Israel now say,
124:2 If it had not been Yehovah who was on our side, when men rose up against us;
124:3 Then they would have swallowed us up alive, when their wrath was kindled against us;
124:4 Then the waters would have overwhelmed us, the stream gone over our soul;
124:5 The proud waters then would have gone over our soul.
124:6 Blessed be Yehovah, who has not given us as prey to their teeth.
124:7 Our soul is escaped as a bird out of the snare of the fowlers: The snare is broken, and we have escaped.
124:8 Our help is in the name of Yehovah, who made heaven and earth.

Psalm 125

A Song of Ascents.

125:1 They that trust in Yehovah are as mount Zion, which cannot be moved, but remains for ever.
125:2 As the mountains are all around Jerusalem, so Yehovah is around his people from this time forth and for evermore.
125:3 For the sceptre of wickedness shall not rest upon the lot of the righteous; That the righteous put not forth their hands toward iniquity.
125:4 Do good, O Yehovah, to those that are good, and to them that are upright in their hearts.
125:5 But as for such as turn aside to their crooked ways, Yehovah will lead them forth with the workers of iniquity. Peace be upon Israel.

Psalm 126

A Song of Ascents.

126:1 When Yehovah brought back those that returned to Zion, we were similar to people dreaming.
126:2 Then was our mouth filled with laughter, and our tongue with singing: Then they were saying among the nations, Yehovah has done great things for them.
126:3 Yehovah has done great things for us, for which we are glad.
126:4 Turn aback our captivity, O Yehovah, as the streams in the South.
126:5 Those who sow in tears shall reap in joy.
126:6 He who goes forth and weeps, bearing seed for sowing, shall doubtless return again with joy, bringing his sheaves along with him.

Psalm 127

A Song of Ascents; of Solomon.

127:1 Unless Yehovah builds the house, they labor in vain who build it. Unless Yehovah keeps the city, the watchman stays awake all in vain.
127:2 In vain you rise up early, and get your rest late, to eat the bread of toil. For He gives to his beloved in sleep.
127:3 Lo, children are a heritage from Yehovah. The fruit of the womb is a reward.
127:4 As arrows in the hand of a mighty man, so are the children out of youth.
127:5 Happy is the man who has his quiver full of them: They shall not be put to shame, when they speak with their enemies in the gate.

Psalm 128

A Song of Ascents.

128:1 Blessed is every one who has fear of Yehovah, who walks in his ways.
128:2 For you shall eat the labor of your hands. Happy shall you be, and it shall be well with you.
128:3 Your wife shall be like a fruitful vine, in the innermost parts of your house; your children like olive plants, round about your table.
128:4 Behold, thus shall that man be blessed who has fear for Yehovah.
128:5 May Yehovah bless you out of Zion; and may you see the good of Jerusalem all the days of your life.
128:6 Yes, may you see your children's children. Peace be upon Israel.

Psalm 129

A Song of Ascents.

129:1 Many a time have they afflicted me from my youth up, Let Israel now say,
129:2 Many a time have they afflicted me from my youth up: Yet they have not prevailed against me.
129:3 The plowers plowed upon my back; They made long their furrows.
129:4 Yehovah is righteous: He has cut asunder the cords of the wicked.
129:5 Let them be put to shame and turned backward, all they who hate Zion.
129:6 Let them be as the grass upon the housetops, which withers before it grows up;
129:7 With which the reaper fills not his hand, nor he that binds sheaves, his bosom.
129:8 Neither do they who pass by say, The blessing of Yehovah be upon you; We bless you in the name of Yehovah.

Psalm 130

A Song of Ascents.

130:1 Out of the depths have I cried to you, O Yehovah.
130:2 O Lord, hear my voice: Let your ears be attentive to the voice of my supplications.
130:3 If you, Yehovah, should mark iniquities, O Lord, who could stand?
130:4 But there is forgiveness with you, that you may be feared.
130:5 I wait for Yehovah, my soul does wait, and in his word do I hope.
130:6 My soul waits for the Lord more than watchmen wait for the morning; Yes, more than watchmen do for the morning.
130:7 O Israel, hope in Yehovah; for with Yehovah there is lovingkindness, and with Him there is plenteous redemption.
130:8 And He will redeem Israel From all his iniquities.

Psalm 131

A Song of Ascents; of David.

131:1 Yehovah, my heart is not haughty, nor my eyes lofty; neither do I exercise myself in great matters, or in things too wonderful for me.
131:2 Surely I have stilled and quieted my soul; like a weaned child with his mother, like a weaned child is my soul within me.
131:3 O Israel, hope in Yehovah from this time forth and for evermore.

Psalm 132

A Song of Ascents.

132:1 Yehovah, remember for David all his affliction;
132:2 How he swore to Yehovah, and vowed to the Mighty One of Jacob:
132:3 Surely I will not come into the tabernacle of my house, nor go up into my bed;
132:4 I will not give sleep to my eyes, or slumber to my eyelids,
132:5 Until I find out a place for Yehovah, a tabernacle for the Mighty One of Jacob.
132:6 Lo, we heard about it in Ephrathah: we found it in the field of the wood.
132:7 We will go into his tabernacles; we will worship at his footstool.
132:8 Arise, O Yehovah, into your resting place; you, and the ark of your strength.
132:9 Let your priest be clothed with righteousness; and your saints shout for joy.
132:10 For your servant David's sake turn not away the face of your anointed.
132:11 Yehovah has sworn to David in truth; He will not turn from it: “Someone from the fruit of your body I will set upon your throne.”
132:12 If your children will keep my covenant, and my testimony that I shall teach them, their children also shall sit upon your throne for evermore.
132:13 For Yehovah has chosen Zion; He has desired it for his habitation.
132:14 This is my resting place for ever: Here I will dwell; for I have desired it.
132:15 I will abundantly bless her provision: I will satisfy her poor with bread.
132:16 Her priests also I will clothe with salvation; And her saints shall shout aloud for joy.
132:17 There I will make the horn of David to bud: I have ordained a lamp for my anointed.
132:18 His enemies I will clothe with shame; But upon himself his crown will flourish.

Psalm 133

A Song of Ascents; of David.

133:1 Behold, how good and how pleasant it is for brethren to dwell together in unity!
133:2 It is like the precious oil upon the head, that ran down upon the beard, even Aaron's beard; that came down upon the skirt of his garments;
133:3 Like the dew of Hermon, that comes down upon the mountains of Zion: For there Yehovah commanded the blessing, even everlasting life.

Psalm 134

A Song of Ascents.

134:1 Behold, bless ye Yehovah, all ye servants of Yehovah, who by night stand in the house of Yehovah.
134:2 Lift up your hands to the sanctuary, and bless ye Yehovah.
134:3 May Yehovah bless you out of Zion; even He who made heaven and earth.

Psalm 135

135:1 Praise ye Yehovah. Praise ye the name of Yehovah; Praise him, O ye servants of Yehovah, 135:2 Ye that stand in the house of Yehovah, In the courts of the house of our God.
135:3 Praise ye Yehovah; for Yehovah is good: Sing praises to his name; for it is pleasant.
135:4 For Yehovah has chosen Jacob to himself, a*nd* Israel for his own possession.
135:5 For I know that Yehovah is great, and that our Lord is above all gods.

135:6 Whatsoever Yehovah pleased, that has he done, In heaven and in earth, in the seas and in all deeps;
135:7 Who causes the vapors to ascend from the ends of the earth; Who makes lightnings for the rain; Who brings forth the wind out of his treasuries;
135:8 Who smote the first-born of Egypt, Both of man and beast;
135:9 Who sent signs and wonders into the midst of you, O Egypt, Upon Pharaoh, and upon all his servants;
135:10 Who smote many nations, and slew mighty kings,
135:11 Sihon king of the Amorites, and Og king of Bashan, and all the kingdoms of Canaan, 135:12 And gave their land for a heritage, a heritage to Israel his people.
135:13 Your name, O Yehovah, endures for ever; Your memorial name, O Yehovah, throughout all generations.
135:14 For Yehovah will judge his people, and repent himself concerning his servants.
135:15 The idols of the nations are silver and gold, The work of men's hands.
135:16 They have mouths, but they speak not; Eyes have they, but they see not;
135:17 They have ears, but they hear not; Neither is there any breath in their mouths.
135:18 Those who make them shall be like to them; Yes, every one that trusts in them.
135:19 O house of Israel, bless ye Yehovah: O house of Aaron, bless ye Yehovah:
135:20 O house of Levi, bless ye Yehovah: You that fear Yehovah, bless ye Yehovah.
135:21 Blessed be Yehovah out of Zion, Who dwells at Jerusalem. Praise ye Yehovah.

Psalm 136

136:1 Oh give thanks to Yehovah; for he is good; For his lovingkindness endures for ever.
136:2 Oh give thanks to the God of gods; For his lovingkindness endures for ever.
136:3 Oh give thanks to the Lord of lords; For his lovingkindness endures for ever:
136:4 To him who alone does great wonders; For his lovingkindness endures for ever:
136:5 To him that by understanding made the heavens; For his lovingkindness endures for ever:
136:6 To him that spread forth the earth above the waters; For his lovingkindness endures for ever:
136:7 To him that made great lights; For his lovingkindness endures for ever:
136:8 The sun to rule by day; For his lovingkindness endures for ever;
136:9 The moon and stars to rule by night; For his lovingkindness endures for ever:
136:10 To him that smote Egypt in their first-born; For his lovingkindness endures for ever;
136:11 And brought out Israel from among them; For his lovingkindness endures for ever;
136:12 With a strong hand, and with an outstretched arm; For his lovingkindness endures for ever:
136:13 To him that divided the Red Sea in sunder; For his lovingkindness endures for ever;
136:14 And made Israel to pass through the midst of it; For his lovingkindness endures for ever;
136:15 But overthrew Pharaoh and his host in the Red Sea; For his lovingkindness endures for ever:
136:16 To him that led his people through the wilderness; For his lovingkindness endures for ever:
136:17 To him that smote great kings; For his lovingkindness endures for ever;
136:18 And slew famous kings; For his lovingkindness endures for ever:

136:19 Sihon king of the Amorites; For his lovingkindness endures forever;
136:20 And Og king of Bashan; For his lovingkindness endures for ever;
136:21 And gave their land for a heritage; For his lovingkindness endures for ever;
136:22 Even a heritage to Israel his servant; For his lovingkindness endures for ever:
136:23 Who remembered us in our low estate; For his lovingkindness endures for ever;
136:24 And has delivered us from our adversaries; For his lovingkindness endures for ever:
136:25 Who gives food to all flesh; For his lovingkindness endures for ever.
136:26 Oh give thanks to the God of heaven; For his lovingkindness endures for ever.

Psalm 137

137:1 By the rivers of Babylon, There we sat down, yes, we wept, When we remembered Zion.
137:2 Upon the willows in the midst thereof We hung up our harps.
137:3 For there those who led us captive required of us songs, and they who wasted us required of us mirth, saying, Sing us one of the songs of Zion.
137:4 How shall we sing Yehovah's song In a foreign land?
137:5 If I forget you, O Jerusalem, Let my right hand forget her skill.
137:6 Let my tongue cleave to the roof of my mouth, If I remember you not; If I prefer not Jerusalem Above my chiefest joy.
137:7 Remember, O Yehovah, against the children of Edom The day of Jerusalem; Who said, Raze it, raze it, Even to the foundation thereof.
137:8 O daughter of Babylon, that are to be destroyed, Happy shall he be, that rewards you As you have served to us.
137:9 Happy shall he be, that takes and dashes your little ones Against the rock.

Psalm 138

A [Psalm] of David.

138:1 I will give you thanks with my whole heart: Before the gods I will sing praises to you.
138:2 I will worship toward your holy temple, and give thanks to your name for your lovingkindness and for your truth: For you have magnified above all else your word and your name.
138:3 In the day that I called, you answered me, You did encourage me with strength in my soul.
138:4 All the kings of the earth shall give you thanks, O Yehovah, For they have heard the words of your mouth.
138:5 Yes, they shall sing of the ways of Yehovah; For great is the glory of Yehovah.
138:6 For though Yehovah is high, yet he has regard to the lowly; But the haughty he knows from afar.
138:7 Though I walk in the midst of trouble, you will revive me; You will stretch forth your hand against the wrath of my enemies, and your right hand will save me.
138:8 Yehovah will perfect that which concerns me: Your lovingkindness, O Yehovah, endures for ever; Forsake not the works of your own hands.

Psalm 139

For the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David.

139:1 O Yehovah, you have searched me, and known me.
139:2 You know my sitting down and my rising up; You understand my thought afar off.

139:3 You search out my path and my lying down, and are acquainted with all my ways.
139:4 For there is not a word in my tongue, But, lo, O Yehovah, you know it altogether.
139:5 You have beset me behind and before, and laid your hand upon me.
139:6 Such knowledge is too wonderful for me; It is high, I cannot attain to it.
139:7 To where shall I go from your Spirit? Or where shall I flee from your presence?
139:8 If I ascend up into heaven, you are there: If I make my bed in Sheol, behold, you are there.
139:9 If I take the wings of the morning, and dwell in the uttermost parts of the sea;
139:10 Even there shall your hand lead me, and your right hand shall hold me.
139:11 If I say, Surely the darkness shall overwhelm me, and the light about me shall be night;
139:12 Even the darkness hides not from you, But the night shines as the day: The darkness and the light are both alike to you.
139:13 For you did form my inward parts: You did cover me in my mother's womb.
139:14 I will give thanks to you; for I am fearfully and wonderfully made: Wonderful are your works; And that my soul knows right well.
139:15 My frame was not hidden from you, When I was made in secret, a*nd* curiously wrought in the lowest parts of the earth.
139:16 Your eyes did see my unformed substance; And in your book they were all written, Even the days that were ordained for me, When as yet there was none of them.
139:17 How precious also are your thoughts to me, O God! How great is the sum of them!
139:18 If I should count them, they are more in number than the sand: When I awake, I am still with you.
139:19 Surely you will slay the wicked, O God: Depart from me therefore, ye bloodthirsty men.
139:20 For they speak against you wickedly, and your enemies take your nam in vain.
139:21 Do I not hate them, O Yehovah, that hate you? And am I not grieved with those that rise up against you?
139:22 I hate them with perfect hatred: They are become my enemies.
139:23 Search me, O God, and know my heart: Try me, and know my thoughts;
139:24 And see if there be any wicked way in me, and lead me in the way everlasting.

Psalm 140

For the Chief Musician. A Psalm of David.

140:1 Deliver me, O Yehovah, from the evil man; Preserve me from the violent man:
140:2 Those who devise mischiefs in their heart; Continually do they gather themselves together for war.
140:3 They have sharpened their tongue like a serpent; Adders' poison is under their lips. Selah
140:4 Keep me, O Yehovah, from the hands of the wicked; Preserve me from the violent man: Who have purposed to thrust aside my steps.
140:5 The proud have hid a snare for me, and cords; They have spread a net beside the way; They have set snares for me. Selah
140:6 I said to Yehovah, You are my God: Give ear to the voice of my supplications, O Yehovah.
140:7 O Yehovah the Lord, the strength of my salvation, You have covered my head in the day of battle.
140:8 Grant not, O Yehovah, the desires of the wicked; Further not his evil device, lest they exalt themselves. Selah

140:9 As for the head of those that compass me about, Let the mischief of their own lips cover them.
140:10 Let burning coals fall upon them: Let them be cast into the fire, Into deep pits, from where they shall not rise.
140:11 An evil speaker shall not be established in the earth: Evil shall hunt the violent man to overthrow him.
140:12 I know that Yehovah will maintain the cause of the afflicted, and justice for the needy.
140:13 Surely the righteous shall give thanks to your name: The upright shall dwell in your presence.

Psalm 141

A Psalm of David.

141:1 Yehovah, I have called upon you; make haste to me: Give ear to my voice, when I call to you.
141:2 Let my prayer be set forth as incense before you; The lifting up of my hands as the evening sacrifice.
141:3 Set a watch, O Yehovah, before my mouth; Keep the door of my lips.
141:4 Incline not my heart to any evil thing, To practice deeds of wickedness With men that work iniquity: And let me not eat of their dainties.
141:5 Let the righteous smite me, it shall be a kindness; And let him reprove me, it shall be as oil upon the head; Let not my head refuse it: For even in their wickedness shall my prayer continue.
141:6 Their judges are thrown down by the sides of the rock; And they shall hear my words; for they are sweet.
141:7 As when one plows and separates the earth, Our bones are scattered at the mouth of Sheol.
141:8 For my eyes are toward you, O Yehovah the Lord: In you do I take refuge; leave not my soul defenseless.
141:9 Keep me from the trap which they have laid for me, and from the snares of the workers of iniquity.
141:10 Let the wicked fall into their own nets, While I pass on by safely.

Psalm 142

Maschil of David, when he was in the cave; a Prayer.

142:1 I cry with my voice to Yehovah; With my voice to Yehovah do I make supplication.
142:2 I pour out my complaint before him; I show before him my trouble.
142:3 When my spirit was overwhelmed within me, You knew my path. In the way in which I walk They have hidden a snare for me.
142:4 Look on m right hand, and see; For there is no man that knows me: Refuge has failed me; No man cares for my soul.
142:5 I cried to you, O Yehovah; I said, You are my refuge, My portion in the land of the living.
142:6 Attend to my cry; For I am brought very low: Deliver me from my persecutors; For they are stronger than I.
142:7 Bring my soul out of prison, That I may give thanks to your name: The righteous shall surround me; For you will deal bountifully with me.

Psalm 143

A Psalm of David.

143:1 Hear my prayer, O Yehovah; give ear to my supplications: In your faithfulness answer me, and in your righteousness.

143:2 And enter not into judgment with your servant; For in your sight no man living is righteous.
143:3 For the enemy has persecuted my soul; He has smitten my life down to the ground: He has made me to dwell in dark places, as those that have been long dead.
143:4 Therefore is my spirit overwhelmed within me; My heart within me is desolate.
143:5 I remember the days of old; I meditate on all your doings; I muse on the work of your hands.
143:6 I spread forth my hands to you: My soul thirsts after you, as a weary land. Selah
143:7 Make haste to answer me, O Yehovah; my spirit fails: Hide not your face from me, Lest I become like them that go down into the pit.
143:8 Cause me to hear your lovingkindness in the morning; For in you do I trust: Cause me to know the way in which I should walk; For I lift up my soul to you.
143:9 Deliver me, O Yehovah, from my enemies: I flee to you to hide me.
143:10 Teach me to do your will; For you are my God: Your Spirit is good; Lead me in the land of uprightness.
143:11 Give me life, O Yehovah, for your name's sake: In your righteousness bring my soul out of trouble.
143:12 And in your lovingkindness cut off my enemies, and destroy all them that afflict my soul; For I am your servant.

Psalm 144

[A Psalm] of David.

144:1 Blessed be Yehovah my rock, Who teaches my hands to war, a*nd* my fingers to fight:
144:2 My lovingkindness, and my fortress, My high tower, and my deliverer; My shield, and he in whom I take refuge; Who subdues my people under me.
144:3 Yehovah, what is man, that you take knowledge of him? Or the son of man, that you make account of him?
144:4 Man is like to vanity: His days are as a shadow that passes away.
144:5 Bow your heavens, O Yehovah, and come down: Touch the mountains, and they shall smoke.
144:6 Cast forth lightning, and scatter them; Send out your arrows, and discomfit them.
144:7 Stretch forth your hand from above; Rescue me, and deliver me out of great waters, Out of the hand of aliens;
144:8 Whose mouth speaks deceit, and whose right hand is a right hand of falsehood.
144:9 I will sing a new song to you, O God: Upon a psaltery of ten strings I will sing praises to you.
144:10 You are he that gives salvation to kings; Who rescues David his servant from the hurtful sword.
144:11 Rescue me, and deliver me out of the hand of aliens, Whose mouth speaks deceit, and whose right hand is a right hand of falsehood.
144:12 When our sons shall be as plants grown up in their youth, and our daughters as corner-stones hewn after the fashion of a palace;
144:13 When our garners are full, affording all manner of store, a*nd* our sheep bring forth thousands and ten thousands in our fields;
144:14 When our oxen are well laden; When there is no breaking in, and no going forth, and no outcry in our streets:
144:15 Happy is the people that is in such a case; Yes, happy is the people whose God is Yehovah.

Psalm 145

[A Psalm of] praise; of David.

145:1 I will extol you, my God, O King; And I will bless your name for ever and ever.
145:2 Every day I will bless you; And I will praise your name for ever and ever.
145:3 Great is Yehovah, and greatly to be praised; And his greatness is unsearchable.
145:4 One generation shall laud your works to another, and shall declare your mighty acts.
145:5 Of the glorious majesty of your honor, and of your wondrous works, I will meditate.
145:6 And men shall speak of the might of your terrible acts; And I will declare your greatness.
145:7 They shall utter the memory of your great goodness, and shall sing of your righteousness.
145:8 Yehovah is gracious, and merciful; Slow to anger, and of great lovingkindness.
145:9 Yehovah is good to all; And his tender mercies are over all his works.
145:10 All your works shall give thanks to you, O Yehovah; And your saints shall bless you.
145:11 They shall speak of the glory of your kingdom, and talk of your power;
145:12 To make known to the sons of men his mighty acts, and the glory of the majesty of his kingdom.
145:13 Your kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and your dominion endures throughout all generations.
145:14 Yehovah upholds all that fall, and raises up all those that are bowed down.
145:15 The eyes of all wait for you; And you give them their food in due season.
145:16 You open your hand, and satisfy the desire of every living thing.
145:17 Yehovah is righteous in all his ways, and gracious in all his works.
145:18 Yehovah is near to all them that call upon him, To all that call upon him in truth.
145:19 He will fulfil the desire of those that fear him; He also will hear their cry and will save them.
145:20 Yehovah preserves all them that love him; But all the wicked will he destroy.
145:21 My mouth shall speak the praise of Yehovah; And let all flesh bless his holy name for ever and ever.

Psalm 146

146:1 Praise ye Yehovah. Praise Yehovah, O my soul.
146:2 While I live I will praise Yehovah: I will sing praises to my God while I have any being.
146:3 Put not your trust in princes, nor in the son of man,[39] in whom there is no help.
146:4 When his breath departs, he returns to the earth; in that very day his thoughts will perish.
146:5 Happy is he who has the God of Jacob for his help, whose hope is in Yehovah his God:
146:6 He who made heaven and earth, the sea, and all that in them is; who keeps truth for ever;
146:7 who executes justice for the oppressed; who gives food to the hungry. Yehovah releases the prisoners;

[39] That is, in a human being.

146:8 Yehovah opens the eyes of the blind; Yehovah raises up those that are bowed down; Yehovah loves the righteous;
146:9 Yehovah preserves the sojourners; He upholds the fatherless and widow; but the way of the wicked he turns upside down.
146:10 Yehovah will reign for ever; your God, O Zion, to all generations. Praise ye Yehovah.

Psalm 147

147:1 Praise ye Yehovah; For it is good to sing praises to our God; For it is pleasant, and praise is comely.
147:2 Yehovah does build up Jerusalem; He gathers together the outcasts of Israel.
147:3 He heals the broken in heart, and binds up their wounds.
147:4 He counts the number of the stars; He calls them all by their names.
147:5 Great is our Lord, and mighty in power; His understanding is infinite.
147:6 Yehovah upholds the meek: He brings the wicked down to the ground.
147:7 Sing to Yehovah with thanksgiving; Sing praises upon the harp to our God,
147:8 Who covers the heavens with clouds, Who prepares rain for the earth, Who makes grass to grow upon the mountains.
147:9 He gives to the beast his food, a*nd* to the young ravens which cry out.
147:10 He delights not in the strength of the horse: He takes no pleasure in the legs of a man.
147:11 Yehovah takes pleasure in them that fear him, In those that hope in his lovingkindness.
147:12 Praise Yehovah, O Jerusalem; Praise your God, O Zion.
147:13 For he has strengthened the bars of your gates; He has blessed your children within you.
147:14 He makes peace in your borders; He fills you with the finest of the wheat.
147:15 He sends out his commandment upon earth; His word runs very swiftly.
147:16 He gives snow like wool; He scatters the hoar-frost like ashes.
147:17 He casts forth his ice like morsels: Who can stand before his cold?
147:18 He sends out his word, and melts them: He causes his wind to blow, and the waters flow.
147:19 He shows his word to Jacob, His statutes and his ordinances to Israel.
147:20 He has not dealt so with any other nation; And as for his ordinances, they have not known them. Praise ye Yehovah.

Psalm 148

148:1 Praise ye Yehovah. Praise ye Yehovah from the heavens: Praise him in the heights.
148:2 Praise ye him, all his angels: Praise ye him, all his host.
148:3 Praise ye him, sun and moon: Praise him, all ye stars of light.
148:4 Praise him, ye heavens of heavens, and ye waters that are above the heavens.
148:5 Let them praise the name of Yehovah; For he commanded, and they were created.
148:6 He has also established them for ever and ever: He has made a decree which shall not pass away.
148:7 Praise Yehovah from the earth, You sea-monsters, and all deeps.
148:8 Fire and hail, snow and vapor; Stormy wind, fulfilling his word;
148:9 Mountains and all hills; Fruitful trees and all cedars;
148:10 Beasts and all cattle; Creeping things and flying birds;
148:11 Kings of the earth and all peoples; Princes and all judges of the earth;
148:12 Both young men and virgins; Old men and children:
148:13 Let them praise the name of Yehovah; For his name alone is exalted; His glory is above the earth and the heavens.
148:14 And he has lifted up the horn of his people, The praise of all his saints; Even of the children of Israel, a people near to him. Praise ye Yehovah.

Psalm 149

149:1 Praise ye Yehovah. Sing to Yehovah a new song, and his praise in the assembly of the saints.
149:2 Let Israel rejoice in him that made him: Let the children of Zion be joyful in their King.
149:3 Let them praise his name in the dance: Let them sing praises to him with timbrel and harp.
149:4 For Yehovah takes pleasure in his people: He will adorn the meek with salvation.
149:5 Let the saints exult in glory: Let them sing for joy upon their beds.
149:6 Let the high praises of God be in their mouth, and a two-edged sword in their hand;
149:7 To execute vengeance upon the nations, and punishments upon the peoples;
149:8 To bind their kings with chains, and their nobles with fetters of iron;
149:9 To execute upon them the judgment written: This honor have all his saints. Praise ye Yehovah.

Psalm 150

150:1 Praise ye Yehovah. Praise God in his sanctuary: Praise him in the firmament of his power.
150:2 Praise him for his mighty acts: Praise him according to his excellent greatness.
150:3 Praise him with trumpet sound: Praise him with psaltery and harp.
150:4 Praise him with timbrel and dance: Praise him with stringed instruments and pipe.
150:5 Praise him with loud cymbals: Praise him with high sounding cymbals.
150:6 Let everything that has breath praise Yehovah. Praise ye Yehovah.

Proverbs

Chapter 1

1:1 The proverbs of Solomon the son of David, king of Israel:
1:2 To know wisdom and instruction; to discern the words of understanding;
1:3 To receive instruction in wise dealing, in righteousness and justice and equity;
1:4 To give prudence to the simple, to the young man knowledge and discretion:
1:5 That the wise man may hear, and increase in learning; and that the man of understanding may attain to sound counsels:
1:6 To understand a proverb, and a figure, the words of the wise, and their dark sayings.
1:7 The fear of Yehovah is the beginning of knowledge; but the foolish despise wisdom and instruction.
1:8 My son, hear the instruction of your father, and forsake not the law of your mother:
1:9 For they shall be a chaplet of grace to your head, and chains about your neck.
1:10 My son, if sinners entice you, do not consent.
1:11 If they say, Come with us, let us lay wait for blood; let us lurk secretly for the innocent without cause;
1:12 Let us swallow them up alive as Sheol, and whole, as those that go down into the pit;
1:13 We shall find all precious substance; we shall fill our houses with spoil;
1:14 You shall cast your lot among us; we will have one common purse:
1:15 My son, walk not in the way with them; refrain your foot from their path:
1:16 For their feet run to evil, and they make haste to shed blood.
1:17 For in vain is the net spread in the sight of any bird:
1:18 And these lay wait for their own blood; they lurk stealthily for their own lives.
1:19 Such are the ways of every one that is greedy for gain; it takes away the life of the owners thereof.

1:20 Wisdom cries aloud in the street; she utters her voice in the broad places;
1:21 She cries in the chief place of concourse; at the entrance of the gates, In the city, she utters her words:
1:22 How long, ye simple ones, will ye love simplicity? And scoffers delight themselves in scoffing, and fools hate knowledge?
1:23 Turn yourselves at my reproof: Behold, I will pour out my spirit upon you; I will make known my words to you.
1:24 For I have before called, and ye have refused. I have stretched out my hand, and no one regarded;
1:25 But rather ye have set at nought all my counsel, and wanted none of my reproof,
1:26 I then will laugh in the day of your calamity; I will mock when comes what you fear;
1:27 when your fear comes as a storm, and your calamity comes on as a whirlwind; when distress and anguish come upon you.
1:28 Then will they call upon me, but I will not answer; They will seek me diligently, but they shall not find me;
1:29 because they hated knowledge, and did not choose the fear of Yehovah:
1:30 They would have none of my counsel; they despised all my reproof.
1:31 Therefore shall they eat of the fruit of their own way, and be filled with the result of their own counsel.
1:32 For the backsliding of the simple shall slay them, and the careless ease of fools shall destroy them.
1:33 But whoso hearkens to me shall dwell securely, and be tranquil without fear of evil.

Chapter 2

2:1 My son, if you will receive my words, and lay up my commandments with you;
2:2 So as to incline your ear to wisdom, and apply your heart to understanding;
2:3 Yes, if you cry after discernment, and lift up your voice for understanding;
2:4 If you seek her as silver, and search for her as for hidden treasures:
2:5 Then shall you understand the fear of Yehovah, and find the knowledge of God.
2:6 For Yehovah gives wisdom; out of his mouth comes knowledge and understanding:
2:7 He lays up sound wisdom for the upright; He is a shield to them that walk in integrity;
2:8 That he may guard the paths of justice, and preserve the way of his saints.
2:9 Then shall you understand righteousness and justice, and equity; yes, every good path.
2:10 For wisdom shall enter into your heart, and knowledge shall be pleasant to your soul;
2:11 Discretion shall watch over you; understanding shall keep you:
2:12 To deliver you from the way of the evil, from the men that speak perverse things;
2:13 Who forsake the paths of uprightness, to walk in the ways of darkness;
2:14 Who rejoice to do evil, and delight in the perverseness of evil;
2:15 Who are crooked in their ways, and wayward in their paths:
2:16 To deliver you from the prostitute, from the adulteress that flatters with her words;
2:17 That forsakes the friend of her youth, and forgets the covenant of her God:
2:18 For her house slopes down toward death, and her paths to the dead;
2:19 None that go to her ever return, Neither do they attain to the paths of life:
2:20 That you may walk in the way of good men, and keep the paths of the righteous.
2:21 For the upright shall dwell in the land, and the perfect shall remain in it.
2:22 But the wicked shall be cut off from the land, and the treacherous shall be rooted out of it.

Chapter 3

3:1 My son, forget not my law; But let your heart keep my commandments:
3:2 For length of days, and years of life, and peace, will they add to you.
3:3 Let not kindness and truth forsake you: Bind them about your neck; Write them upon the tablet of your heart:
3:4 So shall you find favor and good understanding In the sight of God and man.
3:5 Trust in Yehovah with all your heart, and lean not upon your own understanding:
3:6 In all your ways acknowledge him, and he will direct your paths.
3:7 Be not wise in your own eyes; Fear Yehovah, and depart from evil:
3:8 It will be health to your navel, and marrow to your bones.
3:9 Honor Yehovah with your substance, and with the first-fruits of all your increase:
3:10 So shall your barns be filled with plenty, and your vats overflow with new wine.
3:11 My son, despise not the chastening of Yehovah; neither be weary of his reproof:
3:12 For whom Yehovah loves he reproves; just as a father the son in whom he delights.
3:13 Happy is the man that finds wisdom, and the man that gets understanding.
3:14 For the gaining of it is better than the gaining of silver, and the profit from it than fine gold.
3:15 She is more precious than rubies: and none of the things you can desire are to be compared to her.
3:16 Length of days is in her right hand; in her left hand are riches and honor.
3:17 Her ways are ways of pleasantness, and all her paths are peace.

3:18 She is a tree of life to them that lay hold upon her: and happy is every one that retains her.
3:19 Yehovah by wisdom founded the earth. By understanding he established the heavens.
3:20 By his knowledge the depths were broken up, and the skies drop down the dew.
3:21 My son, let them not depart from your eyes. Keep sound wisdom and discretion:
3:22 So shall they be life to your soul, and grace to your neck.
3:23 Then shall you walk in your way securely, and your foot shall not stumble.
3:24 When you lie down, you shall not be afraid. Yes, you shall lie down, and your sleep shall be sweet.
3:25 Be not afraid of sudden fear, neither of the desolation of the wicked, when it comes:
3:26 For Yehovah will be your confidence, and keep your foot from being taken.
3:27 Withhold not good from them to whom it is due, when it is in the power of your hand to do it.
3:28 Say not to your neighbor, "Go, and come again, and tomorrow I will give," when you have it by you.
3:29 Devise not evil against your neighbor, seeing he dwells securely by you.
3:30 Strive not with a man without cause, if he has done you no harm.
3:31 Envy not the man of violence, and choose none of his ways.
3:32 For the perverse man is an abomination to Yehovah, but His friendship is with the upright.
3:33 The curse of Yehovah is in the house of the wicked; but he blesses the habitation of the righteous.
3:34 Surely He scoffs at the scoffers; but He gives grace to the lowly.
3:35 The wise shall inherit glory; but shame shall be the promotion of fools.

Chapter 4

4:1 Hear, my sons, the instruction of a father, and pay attention to know understanding:
4:2 For I give you good doctrine; forsake ye not my law.
4:3 For I was a son to my father, Tender and only beloved in the sight of my mother.
4:4 And he taught me, and said to me: Let your heart retain my words; Keep my commandments, and live;
4:5 Get wisdom, get understanding; Forget not, neither decline from the words of my mouth;
4:6 Forsake her not, and she will preserve you; Love her, and she will keep you.
4:7 Wisdom is the principal thing; therefore get wisdom; Yes, with all your getting get understanding.
4:8 Exalt her, and she will promote you; She will bring you to honor, when you do embrace her.
4:9 She will give to your head a chaplet of grace; A crown of beauty will she deliver to you.
4:10 Hear, O my son, and receive my sayings; And the years of your life shall be many.
4:11 I have taught you in the way of wisdom; I have led you in paths of uprightness.
4:12 When you go, your steps shall not be straitened; And if you runnest, you shall not stumble.
4:13 Take fast hold of instruction; let her not go: Keep her; for she is your life.
4:14 Enter not into the path of the wicked, and walk not in the way of evil men.
4:15 Avoid it, pass not by it; Turn from it, and pass on.
4:16 For they sleep not, without first doing evil; and their sleep is taken away, unless they cause someone to fall.
4:17 For they eat the bread of wickedness, and drink the wine of violence.

4:18 But the path of the righteous is as the dawning light, that shines more and more to the perfect day.
4:19 The way of the wicked is as darkness: they know not by what they stumble.
4:20 My son, attend to my words; incline your ear to my sayings.
4:21 Let them not depart from your eyes; keep them in the midst of your heart.
4:22 For they are life to those that find them, and health to all their flesh.
4:23 Keep your heart with all diligence; For out of it are the issues of life.
4:24 Put away from you a wayward mouth, and perverse lips put far from you.
4:25 Let your eyes look right on, and let your eyelids look straight before you.
4:26 Make level the path of your feet, and let all your ways be established.
4:27 Turn not to the right hand nor to the left: Remove your foot from evil.

Chapter 5

5:1 My son, attend to my wisdom; incline your ear to my understanding:
5:2 That you may preserve discretion, and your lips may keep knowledge.
5:3 For the lips of a prostitute drop honey, and her mouth is smoother than oil:
5:4 But in the end she is bitter as wormwood, sharp as a two-edged sword.
5:5 Her feet go down to death; her steps take hold of Sheol;
5:6 So that she finds not the level path of life: her ways are unstable, and she does not know it.
5:7 Now therefore, my sons, hearken to me, and do not depart from the words of my mouth.
5:8 Remove your way far from her, and come not near the door of her house;
5:9 Lest you give your honor to others, and your years to the cruel;
5:10 Lest strangers be filled with your wealth, and your labors go to the house of an alien,
5:11 And you mourn at your latter end, when your flesh and your body are consumed,
5:12 And say, How I hated instruction, and my heart despised reproof;
5:13 Neither have I obeyed the voice of my teachers, nor inclined my ear to those who instructed me!
5:14 I was almost in utter ruin in the midst of the assembly and congregation.
5:15 Drink waters out of your own cistern, and running waters out of your own well.
5:16 Should your springs be dispersed abroad, and streams of water in the streets?
5:17 Let them be for yourself alone, and not for strangers with you.
5:18 Let your fountain be blessed; and rejoice in the wife of your youth.
5:19 as a loving deer and a pleasant doe, let her breasts satisfy you at all times; and be captivated always by her love.
5:20 For why should you, my son, be captivated by a prostitute, and embrace the bosom of an adulteress?
5:21 For the ways of man are before the eyes of Yehovah; and he considers all their paths.
5:22 His own iniquities shall take the wicked, and he shall be holden with the cords of his sin.
5:23 He shall die for lack of instruction; And in the greatness of his folly he shall go astray.

Chapter 6

6:1 My son, if you are become surety for your neighbor, If you have stricken your hands for a stranger;
6:2 You are snared with the words of your mouth, You are taken with the words of your mouth.
6:3 Do this now, my son, and deliver yourself, Seeing you are come into the hand of your neighbor: Go, humble yourself, and importune your neighbor;
6:4 Give not sleep to your eyes, Nor slumber to your eyelids;
6:5 Deliver yourself as a roe from the hand of the hunter, and as a bird from the hand of the fowler.

6:6 Go to the ant, you sluggard; Consider her ways, and be wise:
6:7 Which having no chief, Overseer, or ruler,
6:8 Provides her bread in the summer, and gathers her food in the harvest.
6:9 How long will you sleep, O sluggard? When will you arise out of your sleep?
6:10 A little more sleep, a little more slumber, a little more folding of the hands to sleep:
6:11 So shall your poverty come as a robber, and your want as an armed man.
6:12 A worthless person, a man of iniquity, Is he that walks with a perverse mouth;
6:13 That winks with his eyes, that speaks with his feet, That makes signs with his fingers;
6:14 In whose heart is perverseness, who devises evil continually, who sows discord.
6:15 Therefore shall his calamity come suddenly; On a sudden shall he be broken, and that without remedy.
6:16 There are six things which Yehovah hates; Yes, seven which are an abomination to him:
6:17 Haughty eyes, a lying tongue, and hands that shed innocent blood;
6:18 A heart that devises wicked purposes, Feet that are swift in running to mischief,
6:19 A false witness that utters lies, and he that sows discord among brethren.
6:20 My son, keep the commandment of your father, and forsake not the law of your mother:
6:21 Bind them continually upon your heart; Tie them about your neck.
6:22 When you walk, it shall lead you; When you are sleeping, it shall watch over you; and when you are awake, it shall talk with you.
6:23 For the commandment is a lamp; and the law is light; And reproofs of instruction are the way of life:
6:24 To keep you from the evil woman, From the flattery of the foreigner's tongue.
6:25 Lust not after her beauty in your heart; Neither let her take you with her eyelids.
6:26 For on account of a harlot a man is reduced to a piece of bread; And the adulteress hunts for the precious life.
6:27 Can a man take fire in his bosom, and his clothes not be burned?
6:28 Or can one walk upon hot coals, and his feet not be scorched?
6:29 So he that goes in to his neighbor's wife; Whoever touches her shall not be unpunished.
6:30 Men do not despise a thief, if he steal To satisfy himself when he is hungry:
6:31 But if he be found, he shall restore sevenfold; He shall give all the substance of his house.
6:32 He that commits adultery with a woman is void of understanding: He does it who would destroy his own soul.
6:33 Wounds and dishonor shall he get; And his reproach shall not be wiped away.
6:34 For jealousy is the rage of a man; And he will not spare in the day of vengeance.
6:35 He will not regard any ransom; Neither will he rest content, though you give many gifts.

Chapter 7

7:1 My son, keep my words, and lay up my commandments with you.
7:2 Keep my commandments and live; And my law as the apple of your eye.
7:3 Bind them upon your fingers; Write them upon the tablet of your heart.
7:4 Say to wisdom, You are my sister; And call understanding your kinswoman:
7:5 That they may keep you from the strange woman, From the foreigner that flatters with her words.
7:6 For at the window of my house I looked forth through my lattice;
7:7 And I beheld among the simple ones, I discerned among the youths, a young man void of understanding,
7:8 Passing through the street near her corner; And he went the way to her house,

7:9 In the twilight, in the evening of the day, In the middle of the night and in the darkness.
7:10 And, behold, there met him a woman With the attire of a harlot, and wily of heart.
7:11 She is clamorous and wilful; Her feet abide not in her house:
7:12 Now she is in the streets, now in the broad places, and lies in wait at every corner.
7:13 So she caught him, and kissed him, a*nd* with an impudent face she said to him:
7:14 Sacrifices of peace offerings are with me; This day have I paid my vows.
7:15 Therefore came I forth to meet you, Diligently to seek your face, and I have found you.
7:16 I have spread my couch with carpets of tapestry, With striped cloths of the yarn of Egypt.
7:17 I have perfumed my bed With myrrh, aloes, and cinnamon.
7:18 Come, let us take our fill of love until the morning; Let us solace ourselves with loves.
7:19 For the man is not at home; He is gone a long journey:
7:20 He has taken a bag of money with him; He will come home at the full moon.
7:21 With her much fair speech she causes him to yield; With the flattering of her lips she forces him along.
7:22 He goes after her straightway, as an ox goes to the slaughter, Or as one in fetters to the correction of the fool;
7:23 Till an arrow strike through his liver; As a bird rushes to the snare, and knows not that it is for his life.
7:24 Now therefore, my sons, hearken to me, and attend to the words of my mouth.
7:25 Let not your heart decline to her ways; Go not astray in her paths.
7:26 For she has cast down many wounded: Yes, all her slain are a vast array.
7:27 Her house is the way to Sheol, Going down to the chambers of death.

Chapter 8

8:1 Does not wisdom cry, and understanding put forth her voice?
8:2 On the top of high places by the way, where the paths meet, she stands;
8:3 Beside the gates, at the entrance of the city, at the coming in at the doors, she cries aloud:
8:4 To you, O men, I call; And my voice is to the sons of men.
8:5 O ye simple, understand prudence; And, ye fools, be of an understanding heart.
8:6 Hear, for I will speak excellent things; And the opening of my lips shall be right things.
8:7 For my mouth shall utter truth; And wickedness is an abomination to my lips.
8:8 All the words of my mouth are in righteousness; There is nothing crooked or perverse in them.
8:9 They are all plain to him that understands, and right to them that find knowledge.
8:10 Receive my instruction, and not silver; And knowledge rather than choice gold.
8:11 For wisdom is better than rubies; And all the things that may be desired are not to be compared to it.
8:12 I wisdom have made prudence my dwelling, and find out knowledge and discretion.
8:13 The fear of Yehovah is to hate evil: Pride, and arrogance, and the evil way, and the perverse mouth, those do I hate.
8:14 Counsel is mine, and sound knowledge: I am understanding; I have might.
8:15 By me kings reign, and princes decree justice.
8:16 By me princes rule, and nobles, even all the judges of the earth.
8:17 I love them that love me; And those that seek me diligently shall find me.
8:18 Riches and honor are with me; Yes, durable wealth and righteousness.
8:19 My fruit is better than gold, yes, than fine gold; And my revenue than choice silver.
8:20 I walk in the way of righteousness, In the midst of the paths of justice;

8:21 That I may cause those that love me to inherit substance, and that I may fill their treasuries.
8:22 Yehovah possessed me in the beginning of his way, Before his works of old.
8:23 I was set up from everlasting, from the beginning, Before the earth was.
8:24 When there were no depths, I was brought forth, When there were no fountains abounding with water.
8:25 Before the mountains were settled, Before the hills was I brought forth;
8:26 While as yet he had not made the earth, nor the fields, Nor the beginning of the dust of the world.
8:27 When he established the heavens, I was there: When he set a circle upon the face of the deep,
8:28 When he made firm the skies above, When the fountains of the deep became strong,
8:29 When he gave to the sea its bound, That the waters should not transgress his commandment, When he marked out the foundations of the earth;
8:30 Then I was by him, as a master workman; And I was daily his delight, Rejoicing always before him,
8:31 Rejoicing in his habitable earth; And my delight was with the sons of men.
8:32 Now therefore, my sons, hearken to me; For blessed are they that keep my ways.
8:33 Hear instruction, and be wise, and refuse it not.
8:34 Blessed is the man that hears me, Watching daily at my gates, Waiting at the posts of my doors.
8:35 For whoso finds me finds life, and shall obtain favor of Yehovah.
8:36 But he that sins against me wrongs his own soul: All they that hate me love death.

Chapter 9

9:1 Wisdom has built her house; She has hewn out her seven pillars:
9:2 She has killed her beasts; She has mingled her wine; She has also furnished her table:
9:3 She has sent forth her maidens; She cries upon the highest places of the city:
9:4 Whoso is simple, let him turn in here: As for him that is void of understanding, she says to him,
9:5 Come, eat ye of my bread, and drink of the wine which I have mingled.
9:6 Leave off, ye simple ones, and live; And walk in the way of understanding.
9:7 He who corrects a scoffer gains for himself reviling, and who reproves a wicked man, a blot.
9:8 Reprove not a scoffer, lest he hate you: Reprove a wise man, and he will love you.
9:9 Give instruction to a wise man, and he will be yet wiser: Teach a righteous man, and he will increase in learning.
9:10 The fear of Yehovah is the beginning of wisdom; And the knowledge of the Holy One is understanding.
9:11 For by me your days shall be multiplied, and the years of your life shall be increased.
9:12 If you are wise, you are wise for yourself; And if you scoff, you alone shall bear it.
9:13 The foolish woman is clamorous; She is simple, and knows nothing.
9:14 And she sits at the door of her house, On a seat in the high places of the city,
9:15 To call to them that pass by, Who go right on their ways:
9:16 Whoso is simple, let him turn in here; And as for him that is void of understanding, she says to him,
9:17 Stolen waters are sweet, and bread eaten in secret is pleasant.
9:18 But he knows not that the dead are there; That her guests are in the depths of Sheol.

Chapter 10

10:1 The proverbs of Solomon. A wise son makes a glad father; But a foolish son is the heaviness of his mother.
10:2 Treasures of wickedness profit nothing; But righteousness delivers from death.
10:3 Yehovah will not allow the soul of the righteous to famish; But he thrusts away the desire of the wicked.
10:4 He becomes poor that works with a slack hand; But the hand of the diligent makes rich.
10:5 He that gathers in summer is a wise son; But he that sleeps in harvest is a son that causes shame.
10:6 Blessings are upon the head of the righteous; But violence covers the mouth of the wicked.
10:7 The memory of the righteous is blessed; But the name of the wicked shall rot.
10:8 The wise in heart will receive commandments; But a prating fool shall fall.
10:9 He that walks uprightly walks surely; But he that perverts his ways shall be known.
10:10 He that winks with the eye causes sorrow; But a prating fool shall fall.
10:11 The mouth of the righteous is a fountain of life; But violence covers the mouth of the wicked.
10:12 Hatred stirs up strifes; But love covers all transgressions.
10:13 In the lips of him that has discernment wisdom is found; But a rod is for the back of him that is void of understanding.
10:14 Wise men lay up knowledge; But the mouth of the foolish is a present destruction.
10:15 The rich man's wealth is his strong city: The destruction of the poor is their poverty.
10:16 The labor of the righteous tends to life; The increase of the wicked, to sin.
10:17 He is in the way of life that heeds correction; But he that forsakes reproof errs.
10:18 He that hides hatred is of lying lips; And he that utters a slander is a fool.
10:19 In the multitude of words there lacks not transgression; But he that refrains his lips does wisely.
10:20 The tongue of the righteous is as choice silver: The heart of the wicked is little worth.
10:21 The lips of the righteous feed many; But the foolish die for lack of understanding.
10:22 The blessing of Yehovah, it makes rich; And he adds no sorrow with it.
10:23 It is as sport to a fool to do wickedness; And so is wisdom to a man of understanding.
10:24 The fear of the wicked, it shall come upon him; And the desire of the righteous shall be granted.
10:25 When the whirlwind passes, the wicked is no more; But the righteous is an everlasting foundation.
10:26 As vinegar to the teeth, and as smoke to the eyes, So is the sluggard to them that send him.
10:27 The fear of Yehovah prolongs days; But the years of the wicked shall be shortened.
10:28 The hope of the righteous shall be gladness; But the expectation of the wicked shall perish.
10:29 The way of Yehovah is a stronghold to the upright; But it is a destruction to the workers of iniquity.
10:30 The righteous shall never be removed; But the wicked shall not dwell in the land.
10:31 The mouth of the righteous brings forth wisdom; But the perverse tongue shall be cut off.
10:32 The lips of the righteous know what is acceptable; But the mouth of the wicked speaks perverseness.

Chapter 11

11:1 A false balance is an abomination to Yehovah; But a just weight is his delight.
11:2 When pride comes, then comes shame; But with the lowly is wisdom.
11:3 The integrity of the upright shall guide them; But the perverseness of the treacherous shall destroy them.
11:4 Riches profit not in the day of wrath; But righteousness delivers from death.
11:5 The righteousness of the perfect shall direct his way; But the wicked shall fall by his own wickedness.
11:6 The righteousness of the upright shall deliver them; But the treacherous shall be taken in their own iniquity.
11:7 When a wicked man dies, his expectation shall perish; And the hope of iniquity perishes.
11:8 The righteous is delivered out of trouble, and the wicked comes in his stead.
11:9 With his mouth the godless man destroys his neighbor; But through knowledge shall the righteous be delivered.
11:10 When it goes well with the righteous, the city rejoices; And when the wicked perish, there is shouting.
11:11 By the blessing of the upright the city is exalted; but it is overthrown by the mouth of the wicked.
11:12 He that despises his neighbor is void of wisdom; but a man of understanding holds his peace.
11:13 He that goes about as a tale-bearer reveals secrets; but he that is of a faithful spirit conceals a matter.
11:14 Where no wise guidance is, the people falls; but in the multitude of counsellors there is safety.
11:15 He that is surety for a stranger shall smart for it; but he that hates suretyship is secure.
11:16 A gracious woman obtains honor; And violent men obtain riches.
11:17 The merciful man does good to his own soul; But he that is cruel troubles his own flesh.
11:18 The wicked earns deceitful wages; But he that sows righteousness has a sure reward.
11:19 He that is stedfast in righteousness shall attain to life; And he that pursues evil does it to his own death.
11:20 They that are perverse in heart are an abomination to Yehovah; But such as are perfect in their way are his delight.
11:21 Though hand join in hand, the evil man shall not be unpunished; But the seed of the righteous shall be delivered.
11:22 as a ring of gold in a swine's snout, So is a fair woman that is without discretion.
11:23 The desire of the righteous is only good; But the expectation of the wicked is wrath.
11:24 There is that scatters, and increases yet more; And there is that withholds more than is proper, but it tends only to want.
11:25 The liberal soul shall be made fat; And he that waters shall be watered also himself.
11:26 He that withholds grain, the people shall curse him; But blessing shall be upon the head of him that sells it.
11:27 He that diligently seeks good seeks favor; But he that searches after evil, it shall come to him.
11:28 He that trusts in his riches shall fall; But the righteous shall flourish as the green leaf.
11:29 He that troubles his own house shall inherit the wind; And the foolish shall be servant to the wise of heart.
11:30 The fruit of the righteous is a tree of life; And he that is wise wins souls.
11:31 Behold, the righteous shall be recompensed in the earth: How much more the wicked and the sinner!

Chapter 12

12:1 Whoso loves correction loves knowledge; But he that hates reproof is brutish.
12:2 A good man shall obtain favor of Yehovah; But a man of wicked devices will he condemn.
12:3 A man shall not be established by wickedness; But the root of the righteous shall not be moved.
12:4 A worthy woman is the crown of her husband; But she that makes ashamed is as rottenness in his bones.
12:5 The thoughts of the righteous are just; But the counsels of the wicked are deceit.
12:6 The words of the wicked are of lying in wait for blood; But the mouth of the upright shall deliver them.
12:7 The wicked are overthrown, and are not; But the house of the righteous shall stand.
12:8 A man shall be commended according to his wisdom; But he that is of a perverse heart shall be despised.
12:9 Better is he that is lightly esteemed, and has a servant, Than he that honors himself, and lacks bread.
12:10 A righteous man regards the life of his beast; But the tender mercies of the wicked are cruel.
12:11 He that tills his land shall have plenty of bread; But he that follows after vain persons is void of understanding.
12:12 The wicked desires the net of evil men; But the root of the righteous yields fruit.
12:13 In the transgression of the lips is a snare to the evil man; But the righteous shall come out of trouble.
12:14 A man shall be satisfied with good by the fruit of his mouth; And the doings of a man's hands shall be rendered to him.
12:15 The way of a fool is right in his own eyes; But he that is wise hearkens to counsel.
12:16 A fool's vexation is presently known; But a prudent man conceals shame.
12:17 He that utters truth shows forth righteousness; But a false witness, deceit.
12:18 There is that speaks rashly like the piercings of a sword; But the tongue of the wise is health.
12:19 The lip of truth shall be established for ever; But a lying tongue is but for a moment.
12:20 Deceit is in the heart of them that devise evil; But to the counsellors of peace is joy.
12:21 There shall no mischief happen to the righteous; But the wicked shall be filled with evil.
12:22 Lying lips are an abomination to Yehovah; But they that deal truly are his delight.
12:23 A prudent man conceals knowledge; But the heart of fools proclaims foolishness.
12:24 The hand of the diligent shall bear rule; But the slothful shall be put under taskwork.
12:25 Heaviness in the heart of a man makes it stoop; But a good word makes it glad.
12:26 The righteous is a guide to his neighbor; But the way of the wicked causes them to err.
12:27 The slothful man roasts not that which he took in hunting; But the precious substance of men is to the diligent.
12:28 In the way of righteousness is life; And in the pathway thereof there is no death.

Chapter 13

13:1 A wise son listens to his father's instruction; But a scoffer hears not rebuke.

13:2 A man shall eat good by the fruit of his mouth; But the soul of the treacherous shall eat violence.
13:3 He that guards his mouth keeps his life; But he that opens wide his lips shall have destruction.
13:4 The soul of the sluggard desires, and has nothing; But the soul of the diligent shall be made fat.
13:5 A righteous man hates lying; But a wicked man is loathsome, and comes to shame.
13:6 Righteousness guards him that is upright in the way; But wickedness overthrows the sinner.
13:7 There is that makes himself rich, yet has nothing: There is that makes himself poor, yet has great wealth.
13:8 The ransom of a man's life is his riches; But the poor hears no threatening.
13:9 The light of the righteous rejoices; But the lamp of the wicked shall be put out.
13:10 By pride comes only contention; But with the well-advised is wisdom.
13:11 Wealth gotten by vanity shall be diminished; But he that gathers by labor shall have increase.
13:12 Hope deferred makes the heart sick; But when the desire comes, it is a tree of life.
13:13 Whoso despises the word brings destruction on himself; But he that fears the commandment shall be rewarded.
13:14 The law of the wise is a fountain of life, That one may depart from the snares of death.
13:15 Good understanding gives favor; But the way of the transgressor is hard.
13:16 Every prudent man works with knowledge; But a fool flaunts his folly.
13:17 A wicked messenger falls into evil; But a faithful ambassador is health.
13:18 Poverty and shame shall be to him that refuses correction; But he that regards reproof shall be honored.
13:19 The desire accomplished is sweet to the soul; But it is an abomination to fools to depart from evil.
13:20 Walk with wise men, and you shall be wise; But the companion of fools shall smart for it.
13:21 Evil pursues sinners; But the righteous shall be recompensed with good.
13:22 A good man leaves an inheritance to his children's children; And the wealth of the sinner is laid up for the righteous.
13:23 Much food is in the tillage of the poor; But there is that is destroyed by reason of injustice.
13:24 He that spares his rod hates his son; But he that loves him chastens him betimes.
13:25 The righteous person eats to the satisfying of his soul; But the belly of the wicked shall want.

Chapter 14

14:1 Every wise woman builds her house; But the foolish plucks it down with her own hands.
14:2 He that walks in his uprightness fears Yehovah; But he that is perverse in his ways despises him.
14:3 In the mouth of the foolish is a rod for his pride; But the lips of the wise shall preserve them.
14:4 Where no oxen are, the crib is clean; But much increase is by the strength of the ox.
14:5 A faithful witness will not lie; But a false witness utters lies.
14:6 A scoffer seeks wisdom, and finds it not; But knowledge is easy to him that has understanding.
14:7 Go into the presence of a foolish man, and you shall not perceive in him the lips of knowledge.
14:8 The wisdom of the prudent is to understand his way; But the folly of fools is deceit.

14:9 A trespass offering mocks fools; But among the upright there is good will.
14:10 The heart knows its own bitterness; And a stranger does not intermeddle with its joy.
14:11 The house of the wicked shall be overthrown; But the tent of the upright shall flourish.
14:12 There is a way which seems right to a man; But the end thereof are the ways of death.
14:13 Even in laughter the heart is sorrowful; and the end of mirth is heaviness.
14:14 The backslider in heart shall be filled with his own ways; And a good man shall be satisfied from himself.
14:15 The simple believes every word; But the prudent man looks well to his going.
14:16 A wise man fears, and departs from evil; But the fool bears himself insolently, and is confident.
14:17 He that is soon angry will deal foolishly; And a man of wicked devices is hated.
14:18 The simple inherit folly; But the prudent are crowned with knowledge.
14:19 The evil bow down before the good; And the wicked, at the gates of the righteous.
14:20 The poor is hated even of his own neighbor; But the rich has many friends.
14:21 He that despises his neighbor sins; But he that has pity on the poor, happy is he.
14:22 Do they not err that devise evil? But mercy and truth shall be to them that devise good.
14:23 In all labor there is profit; But the talk of the lips tends only to penury.
14:24 The crown of the wise is their riches; But the folly of fools is only folly.
14:25 A true witness delivers souls; But he that utters lies causes deceit.
14:26 In the fear of Yehovah is strong confidence; And his children shall have a place of refuge.
14:27 The fear of Yehovah is a fountain of life, That one may depart from the snares of death.
14:28 In the multitude of people is the king's glory; But in the want of people is the destruction of the prince.
14:29 He that is slow to anger is of great understanding; But he that is hasty of spirit exalts folly.
14:30 A tranquil heart is the life of the flesh; but envy is the rottenness of the bones.
14:31 He that oppresses the poor reproaches his Maker; But he that has mercy on the needy honors him.
14:32 The wicked is thrust down in his evil-doing; But the righteous has a refuge in his death.
14:33 Wisdom rests in the heart of him that has understanding; But that which is in the inward part of fools is made known.
14:34 Righteousness exalts a nation; But sin is a reproach to any people.
14:35 The king's favor is toward a servant that deals wisely; But his wrath will be against him that causes shame.

Chapter 15

15:1 A soft answer turns away wrath; But a grievous word stirs up anger.
15:2 The tongue of the wise utters knowledge aright; But the mouth of fools pours out folly.
15:3 The eyes of Yehovah are in every place, Keeping watch upon the evil and the good.
15:4 A gentle tongue is a tree of life; But perverseness in it is a breaking of the spirit.
15:5 A fool despises his father's correction; But he that regards reproof gains prudence.
15:6 In the house of the righteous is much treasure; But in the revenues of the wicked is trouble.
15:7 The lips of the wise disperse knowledge; But the heart of the foolish not so.

15:8 The sacrifice of the wicked is an abomination to Yehovah; But the prayer of the upright is his delight.
15:9 The way of the wicked is an abomination to Yehovah; But he loves him that follows after righteousness.
15:10 There is grievous correction for him that forsakes the way; And he that hates reproof shall die.
15:11 Sheol and Abaddon are before Yehovah: How much more then the hearts of the children of men!
15:12 A scoffer loves not to be reproved; He will not go to the wise.
15:13 A glad heart makes a cheerful countenance; But by sorrow of heart the spirit is broken.
15:14 The heart of him that has understanding seeks knowledge; But the mouth of fools feeds on folly.
15:15 All the days of the afflicted are evil; But he that is of a cheerful heart has a continual feast.
15:16 Better is little, with the fear of Yehovah, Than great treasure and trouble along with it.
15:17 Better is a dinner of herbs, where love is, Than a stalled ox and hatred with it.
15:18 A wrathful man stirs up contention; But he that is slow to anger appeases strife.
15:19 The way of the sluggard is like a hedge of thorns; But the path of the upright is made a highway.
15:20 A wise son makes a glad father; But a foolish man despises his mother.
15:21 Folly is joy to him that is void of wisdom; But a man of understanding makes straight his going.
15:22 Where there is no counsel, plans are disappointed; But in the multitude of counsellors they are established.
15:23 A man has joy in the answer of his mouth; And a word in due season, how good it is!
15:24 To the wise the way of life goes upward, That he may depart from Sheol beneath.
15:25 Yehovah will root up the house of the proud; But he will establish the border of the widow.
15:26 Evil devices are an abomination to Yehovah; But pleasant words are pure.
15:27 He that is greedy of gain troubles his own house; But he that hates bribes shall live.
15:28 The heart of the righteous studies to answer; But the mouth of the wicked pours out evil things.
15:29 Yehovah is far from the wicked; But he hears the prayer of the righteous.
15:30 The light of the eyes rejoices the heart; And good tidings make the bones fat.
15:31 The ear that hearkens to the reproof of life Shall abide among the wise.
15:32 He that refuses correction despises his own soul; But he that hearkens to reproof gains understanding.
15:33 The fear of Yehovah is the instruction of wisdom; And before honor goes humility.

Chapter 16

16:1 The plans of the heart belong to man; But the answer of the tongue is from Yehovah.
16:2 All the ways of a man are clean in his own eyes; But Yehovah weighs the spirits.
16:3 Commit your works to Yehovah, and your purposes shall be established.
16:4 Yehovah has made everything for its own end; Yes, even the wicked for the day of evil.
16:5 Every one that is proud in heart is an abomination to Yehovah: Though hand join in hand, he shall not be unpunished.
16:6 By mercy and truth iniquity is atoned for; And by the fear of Yehovah men depart from evil.

16:7 When a man's ways please Yehovah, He makes even his enemies to be at peace with him.
16:8 Better is a little, with righteousness, Than great revenues with injustice.
16:9 A man's heart devises his way; But Yehovah directs his steps.
16:10 A divine sentence is in the lips of the king; His mouth shall not transgress in judgment.
16:11 A just balance and scales are Yehovah's; All the weights of the bag are his work.
16:12 It is an abomination to kings to commit wickedness; For the throne is established by righteousness.
16:13 Righteous lips are the delight of kings; And they love the one who speaks right.
16:14 The wrath of a king is as messengers of death; But a wise man will pacify it.
16:15 In the light of the king's countenance is life; And his favor is as a cloud of the latter rain.
16:16 How much better is it to get wisdom than gold! Yes, to get understanding is rather to be chosen than silver.
16:17 The highway of the upright is to depart from evil: He that keeps his way preserves his soul.
16:18 Pride comes before destruction, and a haughty spirit before a fall.
16:19 Better it is to be of a lowly spirit with the poor, Than to divide the spoil with the proud.
16:20 He that gives heed to the word shall find good; And whoever trusts in Yehovah, happy is he.
16:21 The wise in heart shall be called prudent; And the sweetness of the lips increases learning.
16:22 Understanding is a well-spring of life to the one who has it; But the correction of fools is their folly.
16:23 The heart of the wise instructs his mouth, and adds learning to his lips.
16:24 Pleasant words are as a honeycomb, Sweet to the soul, and health to the bones.
16:25 There is a way which seems right to a man, But the end thereof are the ways of death.
16:26 The appetite of the laboring man labors for him; For his mouth urges him to it.
16:27 A worthless man devises mischief; And in his lips there is as a scorching fire.
16:28 A perverse man scatters abroad strife; And a whisperer separates best friends.
16:29 A man of violence entices his neighbor, and leads him in a way that is not good.
16:30 He that shuts his eyes, it is to devise perverse things: He that compresses his lips brings evil to pass.
16:31 The gray head is a crown of glory; It shall be found in the way of righteousness.
16:32 He that is slow to anger is better than the mighty; And he that rules his spirit, than he that takes a city.
16:33 The lot is cast into the lap; But the whole disposing thereof is of Yehovah.

Chapter 17

17:1 Better is a dry morsel, and quietness with it, Than a house full of feasting with strife.
17:2 A servant that deals wisely shall have rule over a son that causes shame, and shall have part in the inheritance among the brethren.
17:3 The refining pot is for silver, and the furnace for gold; But Yehovah tries the hearts.
17:4 An evil-doer gives heed to wicked lips; And a liar gives ear to a mischievous tongue.
17:5 Whoso mocks the poor reproaches his Maker; And he that is glad at calamity shall not be unpunished.

17:6 Children's children are the crown of old men; And the glory of children are their fathers.
17:7 Excellent speech does not fit a fool; Much less do lying lips a prince.
17:8 A bribe is as a precious stone in the eyes of him that has it; Wherever it turns, it prospers.
17:9 He that covers a transgression seeks love; But he that harps on a matter separates best friends.
17:10 A rebuke enters deeper into one that has understanding Than a hundred stripes into a fool.
17:11 An evil man seeks only rebellion; Therefore a cruel messenger shall be sent against him.
17:12 Let a bear robbed of her cubs meet a man, Rather than a fool in his folly.
17:13 Whoso rewards evil for good, Evil shall not depart from his house.
17:14 The beginning of strife is as when one lets out water: Therefore leave off contention, before there is quarrelling.
17:15 He that justifies the wicked, and he that condemns the righteous, Both of them alike are an abomination to Yehovah.
17:16 Why is there a price in the hand of a fool to buy wisdom, Seeing he has no understanding?
17:17 A friend loves at all times; And a brother is born for adversity.
17:18 A man void of understanding shakes hands, and becomes co-signer for his neighbor.
17:19 He loves transgression who loves strife: He that raises high his gate seeks destruction.
17:20 He that has a wayward heart finds no good; And he that has a perverse tongue falls into mischief.
17:21 He that begets a fool does it to his sorrow; And the father of a fool has no joy.
17:22 A cheerful heart is a good medicine; But a broken spirit dries up the bones.
17:23 A wicked man receives a bribe in secret, To pervert the ways of justice.
17:24 Wisdom is before the face of him that has understanding; But the eyes of a fool are in the ends of the earth.
17:25 A foolish son is a grief to his father, and bitterness to her that bore him.
17:26 Also to punish the righteous is not good, Nor to strike the noble for their uprightness.
17:27 He who restrains his words has knowledge; and he who has a cool spirit is a man of understanding.
17:28 Even a fool, when he keeps silent, is counted wise. When he closes his lips, he is considered intelligent.

Chapter 18

18:1 He that separates himself seeks his own desire, and rages against all sound wisdom.
18:2 A fool has no delight in understanding, But only that his heart may reveal itself.
18:3 When the wicked comes, there comes also contempt, and with ignominy comes reproach.
18:4 The words of a man's mouth are as deep waters; The wellspring of wisdom is as a flowing brook.
18:5 To respect the person of the wicked is not good, Nor to turn aside the righteous in judgment.
18:6 A fool's lips enter into contention, and his mouth calls for stripes.
18:7 A fool's mouth is his destruction, and his lips are the snare of his soul.
18:8 The words of a whisperer are as dainty morsels, and they go down into the innermost parts.
18:9 He also that is slack in his work Is brother to him that is a destroyer.
18:10 The name of Yehovah is a strong tower; The righteous runs into it, and is safe.

18:11 The rich man's wealth is his strong city, and as a high wall in his own imagination.
18:12 Before destruction the heart of man is haughty; And before honor goes humility.
18:13 He that gives answer before he hears, It is folly and shame to him.
18:14 The spirit of a man will sustain his infirmity; But a broken spirit who can bear?
18:15 The heart of the prudent gets knowledge; And the ear of the wise seeks knowledge.
18:16 A man's gift makes room for him, and brings him before great men.
18:17 He that pleads his cause first seems just; But his neighbor comes and searches him out.
18:18 The lot causes contentions to cease, and parts between the mighty.
18:19 A brother offended is harder to be won than a strong city; And such contentions are like the bars of a castle.
18:20 A man's belly shall be filled with the fruit of his mouth; With the increase of his lips shall he be satisfied.
18:21 Death and life are in the power of the tongue; And they that love it shall eat the fruit thereof.
18:22 Whoso finds a wife finds a good thing, and obtains favor from Yehovah.
18:23 The poor uses entreaties; But the rich answers roughly.
18:24 He that makes many friends does it to his own destruction; But there is a friend that sticks closer than a brother.

Chapter 19

19:1 Better is the poor person who walks in his integrity than he who is perverse in his lips and is a fool.
19:2 Also, that enthusiasm without knowledge is not good; and he that rushes with his feet will err.
19:3 The foolishness of man subverts his way; And his heart frets against Yehovah.
19:4 Wealth adds many friends; But the poor is separated from his friend.
19:5 A false witness shall not be unpunished; And he that utters lies shall not escape.
19:6 Many will entreat the favor of the liberal man; And every man is a friend to him that gives gifts.
19:7 All the brethren of the poor do hate him: How much more do his friends go far from him! He pursues them with words, but they are gone.
19:8 He that obtains wisdom loves his own soul: He that keeps understanding shall find good.
19:9 A false witness shall not be unpunished; And he that utters lies shall perish.
19:10 Delicate living is not seemly for a fool; Much less for a servant to have rule over princes.
19:11 The discretion of a man makes him slow to anger; And it is his glory to pass over a transgression.
19:12 The king's wrath is as the roaring of a lion; But his favor is as dew upon the grass.
19:13 A foolish son is the calamity of his father; And the contentions of a wife are a continual dropping.
19:14 House and riches are an inheritance from fathers; But a prudent wife is from Yehovah.
19:15 Slothfulness casts into a deep sleep; And the idle soul shall suffer hunger.
19:16 He that keeps the commandment keeps his soul; But he that is careless of his ways shall die.
19:17 He that has pity upon the poor lends to Yehovah, and his good deed will he pay him again.
19:18 Chasten your son, seeing there is hope; nd set not your heart on his destruction.

19:19 A man of great wrath shall bear the penalty; For if you deliver him, you must do it yet again.
19:20 Hear counsel, and receive instruction, That you may be wise in your latter end.
19:21 There are many devices in a man's heart; But the counsel of Yehovah, that shall stand.
19:22 That which makes a man to be desired is his kindness; And a poor man is better than a liar.
19:23 The fear of Yehovah tends to life; And he that has it shall abide satisfied; He shall not be visited with evil.
19:24 The sluggard buries his hand in the dish, and will not so much as bring it to his mouth again.
19:25 Smite a scoffer, and the simple will learn prudence; And reprove one that has understanding, and he will understand knowledge.
19:26 He that does violence to his father, and chases away his mother, Is a son that causes shame and brings reproach.
19:27 Cease, my son, to hear instruction Only to err from the words of knowledge.
19:28 A worthless witness mocks at justice; And the mouth of the wicked swallows iniquity.
19:29 Judgments are prepared for scoffers, and stripes for the back of fools.

Chapter 20

20:1 Wine is a mocker, strong drink a brawler; And whoever errs thereby is not wise.
20:2 The terror of a king is as the roaring of a lion: He that provokes him to anger sins against his own life.
20:3 It is an honor for a man to keep aloof from strife; But every fool will be quarrelling.
20:4 The sluggard will not plow by reason of the winter; Therefore he shall beg in harvest, and have nothing.
20:5 Counsel in the heart of man is like deep water; But a man of understanding will draw it out.
20:6 Most men will proclaim every one his own kindness; But a faithful man who can find?
20:7 A righteous man that walks in his integrity, Blessed are his children after him.
20:8 A king that sits on the throne of judgment Scatters away all evil with his eyes.
20:9 Who can say, I have made my heart clean, I am pure from my sin?
20:10 Differing weights, and differing measures, Both of them alike are an abomination to Yehovah.
20:11 Even a child makes himself known by his doings, Whether his work be pure, and whether it is right.
20:12 The hearing ear, and the seeing eye, Yehovah has made even both of them.
20:13 Love not sleep, let you come to poverty; Open your eyes, and you shall be satisfied with bread.
20:14 It is bad, it is bad, says the buyer; But when he is gone his way, then he boasts.
20:15 There is gold, and abundance of rubies; But the lips of knowledge are a precious jewel.
20:16 Take his garment that is surety for a stranger; And hold him in pledge that is surety for foreigners.
20:17 Bread of falsehood is sweet to a man; But afterwards his mouth shall be filled with gravel.
20:18 Every purpose is established by counsel; And by wise guidance should you make war.
20:19 He who goes around as a tale-bearer reveals secrets; Therefore keep not company with him who opens wide his lips.
20:20 Whoso curses his father or his mother, His lamp shall be put out in blackness of darkness.

20:21 An inheritance may be gotten hastily at the beginning; But the end thereof shall not be blessed.
20:22 Say not you, I will recompense evil: Wait for Yehovah, and he will save you.
20:23 Diverse weights are an abomination to Yehovah; And a false balance is not good.
20:24 A man's goings are of Yehovah; How then can man understand his way?
20:25 It is a snare to a man rashly to say, It is holy, and after vows to make inquiry.
20:26 A wise king winnows the wicked, and brings the threshing-wheel over them.
20:27 The spirit of man is the lamp of Yehovah, Searching all his innermost parts.
20:28 Kindness and truth preserve the king; And his throne is upholden by kindness.
20:29 The glory of young men is their strength; And the beauty of old men is the gray head.
20:30 Stripes that wound cleanse away evil; And strokes reach the innermost parts.

Chapter 21

21:1 The king's heart is in the hand of Yehovah as the watercourses: He turns it wherever he will.
21:2 Every way of a man is right in his own eyes; But Yehovah weighs the hearts.
21:3 To do righteousness and justice Is more acceptable to Yehovah than sacrifice.
21:4 A high look, and a proud heart, even the lamp of the wicked, is sin.
21:5 The thoughts of the diligent tend only to plenteousness; But every one that is hasty speeds only to want.
21:6 The getting of treasures by a lying tongue Is a vapor driven to and fro by them that seek death.
21:7 The violence of the wicked shall sweep them away, Because they refuse to do justice.
21:8 The way of him that is laden with guilt is exceedingly crooked; But as for the pure, his work is right.
21:9 It is better to dwell in the corner of the housetop, Than with a contentious woman in a wide house.
21:10 The soul of the wicked desires evil: His neighbor finds no favor in his eyes.
21:11 When the scoffer is punished, the simple is made wise; And when the wise is instructed, he receives knowledge.
21:12 The righteous man considers the house of the wicked, How the wicked are overthrown to their ruin.
21:13 Whoso stops his ears at the cry of the poor, He also shall cry, but shall not be heard.
21:14 A gift in secret pacifies anger; And a present in the bosom, strong wrath.
21:15 It is joy to the righteous to do justice; But it is a destruction to the workers of iniquity.
21:16 The man that wanders out of the way of understanding Shall rest in the assembly of the dead.
21:17 He that loves pleasure shall be a poor man: He that loves wine and oil shall not be rich.
21:18 The wicked are a ransom for the righteous; And the treacherous come in the stead of the upright.
21:19 It is better to dwell in a desert land, Than with a contentious and fretful woman.
21:20 There is precious treasure and oil in the dwelling of the wise; But a foolish man swallows it up.
21:21 He that follows after righteousness and kindness finds life, righteousness, and honor.
21:22 A wise man scales the city of the mighty, and brings down the stronghold that inspires its confidence.
21:23 Whoso keeps his mouth and his tongue keeps his soul from troubles.
21:24 The proud and haughty man, scoffer is his name; He works in the arrogance of pride.
21:25 The desire of the sluggard kills him; For his hands refuse to labor.

21:26 There is that covets greedily all the day long; But the righteous gives and withholds not.
21:27 The sacrifice of the wicked is an abomination: How much more, when he brings it with a wicked mind!
21:28 A false witness shall perish; But the man that hears shall speak so as to endure.
21:29 A wicked man hardens his face; But as for the upright, he establishes his ways.
21:30 There is no wisdom nor understanding Nor counsel against Yehovah.
21:31 The horse is prepared against the day of battle; But victory is of Yehovah.

Chapter 22

22:1 A good name is rather to be chosen than great riches, a*nd* loving favor rather than silver and gold.
22:2 The rich and the poor meet together: Yehovah is the maker of them all.
22:3 A prudent man sees the evil, and hides himself; But the simple pass on, and suffer for it.
22:4 The reward of humility and the fear of Yehovah is riches, and honor, and life.
22:5 Thorns and snares are in the way of the perverse: He that keeps his soul shall be far from them.
22:6 Train up a child in the way he should go, and even when he is old he will not depart from it.
22:7 The rich rule over the poor; And the borrower is servant to the lender.
22:8 He that sows iniquity shall reap calamity; And the rod of his wrath shall fail.
22:9 He that has a bountiful eye shall be blessed; For he gives of his bread to the poor.
22:10 Cast out the scoffer, and contention will go out; Yes, strife and ignominy will cease.
22:11 He that loves pureness of heart, For the grace of his lips the king will be his friend.
22:12 The eyes of Yehovah preserve him that has knowledge; But he overthrows the words of the treacherous man.
22:13 The sluggard says, There is a lion outside: I shall be slain in the streets.
22:14 The mouth of a strange woman is a deep pit: He that is abhorred of Yehovah shall fall in it.
22:15 Foolishness is bound up in the heart of a child; But the rod of correction shall drive it far from him.
22:16 He that oppresses the poor to increase his gain, a*nd* he that gives to the rich, shall come only to want.
22:17 Incline your ear, and hear the words of the wise, and apply your heart to my knowledge.
22:18 For it is a pleasant thing if you keep them within you, If they be established together upon your lips.
22:19 That your trust may be in Yehovah, I have made them known to you this day, even to you.
22:20 Have not I written to you excellent things Of counsels and knowledge,
22:21 To make you know the certainty of the words of truth, That you may carry back words of truth to them that send you?
22:22 Rob not the poor, because he is poor; Neither oppress the afflicted in the gate:
22:23 For Yehovah will plead their cause, and despoil of life those that despoil them.
22:24 Make no friendship with a man that is given to anger; And with a wrathful man you shall not go:
22:25 Lest you learn this ways, and get a snare to your soul.
22:26 Be you not one of them that strike hands, Or of them that are sureties for debts.
22:27 If you have not with which to pay, Why should he take away your bed from under you?

22:28 Remove not the ancient landmark, Which your fathers have set.
22:29 See you a man diligent in his business? he shall stand before kings; He shall not stand before mean men.

Chapter 23

23:1 When you sit to eat with a ruler, Consider diligently him that is before you;
23:2 And put a knife to your throat, If you be a man given to appetite.
23:3 Be not desirous of his dainties; Seeing they are deceitful food.
23:4 Weary not yourself to be rich; Cease from your own wisdom.
23:5 Will you set your eyes upon that which is not? For riches certainly make themselves wings, Like an eagle that flies toward heaven.
23:6 Eat you not the bread of him that has an evil eye, Neither desire you his dainties:
23:7 For as he thinks within himself, so is he: Eat and drink, says he to you; but his heart is not with you.
23:8 The morsel which you have eaten shall you vomit up, and lose your sweet words.
23:9 Speak not in the hearing of a fool; For he will despise the wisdom of your words.
23:10 Remove not the ancient landmark; And enter not into the fields of the fatherless:
23:11 For their Redeemer is strong; He will plead their cause against you.
23:12 Apply your heart to instruction, and your ears to the words of knowledge.
23:13 Withhold not correction from the child; For if you beat him with the rod, he will not die.
23:14 You shall beat him with the rod, and shall deliver his soul from Sheol.
23:15 My son, if your heart be wise, My heart will be glad, even mine:
23:16 Yes, my heart will rejoice, When your lips speak right things.
23:17 Let not your heart envy sinners; But be in the fear of Yehovah all the day long:
23:18 For surely there is a reward; And your hope shall not be cut off.
23:19 Hear you, my son, and be wise, and guide your heart in the way.
23:20 Be not among winebibbers, among gluttonous eaters of flesh:
23:21 For the drunkard and the glutton shall come to poverty; And drowsiness will clothe a man with rags.
23:22 Hearken to your father that begat you, and despise not your mother when she is old.
23:23 Buy the truth, and sell it not; Yes, wisdom, and instruction, and understanding.
23:24 The father of the righteous will greatly rejoice; And he that begets a wise child will have joy of him.
23:25 Let your father and your mother be glad, and let her that bore you rejoice.
23:26 My son, give me your heart; And let your eyes delight in my ways.
23:27 For a harlot is a deep ditch; And a foreign woman is a narrow pit.
23:28 Yes, she lies in wait as a robber, and increases the treacherous among men.
23:29 Who has woe? who has sorrow? who has contentions? Who has complaining? who has wounds without cause? Who has redness of eyes?
23:30 Those who tarry long at the wine; Those who go to seek out mixed wine.
23:31 Look not upon the wine when it is red, When it sparkles in the cup, When it goes down smoothly:
23:32 In the end it bites like a serpent, and stings like an adder.
23:33 Your eyes shall behold strange things, and your heart shall utter perverse things.
23:34 Yes, you shall be as he that lies down in the midst of the sea, Or as he that lies upon the top of a mast.
23:35 They have stricken me, shall you say, and I was not hurt; They have beaten me, and I felt it not: When shall I awake? I will seek it yet again.

Chapter 24

24:1 Be not envious against evil men; Neither desire to be with them:
24:2 For their heart studies oppression, and their lips talk of mischief.
24:3 Through wisdom is a house built; And by understanding it is established;
24:4 And by knowledge are the chambers filled With all precious and pleasant riches.
24:5 A wise man is strong; Yes, a man of knowledge increases might 24:6 For by wise guidance you shall make your war; And in the multitude of counsellors there is safety.
24:7 Wisdom is too high for a fool: He opens not his mouth in the gate.
24:8 He that devises to do evil, Men shall call him a mischief-maker.
24:9 The thought of foolishness is sin; And the scoffer is an abomination to men.
24:10 If you faint in the day of adversity, Your strength is small.
24:11 Deliver them that are carried away to death, and those that are ready to be slain see that you hold back.
24:12 If you say, Behold, we knew not this; Does not he that weighs the hearts consider it? And he that keeps your soul, does not he know it? And shall not he render to every man according to his work?
24:13 My son, eat you honey, for it is good; And the droppings of the honeycomb, which are sweet to your taste:
24:14 So shall you know wisdom to be to your soul; If you have found it, then shall there be a reward, and your hope shall not be cut off.
24:15 Lay not wait, O wicked man, against the habitation of the righteous; Destroy not his resting-place:
24:16 For a righteous man falls seven times, and rises up again; But the wicked are overthrown by calamity.
24:17 Rejoice not when your enemy falls, and let not your heart be glad when he is overthrown;
24:18 Lest Yehovah see it, and it displease him, and he turn away his wrath from him.
24:19 Fret not yourself because of evil-doers; Neither be you envious at the wicked:
24:20 For there shall be no reward to the evil man; The lamp of the wicked shall be put out.
24:21 My son, fear you Yehovah and the king; And company not with them that are given to change:
24:22 For their calamity shall rise suddenly; And the destruction from them both, who knows it?
24:23 These also are sayings of the wise. To have respect of persons in judgment is not good.
24:24 He that says to the wicked, You are righteous; Peoples shall curse him, nations shall abhor him:
24:25 But to them that rebuke him shall be delight, and a good blessing shall come upon them.
24:26 He kisses the lips who gives a right answer.
24:27 Prepare your work outside, and make things ready for you in the field; and only afterwards build your house.
24:28 Be not a witness against your neighbor without cause; and deceive not with your lips.
24:29 Say not, I will do the same to him as he has done to me; I will render to the man according to his work.
24:30 I went by the field of the sluggard, and by the vineyard of the man void of understanding;
24:31 And, lo, it was all grown over with thorns, the face of it was covered with nettles, and the stone wall for it was broken down.
24:32 Then I beheld, and considered well; I saw, and received instruction:
24:33 that a little more sleep, a little more slumber, a little more folding of the hands to sleep;
24:34 so shall your poverty come as a robber, and your want as an armed man.

Chapter 25

25:1 These also are proverbs of Solomon, which the men of Hezekiah king of Judah copied out.
25:2 It is the glory of God to conceal a thing; but the glory of kings is to search out a matter.
25:3 As the heavens for height, and the earth for depth, so the heart of kings is unsearchable.
25:4 Take away the dross from the silver, and there comes forth a vessel for the refiner:
25:5 Take away the wicked from before the king, and his throne shall be established in righteousness.
25:6 Put not yourself forward in the presence of the king, and stand not in the place of great men:
25:7 For better it is that it be said to you, Come up here, than that you should be put lower in the presence of the prince, whom your eyes have seen.
25:8 Do not go forth hastily to strive, in case you know not what to do in the end thereof, when your neighbor has put you to shame.
25:9 Debate your cause with your neighbor himself, and disclose not the secret of another;
25:10 lest he who hears it reviles you, and your infamy turns not away.
25:11 A word fitly spoken is like apples of gold in network of silver.
25:12 As an ear-ring of gold, and an ornament of fine gold, so is a wise reprover upon an obedient ear.
25:13 As the cold of snow in the time of harvest, so is a faithful messenger to those who send him; for he refreshes the soul of his masters.
25:14 As clouds and wind without rain, so is he that boasts himself of his gifts falsely.
25:15 By long forbearing is a ruler persuaded, and a soft tongue breaks the bone.
25:16 Have you found honey? Eat just as much as is sufficient for you, or you may be filled with it, and vomit it.
25:17 Let your foot be seldom in your neighbor's house, so he not become weary of you, and hate you.
25:18 A man that bears false witness against his neighbor is a maul, and a sword, and a sharp arrow.
25:19 Confidence in an unfaithful man in time of trouble is like a broken tooth, and a foot out of joint.
25:20 As one that takes off a garment in cold weather, and as vinegar upon soda, so is he that sings songs to a heavy heart.
25:21 If your enemy is hungry, give him bread to eat; and if he is thirsty, give him water to drink:
25:22 For you will heap coals of fire upon his head, and Yehovah will reward you.
25:23 The north wind drives away rain: so does an angry countenance a slandering tongue.
25:24 It is better to dwell in the corner of an attic, than with a contentious woman in a spacious house.
25:25 As cold waters to a thirsty soul, so is good news from a far country.
25:26 As a troubled fountain, and a polluted spring, so is a righteous man that gives way before the wicked.
25:27 It is not good to eat much honey: so also it is grievous for men to search out their own glory.
25:28 He whose spirit is without restraint is like a city that is broken down and lacking walls.

Chapter 26

26:1 As snow in summer, and as rain in harvest, honor is not seemly for a fool.
26:2 As the sparrow in her wandering, as the swallow in her flying, the curse that is causeless alights not.

26:3 A whip for the horse, a bridle for the donkey, and a rod for the back of fools.
26:4 Answer not a fool according to his folly, lest you also be like him.
26:5 Answer a fool according to his folly, lest he be wise in his own conceit.
26:6 He that sends a message by the hand of a fool cuts off his own feet, and drinks in damage.
26:7 The legs of the lame hang loose: so is a parable in the mouth of fools.
26:8 As one that binds a stone in a sling, So is he that gives honor to a fool.
26:9 as a thorn that goes up into the hand of a drunkard, So is a parable in the mouth of fools.
26:10 as an archer that wounds all, So is he that hires a fool and he that hires them that pass by.
26:11 As a dog that returns to his vomit, So is a fool that repeats his folly.
26:12 See you a man wise in his own conceit? There is more hope of a fool than of him.
26:13 The sluggard says, There is a lion in the way; A lion is in the streets.
26:14 as the door turns upon its hinges, So does the sluggard upon his bed.
26:15 The sluggard buries his hand in the dish; It wearies him to bring it again to his mouth.
26:16 The sluggard is wiser in his own conceit Than seven men that can render a reason.
26:17 He that passes by, and vexes himself with strife belonging not to him, Is like one that takes a dog by the ears.
26:18 As a madman who casts firebrands, arrows, and death,
26:19 So is the man that deceives his neighbor, and says, am not I in sport?
26:20 For lack of wood the fire goes out; and where there is no whisperer, contention ceases.
26:21 As coals are to hot embers, and wood to fire, so is a contentious man to inflame strife.
26:22 The words of a whisperer are as dainty morsels, and they go down to the innermost parts.
26:23 Fervent lips and a wicked heart are like an earthen vessel overlaid with silver dross.
26:24 He that hates dissembles with his lips; but he lays up deceit within him:
26:25 When he speaks fair, believe him not; for there are seven abominations in his heart:
26:26 Though his hatred covers itself with guile, his wickedness shall be shown openly before the assembly.
26:27 Whoever digs a pit shall fall into it; and he that rolls a stone, it shall roll back onto him.
26:28 A lying tongue hates those whom it has wounded; and a flattering mouth works ruin.

Chapter 27

27:1 Boast not yourself about tomorrow; for you know not what a day may bring forth.
27:2 Let another man praise you, and not your own mouth; a stranger, and not your own lips.
27:3 A stone is heavy, and sand is weighty; but a fool's vexation is heavier than them both.
27:4 Wrath is cruel, and anger is overwhelming; but who is able to stand before jealousy?
27:5 Better is open rebuke than love that is hidden.
27:6 Faithful are the wounds of a friend; but the kisses of an enemy are profuse.
27:7 The full soul loathes a honeycomb; but to the hungry soul every bitter thing is sweet.
27:8 As a bird that wanders from her nest, so is a man that wanders from his place.
27:9 Oil and perfume rejoice the heart; so does the sweetness of a man's friend that comes of hearty counsel.

27:10 Your own friend, and your father's friend, forsake not; and go not to your brother's house in the day of your calamity: better is a neighbor that is near than a brother afar off.
27:11 My son, be wise, and make my heart glad, so I may answer him that reproaches me.
27:12 A prudent man sees the evil, and hides himself; but the simple go on, and suffer for it.
27:13 Take his garment that is surety for a stranger; and hold him in pledge that is surety for a foreign woman.
27:14 He that blesses his friend with a loud voice, rising early in the morning, it shall be counted a curse to him.
27:15 A continual dripping in a very rainy day and a contentious woman these are alike:
27:16 He that would restrain her restrains the wind; and his right hand encounters oil.
27:17 Iron sharpens iron; so a man sharpens the countenance of his friend.
27:18 Whoso tends the fig tree shall eat the fruit thereof; and he that regards his master shall be honored.
27:19 As in water face answers to face, so also the heart of man to man.
27:20 Sheol and Abaddon are never satisfied; and the eyes of man are never satisfied.
27:21 The refining pot is for silver, and the furnace for gold; and a man is tried by his praise.
27:22 Even if you bray a fool in a mortar with a pestle along with bruised grain, still his foolishness will not depart from him.
27:23 Be diligent to know the state of your flocks, a*nd* look well to your herds:
27:24 For riches are not for ever: nor does the crown endure to all generations?
27:25 The hay is carried, and the tender grass shows itself, and the herbs of the mountains are gathered in.
27:26 The lambs are for your clothing, and the goats are the price of the field;
27:27 And there will be goats' milk enough for your food, for the food of your household, and maintenance for your maidens.

Chapter 28

28:1 The wicked flee when no man pursues; But the righteous are as bold as a lion.
28:2 For the transgression of a land, many are the princes thereof; But by men of understanding and knowledge the state thereof shall be prolonged.
28:3 A needy man who oppresses the poor is like a sweeping rain that leaves no food.
28:4 They who forsake the law praise the wicked, whereas such as keep the law contend with them.
28:5 Evil men understand not justice; but they that seek Yehovah understand all things.
28:6 Better is the poor that walks in his integrity, than he that is perverse in his ways, though he be rich.
28:7 Whoso keeps the law is a wise son; but he that is a companion of gluttons shames his father.
28:8 He that augments his substance by interest and increase, gathers it for him that has pity on the poor.
28:9 He that turns his ear away from hearing the law, even his prayer is an abomination.
28:10 Whoso causes the upright to go astray in an evil way, shall fall himself into his own pit; but the perfect shall inherit good.
28:11 The rich man is wise in his own conceit; but the poor that has understanding searches him out.
28:12 When the righteous triumph, there is great glory; but when the wicked rise, men hide themselves.

28:13 He that covers his transgressions shall not prosper: but whoso confesses and forsakes them shall obtain mercy.
28:14 Happy is the man that fears always; but he that hardens his heart shall fall into mischief.
28:15 As a roaring lion, and a ranging bear, is a wicked ruler over a poor people.
28:16 The prince that lacks understanding is also a great oppressor; but he that hates covetousness shall prolong his days.
28:17 A man that is laden with the blood of any person shall flee to the pit; let no man stop him.
28:18 Whoso walks uprightly shall be delivered; but he that is perverse in his ways shall fall at once.
28:19 He that tills his land shall have plenty of bread; but he that follows after vain things shall have poverty enough.
28:20 A faithful man shall abound with blessings; but he that makes haste to be rich shall not be unpunished.
28:21 To have respect of persons is not good; neither that a man should transgress for a piece of bread.
28:22 He that has an evil eye rushes after riches, and knows not that lack shall come upon him.
28:23 He that rebukes a man shall afterward find more favor than he that flatters with the tongue.
28:24 Whoso robs his father or his mother, and says, It is no transgression, the same is the companion of a destroyer.
28:25 He that is of a greedy spirit stirs up strife; but he that puts his trust in Yehovah shall be made fat.
28:26 He that trusts in his own heart is a fool; but whoso walks wisely, he shall be delivered.
28:27 He that gives to the poor shall not lack; but he that hides his eyes shall have many a curse.
28:28 When the wicked rise, men hide themselves; But when they perish, the righteous increase.

Chapter 29

29:1 He that being often reproved hardens his neck Shall suddenly be destroyed, and that without remedy.
29:2 When the righteous are increased, the people rejoice; But when a wicked man bears rule, the people sigh.
29:3 Whoso loves wisdom rejoices his father; But he that keeps company with harlots wastes his substance.
29:4 The king by justice establishes the land; But he that exacts gifts overthrows it.
29:5 A man that flatters his neighbor Spreads a net for his steps.
29:6 In the transgression of an evil man there is a snare; but the righteous does sing and rejoice.
29:7 The righteous takes knowledge of the cause of the poor; The wicked has not understanding to know it.
29:8 Scoffers set a city in a flame; But wise men turn away wrath.
29:9 If a wise man has a controversy with a foolish man, Whether he be angry or laugh, there will be no rest.
29:10 The bloodthirsty hate him that is perfect; and as for the upright, they seek his life.
29:11 A fool utters all his anger; but a wise man keeps it back and stills it.
29:12 If a ruler hearkens to falsehood, all his servants are wicked.
29:13 The poor man and the oppressor meet together; Yehovah lightens the eyes of them both.
29:14 The king that faithfully judges the poor, his throne shall be established for ever.
29:15 The rod and reproof give wisdom; but a child left to himself causes shame to his mother.

29:16 When the wicked are increased, transgression increases; but the righteous shall look upon their fall.
29:17 Correct your son, and he will give you rest; yes, he will give delight to your soul.
29:18 Where there is no vision, the people cast off restraint; but he that keeps the law, happy is he.
29:19 A servant will not be corrected by words; for though he understand, he will not give heed.
29:20 Do you see a man that is hasty in his words? There is more hope for a fool than for him.
29:21 He that delicately brings up his servant from a child shall have him become a son in the end.
29:22 An angry man stirs up strife, and a wrathful man abounds in transgression.
29:23 A man's pride shall bring him low; but he that is of a lowly spirit shall obtain honor.
29:24 Whoso is partner with a thief hates his own soul; he hears the adjuration and utters nothing.
29:25 The fear of man brings a snare; but whoso puts his trust in Yehovah shall be safe.
29:26 Many seek the ruler's favor; But a man's judgment comes from Yehovah.
29:27 An unjust man is an abomination to the righteous; And he that is upright in the way is an abomination to the wicked.

Chapter 30

30:1 The words of Agur the son of Jakeh; The oracle. The man says to Ithiel, to Ithiel and Ucal:
30:2 Surely I am more brutish than any man, and have not the understanding of a man;
30:3 And I have not learned wisdom, Neither have I the knowledge of the Holy One.
30:4 Who has ascended up into heaven, and descended? Who has gathered the wind in his fists? Who has bound the waters in his garment? Who has established all the ends of the earth? What is his name, and what is his son's name, if you know?
30:5 Every word of God is tried: He is a shield to them that take refuge in him.
30:6 Add you not to his words, Lest he reprove you, and you be found a liar.
30:7 Two things have I asked of you; Deny me them not before I die:
30:8 Remove far from me falsehood and lies; Give me neither poverty nor riches; Feed me with the food that is needful for me:
30:9 Lest I be full, and deny you, and say, Who is Yehovah? Or lest I be poor, and steal, and use profanely the name of my God.
30:10 Slander not a servant to his master, Lest he curse you, and you be held guilty.
30:11 There is a generation that curse their father, and bless not their mother.
30:12 There is a generation that are pure in their own eyes, and yet are not washed from their filthiness.
30:13 There is a generation, oh how lofty are their eyes! And their eyelids are lifted up.
30:14 There is a generation whose teeth are as swords, and their jaw teeth as knives, To devour the poor from off the earth, and the needy from among men.
30:15 The leech has two daughters: Give, give. There are three things that are never satisfied, Yes, four that never say, "Enough":
30:16 Sheol; and the barren womb; The earth that is not satisfied with water; And the fire that does not say, "Enough."
30:17 The eye that mocks at his father, and despises to obey his mother, The ravens of the valley shall pick it out, and the young eagles shall eat it.
30:18 There are three things which are too wonderful for me, Yes, four which I know not:

30:19 The way of an eagle in the air; The way of a serpent upon a rock; The way of a ship in the midst of the sea; And the way of a man with a maiden.
30:20 This is the way of an adulterous woman: She eats, and wipes her mouth, and says, I have done nothing wrong.
30:21 For three things the earth does tremble, and for four, which it cannot bear:
30:22 For a servant when he is king; And a fool when he is filled with food;
30:23 For an odious woman when she is married; And a handmaid that is heir to her mistress.
30:24 There are four things which are little upon the earth, But they are exceedingly wise:
30:25 The ants are a people not strong, Yet they provide their food in the summer;
30:26 The conies are but a feeble folk, Yet make they their houses in the rocks;
30:27 The locusts have no king, Yet go they forth all of them by bands;
30:28 The lizard takes hold with her hands, Yet is she in kings' palaces.
30:29 There are three things which are stately in their march, Yes, four which are stately in going:
30:30 The lion, which is mightiest among beasts, and turns not away for any;
30:31 The greyhound; the he-goat also; And the king against whom there is no rising up.
30:32 If you have done foolishly in lifting up yourself, Or if you have thought evil, Lay your hand upon your mouth.
30:33 For the churning of milk brings forth butter, and the wringing of the nose brings forth blood; So the forcing of wrath brings forth strife.

Chapter 31

31:1 The words of king Lemuel; the oracle which his mother taught him.
31:2 What, my son? and what, O son of my womb? And what, O son of my vows?
31:3 Give not your strength to women, Nor your ways to that which destroys kings.
31:4 It is not for kings, O Lemuel, it is not for kings to drink wine; Nor for princes to say, Where is strong drink?
31:5 Lest they drink, and forget the law, and pervert the justice due to any that is afflicted.
31:6 Give strong drink to him that is ready to perish, and wine to the bitter in soul:
31:7 Let him drink, and forget his poverty, and remember his misery no more.
31:8 Open your mouth for the mute, In the cause of all such as are left desolate.
31:9 Open your mouth, judge righteously, and minister justice to the poor and needy.
31:10 A worthy woman who can find? For her price is far above rubies.
31:11 The heart of her husband trusts in her, and he shall have no lack of gain.
31:12 She does him good and not evil All the days of her life.
31:13 She seeks wool and flax, and works willingly with her hands.
31:14 She is like the merchant-ships; She brings her bread from afar.
31:15 She rises also while it is yet night, and gives food to her household, and their task to her maidens.
31:16 She considers a field, and buys it; With the fruit of her hands she plants a vineyard.
31:17 She girds her loins with strength, and makes strong her arms.
31:18 She perceives that her merchandise is profitable: Her lamp goes not out by night.
31:19 She lays her hands to the distaff, and her hands hold the spindle.
31:20 She stretches out her hand to the poor; Yes, she reaches forth her hands to the needy.
31:21 She is not afraid of the snow for her household; For all her household are clothed with scarlet.
31:22 She makes for herself carpets of tapestry; Her clothing is fine linen and purple.
31:23 Her husband is known in the gates, When he sits among the elders of the land.

31:24 She makes linen garments and sells them, and delivers girdles to the merchant.
31:25 Strength and dignity are her clothing; And she laughs at the time to come.
31:26 She opens her mouth with wisdom; And the law of kindness is on her tongue.
31:27 She looks well to the ways of her household, and eats not the bread of idleness.
31:28 Her children rise up, and call her blessed; Her husband also, and he praises her, saying:
31:29 Many daughters have done worthily, But you excellest them all.
31:30 Grace is deceitful, and beauty is vain; But a woman that fears Yehovah, she shall be praised.
31:31 Give her of the fruit of her hands; And let her works praise her in the gates.

End of Proverbs

Ecclesiastes

Ecclesiastes or, The Preacher

Chapter 1

1:1 The words of the Preacher, the son of David, king in Jerusalem.
1:2 Vanity of vanities, says the Preacher; vanity of vanities, all is vanity.
1:3 What profit has man from all his labor in which he labors under the sun?
1:4 One generation goes, and another generation comes; but the earth abides for ever.
1:5 The sun also rises, and the sun goes down, and hastens to its place where it rises.
1:6 The wind goes toward the south, and turns about to the north; it turns about continually in its course, and the wind returns again to its circuits.
1:7 All the rivers run into the sea, yet the sea is not full; to the place where the rivers go, there they go again.
1:8 All things are full of weariness; man cannot utter it: the eye is not satisfied with seeing, nor the ear filled with hearing.
1:9 That which has been, is that which shall be; and that which has been done is that which shall be done: and there is nothing new under the sun.
1:10 Is there anything of which it may be said, See, this is new? It has already been, long ago, in the ages which were before us.
1:11 There is no remembrance of the former generations; neither shall there be any remembrance of the latter generations that are to come, among those that shall come after.
1:12 I the Preacher was king over Israel in Jerusalem.
1:13 And I applied my heart to seek and to search out by wisdom concerning all that is done under heaven: it is a sore travail that God has given to the sons of men to be exercised with it.
1:14 I have seen all the works that are done under the sun; and, behold, all is vanity and a striving after wind.
1:15 That which is crooked cannot be made straight; and that which is wanting cannot be numbered.
1:16 I communed with my own hear, saying, Lo, I have gotten me great wisdom more than all that were before me in Jerusalem; yes, my heart has had great experience of wisdom and knowledge.
1:17 And I applied my heart to know wisdom, and to know madness and folly. I perceived that this also was a striving after wind.
1:18 For in much wisdom is much grief; and he that increases knowledge increases sorrow.

Chapter 2

2:1 I said in my heart, Come now, I will test you with mirth; therefore enjoy pleasure. And, behold, this also was vanity.
2:2 I said of laughter, It is mad; and of mirth, What does it accomplish?
2:3 I searched in my heart how to cheer my flesh with wine, my heart still guiding me with wisdom, and how to lay hold on folly, till I might see what good thing it was for the sons of men to do under heaven all the days of their life.
2:4 I made me great works; I built me houses; I planted me vineyards;
2:5 I made me gardens and parks, and I planted trees in them of all kinds of fruit;
2:6 I made me pools of water, with which to water the forest where trees were growing;
2:7 I bought men-servants and maid-servants, and had servants born in my house; also I had great possessions of herds and flocks, more than all that were before me in Jerusalem;

2:8 I gathered me also silver and gold, and the treasure of kings and of the provinces; I got me men-singers and women-singers, and the delights of the sons of men, musical instruments, and that of all sorts.
2:9 So I was great, and increased more than all that were before me in Jerusalem: also my wisdom remained with me.
2:10 And whatever my eyes desired I kept not from them; I withheld not my heart from any joy; for my heart rejoiced because of all my labor; and this was my reward from all my labor.
2:11 Then I looked on all the works that my hands had wrought, and on the labor that I had labored to do; and, behold, all was vanity and a striving after wind, and there was no profit under the sun.
2:12 And I turned myself to behold wisdom, and madness, and folly: for what can the man do that comes after the king? even that which has been done long ago.
2:13 Then I saw that wisdom excels folly, as far as light excels darkness.
2:14 The wise man's eyes are in his head, and the fool walks in darkness: and yet I perceived that the same event happens to them all.
2:15 Then said I in my heart, as it happens to the fool, so will it happen even to me; and why was I then more wise? Then I said in my heart, this also is vanity.
2:16 For of the wise man, even as of the fool, there is no remembrance for ever; seeing that in the days to come all will have been long forgotten. And how does the wise man die even as the fool!
2:17 So I hated life, because the work that is wrought under the sun was grievous to me; for all is vanity and a striving after wind.
2:18 And I hated all my labor in which I labored under the sun, seeing that I must leave it to the man that shall be after me.
2:19 And who knows whether he will be a wise man or a fool? Yet he will have rule over all my labor in which I have labored, and in which I have shown myself wise under the sun. This also is vanity.
2:20 Therefore I turned about to cause my heart to despair concerning all the labor in which I had labored under the sun.
2:21 For there is a man whose labor is with wisdom, and with knowledge, and with skilfulness; yet to a man that has not labored therein shall he leave it for his portion. This also is vanity and a great evil.
2:22 For what has a man from all his labor, and of the striving of his heart, in which he labors under the sun?
2:23 For all his days are but sorrows, and his travail is grief; yes, even in the night his heart takes no rest. This also is vanity.
2:24 There is nothing better for a man than to eat and drink, and make his soul enjoy good in his labor. This also I saw, that it is from the hand of God.
2:25 For who can eat, or who can have enjoyment, more than I?
2:26 For to the man that pleases him God gives wisdom, and knowledge, and joy; but to the sinner he gives travail, to gather and to heap up, that he may give to him that pleases God. This also is vanity and a striving after wind.

Chapter 3

3:1 There is a season for everything, and a time for very purpose under heaven:
3:2 a time to be born, and a time to die; a time to plant, and a time to pluck up that which is planted;
3:3 a time to kill, and a time to heal; a time to break down, and a time to build up;
3:4 a time to weep, and a time to laugh; a time to mourn, and a time to dance;
3:5 a time to cast away stones, and a time to gather stones together; a time to embrace, and a time to refrain from embracing;
3:6 a time to seek, and a time to lose; a time to keep, and a time to cast away;
3:7 a time to rend, and a time to sew; a time to keep silence, and a time to speak;
3:8 a time to love, and a time to hate; a time for war, and a time for peace.
3:9 What profit has he that works in that in which he labors?
3:10 I have seen the travail which God has given to the sons of men to be exercised with it.

3:11 He has made everything beautiful in its time: also he has set eternity in their hearts, yet such that man cannot find out the work that God has done from the beginning even to the end.
3:12 I know that there is nothing better for them, than to rejoice, and to do good so long as they live.
3:13 And also that every man should eat and drink, and enjoy good in all his labor, is the gift of God.
3:14 I know that, whatsoever God does, it shall be for ever: nothing can be put to it, nor anything taken from it; and God has done it, that men should fear before him.
3:15 That which is has been long ago; and that which is to be has long ago been: and God seeks again that which is passed away.
3:16 And moreover I saw under the sun, that in the place of justice, wickedness was there; and in the place of righteousness, wickedness was there.
3:17 I said in my heart, God will judge the righteous and the wicked; for there is a time there for every purpose and for every work.
3:18 I said in my heart, It is because of the sons of men, that God may prove them, and that they may see that they themselves are but as beasts.
3:19 For that which befalls the sons of men befalls beasts; even one thing befalls them: as the one dies, so dies the other; yes, they have all one breath; and man has no preeminence above the beasts: for all is vanity.
3:20 All go to one place; all are of the dust, and all turn to dust again.
3:21 Who knows the spirit of man, whether it goes upward, and the spirit of the beast, whether it goes downward to the earth?
3:22 Wherefore I saw that there is nothing better, than that a man should rejoice in his works; for that is his portion: for who shall bring him back to see what shall be after him?

Chapter 4

4:1 Then I returned and saw all the oppressions that are done under the sun: and, behold, the tears of such as were oppressed, and they had no comforter; and on the side of their oppressors there was power; but they had no comforter.
4:2 Wherefore I praised the dead that have been long dead more than the living that are yet alive;
4:3 yes, better than them both did I esteem him that has not yet been, who has not seen the evil work that is done under the sun.
4:4 Then I saw all labor and every skilful work, that for this a man is envied of his neighbor. This also is vanity and a striving after wind.
4:5 The fool folds his hands together, and eats his own flesh.
4:6 Better is a handful, with quietness, than two handfuls with labor and striving after wind.
4:7 Then I returned and saw vanity under the sun.
4:8 There is one that is alone, and he has not a second; yes, he has neither son nor brother; yet is there no end of all his labor, neither are his eyes satisfied with riches. For whom then, says he, do I labor, and deprive my soul of good? This also is vanity, yes, it is a sore travail.
4:9 Two are better than one, because they have a good reward for their labor.
4:10 For if they fall, the one will lift up his fellow; but woe to him that is alone when he falls, and has not another to lift him up.
4:11 Again, if two lie together, then they have warmth; but how can one be warm alone?
4:12 And a man that prevails against him that is alone, two shall withstand him; and a threefold cord is not quickly broken.
4:13 Better is a poor and wise youth than an old and foolish king, who knows not how to receive admonition any more.
4:14 For out of prison he came forth to be king; yes, even in his kingdom he was born poor.
4:15 I saw all the living that walk under the sun, that they were with the youth, the second, that stood up in his stead.

4:16 There was no end of all the people, even of all them over whom he was: yet they that come after shall not rejoice in him. Surely this also is vanity and a striving after wind.

Chapter 5

5:1 Keep your foot when you go to the house of God; for to draw near to hear is better than to give the sacrifice of fools: for they know not that they do evil.
5:2 Be not rash with your mouth, and let not your heart be hasty to utter anything before God; for God is in heaven, and you upon earth: therefore let your words be few.
5:3 For a dream comes with a multitude of business, and a fool's voice with a multitude of words.
5:4 When you vow a vow to God, defer not to pay it; for he has no pleasure in fools: pay that which you vowest.
5:5 Better is it that you should not vow, than that you should vow and not pay.
5:6 Allow not your mouth to cause your flesh to sin; neither say before the angel, that it was an error: why should God be angry at your voice, and destroy the work of your hands?
5:7 For in the multitude of dreams there are vanities, and in many words: but fear you God.
5:8 If you see the oppression of the poor, and the violent taking away of justice and righteousness in a province, marvel not at the matter: for one official protects the other official; and higher officials protect them.
5:9 Moreover the profit of the earth is for all: the king himself is served by the field.
5:10 He that loves silver shall not be satisfied with silver; nor he that loves abundance, with increase: this also is vanity.
5:11 When goods increase, they are increased that eat them; and what advantage is there to the owner thereof, except the beholding of them with his eyes?
5:12 The sleep of a laboring man is sweet, whether he eat little or much; but the fulness of the rich will not allow him to sleep.
5:13 There is a grievous evil which I have seen under the sun, namely, riches kept by the owner thereof to his hurt:
5:14 and those riches perish by evil adventure; and if he has begotten a son, there is nothing in his hand.
5:15 As he came forth from his mother's womb, naked shall he go again as he came, and shall take nothing for his labor, which he may carry away in his hand.
5:16 And this also is a grievous evil, that in all points as he came, so shall he go: and what profit has he that he labors for the wind?
5:17 All his days also he eats in darkness, and he is sore vexed, and has sickness and wrath.
5:18 Behold, that which I have seen to be good and to be comely is for one to eat and to drink, and to enjoy good in all his labor, in which he labors under the sun, all the days of his life which God has given him: for this is his portion.
5:19 Every man also to whom God has given riches and wealth, and has given him power to eat thereof, and to take his portion, and to rejoice in his labor-this is the gift of God.
5:20 For he shall not much remember the days of his life; because God answers him in the joy of his heart.

Chapter 6

6:1 There is an evil which I have seen under the sun, and it is heavy upon men:
6:2 a man to whom God gives riches, wealth, and honor, so that he lacks nothing for his soul of all that he desires, yet God gives him not power to eat thereof, but an alien eats it; this is vanity, and it is an evil disease.
6:3 If a man beget a hundred children, and live many years, so that the days of his years are many, but his soul be not filled with good, and moreover he have no burial; I say, that an untimely birth is better than he:

6:4 for it comes in vanity, and departs in darkness, and the name thereof is covered with darkness;
6:5 moreover it has not seen the sun nor known it; this has rest rather than the other:
6:6 yes, though he live a thousand years twice told, and yet enjoy no good, do not all go to one place?
6:7 All the labor of man is for his mouth, and yet the appetite is not filled.
6:8 For what advantage has the wise more than the fool? or what has the poor man, that knows how to walk before the living?
6:9 Better is the sight of the eyes than the wandering of the desire: this also is vanity and a striving after wind.
6:10 Whatsoever has been, the name thereof was given long ago; and it is know what man is; neither can he contend with him that is mightier than he.
6:11 Seeing there are many things that increase vanity, what is man the better?
6:12 For who knows what is good for man in his life, all the days of his vain life which he spends as a shadow? for who can tell a man what shall be after him under the sun?

Chapter 7

7:1 A good name is better than precious oil; and the day of death, than the day of one's birth.
7:2 It is better to go to the house of mourning than to go to the house of feasting: for that is the end of all men; and the living will lay it to his heart.
7:3 Sorrow is better than laughter; for by the sadness of the countenance the heart is made glad.
7:4 The heart of the wise is in the house of mourning; but the heart of fools is in the house of mirth.
7:5 It is better to hear the rebuke of the wise, than for a man to hear the song of fools.
7:6 For as the crackling of thorns under a pot, so is the laughter of the fool: this also is vanity.
7:7 Surely extortion makes the wise man foolish; and a bribe destroys the understanding.
7:8 Better is the end of a thing than the beginning thereof; and the patient in spirit is better than the proud in spirit.
7:9 Be not hasty in your spirit to be angry; for anger rests in the bosom of fools.
7:10 Say not you, What is the cause that the former days were better than these? for you do not inquire wisely concerning this.
7:11 Wisdom is as good as an inheritance; yes, more excellent is it for them that see the sun.
7:12 For wisdom is a defence, even as money is a defence; but the excellency of knowledge is, that wisdom preserves the life of him that has it.
7:13 Consider the work of God: for who can make that straight, which he has made crooked?
7:14 In the day of prosperity be joyful, and in the day of adversity consider; yes, God has made the one side by side with the other, to the end that man should not find out anything that shall be after him.
7:15 All this have I seen in my days of vanity: there is a righteous man that perishes in his righteousness, and there is a wicked man that prolongs his life in his evil-doing.
7:16 Be not righteous overmuch; neither make yourself overwise: why should you destroy yourself?
7:17 Be not overmuch wicked, neither be you foolish: why should you die before your time?
7:18 It is good that you should take hold of this; yes, also from that withdraw not your hand: for he that fears God shall come forth from them all.
7:19 Wisdom is a strength to the wise man more than ten rulers that are in a city.
7:20 Surely there is not a righteous man upon earth, that does good, and sins not.
7:21 Also take not heed to all words that are spoken, lest you hear your servant curse you;

7:22 for oftentimes also your own heart knows that you yourself likewise have cursed others.
7:23 All this have I proved in wisdom: I said, I will be wise; but it was far from me.
7:24 That which is, is far off and exceedingly deep; who can find it out?
7:25 I turned about, and my heart was set to know and to search out, and to seek wisdom and the reason of things, and to know that wickedness is folly, and that foolishness is madness.
7:26 And I find more bitter than death the woman whose heart is traps and nets, and whose hands are shackles. Whoso pleases God shall elude her; but the sinner shall be captured by her.
7:27 Behold, this have I found, says the Preacher, laying one thing to another, to find out the scheme.
7:28 Something my soul still seeks, but I have not found: One man among a thousand have I found; but a woman among all those I have not found:
7:29 behold, this only have I found: that God made man upright, but they have sought out many inventions.

Chapter 8

8:1 Who is as the wise man? and who knows the interpretation of a thing? A man's wisdom makes his face to shine, and the hardness of his face is changed.
8:2 I counsel you, Keep the king's command, and that in regard of the oath of God.
8:3 Be not hasty to go out of his presence; persist not in an evil thing: for he does whatsoever pleases him.
8:4 For the king's word has power; and who may say to him, What are you doing?
8:5 Whoso keeps the commandment shall know no evil thing; and a wise man's heart discerns time and judgment:
8:6 for to every purpose there is a time and judgment; because the misery of man is great upon him:
8:7 for he knows not that which shall be; for who can tell him how it shall be?
8:8 There is no man that has power over the spirit to retain the spirit; neither has he power over the day of death; and there is no discharge in war: neither shall wickedness deliver him that is given to it.
8:9 All this have I seen, and applied my heart to every work that is done under the sun: there is a time in which one man has power over another to his hurt.
8:10 So I saw the wicked buried, and they came to the grave; and they that had done right went away from the holy place, and were forgotten in the city: this also is vanity.
8:11 Because sentence against an evil deed is not executed speedily, the heart of the sons of men is emboldened in them to do evil.
8:12 Though a sinner do evil a hundred times, and prolong his days, yet surely I know that it shall be well with them that fear God, that fear before him:
8:13 but it shall not be well with the wicked, neither shall he prolong his days, which are as a shadow; because he fears not before God.
8:14 There is a vanity which is done upon the earth, that there are righteous men to whom it happens according to the work of the wicked; again, there are wicked men to whom it happens according to the work of the righteous: I said that this also is vanity.
8:15 Then I commended mirth, because a man has no better thing under the sun, than to eat, and to drink, and to be joyful: for that shall abide with him in his labor all the days of his life which God has given him under the sun.
8:16 When I applied my heart to know wisdom, and to see the business that is done upon the earth (for also there is that neither day nor night sees sleep with his eyes),
8:17 then I beheld all the work of God, that man cannot find out the work that is done under the sun: because however much a man labor to seek it out, yet he shall not find it; yes moreover, though a wise man think to know it, yet shall he not be able to find it.

Chapter 9

9:1 For all this I laid to my heart, even to explore all this: that the righteous, and the wise, and their works, are in the hand of God; whether it be love or hatred, man knows it not; all is before them.
9:2 All things come alike to all: there is one event to the righteous and to the wicked; to the good and to the clean and to the unclean; to him that sacrifices and to him that sacrifices not; as is the good, so is the sinner; and he that swears, as he that fears an oath.
9:3 This is an evil in all that is done under the sun, that there is one event to all: yes also, the heart of the sons of men is full of evil, and madness is in their heart while they live, and after that they go to the dead.
9:4 For to him that is joined with all the living there is hope; for a living dog is better than a dead lion.
9:5 For the living know that they shall die: but the dead know not anything, neither have they any more a reward; for the memory of them is forgotten.
9:6 As well their love, as their hatred and their envy, is perished long ago; neither have they any more a portion for ever in anything that is done under the sun.
9:7 Go your way, eat your bread with joy, and drink your wine with a merry heart; for God has already accepted your works.
9:8 Let your garments be always white; and let not your head lack oil.
9:9 Live joyfully with the wife whom you love all the days of your life of vanity, which he has given you under the sun, all your days of vanity: for that is your portion in life, and in your labor in which you labor under the sun.
9:10 Whatever your hand finds to do, do it with all your might. For there is no work, nor device, nor knowledge, nor wisdom, in Sheol, where you will be going.
9:11 I returned, and I saw under the sun, that the race is not to the swift, nor the battle to the strong, neither yet bread to the wise, nor yet riches to the men of understanding, nor yet favor to only men of skill; but instead, time and chance happen to them all.
9:12 For a man does not know when his time is. Like the fishes that are captured in an evil net, or as the birds that are caught in the snare, so also are the sons of men snared in a calamitous time, when it falls suddenly upon them.
9:13 I have also seen wisdom under the sun on this wise, and it seemed great to me:
9:14 There was a small city, and only few men within it; and there came a great king against it, and besieged it, and built great bulwarks against it.
9:15 Now there was found in it a poor wise man, and he by his wisdom saved the city; yet no man remembered that poor man.
9:16 Then said I, Wisdom is better than strength: nevertheless the poor man's wisdom is despised, and his words are not heard.
9:17 The words of the wise heard in quiet are better than the cry of him that rules among fools.
9:18 Wisdom is better than weapons of war; but one sinner destroys much good.

Chapter 10

10:1 Dead flies cause the oil of the perfumer to send forth an evil odor; so does a little folly outweigh wisdom and honor.
10:2 A wise man's heart is at his right hand; but a fool's heart at his left.
10:3 Yes also, when the fool walks by the way, his understanding fails him, and he says to every one that he is a fool.
10:4 If the spirit of the ruler rise up against you, leave not your place; for gentleness allays great offences.
10:5 There is an evil which I have seen under the sun, as it were an error which proceeds from the ruler:
10:6 folly is set in great dignity, and the rich sit in a low place.
10:7 I have seen servants upon horses, and princes walking like servants upon the earth.
10:8 He that digs a pit shall fall into it; and whoso breaks through a wall, a serpent shall bite him.

10:9 Whoso hews out stones shall be hurt thereby; and he that splits wood is endangered by it.
10:10 If the iron be blunt, and one does not whet the edge, then must he apply more strength: but wisdom is profitable to direct.
10:11 If the serpent bite before it is charmed, then is there no advantage in the charmer.
10:12 The words of a wise man's mouth are gracious; but the lips of a fool will swallow up himself.
10:13 The beginning of the words of his mouth is foolishness; and the end of his talk is mischievous madness.
10:14 A fool also multiplies words: yet man knows not what shall be; and that which shall be after him, who can tell him?
10:15 The labor of fools wearies every one of them; for he knows not how to go to the city.
10:16 Woe to you, O land, when your king is a child, and your princes eat in the morning!
10:17 Happy are you, O land, when your king is the son of nobles, and your princes eat in due season, for strength, and not for drunkenness!
10:18 By slothfulness the roof sinks in; and through idleness of the hands the house leaks.
10:19 A feast is made for laughter, and wine makes life glad; and money answers everything.
10:20 Revile not the king, no, not in your thought; and revile not the rich in your bedchamber: for a bird of the heavens shall carry the voice, and that which has wings shall tell the matter.

Chapter 11

11:1 Cast your bread upon the waters; for you shall find it after many days.
11:2 Give a portion to seven, yes, even to eight; for you know not what evil shall be upon the earth.
11:3 If the clouds be full of rain, they empty themselves upon the earth; and if a tree fall toward the south, or toward the north, in the place where the tree falls, there shall it be.
11:4 He that observes the wind shall not sow; and he that regards the clouds shall not reap.
11:5 As you know not what is the way of the wind, nor how the bones do grow in the womb of her that is with child; even so you know not the work of God who does all.
11:6 In the morning sow your seed, and in the evening withhold not your hand; for you know not which shall prosper, whether this or that, or whether they both shall be alike good.
11:7 Truly the light is sweet, and a pleasant thing it is for the eyes to behold the sun.
11:8 Yes, if a man live many years, let him rejoice in them all; but let him remember the days of darkness, for they shall be many. All that comes is vanity.
11:9 Rejoice, O young man, in your youth, and let your heart cheer you in the days of your youth, and walk in the ways of your heart, and in the sight of your eyes; but know you, that for all these things God will bring you into judgment.
11:10 Therefore remove sorrow from your heart, and put away evil from your flesh; for youth and the dawn of life are vanity.

Chapter 12

12:1 Remember also your Creator in the days of your youth, before the evil days come, and the years draw near, when you shall say, I have no pleasure in them;
12:2 before the sun, and the light, and the moon, and the stars, are darkened, and the clouds return after the rain;
12:3 in the day when the keepers of the house shall tremble, and the strong men shall bow themselves, and the grinders cease because they are few, and those that look out of the windows shall be darkened,

12:4 and the doors shall be shut in the street; when the sound of the grinding is low, and one shall rise up at the voice of a bird, and all the daughters of music shall be brought low;
12:5 yes, they shall be afraid of that which is high, and terrors shall be in the way; and the almond-tree shall blossom, and the grasshopper shall be a burden, and desire shall fail; because man goes to his everlasting home, and the mourners go about the streets:
12:6 before the silver cord is loosed, or the golden bowl is broken, or the pitcher is broken at the fountain, or the wheel broken at the cistern,
12:7 and the dust returns to the earth as it was, and the spirit returns to God who gave it.
12:8 Vanity of vanities, says the Preacher; all is vanity.
12:9 And further, because the Preacher was wise, he still taught the people knowledge; yes, he pondered, and sought out, and set in order many proverbs.
12:10 The Preacher sought to find out acceptable words, and that which was written uprightly, even words of truth.
12:11 The words of the wise are as goads; and as nails well fastened are the words of the masters of assemblies, which are given from one shepherd.
12:12 And furthermore, my son, be admonished: of making many books there is no end; and much study is a weariness of the flesh.
12:13 This is the end of the matter; all has been heard: fear God, and keep his commandments; for this is the whole duty of man.
12:14 For God will bring every work into judgment, with every hidden thing, whether it be good, or whether it be evil.

End of Ecclesiastes

The Song of Songs, which is Solomon's

Song of Solomon

1:1 The Song of songs, which is Solomon's.
1:2 Let him kiss me with the kisses of his mouth; For your love is better than wine.
1:3 Your oils have a goodly fragrance; Your name is as oil poured forth; Therefore do the virgins love you.
1:4 Draw me; we will run after you: The king has brought me into his chambers; We will be glad and rejoice in you; We will make mention of your love more than of wine: Rightly do they love you.
1:5 I am dark, yet lovely, Oh ye daughters of Jerusalem, as the tents of Kedar, as the curtains of Solomon.
1:6 Look not upon me, because I am swarthy, because the sun has scorched me. My mother's sons were incensed against me; they made me keeper of the vineyards; but my own vineyard I have not kept.
1:7 Tell me, O you whom my soul loves, Where you feed your flock, Where you cause it to rest at noon: For why should I be as one that is veiled Beside the flocks of your companions?
1:8 If you know not, O you fairest among women, Go your way forth by the footsteps of the flock, and feed your kids beside the shepherds' tents.
1:9 I have compared you, O my love, To a steed in Pharaoh's chariots.
1:10 Your cheeks are comely with plaits of hair, Your neck with strings of jewels.
1:11 We will make you plaits of gold With studs of silver.
1:12 While the king sat at his table, My spikenard sent forth its fragrance.
1:13 My beloved is to me as a bundle of myrrh, That lies between my breasts.
1:14 My beloved is to me as a cluster of henna-flowers In the vineyards of En-gedi.
1:15 Behold, you are fair, my love; Behold you are fair; Your eyes are as doves.
1:16 Behold, you are fair, my beloved, yes, pleasant: Also our couch is green.
1:17 The beams of our house are cedars, a*nd* our rafters are firs.
2:1 I am a rose of Sharon, a lily of the valleys.
2:2 As a lily among thorns, So is my love among the daughters.
2:3 As the apple-tree among the trees of the wood, So is my beloved among the sons. I sat down under his shadow with great delight, and his fruit was sweet to my taste.
2:4 He brought me to the banqueting-house, and his banner over me was love.
2:5 Stay me with raisins, refresh me with apples; For I am faint from love.
2:6 His left hand is under my head, and his right hand embraces me.
2:7 I adjure you, daughters of Jerusalem, by the roes, or by the hinds of the field, that ye stir not up, nor awake my love, until he pleases.
2:8 The voice of my beloved! behold, he comes, Leaping upon the mountains, Skipping upon the hills.
2:9 My beloved is like a roe or a young deer: Behold, he stands behind our wall; He looks in at the windows; He glances through the lattice.
2:10 My beloved spoke, and said to me, Rise up, my love, my fair one, and come away.
2:11 For, lo, the winter is past; The rain is over and gone;
2:12 The flowers appear on the earth; The time of the singing of birds is come, and the voice of the turtle-dove is heard in our land;
2:13 The fig-tree ripens her green figs, and the vines are in blossom; They give forth their fragrance. Arise, my love, my fair one, and come away.
2:14 O my dove, that are in the clefts of the rock, In the covert of the steep place, Let me see your countenance, Let me hear your voice; For sweet is your voice, and your countenance is comely.
2:15 Take us the foxes, the little foxes, That spoil the vineyards; For our vineyards are in blossom.
2:16 My beloved is mine, and I am his: He feeds his flock among the lilies.
2:17 Until the day be cool, and the shadows flee away, Turn, my beloved, and be you like a roe or a young deer Upon the mountains of Bether.

The Song of Songs, which is Solomon's

3:1 By night on my bed I sought him whom my soul loves: I sought him, but I found him not.
3:2 I said, I will rise now, and go about the city; In the streets and in the broad ways I will seek him whom my soul loves: I sought him, but I found him not.
3:3 The watchmen that go about the city found me; To whom I said, Saw ye him whom my soul loves?
3:4 It was but a little that I passed from them, When I found him whom my soul loves: I held him, and would not let him go, Until I had brought him into my mother's house, and into the chamber of her that conceived me.
3:5 I adjure you, O daughters of Jerusalem, By the roes, or by the hinds of the field, That ye stir not up, nor awake my love, Until he please.
3:6 Who is this that comes up from the wilderness Like pillars of smoke, Perfumed with myrrh and frankincense, With all powders of the merchant?
3:7 Behold, it is the litter of Solomon; Sixty mighty men are around it, Of the mighty men of Israel.
3:8 They all handle the sword, and are expert in war: Every man has his sword upon his thigh, Because of fear in the night.
3:9 King Solomon made himself a palanquin Of the wood of Lebanon.
3:10 He made the pillars thereof of silver, The bottom thereof of gold, the seat of it of purple, The midst thereof being paved with love, From the daughters of Jerusalem.
3:11 Go forth, O ye daughters of Zion, and behold king Solomon, With the crown with which his mother has crowned him In the day of his espousals, and in the day of the gladness of his heart.
4:1 Behold, you are fair, my love; behold, you are fair; Your eyes are as doves behind your veil. Your hair is as a flock of goats, That lie along the side of mount Gilead.
4:2 Your teeth are like a flock of ewes that are newly shorn, Which are come up from the washing, Whereof every one has twins, and no one is bereaved among them.
4:3 Your lips are like a thread of scarlet, and your mouth is comely. Your temples are like a piece of a pomegranate Behind your veil.
4:4 Your neck is like the tower of David built for an armory, Whereon there hang a thousand bucklers, all the shields of the mighty men.
4:5 Your two breasts are like two fawns That are twins of a roe, Which feed among the lilies.
4:6 Until the day be cool, and the shadows flee away, I will get me to the mountain of myrrh, and to the hill of frankincense.
4:7 You are all fair, my love; And there is no spot in you.
4:8 Come with me from Lebanon, my bride, With me from Lebanon: Look from the top of Amana, From the top of Senir and Hermon, From the lions' dens, From the mountains of the leopards.
4:9 You have ravished my heart, my sister, my bride; You have ravished my heart with one of your eyes, With one chain of your neck.
4:10 How fair is your love, my sister, my bride! How much better is your love than wine! And the fragrance of your oils than all manner of spices!
4:11 Your lips, O my bride, drop as the honeycomb: Honey and milk are under your tongue; And the smell of your garments is like the smell of Lebanon.
4:12 A garden shut up is my sister, my bride; A spring shut up, a fountain sealed.
4:13 Your shoots are an orchard of pomegranates, with precious fruits; Henna with spikenard plants,
4:14 Spikenard and saffron, Calamus and cinnamon, with all trees of frankincense; Myrrh and aloes, with all the chief spices.
4:15 You are a fountain of gardens, a well of living waters, and flowing streams from Lebanon.
4:16 Awake, O north wind; and come, you south; Blow upon my garden, that the spices thereof may flow out. Let my beloved come into his garden, and eat his precious fruits.

The Song of Songs, which is Solomon's

5:1 I am come into my garden, my sister, my bride: I have gathered my myrrh with my spice; I have eaten my honeycomb with my honey; I have drunk my wine with my milk. Eat, O friends; Drink, yes, drink abundantly, O beloved.
5:2 I was asleep, but my heart awoke: It is the voice of my beloved that knocks, saying, Open to me, my sister, my love, my dove, my undefiled; For my head is filled with dew, My locks with the drops of the night.
5:3 I have put off my garment; must I put it on? I have washed my feet; must I soil them?
5:4 My beloved put in his hand by the hole of the door, and my heart was moved for him.
5:5 I rose up to open to my beloved; And my hands dripped with myrrh, and my fingers with liquid myrrh, Upon the handles of the bolt.
5:6 I opened to my beloved; But my beloved had withdrawn himself, and was gone. My soul had failed me when he spoke: I sought him, but I could not find him; I called him, but he gave me no answer.
5:7 The watchmen that go about the city found me, They smote me, they wounded me; The keepers of the walls took away my mantle from me.
5:8 I adjure you, O daughters of Jerusalem, If ye find my beloved, That ye tell him, that I am sick from love.
5:9 What is your beloved more than another beloved, O you fairest among women? What is your beloved more than another beloved, That you do so adjure us?
5:10 My beloved is white and ruddy, The chiefest among ten thousand.
5:11 His head is as the most fine gold; His locks are bushy, and black as a raven.
5:12 His eyes are like doves beside the water-brooks, Washed with milk, and fitly set.
5:13 His cheeks are as a bed of spices, as banks of sweet herbs: His lips are as lilies, dropping liquid myrrh.
5:14 His hands are as rings of gold set with beryl: His body is as ivory work overlaid with sapphires.
5:15 His legs are as pillars of marble, set upon sockets of fine gold: His aspect is like Lebanon, excellent as the cedars.
5:16 His mouth is most sweet; Yes, he is altogether lovely. This is my beloved, and this is my friend, O daughters of Jerusalem.
6:1 Whither is your beloved gone, O you fairest among women? Whither has your beloved turned him, That we may seek him with you?
6:2 My beloved is gone down to his garden, To the beds of spices, To feed in the gardens, and to gather lilies.
6:3 I am my beloved's, and my beloved is mine; He feeds his flock among the lilies,
6:4 You are fair, O my love, as Tirzah, Comely as Jerusalem, Terrible as an army with banners.
6:5 Turn away your eyes from me, For they have overcome me. Your hair is as a flock of goats, That lie along the side of Gilead.
6:6 Your teeth are like a flock of ewes, Which are come up from the washing; Whereof every one has twins, and no one is bereaved among them.
6:7 Your temples are like a piece of a pomegranate behind your veil.
6:8 There are sixty queens, and eighty concubines, and virgins without number.
6:9 My dove, my undefiled, is but one; She is the only one of her mother; She is the choice one of her that bore her. The daughters saw her, and called her blessed; Yes, the queens and the concubines, and they praised her.
6:10 Who is she that looks forth as the morning, Fair as the moon, Clear as the sun, Terrible as an army with banners?
6:11 I went down into the garden of nuts, To see the green plants of the valley, To see whether the vine budded, a*nd* the pomegranates were in flower.
6:12 Before I was aware, my soul set me Among the chariots of my princely people.
6:13 Return, return, O Shulammite; Return, return, that we may look upon you. Why will ye look upon the Shulammite, as upon the dance of Mahanaim?
7:1 How beautiful are your feet in sandals, O prince's daughter! Your rounded thighs are like jewels, The work of the hands of a skilful workman.

7:2 Your body is like a round goblet, In which no mingled wine is wanting: Your waist is like a heap of wheat Set about with lilies.
7:3 Your two breasts are like two fawns That are twins of a roe.
7:4 Your neck is like the tower of ivory; Your eyes as the pools in Heshbon, By the gate of Bath-rabbim; Your nose is like the tower of Lebanon Which looks toward Damascus.
7:5 Your head upon you is like Carmel, and the hair of your head like purple; The king is held captive in its tresses.
7:6 How fair and how pleasant are you, O love, for delights!
7:7 This your stature is like to a palm-tree, and your breasts to its clusters.
7:8 I said, I will climb up into the palm-tree, I will take hold of the branches thereof: Let your breasts be as clusters of the vine, and the smell of your breath like apples,
7:9 And your mouth like the best wine, That goes down smoothly for my beloved, Gliding through the lips of those that are asleep.
7:10 I am my beloved's; And his desire is toward me.
7:11 Come, my beloved, let us go forth into the field; Let us lodge in the villages.
7:12 Let us get up early to the vineyards; Let us see whether the vine has budded, a*nd* its blossom is open, a*nd* the pomegranates are in flower: There I will give you my love.
7:13 The mandrakes give forth fragrance; And at our doors are all manner of precious fruits, new and old, Which I have laid up for you, O my beloved.
8:1 Oh that you wert as my brother, That sucked the breasts of my mother! When I should find you without, I would kiss you; Yes, and no one would despise me.
8:2 I would lead you, and bring you into my mother's house, Who would instruct me; I would cause you to drink of spiced wine, Of the juice of my pomegranate.
8:3 His left hand should be under my head, and his right hand should embrace me.
8:4 I adjure you, O daughters of Jerusalem, That ye stir not up, nor awake my love, Until he please.
8:5 Who is this that comes up from the wilderness, Leaning upon her beloved? Under the apple-tree I awakened you: There your mother was in travail with you, There was she in travail that brought you forth.
8:6 Set me as a seal upon your heart, as a seal upon your arm: For love is strong as death; Jealousy is cruel as Sheol; The flashes thereof are flashes of fire, a very flame of Yehovah.
8:7 Many waters cannot quench love, Neither can floods drown it: If a man would give all the substance of his house for love, He would utterly be despised.
8:8 We have a little sister, and she has no breasts: What shall we do for our sister In the day when she shall be spoken for?
8:9 If she be a wall, We will build upon her a turret of silver: And if she be a door, We will inclose her with boards of cedar.
8:10 I am a wall, and my breasts like the towers of it. Then was I in his eyes as one that found peace.
8:11 Solomon had a vineyard at Baal-hamon; He let out the vineyard to keepers; Every one for the fruit thereof was to bring a thousand pieces of silver.
8:12 My vineyard, which is mine, is before me: You, O Solomon, shall have the thousand, and those that keep the fruit thereof two hundred.
8:13 You that dwell in the gardens, The companions hearken for your voice: Cause me to hear it.
8:14 Make haste, my beloved, and be you like to a roe or to a young deer Upon the mountains of spices.

End of Song of Solomon

The Book of the Prophet Isaiah

Isaiah

1:1 The vision of Isaiah the son of Amoz, which he saw concerning Judah and Jerusalem, in the days of Uzziah, Jotham, ahaz, and Hezekiah, kings of Judah.
1:2 Hear, O heavens, and give ear, O earth; for Yehovah has spoken: I have nourished and brought up children, and they have rebelled against me.
1:3 The ox knows his owner, and the donkey his master's crib; but Israel does not know, my people does not consider.
1:4 Ah sinful nation, a people laden with iniquity, a seed of evil-doers, children that deal corruptly! they have forsaken Yehovah, they have despised the Holy One of Israel, they are estranged and gone backward.
1:5 Why would ye be still stricken, that ye revolt more and more? the whole head is sick, and the whole heart faint.
1:6 From the sole of the foot even to the head there is no soundness in it; but wounds, and bruises, and fresh stripes: they have not been closed, neither bound up, neither mollified with oil.
1:7 Your country is desolate; your cities are burned with fire; your land, strangers devour it in your presence, and it is desolate, as overthrown by strangers.
1:8 And the daughter of Zion is left like a booth in a vineyard, as a lodge in a garden of cucumbers, as a besieged city.
1:9 Unless Yehovah of hosts had left to us a very small remnant, we would have been as Sodom, we would have been like Gomorrah.
1:10 Hear the word of Yehovah, ye rulers of Sodom; give ear to the law of our God, ye people of Gomorrah.
1:11 What to me is the multitude of your sacrifices? says Yehovah: I have had enough of the burnt offerings of rams, and the fat of fed beasts; and I delight not in the blood of bullocks, or of lambs, or of he-goats.
1:12 When ye come to appear before me, who has required this at your hand, to trample my courts?
1:13 Bring no more vain oblations; incense is an abomination to me; new moon and sabbath, the calling of assemblies,- I cannot endure iniquity and then the solemn meeting.
1:14 Your new moons and your appointed feasts my soul hates; they are a trouble to me; I am weary of bearing them.
1:15 And when ye spread forth your hands, I will hide my eyes from you; yes, when ye make many prayers, I will not hear: your hands are full of blood.
1:16 Wash yourselves, make yourselves clean; put away the evil of your doings from before my eyes; cease to do evil;
1:17 learn to do good; seek justice, relieve the oppressed, adjudicate the cause of the fatherless, plead for the widow.
1:18 Come now, and let us reason together, says Yehovah: though your sins be as scarlet, they shall be as white as snow; though they be red like crimson, they shall be as wool.
1:19 If ye be willing and obedient, ye shall eat the good of the land:
1:20 but if ye refuse and rebel, ye shall be devoured with the sword; for the mouth of Yehovah has spoken it.
1:21 How is the faithful city become a harlot! she that was full of justice! righteousness lodged in her, but now murderers.
1:22 Your silver is become dross, your wine mixed with water.
1:23 Your princes are rebellious, and companions of thieves; every one of them loves bribes, and follows after rewards: they adjudicate not for the fatherless, neither does the cause of the widow come to them.
1:24 Therefore says the Lord, Yehovah of hosts, the Mighty One of Israel, ah, I will relieve myself of my adversaries, and avenge myself on my enemies;
1:25 and I will turn my hand upon you, and thoroughly purge away your dross, and will take away all your tin;

1:26 and I will restore your judges to how it was at the first, and your counsellors as at the beginning: afterward you shall be called The city of righteousness, a faithful town.
1:27 Zion shall be redeemed with justice, and her converts with righteousness.
1:28 But the destruction of transgressors and sinners shall be together, and they that forsake Yehovah shall be consumed.
1:29 For they shall be ashamed of the oaks which ye have desired, and ye shall be confounded for the gardens that ye have chosen.
1:30 For ye shall be as an oak whose leaf fades, and as a garden that has no water.
1:31 And the strong shall be as tinder, and his work as a spark; and they shall both alike burn together, and no one shall quench them.
2:1 The word that Isaiah the son of Amoz saw concerning Judah and Jerusalem.
2:2 And it shall come to pass in the latter days, that the mountain of Yehovah's house shall be established on the top of the mountains, and shall be exalted above the hills; and all nations shall flow to it.
2:3 And many peoples shall go and say, Come ye, and let us go up to the mountain of Yehovah, to the house of the God of Jacob; and he will teach us of his ways, and we will walk in his paths: for out of Zion shall go forth the law, and the word of Yehovah from Jerusalem.
2:4 And he will judge between the nations, and will decide concerning many peoples; and they shall beat their swords into plowshares, and their spears into pruning-hooks; nation shall not lift up sword against nation, neither shall they learn war any more.
2:5 O house of Jacob, come ye, and let us walk in the light of Yehovah.
2:6 For you have forsaken your people the house of Jacob, because they are filled with customs from the east, and are soothsayers like the Philistines, and they strike hands with the children of foreigners.
2:7 And their land is full of silver and gold, neither is there any end of their treasures; their land also is full of horses, neither is there any end of their chariots.
2:8 Their land also is full of idols; they worship the work of their own hands, that which their own fingers have made.
2:9 And the mean man is bowed down, and the great man is brought low: therefore forgive them not.
2:10 Enter into the rock, and hide you in the dust, from before the terror of Yehovah, and from the glory of his majesty.
2:11 The lofty looks of man shall be brought low, and the haughtiness of men shall be bowed down, and Yehovah alone shall be exalted in that day.
2:12 For there shall be a day of Yehovah of hosts upon all that is proud and haughty, and upon all that is lifted up; and it shall be brought low;
2:13 and upon all the cedars of Lebanon, that are high and lifted up, and upon all the oaks of Bashan,
2:14 and upon all the high mountains, and upon all the hills that are lifted up,
2:15 and upon every lofty tower, and upon every fortified wall,
2:16 and upon all the ships of Tarshish, and upon all pleasant imagery.
2:17 And the loftiness of man shall be bowed down, and the haughtiness of men shall be brought low; and Yehovah alone shall be exalted in that day.
2:18 And the idols shall utterly pass away.
2:19 And men shall go into the caves of the rocks, and into the holes of the earth, from before the terror of Yehovah, and from the glory of his majesty, when he arises to shake mightily the earth.
2:20 In that day men shall cast away their idols of silver, and their idols of gold, which have been made for them to worship, to the moles and to the bats;
2:21 to go into the caverns of the rocks, and into the clefts of the ragged rocks, from before the terror of Yehovah, and from the glory of his majesty, when he arises to shake mightily the earth.
2:22 Cease ye from man, whose breath is in his nostrils; for in what way is he to be accounted of?
3:1 For, behold, the Lord, Yehovah of hosts, does take away from Jerusalem and from Judah stay and staff, the whole stay of bread, and the whole stay of water;

3:2 the mighty man, and the man of war; the judge, and the prophet, and the diviner, and the elder;
3:3 the captain of fifty, and the honorable man, and the counsellor, and the expert artificer, and the skilful enchanter.
3:4 And I will give children to be their princes, and babes shall rule over them.
3:5 And the people shall be oppressed, every one by another, and every one by his neighbor: the child shall behave himself proudly against the old man, and the base against the honorable.
3:6 When a man shall take hold of his brother in the house of his father, saying, You have clothing, be you our ruler, and let this ruin be under your hand;
3:7 in that day shall he lift up his voice, saying, I will not be a healer; for in my house is neither bread nor clothing: ye shall not make me ruler of the people.
3:8 For Jerusalem is ruined, and Judah is fallen; because their tongue and their doings are against Yehovah, to provoke the eyes of his glory.
3:9 The show of their countenance does witness against them; and they declare their sin as Sodom, they hide it not. Woe to their soul! for they have done evil to themselves.
3:10 Say ye of the righteous, that it shall be well with him; for they shall eat the fruit of their doings.
3:11 Woe to the wicked! it shall be ill with him; for what his hands have done shall be done to him.
3:12 As for my people, children are their oppressors, and women rule over them. O my people, they that lead you cause you to err, and destroy the way of your paths.
3:13 Yehovah stands up to contend, and stands to judge the peoples.
3:14 Yehovah will enter into judgment with the elders of his people, and the princes thereof: It is ye that have eaten up the vineyard; the spoil of the poor is in your houses:
3:15 what mean ye that ye crush my people, and grind the face of the poor? says the Lord, Yehovah of hosts.
3:16 Moreover Yehovah said, Because the daughters of Zion are haughty, and walk with outstretched necks and wanton eyes, walking and mincing as they go, and making a tinkling with their feet;
3:17 therefore the Lord will smite with a scab the crown of the head of the daughters of Zion, and Yehovah will lay bare their secret parts.
3:18 In that day the Lord will take away the beauty of their anklets, and the lobes, and the crescents;
3:19 the pendants, and the bracelets, and the mufflers;
3:20 the headtires, and the ankle chains, and the sashes, and the perfume-boxes, and the amulets;
3:21 the rings, and the nose-jewels;
3:22 the festival robes, and the mantles, and the shawls, and the satchels;
3:23 the hand-mirrors, and the fine linen, and the turbans, and the veils.
3:24 And it shall come to pass, that instead of sweet spices there shall be rottenness; and instead of a girdle, a rope; and instead of well set hair, baldness; and instead of a robe, a girding of sackcloth; branding instead of beauty.
3:25 Your men shall fall by the sword, and your mighty in the war.
3:26 And her gates shall lament and mourn; and she shall be desolate and sit upon the ground.
4:1 And seven women shall take hold of one man in that day, saying, We will eat our own bread, and wear our own apparel: only let us be called by your name; take you away our reproach.
4:2 In that day shall the branch of Yehovah be beautiful and glorious, and the fruit of the land shall be excellent and comely for them that are escaped of Israel.
4:3 And it shall come to pass, that he that is left in Zion, and he that remains in Jerusalem, shall be called holy, even every one that is written among the living in Jerusalem;
4:4 when the Lord shall have washed away the filth of the daughters of Zion, and shall have purged the blood of Jerusalem from the midst thereof, by the spirit of justice, and by the spirit of burning.

4:5 And Yehovah will create over the whole habitation of mount Zion, and over her assemblies, a cloud and smoke by day, and the shining of a flaming fire by night; for over all the glory shall be spread a covering.
4:6 And there shall be a pavilion for a shade in the day-time from the heat, and for a refuge and for a covert from storm and from rain.
5:1 Let me sing for my wellbeloved a song of my beloved touching his vineyard. My wellbeloved had a vineyard in a very fruitful hill:
5:2 and he dug it, and gathered out the stones thereof, and planted it with the choicest vine, and built a tower in the midst of it, and also hewed out a winepress therein: and he looked that it should bring forth grapes, and it brought forth wild grapes.
5:3 And now, O inhabitants of Jerusalem and men of Judah, judge, I pray you, between me and my vineyard.
5:4 What could have been done more to my vineyard, that I have not done in it? why, when I looked that it should bring forth grapes, brought it forth wild grapes?
5:5 And now I will tell you what I will do to my vineyard: I will take away the hedge thereof, and it shall be eaten up; I will break down the wall thereof, and it shall be trodden down:
5:6 and I will lay it waste; it shall not be pruned nor hoed; but there shall come up briers and thorns: I will also command the clouds that they rain no rain upon it.
5:7 For the vineyard of Yehovah of hosts is the house of Israel, and the men of Judah his pleasant plant: and he looked for justice, but, behold, oppression; for righteousness, but, behold, a cry.
5:8 Woe to them that join house to house, that lay field to field, till there be no room, and ye be made to dwell alone in the midst of the land!
5:9 In my ears says Yehovah of hosts, Of a truth many houses shall be desolate, even great and fair, without inhabitant.
5:10 For ten acres of vineyard shall yield one bath, and a homer of seed shall yield but an ephah.
5:11 Woe to them that rise up early in the morning, that they may follow strong drink; that tarry late into the night, till wine inflame them!
5:12 And the harp and the lute, the tabret and the pipe, and wine, are in their feasts; but they regard not the work of Yehovah, neither have they considered the operation of his hands.
5:13 Therefore my people are gone into captivity for lack of knowledge; and their honorable men are famished, and their multitude are parched with thirst.
5:14 Therefore Sheol has enlarged its desire, and opened its mouth without measure; and their glory, and their multitude, and their pomp, and he that rejoices among them, descend into it.
5:15 And the mean man is bowed down, and the great man is humbled, and the eyes of the lofty are humbled:
5:16 but Yehovah of hosts is exalted in justice, and God the Holy One is sanctified in righteousness.
5:17 Then shall the lambs feed as in their pasture, and the waste places of the fat ones shall wanderers eat.
5:18 Woe to them that draw iniquity with cords of falsehood, and sin as it were with a cart rope;
5:19 that say, Let him make speed, let him hasten his work, that we may see it; and let the counsel of the Holy One of Israel draw near and come, that we may know it!
5:20 Woe to them that call evil good, and good evil; that put darkness for light, and light for darkness; that put bitter for sweet, and sweet for bitter!
5:21 Woe to them that are wise in their own eyes, and prudent in their own sight!
5:22 Woe to them that are mighty to drink wine, and men of strength to mingle strong drink;
5:23 that justify the wicked for a bribe, and take away the righteousness of the righteous from him!
5:24 Therefore as the tongue of fire devours the stubble, and as the dry grass sinks down in the flame, so their root shall be as rottenness, and their blossom shall go up as dust; because they have rejected the law of Yehovah of hosts, and despised the word of the Holy One of Israel.

5:25 Therefore is the anger of Yehovah kindled against his people, and he has stretched forth his hand against them, and has smitten them; and the mountains tremble, and their dead bodies are as refuse in the midst of the streets. For all this his anger is not turned away, but his hand is stretched out still.
5:26 And he will lift up an ensign to the nations from far, and will hiss for them from the end of the earth; and, behold, they shall come with speed swiftly.
5:27 None shall be weary nor stumble among them; none shall slumber nor sleep; neither shall the girdle of their loins be loosed, nor the latchet of their shoes be broken:
5:28 whose arrows are sharp, and all their bows bent; their horses' hoofs shall be accounted as flint, and their wheels as a whirlwind:
5:29 their roaring shall be like a lioness, they shall roar like young lions; yes, they shall roar, and lay hold of the prey, and carry it away safe, and there shall be no one to deliver.
5:30 And they shall roar against them in that day like the roaring of the sea: and if one look to the land, behold, darkness and distress; and the light is darkened in the clouds thereof.
6:1 In the year that king Uzziah died I saw the Lord sitting upon a throne, high and lifted up; and his train filled the temple.
6:2 Above him stood the seraphim: each one had six wings; with twain he covered his face, and with twain he covered his feet, and with twain he did fly.
6:3 And one cried to another, and said, Holy, holy, holy, is Yehovah of hosts: the whole earth is full of his glory.
6:4 And the foundations of the thresholds shook at the voice of him that cried, and the house was filled with smoke.
6:5 Then said I, Woe is me! for I am undone; because I am a man of unclean lips, and I dwell in the midst of a people of unclean lips: for my eyes have seen the King, Yehovah of hosts.
6:6 Then flew one of the seraphim to me, having a live coal in his hand, which he had taken with the tongs from off the altar:
6:7 and he touched my mouth with it, and said, Lo, this has touched your lips; and your iniquity is taken away, and your sin forgiven.
6:8 And I heard the voice of the Lord, saying, Whom shall I send, and who will go for us? Then I said, Here am I; send me.
6:9 And he said, Go, and tell this people, Hear ye indeed, but understand not; and see ye indeed, but perceive not.
6:10 Make the heart of this people fat, and make their ears heavy, and shut their eyes; lest they sea with their eyes, and hear with their ears, and understand with their heart, and turn again, and be healed.
6:11 Then said I, Lord, how long? And he answered, Until cities be waste without inhabitant, and houses without man, and the land become utterly waste,
6:12 and Yehovah have removed men far away, and the forsaken places be many in the midst of the land.
6:13 And if there be yet a tenth in it, it also shall in turn be eaten up: as a terebinth, and as an oak, whose stock remains, when they are felled; so the holy seed is the stock thereof.
7:1 And it came to pass in the days of Ahaz the son of Jotham, the son of Uzziah, king of Judah, that Rezin the king of Syria, and Pekah the son of Remaliah, king of Israel, went up to Jerusalem to war against it, but could not prevail against it.
7:2 And it was told the house of David, saying, Syria is confederate with Ephraim. And his heart trembled, and the heart of his people, as the trees of the forest tremble with the wind.
7:3 Then said Yehovah to Isaiah, Go forth now to meet Ahaz, you, and Shear-jashub your son, at the end of the conduit of the upper pool, in the highway of the fuller's field;

7:4 and say to him, Take heed, and be quiet; fear not, neither let your heart be faint, because of these two tails of smoking firebrands, for the fierce anger of Rezin and Syria, and of the son of Remaliah.
7:5 Because Syria, Ephraim, and the son of Remaliah, have purposed evil against you, saying,
7:6 Let us go up against Judah, and vex it, and let us make a breach therein for us, and set up a king in the midst of it, even the son of Tabeel;
7:7 Thus says the Lord Yehovah, It shall not stand, neither shall it come to pass.
7:8 For the head of Syria is Damascus, and the head of Damascus is Rezin; and within sixty-five years shall Ephraim be broken in pieces, so that is shall not be a people:
7:9 and the head of Ephraim is Samaria, and the head of Samaria is Remaliah's son. If ye will not believe, surely ye shall not be established.
7:10 And Yehovah spoke again to Ahaz, saying,
7:11 Ask you a sign of Yehovah your God; ask it either in the depth, or in the height above.
7:12 But Ahaz said, I will not ask, neither will I tempt Yehovah.
7:13 And he said, Hear ye now, O house of David: Is it a small thing for you to weary men, that ye will weary my God also?
7:14 Therefore the Lord himself will give you a sign: behold, a virgin shall conceive, and bear a son, and shall call his name Immanuel.
7:15 Butter and honey shall he eat, when he knows to refuse the evil, and choose the good.
7:16 For before the child shall know to refuse the evil, and choose the good, the land whose two kings you abhor shall be forsaken.
7:17 Yehovah will bring upon you, and upon your people, and upon your father's house, days that have not come, from the day that Ephraim departed from Judah-even the king of Assyria.
7:18 And it shall come to pass in that day, that Yehovah will hiss for the fly that is in the uttermost part of the rivers of Egypt, and for the bee that is in the land of Assyria.
7:19 And they shall come, and shall rest all of them in the desolate valleys, and in the clefts of the rocks, and upon all thorn-hedges, and upon all pastures.
7:20 In that day will the Lord shave with a razor that is hired in the parts beyond the River, even with the king of Assyria, the head and the hair of the feet; and it shall also consume the beard.
7:21 And it shall come to pass in that day, that a man shall keep alive a young cow, and two sheep;
7:22 and it shall come to pass, that because of the abundance of milk which they shall give he shall eat butter: for butter and honey shall every one eat that is left in the midst of the land.
7:23 And it shall come to pass in that day, that every place, where there were a thousand vines at a thousand silverlings, shall be for briers and thorns.
7:24 With arrows and with bow shall one come there, because all the land shall be briers and thorns.
7:25 And all the hills that were dug with the mattock, you shall not come there for fear of briers and thorns; but it shall be for the sending forth of oxen, and for the treading of sheep.
8:1 And Yehovah said to me, Take you a great tablet, and write upon it with the pen of a man, For Maher-shalal-hash-baz;
8:2 and I will take to me faithful witnesses to record, Uriah the priest, and Zechariah the son of Jeberechiah.
8:3 And I went to the prophetess; and she conceived, and bore a son. Then said Yehovah to me, Call his name Maher-shalal-hash-baz.
8:4 For before the child shall have knowledge to cry, My father, and, My mother, the riches of Damascus and the spoil of Samaria shall be carried away before the king of Assyria.
8:5 And Yehovah spoke to me yet again, saying,

8:6 Forasmuch as this people have refused the waters of Shiloah that go softly, and rejoice in Rezin and Remaliah's son;
8:7 now therefore, behold, the Lord brings up upon them the waters of the River, strong and many, even the king of Assyria and all his glory: and it shall come up over all its channels, and go over all its banks;
8:8 and it shall sweep onward into Judah; it shall overflow and pass through; it shall reach even to the neck; and the stretching out of its wings shall fill the breadth of your land, O Immanuel.
8:9 Make an uproar, O ye peoples, and be broken in pieces; and give ear, all ye of far countries: gird yourselves, and be broken in pieces; gird yourselves, and be broken in pieces.
8:10 Take counsel together, and it shall be brought to nought; speak the word, and it shall not stand: for God is with us.
8:11 For Yehovah spoke thus to me with a strong hand, and instructed me not to walk in the way of this people, saying,
8:12 Say ye not, a conspiracy, concerning all whereof this people shall say, a conspiracy; neither fear ye their fear, nor be in dread of it.
8:13 Yehovah of hosts, him shall ye sanctify; and let him be your fear, and let him be your dread.
8:14 And he shall be for a sanctuary; but for a stone of stumbling and for a rock of offence to both the houses of Israel, for a gin and for a snare to the inhabitants of Jerusalem.
8:15 And many shall stumble upon it, and fall, and be broken, and be snared, and be taken.
8:16 Bind you up the testimony, seal the law among my disciples.
8:17 And I will wait for Yehovah, that hides his face from the house of Jacob, and I will look for him.
8:18 Behold, I and the children whom Yehovah has given me are for signs and for wonders in Israel from Yehovah of hosts, who dwells in mount Zion.
8:19 And when they shall say to you, Seek to them that have familiar spirits and to the wizards, that chirp and that mutter: should not a people seek to their God? on behalf of the living should they seek to the dead?
8:20 To the law and to the testimony! if they speak not according to this word, surely there is no morning for them.
8:21 And they shall pass through it, sore distressed and hungry; and it shall come to pass that, when they shall be hungry, they shall fret themselves, and curse by their king and by their God, and turn their faces upward:
8:22 and they shall look to the earth, and behold, distress and darkness, the gloom of anguish; and into thick darkness they shall be driven away.
9:1 But there shall be no gloom to her that was in anguish. In the former time he brought into contempt the land of Zebulun and the land of Naphtali; but in the latter time has he made it glorious, by the way of the sea, beyond the Jordan, Galilee of the nations.
9:2 The people that walked in darkness have seen a great light: they that dwelt in the land of the shadow of death, upon them has the light shined.
9:3 You have multiplied the nation, you have increased their joy: they joy before you according to the joy in harvest, as men rejoice when they divide the spoil.
9:4 For the yoke of his burden, and the staff of his shoulder, the rod of his oppressor, you have broken as in the day of Midian.
9:5 For all the armor of the armed man in the tumult, and the garments rolled in blood, shall be for burning, for fuel of fire.
9:6 For to us a child is born, to us a son is given; and the government shall be upon his shoulder: and his name shall be called Wonderful, Counsellor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace.
9:7 Of the increase of his government and of peace there shall be no end, upon the throne of David, and upon his kingdom, to establish it, and to uphold it with justice and with righteousness from from now on even for ever. The zeal of Yehovah of hosts will perform this.
9:8 The Lord sent a word into Jacob, and it has lighted upon Israel.

9:9 And all the people shall know, even Ephraim and the inhabitant of Samaria, that say in pride and in stoutness of heart,
9:10 The bricks are fallen, but we will build with hewn stone; the sycamores are cut down, but we will put cedars in their place.
9:11 Therefore Yehovah will set up on high against him the adversaries of Rezin, and will stir up his enemies,
9:12 the Syrians before, and the Philistines behind; and they shall devour Israel with open mouth. For all this his anger is not turned away, but his hand is stretched out still.
9:13 Yet the people have not turned to him that smote them, neither have they sought Yehovah of hosts.
9:14 Therefore Yehovah will cut off from Israel head and tail, palm-branch and rush, in one day.
9:15 The elder and the honorable man, he is the head; and the prophet that teaches lies, he is the tail.
9:16 For they that lead this people cause them to err; and they that are led of them are destroyed.
9:17 Therefore the Lord will not rejoice over their young men, neither will he have compassion on their fatherless and widows; for every one is profane and an evil-doer, and every mouth speaks folly. For all this his anger is not turned away, but his hand is stretched out still.
9:18 For wickedness burns as the fire; it devours the briers and thorns; yes, it kindles in the thickets of the forest, and they roll upward in a column of smoke.
9:19 Through the wrath of Yehovah of hosts is the land burnt up; and the people are as the fuel of fire: no man spares his brother.
9:20 And one shall snatch on the right hand, and be hungry; and he shall eat on the left hand, and they shall not be satisfied: they shall eat every man the flesh of his own arm:
9:21 Manasseh, Ephraim; and Ephraim, Manasseh; and they together shall be against Judah. For all this his anger is not turned away, but his hand is stretched out still.
10:1 Woe to them that decree unrighteous decrees, and to the writers that write oppressive statutes;
10:2 to turn aside the needy from justice, and to rob the poor of my people of their right, that widows may be their spoil, and that they may make the fatherless their prey!
10:3 And what will ye do in the day of visitation, and in the desolation which shall come from far? to whom will ye flee for help? and where will ye leave your glory?
10:4 They shall only bow down under the prisoners, and shall fall under the slain. For all this his anger is not turned away, but his hand is stretched out still.
10:5 Ho Assyrian, the rod of my anger, the staff in whose hand is my indignation!
10:6 I will send him against a profane nation, and against the people of my wrath I will give him a charge, to take the spoil, and to take the prey, and to tread them down like the mire of the streets.
10:7 Though he intends not so, neither does his heart think so; but it is in his heart to destroy, and to cut off nations not a few.
10:8 For he says, are not my princes all of them kings?
10:9 Is not Calno as Carchemish? is not Hamath as Arpad? is not Samaria as Damascus?
10:10 As my hand has found the kingdoms of the idols, whose graven images did excel them of Jerusalem and of Samaria;
10:11 shall I not, as I have done to Samaria and her idols, so do to Jerusalem and her idols?
10:12 Wherefore it shall come to pass, that, when the Lord has performed his whole work upon mount Zion and on Jerusalem, I will punish the fruit of the stout heart of the king of Assyria, and the glory of his high looks.
10:13 For he has said, By the strength of my hand I have done it, and by my wisdom; for I have understanding: and I have removed the bounds of the peoples, and have robbed their treasures, and like a valiant man I have brought down them that sit on thrones:

10:14 and my hand has found as a nest the riches of the peoples; and as one gathers eggs that are forsaken, have I gathered all the earth: and there was no one that moved the wing, or that opened the mouth, or chirped.
10:15 Shall the axe boast itself against him that hews with it? shall the saw magnify itself against him that wields it? as if a rod should wield them that lift it up, or as if a staff should lift up him that is not wood.
10:16 Therefore will the Lord, Yehovah of hosts, send a wasting disease among his stout warriors; and under his glory there shall be kindled a burning like the burning of fire.
10:17 And the light of Israel will be for a fire, and his Holy One for a flame; and it will burn and devour his thorns and his briers in one day.
10:18 And he will consume the glory of his forest, and of his fruitful field, both soul and body: and it shall be as when a standard-bearer faints.
10:19 And the remnant of the trees of his forest shall be few, so that a child may write them.
10:20 And it shall come to pass in that day, that the remnant of Israel, and they that are escaped of the house of Jacob, shall no more again lean upon him that smote them, but shall lean upon Yehovah, the Holy One of Israel, in truth.
10:21 A remnant shall return, even the remnant of Jacob, to the mighty God.
10:22 For though your people, Israel, be as the sand of the sea, only a remnant of them shall return: a destruction is determined, overflowing with righteousness.
10:23 For a full end, and that determined, will the Lord, Yehovah of hosts, make in the midst of all the earth.
10:24 Therefore thus says the Lord, Yehovah of hosts, O my people that dwell in Zion, be not afraid of the Assyrian, though he smite you with the rod, and lift up his staff against you, after the manner of Egypt.
10:25 For yet a very little while, and the indignation against you shall be accomplished, and my anger shall be directed to his destruction.
10:26 And Yehovah of hosts will stir up against him a scourge, as in the slaughter of Midian at the rock of Oreb: and his rod will be over the sea, and he will lift it up after the manner of Egypt.
10:27 And it shall come to pass in that day, that his burden shall depart from off your shoulder, and his yoke from off your neck, and the yoke shall be destroyed by reason of fatness.
10:28 He is come to Aiath, he is passed through Migron; at Michmash he lays up his baggage;
10:29 they are gone over the pass; they have taken up their lodging at Geba; Ramah trembles; Gibeah of Saul is fled.
10:30 Cry aloud with your voice, O daughter of Gallim! hearken, O Laishah! O you poor Anathoth!
10:31 Madmenah is a fugitive; the inhabitants of Gebim flee for safety.
10:32 This very day shall he halt at Nob: he shakes his hand at the mount of the daughter of Zion, the hill of Jerusalem.
10:33 Behold, the Lord, Yehovah of hosts, will lop the boughs with terror: and the high of stature shall be hewn down, and the lofty shall be brought low.
10:34 And he will cut down the thickets of the forest with iron, and Lebanon shall fall by a mighty one.
11:1 And there shall come forth a shoot out of the stock of Jesse, and a branch out of his roots shall bear fruit.
11:2 And the Spirit of Yehovah shall rest upon him, the spirit of wisdom and understanding, the spirit of counsel and might, the spirit of knowledge and of the fear of Yehovah.
11:3 And his delight shall be in the fear of Yehovah; and he shall not judge after the sight of his eyes, neither decide after the hearing of his ears;
11:4 but with righteousness shall he judge the poor, and decide with equity for the meek of the earth; and he shall smite the earth with the rod of his mouth; and with the breath of his lips shall he slay the wicked.

11:5 And righteousness shall be the girdle of his waist, and faithfulness the girdle of his loins.
11:6 And the wolf shall dwell with the lamb, and the leopard shall lie down with the kid; and the calf and the young lion and the fatling together; and a little child shall lead them.
11:7 And the cow and the bear shall feed; their young ones shall lie down together; and the lion shall eat straw like the ox.
11:8 And the sucking child shall play on the hole of the asp, and the weaned child shall put his hand on the adder's den.
11:9 They shall not hurt nor destroy in all my holy mountain; for the earth shall be full of the knowledge of Yehovah, as the waters cover the sea.
11:10 And it shall come to pass in that day, that the root of Jesse, that stands for an ensign of the peoples, to him shall the nations seek; and his resting-place shall be glorious.
11:11 And it shall come to pass in that day, that the Lord will set his hand again the second time to recover the remnant of his people, that shall remain, from Assyria, and from Egypt, and from Pathros, and from Cush, and from Elam, and from Shinar, and from Hamath, and from the islands of the sea.
11:12 And he will set up an ensign for the nations, and will assemble the outcasts of Israel, and gather together the dispersed of Judah from the four corners of the earth.
11:13 The envy also of Ephraim shall depart, and they that vex Judah shall be cut off: Ephraim shall not envy Judah, and Judah shall not vex Ephraim.
11:14 And they shall fly down upon the shoulder of the Philistines on the west; together shall they despoil the children of the east: they shall put forth their hand upon Edom and Moab; and the children of Ammon shall obey them.
11:15 And Yehovah will utterly destroy the tongue of the Egyptian sea; and with his scorching wind will he wave his hand over the River, and will smite it into seven streams, and cause men to march over dryshod.
11:16 And there shall be a highway for the remnant of his people, that shall remain, from Assyria; like as there was for Israel in the day that he came up out of the land of Egypt.
12:1 And in that day you shall say, I will give thanks to you, O Yehovah; for though you were angry with me, your anger is turned away and you comfort me.
12:2 Behold, God is my salvation; I will trust, and will not be afraid; for Yehovah, even Yehovah, is my strength and song; and he is become my salvation.
12:3 Therefore with joy shall ye draw water out of the wells of salvation.
12:4 And in that day shall ye say, Give thanks to Yehovah, call upon his name, declare his doings among the peoples, make mention that his name is exalted.
12:5 Sing to Yehovah; for he has done excellent things: let this be known in all the earth.
12:6 Cry aloud and shout, you inhabitant of Zion; for great in the midst of you is the Holy One of Israel.
13:1 The burden concerning Babylon, which Isaiah the son of Amoz did see.
13:2 Set ye up an ensign upon the bare mountain, lift up the voice to them, wave the hand, that they may go into the gates of the nobles.
13:3 I have commanded my consecrated ones, yes, I have called my mighty men for my anger, even my proudly exulting ones.
13:4 The noise of a multitude in the mountains, as of a great people! the noise of a tumult of the kingdoms of the nations gathered together! Yehovah of hosts is mustering the host for the battle.
13:5 They come from a far country, from the uttermost part of heaven, even Yehovah, and the weapons of his indignation, to destroy the whole land.
13:6 Wail ye; for the day of Yehovah is at hand; as destruction from the Almighty shall it come.
13:7 Therefore shall all hands be feeble, and every heart of man shall melt:
13:8 and they shall be dismayed; pangs and sorrows shall take hold of them; they shall be in pain as a woman in travail: they shall look in amazement one at another; their faces shall be faces of flame.

13:9 Behold, the day of Yehovah comes, cruel, with wrath and fierce anger; to make the land a desolation, and to destroy the sinners thereof out of it.
13:10 For the stars of heaven and the constellations thereof shall not give their light; the sun shall be darkened in its going forth, and the moon shall not cause its light to shine.
13:11 And I will punish the world for their evil, and the wicked for their iniquity: and I will cause the arrogance of the proud to cease, and will lay low the haughtiness of the terrible.
13:12 I will make a man more rare than fine gold, even a man than the pure gold of Ophir.
13:13 Therefore I will make the heavens to tremble, and the earth shall be shaken out of its place, in the wrath of Yehovah of hosts, and in the day of his fierce anger.
13:14 And it shall come to pass, that as the chased roe, and as sheep that no man gathers, they shall turn every man to his own people, and shall flee every man to his own land.
13:15 Every one that is found shall be thrust through; and every one that is taken shall fall by the sword.
13:16 Their infants also shall be dashed in pieces before their eyes; their houses shall be rifled, and their wives ravished.
13:17 Behold, I will stir up the Medes against them, who shall not regard silver, and as for gold, they shall not delight in it.
13:18 And their bows shall dash the young men in pieces; and they shall have no pity on the fruit of the womb; their eye shall not spare children.
13:19 And Babylon, the glory of kingdoms, the beauty of the Chaldeans' pride, shall be as when God overthrew Sodom and Gomorrah.
13:20 It shall never be inhabited, neither shall it be dwelt in from generation to generation: neither shall the Arab pitch a tent there; neither shall shepherds make their flocks to lie down there.
13:21 But wild beasts of the desert shall lie there; and their houses shall be full of doleful creatures; and ostriches shall dwell there, and wild goats shall dance there.
13:22 And wolves shall cry in their castles, and jackals in the pleasant palaces: and her time is near to come, and her days shall not be prolonged.
14:1 For Yehovah will have compassion on Jacob, and will yet choose Israel, and set them in their own land: and the sojourner shall join himself with them, and they shall cleave to the house of Jacob.
14:2 And the peoples shall take them, and bring them to their place; and the house of Israel shall possess them in the land of Yehovah for servants and for handmaids: and they shall take them captive whose captives they were; and they shall rule over their oppressors.
14:3 And it shall come to pass in the day that Yehovah shall give you rest from your sorrow, and from your trouble, and from the hard service in which you were made to serve,
14:4 that you shall take up this parable against the king of Babylon, and say, How has the oppressor ceased! the golden city ceased!
14:5 Yehovah has broken the staff of the wicked, the sceptre of the rulers;
14:6 that smote the peoples in wrath with a continual stroke, that ruled the nations in anger, with a persecution that no one restrained.
14:7 The whole earth is at rest, and is quiet: they break forth into singing.
14:8 Yes, the fir-trees rejoice at you, and the cedars of Lebanon, saying, Since you are laid low, no hewer is come up against us.
14:9 Sheol from beneath is moved for you to meet you at your coming; it stirs up the dead for you, even all the chief ones of the earth; it has raised up from their thrones all the kings of the nations.
14:10 All they shall answer and say to you, are you also become weak as we? are you become like to us?
14:11 Your pomp is brought down to Sheol, with the noise of your stringed instruments: the maggot is spread under you, and worms cover you.
14:12 How are you fallen from heaven, O Lucifer, son of the dawn! how are you cut down to the ground, who did lay low the nations!

14:13 And you said in your heart, I will ascend into heaven, I will exalt my throne above the stars of God; and I will sit upon the mount of congregation, in the uttermost parts of the north;
14:14 I will ascend above the heights of the clouds; I will make myself like the Most High.
14:15 Yet you shall be brought down to Sheol, to the uttermost parts of the pit.
14:16 They that see you shall gaze at you, they shall consider you, saying, Is this the man that made the earth to tremble, that did shake kingdoms;
14:17 that made the world as a wilderness, and overthrew the cities thereof; that let not loose his prisoners to their home?
14:18 All the kings of the nations, all of them, sleep in glory, every one in his own house.
14:19 But you are cast forth away from your tomb like an abominable branch, clothed with the slain, that are thrust through with the sword, that go down to the stones of the pit; as a dead body trodden under foot.
14:20 You shall not be joined with them in burial, because you have destroyed your land, you have slain your people; the seed of evil-doers shall not be named for ever.
14:21 Prepare ye slaughter for his children for the iniquity of their fathers, that they rise not up, and possess the earth, and fill the face of the world with cities.
14:22 And I will rise up against them, says Yehovah of hosts, and cut off from Babylon name and remnant, and son and son's son, says Yehovah.
14:23 I will also make it a possession for the porcupine, and pools of water: and I will sweep it with the besom of destruction, says Yehovah of hosts.
14:24 Yehovah of hosts has sworn, saying, Surely, as I have thought, so shall it come to pass; and as I have purposed, so shall it stand:
14:25 that I will break the Assyrian in my land, and upon my mountains tread him under foot: then shall his yoke depart from off them, and his burden depart from off their shoulder.
14:26 This is the purpose that is purposed upon the whole earth; and this is the hand that is stretched out upon all the nations.
14:27 For Yehovah of hosts has purposed, and who shall annul it? and his hand is stretched out, and who shall turn it back?
14:28 In the year that king Ahaz died was this burden.
14:29 Rejoice not, O Philistia, all of you, because the rod that smote you is broken; for out of the serpent's root shall come forth an adder, and his fruit shall be a fiery flying serpent.
14:30 And the first-born of the poor shall feed, and the needy shall lie down in safety; and I will kill your root with famine, and your remnant shall be slain.
14:31 Howl, O gate; cry, O city; you are melted away, O Philistia, all of you; for there comes a smoke out of the north, and there is no straggler in his ranks.
14:32 What then shall one answer the messengers of the nation? That Yehovah has founded Zion, and in her shall the afflicted of his people take refuge.
15:1 The burden concerning Moab. For in a night Ar of Moab is laid waste, and brought to nought; for in a night Kir of Moab is laid waste, and brought to nought.
15:2 They are gone up to Bayith, and to Dibon, to the high places, to weep: Moab wails over Nebo, and over Medeba; on all their heads is baldness, every beard is cut off.
15:3 In their streets they gird themselves with sackcloth; on their housetops, and in their broad places, every one wails, weeping abundantly.
15:4 And Heshbon cries out, and Elealeh; their voice is heard even to Jahaz: therefore the armed men of Moab cry aloud; his soul trembles within him.
15:5 My heart cries out for Moab; her nobles flee to Zoar, to Eglath-shelishi-yah: for by the ascent of Luhith with weeping they go up; for in the way of Horonaim they raise up a cry of destruction.
15:6 For the waters of Nimrim shall be desolate; for the grass is withered away, the tender grass fails, there is no green thing.
15:7 Therefore the abundance they have gotten, and that which they have laid up, shall they carry away over the brook of the willows.

15:8 For the cry is gone round about the borders of Moab; the wailing thereof to Eglaim, and the wailing thereof to Beer-elim.
15:9 For the waters of Dimon are full of blood; for I will bring yet more upon Dimon, a lion upon them of Moab that escape, and upon the remnant of the land.
16:1 Send ye the lambs for the ruler of the land from Selah to the wilderness, to the mount of the daughter of Zion.
16:2 For it shall be that, as wandering birds, as a scattered nest, so shall the daughters of Moab be at the fords of the Arnon.
16:3 Give counsel, execute justice; make your shade as the night in the midst of the noonday; hide the outcasts; betray not the fugitive.
16:4 Let my outcasts dwell with you; as for Moab, be you a covert to him from the face of the destroyer. For the extortioner is brought to nought, destruction ceases, the oppressors are consumed out of the land.
16:5 And a throne shall be established in lovingkindness; and one shall sit upon it in truth, in the tent of David, judging, and seeking justice, and swift to do righteousness.
16:6 We have heard of the pride of Moab, that he is very proud; even of his arrogancy, and his pride, and his wrath; his boastings are nought.
16:7 Therefore shall Moab wail for Moab, every one shall wail: for the raisin-cakes of Kir-hareseth shall ye mourn, utterly stricken.
16:8 For the fields of Heshbon languish, and the vine of Sibmah; the lords of the nations have broken down the choice branches thereof, which reached even to Jazer, which wandered into the wilderness; its shoots were spread abroad, they passed over the sea.
16:9 Therefore I will weep with the weeping of Jazer for the vine of Sibmah; I will water you with my tears, O Heshbon, and Elealeh: for upon your summer fruits and upon your harvest the battle shout is fallen.
16:10 And gladness is taken away, and joy out of the fruitful field; and in the vineyards there shall be no singing, neither joyful noise: no treader shall tread out wine in the presses; I have made the vintage shout to cease.
16:11 Wherefore my heart sounds like a harp for Moab, and my inward parts for Kir-heres.
16:12 And it shall come to pass, when Moab presents himself, when he wearies himself upon the high place, and shall come to his sanctuary to pray, that he shall not prevail.
16:13 This is the word that Yehovah spoke concerning Moab in time past.
16:14 But now Yehovah has spoken, saying, Within three years, as the years of a hireling, the glory of Moab shall be brought into contempt, with all his great multitude; and the remnant shall be very small and of no account.
17:1 The burden concerning Damascus. Behold, Damascus is taken away from being a city, and it shall be a ruinous heap.
17:2 The cities of Aroer are forsaken; they shall be for flocks, which shall lie down, and no one shall make them afraid.
17:3 And the fortress shall cease from Ephraim, and the kingdom from Damascus, and the remnant of Syria; they shall be as the glory of the children of Israel, says Yehovah of hosts.
17:4 And it shall come to pass in that day, that the glory of Jacob shall be made thin, and the fatness of his flesh shall grow lean.
17:5 And it shall be as when the harvestman gathers the standing grain, and his arm reaps the ears; yes, it shall be as when one gleans ears in the valley of Rephaim.
17:6 Yet there shall be left therein gleanings, as the shaking of an olive-tree, two or three berries in the top of the uppermost bough, four or five in the outmost branches of a fruitful tree, says Yehovah, the God of Israel.
17:7 In that day shall men look to their Maker, and their eyes shall have respect to the Holy One of Israel.
17:8 And they shall not look to the altars, the work of their hands; neither shall they have respect to that which their fingers have made, either the Asherim, or the sun-images.

17:9 In that day shall their strong cities be as the forsaken places in the wood and on the mountain top, which were forsaken from before the children of Israel; and it shall be a desolation.
17:10 For you have forgotten the God of your salvation, and have not been mindful of the rock of your strength; therefore you plant pleasant plants, and set it with strange slips.
17:11 In the day of your planting you hedge it in, and in the morning you cause your seed to blossom; but the harvest flees away in the day of grief and of desperate sorrow.
17:12 Ah, the uproar of many peoples, that roar like the roaring of the seas; and the rushing of nations, that rush like the rushing of mighty waters!
17:13 The nations shall rush like the rushing of many waters: but he shall rebuke them, and they shall flee far off, and shall be chased as the chaff of the mountains before the wind, and like the whirling dust before the storm.
17:14 At eventide, behold, terror; and before the morning they are not. This is the portion of them that despoil us, and the lot of them that rob us.
18:1 Ah, the land of the rustling of wings, which is beyond the rivers of Ethiopia;
18:2 that sends ambassadors by the sea, even in vessels of papyrus upon the waters, saying, Go, ye swift messengers, to a nation tall and smooth, to a people terrible from their beginning onward, a nation that metes out and treads down, whose land the rivers divide!
18:3 All ye inhabitants of the world, and ye dwellers on the earth, when an ensign is lifted up on the mountains, see ye; and when the trumpet is blown, hear ye.
18:4 For thus has Yehovah said to me, I will be still, and I will behold in my dwelling-place, like clear heat in sunshine, like a cloud of dew in the heat of harvest.
18:5 For before the harvest, when the blossom is over, and the flower becomes a ripening grape, he will cut off the sprigs with pruning-hooks, and the spreading branches will he take away and cut down.
18:6 They shall be left together to the ravenous birds of the mountains, and to the beasts of the earth; and the ravenous birds shall summer upon them, and all the beasts of the earth shall winter upon them.
18:7 In that time shall a present be brought to Yehovah of hosts from a people tall and smooth, even from a people terrible from their beginning onward, a nation that metes out and treads down, whose land the rivers divide, to the place of the name of Yehovah of hosts, the mount Zion.
19:1 The burden concerning Egypt. Behold, Yehovah rides upon a swift cloud, and comes to Egypt: and the idols of Egypt shall tremble at his presence; and the heart of Egypt shall melt in the midst of it.
19:2 And I will stir up the Egyptians against the Egyptians: and they shall fight every one against his brother, and every one against his neighbor; city against city, and kingdom against kingdom.
19:3 And the spirit of Egypt shall fail in the midst of it; and I will destroy the counsel thereof: and they shall seek to the idols, and to the charmers, and to them that have familiar spirits, and to the wizards.
19:4 And I will give over the Egyptians into the hand of a cruel lord; and a fierce king shall rule over them, says the Lord, Yehovah of hosts.
19:5 And the waters shall fail from the sea, and the river shall be wasted and become dry.
19:6 And the rivers shall become foul; the streams of Egypt shall be diminished and dried up; the reeds and flags shall wither away.
19:7 The meadows by the Nile, by the brink of the Nile, and all the sown fields of the Nile, shall become dry, be driven away, and be no more.
19:8 And the fishers shall lament, and all they that cast angle into the Nile shall mourn, and they that spread nets upon the waters shall languish.
19:9 Moreover they that work in combed flax, and they that weave white cloth, shall be confounded.
19:10 And they that are the pillars of Egypt shall be broken in pieces, and all they that work for hire shall be grieved in soul.

19:11 The princes of Zoan are utterly foolish; the counsel of the wisest counsellors of Pharaoh is become brutish: how say ye to Pharaoh, I am the son of the wise, the son of ancient kings?
19:12 Where then are your wise men? and let them tell you now; and let them know what Yehovah of hosts has purposed concerning Egypt.
19:13 The princes of Zoan are become fools, the princes of Memphis are deceived; they have caused Egypt to go astray, that are the corner-stone of her tribes.
19:14 Yehovah has mingled a spirit of perverseness in the midst of her; and they have caused Egypt to go astray in every work thereof, as a drunken man staggers in his vomit.
19:15 Neither shall there be for Egypt any work, which head or tail, palm-branch or rush, may do.
19:16 In that day shall the Egyptians be like to women; and they shall tremble and fear because of the shaking of the hand of Yehovah of hosts, which he shakes over them.
19:17 And the land of Judah shall become a terror to Egypt; every one to whom mention is made thereof shall be afraid, because of the purpose of Yehovah of hosts, which he purposes against it.
19:18 In that day there shall be five cities in the land of Egypt that speak the language of Canaan, and swear to Yehovah of hosts; one shall be called The city of destruction.
19:19 In that day shall there be an altar to Yehovah in the midst of the land of Egypt, and a pillar at the border thereof to Yehovah.
19:20 And it shall be for a sign and for a witness to Yehovah of hosts in the land of Egypt; for they shall cry to Yehovah because of oppressors, and he will send them a saviour, and a defender, and he will deliver them.
19:21 And Yehovah shall be known to Egypt, and the Egyptians shall know Yehovah in that day; yes, they shall worship with sacrifice and oblation, and shall vow a vow to Yehovah, and shall perform it.
19:22 And Yehovah will smite Egypt, smiting and healing; and they shall return to Yehovah, and he will be entreated of them, and will heal them.
19:23 In that day shall there be a highway out of Egypt to Assyria, and the Assyrian shall come into Egypt, and the Egyptian into Assyria; and the Egyptians shall worship with the Assyrians.
19:24 In that day shall Israel be the third with Egypt and with Assyria, a blessing in the midst of the earth;
19:25 for that Yehovah of hosts has blessed them, saying, Blessed be Egypt my people, and Assyria the work of my hands, and Israel my inheritance.
20:1 In the year that Tartan came to Ashdod, when Sargon the king of Assyria sent him, and he fought against Ashdod and took it;
20:2 at that time Yehovah spoke by Isaiah the son of Amoz, saying, Go, and loose the sackcloth from off your loins, and put your shoe from off your foot. And he did so, walking naked and barefoot.
20:3 And Yehovah said, Like as my servant Isaiah has walked naked and barefoot three years for a sign and a wonder concerning Egypt and concerning Ethiopia;
20:4 so shall the king of Assyria lead away the captives of Egypt, and the exiles of Ethiopia, young and old, naked and barefoot, and with buttocks uncovered, to the shame of Egypt.
20:5 And they shall be dismayed and confounded, because of Ethiopia their expectation, and of Egypt their glory.
20:6 And the inhabitant of this coast-land shall say in that day, Behold, such is our expectation, whither we fled for help to be delivered from the king of Assyria: and we, how shall we escape?
21:1 The burden concerning the wilderness of the sea. As whirlwinds in the South sweep through, it comes from the wilderness, from a terrible land.
21:2 A grievous vision is declared to me; the treacherous man deals treacherously, and the destroyer destroys. Go up, O Elam; besiege, O Media; all the sighing thereof have I made to cease.

21:3 Therefore are my loins filled with anguish; pangs have taken hold upon me, as the pangs of a woman in travail: I am pained so that I cannot hear; I am dismayed so that I cannot see.
21:4 My heart flutters, horror has affrighted me; the twilight that I desired has been turned into trembling to me.
21:5 They prepare the table, they set the watch, they eat, they drink: rise up, ye princes, anoint the shield.
21:6 For thus has the Lord said to me, Go, set a watchman: let him declare what he sees:
21:7 and when he sees a troop, horsemen in pairs, a troop of donkeys, a troop of camels, he shall hearken diligently with much heed.
21:8 And he cried as a lion: O Lord, I stand continually upon the watch-tower in the day-time, and am set in my ward whole nights;
21:9 and, behold, here comes a troop of men, horsemen in pairs. And he answered and said, Fallen, fallen is Babylon; and all the graven images of her gods are broken to the ground.
21:10 O you my threshing, and the grain of my floor! that which I have heard from Yehovah of hosts, the God of Israel, have I declared to you.
21:11 The burden concerning Dumah. One calls to me out of Seir, Watchman, what of the night? Watchman, what of the night?
21:12 The watchman said, The morning comes, and also the night: if ye will inquire, inquire ye: turn ye, come.
21:13 The burden upon Arabia. In the forest in Arabia shall ye lodge, O ye caravans of Dedanites.
21:14 To him that was thirsty they brought water; the inhabitants of the land of Tema did meet the fugitives with their bread.
21:15 For they fled away from the swords, from the drawn sword, and from the bent bow, and from the grievousness of war.
21:16 For thus has the Lord said to me, Within a year, according to the years of a hireling, all the glory of Kedar shall fail;
21:17 and the residue of the number of the archers, the mighty men of the children of Kedar, shall be few; for Yehovah, the God of Israel, has spoken it.
22:1 The burden concerning the valley of vision. What ails you now, that you are wholly gone up to the housetops?
22:2 O you that are full of shoutings, a tumultuous city, a joyous town; your slain are not slain with the sword, neither are they dead in battle.
22:3 All your rulers fled away together, they were bound by the archers; all that were found of you were bound together; they fled afar off.
22:4 Therefore said I, Look away from me, I will weep bitterly; labor not to comfort me for the destruction of the daughter of my people.
22:5 For it is a day of discomfiture, and of treading down, and of perplexity, from the Lord, Yehovah of hosts, in the valley of vision; a breaking down of the walls, and a crying to the mountains.
22:6 And Elam bore the quiver, with chariots of men and horsemen; and Kir uncovered the shield.
22:7 And it came to pass, that your choicest valleys were full of chariots, and the horsemen set themselves in array at the gate.
22:8 And he took away the sheltering over Judah; and you did look in that day to the armor in the house of the forest.
22:9 And ye saw the breaches of the city of David, that they were many; and ye gathered together the waters of the lower pool;
22:10 and ye numbered the houses of Jerusalem, and ye broke down the houses to fortify the wall;
22:11 ye made also a reservoir between the two walls for the water of the old pool. But ye looked not to him that had done this, neither had ye respect to him that purposed it long ago.
22:12 And in that day did the Lord, Yehovah of hosts, call to weeping, and to mourning, and to baldness, and to girding with sackcloth:

22:13 and behold, joy and gladness, slaying oxen and killing sheep, eating flesh and drinking wine: let us eat and drink, for tomorrow we shall die.
22:14 And Yehovah of hosts revealed himself in my ears, Surely this iniquity shall not be forgiven you till ye die, says the Lord, Yehovah of hosts.
22:15 Thus says the Lord, Yehovah of hosts, Go, get yourself to this steward, even to Shebna, who is over the house, and say,
22:16 What are you doing here? and who gave you permission to be here, that you have hewn out for yourself here a tomb? hewing himself out a tomb on high, chiseling a habitation for himself in the rock!
22:17 Behold, Yehovah, like a strong man, will hurl you away violently; yes, he will wrap you up closely.
22:18 He will surely wind you round and round, and toss you like a ball into a large country; there shall you die, and there shall be the chariots of your glory, you shame of your lord's house.
22:19 And I will thrust you from your office; and from your station shall you be pulled down.
22:20 And it shall come to pass in that day, that I will call my servant Eliakim the son of Hilkiah:
22:21 and I will cloth him with your robe, and strengthen him with your girdle, and I will commit your government into his hand; and he shall be a father to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and to the house of Judah.
22:22 And the key of the house of David I will lay upon his shoulder; and he shall open, and no one shall shut; and he shall shut, and no one shall open.
22:23 And I will fasten him as a nail in a sure place; and he shall be for a throne of glory to his father's house.
22:24 And they shall hang upon him all the glory of his father's house, the offspring and the issue, every small vessel, from the cups even to all the flagons.
22:25 In that day, says Yehovah of hosts, shall the nail that was fastened in a sure place give way; and it shall be hewn down, and fall; and the burden that was upon it shall be cut off; for Yehovah has spoken it.
23:1 The burden concerning Tyre. Howl, ye ships of Tarshish; for it is laid waste, so that there is no house, no entering in: from the land of Kittim it is revealed to them.
23:2 Be still, ye inhabitants of the coast, you whom the merchants of Sidon, that pass over the sea, have replenished.
23:3 And on great waters the seed of the Shihor, the harvest of the Nile, was her revenue; and she was the mart of nations.
23:4 Be you ashamed, O Sidon; for the sea has spoken, the stronghold of the sea, saying, I have not travailed, nor brought forth, neither have I nourished young men, nor brought up virgins.
23:5 When the report comes to Egypt, they shall be sorely pained at the report of Tyre.
23:6 Pass ye over to Tarshish; wail, ye inhabitants of the coast.
23:7 Is this your joyous city, whose antiquity is of ancient days, whose feet carried her afar off to sojourn?
23:8 Who has purposed this against Tyre, the bestower of crowns, whose merchants are princes, whose traffickers are the honorable of the earth?
23:9 Yehovah of hosts has purposed it, to stain the pride of all glory, to bring into contempt all the honorable of the earth.
23:10 Pass through your land as the Nile, O daughter of Tarshish; there is no restraint any more.
23:11 He has stretched out his hand over the sea, he has shaken the kingdoms: Yehovah has given commandment concerning Canaan, to destroy the strongholds thereof.
23:12 And he said, You shall no more rejoice, O you oppressed virgin daughter of Sidon: arise, pass over to Kittim; even there shall you have no rest.
23:13 Behold, the land of the Chaldeans: this people was not; the Assyrian founded it for them that dwell in the wilderness; they set up their towers; they overthrew the palaces thereof; they made it a ruin.

23:14 Howl, ye ships of Tarshish; for your stronghold is laid waste.
23:15 And it shall come to pass in that day, that Tyre shall be forgotten seventy years, according to the days of one king: after the end of seventy years it shall be to Tyre as in the song of the harlot.
23:16 Take a harp, go about the city, you harlot that have been forgotten; make sweet melody, sing many songs, that you may be remembered.
23:17 And it shall come to pass after the end of seventy years, that Yehovah will visit Tyre, and she shall return to her wages, and shall play the harlot with all the kingdoms of the world upon the face of the earth.
23:18 And her merchandise and her wages shall be holiness to Yehovah: it shall not be treasured nor laid up; for her merchandise shall be for them that dwell before Yehovah, to eat sufficiently, and for durable clothing.
24:1 Behold, Yehovah makes the earth empty, and makes it waste, and turns it upside down, and scatters abroad the inhabitants thereof.
24:2 And it shall be, as with the people, so with the priest; as with the servant, so with his master; as with the maid, so with her mistress; as with the buyer, so with the seller; as with the creditor, so with the debtor; as with the taker of interest, so with the giver of interest to him.
24:3 The earth shall be utterly emptied, and utterly laid waste; for Yehovah has spoken this word.
24:4 The earth mourns and fades away, the world languishes and fades away, the lofty people of the earth do languish.
24:5 The earth also is polluted under the inhabitants thereof; because they have transgressed the laws, violated the statutes, broken the everlasting covenant.
24:6 Therefore has the curse devoured the earth, and they that dwell therein are found guilty: therefore the inhabitants of the earth are burned, and few men left.
24:7 The new wine mourns, the vine languishes, all the merry-hearted do sigh.
24:8 The mirth of tabrets ceases, the noise of them that rejoice ends, the joy of the harp ceases.
24:9 They shall not drink wine with a song; strong drink shall be bitter to them that drink it.
24:10 The waste city is broken down; every house is shut up, that no man may come in.
24:11 There is a crying in the streets because of the wine; all joy is darkened, the mirth of the land is gone.
24:12 In the city is left desolation, and the gate is smitten with destruction.
24:13 For thus shall it be in the midst of the earth among the peoples, as the shaking of an olive-tree, as the gleanings when the vintage is done.
24:14 These shall lift up their voice, they shall shout; for the majesty of Yehovah they cry aloud from the sea.
24:15 Wherefore glorify ye Yehovah in the east, even the name of Yehovah, the God of Israel, in the isles of the sea.
24:16 From the uttermost part of the earth have we heard songs: Glory to the righteous. But I said, I pine away, I pine away, woe is me! the treacherous have dealt treacherously; yes, the treacherous have dealt very treacherously.
24:17 Fear, and the pit, and the snare, are upon you, O inhabitant of the earth.
24:18 And it shall come to pass, that he who flees from the noise of the fear shall fall into the pit; and he that comes up out of the midst of the pit shall be taken in the snare: for the windows on high are opened, and the foundations of the earth tremble.
24:19 The earth is utterly broken, the earth is rent asunder, the earth is shaken violently.
24:20 The earth shall stagger like a drunken man, and shall sway to and fro like a hammock; and the transgression thereof shall be heavy upon it, and it shall fall, and not rise again.
24:21 And it shall come to pass in that day, that Yehovah will punish the host of the high ones on high, and the kings of the earth upon the earth.
24:22 And they shall be gathered together, as prisoners are gathered in the pit, and shall be shut up in the prison; and after many days shall they be visited.

24:23 Then the moon shall be confounded, and the sun ashamed; for Yehovah of hosts will reign in mount Zion, and in Jerusalem; and before his elders shall be glory.
25:1 O Yehovah, you are my God; I will exalt you, I will praise your name; for you have done wonderful things, even counsels of old, in faithfulness and truth.
25:2 For you have made of a city a heap, of a fortified city a ruin, a palace of strangers to be no city; it shall never be built.
25:3 Therefore shall a strong people glorify you; a city of terrible nations shall fear you.
25:4 For you have been a stronghold to the poor, a stronghold to the needy in his distress, a refuge from the storm, a shade from the heat, when the blast of the terrible ones is as a storm against the wall.
25:5 As the heat in a dry place will you bring down the noise of strangers; as the heat by the shade of a cloud, the song of the terrible ones shall be brought low.
25:6 And in this mountain will Yehovah of hosts make to all peoples a feast of fat things, a feast of wines on the lees, of fat things full of marrow, of wines on the lees well refined.
25:7 And he will destroy in this mountain the face of the covering that covers all peoples, and the veil that is spread over all nations.
25:8 He has swallowed up death for ever; and the Lord Yehovah will wipe away tears from off all faces; and the reproach of his people will he take away from off all the earth: for Yehovah has spoken it.
25:9 And it shall be said in that day, Lo, this is our God; we have waited for him, and he will save us: this is Yehovah; we have waited for him, we will be glad and rejoice in his salvation.
25:10 For in this mountain will the hand of Yehovah rest; and Moab shall be trodden down in his place, even as straw is trodden down in the water of the dung-hill.
25:11 And he shall spread forth his hands in the midst thereof, as he that swims spreads forth his hands to swim; but Yehovah will lay low his pride together with the craft of his hands.
25:12 And the high fortress of your walls has he brought down, laid low, and brought to the ground, even to the dust.
26:1 In that day shall this song be sung in the land of Judah: we have a strong city; salvation will he appoint for walls and bulwarks.
26:2 Open ye the gates, that the righteous nation which keeps faith may enter in.
26:3 You will keep him in perfect peace whose mind is stayed on you; because he trusts in you.
26:4 Trust ye in Yehovah for ever; for in Yehovah, even Yehovah, is an everlasting rock.
26:5 For he has brought down them that dwell on high, the lofty city: he lays it low, he lays it low even to the ground; he brings it even to the dust.
26:6 The foot shall tread it down; even the feet of the poor, and the steps of the needy.
26:7 The way of the just is uprightness: you that are upright do direct the path of the just.
26:8 Yes, in the way of your judgments, O Yehovah, have we waited for you; to your name, even to your memorial name, is the desire of our soul.
26:9 With my soul have I desired you in the night; yes, with my spirit within me I will seek you earnestly: for when your judgments are in the earth, the inhabitants of the world learn righteousness.
26:10 Let favor be shown to the wicked, yet will he not learn righteousness; in the land of uprightness will he deal wrongfully, and will not behold the majesty of Yehovah.
26:11 Yehovah, your hand is lifted up, yet they see not: but they shall see your zeal for the people, and be put to shame; yes, fire shall devour your adversaries.
26:12 Yehovah, you will ordain peace for us; for you have also wrought all our works for us.

26:13 O Yehovah our God, other lords besides you have had dominion over us; but by you only will we make mention of your name.
26:14 They are dead, they shall not live; they are deceased, they shall not rise: therefore have you visited and destroyed them, and made all remembrance of them to perish.
26:15 You have increased the nation, O Yehovah, you have increased the nation; you are glorified; you have enlarged all the borders of the land.
26:16 Yehovah, in trouble have they visited you; they poured out a prayer when your chastening was upon them.
26:17 Like as a woman with child, that draws near the time of her delivery, is in pain and cries out in her pangs; so we have been before you, O Yehovah.
26:18 We have been with child, we have been in pain, we have as it were brought forth wind; we have not wrought any deliverance in the earth; neither have the inhabitants of the world fallen.
26:19 Your dead shall live; my dead bodies shall arise. Awake and sing, ye that dwell in the dust; for your dew is as the dew of herbs, and the earth shall cast forth the dead.
26:20 Come, my people, enter you into your chambers, and shut your doors about you: hide yourself for a little moment, until the indignation be overpast.
26:21 For, behold, Yehovah comes forth out of his place to punish the inhabitants of the earth for their iniquity: the earth also shall disclose her blood, and shall no more cover her slain.
27:1 In that day Yehovah with his hard and great and strong sword will punish leviathan the swift serpent, and leviathan the crooked serpent; and he will slay the monster that is in the sea.
27:2 In that day: A vineyard of wine, sing ye to it.
27:3 I Yehovah am its keeper; I will water it every moment: lest any hurt it, I will keep it night and day.
27:4 Wrath is not in me: would that the briers and thorns were against me in battle! I would march upon them, I would burn them together.
27:5 Or else let him take hold of my strength, that he may make peace with me; yes, let him make peace with me.
27:6 In days to come shall Jacob take root; Israel shall blossom and bud; and they shall fill the face of the world with fruit.
27:7 Has he smitten them as he smote those that smote them? or are they slain according to the slaughter of them that were slain by them?
27:8 In measure, when you send them away, you do contend with them; he has removed them with his rough blast in the day of the east wind.
27:9 Therefore by this shall the iniquity of Jacob be forgiven, and this is all the fruit of taking away his sin: that he makes all the stones of the altar as chalkstones that are beaten in sunder, so that the Asherim and the sun-images shall rise no more.
27:10 For the fortified city is solitary, a habitation deserted and forsaken, like the wilderness: there shall the calf feed, and there shall he lie down, and consume the branches thereof.
27:11 When the boughs thereof are withered, they shall be broken off; the women shall come, and set them on fire; for it is a people of no understanding: therefore he that made them will not have compassion upon them, and he that formed them will show them no favor.
27:12 And it shall come to pass in that day, that Yehovah will beat off his fruit from the flood of the River to the brook of Egypt; and ye shall be gathered one by one, O ye children of Israel.
27:13 And it shall come to pass in that day, that a great trumpet shall be blown; and they shall come that were ready to perish in the land of Assyria, and they that were outcasts in the land of Egypt; and they shall worship Yehovah in the holy mountain at Jerusalem.
28:1 Woe to the crown of pride of the drunkards of Ephraim, and to the fading flower of his glorious beauty, which is on the head of the fat valley of them that are overcome with wine!

28:2 Behold, the Lord has a mighty and strong one; as a tempest of hail, a destroying storm, as a tempest of mighty waters overflowing, will he cast down to the earth with the hand.
28:3 The crown of pride of the drunkards of Ephraim shall be trodden under foot:
28:4 and the fading flower of his glorious beauty, which is on the head of the fat valley, shall be as the first-ripe fig before the summer; which when he that looks upon it sees, while it is yet in his hand he eats it up.
28:5 In that day will Yehovah of hosts become a crown of glory, and a diadem of beauty, to the residue of his people;
28:6 and a spirit of justice to him that sits in judgment, and strength to them that turn back the battle at the gate.
28:7 And even these reel with wine, and stagger with strong drink; the priest and the prophet reel with strong drink, they are swallowed up of wine, they stagger with strong drink; they err in vision, they stumble in judgment.
28:8 For all tables are full of vomit and filthiness, so that there is no place clean.
28:9 Whom will he teach knowledge? and whom will he make to understand the message? them that are weaned from the milk, and drawn from the breasts?
28:10 For it is precept upon precept, precept upon precept; line upon line, line upon line; here a little, there a little.
28:11 Nay, but by men of strange lips and with another tongue will he speak to this people;
28:12 to whom he said, This is the rest, give ye rest to him that is weary; and this is the refreshing: yet they would not hear.
28:13 Therefore shall the word of Yehovah be to them precept upon precept, precept upon precept; line upon line, line upon line; here a little, there a little; that they may go, and fall backward, and be broken, and snared, and taken.
28:14 Wherefore hear the word of Yehovah, ye scoffers, that rule this people that is in Jerusalem:
28:15 Because ye have said, We have made a covenant with death, and with Sheol are we at agreement; when the overflowing scourge shall pass through, it shall not come to us; for we have made lies our refuge, and under falsehood have we hid ourselves:
28:16 therefore thus says the Lord Yehovah, Behold, I lay in Zion for a foundation a stone, a tried stone, a precious corner-stone of sure foundation: he that believes shall not be in haste.
28:17 And I will make justice the line, and righteousness the plummet; and the hail shall sweep away the refuge of lies, and the waters shall overflow the hiding-place.
28:18 And your covenant with death shall be annulled, and your agreement with Sheol shall not stand; when the overflowing scourge shall pass through, then ye shall be trodden down by it.
28:19 As often as it passes though, it shall take you; for morning by morning shall it pass through, by day and by night: and it shall be nought but terror to understand the message.
28:20 For the bed is shorter than that a man can stretch himself on it; and the covering narrower than that he can wrap himself in it.
28:21 For Yehovah will rise up as in mount Perazim, he will be angry as in the valley of Gibeon; that he may do his work, his strange work, and bring to pass his act, his strange act.
28:22 Now therefore be ye not scoffers, lest your bonds be made strong; for a decree of destruction have I heard from the Lord, Yehovah of hosts, upon the whole earth.
28:23 Give ye ear, and hear my voice; hearken, and hear my speech.
28:24 Does he that plows to sow plow continually? does he continually open and harrow his ground?
28:25 When he has levelled the face thereof, does he not cast abroad the fitches, and scatter the cummin, and put in the wheat in rows, and the barley in the appointed place, and the spelt in the border thereof?
28:26 For his God does instruct him aright, and does teach him.

28:27 For the dill is not threshed with a sharp threshing instrument, neither is a cart wheel turned about upon the cummin; but the dill is beaten out with a staff, and the cummin with a rod.
28:28 Bread grain is ground; for he will not be always threshing it: and though the wheel of his cart and his horses scatter it, he does not grind it.
28:29 This also comes forth from Yehovah of hosts, who is wonderful in counsel, and excellent in wisdom.
29:1 Ho Ariel, ariel, the city where David encamped! add ye year to year; let the feasts come round:
29:2 then I will distress Ariel, and there shall be mourning and lamentation; and she shall be to me as Ariel.
29:3 And I will encamp against you round about, and will lay siege against you with posted troops, and I will raise siege works against you.
29:4 And you shall be brought down, and shall speak out of the ground, and your speech shall be low out of the dust; and your voice shall be as of one that has a familiar spirit, out of the ground, and your speech shall whisper out of the dust.
29:5 But the multitude of your foes shall be like small dust, and the multitude of the terrible ones as chaff that passes away: yes, it shall be in an instant suddenly.
29:6 She shall be visited of Yehovah of hosts with thunder, and with earthquake, and great noise, with whirlwind and tempest, and the flame of a devouring fire.
29:7 And the multitude of all the nations that fight against Ariel, even all that fight against her and her stronghold, and that distress her, shall be as a dream, a vision of the night.
29:8 And it shall be as when a hungry man dreams, and, behold, he eats; but he awakes, and his soul is empty: or as when a thirsty man dreams, and, behold, he drinks; but he awakes, and, behold, he is faint, and his soul has appetite: so shall the multitude of all the nations be, that fight against mount Zion.
29:9 Tarry ye and wonder; take your pleasure and be blind: they are drunken, but not with wine; they stagger, but not with strong drink.
29:10 For Yehovah has poured out upon you the spirit of deep sleep, and has closed your eyes, the prophets; and your heads, the seers, has he covered.
29:11 And all vision is become to you as the words of a book that is sealed, which men deliver to one that is learned, saying, Read this, I pray you; and he says, I cannot, for it is sealed:
29:12 and the book is delivered to him that is not learned, saying, Read this, I pray you; and he says, I am not learned.
29:13 And the Lord said, Forasmuch as this people draw near to me, and with their mouth and with their lips to honor me, but have removed their heart far from me, and their fear of me is a commandment of men which has been taught them;
29:14 therefore, behold, I will proceed to do a marvellous work among this people, even a marvellous work and a wonder; and the wisdom of their wise men shall perish, and the understanding of their prudent men shall be hid.
29:15 Woe to them that hide deep their counsel from Yehovah, and whose works are in the dark, and that say, Who sees us? and who knows us?
29:16 You turn things upside down! Shall the potter be esteemed as clay; that the thing made should say of him that made it, He made me not; or the thing formed say of him that formed it, He has no understanding?
29:17 Is it not yet a very little while, and Lebanon shall be turned into a fruitful field, and the fruitful field shall be esteemed as a forest?
29:18 And in that day shall the deaf hear the words of the book, and the eyes of the blind shall see out of obscurity and out of darkness.
29:19 The meek also shall increase their joy in Yehovah, and the poor among men shall rejoice in the Holy One of Israel.
29:20 For the terrible one is brought to nought, and the scoffer ceases, and all they that watch for iniquity are cut off;
29:21 that make a man an offender in his cause, and lay a snare for him that reproves in the gate, and turn aside the just with a thing of nought.
29:22 Therefore thus says Yehovah, who redeemed Abraham, concerning the house of Jacob: Jacob shall not now be ashamed, neither shall his face now grow pale.

29:23 But when he sees his children, the work of my hands, in the midst of him, they shall sanctify my name; yes, they shall sanctify the Holy One of Jacob, and shall stand in awe of the God of Israel.
29:24 They also that err in spirit shall come to understanding, and they that murmur shall receive instruction.
30:1 Woe to the rebellious children, says Yehovah, that take counsel, but not of me; and that make a league, but not of my Spirit, that they may add sin to sin,
30:2 that set out to go down into Egypt, and have not asked at my mouth; to strengthen themselves in the strength of Pharaoh, and to take refuge in the shadow of Egypt!
30:3 Therefore shall the strength of Pharaoh be your shame, and the refuge in the shadow of Egypt your confusion.
30:4 For their princes are at Zoan, and their ambassadors are come to Hanes.
30:5 They shall all be ashamed because of a people that cannot profit them, that are not a help nor profit, but a shame, and also a reproach.
30:6 The burden concerning the beasts of the South. Through the land of trouble and anguish, from which place come the lioness and the lion, the viper and fiery flying serpent, they carry their riches upon the shoulders of young donkeys, and their treasures upon the humps of camels, to a people that shall not profit them.
30:7 For Egypt helps in vain, and to no purpose: therefore have I called her Rahab that sits still.
30:8 Now go, write it before them on a tablet, and inscribe it in a book, that it may be for the time to come for ever and ever.
30:9 For it is a rebellious people, lying children, children that will not hear the law of Yehovah;
30:10 that say to the seers, See not; and to the prophets, Prophesy not to us right things, speak to us smooth things, prophesy deceits,
30:11 get yourself out of the way, turn aside out of the path, cause the Holy One of Israel to cease from before us.
30:12 Wherefore thus says the Holy One of Israel, Because ye despise this word, and trust in oppression and perverseness, and rely upon it;
30:13 therefore this iniquity shall be to you as a breach ready to fall, swelling out in a high wall, whose breaking comes suddenly in an instant.
30:14 And he shall break it as a potter's vessel is broken, breaking it in pieces without sparing; so that there shall not be found among the pieces thereof a sherd with which to take fire from the hearth, or to dip up water out of the cistern.
30:15 For thus said the Lord Yehovah, the Holy One of Israel, In returning and rest shall ye be saved; in quietness and in confidence shall be your strength. And ye would not:
30:16 but ye said, No, for we will flee upon horses; therefore shall ye flee: and, We will ride upon the swift; therefore shall they that pursue you be swift.
30:17 One thousand shall flee at the threat of one; at the threat of five shall ye flee: till ye be left as a beacon upon the top of a mountain, and as an ensign on a hill.
30:18 And therefore will Yehovah wait, that he may be gracious to you; and therefore will he be exalted, that he may have mercy upon you: for Yehovah is a God of justice; blessed are all they that wait for him.
30:19 For the people shall dwell in Zion at Jerusalem; you shall weep no more; he will surely be gracious to you at the voice of your cry; when he shall hear, he will answer you.
30:20 And though the Lord give you the bread of adversity and the water of affliction, yet shall not your teachers be hidden anymore, but your eyes shall see your teachers;
30:21 and your ears shall hear a word behind you, saying, This is the way, walk ye in it; when ye turn to the right hand, and when ye turn to the left.
30:22 And ye shall defile the overlaying of your graven images of silver, and the plating of your molten images of gold: you shall cast them away as an unclean thing; you shall say to it, Get yourself away from here.

30:23 And he will give the rain for your seed, with which you shall sow the ground; and bread of the increase of the ground, and it shall be fat and plenteous. In that day shall your cattle feed in large pastures;
30:24 the oxen likewise and the young donkeys that till the ground shall eat savory provender, which has been winnowed with the shovel and with the fork.
30:25 And there shall be upon every lofty mountain, and upon every high hill, brooks and streams of waters, in the day of the great slaughter, when the towers fall.
30:26 Moreover the light of the moon shall be as the light of the sun, and the light of the sun shall be sevenfold, as the light of seven days, in the day that Yehovah binds up the hurt of his people, and heals the stroke of their wound.
30:27 Behold, the name of Yehovah comes from far, burning with his anger, and in thick rising smoke: his lips are full of indignation, and his tongue is as a devouring fire;
30:28 and his breath is as an overflowing stream, that reaches even to the neck, to sift the nations with the sieve of destruction: and a bridle that causes to err shall be in the jaws of the peoples.
30:29 You shall have a song as in the night when a holy feast is kept; and gladness of heart, as when one goes with a pipe to come to the mountain of Yehovah, to the Rock of Israel.
30:30 And Yehovah will cause his glorious voice to be heard, and will show the lighting down of his arm, with the indignation of his anger, and the flame of a devouring fire, with a blast, and tempest, and hailstones.
30:31 For through the voice of Yehovah shall the Assyrian be dismayed; with his rod will he smite him.
30:32 And every stroke of the appointed staff, which Yehovah shall lay upon him, shall be with the sound of tabrets and harps; and in battles with the brandishing of his arm will he fight with them.
30:33 For a Topheth is prepared of old; yes, for the king it is made ready; he has made it deep and large; the pile thereof is fire and much wood; the breath of Yehovah, like a stream of brimstone, does kindle it.
31:1 Woe to them that go down to Egypt for help, and rely on horses, and trust in chariots because they are many, and in horsemen because they are very strong, but they look not to the Holy One of Israel, neither seek Yehovah!
31:2 Yet he also is wise, and will bring evil, and will not call back his words, but will arise against the house of the evil-doers, and against the help of them that work iniquity.
31:3 Now the Egyptians are men, and not God; and their horses flesh, and not spirit: and when Yehovah shall stretch out his hand, both he that helps shall stumble, and he that is helped shall fall, and they all shall be consumed together.
31:4 For thus says Yehovah to me, as the lion and the young lion growling over his prey, if a multitude of shepherds be called forth against him, will not be dismayed at their voice, nor abase himself for the noise of them: so will Yehovah of hosts come down to fight upon mount Zion, and upon the hill thereof.
31:5 As birds hovering, so will Yehovah of hosts protect Jerusalem; he will protect and deliver it, he will pass over and preserve it.
31:6 Turn ye to him from whom ye have deeply revolted, O children of Israel.
31:7 For in that day they shall cast away every man his idols of silver, and his idols of gold, which your own hands have made to you for a sin.
31:8 And the Assyrian shall fall by the sword, not of man; and the sword, not of men, shall devour him; and he shall flee from the sword, and his young men shall become subject to taskwork.
31:9 And his rock shall pass away by reason of terror, and his princes shall be dismayed at the ensign, says Yehovah, whose fire is in Zion, and his furnace in Jerusalem.
32:1 Behold, a king shall reign in righteousness, and princes shall rule in justice.
32:2 And a man shall be as a hiding-place from the wind, and a covert from the tempest, as streams of water in a dry place, as the shade of a great rock in a weary land.

32:3 And the eyes of them that see shall not be dim, and the ears of them that hear shall hearken.
32:4 And the heart of the rash shall understand knowledge, and the tongue of the stammerers shall be ready to speak plainly.
32:5 The fool shall be no more called noble, nor the churl said to be bountiful.
32:6 For the fool will speak folly, and his heart will work iniquity, to practise profaneness, and to utter error against Yehovah, to make empty the soul of the hungry, and to cause the drink of the thirsty to fail.
32:7 And the instruments of the scoundrel are evil: he devises wicked devices to destroy the meek with lying words, even when the needy speaks right.
32:8 But the noble devises noble things; and in noble things shall he continue.
32:9 Rise up, ye women that are at ease, and hear my voice; ye careless daughters, give ear to my speech.
32:10 For days beyond a year shall ye be troubled, ye careless women; for the vintage shall fail, the ingathering shall not come.
32:11 Tremble, ye women that are at ease; be troubled, ye careless ones; strip you, and make you bare, and gird sackcloth upon your loins.
32:12 They shall smite upon the breasts for the pleasant fields, for the fruitful vine.
32:13 Upon the land of my people shall come up thorns and briers; yes, upon all the houses of joy in the joyous city.
32:14 For the palace shall be forsaken; the populous city shall be deserted; the hill and the watch-tower shall be for dens for ever, a joy of wild donkeys, a pasture of flocks;
32:15 until the Spirit be poured upon us from on high, and the wilderness become a fruitful field, and the fruitful field be esteemed as a forest.
32:16 Then justice shall dwell in the wilderness; and righteousness shall abide in the fruitful field.
32:17 And the work of righteousness shall be peace; and the effect of righteousness, quietness and confidence for ever.
32:18 And my people shall abide in a peaceable habitation, and in safe dwellings, and in quiet resting-places.
32:19 But it shall hail in the downfall of the forest; and the city shall be utterly laid low.
32:20 Blessed are yet that sow beside all waters, that send forth the feet of the ox and the donkey.
33:1 Woe to you that destroyest, and you were not destroyed; and deal treacherously, and they dealt not treacherously with you! When you have ceased to destroy, you shall be destroyed; and when you have made an end of dealing treacherously, they shall deal treacherously with you.
33:2 O Yehovah, be gracious to us; we have waited for you: be you our arm every morning, our salvation also in the time of trouble.
33:3 At the noise of the tumult the peoples are fled; at the lifting up of yourself the nations are scattered.
33:4 And your spoil shall be gathered as the caterpillar gathers: as locusts leap shall men leap upon it.
33:5 Yehovah is exalted; for he dwells on high: he has filled Zion with justice and righteousness.
33:6 And there shall be stability in your times, abundance of salvation, wisdom, and knowledge: the fear of Yehovah is your treasure.
33:7 Behold, their valiant ones cry without; the ambassadors of peace weep bitterly.
33:8 The highways lie waste, the wayfaring man ceases: the enemy has broken the covenant, he has despised the cities, he regards not man.
33:9 The land mourns and languishes; Lebanon is confounded and withers away; Sharon is like a desert; and Bashan and Carmel shake off their leaves.
33:10 Now I will arise, says Yehovah; now I will lift up myself; now I will be exalted.
33:11 You shall conceive chaff, ye shall bring forth stubble: your breath is a fire that shall devour you.

33:12 And the peoples shall be as the burnings of lime, as thorns cut down, that are burned in the fire.
33:13 Hear, ye that are far off, what I have done; and, ye that are near, acknowledge my might.
33:14 The sinners in Zion are afraid; trembling has seized the godless ones: Who among us can dwell with the devouring fire? who among us can dwell with everlasting burnings?
33:15 He that walks righteously, and speaks uprightly; he that despises the gain of oppressions, that shakes his hands from taking a bribe, that stops his ears from hearing of blood, and shuts his eyes from looking upon evil:
33:16 He shall dwell on high; his place of defence shall be the munitions of rocks; his bread shall be given him; his waters shall be sure.
33:17 Your eyes shall see the king in his beauty: they shall behold a land that reaches afar.
33:18 Your heart shall muse on the terror: Where is he that counted, where is he that weighed the tribute? where is he that counted the treasures?
33:19 No longer will you see these arrogant people, a people of a deep speech that you cannot comprehend, of a strange tongue that you cannot understand.
33:20 Look upon Zion, the city of our solemnities: your eyes shall see Jerusalem a quiet habitation, a tent that shall not be removed, the stakes of which shall never be plucked up, neither shall any of the cords of it be broken.
33:21 But there Yehovah will be with us in majesty, a place of broad rivers and streams, on which shall go no galley with oars, neither shall gallant ship pass thereby.
33:22 For Yehovah is our judge, Yehovah is our lawgiver, Yehovah is our king; he will save us.
33:23 Your tacklings are loosed; they could not strengthen the foot of their mast, they could not spread the sail: then was the prey of a great spoil divided; the lame took the prey.
33:24 And the inhabitant shall not say, I am sick: the people that dwell therein shall be forgiven their iniquity.
34:1 Come near, ye nations, to hear; and hearken, ye peoples: let the earth hear, and the fulness thereof; the world, and all things that come forth from it.
34:2 For Yehovah has indignation against all the nations, and wrath against all their host: he has utterly destroyed them, he has delivered them to the slaughter.
34:3 Their slain also shall be cast out, and the stench of their dead bodies shall come up; and the mountains shall be melted with their blood.
34:4 And all the host of heaven shall be dissolved, and the heavens shall be rolled together as a scroll; and all their host shall fade away, as the leaf fades from off the vine, and as a fading leaf from the fig-tree.
34:5 For my sword has drunk its fill in heaven: behold, it shall come down upon Edom, and upon the people of my curse, to judgment.
34:6 The sword of Yehovah is filled with blood, it is made fat with fatness, with the blood of lambs and goats, with the fat of the kidneys of rams; for Yehovah has a sacrifice in Bozrah, and a great slaughter in the land of Edom.[40]
34:7 And the wild-oxen shall come down with them, and the bullocks with the bulls: and their land shall be drunken with blood, and their dust made fat with fatness.
34:8 For Yehovah has a day of vengeance, a year of recompense for the cause of Zion.
34:9 And the streams of Edom shall be turned into pitch, and the dust thereof into brimstone, and the land thereof shall become burning pitch.
34:10 It shall not be quenched night nor day; the smoke thereof shall go up for ever; from generation to generation it shall lie waste; no one shall pass through it for ever and ever.

[40] This is an area in southern Jordan, northern Arabia.

34:11 But the pelican and the porcupine shall possess it; and the owl and the raven shall dwell therein: and he will stretch over it the line of confusion, and the plummet of emptiness.
34:12 They shall call the nobles thereof to the kingdom, but no one shall be there; and all its princes shall be nothing.
34:13 And thorns shall come up in its palaces, nettles and thistles in the fortresses thereof; and it shall be a habitation of jackals, a court for ostriches.
34:14 And the wild beasts of the desert shall meet with the wolves, and the wild goat shall cry to his fellow; yes, the night-monster shall settle there, and shall find her a place of rest.
34:15 There shall the dart-snake make her nest, and lay, and hatch, and gather under her shade; yes, there shall the kites be gathered, every one with her mate.
34:16 Seek ye out of the book of Yehovah, and read: no one of these shall be missing, no one shall want her mate; for my mouth, it has commanded, and his Spirit, it has gathered them.
34:17 And he has cast the lot for them, and his hand has divided it to them by line: they shall possess it for ever; from generation to generation shall they dwell therein.
35:1 The wilderness and the dry land shall be glad; and the desert shall rejoice, and blossom as the rose.
35:2 It shall blossom abundantly, and rejoice even with joy and singing; the glory of Lebanon shall be given to it, the excellency of Carmel and Sharon: they shall see the glory of Yehovah, the excellency of our God.
35:3 Strengthen ye the weak hands, and confirm the feeble knees.
35:4 Say to them that are of a fearful heart, Be strong, fear not: behold, your God will come with vengeance, with the recompense of God; he will come and save you.
35:5 Then the eyes of the blind shall be opened, and the ears of the deaf shall be unstopped.
35:6 Then shall the lame man leap as a deer, and the tongue of the dumb shall sing; for in the wilderness shall waters break out, and streams in the desert.
35:7 And the glowing sand shall become a pool, and the thirsty ground springs of water: in the habitation of jackals, where they lay, shall be grass with reeds and rushes.
35:8 And a highway shall be there, and a way, and it shall be called The way of holiness; the unclean shall not pass over it; but it shall be for the redeemed: the wayfaring men, yes fools, shall not err therein.
35:9 No lion shall be there, nor shall any ravenous beast go up on it; they shall not be found there; but the redeemed shall walk there:
35:10 and the ransomed of Yehovah shall return, and come with singing to Zion; and everlasting joy shall be upon their heads: they shall obtain gladness and joy, and sorrow and sighing shall flee away.
36:1 Now it came to pass in the fourteenth year of king Hezekiah, that Sennacherib king of Assyria came up against all the fortified cities of Judah, and took them.
36:2 And the king of Assyria sent Rabshakeh from Lachish to Jerusalem to king Hezekiah with a great army. And he stood by the conduit of the upper pool in the highway of the fuller's field.
36:3 Then came forth to him Eliakim the son of Hilkiah, who was over the household, and Shebna the scribe, and Joah, the son of Asaph, the recorder.
36:4 And Rabshakeh said to them, Say ye now to Hezekiah, Thus says the great king, the king of Assyria, What confidence is this in which you trust?
36:5 I say, your counsel and strength for the war are but vain words: now on whom do you trust, that you have rebelled against me?
36:6 Behold, you trust upon the staff of this bruised reed, even upon Egypt, whereon if a man lean, it will go into his hand, and pierce it: so is Pharaoh king of Egypt to all that trust on him.
36:7 But if you say to me, We trust in Yehovah our God: is not that he, whose high places and whose altars Hezekiah has taken away, and has said to Judah and to Jerusalem, You shall worship before this altar?

36:8 Now therefore, I pray you, give pledges to my master the king of Assyria, and I will give you two thousand horses, if you be able on your part to set riders upon them.
36:9 How then can you turn away the face of one captain of the least of my master's servants, and put your trust on Egypt for chariots and for horsemen?
36:10 And am I now come up without Yehovah against this land to destroy it? Yehovah said to me, Go up against this land, and destroy it.
36:11 Then said Eliakim and Shebna and Joah to Rabshakeh, Speak, I pray you, to your servants in the Syrian language; for we understand it: and speak not to us in the Jews' language, in the ears of the people that are on the wall.
36:12 But Rabshakeh said, Has my master sent me to your master, and to you, to speak these words? has he not sent me to the men that sit upon the wall, to eat their own dung, and to drink their own water with you?
36:13 Then Rabshakeh stood, and cried with a loud voice in the Jews' language, and said, Hear ye the words of the great king, the king of Assyria.
36:14 Thus says the king, Let not Hezekiah deceive you; for he will not be able to deliver you:
36:15 neither let Hezekiah make you trust in Yehovah, saying, Yehovah will surely deliver us; this city shall not be given into the hand of the king of Assyria.
36:16 Hearken not to Hezekiah: for thus says the king of Assyria, Make your peace with me, and come out to me; and eat ye every one from his vine, and every one from his fig-tree, and drink ye every one the waters of his own cistern;
36:17 until I come and take you away to a land like your own land, a land of grain and new wine, a land of bread and vineyards.
36:18 Beware lest Hezekiah persuade you, saying, Yehovah will deliver us. Has any of the gods of the nations delivered his land out of the hand of the king of Assyria?
36:19 Where are the gods of Hamath and Arpad? where are the gods of Sepharvaim? and have they delivered Samaria out of my hand?
36:20 Who are they among all the gods of these countries, that have delivered their country out of my hand, that Yehovah should deliver Jerusalem out of my hand?
36:21 But they held their peace, and answered him not a word; for the king's commandment was, saying, answer him not.
36:22 Then came Eliakim the son of Hilkiah, that was over the household, and Shebna the scribe, and Joah, the son of Asaph, the recorder, to Hezekiah with their clothes rent, and told him the words of Rabshakeh.
37:1 And it came to pass, when king Hezekiah heard it, that he rent his clothes, and covered himself with sackcloth, and went into the house of Yehovah.
37:2 And he sent Eliakim, who was over the household, and Shebna the scribe, and the elders of the priests, covered with sackcloth, to Isaiah the prophet the son of Amoz.
37:3 And they said to him, Thus says Hezekiah, This day is a day of trouble, and of rebuke, and of disgrace; for the children are come to the birth, and there is not strength to bring forth.
37:4 It may be Yehovah your God will hear the words of Rabshakeh, whom the king of Assyria his master has sent to defy the living God, and will rebuke the words which Yehovah your God has heard: therefore lift up your prayer for the remnant that is left.
37:5 So the servants of king Hezekiah came to Isaiah.
37:6 And Isaiah said to them, Thus shall ye say to your master, Thus says Yehovah, Be not afraid of the words that you have heard, with which the servants of the king of Assyria have blasphemed me.
37:7 Behold, I will put a spirit in him, and he shall hear tidings, and shall return to his own land; and I will cause him to fall by the sword in his own land.
37:8 So Rabshakeh returned, and found the king of Assyria warring against Libnah; for he had heard that he was departed from Lachish.
37:9 And he heard say concerning Tirhakah king of Ethiopia, He is come out to fight against you. And when he heard it, he sent messengers to Hezekiah, saying, 37:10 Thus shall ye speak to Hezekiah king of Judah, saying, Let not your God in whom you trust deceive you, saying, Jerusalem shall not be given into the hand of the king of Assyria.

37:11 Behold, you have heard what the kings of Assyria have done to all lands, by destroying them utterly: yet you shall be delivered?
37:12 Have the gods of the nations delivered them, which my fathers have destroyed, Gozan, and Haran, and Rezeph, and the children of Eden that were in Telassar?
37:13 Where is the king of Hamath, and the king of Arpad, and the king of the city of Sepharvaim, of Hena, and Ivvah?
37:14 And Hezekiah received the letter from the hand of the messengers, and read it; and Hezekiah went up to the house of Yehovah, and spread it before Yehovah.
37:15 And Hezekiah prayed to Yehovah, saying,
37:16 O Yehovah of hosts, the God of Israel, that sits above the cherubim, you are the God, even you alone, of all the kingdoms of the earth; you have made heaven and earth.
37:17 Incline your ear, O Yehovah, and hear; open your eyes, O Yehovah, and see; and hear all the words of Sennacherib, who has sent to defy the living God.
37:18 Of a truth, Yehovah, the kings of Assyria have laid waste all the countries, and their land,
37:19 and have cast their gods into the fire: for they were no gods, but rather the work of men's hands, wood and stone; therefore they have destroyed them.
37:20 Now therefore, O Yehovah our God, save us from his hand, that all the kingdoms of the earth may know that you are Yehovah, even you only.
37:21 Then Isaiah the son of Amoz sent to Hezekiah, saying, Thus says Yehovah, the God of Israel, Whereas you have prayed to me against Sennacherib king of Assyria,
37:22 this is the word which Yehovah has spoken concerning him: The virgin daughter of Zion has despised you and laughed you to scorn; the daughter of Jerusalem has shaken her head at you.
37:23 Whom have you defied and blasphemed? and against whom have you exalted your voice and lifted up your eyes on high? even against the Holy One of Israel.
37:24 By your servants have you defied the Lord, and have said, With the multitude of my chariots am I come up to the height of the mountains, to the innermost parts of Lebanon; and I will cut down the tall cedars thereof, and the choice fir-trees thereof; and I will enter into its farthest height, the forest of its fruitful field;
37:25 I have dug and drunk water, and with the sole of my feet I will dry up all the rivers of Egypt.
37:26 Have you not heard how I have done it long ago, and formed it of ancient times? now have I brought it to pass, that it should be yours to lay waste fortified cities into ruinous heaps.
37:27 That is the reason their inhabitants were of small power, they were dismayed and confounded; they were as the grass of the field, and as the green herb, as the grass on the housetops, and as a field of grain before it is grown up.
37:28 But I know your sitting down, and your going out, and your coming in, and your raging against me.
37:29 Because of your raging against me, and because your arrogance is come up into my ears, therefore I will put my hook in your nose, and my bridle in your lips, and I will turn you back by the way by which you came.
37:30 And this shall be the sign to you: ye shall eat this year that which grows of itself, and in the second year that which springs of the same; and in the third year sow ye, and reap, and plant vineyards, and eat the fruit thereof.
37:31 And the remnant that is escaped of the house of Judah shall again take root downward, and bear fruit upward.
37:32 For out of Jerusalem shall go forth a remnant, and out of mount Zion they that shall escape. The zeal of Yehovah of hosts will perform this.

37:33 Therefore thus says Yehovah concerning the king of Assyria, He shall not come to this city, nor shoot an arrow there, neither shall he come before it with shield, nor cast up a mound against it.
37:34 By the way that he came, by the same shall he return, and he shall not come to this city, says Yehovah.
37:35 For I will defend this city to save it, for my own sake, and for my servant David's sake.
37:36 And the angel of Yehovah went forth, and struck in the camp of the Assyrians a hundred and eighty-five thousand; and when men arose early in the morning, behold, these were all dead bodies.
37:37 So Sennacherib king of Assyria departed, and went and returned, and dwelt at Nineveh.
37:38 And it came to pass, as he was worshipping in the house of Nisroch his god, that Adrammelech and Sharezer his sons smote him with the sword; and they escaped into the land of Ararat. And Esar-haddon his son reigned in his stead.
38:1 In those days was Hezekiah sick to death. And Isaiah the prophet the son of Amoz came to him, and said to him, Thus says Yehovah, Set your house in order; for you shall die, and not live.
38:2 Then Hezekiah turned his face to the wall, and prayed to Yehovah,
38:3 and said, Remember now, O Yehovah, I beseech you, how I have walked before you in truth and with a perfect heart, and have done that which is good in your sight. And Hezekiah wept sorely.
38:4 Then came the word of Yehovah to Isaiah, saying,
38:5 Go, and say to Hezekiah, Thus says Yehovah, the God of David your father, I have heard your prayer, I have seen your tears: behold, I will add to your days fifteen years.
38:6 And I will deliver you and this city out of the hand of the king of Assyria; and I will defend this city.
38:7 And this shall be the sign to you from Yehovah, that Yehovah will do this thing that he has spoken:
38:8 behold, I will cause the shadow on the steps, which is gone down on the dial of Ahaz with the sun, to return backward ten steps. So the sun returned ten steps on the dial whereon it was gone down.
38:9 The writing of Hezekiah king of Judah, when he had been sick, and was recovered of his sickness.
38:10 I said, In the noontide of my days I shall go into the gates of Sheol: I am deprived of the residue of my years.
38:11 I said, I shall not see Yehovah, even Yehovah in the land of the living: I shall behold man no more with the inhabitants of the world.
38:12 My dwelling is removed, and is carried away from me as a shepherd's tent: I have rolled up, like a weaver, my life; he will cut me off from the loom: From day even to night will you make an end of me.
38:13 I quieted myself until morning; as a lion, so he breaks all my bones: From day even to night will you make an end of me.
38:14 Like a swallow or a crane, is how I chirped; I moaned like a dove; my eyes look weakly upward: O Lord, I am oppressed, please be my security.
38:15 What shall I say? he has both spoken to me, and himself has done it: I shall go softly all my years because of the bitterness of my soul.
38:16 O Lord, by these things men live; And wholly therein is the life of my spirit: Wherefore recover thou me, and make me to live.
38:17 Behold, it was for my peace that I had great bitterness: But you have in love to my soul delivered it from the pit of corruption; For you have cast all my sins behind your back.
38:18 For Sheol cannot praise you, death cannot celebrate you: They that go down into the pit cannot hope for your truth.
38:19 The living, the living man, he shall praise you, as I do this day: The father to the children shall make known your truth.
38:20 Yehovah is ready to save me: Therefore we will sing my songs with stringed instruments All the days of our life in the house of Yehovah.

38:21 Now Isaiah had said, Let them take a cake of figs, and lay it for a plaster upon the boil, and he shall recover.
38:22 Hezekiah also had said, What is the sign that I shall go up to the house of Yehovah?
39:1 At that time Merodach-baladan the son of Baladan, king of Babylon, sent letters and a present to Hezekiah; for he heard that he had been sick, and was recovered.
39:2 And Hezekiah was glad of them, and showed them the house of his precious things, the silver, and the gold, and the spices, and the precious oil, and all the house of his armor, and all that was found in his treasures: there was nothing in his house, nor in all his dominion, that Hezekiah showed them not.
39:3 Then came Isaiah the prophet to king Hezekiah, and said to him, What said these men? and from whence came they to you? And Hezekiah said, They are come from a far country to me, even from Babylon.
39:4 Then said he, What have they seen in your house? And Hezekiah answered, all that is in my house have they seen: there is nothing among my treasures that I have not shown them.
39:5 Then said Isaiah to Hezekiah, Hear the word of Yehovah of hosts:
39:6 Behold, the days are coming, when all that is in your house, and that which your fathers have laid up in store until this day, shall be carried to Babylon: nothing shall be left, says Yehovah.
39:7 And of your sons that shall issue from you, whom you shall beget, shall they take away; and they shall be eunuchs in the palace of the king of Babylon.
39:8 Then said Hezekiah to Isaiah, Good is the word of Yehovah which you have spoken. He said moreover, For there shall be peace and truth in my days.
40:1 Comfort ye, comfort ye my people, says your God.
40:2 Speak ye comfortably to Jerusalem; and cry to her, that her warfare is accomplished, that her iniquity is pardoned, that she has received of Yehovah's hand double for all her sins.
40:3 The voice of one that cries, Prepare ye in the wilderness the way of Yehovah; make level in the desert a highway for our God.
40:4 Every valley shall be exalted, and every mountain and hill shall be made low; and the uneven shall be made level, and the rough places a plain:
40:5 and the glory of Yehovah shall be revealed, and all flesh shall see it together; for the mouth of Yehovah has spoken it.
40:6 The voice of one saying, Cry. And one said, What shall I cry? All flesh is grass, and all the goodliness thereof is as the flower of the field.
40:7 The grass withers, the flower fades, because the breath of Yehovah blows upon it; surely the people is grass.
40:8 The grass withers, the flower fades; but the word of our God shall stand forever.
40:9 O you that tell good tidings to Zion, get yourself up on a high mountain; O you that tell good tidings to Jerusalem, lift up your voice with strength; lift it up, be not afraid; say to the cities of Judah, Behold, your God!
40:10 Behold, the Lord Yehovah will come as a mighty one, and his arm will rule for him: Behold, his reward is with him, and his recompense before him.
40:11 He will feed his flock like a shepherd, he will gather the lambs in his arm, and carry them in his bosom, and will gently lead those that have their young.
40:12 Who has measured the waters in the hollow of his hand, and meted out heaven with the span, and comprehended the dust of the earth in a measure, and weighed the mountains in scales, and the hills in a balance?
40:13 Who has directed the Spirit of Yehovah, or being his counsellor has taught him?
40:14 With whom took he counsel, and who instructed him, and taught him in the path of justice, and taught him knowledge, and shown to him the way of understanding?
40:15 Behold, the nations are as a drop of a bucket, and are accounted as the small dust of the balance: Behold, he takes up the isles as a very little thing.

40:16 And Lebanon is not sufficient to burn, nor the beasts thereof sufficient for a burnt offering.
40:17 All the nations are as nothing before him; they are accounted by him as less than nothing, and vanity.
40:18 To whom then will ye liken God? or what likeness will ye compare to him?
40:19 The image, a workman has cast it, and the goldsmith overlays it with gold, and casts for it silver chains.
40:20 He that is too impoverished for such an oblation chooses a tree that will not rot; he seeks to him a skilful workman to set up a graven image, that shall not be moved.
40:21 Have ye not known? have yet not heard? has it not been told you from the beginning? have ye not understood from the foundations of the earth?
40:22 It is he that sits above the circle of the earth, and the inhabitants thereof are like grasshoppers; He stretches out the skies like a canopy, and spreads them out like a tent to dwell in;
40:23 that brings princes to nothing; that makes the judges of the earth as vanity.
40:24 Yes, they have not been planted; yes, they have not been sown; yes, their stock has not taken root in the earth: moreover he blows upon them, and they wither, and the whirlwind takes them away as stubble.
40:25 To whom then will ye liken me, that I should be equal to him? says the Holy One.
40:26 Lift up your eyes on high, and see who has created these, that brings out their host by number; he calls them all by name; by the greatness of his might, and for that he is strong in power, not one is lacking.
40:27 Why do you say, O Jacob, and speak, O Israel, My way is hidden from Yehovah, and the justice due to me is passed away from my God?
40:28 Have you not known? have you not heard? The everlasting God, Yehovah, the Creator of the ends of the earth, faints not, neither is weary; there is no searching of his understanding.
40:29 He gives power to the faint; and to him that has no might he increases strength.
40:30 Even the youths shall faint and be weary, and the young men shall utterly fall:
40:31 but they that wait for Yehovah shall renew their strength; they shall mount up with wings as eagles; they shall run, and not be weary; they shall walk, and not faint.
41:1 Keep silence before me, O islands; and let the peoples renew their strength: let them come near; then let them speak; let us come near together to judgment.
41:2 Who has raised up one from the east, whom he calls in righteousness to his foot? he gives nations before him, and makes him rule over kings; he gives them as the dust to his sword, as the driven stubble to his bow.
41:3 He pursues them, and passes on safely, even by a way that he had not gone with his feet.
41:4 Who has wrought and done it, calling the generations from the beginning? I, Yehovah, the first, and with the last, I am he.
41:5 The isles have seen, and fear; the ends of the earth tremble; they draw near, and come.
41:6 They help every one his neighbor; and every one says to his brother, Be of good courage.
41:7 So the carpenter encourages the goldsmith, and he that smooths with the hammer him that smites the anvil, saying of the soldering, It is good; and he fastens it with nails, that it should not be moved.
41:8 But you, Israel, my servant, Jacob whom I have chosen, the seed of Abraham my friend,
41:9 you whom I have taken hold of from the ends of the earth, and called from the corners thereof, and said to you, You are my servant, I have chosen you and not cast you away;
41:10 Fear you not, for I am with you; be not dismayed, for I am your God; I will strengthen you; yes, I will help you; yes, I will uphold you with the right hand of my righteousness.

41:11 Behold, all they that are incensed against you shall be put to shame and confounded: they that strive with you shall be as nothing, and shall perish.
41:12 You shall seek them, and shall not find them, even them that contend with you: they that war against you shall be as nothing, and as a thing of nought.
41:13 For I, Yehovah your God, will hold your right hand, saying to you, Fear not; I will help you.
41:14 Fear not, you worm Jacob, and ye men of Israel; I will help you, says Yehovah, and your Redeemer is the Holy One of Israel.
41:15 Behold, I have made you to be a new sharp threshing instrument having teeth; you shall thresh the mountains, and beat them small, and shall make the hills as chaff.
41:16 You shall winnow them, and the wind shall carry them away, and the whirlwind shall scatter them; and you shall rejoice in Yehovah, you shall glory in the Holy One of Israel.
41:17 The poor and needy seek water, and there is none, and their tongue fails for thirst; I, Yehovah, will answer them, I, the God of Israel, will not forsake them.
41:18 I will open rivers on the bare heights, and fountains in the midst of the valleys; I will make the wilderness a pool of water, and the dry land springs of water.
41:19 I will put in the wilderness the cedar, the acacia, and the myrtle, and the oil-tree; I will set in the desert the fir-tree, the pine, and the box-tree together:
41:20 that they may see, and know, and consider, and understand together, that the hand of Yehovah has done this, and the Holy One of Israel has created it.
41:21 Produce your cause, says Yehovah; bring forth your strong reasons, says the King of Jacob.
41:22 Let them bring forth, and declare to us what shall happen: declare ye the former things, what they are, that we may consider them, and know the latter end of them; or show us things to come.
41:23 Declare the things that are to come hereafter, that we may know that ye are gods: yes, do good, or do evil, that we may be dismayed, and behold it together.
41:24 Behold, ye are of nothing, and your work is of nought; an abomination is he that chooses you.
41:25 I have raised up one from the north, and he is come; from the rising of the sun one that calls upon my name: and he shall come upon rulers as upon mortar, and as the potter treads clay.
41:26 Who has declared it from the beginning, that we may know? and beforetime, that we may say, He is right? yes, there is no one that declares, yes, there is no one that shows, yes, there is no one that hears your words.
41:27 I am the first that says to Zion, Behold, behold them; and I will give to Jerusalem one that brings good tidings.
41:28 And when I look, there is no man: even among them there is no counsellor, that, when I ask of them, can answer a word.
41:29 Behold, all of them, their works are vanity and nought; their molten images are wind and confusion.
42:1 Behold, my servant, whom I uphold; my chosen, in whom my soul delights: I have put my Spirit upon him; he will bring forth justice to the Gentiles.
42:2 He will not cry, nor lift up his voice, nor cause it to be heard in the street.
42:3 A bruised reed will he not break, and a dimly burning wick will he not quench: he will bring forth justice in truth.
42:4 He will not fail nor be discouraged, till he have set justice in the earth; and the isles shall wait for his law.
42:5 Thus says God Yehovah, he that created the heavens, and stretched them forth; he that spread abroad the earth and that which comes out of it; he that gives breath to the people upon it, and spirit to them that walk therein:
42:6 I, Yehovah, have called you in righteousness, and will hold your hand, and will keep you, and give you for a covenant of the people, for a light of the Gentiles;
42:7 to open the blind eyes, to bring out the prisoners from the dungeon, and them that sit in darkness out of the prison-house.

42:8 I am Yehovah, that is my name; and my glory I will not give to another, neither my praise to graven images.
42:9 Behold, the former things are come to pass, and new things do I declare; before they spring forth I tell you of them.
42:10 Sing to Yehovah a new song, and his praise from the end of the earth; ye that go down to the sea, and all that is therein, the isles, and the inhabitants thereof.
42:11 Let the wilderness and the cities thereof lift up their voice, the villages that Kedar does inhabit; let the inhabitants of Sela sing, let them shout from the top of the mountains.
42:12 Let them give glory to Yehovah, and declare his praise in the islands.
42:13 Yehovah will go forth as a mighty man; he will stir up his zeal like a man of war: he will cry, yes, he will shout aloud; he will do mightily against his enemies.
42:14 I have long time holden my peace; I have been still, and refrained myself: now I will cry out like a travailing woman; I will gasp and pant together.
42:15 I will lay waste mountains and hills, and dry up all their herbs; and I will make the rivers islands, and will dry up the pools.
42:16 And I will bring the blind by a way that they know not; in paths that they know not I will lead them; I will make darkness light before them, and crooked places straight. These things I will do, and I will not forsake them.
42:17 They shall be turned back, they shall be utterly put to shame, that trust in graven images, that say to molten images, You are our gods.
42:18 Hear, ye deaf; and look, ye blind, that ye may see.
42:19 Who is blind, but my servant? or deaf, as my messenger that I send? who is blind as he that is at peace with me, and blind as Yehovah's servant?
42:20 You see many things, but you observe not; his ears are open, but he hears not.
42:21 It pleased Yehovah, for his righteousness' sake, to magnify the law, and make it honorable.
42:22 But this is a people robbed and plundered; they are all of them snared in holes, and they are hid in prison-houses: they are for a prey, and no one delivers; for a spoil, and no one says, Restore.
42:23 Who is there among you that will give ear to this? that will hearken and hear for the time to come?
42:24 Who gave Jacob for a spoil, and Israel to the robbers? did not Yehovah? he against whom we have sinned, and in whose ways they would not walk, neither were they obedient to his law.
42:25 Therefore he poured upon him the fierceness of his anger, and the strength of battle; and it set him on fire round about, yet he knew not; and it burned him, yet he laid it not to heart.
43:1 But now thus says Yehovah that created you, O Jacob, and he that formed you, O Israel: Fear not, for I have redeemed you; I have called you by your name, you are mine.
43:2 When you pass through the waters, I will be with you; and through the rivers, they shall not overflow you: when you walk through the fire, you shall not be burned, neither shall the flame kindle upon you.
43:3 For I am Yehovah your God, the Holy One of Israel, your Saviour; I have given Egypt as your ransom, Ethiopia and Seba in your stead.
43:4 Since you have been precious in my sight, and honorable, and I have loved you; therefore I will give men in your stead, and peoples instead of your life.
43:5 Fear not; for I am with you: I will bring your seed from the east, and gather you from the west;
43:6 I will say to the north, Give up; and to the south, Keep not back; bring my sons from far, and my daughters from the end of the earth;
43:7 every one that is called by my name, and whom I have created for my glory, whom I have formed, yes, whom I have made.
43:8 Bring forth the blind people that have eyes, and the deaf that have ears.
43:9 Let all the nations be gathered together, and let the peoples be assembled: who among them can declare this, and show us former things? let them bring their witnesses, that they may be justified; or let them hear, and say, It is truth.

43:10 You are my witnesses, says Yehovah, and my servant whom I have chosen; that ye may know and believe me, and understand that I am he: before me there was no God formed, neither shall there be after me.
43:11 I, even I, am Yehovah; and besides me there is no saviour.
43:12 I have declared, and I have saved, and I have shown; and there was no strange God among you: therefore ye are my witnesses, says Yehovah, and I am God.
43:13 Yes, since the day was I am he; and there is no one that can deliver out of my hand: I will work, and who can hinder it?
43:14 Thus says Yehovah, your Redeemer, the Holy One of Israel: For your sake I have sent to Babylon, and I will bring down all of them as fugitives, even the Chaldeans, in the ships of their rejoicing.
43:15 I am Yehovah, your Holy One, the Creator of Israel, your King.
43:16 Thus says Yehovah, who makes a way in the sea, and a path in the mighty waters;
43:17 who brings forth the chariot and horse, the army and the mighty man (they lie down together, they shall not rise; they are extinct, they are quenched as a wick):
43:18 Remember ye not the former things, neither consider the things of old.
43:19 Behold, I will do a new thing; now shall it spring forth; shall ye not know it? I will even make a way in the wilderness, and rivers in the desert.
43:20 The beasts of the field shall honor me, the jackals and the ostriches; because I give waters in the wilderness, and rivers in the desert, to give drink to my people, my chosen, 43:21 the people which I formed for myself, that they might set forth my praise.
43:22 Yet you have not called upon me, O Jacob; but you have been weary of me, O Israel.
43:23 You have not brought me of your sheep for burnt offerings; neither have you honored me with your sacrifices. I have not burdened you with offerings, nor wearied you with frankincense.
43:24 You have bought me no sweet cane with money, neither have you filled me with the fat of your sacrifices; but you have burdened me with your sins, you have wearied me with your iniquities.
43:25 I, even I, am he that blots out your transgressions for my own sake; and I will not remember your sins.
43:26 Put me in remembrance; let us plead together: set you forth your cause, that you may be justified.
43:27 Your first father sinned, and your teachers have transgressed against me.
43:28 Therefore I will profane the princes of the sanctuary; and I will make Jacob a curse, and Israel a reviling.
44:1 Yet now hear, O Jacob my servant, and Israel, who I have chosen:
44:2 Thus says Yehovah that made you, and formed you from the womb, who will help you: Fear not, O Jacob my servant; and you, Jeshurun, whom I have chosen.
44:3 For I will pour water upon him that is thirsty, and streams upon the dry ground; I will pour my Spirit upon your seed, and my blessing upon your offspring:
44:4 and they shall spring up among the grass, as willows by the watercourses.
44:5 One shall say, I am Yehovah's; and another shall call himself by the name of Jacob; and another shall subscribe with his hand to Yehovah, and surname himself by the name of Israel.
44:6 Thus says Yehovah, the King of Israel, and his Redeemer, Yehovah of hosts: I am the first, and I am the last; and besides me there is no God.
44:7 And who, as I, shall call, and shall declare it, and set it in order for me, since I established the ancient people? and the things that are coming, and that shall come to pass, let them declare.
44:8 Fear ye not, neither be afraid: have I not declared to you of old, and shown it? and ye are my witnesses. Is there a God besides me? yes, there is no Rock; I know not any.
44:9 They that fashion a graven image are all of them vanity; and the things that they delight in shall not profit; and their own witnesses see not, nor know: that they may be put to shame.
44:10 Who has fashioned a god, or molten an image that is profitable for nothing?

44:11 Behold, all his fellows shall be put to shame; and the workmen, they are of men: let them all be gathered together, let them stand up; they shall fear, they shall be put to shame together.
44:12 The smith makes an axe, and works in the coals, and fashions it with hammers, and works it with his strong arm: yes, he is hungry, and his strength fails; he drinks no water, and is faint.
44:13 The carpenter stretches out a line; he marks it out with a pencil; he shapes it with planes, and he marks it out with the compasses, and shapes it after the figure of a man, according to the beauty of a man, to dwell in a house.
44:14 He hews him down cedars, and takes the holm-tree and the oak, and strengthens for himself one among the trees of the forest: he plants a fir-tree, and the rain does nourish it.
44:15 Then shall it be for a man to burn; and he takes thereof, and warms himself; yes, he kindles it, and bakes bread: yes, he makes a god, and worships it; he makes it a graven image, and falls down thereto.
44:16 He burns part thereof in the fire; with part thereof he eats flesh; he roasts roast, and is satisfied; yes, he warms himself, and says, aha, I am warm, I have seen the fire.
44:17 And the residue thereof he makes a god, even his graven image; he falls down to it and worships, and prays to it, and says, Deliver me; for you are my god.
44:18 They know not, neither do they consider: for he has shut their eyes, that they cannot see; and their hearts, that they cannot understand.
44:19 And no one calls to mind, neither is there knowledge nor understanding to say, I have burned part of it in the fire; yes, also I have baked bread upon the coals thereof; I have roasted flesh and eaten it: and shall I make the residue thereof an abomination? shall I fall down to the stock of a tree?
44:20 He feeds on ashes; a deceived heart has turned him aside; and he cannot deliver his soul, nor say, Is there not a lie in my right hand?
44:21 Remember these things, O Jacob, and Israel; for you are my servant: I have formed you; you are my servant: O Israel, you shall not be forgotten of me.
44:22 I have blotted out, as a thick cloud, your transgressions, and, as a cloud, your sins: return to me; for I have redeemed you.
44:23 Sing, O ye heavens, for Yehovah has done it; shout, ye lower parts of the earth; break forth into singing, ye mountains, O forest, and every tree therein: for Yehovah has redeemed Jacob, and will glorify himself in Israel.
44:24 Thus says Yehovah, your Redeemer, and he that formed you from the womb: I am Yehovah, that makes all things; that stretches forth the heavens alone; that spreads abroad the earth (who is with me?);
44:25 that frustrates the signs of the liars, and makes diviners mad; that turns wise men backward, and makes their knowledge foolish;
44:26 that confirms the word of his servant, and performs the counsel of his messengers; that says of Jerusalem, She shall be inhabited; and of the cities of Judah, They shall be built, and I will raise up the waste places thereof;
44:27 that says to the deep, Be dry, and I will dry up your rivers;
44:28 That says of Cyrus, He is my shepherd, and shall perform all my pleasure, even saying of Jerusalem, She shall be built; and of the temple, Your foundation shall be laid.
45:1 Thus says Yehovah to his anointed, to Cyrus, whose right hand I have holden, to subdue nations before him, and I will loose the loins of kings; to open the doors before him, and the gates shall not be shut:
45:2 I will go before you, and make the rough places smooth; I will break in pieces the doors of brass, and cut in sunder the bars of iron;
45:3 and I will give you the treasures of darkness, and hidden riches of secret places, that you may know that it is I, Yehovah, who call you by your name, even the God of Israel.
45:4 For Jacob my servant's sake, and Israel my chosen, I have called you by your name: I have surnamed you, though you have not known me.
45:5 I am Yehovah, and there is no one else; besides me there is no God. I will gird you, though you have not known me;

45:6 that they may know from the rising of the sun, and from the west, that there is none besides me: I am Yehovah, and there is no one else.
45:7 I form the light, and create darkness; I make peace, and create evil. I am Yehovah, that does all these things.
45:8 Distil, ye heavens, from above, and let the skies pour down righteousness: let the earth open, that it may bring forth salvation, and let it cause righteousness to spring up together; I, Yehovah, have created it.
45:9 Woe to him that strives with his Maker! a potsherd among the potsherds of the earth! Shall the clay say to him that fashions it, What are you making? or your work, He has no hands?
45:10 Woe to him that says to a father, What are you begetting? or to a woman, With what are you in labor?
45:11 Thus says Yehovah, the Holy One of Israel, and his Maker: Ask me of the things that are to come; concerning my sons, and concerning the work of my hands, command ye me.
45:12 I have made the earth, and created man upon it: I, even my hands, have stretched out the heavens; and all their host have I commanded.
45:13 I have raised him up in righteousness, and I will make straight all his ways: he shall build my city, and he shall let my exiles go free, not for price nor reward, says Yehovah of hosts.
45:14 Thus says Yehovah, The labor of Egypt, and the merchandise of Ethiopia, and the Sabeans, men of stature, shall come over to you, and they shall be yours: they shall go after you, in chains they shall come over; and they shall fall down to you, they shall make supplication to you, saying, Surely God is in you; and there is no one else, there is no God.
45:15 Verily you are a God that hide yourself, O God of Israel, the Saviour.
45:16 They shall be put to shame, yes, confounded, all of them; they shall go into confusion together that are makers of idols.
45:17 But Israel shall be saved by Yehovah with an everlasting salvation: ye shall not be put to shame nor confounded world without end.
45:18 For thus says Yehovah that created the heavens, the God that formed the earth and made it, that established it and created it not a waste, that formed it to be inhabited: I am Yehovah; and there is no one else.
45:19 I have not spoken in secret, in a place of the land of darkness; I said not to the seed of Jacob, Seek ye me in vain: I, Yehovah, speak righteousness, I declare things that are right.
45:20 Assemble yourselves and come; draw near together, ye that are escaped of the nations: they have no knowledge that carry the wood of their graven image, and pray to a god that cannot save.
45:21 Declare ye, and bring it forth; yes, let them take counsel together: who has shown this from ancient time? who has declared it of old? have not I, Yehovah? and there is no God else besides me, a just God and a Saviour; there is none besides me.
45:22 Look to me, and be ye saved, all the ends of the earth; for I am God, and there is no one else.
45:23 By myself have I sworn, the word is gone forth from my mouth in righteousness, and shall not return, that to me every knee shall bow, every tongue shall swear.
45:24 Only in Yehovah, it is said of me, is righteousness and strength; even to him shall men come; and all they that were incensed against him shall be put to shame.
45:25 In Yehovah shall all the seed of Israel be justified, and shall glory.
46:1 Bel bows down, Nebo stoops; their idols are upon the beasts, and upon the cattle: the things that ye carried about are made a load, a burden to the weary beast.
46:2 They stoop, they bow down together; they could not deliver the burden, but themselves are gone into captivity.
46:3 Hearken to me, O house of Jacob, and all the remnant of the house of Israel, that have been borne by me from their birth, that have been carried from the womb;
46:4 and even to old age I am he, and even to hoar hairs I will carry you; I have made, and I will bear; yes, I will carry, and will deliver.

46:5 To whom will ye like me, and make me equal, and compare me, that we may be like?
46:6 Such as lavish gold out of the bag, and weigh silver in the balance, they hire a goldsmith, and he makes it a god; they fall down, yes, they worship.
46:7 They bear it upon the shoulder, they carry it, and set it in its place, and it stands, from its place shall it not remove: yes, one may cry to it, yet can it not answer, nor save him out of his trouble.
46:8 Remember this, and show yourselves men; bring it again to mind, O ye transgressors.
46:9 Remember the former things of old: for I am God, and there is no one else; I am God, and there is none like me;
46:10 declaring the end from the beginning, and from ancient times things that are not yet done; saying, My counsel shall stand, and I will do all my pleasure;
46:11 calling a ravenous bird from the east, the man of my counsel from a far country; yes, I have spoken, I will also bring it to pass; I have purposed, I will also do it.
46:12 Hearken to me, ye stout-hearted, that are far from righteousness:
46:13 I bring near my righteousness, it shall not be far off, and my salvation shall not tarry; and I will place salvation in Zion for Israel my glory.
47:1 Come down, and sit in the dust, O virgin daughter of Babylon; sit on the ground without a throne, O daughter of the Chaldeans: for you shall no more be called tender and delicate.
47:2 Take the millstones, and grind meal; remove your veil, strip off the train, uncover the leg, pass through the rivers.
47:3 Your nakedness shall be uncovered, yes, your shame shall be seen: I will take vengeance, and will spare no man.
47:4 Our Redeemer, Yehovah of hosts is his name, the Holy One of Israel.
47:5 Sit silent, and go into darkness, O daughter of the Chaldeans; for you shall no more be called The mistress of kingdoms.
47:6 I was angry with my people, I profaned my inheritance, and gave them into your hand: you did show them no mercy; upon the aged have you very heavily laid your yoke.
47:7 And you said, I shall be mistress for ever; so that you did not lay these things to your heart, neither did remember the latter end thereof.
47:8 Now therefore hear this, you that are given to pleasures, that sit securely, that say in your heart, I am, and there is no one else besides me; I shall not sit as a widow, neither shall I know the loss of children:
47:9 but these two things shall come to you in a moment in one day, the loss of children, and widowhood; in their full measure shall they come upon you, in the multitude of your sorceries, and the great abundance of your enchantments.
47:10 For you have trusted in your wickedness; you have said, No one sees me; your wisdom and your knowledge, it has perverted you, and you have said in your heart, I am, and there is no one else besides me.
47:11 Therefore shall evil come upon you; you shall not know the dawning thereof: and mischief shall fall upon you; you shall not be able to put it away: and desolation shall come upon you suddenly, which you know not.
47:12 Stand now with your enchantments, and with the multitude of your sorceries, in which you have labored from your youth; if so be you shall be able to profit, if so be you may prevail.
47:13 You are wearied in the multitude of your counsels: let now the astrologers, the star-gazers, the monthly prognosticators, stand up, and save you from the things that shall come upon you.
47:14 Behold, they shall be as stubble; the fire shall burn them; they shall not deliver themselves from the power of the flame: it shall not be a coal to warm at, nor a fire to sit before.
47:15 Thus shall the things be to you in which you have labored: they that have trafficked with you from your youth shall wander every one to his quarter; there shall be no one to save you.

48:1 Hear ye this, O house of Jacob, who are called by the name of Israel, and are come forth out of the waters of Judah; who swear by the name of Yehovah, and make mention of the God of Israel, but not in truth, nor in righteousness
48:2 (for they call themselves of the holy city, and stay themselves upon the God of Israel; Yehovah of hosts is his name):
48:3 I have declared the former things from of old; yes, they went forth out of my mouth, and I showed them: suddenly I did them, and they came to pass.
48:4 Because I knew that you are obstinate, and your neck is an iron sinew, and your brow brass;
48:5 therefore I have declared it to you from of old; before it came to pass I showed it to you; lest you should say, Mine idol has done them, and my graven image, and my molten image, has commanded them.
48:6 You have heard it; behold all this; and ye, will ye not declare it? I have shown you new things from this time, even hidden things, which you have not known.
48:7 They are created now, and not from of old; and before this day you heard them not; lest you should say, Behold, I knew them.
48:8 Yes, you heard not; yes, you knew not; yes, from of old your ear was not opened: for I knew that you did deal very treacherously, and were called a transgressor from the womb.
48:9 For my name's sake I will defer my anger, and for my praise I will refrain for you, that I cut you not off.
48:10 Behold, I have refined you, but not as silver; I have chosen you in the furnace of affliction.
48:11 For my own sake, for my own sake, I will do it; for how should my name be profaned? and my glory I will not give to another.
48:12 Hearken to me, O Jacob, and Israel my called: I am he; I am the first, I also am the last.
48:13 Yes, my hand has laid the foundation of the earth, and my right hand has spread out the heavens: when I call to them, they stand up together.
48:14 Assemble yourselves, all ye, and hear; who among them has declared these things? He whom Yehovah loves shall perform his pleasure on Babylon, and his arm shall be on the Chaldeans.
48:15 I, even I, have spoken; yes, I have called him; I have brought him, and he shall make his way prosperous.
48:16 Come ye near to me, hear ye this; from the beginning I have not spoken in secret; from the time that it was, there am I: and now the Lord Yehovah has sent me, and his Spirit.
48:17 Thus says Yehovah, your Redeemer, the Holy One of Israel: I am Yehovah your God, who teaches you to profit, who leads you by the way that you should go.
48:18 Oh that you had hearkened to my commandments! then had your peace been as a river, and your righteousness as the waves of the sea:
48:19 your seed also had been as the sand, and the offspring of your bowels like the grains thereof: his name would not be cut off nor destroyed from before me.
48:20 Go ye forth from Babylon, flee ye from the Chaldeans; with a voice of singing declare ye, tell this, utter it even to the end of the earth: say ye, Yehovah has redeemed his servant Jacob.
48:21 And they thirsted not when he led them through the deserts; he caused the waters to flow out of the rock for them; he clave the rock also, and the waters gushed out.
48:22 There is no peace, says Yehovah, to the wicked.
49:1 Listen, O isles, to me; and hearken, ye peoples, from far: Yehovah has called me from the womb; from the bowels of my mother has he made mention of my name:
49:2 and he has made my mouth like a sharp sword; in the shadow of his hand has he hid me: and he has made me a polished shaft; in his quiver has he kept me close:
49:3 and he said to me, You are my servant; Israel, in whom I will be glorified.

49:4 But I said, I have labored in vain, I have spent my strength for nought and vanity; yet surely the justice due to me is with Yehovah, and my recompense with my God.
49:5 And now Yehovah has spoken, who formed me from the womb to be his servant, to bring Jacob again to him, and that Israel be gathered to him (for I am honorable in the eyes of Yehovah, and my God is become my strength);
49:6 yes, he says, It is too light a thing that you should be my servant to raise up the tribes of Jacob, and to restore the preserved of Israel: I will also give you for a light to the Gentiles, that you may be my salvation to the end of the earth.
49:7 Thus says Yehovah, the Redeemer of Israel, and his Holy One, to him whom man despises, to him whom the nation abhors, to a servant of rulers: Kings shall see and arise; princes, and they shall worship; because of Yehovah that is faithful, even the Holy One of Israel, who has chosen you.
49:8 Thus says Yehovah, In an acceptable time have I answered you, and in a day of salvation have I helped you; and I will preserve you, and give you for a covenant of the people, to raise up the land, to make them inherit the desolate heritages:
49:9 saying to them that are bound, Go forth; to them that are in darkness, Show yourselves. They shall feed in the ways, and on all bare heights shall be their pasture.
49:10 They shall not hunger nor thirst; neither shall the heat nor sun smite them: for he that has mercy on them will lead them, even by springs of water will he guide them.
49:11 And I will make all my mountains a way, and my highways shall be exalted.
49:12 Lo, these shall come from far; and, lo, these from the north and from the west; and these from the land of Sinim.
49:13 Sing, O heavens; and be joyful, O earth; and break forth into singing, O mountains! For Yehovah has comforted his people, and will have compassion upon his afflicted.
49:14 But Zion said, Yehovah has forsaken me, and the Lord has forgotten me.
49:15 Can a woman forget her sucking child, that she should not have compassion on the son of her womb? Yes, these may forget, yet I will not forget you.
49:16 Behold, I have engraved you on the palms of my hands; your walls are continually before me.
49:17 Your children make haste; your destroyers and they that made you waste shall go forth from you.
49:18 Lift up your eyes round about, and behold: all these gather themselves together, and come to you. As I live, says Yehovah, you shall surely clothe you with them all as with an ornament, and gird yourself with them, like a bride.
49:19 For, as for your waste and your desolate places, and your land that has been destroyed, surely now shall you be too strait for the inhabitants, and they that swallowed you up shall be far away.
49:20 The children of your bereavement shall yet say in your ears, The place is too strait for me; give place to me that I may dwell.
49:21 Then shall you say in your heart, Who has begotten me these, seeing I have been bereaved of my children, and am solitary, an exile, and wandering to and fro? and who has brought up these? Behold, I was left alone; these, where were they?
49:22 Thus says the Lord Yehovah, Behold, I will lift up my hand to the nations, and set up my ensign to the peoples; and they shall bring your sons in their bosom, and your daughters shall be carried upon their shoulders.
49:23 And kings shall be your nursing fathers, and their queens your nursing mothers: they shall bow down to you with their faces to the earth, and lick the dust of your feet; and you shall know that I am Yehovah; and they that wait for me shall not be put to shame.
49:24 Shall the prey be taken from the mighty, or the lawful captives be delivered?
49:25 But thus says Yehovah, Even the captives of the mighty shall be taken away, and the prey of the terrible shall be delivered; for I will contend with him that contends with you, and I will save your children.

49:26 And I will feed them that oppress you with their own flesh; and they shall be drunken with their own blood, as with sweet wine: and all flesh shall know that I, Yehovah, am your Saviour, and your Redeemer, the Mighty One of Jacob.

50:1 Thus says Yehovah, Where is the bill of your mother's divorcement, with which I have put her away? or which of my creditors is it to whom I have sold you? Behold, for your iniquities were ye sold, and for your transgressions was your mother put away.
50:2 Why, when I came, was there no man? when I called, was there no one to answer? Is my hand shortened at all, that it cannot redeem? or have I no power to deliver? Behold, at my rebuke I dry up the sea, I make the rivers a wilderness: their fish stink, because there is no water, and die for thirst.
50:3 I clothe the heavens with blackness, and I make sackcloth their covering.
50:4 The Lord Yehovah has given me the tongue of them that are taught, that I may know how to sustain with words him that is weary: he wakens morning by morning, he wakens my ear to hear as they that are taught.
50:5 The Lord Yehovah has opened my ear, and I was not rebellious, neither turned away backward.
50:6 I gave my back to the smiters, and my cheeks to them that plucked off the hair; I hid not my face from shame and spitting.
50:7 For the Lord Yehovah will help me; therefore have I not been confounded: therefore have I set my face like a flint, and I know that I shall not be put to shame.
50:8 He is near that justifies me; who will content with me? let us stand up together: who is my adversary? let him come near to me.
50:9 Behold, the Lord Yehovah will help me; who is he that shall condemn me? behold, all they shall grow old as a garment, the moth shall eat them up.
50:10 Who is among you that fears Yehovah, that obeys the voice of his servant? he that walks in darkness, and has no light, let him trust in the name of Yehovah, and rely upon his God.
50:11 Behold, all ye that kindle a fire, that gird yourselves about with firebrands; walk ye in the flame of your fire, and among the brands that ye have kindled. This shall ye have of my hand; ye shall lie down in sorrow.

51:1 Hearken to me, ye that follow after righteousness, ye that seek Yehovah: look to the rock whence ye were hewn, and to the hold of the pit whence ye were dug.
51:2 Look to Abraham your father, and to Sarah that bore you; for when he was but one I called him, and I blessed him, and made him many.
51:3 For Yehovah has comforted Zion; he has comforted all her waste places, and has made her wilderness like Eden, and her desert like the garden of Yehovah; joy and gladness shall be found therein, thanksgiving, and the voice of melody.
51:4 Attend to me, O my people; and give ear to me, O my nation: for a law shall go forth from me, and I will establish my justice for a light of the peoples.
51:5 My righteousness is near, my salvation is gone forth, and my arms shall judge the peoples; the isles shall wait for me, and on my arm shall they trust.
51:6 Lift up your eyes to the heavens, and look upon the earth beneath; for the heavens shall vanish away like smoke, and the earth shall grow old like a garment; and they that dwell therein shall die in like manner: but my salvation shall be for ever, and my righteousness shall not be abolished.
51:7 Hearken to me, ye that know righteousness, the people in whose heart is my law; fear ye not the reproach of men, neither be ye dismayed at their revilings.
51:8 For the moth shall eat them up like a garment, and the worm shall eat them like wool; but my righteousness shall be for ever, and my salvation to all generations.
51:9 Awake, awake, put on strength, O arm of Yehovah; awake, as in the days of old, the generations of ancient times. Is it not you that did cut Rahab in pieces, that did pierce the monster?
51:10 Is it not you that dried up the sea, the waters of the great deep; that made the depths of the sea a way for the redeemed to pass over?

51:11 And the ransomed of Yehovah shall return, and come with singing to Zion; and everlasting joy shall be upon their heads: they shall obtain gladness and joy; and sorrow and sighing shall flee away.
51:12 I, even I, am he that comforts you. Who are you, that you are afraid of man that shall die, and of the son of man that shall be made as grass;
51:13 and have forgotten Yehovah your Maker, that stretched forth the heavens, and laid the foundations of the earth; and fear continually all the day because of the fury of the oppressor, when he makes ready to destroy? and where is the fury of the oppressor?
51:14 The captive exile shall speedily be freed; and he shall not die and go down into the pit, neither shall his bread fail.
51:15 For I am Yehovah your God, who stirs up the sea, so that the waves thereof roar: Yehovah of hosts is his name.
51:16 And I have put my words in your mouth, and have covered you in the shadow of my hand, that I may plant the heavens, and lay the foundations of the earth, and say to Zion, You are my people.
51:17 Awake, awake, stand up, O Jerusalem, that have drunk at the hand of Yehovah the cup of his wrath; you have drunken the bowl of the cup of staggering, and drained it.
51:18 There is no one to guide her among all the sons whom she has brought forth; neither is there any that takes her by the hand among all the sons that she has brought up.
51:19 These two things are befallen you, who shall bemoan you? desolation and destruction, and the famine and the sword; how shall I comfort you?
51:20 Your sons have fainted, they lie at the head of all the streets, as an antelope in a net; they are full of the wrath of Yehovah, the rebuke of your God.
51:21 Therefore hear now this, you afflicted, and drunken, but now with wine:
51:22 Thus says your Lord Yehovah, and your God that pleads the cause of his people, Behold, I have taken out of your hand the cup of staggering, even the bowl of the cup of my wrath; you shall no more drink it again:
51:23 and I will put it into the hand of them that afflict you, that have said to your soul, Bow down, that we may go over; and you have laid your back as the ground, and as the street, to them that go over.

52:1 Awake, awake, put on your strength, O Zion. Put on your beautiful garments, O Jerusalem, the holy city. For from now on there shall no more come into you the uncircumcised and the unclean.
52:2 Shake yourself from the dust; arise, sit on your throne, O Jerusalem: free yourself from the bonds of your neck, O captive daughter of Zion.
52:3 For thus says Yehovah, You were sold for nothing; and ye shall also be redeemed without money.
52:4 For thus says the Lord Yehovah, My people went down at the first into Egypt to sojourn there: and the Assyrian has oppressed them without cause.
52:5 Now therefore, what do I here, says Yehovah, seeing that my people is taken away for nought? they that rule over them do howl, says Yehovah, and my name continually all the day is blasphemed.
52:6 Therefore my people shall know my name: therefore they shall know in that day that I am he that does speak; behold, it is I.
52:7 How beautiful upon the mountains are the feet of him that brings good tidings, that publishes peace, that brings good tidings of good, that publishes salvation, that says to Zion, Your God reigns!
52:8 The voice of your watchmen! they lift up the voice, together do they sing; for they shall see eye to eye, when Yehovah returns to Zion.
52:9 Break forth into joy, sing together, ye waste places of Jerusalem; for Yehovah has comforted his people, he has redeemed Jerusalem.
52:10 Yehovah has made bare his holy arm in the eyes of all the nations; and all the ends of the earth have seen the salvation of our God.
52:11 Depart ye, depart ye, go ye out from there, touch no unclean thing; go ye out of the midst of her; cleanse yourselves, ye that bear the vessels of Yehovah.

52:12 For ye shall not go out in haste, neither shall ye go by flight: for Yehovah will go before you; and the God of Israel will be your rear guard.
52:13 Behold, my servant shall deal wisely, he shall be exalted and lifted up, and shall be very high.
52:14 Like as many were astonished at you (his visage was so marred more than any man, and his form more than the sons of men),
52:15 so shall he sprinkle many nations; kings shall shut their mouths at him: for that which had not been told them shall they see; and that which they had not heard shall they understand.

53:1 Who has believed our message? and to whom has the arm of Yehovah been revealed?
53:2 For he grew up before him as a tender plant, and as a root out of a dry ground: he has no form nor comeliness; and when we see him, there is no beauty that we should desire him.
53:3 He was despised, and rejected of men; a man of sorrows, and acquainted with grief: and as one from whom men hide their face,[41] he was despised; and we esteemed him not.
53:4 Surely he has borne our griefs, and carried our sorrows; yet we considered him stricken, smitten by God, and afflicted.
53:5 But he was wounded for our transgressions, he was bruised for our iniquities; the chastisement for our peace was upon him; and with his stripes we are healed.
53:6 All we like sheep have gone astray; we have turned, every one, to his own way; and Yehovah has laid on him the iniquity of us all.
53:7 He was oppressed, yet when he was afflicted he opened not his mouth; as a lamb that is led to the slaughter, and as a sheep that before its shearers is silent, so he opened not his mouth.
53:8 By oppression and judgment he was taken away; and as for his generation, who among them considered that he was cut off out of the land of the living for the transgression of my people to whom the stroke was due?
53:9 And they made his grave with the wicked, and with a rich man in his death; though he had done no violence, neither was any deceit in his mouth.
53:10 Yet it pleased Yehovah to bruise him; he has put him to grief: when you shall make his soul an offering for sin, he shall see his seed, he shall prolong his days, and the pleasure of Yehovah shall prosper in his hand.
53:11 He shall see of the travail of his soul, and shall be satisfied: by the knowledge of himself shall my righteous servant justify many; and he shall bear their iniquities.
53:12 Therefore I will divide him a portion with the great, and he shall divide the spoil with the strong; because he poured out his soul unto death, and was numbered with the transgressors: yet he bore the sin of many, and made intercession for the transgressors.

54:1 Sing, O barren ones, you that did not bear! Break forth into singing, and cry aloud, you that did not travail with child. For more are the children of the desolate than the children of the married wife, says Yehovah.
54:2 Enlarge the place of your tent, and let them stretch forth the curtains of your habitations; spare not: lengthen your cords, and strengthen your stakes.
54:3 For you shall spread abroad on the right hand and on the left; and your seed shall possess the nations, and make the desolate cities to be inhabited.
54:4 Fear not; for you shall not be ashamed: neither be you confounded; for you shall not be put to shame: for you shall forget the shame of your youth; and the reproach of your widowhood shall you remember no more.
54:5 For your Maker is your husband; Yehovah of hosts is his name: and the Holy One of Israel is your Redeemer; the God of the whole earth shall he be called.
54:6 For Yehovah has called you as a wife forsaken and grieved in spirit, even a wife of youth, when she is cast off, says your God.

[41] Is 53:3, Or, "As one who hid his face from men…" So the LXX.

54:7 For a small moment have I forsaken you; but with great mercies I will gather you.
54:8 In overflowing wrath I hid my face from you for a moment; but with everlasting lovingkindness I will have mercy on you, says Yehovah your Redeemer.
54:9 For this is as the waters of Noah to me; for as I have sworn that the waters of Noah shall no more go over the earth, so have I sworn that I will not be angry with you, nor rebuke you.
54:10 For the mountains may depart, and the hills be removed; but my lovingkindness shall not depart from you, neither shall my covenant of peace be removed, says Yehovah that has mercy on you.
54:11 O you afflicted, tossed with tempest, and not comforted, behold, I will set your stones in fair colors, and lay your foundations with sapphires.
54:12 And I will make your pinnacles of rubies, and your gates of carbuncles, and all your border of precious stones.
54:13 And all your children shall be taught of Yehovah; and great shall be the peace of your children.
54:14 In righteousness shall you be established: you shall be far from oppression, for you shall not fear; and from terror, for it shall not come near you.
54:15 Behold, they may gather together, but not by me: whoever shall gather together against you shall fall because of you.
54:16 Behold, I have created the smith that blows the fire of coals, and brings forth a weapon for his work; and I have created the waster to destroy.
54:17 No weapon that is formed against you shall prosper; and every tongue that shall rise against you in judgment you shall condemn. This is the heritage of the servants of Yehovah, and their righteousness which is of me, says Yehovah.
55:1 Ho, every one that thirsts, come ye to the waters, and he that has no money; come ye, buy, and eat; yes, come, buy wine and milk without money and without price.
55:2 Why do ye spend money for that which is not bread? and your labor for that which satisfies not? hearken diligently to me, and eat ye that which is good, and let your soul delight itself in fatness.
55:3 Incline your ear, and come to me; hear, and your soul shall live: and I will make an everlasting covenant with you, even the sure mercies of David.
55:4 Behold, I have given him for a witness to the peoples, a leader and commander to the peoples.
55:5 Behold, you shall call a nation that you know not; and a nation that knew not you shall run to you, because of Yehovah your God, and for the Holy One of Israel; for he has glorified you.
55:6 Seek ye Yehovah while he may be found; call ye upon him while he is near:
55:7 let the wicked forsake his way, and the unrighteous man his thoughts; and let him return to Yehovah, and he will have mercy upon him; and to our God, for he will abundantly pardon.
55:8 For my thoughts are not your thoughts, neither are your ways my ways, says Yehovah.
55:9 For as the heavens are higher than the earth, so are my ways higher than your ways, and my thoughts than your thoughts.
55:10 For as the rain and the snow come down from heaven, and do not return there without watering the earth, and making it bring forth and bud, and giving seed to the sower and bread to the eater;
55:11 so shall my word be that goes forth out of my mouth: it shall not return to me void, but it shall accomplish that which I please, and shall prosper in the thing for which I sent it.
55:12 For ye shall go out with joy, and be led forth with peace: the mountains and the hills shall break forth before you into singing; and all the trees of the fields shall clap their hands.
55:13 Instead of the thorn shall come up the fir tree; and instead of the brier shall come up the myrtle tree: and it shall make a name for Yehovah, an everlasting sign that shall not be cut off.

56:1 Thus says Yehovah, Keep ye justice, and do righteousness; for my salvation is near to come, and my righteousness to be revealed.
56:2 Blessed is the man that does this, and the son of man that holds it fast; that keeps the sabbath from profaning it, and keeps his hand from doing any evil.
56:3 Neither let the foreigner, that has joined himself to Yehovah, speak, saying, Yehovah will surely separate me from his people; neither let the eunuch say, Behold, I am a dry tree.
56:4 For thus says Yehovah of the eunuchs that keep my sabbaths, and choose the things that please me, and hold fast my covenant:
56:5 To them I will give in my house and within my walls a memorial and a name better than of sons and of daughters; I will give them an everlasting name, that shall not be cut off.
56:6 Also the foreigners that join themselves to Yehovah, to minister to him, and to love the name of Yehovah, to be his servants, every one that keeps the sabbath from profaning it, and holds fast my covenant;
56:7 even them I will bring to my holy mountain, and make them joyful in my house of prayer: their burnt offerings and their sacrifices shall be accepted upon my altar; for my house shall be called a house of prayer for all peoples.
56:8 The Lord Yehovah, who gathers the outcasts of Israel, says, Yet I will gather others to him, besides his own that are gathered.
56:9 All ye beasts of the field, come to devour, yes, all ye beasts in the forest.
56:10 His watchmen are blind, they are all without knowledge; they are all dumb dogs, they cannot bark; dreaming, lying down, loving to slumber.
56:11 Yes, the dogs are greedy, they can never have enough; and these are shepherds that cannot understand: they have all turned to their own way, each one to his gain, from every quarter.
56:12 Come ye, say they, I will fetch wine, and we will fill ourselves with strong drink; and tomorrow shall be as this day, a day great beyond measure.
57:1 The righteous man perishes, and no one lays it to heart. And merciful men are taken away, no one considering that it is away from the presence of evil the righteous one is being taken.
57:2 He enters into peace. Those who walk uprightly find rest in their beds.
57:3 But draw near here, ye sons of the sorceress, the seed of the adulterer and the harlot.
57:4 Against whom do ye sport yourselves? against whom make ye a wide mouth, and put out the tongue? are ye not children of transgression, a seed of falsehood,
57:5 ye that inflame yourselves among the oaks, under every green tree; that slay the children in the valleys, under the clefts of the rocks?
57:6 Among the smooth stones of the valley is your portion; they, they are your lot; even to them have you poured a drink offering, you have offered an oblation. Shall I be appeased for these things?
57:7 Upon a high and lofty mountain have you set your bed; there also you went up to offer sacrifice.
57:8 And behind the doors and the posts have you set up your memorial: for you have uncovered yourself to another than me, and are gone up; you have enlarged your bed, and made you a covenant with them: you loved their bed where you saw it.
57:9 And you went to the king with oil, and did increase your perfumes, and did send your ambassadors far off, and did debase yourself even to Sheol.
57:10 You were wearied with the length of your way; yet said you not, It is in vain: you did find a quickening of your strength; therefore you were not faint.
57:11 And of whom have you been afraid and in fear, that you lie, and have not remembered me, nor laid it to your heart? have not I held my peace even of long time, and you fear me not?
57:12 I will declare your righteousness; and as for your works, they shall not profit you.
57:13 When you cry, let them that you have gathered deliver you; but the wind shall take them, a breath shall carry them all away: but he that takes refuge in me shall possess the land, and shall inherit my holy mountain.

57:14 And he will say, Cast ye up, cast ye up, prepare the way, take up the stumbling-block out of the way of my people.
57:15 For thus says the high and lofty One that inhabits eternity, whose name is Holy: I dwell in the high and holy place, with him also that is of a contrite and humble spirit, to revive the spirit of the humble, and to revive the heart of the contrite.
57:16 For I will not contend for ever, neither will I be always angry; for the spirit would faint before me, and the souls that I have made.
57:17 For the iniquity of his covetousness was I angry, and smote him; I hid my face and was angry; and he went on backsliding in the way of his heart.
57:18 I have seen his ways, and will heal him: I will lead him also, and restore comforts to him and to his mourners.
57:19 I create the fruit of the lips: Peace, peace, to him that is far off and to him that is near, says Yehovah; and I will heal him.
57:20 But the wicked are like the troubled sea; for it cannot rest, and its waters cast up mire and dirt.
57:21 There is no peace, says my God, for the wicked.
58:1 Cry aloud, spare not, lift up your voice like a trumpet, and declare to my people their transgression, and to the house of Jacob their sins.
58:2 Yet they seek me daily, and delight to know my ways: as a nation that did righteousness, and forsook not the ordinance of their God, they ask of me righteous judgments; they delight to draw near to God.
58:3 Why have we fasted, say they, and you see not? why have we afflicted our soul, and you take no knowledge? Behold, in the day of your fast ye find your own pleasure, and exact all your labors.
58:4 Behold, ye fast for strife and contention, and to smite with the fist of wickedness: ye fast not this day so as to make your voice to be heard on high.
58:5 Is such the fast that I have chosen? the day for a man to afflict his soul? Is it to bow down his head as a rush, and to spread sackcloth and ashes under him? will you call this a fast, and an acceptable day to Yehovah?
58:6 Is not this the fast that I have chosen: to loose the bonds of wickedness, to undo the bands of the yoke, and to let the oppressed go free, and that ye break every yoke?
58:7 Is it not to deal your bread to the hungry, and that you bring the poor that are cast out to your house? when you see the naked, that you cover him; and that you hide not yourself from your own flesh?
58:8 Then shall your light break forth as the morning, and your healing shall spring forth speedily; and your righteousness shall go before you; the glory of Yehovah shall be your rear guard.
58:9 Then shall you call, and Yehovah will answer; you shall cry, and he will say, Here I am. If you take away from the midst of you the yoke, the putting forth of the finger, and speaking wickedly;
58:10 and if you draw out your soul to the hungry, and satisfy the afflicted soul: then shall your light rise in darkness, and your obscurity be as the noonday;
58:11 and Yehovah will guide you continually, and satisfy your soul in dry places, and make strong your bones; and you shall be like a watered garden, and like a spring of water, whose waters fail not.
58:12 And they that shall be of you shall build the old waste places; you shall raise up the foundations of many generations; and you shall be called The repairer of the breach, The restorer of paths to dwell in.
58:13 If you turn away your foot from the sabbath, from doing your pleasure on my holy day; and call the sabbath a delight, and the holy of Yehovah honorable; and shall honor it, not doing your own ways, nor finding your own pleasure, nor speaking your own words:
58:14 then shall you delight yourself in Yehovah; and I will make you to ride upon the high places of the earth; and I will feed you with the heritage of Jacob your father: for the mouth of Yehovah has spoken it.
59:1 Behold, Yehovah's hand is not shortened, that it cannot save; neither his ear heavy, that it cannot hear:

59:2 but your iniquities have separated between you and your God, and your sins have hid his face from you, so that he will not hear.
59:3 For your hands are defiled with blood, and your fingers with iniquity; your lips have spoken lies, your tongue mutters wickedness.
59:4 No one sues in righteousness, and no one pleads in truth: they trust in vanity, and speak lies; they conceive mischief, and bring forth iniquity.
59:5 They hatch adders' eggs, and weave the spider's web: he that eats of their eggs dies; and that which is crushed breaks out into a viper.
59:6 Their webs shall not become garments, neither shall they cover themselves with their works: their works are works of iniquity, and the act of violence is in their hands.
59:7 Their feet run to evil, and they make haste to shed innocent blood: their thoughts are thoughts of iniquity; desolation and destruction are in their paths.
59:8 The way of peace they know not; and there is no justice in their goings: they have made them crooked paths; whoever goes therein does not know peace.
59:9 Therefore is justice far from us, neither does righteousness overtake us: we look for light, but, behold, darkness; for brightness, but we walk in obscurity.
59:10 We grope for the wall like the blind; yes, we grope as they that have no eyes: we stumble at noonday as in the twilight; among them that are lusty we are as dead men.
59:11 We roar all like bears, and moan sore like doves: we look for justice, but there is none; for salvation, but it is far off from us.
59:12 For our transgressions are multiplied before you, and our sins testify against us; for our transgressions are with us, and as for our iniquities, we know them:
59:13 transgressing and denying Yehovah, and turning away from following our God, speaking oppression and revolt, conceiving and uttering from the heart words of falsehood.
59:14 And justice is turned away backward, and righteousness stands afar off; for truth is fallen in the street, and uprightness cannot enter.
59:15 Yes, truth is lacking; and he that departs from evil makes himself a prey. And Yehovah saw it, and it displeased him that there was no justice.
59:16 And he saw that there was no man, and wondered that there was no intercessor: therefore his own arm brought salvation to him; and his righteousness, it upheld him.
59:17 And he put on righteousness as a breastplate, and a helmet of salvation upon his head; and he put on garments of vengeance for clothing, and was clad with zeal as a mantle.
59:18 According to their deeds, accordingly he will repay, wrath to his adversaries, recompense to his enemies; to the islands he will repay recompense.
59:19 So shall they fear the name of Yehovah from the west, and his glory from the rising of the sun; for he will come as a rushing stream, which the breath of Yehovah drives.
59:20 And a Redeemer will come to Zion, and to them that turn from transgression in Jacob, says Yehovah.
59:21 And as for me, this is my covenant with them, says Yehovah: my Spirit that is upon you, and my words which I have put in your mouth, shall not depart out of your mouth, nor out of the mouth of your seed, nor out of the mouth of your seed's seed, says Yehovah, from from now on and for ever.
60:1 Arise, shine; for your light is come, and the glory of Yehovah is risen upon you.
60:2 For, behold, darkness shall cover the earth, and gross darkness the peoples; but Yehovah will arise upon you, and his glory shall be seen upon you.
60:3 And nations shall come to your light, and kings to the brightness of your rising.
60:4 Lift up your eyes round about, and see: they all gather themselves together, they come to you; your sons shall come from far, and your daughters shall be carried in the arms.
60:5 Then you shall see and be radiant, and your heart shall thrill and be enlarged; because the abundance of the sea shall be turned to you, the wealth of the nations shall come to you.

60:6 The multitude of camels shall cover you, the dromedaries of Midian and Ephah; all they from Sheba shall come; they shall bring gold and frankincense, and shall proclaim the praises of Yehovah.
60:7 All the flocks of Kedar shall be gathered together to you, the rams of Nebaioth shall minister to you; they shall come up with acceptance on my altar; and I will glorify the house of my glory.
60:8 Who are these that fly as a cloud, and as the doves to their windows?
60:9 Surely the isles shall wait for me, and the ships of Tarshish first, to bring your sons from far, their silver and their gold with them, for the name of Yehovah your God, and for the Holy One of Israel, because he has glorified you.
60:10 And foreigners shall build up your walls, and their kings shall minister to you: for in my wrath I smote you, but in my favor have I had mercy on you.
60:11 Your gates also shall be open continually; they shall not be shut day nor night; that men may bring to you the wealth of the nations, and their kings led captive.
60:12 For that nation and kingdom that will not serve you shall perish; yes, those nations shall be utterly wasted.
60:13 The glory of Lebanon shall come to you, the fir-tree, the pine, and the box-tree together, to beautify the place of my sanctuary; and I will make the place of my feet glorious.
60:14 And the sons of them that afflicted you shall come bending to you; and all they that despised you shall bow themselves down at the soles of your feet; and they shall call you The city of Yehovah, The Zion of the Holy One of Israel.
60:15 Whereas you have been forsaken and hated, so that no man passed through you, I will make you an eternal excellency, a joy of many generations.
60:16 You shall also suck the milk of the nations, and shall suck the breast of kings; and you shall know that I, Yehovah, am your Saviour, and your Redeemer, the Mighty One of Jacob.
60:17 For brass I will bring gold, and for iron I will bring silver, and for wood brass, and for stones iron. I will also make your officers peace, and your exactors righteousness.
60:18 Violence shall no more be heard in your land, desolation nor destruction within your borders; but you shall call your walls Salvation, and your gates Praise.
60:19 The sun shall be no more your light by day; neither for brightness shall the moon give light to you: but Yehovah will be to you an everlasting light, and your God your glory.
60:20 Your sun shall no more go down, neither shall your moon withdraw itself; for Yehovah will be your everlasting light, and the days of your mourning shall be ended.
60:21 Your people also shall be all righteous; they shall inherit the land for ever, the branch of my planting, the work of my hands, that I may be glorified.
60:22 The little one shall become a thousand, and the small one a strong nation; I, Yehovah, will hasten it in its time.
61:1 The Spirit of the Lord Yehovah is upon me; because Yehovah has anointed me to preach good tidings to the meek; he has sent me to bind up the broken-hearted, to proclaim liberty to the captives, and the opening of the prison to them that are bound;
61:2 to proclaim the year of Yehovah's favor, and the day of vengeance of our God; to comfort all that mourn;
61:3 to appoint to them that mourn in Zion, to give to them a garland for ashes, the oil of joy for mourning, the garment of praise for the spirit of heaviness; that they may be called trees of righteousness, the planting of Yehovah, that he may be glorified.
61:4 And they shall build the old wastes, they shall raise up the former desolations, and they shall repair the waste cities, the desolations of many generations.
61:5 And strangers shall stand and feed your flocks, and foreigners shall be your plowmen and your vine-dressers.

61:6 But ye shall be named the priests of Yehovah; men shall call you the ministers of our God: ye shall eat the wealth of the nations, and in their glory shall ye boast yourselves.
61:7 Instead of your shame ye shall have double; and instead of dishonor they shall rejoice in their portion: therefore in their land they shall possess double; everlasting joy shall be to them.
61:8 For I, Yehovah, love justice, I hate robbery with iniquity; and I will give them their recompense in truth, and I will make an everlasting covenant with them.
61:9 And their seed shall be known among the nations, and their offspring among the peoples; all that see them shall acknowledge them, that they are the seed which Yehovah has blessed.
61:10 I will greatly rejoice in Yehovah, my soul shall be joyful in my God; for he has clothed me with the garments of salvation, he has covered me with the robe of righteousness, as a bridegroom decks himself with a garland, and as a bride adorns herself with her jewels.
61:11 For as the earth brings forth its bud, and as the garden causes the things that are sown in it to spring forth; so the Lord Yehovah will cause righteousness and praise to spring forth before all the nations.
62:1 For Zion's sake I will not hold my peace, and for Jerusalem's sake I will not rest, until her righteousness go forth as brightness, and her salvation as a lamp that burns.
62:2 And the nations shall see your righteousness, and all kings your glory, and you shall be called by a new name, which the mouth of Yehovah shall name.
62:3 You shall also be a crown of beauty in the hand of Yehovah, and a royal diadem in the hand of your God.
62:4 You shall no more be termed Forsaken; neither shall your land any more be termed Desolate: but you shall be called Hephzi-bah, and your land Beulah; for Yehovah delights in you, and your land shall be married.
62:5 For as a young man marries a virgin, so shall your sons marry you; and as the bridegroom rejoices over the bride, so shall your God rejoice over you.
62:6 I have set watchmen upon your walls, O Jerusalem; they shall never hold their peace day nor night: ye that are Yehovah's remembrancers, take ye no rest,
62:7 and give him no rest, till he establish, and till he make Jerusalem a praise in the earth.
62:8 Yehovah has sworn by his right hand, and by the arm of his strength, Surely I will no more give your grain to be food for your enemies; and foreigners shall not drink your new wine, for which you have labored:
62:9 but they that have garnered it shall eat it, and praise Yehovah; and they that have gathered it shall drink it in the courts of my sanctuary.
62:10 Go through, go through the gates; prepare ye the way of the people; cast up, cast up the highway; gather out the stones; lift up an ensign for the peoples.
62:11 Behold, Yehovah has proclaimed to the end of the earth, Say ye to the daughter of Zion, Behold, your salvation comes; behold, his reward is with him, and his recompense before him.
62:12 And they shall call them The holy people, The redeemed of Yehovah: and you shall be called Sought out, a city not forsaken.
63:1 Who is this that comes from Edom, in crimsoned garments from Bozrah?[42] This who is glorious in his apparel, marching in the greatness of his strength? "It is I, speaking in righteousness, mighty to save."
63:2 Why is your apparel red, and your garments like him who treads in the winevat?
63:3 "I have trodden the winepress alone; and of the peoples there was no man with me: yes, I stomped on them in my anger, and trampled them in my wrath; and their lifeblood is spattered on my garments, and I have stained all my clothing.
63:4 For the day of vengeance was in my heart, and the year of my redeemed had come.

[42] This is an area in southern Jordan and northern Arabia.

63:5 And I looked, and there was no one to help; I was aghast, and no one would uphold. So my own arm brought salvation to me; and my wrath, it upheld me.
63:6 And I trampled down the peoples in my anger, and made them drunk in my wrath, and I poured out their lifeblood on the earth."
63:7 I will make mention of the lovingkindnesses of Yehovah, and the praises of Yehovah, according to all that Yehovah has bestowed on us, and the great goodness toward the house of Israel, which he has bestowed on them according to his mercies, and according to the multitude of his lovingkindnesses.
63:8 For he said, Surely, they are my people, children that will not deal falsely: so he was their Saviour.
63:9 In all their affliction he was afflicted, and the angel of his presence saved them: in his love and in his pity he redeemed them; and he bore them, and carried them all the days of old.
63:10 But they rebelled, and grieved his holy Spirit: therefore he was turned to be their enemy, and himself fought against them.
63:11 Then he remembered the days of old, Moses and his people, saying, Where is he that brought them up out of the sea with the shepherds of his flock? where is he that put his holy Spirit in the midst of them?
63:12 that caused his glorious arm to go at the right hand of Moses? that divided the waters before them, to make himself an everlasting name?
63:13 that led them through the depths, as a horse in the wilderness, so that they stumbled not?
63:14 As the cattle that go down into the valley, the Spirit of Yehovah caused them to rest; so did you lead your people, to make yourself a glorious name.
63:15 Look down from heaven, and behold from the habitation of your holiness and of your glory: where are your zeal and your mighty acts? the yearning of your heart and your compassions are restrained toward me.
63:16 For you are our Father, though Abraham knows us not, and Israel does not acknowledge us: you, O Yehovah, are our Father; our Redeemer from everlasting is your name.
63:17 O Yehovah, why do you make us to err from your ways, and harden our heart from your fear? Return for your servants' sake, the tribes of your inheritance.
63:18 Your holy people possessed it but a little while: our adversaries have trodden down your sanctuary.
63:19 We are become as they over whom you never bore rule, as they that were not called by your name.
64:1 Oh that you would rend the heavens, that you would come down, that the mountains might quake at your presence,
64:2 as when fire kindles the brushwood, and the fire causes the waters to boil; to make your name known to your adversaries, that the nations may tremble at your presence!
64:3 When you did terrible things which we looked not for, you came down, the mountains quaked at your presence.
64:4 For from of old men have not heard, nor perceived by the ear, neither has the eye seen a God besides you, who works for him that waits for him.
64:5 You meet him that rejoices and works righteousness, those that remember you in your ways: behold, you were angry, and we sinned: in them have we been of long time; and shall we be saved?
64:6 For we are all become as one that is unclean, and all our righteousnesses are as a polluted garment: and we all do fade as a leaf; and our iniquities, like the wind, take us away.
64:7 And there is no one that calls upon your name, that stirs up himself to take hold of you; for you have hid your face from us, and have consumed us by means of our iniquities.
64:8 But now, O Yehovah, you are our Father; we are the clay, and you our potter; and we all are the work of your hand.
64:9 Be not angry very sore, O Yehovah, neither remember iniquity for ever: behold, look, we beseech you, we are all your people.

64:10 Your holy cities are become a wilderness, Zion is become a wilderness, Jerusalem a desolation.
64:11 Our holy and our beautiful house, where our fathers praised you, is burned with fire; and all our pleasant places are laid waste.
64:12 Will you refrain yourself for these things, O Yehovah? will you hold your peace, and afflict us very sore?
65:1 I am inquired of by them that asked not for me; I am found of them that sought me not: I said, Behold me, behold me, to a nation that was not called by my name.
65:2 I have spread out my hands all the day to a rebellious people, that walk in a way that is not good, after their own thoughts;
65:3 a people that provoke me to my face continually, sacrificing in gardens, and burning incense upon bricks;
65:4 that sit among the graves, and lodge in the secret places; that eat swine's flesh, and broth of abominable things is in their vessels;
65:5 that say, Stand by yourself, come not near to me, for I am holier than you. These are a smoke in my nose, a fire that burns all the day.
65:6 Behold, it is written before me: I will not keep silence, but will recompense, yes, I will recompense into their bosom,
65:7 your own iniquities, and the iniquities of your fathers together, says Yehovah, that have burned incense upon the mountains, and blasphemed me upon the hills; therefore I will first measure their work into their bosom.
65:8 Thus says Yehovah, as the new wine is found in the cluster, and one says, Destroy it not, for a blessing is in it: so I will do for my servants' sake, that I may not destroy them all.
65:9 And I will bring forth a seed out of Jacob, and out of Judah an inheritor of my mountains; and my chosen shall inherit it, and my servants shall dwell there.
65:10 And Sharon shall be a fold of flocks, and the valley of Achor a place for herds to lie down in, for my people that have sought me.
65:11 But ye that forsake Yehovah, that forget my holy mountain, that prepare a table for Fortune, and that fill up mingled wine to Destiny;
65:12 I will destine you to the sword, and ye shall all bow down to the slaughter; because when I called, ye did not answer; when I spoke, ye did not hear; but ye did that which was evil in my eyes, and chose that in which I delighted not.
65:13 Therefore thus says the Lord Yehovah, Behold, my servants shall eat, but ye shall be hungry; behold, my servants shall drink, but ye shall be thirsty; behold, my servants shall rejoice, but ye shall be put to shame;
65:14 behold, my servants shall sing for joy of heart, but ye shall cry for sorrow of heart, and shall wail for vexation of spirit.
65:15 And ye shall leave your name for a curse to my chosen; and the Lord Yehovah will slay you; and he will call his servants by another name:
65:16 so that he who blesses himself in the earth shall bless himself in the God of truth; and he that swears in the earth shall swear by the God of truth; because the former troubles are forgotten, and because they are hid from my eyes.
65:17 For, behold, I create new heavens and a new earth; and the former things shall not be remembered, nor come into mind.
65:18 But be ye glad and rejoice for ever in that which I create; for, behold, I create Jerusalem a rejoicing, and her people a joy.
65:19 And I will rejoice in Jerusalem, and joy in my people; and there shall be heard in her no more the voice of weeping and the voice of crying.
65:20 There shall be no more there an infant of days, nor an old man that has not filled his days; for the child shall die a hundred years old, and the sinner being a hundred years old shall be accursed.
65:21 And they shall build houses, and inhabit them; and they shall plant vineyards, and eat the fruit of them.
65:22 They shall not build, and another inhabit; they shall not plant, and another eat: for as the days of a tree shall be the days of my people, and my chosen shall long enjoy the work of their hands.
65:23 They shall not labor in vain, nor bring forth for calamity; for they are the seed of the blessed of Yehovah, and their offspring with them.

65:24 And it shall come to pass that, before they call, I will answer; and while they are yet speaking, I will hear.
65:25 The wolf and the lamb shall feed together, and the lion shall eat straw like the ox; and dust shall be the serpent's food. They shall not hurt nor destroy in all my holy mountain, says Yehovah.
66:1 Thus says Yehovah, Heaven is my throne, and the earth is my footstool: what manner of house will ye build to me? and what place shall be my rest?
66:2 For all these things has my hand made, and so all these things came to be, says Yehovah: but to this man I will look, even to him that is poor and of a contrite spirit, and that trembles at my word.
66:3 He that kills an ox is as he that slays a man; he that sacrifices a lamb, as he that breaks a dog's neck; he that offers an oblation, as he that offers swine's blood; he that burns frankincense, as he that blesses an idol. Yes, they have chosen their own ways, and their soul delights in their abominations:
66:4 I also will choose their delusions, and will bring their fears upon them; because when I called, no one did answer; when I spoke, they did not hear: but they did that which was evil in my eyes, and chose that in which I delighted not.
66:5 Hear the word of Yehovah, ye that tremble at his word: Your brethren that hate you, that cast you out for my name's sake, have said, Let Yehovah be glorified, that we may see your joy; but it is they that shall be put to shame.
66:6 A voice of tumult from the city, a voice from the temple, a voice of Yehovah that renders recompense to his enemies.
66:7 Before she travailed, she brought forth; before her pain came, she was delivered of a man-child.
66:8 Who has heard such a thing? who has seen such things? Shall a land be born in one day? shall a nation be brought forth at once? for as soon as Zion travailed, she brought forth her children.
66:9 Shall I bring to the birth, and not cause to bring forth? says Yehovah: shall I that cause to bring forth shut the womb? says your God.
66:10 Rejoice ye with Jerusalem, and be glad for her, all ye that love her: rejoice for joy with her, all ye that mourn over her;
66:11 that ye may suck and be satisfied with the breasts of her consolations; that ye may milk out, and be delighted with the abundance of her glory.
66:12 For thus says Yehovah, Behold, I will extend peace to her like a river, and the glory of the nations like an overflowing stream: and ye shall suck thereof; ye shall be borne upon the side, and shall be dandled upon the knees.
66:13 As one whom his mother comforts, so I will comfort you; and ye shall be comforted in Jerusalem.
66:14 And ye shall see it, and your heart shall rejoice, and your bones shall flourish like the tender grass: and the hand of Yehovah shall be known toward his servants; and he will have indignation against his enemies.
66:15 For, behold, Yehovah will come with fire, and his chariots shall be like the whirlwind; to render his anger with fierceness, and his rebuke with flames of fire.
66:16 For by fire will Yehovah execute judgment, and by his sword, upon all flesh; and the slain of Yehovah shall be many.
66:17 They that sanctify themselves and purify themselves to go to the gardens, behind one in the midst, eating swine's flesh, and the abomination, and the mouse, they shall come to an end together, says Yehovah.
66:18 For I know their works and their thoughts: the time comes, that I will gather all nations and tongues; and they shall come, and shall see my glory.
66:19 And I will set a sign among them, and I will send such as escape of them to the nations, to Tarshish, Pul, and Lud, that draw the bow, to Tubal and Javan, to the isles afar off, that have not heard my fame, neither have seen my glory; and they shall declare my glory among the nations.
66:20 And they shall bring all your brethren out of all the nations for an oblation to Yehovah, upon horses, and in chariots, and in litters, and upon mules, and upon dromedaries, to my holy mountain Jerusalem, says Yehovah, as the children of Israel bring their oblation in a clean vessel into the house of Yehovah.
66:21 And of them also I will take for priests and for Levites, says Yehovah.

66:22 For as the new heavens and the new earth, which I will make, shall remain before me, says Yehovah, so shall your seed and your name remain.
66:23 And it shall come to pass, that from one new moon to another, and from one sabbath to another, shall all flesh come to worship before me, says Yehovah.
66:24 And they shall go forth, and look upon the dead bodies of the men that have transgressed against me: for their worm shall not die, neither shall their fire be quenched; and they shall be an abhorring to all flesh.

End of Isaiah

The Book of the Prophet Jeremiah

Jeremiah

1:1 The words of Jeremiah the son of Hilkiah, of the priests that were in Anathoth in the land of Benjamin:
1:2 to whom the word of Yehovah came in the days of Josiah the son of Amon, king of Judah, in the thirteenth year of his reign.
1:3 It came also in the days of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah, to the end of the eleventh year of Zedekiah, the son of Josiah, king of Judah, to the carrying away of Jerusalem captive in the fifth month.
1:4 Now the word of Yehovah came to me, saying,
1:5 Before I formed you in the belly I knew you, and before you came forth out of the womb I sanctified you; I have appointed you a prophet to the nations.
1:6 Then said I, ah, Lord Yehovah! behold, I know not how to speak; for I am a child.
1:7 But Yehovah said to me, Say not, I am a child; for to whomsoever I shall send you you shall go, and whatsoever I shall command you you shall speak.
1:8 Be not afraid because of them; for I am with you to deliver you, says Yehovah.
1:9 Then Yehovah put forth his hand, and touched my mouth; and Yehovah said to me, Behold, I have put my words in your mouth:
1:10 see, I have this day set you over the nations and over the kingdoms, to pluck up and to break down and to destroy and to overthrow, to build and to plant.
1:11 Moreover the word of Yehovah came to me, saying, Jeremiah, what see you? And I said, I see a rod of an almond-tree.
1:12 Then said Yehovah to me, You have well seen: for I watch over my word to perform it.
1:13 And the word of Yehovah came to me the second time, saying, What see you? And I said, I see a boiling caldron; and the face thereof is from the north.
1:14 Then Yehovah said to me, Out of the north evil shall break forth upon all the inhabitants of the land.
1:15 For, lo, I will call all the families of the kingdoms of the north, says Yehovah; and they shall come, and they shall set every one his throne at the entrance of the gates of Jerusalem, and against all the walls thereof round about, and against all the cities of Judah.
1:16 And I will utter my judgments against them touching all their wickedness, in that they have forsaken me, and have burned incense to other gods, and worshipped the works of their own hands.
1:17 You therefore gird up your loins, and arise, and speak to them all that I command you: be not dismayed at them, lest I dismay you before them.
1:18 For, behold, I have made you this day a fortified city, and an iron pillar, and brazen walls, against the whole land, against the kings of Judah, against the princes thereof, against the priests thereof, and against the people of the land.
1:19 And they shall fight against you; but they shall not prevail against you: for I am with you, says Yehovah, to deliver you.
2:1 And the word of Yehovah came to me, saying,
2:2 Go, and cry in the ears of Jerusalem, saying, Thus says Yehovah, I remember for you the kindness of your youth, the love of your espousals; how you went after me in the wilderness, in a land that was not sown.
2:3 Israel was holiness to Yehovah, the first-fruits of his increase: all that devour him shall be held guilty; evil shall come upon them, says Yehovah.
2:4 Hear ye the word of Yehovah, O house of Jacob, and all the families of the house of Israel:
2:5 thus says Yehovah, What unrighteousness have your fathers found in me, that they are gone far from me, and have walked after vanity, and are become vain?
2:6 Neither said they, Where is Yehovah that brought us up out of the land of Egypt, that led us through the wilderness, through a land of deserts and of pits, through a land of drought and of the shadow of death, through a land that no one passed through, and where no man dwelt?

2:7 And I brought you into a plentiful land, to eat the fruit thereof and the goodness thereof; but when ye entered, ye defiled my land, and made my heritage an abomination.
2:8 The priests said not, Where is Yehovah? and they that handle the law knew me not: the rulers also transgressed against me, and the prophets prophesied by Baal, and walked after things that do not profit.
2:9 Wherefore I will yet contend with you, says Yehovah, and with your children's children I will contend.
2:10 For pass over to the isles of Kittim, and see; and send to Kedar, and consider diligently; and see if there has been such a thing.
2:11 Has a nation changed its gods, which yet are no gods? but my people have changed their glory for that which does not profit.
2:12 Be astonished, O ye heavens, at this, and be horribly afraid, be ye very desolate, says Yehovah.
2:13 For my people have committed two evils: they have forsaken me, the fountain of living waters, and hewed them out cisterns, broken cisterns, that can hold no water.
2:14 Is Israel a servant? is he a home-born slave? why is he become a prey?
2:15 The young lions have roared upon him, and yelled; and they have made his land waste: his cities are burned up, without inhabitant.
2:16 The children also of Memphis and Tahpanhes have broken the crown of your head.
2:17 Have you not procured this to yourself, in that you have forsaken Yehovah your God, when he led you by the way?
2:18 And now what have you to do in the way to Egypt, to drink the waters of the Shihor? or what have you to do in the way to Assyria, to drink the waters of the River?
2:19 Your own wickedness shall correct you, and your backslidings shall reprove you: know therefore and see that it is an evil thing and a bitter, that you have forsaken Yehovah your God, and that my fear is not in you, says the Lord, Yehovah of hosts.
2:20 For of old time I have broken your yoke, and burst your bonds; and you said, I will not serve; for upon every high hill and under every green tree you did bow yourself, playing the harlot.
2:21 Yet I had planted you a noble vine, wholly a right seed: how then are you turned into the degenerate branches of a foreign vine to me?
2:22 For though you wash you with lye, and take you much soap, yet your iniquity is marked before me, says the Lord Yehovah.
2:23 How can you say, I am not defiled, I have not gone after the Baalim? see your way in the valley, know what you have done: you are a swift dromedary traversing her ways;
2:24 a wild donkey used to the wilderness, that snuffs up the wind in her desire; in her occasion who can turn her away? all they that seek her will not weary themselves; in her month they shall find her.
2:25 Withhold your foot from being unshod, and your throat from thirst: but you said, It is in vain; no, for I have loved strangers, and after them I will go.
2:26 As the thief is ashamed when he is found, so is the house of Israel ashamed; they, their kings, their princes, and their priests, and their prophets;
2:27 who say to a stock, You are my father; and to a stone, You have brought me forth: for they have turned their back to me, and not their face; but in the time of their trouble they will say, arise, and save us.
2:28 But where are your gods that you have made you? let them arise, if they can save you in the time of your trouble: for according to the number of your cities are your gods, O Judah.
2:29 Why will ye contend with me? ye all have transgressed against me, says Yehovah.
2:30 In vain have I smitten your children; they received no correction: your own sword has devoured your prophets, like a destroying lion.

2:31 O generation, see ye the word of Yehovah. Have I been a wilderness to Israel? or a land of thick darkness? why say my people, We are broken loose; we will come no more to you?
2:32 Can a virgin forget her ornaments, or a bride her attire? yet my people have forgotten me days without number.
2:33 How trim you your way to seek love! therefore even the wicked women you have taught your ways.
2:34 Also in your skirts is found the blood of the souls of the innocent poor: you did not find them breaking in; but it is because of all these things.
2:35 Yet you said, I am innocent; surely his anger is turned away from me. Behold, I will enter into judgment with you, because you say, I have not sinned.
2:36 Why gad you about so much to change your way? you shall be ashamed of Egypt also, as you were ashamed of Assyria.
2:37 From there also shall you go forth, with your hands upon your head: for Yehovah has rejected those in whom you trust, and you shall not prosper with them.
3:1 They say, If a man put away his wife, and she go from him, and become another man's, will he return to her again? will not that land be greatly polluted? But you have played the harlot with many lovers; yet return again to me, says Yehovah.
3:2 Lift up your eyes to the bare heights, and see; where have you not been lain with? By the ways have you sat for them, as an Arabian in the wilderness; and you have polluted the land with your whoredoms and with your wickedness.
3:3 Therefore the showers have been withholden, and there has been no latter rain; yet you have a harlot's forehead, you refused to be ashamed.
3:4 Will you not from this time cry to me, My Father, you are the guide of my youth?
3:5 Will he retain his anger for ever? will he keep it to the end? Behold, you have spoken and have done evil things, and have had your way.
3:6 Moreover Yehovah said to me in the days of Josiah the king, Have you seen that which backsliding Israel has done? she is gone up upon every high mountain and under every green tree, and there has played the harlot.
3:7 And I said after she had done all these things, She will return to me; but she returned not: and her treacherous sister Judah saw it.
3:8 And I saw, when, for this very cause that backsliding Israel had committed adultery, I had put her away and given her a bill of divorcement, yet treacherous Judah her sister feared not; but she also went and played the harlot.
3:9 And it came to pass through the lightness of her whoredom, that the land was polluted, and she committed adultery with stones and with stocks.
3:10 And yet for all this her treacherous sister Judah has not returned to me with her whole heart, but feignedly, says Yehovah.
3:11 And Yehovah said to me, Backsliding Israel has shown herself more righteous than treacherous Judah.
3:12 Go, and proclaim these words toward the north, and say, Return, you backsliding Israel, says Yehovah; I will not look in anger upon you; for I am merciful, says Yehovah, I will not keep anger for ever.
3:13 Only acknowledge your iniquity, that you have transgressed against Yehovah your God, and have scattered your ways to the strangers under every green tree, and ye have not obeyed my voice, says Yehovah.
3:14 Return, O backsliding children, says Yehovah; for I am a husband to you: and I will take you one of a city, and two of a family, and I will bring you to Zion:
3:15 and I will give you shepherds according to my heart, who shall feed you with knowledge and understanding.
3:16 And it shall come to pass, when ye are multiplied and increased in the land, in those days, says Yehovah, they shall say no more, The ark of the covenant of Yehovah; neither shall it come to mind; neither shall they remember it; neither shall they miss it; neither shall it be made any more.
3:17 At that time they shall call Jerusalem the throne of Yehovah; and all the nations shall be gathered to it, to the name of Yehovah, to Jerusalem: neither shall they walk any more after the stubbornness of their evil heart.

3:18 In those days the house of Judah shall walk with the house of Israel, and they shall come together out of the land of the north to the land that I gave for an inheritance to your fathers.
3:19 But I said, How I will put you among the children, and give you a pleasant land, a goodly heritage of the hosts of the nations! and I said, You shall call me My Father, and shall not turn away from following me.
3:20 Surely as a wife treacherously departs from her husband, so have ye dealt treacherously with me, O house of Israel, says Yehovah.
3:21 A voice is heard upon the bare heights, the weeping and the supplications of the children of Israel; because they have perverted their way, they have forgotten Yehovah their God.
3:22 Return, ye backsliding children, I will heal your backslidings. Behold, we are come to you; for you are Yehovah our God.
3:23 Truly in vain is the help that is looked for from the hills, the tumult on the mountains: truly in Yehovah our God is the salvation of Israel.
3:24 But the shameful thing has devoured the labor of our fathers from our youth, their flocks and their herds, their sons and their daughters.
3:25 Let us lie down in our shame, and let our confusion cover us; for we have sinned against Yehovah our God, we and our fathers, from our youth even to this day; and we have not obeyed the voice of Yehovah our God.
4:1 If you will return, O Israel, says Yehovah, if you will return to me, and if you will put away your abominations out of my sight; then shall you not be removed;
4:2 and you shall swear, as Yehovah lives, in truth, in justice, and in righteousness; and the nations shall bless themselves in him, and in him shall they glory.
4:3 For thus says Yehovah to the men of Judah and to Jerusalem, Break up your fallow ground, and sow not among thorns.
4:4 Circumcise yourselves to Yehovah, and take away the foreskins of your heart, ye men of Judah and inhabitants of Jerusalem; lest my wrath go forth like fire, and burn so that no one can quench it, because of the evil of your doings.
4:5 Declare ye in Judah, and publish in Jerusalem; and say, Blow ye the trumpet in the land: cry aloud and say, assemble yourselves, and let us go into the fortified cities.
4:6 Set up a standard toward Zion: flee for safety, stay not; for I will bring evil from the north, and a great destruction.
4:7 A lion is gone up from his thicket, and a destroyer of nations; he is on his way, he is gone forth from his place, to make your land desolate, that your cities be laid waste, without inhabitant.
4:8 For this gird you with sackcloth, lament and wail; for the fierce anger of Yehovah is not turned back from us.
4:9 And it shall come to pass at that day, says Yehovah, that the heart of the king shall perish, and the heart of the princes; and the priests shall be astonished, and the prophets shall wonder.
4:10 Then said I, ah, Lord Yehovah! surely you have greatly deceived this people and Jerusalem, saying, You shall have peace; whereas the sword reaches to the life.
4:11 At that time shall it be said to this people and to Jerusalem, a hot wind from the bare heights in the wilderness toward the daughter of my people, not to winnow, nor to cleanse;
4:12 a full wind from these shall come for me: now I will also utter judgments against them.
4:13 Behold, he shall come up as clouds, and his chariots shall be as the whirlwind: his horses are swifter than eagles. Woe to us! for we are ruined.
4:14 O Jerusalem, wash your heart from wickedness, that you may be saved. How long shall your evil thoughts lodge within you?
4:15 For a voice declares from Dan, and publishes evil from the hills of Ephraim:
4:16 make ye mention to the nations; behold, publish against Jerusalem, that watchers come from a far country, and give out their voice against the cities of Judah.
4:17 As keepers of a field are they against her round about, because she has been rebellious against me, says Yehovah.

4:18 Your way and your doings have procured these things to you; this is your wickedness; for it is bitter, for it reaches to your heart.
4:19 My anguish, my anguish! I am pained at my very heart; my heart is disquieted in me; I cannot hold my peace; because you have heard, O my soul, the sound of the trumpet, the alarm of war.
4:20 Destruction upon destruction is cried; for the whole land is laid waste: suddenly are my tents destroyed, and my curtains in a moment.
4:21 How long shall I see the standard, and hear the sound of the trumpet?
4:22 For my people are foolish, they know me not; they are sottish children, and they have no understanding; they are wise to do evil, but to do good they have no knowledge.
4:23 I beheld the earth, and, lo, it was waste and void; and the heavens, and they had no light.
4:24 I beheld the mountains, and, lo, they trembled, and all the hills moved to and fro.
4:25 I beheld, and, lo, there was no man, and all the birds of the heavens were fled.
4:26 I beheld, and, lo, the fruitful field was a wilderness, and all the cities thereof were broken down at the presence of Yehovah, and before his fierce anger.
4:27 For thus says Yehovah, The whole land shall be a desolation; yet I will not make a full end.
4:28 For this shall the earth mourn, and the heavens above be black; because I have spoken it, I have purposed it, and I have not repented, neither will I turn back from it.
4:29 Every city flees for the noise of the horsemen and bowmen; they go into the thickets, and climb up upon the rocks: every city is forsaken, and not a man dwells therein.
4:30 And you, when you are made desolate, what will you do? Though you clothe yourself with scarlet, though you deck you with ornaments of gold, though you enlarge your eyes with paint, in vain do you make yourself fair; your lovers despise you, they seek your life.
4:31 For I have heard a voice as of a woman in travail, the anguish as of her that brings forth her first child, the voice of the daughter of Zion, that gasps for breath, that spreads her hands, saying, Woe is me now! for my soul faints before the murderers.
5:1 Run ye to and fro through the streets of Jerusalem, and see now, and know, and seek in the broad places thereof, if ye can find a man, if there be any that does justly, that seeks truth; and I will pardon her.
5:2 And though they say, as Yehovah lives; surely they swear falsely.
5:3 O Yehovah, do not your eyes look upon truth? you have stricken them, but they were not grieved; you have consumed them, but they have refused to receive correction: they have made their faces harder than a rock; they have refused to return.
5:4 Then I said, Surely these are poor; they are foolish; for they know not the way of Yehovah, nor the law of their God:
5:5 I will get me to the great men, and will speak to them; for they know the way of Yehovah, and the law of their God. But these with one accord have broken the yoke, and burst the bonds.
5:6 Wherefore a lion out of the forest shall slay them, a wolf of the evenings shall destroy them, a leopard shall watch against their cities; every one that goes out there shall be torn in pieces; because their transgressions are many, and their backslidings are increased.
5:7 How can I pardon you? your children have forsaken me, and sworn by them that are no gods: when I had fed them to the full, they committed adultery, and assembled themselves in troops at the harlots' houses.
5:8 They were as fed horses roaming at large; every one neighed after his neighbor's wife.
5:9 Shall I not visit for these things? says Yehovah; and shall not my soul be avenged on such a nation as this?

5:10 Go ye up upon her walls, and destroy; but make not a full end: take away her branches; for they are not Yehovah's.
5:11 For the house of Israel and the house of Judah have dealt very treacherously against me, says Yehovah.
5:12 They have denied Yehovah, and said, It is not he; neither shall evil come upon us; neither shall we see sword nor famine:
5:13 and the prophets shall become wind, and the word is not in them: thus shall it be done to them.
5:14 Wherefore thus says Yehovah, the God of hosts, Because ye speak this word, behold, I will make my words in your mouth fire, and this people wood, and it shall devour them.
5:15 Lo, I will bring a nation upon you from far, O house of Israel, says Yehovah: it is a mighty nation, it is an ancient nation, a nation whose language you know not, neither understand what they say.
5:16 Their quiver is an open grave, they are all mighty men.
5:17 And they shall eat up your harvest, and your bread, which your sons and your daughters should eat; they shall eat up your flocks and your herds; they shall eat up your vines and your fig-trees; they shall beat down your fortified cities, in which you trust, with the sword.
5:18 But even in those days, says Yehovah, I will not make a full end with you.
5:19 And it shall come to pass, when ye shall say, Why has Yehovah our God done all these things to us? then shall you say to them, Like as ye have forsaken me, and served foreign gods in your land, so shall ye serve strangers in a land that is not yours.
5:20 Declare ye this in the house of Jacob, and publish it in Judah, saying,
5:21 Hear now this, O foolish people, and without understanding; that have eyes, and see not; that have ears, and hear not:
5:22 Fear ye not me? says Yehovah: will ye not tremble at my presence, who have placed the sand for the bound of the sea, by a perpetual decree, that it cannot pass it? and though the waves thereof toss themselves, yet can they not prevail; though they roar, yet can they not pass over it.
5:23 But this people has a revolting and a rebellious heart; they are revolted and gone.
5:24 Neither say they in their heart, Let us now fear Yehovah our God, that gives rain, both the former and the latter, in its season; that preserves to us the appointed weeks of the harvest.
5:25 Your iniquities have turned away these things, and your sins have withholden good from you.
5:26 For among my people are found wicked men: they watch, as fowlers lie in wait; they set a trap, they catch men.
5:27 As a cage is full of birds, so are their houses full of deceit: therefore they are become great, and grown rich.
5:28 They are become fat, they shine: yes, they overpass in deeds of wickedness; they plead not the cause, the cause of the fatherless, that they may prosper; and the right of the needy do they not judge.
5:29 Shall I not visit for these things? says Yehovah; shall not my soul be avenged on such a nation as this?
5:30 A wonderful and horrible thing is come to pass in the land:
5:31 the prophets prophesy falsely, and the priests bear rule by their means; and my people love to have it so: and what will ye do in the end thereof?
6:1 Flee for safety, ye children of Benjamin, out of the midst of Jerusalem, and blow the trumpet in Tekoa, and raise up a signal on Beth-haccherem; for evil looks forth from the north, and a great destruction.
6:2 The comely and delicate one, the daughter of Zion, I will cut off.
6:3 Shepherds with their flocks shall come to her; they shall pitch their tents against her round about; they shall feed every one in his place.
6:4 Prepare ye war against her; arise, and let us go up at noon. Woe to us! for the day declines, for the shadows of the evening are stretched out.
6:5 Arise, and let us go up by night, and let us destroy her palaces.

6:6 For thus has Yehovah of hosts said, Hew ye down trees, and cast up a mound against Jerusalem: this is the city to be visited; she is wholly oppression in the midst of her.
6:7 As a well casts forth its waters, so she casts forth her wickedness: violence and destruction is heard in her; before me continually is sickness and wounds.
6:8 Be you instructed, O Jerusalem, lest my soul be alienated from you; lest I make you a desolation, a land not inhabited.
6:9 Thus says Yehovah of hosts, They shall thoroughly glean the remnant of Israel as a vine: turn again your hand as a grape-gatherer into the baskets.
6:10 To whom shall I speak and testify, that they may hear? behold, their ear is uncircumcised, and they cannot hearken: behold, the word of Yehovah is become to them a reproach; they have no delight in it.
6:11 Therefore I am full of the wrath of Yehovah; I am weary with holding in: pour it out upon the children in the street, and upon the assembly of young men together; for even the husband with the wife shall be taken, the aged with him that is full of days.
6:12 And their houses shall be turned to others, their fields and their wives together; for I will stretch out my hand upon the inhabitants of the land, says Yehovah.
6:13 For from the least of them even to the greatest of them every one is given to covetousness; and from the prophet even to the priest every one deals falsely.
6:14 They have healed also the hurt of my people slightly, saying, Peace, peace; when there is no peace.
6:15 Were they ashamed when they had committed abomination? nay, they were not at all ashamed, neither could they blush: therefore they shall fall among them that fall; at the time that I visit them they shall be cast down, says Yehovah.
6:16 Thus says Yehovah, Stand ye in the ways and see, and ask for the old paths, where the good way is; and walk therein, and ye shall find rest for your souls: but they said, We will not walk therein.
6:17 And I set watchmen over you, saying, Hearken to the sound of the trumpet; but they said, We will not hearken.
6:18 Therefore hear, ye nations, and know, O congregation, what is among them.
6:19 Hear, O earth: behold, I will bring evil upon this people, even the fruit of their thoughts, because they have not hearkened to my words; and as for my law, they have rejected it.
6:20 To what purpose comes there to me frankincense from Sheba, and the sweet cane from a far country? your burnt offerings are not acceptable, nor your sacrifices pleasing to me.
6:21 Therefore thus says Yehovah, Behold, I will lay stumbling-blocks before this people; and the fathers and the sons together shall stumble against them; the neighbor and his friend shall perish.
6:22 Thus says Yehovah, Behold, a people comes from the north country; and a great nation shall be stirred up from the uttermost parts of the earth.
6:23 They lay hold on bow and spear; they are cruel, and have no mercy; their voice roars like the sea, and they ride upon horses, every one set in array, as a man to the battle, against you, O daughter of Zion.
6:24 We have heard the report thereof; our hands grow feeble: anguish has taken hold of us, and pangs as of a woman in travail.
6:25 Go not forth into the field, nor walk by the way; for the sword of the enemy, and terror, are on every side.
6:26 O daughter of my people, gird you with sackcloth, and wallow yourself in ashes: make you mourning, as for an only son, most bitter lamentation; for the destroyer shall suddenly come upon us.
6:27 I have made you a trier and a fortress among my people; that you may know and try their way.
6:28 They are all grievous revolters, going about with slanders; they are brass and iron: they all of them deal corruptly.
6:29 The bellows blow fiercely; the lead is consumed by the fire: in vain do they go on refining; for the wicked are not plucked away.
6:30 Refuse silver shall men call them, because Yehovah has rejected them.

7:1 The word that came to Jeremiah from Yehovah, saying,
7:2 Stand in the gate of Yehovah's house, and proclaim there this word, and say, Hear the word of Yehovah, all ye of Judah, that enter in at these gates to worship Yehovah.
7:3 Thus says Yehovah of hosts, the God of Israel, amend your ways and your doings, and I will cause you to dwell in this place.
7:4 Trust not in lying words, saying, The temple of Yehovah, the temple of Yehovah, the temple of Yehovah, are these.
7:5 For if ye thoroughly amend your ways and your doings; if ye thoroughly execute justice a man with his neighbor;
7:6 if ye oppress not the sojourner, the fatherless, and the widow, and shed not innocent blood in this place, neither walk after other gods to your own hurt:
7:7 then I will cause you to dwell in this place, in the land that I gave to your fathers, from of old even for evermore.
7:8 Behold, ye trust in lying words, that cannot profit.
7:9 Will ye steal, murder, and commit adultery, and swear falsely, and burn incense to Baal, and walk after other gods that ye have not known,
7:10 and come and stand before me in this house, which is called by my name, and say, We are delivered; that ye may do all these abominations?
7:11 Is this house, which is called by my name, become a den of robbers in your eyes? Behold, I, even I, have seen it, says Yehovah.
7:12 But go ye now to my place which was in Shiloh, where I caused my name to dwell at the first, and see what I did to it for the wickedness of my people Israel.
7:13 And now, because ye have done all these works, says Yehovah, and I spoke to you, rising up early and speaking, but ye heard not; and I called you, but ye answered not:
7:14 therefore I will do to the house which is called by my name, in which ye trust, and to the place which I gave to you and to your fathers, as I did to Shiloh.
7:15 And I will cast you out of my sight, as I have cast out all your brethren, even the whole seed of Ephraim.
7:16 Therefore pray not you for this people, neither lift up cry nor prayer for them, neither make intercession to me; for I will not hear you.
7:17 See you not what they do in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem?
7:18 The children gather wood, and the fathers kindle the fire, and the women knead the dough, to make cakes to the queen of heaven, and to pour out drink offerings to other gods, that they may provoke me to anger.
7:19 Do they provoke me to anger? says Yehovah; do they not provoke themselves, to the confusion of their own faces?
7:20 Therefore thus says the Lord Yehovah: Behold, my anger and my wrath shall be poured out upon this place, upon man, and upon beast, and upon the trees of the field, and upon the fruit of the ground; and it shall burn, and shall not be quenched.
7:21 Thus says Yehovah of hosts, the God of Israel: Add your burnt offerings to your sacrifices, and eat ye flesh.
7:22 For I spoke not to your fathers, nor commanded them in the day that I brought them out of the land of Egypt, concerning burnt offerings or sacrifices:
7:23 but this thing I commanded them, saying, Hearken to my voice, and I will be your God, and ye shall be my people; and walk ye in all the way that I command you, that it may be well with you.
7:24 But they hearkened not, nor inclined their ear, but walked in their own counsels and in the stubbornness of their evil heart, and went backward, and not forward.
7:25 Since the day that your fathers came forth out of the land of Egypt to this day, I have sent to you all my servants the prophets, daily rising up early and sending them:
7:26 yet they hearkened not to me, nor inclined their ear, but made their neck stiff: they did worse than their fathers.
7:27 And you shall speak all these words to them; but they will not hearken to you: you shall also call to them; but they will not answer you.

7:28 And you shall say to them, This is the nation that has not hearkened to the voice of Yehovah their God, nor received instruction: truth is perished, and is cut off from their mouth.
7:29 Cut off your hair, O Jerusalem, and cast it away, and take up a lamentation on the bare heights; for Yehovah has rejected and forsaken the generation of his wrath.
7:30 For the children of Judah have done that which is evil in my sight, says Yehovah: they have set their abominations in the house which is called by my name, to defile it.
7:31 And they have built the high places of Topheth, which is in the valley of the son of Hinnom, to burn their sons and their daughters in the fire; which I commanded not, neither came it into my mind.
7:32 Therefore, behold, the days come, says Yehovah, that it shall no more be called Topheth, nor The valley of the son of Hinnom, but The valley of Slaughter: for they shall bury in Topheth, till there be no place to bury.
7:33 And the dead bodies of this people shall be food for the birds of the heavens, and for the beasts of the earth; and no one shall frighten them away.
7:34 Then I will cause to cease from the cities of Judah, and from the streets of Jerusalem, the voice of mirth and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom and the voice of the bride; for the land shall become a waste.
8:1 At that time, says Yehovah, they shall bring out the bones of the kings of Judah, and the bones of his princes, and the bones of the priests, and the bones of the prophets, and the bones of the inhabitants of Jerusalem, out of their graves;
8:2 and they shall spread them before the sun, and the moon, and all the host of heaven, which they have loved, and which they have served, and after which they have walked, and which they have sought, and which they have worshipped: they shall not be gathered, nor be buried, they shall be for dung upon the face of the earth.
8:3 And death shall be chosen rather than life by all the residue that remain of this evil family, that remain in all the places whither I have driven them, says Yehovah of hosts.
8:4 Moreover you shall say to them, Thus says Yehovah: Shall men fall, and not rise up again? Shall one turn away, and not return?
8:5 Why then is this people of Jerusalem slidden back by a perpetual backsliding? they hold fast deceit, they refuse to return.
8:6 I hearkened and heard, but they spoke not aright: no man repents him of his wickedness, saying, What have I done? every one turns to his course, as a horse that rushes headlong in the battle.
8:7 Yes, the stork in the heavens knows her appointed times; and the turtle-dove and the swallow and the crane observe the time of their coming; but my people know not the law of Yehovah.
8:8 How do ye say, We are wise, and the law of Yehovah is with us? But, behold, the false pen of the scribes has wrought falsely.
8:9 The wise men are put to shame, they are dismayed and taken: lo, they have rejected the word of Yehovah; and what manner of wisdom is in them?
8:10 Therefore I will give their wives to others, and their fields to them that shall possess them: for every one from the least even to the greatest is given to covetousness; from the prophet even to the priest every one deals falsely.
8:11 And they have healed the hurt of the daughter of my people slightly, saying, Peace, peace; when there is no peace.
8:12 Were they ashamed when they had committed abomination? nay, they were not at all ashamed, neither could they blush: therefore shall they fall among them that fall; in the time of their visitation they shall be cast down, says Yehovah.
8:13 I will utterly consume them, says Yehovah: there shall be no grapes on the vine, nor figs on the fig-tree, and the leaf shall fade; and the things that I have given them shall pass away from them.
8:14 Why do we sit still? assemble yourselves, and let us enter into the fortified cities, and let us be silent there; for Yehovah our God has put us to silence, and given us water of gall to drink, because we have sinned against Yehovah.

8:15 We looked for peace, but no good came; and for a time of healing, and, behold, dismay!
8:16 The snorting of his horses is heard from Dan: at the sound of the neighing of his strong ones the whole land trembles; for they are come, and have devoured the land and all that is in it; the city and those that dwell therein.
8:17 For, behold, I will send serpents, adders, among you, which will not be charmed; and they shall bite you, says Yehovah.
8:18 Oh that I could comfort myself against sorrow! my heart is faint within me.
8:19 Behold, the voice of the cry of the daughter of my people from a land that is very far off: is not Yehovah in Zion? is not her King in her? Why have they provoked me to anger with their graven images, and with foreign vanities?
8:20 The harvest is past, the summer is ended, and we are not saved.
8:21 For the hurt of the daughter of my people am I hurt: I mourn; dismay has taken hold on me.
8:22 Is there no balm in Gilead? is there no physician there? why then is not the health of the daughter of my people recovered?
9:1 Oh that my head were waters, and my eyes a fountain of tears, that I might weep day and night for the slain of the daughter of my people!
9:2 Oh that I had in the wilderness a lodging-place of wayfaring men; that I might leave my people, and go from them! for they are all adulterers, an assembly of treacherous men.
9:3 And they bend their tongue, as it were their bow, for falsehood; and they are grown strong in the land, but not for truth: for they proceed from evil to evil, and they know not me, says Yehovah.
9:4 Take ye heed every one of his neighbor, and trust ye not in any brother; for every brother will utterly supplant, and every neighbor will go about with slanders.
9:5 And they will deceive every one his neighbor, and will not speak the truth: they have taught their tongue to speak lies; they weary themselves to commit iniquity.
9:6 Your habitation is in the midst of deceit; through deceit they refuse to know me, says Yehovah.
9:7 Therefore thus says Yehovah of hosts, Behold, I will melt them, and try them; for how else should I do, because of the daughter of my people?
9:8 Their tongue is a deadly arrow; it speaks deceit: one speaks peaceably to his neighbor with his mouth, but in his heart he lays wait for him.
9:9 Shall I not visit them for these things? says Yehovah; shall not my soul be avenged on such a nation as this?
9:10 For the mountains I will take up a weeping and wailing, and for the pastures of the wilderness a lamentation, because they are burned up, so that no one passes through; neither can men hear the voice of the cattle; both the birds of the heavens and the beasts are fled, they are gone.
9:11 And I will make Jerusalem heaps, a dwelling-place of jackals; and I will make the cities of Judah a desolation, without inhabitant.
9:12 Who is the wise man, that may understand this? and who is he to whom the mouth of Yehovah has spoken, that he may declare it? why is the land perished and burned up like a wilderness, so that no one passes through?
9:13 And Yehovah says, Because they have forsaken my law which I set before them, and have not obeyed my voice, neither walked therein,
9:14 but have walked after the stubbornness of their own heart, and after the Baalim, which their fathers taught them;
9:15 therefore thus says Yehovah of hosts, the God of Israel, Behold, I will feed them, even this people, with wormwood, and give them water of gall to drink.
9:16 I will scatter them also among the nations, whom neither they nor their fathers have known; and I will send the sword after them, till I have consumed them.
9:17 Thus says Yehovah of hosts, Consider ye, and call for the mourning women, that they may come; and send for the skilful women, that they may come:
9:18 and let them make haste, and take up a wailing for us, that our eyes may run down with tears, and our eyelids gush out with waters.

9:19 For a voice of wailing is heard out of Zion, How are we ruined! we are greatly confounded, because we have forsaken the land, because they have cast down our dwellings.
9:20 Yet hear the word of Yehovah, O ye women, and let your ear receive the word of his mouth; and teach your daughters wailing, and every one her neighbor lamentation.
9:21 For death is come up into our windows, it is entered into our palaces; to cut off the children from without, and the young men from the streets.
9:22 Speak, Thus says Yehovah, The dead bodies of men shall fall as dung upon the open field, and as the handful after the harvestman; and no one shall gather them.
9:23 Thus says Yehovah, Let not the wise man glory in his wisdom, neither let the mighty man glory in his might, let not the rich man glory in his riches;
9:24 but let him that glories glory in this, that he has understanding, and knows me, that I am Yehovah who exercises lovingkindness, justice, and righteousness, in the earth: for in these things I delight, says Yehovah.
9:25 Behold, the days come, says Yehovah, that I will punish all them that are circumcised in their uncircumcision:
9:26 Egypt, and Judah, and Edom, and the children of Ammon, and Moab, and all that have the corners of their hair cut off, that dwell in the wilderness; for all the nations are uncircumcised, and all the house of Israel are uncircumcised in heart.
10:1 Hear ye the word which Yehovah speaks to you, O house of Israel:
10:2 thus says Yehovah, Learn not the way of the nations, and be not dismayed at the signs of heaven; for the nations are dismayed at them.
10:3 For the customs of the peoples are vanity; for one cuts a tree out of the forest, the work of the hands of the workman with the axe.
10:4 They deck it with silver and with gold; they fasten it with nails and with hammers, that it move not.
10:5 They are like a palm-tree, of turned work, and speak not: they must be carried around, because they cannot walk. Be not afraid of them; for they cannot do evil, neither is it in them to do good.
10:6 There is none like to you, O Yehovah; you are great, and your name is great in might.
10:7 Who should not fear you, O King of the nations? for to you does it appertain; forasmuch as among all the wise men of the nations, and in all their royal estate, there is none like to you.
10:8 But they are together brutish and foolish: the instruction of idols! it is but a stock.
10:9 There is silver beaten into plates, which is brought from Tarshish, and gold from Uphaz, the work of the artificer and of the hands of the goldsmith; blue and purple for their clothing; they are all the work of skilful men.
10:10 But Yehovah is the true God; he is the living God, and an everlasting King: at his wrath the earth trembles, and the nations are not able to abide his indignation.
10:11 Thus shall ye say to them, The gods that have not made the heavens and the earth, these shall perish from the earth, and from under the heavens.
10:12 He has made the earth by his power, he has established the world by his wisdom, and by his understanding has he stretched out the heavens:
10:13 when he utters his voice, there is a tumult of waters in the heavens, and he causes the vapors to ascend from the ends of the earth; he makes lightnings for the rain, and brings forth the wind out of his treasuries.
10:14 Every man is become brutish and is without knowledge; every goldsmith is put to shame by his graven image; for his molten image is falsehood, and there is no breath in them.
10:15 They are vanity, a work of delusion: in the time of their visitation they shall perish.
10:16 The portion of Jacob is not like these; for he is the former of all things; and Israel is the tribe of his inheritance: Yehovah of hosts is his name.
10:17 Gather up your wares out of the land, O you that abide in the siege.
10:18 For thus says Yehovah, Behold, I will sling out the inhabitants of the land at this time, and will distress them, that they may feel it.

10:19 Woe is me because of my hurt! my wound is grievous: but I said, Truly this is my grief, and I must bear it.
10:20 My tent is destroyed, and all my cords are broken: my children are gone forth from me, and they are not: there is no one to spread my tent any more, and to set up my curtains.
10:21 For the shepherds are become brutish, and have not inquired of Yehovah: therefore they have not prospered, and all their flocks are scattered.
10:22 The voice of tidings, behold, it comes, and a great commotion out of the north country, to make the cities of Judah a desolation, a dwelling-place of jackals.
10:23 O Yehovah, I know that the way of man is not in himself: it is not in man that walks to direct his steps.
10:24 O Yehovah, correct me, but in measure: not in your anger, lest you bring me to nothing.
10:25 Pour out your wrath upon the nations that know you not, and upon the families that call not on your name: for they have devoured Jacob, yes, they have devoured him and consumed him, and have laid waste his habitation.
11:1 The word that came to Jeremiah from Yehovah, saying,
11:2 Hear ye the words of this covenant, and speak to the men of Judah, and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem;
11:3 and say to them, Thus says Yehovah, the God of Israel: Cursed be the man that hears not the words of this covenant,
11:4 which I commanded your fathers in the day that I brought them forth out of the land of Egypt, out of the iron furnace, saying, Obey my voice, and do them, according to all which I command you: so shall ye be my people, and I will be your God;
11:5 that I may establish the oath which I swore to your fathers, to give them a land flowing with milk and honey, as at this day. Then answered I, and said, amen, O Yehovah.
11:6 And Yehovah said to me, Proclaim all these words in the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem, saying, Hear ye the words of this covenant, and do them.
11:7 For I earnestly protested to your fathers in the day that I brought them up out of the land of Egypt, even to this day, rising early and protesting, saying, Obey my voice.
11:8 Yet they obeyed not, nor inclined their ear, but walked every one in the stubbornness of their evil heart: therefore I brought upon them all the words of this covenant, which I commanded them to do, but they did them not.
11:9 And Yehovah said to me, a conspiracy is found among the men of Judah, and among the inhabitants of Jerusalem.
11:10 They are turned back to the iniquities of their forefathers, who refused to hear my words; and they are gone after other gods to serve them: the house of Israel and the house of Judah have broken my covenant which I made with their fathers.
11:11 Therefore thus says Yehovah, Behold, I will bring evil upon them, which they shall not be able to escape; and they shall cry to me, but I will not hearken to them.
11:12 Then shall the cities of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem go and cry to the gods to which they offer incense: but they will not save them at all in the time of their trouble.
11:13 For according to the number of your cities are your gods, O Judah; and according to the number of the streets of Jerusalem have ye set up altars to the shameful thing, even altars to burn incense to Baal.
11:14 Therefore pray not you for this people, neither lift up cry nor prayer for them; for I will not hear them in the time that they cry to me because of their trouble.
11:15 What has my beloved to do in my house, seeing she has wrought lewdness with many, and the holy flesh is passed from you? when you do evil, then you rejoicest.
11:16 Yehovah called your name, a green olive-tree, fair with goodly fruit: with the noise of a great tumult he has kindled fire upon it, and the branches of it are broken.
11:17 For Yehovah of hosts, who planted you, has pronounced evil against you, because of the evil of the house of Israel and of the house of Judah, which they have wrought for themselves in provoking me to anger by offering incense to Baal.

11:18 And Yehovah gave me knowledge of it, and I knew it: then you showed me their doings.
11:19 But I was like a gentle lamb that is led to the slaughter; and I knew not that they had devised devices against me, saying, Let us destroy the tree with the fruit thereof, and let us cut him off from the land of the living, that his name may be no more remembered.
11:20 But, O Yehovah of hosts, who judge righteously, who try the heart and the mind, I shall see your vengeance on them; for to you have I revealed my cause.
11:21 Therefore thus says Yehovah concerning the men of Anathoth, that seek your life, saying, You shall not prophesy in the name of Yehovah, that you die not by our hand;
11:22 therefore thus says Yehovah of hosts, Behold, I will punish them: the young men shall die by the sword; their sons and their daughters shall die by famine;
11:23 and there shall be no remnant to them: for I will bring evil upon the men of Anathoth, even the year of their visitation.
12:1 Righteous are you, O Yehovah, when I contend with you; yet would I reason the cause with you: why does the way of the wicked prosper? why are all they at ease that deal very treacherously?
12:2 You have planted them, yes, they have taken root; they grow, yes, they bring forth fruit: you are near in their mouth, and far from their heart.
12:3 But you, O Yehovah, know me; you see me, and try my heart toward you: pull them out like sheep for the slaughter, and prepare them for the day of slaughter.
12:4 How long shall the land mourn, and the herbs of the whole country wither? for the wickedness of them that dwell therein, the beasts are consumed, and the birds; because they said, He shall not see our latter end.
12:5 If you have run with the footmen, and they have wearied you, then how can you contend with horses? and though in a land of peace you are secure, yet how will you do in the pride of the Jordan?
12:6 For even your brethren, and the house of your father, even they have dealt treacherously with you; even they have cried aloud after you: believe them not, though they speak fair words to you.
12:7 I have forsaken my house, I have cast off my heritage; I have given the dearly beloved of my soul into the hand of her enemies.
12:8 My heritage is become to me as a lion in the forest: she has uttered her voice against me; therefore I have hated her.
12:9 Is my heritage to me as a speckled bird of prey? are the birds of prey against her round about? go ye, assemble all the beasts of the field, bring them to devour.
12:10 Many shepherds have destroyed my vineyard, they have trodden my portion under foot, they have made my pleasant portion a desolate wilderness.
12:11 They have made it a desolation; it mourns to me, being desolate; the whole land is made desolate, because no man lays it to heart.
12:12 Destroyers are come upon all the bare heights in the wilderness; for the sword of Yehovah devours from the one end of the land even to the other end of the land: no flesh has peace.
12:13 They have sown wheat, and have reaped thorns; they have put themselves to pain, and profit nothing: and ye shall be ashamed of your fruits, because of the fierce anger of Yehovah.
12:14 Thus says Yehovah against all my evil neighbors, that touch the inheritance which I have caused my people Israel to inherit: behold, I will pluck them up from off their land, and will pluck up the house of Judah from among them.
12:15 And it shall come to pass, after that I have plucked them up, I will return and have compassion on them; and I will bring them again, every man to his heritage, and every man to his land.
12:16 And it shall come to pass, if they will diligently learn the ways of my people, to swear by my name, as Yehovah lives; even as they taught my people to swear by Baal; then shall they be built up in the midst of my people.
12:17 But if they will not hear, then I will pluck up that nation, plucking up and destroying it, says Yehovah.

13:1 Thus says Yehovah to me, Go, and buy you a linen girdle, and put it upon your loins, and put it not in water.
13:2 So I bought a girdle according to the word of Yehovah, and put it upon my loins.
13:3 And the word of Yehovah came to me the second time, saying,
13:4 Take the girdle that you have bought, which is upon your loins, and arise, go to the Euphrates, and hide it there in a cleft of the rock.
13:5 So I went, and hid it by the Euphrates, as Yehovah commanded me.
13:6 And it came to pass after many days, that Yehovah said to me, arise, go to the Euphrates, and take the girdle from there, which I commanded you to hide there.
13:7 Then I went to the Euphrates, and dug, and took the girdle from the place where I had hid it; and, behold, the girdle was marred, it was profitable for nothing.
13:8 Then the word of Yehovah came to me, saying,
13:9 Thus says Yehovah, after this manner I will mar the pride of Judah, and the great pride of Jerusalem.
13:10 This evil people, that refuse to hear my words, that walk in the stubbornness of their heart, and are gone after other gods to serve them, and to worship them, shall even be as this girdle, which is profitable for nothing.
13:11 For as the girdle cleaves to the loins of a man, so have I caused to cleave to me the whole house of Israel and the whole house of Judah, says Yehovah; that they may be to me for a people, and for a name, and for a praise, and for a glory: but they would not hear.
13:12 Therefore you shall speak to them this word: Thus says Yehovah, the God of Israel, Every bottle shall be filled with wine: and they shall say to you, Do we not certainly know that every bottle shall be filled with wine?
13:13 Then shall you say to them, Thus says Yehovah, Behold, I will fill all the inhabitants of this land, even the kings that sit upon David's throne, and the priests, and the prophets, and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem, with drunkenness.
13:14 And I will dash them one against another, even the fathers and the sons together, says Yehovah: I will not pity, nor spare, nor have compassion, that I should not destroy them.
13:15 Hear ye, and give ear; be not proud; for Yehovah has spoken.
13:16 Give glory to Yehovah your God, before he cause darkness, and before your feet stumble upon the dark mountains, and, while ye look for light, he turn it into the shadow of death, and make it gross darkness.
13:17 But if ye will not hear it, my soul shall weep in secret for your pride; and my eye shall weep sore, and run down with tears, because Yehovah's flock is taken captive.
13:18 Say to the king and to the queen-mother, Humble yourselves, sit down; for your headtires are come down, even the crown of your glory.
13:19 The cities of the South are shut up, and there is no one to open them: Judah is carried away captive, all of it; it is wholly carried away captive.
13:20 Lift up your eyes, and behold them that come from the north: where is the flock that was given you, your beautiful flock?
13:21 What will you say, when he shall set over you as head those whom you have yourself taught to be friends to you? shall not sorrows take hold of you, as of a woman in travail?
13:22 And if you say in your heart, Why are these things come upon me? for the greatness of your iniquity are your skirts uncovered, and your heels suffer violence.
13:23 Can the Ethiopian change his skin, or the leopard his spots? then may ye also do good, that are accustomed to do evil.
13:24 Therefore I will scatter them, as the stubble that passes away, by the wind of the wilderness.
13:25 This is your lot, the portion measured to you from me, says Yehovah; because you have forgotten me, and trusted in falsehood.
13:26 Therefore I will also uncover your skirts upon your face, and your shame shall appear.

13:27 I have seen your abominations, even your adulteries, and your neighings, the lewdness of your whoredom, on the hills in the field. Woe to you, O Jerusalem! you will not be made clean; how long shall it yet be?
14:1 The word of Yehovah that came to Jeremiah concerning the drought.
14:2 Judah mourns, and the gates thereof languish, they sit in black upon the ground; and the cry of Jerusalem is gone up.
14:3 And their nobles send their little ones to the waters: they come to the cisterns, and find no water; they return with their vessels empty; they are put to shame and confounded, and cover their heads.
14:4 Because of the ground which is cracked, for that no rain has been in the land, the plowmen are put to shame, they cover their heads.
14:5 Yes, the hind also in the field calves, and forsakes her young, because there is no grass.
14:6 And the wild donkeys stand on the bare heights, they pant for air like jackals; their eyes fail, because there is no herbage.
14:7 Though our iniquities testify against us, work you for your name's sake, O Yehovah; for our backslidings are many; we have sinned against you.
14:8 O you hope of Israel, the Saviour thereof in the time of trouble, why should you be as a sojourner in the land, and as a wayfaring man that turns aside to tarry for a night?
14:9 Why should you be as a man affrighted, as a mighty man that cannot save? yet you, O Yehovah, are in the midst of us, and we are called by your name; leave us not.
14:10 Thus says Yehovah to this people, Even so have they loved to wander; they have not refrained their feet: therefore Yehovah does not accept them; now will he remember their iniquity, and visit their sins.
14:11 And Yehovah said to me, Pray not for this people for their good.
14:12 When they fast, I will not hear their cry; and when they offer burnt offering and meal offering, I will not accept them; but I will consume them by the sword, and by the famine, and by the pestilence.
14:13 Then said I, ah, Lord Yehovah! behold, the prophets say to them, You shall not see the sword, neither shall ye have famine; but I will give you assured peace in this place.
14:14 Then Yehovah said to me, The prophets prophesy lies in my name; I sent them not, neither have I commanded them, neither spoke I to them: they prophesy to you a lying vision, and divination, and a thing of nought, and the deceit of their own heart.
14:15 Therefore thus says Yehovah concerning the prophets that prophesy in my name, and I sent them not, yet they say, Sword and famine shall not be in this land: By sword and famine shall those prophets be consumed.
14:16 And the people to whom they prophesy shall be cast out in the streets of Jerusalem because of the famine and the sword; and they shall have no one to bury them-them, their wives, nor their sons, nor their daughters: for I will pour their wickedness upon them.
14:17 And you shall say this word to them, Let my eyes run down with tears night and day, and let them not cease; for the virgin daughter of my people is broken with a great breach, with a very grievous wound.
14:18 If I go forth into the field, then, behold, the slain with the sword! and if I enter into the city, then, behold, they that are sick with famine! for both the prophet and the priest go about in the land, and have no knowledge.
14:19 Have you utterly rejected Judah? has your soul loathed Zion? why have you smitten us, and there is no healing for us? We looked for peace, but no good came; and for a time of healing, and, behold, dismay!
14:20 We acknowledge, O Yehovah, our wickedness, and the iniquity of our fathers; for we have sinned against you.
14:21 Do not abhor us, for your name's sake; do not disgrace the throne of your glory: remember, break not your covenant with us.

14:22 Are there any among the vanities of the nations that can cause rain? or can the heavens give showers? are not you he, O Yehovah our God? therefore we will wait for you; for you have made all these things.
15:1 Then said Yehovah to me, Though Moses and Samuel stood before me, yet my mind would not be toward this people: cast them out of my sight, and let them go forth.
15:2 And it shall come to pass, when they say to you, Whither shall we go forth? then you shall tell them, Thus says Yehovah: Such as are for death, to death; and such as are for the sword, to the sword; and such as are for the famine, to the famine; and such as are for captivity, to captivity.
15:3 And I will appoint over them four kinds, says Yehovah: the sword to slay, and the dogs to tear, and the birds of the heavens, and the beasts of the earth, to devour and to destroy.
15:4 And I will cause them to be tossed to and fro among all the kingdoms of the earth, because of Manasseh, the son of Hezekiah, king of Judah, for that which he did in Jerusalem.
15:5 For who will have pity upon you, O Jerusalem? or who will bemoan you? or who will turn aside to ask of your welfare?
15:6 You have rejected me, says Yehovah, you are gone backward: therefore have I stretched out my hand against you, and destroyed you; I am weary with repenting.
15:7 And I have winnowed them with a fan in the gates of the land; I have bereaved them of children, I have destroyed my people; they returned not from their ways.
15:8 Their widows are increased to me above the sand of the seas; I have brought upon them against the mother of the young men a destroyer at noonday: I have caused anguish and terrors to fall upon her suddenly.
15:9 She that has borne seven languishes; she has given up the ghost; her sun is gone down while it was yet day; she has been put to shame and confounded: and the residue of them I will deliver to the sword before their enemies, says Yehovah.
15:10 Woe is me, my mother, that you have borne me a man of strife and a man of contention to the whole earth! I have not lent, neither have men lent to me; yet every one of them does curse me.
15:11 Yehovah said, Verily I will strengthen you for good; verily I will cause the enemy to make supplication to you in the time of evil and in the time of affliction.
15:12 Can one break iron, even iron from the north, and brass?
15:13 Your substance and your treasures I will give for a spoil without price, and that for all your sins, even in all your borders.
15:14 And I will make them to pass with your enemies into a land which you know not; for a fire is kindled in my anger, which shall burn upon you.
15:15 O Yehovah, you know; remember me, and visit me, and avenge me of my persecutors; take me not away in your longsuffering: know that for your sake I have suffered reproach.
15:16 Your words were found, and I did eat them; and your words were to me a joy and the rejoicing of my heart: for I am called by your name, O Yehovah, God of hosts.
15:17 I sat not in the assembly of them that make merry, nor rejoiced; I sat alone because of your hand; for you have filled me with indignation.
15:18 Why is my pain perpetual, and my wound incurable, which refuses to be healed? will you indeed be to me as a deceitful brook, as waters that fail?
15:19 Therefore thus says Yehovah, If you return, then I will bring you again, that you may stand before me; and if you take forth the precious from the vile, you shall be as my mouth: they shall return to you, but you shall not return to them.
15:20 And I will make you to this people a fortified brazen wall; and they shall fight against you, but they shall not prevail against you; for I am with you to save you and to deliver you, says Yehovah.
15:21 And I will deliver you out of the hand of the wicked, and I will redeem you out of the hand of the terrible.
16:1 The word of Yehovah came also to me, saying,
16:2 You shall not take you a wife, neither shall you have sons or daughters, in this place.

16:3 For thus says Yehovah concerning the sons and concerning the daughters that are born in this place, and concerning their mothers that bore them, and concerning their fathers that begat them in this land:
16:4 They shall die grievous deaths: they shall not be lamented, neither shall they be buried; they shall be as dung upon the face of the ground; and they shall be consumed by the sword, and by famine; and their dead bodies shall be food for the birds of the heavens, and for the beasts of the earth.
16:5 For thus says Yehovah, Enter not into the house of mourning, neither go to lament, neither bemoan them; for I have taken away my peace from this people, says Yehovah, even lovingkindness and tender mercies.
16:6 Both great and small shall die in this land; they shall not be buried, neither shall men lament for them, nor cut themselves, nor make themselves bald for them;
16:7 neither shall men break bread for them in mourning, to comfort them for the dead; neither shall men give them the cup of consolation to drink for their father or for their mother.
16:8 And you shall not go into the house of feasting to sit with them, to eat and to drink.
16:9 For thus says Yehovah of hosts, the God of Israel: Behold, I will cause to cease out of this place, before your eyes and in your days, the voice of mirth and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom and the voice of the bride.
16:10 And it shall come to pass, when you shall show this people all these words, and they shall say to you, Why has Yehovah pronounced all this great evil against us? or what is our iniquity? or what is our sin that we have committed against Yehovah our God?
16:11 Then shall you say to them, Because your fathers have forsaken me, says Yehovah, and have walked after other gods, and have served them, and have worshipped them, and have forsaken me, and have not kept my law;
16:12 and ye have done evil more than your fathers; for, behold, ye walk every one after the stubbornness of his evil heart, so that ye hearken not to me:
16:13 therefore I will cast you forth out of this land into the land that ye have not known, neither ye nor your fathers; and there shall ye serve other gods day and night; for I will show you no favor.
16:14 Therefore, behold, the days come, says Yehovah, that it shall no more be said, as Yehovah lives, that brought up the children of Israel out of the land of Egypt;
16:15 but, as Yehovah lives, that brought up the children of Israel from the land of the north, and from all the countries whither he had driven them. And I will bring them again into their land that I gave to their fathers.
16:16 Behold, I will send for many fishers, says Yehovah, and they shall fish them up; and afterward I will send for many hunters, and they shall hunt them from every mountain, and from every hill, and out of the clefts of the rocks.
16:17 For my eyes are upon all their ways; they are not hid from my face, neither is their iniquity concealed from my eyes.
16:18 And first I will recompense their iniquity and their sin double, because they have polluted my land with the carcasses of their detestable things, and have filled my inheritance with their abominations.
16:19 O Yehovah, my strength, and my stronghold, and my refuge in the day of affliction, to you shall the nations come from the ends of the earth, and shall say, Our fathers have inherited nought but lies, even vanity and things in which there is no profit.
16:20 Shall a man make to himself gods, which yet are no gods?
16:21 Therefore, behold, I will cause them to know, this once I will cause them to know my hand and my might; and they shall know that my name is Yehovah.
17:1 The sin of Judah is written with a pen of iron, and with the point of a diamond: it is graven upon the tablet of their heart, and upon the horns of your altars;
17:2 whilst their children remember their altars and their Asherim by the green trees upon the high hills.
17:3 O my mountain in the field, I will give your substance and all your treasures for a spoil, and your high places, because of sin, throughout all your borders.

17:4 And you, even of yourself, shall discontinue from your heritage that I gave you; and I will cause you to serve your enemies in the land which you know not: for ye have kindled a fire in my anger which shall burn for ever.
17:5 Thus says Yehovah: Cursed is the man that trusts in man, and makes flesh his arm, and whose heart departs from Yehovah.
17:6 For he shall be like the heath in the desert, and shall not see when good comes, but shall inhabit the parched places in the wilderness, a salt land and not inhabited.
17:7 Blessed is the man that trusts in Yehovah, and whose trust Yehovah is.
17:8 For he shall be as a tree planted by the waters, that spreads out its roots by the river, and shall not fear when heat comes, but its leaf shall be green; and shall not be careful in the year of drought, neither shall cease from yielding fruit.
17:9 The heart is deceitful above all things, and it is exceedingly corrupt: who can know it?
17:10 I, Yehovah, search the mind, I try the heart, even to give every man according to his ways, according to the fruit of his doings.
17:11 As the partridge that sits on eggs which she has not laid, so is he that gets riches, and not by right; in the midst of his days they shall leave him, and at his end he shall be a fool.
17:12 A glorious throne, set on high from the beginning, is the place of our sanctuary.
17:13 O Yehovah, the hope of Israel, all that forsake you shall be put to shame. They that depart from you shall be written in the earth, because they have forsaken Yehovah, the fountain of living waters.
17:14 Heal me, O Yehovah, and I shall be healed; save me, and I shall be saved: for you are my praise.
17:15 Behold, they say to me, Where is the word of Yehovah? let it come now.
17:16 As for me, I have not hastened from being a shepherd after you; neither have I desired the woeful day; you know: that which came out of my lips was before your face.
17:17 Be not a terror to me: you are my refuge in the day of evil.
17:18 Let them be put to shame that persecute me, but let not me be put to shame; let them be dismayed, but let not me be dismayed; bring upon them the day of evil, and destroy them with double destruction.
17:19 Thus said Yehovah to me: Go, and stand in the gate of the children of the people, whereby the kings of Judah come in, and by which they go out, and in all the gates of Jerusalem;
17:20 and say to them, Hear ye the word of Yehovah, ye kings of Judah, and all Judah, and all the inhabitants of Jerusalem, that enter in by these gates:
17:21 Thus says Yehovah, Take heed to yourselves, and bear no burden on the sabbath day, nor bring it in by the gates of Jerusalem;
17:22 neither carry forth a burden out of your houses on the sabbath day, neither do ye any work: but hallow ye the sabbath day, as I commanded your fathers.
17:23 But they hearkened not, neither inclined their ear, but made their neck stiff, that they might not hear, and might not receive instruction.
17:24 And it shall come to pass, if ye diligently hearken to me, says Yehovah, to bring in no burden through the gates of this city on the sabbath day, but to hallow the sabbath day, to do no work therein;
17:25 then shall there enter in by the gates of this city kings and princes sitting upon the throne of David, riding in chariots and on horses, they, and their princes, the men of Judah, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem; and this city shall remain for ever.
17:26 And they shall come from the cities of Judah, and from the places round about Jerusalem, and from the land of Benjamin, and from the lowland, and from the hill-country, and from the South, bringing burnt offerings, and sacrifices, and meal offerings, and frankincense, and bringing sacrifices of thanksgiving, to the house of Yehovah.
17:27 But if ye will not hearken to me to hallow the sabbath day, and not to bear a burden and enter in at the gates of Jerusalem on the sabbath day; then I will kindle a fire in the gates thereof, and it shall devour the palaces of Jerusalem, and it shall not be quenched.

18:1 The word which came to Jeremiah from Yehovah, saying,
18:2 Arise, and go down to the potter's house, and there I will cause you to hear my words.
18:3 Then I went down to the potter's house, and, behold, he was making a work on the wheels.
18:4 And when the vessel that he made of the clay was marred in the hand of the potter, he made it again another vessel, as seemed good to the potter to make it.
18:5 Then the word of Yehovah came to me, saying,
18:6 O house of Israel, cannot I do with you as this potter? says Yehovah. Behold, as the clay in the potter's hand, so are ye in my hand, O house of Israel.
18:7 At what instant I shall speak concerning a nation, and concerning a kingdom, to pluck up and to break down and to destroy it;
18:8 if that nation, concerning which I have spoken, turn from their evil, I will repent of the evil that I thought to do to them.
18:9 And at what instant I shall speak concerning a nation, and concerning a kingdom, to build and to plant it;
18:10 if they do that which is evil in my sight, that they obey not my voice, then I will repent of the good, with which I said I would benefit them.
18:11 Now therefore, speak to the men of Judah, and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, saying, Thus says Yehovah: Behold, I frame evil against you, and devise a device against you: return ye now every one from his evil way, and amend your ways and your doings.
18:12 But they say, It is in vain; for we will walk after our own devices, and we will do every one after the stubbornness of his evil heart.
18:13 Therefore thus says Yehovah: Ask ye now among the nations, who has heard such things; the virgin of Israel has done a very horrible thing.
18:14 Shall the snow of Lebanon fail from the rock of the field? or shall the cold waters that flow down from afar be dried up?
18:15 For my people have forgotten me, they have burned incense to false gods; and they have been made to stumble in their ways, in the ancient paths, to walk in bypaths, in a way not cast up;
18:16 to make their land an astonishment, and a perpetual hissing; every one that passes thereby shall be astonished, and shake his head.
18:17 I will scatter them as with an east wind before the enemy; I will show them the back, and not the face, in the day of their calamity.
18:18 Then said they, Come, and let us devise devices against Jeremiah; for the law shall not perish from the priest, nor counsel from the wise, nor the word from the prophet. Come, and let us smite him with the tongue, and let us not give heed to any of his words.
18:19 Give heed to me, O Yehovah, and hearken to the voice of them that contend with me.
18:20 Shall evil be recompensed for good? for they have dug a pit for my soul. Remember how I stood before you to speak good for them, to turn away your wrath from them.
18:21 Therefore deliver up their children to the famine, and give them over to the power of the sword; and let their wives become childless, and widows; and let their men be slain of death, and their young men smitten of the sword in battle.
18:22 Let a cry be heard from their houses, when you shall bring a troop suddenly upon them; for they have dug a pit to take me, and hid snares for my feet.
18:23 Yet, Yehovah, you know all their counsel against me to slay me; forgive not their iniquity, neither blot out their sin from your sight; but let them be overthrown before you; deal you with them in the time of your anger.
19:1 Thus said Yehovah, Go, and buy a potter's earthen bottle, and take of the elders of the people, and of the elders of the priests;
19:2 and go forth to the valley of the son of Hinnom, which is by the entry of the gate Harsith, and proclaim there the words that I shall tell you;
19:3 and say, Hear ye the word of Yehovah, O kings of Judah, and inhabitants of Jerusalem: thus says Yehovah of hosts, the God of Israel, Behold, I will bring evil upon this place, which whoever hears, his ears shall tingle.

19:4 Because they have forsaken me, and have estranged this place, and have burned incense in it to other gods, that they knew not, they and their fathers and the kings of Judah; and have filled this place with the blood of innocents,
19:5 and have built the high places of Baal, to burn their sons in the fire for burnt offerings to Baal; which I commanded not, nor spoke it, neither came it into my mind:
19:6 therefore, behold, the days come, says Yehovah, that this place shall no more be called Topheth, nor The valley of the son of Hinnom, but The valley of Slaughter.
19:7 And I will make void the counsel of Judah and Jerusalem in this place; and I will cause them to fall by the sword before their enemies, and by the hand of them that seek their life: and their dead bodies I will give to be food for the birds of the heavens, and for the beasts of the earth.
19:8 And I will make this city an astonishment, and a hissing; every one that passes thereby shall be astonished and hiss because of all the plagues thereof.
19:9 And I will cause them to eat the flesh of their sons and the flesh of their daughters; and they shall eat every one the flesh of his friend, in the siege and in the distress, with which their enemies, and they that seek their life, shall distress them.
19:10 Then shall you break the bottle in the sight of the men that go with you,
19:11 and shall say to them, Thus says Yehovah of hosts: Even so I will break this people and this city, as one breaks a potter's vessel, that cannot be made whole again; and they shall bury in Topheth, till there be no place to bury.
19:12 Thus I will do to this place, says Yehovah, and to the inhabitants thereof, even making this city as Topheth:
19:13 and the houses of Jerusalem, and the houses of the kings of Judah, which are defiled, shall be as the place of Topheth, even all the houses upon whose roofs they have burned incense to all the host of heaven, and have poured out drink offerings to other gods.
19:14 Then came Jeremiah from Topheth, whither Yehovah had sent him to prophesy; and he stood in the court of Yehovah's house, and said to all the people:
19:15 Thus says Yehovah of hosts, the God of Israel, Behold, I will bring upon this city and upon all its towns all the evil that I have pronounced against it; because they have made their neck stiff, that they may not hear my words.
20:1 Now Pashhur, the son of Immer the priest, who was chief officer in the house of Yehovah, heard Jeremiah prophesying these things.
20:2 Then Pashhur smote Jeremiah the prophet, and put him in the stocks that were in the upper gate of Benjamin, which was in the house of Yehovah.
20:3 And it came to pass on the morrow, that Pashhur brought forth Jeremiah out of the stocks. Then said Jeremiah to him, Yehovah has not called your name Pashhur, but Magor-missabib.
20:4 For thus says Yehovah, Behold, I will make you a terror to yourself, and to all your friends; and they shall fall by the sword of their enemies, and your eyes shall behold it; and I will give all Judah into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he shall carry them captive to Babylon, and shall slay them with the sword.
20:5 Moreover I will give all the riches of this city, and all the gains thereof, and all the precious things thereof, yes, all the treasures of the kings of Judah I will give into the hand of their enemies; and they shall make them a prey, and take them, and carry them to Babylon.
20:6 And you, Pashhur, and all that dwell in your house shall go into captivity; and you shall come to Babylon, and there you shall die, and there shall you be buried, you, and all your friends, to whom you have prophesied falsely.
20:7 O Yehovah, you have persuaded me, and I was persuaded; you are stronger than I, and have prevailed: I am become a laughing-stock all the day, every one mocks me.
20:8 For as often as I speak, I cry out; I cry, Violence and destruction! because the word of Yehovah is made a reproach to me, and a derision, all the day.
20:9 And if I say, I will not make mention of him, nor speak any more in his name, then there is in my heart as it were a burning fire shut up in my bones, and I am weary with forbearing, and I cannot contain.

20:10 For I have heard the defaming of many, terror on every side. Denounce, and we will denounce him, say all my familiar friends, they that watch for my fall; peradventure he will be persuaded, and we shall prevail against him, and we shall take our revenge on him.
20:11 But Yehovah is with me as a mighty one and a terrible: therefore my persecutors shall stumble, and they shall not prevail; they shall be utterly put to shame, because they have not dealt wisely, even with an everlasting dishonor which shall never be forgotten.
20:12 But, O Yehovah of hosts, that try the righteous, that see the heart and the mind, let me see your vengeance on them; for to you have I revealed my cause.
20:13 Sing to Yehovah, praise ye Yehovah; for he has delivered the soul of the needy from the hand of evil-doers.
20:14 Cursed be the day in which I was born: let not the day in which my mother bore me be blessed.
20:15 Cursed be the man who brought tidings to my father, saying, a man-child is born to you; making him very glad.
20:16 And let that man be as the cities which Yehovah overthrew, and repented not: and let him hear a cry in the morning, and shouting at noontime;
20:17 because he slew me not from the womb; and so my mother would have been my grave, and her womb always great.
20:18 Why came I forth out of the womb to see labor and sorrow, that my days should be consumed with shame?
21:1 The word which came to Jeremiah from Yehovah, when king Zedekiah sent to him Pashhur the son of Malchijah, and Zephaniah the son of Maaseiah, the priest, saying,
21:2 Inquire, I pray you, of Yehovah for us; for Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon makes war against us: peradventure Yehovah will deal with us according to all his wondrous works, that he may go up from us.
21:3 Then said Jeremiah to them, Thus shall ye say to Zedekiah:
21:4 Thus says Yehovah, the God of Israel, Behold, I will turn back the weapons of war that are in your hands, with which ye fight against the king of Babylon, and against the Chaldeans that besiege you, without the walls; and I will gather them into the midst of this city.
21:5 And I myself will fight against you with an outstretched hand and with a strong arm, even in anger, and in wrath, and in great indignation.
21:6 And I will smite the inhabitants of this city, both man and beast: they shall die of a great pestilence.
21:7 And afterward, says Yehovah, I will deliver Zedekiah king of Judah, and his servants, and the people, even such as are left in this city from the pestilence, from the sword, and from the famine, into the hand of Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon, and into the hand of their enemies, and into the hand of those that seek their life: and he shall smite them with the edge of the sword; he shall not spare them, neither have pity, nor have mercy.
21:8 And to this people you shall say, Thus says Yehovah: Behold, I set before you the way of life and the way of death.
21:9 He that abides in this city shall die by the sword, and by the famine, and by the pestilence; but he that goes out, and passes over to the Chaldeans that besiege you, he shall live, and his life shall be to him for a prey.
21:10 For I have set my face upon this city for evil, and not for good, says Yehovah: it shall be given into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he shall burn it with fire.
21:11 And touching the house of the king of Judah, hear ye the word of Yehovah:
21:12 O house of David, thus says Yehovah, Execute justice in the morning, and deliver him that is robbed out of the hand of the oppressor, lest my wrath go forth like fire, and burn so that no one can quench it, because of the evil of your doings.
21:13 Behold, I am against you, O inhabitant of the valley, and of the rock of the plain, says Yehovah; you that say, Who shall come down against us? or who shall enter into our habitations?
21:14 And I will punish you according to the fruit of your doings, says Yehovah; and I will kindle a fire in her forest, and it shall devour all that is round about her.

22:1 Thus said Yehovah: Go down to the house of the king of Judah, and speak there this word,
22:2 And say, Hear the word of Yehovah, O king of Judah, that sit upon the throne of David, you, and your servants, and your people that enter in by these gates.
22:3 Thus says Yehovah: Execute ye justice and righteousness, and deliver him that is robbed out of the hand of the oppressor: and do no wrong, do no violence, to the sojourner, the fatherless, nor the widow; neither shed innocent blood in this place.
22:4 For if ye do this thing indeed, then shall there enter in by the gates of this house kings sitting upon the throne of David, riding in chariots and on horses, he, and his servants, and his people.
22:5 But if ye will not hear these words, I swear by myself, says Yehovah, that this house shall become a desolation.
22:6 For thus says Yehovah concerning the house of the king of Judah: You are Gilead to me, and the head of Lebanon; yet surely I will make you a wilderness, and cities which are not inhabited.
22:7 And I will prepare destroyers against you, every one with his weapons; and they shall cut down your choice cedars, and cast them into the fire.
22:8 And many nations shall pass by this city, and they shall say every man to his neighbor, Why has Yehovah done thus to this great city?
22:9 Then they shall answer, Because they forsook the covenant of Yehovah their God, and worshipped other gods, and served them.
22:10 Weep ye not for the dead, neither bemoan him; but weep sore for him that goes away; for he shall return no more, nor see his native country.
22:11 For thus says Yehovah touching Shallum the son of Josiah, king of Judah, who reigned instead of Josiah his father, and who went forth out of this place: He shall not return there any more.
22:12 But in the place whither they have led him captive, there shall he die, and he shall see this land no more.
22:13 Woe to him that builds his house by unrighteousness, and his chambers by injustice; that uses his neighbor's service without wages, and gives him not his hire;
22:14 that says, I will build me a wide house and spacious chambers, and cuts him out windows; and it is ceiled with cedar, and painted with vermilion.
22:15 Shall you reign, because you strive to excel in cedar? Did not your father eat and drink, and do justice and righteousness? then it was well with him.
22:16 He judged the cause of the poor and needy; then it was well. Was not this to know me? says Yehovah.
22:17 But your eyes and your heart are only for your covetousness, and for shedding innocent blood, and for oppression, and for violence, to do it.
22:18 Therefore thus says Yehovah concerning Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah: they shall not lament for him, saying, ah my brother! or, ah sister! They shall not lament for him, saying Ah lord! or, ah his glory!
22:19 He shall be buried with the burial of a donkey, drawn and cast forth beyond the gates of Jerusalem.
22:20 Go up to Lebanon, and cry; and lift up your voice in Bashan, and cry from Abarim; for all your lovers are destroyed.
22:21 I spoke to you in your prosperity; but you said, I will not hear. This has been your manner from your youth, that you obeyed not my voice.
22:22 The wind shall feed all your shepherds, and your lovers shall go into captivity: surely then shall you be ashamed and confounded for all your wickedness.
22:23 O inhabitant of Lebanon, that make your nest in the cedars, how greatly to be pitied shall you be when pangs come upon you, the pain as of a woman in travail!
22:24 As I live, says Yehovah, though Coniah the son of Jehoiakim king of Judah were the signet upon my right hand, yet would I pluck you there;
22:25 and I will give you into the hand of those that seek your life, and into the hand of those of whom you are afraid, even into the hand of Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon, and into the hand of the Chaldeans.
22:26 And I will cast you out, and your mother that bore you, into another country, where ye were not born; and there shall ye die.
22:27 But to the land to which their soul longs to return, there they shall not return.

22:28 Is this man Coniah a despised broken vessel? is he a vessel in which no one delights? why are they cast out, he and his seed, and are cast into the land which they know not?
22:29 O earth, earth, earth, hear the word of Yehovah.
22:30 Thus says Yehovah, Write ye this man childless, a man that shall not prosper in his days; for no more shall a man of his seed prosper, sitting upon the throne of David, and ruling in Judah.
23:1 Woe to the shepherds that destroy and scatter the sheep of my pasture! says Yehovah.
23:2 Therefore thus says Yehovah, the God of Israel, against the shepherds that feed my people: You have scattered my flock, and driven them away, and have not visited them; behold, I will visit upon you the evil of your doings, says Yehovah.
23:3 And I will gather the remnant of my flock out of all the countries whither I have driven them, and will bring them again to their folds; and they shall be fruitful and multiply.
23:4 And I will set up shepherds over them, who shall feed them; and they shall fear no more, nor be dismayed, neither shall any be lacking, says Yehovah.
23:5 Behold, the days come, says Yehovah, that I will raise to David a righteous Branch, and he shall reign as king and deal wisely, and shall execute justice and righteousness in the land.
23:6 In his days Judah shall be saved, and Israel shall dwell safely; and this is his name whereby he shall be called: Yehovah our righteousness.
23:7 Therefore, behold, the days come, says Yehovah, that they shall no more say, as Yehovah lives, who brought up the children of Israel out of the land of Egypt;
23:8 but, as Yehovah lives, who brought up and who led the seed of the house of Israel out of the north country, and from all the countries whither I had driven them. And they shall dwell in their own land.
23:9 Concerning the prophets. My heart within me is broken, all my bones shake; I am like a drunken man, and like a man whom wine has overcome, because of Yehovah, and because of his holy words.
23:10 For the land is full of adulterers; for because of swearing the land mourns; the pastures of the wilderness are dried up. And their course is evil, and their might is not right;
23:11 for both prophet and priest are profane; yes, in my house have I found their wickedness, says Yehovah.
23:12 Wherefore their way shall be to them as slippery places in the darkness: they shall be driven on, and fall therein; for I will bring evil upon them, even the year of their visitation, says Yehovah.
23:13 And I have seen folly in the prophets of Samaria; they prophesied by Baal, and caused my people Israel to err.
23:14 In the prophets of Jerusalem also I have seen a horrible thing: they commit adultery, and walk in lies; and they strengthen the hands of evil-doers, so that no one returns from his wickedness: they are all of them become to me as Sodom, and the inhabitants thereof as Gomorrah.
23:15 Therefore thus says Yehovah of hosts concerning the prophets: Behold, I will feed them with wormwood, and make them drink the water of gall; for from the prophets of Jerusalem is ungodliness gone forth into all the land.
23:16 Thus says Yehovah of hosts, Hearken not to the words of the prophets that prophesy to you: they teach you vanity; they speak a vision of their own heart, and not out of the mouth of Yehovah.
23:17 They say continually to them that despise me, Yehovah has said, You shall have peace; and to every one that walks in the stubbornness of his own heart they say, No evil shall come upon you.
23:18 For who has stood in the council of Yehovah, that he should perceive and hear his word? who has marked my word, and heard it?
23:19 Behold, the tempest of Yehovah, even his wrath, is gone forth, yes, a whirling tempest: it shall burst upon the head of the wicked.

23:20 The anger of Yehovah shall not return, until he have executed, and till he have performed the intents of his heart: in the latter days ye shall understand it perfectly.
23:21 I sent not these prophets, yet they ran: I spoke not to them, yet they prophesied.
23:22 But if they had stood in my council, then had they caused my people to hear my words, and had turned them from their evil way, and from the evil of their doings.
23:23 Am I a God at hand, says Yehovah, and not a God afar off?
23:24 Can any hide himself in secret places so that I shall not see him? says Yehovah. Do not I fill heaven and earth? says Yehovah.
23:25 I have heard what the prophets have said, that prophesy lies in my name, saying, I have dreamed, I have dreamed.
23:26 How long shall this be in the heart of the prophets that prophesy lies, even the prophets of the deceit of their own heart?
23:27 that think to cause my people to forget my name by their dreams which they tell every man to his neighbor, as their fathers forgat my name for Baal.
23:28 The prophet that has a dream, let him tell a dream; and he that has my word, let him speak my word faithfully. What is the straw to the wheat? says Yehovah.
23:29 Is not my word like fire? says Yehovah; and like a hammer that breaks the rock in pieces?
23:30 Therefore, behold, I am against the prophets, says Yehovah, that steal my words every one from his neighbor.
23:31 Behold, I am against the prophets, says Yehovah, that use their tongues, and say, He says.
23:32 Behold, I am against them that prophesy lying dreams, says Yehovah, and do tell them, and cause my people to err by their lies, and by their vain boasting: yet I sent them not, nor commanded them; neither do they profit this people at all, says Yehovah.
23:33 And when this people, or the prophet, or a priest, shall ask you, saying, What is the burden concerning Yehovah? then shall you say to them, What burden! I will cast you off, says Yehovah.
23:34 And as for the prophet, and the priest, and the people, that shall say, The burden concerning Yehovah, I will even punish that man and his house.
23:35 Thus shall ye say every one to his neighbor, and every one to his brother, What has Yehovah answered? and, What has Yehovah spoken?
23:36 And the burden of Yehovah shall ye mention no more: for every man's own word shall be his burden; for ye have perverted the words of the living God, of Yehovah of hosts our God.
23:37 Thus shall you say to the prophet, What has Yehovah answered you? and, What has Yehovah spoken?
23:38 But if ye say, The burden of Yehovah; therefore thus says Yehovah: Because ye say this word, The burden of Yehovah, and I have sent to you, saying, You shall not say, The burden of Yehovah;
23:39 therefore, behold, I will utterly forget you, and I will cast you off, and the city that I gave to you and to your fathers, away from my presence:
23:40 and I will bring an everlasting reproach upon you, and a perpetual shame, which shall not be forgotten.
24:1 Yehovah showed me, and, behold, two baskets of figs set before the temple of Yehovah, after that Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon had carried away captive Jeconiah the son of Jehoiakim, king of Judah, and the princes of Judah, with the craftsmen and smiths, from Jerusalem, and had brought them to Babylon.
24:2 One basket had very good figs, like the figs that are first-ripe; and the other basket had very bad figs, which could not be eaten, they were so bad.
24:3 Then said Yehovah to me, What see you, Jeremiah? And I said, Figs; the good figs, very good; and the bad, very bad, that cannot be eaten, they are so bad.
24:4 And the word of Yehovah came to me, saying,

24:5 Thus says Yehovah, the God of Israel: Like these good figs, so I will regard the captives of Judah, whom I have sent out of this place into the land of the Chaldeans, for good.
24:6 For I will set my eyes upon them for good, and I will bring them again to this land: and I will build them, and not pull them down; and I will plant them, and not pluck them up.
24:7 And I will give them a heart to know me, that I am Yehovah: and they shall be my people, and I will be their God; for they shall return to me with their whole heart.
24:8 And as the bad figs, which cannot be eaten, they are so bad, surely thus says Yehovah, So I will give up Zedekiah the king of Judah, and his princes, and the residue of Jerusalem, that remain in this land, and them that dwell in the land of Egypt,
24:9 I will even give them up to be tossed to and fro among all the kingdoms of the earth for evil; to be a reproach and a proverb, a taunt and a curse, in all places whither I shall drive them.
24:10 And I will send the sword, the famine, and the pestilence, among them, till they be consumed from off the land that I gave to them and to their fathers.
25:1 The word that came to Jeremiah concerning all the people of Judah, in the fourth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah (the same was the first year of Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon,)
25:2 which Jeremiah the prophet spoke to all the people of Judah, and to all the inhabitants of Jerusalem, saying:
25:3 From the thirteenth year of Josiah the son of Amon, king of Judah, even to this day, these three and twenty years, the word of Yehovah has come to me, and I have spoken to you, rising up early and speaking; but ye have not hearkened.
25:4 And Yehovah has sent to you all his servants the prophets, rising up early and sending them, (but ye have not hearkened, nor inclined your ear to hear,)
25:5 saying, Return ye now every one from his evil way, and from the evil of your doings, and dwell in the land that Yehovah has given to you and to your fathers, from of old and even for evermore;
25:6 and go not after other gods to serve them, and to worship them, and provoke me not to anger with the work of your hands; and I will do you no hurt.
25:7 Yet ye have not hearkened to me, says Yehovah; that ye may provoke me to anger with the work of your hands to your own hurt.
25:8 Therefore thus says Yehovah of hosts: Because ye have not heard my words,
25:9 behold, I will send and take all the families of the north, says Yehovah, and I will send to Nebuchadrezzar the king of Babylon, my servant, and will bring them against this land, and against the inhabitants thereof, and against all these nations round about; and I will utterly destroy them, and make them an astonishment, and a hissing, and perpetual desolations.
25:10 Moreover I will take from them the voice of mirth and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom and the voice of the bride, the sound of the millstones, and the light of the lamp.
25:11 And this whole land shall be a desolation, and an astonishment; and these nations shall serve the king of Babylon seventy years.
25:12 And it shall come to pass, when seventy years are accomplished, that I will punish the king of Babylon, and that nation, says Yehovah, for their iniquity, and the land of the Chaldeans; and I will make it desolate for ever.
25:13 And I will bring upon that land all my words which I have pronounced against it, even all that is written in this book, which Jeremiah has prophesied against all the nations.
25:14 For many nations and great kings shall make bondmen of them, even of them; and I will recompense them according to their deeds, and according to the work of their hands.
25:15 For thus says Yehovah, the God of Israel, to me: take this cup of the wine of wrath at my hand, and cause all the nations, to whom I send you, to drink it.
25:16 And they shall drink, and reel to and fro, and be mad, because of the sword that I will send among them.

25:17 Then took I the cup at Yehovah's hand, and made all the nations to drink, to whom Yehovah had sent me:
25:18 that is, to Jerusalem, and the cities of Judah, and the kings thereof, and the princes thereof, to make them a desolation, an astonishment, a hissing, and a curse, as it is this day;
25:19 Pharaoh king of Egypt, and his servants, and his princes, and all his people;
25:20 and all the mingled people, and all the kings of the land of the Uz, and all the kings of the Philistines, and Ashkelon, and Gaza, and Ekron, and the remnant of Ashdod;
25:21 Edom, and Moab, and the children of Ammon;
25:22 and all the kings of Tyre, and all the kings of Sidon, and the kings of the isle which is beyond the sea;
25:23 Dedan, and Tema, and Buz, and all that have the corners of their hair cut off;
25:24 and all the kings of Arabia, and all the kings of the mingled people that dwell in the wilderness;
25:25 and all the kings of Zimri, and all the kings of Elam, and all the kings of the Medes;
25:26 and all the kings of the north, far and near, one with another; and all the kingdoms of the world, which are upon the face of the earth: and the king of Sheshach shall drink after them.
25:27 And you shall say to them, Thus says Yehovah of hosts, the God of Israel: Drink ye, and be drunken, and spew, and fall, and rise no more, because of the sword which I will send among you.
25:28 And it shall be, if they refuse to take the cup at your hand to drink, then shall you say to them, Thus says Yehovah of hosts: You shall surely drink.
25:29 For, lo, I begin to work evil at the city which is called by my name; and should ye be utterly unpunished? You shall not be unpunished; for I will call for a sword upon all the inhabitants of the earth, says Yehovah of hosts.
25:30 Therefore prophesy you against them all these words, and say to them, Yehovah will roar from on high, and utter his voice from his holy habitation; he will mightily roar against his fold; he will give a shout, as they that tread the grapes, against all the inhabitants of the earth.
25:31 A noise shall come even to the end of the earth; for Yehovah has a controversy with the nations; he will enter into judgment with all flesh: as for the wicked, he will give them to the sword, says Yehovah.
25:32 Thus says Yehovah of hosts, Behold, evil shall go forth from nation to nation, and a great tempest shall be raised up from the uttermost parts of the earth.
25:33 And the slain of Yehovah shall be at that day from one end of the earth even to the other end of the earth: they shall not be lamented, neither gathered, nor buried; they shall be dung upon the face of the ground.
25:34 Wail, ye shepherds, and cry; and wallow in ashes, ye principal of the flock; for the days of your slaughter and of your dispersions are fully come, and ye shall fall like a goodly vessel.
25:35 And the shepherds shall have no way to flee, nor the principal of the flock to escape.
25:36 A voice of the cry of the shepherds, and the wailing of the principal of the flock! for Yehovah lays waste their pasture.
25:37 And the peaceable folds are brought to silence because of the fierce anger of Yehovah.
25:38 He has left his covert, as the lion; for their land is become an astonishment because of the fierceness of the oppressing sword, and because of his fierce anger.
26:1 In the beginning of the reign of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah, came this word from Yehovah, saying,
26:2 Thus says Yehovah: Stand in the court of Yehovah's house, and speak to all the cities of Judah, which come to worship in Yehovah's house, all the words that I command you to speak to them; diminish not a word.
26:3 It may be they will hearken, and turn every man from his evil way; that I may repent me of the evil which I purpose to do to them because of the evil of their doings.

26:4 And you shall say to them, Thus says Yehovah: If ye will not hearken to me, to walk in my law, which I have set before you,
26:5 to hearken to the words of my servants the prophets, whom I send to you, even rising up early and sending them, but ye have not hearkened;
26:6 then I will make this house like Shiloh, and will make this city a curse to all the nations of the earth.
26:7 And the priests and the prophets and all the people heard Jeremiah speaking these words in the house of Yehovah.
26:8 And it came to pass, when Jeremiah had made an end of speaking all that Yehovah had commanded him to speak to all the people, that the priests and the prophets and all the people laid hold on him, saying, You shall surely die.
26:9 Why have you prophesied in the name of Yehovah, saying, This house shall be like Shiloh, and this city shall be desolate, without inhabitant? And all the people were gathered to Jeremiah in the house of Yehovah.
26:10 And when the princes of Judah heard these things, they came up from the king's house to the house of Yehovah; and they sat in the entry of the new gate of Yehovah's house.
26:11 Then spoke the priests and the prophets to the princes and to all the people, saying, This man is worthy of death; for he has prophesied against this city, as ye have heard with your ears.
26:12 Then spoke Jeremiah to all the princes and to all the people, saying, Yehovah sent me to prophesy against this house and against this city all the words that ye have heard.
26:13 Now therefore amend your ways and your doings, and obey the voice of Yehovah your God; and Yehovah will repent him of the evil that he has pronounced against you.
26:14 But as for me, behold, I am in your hand: do with me as is good and right in your eyes.
26:15 Only know ye for certain that, if ye put me to death, ye will bring innocent blood upon yourselves, and upon this city, and upon the inhabitants thereof; for of a truth Yehovah has sent me to you to speak all these words in your ears.
26:16 Then said the princes and all the people to the priests and to the prophets: This man is not worthy of death; for he has spoken to us in the name of Yehovah our God.
26:17 Then rose up certain of the elders of the land, and spoke to all the assembly of the people, saying,
26:18 Micah the Morashtite prophesied in the days of Hezekiah king of Judah; and he spoke to all the people of Judah, saying, Thus says Yehovah of hosts: Zion shall be plowed as a field, and Jerusalem shall become heaps, and the mountain of the house as the high places of a forest.
26:19 Did Hezekiah king of Judah and all Judah put him to death? did he not fear Yehovah, and entreat the favor of Yehovah, and Yehovah repented him of the evil which he had pronounced against them? Thus should we commit great evil against our own souls.
26:20 And there was also a man that prophesied in the name of Yehovah, Uriah the son of Shemaiah of Kiriath-jearim; and he prophesied against this city and against this land according to all the words of Jeremiah:
26:21 and when Jehoiakim the king, with all his mighty-men, and all the princes, heard his words, the king sought to put him to death; but when Uriah heard it, he was afraid, and fled, and went into Egypt:
26:22 and Jehoiakim the king sent men into Egypt, namely, Elnathan the son of Achbor, and certain men with him, into Egypt;
26:23 and they fetched forth Uriah out of Egypt, and brought him to Jehoiakim the king, who slew him with the sword, and cast his dead body into the graves of the common people.
26:24 But the hand of Ahikam the son of Shaphan was with Jeremiah, that they should not give him into the hand of the people to put him to death.
27:1 In the beginning of the reign of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah, came this word to Jeremiah from Yehovah, saying,

27:2 Thus says Yehovah to me: Make you bonds and bars, and put them upon your neck;
27:3 and send them to the king of Edom, and to the king of Moab, and to the king of the children of Ammon, and to the king of Tyre, and to the king of Sidon, by the hand of the messengers that come to Jerusalem to Zedekiah king of Judah;
27:4 and give them a charge to their masters, saying, Thus says Yehovah of hosts, the God of Israel, Thus shall ye say to your masters:
27:5 I have made the earth, the men and the beasts that are upon the face of the earth, by my great power and by my outstretched arm; and I give it to whom it seems right to me.
27:6 And now have I given all these lands into the hand of Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon, my servant; and the beasts of the field also have I given him to serve him.
27:7 And all the nations shall serve him, and his son, and his son's son, until the time of his own land come: and then many nations and great kings shall make him their bondman.
27:8 And it shall come to pass, that the nation and the kingdom which will not serve the same Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and that will not put their neck under the yoke of the king of Babylon, that nation I will punish, says Yehovah, with the sword, and with the famine, and with the pestilence, until I have consumed them by his hand.
27:9 But as for you, hearken ye not to your prophets, nor to your diviners, nor to your dreams, nor to your soothsayers, nor to your sorcerers, that speak to you, saying, You shall not serve the king of Babylon:
27:10 for they prophesy a lie to you, to remove you far from your land, and that I should drive you out, and ye should perish.
27:11 But the nation that shall bring their neck under the yoke of the king of Babylon, and serve him, that nation I will let remain in their own land, says Yehovah; and they shall till it, and dwell therein.
27:12 And I spoke to Zedekiah king of Judah according to all these words, saying, Bring your necks under the yoke of the king of Babylon, and serve him and his people, and live.
27:13 Why will ye die, you and your people, by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence, as Yehovah has spoken concerning the nation that will not serve the king of Babylon?
27:14 And hearken not to the words of the prophets that speak to you, saying, You shall not serve the king of Babylon; for they prophesy a lie to you.
27:15 For I have not sent them, says Yehovah, but they prophesy falsely in my name; that I may drive you out, and that ye may perish, ye, and the prophets that prophesy to you.
27:16 Also I spoke to the priests and to all this people, saying, Thus says Yehovah: Hearken not to the words of your prophets that prophesy to you, saying, Behold, the vessels of Yehovah's house shall now shortly be brought again from Babylon; for they prophesy a lie to you.
27:17 Hearken not to them; serve the king of Babylon, and live: why should this city become a desolation?
27:18 But if they be prophets, and if the word of Yehovah be with them, let them now make intercession to Yehovah of hosts, that the vessels which are left in the house of Yehovah, and in the house of the king of Judah, and at Jerusalem, go not to Babylon.
27:19 For thus says Yehovah of hosts concerning the pillars, and concerning the sea, and concerning the bases, and concerning the residue of the vessels that are left in this city,
27:20 which Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon took not, when he carried away captive Jeconiah the son of Jehoiakim, king of Judah, from Jerusalem to Babylon, and all the nobles of Judah and Jerusalem;
27:21 yes, thus says Yehovah of hosts, the God of Israel, concerning the vessels that are left in the house of Yehovah, and in the house of the king of Judah, and at Jerusalem:

27:22 They shall be carried to Babylon, and there shall they be, until the day that I visit them, says Yehovah; then I will bring them up, and restore them to this place.
28:1 And it came to pass the same year, in the beginning of the reign of Zedekiah king of Judah, in the fourth year, in the fifth month, that Hananiah the son of Azzur, the prophet, who was of Gibeon, spoke to me in the house of Yehovah, in the presence of the priests and of all the people, saying,
28:2 Thus speaks Yehovah of hosts, the God of Israel, saying, I have broken the yoke of the king of Babylon.
28:3 Within two full years I will bring again into this place all the vessels of Yehovah's house, that Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon took away from this place, and carried to Babylon:
28:4 and I will bring again to this place Jeconiah the son of Jehoiakim, king of Judah, with all the captives of Judah, that went to Babylon, says Yehovah; for I will break the yoke of the king of Babylon.
28:5 Then the prophet Jeremiah said to the prophet Hananiah in the presence of the priests, and in the presence of all the people that stood in the house of Yehovah,
28:6 even the prophet Jeremiah said, amen: Yehovah do so; Yehovah perform your words which you have prophesied, to bring again the vessels of Yehovah's house, and all them of the captivity, from Babylon to this place.
28:7 Nevertheless hear you now this word that I speak in your ears, and in the ears of all the people:
28:8 The prophets that have been before me and before you of old prophesied against many countries, and against great kingdoms, of war, and of evil, and of pestilence.
28:9 The prophet that prophesies of peace, when the word of the prophet shall come to pass, then shall the prophet be known, that Yehovah has truly sent him.
28:10 Then Hananiah the prophet took the bar from off the prophet Jeremiah's neck, and broke it.
28:11 And Hananiah spoke in the presence of all the people, saying, Thus says Yehovah: Even so I will break the yoke of Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon within two full years from off the neck of all the nations. And the prophet Jeremiah went his way.
28:12 Then the word of Yehovah came to Jeremiah, after that Hananiah the prophet had broken the bar from off the neck of the prophet Jeremiah, saying,
28:13 Go, and tell Hananiah, saying, Thus says Yehovah: You have broken the bars of wood; but you have made in their stead bars of iron.
28:14 For thus says Yehovah of hosts, the God of Israel: I have put a yoke of iron upon the neck of all these nations, that they may served Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon; and they shall serve him: and I have given him the beasts of the field also.
28:15 Then said the prophet Jeremiah to Hananiah the prophet, Hear now, Hananiah: Yehovah has not sent you; but you cause this people to trust in a lie.
28:16 Therefore thus says Yehovah, Behold, I will send you away from off the face of the earth: this year you shall die, because you have spoken rebellion against Yehovah.
28:17 So Hananiah the prophet died the same year in the seventh month.
29:1 Now these are the words of the letter that Jeremiah the prophet sent from Jerusalem to the residue of the elders of the captivity, and to the priests, and to the prophets, and to all the people, whom Nebuchadnezzar had carried away captive from Jerusalem to Babylon,
29:2 (after that Jeconiah the king, and the queen-mother, and the eunuchs, and the princes of Judah and Jerusalem, and the craftsmen, and the smiths, were departed from Jerusalem,)
29:3 by the hand of Elasah the son of Shaphan, and Gemariah the son of Hilkiah, (whom Zedekiah king of Judah sent to Babylon to Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon,) saying,
29:4 Thus says Yehovah of hosts, the God of Israel, to all the captivity, whom I have caused to be carried away captive from Jerusalem to Babylon:
29:5 Build ye houses, and dwell in them; and plant gardens, and eat the fruit of them.

29:6 Take ye wives, and beget sons and daughters; and take wives for your sons, and give your daughters to husbands, that they may bear sons and daughters; and multiply ye there, and be not diminished.
29:7 And seek the peace of the city whither I have caused you to be carried away captive, and pray to Yehovah for it; for in the peace thereof shall ye have peace.
29:8 For thus says Yehovah of hosts, the God of Israel: Let not your prophets that are in the midst of you, and your diviners, deceive you; neither hearken ye to your dreams which ye cause to be dreamed.
29:9 For they prophesy falsely to you in my name: I have not sent them, says Yehovah.
29:10 For thus says Yehovah, after seventy years are accomplished for Babylon, I will visit you, and perform my good word toward you, in causing you to return to this place.
29:11 For I know the thoughts that I think toward you, says Yehovah, thoughts of peace, and not of evil, to give you hope in your latter end.
29:12 And ye shall call upon me, and ye shall go and pray to me, and I will listen to you.
29:13 And ye shall seek me, and find me, when ye shall search for me with all your heart.
29:14 And I will be found by you, says Yehovah, and I will turn back your captivity, and I will gather you from all the nations, and from all the places to which I have driven you, says Yehovah; and I will bring you back to the place from which I caused you to be carried away captive.
29:15 Because ye have said, Yehovah has raised us up prophets in Babylon;
29:16 thus says Yehovah concerning the king that sits upon the throne of David, and concerning all the people that dwell in this city, your brethren that are not gone forth with you into captivity;
29:17 thus says Yehovah of hosts; Behold, I will send upon them the sword, the famine, and the pestilence, and will make them like vile figs, that cannot be eaten, they are so bad.
29:18 And I will pursue them with the sword, with the famine, and with the pestilence, and will deliver them to be tossed to and fro among all the kingdoms of the earth, to be an execration, and an astonishment, and a hissing, and a reproach, among all the nations to which I have driven them;
29:19 because they have not heeded my words, says Yehovah, with which I sent to them my servants the prophets, rising up early and sending them; but ye would not hear, says Yehovah.
29:20 Hear ye therefore the word of Yehovah, all ye of the captivity, whom I have sent away from Jerusalem to Babylon.
29:21 Thus says Yehovah of hosts, the God of Israel, concerning Ahab the son of Kolaiah, and concerning Zedekiah the son of Maaseiah, who prophesy a lie to you in my name: Behold, I will deliver them into the hand of Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon; and he shall slay them before your eyes;
29:22 and of them shall be taken up a curse by all the captives of Judah that are in Babylon, saying, Yehovah make you like Zedekiah and like Ahab, whom the king of Babylon roasted in the fire;
29:23 because they have wrought folly in Israel, and have committed adultery with their neighbors' wives, and have spoken words in my name falsely, which I commanded them not; and I am he that knows, and am witness, says Yehovah.
29:24 And concerning Shemaiah the Nehelamite you shall speak, saying,
29:25 Thus speaks Yehovah of hosts, the God of Israel, saying, Because you have sent letters in your own name to all the people that are at Jerusalem, and to Zephaniah the son of Maaseiah, the priest, and to all the priests, saying,
29:26 Yehovah has made you priest in the stead of Jehoiada the priest, that there may be officers in the house of Yehovah, for every man that is mad, and makes himself a prophet, that you should put him in the stocks and in shackles.
29:27 Now therefore, why have you not rebuked Jeremiah of Anathoth, who makes himself a prophet to you,

29:28 forasmuch as he has sent to us in Babylon, saying, The captivity is long: build ye houses, and dwell in them; and plant gardens, and eat the fruit of them?
29:29 And Zephaniah the priest read this letter in the ears of Jeremiah the prophet.
29:30 Then came the word of Yehovah to Jeremiah, saying,
29:31 Send to all them of the captivity, saying, Thus says Yehovah concerning Shemaiah the Nehelamite: Because that Shemaiah has prophesied to you, and I sent him not, and he has caused you to trust in a lie;
29:32 therefore thus says Yehovah, Behold, I will punish Shemaiah the Nehelamite, and his seed; he shall not have a man to dwell among this people, neither shall he behold the good that I will do to my people, says Yehovah, because he has spoken rebellion against Yehovah.
30:1 The word that came to Jeremiah from Yehovah, saying,
30:2 Thus speaks Yehovah, the God of Israel, saying, Write you all the words that I have spoken to you in a book.
30:3 For, lo, the days come, says Yehovah, that I will turn again the captivity of my people Israel and Judah, says Yehovah; and I will cause them to return to the land that I gave to their fathers, and they shall possess it.
30:4 And these are the words that Yehovah spoke concerning Israel and concerning Judah.
30:5 For thus says Yehovah: We have heard a voice of trembling, of fear, and not of peace.
30:6 Ask ye now, and see whether a man does travail with child: why do I see every man with his hands on his loins, as a woman in travail, and all faces are turned into paleness?
30:7 Alas! for that day is great, so that none is like it: it is even the time of Jacob's trouble; but he shall be saved out of it.
30:8 And it shall come to pass in that day, says Yehovah of hosts, that I will break his yoke from off your neck, and will burst your bonds; and strangers shall no more make him their bondman;
30:9 but they shall serve Yehovah their God, and David their king, whom I will raise up to them.
30:10 Therefore fear you not, O Jacob my servant, says Yehovah; neither be dismayed, O Israel: for, lo, I will save you from afar, and your seed from the land of their captivity; and Jacob shall return, and shall be quiet and at ease, and no one shall make him afraid.
30:11 For I am with you, says Yehovah, to save you: for I will make a full end of all the nations to which I have scattered you, but I will not make a full end of you. But I will correct you in measure, and will in no wise leave you unpunished.
30:12 For thus says Yehovah, Your hurt is incurable, and your wound grievous.
30:13 There is no one to plead your cause, that you may be bound up: you have no healing medicines.
30:14 All your lovers have forgotten you; they seek you not: for I have wounded you with the wound of an enemy, with the chastisement of a cruel one, for the greatness of your iniquity, because your sins were increased.
30:15 Why cry for your hurt? your pain is incurable: for the greatness of your iniquity, because your sins were increased, I have done these things to you.
30:16 Therefore all they that devour you shall be devoured; and all your adversaries, every one of them, shall go into captivity; and they that despoil you shall be a spoil, and all that prey upon you I will give as a prey.
30:17 For I will restore health to you, and I will heal you of your wounds, says Yehovah; because they have called you an outcast, saying, It is Zion, whom no man seeks after.
30:18 Thus says Yehovah: Behold, I will turn again the captivity of Jacob's tents, and have compassion on his dwelling-places; and the city shall be built upon its own hill, and the palace shall be inhabited after its own manner.
30:19 And out of them shall proceed thanksgiving and the voice of them that make merry: and I will multiply them, and they shall not be few; I will also glorify them, and they shall not be small.

30:20 Their children also shall be as aforetime, and their congregation shall be established before me; and I will punish all that oppress them.
30:21 And their prince shall be of themselves, and their ruler shall proceed from the midst of them; and I will cause him to draw near, and he shall approach to me: for who is he that has had boldness to approach to me? says Yehovah.
30:22 And ye shall be my people, and I will be your God.
30:23 Behold, the tempest of Yehovah, even his wrath, is gone forth, a sweeping tempest: it shall burst upon the head of the wicked.
30:24 The fierce anger of Yehovah shall not return, until he have executed, and till he have performed the intents of his heart: in the latter days ye shall understand it.
31:1 At that time, says Yehovah, I will be the God of all the families of Israel, and they shall be my people.
31:2 Thus says Yehovah, The people that were left of the sword found favor in the wilderness; even Israel, when I went to cause him to rest.
31:3 Yehovah appeared of old to me, saying, Yes, I have loved you with an everlasting love: therefore with lovingkindness have I drawn you.
31:4 Again I will build you, and you shall be built, O virgin of Israel: again shall you be adorned with your tabrets, and shall go forth in the dances of them that make merry.
31:5 Again shall you plant vineyards upon the mountains of Samaria; the planters shall plant, and shall enjoy the fruit thereof.
31:6 For there shall be a day, that the watchmen upon the hills of Ephraim shall cry, arise ye, and let us go up to Zion to Yehovah our God.
31:7 For thus says Yehovah, Sing with gladness for Jacob, and shout for the chief of the nations: publish ye, praise ye, and say, O Yehovah, save your people, the remnant of Israel.
31:8 Behold, I will bring them from the north country, and gather them from the uttermost parts of the earth, and with them the blind and the lame, the woman with child and her that travails with child together: a great company shall they return here.
31:9 They shall come with weeping; and with supplications I will lead them: I will cause them to walk by rivers of waters, in a straight way in which they shall not stumble; for I am a father to Israel, and Ephraim is my first-born.
31:10 Hear the word of Yehovah, O ye nations, and declare it in the isles afar off; and say, He that scattered Israel will gather him, and keep him, as a shepherd does his flock.
31:11 For Yehovah has ransomed Jacob, and redeemed him from the hand of him that was stronger than he.
31:12 And they shall come and sing in the height of Zion, and shall flow to the goodness of Yehovah, to the grain, and to the new wine, and to the oil, and to the young of the flock and of the herd: and their soul shall be as a watered garden; and they shall not sorrow any more at all.
31:13 Then shall the virgin rejoice in the dance, and the young men and the old together; for I will turn their mourning into joy, and will comfort them, and make them rejoice from their sorrow.
31:14 And I will satiate the soul of the priests with fatness, and my people shall be satisfied with my goodness, says Yehovah.
31:15 Thus says Yehovah: A voice is heard in Ramah, lamentation, and bitter weeping, Rachel weeping for her children; she refuses to be comforted for her children, because they are not.
31:16 Thus says Yehovah: Refrain your voice from weeping, and your eyes from tears; for your work shall be rewarded, says Yehovah; and they shall come again from the land of the enemy.
31:17 And there is hope for your latter end, says Yehovah; and your children shall come again to their own border.
31:18 I have surely heard Ephraim bemoaning himself thus, You have chastised me, and I was chastised, as a calf unaccustomed to the yoke: turn you me, and I shall be turned; for you are Yehovah my God.

31:19 Surely after that I was turned, I repented; and after that I was instructed, I smote upon my thigh: I was ashamed, yes, even confounded, because I did bear the reproach of my youth.
31:20 Is Ephraim my dear son? is he a darling child? for as often as I speak against him, I do earnestly remember him still: therefore my heart yearns for him; I will surely have mercy upon him, says Yehovah.
31:21 Set you up waymarks, make you guide-posts; set your heart toward the highway, even the way by which you went: turn again, O virgin of Israel, turn again to these your cities.
31:22 How long will you go here and there, O you backsliding daughter? for Yehovah has created a new thing in the earth: a woman shall encompass a man.
31:23 Thus says Yehovah of hosts, the God of Israel, Yet again shall they use this speech in the land of Judah and in the cities thereof, when I shall bring again their captivity: Yehovah bless you, O habitation of righteousness, O mountain of holiness.
31:24 And Judah and all the cities thereof shall dwell therein together, the husbandmen, and they that go about with flocks.
31:25 For I have satiated the weary soul, and every sorrowful soul have I replenished.
31:26 Upon this I awaked, and beheld; and my sleep was sweet to me.
31:27 Behold, the days come, says Yehovah, that I will sow the house of Israel and the house of Judah with the seed of man, and with the seed of beast.
31:28 And it shall come to pass that, like as I have watched over them to pluck up and to break down and to overthrow and to destroy and to afflict, so I will watch over them to build and to plant, says Yehovah.
31:29 In those days they shall say no more, The fathers have eaten sour grapes, and the children's teeth are set on edge.
31:30 But every one shall die for his own iniquity: every man that eats the sour grapes, his teeth shall be set on edge.
31:31 Behold, the days come, says Yehovah, that I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel, and with the house of Judah:
31:32 not according to the covenant that I made with their fathers in the day that I took them by the hand to bring them out of the land of Egypt; which my covenant they broke, although I was a husband to them, says Yehovah.
31:33 But this is the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel after those days, says Yehovah: I will put my law in their inward parts, and in their heart I will write it; and I will be their God, and they shall be my people:
31:34 and they shall no longer teach each man his neighbor, and every man his brother, saying, Know Yehovah; for they shall all know me, from the least of them to the greatest of them, says Yehovah: for I will forgive their iniquity, and their sin I will remember no more.
31:35 Thus says Yehovah, who gives the sun for a light by day, and the ordinances of the moon and of the stars for a light by night, who stirs up the sea, so that the waves thereof roar; Yehovah of hosts is his name:
31:36 If these ordinances depart from before me, says Yehovah, then the seed of Israel also shall cease from being a nation before me for ever.
31:37 Thus says Yehovah: If heaven above can be measured, and the foundations of the earth searched out beneath, then I will also cast off all the seed of Israel for all that they have done, says Yehovah.
31:38 Behold, the days come, says Yehovah, that the city shall be built to Yehovah from the tower of Hananel to the gate of the corner.
31:39 And the measuring line shall go out further straight onward to the hill Gareb, and shall turn about to Goah.
31:40 And the whole valley of the dead bodies and of the ashes, and all the fields to the brook Kidron, to the corner of the horse gate toward the east, shall be holy to Yehovah; it shall not be plucked up, nor thrown down any more for ever.
32:1 The word that came to Jeremiah from Yehovah in the tenth year of Zedekiah king of Judah, which was the eighteenth year of Nebuchadrezzar.

32:2 Now at that time the king of Babylon's army was besieging Jerusalem; and Jeremiah the prophet was shut up in the court of the guard, which was in the king of Judah's house.
32:3 For Zedekiah king of Judah had shut him up, saying, Why do you prophesy, and say, Thus says Yehovah, Behold, I will give this city into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he shall take it;
32:4 and Zedekiah king of Judah shall not escape out of the hand of the Chaldeans, but shall surely be delivered into the hand of the king of Babylon, and shall speak with him mouth to mouth, and his eyes shall behold his eyes;
32:5 and he shall bring Zedekiah to Babylon, and there shall he be until I visit him, says Yehovah: though ye fight with the Chaldeans, ye shall not prosper?
32:6 And Jeremiah said, The word of Yehovah came to me, saying,
32:7 Behold, Hanamel the son of Shallum your uncle shall come to you, saying, Buy you my field that is in Anathoth; for the right of redemption is yours to buy it.
32:8 So Hanamel my uncle's son came to me in the court of the guard according to the word of Yehovah, and said to me, Buy my field, I pray you, that is in Anathoth, which is in the land of Benjamin; for the right of inheritance is yours, and the redemption is yours; buy it for yourself. Then I knew that this was the word of Yehovah.
32:9 And I bought the field that was in Anathoth of Hanamel my uncle's son, and weighed him the money, even seventeen shekels of silver.
32:10 And I subscribed the deed, and sealed it, and called witnesses, and weighed him the money in the balances.
32:11 So I took the deed of the purchase, both that which was sealed, according to the law and custom, and that which was open:
32:12 and I delivered the deed of the purchase to Baruch the son of Neriah, the son of Mahseiah, in the presence of Hanamel my uncle's son, and in the presence of the witnesses that subscribed the deed of the purchase, before all the Jews that sat in the court of the guard.
32:13 And I charged Baruch before them, saying,
32:14 Thus says Yehovah of hosts, the God of Israel: Take these deeds, this deed of the purchase which is sealed, and this deed which is open, and put them in an earthen vessel; that they may continue many days.
32:15 For thus says Yehovah of hosts, the God of Israel: Houses and fields and vineyards shall yet again be bought in this land.
32:16 Now after I had delivered the deed of the purchase to Baruch the son of Neriah, I prayed to Yehovah, saying,
32:17 Ah Lord Yehovah! behold, you have made the heavens and the earth by your great power and by your outstretched arm; there is nothing too hard for you,
32:18 who show lovingkindness to thousands, and recompense the iniquity of the fathers into the bosom of their children after them; the great, the mighty God, Yehovah of hosts is his name;
32:19 great in counsel, and mighty in work; whose eyes are open upon all the ways of the sons of men, to give to every one according to his ways, and according to the fruit of his doings:
32:20 who did set signs and wonders in the land of Egypt, even to this day, both in Israel and among other men; and made you a name, as at this day;
32:21 and did bring forth your people Israel out of the land of Egypt with signs, and with wonders, and with a strong hand, and with an outstretched arm, and with great terror;
32:22 and gave them this land, which you did swear to their fathers to give them, a land flowing with milk and honey;
32:23 and they came in, and possessed it, but they obeyed not your voice, neither walked in your law; they have done nothing of all that you commanded them to do: therefore you have caused all this evil to come upon them.
32:24 Behold, the mounds, they are come to the city to take it; and the city is given into the hand of the Chaldeans that fight against it, because of the sword, and of the famine, and of the pestilence; and what you have spoken is come to pass; and, behold, you see it.

32:25 And you have said to me, O Lord Yehovah, Buy you the field for money, and call witnesses; whereas the city is given into the hand of the Chaldeans.
32:26 Then came the word of Yehovah to Jeremiah, saying,
32:27 Behold, I am Yehovah, the God of all flesh: is there anything too hard for me?
32:28 Therefore thus says Yehovah: Behold, I will give this city into the hand of the Chaldeans, and into the hand of Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon, and he shall take it:
32:29 and the Chaldeans, that fight against this city, shall come and set this city on fire, and burn it, with the houses, upon whose roofs they have offered incense to Baal, and poured out drink offerings to other gods, to provoke me to anger.
32:30 For the children of Israel and the children of Judah have done only that which was evil in my sight from their youth; for the children of Israel have only provoked me to anger with the work of their hands, says Yehovah.
32:31 For this city has been to me a provocation of my anger and of my wrath from the day that they built it even to this day; that I should remove it from before my face,
32:32 because of all the evil of the children of Israel and of the children of Judah, which they have done to provoke me to anger, they, their kings, their princes, their priests, and their prophets, and the men of Judah, and the inhabitants of Jerusalem.
32:33 And they have turned to me the back, and not the face: and though I taught them, rising up early and teaching them, yet they have not hearkened to receive instruction.
32:34 But they set their abominations in the house which is called by my name, to defile it.
32:35 And they built the high places of Baal, which are in the valley of the son of Hinnom, to cause their sons and their daughters to pass through the fire to Molech; which I commanded them not, neither came it into my mind, that they should do this abomination, to cause Judah to sin.
32:36 And now therefore thus says Yehovah, the God of Israel, concerning this city, whereof ye say, It is given into the hand of the king of Babylon by the sword, and by the famine, and by the pestilence:
32:37 Behold, I will gather them out of all the countries, whither I have driven them in my anger, and in my wrath, and in great indignation; and I will bring them again to this place, and I will cause them to dwell safely:
32:38 and they shall be my people, and I will be their God:
32:39 and I will give them one heart and one way, that they may fear me for ever, for the good of them, and of their children after them:
32:40 and I will make an everlasting covenant with them, that I will not turn away from following them, to do them good; and I will put my fear in their hearts, that they may not depart from me.
32:41 Yes, I will rejoice over them to do them good, and I will plant them in this land assuredly with my whole heart and with my whole soul.
32:42 For thus says Yehovah: Like as I have brought all this great evil upon this people, so I will bring upon them all the good that I have promised them.
32:43 And fields shall be bought in this land, whereof ye say, It is desolate, without man or beast; it is given into the hand of the Chaldeans.
32:44 Men shall buy fields for money, and subscribe the deeds, and seal them, and call witnesses, in the land of Benjamin, and in the places about Jerusalem, and in the cities of Judah, and in the cities of the hill-country, and in the cities of the lowland, and in the cities of the South: for I will cause their captivity to return, says Yehovah.
33:1 Moreover the word of Yehovah came to Jeremiah the second time, while he was yet shut up in the court of the guard, saying,
33:2 Thus says Yehovah that does it, Yehovah that forms it to establish it; Yehovah is his name:
33:3 Call to me, and I will answer you, and will show you great things, and difficult, which you know not.

33:4 For thus says Yehovah, the God of Israel, concerning the houses of this city, and concerning the houses of the kings of Judah, which are broken down to make a defence against the mounds and against the sword;
33:5 while men come to fight with the Chaldeans, and to fill them with the dead bodies of men, whom I have slain in my anger and in my wrath, and for all whose wickedness I have hid my face from this city:
33:6 Behold, I will bring it health and cure, and I will cure them; and I will reveal to them abundance of peace and truth.
33:7 And I will cause the captivity of Judah and the captivity of Israel to return, and will build them, as at the first.
33:8 And I will cleanse them from all their iniquity, whereby they have sinned against me; and I will pardon all their iniquities, whereby they have sinned against me, and whereby they have transgressed against me.
33:9 And this city shall be to me for a name of joy, for a praise and for a glory, before all the nations of the earth, which shall hear all the good that I do to them, and shall fear and tremble for all the good and for all the peace that I procure to it.
33:10 Thus says Yehovah: Yet again there shall be heard in this place, whereof ye say, It is waste, without man and without beast, even in the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem, that are desolate, without man and without inhabitant and without beast,
33:11 the voice of joy and the voice of gladness, the voice of the bridegroom and the voice of the bride, the voice of them that say, Give thanks to Yehovah of hosts, for Yehovah is good, for his lovingkindness endures for ever; and of them that bring sacrifices of thanksgiving into the house of Yehovah. For I will cause the captivity of the land to return as at the first, says Yehovah.
33:12 Thus says Yehovah of hosts: Yet again shall there be in this place, which is waste, without man and without beast, and in all the cities thereof, a habitation of shepherds causing their flocks to lie down.
33:13 In the cities of the hill-country, in the cities of the lowland, and in the cities of the South, and in the land of Benjamin, and in the places about Jerusalem, and in the cities of Judah, shall the flocks again pass under the hands of him that numbers them, says Yehovah.
33:14 Behold, the days come, says Yehovah, that I will perform that good word which I have spoken concerning the house of Israel and concerning the house of Judah.
33:15 In those days, and at that time, I will cause a Branch of righteousness to grow up to David; and he shall execute justice and righteousness in the land.
33:16 In those days shall Judah be saved, and Jerusalem shall dwell safely; and this is the name whereby she shall be called: Yehovah our righteousness.
33:17 For thus says Yehovah: David shall never want a man to sit upon the throne of the house of Israel;
33:18 neither shall the priests the Levites want a man before me to offer burnt offerings, and to burn meal offerings, and to do sacrifice continually.
33:19 And the word of Yehovah came to Jeremiah, saying,
33:20 Thus says Yehovah: If ye can break my covenant of the day, and my covenant of the night, so that there shall not be day and night in their season;
33:21 then may also my covenant be broken with David my servant, that he shall not have a son to reign upon his throne; and with the Levites the priests, my ministers.
33:22 As the host of heaven cannot be numbered, neither the sand of the sea measured; so I will multiply the seed of David my servant, and the Levites that minister to me.
33:23 And the word of Yehovah came to Jeremiah, saying,
33:24 Have you not considered what this people have spoken, saying, The two families which Yehovah did choose, he has cast them off? thus do they despise my people, that they should be no more a nation before them.
33:25 Thus says Yehovah: If my covenant of day and night stand not, if I have not appointed the ordinances of heaven and earth;

33:26 then I will also cast away the seed of Jacob, and of David my servant, so that I will not take of his seed to be rulers over the seed of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob: for I will cause their captivity to return, and will have mercy on them.
34:1 The word which came to Jeremiah from Yehovah, when Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon, and all his army, and all the kingdoms of the earth that were under his dominion, and all the peoples, were fighting against Jerusalem, and against all the cities thereof, saying:
34:2 Thus says Yehovah, the God of Israel, Go, and speak to Zedekiah king of Judah, and tell him, Thus says Yehovah, Behold, I will give this city into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he shall burn it with fire:
34:3 and you shall not escape out of his hand, but shall surely be taken, and delivered into his hand; and your eyes shall behold the eyes of the king of Babylon, and he shall speak with you mouth to mouth, and you shall go to Babylon.
34:4 Yet hear the word of Yehovah, O Zedekiah king of Judah: thus says Yehovah concerning you, You shall not die by the sword;
34:5 you shall die in peace; and with the burnings of your fathers, the former kings that were before you, so shall they make a burning for you; and they shall lament you, saying, ah Lord! for I have spoken the word, says Yehovah.
34:6 Then Jeremiah the prophet spoke all these words to Zedekiah king of Judah in Jerusalem,
34:7 when the king of Babylon's army was fighting against Jerusalem, and against all the cities of Judah that were left, against Lachish and against Azekah; for these alone remained of the cities of Judah as fortified cities.
34:8 The word that came to Jeremiah from Yehovah, after that the king Zedekiah had made a covenant with all the people that were at Jerusalem, to proclaim liberty to them;
34:9 that every man should let his man-servant, and every man his maid-servant, that is a Hebrew or a Hebrewess, go free; that no one should make bondmen of them, that is, of a Jew his brother.
34:10 And all the princes and all the people obeyed, that had entered into the covenant, that every one should let his man-servant, and every one his maid-servant, go free, that no one should make bondmen of them any more; they obeyed, and let them go:
34:11 but afterwards they turned, and caused the servants and the handmaids, whom they had let go free, to return, and brought them into subjection for servants and for handmaids.
34:12 Therefore the word of Yehovah came to Jeremiah from Yehovah, saying,
34:13 Thus says Yehovah, the God of Israel: I made a covenant with your fathers in the day that I brought them forth out of the land of Egypt, out of the house of bondage, saying,
34:14 At the end of seven years ye shall let go every man his brother that is a Hebrew, that has been sold to you, and has served you six years, you shall let him go free from you: but your fathers hearkened not to me, neither inclined their ear.
34:15 And ye were now turned, and had done that which is right in my eyes, in proclaiming liberty every man to his neighbor; and ye had made a covenant before me in the house which is called by my name:
34:16 but ye turned and profaned my name, and caused every man his servant, and every man his handmaid, whom ye had let go free at their pleasure, to return; and ye brought them into subjection, to be to you for servants and for handmaids.
34:17 Therefore thus says Yehovah: ye have not hearkened to me, to proclaim liberty, every man to his brother, and every man to his neighbor: behold, I proclaim to you a liberty, says Yehovah, to the sword, to the pestilence, and to the famine; and I will make you to be tossed to and fro among all the kingdoms of the earth.
34:18 And I will give the men that have transgressed my covenant, that have not performed the words of the covenant which they made before me, when they cut the calf in twain and passed between the parts thereof;
34:19 the princes of Judah, and the princes of Jerusalem, the eunuchs, and the priests, and all the people of the land, that passed between the parts of the calf;

34:20 I will even give them into the hand of their enemies, and into the hand of them that seek their life; and their dead bodies shall be for food to the birds of the heavens, and to the beasts of the earth.
34:21 And Zedekiah king of Judah and his princes I will give into the hand of their enemies, and into the hand of them that seek their life, and into the hand of the king of Babylon's army, that are gone away from you.
34:22 Behold, I will command, says Yehovah, and cause them to return to this city; and they shall fight against it, and take it, and burn it with fire: and I will make the cities of Judah a desolation, without inhabitant.
35:1 The word which came to Jeremiah from Yehovah in the days of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah, saying,
35:2 Go to the house of the Rechabites, and speak to them, and bring them into the house of Yehovah, into one of the chambers, and give them wine to drink.
35:3 Then I took Jaazaniah the son of Jeremiah, the son of Habazziniah, and his brethren, and all his sons, and the whole house of the Rechabites;
35:4 and I brought them into the house of Yehovah, into the chamber of the sons of Hanan the son of Igdaliah, the man of God, which was by the chamber of the princes, which was above the chamber of Maaseiah the son of Shallum, the keeper of the threshold.
35:5 And I set before the sons of the house of the Rechabites bowls full of wine, and cups; and I said to them, Drink ye wine.
35:6 But they said, We will drink no wine; for Jonadab the son of Rechab, our father, commanded us, saying, You shall drink no wine, neither ye, nor your sons, for ever:
35:7 neither shall ye build house, nor sow seed, nor plant vineyard, nor have any; but all your days ye shall dwell in tents; that ye may live many days in the land in which ye sojourn.
35:8 And we have obeyed the voice of Jonadab the son of Rechab, our father, in all that he charged us, to drink no wine all our days, we, our wives, our sons, or our daughters;
35:9 nor to build houses for us to dwell in; neither have we vineyard, nor field, nor seed:
35:10 but we have dwelt in tents, and have obeyed, and done according to all that Jonadab our father commanded us.
35:11 But it came to pass, when Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon came up into the land, that we said, Come, and let us go to Jerusalem for fear of the army of the Chaldeans, and for fear of the army of the Syrians; so we dwell at Jerusalem.
35:12 Then came the word of Yehovah to Jeremiah, saying,
35:13 Thus says Yehovah of hosts, the God of Israel: Go, and say to the men of Judah and the inhabitants of Jerusalem, Will ye not receive instruction to hearken to my words? says Yehovah.
35:14 The words of Jonadab the son of Rechab, that he commanded his sons, not to drink wine, are performed; and to this day they drink none, for they obey their father's commandment: but I have spoken to you, rising up early and speaking; and ye have not hearkened to me.
35:15 I have sent also to you all my servants the prophets, rising up early and sending them, saying, Return ye now every man from his evil way, and amend your doings, and go not after other gods to serve them, and ye shall dwell in the land which I have given to you and to your fathers: but ye have not inclined your ear, nor hearkened to me.
35:16 Forasmuch as the sons of Jonadab the son of Rechab have performed the commandment of their father which he commanded them, but this people has not hearkened to me;
35:17 therefore thus says Yehovah, the God of hosts, the God of Israel: Behold, I will bring upon Judah and upon all the inhabitants of Jerusalem all the evil that I have pronounced against them; because I have spoken to them, but they have not heard; and I have called to them, but they have not answered.
35:18 And Jeremiah said to the house of the Rechabites, Thus says Yehovah of hosts, the God of Israel: Because ye have obeyed the commandment of Jonadab your father, and kept all his precepts, and done according to all that he commanded you;

35:19 therefore thus says Yehovah of hosts, the God of Israel: Jonadab the son of Rechab shall not want a man to stand before me for ever.
36:1 And it came to pass in the fourth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah, that this word came to Jeremiah from Yehovah, saying,
36:2 Take you a roll of a book, and write therein all the words that I have spoken to you against Israel, and against Judah, and against all the nations, from the day I spoke to you, from the days of Josiah, even to this day.
36:3 It may be that the house of Judah will hear all the evil which I purpose to do to them; that they may return every man from his evil way; that I may forgive their iniquity and their sin.
36:4 Then Jeremiah called Baruch the son of Neriah; and Baruch wrote from the mouth of Jeremiah all the words of Yehovah, which he had spoken to him, upon a roll of a book.
36:5 And Jeremiah commanded Baruch, saying, I am shut up; I cannot go into the house of Yehovah:
36:6 therefore go, and read in the roll, which you have written from my mouth, the words of Yehovah in the ears of the people in Yehovah's house upon the fast-day; and also you shall read them in the ears of all Judah that come out of their cities.
36:7 It may be they will present their supplication before Yehovah, and will return every one from his evil way; for great is the anger and the wrath that Yehovah has pronounced against this people.
36:8 And Baruch the son of Neriah did according to all that Jeremiah the prophet commanded him, reading in the book the words of Yehovah in Yehovah's house.
36:9 Now it came to pass in the fifth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah, in the ninth month, that all the people in Jerusalem, and all the people that came from the cities of Judah to Jerusalem, proclaimed a fast before Yehovah.
36:10 Then read Baruch in the book the words of Jeremiah in the house of Yehovah, in the chamber of Gemariah the son of Shaphan, the scribe, in the upper court, at the entry of the new gate of Yehovah's house, in the ears of all the people.
36:11 And when Micaiah the son of Gemariah, the son of Shaphan, had heard out of the book all the words of Yehovah,
36:12 he went down into the king's house, into the scribe's chamber: and, lo, all the princes were sitting there, that is, Elishama the scribe, and Delaiah the son of Shemaiah, and Elnathan the son of Achbor, and Gemariah the son of Shaphan, and Zedekiah the son of Hananiah, and all the princes.
36:13 Then Micaiah declared to them all the words that he had heard, when Baruch read the book in the ears of the people.
36:14 Therefore all the princes sent Jehudi the son of Nethaniah, the son of Shelemiah, the son of Cushi, to Baruch, saying, Take in your hand the roll in which you have read in the ears of the people, and come. So Baruch the son of Neriah took the roll in his hand, and came to them.
36:15 And they said to him, Sit down now, and read it in our ears. So Baruch read it in their ears.
36:16 Now it came to pass, when they had heard all the words, they turned in fear one toward another, and said to Baruch, We will surely tell the king of all these words.
36:17 And they asked Baruch, saying, Tell us now, How did you write all these words at his mouth?
36:18 Then Baruch answered them, He pronounced all these words to me with his mouth, and I wrote them with ink in the book.
36:19 Then said the princes to Baruch, Go, hide you, you and Jeremiah; and let no man know where ye are.
36:20 And they went in to the king into the court; but they had laid up the roll in the chamber of Elishama the scribe; and they told all the words in the ears of the king.
36:21 So the king sent Jehudi to fetch the roll; and he took it out of the chamber of Elishama the scribe. And Jehudi read it in the ears of the king, and in the ears of all the princes that stood beside the king.

36:22 Now the king was sitting in the winter-house in the ninth month: and there was a fire in the brazier burning before him.
36:23 And it came to pass, when Jehudi had read three or four leaves, that the king cut it with the penknife, and cast it into the fire that was in the brazier, until all the roll was consumed in the fire that was in the brazier.
36:24 And they were not afraid, nor rent their garments, neither the king, nor any of his servants that heard all these words.
36:25 Moreover Elnathan and Delaiah and Gemariah had made intercession to the king that he would not burn the roll; but he would not hear them.
36:26 And the king commanded Jerahmeel the king's son, and Seraiah the son of Azriel, and Shelemiah the son of Abdeel, to take Baruch the scribe and Jeremiah the prophet; but Yehovah hid them.
36:27 Then the word of Yehovah came to Jeremiah, after that the king had burned the roll, and the words which Baruch wrote at the mouth of Jeremiah, saying,
36:28 Take you again another roll, and write in it all the former words that were in the first roll, which Jehoiakim the king of Judah has burned.
36:29 And concerning Jehoiakim king of Judah you shall say, Thus says Yehovah: You have burned this roll, saying, Why have you written therein, saying, The king of Babylon shall certainly come and destroy this land, and shall cause to cease from there man and beast?
36:30 Therefore thus says Yehovah concerning Jehoiakim king of Judah: He shall have no one to sit upon the throne of David; and his dead body shall be cast out in the day to the heat, and in the night to the frost.
36:31 And I will punish him and his seed and his servants for their iniquity; and I will bring upon them, and upon the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and upon the men of Judah, all the evil that I have pronounced against them, but they hearkened not.
36:32 Then took Jeremiah another roll, and gave it to Baruch the scribe, the son of Neriah, who wrote therein from the mouth of Jeremiah all the words of the book which Jehoiakim king of Judah had burned in the fire; and there were added besides to them many like words.
37:1 And Zedekiah the son of Josiah reigned as king, instead of Coniah the son of Jehoiakim, whom Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon made king in the land of Judah.
37:2 But neither he, nor his servants, nor the people of the land, did hearken to the words of Yehovah, which he spoke by the prophet Jeremiah.
37:3 And Zedekiah the king sent Jehucal the son of Shelemiah, and Zephaniah the son of Maaseiah, the priest, to the prophet Jeremiah, saying, Pray now to Yehovah our God for us.
37:4 Now Jeremiah came in and went out among the people; for they had not put him into prison.
37:5 And Pharaoh's army was come forth out of Egypt; and when the Chaldeans that were besieging Jerusalem heard tidings of them, they broke up from Jerusalem.
37:6 Then came the word of Yehovah to the prophet Jeremiah, saying,
37:7 Thus says Yehovah, the God of Israel, Thus shall ye say to the king of Judah, that sent you to me to inquire of me: Behold, Pharaoh's army, which is come forth to help you, shall return to Egypt into their own land.
37:8 And the Chaldeans shall come again, and fight against this city; and they shall take it, and burn it with fire.
37:9 Thus says Yehovah, Deceive not yourselves, saying, The Chaldeans shall surely depart from us; for they shall not depart.
37:10 For though ye had smitten the whole army of the Chaldeans that fight against you, and there remained but wounded men among them, yes would they rise up every man in his tent, and burn this city with fire.
37:11 And it came to pass that, when the army of the Chaldeans was broken up from Jerusalem for fear of Pharaoh's army,
37:12 then Jeremiah went forth out of Jerusalem to go into the land of Benjamin, to receive his portion there, in the midst of the people.
37:13 And when he was in the gate of Benjamin, a captain of the ward was there, whose name was Irijah, the son of Shelemiah, the son of Hananiah; and he laid hold on Jeremiah the prophet, saying, You are falling away to the Chaldeans.

37:14 Then said Jeremiah, It is false; I am not falling away to the Chaldeans. But he hearkened not to him; so Irijah laid hold on Jeremiah, and brought him to the princes.
37:15 And the princes were angry with Jeremiah, and smote him, and put him in prison in the house of Jonathan the scribe; for they had made that the prison.
37:16 When Jeremiah was come into the dungeon-house, and into the cells, and Jeremiah had remained there many days;
37:17 Then Zedekiah the king sent, and fetched him: and the king asked him secretly in his house, and said, Is there any word from Yehovah? And Jeremiah said, There is. He said also, You shall be delivered into the hand of the king of Babylon.
37:18 Moreover Jeremiah said to king Zedekiah, In what way have I sinned against you, or against your servants, or against this people, that ye have put me in prison?
37:19 Where now are your prophets that prophesied to you, saying, The king of Babylon shall not come against you, nor against this land?
37:20 And now hear, I pray you, O my lord the king: let my supplication, I pray you, be presented before you, that you cause me not to return to the house of Jonathan the scribe, lest I die there.
37:21 Then Zedekiah the king commanded, and they committed Jeremiah into the court of the guard; and they gave him daily a loaf of bread out of the bakers' street, until all the bread in the city was spent. Thus Jeremiah remained in the court of the guard.
38:1 And Shephatiah the son of Mattan, and Gedaliah the son of Pashhur, and Jucal the son of Shelemiah, and Pashhur the son of Malchijah, heard the words that Jeremiah spoke to all the people, saying,
38:2 Thus says Yehovah, He that abides in this city shall die by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence; but he that goes forth to the Chaldeans shall live, and his life shall be to him for a prey, and he shall live.
38:3 Thus says Yehovah, This city shall surely be given into the hand of the army of the king of Babylon, and he shall take it.
38:4 Then the princes said to the king, Let this man, we pray you, be put to death; forasmuch as he weakens the hands of the men of war that remain in this city, and the hands of all the people, in speaking such words to them: for this man seeks not the welfare of this people, but the hurt.
38:5 And Zedekiah the king said, Behold, he is in your hand; for the king is not he that can do anything against you.
38:6 Then took they Jeremiah, and cast him into the dungeon of Malchijah the king's son, that was in the court of the guard: and they let down Jeremiah with cords. And in the dungeon there was no water, but mire; and Jeremiah sank in the mire.
38:7 Now when Ebed-melech the Ethiopian, a eunuch, who was in the king's house, heard that they had put Jeremiah in the dungeon (the king then sitting in the gate of Benjamin,)
38:8 Ebed-melech went forth out of the king's house, and spoke to the king, saying,
38:9 My lord the king, these men have done evil in all that they have done to Jeremiah the prophet, whom they have cast into the dungeon; and he is like to die in the place where he is, because of the famine; for there is no more bread in the city.
38:10 Then the king commanded Ebed-melech the Ethiopian, saying, Take from here thirty men with you, and take up Jeremiah the prophet out of the dungeon, before he die.
38:11 So Ebed-melech took the men with him, and went into the house of the king under the treasury, and took there rags and worn-out garments, and let them down by cords into the dungeon to Jeremiah.
38:12 And Ebed-melech the Ethiopian said to Jeremiah, Put now these rags and worn-out garments under your armholes under the cords. And Jeremiah did so.
38:13 So they drew up Jeremiah with the cords, and took him up out of the dungeon: and Jeremiah remained in the court of the guard.

38:14 Then Zedekiah the king sent, and took Jeremiah the prophet to him into the third entry that is in the house of Yehovah: and the king said to Jeremiah, I will ask you a thing; hide nothing from me.
38:15 Then Jeremiah said to Zedekiah, If I declare it to you, will you not surely put me to death? and if I give you counsel, you will not hearken to me.
38:16 So Zedekiah the king swore secretly to Jeremiah, saying, as Yehovah lives, that made us this soul, I will not put you to death, neither will I give you into the hand of these men that seek your life.
38:17 Then said Jeremiah to Zedekiah, Thus says Yehovah, the God of hosts, the God of Israel: If you will go forth to the king of Babylon's princes, then your soul shall live, and this city shall not be burned with fire; and you shall live, and your house.
38:18 But if you will not go forth to the king of Babylon's princes, then shall this city be given into the hand of the Chaldeans, and they shall burn it with fire, and you shall not escape out of their hand.
38:19 And Zedekiah the king said to Jeremiah, I am afraid of the Jews that are fallen away to the Chaldeans, lest they deliver me into their hand, and they mock me.
38:20 But Jeremiah said, They shall not deliver you. Obey, I beseech you, the voice of Yehovah, in that which I speak to you: so it shall be well with you, and your soul shall live.
38:21 But if you refuse to go forth, this is the word that Yehovah has shown me:
38:22 behold, all the women that are left in the king of Judah's house shall be brought forth to the king of Babylon's princes, and those women shall say, Your familiar friends have set you on, and have prevailed over you: now that your feet are sunk in the mire, they are turned away back.
38:23 And they shall bring out all your wives and your children to the Chaldeans; and you shall not escape out of their hand, but shall be taken by the hand of the king of Babylon: and you shall cause this city to be burned with fire.
38:24 Then said Zedekiah to Jeremiah, Let no man know of these words, and you shall not die.
38:25 But if the princes hear that I have talked with you, and they come to you, and say to you, Declare to us now what you have said to the king; hide it not from us, and we will not put you to death; also what the king said to you:
38:26 then you shall say to them, I presented my supplication before the king, that he would not cause me to return to Jonathan's house, to die there.
38:27 Then came all the princes to Jeremiah, and asked him; and he told them according to all these words that the king had commanded. So they left off speaking with him; for the matter was not perceived.
38:28 So Jeremiah abode in the court of the guard until the day that Jerusalem was taken.
39:1 And it came to pass when Jerusalem was taken, (in the ninth year of Zedekiah king of Judah, in the tenth month, came Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon and all his army against Jerusalem, and besieged it;
39:2 in the eleventh year of Zedekiah, in the fourth month, the ninth day of the month, a breach was made in the city,)
39:3 that all the princes of the king of Babylon came in, and sat in the middle gate, that is, Nergal-sharezer, Samgar-nebo, Sarsechim, Rab-saris, Nergal-sharezer, Rab-mag, with all the rest of the princes of the king of Babylon.
39:4 And it came to pass that, when Zedekiah the king of Judah and all the men of war saw them, then they fled, and went forth out of the city by night, by the way of the king's garden, through the gate between the two walls; and he went out toward the Arabah.
39:5 But the army of the Chaldeans pursued after them, and overtook Zedekiah in the plains of Jericho: and when they had taken him, they brought him up to Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon to Riblah in the land of Hamath; and he gave judgment upon him.
39:6 Then the king of Babylon slew the sons of Zedekiah in Riblah before his eyes: also the king of Babylon slew all the nobles of Judah.

39:7 Moreover he put out Zedekiah's eyes, and bound him in fetters, to carry him to Babylon.
39:8 And the Chaldeans burned the king's house, and the houses of the people, with fire, and broke down the walls of Jerusalem.
39:9 Then Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard carried away captive into Babylon the residue of the people that remained in the city, the deserters also that fell away to him, and the residue of the people that remained.
39:10 But Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard left of the poor of the people, that had nothing, in the land of Judah, and gave them vineyards and fields at the same time.
39:11 Now Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon gave charge concerning Jeremiah to Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard, saying,
39:12 Take him, and look well to him, and do him no harm; but do to him even as he shall say to you.
39:13 So Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard sent, and Nebushazban, Rab-saris, and Nergal-sharezer, Rab-mag, and all the chief officers of the king of Babylon;
39:14 they sent, and took Jeremiah out of the court of the guard, and committed him to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, that he should carry him home: so he dwelt among the people.
39:15 Now the word of Yehovah came to Jeremiah, while he was shut up in the court of the guard, saying,
39:16 Go, and speak to Ebed-melech the Ethiopian, saying, Thus says Yehovah of hosts, the God of Israel: Behold, I will bring my words upon this city for evil, and not for good; and they shall be accomplished before you in that day.
39:17 But I will deliver you in that day, says Yehovah; and you shall not be given into the hand of the men of whom you are afraid.
39:18 For I will surely save you, and you shall not fall by the sword, but your life shall be for a prey to you; because you have put your trust in me, says Yehovah.
40:1 The word which came to Jeremiah from Yehovah, after that Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard had let him go from Ramah, when he had taken him bound in chains among all the captives of Jerusalem and Judah, that were carried away captive to Babylon.
40:2 And the captain of the guard took Jeremiah, and said to him, Yehovah your God pronounced this evil upon this place;
40:3 and Yehovah has brought it, and done according as he spoke: because ye have sinned against Yehovah, and have not obeyed his voice, therefore this thing is come upon you.
40:4 And now, behold, I loose you this day from the chains which are upon your hand. If it seem good to you to come with me into Babylon, come, and I will look well to you; but if it seem ill to you to come with me into Babylon, forbear: behold, all the land is before you; whither it seems good and right to you to go, there go.
40:5 Now while he was not yet gone back, Go back then, said he, to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan, whom the king of Babylon has made governor over the cities of Judah, and dwell with him among the people; or go wheresoever it seems right to you to go. So the captain of the guard gave him victuals and a present, and let him go.
40:6 Then went Jeremiah to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam to Mizpah, and dwelt with him among the people that were left in the land.
40:7 Now when all the captains of the forces that were in the fields, even they and their men, heard that the king of Babylon had made Gedaliah the son of Ahikam governor in the land, and had committed to him men, and women, and children, and of the poorest of the land, of them that were not carried away captive to Babylon;
40:8 then they came to Gedaliah to Mizpah, that is, Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, and Johanan and Jonathan the sons of Kareah, and Seraiah the son of Tanhumeth, and the sons of Ephai the Netophathite, and Jezaniah the son of the Maacathite, they and their men.
40:9 And Gedaliah the son of Ahikam the son of Shaphan swore to them and to their men, saying, Fear not to serve the Chaldeans: dwell in the land, and serve the king of Babylon, and it shall be well with you.

40:10 As for me, behold, I will dwell at Mizpah, to stand before the Chaldeans that shall come to us: but ye, gather ye wine and summer fruits and oil, and put them in your vessels, and dwell in your cities that ye have taken.
40:11 Likewise when all the Jews that were in Moab, and among the children of Ammon, and in Edom, and that were in all the countries, heard that the king of Babylon had left a remnant of Judah, and that he had set over them Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan;
40:12 then all the Jews returned out of all places whither they were driven, and came to the land of Judah, to Gedaliah, to Mizpah, and gathered wine and summer fruits very much.
40:13 Moreover Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces that were in the fields, came to Gedaliah to Mizpah,
40:14 and said to him, Do you know that Baalis the king of the children of Ammon has sent Ishmael the son of Nethaniah to take your life? But Gedaliah the son of Ahikam believed them not.
40:15 Then Johanan the son of Kareah spoke to Gedaliah in Mizpah secretly, saying, Let me go, I pray you, and I will slay Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, and no man shall know it: why should he take your life, that all the Jews that are gathered to you should be scattered, and the remnant of Judah perish?
40:16 But Gedaliah the son of Ahikam said to Johanan the son of Kareah, You shall not do this thing; for you speak falsely of Ishmael.
41:1 Now it came to pass in the seventh month, that Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, the son of Elishama, of the seed royal and one of the chief officers of the king, and ten men with him, came to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam to Mizpah; and there they did eat bread together in Mizpah.
41:2 Then arose Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, and the ten men that were with him, and smote Gedaliah the son of Ahikam the son of Shaphan with the sword, and slew him, whom the king of Babylon had made governor over the land.
41:3 Ishmael also slew all the Jews that were with him, that is, with Gedaliah, at Mizpah, and the Chaldeans that were found there, the men of war.
41:4 And it came to pass the second day after he had slain Gedaliah, and no man knew it,
41:5 that there came men from Shechem, from Shiloh, and from Samaria, even eighty men, having their beards shaven and their clothes rent, and having cut themselves, with meal offerings and frankincense in their hand, to bring them to the house of Yehovah.
41:6 And Ishmael the son of Nethaniah went forth from Mizpah to meet them, weeping all along as he went: and it came to pass, as he met them, he said to them, Come to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam.
41:7 And it was so, when they came into the midst of the city, that Ishmael the son of Nethaniah slew them, and cast them into the midst of the pit, he, and the men that were with him.
41:8 But ten men were found among them that said to Ishmael, Slay us not; for we have stores hidden in the field, of wheat, and of barley, and of oil, and of honey. So he forbare, and slew them not among their brethren.
41:9 Now the pit in which Ishmael cast all the dead bodies of the men whom he had slain, by the side of Gedaliah (the same was that which Asa the king had made for fear of Baasha king of Israel,) Ishmael the son of Nethaniah filled it with them that were slain.
41:10 Then Ishmael carried away captive all the residue of the people that were in Mizpah, even the king's daughters, and all the people that remained in Mizpah, whom Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard had committed to Gedaliah the son of Ahikam; Ishmael the son of Nethaniah carried them away captive, and departed to go over to the children of Ammon.
41:11 But when Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces that were with him, heard of all the evil that Ishmael the son of Nethaniah had done,
41:12 then they took all the men, and went to fight with Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, and found him by the great waters that are in Gibeon.

41:13 Now it came to pass that, when all the people that were with Ishmael saw Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces that were with him, then they were glad.
41:14 So all the people that Ishmael had carried away captive from Mizpah turned about and came back, and went to Johanan the son of Kareah.
41:15 But Ishmael the son of Nethaniah escaped from Johanan with eight men, and went to the children of Ammon.
41:16 Then took Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces that were with him, all the remnant of the people whom he had recovered from Ishmael the son of Nethaniah, from Mizpah, after that he had slain Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, that is, the men of war, and the women, and the children, and the eunuchs, whom he had brought back from Gibeon:
41:17 and they departed, and dwelt in Geruth Chimham, which is by Beth-lehem, to go to enter into Egypt,
41:18 because of the Chaldeans; for they were afraid of them, because Ishmael the son of Nethaniah had slain Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, whom the king of Babylon made governor over the land.
42:1 Then all the captains of the forces, and Johanan the son of Kareah, and Jezaniah the son of Hoshaiah, and all the people from the least even to the greatest, came near,
42:2 and said to Jeremiah the prophet, Let, we pray you, our supplication be presented before you, and pray for us to Yehovah your God, even for all this remnant; for we are left but a few of many, as your eyes do behold us:
42:3 that Yehovah your God may show us the way in which we should walk, and the thing that we should do.
42:4 Then Jeremiah the prophet said to them, I have heard you; behold, I will pray to Yehovah your God according to your words; and it shall come to pass that whatsoever thing Yehovah shall answer you, I will declare it to you; I will keep nothing back from you.
42:5 Then they said to Jeremiah, Yehovah be a true and faithful witness amongst us, if we do not according to all the word with which Yehovah your God shall send you to us.
42:6 Whether it be good, or whether it be evil, we will obey the voice of Yehovah our God, to whom we send you; that it may be well with us, when we obey the voice of Yehovah our God.
42:7 And it came to pass after ten days, that the word of Yehovah came to Jeremiah.
42:8 Then called he Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces that were with him, and all the people from the least even to the greatest,
42:9 and said to them, Thus says Yehovah, the God of Israel, to whom ye sent me to present your supplication before him:
42:10 If ye will still abide in this land, then I will build you, and not pull you down, and I will plant you, and not pluck you up; for I repent me of the evil that I have done to you.
42:11 Be not afraid of the king of Babylon, of whom ye are afraid; be not afraid of him, says Yehovah: for I am with you to save you, and to deliver you from his hand.
42:12 And I will grant you mercy, that he may have mercy upon you, and cause you to return to your own land.
42:13 But if ye say, We will not dwell in this land; so that ye obey not the voice of Yehovah your God,
42:14 saying, No; but we will go into the land of Egypt, where we shall see no war, nor hear the sound of the trumpet, nor have hunger of bread; and there will we dwell:
42:15 now therefore hear ye the word of Yehovah, O remnant of Judah: Thus says Yehovah of hosts, the God of Israel, If ye indeed set your faces to enter into Egypt, and go to sojourn there;
42:16 then it shall come to pass, that the sword, which ye fear, shall overtake you there in the land of Egypt; and the famine, whereof ye are afraid, shall follow hard after you there in Egypt; and there ye shall die.

42:17 So shall it be with all the men that set their faces to go into Egypt to sojourn there: they shall die by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence; and none of them shall remain or escape from the evil that I will bring upon them.
42:18 For thus says Yehovah of hosts, the God of Israel: As my anger and my wrath has been poured forth upon the inhabitants of Jerusalem, so shall my wrath be poured forth upon you, when ye shall enter into Egypt; and ye shall be an execration, and an astonishment, and a curse, and a reproach; and ye shall see this place no more.
42:19 Yehovah has spoken concerning you, O remnant of Judah, Go ye not into Egypt: know certainly that I have testified to you this day.
42:20 For ye have dealt deceitfully against your own souls; for ye sent me to Yehovah your God, saying, Pray for us to Yehovah our God; and according to all that Yehovah our God shall say, so declare to us, and we will do it:
42:21 and I have this day declared it to you; but ye have not obeyed the voice of Yehovah your God in anything for which he has sent me to you.
42:22 Now therefore know certainly that ye shall die by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence, in the place whither ye desire to go to sojourn there.
43:1 And it came to pass that, when Jeremiah had made an end of speaking to all the people all the words of Yehovah their God, with which Yehovah their God had sent him to them, even all these words,
43:2 then spoke Azariah the son of Hoshaiah, and Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the proud men, saying to Jeremiah, You speak falsely: Yehovah our God has not sent you to say, You shall not go into Egypt to sojourn there;
43:3 but Baruch the son of Neriah sets you on against us, to deliver us into the hand of the Chaldeans, that they may put us to death, and carry us away captive to Babylon.
43:4 So Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces, and all the people, obeyed not the voice of Yehovah, to dwell in the land of Judah.
43:5 But Johanan the son of Kareah, and all the captains of the forces, took all the remnant of Judah, that were returned from all the nations whither they had been driven, to sojourn in the land of Judah;
43:6 the men, and the women, and the children, and the king's daughters, and every person that Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard had left with Gedaliah the son of Ahikam, the son of Shaphan; and Jeremiah the prophet, and Baruch the son of Neriah;
43:7 and they came into the land of Egypt; for they obeyed not the voice of Yehovah: and they came to Tahpanhes.
43:8 Then came the word of Yehovah to Jeremiah in Tahpanhes, saying,
43:9 Take great stones in your hand, and hide them in mortar in the brickwork, which is at the entry of Pharaoh's house in Tahpanhes, in the sight of the men of Judah;
43:10 and say to them, Thus says Yehovah of hosts, the God of Israel: Behold, I will send and take Nebuchadrezzar the king of Babylon, my servant, and will set his throne upon these stones that I have hid; and he shall spread his royal pavilion over them.
43:11 And he shall come, and shall smite the land of Egypt; such as are for death shall be given to death, and such as are for captivity to captivity, and such as are for the sword to the sword.
43:12 And I will kindle a fire in the houses of the gods of Egypt; and he shall burn them, and carry them away captive: and he shall array himself with the land of Egypt, as a shepherd puts on his garment; and he shall go forth from there in peace.
43:13 He shall also break the pillars of Beth-shemesh, that is in the land of Egypt; and the houses of the gods of Egypt shall he burn with fire.
44:1 The word that came to Jeremiah concerning all the Jews that dwelt in the land of Egypt, that dwelt at Migdol, and at Tahpanhes, and at Memphis, and in the country of Pathros, saying,
44:2 Thus says Yehovah of hosts, the God of Israel: You have seen all the evil that I have brought upon Jerusalem, and upon all the cities of Judah; and, behold, this day they are a desolation, and no man dwells therein,

44:3 because of their wickedness which they have committed to provoke me to anger, in that they went to burn incense, and to serve other gods, that they knew not, neither they, nor ye, nor your fathers.
44:4 Yet I would send to you all my servants the prophets, rising up early and sending them, saying, Oh, do not this abominable thing that I hate.
44:5 But they hearkened not, nor inclined their ear to turn from their wickedness, to burn no incense to other gods.
44:6 Wherefore my wrath and my anger was poured forth, and was kindled in the cities of Judah and in the streets of Jerusalem; and they are wasted and desolate, as it is this day.
44:7 Therefore now thus says Yehovah, the God of hosts, the God of Israel: Why commit ye this great evil against your own souls, to cut off from you man and woman, infant and suckling, out of the midst of Judah, to leave you no one remaining;
44:8 in that ye provoke me to anger with the works of your hands, burning incense to other gods in the land of Egypt, whither ye are gone to sojourn; that ye may be cut off, and that ye may be a curse and a reproach among all the nations of the earth?
44:9 Have ye forgotten the wickedness of your fathers, and the wickedness of the kings of Judah, and the wickedness of their wives, and your own wickedness, and the wickedness of your wives which they committed in the land of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem?
44:10 They are not humbled even to this day, neither have they feared, nor walked in my law, nor in my statutes, that I set before you and before your fathers.
44:11 Therefore thus says Yehovah of hosts, the God of Israel: Behold, I will set my face against you for evil, even to cut off all Judah.
44:12 And I will take the remnant of Judah, that have set their faces to go into the land of Egypt to sojourn there, and they shall all be consumed; in the land of Egypt shall they fall; they shall be consumed by the sword and by the famine; they shall die, from the least even to the greatest, by the sword and by the famine; and they shall be an execration, and an astonishment, and a curse, and a reproach.
44:13 For I will punish them that dwell in the land of Egypt, as I have punished Jerusalem, by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence;
44:14 so that none of the remnant of Judah, that are gone into the land of Egypt to sojourn there, shall escape or be left, to return into the land of Judah, to which they have a desire to return to dwell there: for none shall return except such as shall escape.
44:15 Then all the men who knew that their wives burned incense to other gods, and all the women that stood by, a great assembly, even all the people that dwelt in the land of Egypt, in Pathros, answered Jeremiah, saying,
44:16 As for the word that you have spoken to us in the name of Yehovah, we will not hearken to you.
44:17 But we will certainly perform every word that is gone forth out of our mouth, to burn incense to the queen of heaven, and to pour out drink offerings to her, as we have done, we and our fathers, our kings and our princes, in the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem; for then had we plenty of victuals, and were well, and saw no evil.
44:18 But since we left off burning incense to the queen of heaven, and pouring out drink offerings to her, we have wanted all things, and have been consumed by the sword and by the famine.
44:19 And when we burned incense to the queen of heaven, and poured out drink offerings to her, did we make her cakes to worship her, and pour out drink offerings to her, without our husbands?
44:20 Then Jeremiah said to all the people, to the men, and to the women, even to all the people that had given him that answer, saying,
44:21 The incense that ye burned in the cities of Judah, and in the streets of Jerusalem, ye and your fathers, your kings and your princes, and the people of the land, did not Yehovah remember them, and came it not into his mind?

44:22 so that Yehovah could not longer bear, because of the evil of your doings, and because of the abominations which ye have committed; therefore is your land become a desolation, and an astonishment, and a curse, without inhabitant, as it is this day.
44:23 Because ye have burned incense, and because ye have sinned against Yehovah, and have not obeyed the voice of Yehovah, nor walked in his law, nor in his statutes, nor in his testimonies; therefore this evil is happened to you, as it is this day.
44:24 Moreover Jeremiah said to all the people, and to all the women, Hear the word of Yehovah, all Judah that are in the land of Egypt:
44:25 Thus says Yehovah of hosts, the God of Israel, saying, You and your wives have both spoken with your mouths, and with your hands have fulfilled it, saying, We will surely perform our vows that we have vowed, to burn incense to the queen of heaven, and to pour out drink offerings to her: establish then your vows, and perform your vows.
44:26 Therefore hear ye the word of Yehovah, all Judah that dwell in the land of Egypt: Behold, I have sworn by my great name, says Yehovah, that my name shall no more be named in the mouth of any man of Judah in all the land of Egypt, saying, as the Lord Yehovah lives.
44:27 Behold, I watch over them for evil, and not for good; and all the men of Judah that are in the land of Egypt shall be consumed by the sword and by the famine, until there be an end of them.
44:28 And they that escape the sword shall return out of the land of Egypt into the land of Judah, few in number; and all the remnant of Judah, that are gone into the land of Egypt to sojourn there, shall know whose word shall stand, mine, or theirs.
44:29 And this shall be the sign to you, says Yehovah, that I will punish you in this place, that ye may know that my words shall surely stand against you for evil:
44:30 Thus says Yehovah, Behold, I will give Pharaoh Hophra king of Egypt into the hand of his enemies, and into the hand of them that seek his life; as I gave Zedekiah king of Judah into the hand of Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon, who was his enemy, and sought his life.
45:1 The word that Jeremiah the prophet spoke to Baruch the son of Neriah, when he wrote these word in a book at the mouth of Jeremiah, in the fourth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah, saying,
45:2 Thus says Yehovah, the God of Israel, to you, O Baruch:
45:3 You did say, Woe is me now! for Yehovah has added sorrow to my pain; I am weary with my groaning, and I find no rest.
45:4 Thus shall you say to him, Thus says Yehovah: Behold, that which I have built I will break down, and that which I have planted I will pluck up; and this in the whole land.
45:5 And seek you great things for yourself? seek them not; for, behold, I will bring evil upon all flesh, says Yehovah; but your life I will give to you for a prey in all places whither you go.
46:1 The word of Yehovah which came to Jeremiah the prophet concerning the nations.
46:2 Of Egypt: concerning the army of Pharaoh-neco king of Egypt, which was by the river Euphrates in Carchemish, which Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon smote in the fourth year of Jehoiakim the son of Josiah, king of Judah.
46:3 Prepare ye the buckler and shield, and draw near to battle.
46:4 Harness the horses, and get up, ye horsemen, and stand forth with your helmets; furbish the spears, put on the coats of mail.
46:5 Why have I seen it? they are dismayed and are turned backward; and their mighty ones are beaten down, and are fled apace, and look not back: terror is on every side, says Yehovah.
46:6 Let not the swift flee away, nor the mighty man escape; in the north by the river Euphrates have they stumbled and fallen.
46:7 Who is this that rises up like the Nile, whose waters toss themselves like the rivers?

46:8 Egypt rises up like the Nile, and his waters toss themselves like the rivers: and he says, I will rise up, I will cover the earth; I will destroy cities and the inhabitants thereof.
46:9 Go up, ye horses; and rage, ye chariots; and let the mighty men go forth: Cush and Put,[43] that handle the shield; and the Ludim,[44] that handle and bend the bow.
46:10 For that day is a day of the Lord, Yehovah of hosts, a day of vengeance, that he may avenge him of his adversaries: and the sword shall devour and be satiated, and shall drink its fill of their blood; for the Lord, Yehovah of hosts, has a sacrifice in the north country by the river Euphrates.
46:11 Go up into Gilead, and take balm, O virgin daughter of Egypt: in vain do you use many medicines; there is no healing for you.
46:12 The nations have heard of your shame, and the earth is full of your cry; for the mighty man has stumbled against the mighty, they are fallen both of them together.
46:13 The word that Yehovah spoke to Jeremiah the prophet, how that Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon should come and smite the land of Egypt.
46:14 Declare ye in Egypt, and publish in Migdol, and publish in Memphis and in Tahpanhes: say ye, Stand forth, and prepare you; for the sword has devoured round about you.
46:15 Why are your strong ones swept away? they stood not, because Yehovah did drive them.
46:16 He made many to stumble, yes, they fell one upon another: and they said, arise, and let us go again to our own people, and to the land of our nativity, from the oppressing sword.
46:17 They cried there, Pharaoh king of Egypt is but a noise; he has let the appointed time pass by.
46:18 As I live, says the King, whose name is Yehovah of hosts, surely like Tabor among the mountains, and like Carmel by the sea, so shall he come.
46:19 O you daughter that dwell in Egypt, furnish yourself to go into captivity; for Memphis shall become a desolation, and shall be burnt up, without inhabitant.
46:20 Egypt is a very fair heifer; but destruction out of the north is come, it is come.
46:21 Also her hired men in the midst of her are like calves of the stall; for they also are turned back, they are fled away together, they did not stand: for the day of their calamity is come upon them, the time of their visitation.
46:22 The sound thereof shall go like the serpent; for they shall march with an army, and come against her with axes, as hewers of wood.
46:23 They shall cut down her forest, says Yehovah, though it cannot be searched; because they are more than the locusts, and are innumerable.
46:24 The daughter of Egypt shall be put to shame; she shall be delivered into the hand of the people of the north.
46:25 Yehovah of hosts, the God of Israel, says: Behold, I will punish Amon of No, and Pharaoh, and Egypt, with her gods, and her kings; even Pharaoh, and them that trust in him:
46:26 and I will deliver them into the hand of those that seek their lives, and into the hand of Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon, and into the hand of his servants; and afterwards it shall be inhabited, as in the days of old, says Yehovah.
46:27 But fear not you, O Jacob my servant, neither be dismayed, O Israel: for, lo, I will save you from afar, and your seed from the land of their captivity; and Jacob shall return, and shall be quiet and at ease, and no one shall make him afraid.
46:28 Fear not you, O Jacob my servant, says Yehovah; for I am with you: for I will make a full end of all the nations whither I have driven you; but I will not make a full end of you, but I will correct you in measure, and will in no wise leave you unpunished.
47:1 The word of Yehovah that came to Jeremiah the prophet concerning the Philistines, before that Pharaoh smote Gaza.

---

[43] 46:9a Put means the areas of north Africa west of Egypt: Libya, Algeria, Tunisia, Morocco; and Cush the areas of Africa south of Egypt, such as Sudan, Somalia, Ethiopia.
[44] 46:9b Lud is in Turkey.

47:2 Thus says Yehovah: Behold, waters rise up out of the north, and shall become an overflowing stream, and shall overflow the land and all that is therein, the city and them that dwell therein; and the men shall cry, and all the inhabitants of the land shall wail.
47:3 At the noise of the stamping of the hoofs of his strong ones, at the rushing of his chariots, at the rumbling of his wheels, the fathers look not back to their children for feebleness of hands;
47:4 because of the day that comes to destroy all the Philistines, to cut off from Tyre and Sidon every helper that remains: for Yehovah will destroy the Philistines, the remnant of the isle of Caphtor.
47:5 Baldness is come upon Gaza; Ashkelon is brought to nought, the remnant of their valley: how long will you cut yourself?
47:6 O you sword of Yehovah, how long will it be until you are quiet? put yourself up into your scabbard; rest, and be still.
47:7 How can you be quiet, seeing Yehovah has given you a charge? Against Ashkelon, and against the sea-shore, there has he appointed it.
48:1 Of Moab. Thus says Yehovah of hosts, the God of Israel: Woe to Nebo! for it is laid waste; Kiriathaim is put to shame, it is taken; Misgab is put to shame and broken down.
48:2 The praise of Moab is no more; in Heshbon they have devised evil against her: Come, and let us cut her off from being a nation. You also, O Madmen, shall be brought to silence: the sword shall pursue you.
48:3 The sound of a cry from Horonaim, desolation and great destruction!
48:4 Moab is destroyed; her little ones have caused a cry to be heard.
48:5 For by the ascent of Luhith with continual weeping shall they go up; for at the descent of Horonaim they have heard the distress of the cry of destruction.
48:6 Flee, save your lives, and be like the heath in the wilderness.
48:7 For, because you have trusted in your works and in your treasures, you also shall be taken: and Chemosh shall go forth into captivity, his priests and his princes together.
48:8 And the destroyer shall come upon every city, and no city shall escape; the valley also shall perish, and the plain shall be destroyed; as Yehovah has spoken.
48:9 Give wings to Moab, that she may fly and get her away: and her cities shall become a desolation, without any to dwell therein.
48:10 Cursed be he that does the work of Yehovah negligently; and cursed be he that keeps back his sword from blood.
48:11 Moab has been at ease from his youth, and he has settled on his lees, and has not been emptied from vessel to vessel, neither has he gone into captivity: therefore his taste remains in him, and his scent is not changed.
48:12 Therefore, behold, the days come, says Yehovah, that I will send to him them that pour off, and they shall pour him off; and they shall empty his vessels, and break their bottles in pieces.
48:13 And Moab shall be ashamed of Chemosh, as the house of Israel was ashamed of Beth-el their confidence.
48:14 How say ye, We are mighty men, and valiant men for the war?
48:15 Moab is laid waste, and they are gone up into his cities, and his chosen young men are gone down to the slaughter, says the King, whose name is Yehovah of hosts.
48:16 The calamity of Moab is near to come, and his affliction hastens fast.
48:17 All ye that are round about him, bemoan him, and all ye that know his name; say, How is the strong staff broken, the beautiful rod!
48:18 O you daughter that dwell in Dibon, come down from your glory, and sit in thirst; for the destroyer of Moab is come up against you, he has destroyed your strongholds.
48:19 O inhabitant of Aroer, stand by the way, and watch: ask him that flees, and her that escapes; say, What has been done?
48:20 Moab is put to shame; for it is broken down: wail and cry; tell ye it by the Arnon, that Moab is laid waste.

48:21 And judgment is come upon the plain country, upon Holon, and upon Jahzah, and upon Mephaath,
48:22 and upon Dibon, and upon Nebo, and upon Beth-diblathaim,
48:23 and upon Kiriathaim, and upon Beth-gamul, and upon Beth-meon,
48:24 and upon Kerioth, and upon Bozrah, and upon all the cities of the land of Moab, far or near.
48:25 The horn of Moab is cut off, and his arm is broken, says Yehovah.
48:26 Make ye him drunken; for he magnified himself against Yehovah: and Moab shall wallow in his vomit, and he also shall be in derision.
48:27 For was not Israel a derision to you? was he found among thieves? for as often as you speak of him, you wag the head.
48:28 O ye inhabitants of Moab, leave the cities, and dwell in the rock; and be like the dove that makes her nest over the mouth of the abyss.
48:29 We have heard of the pride of Moab, that he is very proud; his loftiness, and his pride, and his arrogancy, and the haughtiness of his heart.
48:30 I know his wrath, says Yehovah, that it is nought; his boastings have wrought nothing.
48:31 Therefore I will wail for Moab; yes, I will cry out for all Moab: for the men of Kir-heres shall they mourn.
48:32 With more than the weeping of Jazer I will weep for you, O vine of Sibmah: your branches passed over the sea, they reached even to the sea of Jazer: upon your summer fruits and upon your vintage the destroyer is fallen.
48:33 And gladness and joy is taken away from the fruitful field and from the land of Moab; and I have caused wine to cease from the winepresses: no one shall tread with shouting; the shouting shall be no shouting.
48:34 From the cry of Heshbon even to Elealeh, even to Jahaz have they uttered their voice, from Zoar even to Horonaim, to Eglath-shelishiyah: for the waters of Nimrim also shall become desolate.
48:35 Moreover I will cause to cease in Moab, says Yehovah, him that offers in the high place, and him that burns incense to his gods.
48:36 Therefore my heart sounds for Moab like pipes, and my heart sounds like pipes for the men of Kir-heres: therefore the abundance that he has gotten is perished.
48:37 For every head is bald, and every beard clipped: upon all the hands are cuttings, and upon the loins sackcloth.
48:38 On all the housetops of Moab and in the streets thereof there is lamentation every where; for I have broken Moab like a vessel in which no one delights, says Yehovah.
48:39 How is it broken down! how do they wail! how has Moab turned the back with shame! so shall Moab become a derision and a terror to all that are round about him.
48:40 For thus says Yehovah: Behold, he shall fly as an eagle, and shall spread out his wings against Moab.
48:41 Kerioth is taken, and the strongholds are seized, and the heart of the mighty men of Moab at that day shall be as the heart of a woman in her pangs.
48:42 And Moab shall be destroyed from being a people, because he has magnified himself against Yehovah.
48:43 Fear, and the pit, and the snare, are upon you, O inhabitant of Moab, says Yehovah.
48:44 He that flees from the fear shall fall into the pit; and he that gets up out of the pit shall be taken in the snare: for I will bring upon him, even upon Moab, the year of their visitation, says Yehovah.
48:45 They that fled stand without strength under the shadow of Heshbon; for a fire is gone forth out of Heshbon, and a flame from the midst of Sihon, and has devoured the corner of Moab, and the crown of the head of the tumultuous ones.
48:46 Woe to you, O Moab! the people of Chemosh is undone; for your sons are taken away captive, and your daughters into captivity.
48:47 Yet I will bring back the captivity of Moab in the latter days, says Yehovah. Thus far is the judgment of Moab.

49:1 Of the children of Ammon. Thus says Yehovah: Has Israel no sons? has he no heir? why then does Malcam possess Gad, and his people well in the cities thereof?
49:2 Therefore, behold, the days come, says Yehovah, that I will cause an alarm of war to be heard against Rabbah of the children of Ammon; and it shall become a desolate heap, and her daughters shall be burned with fire: then shall Israel possess them that did possess him, says Yehovah.
49:3 Wail, O Heshbon, for Ai is laid waste; cry, ye daughters of Rabbah, gird you with sackcloth: lament, and run to and fro among the fences; for Malcam shall go into captivity, his priests and his princes together.
49:4 Why do you glory in the valleys, your flowing valley, O backsliding daughter? that trusted in her treasures, saying, Who shall come to me?
49:5 Behold, I will bring a fear upon you, says the Lord, Yehovah of hosts, from all that are round about you; and ye shall be driven out every man right forth, and there shall be no one to gather together the fugitives.
49:6 But afterward I will bring back the captivity of the children of Ammon, says Yehovah.
49:7 Of Edom. Thus says Yehovah of hosts: Is wisdom no more in Teman? is counsel perished from the prudent? is their wisdom vanished?
49:8 Flee ye, turn back, dwell in the depths, O inhabitants of Dedan;[45] for I will bring the calamity of Esau upon him, the time that I shall visit him.
49:9 If grape-gatherers came to you, would they not leave some gleaning grapes? if thieves by night, would they not destroy till they had enough?
49:10 But I have made Esau bare, I have uncovered his secret places, and he shall not be able to hide himself: his seed is destroyed, and his brethren, and his neighbors; and he is not.
49:11 Leave your fatherless children, I will preserve them alive; and let your widows trust in me.
49:12 For thus says Yehovah: Behold, they to whom it pertained not to drink of the cup shall assuredly drink; and are you he that shall altogether go unpunished? you shall not go unpunished, but you shall surely drink.
49:13 For I have sworn by myself, says Yehovah, that Bozrah shall become an astonishment, a reproach, a waste, and a curse; and all the cities thereof shall be perpetual wastes.
49:14 I have heard tidings from Yehovah, and an ambassador is sent among the nations, saying, Gather yourselves together, and come against her, and rise up to the battle.
49:15 For, behold, I have made you small among the nations, and despised among men.
49:16 As for your terribleness, the pride of your heart has deceived you, O you that dwell in the clefts of the rock, that hold the height of the hill: though you should make your nest as high as the eagle, I will bring you down from there, says Yehovah.
49:17 And Edom shall become an astonishment: every one that passes by it shall be astonished, and shall hiss at all the plagues thereof.
49:18 As in the overthrow of Sodom and Gomorrah and the neighbor cities thereof, says Yehovah, no man shall dwell there, neither shall any son of man sojourn therein.
49:19 Behold, he shall come up like a lion from the pride of the Jordan against the strong habitation: for I will suddenly make them run away from it; and whoso is chosen, him I will appoint over it: for who is like me? and who will appoint me a time? and who is the shepherd that will stand before me?
49:20 Therefore hear ye the counsel of Yehovah, that he has taken against Edom; and his purposes, that he has purposed against the inhabitants of Teman: Surely they shall drag them away, even the little ones of the flock; surely he shall make their habitation desolate over them.

[45] Arabia; Isaia 21:13

49:21 The earth trembles at the noise of their fall; there is a cry, the noise whereof is heard in the Red Sea.
49:22 Behold, he shall come up and fly as the eagle, and spread out his wings against Bozrah: and the heart of the mighty men of Edom at that day shall be as the heart of a woman in her pangs.
49:23 Of Damascus. Hamath is confounded, and Arpad; for they have heard evil tidings, they are melted away: there is sorrow on the sea; it cannot be quiet.
49:24 Damascus is become feeble, she turns herself to flee, and trembling has seized on her: anguish and sorrows have taken hold of her, as of a woman in travail.
49:25 How is the city of praise not forsaken, the city of my joy?
49:26 Therefore her young men shall fall in her streets, and all the men of war shall be brought to silence in that day, says Yehovah of hosts.
49:27 And I will kindle a fire in the wall of Damascus, and it shall devour the palaces of Ben-hadad.
49:28 Of Kedar, and of the kingdoms of Hazor, which Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon smote. Thus says Yehovah: Arise ye, go up to Kedar, and destroy the children of the east.
49:29 Their tents and their flocks shall they take; they shall carry away for themselves their curtains, and all their vessels, and their camels; and they shall cry to them, Terror on every side!
49:30 Flee ye, wander far off, dwell in the depths, O ye inhabitants of Hazor, says Yehovah; for Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon has taken counsel against you, and has conceived a purpose against you.
49:31 Arise, go up to a nation that is at ease, that dwells without care, says Yehovah; that have neither gates nor bars, that dwell alone.
49:32 And their camels shall be a booty, and the multitude of their cattle a spoil: and I will scatter to all winds them that have the corners of their hair cut off; and I will bring their calamity from every side of them, says Yehovah.
49:33 And Hazor shall be a dwelling-place of jackals, a desolation for ever: no man shall dwell there, neither shall any son of man sojourn therein.
49:34 The word of Yehovah that came to Jeremiah the prophet concerning Elam, in the beginning of the reign of Zedekiah king of Judah, saying, 49:35 Thus says Yehovah of hosts: Behold, I will break the bow of Elam, the chief of their might.
49:36 And upon Elam I will bring the four winds from the four quarters of heaven, and will scatter them toward all those winds; and there shall be no nation whither the outcasts of Elam shall not come.
49:37 And I will cause Elam to be dismayed before their enemies, and before them that seek their life; and I will bring evil upon them, even my fierce anger, says Yehovah; and I will send the sword after them, till I have consumed them;
49:38 and I will set my throne in Elam, and will destroy from there king and princes, says Yehovah.
49:39 But it shall come to pass in the latter days, that I will bring back the captivity of Elam, says Yehovah.
50:1 The word that Yehovah spoke concerning Babylon, concerning the land of the Chaldeans, by Jeremiah the prophet.
50:2 Declare ye among the nations and publish, and set up a standard; publish, and conceal not: say, Babylon is taken, Bel is put to shame, Merodach is dismayed; her images are put to shame, her idols are dismayed.
50:3 For out of the north there comes up a nation against her, which shall make her land desolate, and no one shall dwell therein: they are fled, they are gone, both man and beast.
50:4 In those days, and in that time, says Yehovah, the children of Israel shall come, they and the children of Judah together; they shall go on their way weeping, and shall seek Yehovah their God.
50:5 They shall ask direction to Zion, and turn their faces toward it, saying, Come ye, and join yourselves to Yehovah in an everlasting covenant that shall not be forgotten.

50:6 My people have been lost sheep: their shepherds have caused them to go astray; they have turned them away on the mountains; they have gone from mountain to hill; they have forgotten their resting-place.
50:7 All that found them have devoured them; and their adversaries said, We are not guilty, because they have sinned against Yehovah, the habitation of righteousness, even Yehovah, the hope of their fathers.
50:8 Flee out of the midst of Babylon, and go forth out of the land of the Chaldeans, and be as the he-goats before the flocks.
50:9 For, lo, I will stir up and cause to come up against Babylon a company of great nations from the north country; and they shall set themselves in array against her; from there she shall be taken: their arrows shall be as of an expert mighty man; none shall return in vain.
50:10 And Chaldea shall be a prey: all that prey upon her shall be satisfied, says Yehovah.
50:11 Because ye are glad, because ye rejoice, O ye that plunder my heritage, because ye are wanton as a heifer that treads out the grain, and neigh as strong horses;
50:12 your mother shall be utterly put to shame; she that bore you shall be confounded: behold, she shall be the hindermost of the nations, a wilderness, a dry land, and a desert.
50:13 Because of the wrath of Yehovah she shall not be inhabited, but she shall be wholly desolate: every one that goes by Babylon shall be astonished, and hiss at all her plagues.
50:14 Set yourselves in array against Babylon round about, all ye that bend the bow; shoot at her, spare no arrows: for she has sinned against Yehovah.
50:15 Shout against her round about: she has submitted herself; her bulwarks are fallen, her walls are thrown down; for it is the vengeance of Yehovah: take vengeance upon her; as she has done, do to her.
50:16 Cut off the sower from Babylon, and him that handles the sickle in the time of harvest: for fear of the oppressing sword they shall turn every one to his people, and they shall flee every one to his own land.
50:17 Israel is a hunted sheep; the lions have driven him away: first, the king of Assyria devoured him; and now at last Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon has broken his bones.
50:18 Therefore thus says Yehovah of hosts, the God of Israel: Behold, I will punish the king of Babylon and his land, as I have punished the king of Assyria.
50:19 And I will bring Israel again to his pasture, and he shall feed on Carmel and Bashan, and his soul shall be satisfied upon the hills of Ephraim and in Gilead.
50:20 In those days, and in that time, says Yehovah, the iniquity of Israel shall be sought for, and there shall be none; and the sins of Judah, and they shall not be found: for I will pardon them whom I leave as a remnant.
50:21 Go up against the land of Merathaim, even against it, and against the inhabitants of Pekod: slay and utterly destroy after them, says Yehovah, and do according to all that I have commanded you.
50:22 A sound of battle is in the land, and of great destruction.
50:23 How is the hammer of the whole earth cut asunder and broken! how is Babylon become a desolation among the nations!
50:24 I have laid a snare for you, and you are also taken, O Babylon, and you were not aware: you are found, and also caught, because you have striven against Yehovah.
50:25 Yehovah has opened his armory, and has brought forth the weapons of his indignation; for the Lord, Yehovah of hosts, has a work to do in the land of the Chaldeans.
50:26 Come against her from the utmost border; open her store-houses; cast her up as heaps, and destroy her utterly; let nothing of her be left.
50:27 Slay all her bullocks; let them go down to the slaughter: woe to them! for their day is come, the time of their visitation.
50:28 The voice of them that flee and escape out of the land of Babylon, to declare in Zion the vengeance of Yehovah our God, the vengeance of his temple.

50:29 Call together the archers against Babylon, all them that bend the bow; encamp against her round about; let no one thereof escape: recompense her according to her work; according to all that she has done, do to her; for she has been proud against Yehovah, against the Holy One of Israel.
50:30 Therefore shall her young men fall in her streets, and all her men of war shall be brought to silence in that day, says Yehovah.
50:31 Behold, I am against you, O you proud one, says the Lord, Yehovah of hosts; for your day is come, the time that I will visit you.
50:32 And the proud one shall stumble and fall, and no one shall raise him up; and I will kindle a fire in his cities, and it shall devour all that are round about him.
50:33 Thus says Yehovah of hosts: The children of Israel and the children of Judah are oppressed together; and all that took them captive hold them fast; they refuse to let them go.
50:34 Their Redeemer is strong; Yehovah of hosts is his name: he will thoroughly plead their cause, that he may give rest to the earth, and disquiet the inhabitants of Babylon.
50:35 A sword is upon the Chaldeans, says Yehovah, and upon the inhabitants of Babylon, and upon her princes, and upon her wise men.
50:36 A sword is upon the boasters, and they shall become fools; a sword is upon her mighty men, and they shall be dismayed.
50:37 A sword is upon their horses, and upon their chariots, and upon all the mingled people that are in the midst of her; and they shall become as women: a sword is upon her treasures, and they shall be robbed.
50:38 A drought is upon her waters, and they shall be dried up; for it is a land of graven images, and they are mad over idols.
50:39 Therefore the wild beasts of the desert with the wolves shall dwell there, and the ostriches shall dwell therein: and it shall be no more inhabited for ever; neither shall it be dwelt in from generation to generation.
50:40 As when God overthrew Sodom and Gomorrah and the neighbor cities thereof, says Yehovah, so shall no man dwell there, neither shall any son of man sojourn therein.
50:41 Behold, a people comes from the north; and a great nation and many kings shall be stirred up from the uttermost parts of the earth.
50:42 They lay hold on bow and spear; they are cruel, and have no mercy; their voice roars like the sea; and they ride upon horses, every one set in array, as a man to the battle, against you, O daughter of Babylon.
50:43 The king of Babylon has heard the tidings of them, and his hands grow feeble: anguish has taken hold of him, and pangs as of a woman in travail.
50:44 Behold, the enemy shall come up like a lion from the pride of the Jordan against the strong habitation: for I will suddenly make them run away from it; and whoso is chosen, him I will appoint over it: for who is like me? and who will appoint me a time? and who is the shepherd that can stand before me?
50:45 Therefore hear ye the counsel of Yehovah, that he has taken against Babylon; and his purposes, that he has purposed against the land of the Chaldeans: Surely they shall drag them away, even the little ones of the flock; surely he shall make their habitation desolate over them.
50:46 At the noise of the taking of Babylon the earth trembles, and the cry is heard among the nations.
51:1 Thus says Yehovah: Behold, I will raise up against Babylon, and against them that dwell in Leb-kamai, a destroying wind.
51:2 And I will send to Babylon strangers, that shall winnow her; and they shall empty her land: for in the day of trouble they shall be against her round about.
51:3 Against him that bends let the archer bend his bow, and against him that lifts himself up in his coat of mail: and spare ye not her young men; destroy ye utterly all her host.
51:4 And they shall fall down slain in the land of the Chaldeans, and thrust through in her streets.
51:5 For Israel is not forsaken, nor Judah, of his God, of Yehovah of hosts; though their land is full of guilt against the Holy One of Israel.

51:6 Flee out of the midst of Babylon, and save every man his life; be not cut off in her iniquity: for it is the time of Yehovah's vengeance; he will render to her a recompense.
51:7 Babylon has been a golden cup in Yehovah's hand, that made all the earth drunken: the nations have drunk of her wine; therefore the nations are mad.
51:8 Babylon is suddenly fallen and destroyed: wail for her; take balm for her pain, if so be she may be healed.
51:9 We would have healed Babylon, but she is not healed: forsake her, and let us go every one into his own country; for her judgment reaches to heaven, and is lifted up even to the skies.
51:10 Yehovah has brought forth our righteousness: come, and let us declare in Zion the work of Yehovah our God.
51:11 Make sharp the arrows; hold firm the shields: Yehovah has stirred up the spirit of the kings of the Medes; because his purpose is against Babylon, to destroy it: for it is the vengeance of Yehovah, the vengeance of his temple.
51:12 Set up a standard against the walls of Babylon, make the watch strong, set the watchmen, prepare the ambushes; for Yehovah has both purposed and done that which he spoke concerning the inhabitants of Babylon.
51:13 O you that dwell upon many waters, abundant in treasures, your end is come, the measure of your covetousness.
51:14 Yehovah of hosts has sworn by himself, saying, Surely I will fill you with men, as with the canker-worm; and they shall lift up a shout against you.
51:15 He has made the earth by his power, he has established the world by his wisdom, and by his understanding has he stretched out the heavens:
51:16 when he utters his voice, there is a tumult of waters in the heavens, and he causes the vapors to ascend from the ends of the earth; he makes lightnings for the rain, and brings forth the wind out of his treasuries.
51:17 Every man is become brutish and is without knowledge; every goldsmith is put to shame by his image; for his molten image is falsehood, and there is no breath in them.
51:18 They are vanity, a work of delusion: in the time of their visitation they shall perish.
51:19 The portion of Jacob is not like these; for he is the former of all things; and Israel is the tribe of his inheritance: Yehovah of hosts is his name.
51:20 You are my battle-axe and weapons of war: and with you I will break in pieces the nations; and with you I will destroy kingdoms;
51:21 and with you I will break in pieces the horse and his rider;
51:22 and with you I will break in pieces the chariot and him that rides therein; and with you I will break in pieces man and woman; and with you I will break in pieces the old man and the youth; and with you I will break in pieces the young man and the virgin;
51:23 and with you I will break in pieces the shepherd and his flock; and with you I will break in pieces the husbandman and his yoke of oxen; and with you I will break in pieces governors and deputies.
51:24 And I will render to Babylon and to all the inhabitants of Chaldea all their evil that they have done in Zion in your sight, says Yehovah.
51:25 Behold, I am against you, O destroying mountain, says Yehovah, which destroy all the earth; and I will stretch out my hand upon you, and roll you down from the rocks, and will make you a burnt mountain.
51:26 And they shall not take of you a stone for a corner, nor a stone for foundations; but you shall be desolate for ever, says Yehovah.
51:27 Set ye up a standard in the land, blow the trumpet among the nations, prepare the nations against her, call together against her the kingdoms of Ararat, Minni, and Ashkenaz: appoint a marshal against her; cause the horses to come up as the rough canker-worm.
51:28 Prepare against her the nations, the kings of the Medes, the governors thereof, and all the deputies thereof, and all the land of their dominion.
51:29 And the land trembles and is in pain; for the purposes of Yehovah against Babylon do stand, to make the land of Babylon a desolation, without inhabitant.

51:30 The mighty men of Babylon have forborne to fight, they remain in their strongholds; their might has failed; they are become as women: her dwelling-places are set on fire; her bars are broken.
51:31 One post shall run to meet another, and one messenger to met another, to show the king of Babylon that his city is taken on every quarter:
51:32 and the passages are seized, and the reeds they have burned with fire, and the men of war are affrighted.
51:33 For thus says Yehovah of hosts, the God of Israel: The daughter of Babylon is like a threshing-floor at the time when it is trodden; yet a little while, and the time of harvest shall come for her.
51:34 Nebuchadrezzar the king of Babylon has devoured me, he has crushed me, he has made me an empty vessel, he has, like a monster, swallowed me up, he has filled his maw with my delicacies; he has cast me out.
51:35 The violence done to me and to my flesh be upon Babylon, shall the inhabitant of Zion say; and, My blood be upon the inhabitants of Chaldea, shall Jerusalem say.
51:36 Therefore thus says Yehovah: Behold, I will plead your cause, and take vengeance for you; and I will dry up her sea, and make her fountain dry.
51:37 And Babylon shall become heaps, a dwelling-place for jackals, an astonishment, and a hissing, without inhabitant.
51:38 They shall roar together like young lions; they shall growl as lions' whelps.
51:39 When they are heated, I will make their feast, and I will make them drunken, that they may rejoice, and sleep a perpetual sleep, and not wake, says Yehovah.
51:40 I will bring them down like lambs to the slaughter, like rams with he-goats.
51:41 How is Sheshach taken! and the praise of the whole earth seized! how is Babylon become a desolation among the nations!
51:42 The sea is come up upon Babylon; she is covered with the multitude of the waves thereof.
51:43 Her cities are become a desolation, a dry land, and a desert, a land in which no man dwells, neither does any son of man pass thereby.
51:44 And I will execute judgment upon Bel in Babylon, and I will bring forth out of his mouth that which he has swallowed up; and the nations shall not flow any more to him: yes, the wall of Babylon shall fall.
51:45 My people, go ye out of the midst of her, and save yourselves every man from the fierce anger of Yehovah.
51:46 And let not your heart faint, neither fear ye for the tidings that shall be heard in the land; for tidings shall come one year, and after that in another year shall come tidings, and violence in the land, ruler against ruler.
51:47 Therefore, behold, the days come, that I will execute judgment upon the graven images of Babylon; and her whole land shall be confounded; and all her slain shall fall in the midst of her.
51:48 Then the heavens and the earth, and all that is therein, shall sing for joy over Babylon; for the destroyers shall come to her from the north, says Yehovah.
51:49 As Babylon has caused the slain of Israel to fall, so at Babylon shall fall the slain of all the land.
51:50 You that have escaped the sword, go ye, stand not still; remember Yehovah from afar, and let Jerusalem come into your mind.
51:51 We are confounded, because we have heard reproach; confusion has covered our faces: for strangers are come into the sanctuaries of Yehovah's house.
51:52 Wherefore, behold, the days come, says Yehovah, that I will execute judgment upon her graven images; and through all her land the wounded shall groan.
51:53 Though Babylon should mount up to heaven, and though she should fortify the height of her strength, yet from me shall destroyers come to her, says Yehovah.
51:54 The sound of a cry from Babylon, and of great destruction from the land of the Chaldeans!
51:55 For Yehovah lays Babylon waste, and destroys out of her the great voice; and their waves roar like many waters; the noise of their voice is uttered:

51:56 for the destroyer is come upon her, even upon Babylon, and her mighty men are taken, their bows are broken in pieces; for Yehovah is a God of recompenses, he will surely requite.
51:57 And I will make drunk her princes and her wise men, her governors and her deputies, and her mighty men; and they shall sleep a perpetual sleep, and not wake, says the King, whose name is Yehovah of hosts.
51:58 Thus says Yehovah of hosts: The broad walls of Babylon shall be utterly overthrown, and her high gates shall be burned with fire; and the peoples shall labor for vanity, and the nations for the fire; and they shall be weary.
51:59 The word which Jeremiah the prophet commanded Seraiah the son of Neriah, the son of Mahseiah, when he went with Zedekiah the king of Judah to Babylon in the fourth year of his reign. Now Seraiah was chief eunuch.
51:60 And Jeremiah wrote in a book all the evil that should come upon Babylon, even all these words that are written concerning Babylon.
51:61 And Jeremiah said to Seraiah, When you come to Babylon, then see that you read all these words,
51:62 and say, O Yehovah, you have spoken concerning this place, to cut it off, that no one shall dwell therein, neither man nor beast, but that it shall be desolate for ever.
51:63 And it shall be, when you have made an end of reading this book, that you shall bind a stone to it, and cast it into the midst of the Euphrates:
51:64 and you shall say, Thus shall Babylon sink, and shall not rise again because of the evil that I will bring upon her; and they shall be weary. Thus far are the words of Jeremiah.
52:1 Zedekiah was one and twenty years old when he began to reign; and he reigned eleven years in Jerusalem: and his mother's name was Hamutal the daughter of Jeremiah of Libnah.
52:2 And he did that which was evil in the sight of Yehovah, according to all that Jehoiakim had done.
52:3 For through the anger of Yehovah did it come to pass in Jerusalem and Judah, until he had cast them out from his presence. And Zedekiah rebelled against the king of Babylon.
52:4 And it came to pass in the ninth year of his reign, in the tenth month, in the tenth day of the month, that Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon came, he and all his army, against Jerusalem, and encamped against it; and they built forts against it round about.
52:5 So the city was besieged to the eleventh year of king Zedekiah.
52:6 In the fourth month, in the ninth day of the month, the famine was sore in the city, so that there was no bread for the people of the land.
52:7 Then a breach was made in the city, and all the men of war fled, and went forth out of the city by night by the way of the gate between the two walls, which was by the king's garden; (now the Chaldeans were against the city round about;) and they went toward the Arabah.
52:8 But the army of the Chaldeans pursued after the king, and overtook Zedekiah in the plains of Jericho; and all his army was scattered from him.
52:9 Then they took the king, and carried him up to the king of Babylon to Riblah in the land of Hamath; and he gave judgment upon him.
52:10 And the king of Babylon slew the sons of Zedekiah before his eyes: he slew also all the princes of Judah in Riblah.
52:11 And he put out the eyes of Zedekiah; and the king of Babylon bound him in fetters, and carried him to Babylon, and put him in prison till the day of his death.
52:12 Now in the fifth month, in the tenth day of the month, which was the nineteenth year of king Nebuchadrezzar, king of Babylon, came Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard, who stood before the king of Babylon, into Jerusalem:
52:13 and he burned the house of Yehovah, and the king's house; and all the houses of Jerusalem, even every great house, burned he with fire.
52:14 And all the army of the Chaldeans, that were with the captain of the guard, broke down all the walls of Jerusalem round about.

52:15 Then Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard carried away captive of the poorest of the people, and the residue of the people that were left in the city, and those that fell away, that fell to the king of Babylon, and the residue of the multitude.
52:16 But Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard left of the poorest of the land to be vinedressers and husbandmen.
52:17 And the pillars of brass that were in the house of Yehovah, and the bases and the brazen sea that were in the house of Yehovah, did the Chaldeans break in pieces, and carried all the brass of them to Babylon.
52:18 The pots also, and the shovels, and the snuffers, and the basins, and the spoons, and all the vessels of brass with which they ministered, took they away.
52:19 And the cups, and the firepans, and the basins, and the pots, and the candlesticks, and the spoons, and the bowls-that which was of gold, in gold, and that which was of silver, in silver,- the captain of the guard took away.
52:20 The two pillars, the one sea, and the twelve brazen bulls that were under the bases, which king Solomon had made for the house of Yehovah-the brass of all these vessels was without weight.
52:21 And as for the pillars, the height of the one pillar was eighteen cubits; and a line of twelve cubits did compass it; and the thickness thereof was four fingers: it was hollow.
52:22 And a capital of brass was upon it; and the height of the one capital was five cubits, with network and pomegranates upon the capital round about, all of brass: and the second pillar also had like to these, and pomegranates.
52:23 And there were ninety and six pomegranates on the sides; all the pomegranates were a hundred upon the network round about.
52:24 And the captain of the guard took Seraiah the chief priest, and Zephaniah the second priest, and the three keepers of the threshold:
52:25 and out of the city he took an officer that was set over the men of war; and seven men of them that saw the king's face, that were found in the city; and the scribe of the captain of the host, who mustered the people of the land; and sixty men of the people of the land, that were found in the midst of the city.
52:26 And Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard took them, and brought them to the king of Babylon to Riblah.
52:27 And the king of Babylon smote them, and put them to death at Riblah in the land of Hamath. So Judah was carried away captive out of his land.
52:28 This is the people whom Nebuchadrezzar carried away captive: in the seventh year three thousand Jews and three and twenty;
52:29 in the eighteenth year of Nebuchadrezzar he carried away captive from Jerusalem eight hundred thirty and two persons;
52:30 in the three and twentieth year of Nebuchadrezzar Nebuzaradan the captain of the guard carried away captive of the Jews seven hundred forty and five persons: all the persons were four thousand and six hundred.
52:31 And it came to pass in the seven and thirtieth year of the captivity of Jehoiachin king of Judah, in the twelfth month, in the five and twentieth day of the month, that Evil-merodach king of Babylon, in the first year of his reign, lifted up the head of Jehoiachin king of Judah, and brought him forth out of prison;
52:32 and he spoke kindly to him, and set his throne above the throne of the kings that were with him in Babylon,
52:33 and changed his prison garments. And Jehoiachin did eat bread before him continually all the days of his life:
52:34 and for his allowance, there was a continual allowance given him by the king of Babylon, every day a portion until the day of his death, all the days of his life.

End of Jeremiah

The Lamentations of Jeremiah

Lamentations

1:1 How does the city sit solitary, that was full of people! She is become as a widow, that was great among the nations! She that was a princess among the provinces is become tributary!
1:2 She weeps sore in the night, and her tears are on her cheeks; Among all her lovers she has no one to comfort her: All her friends have dealt treacherously with her; they are become her enemies.
1:3 Judah is gone into captivity because of affliction, and because of great servitude; She dwells among the nations, she finds no rest: All her persecutors overtook her within the straits.
1:4 The ways of Zion do mourn, because none come to the solemn assembly; All her gates are desolate, her priests do sigh: Her virgins are afflicted, and she herself is in bitterness.
1:5 Her adversaries are become the head, her enemies prosper; For Yehovah has afflicted her for the multitude of her transgressions: Her young children are gone into captivity before the adversary.
1:6 And from the daughter of Zion all her majesty is departed: Her princes are become like deer that find no pasture, and they are gone without strength before the pursuer.
1:7 Jerusalem remembers in the days of her affliction and of her miseries all her pleasant things that were from the days of old: When her people fell into the hand of the adversary, and no one did help her, The adversaries saw her, they did mock at her desolations.
1:8 Jerusalem has grievously sinned; therefore she is become as an unclean thing; All that honored her despise her, because they have seen her nakedness: Yes, she sighs, and turns backward.
1:9 Her filthiness was in her skirts; she remembered not her latter end; Therefore is she come down wonderfully; she has no comforter: Behold, O Yehovah, my affliction; for the enemy has magnified himself.
1:10 The adversary has spread out his hand upon all her pleasant things: For she has seen that the nations are entered into her sanctuary, Concerning whom you did command that they should not enter into your assembly.
1:11 All her people sigh, they seek bread; They have given their pleasant things for food to refresh the soul: See, O Yehovah, and behold; for I am become abject.
1:12 Is it nothing to you, all ye that pass by? Behold, and see if there be any sorrow like to my sorrow, which is brought upon me, With which Yehovah has afflicted me in the day of his fierce anger.
1:13 From on high has he sent fire into my bones, and it prevails against them; He has spread a net for my feet, he has turned me back: He has made me desolate and faint all the day.
1:14 The yoke of my transgressions is bound by his hand; They are knit together, they are come up upon my neck; he has made my strength to fail: The Lord has delivered me into their hands, against whom I am not able to stand.
1:15 The Lord has set at nought all my mighty men in the midst of me; He has called a solemn assembly against me to crush my young men: The Lord has trodden as in a winepress the virgin daughter of Judah.
1:16 For these things I weep; my eye, my eye runs down with water; Because the comforter that should refresh my soul is far from me: My children are desolate, because the enemy has prevailed.
1:17 Zion spreads forth her hands; there is no one to comfort her; Yehovah has commanded concerning Jacob, that they that are round about him should be his adversaries: Jerusalem is among them as an unclean thing.
1:18 Yehovah is righteous; for I have rebelled against his commandment: Hear, I pray you, all ye peoples, and behold my sorrow: My virgins and my young men are gone into captivity.

1:19 I called for my lovers, but they deceived me: My priests and my elders gave up the ghost in the city, While they sought them food to refresh their souls.
1:20 Behold, O Yehovah; for I am in distress; my heart is troubled; My heart is turned within me; for I have grievously rebelled: Abroad the sword bereaves, at home there is as death.
1:21 They have heard that I sigh; there is no one to comfort me; All my enemies have heard of my trouble; they are glad that you have done it: You will bring the day that you have proclaimed, and they shall be like to me.
1:22 Let all their wickedness come before you; And do to them, as you have done to me for all my transgressions: For my sighs are many, and my heart is faint.
2:1 How has the Lord covered the daughter of Zion with a cloud in his anger! He has cast down from heaven to the earth the beauty of Israel, and has not remembered his footstool in the day of his anger.
2:2 The Lord has swallowed up all the habitations of Jacob, and has not pitied: He has thrown down in his wrath the strongholds of the daughter of Judah; He has brought them down to the ground; he has profaned the kingdom and the princes thereof.
2:3 He has cut off in fierce anger all the horn of Israel; He has drawn back his right hand from before the enemy: And he has burned up Jacob like a flaming fire, which devours round about.
2:4 He has bent his bow like an enemy, he has stood with his right hand as an adversary, and has slain all that were pleasant to the eye: In the tent of the daughter of Zion he has poured out his wrath like fire.
2:5 The Lord is become as an enemy, he has swallowed up Israel; He has swallowed up all her palaces, he has destroyed his strongholds; And he has multiplied in the daughter of Judah mourning and lamentation.
2:6 And he has violently taken away his tabernacle, as if it were of a garden; he has destroyed his place of assembly: Yehovah has caused solemn assembly and sabbath to be forgotten in Zion, and has despised in the indignation of his anger the king and the priest.
2:7 The Lord has cast off his altar, he has abhorred his sanctuary; He has given up into the hand of the enemy the walls of her palaces: They have made a noise in the house of Yehovah, as in the day of a solemn assembly.
2:8 Yehovah has purposed to destroy the wall of the daughter of Zion; He has stretched out the line, he has not withdrawn his hand from destroying; And he has made the rampart and wall to lament; they languish together.
2:9 Her gates are sunk into the ground; he has destroyed and broken her bars: Her king and her princes are among the nations where the law is not; Yes, her prophets find no vision from Yehovah.
2:10 The elders of the daughter of Zion sit upon the ground, they keep silence; They have cast up dust upon their heads; they have girded themselves with sackcloth: The virgins of Jerusalem hang down their heads to the ground.
2:11 Mine eyes do fail with tears, my heart is troubled; My liver is poured upon the earth, because of the destruction of the daughter of my people, Because the young children and the sucklings swoon in the streets of the city.
2:12 They say to their mothers, Where is grain and wine? When they swoon as the wounded in the streets of the city, When their soul is poured out into their mothers' bosom.
2:13 What shall I testify to you? what shall I liken to you, O daughter of Jerusalem? What shall I compare to you, that I may comfort you, O virgin daughter of Zion? For your breach is great like the sea: who can heal you?
2:14 Your prophets have seen for you false and foolish visions; And they have not uncovered your iniquity, to bring back your captivity, But have seen for you false oracles and causes of banishment.
2:15 All that pass by clap their hands at you; They hiss and wag their head at the daughter of Jerusalem, saying, Is this the city that men called The perfection of beauty, The joy of the whole earth?

2:16 All your enemies have opened their mouth wide against you; They hiss and gnash the teeth; they say, We have swallowed her up; Certainly this is the day that we looked for; we have found, we have seen it.
2:17 Yehovah has done that which he purposed; he has fulfilled his word that he commanded in the days of old; He has thrown down, and has not pitied: And he has caused the enemy to rejoice over you; he has exalted the horn of your adversaries.
2:18 Their heart cried to the Lord: O wall of the daughter of Zion, let tears run down like a river day and night; Give yourself no respite; let not the apple of your eye cease.
2:19 Arise, cry out in the night, at the beginning of the watches; Pour out your heart like water before the face of the Lord: Lift up your hands toward him for the life of your young children, that faint for hunger at the head of every street.
2:20 See, O Yehovah, and behold to whom you have done thus! Shall the women eat their fruit, the children that are dandled in the hands? Shall the priest and the prophet be slain in the sanctuary of the Lord?
2:21 The youth and the old man lie on the ground in the streets; My virgins and my young men are fallen by the sword: You have slain them in the day of your anger; you have slaughtered, and not pitied.
2:22 You have called, as in the day of a solemn assembly, my terrors on every side; And there was none that escaped or remained in the day of Yehovah's anger: Those that I have dandled and brought up has my enemy consumed.
3:1 I am the man that has seen affliction by the rod of his wrath.
3:2 He has led me and caused me to walk in darkness, and not in light.
3:3 Surely against me he turns his hand again and again all the day.
3:4 My flesh and my skin has he made old; he has broken my bones.
3:5 He has built against me, and compassed me with gall and travail.
3:6 He has made me to dwell in dark places, as those that have been long dead.
3:7 He has walled me about, that I cannot go forth; he has made my chain heavy.
3:8 Yes, when I cry, and call for help, he shuts out my prayer.
3:9 He has walled up my ways with hewn stone; he has made my paths crooked.
3:10 He is to me as a bear lying in wait, as a lion in secret places.
3:11 He has turned aside my ways, and pulled me in pieces; he has made me desolate.
3:12 He has bent his bow, and set me as a mark for the arrow.
3:13 He has caused the shafts of his quiver to enter into my reins.
3:14 I am become a derision to all my people, and their song all the day.
3:15 He has filled me with bitterness, he has sated me with wormwood.
3:16 He has also broken my teeth with gravel stones; he has covered me with ashes.
3:17 And you have removed my soul far off from peace; I forgat prosperity.
3:18 And I said, My strength is perished, and my expectation from Yehovah.
3:19 Remember my affliction and my misery, the wormwood and the gall.
3:20 My soul has them still in remembrance, and is bowed down within me.
3:21 This I recall to my mind; therefore have I hope.
3:22 It is of Yehovah's lovingkindnesses that we are not consumed, because his compassions, they fail not.
3:23 They are new every morning. Great is your faithfulness.
3:24 Yehovah is my portion, says my soul; therefore I will hope in him.
3:25 Yehovah is good to them that wait for him, to the soul that seeks him.
3:26 It is good that a man should hope and quietly wait for the salvation of Yehovah.
3:27 It is good for a man that he bear the yoke in his youth.
3:28 Let him sit alone and keep silence, because He has laid it upon him.
3:29 Let him put his mouth in the dust, if so be there may be hope.
3:30 Let him give his cheek to him that smites him; let him be filled full with reproach.
3:31 For the Lord will not cast off for ever.
3:32 For though he causes grief, yet he will have compassion according to the multitude of his lovingkindnesses.
3:33 For he does not afflict willingly, nor grieve the children of men.

3:34 To crush under foot all the prisoners of the earth,
3:35 To turn aside the right of a man before the face of the Most High,
3:36 To subvert a man in his cause, the Lord approves not.
3:37 Who is he that says, and it comes to pass, when the Lord commands it not?
3:38 Out of the mouth of the Most High does there not go forth both ill and good?
3:39 Why does a living man complain, a man for the punishment of his sins?
3:40 Let us search and try our ways, and turn again to Yehovah.
3:41 Let us lift up our heart with our hands to God in the heavens.
3:42 We have transgressed and have rebelled; you have not pardoned.
3:43 You have covered with anger and pursued us; you have slain, you have not pitied.
3:44 You have covered yourself with a cloud, so that no prayer can pass through.
3:45 You have made us scum and refuse among the nations.
3:46 All our enemies have opened their mouth wide against us.
3:47 Fear and the pit are come upon us, devastation and destruction.
3:48 Mine eye runs down with streams of water, for the destruction of the daughter of my people.
3:49 Mine eye pours down, and ceases not, without any intermission,
3:50 Till Yehovah look down, and behold from heaven.
3:51 Mine eye affects my soul, because of all the daughters of my city.
3:52 They have chased me sore like a bird, they that are my enemies without cause.
3:53 They have cut off my life in the dungeon, and have cast a stone upon me.
3:54 Waters flowed over my head. I said, I am cut off.
3:55 I called upon your name, O Yehovah, out of the lowest dungeon.
3:56 You heard my voice; hide not your ear at my breathing, at my cry.
3:57 You drew near in the day that I called upon you; you said, Fear not.
3:58 O Lord, you have pled the causes of my soul; you have redeemed my life.
3:59 O Yehovah, you have seen my wrong; please, you judge my cause.
3:60 You have seen all their vengeance and all their devices against me.
3:61 You have heard their reproach, O Yehovah, and all their devices against me,
3:62 The lips of those that rose up against me, and their device against me all the day.
3:63 You behold their sitting down, and their rising up; I am their song.
3:64 You will render to them a recompense, O Yehovah, according to the work of their hands.
3:65 You will give them hardness of heart, your curse to them.
3:66 You will pursue them in anger, and destroy them from under the heavens of Yehovah.
4:1 How is the gold become dim! how is the most pure gold changed! The stones of the sanctuary are poured out at the head of every street.
4:2 The precious sons of Zion, comparable to fine gold, How are they esteemed as earthen pitchers, the work of the hands of the potter!
4:3 Even the jackals pull out the breast, they give suck to their young ones: The daughter of my people is become cruel, like the ostriches in the wilderness.
4:4 The tongue of the sucking child cleaves to the roof of his mouth for thirst: The young children ask for bread, and no one breaks it for them.
4:5 Those who did feed delicately are desolate in the streets: Those who were brought up in scarlet embrace dunghills.
4:6 For the iniquity of the daughter of my people is greater than the sin of Sodom, That was overthrown as in a moment, and no hands were laid upon her.
4:7 Her nobles were purer than snow, they were whiter than milk; They were more ruddy in body than rubies, their polishing was as of sapphire.
4:8 Their visage is blacker than a coal; they are not known in the streets: Their skin cleaves to their bones; it is withered, it is become like a stick.
4:9 They that are slain with the sword are better than they that are slain with hunger; For these pine away, stricken through, for want of the fruits of the field.
4:10 The hands of the pitiful women have boiled their own children; They were their food in the destruction of the daughter of my people.

4:11 Yehovah has accomplished his wrath, he has poured out his fierce anger; And he has kindled a fire in Zion, which has devoured the foundations thereof.
4:12 The kings of the earth believed not, neither all the inhabitants of the world, That the adversary and the enemy would enter into the gates of Jerusalem.
4:13 It is because of the sins of her prophets, and the iniquities of her priests, That have shed the blood of the just in the midst of her.
4:14 They wander as blind men in the streets, they are polluted with blood, So that men cannot touch their garments.
4:15 Depart ye, they cried to them, Unclean! depart, depart, touch not! When they fled away and wandered, men said among the nations, They shall no more sojourn here.
4:16 The anger of Yehovah has scattered them; he will no more regard them: They respected not the persons of the priests, they favored not the elders.
4:17 Our eyes do yet fail in looking for our vain help: In our watching we have watched for a nation that could not save.
4:18 They hunt our steps, so that we cannot go in our streets: Our end is near, our days are fulfilled; for our end is come.
4:19 Our pursuers were swifter than the eagles of the heavens: They chased us upon the mountains, they laid wait for us in the wilderness.
4:20 The breath of our nostrils, the anointed of Yehovah, was taken in their pits; Of whom we said, Under his shadow we shall live among the nations.
4:21 Rejoice and be glad, O daughter of Edom, that dwell in the land of Uz: The cup shall pass through to you also; you shall be drunken, and shall make yourself naked.
4:22 The punishment of your iniquity is accomplished, O daughter of Zion; he will no more carry you away into captivity: He will visit your iniquity, O daughter of Edom; he will uncover your sins.
5:1 Remember, O Yehovah, what is come upon us: Behold, and see our reproach.
5:2 Our inheritance is turned to strangers, Our houses to aliens.
5:3 We are orphans and fatherless; Our mothers are as widows.
5:4 We have drunken our water for money; Our wood is sold to us.
5:5 Our pursuers are upon our necks: We are weary, and have no rest.
5:6 We have given the hand to the Egyptians, and to the Assyrians, to be satisfied with bread.
5:7 Our fathers sinned, and are not; And we have borne their iniquities.
5:8 Servants rule over us: There is no one to deliver us out of their hand.
5:9 We get our bread at the peril of our lives, Because of the sword of the wilderness.
5:10 Our skin is black like an oven, Because of the burning heat of famine.
5:11 They ravished the women in Zion, The virgins in the cities of Judah.
5:12 Princes were hanged up by their hand: The faces of elders were not honored.
5:13 The young men bore the mill; And the children stumbled under the wood.
5:14 The elders have ceased from the gate, The young men from their music.
5:15 The joy of our heart is ceased; Our dance is turned into mourning.
5:16 The crown is fallen from our head: Woe to us! for we have sinned.
5:17 For this our heart is faint; For these things our eyes are dim;
5:18 For the mountain of Zion, which is desolate: The foxes walk upon it.
5:19 You, O Yehovah, abide for ever; Your throne is from generation to generation.
5:20 Why do you forget us for ever, a*nd* forsake us so long time?
5:21 Turn thou us toward you, O Yehovah, and we shall be turned; Renew our days as of old.
5:22 But you have utterly rejected us; You are very angry against us.

End of Lamentations

Ezekiel

1:1 Now it came to pass in the thirtieth year, in the fourth month, in the fifth day of the month, as I was among the captives by the river Chebar, that the heavens were opened, and I saw visions of God.
1:2 In the fifth day of the month, which was the fifth year of king Jehoiachin's captivity,
1:3 the word of Yehovah came expressly to Ezekiel the priest, the son of Buzi, in the land of the Chaldeans by the river Chebar; and the hand of Yehovah was there upon him.
1:4 And I looked, and, behold, a stormy wind came out of the north, a great cloud, with a fire infolding itself, and a brightness round about it, and out of the midst thereof as it were glowing metal, out of the midst of the fire.
1:5 And out of the midst thereof came the likeness of four living creatures. And this was their appearance: they had the likeness of a man.
1:6 And every one had four faces, and every one of them had four wings.
1:7 And their feet were straight feet; and the soles of their feet were like the soles of a calf's feet; and they sparkled like burnished brass.
1:8 And they had the hands of a man under their wings on their four sides; and they four had their faces and their wings thus:
1:9 their wings were joined one to another; they turned not when they went; they went every one straight forward.
1:10 As for the likeness of their faces, they had the face of a man; and they four had the face of a lion on the right side; and they four had the face of an ox on the left side; they four had also the face of an eagle.
1:11 And their faces and their wings were separate above; two wings of every one were joined one to another, and two covered their bodies.
1:12 And they went every one straight forward: whither the spirit was to go, they went; they turned not when they went.
1:13 As for the likeness of the living creatures, their appearance was like burning coals of fire, like the appearance of torches: the fire went up and down among the living creatures; and the fire was bright, and out of the fire went forth lightning.
1:14 And the living creatures ran and returned as the appearance of a flash of lightning.
1:15 Now as I beheld the living creatures, behold, one wheel upon the earth beside the living creatures, for each of the four faces thereof.
1:16 The appearance of the wheels and their work was similar to a beryl: and they four had one likeness; and their appearance and their work was as it were a wheel within a wheel.
1:17 When they went, they went in their four directions: they turned not when they went.
1:18 As for their rims, they were high and dreadful; and they four had their rims full of eyes round about.
1:19 And when the living creatures went, the wheels went beside them; and when the living creatures were lifted up from the earth, the wheels were lifted up.
1:20 Wherever the spirit was to go, they went; there was the spirit to go: and the wheels were lifted up beside them; for the spirit of the living creature was in the wheels.
1:21 When those went, these went; and when those stood, these stood; and when those were lifted up from the earth, the wheels were lifted up beside them: for the spirit of the living creature was in the wheels.
1:22 And over the head of the living creature there was the likeness of a firmament, like the terrible crystal to look upon, stretched forth over their heads above.
1:23 And under the firmament were their wings straight, the one toward the other: every one had two which covered on this side, and every one had two which covered on that side, their bodies.

1:24 And when they went, I heard the noise of their wings like the noise of great waters, like the voice of the Almighty, a noise of tumult like the noise of a host: when they stood, they let down their wings.
1:25 And there was a voice above the firmament that was over their heads: when they stood, they let down their wings.
1:26 And above the firmament that was over their heads was the likeness of a throne, as the appearance of a sapphire stone; and upon the likeness of the throne was a likeness as the appearance of a man upon it above.
1:27 And I saw as it were glowing metal, as the appearance of fire within it round about, from the appearance of his loins and upward; and from the appearance of his loins and downward I saw as it were the appearance of fire, and there was brightness round about him.
1:28 As the appearance of the bow that is in the cloud in the day of rain, so was the appearance of the brightness round about. This was the appearance of the likeness of the glory of Yehovah. And when I saw it, I fell upon my face, and I heard a voice of one that spoke.
2:1 And he said to me, Son of man, stand upon your feet, and I will speak with you.
2:2 And the Spirit entered into me when he spoke to me, and set me upon my feet; and I heard him that spoke to me.
2:3 And he said to me, Son of man, I send you to the children of Israel, to nations that are rebellious, which have rebelled against me: they and their fathers have transgressed against me even to this very day.
2:4 And the children are impudent and stiffhearted: I do sent you to them; and you shall say to them, Thus says the Lord Yehovah.
2:5 And they, whether they will hear, or whether they will forbear, (for they are a rebellious house,) yet shall know that there has been a prophet among them.
2:6 And you, son of man, be not afraid of them, neither be afraid of their words, though briers and thorns are with you, and you do dwell among scorpions: be not afraid of their words, nor be dismayed at their looks, though they are a rebellious house.
2:7 And you shall speak my words to them, whether they will hear, or whether they will forbear; for they are most rebellious.
2:8 But you, son of man, hear what I say to you; Be not rebellious like that rebellious house: open your mouth, and eat that which I give you.
2:9 And when I looked, behold, a hand was put forth to me; and, lo, a roll of a book was therein;
2:10 And he spread it before me: and it was written within and without; and there were written therein lamentations, and mourning, and woe.
3:1 And he said to me, Son of man, eat that which you findest; eat this roll, and go, speak to the house of Israel.
3:2 So I opened my mouth, and he caused me to eat the roll.
3:3 And he said to me, Son of man, cause your belly to eat, and fill your bowels with this roll that I give you. Then did I eat it; and it was in my mouth as honey for sweetness.
3:4 And he said to me, Son of man, go, get yourself to the house of Israel, and speak with my words to them.
3:5 For you are not sent to a people of a strange speech and of a hard language, but to the house of Israel;
3:6 not to many peoples of a strange speech and of a hard language, whose words you cannot understand. Surely, if I sent you to them, they would hearken to you.
3:7 But the house of Israel will not listen to you; for they will not listen to me: for all the house of Israel are of hard forehead and of a stiff heart.
3:8 Behold, I have made your face hard against their faces, and your forehead hard against their foreheads.
3:9 As an adamant harder than flint have I made your forehead: fear them not, neither be dismayed at their looks, though they are a rebellious house.
3:10 Moreover he said to me, Son of man, all my words that I shall speak to you receive in your heart, and hear with your ears.

3:11 And go, get yourself to them of the captivity, to the children of your people, and speak to them, and tell them, Thus says the Lord Yehovah; whether they will hear, or whether they will forbear.
3:12 Then the Spirit lifted me up, and I heard behind me the voice of a great rushing, saying, Blessed be the glory of Yehovah from his place.
3:13 And I heard the noise of the wings of the living creatures as they touched one another, and the noise of the wheels beside them, even the noise of a great rushing.
3:14 So the Spirit lifted me up, and took me away; and I went in bitterness, in the heat of my spirit; and the hand of Yehovah was strong upon me.
3:15 Then I came to them of the captivity at Tel-abib, that dwelt by the river Chebar, and to where they dwelt; and I sat there overwhelmed among them seven days.
3:16 And it came to pass at the end of seven days, that the word of Yehovah came to me, saying,
3:17 Son of man, I have made you a watchman to the house of Israel: therefore hear the word at my mouth, and give them warning from me.
3:18 When I say to the wicked, You shall surely die; and you give him not warning, nor speak to warn the wicked from his wicked way, to save his life; the same wicked man shall die in his iniquity; but his blood I will require at your hand.
3:19 Yet if you warn the wicked, and he turn not from his wickedness, nor from his wicked way, he shall die in his iniquity; but you have delivered your soul.
3:20 Again, when a righteous man does turn from his righteousness, and commit iniquity, and I lay a stumblingblock before him, he shall die: because you have not given him warning, he shall die in his sin, and his righteous deeds which he has done shall not be remembered; but his blood I will require at your hand.
3:21 Nevertheless if you warn the righteous man, that the righteous sin not, and he does not sin, he shall surely live, because he took warning; and you have delivered your soul.
3:22 And the hand of Yehovah was there upon me; and he said to me, arise, go forth into the plain, and I will there talk with you.
3:23 Then I arose, and went forth into the plain: and, behold, the glory of Yehovah stood there, as the glory which I saw by the river Chebar; and I fell on my face.
3:24 Then the Spirit entered into me, and set me upon my feet; and he spoke with me, and said to me, Go, shut yourself within your house.
3:25 But you, son of man, behold, they shall lay bands upon you, and shall bind you with them, and you shall not go out among them:
3:26 and I will make your tongue cleave to the roof of your mouth, that you shall be dumb, and shall not be to them a reprover; for they are a rebellious house.
3:27 But when I speak with you, I will open your mouth, and you shall say to them, Thus says the Lord Yehovah: He that hears, let him hear; and he that forbears, let him forbear: for they are a rebellious house.
4:1 You also, son of man, take you a tile, and lay it before you, and portray upon it a city, even Jerusalem:
4:2 and lay siege against it, and build forts against it, and cast up a mound against it; set camps also against it, and plant battering rams against it round about.
4:3 And take you to you an iron pan, and set it for a wall of iron between you and the city: and set your face toward it, and it shall be besieged, and you shall lay siege against it. This shall be a sign to the house of Israel.
4:4 Moreover lie you upon your left side, and lay the iniquity of the house of Israel upon it; according to the number of the days that you shall lie upon it, you shall bear their iniquity.
4:5 For I have appointed the years of their iniquity to be to you a number of days, even three hundred and ninety days: so shall you bear the iniquity of the house of Israel.
4:6 And again, when you have accomplished these, you shall lie on your right side, and shall bear the iniquity of the house of Judah: forty days, each day for a year, have I appointed it to you.
4:7 And you shall set your face toward the siege of Jerusalem, with your arm uncovered; and you shall prophesy against it.

4:8 And, behold, I lay bands upon you, and you shall not turn you from one side to the other, till you have accomplished the days of your siege.
4:9 Take you also to you wheat, and barley, and beans, and lentils, and millet, and spelt, and put them in one vessel, and make you bread thereof; according to the number of the days that you shall lie upon your side, even three hundred and ninety days, shall you eat thereof.
4:10 And your food which you shall eat shall be by weight, twenty shekels a day: from time to time shall you eat it.
4:11 And you shall drink water by measure, the sixth part of a hin: from time to time shall you drink.
4:12 And you shall eat it as barley cakes, and you shall bake it in their sight with dung that comes out of man.
4:13 And Yehovah said, Even thus shall the children of Israel eat their bread unclean, among the nations whither I will drive them.
4:14 Then said I, ah Lord Yehovah! behold, my soul has not been polluted; for from my youth up even till now have I not eaten of that which dies of itself, or is torn of beasts; neither came there abominable flesh into my mouth.
4:15 Then he said to me, See, I have given you cow's dung for man's dung, and you shall prepare your bread upon it.
4:16 Moreover he said to me, Son of man, behold, I will break the staff of bread in Jerusalem: and they shall eat bread by weight, and with fearfulness; and they shall drink water by measure, and in dismay:
4:17 that they may want bread and water, and be dismayed one with another, and pine away in their iniquity.
5:1 And you, son of man, take you a sharp sword; as a barber's razor shall you take it to you, and shall cause it to pass upon your head and upon your beard: then take you balances to weigh, and divide the hair.
5:2 A third part shall you burn in the fire in the midst of the city, when the days of the siege are fulfilled; and you shall take a third part, and smite with the sword round about it; and a third part you shall scatter to the wind, and I will draw out a sword after them.
5:3 And you shall take thereof a few in number, and bind them in your skirts.
5:4 And of these again shall you take, and cast them into the midst of the fire, and burn them in the fire; therefrom shall a fire come forth into all the house of Israel.
5:5 Thus says the Lord Yehovah: This is Jerusalem; I have set her in the midst of the nations, and countries are round about her.
5:6 And she has rebelled against my ordinances in doing wickedness more than the nations, and against my statutes more than the countries that are round about her; for they have rejected my ordinances, and as for my statutes, they have not walked in them.
5:7 Therefore thus says the Lord Yehovah: Because ye are turbulent more than the nations that are round about you, and have not walked in my statutes, neither have kept my ordinances, neither have done after the ordinances of the nations that are round about you;
5:8 therefore thus says the Lord Yehovah: Behold, I, even I, am against you; and I will execute judgments in the midst of you in the sight of the nations.
5:9 And I will do in you that which I have not done, and whereto I will not do any more the like, because of all your abominations.
5:10 Therefore the fathers shall eat the sons in the midst of you, and the sons shall eat their fathers; and I will execute judgments on you; and the whole remnant of you I will scatter to all the winds.
5:11 Wherefore, as I live, says the Lord Yehovah, surely, because you have defiled my sanctuary with all your detestable things, and with all your abominations, therefore I will also diminish you; neither shall my eye spare, and I also will have no pity.
5:12 A third part of you shall die with the pestilence, and with famine shall they be consumed in the midst of you; and a third part shall fall by the sword round about you; and a third part I will scatter to all the winds, and will draw out a sword after them.

5:13 Thus shall my anger be accomplished, and I will cause my wrath toward them to rest, and I shall be comforted; and they shall know that I, Yehovah, have spoken in my zeal, when I have accomplished my wrath upon them.
5:14 Moreover I will make you a desolation and a reproach among the nations that are round about you, in the sight of all that pass by.
5:15 So it shall be a reproach and a taunt, an instruction and an astonishment, to the nations that are round about you, when I shall execute judgments on you in anger and in wrath, and in wrathful rebukes; (I, Yehovah, have spoken it;)
5:16 when I shall send upon them the evil arrows of famine, that are for destruction, which I will send to destroy you: and I will increase the famine upon you, and will break your staff of bread;
5:17 and I will send upon you famine and evil beasts, and they shall bereave you; and pestilence and blood shall pass through you; and I will bring the sword upon you: I, Yehovah, have spoken it.
6:1 And the word of Yehovah came to me, saying,
6:2 Son of man, set your face toward the mountains of Israel, and prophesy to them,
6:3 and say, You mountains of Israel, hear the word of the Lord Yehovah: Thus says the Lord Yehovah to the mountains and to the hills, to the watercourses and to the valleys: Behold, I, even I, will bring a sword upon you, and I will destroy your high places.
6:4 And your altars shall become desolate, and your sun-images shall be broken; and I will cast down your slain men before your idols.
6:5 And I will lay the dead bodies of the children of Israel before their idols; and I will scatter your bones round about your altars.
6:6 In all your dwelling-places the cities shall be laid waste, and the high places shall be desolate; that your altars may be laid waste and made desolate, and your idols may be broken and cease, and your sun-images may be hewn down, and your works may be abolished.
6:7 And the slain shall fall in the midst of you, and ye shall know that I am Yehovah.
6:8 Yet I will leave a remnant, in that ye shall have some that escape the sword among the nations, when ye shall be scattered through the countries.
6:9 And those of you that escape shall remember me among the nations whither they shall be carried captive, how that I have been broken with their lewd heart, which has departed from me, and with they eyes, which play the harlot after their idols: and they shall loathe themselves in their own sight for the evils which they have committed in all their abominations.
6:10 And they shall know that I am Yehovah: I have not said in vain that I would do this evil to them.
6:11 Thus says the Lord Yehovah: Smite with your hand, and stamp with your foot, and say, alas! because of all the evil abominations of the house of Israel; for they shall fall by the sword, by the famine, and by the pestilence.
6:12 He that is far off shall die of the pestilence; and he that is near shall fall by the sword; and he that remains and is besieged shall die by the famine: thus I will accomplish my wrath upon them.
6:13 And ye shall know that I am Yehovah, when their slain men shall be among their idols round about their altars, upon every high hill, on all the tops of the mountains, and under every green tree, and under every thick oak, the places where they offered sweet savor to all their idols.
6:14 And I will stretch out my hand upon them, and make the land desolate and waste, from the wilderness toward Diblah, throughout all their habitations: and they shall know that I am Yehovah.
7:1 Moreover the word of Yehovah came to me, saying,
7:2 And you, son of man, thus says the Lord Yehovah to the land of Israel, an end: the end is come upon the four corners of the land.
7:3 Now is the end upon you, and I will send my anger upon you, and will judge you according to your ways; and I will bring upon you all your abominations.

7:4 And my eye shall not spare you, neither will I have pity; but I will bring your ways upon you, and your abominations shall be in the midst of you: and ye shall know that I am Yehovah.
7:5 Thus says the Lord Yehovah: An evil, an only evil; behold, it comes.
7:6 An end is come, the end is come; it awakes against you; behold, it comes.
7:7 Your doom is come to you, O inhabitant of the land: the time is come, the day is near, a day of tumult, and not of joyful shouting, upon the mountains.
7:8 Now I will shortly pour out my wrath upon you, and accomplish my anger against you, and will judge you according to your ways; and I will bring upon you all your abominations.
7:9 And my eye shall not spare, neither will I have pity: I will bring upon you according to your ways; and your abominations shall be in the midst of you; and ye shall know that I, Yehovah, do smite.
7:10 Behold, the day, behold, it comes: your doom is gone forth; the rod has blossomed, pride has budded.
7:11 Violence is risen up into a rod of wickedness; none of them shall remain, nor of their multitude, nor of their wealth: neither shall there be eminency among them.
7:12 The time is come, the day draws near: let not the buyer rejoice, nor the seller mourn; for wrath is upon all the multitude thereof.
7:13 For the seller shall not return to that which is sold, although they be yet alive: for the vision is touching the whole multitude thereof, none shall return; neither shall any strengthen himself in the iniquity of his life.
7:14 They have blown the trumpet, and have made all ready; but no one goes to the battle; for my wrath is upon all the multitude thereof.
7:15 The sword is without, and the pestilence and the famine within: he that is in the field shall die with the sword: and he that is in the city, famine and pestilence shall devour him.
7:16 But those of them that escape shall escape, and shall be on the mountains like doves of the valleys, all of them moaning, every one in his iniquity.
7:17 All hands shall be feeble, and all knees shall be weak as water.
7:18 They shall also gird themselves with sackcloth, and horror shall cover them; and shame shall be upon all faces, and baldness upon all their heads.
7:19 They shall cast their silver in the streets, and their gold shall be as an unclean thing; their silver and their gold shall not be able to deliver them in the day of the wrath of Yehovah: they shall not satisfy their souls, neither fill their bowels; because it has been the stumblingblock of their iniquity.
7:20 As for the beauty of his ornament, he set it in majesty; but they made the images of their abominations and their detestable things therein: therefore have I made it to them as an unclean thing.
7:21 And I will give it into the hands of the strangers for a prey, and to the wicked of the earth for a spoil; and they shall profane it.
7:22 My face I will turn also from them, and they shall profane my secret place; and robbers shall enter into it, and profane it.
7:23 Make the chain; for the land is full of bloody crimes, and the city is full of violence.
7:24 Wherefore I will bring the worst of the nations, and they shall possess their houses: I will also make the pride of the strong to cease; and their holy places shall be profaned.
7:25 Destruction comes; and they shall seek peace, and there shall be none.
7:26 Mischief shall come upon mischief, and rumor shall be upon rumor; and they shall seek a vision of the prophet; but the law shall perish from the priest, and counsel from the elders.
7:27 The king shall mourn, and the prince shall be clothed with desolation, and the hands of the people of the land shall be troubled: I will do to them after their way, and according to their deserts I will judge them; and they shall know that I am Yehovah.
8:1 And it came to pass in the sixth year, in the sixth month, in the fifth day of the month, as I sat in my house, and the elders of Judah sat before me, that the hand of the Lord Yehovah fell there upon me.

8:2 Then I beheld, and, lo, a likeness as the appearance of fire; from the appearance of his loins and downward, fire; and from his loins and upward, as the appearance of brightness, as it were glowing metal.
8:3 And he put forth the form of a hand, and took me by a lock of my head; and the Spirit lifted me up between earth and heaven, and brought me in the visions of God to Jerusalem, to the door of the gate of the inner court that looks toward the north; where was the seat of the image of jealousy, which provokes to jealousy.
8:4 And, behold, the glory of the God of Israel was there, according to the appearance that I saw in the plain.
8:5 Then said he to me, Son of man, lift up your eyes now the way toward the north. So I lifted up my eyes the way toward the north, and behold, northward of the gate of the altar this image of jealousy in the entry.
8:6 And he said to me, Son of man, see you what they do? even the great abominations that the house of Israel do commit here, that I should go far off from my sanctuary? but you shall again see yet other great abominations.
8:7 And he brought me to the door of the court; and when I looked, behold, a hole in the wall.
8:8 Then said he to me, Son of man, dig now in the wall: and when I had dug in the wall, behold, a door.
8:9 And he said to me, Go in, and see the wicked abominations that they do here.
8:10 So I went in and saw; and behold, every form of creeping things, and abominable beasts, and all the idols of the house of Israel, portrayed upon the wall round about.
8:11 And there stood before them seventy men of the elders of the house of Israel; and in the midst of them stood Jaazaniah the son of Shaphan, every man with his censer in his hand; and the odor of the cloud of incense went up.
8:12 Then said he to me, Son of man, have you seen what the elders of the house of Israel do in the dark, every man in his chambers of imagery? for they say, Yehovah sees us not; Yehovah has forsaken the land.
8:13 He said also to me, You shall again see yet other great abominations which they do.
8:14 Then he brought me to the door of the gate of Yehovah's house which was toward the north; and behold, there sat the women weeping for Tammuz.
8:15 Then said he to me, Have you seen this, O son of man? you shall again see yet greater abominations than these.
8:16 And he brought me into the inner court of Yehovah's house; and behold, at the door of the temple of Yehovah, between the porch and the altar, were about five and twenty men, with their backs toward the temple of Yehovah, and their faces toward the east; and they were worshipping the sun toward the east.
8:17 Then he said to me, Have you seen this, O son of man? Is it a light thing to the house of Judah that they commit the abominations which they commit here? for they have filled the land with violence, and have turned again to provoke me to anger: and, lo, they put the branch to their nose.
8:18 Therefore I will also deal in wrath; my eye shall not spare, neither will I have pity; and though they cry in my ears with a loud voice, yet I will not hear them.
9:1 Then he cried in my ears with a loud voice, saying, Cause ye them that have charge over the city to draw near, every man with his destroying weapon in his hand.
9:2 And behold, six men came from the way of the upper gate, which lies toward the north, every man with his slaughter weapon in his hand; and one man in the midst of them clothed in linen, with a writer's inkhorn by his side. And they went in, and stood beside the brazen altar.
9:3 And the glory of the God of Israel was gone up from the cherub, whereupon it was, to the threshold of the house: and he called to the man clothed in linen, who had the writer's inkhorn by his side.
9:4 And Yehovah said to him, Go through the midst of the city, through the midst of Jerusalem, and set a mark upon the foreheads of the men that sigh and that cry over all the abominations that are done in the midst thereof.

9:5 And to the others he said in my hearing, Go ye through the city after him, and smite: let not your eye spare, neither have ye pity;
9:6 slay utterly the old man, the young man and the virgin, and little children and women; but come not near any man upon whom is the mark: and begin at my sanctuary. Then they began at the old men that were before the house.
9:7 And he said to them, Defile the house, and fill the courts with the slain: go ye forth. And they went forth, and smote in the city.
9:8 And it came to pass, while they were smiting, and I was left, that I fell upon my face, and cried, and said, ah Lord Yehovah! will you destroy all the residue of Israel in your pouring out of your wrath upon Jerusalem?
9:9 Then said he to me, The iniquity of the house of Israel and Judah is exceedingly great, and the land is full of blood, and the city full of wrestling of judgment: for they say, Yehovah has forsaken the land, and Yehovah sees not.
9:10 And as for me also, my eye shall not spare, neither will I have pity, but I will bring their way upon their head.
9:11 And behold, the man clothed in linen, who had the inkhorn by his side, reported the matter, saying, I have done as you have commanded me.
10:1 Then I looked, and behold, in the firmament that was over the head of the cherubim there appeared above them as it were a sapphire stone, as the appearance of the likeness of a throne.
10:2 And he spoke to the man clothed in linen, and said, Go in between the whirling wheels, even under the cherub, and fill both your hands with coals of fire from between the cherubim, and scatter them over the city. And he went in in my sight.
10:3 Now the cherubim stood on the right side of the house, when the man went in; and the cloud filled the inner court.
10:4 And the glory of Yehovah mounted up from the cherub, and stood over the threshold of the house; and the house was filled with the cloud, and the court was full of the brightness of Yehovah's glory.
10:5 And the sound of the wings of the cherubim was heard even to the outer court, as the voice of God Almighty when he speaks.
10:6 And it came to pass, when he commanded the man clothed in linen, saying, Take fire from between the whirling wheels, from between the cherubim, that he went in, and stood beside a wheel.
10:7 And the cherub stretched forth his hand from between the cherubim to the fire that was between the cherubim, and took of it, and put it into the hands of him that was clothed in linen, who took it and went out.
10:8 And there appeared in the cherubim the form of a man's hand under their wings.
10:9 And I looked, and behold, four wheels beside the cherubim, one wheel beside one cherub, and another wheel beside another cherub; and the appearance of the wheels was like to a beryl stone.
10:10 And as for their appearance, they four had one likeness, as if a wheel have been within a wheel.
10:11 When they went, they went in their four directions: they turned not as they went, but to the place whither the head looked they followed it; they turned not as they went.
10:12 And their whole body, and their backs, and their hands, and their wings, and the wheels, were full of eyes round about, even the wheels that they four had.
10:13 As for the wheels, they were called in my hearing, the whirling wheels.
10:14 And every one had four faces: the first face was the face of the cherub, and the second face was the face of a man, and the third face the face of a lion, and the fourth the face of an eagle.
10:15 And the cherubim mounted up: this is the living creature that I saw by the river Chebar.
10:16 And when the cherubim went, the wheels went beside them; and when the cherubim lifted up their wings to mount up from the earth, the wheels also turned not from beside them.
10:17 When they stood, these stood; and when they mounted up, these mounted up with them: for the spirit of the living creature was in them.

10:18 And the glory of Yehovah went forth from over the threshold of the house, and stood over the cherubim.
10:19 And the cherubim lifted up their wings, and mounted up from the earth in my sight when they went forth, and the wheels beside them: and they stood at the door of the east gate of Yehovah's house; and the glory of the God of Israel was over them above.
10:20 This is the living creature that I saw under the God of Israel by the river Chebar; and I knew that they were cherubim.
10:21 Every one had four faces, and every one four wings; and the likeness of the hands of a man was under their wings.
10:22 And as for the likeness of their faces, they were the faces which I saw by the river Chebar, their appearances and themselves; they went every one straight forward.
11:1 Moreover the Spirit lifted me up, and brought me to the east gate of Yehovah's house, which looks eastward: and behold, at the door of the gate five and twenty men; and I saw in the midst of them Jaazaniah the son of Azzur, and Pelatiah the son of Benaiah, princes of the people.
11:2 And he said to me, Son of man, these are the men that devise iniquity, and that give wicked counsel in this city;
11:3 that say, The time is not near to build houses: this city is the caldron, and we are the flesh.
11:4 Therefore prophesy against them, prophesy, O son of man.
11:5 And the Spirit of Yehovah fell upon me, and he said to me, Speak, Thus says Yehovah: Thus have ye said, O house of Israel; for I know the things that come into your mind.
11:6 You have multiplied your slain in this city, and ye have filled the streets thereof with the slain.
11:7 Therefore thus says the Lord Yehovah: Your slain whom ye have laid in the midst of it, they are the flesh, and this city is the caldron; but ye shall be brought forth out of the midst of it.
11:8 You have feared the sword; and I will bring the sword upon you, says the Lord Yehovah.
11:9 And I will bring you forth out of the midst thereof, and deliver you into the hands of strangers, and will execute judgments among you.
11:10 You shall fall by the sword; I will judge you in the border of Israel; and ye shall know that I am Yehovah.
11:11 This city shall not be your caldron, neither shall ye be the flesh in the midst thereof; I will judge you in the border of Israel;
11:12 and ye shall know that I am Yehovah: for ye have not walked in my statutes, neither have ye executed my ordinances, but have done after the ordinances of the nations that are round about you.
11:13 And it came to pass, when I prophesied, that Pelatiah the son of Benaiah died. Then fell I down upon my face, and cried with a loud voice, and said, ah Lord Yehovah! will you make a full end of the remnant of Israel?
11:14 And the word of Yehovah came to me, saying,
11:15 Son of man, your brethren, even your brethren, the men of your kindred, and all the house of Israel, all of them, are they to whom the inhabitants of Jerusalem have said, Get you far from Yehovah; to us is this land given for a possession.
11:16 Therefore say, Thus says the Lord Yehovah: Whereas I have removed them far off among the nations, and whereas I have scattered them among the countries, yet I will be to them a sanctuary for a little while in the countries where they are come.
11:17 Therefore say, Thus says the Lord Yehovah: I will gather you from the peoples, and assemble you out of the countries where ye have been scattered, and I will give you the land of Israel.
11:18 And they shall come there, and they shall take away all the detestable things thereof and all the abominations thereof from there.
11:19 And I will give them one heart, and I will put a new spirit within you; and I will take the stony heart out of their flesh, and will give them a heart of flesh;

11:20 that they may walk in my statutes, and keep my ordinances, and do them: and they shall be my people, and I will be their God.
11:21 But as for them whose heart walks after the heart of their detestable things and their abominations, I will bring their way upon their own heads, says the Lord Yehovah.
11:22 Then did the cherubim lift up their wings, and the wheels were beside them; and the glory of the God of Israel was over them above.
11:23 And the glory of Yehovah went up from the midst of the city, and stood upon the mountain which is on the east side of the city.
11:24 And the Spirit lifted me up, and brought me in the vision by the Spirit of God into Chaldea, to them of the captivity. So the vision that I had seen went up from me.
11:25 Then I spoke to them of the captivity all the things that Yehovah had shown me.
12:1 The word of Yehovah also came to me, saying,
12:2 Son of man, you dwell in the midst of the rebellious house, that have eyes to see, and see not, that have ears to hear, and hear not; for they are a rebellious house.
12:3 Therefore, you son of man, prepare stuff for removing, and remove by day in their sight; and you shall remove from your place to another place in their sight: it may be they will consider, though they are a rebellious house.
12:4 And you shall bring forth your stuff by day in their sight, as stuff for removing; and you shall go forth yourself at evening in their sight, as when men go forth into exile.
12:5 Dig through the wall in their sight, and carry out thereby.
12:6 In their sight shall you bear it upon your shoulder, and carry it forth in the dark; you shall cover your face, that you see not the land: for I have set you for a sign to the house of Israel.
12:7 And I did as I was commanded: I brought forth my stuff by day, as stuff for removing, and in the even I dug through the wall with my hand; I brought it forth in the dark, and bore it upon my shoulder in their sight.
12:8 And in the morning came the word of Yehovah to me, saying,
12:9 Son of man, has not the house of Israel, the rebellious house, said to you, What are you doing?
12:10 Say to them, Thus says the Lord Yehovah: This burden concerns the prince in Jerusalem, and all the house of Israel among whom they are.
12:11 Say, I am your sign: like as I have done, so shall it be done to them; they shall go into exile, into captivity.
12:12 And the prince that is among them shall bear upon his shoulder in the dark, and shall go forth: they shall dig through the wall to carry out thereby: he shall cover his face, because he shall not see the land with his eyes.
12:13 My net also I will spread upon him, and he shall be taken in my snare; and I will bring him to Babylon to the land of the Chaldeans; yet shall he not see it, though he shall die there.
12:14 And I will scatter toward every wind all that are round about him to help him, and all his bands; and I will draw out the sword after them.
12:15 And they shall know that I am Yehovah, when I shall disperse them among the nations, and scatter them through the countries.
12:16 But I will leave a few men of them from the sword, from the famine, and from the pestilence; that they may declare all their abominations among the nations whither they come; and they shall know that I am Yehovah.
12:17 Moreover the word of Yehovah came to me, saying,
12:18 Son of man, eat your bread with quaking, and drink your water with trembling and with fearfulness;
12:19 and say to the people of the land, Thus says the Lord Yehovah concerning the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and the land of Israel: They shall eat their bread with fearfulness, and drink their water in dismay, that her land may be desolate, and despoiled of all that is therein, because of the violence of all them that dwell therein.
12:20 And the cities that are inhabited shall be laid waste, and the land shall be a desolation; and ye shall know that I am Yehovah.

12:21 And the word of Yehovah came to me, saying,
12:22 Son of man, what is this proverb that ye have in the land of Israel, saying, The days are prolonged, and every vision fails?
12:23 Tell them therefore, Thus says the Lord Yehovah: I will make this proverb to cease, and they shall no more use it as a proverb in Israel; but say to them, The days are at hand, and the fulfilment of every vision.
12:24 For there shall be no more any false vision nor flattering divination within the house of Israel.
12:25 For I am Yehovah; I will speak, and the word that I shall speak shall be performed; it shall be no more deferred: for in your days, O rebellious house, I will speak the word, and will perform it, says the Lord Yehovah.
12:26 Again the word of Yehovah came to me, saying,
12:27 Son of man, behold, they of the house of Israel say, The vision that he sees is for many day to come, and he prophesies of times that are far off.
12:28 Therefore say to them, Thus says the Lord Yehovah: There shall none of my words be deferred any more, but the word which I shall speak shall be performed, says the Lord Yehovah.
13:1 And the word of Yehovah came to me, saying,
13:2 Son of man, prophesy against the prophets of Israel that prophesy, and say to them that prophesy out of their own heart, Hear ye the word of Yehovah:
13:3 Thus says the Lord Yehovah, Woe to the foolish prophets, that follow their own spirit, and have seen nothing!
13:4 O Israel, your prophets have been like foxes in the waste places.
13:5 You have not gone up into the gaps, neither built up the wall for the house of Israel, to stand in the battle in the day of Yehovah.
13:6 They have seen falsehood and lying divination, that say, Yehovah says; but Yehovah has not sent them: and they have made men to hope that the word would be confirmed.
13:7 Have ye not seen a false vision, and have ye not spoken a lying divination, in that ye say, Yehovah says; albeit I have not spoken?
13:8 Therefore thus says the Lord Yehovah: Because ye have spoken falsehood, and seen lies, therefore, behold, I am against you, says the Lord Yehovah.
13:9 And my hand shall be against the prophets that see false visions, and that divine lies: they shall not be in the council of my people, neither shall they be written in the writing of the house of Israel, neither shall they enter into the land of Israel; and ye shall know that I am the Lord Yehovah.
13:10 Because, even because they have seduced my people, saying, Peace; and there is no peace; and when one builds up a wall, behold, they daub it with untempered mortar:
13:11 say to them that daub it with untempered mortar, that it shall fall: there shall be an overflowing shower; and ye, O great hailstones, shall fall; and a stormy wind shall rend it.
13:12 Lo, when the wall is fallen, shall it not be said to you, Where is the daubing with which ye have daubed it?
13:13 Therefore thus says the Lord Yehovah: I will even rend it with a stormy wind in my wrath; and there shall be an overflowing shower in my anger, and great hailstones in wrath to consume it.
13:14 So I will break down the wall that ye have daubed with untempered mortar, and bring it down to the ground, so that the foundation thereof shall be uncovered; and it shall fall, and ye shall be consumed in the midst thereof: and ye shall know that I am Yehovah.
13:15 Thus I will accomplish my wrath upon the wall, and upon them that have daubed it with untempered mortar; and I will say to you, The wall is no more, neither they that daubed it;
13:16 that is, the prophets of Israel that prophesy concerning Jerusalem, and that see visions of peace for her, and there is no peace, says the Lord Yehovah.
13:17 And you, son of man, set your face against the daughters of your people, that prophesy out of their own heart; and prophesy you against them,

13:18 and say, Thus says the Lord Yehovah: Woe to the women that sew pillows upon all elbows, and make kerchiefs for the head of persons of every stature to hunt souls! Will ye hunt the souls of my people, and save souls alive for yourselves?
13:19 And ye have profaned me among my people for handfuls of barley and for pieces of bread, to slay the souls that should not die, and to save the souls alive that should not live, by your lying to my people that hearken to lies.
13:20 Wherefore thus says the Lord Yehovah: Behold, I am against your pillows, with which ye there hunt the souls to make them fly, and I will tear them from your arms; and I will let the souls go, even the souls that ye hunt to make them fly.
13:21 Your kerchiefs also I will tear, and deliver my people out of your hand, and they shall be no more in your hand to be hunted; and ye shall know that I am Yehovah.
13:22 Because with lies ye have grieved the heart of the righteous, whom I have not made sad; and strengthened the hands of the wicked, that he should not return from his wicked way, and be saved alive:
13:23 Therefore ye shall no more see false visions, nor divine divinations: and I will deliver my people out of your hand; and ye shall know that I am Yehovah.
14:1 Then came certain of the elders of Israel to me, and sat before me.
14:2 And the word of Yehovah came to me, saying,
14:3 Son of man, these men have taken their idols into their heart, and put the stumblingblock of their iniquity before their face: should I be inquired of at all by them?
14:4 Therefore speak to them, and say to them, Thus says the Lord Yehovah: Every man of the house of Israel that takes his idols into his heart, and puts the stumblingblock of his iniquity before his face, and comes to the prophet; I Yehovah will answer him therein according to the multitude of his idols;
14:5 that I may take the house of Israel in their own heart, because they are all estranged from me through their idols.
14:6 Therefore say to the house of Israel, Thus says the Lord Yehovah: Return ye, and turn yourselves from your idols; and turn away your faces from all your abominations.
14:7 For every one of the house of Israel, or of the strangers that sojourn in Israel, that separates himself from me, and takes his idols into his heart, and puts the stumblingblock of his iniquity before his face, and comes to the prophet to inquire for himself of me; I Yehovah will answer him by myself:
14:8 and I will set my face against that man, and will make him an astonishment, for a sign and a proverb, and I will cut him off from the midst of my people; and ye shall know that I am Yehovah.
14:9 And if the prophet be deceived and speak a word, I, Yehovah, have deceived that prophet, and I will stretch out my hand upon him, and will destroy him from the midst of my people Israel.
14:10 And they shall bear their iniquity: the iniquity of the prophet shall be even as the iniquity of him that inquires of him;
14:11 that the house of Israel may go no more astray from me, neither defile themselves any more with all their transgressions; but that they may be my people, and I may be their God, says the Lord Yehovah.
14:12 And the word of Yehovah came to me, saying,
14:13 Son of man, when a land sins against me by committing a trespass, and I stretch out my hand upon it, and break the staff of the bread thereof, and send famine upon it, and cut off from it man and beast;
14:14 though these three men, Noah, Daniel, and Job, were in it, they should deliver but their own souls by their righteousness, says the Lord Yehovah.
14:15 If I cause evil beasts to pass through the land, and they ravage it, and it be made desolate, so that no man may pass through because of the beasts;
14:16 though these three men were in it, as I live, says the Lord Yehovah, they should deliver neither sons nor daughters; they only should be delivered, but the land should be desolate.
14:17 Or if I bring a sword upon that land, and say, Sword, go through the land; so that I cut off from it man and beast;

14:18 though these three men were in it, as I live, says the Lord Yehovah, they should deliver neither sons nor daughters, but they only should be delivered themselves.
14:19 Or if I send a pestilence into that land, and pour out my wrath upon it in blood, to cut off from it man and beast;
14:20 though Noah, Daniel, and Job, were in it, as I live, says the Lord Yehovah, they should deliver neither son nor daughter; they should but deliver their own souls by their righteousness.
14:21 For thus says the Lord Yehovah: How much more when I send my four sore judgments upon Jerusalem, the sword, and the famine, and the evil beasts, and the pestilence, to cut off from it man and beast!
14:22 Yet, behold, therein shall be left a remnant that shall be carried forth, both sons and daughters: behold, they shall come forth to you, and ye shall see their way and their doings; and ye shall be comforted concerning the evil that I have brought upon Jerusalem, even concerning all that I have brought upon it.
14:23 And they shall comfort you, when ye see their way and their doings; and ye shall know that I have not done without cause all that I have done in it, says the Lord Yehovah.
15:1 And the word of Yehovah came to me, saying,
15:2 Son of man, what is the vine-tree more than any tree, the vine-branch which is among the trees of the forest?
15:3 Shall wood be taken thereof to make any work? or will men take a pin of it to hang any vessel upon it?
15:4 Behold, it is cast into the fire for fuel; the fire has devoured both the ends of it, and the midst of it is burned: is it profitable for any work?
15:5 Behold, when it was whole, it was meet for no work: how much less, when the fire has devoured it, and it is burned, shall it yet be meet for any work!
15:6 Therefore thus says the Lord Yehovah: As the vine-tree among the trees of the forest, which I have given to the fire for fuel, so I will give the inhabitants of Jerusalem.
15:7 And I will set my face against them; they shall go forth from the fire, but the fire shall devour them; and ye shall know that I am Yehovah, when I set my face against them.
15:8 And I will make the land desolate, because they have committed a trespass, says the Lord Yehovah.
16:1 Again the word of Yehovah came to me, saying,
16:2 Son of man, cause Jerusalem to know her abominations;
16:3 and say, Thus says the Lord Yehovah to Jerusalem: Your birth and your nativity is of the land of the Canaanite; the Amorite was your father, and your mother was a Hittite.
16:4 And as for your nativity, in the day you were born your navel was not cut, neither were you washed in water to cleanse you; you were not salted at all, nor swaddled at all.
16:5 No eye pitied you, to do any of these things to you, to have compassion upon you; but you were cast out in the open field, for that your person was abhorred, in the day that you were born.
16:6 And when I passed by you, and saw you weltering in your blood, I said to you, Though you are in your blood, live; yes, I said to you, Though you are in your blood, live.
16:7 I caused you to multiply as that which grows in the field, and you did increase and grow great, and you attained to excellent ornament; your breasts were fashioned, and your hair was grown; yet you were naked and bare.
16:8 Now when I passed by you, and looked upon you, behold, your time was the time of love; and I spread my skirt over you, and covered your nakedness: yes, I swore to you, and entered into a covenant with you, says the Lord Yehovah, and you became mine.
16:9 Then washed I you with water; yes, I thoroughly washed away your blood from you, and I anointed you with oil.

16:10 I clothed you also with broidered work, and shod you with sealskin, and I girded you about with fine linen, and covered you with silk.
16:11 And I decked you with ornaments, and I put bracelets upon your hands, and a chain on your neck.
16:12 And I put a ring upon your nose, and ear-rings in your ears, and a beautiful crown upon your head.
16:13 Thus were you decked with gold and silver; and your raiment was of fine linen, and silk, and broidered work; you did eat fine flour, and honey, and oil; and you were exceedingly beautiful, and you did prosper to royal estate.
16:14 And your renown went forth among the nations for your beauty; for it was perfect, through my majesty which I had put upon you, says the Lord Yehovah.
16:15 But you did trust in your beauty, and played the harlot because of your renown, and poured out your whoredoms on every one that passed by; his it was.
16:16 And you did take of your garments, and made for you high places bedecked with various colors, and played the harlot upon them: the like things shall not come, neither shall it be so.
16:17 You did also take your fair jewels of my gold and of my silver, which I had given you, and made for you images of men, and did play the harlot with them;
16:18 and you took your broidered garments, and covered them, and did set my oil and my incense before them.
16:19 My bread also which I gave you, fine flour, and oil, and honey, with which I fed you, you did even set it before them for a sweet savor; and thus it was, says the Lord Yehovah.
16:20 Moreover you have taken your sons and your daughters, whom you have borne to me, and these have you sacrificed to them to be devoured. Were your whoredoms a small matter,
16:21 that you have slain my children, and delivered them up, in causing them to pass through the fire to them?
16:22 And in all your abominations and your whoredoms you have not remembered the days of your youth, when you were naked and bare, and were weltering in your blood.
16:23 And it is come to pass after all your wickedness, (woe, woe to you! says the Lord Yehovah,) 16:24 that you have built for yourself a vaulted place, and have made you a lofty place in every street.
16:25 You have built your lofty place at the head of every way, and made your beauty an abomination, and have spread your legs to every one that passed by, and multiplied your whoredom.
16:26 You have also committed fornication with the Egyptians, your lustful neighbors; and have multiplied your whoredom, to provoke me to anger.
16:27 Behold therefore, I have stretched out my hand over you, and have diminished your ordinary food, and delivered you to the will of them that hate you, the daughters of the Philistines, that are ashamed of your lewd way.
16:28 You have played the harlot also with the Assyrians, because you were insatiable; yes, you have played the harlot with them, and yet you were not satisfied.
16:29 You have moreover multiplied your whoredom to the land of traffic, to Chaldea; and yet you were not satisfied herewith.
16:30 How weak is your heart, says the Lord Yehovah, seeing you do all these things, the work of an impudent harlot;
16:31 in that you build your vaulted place at the head of every way, and make your lofty place in every street, and have not been as a harlot, in that you scorn a fee.
16:32 A wife that commits adultery! that takes strangers instead of her husband!
16:33 They give gifts to all harlots; but you give your gifts to all your lovers, and bribe them, that they may come to you on every side for your whoredoms.
16:34 And you are different from other women in your whoredoms, in that no one follows you to play the harlot; and whereas you give a fee, and no fee is given to you, therefore you are different.
16:35 Wherefore, O harlot, hear the word of Yehovah:

16:36 Thus says the Lord Yehovah, Because your filthiness was poured out, and your nakedness uncovered through your whoredoms with your lovers; and because of all the idols of your abominations, and for the blood of your children, that you did give to them;
16:37 therefore behold, I will gather all your lovers, with whom you have taken pleasure, and all them that you have loved, with all them that you have hated; I will even gather them against you on every side, and will uncover your nakedness to them, that they may see all your nakedness.
16:38 And I will judge you, as women that break wedlock and shed blood are judged; and I will bring upon you the blood of wrath and jealousy.
16:39 I will also give you into their hand, and they shall throw down your vaulted place, and break down your lofty places; and they shall strip you of your clothes, and take your fair jewels; and they shall leave you naked and bare.
16:40 They shall also bring up a company against you, and they shall stone you with stones, and thrust you through with their swords.
16:41 And they shall burn your houses with fire, and execute judgments upon you in the sight of many women; and I will cause you to cease from playing the harlot, and you shall also pay no fee any more.
16:42 So I will cause my wrath toward you to rest, and my jealousy shall depart from you, and I will be quiet, and will be no more angry.
16:43 Because you have not remembered the days of your youth, but have raged against me in all these things; therefore, behold, I also will bring your way upon your head, says the Lord Yehovah: and you shall not commit this lewdness with all your abominations.
16:44 Behold, every one that uses proverbs shall use this proverb against you, saying, as is the mother, so is her daughter.
16:45 You are the daughter of your mother, that loathes her husband and her children; and you are the sister of your sisters, who loathed their husbands and their children: your mother was a Hittite, and your father an Amorite.
16:46 And your elder sister is Samaria, that dwells at your left hand, she and her daughters; and your younger sister, that dwells at your right hand, is Sodom and her daughters.
16:47 Yet have you not walked in their ways, nor done after their abominations; but, as if that were a very little thing, you were more corrupt than they in all your ways.
16:48 As I live, says the Lord Yehovah, Sodom your sister has not done, she nor her daughters, as you have done, you and your daughters.
16:49 Behold, this was the iniquity of your sister Sodom: pride, fulness of bread, and prosperous ease was in her and in her daughters; neither did she strengthen the hand of the poor and needy.
16:50 And they were haughty, and committed abomination before me: therefore I took them away as I saw good.
16:51 Neither has Samaria committed half of your sins; but you have multiplied your abominations more than they, and have justified your sisters by all your abominations which you have done.
16:52 You also, bear your own shame, in that you have given judgment for your sisters; because your sins you have committed are more abominable than theirs, they are more righteous than you: yes, be then confounded, and bear your shame, in that you have justified your sisters.
16:53 And I will turn again their captivity, the captivity of Sodom and her daughters, and the captivity of Samaria and her daughters, and the captivity of your captives in the midst of them;
16:54 that you may bear your own shame, and may be ashamed because of all that you have done, in that you are a comfort to them.
16:55 And your sisters, Sodom and her daughters, shall return to their former estate; and Samaria and her daughters shall return to their former estate; and you and your daughters shall return to your former estate.
16:56 For your sister Sodom was not mentioned by your mouth in the day of your pride,

16:57 before your wickedness was uncovered, as at the time of the reproach of the daughters of Syria, and of all that are round about her, the daughters of the Philistines, that do despite to you round about.
16:58 You have borne your lewdness and your abominations, says Yehovah.
16:59 For thus says the Lord Yehovah: I will also deal with you as you have done, who have despised the oath in breaking the covenant.
16:60 Nevertheless I will remember my covenant with you in the days of your youth, and I will establish to you an everlasting covenant.
16:61 Then shall you remember your ways, and be ashamed, when you shall receive your sisters, your elder sisters and your younger; and I will give them to you for daughters, but not by your covenant.
16:62 And I will establish my covenant with you; and you shall know that I am Yehovah;
16:63 that you may remember, and be confounded, and never open your mouth any more, because of your shame, when I have forgiven you all that you have done, says the Lord Yehovah.
17:1 And the word of Yehovah came to me, saying,
17:2 Son of man, put forth a riddle, and speak a parable to the house of Israel;
17:3 and say, Thus says the Lord Yehovah: A great eagle with great wings and long pinions, full of feathers, which had varied colors, came to Lebanon, and took the top of the cedar:
17:4 he cropped off the topmost of the young twigs thereof, and carried it to a land of traffic; he set it in a city of merchants.
17:5 He took also of the seed of the land, and planted it in a fruitful soil; he placed it beside many waters; he set it as a willow-tree.
17:6 And it grew, and became a spreading vine of low stature, whose branches turned toward him, and the roots thereof were under him: so it became a vine, and brought forth branches, and shot forth sprigs.
17:7 There was also another great eagle with great wings and many feathers: and, behold, this vine did bend its roots toward him, and shot forth its branches toward him, from the beds of its plantation, that he might water it.
17:8 It was planted in a good soil by many waters, that it might bring forth branches, and that it might bear fruit, that it might be a goodly vine.
17:9 Say, Thus says the Lord Yehovah: Shall it prosper? shall he not pull up the roots thereof, and cut off the fruit thereof, that it may wither; that all its fresh springing leaves may wither? and not by a strong arm or much people can it be raised from the roots thereof.
17:10 Yes, behold, being planted, shall it prosper? shall it not utterly wither, when the east wind touches it? it shall wither in the beds where it grew.
17:11 Moreover the word of Yehovah came to me, saying,
17:12 Say now to the rebellious house, Know ye not what these things mean? tell them, Behold, the king of Babylon came to Jerusalem, and took the king thereof, and the princes thereof, and brought them to him to Babylon:
17:13 and he took of the seed royal, and made a covenant with him; he also brought him under an oath, and took away the mighty of the land;
17:14 that the kingdom might be base, that it might not lift itself up, but that by keeping his covenant it might stand.
17:15 But he rebelled against him in sending his ambassadors into Egypt, that they might give him horses and much people. Shall he prosper? shall he escape that does such things? shall he break the covenant, and yet escape?
17:16 As I live, says the Lord Yehovah, surely in the place where the king dwells that made him king, whose oath he despised, and whose covenant he broke, even with him in the midst of Babylon he shall die.
17:17 Neither shall Pharaoh with his mighty army and great company help him in the war, when they cast up mounds and build forts, to cut off many persons.
17:18 For he has despised the oath by breaking the covenant; and behold, he had given his hand, and yet has done all these things; he shall not escape.

17:19 Therefore thus says the Lord Yehovah: As I live, surely my oath that he has despised, and my covenant that he has broken, I will even bring it upon his own head.
17:20 And I will spread my net upon him, and he shall be taken in my snare, and I will bring him to Babylon, and will enter into judgment with him there for his trespass that he has trespassed against me.
17:21 And all his fugitives in all his bands shall fall by the sword, and they that remain shall be scattered toward every wind: and ye shall know that I, Yehovah, have spoken it.
17:22 Thus says the Lord Yehovah: I will also take of the lofty top of the cedar, and will set it; I will crop off from the topmost of its young twigs a tender one, and I will plant it upon a high and lofty mountain:
17:23 in the mountain of the height of Israel I will plant it; and it shall bring forth boughs, and bear fruit, and be a goodly cedar: and under it shall dwell all birds of every wing; in the shade of the branches thereof shall they dwell.
17:24 And all the trees of the field shall know that I, Yehovah, have brought down the high tree, have exalted the low tree, have dried up the green tree, and have made the dry tree to flourish; I, Yehovah, have spoken and have done it.
18:1 The word of Yehovah came to me again, saying,
18:2 What mean ye, that ye use this proverb concerning the land of Israel, saying, The fathers have eaten sour grapes, and the children's teeth are set on edge?
18:3 As I live, says the Lord Yehovah, ye shall not have occasion any more to use this proverb in Israel.
18:4 Behold, all souls are mine; as the soul of the father, so also the soul of the son is mine: the soul that sins, it shall die.
18:5 But if a man be just, and do that which is lawful and right,
18:6 and has not eaten upon the mountains, neither has lifted up his eyes to the idols of the house of Israel, neither has defiled his neighbor's wife, neither has come near to a woman in her impurity,
18:7 and has not wronged any, but has restored to the debtor his pledge, has taken nought by robbery, has given his bread to the hungry, and has covered the naked with a garment;
18:8 he that has not given forth upon interest, neither has taken any increase, that has withdrawn his hand from iniquity, has executed true justice between man and man,
18:9 has walked in my statutes, and has kept my ordinances, to deal truly; he is just, he shall surely live, says the Lord Yehovah.
18:10 If he beget a son that is a robber, a shedder of blood, and that does any one of these things,
18:11 and that does not any of those duties, but even has eaten upon the mountains, and defiled his neighbor's wife,
18:12 has wronged the poor and needy, has taken by robbery, has not restored the pledge, and has lifted up his eyes to the idols, has committed abomination,
18:13 has given forth upon interest, and has taken increase; shall he then live? he shall not live: he has done all these abominations; he shall surely die; his blood shall be upon him.
18:14 Now, lo, if he beget a son, that sees all his father's sins, which he has done, and fears, and does not such like;
18:15 that has not eaten upon the mountains, neither has lifted up his eyes to the idols of the house of Israel, has not defiled his neighbor's wife,
18:16 neither has wronged any, has not taken anything to pledge, neither has taken by robbery, but has given his bread to the hungry, and has covered the naked with a garment;
18:17 that has withdrawn his hand from the poor, that has not received interest nor increase, has executed my ordinances, has walked in my statutes; he shall not die for the iniquity of his father, he shall surely live.
18:18 As for his father, because he cruelly oppressed, robbed his brother, and did that which is not good among his people, behold, he shall die in his iniquity.

18:19 Yet say ye, Why does not the son bear the iniquity of the father? when the son has done that which is lawful and right, and has kept all my statutes, and has done them, he shall surely live.
18:20 The soul that sins, it shall die: the son shall not bear the iniquity of the father, neither shall the father bear the iniquity of the son; the righteousness of the righteous shall be upon him, and the wickedness of the wicked shall be upon him.
18:21 But if the wicked turn from all his sins that he has committed, and keep all my statutes, and do that which is lawful and right, he shall surely live, he shall not die.
18:22 None of his transgressions that he has committed shall be remembered against him: in his righteousness that he has done he shall live.
18:23 Have I any pleasure in the death of the wicked? says the Lord Yehovah; and not rather that he should return from his way, and live?
18:24 But when the righteous turns away from his righteousness, and commits iniquity, and does according to all the abominations that the wicked man does, shall he live? None of his righteous deeds that he has done shall be remembered: in his trespass that he has trespassed, and in his sin that he has sinned, in them shall he die.
18:25 Yet ye say, The way of the Lord is not equal. Hear now, O house of Israel: Is not my way equal? are not your ways unequal?
18:26 When the righteous man turns away from his righteousness, and commits iniquity, and dies therein; in his iniquity that he has done shall he die.
18:27 Again, when the wicked man turns away from his wickedness that he has committed, and does that which is lawful and right, he shall save his soul alive.
18:28 Because he considers, and turns away from all his transgressions that he has committed, he shall surely live, he shall not die.
18:29 Yet says the house of Israel, The way of the Lord is not equal. O house of Israel, are not my ways equal? are not your ways unequal?
18:30 Therefore I will judge you, O house of Israel, every one according to his ways, says the Lord Yehovah. Return ye, and turn yourselves from all your transgressions; so iniquity shall not be your ruin.
18:31 Cast away from you all your transgressions, in which ye have transgressed; and make you a new heart and a new spirit: for why will ye die, O house of Israel?
18:32 For I have no pleasure in the death of him that dies, says the Lord Yehovah: therefore turn yourselves, and live.
19:1 Moreover, take you up a lamentation for the princes of Israel,
19:2 and say, What was your mother? A lioness: she crouched among lions, in the midst of the young lions she nourished her whelps.
19:3 And she brought up one of her whelps: he became a young lion, and he learned to catch the prey; he devoured men.
19:4 The nations also heard of him; he was taken in their pit; and they brought him with hooks to the land of Egypt.
19:5 Now when she saw that she had waited, and her hope was lost, then she took another of her whelps, and made him a young lion.
19:6 And he went up and down among the lions; he became a young lion, and he learned to catch the prey; he devoured men.
19:7 And he knew their palaces, and laid waste their cities; and the land was desolate, and the fulness thereof, because of the noise of his roaring.
19:8 Then the nations set against him on every side from the provinces; and they spread their net over him; he was taken in their pit.
19:9 And they put him in a cage with hooks, and brought him to the king of Babylon; they brought him into strongholds, that his voice should no more be heard upon the mountains of Israel.
19:10 Your mother was like a vine, in your blood, planted by the waters: it was fruitful and full of branches by reason of many waters.
19:11 And it had strong rods for the sceptres of them that bore rule, and their stature was exalted among the thick boughs, and they were seen in their height with the multitude of their branches.

19:12 But it was plucked up in fury, it was cast down to the ground, and the east wind dried up its fruit: its strong rods were broken off and withered; the fire consumed them.
19:13 And now it is planted in the wilderness, in a dry and thirsty land.
19:14 And fire is gone out of the rods of its branches, it has devoured its fruit, so that there is in it no strong rod to be a sceptre to rule. This is a lamentation, and shall be for a lamentation.
20:1 And it came to pass in the seventh year, in the fifth month, the tenth day of the month, that certain of the elders of Israel came to inquire of Yehovah, and sat before me.
20:2 And the word of Yehovah came to me, saying,
20:3 Son of man, speak to the elders of Israel, and say to them, Thus says the Lord Yehovah: Is it to inquire of me that ye are come? As I live, says the Lord Yehovah, I will not be inquired of by you.
20:4 Will you judge them, son of man, will you judge them? Cause them to know the abominations of their fathers;
20:5 and say to them, Thus says the Lord Yehovah: In the day when I chose Israel, and swore to the seed of the house of Jacob, and made myself known to them in the land of Egypt, when I swore to them, saying, I am Yehovah your God;
20:6 in that day I swore to them, to bring them forth out of the land of Egypt into a land that I had searched out for them, flowing with milk and honey, which is the glory of all lands.
20:7 And I said to them, Cast ye away every man the abominations of his eyes, and defile not yourselves with the idols of Egypt; I am Yehovah your God.
20:8 But they rebelled against me, and would not hearken to me; they did not every man cast away the abominations of their eyes, neither did they forsake the idols of Egypt. Then I said I would pour out my wrath upon them, to accomplish my anger against them in the midst of the land of Egypt.
20:9 But I wrought for my name's sake, that it should not be profaned in the sight of the nations, among which they were, in whose sight I made myself known to them, in bringing them forth out of the land of Egypt.
20:10 So I caused them to go forth out of the land of Egypt, and brought them into the wilderness.
20:11 And I gave them my statutes, and showed them my ordinances, which if a man do, he shall live in them.
20:12 Moreover also I gave them my sabbaths, to be a sign between me and them, that they might know that I am Yehovah that sanctifies them.
20:13 But the house of Israel rebelled against me in the wilderness: they walked not in my statutes, and they rejected my ordinances, which if a man keep, he shall live in them; and my sabbaths they greatly profaned. Then I said I would pour out my wrath upon them in the wilderness, to consume them.
20:14 But I wrought for my name's sake, that it should not be profaned in the sight of the nations, in whose sight I brought them out.
20:15 Moreover also I swore to them in the wilderness, that I would not bring them into the land which I had given them, flowing with milk and honey, which is the glory of all lands;
20:16 because they rejected my ordinances, and walked not in my statutes, and profaned my sabbaths: for their heart went after their idols.
20:17 Nevertheless my eye spared them, and I destroyed them not, neither did I make a full end of them in the wilderness.
20:18 And I said to their children in the wilderness, Walk ye not in the statutes of your fathers, neither observe their ordinances, nor defile yourselves with their idols.
20:19 I am Yehovah your God: walk in my statutes, and keep my ordinances, and do them;
20:20 and hallow my sabbaths; and they shall be a sign between me and you, that ye may know that I am Yehovah your God.
20:21 But the children rebelled against me; they walked not in my statutes, neither kept my ordinances to do them, which if a man do, he shall live in them; they profaned my sabbaths. Then I said I would pour out my wrath upon them, to accomplish my anger against them in the wilderness.

20:22 Nevertheless I withdrew my hand, and wrought for my name's sake, that it should not be profaned in the sight of the nations, in whose sight I brought them forth.
20:23 Moreover I swore to them in the wilderness, that I would scatter them among the nations, and disperse them through the countries;
20:24 because they had not executed my ordinances, but had rejected my statutes, and had profaned my sabbaths, and their eyes were after their fathers' idols.
20:25 Moreover also I gave them statutes that were not good, and ordinances in which they should not live;
20:26 and I polluted them in their own gifts, in that they caused to pass through the fire all that opens the womb, that I might make them desolate, to the end that they might know that I am Yehovah.
20:27 Therefore, son of man, speak to the house of Israel, and say to them, Thus says the Lord Yehovah: In this moreover have your fathers blasphemed me, in that they have committed a trespass against me.
20:28 For when I had brought them into the land, which I swore to give to them, then they saw every high hill, and every thick tree, and they offered there their sacrifices, and there they presented the provocation of their offering; there also they made their sweet savor, and they poured out there their drink offerings.
20:29 Then I said to them, What means the high place whereto ye go? So the name thereof is called Bamah to this day.
20:30 Wherefore say to the house of Israel, Thus says the Lord Yehovah: Do ye pollute yourselves after the manner of your fathers? and play ye the harlot after their abominations?
20:31 and when ye offer your gifts, when ye make your sons to pass through the fire, do ye pollute yourselves with all your idols to this day? and shall I be inquired of by you, O house of Israel? As I live, says the Lord Yehovah, I will not be inquired of by you;
20:32 and that which comes into your mind shall not be at all, in that ye say, We will be as the nations, as the families of the countries, to serve wood and stone.
20:33 As I live, says the Lord Yehovah, surely with a mighty hand, and with an outstretched arm, and with wrath poured out, I will be king over you:
20:34 and I will bring you out from the peoples, and will gather you out of the countries in which ye are scattered, with a mighty hand, and with an outstretched arm, and with wrath poured out;
20:35 and I will bring you into the wilderness of the peoples, and there I will enter into judgment with you face to face.
20:36 Like as I entered into judgment with your fathers in the wilderness of the land of Egypt, so I will enter into judgment with you, says the Lord Yehovah.
20:37 And I will cause you to pass under the rod, and I will bring you into the bond of the covenant;
20:38 and I will purge out from among you the rebels, and them that transgress against me; I will bring them forth out of the land where they sojourn, but they shall not enter into the land of Israel: and ye shall know that I am Yehovah.
20:39 As for you, O house of Israel, thus says the Lord Yehovah: Go ye, serve every one his idols, and hereafter also, if ye will not hearken to me; but my holy name shall ye no more profane with your gifts, and with your idols.
20:40 For in my holy mountain, in the mountain of the height of Israel, says the Lord Yehovah, there shall all the house of Israel, all of them, serve me in the land: there I will accept them, and there I will require your offerings, and the first-fruits of your oblations, with all your holy things.
20:41 As a sweet savor I will accept you, when I bring you out from the peoples, and gather you out of the countries in which ye have been scattered; and I will be sanctified in you in the sight of the nations.
20:42 And ye shall know that I am Yehovah, when I shall bring you into the land of Israel, into the country which I swore to give to your fathers.

20:43 And there shall ye remember your ways, and all your doings, in which ye have polluted yourselves; and ye shall loathe yourselves in your own sight for all your evils that ye have committed.
20:44 And ye shall know that I am Yehovah, when I have dealt with you for my name's sake, not according to your evil ways, nor according to your corrupt doings, O ye house of Israel, says the Lord Yehovah.
20:45 And the word of Yehovah came to me, saying,
20:46 Son of man, set your face toward the south, and drop your word toward the south, and prophesy against the forest of the field in the South;
20:47 and say to the forest of the South, Hear the word of Yehovah: Thus says the Lord Yehovah, Behold, I will kindle a fire in you, and it shall devour every green tree in you, and every dry tree: the flaming flame shall not be quenched, and all faces from the south to the north shall be burnt thereby.
20:48 And all flesh shall see that I, Yehovah, have kindled it; it shall not be quenched.
20:49 Then said I, ah Lord Yehovah! they say of me, Is he not a speaker of parables?
21:1 And the word of Yehovah came to me, saying,
21:2 Son of man, set your face toward Jerusalem, and drop your word toward the sanctuaries, and prophesy against the land of Israel;
21:3 and say to the land of Israel, Thus says Yehovah: Behold, I am against you, and will draw forth my sword out of its sheath, and will cut off from you the righteous and the wicked.
21:4 Seeing then that I will cut off from you the righteous and the wicked, therefore shall my sword go forth out of its sheath against all flesh from the south to the north:
21:5 and all flesh shall know that I, Yehovah, have drawn forth my sword out of its sheath; it shall not return any more.
21:6 Sigh therefore, you son of man; with the breaking of your loins and with bitterness shall you sigh before their eyes.
21:7 And it shall be, when they say to you, Why do you sigh? that you shall say, Because of the tidings, for it comes; and every heart shall melt, and all hands shall be feeble, and every spirit shall faint, and all knees shall be weak as water: behold, it comes, and it shall be done, says the Lord Yehovah.
21:8 And the word of Yehovah came to me, saying,
21:9 Son of man, prophesy, and say, Thus says Yehovah: Say, a sword, a sword, it is sharpened, and also furbished;
21:10 it is sharpened that it may make a slaughter; it is furbished that it may be as lightning: shall we then make mirth? the rod of my son, it despises every tree.
21:11 And it is given to be furbished, that it may be handled: the sword, it is sharpened, yes, it is furbished, to give it into the hand of the slayer.
21:12 Cry and wail, son of man; for it is upon my people, it is upon all the princes of Israel: they are delivered over to the sword with my people; smite therefore upon your thigh.
21:13 For there is a trial; and what if even the rod that despises shall be no more? says the Lord Yehovah.
21:14 You therefore, son of man, prophesy, and strike your hands together; and let the sword strike twice, even a third time, the sword of the deadly wound: it is the sword for the great one's deadly wound, which encircles them on every side.
21:15 I have set the threatening sword against all their gates, that their heart may melt, and their stumblings be multiplied: ah! it is made as lightning, it is pointed for slaughter.
21:16 Gather you together, go to the right, set yourself in array, go to the left, wherever your face is set.
21:17 I will also smite my hands together, and I will cause my wrath to rest: I, Yehovah, have spoken it.
21:18 The word of Yehovah came to me again, saying,

21:19 Also, you son of man, appoint you two ways, that the sword of the king of Babylon may come; they twain shall come forth out of one land: and mark out a place, mark it out at the head of the way to the city.
21:20 You shall appoint a way for the sword to come to Rabbah of the children of Ammon, and to Judah in Jerusalem the fortified.
21:21 For the king of Babylon stood at the parting of the way, at the head of the two ways, to use divination: he shook the arrows to and fro, he consulted the teraphim, he looked in the liver.
21:22 In his right hand was the divination for Jerusalem, to set battering rams, to open the mouth in the slaughter, to lift up the voice with shouting, to set battering rams against the gates, to cast up mounds, to build forts.
21:23 And it shall be to them as a false divination in their sight, who have sworn oaths to them; but he brings iniquity to remembrance, that they may be taken.
21:24 Therefore thus says the Lord Yehovah: Because ye have made your iniquity to be remembered, in that your transgressions are uncovered, so that in all your doings your sins do appear; because that ye are come to remembrance, ye shall be taken with the hand.
21:25 And you, O deadly wounded wicked one, the prince of Israel, whose day is come, in the time of the iniquity of the end,
21:26 thus says the Lord Yehovah: Remove the mitre, and take off the crown; this shall be no more the same; exalt that which is low, and abase that which is high.
21:27 I will overturn, overturn, overturn it: this also shall be no more, until he come whose right it is; and I will give it him.
21:28 And you, son of man, prophesy, and say, Thus says the Lord Yehovah concerning the children of Ammon, and concerning their reproach; and say you, a sword, a sword is drawn, for the slaughter it is furbished, to cause it to devour, that it may be as lightning;
21:29 while they see for you false visions, while they divine lies to you, to lay you upon the necks of the wicked that are deadly wounded, whose day is come in the time of the iniquity of the end.
21:30 Cause it to return into its sheath. In the place where you were created, in the land of your birth, I will judge you.
21:31 And I will pour out my indignation upon you; I will blow upon you with the fire of my wrath; and I will deliver you into the hand of brutish men, skilful to destroy.
21:32 You shall be for fuel to the fire; your blood shall be in the midst of the land; you shall be no more remembered: for I, Yehovah, have spoken it.
22:1 Moreover the word of Yehovah came to me, saying,
22:2 And you, son of man, will you judge, will you judge the bloody city? then cause her to know all her abominations.
22:3 And you shall say, Thus says the Lord Yehovah: A city that sheds blood in the midst of her, that her time may come, and that makes idols against herself to defile her!
22:4 You are become guilty in your blood that you have shed, and are defiled in your idols which you have made; and you have caused your days to draw near, and are come even to your years: therefore have I made you a reproach to the nations, and a mocking to all the countries.
22:5 Those that are near, and those that are far from you, shall mock you, you infamous one and full of tumult.
22:6 Behold, the princes of Israel, every one according to his power, have been in you to shed blood.
22:7 In you have they set light by father and mother; in the midst of you have they dealt by oppression with the sojourner; in you have they wronged the fatherless and the widow.
22:8 You have despised my holy things, and have profaned my sabbaths.
22:9 Slanderous men have been in you to shed blood; and in you they have eaten upon the mountains: in the midst of you they have committed lewdness.
22:10 In you have they uncovered their fathers' nakedness; in you have they humbled her that was unclean in her impurity.

22:11 And one has committed abomination with his neighbor's wife; and another has lewdly defiled his daughter-in-law; and another in you has humbled his sister, his father's daughter.
22:12 In you have they taken bribes to shed blood; you have taken interest and increase, and you have greedily gained of your neighbors by oppression, and have forgotten me, says the Lord Yehovah.
22:13 Behold, therefore, I have smitten my hand at your dishonest gain which you have made, and at your blood which has been in the midst of you.
22:14 Can your heart endure, or can your hands be strong, in the days that I shall deal with you? I, Yehovah, have spoken it, and will do it.
22:15 And I will scatter you among the nations, and disperse you through the countries; and I will consume your filthiness out of you.
22:16 And you shall be profaned in yourself, in the sight of the nations; and you shall know that I am Yehovah.
22:17 And the word of Yehovah came to me, saying,
22:18 Son of man, the house of Israel is become dross to me: all of them are brass and tin and iron and lead, in the midst of the furnace; they are the dross of silver.
22:19 Therefore thus says the Lord Yehovah: Because ye are all become dross, therefore, behold, I will gather you into the midst of Jerusalem.
22:20 As they gather silver and brass and iron and lead and tin into the midst of the furnace, to blow the fire upon it, to melt it; so I will gather you in my anger and in my wrath, and I will lay you there, and melt you.
22:21 Yes, I will gather you, and blow upon you with the fire of my wrath, and ye shall be melted in the midst thereof.
22:22 As silver is melted in the midst of the furnace, so shall ye be melted in the midst thereof; and ye shall know that I, Yehovah, have poured out my wrath upon you.
22:23 And the word of Yehovah came to me, saying,
22:24 Son of man, say to her, You are a land that is not cleansed, nor rained upon in the day of indignation.
22:25 There is a conspiracy of her prophets in the midst thereof, like a roaring lion ravening the prey: they have devoured souls; they take treasure and precious things; they have made her widows many in the midst thereof.
22:26 Her priests have done violence to my law, and have profaned my holy things: they have made no distinction between the holy and the common, neither have they caused men to discern between the unclean and the clean, and have hid their eyes from my sabbaths, and I am profaned among them.
22:27 Her princes in the midst thereof are like wolves ravening the prey, to shed blood, and to destroy souls, that they may get dishonest gain.
22:28 And her prophets have daubed for them with untempered mortar, seeing false visions, and divining lies to them, saying, Thus says the Lord Yehovah, when Yehovah has not spoken.
22:29 The people of the land have used oppression, and exercised robbery; yes, they have vexed the poor and needy, and have oppressed the sojourner wrongfully.
22:30 And I sought for a man among them, that should build up the wall, and stand in the gap before me for the land, that I should not destroy it; but I found no one.
22:31 Therefore have I poured out my indignation upon them; I have consumed them with the fire of my wrath: their own way have I brought upon their heads, says the Lord Yehovah.
23:1 The word of Yehovah came again to me, saying,
23:2 Son of man, there were two women, the daughters of one mother:
23:3 and they played the harlot in Egypt; they played the harlot in their youth; there were their breasts pressed, and there was handled the bosom of their virginity.
23:4 And the names of them were Oholah the elder, and Oholibah her sister: and they became mine, and they bore sons and daughters. And as for their names, Samaria is Oholah, and Jerusalem Oholibah.
23:5 And Oholah played the harlot when she was mine; and she doted on her lovers, on the Assyrians her neighbors,

23:6 who were clothed with blue, governors and rulers, all of them desirable young men, horsemen riding upon horses.
23:7 And she bestowed her whoredoms upon them, the choicest men of Assyria all of them; and on whomsoever she doted, with all their idols she defiled herself.
23:8 Neither has she left her whoredoms since the days of Egypt; for in her youth they lay with her, and they handled the bosom of her virginity; and they poured out their whoredom upon her.
23:9 Wherefore I delivered her into the hand of her lovers, into the hand of the Assyrians, upon whom she doted.
23:10 These uncovered her nakedness; they took her sons and her daughters; and her they slew with the sword: and she became a byword among women; for they executed judgments upon her.
23:11 And her sister Oholibah saw this, yet was she more corrupt in her doting than she, and in her whoredoms which were more than the whoredoms of her sister.
23:12 She doted upon the Assyrians, governors and rulers, her neighbors, clothed most gorgeously, horsemen riding upon horses, all of them desirable young men.
23:13 And I saw that she was defiled; they both took one way.
23:14 And she increased her whoredoms; for she saw men portrayed upon the wall, the images of the Chaldeans portrayed with vermilion,
23:15 girded with girdles upon their loins, with flowing turbans upon their heads, all of them princes to look upon, after the likeness of the Babylonians in Chaldea, the land of their nativity.
23:16 And as soon as she saw them she doted upon them, and sent messengers to them into Chaldea.
23:17 And the Babylonians came to her into the bed of love, and they defiled her with their whoredom, and she was polluted with them, and her soul was alienated from them.
23:18 So she uncovered her whoredoms, and uncovered her nakedness: then my soul was alienated from her, like as my soul was alienated from her sister.
23:19 Yet she multiplied her whoredoms, remembering the days of her youth, in which she had played the harlot in the land of Egypt.
23:20 And she doted upon their paramours, whose members are like the members of donkeys, and whose emissions are like the emissions of horses.
23:21 Thus you called to remembrance the lewdness of your youth, in the handling of your bosom by the Egyptians for the breasts of your youth.
23:22 Therefore, O Oholibah, thus says the Lord Yehovah: Behold, I will raise up your lovers against you, from whom your soul is alienated, and I will bring them against you on every side:
23:23 the Babylonians and all the Chaldeans, Pekod and Shoa and Koa, and all the Assyrians with them; desirable young men, governors and rulers all of them, princes and men of renown, all of them riding upon horses.
23:24 And they shall come against you with weapons, chariots, and wagons, and with a company of peoples; they shall set themselves against you with buckler and shield and helmet round about; and I will commit the judgment to them, and they shall judge you according to their judgments.
23:25 And I will set my jealousy against you, and they shall deal with you in fury; they shall take away your nose and your ears; and your residue shall fall by the sword: they shall take your sons and your daughters; and your residue shall be devoured by the fire.
23:26 They shall also strip you of your clothes, and take away your fair jewels.
23:27 Thus I will make your lewdness to cease from you, and your whoredom brought from the land of Egypt; so that you shall not lift up your eyes to them, nor remember Egypt any more.
23:28 For thus says the Lord Yehovah: Behold, I will deliver you into the hand of them whom you hate, into the hand of them from whom your soul is alienated;
23:29 and they shall deal with you in hatred, and shall take away all your labor, and shall leave you naked and bare; and the nakedness of your whoredoms shall be uncovered, both your lewdness and your whoredoms.

23:30 These things shall be done to you, for that you have played the harlot after the nations, and because you are polluted with their idols.
23:31 You have walked in the way of your sister; therefore I will give her cup into your hand.
23:32 Thus says the Lord Yehovah: You shall drink of your sister's cup, which is deep and large; you shall be laughed to scorn and had in derision; it contains much.
23:33 You shall be filled with drunkenness and sorrow, with the cup of astonishment and desolation, with the cup of your sister Samaria.
23:34 You shall even drink it and drain it out, and you shall gnaw the sherds thereof, and shall tear your breasts; for I have spoken it, says the Lord Yehovah.
23:35 Therefore thus says the Lord Yehovah: Because you have forgotten me, and cast me behind your back, therefore bear you also your lewdness and your whoredoms.
23:36 Yehovah said moreover to me: Son of man, will you judge Oholah and Oholibah? then declare to them their abominations.
23:37 For they have committed adultery, and blood is in their hands; and with their idols have they committed adultery; and they have also caused their sons, whom they bore to me, to pass through the fire to them to be devoured.
23:38 Moreover this they have done to me: they have defiled my sanctuary in the same day, and have profaned my sabbaths.
23:39 For when they had slain their children to their idols, then they came the same day into my sanctuary to profane it; and, lo, thus have they done in the midst of my house.
23:40 And furthermore ye have sent for men that come from far, to whom a messenger was sent, and, lo, they came; for whom you did wash yourself, paint your eyes, and deck yourself with ornaments,
23:41 and sit upon a stately bed, with a table prepared before it, whereupon you did set my incense and my oil.
23:42 And the voice of a multitude being at ease was with her: and with men of the common sort were brought drunkards from the wilderness; and they put bracelets upon the hands of them twain, and beautiful crowns upon their heads.
23:43 Then said I of her that was old in adulteries, Now will they play the harlot with her, and she with them.
23:44 And they went in to her, as they go in to a harlot: so went they in to Oholah and to Oholibah, the lewd women.
23:45 And righteous men, they shall judge them with the judgment of adulteresses, and with the judgment of women that shed blood; because they are adulteresses, and blood is in their hands.
23:46 For thus says the Lord Yehovah: I will bring up a company against them, and will give them to be tossed to and fro and robbed.
23:47 And the company shall stone them with stones, and despatch them with their swords; they shall slay their sons and their daughters, and burn up their houses with fire.
23:48 Thus I will cause lewdness to cease out of the land, that all women may be taught not to do after your lewdness.
23:49 And they shall recompense your lewdness upon you, and ye shall bear the sins of your idols; and ye shall know that I am the Lord Yehovah.
24:1 Again, in the ninth year, in the tenth month, in the tenth day of the month, the word of Yehovah came to me, saying,
24:2 Son of man, write you the name of the day, even of this selfsame day: the king of Babylon drew close to Jerusalem this selfsame day.
24:3 And utter a parable to the rebellious house, and say to them, Thus says the Lord Yehovah, Set on the caldron, set it on, and also pour water into it:
24:4 gather the pieces thereof into it, even every good piece, the thigh, and the shoulder; fill it with the choice bones.
24:5 Take the choice of the flock, and also a pile of wood for the bones under the caldron; make it boil well; yes, let the bones thereof be boiled in the midst of it.

24:6 Wherefore thus says the Lord Yehovah: Woe to the bloody city, to the caldron whose rust is therein, and whose rust is not gone out of it! take out of it piece after piece; No lot is fallen upon it.
24:7 For her blood is in the midst of her; she set it upon the bare rock; she poured it not upon the ground, to cover it with dust.
24:8 That it may cause wrath to come up to take vengeance, I have set her blood upon the bare rock, that it should not be covered.
24:9 Therefore thus says the Lord Yehovah: Woe to the bloody city! I also will make the pile great.
24:10 Heap on the wood, make the fire hot, boil well the flesh, and make thick the broth, and let the bones be burned.
24:11 Then set it empty upon the coals thereof, that it may be hot, and the brass thereof may burn, and that the filthiness of it may be molten in it, that the rust of it may be consumed.
24:12 She has wearied herself with toil; yet her great rust goes not forth out of her; her rust goes not forth by fire.
24:13 In your filthiness is lewdness: because I have cleansed you and you were not cleansed, you shall not be cleansed from your filthiness any more, till I have caused my wrath toward you to rest.
24:14 I, Yehovah, have spoken it: it shall come to pass, and I will do it: I will not go back, neither I will spare, neither will I repent; according to your ways, and according to your doings, shall they judge you, says the Lord Yehovah.
24:15 Also the word of Yehovah came to me, saying,
24:16 Son of man, behold, I take away from you the desire of your eyes with a stroke: yet you shall neither mourn nor weep, neither shall your tears run down.
24:17 Sigh, but not aloud, make no mourning for the dead; bind your headtire upon you, and put your shoes upon your feet, and cover not your lips, and eat not the bread of men.
24:18 So I spoke to the people in the morning; and at even my wife died; and I did in the morning as I was commanded.
24:19 And the people said to me, Will you not tell us what these things are to us, that you do so?
24:20 Then I said to them, The word of Yehovah came to me, saying,
24:21 Speak to the house of Israel, Thus says the Lord Yehovah: Behold, I will profane my sanctuary, the pride of your power, the desire of your eyes, and that which your soul pities; and your sons and your daughters whom ye have left behind shall fall by the sword.
24:22 And ye shall do as I have done: ye shall not cover your lips, nor eat the bread of men.
24:23 And your tires shall be upon your heads, and your shoes upon your feet: ye shall not mourn nor weep; but ye shall pine away in your iniquities, and moan one toward another.
24:24 Thus shall Ezekiel be to you a sign; according to all that he has done shall ye do: when this comes, then shall ye know that I am the Lord Yehovah.
24:25 And you, son of man, shall it not be in the day when I take from them their strength, the joy of their glory, the desire of their eyes, and that whereupon they set their heart, their sons and their daughters,
24:26 that in that day he that escapes shall come to you, to cause you to hear it with your ears?
24:27 In that day shall your mouth be opened to him that is escaped, and you shall speak, and be no more dumb: so shall you be a sign to them; and they shall know that I am Yehovah.
25:1 And the word of Yehovah came to me, saying,
25:2 Son of man, set your face toward the children of Ammon, and prophesy against them:
25:3 and say to the children of Ammon, Hear the word of the Lord Yehovah: Thus says the Lord Yehovah, Because you said, aha, against my sanctuary, when it was profaned; and against the land of Israel, when it was made desolate; and against the house of Judah, when they went into captivity:

25:4 therefore, behold, I will deliver you to the children of the east for a possession, and they shall set their encampments in you, and make their dwellings in you; they shall eat your fruit, and they shall drink your milk.
25:5 And I will make Rabbah a stable for camels, and the children of Ammon a couching-place for flocks: and ye shall know that I am Yehovah.
25:6 For thus says the Lord Yehovah: Because you have clapped your hands, and stamped with the feet, and rejoiced with all the despite of your soul against the land of Israel;
25:7 therefore, behold, I have stretched out my hand upon you, and will deliver you for a spoil to the nations; and I will cut you off from the peoples, and I will cause you to perish out of the countries: I will destroy you; and you shall know that I am Yehovah.
25:8 Thus says the Lord Yehovah: Because that Moab and Seir do say, Behold, the house of Judah is like to all the nations;
25:9 therefore, behold, I will open the side of Moab from the cities, from his cities which are on his frontiers, the glory of the country, Beth-jeshimoth, Baal-meon, and Kiriathaim,
25:10 to the children of the east, to go against the children of Ammon; and I will give them for a possession, that the children of Ammon may not be remembered among the nations.
25:11 and I will execute judgments upon Moab; and they shall know that I am Yehovah.
25:12 Thus says the Lord Yehovah: Because that Edom has dealt against the house of Judah by taking vengeance, and has greatly offended, and revenged himself upon them;
25:13 therefore thus says the Lord Yehovah, I will stretch out my hand upon Edom, and will cut off man and beast from it; and I will make it desolate from Teman; even to Dedan shall they fall by the sword.
25:14 And I will lay my vengeance upon Edom by the hand of my people Israel; and they shall do in Edom according to my anger and according to my wrath; and they shall know my vengeance, says the Lord Yehovah.
25:15 Thus says the Lord Yehovah: Because the Philistines have dealt by revenge, and have taken vengeance with despite of soul to destroy with perpetual enmity;
25:16 therefore thus says the Lord Yehovah, Behold, I will stretch out my hand upon the Philistines, and I will cut off the Cherethites, and destroy the remnant of the sea coast.
25:17 And I will execute great vengeance upon them with wrathful rebukes; and they shall know that I am Yehovah, when I shall lay my vengeance upon them.
26:1 And it came to pass in the eleventh year, in the first day of the month, that the word of Yehovah came to me, saying,
26:2 Son of man, because that Tyre has said against Jerusalem, aha, she is broken that was the gate of the peoples; she is turned to me; I shall be replenished, now that she is laid waste:
26:3 therefore thus says the Lord Yehovah, Behold, I am against you, O Tyre, and will cause many nations to come up against you, as the sea causes its waves to come up.
26:4 And they shall destroy the walls of Tyre, and break down her towers: I will also scrape her dust from her, and make her a bare rock.
26:5 She shall be a place for the spreading of nets in the midst of the sea; for I have spoken it, says the Lord Yehovah; and she shall become a spoil to the nations.
26:6 And her daughters that are in the field shall be slain with the sword: and they shall know that I am Yehovah.
26:7 For thus says the Lord Yehovah: Behold, I will bring upon Tyre Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon, king of kings, from the north, with horses, and with chariots, and with horsemen, and a company, and much people.
26:8 He shall slay with the sword your daughters in the field; and he shall make forts against you, and cast up a mound against you, and raise up the buckler against you.

26:9 And he shall set his battering engines against your walls, and with his axes he shall break down your towers.
26:10 By reason of the abundance of his horses their dust shall cover you: your walls shall shake at the noise of the horsemen, and of the wagons, and of the chariots, when he shall enter into your gates, as men enter into a city in which is made a breach.
26:11 With the hoofs of his horses shall he tread down all your streets; he shall slay your people with the sword; and the pillars of your strength shall go down to the ground.
26:12 And they shall make a spoil of your riches, and make a prey of your merchandise; and they shall break down your walls, and destroy your pleasant houses; and they shall lay your stones and your timber and your dust in the midst of the waters.
26:13 And I will cause the noise of your songs to cease; and the sound of your harps shall be no more heard.
26:14 And I will make you a bare rock; you shall be a place for the spreading of nets; you shall be built no more: for I Yehovah have spoken it, says the Lord Yehovah.
26:15 Thus says the Lord Yehovah to Tyre: shall not the isles shake at the sound of your fall, when the wounded groan, when the slaughter is made in the midst of you?
26:16 Then all the princes of the sea shall come down from their thrones, and lay aside their robes, and strip off their broidered garments: they shall clothe themselves with trembling; they shall sit upon the ground, and shall tremble every moment, and be astonished at you.
26:17 And they shall take up a lamentation over you, and say to you, How are you destroyed, that were inhabited by seafaring men, the renowned city, that was strong in the sea, she and her inhabitants, that caused their terror to be on all that dwelt there!
26:18 Now shall the isles tremble in the day of your fall; yes, the isles that are in the sea shall be dismayed at your departure.
26:19 For thus says the Lord Yehovah: When I shall make you a desolate city, like the cities that are not inhabited; when I shall bring up the deep upon you, and the great waters shall cover you;
26:20 then I will bring you down with them that descend into the pit, to the people of old time, and will make you to dwell in the nether parts of the earth, in the places that are desolate of old, with them that go down to the pit, that you be not inhabited; and I will set glory in the land of the living:
26:21 I will make you a terror, and you shall no more have any being; though you be sought for, yet shall you never be found again, says the Lord Yehovah.
27:1 The word of Yehovah came again to me, saying,
27:2 And you, son of man, take up a lamentation over Tyre;
27:3 and say to Tyre, O you that dwell at the entry of the sea, that are the merchant of the peoples to many isles, thus says the Lord Yehovah: You, O Tyre, have said, I am perfect in beauty.
27:4 Your borders are in the heart of the seas; your builders have perfected your beauty.
27:5 They have made all your planks of fir-trees from Senir; they have taken a cedar from Lebanon to make a mast for you.
27:6 Of the oaks of Bashan have they made your oars; they have made your benches of ivory inlaid in boxwood, from the isles of Kittim.
27:7 Of fine linen with broidered work from Egypt was your sail, that it might be to you for an ensign; blue and purple from the isles of Elishah was your awning.
27:8 The inhabitants of Sidon and Arvad were your rowers: your wise men, O Tyre, were in you, they were your pilots.
27:9 The old men of Gebal and the wise men thereof were in you your calkers: all the ships of the sea with their mariners were in you to deal in your merchandise.

27:10 Persia and Lud and Put[46] were in your army, your men of war: they hanged the shield and helmet in you; they set forth your comeliness.
27:11 The men of Arvad with your army were upon your walls round about, and valorous men were in your towers; they hanged their shields upon your walls round about; they have perfected your beauty.
27:12 Tarshish was your merchant by reason of the multitude of all kinds of riches; with silver, iron, tin, and lead, they traded for your wares.
27:13 Javan, Tubal, and Meshech, they were your traffickers; they traded the persons of men and vessels of brass for your merchandise.
27:14 They of the house of Togarmah traded for your wares with horses and war-horses and mules.
27:15 The men of Dedan were your traffickers; many isles were the mart of your hand: they brought you in exchange horns of ivory and ebony.
27:16 Syria was your merchant by reason of the multitude of your handiworks: they traded for your wares with emeralds, purple, and broidered work, and fine linen, and coral, and rubies.
27:17 Judah, and the land of Israel, they were your traffickers: they traded for your merchandise wheat of Minnith, and pannag, and honey, and oil, and balm.
27:18 Damascus was your merchant for the multitude of your handiworks, by reason of the multitude of all kinds of riches, with the wine of Helbon, and white wool.
27:19 Vedan and Javan traded with yarn for your wares: bright iron, cassia, and calamus, were among your merchandise.
27:20 Dedan was your trafficker in precious cloths for riding.
27:21 Arabia, and all the princes of Kedar, they were the merchants of your hand; in lambs, and rams, and goats, in these were they your merchants.
27:22 The traffickers of Sheba and Raamah, they were your traffickers; they traded for your wares with the chief of all spices, and with all precious stones, and gold.
27:23 Haran and Canneh and Eden, the traffickers of Sheba, asshur and Chilmad, were your traffickers.
27:24 These were your traffickers in choice wares, in wrappings of blue and broidered work, and in chests of rich apparel, bound with cords and made of cedar, among your merchandise.
27:25 The ships of Tarshish were your caravans for your merchandise: and you were replenished, and made very glorious in the heart of the seas.
27:26 Your rowers have brought you into great waters: the east wind has broken you in the heart of the seas.
27:27 Your riches, and your wares, your merchandise, your mariners, and your pilots, your calkers, and the dealers in your merchandise, and all your men of war, that are in you, with all your company which is in the midst of you, shall fall into the heart of the seas in the day of your ruin.
27:28 At the sound of the cry of your pilots the suburbs shall shake.
27:29 And all that handled the oar, the mariners, and all the pilots of the sea, shall come down from their ships; they shall stand upon the land,
27:30 and shall cause their voice to be heard over you, and shall cry bitterly, and shall cast up dust upon their heads, they shall wallow themselves in the ashes:
27:31 and they shall make themselves bald for you, and gird them with sackcloth, and they shall weep for you in bitterness of soul with bitter mourning.
27:32 And in their wailing they shall take up a lamentation for you, and lament over you, saying, Who is there like Tyre, like her that is brought to silence in the midst of the sea?
27:33 When your wares went forth out of the seas, you filled many peoples; you did enrich the kings of the earth with the multitude of your riches and of your merchandise.
27:34 In the time that you were broken by the seas in the depths of the waters, your merchandise and all your company did fall in the midst of you.

[46] Lud means Turkey, and Put means north Africa- Libya, Algreria, Tunisia, Morocco

27:35 All the inhabitants of the isles are astonished at you, and their kings are horribly afraid; they are troubled in their countenance.
27:36 The merchants among the peoples hiss at you; you are become a terror, and you shall nevermore have any being.
28:1 The word of Yehovah came again to me, saying,
28:2 Son of man, say to the prince of Tyre, Thus says the Lord Yehovah: Because your heart is lifted up, and you have said, I am a god, I sit in the seat of God, in the midst of the seas; yet you are man, and not God, though you did set your heart as the heart of God;-
28:3 behold, you are wiser than Daniel; there is no secret that is hidden from you;
28:4 by your wisdom and by your understanding you have gotten you riches, and have gotten gold and silver into your treasures;
28:5 by your great wisdom and by your traffic have you increased your riches, and your heart is lifted up because of your riches;-
28:6 therefore thus says the Lord Yehovah: Because you have set your heart as the heart of God,
28:7 therefore, behold, I will bring strangers upon you, the terrible of the nations; and they shall draw their swords against the beauty of your wisdom, and they shall defile your brightness.
28:8 They shall bring you down to the pit; and you shall die the death of them that are slain, in the heart of the seas.
28:9 Will you yet say before him that slays you, I am God? but you are man, and not God, in the hand of him that wounds you.
28:10 You shall die the death of the uncircumcised by the hand of strangers: for I have spoken it, says the Lord Yehovah.
28:11 Moreover the word of Yehovah came to me, saying,
28:12 Son of man, take up a lamentation over the king of Tyre, and say to him, Thus says the Lord Yehovah: You seal up the sum, full of wisdom, and perfect in beauty.
28:13 You were in Eden, the garden of God; every precious stone was your covering, the sardius, the topaz, and the diamond, the beryl, the onyx, and the jasper, the sapphire, the emerald, and the carbuncle, and gold: the workmanship of your tambourines and of your pipes was in you; in the day that you were created they were prepared.
28:14 You were the anointed cherub that covers: and I set you, so that you were upon the holy mountain of God; you have walked up and down in the midst of the stones of fire.
28:15 You were perfect in your ways from the day that you were created, till unrighteousness was found in you.
28:16 By the abundance of your traffic they filled the midst of you with violence, and you have sinned: therefore have I cast you as profane out of the mountain of God; and I have destroyed you, O covering cherub, from the midst of the stones of fire.
28:17 Your heart was lifted up because of your beauty; you have corrupted your wisdom by reason of your brightness: I have cast you to the ground; I have laid you before kings, that they may behold you.
28:18 By the multitude of your iniquities, through corrupting your trade, you have profaned your sanctuaries; therefore have I brought forth a fire from the midst of you; it has devoured you, and I have turned you to ashes upon the earth in the sight of all them that behold you.
28:19 All they that know you among the peoples shall be astonished at you: you are become a terror, and you shall nevermore have any being.
28:20 And the word of Yehovah came to me, saying,
28:21 Son of man, set your face toward Sidon, and prophesy against it,
28:22 and say, Thus says the Lord Yehovah: Behold, I am against you, O Sidon; and I will be glorified in the midst of you; and they shall know that I am Yehovah, when I shall have executed judgments in her, and shall be sanctified in her.
28:23 For I will send pestilence into her, and blood into her streets; and the wounded shall fall in the midst of her, with the sword upon her on every side; and they shall know that I am Yehovah.

28:24 And there shall be no more a pricking brier to the house of Israel, nor a hurting thorn of any that are round about them, that did despite to them; and they shall know that I am the Lord Yehovah.
28:25 Thus says the Lord Yehovah: When I shall have gathered the house of Israel from the peoples among whom they are scattered, and shall be sanctified in them in the sight of the nations, then shall they dwell in their own land which I gave to my servant Jacob.
28:26 And they shall dwell securely therein; yes, they shall build houses, and plant vineyards, and shall dwell securely, when I have executed judgments upon all those that do them despite round about them; and they shall know that I am Yehovah their God.

29:1 In the tenth year, in the tenth month, in the twelfth day of the month, the word of Yehovah came to me, saying,
29:2 Son of man, set your face against Pharaoh king of Egypt, and prophesy against him, and against all Egypt;
29:3 speak, and say, Thus says the Lord Yehovah: Behold, I am against you, Pharaoh king of Egypt, the great monster that lies in the midst of his rivers, that has said, My river is my own, and I have made it for myself.
29:4 And I will put hooks in your jaws, and I will cause the fish of your rivers to stick to your scales; and I will bring you up out of the midst of your rivers, with all the fish of your rivers which stick to your scales.
29:5 And I will cast you forth into the wilderness, you and all the fish of your rivers: you shall fall upon the open field; you shall not be brought together, nor gathered; I have given you for food to the beasts of the earth and to the birds of the heavens.
29:6 And all the inhabitants of Egypt shall know that I am Yehovah, because they have been a staff of reed to the house of Israel.
29:7 When they took hold of you by your hand, you did break, and did rend all their shoulders; and when they leaned upon you, you broke, and made all their loins to be at a stand.
29:8 Therefore thus says the Lord Yehovah: Behold, I will bring a sword upon you, and will cut off from you man and beast.
29:9 And the land of Egypt shall be a desolation and a waste; and they shall know that I am Yehovah. Because he has said, The river is my, and I have made it;
29:10 therefore, behold, I am against you, and against your rivers, and I will make the land of Egypt an utter waste and desolation, from the tower of Seveneh even to the border of Ethiopia.
29:11 No foot of man shall pass through it, nor foot of beast shall pass through it, neither shall it be inhabited forty years.
29:12 And I will make the land of Egypt a desolation in the midst of the countries that are desolate; and her cities among the cities that are laid waste shall be a desolation forty years; and I will scatter the Egyptians among the nations, and will disperse them through the countries.
29:13 For thus says the Lord Yehovah: At the end of forty years I will gather the Egyptians from the peoples whither they were scattered;
29:14 and I will bring back the captivity of Egypt, and will cause them to return into the land of Pathros, into the land of their birth; and they shall be there a base kingdom.
29:15 It shall be the basest of the kingdoms; neither shall it any more lift itself up above the nations: and I will diminish them, that they shall no more rule over the nations.
29:16 And it shall be no more the confidence of the house of Israel, bringing iniquity to remembrance, when they turn to look after them: and they shall know that I am the Lord Yehovah.
29:17 And it came to pass in the seven and twentieth year, in the first month, in the first day of the month, the word of Yehovah came to me, saying,
29:18 Son of man, Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon caused his army to serve a great service against Tyre: every head was made bald, and every shoulder was worn; yet had he no wages, nor his army, from Tyre, for the service that he had served against it.

29:19 Therefore thus says the Lord Yehovah: Behold, I will give the land of Egypt to Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon; and he shall carry off her multitude, and take her spoil, and take her prey; and it shall be the wages for his army.
29:20 I have given him the land of Egypt as his recompense for which he served, because they wrought for me, says the Lord Yehovah.
29:21 In that day I will cause a horn to bud forth to the house of Israel, and I will give you the opening of the mouth in the midst of them; and they shall know that I am Yehovah.
30:1 The word of Yehovah came again to me, saying,
30:2 Son of man, prophesy, and say, Thus says the Lord Yehovah: Wail ye, alas for the day!
30:3 For the day is near, even the day of Yehovah is near; it shall be a day of clouds, a time of the nations.
30:4 And a sword shall come upon Egypt, and anguish shall be in Ethiopia, when the slain shall fall in Egypt; and they shall take away her multitude, and her foundations shall be broken down.
30:5 Ethiopia, and Put,[47] and Lud,[48] and all the mingled people, and Cub, and the children of the land that is in league, shall fall with them by the sword.
30:6 Thus says Yehovah: They also that uphold Egypt shall fall; and the pride of her power shall come down: from the tower of Seveneh shall they fall in it by the sword, says the Lord Yehovah.
30:7 And they shall be desolate in the midst of the countries that are desolate; and her cities shall be in the midst of the cities that are wasted.
30:8 And they shall know at I am Yehovah, when I have set a fire in Egypt, and all her helpers are destroyed.
30:9 In that day shall messengers go forth from before me in ships to make the careless Ethiopians afraid; and there shall be anguish upon them, as in the day of Egypt; for, lo, it comes.
30:10 Thus says the Lord Yehovah: I will also make the multitude of Egypt to cease, by the hand of Nebuchadrezzar king of Babylon.
30:11 He and his people with him, the terrible of the nations, shall be brought in to destroy the land; and they shall draw their swords against Egypt, and fill the land with the slain.
30:12 And I will make the rivers dry, and will sell the land into the hand of evil men; and I will make the land desolate, and all that is therein, by the hand of strangers: I, Yehovah, have spoken it.
30:13 Thus says the Lord Yehovah: I will also destroy the idols, and I will cause the images to cease from Memphis; and there shall be no more a prince from the land of Egypt: and I will put a fear in the land of Egypt.
30:14 And I will make Pathros desolate, and will set a fire in Zoan, and will execute judgments upon No.
30:15 And I will pour my wrath upon Sin, the stronghold of Egypt; and I will cut off the multitude of No.
30:16 And I will set a fire in Egypt: Sin shall be in great anguish, and No shall be broken up; and Memphis shall have adversaries in the day-time.
30:17 The young men of Aven and of Pibeseth shall fall by the sword; and these cities shall go into captivity.
30:18 At Tehaphnehes also the day shall withdraw itself, when I shall break there the yokes of Egypt, and the pride of her power shall cease in her: as for her, a cloud shall cover her, and her daughters shall go into captivity.
30:19 Thus I will execute judgments upon Egypt; and they shall know that I am Yehovah.
30:20 And it came to pass in the eleventh year, in the first month, in the seventh day of the month, that the word of Yehovah came to me, saying,

[47] Put means Libya, Algeria, Tunisia, Morocco
[48] Lud means Turkey.

30:21 Son of man, I have broken the arm of Pharaoh king of Egypt; and, lo, it has not been bound up, to apply healing medicines, to put a bandage to bind it, that it be strong to hold the sword.
30:22 Therefore thus says the Lord Yehovah: Behold, I am against Pharaoh king of Egypt, and will break his arms, the strong arm, and that which was broken; and I will cause the sword to fall out of his hand.
30:23 And I will scatter the Egyptians among the nations, and will disperse them through the countries.
30:24 And I will strengthen the arms of the king of Babylon, and put my sword in his hand: but I will break the arms of Pharaoh, and he shall groan before him with the groanings of a deadly wounded man.
30:25 And I will hold up the arms of the king of Babylon; and the arms of Pharaoh shall fall down; and they shall know that I am Yehovah, when I shall put my sword into the hand of the king of Babylon, and he shall stretch it out upon the land of Egypt.
30:26 And I will scatter the Egyptians among the nations, and disperse them through the countries; and they shall know that I am Yehovah.
31:1 And it came to pass in the eleventh year, in the third month, in the first day of the month, that the word of Yehovah came to me, saying,
31:2 Son of man, say to Pharaoh king of Egypt, and to his multitude: Whom are you like in your greatness?
31:3 Behold, the Assyrian was a cedar in Lebanon with fair branches, and with a forest-like shade, and of high stature; and its top was among the thick boughs.
31:4 The waters nourished it, the deep made it to grow: the rivers thereof ran round about its plantation; and it sent out its channels to all the trees of the field.
31:5 Therefore its stature was exalted above all the trees of the field; and its boughs were multiplied, and its branches became long by reason of many waters, when it shot them forth.
31:6 All the birds of the heavens made their nests in its boughs; and under its branches did all the beasts of the field bring forth their young; and under its shadow dwelt all great nations.
31:7 Thus was it fair in its greatness, in the length of its branches; for its root was by many waters.
31:8 The cedars in the garden of God could not hide it; the fir-trees were not like its boughs, and the plane-trees were not as its branches; nor was any tree in the garden of God like to it in its beauty.
31:9 I made it fair by the multitude of its branches, so that all the trees of Eden, that were in the garden of God, envied it.
31:10 Therefore thus said the Lord Yehovah: Because you are exalted in stature, and he has set his top among the thick boughs, and his heart is lifted up in his height;
31:11 I will even deliver him into the hand of the mighty one of the nations; he shall surely deal with him; I have driven him out for his wickedness.
31:12 And strangers, the terrible of the nations, have cut him off, and have left him: upon the mountains and in all the valleys his branches are fallen, and his boughs are broken by all the watercourses of the land; and all the peoples of the earth are gone down from his shadow, and have left him.
31:13 Upon his ruin all the birds of the heavens shall dwell, and all the beasts of the field shall be upon his branches;
31:14 to the end that none of all the trees by the waters exalt themselves in their stature, neither set their top among the thick boughs, nor that their mighty ones stand up on their height, even all that drink water: for they are all delivered to death, to the nether parts of the earth, in the midst of the children of men, with them that go down to the pit.
31:15 Thus says the Lord Yehovah: In the day when he went down to Sheol I caused a mourning: I covered the deep for him, and I restrained the rivers thereof; and the great waters were stayed; and I caused Lebanon to mourn for him, and all the trees of the field fainted for him.

31:16 I made the nations to shake at the sound of his fall, when I cast him down to Sheol with them that descend into the pit; and all the trees of Eden, the choice and best of Lebanon, all that drink water, were comforted in the nether parts of the earth.
31:17 They also went down into Sheol with him to them that are slain by the sword; yes, they that were his arm, that dwelt under his shadow in the midst of the nations.
31:18 To whom are you thus like in glory and in greatness among the trees of Eden? yet shall you be brought down with the trees of Eden to the nether parts of the earth: you shall lie in the midst of the uncircumcised, with them that are slain by the sword. This is Pharaoh and all his multitude, says the Lord Yehovah.
32:1 And it came to pass in the twelfth year, in the twelfth month, in the first day of the month, that the word of Yehovah came to me, saying,
32:2 Son of man, take up a lamentation over Pharaoh king of Egypt, and say to him, You were likened to a young lion of the nations: yet are you as a monster in the seas; and you did break forth with your rivers, and troubled the waters with your feet, and fouled their rivers.
32:3 Thus says the Lord Yehovah: I will spread out my net upon you with a company of many peoples; and they shall bring you up in my net.
32:4 And I will leave you upon the land, I will cast you forth upon the open field, and will cause all the birds of the heavens to settle upon you, and I will satisfy the beasts of the whole earth with you.
32:5 And I will lay your flesh upon the mountains, and fill the valleys with your height.
32:6 I will also water with your blood the land in which you swim, even to the mountains; and the watercourses shall be full of you.
32:7 And when I shall extinguish you, I will cover the heavens, and make the stars thereof dark; I will cover the sun with a cloud, and the moon shall not give its light.
32:8 All the bright lights of heaven I will make dark over you, and set darkness upon your land, says the Lord Yehovah.
32:9 I will also vex the hearts of many peoples, when I shall bring your destruction among the nations, into the countries which you have not known.
32:10 Yes, I will make many peoples amazed at you, and their kings shall be horribly afraid for you, when I shall brandish my sword before them; and they shall tremble at every moment, every man for his own life, in the day of your fall.
32:11 For thus says the Lord Yehovah: The sword of the king of Babylon shall come upon you.
32:12 By the swords of the mighty I will cause your multitude to fall; the terrible of the nations are they all: and they shall bring to nought the pride of Egypt, and all the multitude thereof shall be destroyed.
32:13 I will destroy also all the beasts thereof from beside many waters; neither shall the foot of man trouble them any more, nor the hoofs of beasts trouble them.
32:14 Then I will make their waters clear, and cause their rivers to run like oil, says the Lord Yehovah.
32:15 When I shall make the land of Egypt desolate and waste, a land destitute of that whereof it was full, when I shall smite all them that dwell therein, then shall they know that I am Yehovah.
32:16 This is the lamentation with which they shall lament; the daughters of the nations shall lament using it; over Egypt, and over all her multitude, shall they lament with it, says the Lord Yehovah.
32:17 It came to pass also in the twelfth year, in the fifteenth day of the month, that the word of Yehovah came to me, saying,
32:18 Son of man, wail for the multitude of Egypt, and cast them down, even her, and the daughters of the famous nations, to the nether parts of the earth, with them that go down into the pit.
32:19 Whom do you pass in beauty? go down, and be you laid with the uncircumcised.
32:20 They shall fall in the midst of them that are slain by the sword: she is delivered to the sword; draw her away and all her multitudes.

32:21 The strong among the mighty shall speak to him out of the midst of Sheol with them that help him: they are gone down, they lie still, even the uncircumcised, slain by the sword.
32:22 Asshur[49] is there and all her company; her graves are round about her; all of them slain, fallen by the sword;
32:23 whose graves are set in the uttermost parts of the pit, and her company is round about her grave; all of them slain, fallen by the sword, who caused terror in the land of the living.
32:24 There is Elam[50] and all her multitude round about her grave; all of them slain, fallen by the sword, who are gone down uncircumcised into the nether parts of the earth, who caused their terror in the land of the living, and have borne their shame with them that go down to the pit.
32:25 They have set her a bed in the midst of the slain with all her multitude; her graves are round about her; all of them uncircumcised, slain by the sword; for their terror was caused in the land of the living, and they have borne their shame with them that go down to the pit: he is put in the midst of them that are slain.
32:26 There is Meshech, Tubal,[51] and all their multitude; their graves are round about them; all of them uncircumcised, slain by the sword; for they caused their terror in the land of the living.
32:27 And they shall not lie with the mighty that are fallen of the uncircumcised, that are gone down to Sheol with their weapons of war, and have laid their swords under their heads, and their iniquities are upon their bones; for they were the terror of the mighty in the land of the living.
32:28 But you shall be broken in the midst of the uncircumcised, and shall lie with them that are slain by the sword.
32:29 There is Edom,[52] her kings and all her princes, who in their might are laid with them that are slain by the sword: they shall lie with the uncircumcised, and with them that go down to the pit.
32:30 There are the princes of the north,[53] all of them, and all the Sidonians,[54] who are gone down with the slain; in the terror which they caused by their might they are put to shame; and they lie uncircumcised with them that are slain by the sword, and bear their shame with them that go down to the pit.
32:31 Pharaoh shall see them, and shall be comforted over all his multitude, even Pharaoh and all his army, slain by the sword, says the Lord Yehovah.
32:32 For I have put his terror in the land of the living; and he shall be laid in the midst of the uncircumcised, with them that are slain by the sword, even Pharaoh and all his multitude, says the Lord Yehovah.
33:1 And the word of Yehovah came to me, saying,
33:2 Son of man, speak to the children of your people, and say to them, When I bring the sword upon a land, and the people of the land take a man from among them, and set him for their watchman;
33:3 if, when he sees the sword come upon the land, he blow the trumpet, and warn the people;
33:4 then whoever hears the sound of the trumpet, and takes not warning, if the sword come, and take him away, his blood shall be upon his own head.
33:5 He heard the sound of the trumpet, and took not warning; his blood shall be upon him; whereas if he had taken warning, he would have delivered his soul.
33:6 But if the watchman see the sword come, and blow not the trumpet, and the people be not warned, and the sword come, and take any person from among them; he is taken away in his iniquity, but his blood I will require at the watchman's hand.

[49] Ashur, or Assyria, means Syria and Iraq.
[50] Elam is the country of Iran.
[51] Meshech and Tubal refer to Azerbaijan, Kazakhstan, Kyrgyzstan, Tajikistan, Uzbekistan and Turkmenistan.
[52] Edom refers to Jordan and northern Arabia
[53] Princes of the North means Turkey and its allies.
[54] Sidon refers to Lebanon.

33:7 So you, son of man, I have set you a watchman to the house of Israel; therefore hear the word at my mouth, and give them warning from me.
33:8 When I say to the wicked, O wicked man, you shall surely die, and you do not speak to warn the wicked from his way; that wicked man shall die in his iniquity, but his blood I will require at your hand.
33:9 Nevertheless, if you warn the wicked of his way to turn from it, and he turn not from his way; he shall die in his iniquity, but you have delivered your soul.
33:10 And you, son of man, say to the house of Israel: Thus ye speak, saying, Our transgressions and our sins are upon us, and we pine away in them; how then can we live?
33:11 Say to them, as I live, says the Lord Yehovah, I have no pleasure in the death of the wicked; but that the wicked turn from his way and live: turn ye, turn ye from your evil ways; for why will ye die, O house of Israel?
33:12 And you, son of man, say to the children of your people, The righteousness of the righteous shall not deliver him in the day of his transgression; and as for the wickedness of the wicked, he shall not fall thereby in the day that he turns from his wickedness; neither shall he that is righteous be able to live thereby in the day that he sins.
33:13 When I say to the righteous, that he shall surely live; if he trust to his righteousness, and commit iniquity, none of his righteous deeds shall be remembered; but in his iniquity that he has committed, therein shall he die.
33:14 Again, when I say to the wicked, You shall surely die; if he turn from his sin, and do that which is lawful and right;
33:15 if the wicked restore the pledge, give again that which he had taken by robbery, walk in the statutes of life, committing no iniquity; he shall surely live, he shall not die.
33:16 None of his sins that he has committed shall be remembered against him: he has done that which is lawful and right; he shall surely live.
33:17 Yet the children of your people say, The way of the Lord is not equal: but as for them, their way is not equal.
33:18 When the righteous turns from his righteousness, and commits iniquity, he shall even die therein.
33:19 And when the wicked turns from his wickedness, and does that which is lawful and right, he shall live thereby.
33:20 Yet ye say, The way of the Lord is not equal. O house of Israel, I will judge you every one after his ways.
33:21 And it came to pass in the twelfth year of our captivity, in the tenth month, in the fifth day of the month, that one that had escaped out of Jerusalem came to me, saying, The city is smitten.
33:22 Now the hand of Yehovah had been upon me in the evening, before he that was escaped came; and he had opened my mouth, until he came to me in the morning; and my mouth was opened, and I was no more dumb.
33:23 And the word of Yehovah came to me, saying,
33:24 Son of man, they that inhabit those waste places in the land of Israel speak, saying, abraham was one, and he inherited the land: but we are many; the land is given us for inheritance.
33:25 Wherefore say to them, Thus says the Lord Yehovah: You eat with the blood, and lift up your eyes to your idols, and shed blood: and shall ye possess the land?
33:26 You stand upon your sword, ye work abomination, and ye defile every one his neighbor's wife: and shall ye possess the land?
33:27 Thus shall you say to them, Thus says the Lord Yehovah: As I live, surely they that are in the waste places shall fall by the sword; and him that is in the open field I will give to the beasts to be devoured; and they that are in the strongholds and in the caves shall die of the pestilence.
33:28 And I will make the land a desolation and an astonishment; and the pride of her power shall cease; and the mountains of Israel shall be desolate, so that no one shall pass through.

33:29 Then shall they know that I am Yehovah, when I have made the land a desolation and an astonishment, because of all their abominations which they have committed.
33:30 And as for you, son of man, the children of your people talk of you by the walls and in the doors of the houses, and speak one to another, every one to his brother, saying, Come, I pray you, and hear what is the word that comes forth from Yehovah.
33:31 And they come to you as the people comes, and they sit before you as my people, and they hear your words, but do them not; for with their mouth they show much love, but their heart goes after their gain.
33:32 And, lo, you are to them as a very lovely song of one that has a pleasant voice, and can play well on an instrument; for they hear your words, but they do them not.
33:33 And when this comes to pass, (behold, it comes,) then shall they know that a prophet has been among them.
34:1 And the word of Yehovah came to me, saying,
34:2 Son of man, prophesy against the shepherds of Israel, prophesy, and say to them, even to the shepherds, Thus says the Lord Yehovah: Woe to the shepherds of Israel that feed only themselves! Should not the shepherds feed the sheep?
34:3 You eat the fat, and you clothe yourselves with the wool, you kill the fatlings; but the sheep you do not feed.
34:4 The diseased you have not strengthened, neither have you healed that which was sick, neither have you bound up that which was broken, neither have you brought back that which was driven away, neither have you searched for that which was lost; but with force and with rigor you have ruled over them.
34:5 And they were scattered, because there was no shepherd; and they became food to all the beasts of the field, and were scattered.
34:6 My sheep wandered through all the mountains, and upon every high hill: yes, my sheep were scattered upon all the face of the earth; and there was no one that did search or seek after them.
34:7 Therefore, ye shepherds, hear the word of Yehovah:
34:8 As I live, says the Lord Yehovah, surely forasmuch as my sheep became a prey, and my sheep became food to all the beasts of the field, because there was no shepherd, neither did my shepherds search for my sheep, but the shepherds fed themselves, and fed not my sheep;
34:9 therefore, ye shepherds, hear the word of Yehovah:
34:10 Thus says the Lord Yehovah: Behold, I am against the shepherds; and I will require my sheep at their hand, and cause them to cease from feeding the sheep; neither shall the shepherds feed themselves any more; and I will deliver my sheep from their mouth, that they may not be food for them.
34:11 For thus says the Lord Yehovah: Behold, I myself, even I, will search for my sheep, and will seek them out.
34:12 As a shepherd seeks out his flock in the day that he is among his sheep that are scattered abroad, so I will seek out my sheep; and I will deliver them out of all places whither they have been scattered in the cloudy and dark day.
34:13 And I will bring them out from the peoples, and gather them from the countries, and will bring them into their own land; and I will feed them upon the mountains of Israel, by the watercourses, and in all the inhabited places of the country.
34:14 I will feed them with good pasture; and upon the mountains of the height of Israel shall their fold be: there shall they lie down in a good fold; and on fat pasture shall they feed upon the mountains of Israel.
34:15 I myself will be the shepherd of my sheep, and I will cause them to lie down, says the Lord Yehovah.
34:16 I will seek that which was lost, and will bring back that which was driven away, and will bind up that which was broken, and will strengthen that which was sick: but the fat and the strong I will destroy; I will feed them in justice.
34:17 And as for you, O my flock, thus says the Lord Yehovah: Behold, I judge between sheep and sheep, the rams and the he-goats.

34:18 Seems it a small thing to you to have fed upon the good pasture, but ye must tread down with your feet the residue of your pasture? and to have drunk of the clear waters, but ye must foul the residue with your feet?
34:19 And as for my sheep, they eat that which ye have trodden with your feet, and they drink that which ye have fouled with your feet.
34:20 Therefore thus says the Lord Yehovah to them: Behold, I, even I, will judge between the fat sheep and the lean sheep.
34:21 Because ye thrust with side and with shoulder, and push all the diseased with your horns, till ye have scattered them abroad;
34:22 therefore I will save my flock, and they shall no more be a prey; and I will judge between sheep and sheep.
34:23 And I will set up one shepherd over them, and he shall feed them, even my servant David; he shall feed them, and he shall be their shepherd.
34:24 And I, Yehovah, will be their God, and my servant David prince among them; I, Yehovah, have spoken it.
34:25 And I will make with them a covenant of peace, and will cause evil beasts to cease out of the land; and they shall dwell securely in the wilderness, and sleep in the woods.
34:26 And I will make them and the places round about my hill a blessing; and I will cause the shower to come down in its season; there shall be showers of blessing.
34:27 And the tree of the field shall yield its fruit, and the earth shall yield its increase, and they shall be secure in their land; and they shall know that I am Yehovah, when I have broken the bars of their yoke, and have delivered them out of the hand of those that made bondmen of them.
34:28 And they shall no more be a prey to the nations, neither shall the beasts of the earth devour them; but they shall dwell securely, and no one shall make them afraid.
34:29 And I will raise up to them a plantation for renown, and they shall be no more consumed with famine in the land, neither bear the shame of the nations any more.
34:30 And they shall know that I, Yehovah, their God am with them, and that they, the house of Israel, are my people, says the Lord Yehovah.
34:31 And ye my sheep, the sheep of my pasture, are men, and I am your God, says the Lord Yehovah.
35:1 Moreover the word of Yehovah came to me, saying,
35:2 Son of man, set your face against mount Seir, and prophesy against it,
35:3 and say to it, Thus says the Lord Yehovah: Behold, I am against you, O mount Seir, and I will stretch out my hand against you, and I will make you a desolation and an astonishment.
35:4 I will lay your cities waste, and you shall be desolate; and you shall know that I am Yehovah.
35:5 Because you have had a perpetual enmity, and have given over the children of Israel to the power of the sword in the time of their calamity, in the time of the iniquity of the end;
35:6 therefore, as I live, says the Lord Yehovah, I will prepare you to blood, and blood shall pursue you: since you have not hated blood, therefore blood shall pursue you.
35:7 Thus I will make mount Seir an astonishment and a desolation; and I will cut off from it him that passes through and him that returns.
35:8 And I will fill its mountains with its slain: in your hills and in your valleys and in all your watercourses shall they fall that are slain with the sword.
35:9 I will make you a perpetual desolation, and your cities shall not be inhabited; and ye shall know that I am Yehovah.
35:10 Because you have said, These two nations and these two countries shall be mine, and we will possess it; whereas Yehovah was there:
35:11 therefore, as I live, says the Lord Yehovah, I will do according to your anger, and according to your envy which you have shown out of your hatred against them; and I will make myself known among them, when I shall judge you.

35:12 And you shall know that I, Yehovah, have heard all your revilings which you have spoken against the mountains of Israel, saying, They are laid desolate, they are given us to devour.
35:13 And ye have magnified yourselves against me with your mouth, and have multiplied your words against me: I have heard it.
35:14 Thus says the Lord Yehovah: When the whole earth rejoices, I will make you desolate.
35:15 As you did rejoice over the inheritance of the house of Israel, because it was desolate, so I will do to you: you shall be desolate, O mount Seir, and all Edom, even all of it; and they shall know that I am Yehovah.
36:1 And you, son of man, prophesy to the mountains of Israel, and say, You mountains of Israel, hear the word of Yehovah.
36:2 Thus says the Lord Yehovah: Because the enemy has said against you, aha! and, The ancient high places are ours in possession;
36:3 therefore prophesy, and say, Thus says the Lord Yehovah: Because, even because they have made you desolate, and swallowed you up on every side, that ye might be a possession to the residue of the nations, and ye are taken up in the lips of talkers, and the evil report of the people;
36:4 therefore, ye mountains of Israel, hear the word of the Lord Yehovah: Thus says the Lord Yehovah to the mountains and to the hills, to the watercourses and to the valleys, to the desolate wastes and to the cities that are forsaken, which are become a prey and derision to the residue of the nations that are round about;
36:5 therefore thus says the Lord Yehovah: Surely in the fire of my jealousy have I spoken against the residue of the nations, and against all Edom, that have appointed my land to themselves for a possession with the joy of all their heart, with despite of soul, to cast it out for a prey.
36:6 Therefore prophesy concerning the land of Israel, and say to the mountains and to the hills, to the watercourses and to the valleys, Thus says the Lord Yehovah: Behold, I have spoken in my jealousy and in my wrath, because ye have borne the shame of the nations:
36:7 therefore thus says the Lord Yehovah: I have sworn, saying, Surely the nations that are round about you, they shall bear their shame.
36:8 But ye, O mountains of Israel, ye shall shoot forth your branches, and yield your fruit to my people Israel; for they are at hand to come.
36:9 For, behold, I am for you, and I will turn into you, and ye shall be tilled and sown;
36:10 and I will multiply men upon you, all the house of Israel, even all of it; and the cities shall be inhabited, and the waste places shall be built;
36:11 and I will multiply upon you man and beast; and they shall increase and be fruitful; and I will cause you to be inhabited after your former estate, and will do better to you than at your beginnings: and ye shall know that I am Yehovah.
36:12 Yes, I will cause men to walk upon you, even my people Israel; and they shall possess you, and you shall be their inheritance, and you shall no more from now on bereave them of children.
36:13 Thus says the Lord Yehovah: Because they say to you, You land are a devourer of men, and have been a bereaver of your nation;
36:14 therefore you shall devour men no more, neither bereave your nation any more, says the Lord Yehovah;
36:15 neither will I let you hear any more the shame of the nations, neither shall you bear the reproach of the peoples any more, neither shall you cause your nation to stumble any more, says the Lord Yehovah.
36:16 Moreover the word of Yehovah came to me, saying,
36:17 Son of man, when the house of Israel dwelt in their own land, they defiled it by their way and by their doings: their way before me was as the uncleanness of a woman in her impurity.
36:18 Wherefore I poured out my wrath upon them for the blood which they had poured out upon the land, and because they had defiled it with their idols;
36:19 and I scattered them among the nations, and they were dispersed through the countries: according to their way and according to their doings I judged them.

36:20 And when they came to the nations, whither they went, they profaned my holy name; in that men said of them, These are the people of Yehovah, and are gone forth out of his land.
36:21 But I had regard for my holy name, which the house of Israel had profaned among the nations, whither they went.
36:22 Therefore say to the house of Israel, Thus says the Lord Yehovah: I do not this for your sake, O house of Israel, but for my holy name, which ye have profaned among the nations, whither ye went.
36:23 And I will sanctify my great name, which has been profaned among the nations, which ye have profaned in the midst of them; and the nations shall know that I am Yehovah, says the Lord Yehovah, when I shall be sanctified in you before their eyes.
36:24 For I will take you from among the nations, and gather you out of all the countries, and will bring you into your own land.
36:25 And I will sprinkle clean water upon you, and ye shall be clean: from all your filthiness, and from all your idols, I will cleanse you.
36:26 A new heart also I will give you, and a new spirit I will put within you; and I will take away the stony heart out of your flesh, and I will give you a heart of flesh.
36:27 And I will put my Spirit within you, and cause you to walk in my statutes, and ye shall keep my ordinances, and do them.
36:28 And ye shall dwell in the land that I gave to your fathers; and ye shall be my people, and I will be your God.
36:29 And I will save you from all your uncleannesses: and I will call for the grain, and will multiply it, and lay no famine upon you.
36:30 And I will multiply the fruit of the tree, and the increase of the field, that ye may receive no more the reproach of famine among the nations.
36:31 Then shall ye remember your evil ways, and your doings that were not good; and ye shall loathe yourselves in your own sight for your iniquities and for your abominations.
36:32 Nor for your sake do I this, says the Lord Yehovah, be it known to you: be ashamed and confounded for your ways, O house of Israel.
36:33 Thus says the Lord Yehovah: In the day that I cleanse you from all your iniquities, I will cause the cities to be inhabited, and the waste places shall be built.
36:34 And the land that was desolate shall be tilled, whereas it was a desolation in the sight of all that passed by.
36:35 And they shall say, This land that was desolate is become like the garden of Eden; and the waste and desolate and ruined cities are fortified and inhabited.
36:36 Then the nations that are left round about you shall know that I, Yehovah, have built the ruined places, and planted that which was desolate: I, Yehovah, have spoken it, and I will do it.
36:37 Thus says the Lord Yehovah: For this, moreover, I will be inquired of by the house of Israel, to do it for them: I will increase them with men like a flock.
36:38 As the flock for sacrifice, as the flock of Jerusalem in her appointed feasts, so shall the waste cities be filled with flocks of men; and they shall know that I am Yehovah.
37:1 The hand of Yehovah was upon me, and he brought me out in the Spirit of Yehovah, and set me down in the midst of the valley; and it was full of bones.
37:2 And he caused me to pass by them round about: and, behold, there were very many in the open valley; and, lo, they were very dry.
37:3 And he said to me, Son of man, can these bones live? And I answered, O Lord Yehovah, you know.
37:4 Again he said to me, Prophesy over these bones, and say to them, O ye dry bones, hear the word of Yehovah.
37:5 Thus says the Lord Yehovah to these bones: Behold, I will cause breath to enter into you, and ye shall live.
37:6 And I will lay sinews upon you, and will bring up flesh upon you, and cover you with skin, and put breath in you, and ye shall live; and ye shall know that I am Yehovah.

37:7 So I prophesied as I was commanded: and as I prophesied, there was a noise, and, behold, an earthquake; and the bones came together, bone to its bone.
37:8 And I beheld, and, lo, there were sinews upon them, and flesh came up, and skin covered them above; but there was no breath in them.
37:9 Then said he to me, Prophesy to the wind, prophesy, son of man, and say to the wind, Thus says the Lord Yehovah: Come from the four winds, O breath, and breathe upon these slain, that they may live.
37:10 So I prophesied as he commanded me, and the breath came into them, and they lived, and stood up upon their feet, an exceedingly great army.
37:11 Then he said to me, Son of man, these bones are the whole house of Israel: behold, they say, Our bones are dried up, and our hope is lost; we are clean cut off.
37:12 Therefore prophesy, and say to them, Thus says the Lord Yehovah: Behold, I will open your graves, and cause you to come up out of your graves, O my people; and I will bring you into the land of Israel.
37:13 And ye shall know that I am Yehovah, when I have opened your graves, and caused you to come up out of your graves, O my people.
37:14 And I will put my Spirit in you, and ye shall live, and I will place you in your own land: and ye shall know that I, Yehovah, have spoken it and performed it, says Yehovah.
37:15 The word of Yehovah came again to me, saying,
37:16 And you, son of man, take you one stick, and write upon it, For Judah, and for the children of Israel his companions: then take another stick, and write upon it, For Joseph, the stick of Ephraim, and for all the house of Israel his companions:
37:17 and join them for you one to another into one stick, that they may become one in your hand.
37:18 And when the children of your people shall speak to you, saying, Will you not show us what you mean by these?
37:19 say to them, Thus says the Lord Yehovah: Behold, I will take the stick of Joseph, which is in the hand of Ephraim, and the tribes of Israel his companions; and I will put them with it, even with the stick of Judah, and make them one stick, and they shall be one in my hand.
37:20 And the sticks whereon you write shall be in your hand before their eyes.
37:21 And say to them, Thus says the Lord Yehovah: Behold, I will take the children of Israel from among the nations, whither they are gone, and will gather them on every side, and bring them into their own land:
37:22 and I will make them one nation in the land, upon the mountains of Israel; and one king shall be king to them all; and they shall be no more two nations, neither shall they be divided into two kingdoms any more at all;
37:23 neither shall they defile themselves any more with their idols, nor with their detestable things, nor with any of their transgressions; but I will save them out of all their dwelling-places, in which they have sinned, and will cleanse them: so shall they be my people, and I will be their God.
37:24 And my servant David shall be king over them; and they all shall have one shepherd: they shall also walk in my ordinances, and observe my statutes, and do them.
37:25 And they shall dwell in the land that I have given to Jacob my servant, in which your fathers dwelt; and they shall dwell therein, they, and their children, and their children's children, for ever: and David my servant shall be their prince for ever.
37:26 Moreover I will make a covenant of peace with them; it shall be an everlasting covenant with them; and I will place them, and multiply them, and will set my sanctuary in the midst of them for evermore.
37:27 My tabernacle also shall be with them; and I will be their God, and they shall be my people.
37:28 And the nations shall know that I am Yehovah that sanctifies Israel, when my sanctuary shall be in the midst of them for evermore.
38:1 And the word of Yehovah came to me, saying,

38:2 Son of man, set your face toward Gog,[55] of the land of Magog, the prince of Rosh, Meshech, and Tubal, and prophesy against him,
38:3 and say, Thus says the Lord Yehovah: Behold, I am against you, O Gog, prince of Rosh, Meshech, and Tubal:
38:4 and I will turn you about, and put hooks into your jaws, and I will bring you forth, and all your army, horses and horsemen, all of them clothed in full armor, a great company with buckler and shield, all of them handling swords;
38:5 Persia, Cush, and Put[56] with them, all of them with shield and helmet;
38:6 Gomer,[57] and all his hordes; the house of Togarmah in the uttermost parts of the north, and all his hordes; even many peoples with you.
38:7 Be you prepared, yes, prepare yourself, you, and all your companies that are assembled to you, and be you a guard to them.
38:8 After many days you shall be visited: in the latter years you shall come into the land that is brought back from the sword, that is gathered out of many peoples, upon the mountains of Israel, which have been a continual waste; but it is brought forth out of the peoples, and they shall dwell securely, all of them.
38:9 And you shall ascend, you shall come like a storm, you shall be like a cloud to cover the land, you, and all your hordes, and many peoples with you.
38:10 Thus says the Lord Yehovah: It shall come to pass in that day, that things shall come into your mind, and you shall devise an evil device:
38:11 and you shall say, I will go up to the land of unwalled villages; I will go to them that are at rest, that dwell securely, all of them dwelling without walls, and having neither bars nor gates;
38:12 to take the spoil and to take the prey; to turn your hand against the waste places that are now inhabited, and against the people that are gathered out of the nations, that have gotten cattle and goods, that dwell in the middle of the earth.
38:13 Sheba, and Dedan, and the merchants of Tarshish, with all the young lions thereof, shall say to you, are you come to take the spoil? have you assembled your company to take the prey? to carry away silver and gold, to take away cattle and goods, to take great spoil?
38:14 Therefore, son of man, prophesy, and say to Gog, Thus says the Lord Yehovah: In that day when my people Israel dwells securely, shall you not know it?
38:15 And you shall come from your place out of the uttermost parts of the north, you, and many peoples with you, all of them riding upon horses, a great company and a mighty army;
38:16 and you shall come up against my people Israel, as a cloud to cover the land: it shall come to pass in the latter days, that I will bring you against my land, that the nations may know me, when I shall be sanctified in you, O Gog, before their eyes.
38:17 Thus says the Lord Yehovah: Are you he of whom I spoke in old time by my servants the prophets of Israel, that prophesied in those days for many years that I would bring you against them?
38:18 And it shall come to pass in that day, when Gog shall come against the land of Israel, says the Lord Yehovah, that my wrath shall come up into my nostrils.
38:19 For in my jealousy and in the fire of my wrath have I spoken, Surely in that day there shall be a great shaking in the land of Israel;
38:20 so that the fishes of the sea, and the birds of the heavens, and the beasts of the field, and all creeping things that creep upon the earth, and all the men that are upon the face of the earth, shall shake at my presence, and the mountains shall be thrown down, and the steep places shall fall, and every wall shall fall to the ground.
38:21 And I will call for a sword against him to all my mountains, says the Lord Yehovah: every man's sword shall be against his brother.
38:22 And with pestilence and with blood I will enter into judgment with him; and I will rain upon him, and upon his hordes, and upon the many peoples that are with him, an overflowing shower, and great hailstones, fire, and brimstone.

[55] Gog, Magog, Rosh, Meshech, Tubal, are all places in Turkey.
[56] Cush refers to Sudan, Somalia, and Put refers to Libya, Algeria, Morocco, Tunisia.
[57] Gomer and Togarmah are places in Turkey, or allied with Turkey; possibly as far east and north as the former Soviet Republics that are Islamic such as Turkmenistan, etc.

38:23 And I will magnify myself, and sanctify myself, and I will make myself known in the eyes of many nations; and they shall know that I am Yehovah.
39:1 And you, son of man, prophesy against Gog, and say, Thus says the Lord Yehovah: Behold, I am against you, O Gog, prince of Rosh, Meshech, and Tubal:
39:2 and I will turn you about, and will lead you on, and will cause you to come up from the uttermost parts of the north; and I will bring you upon the mountains of Israel;
39:3 and I will smite your bow out of your left hand, and will cause your arrows to fall out of your right hand.
39:4 You shall fall upon the mountains of Israel, you, and all your hordes, and the peoples that are with you: I will give you to the ravenous birds of every sort, and to the beasts of the field to be devoured.
39:5 You shall fall upon the open field; for I have spoken it, says the Lord Yehovah.
39:6 And I will send a fire on Magog, and on them that dwell securely in the isles; and they shall know that I am Yehovah.
39:7 And my holy name I will make known in the midst of my people Israel; neither will I allow my holy name to be profaned any more: and the nations shall know that I am Yehovah, the Holy One in Israel.
39:8 Behold, it comes, and it shall be done, says the Lord Yehovah; this is the day whereof I have spoken.
39:9 And they that dwell in the cities of Israel shall go forth, and shall make fires of the weapons and burn them, both the shields and the bucklers, the bows and the arrows, and the handstaves, and the spears, and they shall make fires of them seven years;
39:10 so that they shall take no wood out of the field, neither cut down any out of the forests; for they shall make fires of the weapons; and they shall plunder those that plundered them, and rob those that robbed them, says the Lord Yehovah.
39:11 And it shall come to pass in that day, that I will give to Gog a place for burial in Israel, the valley of them that pass through on the east of the sea; and it shall stop them that pass through: and there shall they bury Gog and all his multitude; and they shall call it The valley of Hamon-gog.
39:12 And seven months shall the house of Israel be burying them, that they may cleanse the land.
39:13 Yes, all the people of the land shall bury them; and it shall be to them a renown in the day that I shall be glorified, says the Lord Yehovah.
39:14 And they shall set apart men of continual employment, that shall pass through the land, and, with them that pass through, those that bury them that remain upon the face of the land, to cleanse it: after the end of seven months shall they search.
39:15 And they that pass through the land shall pass through; and when any one sees a man's bone, then shall he set up a sign by it, till the buriers have buried it in the valley of Hamon-gog.
39:16 And Hamonah shall also be the name of a city. Thus shall they cleanse the land.
39:17 And you, son of man, thus says the Lord Yehovah: Speak to the birds of every sort, and to every beast of the field, assemble yourselves, and come; gather yourselves on every side to my sacrifice that I do sacrifice for you, even a great sacrifice upon the mountains of Israel, that ye may eat flesh and drink blood.
39:18 You shall eat the flesh of the mighty, and drink the blood of the princes of the earth, of rams, of lambs, and of goats, of bullocks, all of them fatlings of Bashan.
39:19 And ye shall eat fat till ye be full, and drink blood till ye be drunken, of my sacrifice which I have sacrificed for you.
39:20 And ye shall be filled at my table with horses and chariots, with mighty men, and with all men of war, says the Lord Yehovah.
39:21 And I will set my glory among the nations; and all the nations shall see my judgment that I have executed, and my hand that I have laid upon them.
39:22 So the house of Israel shall know that I am Yehovah their God, from that day and forward.

39:23 And the nations shall know that the house of Israel went into captivity for their iniquity; because they trespassed against me, and I hid my face from them: so I gave them into the hand of their adversaries, and they fell all of them by the sword.
39:24 According to their uncleanness and according to their transgressions did I to them; and I hid my face from them.
39:25 Therefore thus says the Lord Yehovah: Now I will bring back the captivity of Jacob, and have mercy upon the whole house of Israel; and I will be jealous for my holy name.
39:26 And they shall bear their shame, and all their trespasses whereby they have trespassed against me, when they shall dwell securely in their land, and no one shall make them afraid;
39:27 when I have brought them back from the peoples, and gathered them out of their enemies' lands, and am sanctified in them in the sight of many nations.
39:28 And they shall know that I am Yehovah their God, in that I caused them to go into captivity among the nations, and have gathered them to their own land; and I will leave none of them any more there;
39:29 neither will I hide my face any more from them; for I have poured out my Spirit upon the house of Israel, says the Lord Yehovah.
40:1 In the five and twentieth year of our captivity, in the beginning of the year, in the tenth day of the month, in the fourteenth year after that the city was smitten, in the selfsame day, the hand of Yehovah was upon me, and he brought me there.
40:2 In the visions of God brought he me into the land of Israel, and set me down upon a very high mountain, whereon was as it were the frame of a city on the south.
40:3 And he brought me there; and, behold, there was a man, whose appearance was like the appearance of brass, with a line of flax in his hand, and a measuring reed; and he stood in the gate.
40:4 And the man said to me, Son of man, behold with your eyes, and hear with your ears, and set your heart upon all that I shall show you; for, to the intent that I may show them to you, are you brought here: declare all that you see to the house of Israel.
40:5 And, behold, a wall on the outside of the house round about, and in the man's hand a measuring reed six cubits long, of a cubit and a handbreadth each: so he measured the thickness of the building, one reed; and the height, one reed.
40:6 Then came he to the gate which looks toward the east, and went up the steps thereof: and he measured the threshold of the gate, one reed broad; and the other threshold, one reed broad.
40:7 And every lodge was one reed long, and one reed broad; and the space between the lodges was five cubits; and the threshold of the gate by the porch of the gate toward the house was one reed.
40:8 He measured also the porch of the gate toward the house, one reed.
40:9 Then measured he the porch of the gate, eight cubits; and the posts thereof, two cubits; and the porch of the gate was toward the house.
40:10 And the lodges of the gate eastward were three on this side, and three on that side; they three were of one measure: and the posts had one measure on this side and on that side.
40:11 And he measured the breadth of the opening of the gate, ten cubits; and the length of the gate, thirteen cubits;
40:12 and a border before the lodges, one cubit on this side, and a border, one cubit on that side; and the lodges, six cubits on this side, and six cubits on that side.
40:13 And he measured the gate from the roof of the one lodge to the roof of the other, a breadth of five and twenty cubits; door against door.
40:14 He made also posts, sixty cubits; and the court reached to the posts, round about the gate.
40:15 And from the forefront of the gate at the entrance to the forefront of the inner porch of the gate were fifty cubits.
40:16 And there were closed windows to the lodges, and to their posts within the gate round about, and likewise to the arches; and windows were round about inward; and upon each post were palm-trees.

40:17 Then brought he me into the outer court; and, lo, there were chambers and a pavement, made for the court round about: thirty chambers were upon the pavement.
40:18 And the pavement was by the side of the gates, answerable to the length of the gates, even the lower pavement.
40:19 Then he measured the breadth from the forefront of the lower gate to the forefront of the inner court without, a hundred cubits, both on the east and on the north.
40:20 And the gate of the outer court whose prospect is toward the north, he measured the length thereof and the breadth thereof.
40:21 And the lodges thereof were three on this side and three on that side; and the posts thereof and the arches thereof were after the measure of the first gate: the length thereof was fifty cubits, and the breadth five and twenty cubits.
40:22 And the windows thereof, and the arches thereof, and the palm-trees thereof, were after the measure of the gate whose prospect is toward the east; and they went up to it by seven steps; and the arches thereof were before them.
40:23 And there was a gate to the inner court over against the other gate, both on the north and on the east; and he measured from gate to gate a hundred cubits.
40:24 And he led me toward the south; and, behold, a gate toward the south: and he measured the posts thereof and the arches thereof according to these measures.
40:25 And there were windows in it and in the arches thereof round about, like those windows: the length was fifty cubits, and the breadth five and twenty cubits.
40:26 And there were seven steps to go up to it, and the arches thereof were before them; and it had palm-trees, one on this side, and another on that side, upon the posts thereof.
40:27 And there was a gate to the inner court toward the south: and he measured from gate to gate toward the south a hundred cubits.
40:28 Then he brought me to the inner court by the south gate: and he measured the south gate according to these measures;
40:29 and the lodges thereof, and the posts thereof, and the arches thereof, according to these measures: and there were windows in it and in the arches thereof round about; it was fifty cubits long, and five and twenty cubits broad.
40:30 And there were arches round about, five and twenty cubits long, and five cubits broad.
40:31 And the arches thereof were toward the outer court; and palm-trees were upon the posts thereof: and the ascent to it had eight steps.
40:32 And he brought me into the inner court toward the east: and he measured the gate according to these measures;
40:33 and the lodges thereof, and the posts thereof, and the arches thereof, according to these measures: and there were windows therein and in the arches thereof round about; it was fifty cubits long, and five and twenty cubits broad.
40:34 And the arches thereof were toward the outer court; and palm-trees were upon the posts thereof, on this side, and on that side: and the ascent to it had eight steps.
40:35 And he brought me to the north gate: and he measured it according to these measures;
40:36 the lodges thereof, the posts thereof, and the arches thereof: and there were windows therein round about; the length was fifty cubits, and the breadth five and twenty cubits.
40:37 And the posts thereof were toward the outer court; and palm-trees were upon the posts thereof, on this side, and on that side: and the ascent to it had eight steps.
40:38 And a chamber with the door thereof was by the posts at the gates; there they washed the burnt offering.
40:39 And in the porch of the gate were two tables on this side, and two tables on that side, to slay upon it the burnt offering and the sin offering and the trespass offering.
40:40 And on the one side without, as one goes up to the entry of the gate toward the north, were two tables; and on the other side, which belonged to the porch of the gate, were two tables.

40:41 Four tables were on this side, and four tables on that side, by the side of the gate; eight tables, whereupon they slew the sacrifices.
40:42 And there were four tables for the burnt offering, of hewn stone, a cubit and a half long, and a cubit and a half broad, and one cubit high; whereupon they laid the instruments with which they slew the burnt offering and the sacrifice.
40:43 And the hooks, a handbreadth long, were fastened within round about: and upon the tables was the flesh of the oblation.
40:44 And without the inner gate were chambers for the singers in the inner court, which was at the side of the north gate; and their prospect was toward the south; one at the side of the east gate having the prospect toward the north.
40:45 And he said to me, This chamber, whose prospect is toward the south, is for the priests, the keepers of the charge of the house;
40:46 and the chamber whose prospect is toward the north is for the priests, the keepers of the charge of the altar: these are the sons of Zadok, who from among the sons of Levi come near to Yehovah to minister to him.
40:47 And he measured the court, a hundred cubits long, and a hundred cubits broad, foursquare; and the altar was before the house.
40:48 Then he brought me to the porch of the house, and measured each post of the porch, five cubits on this side, and five cubits on that side: and the breadth of the gate was three cubits on this side, and three cubits on that side.
40:49 The length of the porch was twenty cubits, and the breadth eleven cubits; even by the steps whereby they went up to it: and there were pillars by the posts, one on this side, and another on that side.
41:1 And he brought me to the temple, and measured the posts, six cubits broad on the one side, and six cubits broad on the other side, which was the breadth of the tabernacle.
41:2 And the breadth of the entrance was ten cubits; and the sides of the entrance were five cubits on the one side, and five cubits on the other side: and he measured the length thereof, forty cubits, and the breadth, twenty cubits.
41:3 Then went he inward, and measured each post of the entrance, two cubits; and the entrance, six cubits; and the breadth of the entrance, seven cubits.
41:4 And he measured the length thereof, twenty cubits, and the breadth, twenty cubits, before the temple: and he said to me, This is the most holy place.
41:5 Then he measured the wall of the house, six cubits; and the breadth of every side-chamber, four cubits, round about the house on every side.
41:6 And the side-chambers were in three stories, one over another, and thirty in order; and they entered into the wall which belonged to the house for the side-chambers round about, that they might have hold therein, and not have hold in the wall of the house.
41:7 And the side-chambers were broader as they encompassed the house higher and higher; for the encompassing of the house went higher and higher round about the house: therefore the breadth of the house continued upward; and so one went up from the lowest chamber to the highest by the middle chamber.
41:8 I saw also that the house had a raised basement round about: the foundations of the side-chambers were a full reed of six great cubits.
41:9 The thickness of the wall, which was for the side-chambers, on the outside, was five cubits: and that which was left was the place of the side-chambers that belonged to the house.
41:10 And between the chambers was a breadth of twenty cubits round about the house on every side.
41:11 And the doors of the side-chambers were toward the place that was left, one door toward the north, and another door toward the south: and the breadth of the place that was left was five cubits round about.
41:12 And the building that was before the separate place at the side toward the west was seventy cubits broad; and the wall of the building was five cubits thick round about, and the length thereof ninety cubits.
41:13 So he measured the house, a hundred cubits long; and the separate place, and the building, with the walls thereof, a hundred cubits long;

41:14 also the breadth of the face of the house, and of the separate place toward the east, a hundred cubits.
41:15 And he measured the length of the building before the separate place which was at the back thereof, and the galleries thereof on the one side and on the other side, a hundred cubits; and the inner temple, and the porches of the court;
41:16 the thresholds, and the closed windows, and the galleries round about on their three stories, over against the threshold, ceiled with wood round about, and from the ground up to the windows, (now the windows were covered),
41:17 to the space above the door, even to the inner house, and without, and by all the wall round about within and without, by measure.
41:18 And it was made with cherubim and palm-trees; and a palm-tree was between cherub and cherub, and every cherub had two faces;
41:19 so that there was the face of a man toward the palm-tree on the one side, and the face of a young lion toward the palm-tree on the other side. thus was it made through all the house round about:
41:20 from the ground to above the door were cherubim and palm-trees made: thus was the wall of the temple.
41:21 As for the temple, the door-posts were squared; and as for the face of the sanctuary, the appearance of it was as the appearance of the temple.
41:22 The altar was of wood, three cubits high, and the length thereof two cubits; and the corners thereof, and the length thereof, and the walls thereof, were of wood: and he said to me, This is the table that is before Yehovah.
41:23 And the temple and the sanctuary had two doors.
41:24 And the doors had two leaves apiece, two turning leaves: two leaves for the one door, and two leaves for the other.
41:25 And there were made on them, on the doors of the temple, cherubim and palm-trees, like as were made upon the walls; and there was a threshold of wood upon the face of the porch without.
41:26 And there were closed windows and palm-trees on the one side and on the other side, on the sides of the porch: thus were the side-chambers of the house, and the thresholds.
42:1 Then he brought me forth into the outer court, the way toward the north: and he brought me into the chamber that was over against the separate place, and which was over against the building toward the north.
42:2 Before the length of a hundred cubits was the north door, and the breadth was fifty cubits.
42:3 Over against the twenty cubits which belonged to the inner court, and over against the pavement which belonged to the outer court, was gallery against gallery in the third story.
42:4 And before the chambers was a walk of ten cubits' breadth inward, a way of one cubit; and their doors were toward the north.
42:5 Now the upper chambers were shorter; for the galleries took away from these, more than from the lower and the middlemost, in the building.
42:6 For they were in three stories, and they had not pillars as the pillars of the courts: therefore the uppermost was straitened more than the lowest and the middlemost from the ground.
42:7 And the wall that was without by the side of the chambers, toward the outer court before the chambers, the length thereof was fifty cubits.
42:8 For the length of the chambers that were in the outer court was fifty cubits: and, lo, before the temple were a hundred cubits.
42:9 And from under these chambers was the entry on the east side, as one goes into them from the outer court.
42:10 In the thickness of the wall of the court toward the east, before the separate place, and before the building, there were chambers.
42:11 And the way before them was like the appearance of the way of the chambers which were toward the north; according to their length so was their breadth: and all their egresses were both according to their fashions, and according to their doors.

42:12 And according to the doors of the chambers that were toward the south was a door at the head of the way, even the way directly before the wall toward the east, as one enters into them.
42:13 Then said he to me, The north chambers and the south chambers, which are before the separate place, they are the holy chambers, where the priests that are near to Yehovah shall eat the most holy things: there shall they lay the most holy things, and the meal offering, and the sin offering, and the trespass offering; for the place is holy.
42:14 When the priests enter in, then shall they not go out of the holy place into the outer court, but there they shall lay their garments in which they minister; for they are holy: and they shall put on other garments, and shall approach to that which pertains to the people.
42:15 Now when he had made an end of measuring the inner house, he brought me forth by the way of the gate whose prospect is toward the east, and measured it round about.
42:16 He measured on the east side with the measuring reed five hundred reeds, with the measuring reed round about.
42:17 He measured on the north side five hundred reeds with the measuring reed round about.
42:18 He measured on the south side five hundred reeds with the measuring reed.
42:19 He turned about to the west side, and measured five hundred reeds with the measuring reed.
42:20 He measured it on the four sides: it had a wall round about, the length five hundred, and the breadth five hundred, to make a separation between that which was holy and that which was common.
43:1 Afterward he brought me to the gate, even the gate that looks toward the east.
43:2 And, behold, the glory of the God of Israel came from the way of the east: and his voice was like the sound of many waters; and the earth shined with his glory.
43:3 And it was according to the appearance of the vision which I saw, even according to the vision that I saw when I came to destroy the city; and the visions were like the vision that I saw by the river Chebar; and I fell upon my face.
43:4 And the glory of Yehovah came into the house by the way of the gate whose prospect is toward the east.
43:5 And the Spirit took me up, and brought me into the inner court; and, behold, the glory of Yehovah filled the house.
43:6 And I heard one speaking to me out of the house; and a man stood by me.
43:7 And he said to me, Son of man, this is the place of my throne, and the place of the soles of my feet, where I will dwell in the midst of the children of Israel for ever. And the house of Israel shall no more defile my holy name, neither they, nor their kings, by their whoredom, and by the dead bodies of their kings in their high places;
43:8 in their setting of their threshold by my threshold, and their door-post beside my door-post, and there was but the wall between me and them; and they have defiled my holy name by their abominations which they have committed: therefore I have consumed them in my anger.
43:9 Now let them put away their whoredom, and the dead bodies of their kings, far from me; and I will dwell in the midst of them for ever.
43:10 You, son of man, show the house to the house of Israel, that they may be ashamed of their iniquities; and let them measure the pattern.
43:11 And if they be ashamed of all that they have done, make known to them the form of the house, and the fashion thereof, and the egresses thereof, and the entrances thereof, and all the forms thereof, and all the ordinances thereof, and all the forms thereof, and all the laws thereof; and write it in their sight; that they may keep the whole form thereof, and all the ordinances thereof, and do them.
43:12 This is the law of the house: upon the top of the mountain the whole limit thereof round about shall be most holy. Behold, this is the law of the house.
43:13 And these are the measures of the altar by cubits (the cubit is a cubit and a handbreadth): the bottom shall be a cubit, and the breadth a cubit, and the border thereof by the edge thereof round about a span; and this shall be the base of the altar.

43:14 And from the bottom upon the ground to the lower ledge shall be two cubits, and the breadth one cubit; and from the lesser ledge to the greater ledge shall be four cubits, and the breadth a cubit.
43:15 And the upper altar shall be four cubits; and from the altar hearth and upward there shall be four horns.
43:16 And the altar hearth shall be twelve cubits long by twelve broad, square in the four sides thereof.
43:17 And the ledge shall be fourteen cubits long by fourteen broad in the four sides thereof; and the border about it shall be half a cubit; and the bottom thereof shall be a cubit round about; and the steps thereof shall look toward the east.
43:18 And he said to me, Son of man, thus says the Lord Yehovah: These are the ordinances of the altar in the day when they shall make it, to offer burnt offerings upon it, and to sprinkle blood upon it.
43:19 You shall give to the priests the Levites that are of the seed of Zadok, who are near to me, to minister to me, says the Lord Yehovah, a young bullock for a sin offering.
43:20 And you shall take of the blood thereof, and put it on the four horns of it, and on the four corners of the ledge, and upon the border round about: thus shall you cleanse it and make atonement for it.
43:21 You shall also take the bullock of the sin offering, and it shall be burnt in the appointed place of the house, without the sanctuary.
43:22 And on the second day you shall offer a he-goat without blemish for a sin offering; and they shall cleanse the altar, as they did cleanse it with the bullock.
43:23 When you have made an end of cleansing it, you shall offer a young bullock without blemish, and a ram out of the flock without blemish.
43:24 And you shall bring them near before Yehovah, and the priests shall cast salt upon them, and they shall offer them up for a burnt offering to Yehovah.
43:25 Seven days shall you prepare every day a goat for a sin offering: they shall also prepare a young bullock, and a ram out of the flock, without blemish.
43:26 Seven days shall they make atonement for the altar and purify it; so shall they consecrate it.
43:27 And when they have accomplished the days, it shall be that upon the eighth day, and forward, the priests shall make your burnt offerings upon the altar, and your peace offerings; and I will accept you, says the Lord Yehovah.
44:1 Then he brought me back by the way of the outer gate of the sanctuary, which looks toward the east; and it was shut.
44:2 And Yehovah said to me, This gate shall be shut; it shall not be opened, neither shall any man enter in by it; for Yehovah, the God of Israel, has entered in by it; therefore it shall be shut.
44:3 As for the prince, he shall sit therein as prince to eat bread before Yehovah; he shall enter by the way of the porch of the gate, and shall go out by the way of the same.
44:4 Then he brought me by the way of the north gate before the house; and I looked, and, behold, the glory of Yehovah filled the house of Yehovah: and I fell upon my face.
44:5 And Yehovah said to me, Son of man, mark well, and behold with your eyes, and hear with your ears all that I say to you concerning all the ordinances of the house of Yehovah, and all the laws thereof; and mark well the entrance of the house, with every egress of the sanctuary.
44:6 And you shall say to the rebellious, even to the house of Israel, Thus says the Lord Yehovah: O ye house of Israel, let it suffice you of all your abominations,
44:7 in that ye have brought in foreigners, uncircumcised in heart and uncircumcised in flesh, to be in my sanctuary, to profane it, even my house, when ye offer my bread, the fat and the blood, and they have broken my covenant, to add to all your abominations.
44:8 And ye have not kept the charge of my holy things; but ye have set keepers of my charge in my sanctuary for yourselves.

44:9 Thus says the Lord Yehovah, No foreigner, uncircumcised in heart and uncircumcised in flesh, shall enter into my sanctuary, of any foreigners that are among the children of Israel.
44:10 But the Levites that went far from me, when Israel went astray, that went astray from me after their idols, they shall bear their iniquity.
44:11 Yet they shall be ministers in my sanctuary, having oversight at the gates of the house, and ministering in the house: they shall slay the burnt offering and the sacrifice for the people, and they shall stand before them to minister to them.
44:12 Because they ministered to them before their idols, and became a stumblingblock of iniquity to the house of Israel; therefore have I lifted up my hand against them, says the Lord Yehovah, and they shall bear their iniquity.
44:13 And they shall not come near to me, to execute the office of priest to me, nor to come near to any of my holy things, to the things that are most holy; but they shall bear their shame, and their abominations which they have committed.
44:14 Yet I will make them keepers of the charge of the house, for all the service thereof, and for all that shall be done therein.
44:15 But the priests the Levites, the sons of Zadok, that kept the charge of my sanctuary when the children of Israel went astray from me, they shall come near to me to minister to me; and they shall stand before me to offer to me the fat and the blood, says the Lord Yehovah:
44:16 they shall enter into my sanctuary, and they shall come near to my table, to minister to me, and they shall keep my charge.
44:17 And it shall be that, when they enter in at the gates of the inner court, they shall be clothed with linen garments; and no wool shall come upon them, while they minister in the gates of the inner court, and within.
44:18 They shall have linen tires upon their heads, and shall have linen breeches upon their loins; they shall not gird themselves with anything that causes sweat.
44:19 And when they go forth into the outer court, even into the outer court to the people, they shall put off their garments in which they minister, and lay them in the holy chambers; and they shall put on other garments, that they sanctify not the people with their garments.
44:20 Neither shall they shave their heads, nor allow their locks to grow long; they shall only cut off the hair of their heads.
44:21 Neither shall any of the priests drink wine, when they enter into the inner court.
44:22 Neither shall they take for their wives a widow, nor her that is put away; but they shall take virgins of the seed of the house of Israel, or a widow that is the widow of a priest.
44:23 And they shall teach my people the difference between the holy and the common, and cause them to discern between the unclean and the clean.
44:24 And in a controversy they shall stand to judge; according to my ordinances shall they judge it: and they shall keep my laws and my statutes in all my appointed feasts; and they shall hallow my sabbaths.
44:25 And they shall go in to no dead person to defile themselves; but for father, or for mother, or for son, or for daughter, for brother, or for sister that has had no husband, they may defile themselves.
44:26 And after he is cleansed, they shall reckon to him seven days.
44:27 And in the day that he goes into the sanctuary, into the inner court, to minister in the sanctuary, he shall offer his sin offering, says the Lord Yehovah.
44:28 And they shall have an inheritance: I am their inheritance; and ye shall give them no possession in Israel; I am their possession.
44:29 They shall eat the meal offering, and the sin offering, and the trespass offering; and every devoted thing in Israel shall be theirs.
44:30 And the first part of every harvest, and of every kind of contribution, of all your offerings, shall be for the priest: ye shall also give to the priests the first of your dough, to cause a blessing to rest on your house.
44:31 The priests shall not eat of anything that dies of itself, or is torn, whether it be bird or beast.

45:1 Moreover, when ye shall divide by lot the land for inheritance, ye shall offer an oblation to Yehovah, a holy portion of the land; the length shall be the length of five and twenty thousand reeds, and the breadth shall be ten thousand: it shall be holy in all the border thereof round about.
45:2 Of this there shall be for the holy place five hundred in length by five hundred in breadth, square round about; and fifty cubits for the suburbs thereof round about.
45:3 And of this measure shall you measure a length of five and twenty thousand, and a breadth of ten thousand: and in it shall be the sanctuary, which is most holy.
45:4 It is a holy portion of the land; it shall be for the priests, the ministers of the sanctuary, that come near to minister to Yehovah; and it shall be a place for their houses, and a holy place for the sanctuary.
45:5 And five and twenty thousand in length, and ten thousand in breadth, shall be to the Levites, the ministers of the house, for a possession to themselves, for twenty chambers.
45:6 And ye shall appoint the possession of the city five thousand broad, and five and twenty thousand long, side by side with the oblation of the holy portion: it shall be for the whole house of Israel.
45:7 And whatsoever is for the prince shall be on the one side and on the other side of the holy oblation and of the possession of the city, in front of the holy oblation and in front of the possession of the city, on the west side westward, and on the east side eastward; and in length answerable to one of the portions, from the west border to the east border.
45:8 In the land it shall be to him for a possession in Israel: and my princes shall no more oppress my people; but they shall give the land to the house of Israel according to their tribes.
45:9 Thus says the Lord Yehovah: Let it suffice you, O princes of Israel: remove violence and spoil, and execute justice and righteousness; take away your exactions from my people, says the Lord Yehovah.
45:10 You shall have just balances, and a just ephah, and a just bath.
45:11 The ephah and the bath shall be of one measure, that the bath may contain the tenth part of a homer, and the ephah the tenth part of a homer: the measure thereof shall be after the homer.
45:12 And the shekel shall be twenty gerahs; twenty shekels, five and twenty shekels, fifteen shekels, shall be your maneh.
45:13 This is the oblation that ye shall offer: the sixth part of an ephah from a homer of wheat; and ye shall give the sixth part of an ephah from a homer of barley;
45:14 and the set portion of oil, of the bath of oil, the tenth part of a bath out of the cor, which is ten baths, even a homer; (for ten baths are a homer;)
45:15 and one lamb of the flock, out of two hundred, from the well-watered pastures of Israel; -for a meal offering, and for a burnt offering, and for peace offerings, to make atonement for them, says the Lord Yehovah.
45:16 All the people of the land shall give to this oblation for the prince in Israel.
45:17 And it shall be the prince's part to give the burnt offerings, and the meal offerings, and the drink offerings, in the feasts, and on the new moons, and on the sabbaths, in all the appointed feasts of the house of Israel: he shall prepare the sin offering, and the meal offering, and the burnt offering, and the peace offerings, to make atonement for the house of Israel.
45:18 Thus says the Lord Yehovah: In the first month, in the first day of the month, you shall take a young bullock without blemish; and you shall cleanse the sanctuary.
45:19 And the priest shall take of the blood of the sin offering, and put it upon the door-posts of the house, and upon the four corners of the ledge of the altar, and upon the posts of the gate of the inner court.
45:20 And so you shall do on the seventh day of the month for every one that errs, and for him that is simple: so shall ye make atonement for the house.
45:21 In the first month, in the fourteenth day of the month, ye shall have the passover, a feast of seven days; unleavened bread shall be eaten.
45:22 And upon that day shall the prince prepare for himself and for all the people of the land a bullock for a sin offering.

45:23 And the seven days of the feast he shall prepare a burnt offering to Yehovah, seven bullocks and seven rams without blemish daily the seven days; and a he-goat daily for a sin offering.
45:24 And he shall prepare a meal offering, an ephah for a bullock, and an ephah for a ram, and a hin of oil to an ephah.
45:25 In the seventh month, in the fifteenth day of the month, in the feast, shall he do the like the seven days; according to the sin offering, according to the burnt offering, and according to the meal offering, and according to the oil.
46:1 Thus says the Lord Yehovah: The gate of the inner court that looks toward the east shall be shut the six working days; but on the sabbath day it shall be opened, and on the day of the new moon it shall be opened.
46:2 And the prince shall enter by the way of the porch of the gate without, and shall stand by the post of the gate; and the priests shall prepare his burnt offering and his peace offerings, and he shall worship at the threshold of the gate: then he shall go forth; but the gate shall not be shut until the evening.
46:3 And the people of the land shall worship at the door of that gate before Yehovah on the sabbaths and on the new moons.
46:4 And the burnt offering that the prince shall offer to Yehovah shall be on the sabbath day six lambs without blemish and a ram without blemish;
46:5 and the meal offering shall be an ephah for the ram, and the meal offering for the lambs as he is able to give, and a hin of oil to an ephah.
46:6 And on the day of the new moon it shall be a young bullock without blemish, and six lambs, and a ram; they shall be without blemish:
46:7 and he shall prepare a meal offering, an ephah for the bullock, and an ephah for the ram, and for the lambs according as he is able, and a hin of oil to an ephah.
46:8 And when the prince shall enter, he shall go in by the way of the porch of the gate, and he shall go forth by the way thereof.
46:9 But when the people of the land shall come before Yehovah in the appointed feasts, he that enters by the way of the north gate to worship shall go forth by the way of the south gate; and he that enters by the way of the south gate shall go forth by the way of the north gate: he shall not return by the way of the gate whereby he came in, but shall go forth straight before him.
46:10 And the prince, when they go in, shall go in in the midst of them; and when they go forth, they shall go forth together.
46:11 And in the feasts and in the solemnities the meal offering shall be an ephah for a bullock, and an ephah for a ram, and for the lambs as he is able to give, and a hin of oil to an ephah.
46:12 And when the prince shall prepare a freewill-offering, a burnt offering or peace offerings as a freewill-offering to Yehovah, one shall open for him the gate that looks toward the east; and he shall prepare his burnt offering and his peace offerings, as he does on the sabbath day: then he shall go forth; and after his going forth one shall shut the gate.
46:13 And you shall prepare a lamb a year old without blemish for a burnt offering to Yehovah daily: morning by morning shall you prepare it.
46:14 And you shall prepare a meal offering with it morning by morning, the sixth part of an ephah, and the third part of a hin of oil, to moisten the fine flour; a meal offering to Yehovah continually by a perpetual ordinance.
46:15 Thus shall they prepare the lamb, and the meal offering, and the oil, morning by morning, for a continual burnt offering.
46:16 Thus says the Lord Yehovah: If the prince give a gift to any of his sons, it is his inheritance, it shall belong to his sons; it is their possession by inheritance.
46:17 But if he give of his inheritance a gift to one of his servants, it shall be his to the year of liberty; then it shall return to the prince; but as for his inheritance, it shall be for his sons.
46:18 Moreover the prince shall not take of the people's inheritance, to thrust them out of their possession; he shall give inheritance to his sons out of his own possession, that my people be not scattered every man from his possession.

46:19 Then he brought me through the entry, which was at the side of the gate, into the holy chambers for the priests, which looked toward the north: and, behold, there was a place on the hinder part westward.
46:20 And he said to me, This is the place where the priests shall boil the trespass offering and the sin offering, and where they shall bake the meal offering; that they bring them not forth into the outer court, to sanctify the people.
46:21 Then he brought me forth into the outer court, and caused me to pass by the four corners of the court; and, behold, in every corner of the court there was a court.
46:22 In the four corners of the court there were courts inclosed, forty cubits long and thirty broad: these four in the corners were of one measure.
46:23 And there was a wall round about in them, round about the four, and boiling-places were made under the walls round about.
46:24 Then said he to me, These are the boiling-houses, where the ministers of the house shall boil the sacrifice of the people.
47:1 And he brought me back to the door of the house; and, behold, waters issued out from under the threshold of the house eastward; (for the forefront of the house was toward the east;) and the waters came down from under, from the right side of the house, on the south of the altar.
47:2 Then he brought me out by the way of the gate northward, and led me round by the way without to the outer gate, by the way of the gate that looks toward the east; and, behold, there ran out waters on the right side.
47:3 When the man went forth eastward with the line in his hand, he measured a thousand cubits, and he caused me to pass through the waters, waters that were to the ankles.
47:4 Again he measured a thousand, and caused me to pass through the waters, waters that were to the knees. Again he measured a thousand, and caused me to pass through the waters, waters that were to the loins.
47:5 Afterward he measured a thousand; and it was a river that I could not pass through; for the waters were risen, waters to swim in, a river that could not be passed through.
47:6 And he said to me, Son of man, have you seen this? Then he brought me, and caused me to return to the bank of the river.
47:7 Now when I had returned, behold, upon the bank of the river were very many trees on the one side and on the other.
47:8 Then said he to me, These waters issue forth toward the eastern region, and shall go down into the Arabah; and they shall go toward the sea; into the sea shall the waters go which were made to issue forth; and the waters shall be healed.
47:9 And it shall come to pass, that every living creature which swarms, in every place whither the rivers come, shall live; and there shall be a very great multitude of fish; for these waters are come there, and the waters of the sea shall be healed, and everything shall live wherever the river comes.
47:10 And it shall come to pass, that fishers shall stand by it: from En-gedi even to En-eglaim shall be a place for the spreading of nets; their fish shall be after their kinds, as the fish of the great sea, exceedingly many.
47:11 But the miry places thereof, and the marshes thereof, shall not be healed; they shall be given up to salt.
47:12 And by the river upon the bank thereof, on this side and on that side, shall grow every tree for food, whose leaf shall not whither, neither shall the fruit thereof fail: it shall bring forth new fruit every month, because the waters thereof issue out of the sanctuary; and the fruit thereof shall be for food, and the leaf thereof for healing.
47:13 Thus says the Lord Yehovah: This shall be the border, whereby ye shall divide the land for inheritance according to the twelve tribes of Israel: Joseph shall have two portions.
47:14 And ye shall inherit it, one as well as another; for I swore to give it to your fathers: and this land shall fall to you for inheritance.
47:15 And this shall be the border of the land: On the north side, from the great sea, by the way of Hethlon, to the entrance of Zedad;

47:16 Hamath, Berothah, Sibraim, which is between the border of Damascus and the border of Hamath; Hazer-hatticon, which is by the border of Hauran.
47:17 And the border from the sea, shall be Hazar-enon at the border of Damascus; and on the north northward is the border of Hamath. This is the north side.
47:18 And the east side, between Hauran and Damascus and Gilead, and the land of Israel, shall be the Jordan; from the north border to the east sea shall ye measure. This is the east side.
47:19 And the south side southward shall be from Tamar as far as the waters of Meriboth-kadesh, to the brook of Egypt, to the great sea. This is the south side southward.
47:20 And the west side shall be the great sea, from the south border as far as over against the entrance of Hamath. This is the west side.
47:21 So shall ye divide this land to you according to the tribes of Israel.
47:22 And it shall come to pass, that ye shall divide it by lot for an inheritance to you and to the strangers that sojourn among you, who shall beget children among you; and they shall be to you as the home-born among the children of Israel; they shall have inheritance with you among the tribes of Israel.
47:23 And it shall come to pass, that in what tribe the stranger sojourns, there shall ye give him his inheritance, says the Lord Yehovah.
48:1 Now these are the names of the tribes: From the north end, beside the way of Hethlon to the entrance of Hamath, Hazar-enan at the border of Damascus, northward beside Hamath, (and they shall have their sides east and west,) Dan, one portion.
48:2 And by the border of Dan, from the east side to the west side, asher, one portion.
48:3 And by the border of Asher, from the east side even to the west side, Naphtali, one portion.
48:4 And by the border of Naphtali, from the east side to the west side, Manasseh, one portion.
48:5 And by the border of Manasseh, from the east side to the west side, Ephraim, one portion.
48:6 And by the border of Ephraim, from the east side even to the west side, Reuben, one portion.
48:7 And by the border of Reuben, from the east side to the west side, Judah, one portion.
48:8 And by the border of Judah, from the east side to the west side, shall be the oblation which ye shall offer, five and twenty thousand reeds in breadth, and in length as one of the portions, from the east side to the west side: and the sanctuary shall be in the midst of it.
48:9 The oblation that ye shall offer to Yehovah shall be five and twenty thousand reeds in length, and ten thousand in breadth.
48:10 And for these, even for the priests, shall be the holy oblation: toward the north five and twenty thousand in length, and toward the west ten thousand in breadth, and toward the east ten thousand in breadth, and toward the south five and twenty thousand in length: and the sanctuary of Yehovah shall be in the midst thereof.
48:11 It shall be for the priests that are sanctified of the sons of Zadok, that have kept my charge, that went not astray when the children of Israel went astray, as the Levites went astray.
48:12 And it shall be to them an oblation from the oblation of the land, a thing most holy, by the border of the Levites.
48:13 And answerable to the border of the priests, the Levites shall have five and twenty thousand in length, and ten thousand in breadth: all the length shall be five and twenty thousand, and the breadth ten thousand.
48:14 And they shall sell none of it, nor exchange it, nor shall the first-fruits of the land be alienated; for it is holy to Yehovah.
48:15 And the five thousand that are left in the breadth, in front of the five and twenty thousand, shall be for common use, for the city, for dwelling and for suburbs; and the city shall be in the midst thereof.

48:16 And these shall be the measures thereof: the north side four thousand and five hundred, and the south side four thousand and five hundred, and on the east side four thousand and five hundred, and the west side four thousand and five hundred.
48:17 And the city shall have suburbs: toward the north two hundred and fifty, and toward the south two hundred and fifty, and toward the east two hundred and fifty, and toward the west two hundred and fifty.
48:18 And the residue in the length, answerable to the holy oblation, shall be ten thousand eastward, and ten thousand westward; and it shall be answerable to the holy oblation; and the increase thereof shall be for food to them that labor in the city.
48:19 And they that labor in the city, out of all the tribes of Israel, shall till it.
48:20 All the oblation shall be five and twenty thousand by five and twenty thousand: ye shall offer the holy oblation four-square, with the possession of the city.
48:21 And the residue shall be for the prince, on the one side and on the other of the holy oblation and of the possession of the city; in front of the five and twenty thousand of the oblation toward the east border, and westward in front of the five and twenty thousand toward the west border, answerable to the portions, it shall be for the prince: and the holy oblation and the sanctuary of the house shall be in the midst thereof.
48:22 Moreover from the possession of the Levites, and from the possession of the city, being in the midst of that which is the prince's, between the border of Judah and the border of Benjamin, it shall be for the prince.
48:23 And as for the rest of the tribes: from the east side to the west side, Benjamin, one portion.
48:24 And by the border of Benjamin, from the east side to the west side, Simeon, one portion.
48:25 And by the border of Simeon, from the east side to the west side, Issachar, one portion.
48:26 And by the border of Issachar, from the east side to the west side, Zebulun, one portion.
48:27 And by the border of Zebulun, from the east side to the west side, Gad, one portion.
48:28 And by the border of Gad, at the south side southward, the border shall be even from Tamar to the waters of Meribath-kadesh, to the brook of Egypt, to the great sea.
48:29 This is the land which ye shall divide by lot to the tribes of Israel for inheritance, and these are their several portions, says the Lord Yehovah.
48:30 And these are the egresses of the city: On the north side four thousand and five hundred reeds by measure;
48:31 and the gates of the city shall be after the names of the tribes of Israel, three gates northward: the gate of Reuben, one; the gate of Judah, one; the gate of Levi, one.
48:32 And at the east side four thousand and five hundred reeds, and three gates: even the gate of Joseph, one; the gate of Benjamin, one; the gate of Dan, one.
48:33 And at the south side four thousand and five hundred reeds by measure, and three gates: the gate of Simeon, one; the gate of Issachar, one; the gate of Zebulun, one.
48:34 At the west side four thousand and five hundred reeds, with their three gates: the gate of Gad, one; the gate of Asher, one; the gate of Naphtali, one.
48:35 It shall be eighteen thousand reeds round about: and the name of the city from that day shall be, Yehovah is there.

The Book of the Prophet Daniel

Daniel

Chapter 1

1:1 In the third year of the reign of Jehoiakim king of Judah, Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon came to Jerusalem, and besieged it.
1:2 And the Lord gave Jehoiakim king of Judah into his hand, along with part of the vessels of the house of God; and he carried them into the land of Shinar to the house of his god: and he brought the vessels into the treasure-house of his god.
1:3 And the king spoke to Ashpenaz the master of his eunuchs, that he should bring in certain of the children of Israel, specifically of the royal seed and of the nobles;
1:4 youths in whom was no blemish, but well-favored, and skilful in all wisdom, and endued with knowledge, and understanding science, and such as had ability to stand in the king's palace; and that he should teach them the learning and the language of the Chaldeans.
1:5 And the king appointed for them a daily portion of the king's dainties, and of the wine which he drank, and that they should be nourished three years; that at the end of them they should stand before the king.
1:6 Now among these were, of the children of Judah, Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah.
1:7 And the prince of the eunuchs gave names to them: to Daniel he gave the name of Belteshazzar; and to Hananiah, the name Shadrach; and to Mishael, the name Meshach; and to Azariah, the name Abed-nego.
1:8 But Daniel purposed in his heart that he would not defile himself with the king's dainties, nor with the wine which he drank: therefore he requested of the prince of the eunuchs that he might not defile himself.
1:9 Now God caused Daniel to find kindness and compassion in the sight of the prince of the eunuchs.
1:10 And the prince of the eunuchs said to Daniel, I fear my lord the king, who has appointed your food and your drink: for why should he see your faces looking worse than the youths that are your own age? You would thus endanger my head with the king.
1:11 Then Daniel said to the steward whom the prince of the eunuchs had appointed over Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah:
1:12 Put your servants to a test, I beseech you, ten days; and let them give us vegetables to eat, and water to drink.
1:13 Then let our countenances be looked upon before you, and the countenance of the youths that eat of the king's dainties; and according as you see, deal with your servants.
1:14 So he listened to them in this matter, and tested them ten days.
1:15 And at the end of ten days their countenances appeared fairer, and they were fatter in flesh, than all the youths that were eating of the king's dainties.
1:16 So the steward took away their dainties, and the wine that they should drink, and gave them vegetables.
1:17 Now as for these four youths, God gave them knowledge and skill in all learning and wisdom: and Daniel had understanding in all visions and dreams.
1:18 And at the end of the days which the king had appointed for bringing them in, the prince of the eunuchs brought them in before Nebuchadnezzar.
1:19 And the king communed with them; and among them all was found no one like Daniel, Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah: therefore they would stand before the king.
1:20 And in every matter of wisdom and understanding, concerning which the king inquired of them, he found them ten times better than all the magicians and enchanters that were in all his realm.
1:21 And Daniel continued even to the first year of king Cyrus.

Chapter 2

2:1 And in the second year of the reign of Nebuchadnezzar, Nebuchadnezzar dreamed dreams; and his spirit was troubled, and his sleep went from him.
2:2 Then the king commanded to call the magicians, and the enchanters, and the sorcerers, and the Chaldeans, to tell the king his dreams. So they came in and stood before the king.
2:3 And the king said to them, I have dreamed a dream, and my spirit is troubled to know the dream.
2:4 Then the Chaldeans said to the king in the Syrian language, O king, live for ever: tell your servants the dream, and we will show the interpretation.
2:5 The king answered and said to the Chaldeans, The thing is gone from me: if ye do not make known to me the dream and the interpretation of it, ye shall be cut in pieces, and your houses shall be made a dunghill.
2:6 But if ye show the dream and the interpretation of it, ye shall receive from me gifts and rewards and great honor. Therefore show me the dream and the interpretation of it.
2:7 They answered the second time and said, Let the king tell his servants the dream, and we will show the interpretation.
2:8 The king answered and said, I know of a certainty that ye are trying to gain time, because ye see the thing is gone from me.
2:9 But if ye do not make known to me the dream, there is but one law for you; for ye have prepared lying and corrupt words to speak before me, till the time be changed: therefore tell me the dream; then I shall know that ye can show me the interpretation of it.
2:10 The Chaldeans answered before the king, and said, There is not a man upon the earth that can show the king's matter, forasmuch as no king, lord, or ruler, has asked such a thing of any magician, or enchanter, or Chaldean.
2:11 And it is a rare thing that the king is requiring, and there is no other who can show it before the king, except the gods, whose dwelling is not with flesh.
2:12 Because of this the king was angry and very furious, and gave orders to destroy all the wise men of Babylon.
2:13 So the decree went forth, and the wise men were to be slain; and they searched for Daniel and his companions, to be slain.
2:14 Then Daniel returned answer with counsel and prudence to Arioch the captain of the king's guard, who was gone forth to slay the wise men of Babylon;
2:15 he answered and said to Arioch the king's captain, Why is the decree so urgent from the king? Then Arioch made the matter known to Daniel.
2:16 And Daniel went in, and desired of the king that he would appoint him a time; then he would show the king the interpretation.
2:17 Then Daniel went to his house, and made the thing known to Hananiah, Mishael, and Azariah his companions:
2:18 that they would desire mercies from the God of heaven concerning this secret; so that Daniel and his companions would not perish with the rest of the wise men of Babylon.
2:19 Then the secret was revealed to Daniel in a vision of the night. Then Daniel blessed the God of heaven.
2:20 Daniel answered and said, Blessed be the name of God for ever and ever; for wisdom and might are his.
2:21 And he changes the times and the seasons; he removes kings, and sets up kings; he gives wisdom to the wise, and knowledge to them that have understanding;
2:22 he reveals the deep and secret things; he knows what is in the darkness, and the light dwells with him.
2:23 I thank you, and praise you, O God of my fathers, who have given me wisdom and might, and have now made known to me what we desired of you; for you have made known to us the king's matter.

2:24 Therefore Daniel went in to Arioch, whom the king had appointed to destroy the wise men of Babylon; he went and said thus to him: Do not destroy the wise men of Babylon; bring me in before the king, and I will show to the king the interpretation.
2:25 Then Arioch brought Daniel in before the king with haste, and said thus to him, I have found a man of the children of the captivity of Judah, that will make known to the king the interpretation.
2:26 The king answered and said to Daniel, whose name was Belteshazzar, are you able to make known to me the dream which I have seen, and also the interpretation of it?
2:27 Daniel answered before the king, and said, The secret which the king has demanded, no wise men, enchanters, magicians, nor soothsayers, can show to the king;
2:28 but there is a God in heaven that reveals secrets, and he has made known to the king Nebuchadnezzar what shall be in the latter days. Your dream, and the visions of your head upon your bed, are these:
2:29 as for you, O king, your thoughts came into your mind upon your bed, what should come to pass hereafter; and he that reveals secrets has made known to you what shall come to pass.
2:30 But as for me, this secret is not revealed to me for any wisdom that I have more than anyone living, but to the intent that the interpretation may be made known to the king, and that you may know the thoughts of your heart.
2:31 You, O king, saw, and, behold, a great image. This image, which was mighty, and whose brightness was excellent, stood before you; and its appearance was awesome.
2:32 As for this image, its head was of fine gold, its breast and its arms of silver, its belly and its thighs of brass,
2:33 its legs of iron, its feet part of iron, and part of clay.
2:34 You saw till that a stone was cut out without hands, which struck the image upon its feet that were of iron and clay, and broke them in pieces.
2:35 Then the iron, the clay, the brass, the silver, and the gold, were broken in pieces together, and became like the chaff of the summer threshing-floors; and the wind carried them away, so that no place was found for them: and the stone that struck the image became a great mountain, and filled the whole earth.
2:36 This is the dream; and we will tell the interpretation thereof before the king.
2:37 You, O king, are king of kings, to whom the God of heaven has given the kingdom, the power, and the strength, and the glory;
2:38 and wherever the children of men dwell, the beasts of the field and the birds of the heavens he has given into your hand, and has made you to rule over them all: you are the head of gold.
2:39 And after you shall arise another kingdom inferior to you; and another third kingdom of brass, which shall bear rule over all the earth.
2:40 And the fourth kingdom shall be strong as iron, forasmuch as iron breaks in pieces and subdues all things; and as iron that crushes all these, shall it break in pieces and crush.
2:41 And whereas you saw the feet and toes, part of potters' clay, and part of iron, it shall be a divided kingdom; but there shall be in it of the strength of the iron, forasmuch as you saw the iron mixed with miry clay.
2:42 And as the toes of the feet were part of iron, and part of clay, so the kingdom shall be partly strong, and partly broken.
2:43 And whereas you saw the iron mixed with miry clay, they shall mingle themselves with the seed of men; but they shall not cleave one to another, even as iron does not mingle with clay.
2:44 And in the days of those kings shall the God of heaven set up a kingdom which shall never be destroyed, nor shall its sovereignty be left to another people; but it shall break in pieces and consume all these kingdoms, and it shall stand for ever.
2:45 Forasmuch as you saw that a stone was cut out of the mountain without hands, and that it broke in pieces the iron, the brass, the clay, the silver, and the gold; the great God has made known to the king what shall come to pass hereafter: and the dream is certain, and the interpretation thereof sure.

2:46 Then the king Nebuchadnezzar fell upon his face, and worshipped Daniel, and commanded that they should offer an oblation and sweet odors to him.
2:47 The king answered to Daniel, and said, Of a truth your God is the God of gods, and the Lord of kings, and a revealer of secrets, seeing you have been able to reveal this secret.
2:48 Then the king made Daniel great, and gave him many great gifts, and made him to rule over the whole province of Babylon, and to be chief governor over all the wise men of Babylon.
2:49 And Daniel requested of the king, and he appointed Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, over the affairs of the province of Babylon: but Daniel was in the gate of the king.

Chapter 3

3:1 Nebuchadnezzar the king made an image of gold, whose height was sixty cubits, and the breadth thereof six cubits: he set it up in the plain of Dura, in the province of Babylon.
3:2 Then Nebuchadnezzar the king sent to gather together the satraps, the deputies, and the governors, the judges, the treasurers, the counsellors, the sheriffs, and all the rulers of the provinces, to come to the dedication of the image which Nebuchadnezzar the king had set up.
3:3 Then the satraps, the deputies, and the governors, the judges, the treasurers, the counsellors, the sheriffs, and all the rulers of the provinces, were gathered together to the dedication of the image that Nebuchadnezzar the king had set up; and they stood before the image that Nebuchadnezzar had set up.
3:4 Then the herald cried aloud, To you it is commanded, O peoples, nations, and languages,
3:5 that at what time ye hear the sound of the horn, flute, zither, lyre, harp, bagpipes, and all kinds of music, ye fall down and worship the golden image that Nebuchadnezzar the king has set up;
3:6 and whoever does not fall down and worship shall the same hour be cast into the midst of a burning fiery furnace.
3:7 Therefore at that time, when all the peoples heard the sound of the horn, flute, zither, lyre, harp, and all kinds of music, all the peoples, the nations, and the languages, fell down and worshipped the golden image that Nebuchadnezzar the king had set up.
3:8 Wherefore at that time certain Chaldeans came near, and brought accusation against the Jews.
3:9 They answered and said to Nebuchadnezzar the king, O king, live for ever.
3:10 You, O king, have made a decree, that everyone when they hear the sound of the horn, flute, zither, lyre, harp, and bagpipes, and all kinds of music, shall fall down and worship the golden image;
3:11 and whoever does not fall down and worship, shall be cast into the midst of a burning fiery furnace.
3:12 There are certain Jews whom you have appointed over the affairs of the province of Babylon: Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego; these men, O king, have not regarded you: they do not serve your gods, nor worship the golden image which you have set up.
3:13 Then Nebuchadnezzar in his rage and fury commanded to bring Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego. Then they brought these men before the king.
3:14 Nebuchadnezzar responded and said to them, Is it true, O Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, that ye serve not my god, nor worship the golden image which I have set up?
3:15 Now if ye are ready so that at what time ye hear the sound of the horn, flute, zither, lyreharp, and bagpipes, and all kinds of music, ye fall down and worship the image which I have made, great: but if ye do not worship, ye shall be cast the same hour into the midst of a burning fiery furnace; and who is that god that shall deliver you out of my hands?

3:16 Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego answered and said to the king, O Nebuchadnezzar, we have no need to answer you in this matter.
3:17 If it be so, our God whom we serve is able to deliver us from the burning fiery furnace; and he will deliver us out of your hand, O king.
3:18 But if not, be it known to you, O king, that we will not serve your gods, nor worship the golden image which you have set up.
3:19 Then Nebuchadnezzar was full of fury, and the form of his visage was changed against Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego: therefore he spoke, and commanded that they should heat the furnace seven times more than it was usually heated.
3:20 And he commanded certain mighty men that were in his army to bind Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, and to cast them into the burning fiery furnace.
3:21 Then these men were bound in their trousers, their tunics, and their turbans, and their other garments, and were cast into the midst of the burning fiery furnace.
3:22 Therefore because the king's commandment was urgent, and the furnace exceedingly hot, the flame of the fire killed those men who took up Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego.
3:23 And these three men, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, fell down bound into the midst of the burning fiery furnace.
3:24 Then Nebuchadnezzar the king was astonished, and rose up in haste: he spoke and said to his counsellors, Did not we cast three men bound into the midst of the fire? They answered and said to the king, True, O king.
3:25 He answered and said, Lo, I see four men loose, walking in the midst of the fire, and they have no hurt; and the appearance of the fourth is like a son of the gods.
3:26 Then Nebuchadnezzar came near to the mouth of the burning fiery furnace: he spoke and said, Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, ye servants of the Most High God, come forth, and come here. Then Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego came forth out of the midst of the fire.
3:27 And the satraps, the deputies, and the governors, and the king's counsellors, being gathered together, saw these men, that the fire had no power upon their bodies, nor was the hair of their head singed, neither were their clothes changed, nor had the smell of fire transferred onto them.
3:28 Nebuchadnezzar spoke and said, Blessed be the God of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, who has sent his angel, and delivered his servants that trusted in him, and have changed the king's word, and have yielded their bodies, that they might not serve nor worship any god, except their own God.
3:29 Therefore I make a decree, that every people, nation, and language, which speak anything amiss against the God of Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego, shall be cut in pieces, and their houses shall be made a dunghill; because there is no other god that is able to deliver after this sort.
3:30 Then the king promoted Shadrach, Meshach, and Abed-nego in the province of Babylon.

Chapter 4

4:1 Nebuchadnezzar the king, to all the peoples, nations, and languages, that dwell in all the earth: Peace be multiplied to you.
4:2 It has seemed good to me to declare forth the signs and wonders that the Most High God has wrought toward me.
4:3 How great are his signs! and how mighty are his wonders! his kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and his dominion is from generation to generation.
4:4 I, Nebuchadnezzar, was at rest in my house, and flourishing in my palace.
4:5 I saw a dream which made me afraid; and the thoughts upon my bed and the visions of my head troubled me.
4:6 Therefore I made a decree to bring in all the wise men of Babylon before me, that they might make known to me the interpretation of the dream.

4:7 Then came in the magicians, the enchanters, the Chaldeans, and the soothsayers; and I told the dream before them; but they did not make known to me its interpretation.
4:8 But at the last Daniel came in before me, whose name according to the name of my god was Belteshazzar, and in whom is the spirit of the holy gods: and I told the dream before him, saying,
4:9 O Belteshazzar, master of the magicians, because I know that the spirit of the holy gods is in you, and no secret troubles you, tell me the visions of my dream that I have seen, and the interpretation thereof.
4:10 Thus were the visions of my head upon my bed: I saw, and, behold, a tree in the midst of the earth; and its height was great.
4:11 The tree grew, and was strong, and its height reached to heaven, and the sight of it to the end of all the earth.
4:12 Its leaves were fair, and its fruit abundant, and in it was food for all: the beasts of the field had shade under it, and the birds of the heaven dwelt in its branches, and all flesh was fed from it.
4:13 I saw in the visions of my head upon my bed, and, behold, a watcher and a holy one came down from heaven.
4:14 He cried aloud, and said thus, Cut down the tree, and cut off its branches, shake off its leaves, and scatter its fruit: let the beasts get away from under it, and the birds from its branches.
4:15 Nevertheless leave the stump of its roots in the earth, even with a band of iron and brass, in the tender grass of the field; and let it be wet with the dew of heaven: and let his portion be with the beasts in the grass of the earth:
4:16 let his heart be changed from man's, and let a beast's heart be given to him; and let seven times pass over him.
4:17 The sentence is by the decree of the watchers, and the demand by the word of the holy ones; to the intent that the living may know that the Most High rules in the kingdom of men, and gives it to whomsoever he will, and sets up over it the lowest of men.
4:18 This dream I, king Nebuchadnezzar, have seen; and you, O Belteshazzar, must declare the interpretation, forasmuch as all the wise men of my kingdom are not able to make known to me the interpretation; but you are able; for the spirit of the holy gods is in you.
4:19 Then Daniel, whose name was Belteshazzar, was stunned for a while, and his thoughts troubled him. The king answered and said, Belteshazzar, let not the dream, or the interpretation, trouble you. Belteshazzar answered and said, My lord, if only the dream applied to those that hate you, and the interpretation thereof to your adversaries.
4:20 The tree that you saw, which grew, and was strong, whose height reached to heaven, and the sight of it to all the earth;
4:21 whose leaves were fair, and its fruit abundant, and in it was food for all; under which the beasts of the field dwelt, and upon whose branches the birds of the heaven had their habitation:
4:22 it is you, O king, that are grown and become strong; for your greatness is grown, and reaches to heaven, and your dominion to the end of the earth.
4:23 And whereas the king saw a watcher and a holy one coming down from heaven, and saying, Cut down the tree, and destroy it; nevertheless leave the stump of its roots in the earth, even with a band of iron and brass, in the tender grass of the field, and let it be wet with the dew of heaven: and let his portion be with the beasts of the field, till seven times pass over him;
4:24 this is the interpretation, O king, and it is the decree of the Most High, which is come upon my lord the king:
4:25 that you shall be driven from men, and your dwelling shall be with the beasts of the field, and you shall be made to eat grass like oxen, and shall be wet with the dew of heaven, and seven times shall pass over you; till you know that the Most High rules in the kingdom of men, and gives it to whomsoever he will.

4:26 And whereas they commanded to leave the stump of the roots of the tree; your kingdom shall be sure to you, after that you shall have known that the heavens do rule.
4:27 Wherefore, O king, let my counsel be acceptable to you, and renounce your sins with righteousness, and your iniquities by showing mercy to the poor; it may be that there will be a lengthening of your tranquillity.
4:28 All this came upon the king Nebuchadnezzar.
4:29 At the end of twelve months he was walking in the royal palace of Babylon.
4:30 The king spoke and said, Is this not great Babylon, which I have built for the royal dwelling-place, by the might of my power and for the glory of my majesty?
4:31 While the word was in the king's mouth, there fell a voice from heaven, saying, O king Nebuchadnezzar, to you it is spoken: The kingdom is departed from you:
4:32 and you shall be driven from men; and your dwelling shall be with the beasts of the field; you shall be made to eat grass as oxen; and seven times shall pass over you; until you know that the Most High rules in the kingdom of men, and gives it to whomsoever he will.
4:33 That same hour the thing was fulfilled upon Nebuchadnezzar: and he was driven from men, and did eat grass like oxen, and his body was wet with the dew of heaven, till his hair was grown like eagles' feathers, and his nails like birds' claws.
4:34 And at the end of the days I, Nebuchadnezzar, lifted up my eyes to heaven, and my understanding returned to me, and I blessed the Most High, and I praised and honored him who lives for ever; for his dominion is an everlasting dominion, and his kingdom from generation to generation.
4:35 And all the inhabitants of the earth are reputed as nothing; and he does according to his will in the army of heaven, and among the inhabitants of the earth; and no one can stay his hand, or say to him, What are you doing?
4:36 At the same time that my understanding returned to me, the glory also of my kingdom, my majesty and brightness returned to me; and my counsellors and my lords sought to me; and I was established in my kingdom, and excellent greatness was added to me.
4:37 Now I, Nebuchadnezzar, praise and extol and honor the King of heaven; for all his works are truth, and his ways justice; and those that walk in pride he is able to humble.

Chapter 5

5:1 Belshazzar the king made a great feast for a thousand of his lords, and drank wine before the thousand.
5:2 Belshazzar, while he tasted the wine, commanded to bring the gold and silver vessels which Nebuchadnezzar his father had taken out of the temple which was in Jerusalem; so that the king and his lords, his wives and his concubines, might drink from them.
5:3 Then they brought the gold vessels that were taken out of the temple of the house of God which was at Jerusalem; and the king and his lords, his wives and his concubines, drank from them.
5:4 They drank wine, and praised the gods of gold, and of silver, of brass, of iron, of wood, and of stone.
5:5 In the same hour came forth the fingers of a man's hand, and they wrote upon the plaster of the wall of the king's palace, over by the lampstand: and the king watched the part of the hand that wrote.
5:6 Then the king's countenance was changed in him, and his thoughts troubled him; and the joints of his loins were loosed, and his knees knocked against one another.
5:7 The king cried aloud to bring in the enchanters, the Chaldeans, and the soothsayers. The king spoke and said to the wise men of Babylon, Whoever shall read this writing, and show me its interpretation, shall be clothed with purple, and have a chain of gold around his neck, and shall be the third ruler in the kingdom.

5:8 Then all the king's wise men came in; but they could not read the writing, nor make known to the king the interpretation.
5:9 Then king Belshazzar was greatly troubled, and his countenance was changed in him, and his lords were perplexed.
5:10 Now the queen mother, hearing the words of the king and his lords, came into the banquet house. The queen mother spoke and said, O king, live forever; let not your thoughts trouble you, nor let your countenance be changed.
5:11 There is a man in your kingdom, in whom is the spirit of the holy gods; and in the days of your father, light and understanding and wisdom, like the wisdom of the gods, were found in him; and the king Nebuchadnezzar your father, your father the king, made him master of the magicians, enchanters, Chaldeans, and soothsayers;
5:12 forasmuch as an excellent spirit, and knowledge, and understanding, interpreting of dreams, and showing of dark sentences, and dissolving of doubts, were found in the same Daniel, whom the king named Belteshazzar. Now let Daniel be called, and he will show the interpretation.
5:13 Then Daniel was brought in before the king. The king spoke and said to Daniel, are you that Daniel, who are of the children of the captivity of Judah, whom the king my father brought out of Judah?
5:14 I have heard of you, that the spirit of the gods is in you, and that light and understanding and excellent wisdom are found in you.
5:15 And now the wise men, the enchanters, have been brought in before me, that they should read this writing, and make known to me its interpretation; but they could not show the interpretation of the thing.
5:16 But I have heard of you, that you can give interpretations, and dissolve doubts; now if you can read the writing, and make known to me its interpretation, you shall be clothed with purple, and have a chain of gold around your neck, and shall be the third ruler in the kingdom.
5:17 Then Daniel answered and said before the king, Let your gifts be to yourself, and give your rewards to another; nevertheless I will read the writing to the king, and make known to him the interpretation.
5:18 O king, the Most High God gave Nebuchadnezzar your father the kingdom, and greatness, and glory, and majesty:
5:19 and because of the greatness that he gave him, all the peoples, nations, and languages trembled and feared before him: whomever he wished he executed, and whomever he wished he kept alive; and whomever he wished he promoted, and whom he wished he lowered.
5:20 But when his heart was lifted up, and his spirit was hardened so that he dealt proudly, he was deposed from his kingly throne, and they took his glory from him:
5:21 and he was driven from the sons of men, and his heart was made like the beasts', and his dwelling was with the wild donkeys; he was fed with grass like oxen, and his body was wet with the dew of heaven; until he knew that the Most High God rules in the kingdom of men, and that he sets up over it whomsoever he will.
5:22 And you his son, O Belshazzar, have not humbled your heart, though you knew all this,
5:23 but have lifted up yourself against the Lord of heaven; and they have brought the vessels of his house before you, and you and your lords, your wives and your concubines, have drunk wine from them; and you have praised the gods of silver and gold, of brass, iron, wood, and stone, which see not, nor hear, nor know; and the God in whose hand your breath is, and whose are all your ways, you have not glorified.
5:24 Then the part of the hand was sent away from before him, and this writing was inscribed.
5:25 And this is the writing that was inscribed: MENE, MENE, TEKEL, UPHARSIN.
5:26 This is the interpretation of the thing: MENE; God has numbered your kingdom, and brought it to an end;
5:27 TEKEL; you are weighed in the balances, and are found wanting.
5:28 PERES; your kingdom is divided, and given to the Medes and Persians.

5:29 Then Belshazzar commanded it, and they clothed Daniel with purple, and put a chain of gold around his neck, and made proclamation concerning him, that he should be the third ruler in the kingdom.
5:30 During that night Belshazzar the Chaldean King was slain.
5:31 And Darius the Mede received the kingdom, being about sixty-two years old.

Chapter 6

6:1 It pleased Darius to set over the kingdom a hundred and twenty satraps, who should be throughout the whole kingdom;
6:2 and over them three presidents, of whom Daniel was one; that these satraps might give account to them, and that the king should have no damage.
6:3 Then this Daniel was distinguished above the presidents and the satraps, because an excellent spirit was in him; and the king thought to set him over the whole realm.
6:4 Then the presidents and the satraps sought to find occasion against Daniel as touching the kingdom; but they could find no occasion nor fault, forasmuch as he was faithful, neither was there any error or fault found in him.
6:5 Then these men said, We shall not find any occasion against this Daniel, except we find it against him concerning the law of his God.
6:6 Then these presidents and satraps assembled together to the king, and said thus to him, King Darius, live for ever.
6:7 All the presidents of the kingdom, the deputies and the satraps, the counsellors and the governors, have consulted together to establish a royal statute, and to make a strong interdict, that whoever shall ask a petition of any god or man for thirty days, other than of you, O king, he shall be cast into the den of lions.
6:8 Now, O king, establish the interdict, and sign the writing, that it be not changed, according to the law of the Medes and Persians, which alters not.
6:9 Wherefore king Darius signed the writing and the interdict.
6:10 And when Daniel knew that the writing was signed, he went into his house (now his windows were open in his chamber toward Jerusalem) and he kneeled upon his knees three times a day, and prayed, and gave thanks before his God, just as he did before.
6:11 Then these men assembled together, and found Daniel making petition and supplication before his God.
6:12 Then they came near, and spoke before the king concerning the king's interdict: Have you not signed an interdict, that every man that shall make petition to any god or man within thirty days, other than to you, O king, shall be cast into the den of lions? The king answered and said, The thing is true, according to the law of the Medes and Persians, which alters not.
6:13 Then they answered and said before the king, That Daniel, who is of the children of the captivity of Judah, does not regard you, O king, nor the interdict that you have signed, but makes his petition three times a day.
6:14 Then the king, when he heard these words, was sore displeased, and set his heart on Daniel to deliver him; and he labored till the going down of the sun to rescue him.
6:15 Then these men assembled together to the king, and said to the king, Know, O king, that it is a law of the Medes and Persians, that no interdict nor statute which the king establishes may be changed.
6:16 Then the king commanded, and they brought Daniel, and cast him into the den of lions. Now the king spoke and said to Daniel, Your God whom you serve continually, he will deliver you.
6:17 And a stone was brought, and laid upon the mouth of the den; and the king sealed it with his own signet, and with the signet of his lords; that nothing might be changed concerning Daniel.
6:18 Then the king went to his palace, and passed the night fasting; neither were instruments of music brought before him: and his sleep fled from him.

6:19 Then the king arose very early in the morning, and went in haste to the den of lions.
6:20 And when he came near to the den to Daniel, he cried with a lamentable voice; the king spoke and said to Daniel, O Daniel, servant of the living God, is your God, whom you serve continually, able to deliver you from the lions?
6:21 Then Daniel said to the king, O king, live for ever.
6:22 My God has sent his angel, and has shut the lions' mouths, and they have not hurt me; forasmuch as before him innocency was found in me; and also before you, O king, have I done no hurt.
6:23 Then the king was exceedingly glad, and commanded that they take Daniel up out of the den. So Daniel was taken up out of the den, and no manner of hurt was found upon him, because he had trusted in his God.
6:24 And the king commanded, and they brought those men that had accused Daniel, and they cast them into the den of lions, them, their children, and their wives; and the lions had the mastery of them, and broke all their bones in pieces, before they came to the bottom of the den.
6:25 Then king Darius wrote to all the peoples, nations, and languages, that dwell in all the earth: Peace be multiplied to you.
6:26 I make a decree, that in all the dominion of my kingdom men should tremble and fear before the God of Daniel; for he is the living God, and stedfast for ever, and his kingdom that which shall not be destroyed; and his dominion shall be even to the end.
6:27 He delivers and rescues, and he works signs and wonders in heaven and in earth, who has delivered Daniel from the power of the lions.
6:28 So this Daniel prospered in the reign of Darius, and in the reign of Cyrus the Persian.

Chapter 7

7:1 In the first year of Belshazzar king of Babylon Daniel had a dream and visions of his head upon his bed: then he wrote the dream and declared the sum of the matters.
7:2 Daniel spoke and said, I saw in my vision by night, and, behold, the four winds of heaven broke forth upon the great sea.
7:3 And four great beasts came up from the sea, diverse one from another.
7:4 The first was like a lion, and had eagle's wings: I watched until its wings were plucked, and it was lifted up from the earth, and made to stand upon two feet as a man; and a man's heart was given to it.
7:5 And, behold, another beast, a second, like to a bear; and it was raised up on one side, and three ribs were in its mouth between its teeth: and they said thus to it, arise, devour much flesh.
7:6 After this I beheld, and, lo, another, like a leopard, which had upon its back four wings of a bird; the beast had also four heads; and dominion was given to it.
7:7 After this I saw in the night-visions, and, behold, a fourth beast, terrible and powerful, and strong exceedingly; and it had great iron teeth; it devoured and broke in pieces, and stomped the residue with its feet: and it was diverse from all the beasts that were before it; and it had ten horns.
7:8 I considered the horns, and, behold, there came up among them another horn, a little one, before which three of the first horns were plucked up by the roots: and, behold, in this horn were eyes like the eyes of a man, and a mouth speaking great things.
7:9 I watched until thrones were placed, and someone who was ancient of days did sit: his raiment was white as snow, and the hair of his head like pure wool; his throne was fiery flames, and its wheels burning fire.
7:10 A fiery stream issued and came forth from before him: thousands of thousands ministered to him, and ten thousand times ten thousand stood before him: the judgment was set, and the books were opened.

7:11 At that time I looked because of the voice of the great words which the horn spoke; I watched even till the beast was slain, and its body destroyed, and it was given to be burned with fire.
7:12 And as for the rest of the beasts, their dominion was taken away: yet their lives were prolonged for a season and a time.
7:13 I saw in the night-visions, and, behold, there came with the clouds of heaven one like to a son of man, and he came even to the ancient of days, and they brought him near before him.
7:14 And there was given him dominion, and glory, and a kingdom, that all the peoples, nations, and languages should serve him: his dominion is an everlasting dominion, which shall not pass away, and his kingdom that which shall not be destroyed.
7:15 As for me, Daniel, my spirit was grieved in the midst of my body, and the visions of my head troubled me.
7:16 I approached one of them that was standing by, and asked him the truth concerning all this. So he told me, and made me know the interpretation of the things.
7:17 These great beasts, which are four, are four kings, that shall arise out of the earth.
7:18 But the saints of the Most High shall receive the kingdom, and possess the kingdom for ever, even for ever and ever.
7:19 Then I desired to know the truth concerning the fourth beast, which was diverse from all of them, exceedingly terrible, whose teeth were of iron, and its nails of brass; which devoured, broke in pieces, and stomped the residue with its feet;
7:20 and concerning the ten horns that were on its head, and the other horn which came up, and before which three fell, even that horn that had eyes, and a mouth that spoke great things, whose look was more stout than its fellows.
7:21 I watched, and the same horn made war with the saints, and prevailed against them;
7:22 until the ancient of days came, and judgment was given to the saints of the Most High, and the time came that the saints possessed the kingdom.
7:23 Thus he said, The fourth beast shall be a fourth kingdom upon earth, which shall be diverse from all the kingdoms, and shall devour the whole earth, and shall tread it down, and break it in pieces.
7:24 And as for the ten horns, out of this kingdom shall ten kings arise: and another shall arise after them; and he shall be diverse from the former, and he shall put down three kings.
7:25 And he shall speak words against the Most High, and shall wear out the saints of the Most High; and he shall think to change the times and the law; and they shall be given into his hand until a time and times and half a time.
7:26 But the judgment shall be set, and they shall take away his dominion, to consume and to destroy it to the end.
7:27 And the kingdom and the dominion, and the greatness of the kingdoms under the whole heaven, shall be given to the people of the saints of the Most High: his kingdom is an everlasting kingdom, and all dominions shall serve and obey him.
7:28 Here is the end of the matter. As for me, Daniel, my thoughts troubled me much, and my countenance was changed in me: but I kept the matter in my heart.

Chapter 8

8:1 In the third year of the reign of king Belshazzar a vision appeared to me, even to me, Daniel, after the one which appeared to me at the first.
8:2 And I saw in the vision; now it was so, that when I saw, I was in Shushan the palace, which is in the province of Elam; and I saw in the vision, and I was by the river Ulai.
8:3 Then I lifted up my eyes, and saw, and, behold, there stood before the river a ram which had two horns: and the two horns were high; but one was higher than the other, and the higher came up last.

8:4 I saw the ram pushing westward, and northward, and southward; and no beasts could stand before him, neither was there any that could deliver out of his hand; but he did according to his will, and magnified himself.
8:5 And as I was considering, behold, a he-goat came from the west over the face of the whole earth, and touched not the ground: and the goat had a notable horn between his eyes.
8:6 And he came to the ram that had the two horns, which I saw standing before the river, and ran upon him in the fury of his power.
8:7 And I saw him come close to the ram, and he was moved with anger against him, and struck the ram, and broke his two horns; and there was no power in the ram to stand before him; but he cast him down to the ground, and trampled upon him; and there was no one that could deliver the ram out of his hand.
8:8 And the he-goat magnified himself exceedingly: and when he was strong, the great horn was broken; and instead of it there came up four notable horns toward the four winds of heaven.
8:9 And out of one of them came forth a little horn, which grew to be exceedingly great, toward the south, and toward the east, and toward the glorious land.
8:10 And it became great, even to the army of heaven; and some of the army and of the stars it cast down to the ground, and trampled upon them.
8:11 Yes, it magnified itself, even to the prince of the army; and it took away from him the continual burnt offering, and the place of his sanctuary was cast down.
8:12 And the army was given over to it together with the continual burnt offering through transgression; and it cast down truth to the ground, and it did its pleasure and prospered.
8:13 Then I heard a holy one speaking; and another holy one said to that certain one who spoke, How long shall be the vision concerning the continual burnt offering, and the transgression that makes desolate, to give both the sanctuary and the army to be trodden under foot?
8:14 And he said to me, To 2,300 evenings and mornings; then shall the sanctuary be cleansed.
8:15 And it came to pass, when I, even I Daniel, had seen the vision, that I sought to understand it; and, behold, there stood before me someone as the appearance of a man.
8:16 And I heard a man's voice between the banks of the Ulai, which called, and said, Gabriel, cause this man to understand the vision.
8:17 So he came near where I stood; and when he came, I was frightened, and fell upon my face: but he said to me, Understand, O son of man; for the vision belongs to the time of the end.
8:18 Now as he was speaking with me, I fell into a deep sleep with my face toward the ground; but he touched me, and set me upright.
8:19 And he said, Behold, I will make you know what shall be in the latter time of the indignation; for it belongs to the appointed time of the end.
8:20 The ram which you saw, that had the two horns, they are the kings of Media and Persia.
8:21 And the rough he-goat is the king of Greece: and the great horn that is between his eyes is the first king.
8:22 And as for that which was broken, in the place from which four stood up, four kingdoms shall stand up out of the nation, but not with his power.
8:23 And in the latter time of their kingdom, when the transgressors are come to the full, a king of fierce countenance, and understanding dark sentences, shall stand up.
8:24 And his power shall be mighty, but not by his own power; and he shall destroy wonderfully, and shall prosper and do his pleasure; and he shall destroy the mighty ones and the holy people.
8:25 And through his policy he shall cause craft to prosper in his hand; and he shall magnify himself in his heart, and in their security shall he destroy many: he shall also stand up against the prince of princes; but he shall be broken without hand.
8:26 And the vision of the evenings and mornings which has been told is true: but you must shut up the vision; for it belongs to many days to come.

8:27 And I, Daniel, fainted, and was sick for some days; then I rose up, and did the king's business: and I wondered at the vision, but no one understood it.

Chapter 9

9:1 In the first year of Darius the son of Ahasuerus, of the seed of the Medes, who was made king over the realm of the Chaldeans,
9:2 in the first year of his reign I, Daniel, understood from the books the number of the years that,. according to the word of Yehovah which came to Jeremiah the prophet, must be fulfilled for the accomplishing of the desolations of Jerusalem, even seventy years.
9:3 And I set my face to the Lord God, to seek by prayer and supplications, with fasting and sackcloth and ashes.
9:4 And I prayed to Yehovah my God, and made confession, and said, Oh, Lord, the great and dreadful God, who keeps covenant and lovingkindness with them that love him and keep his commandments,
9:5 we have sinned, and have dealt perversely, and have done wickedly, and have rebelled, even turning aside from your precepts and from your ordinances;
9:6 neither have we taken heed to your servants the prophets, that spoke in your name to our kings, our princes, and our fathers, and to all the people of the land.
9:7 O Lord, righteousness belongs to you, but to us confusion of face, as at this day; to the men of Judah, and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, and to all Israel, that are near, and that are far off, through all the countries to which you have driven them, because of their trespass that they have trespassed against you.
9:8 O Yehovah, to us belongs confusion of face, to our kings, to our princes, and to our fathers, because we have sinned against you.
9:9 To the Lord our God belong mercies and forgiveness; for we have rebelled against him;
9:10 neither have we obeyed the voice of Yehovah our God, to walk in his laws, which he set before us by his servants the prophets.
9:11 Yes, all Israel have transgressed your law, even turning aside, that they should not obey your voice: for that reason has the curse been poured out upon us, and the oath that is written in the law of Moses the servant of God; for we have sinned against him.
9:12 And he has confirmed his words, which he spoke against us, and against our judges that judged us, by bringing upon us a great evil; for under the whole heaven has not been done as has been done upon Jerusalem.
9:13 As it is written in the law of Moses, all this evil is come upon us: yet we have not entreated the favor of Yehovah our God, that we should turn from our iniquities, and have discernment in your truth.
9:14 Therefore Yehovah has watched over the evil, and brought it upon us; for Yehovah our God is righteous in all his works which he does, and we have not obeyed his voice.
9:15 And now, O Lord our God, that have brought your people forth out of the land of Egypt with a mighty hand, and have gotten you renown, as at this day; we have sinned, we have done wickedly.
9:16 O Lord, according to all your righteousness, let your anger and your wrath, I pray you, be turned away from your city Jerusalem, your holy mountain; because for our sins, and for the iniquities of our fathers, Jerusalem and your people are become a reproach to all that are round about us.
9:17 Now therefore, O our God, listen to the prayer of your servant, and to his supplications, and cause your face to shine upon your sanctuary that is desolate, for the Lord's sake.
9:18 O my God, incline your ear, and hear; open your eyes, and behold our desolations, and the city which is called by your name: for we do not present our supplications before you for our righteousness, but for your great mercies' sake.
9:19 O Lord, hear; O Lord, forgive; O Lord, listen and act; defer not, for your own sake, O my God, because your city and your people are called by your name.

9:20 And while I was speaking, and praying, and confessing my sin and the sin of my people Israel, and presenting my supplication before Yehovah my God for the holy mountain of my God;
9:21 yes, while I was speaking in prayer, the man Gabriel, whom I had seen in the vision at the beginning, being caused to fly swiftly, touched me about the time of the evening sacrifice.
9:22 And he instructed me, and talked with me, and said, O Daniel, I am now come forth to give you wisdom and understanding.
9:23 At the beginning of your supplications the commandment went forth, and I am come to tell you; for you are greatly beloved: therefore consider the matter, and understand the vision.
9:24 Seventy weeks are decreed upon your people and upon your holy city, to finish transgression, and to make an end of sins, and to make reconciliation for iniquity, and to bring in everlasting righteousness, and to seal up vision and prophecy, and to anoint the most holy.
9:25 Know therefore and discern, that from the going forth of the commandment to restore and build Jerusalem to the anointed one, the prince, shall be 7 weeks, and 62 weeks: it shall be built again, with street and moat, even in troublous times.
9:26 And after the 62 weeks the anointed one shall be cut off, but not for himself: and the people of the prince that shall come shall destroy the city and the sanctuary; and their end shall be with a flood, and even to the end shall be war; desolations are determined.
9:27 And he shall make a firm covenant with many for one week: and in the midst of the week he shall cause sacrifice and offering to cease; and upon the wing of abominations shall come one that makes desolate; and even to the full end, and that determined, shall wrath be poured out upon the desolate.

Chapter 10

10:1 In the third year of Cyrus king of Persia a thing was revealed to Daniel, whose name was called Belteshazzar; and the thing was true, even a great warfare: and he understood the thing, and had understanding of the vision.
10:2 In those days I, Daniel, was mourning three whole weeks.
10:3 I ate no pleasant bread, neither did flesh or wine come into my mouth, neither did I anoint myself at all, till three whole weeks were fulfilled.
10:4 And in the twenty-fourth day of the first month, as I was by the side of the great river, which is Hiddekel,
10:5 I lifted up my eyes, and looked, and, behold, a man clothed in linen, whose loins were girded with pure gold of Uphaz:
10:6 his body also was like a gemstone, and his face as the appearance of lightning, and his eyes as flaming torches, and his arms and his feet like burnished brass, and the voice of his words like the voice of a multitude.
10:7 And I, Daniel, alone saw the vision; for the men that were with me saw not the vision; but a great quaking fell upon them, and they fled to hide themselves.
10:8 So I was left alone, and saw this great vision, and no strength remained in me; for my radiant face was turned in me into paleness of death, and I retained no strength.
10:9 Yet I heard the voice of his words; and when I heard the voice of his words, then I fell into a deep sleep on my face, with my face toward the ground.
10:10 And, behold, a hand touched me, which set me upon my knees and upon the palms of my hands.
10:11 And he said to me, O Daniel, O man greatly beloved, understand the words that I speak to you, and stand upright; for to you am I now sent. And when he had spoken this word to me, I stood trembling.
10:12 Then he said to me, Fear not, Daniel; for from the first day that you set your heart to understand, and to humble yourself before your God, your words were heard: and I am come for your words' sake.

10:13 But the prince of the kingdom of Persia withstood me for 21 days; but, lo, Michael, one of the chief princes, came to help me: and I remained there with the kings of Persia.
10:14 Now I am come to make you understand what shall befall your people in the latter days; for the vision is yet for many days:
10:15 and when he had spoken to me according to these words, I set my face toward the ground, and was unable to speak.
10:16 And, behold, one in the likeness of the sons of men touched my lips: then I opened my mouth, and spoke and said to him that stood before me, O my lord, by reason of the vision my sorrows are turned upon me, and I retain no strength.
10:17 For how can the servant of this my lord talk with this my lord? for as for me, straightway there remained no strength in me, neither was there breath left in me.
10:18 Then there touched me again one like the appearance of a man, and he strengthened me.
10:19 And he said, O man greatly beloved, fear not: peace be to you, be strong, yes, be strong. And when he spoke to me, I was strengthened, and said, Let my lord speak; for you have strengthened me.
10:20 Then he said, Do you know why I am come to you? and now I will return to fight with the prince of Persia: and when I go forth, lo, the prince of Greece shall come.
10:21 But I will tell you that which is inscribed in the writing of truth: and there is no one that holds with me against these, except Michael your prince.

Chapter 11

11:1 And as for me, in the first year of Darius the Mede, I stood up to confirm and strengthen him.
11:2 And now I will show you the truth. Behold, there shall stand up yet three kings in Persia; and the fourth shall be far richer than them all: and when he is become strong through his riches, he shall stir up all against the realm of Greece.
11:3 And a mighty king shall stand up, that shall rule with great dominion, and do according to his will.
11:4 And when he shall stand up, his kingdom shall be broken, and shall be divided toward the four winds of heaven, but not to his posterity, nor according to his dominion with which he ruled; for his kingdom shall be plucked up, even for others besides these.
11:5 And the king of the south shall be strong, and one of his princes; and he shall be strong above him, and have dominion; his dominion shall be a great dominion.
11:6 And at the end of years they shall join themselves together; and the daughter of the king of the south shall come to the king of the north to make an agreement: but she shall not retain the strength of her arm; neither shall he stand, nor his arm; but she shall be given up, and they that brought her, and he that begat her, and he that strengthened her in those times.
11:7 But out of a shoot from her roots shall one stand up in his place, who shall come to the army, and shall enter into the fortress of the king of the north, and shall deal against them, and shall prevail.
11:8 And also their gods, with their molten images, and with their precious vessels of silver and of gold, shall he carry captive into Egypt; and he shall refrain some years from the king of the north.
11:9 And he shall come into the realm of the king of the south, but he shall return into his own land.
11:10 And his sons shall war, and shall assemble a multitude of great forces, which shall come on, and overflow, and pass through; and they shall return and war, even to his fortress.
11:11 And the king of the south shall be moved with anger, and shall come forth and fight with him, even with the king of the north; and he shall set forth a great multitude, and the multitude shall be given into his hand.

11:12 And the multitude shall be lifted up, and his heart shall be exalted; and he shall cast down tens of thousands, but he shall not prevail.
11:13 And the king of the north shall return, and shall set forth a multitude greater than the former; and he shall come on at the end of the times, even of years, with a great army and with much substance.
11:14 And in those times there shall many stand up against the king of the south: also the children of the violent among your people shall lift themselves up to establish the vision; but they shall fall.
11:15 So the king of the north shall come, and cast up a mound, and take a well-fortified city: and the forces of the south shall not stand, neither his chosen people, neither shall there be any strength to stand.
11:16 But he that comes against him shall do according to his own will, and no one shall stand before him; and he shall stand in the glorious land, and in his hand shall be destruction.
11:17 And he shall set his face to come with the strength of his whole kingdom, and with him equitable conditions; and he shall perform them: and he shall give him the daughter of women, to corrupt; but she shall not stand, neither be for him.
11:18 After this shall he turn his face to the coastlands, and shall take many: but a prince shall cause the reproach offered by him to cease; yes, moreover, he shall cause his reproach to turn upon him.
11:19 Then he shall turn his face toward the fortresses of his own land; but he shall stumble and fall, and shall not be found.
11:20 Then shall stand up in his place one that shall cause an exactor of taxes to pass through for the glory of the kingdom; but within few days he shall be destroyed, neither in anger, nor in battle.
11:21 And in his place shall stand up a contemptible person, to whom they had not given the honor of the kingdom: but he shall come in time of security, and shall obtain the kingdom by flatteries.
11:22 And the overwhelming forces shall be overwhelmed from before him, and shall be broken; yes, also the prince of the covenant.
11:23 And after the compact made with him he shall work deceitfully; for he shall come up, and shall become strong, with a small people.
11:24 In time of security shall he come even upon the fattest places of the province; and he shall do that which his fathers have not done, nor his fathers' fathers; he shall scatter among them prey, and spoil, and substance: yes, he shall devise his devices against the strongholds, even for a time.
11:25 And he shall stir up his power and his courage against the king of the south with a great army; and the king of the south shall war in battle with an exceedingly great and mighty army; but he shall not stand; for they shall devise devices against him.
11:26 Yes, they that eat of his dainties shall destroy him, and his army shall overflow; and many shall fall down slain.
11:27 And as for both these kings, their hearts shall be to do mischief, and they shall speak lies at one table: but it shall not prosper; for yet the end shall be at the time appointed.
11:28 Then shall he return into his land with great substance; and his heart shall be against the holy covenant; and he shall do his pleasure, and return to his own land.
11:29 At the time appointed he shall return, and come into the south; but it shall not be in the latter time as it was in the former.
11:30 For ships of Kittim shall come against him; therefore he shall be grieved, and shall return, and have indignation against the holy covenant, and shall do his pleasure: he shall even return, and have regard to them that forsake the holy covenant.
11:31 And forces shall stand on his part, and they shall profane the sanctuary, even the fortress, and shall take away the continual burnt offering, and they shall set up the abomination that makes desolate.
11:32 And such as do wickedly against the covenant shall he pervert by flatteries; but the people that know their God shall be strong, and do exploits.

11:33 And they that are wise among the people shall instruct many; yet they shall fall by the sword and by flame, by captivity and by spoil, many days.
11:34 Now when they shall fall, they shall be helped with a little help; but many shall join themselves to them with flatteries.
11:35 And some of them that are wise shall fall, to refine them, and to purify, and to make them white, even to the time of the end; because it is yet for the time appointed.
11:36 And the king shall do according to his will; and he shall exalt himself, and magnify himself above every god, and shall speak marvellous things against the God of gods; and he shall prosper till the indignation be accomplished; for that which is determined shall be done.
11:37 Neither shall he regard the gods of his fathers, nor that desired of women, nor regard any god; for he shall magnify himself above all.
11:38 But in his place shall he honor the god of fortresses; and a god whom his fathers knew not shall he honor with gold, and silver, and with precious stones, and pleasant things.
11:39 And he shall deal with the strongest fortresses by the help of a foreign god: whoever acknowledges him he will increase with glory; and he shall cause them to rule over many, and shall divide the land for a price.
11:40 And at the time of the end shall the king of the south contend with him; and the king of the north shall come against him like a whirlwind, with chariots, and with horsemen, and with many ships; and he shall enter into the countries, and shall overflow and pass through.
11:41 He shall enter also into the glorious land, and many countries shall be overthrown; but these shall be delivered out of his hand: Edom, and Moab, and the chief of the children of Ammon.
11:42 He shall stretch forth his hand also upon the countries; and the land of Egypt shall not escape.
11:43 But he shall have power over the treasures of gold and of silver, and over all the precious things of Egypt; and the Libyans and the Ethiopians shall be at his steps.
11:44 But tidings out of the east and out of the north shall trouble him; and he shall go forth with great fury to destroy and utterly to sweep away many.
11:45 And he shall plant the tents of his palace between the sea and the glorious holy mountain; yet he shall come to his end, and no one shall help him.

Chapter 12

12:1 And at that time shall Michael stand up, the great prince who stands for the children of your people; and there shall be a time of trouble, such as never has been since there was a nation even to that same time: and at that time your people shall be delivered, every one that shall be found written in the book.
12:2 And many of those sleeping in the dust of the earth shall awake, some to everlasting life, and some to shame and everlasting contempt.
12:3 And those that are wise shall shine like the brightness of the firmament; and those that turn many to righteousness as the stars for ever and ever.
12:4 But you, O Daniel, shut up the words, and seal the book, even to the time of the end: many shall run to and fro, and knowledge shall be increased.
12:5 Then I, Daniel, looked, and, behold, there stood two others, one on the brink of the river on this side, and the other on the brink of the river on that side.
12:6 And one said to the man clothed in linen, who was above the waters of the river, How long shall it be to the end of these wonders?
12:7 And I heard the man clothed in linen, who was above the waters of the river, when he held up his right hand and his left hand to heaven, and swore by him that lives for ever that it shall be for a time, times, and half a time; and when they have made an end of breaking in pieces the power of the holy people, all these things shall be finished.

12:8 And I heard, but did not understand: then I said, O my lord, what shall be the outcome of these things?
12:9 And he said, Go your way, Daniel; for the words are shut up and sealed till the time of the end.
12:10 Many shall purify themselves, and make themselves white, and be refined; but the wicked shall do wickedly; and none of the wicked shall understand; but those that are wise shall understand.
12:11 And from the time that the continual burnt offering shall be taken away, and the abomination that makes desolate set up, there shall be 1,290 days.
12:12 Blessed is he that waits, and reaches the 1,335 days.
12:13 But you, you go your way till the end be; for you shall rest, and shall stand in your inheritance, at the end of the days.

End of Daniel

The Book of the Prophet Hosea

Hosea

1:1 The word of Yehovah that came to Hosea the son of Beeri, in the days of Uzziah, Jotham, ahaz, and Hezekiah, kings of Judah, and in the days of Jeroboam the son of Joash, king of Israel.
1:2 When Yehovah spoke at the first by Hosea, Yehovah said to Hosea, Go, take to you a wife of whoredom and children of whoredom; for the land does commit great whoredom, departing from Yehovah.
1:3 So he went and took Gomer the daughter of Diblaim; and she conceived, and bore him a son.
1:4 And Yehovah said to him, Call his name Jezreel; for yet a little while, and I will avenge the blood of Jezreel upon the house of Jehu, and will cause the kingdom of the house of Israel to cease.
1:5 And it shall come to pass at that day, that I will break the bow of Israel in the valley of Jezreel.
1:6 And she conceived again, and bore a daughter. And Yehovah said to him, Call her name Lo-ruhamah; for I will no more have mercy upon the house of Israel, that I should in any wise pardon them.
1:7 But I will have mercy upon the house of Judah, and will save them by Yehovah their God, and will not save them by bow, nor by sword, nor by battle, by horses, nor by horsemen.
1:8 Now when she had weaned Lo-ruhamah, she conceived, and bore a son.
1:9 And Yehovah said, Call his name Lo-ammi; for ye are not my people, and I will not be your God.
1:10 Yet the number of the children of Israel shall be as the sand of the sea, which cannot be measured nor numbered; and it shall come to pass that, in the place where it was said to them, You are not my people, it shall be said to them, You are the sons of the living God.
1:11 And the children of Judah and the children of Israel shall be gathered together, and they shall appoint themselves one head, and shall go up from the land; for great shall be the day of Jezreel.
2:1 Say ye to your brethren, ammi; and to your sisters, Ruhamah.
2:2 Contend with your mother, contend; for she is not my wife, neither am I her husband; and let her put away her whoredoms from her face, and her adulteries from between her breasts;
2:3 lest I strip her naked, and set her as in the day that she was born, and make her as a wilderness, and set her like a dry land, and slay her with thirst.
2:4 Yes, upon her children I will have no mercy; for they are children of whoredom;
2:5 for their mother has played the harlot; she that conceived them has done shamefully; for she said, I will go after my lovers, that give me my bread and my water, my wool and my flax, my oil and my drink.
2:6 Therefore, behold, I will hedge up your way with thorns, and I will build a wall against her, that she shall not find her paths.
2:7 And she shall follow after her lovers, but she shall not overtake them; and she shall seek them, but shall not find them: then shall she say, I will go and return to my first husband; for then was it better with me than now.
2:8 For she did not know that I gave her the grain, and the new wine, and the oil, and multiplied to her silver and gold, which they used for Baal.
2:9 Therefore I will take back my grain in the time thereof, and my new wine in the season thereof, and will pluck away my wool and my flax which should have covered her nakedness.
2:10 And now I will uncover her lewdness in the sight of her lovers, and no one shall deliver her out of my hand.
2:11 I will also cause all her mirth to cease, her feasts, her new moons, and her sabbaths, and all her solemn assemblies.

2:12 And I will lay waste her vines and her fig-trees, whereof she has said, These are my wages that my lovers have given me; and I will make them a forest, and the beasts of the field shall eat them.
2:13 And I will visit upon her the days of the Baalim, to which she burned incense, when she decked herself with her earrings and her jewels, and went after her lovers, and forgat me, says Yehovah.
2:14 Therefore, behold, I will allure her, and bring her into the wilderness, and speak comfortably to her.
2:15 And I will give her her vineyards from there, and the valley of Achor for a door of hope; and she shall make answer there, as in the days of her youth, and as in the day when she came up out of the land of Egypt.
2:16 And it shall be at that day, says Yehovah, that you shall call me Ishi, and shall call me no more Baali.
2:17 For I will take away the names of the Baalim out of her mouth, and they shall no more be mentioned by their name.
2:18 And in that day I will make a covenant for them with the beasts of the field, and with the birds of the heavens, and with the creeping things of the ground: and I will break the bow and the sword and the battle out of the land, and will make them to lie down safely.
2:19 And I will betroth you to me for ever; yes, I will betroth you to me in righteousness, and in justice, and in lovingkindness, and in mercies.
2:20 I will even betroth you to me in faithfulness; and you shall know Yehovah.
2:21 And it shall come to pass in that day, I will answer, says Yehovah, I will answer the heavens, and they shall answer the earth;
2:22 and the earth shall answer the grain, and the new wine, and the oil; and they shall answer Jezreel.
2:23 And I will sow her to me in the earth; and I will have mercy upon her that had not obtained mercy; and I will say to them that were not my people, You are my people; and they shall say, You are my God.
3:1 And Yehovah said to me, Go again, love a woman beloved of her friend, and an adulteress, even as Yehovah loves the children of Israel, though they turn to other gods, and love cakes of raisins.
3:2 So I bought her to me for fifteen pieces of silver, and a homer of barley, and a half-homer of barley;
3:3 and I said to her, You shall abide for me many days; you shall not play the harlot, and you shall not be any man's wife: so I will also be toward you.
3:4 For the children of Israel shall abide many days without king, and without prince, and without sacrifice, and without pillar, and without ephod or teraphim:
3:5 afterward shall the children of Israel return, and seek Yehovah their God, and David their king, and shall come with fear to Yehovah and to his goodness in the latter days.
4:1 Hear the word of Yehovah, ye children of Israel; for Yehovah has a controversy with the inhabitants of the land, because there is no truth, nor goodness, nor knowledge of God in the land.
4:2 There is nought but swearing and breaking faith, and killing, and stealing, and committing adultery; they break out, and blood touches blood.
4:3 Therefore shall the land mourn, and every one that dwells therein shall languish, with the beasts of the field and the birds of the heavens; yes, the fishes of the sea also shall be taken away.
4:4 Yet let no man strive, neither let any man reprove; for your people are as they that strive with the priest.
4:5 And you shall stumble in the day, and the prophet also shall stumble with you in the night; and I will destroy your mother.
4:6 My people are destroyed for lack of knowledge: because you have rejected knowledge, I will also reject you, that you shall be no priest to me: seeing you have forgotten the law of your God, I also will forget your children.
4:7 As they were multiplied, so they sinned against me: I will change their glory into shame.
4:8 They feed on the sin of my people, and set their heart on their iniquity.

4:9 And it shall be, like people, like priest; and I will punish them for their ways, and will requite them their doings.
4:10 And they shall eat, and not have enough; they shall play the harlot, and shall not increase; because they have left off taking heed to Yehovah.
4:11 Whoredom and wine and new wine take away the understanding.
4:12 My people ask counsel at their stock, and their staff declares to them; for the spirit of whoredom has caused them to err, and they have played the harlot, departing from under their God.
4:13 They sacrifice upon the tops of the mountains, and burn incense upon the hills, under oaks and poplars and terebinths, because the shadow thereof is good: therefore your daughters play the harlot, and your brides commit adultery.
4:14 I will not punish your daughters when they play the harlot, nor your brides when they commit adultery; for the men themselves go apart with harlots, and they sacrifice with the prostitutes; and the people that does not understand shall be overthrown.
4:15 Though you, Israel, play the harlot, yet let not Judah offend; and come not ye to Gilgal, neither go ye up to Beth-aven, nor swear, as Yehovah lives.
4:16 For Israel has behaved himself stubbornly, like a stubborn heifer: now will Yehovah feed them as a lamb in a large place.
4:17 Ephraim is joined to idols; let him alone.
4:18 Their drink is become sour; they play the harlot continually; her rulers dearly love shame.
4:19 The wind has wrapped her up in its wings; and they shall be put to shame because of their sacrifices.
5:1 Hear this, O ye priests, and hearken, O house of Israel, and give ear, O house of the king; for to you pertains the judgment; for ye have been a snare at Mizpah, and a net spread upon Tabor.
5:2 And the revolters are gone deep in making slaughter; but I am a rebuker of them all.
5:3 I know Ephraim, and Israel is not hid from me; for now, O Ephraim, you have played the harlot, Israel is defiled.
5:4 Their doings will not allow them to turn to their God; for the spirit of whoredom is within them, and they know not Yehovah.
5:5 And the pride of Israel does testify to his face: therefore Israel and Ephraim shall stumble in their iniquity; Judah also shall stumble with them.
5:6 They shall go with their flocks and with their herds to seek Yehovah; but they shall not find him: he has withdrawn himself from them.
5:7 They have dealt treacherously against Yehovah; for they have borne strange children: now shall the new moon devour them with their fields.
5:8 Blow ye the cornet in Gibeah, and the trumpet in Ramah: sound an alarm at Beth-aven; behind you, O Benjamin.
5:9 Ephraim shall become a desolation in the day of rebuke: among the tribes of Israel have I made known that which shall surely be.
5:10 The princes of Judah are like them that remove the landmark: I will pour out my wrath upon them like water.
5:11 Ephraim is oppressed, he is crushed in judgment; because he was content to walk after man's command.
5:12 Therefore am I to Ephraim as a moth, and to the house of Judah as rottenness.
5:13 When Ephraim saw his sickness, and Judah saw his wound, then went Ephraim to Assyria, and sent to king Jareb: but he is not able to heal you, neither will he cure you of your wound.
5:14 For I will be to Ephraim as a lion, and as a young lion to the house of Judah: I, even I, will tear and go away; I will carry off, and there shall be no one to deliver.
5:15 I will go and return to my place, till they acknowledge their offence, and seek my face: in their affliction they will seek me earnestly.
6:1 Come, and let us return to Yehovah; for he has torn, and he will heal us; he has smitten, and he will bind us up.
6:2 After two days will he revive us: on the third day he will raise us up, and we shall live before him.

6:3 And let us know, let us follow on to know Yehovah: his going forth is sure as the morning; and he will come to us as the rain, as the latter rain that waters the earth.
6:4 O Ephraim, what shall I do to you? O Judah, what shall I do to you? for your goodness is as a morning cloud, and as the dew that goes early away.
6:5 Therefore have I hewed them by the prophets; I have slain them by the words of my mouth: and your judgments are as the light that goes forth.
6:6 For I desire goodness, and not sacrifice; and the knowledge of God more than burnt offerings.
6:7 But they like Adam have transgressed the covenant: there have they dealt treacherously against me.
6:8 Gilead is a city of them that work iniquity; it is stained with blood.
6:9 And as troops of robbers wait for a man, so the company of priests murder in the way toward Shechem; yes, they have committed lewdness.
6:10 In the house of Israel I have seen a horrible thing: there whoredom is found in Ephraim, Israel is defiled.
6:11 Also, O Judah, there is a harvest appointed for you, when I bring back the captivity of my people.
7:1 When I would heal Israel, then is the iniquity of Ephraim uncovered, and the wickedness of Samaria; for they commit falsehood, and the thief enters in, and the troop of robbers ravages outside.
7:2 And they consider not in their hearts that I remember all their wickedness: now have their own doings beset them about; they are before my face.
7:3 They make the king glad with their wickedness, and the princes with their lies.
7:4 They are all adulterers; they are as an oven heated by the baker; he ceases to stir the fire, from the kneading of the dough, until it be leavened.
7:5 On the day of our king the princes made themselves sick with the heat of wine; he stretched out his hand with scoffers.
7:6 For they have made ready their heart like an oven, while they lie in wait: their baker sleeps all the night; in the morning it burns as a flaming fire.
7:7 They are all hot as an oven, and devour their judges; all their kings are fallen: there is none among them that calls to me.
7:8 Ephraim, he mixes himself among the peoples; Ephraim is a cake not turned.
7:9 Strangers have devoured his strength, and he knows it not: yes, gray hairs are here and there upon him, and he knows it not.
7:10 And the pride of Israel does testify to his face: yet they have not returned to Yehovah their God, nor sought him, for all this.
7:11 And Ephraim is like a silly dove, without understanding: they call to Egypt, they go to Assyria.
7:12 When they shall go, I will spread my net upon them; I will bring them down as the birds of the heavens; I will chastise them, as their congregation has heard.
7:13 Woe to them! for they have wandered from me; destruction to them! for they have trespassed against me: though I would redeem them, yet they have spoken lies against me.
7:14 And they have not cried to me with their heart, but they howl upon their beds: they assemble themselves for grain and new wine; they rebel against me.
7:15 Though I have taught and strengthened their arms, yet do they devise mischief against me.
7:16 They return, but not to him that is on high; they are like a deceitful bow; their princes shall fall by the sword for the rage of their tongue: this shall be their derision in the land of Egypt.
8:1 Set the trumpet to your mouth. As an eagle he comes against the house of Yehovah, because they have transgressed my covenant, and trespassed against my law.
8:2 They shall cry to me, My God, we Israel know you.
8:3 Israel has cast off that which is good: the enemy shall pursue him.
8:4 They have set up kings, but not by me; they have made princes, and I knew it not: of their silver and their gold have they made them idols, that they may be cut off.

8:5 He has cast off your calf, O Samaria; my anger is kindled against them: how long will it be until they attain to innocency?
8:6 For from Israel is even this; the workman made it, and it is no God; yes, the calf of Samaria shall be broken in pieces.
8:7 For they sow the wind, and they shall reap the whirlwind: he has no standing grain; the blade shall yield no meal; if so be it yields, strangers shall swallow it up.
8:8 Israel is swallowed up: now are they among the nations as a vessel in which no one delights.
8:9 For they are gone up to Assyria, like a wild donkey alone by himself: Ephraim has hired lovers.
8:10 Yes, though they hire allies among the nations, now I will gather them; and they begin to be diminished by reason of the burden of the tribute of the king of princes.
8:11 Because Ephraim has multiplied altars for sinning, altars have been to him for sinning.
8:12 I wrote for him the ten thousand things of my law; but they are counted as a strange thing.
8:13 As for the sacrifices of my offerings, they sacrifice flesh and eat it; but Yehovah accepts them not: now will he remember their iniquity, and visit their sins; they shall return to Egypt.
8:14 For Israel has forgotten his Maker, and built palaces; and Judah has multiplied fortified cities: but I will send a fire upon his cities, and it shall devour the castles thereof.
9:1 Rejoice not, O Israel, for joy, like the peoples; for you have played the harlot, departing from your God; you have loved hire upon every threshing-floor.
9:2 The threshing-floor and the winepress shall not feed them, and the new wine shall fail her.
9:3 They shall not dwell in Yehovah's land; but Ephraim shall return to Egypt, and they shall eat unclean food in Assyria.
9:4 They shall not pour out wine-offerings to Yehovah, neither shall they be pleasing to him: their sacrifices shall be to them as the bread of mourners; all that eat thereof shall be polluted; for their bread shall be for their appetite; it shall not come into the house of Yehovah.
9:5 What will ye do in the day of solemn assembly, and in the day of the feast of Yehovah?
9:6 For, lo, they are gone away from destruction; yet Egypt shall gather them up, Memphis shall bury them; their pleasant things of silver, nettles shall possess them; thorns shall be in their tents.
9:7 The days of visitation are come, the days of recompense are come; Israel shall know it: the prophet is a fool, the man that has the spirit is mad, for the abundance of your iniquity, and because the enmity is great.
9:8 Ephraim was a watchman with my God: as for the prophet, a fowler's snare is in all his ways, and enmity in the house of his God.
9:9 They have deeply corrupted themselves, as in the days of Gibeah: he will remember their iniquity, he will visit their sins.
9:10 I found Israel like grapes in the wilderness; I saw your fathers as the first-ripe in the fig-tree at its first season: but they came to Baal-peor, and consecrated themselves to the shameful thing, and became abominable like that which they loved.
9:11 As for Ephraim, their glory shall fly away like a bird: there shall be no birth, and no one with child, and no conception.
9:12 Though they bring up their children, yet I will bereave them, so that not a man shall be left: yes, woe also to them when I depart from them!
9:13 Ephraim, like as I have seen Tyre, is planted in a pleasant place: but Ephraim shall bring out his children to the slayer.
9:14 Give them, O Yehovah-what will you give? give them a miscarrying womb and dry breasts.

9:15 All their wickedness is in Gilgal; for there I hated them: because of the wickedness of their doings I will drive them out of my house; I will love them no more; all their princes are revolters.
9:16 Ephraim is smitten, their root is dried up, they shall bear no fruit: yes, though they bring forth, yet I will slay the beloved fruit of their womb.
9:17 My God will cast them away, because they did not hearken to him; and they shall be wanderers among the nations.
10:1 Israel is a luxuriant vine, that puts forth his fruit: according to the abundance of his fruit he has multiplied his altars; according to the goodness of their land they have made goodly pillars.
10:2 Their heart is divided; now they shall be found guilty: he will strike their altars, he will destroy their pillars.
10:3 Surely now shall they say, We have no king; for we fear not Yehovah; and the king, what can he do for us?
10:4 They speak vain words, swearing falsely in making covenants: therefore judgment springs up as hemlock in the furrows of the field.
10:5 The inhabitants of Samaria shall be in terror for the calves of Beth-aven; for the people thereof shall mourn over it, and the priests thereof that rejoiced over it, for the glory thereof, because it is departed from it.
10:6 It also shall be carried to Assyria for a present to king Jareb: Ephraim shall receive shame, and Israel shall be ashamed of his own counsel.
10:7 As for Samaria, her king is cut off, as foam upon the water.
10:8 The high places also of Aven, the sin of Israel, shall be destroyed: the thorn and the thistle shall come up on their altars; and they shall say to the mountains, Cover us; and to the hills, Fall on us.
10:9 O Israel, you have sinned from the days of Gibeah: there they stood; the battle against the children of iniquity does not overtake them in Gibeah.
10:10 When it is my desire, I will chastise them; and the peoples shall be gathered against them, when they are bound to their two transgressions.
10:11 And Ephraim is a heifer that is taught, that loves to tread out the grain; but I have passed over upon her fair neck: I will set a rider on Ephraim; Judah shall plow, Jacob shall break his clods.
10:12 Sow to yourselves in righteousness, reap according to kindness; break up your fallow ground; for it is time to seek Yehovah, till he come and rain righteousness upon you.
10:13 You have plowed wickedness, ye have reaped iniquity; ye have eaten the fruit of lies; for you did trust in your way, in the multitude of your mighty men.
10:14 Therefore shall a tumult arise among your people, and all your fortresses shall be destroyed, as Shalman destroyed Beth-arbel in the day of battle: the mother was dashed in pieces with her children.
10:15 So shall Beth-el do to you because of your great wickedness: at daybreak shall the king of Israel be utterly cut off.
11:1 When Israel was a child, then I loved him, and called my son out of Egypt.
11:2 The more the prophets called them, the more they went from them: they sacrificed to the Baalim, and burned incense to graven images.
11:3 Yet I taught Ephraim to walk; I took them on my arms; but they knew not that I healed them.
11:4 I drew them with cords of a man, with bands of love; and I was to them as they that lift up the yoke on their jaws; and I laid food before them.
11:5 They shall not return into the land of Egypt; but the Assyrian shall be their king, because they refused to return to me.
11:6 And the sword shall fall upon their cities, and shall consume their bars, and devour them, because of their own counsels.
11:7 And my people are bent on backsliding from me: though they call them to him that is on high, no one at all will exalt him.
11:8 How shall I give you up, Ephraim? how shall I cast you off, Israel? how shall I make you as Admah? how shall I set you as Zeboiim? my heart is turned within me, my compassions are kindled together.

11:9 I will not execute the fierceness of my anger, I will not return to destroy Ephraim: for I am God, and not man; the Holy One in the midst of you; and I will not come in wrath.
11:10 They shall walk after Yehovah, who will roar like a lion; for he will roar, and the children shall come trembling from the west.
11:11 They shall come trembling as a bird out of Egypt, and as a dove out of the land of Assyria; and I will make them to dwell in their houses, says Yehovah.
11:12 Ephraim compasses me about with falsehood, and the house of Israel with deceit; but Judah yet rules with God, and is faithful with the Holy One.
12:1 Ephraim feeds on wind, and follows after the east wind: he continually multiplies lies and desolation; and they make a covenant with Assyria, and oil is carried into Egypt.
12:2 Yehovah has also a controversy with Judah, and will punish Jacob according to his ways; according to his doings will he recompense him.
12:3 In the womb he took his brother by the heel; and in his manhood he had power with God:
12:4 yes, he had power over the angel, and prevailed; he wept, and made supplication to him: he found him at Beth-el, and there he spoke with us,
12:5 even Yehovah, the God of hosts; Yehovah is his memorial name.
12:6 Therefore turn you to your God: keep kindness and justice, and wait for your God continually.
12:7 He is a trafficker, the balances of deceit are in his hand: he loves to oppress.
12:8 And Ephraim said, Surely I am become rich, I have found me wealth: in all my labors they shall find in me no iniquity that were sin.
12:9 But I am Yehovah your God from the land of Egypt; I will yet again make you to dwell in tents, as in the days of the solemn feast.
12:10 I have also spoken to the prophets, and I have multiplied visions; and by the ministry of the prophets have I used similitudes.
12:11 Is Gilead iniquity? they are altogether false; in Gilgal they sacrifice bullocks; yes, their altars are as heaps in the furrows of the field.
12:12 And Jacob fled into the field of Aram, and Israel served for a wife, and for a wife he kept sheep.
12:13 And by a prophet Yehovah brought Israel up out of Egypt, and by a prophet was he preserved.
12:14 Ephraim has provoked to anger most bitterly: therefore shall his blood be left upon him, and his reproach shall his Lord return to him.
13:1 When Ephraim spoke, there was trembling; he exalted himself in Israel; but when he offended in Baal, he died.
13:2 And now they sin more and more, and have made them molten images of their silver, even idols according to their own understanding, all of them the work of the craftsmen: they say of them, Let the men that sacrifice kiss the calves.
13:3 Therefore they shall be as the morning cloud, and as the dew that passes early away, as the chaff that is driven with the whirlwind out of the threshing-floor, and as the smoke out of the chimney.
13:4 Yet I am Yehovah your God from the land of Egypt; and you shall know no god but me, and besides me there is no saviour.
13:5 I knew you in the wilderness, in the land of great drought.
13:6 According to their pasture, so were they filled; they were filled, and their heart was exalted: therefore have they forgotten me.
13:7 Therefore I am to them as a lion; as a leopard I will watch by the way;
13:8 I will meet them as a bear that is bereaved of her whelps, and will rend the lobe of their heart; and there I will devour them like a lioness; the wild beast shall tear them.
13:9 It is your destruction, O Israel, that you are against me, against your help.
13:10 Where now is your king, that he may save you in all your cities? and your judges, of whom you said, Give me a king and princes?
13:11 I have given you a king in my anger, and have taken him away in my wrath.
13:12 The iniquity of Ephraim is bound up; his sin is laid up in store.

13:13 The sorrows of a travailing woman shall come upon him: he is an unwise son; for it is time he should not tarry in the place of the breaking forth of children.
13:14 Shall I ransom them from the power of Sheol? Shall I redeem them from death? O death, where are your plagues? O Sheol, where is your destruction? repentance shall be hid from my eyes.
13:15 Though he be fruitful among his brethren, an east wind shall come, the breath of Yehovah coming up from the wilderness; and his spring shall become dry, and his fountain shall be dried up: he shall make spoil of the treasure of all goodly vessels.
13:16 Samaria shall bear her guilt; for she has rebelled against her God: they shall fall by the sword; their infants shall be dashed in pieces, and their women with child shall be ripped up.
14:1 O Israel, return to Yehovah your God; for you have fallen by your iniquity.
14:2 Take with you words, and return to Yehovah: say to him, Take away all iniquity, and accept that which is good: so will we render as bullocks the offering of our lips.
14:3 Assyria shall not save us; we will not ride upon horses; neither will we say any more to the work of our hands, You are our gods; for in you the fatherless finds mercy.
14:4 I will heal their backsliding, I will love them freely; for my anger is turned away from him.
14:5 I will be as the dew to Israel; he shall blossom as the lily, and cast forth his roots as Lebanon.
14:6 His branches shall spread, and his beauty shall be as the olive-tree, and his smell as Lebanon.
14:7 They that dwell under his shadow shall return; they shall revive as the grain, and blossom as the vine: the scent thereof shall be as the wine of Lebanon.
14:8 Ephraim shall say, What have I to do any more with idols? I have answered, and will regard him: I am like a green fir-tree; from me is your fruit found.
14:9 Who is wise, that he may understand these things? prudent, that he may know them? for the ways of Yehovah are right, and the just shall walk in them; but transgressors shall fall therein.

End of Hosea

The Book of the Prophet Joel

Joel

1:1 The word of Yehovah that came to Joel the son of Pethuel.
1:2 Hear this, ye old men, and give ear, all ye inhabitants of the land. Has this been in your days, or in the days of your fathers?
1:3 Tell ye your children of it, and let your children tell their children, and their children another generation.
1:4 That which the palmer-worm has left has the locust eaten; and that which the locust has left has the canker-worm eaten; and that which the canker-worm has left has the caterpillar eaten.
1:5 Awake, ye drunkards, and weep; and wail, all ye drinkers of wine, because of the sweet wine; for it is cut off from your mouth.
1:6 For a nation is come up upon my land, strong, and without number; his teeth are the teeth of a lion, and he has the jaw-teeth of a lioness.
1:7 He has laid my vine waste, and barked my fig-tree: he has made it clean bare, and cast it away; the branches thereof are made white.
1:8 Lament like a virgin girded with sackcloth for the husband of her youth.
1:9 The meal offering and the drink offering are cut off from the house of Yehovah; the priests, Yehovah's ministers, mourn.
1:10 The field is laid waste, the land mourns; for the grain is destroyed, the new wine is dried up, the oil languishes.
1:11 Be confounded, O ye husbandmen, wail, O ye vinedressers, for the wheat and for the barley; for the harvest of the field is perished.
1:12 The vine is withered, and the fig-tree languishes; the pomegranate-tree, the palm-tree also, and the apple-tree, even all the trees of the field are withered: for joy is withered away from the sons of men.
1:13 Gird yourselves with sackcloth, and lament, ye priests; wail, ye ministers of the altar; come, lie all night in sackcloth, ye ministers of my God: for the meal offering and the drink offering are withholden from the house of your God.
1:14 Sanctify a fast, call a solemn assembly, gather the old men and all the inhabitants of the land to the house of Yehovah your God, and cry to Yehovah.
1:15 Alas for the day! for the day of Yehovah is at hand, and as destruction from the Almighty shall it come.
1:16 Is not the food cut off before our eyes, yes, joy and gladness from the house of our God?
1:17 The seeds rot under their clods; the garners are laid desolate, the barns are broken down; for the grain is withered.
1:18 How do the beasts groan! the herds of cattle are perplexed, because they have no pasture; yes, the flocks of sheep are made desolate.
1:19 O Yehovah, to you do I cry; for the fire has devoured the pastures of the wilderness, and the flame has burned all the trees of the field.
1:20 Yes, the beasts of the field pant to you; for the water brooks are dried up, and the fire has devoured the pastures of the wilderness.
2:1 Blow ye the trumpet in Zion, and sound an alarm in my holy mountain; let all the inhabitants of the land tremble: for the day of Yehovah comes, for it is near at hand;
2:2 a day of darkness and gloominess, a day of clouds and thick darkness, as the dawn spread upon the mountains; a great people and a strong; there has not been ever the like, neither shall be any more after them, even to the years of many generations.
2:3 A fire devours before them; and behind them a flame burns: the land is as the garden of Eden before them, and behind them a desolate wilderness; yes, and nothing escapes them.
2:4 The appearance of them is as the appearance of horses; and as horsemen, so do they run.

2:5 Like the noise of chariots on the tops of the mountains do they leap, like the noise of a flame of fire that devours the stubble, as a strong people set in battle array.
2:6 At their presence the peoples are in anguish; all faces are grown pale.
2:7 They run like mighty men; they climb the wall like men of war; and they march every one on his ways, and they break not their ranks.
2:8 Neither does one thrust another; they march every one in his path; and they burst through the weapons, and break not off their course.
2:9 They leap upon the city; they run upon the wall; they climb up into the houses; they enter in at the windows like a thief.
2:10 The earth quakes before them; the heavens tremble; the sun and the moon are darkened, and the stars withdraw their shining.
2:11 And Yehovah utters his voice before his army; for his camp is very great; for he is strong that executes his word; for the day of Yehovah is great and very terrible; and who can abide it?
2:12 Yet even now, says Yehovah, turn ye to me with all your heart, and with fasting, and with weeping, and with mourning:
2:13 and rend your heart, and not your garments, and turn to Yehovah your God; for he is gracious and merciful, slow to anger, and abundant in lovingkindness, and repents him of the evil.
2:14 Who knows whether he will not turn and repent, and leave a blessing behind him, even a meal offering and a drink offering to Yehovah your God?
2:15 Blow the trumpet in Zion, sanctify a fast, call a solemn assembly;
2:16 gather the people, sanctify the assembly, assemble the old men, gather the children, and those that suck the breasts; let the bridegroom go forth from his chamber, and the bride out of her closet.
2:17 Let the priests, the ministers of Yehovah, weep between the porch and the altar, and let them say, Spare your people, O Yehovah, and give not your heritage to reproach, that the nations should rule over them: why should they say among the peoples, Where is their God?
2:18 Then was Yehovah jealous for his land, and had pity on his people.
2:19 And Yehovah answered and said to his people, Behold, I will send you grain, and new wine, and oil, and ye shall be satisfied with it; and I will no more make you a reproach among the nations;
2:20 but I will remove far off from you the northern army, and will drive it into a land barren and desolate, its forepart into the eastern sea, and its hinder part into the western sea; and its stench shall come up, and its ill savor shall come up, because it has done great things.
2:21 Fear not, O land, be glad and rejoice; for Yehovah has done great things.
2:22 Be not afraid, ye beasts of the field; for the pastures of the wilderness do spring, for the tree bears its fruit, the fig-tree and the vine do yield their strength.
2:23 Be glad then, ye children of Zion, and rejoice in Yehovah your God; for he gives you the former rain in just measure, and he causes to come down for you the rain, the former rain and the latter rain, in the first month.
2:24 And the floors shall be full of wheat, and the vats shall overflow with new wine and oil.
2:25 And I will restore to you the years that the locust has eaten, the canker-worm, and the caterpillar, and the palmer-worm, my great army which I sent among you.
2:26 And ye shall eat in plenty and be satisfied, and shall praise the name of Yehovah your God, that has dealt wondrously with you; and my people shall never be put to shame.
2:27 And ye shall know that I am in the midst of Israel, and that I am Yehovah your God, and there is no one else; and my people shall never be put to shame.
2:28 And it shall come to pass afterward, that I will pour out my Spirit upon all flesh; and your sons and your daughters shall prophesy, your old men shall dream dreams, your young men shall see visions:
2:29 and also upon the servants and upon the handmaids in those days I will pour out my Spirit.

2:30 And I will show wonders in the heavens and in the earth: blood, and fire, and pillars of smoke.
2:31 The sun shall be turned into darkness, and the moon into blood, before the great and terrible day of Yehovah comes.
2:32 And it shall come to pass, that whoever shall call on the name of Yehovah shall be delivered; for in mount Zion and in Jerusalem there shall be those that escape, as Yehovah has said, and among the remnant those whom Yehovah does call.
3:1 For, behold, in those days, and in that time, when I shall bring back the captivity of Judah and Jerusalem,
3:2 I will gather all nations, and will bring them down into the valley of Jehoshaphat; and I will execute judgment upon them there for my people and for my heritage Israel, whom they have scattered among the nations: and they have parted my land,
3:3 and have cast lots for my people, and have given a boy for a harlot, and sold a girl for wine, that they may drink.
3:4 Yes, and what are ye to me, O Tyre, and Sidon, and all the regions of Philistia?[58] will ye render me a recompense? and if ye recompense me, swiftly and speedily I will return your recompense upon your own head.
3:5 Forasmuch as ye have taken my silver and my gold, and have carried into your temples my goodly precious things,
3:6 and have sold the children of Judah and the children of Jerusalem to the sons of the Grecians, that ye may remove them far from their border;
3:7 behold, I will stir them up out of the place whither ye have sold them, and will return your recompense upon your own head;
3:8 and I will sell your sons and your daughters into the hand of the children of Judah, and they shall sell them to the men of Sheba, to a nation far off: for Yehovah has spoken it.
3:9 Proclaim ye this among the nations; prepare war; stir up the mighty men; let all the men of war draw near, let them come up.
3:10 Beat your plowshares into swords, and your pruning-hooks into spears: let the weak say, I am strong.
3:11 Hasten, and come, all ye nations round about, and gather yourselves together: there cause your mighty ones to come down, O Yehovah.
3:12 Let the nations bestir themselves, and come up to the valley of Jehoshaphat; for there I will sit to judge all the nations round about.
3:13 Put ye in the sickle; for the harvest is ripe: come, tread ye; for the winepress is full, the vats overflow; for their wickedness is great.
3:14 Multitudes, multitudes in the valley of decision! for the day of Yehovah is near in the valley of decision.
3:15 The sun and the moon are darkened, and the stars withdraw their shining.
3:16 And Yehovah will roar from Zion, and utter his voice from Jerusalem; and the heavens and the earth shall shake: but Yehovah will be a refuge to his people, and a stronghold to the children of Israel.
3:17 So shall ye know that I am Yehovah your God, dwelling in Zion my holy mountain: then shall Jerusalem be holy, and there shall no strangers pass through her any more.
3:18 And it shall come to pass in that day, that the mountains shall drop down sweet wine, and the hills shall flow with milk, and all the brooks of Judah shall flow with waters; and a fountain shall come forth from the house of Yehovah, and shall water the valley of Shittim.
3:19 Egypt shall be a desolation, and Edom shall be a desolate wilderness, for the violence done to the children of Judah, because they have shed innocent blood in their land.
3:20 But Judah shall abide for ever, and Jerusalem from generation to generation.
3:21 And I will cleanse their blood, that I have not cleansed: for Yehovah dwells in Zion.

[58] Tyre and Sidon refer to what is now Lebanon, and Philistia is now Gaza.

End of Joel

Amos

1:1 The words of Amos, who was among the herdsmen of Tekoa, which he saw concerning Israel in the days of Uzziah king of Judah, and in the days of Jeroboam the son of Joash king of Israel, two years before the earthquake.
1:2 And he said, Yehovah will roar from Zion, and utter his voice from Jerusalem; and the pastures of the shepherds shall mourn, and the top of Carmel shall wither.
1:3 Thus says Yehovah: For three transgressions of Damascus, yes, for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof; because they have threshed Gilead with threshing instruments of iron:
1:4 but I will send a fire into the house of Hazael, and it shall devour the palaces of Ben-hadad.
1:5 And I will break the bar of Damascus, and cut off the inhabitant from the valley of Aven, and him that holds the sceptre from the house of Eden; and the people of Syria shall go into captivity to Kir, says Yehovah.
1:6 Thus says Yehovah: For three transgressions of Gaza, yes, for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof; because they carried away captive the whole people, to deliver them up to Edom:
1:7 but I will send a fire on the wall of Gaza, and it shall devour the palaces thereof.
1:8 And I will cut off the inhabitant from Ashdod, and him that holds the sceptre from Ashkelon; and I will turn my hand against Ekron; and the remnant of the Philistines shall perish, says the Lord Yehovah.
1:9 Thus says Yehovah: For three transgressions of Tyre, yes, for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof; because they delivered up the whole people to Edom, and remembered not the brotherly covenant:
1:10 but I will send a fire on the wall of Tyre, and it shall devour the palaces thereof.
1:11 Thus says Yehovah: For three transgressions of Edom, yes, for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof; because he did pursue his brother with the sword, and did cast off all pity, and his anger did tear perpetually, and he kept his wrath for ever:
1:12 but I will send a fire upon Teman, and it shall devour the palaces of Bozrah.
1:13 Thus says Yehovah: For three transgressions of the children of Ammon, yes, for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof; because they have ripped up the women with child of Gilead, that they may enlarge their border.
1:14 But I will kindle a fire in the wall of Rabbah, and it shall devour the palaces thereof, with shouting in the day of battle, with a tempest in the day of the whirlwind;
1:15 and their king shall go into captivity, he and his princes together, says Yehovah.
2:1 Thus says Yehovah: For three transgressions of Moab, yes, for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof; because he burned the bones of the king of Edom into lime:
2:2 but I will send a fire upon Moab, and it shall devour the palaces of Kerioth; and Moab shall die with tumult, with shouting, and with the sound of the trumpet;
2:3 and I will cut off the judge from the midst thereof, and will slay all the princes thereof with him, says Yehovah.
2:4 Thus says Yehovah: For three transgressions of Judah, yes, for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof; because they have rejected the law of Yehovah, and have not kept his statutes, and their lies have caused them to err, after which their fathers did walk:
2:5 but I will send a fire upon Judah, and it shall devour the palaces of Jerusalem.
2:6 Thus says Yehovah: For three transgressions of Israel, yes, for four, I will not turn away the punishment thereof; because they have sold the righteous for silver, and the needy for a pair of shoes-

2:7 they that pant after the dust of the earth on the head of the poor, and turn aside the way of the meek: and a man and his father go to the same maiden, to profane my holy name:
2:8 and they lay themselves down beside every altar upon clothes taken in pledge; and in the house of their God they drink the wine of such as have been fined.
2:9 Yet destroyed I the Amorite before them, whose height was like the height of the cedars, and he was strong as the oaks; yet I destroyed his fruit from above, and his roots from beneath.
2:10 Also I brought you up out of the land of Egypt, and led you forty years in the wilderness, to possess the land of the Amorite.
2:11 And I raised up of your sons for prophets, and of your young men for Nazirites. Is it not even thus, O ye children of Israel? says Yehovah.
2:12 But ye gave the Nazirites wine to drink, and commanded the prophets, saying, Prophesy not.
2:13 Behold, I will press you in your place, as a cart presses that is full of sheaves.
2:14 And flight shall perish from the swift; and the strong shall not strengthen his force; neither shall the mighty deliver himself;
2:15 neither shall he stand that handles the bow; and he that is swift of foot shall not deliver himself; neither shall he that rides the horse deliver himself;
2:16 and he that is courageous among the mighty shall flee away naked in that day, says Yehovah.
3:1 Hear this word that Yehovah has spoken against you, O children of Israel, against the whole family which I brought up out of the land of Egypt, saying,
3:2 You only have I known of all the families of the earth: therefore I will visit upon you all your iniquities.
3:3 Shall two walk together, except they have agreed?
3:4 Will a lion roar in the forest, when he has no prey? will a young lion cry out of his den, if he have taken nothing?
3:5 Can a bird fall in a snare upon the earth, where no gin is set for him? shall a snare spring up from the ground, and have taken nothing at all?
3:6 Shall the trumpet be blown in a city, and the people not be afraid? shall evil befall a city, and Yehovah has not done it?
3:7 Surely the Lord Yehovah will do nothing, except he reveal his secret to his servants the prophets.
3:8 The lion has roared; who will not fear? The Lord Yehovah has spoken; who can but prophesy?
3:9 Publish ye in the palaces at Ashdod, and in the palaces in the land of Egypt, and say, assemble yourselves upon the mountains of Samaria, and behold what great tumults are therein, and what oppressions in the midst thereof.
3:10 For they know not to do right, says Yehovah, who store up violence and robbery in their palaces.
3:11 Therefore thus says the Lord Yehovah: An adversary there shall be, even round about the land; and he shall bring down your strength from you, and your palaces shall be plundered.
3:12 Thus says Yehovah: As the shepherd rescues out of the mouth of the lion two legs, or a piece of an ear, so shall the children of Israel be rescued that sit in Samaria in the corner of a couch, and on the silken cushions of a bed.
3:13 Hear ye, and testify against the house of Jacob, says the Lord Yehovah, the God of hosts.
3:14 For in the day that I shall visit the transgressions of Israel upon him, I will also visit the altars of Beth-el; and the horns of the altar shall be cut off, and fall to the ground.
3:15 And I will strike the winter-house along with the summer-house; and the houses of ivory shall perish, and the great houses shall have an end, says Yehovah.
4:1 Hear this word, ye kine of Bashan, that are in the mountain of Samaria, that oppress the poor, that crush the needy, that say to their lords, Bring, and let us drink.
4:2 The Lord Yehovah has sworn by his holiness, that, lo, the days shall come upon you, that they shall take you away with hooks, and your residue with fish-hooks.

4:3 And ye shall go out at the breaches, every one straight before her; and ye shall cast yourselves into Harmon, says Yehovah.
4:4 Come to Beth-el, and transgress; to Gilgal, and multiply transgression; and bring your sacrifices every morning, and your tithes every three days;
4:5 and offer a sacrifice of thanksgiving of that which is leavened, and proclaim freewill-offerings and publish them: for this pleases you, O ye children of Israel, says the Lord Yehovah.
4:6 And I also have given you cleanness of teeth in all your cities, and want of bread in all your places; yet have ye not returned to me, says Yehovah.
4:7 And I also have withholden the rain from you, when there were yet three months to the harvest; and I caused it to rain upon one city, and caused it not to rain upon another city: one piece was rained upon, and the piece whereupon it rained not withered.
4:8 So two or three cities wandered to one city to drink water, and were not satisfied: yet have ye not returned to me, says Yehovah.
4:9 I have smitten you with blasting and mildew: the multitude of your gardens and your vineyards and your fig-trees and your olive-trees has the palmer-worm devoured: yet have ye not returned to me, says Yehovah.
4:10 I have sent among you the pestilence after the manner of Egypt: your young men have I slain with the sword, and have carried away your horses; and I have made the stench of your camp to come up even into your nostrils: yet have ye not returned to me, says Yehovah.
4:11 I have overthrown cities among you, as when God overthrew Sodom and Gomorrah, and ye were as a brand plucked out of the burning: yet have ye not returned to me, says Yehovah.
4:12 Therefore thus I will do to you, O Israel; and because I will do this to you, prepare to meet your God, O Israel.
4:13 For, lo, he that forms the mountains, and creates the wind, and declares to man what is his thought; that makes the morning darkness, and treads upon the high places of the Earth-Yehovah, the God of hosts, is his name.
5:1 Hear ye this word which I take up for a lamentation over you, O house of Israel.
5:2 The virgin of Israel is fallen; she shall no more rise: she is cast down upon her land; there is no one to raise her up.
5:3 For thus says the Lord Yehovah: The city that went forth a thousand shall have a hundred left, and that which went forth a hundred shall have ten left, to the house of Israel.
5:4 For thus says Yehovah to the house of Israel, Seek ye me, and ye shall live;
5:5 but seek not Beth-el, nor enter into Gilgal, and pass not to Beer-sheba: for Gilgal shall surely go into captivity, and Beth-el shall come to nought.
5:6 Seek Yehovah, and ye shall live; lest he break out like fire in the house of Joseph, and it devour, and there be no one to quench it in Beth-el.
5:7 You who turn justice to wormwood, and cast down righteousness to the earth,
5:8 seek him that makes the Pleiades and Orion, and turns the shadow of death into the morning, and makes the day dark with night; that calls for the waters of the sea, and pours them out upon the face of the earth (Yehovah is his name);
5:9 that brings sudden destruction upon the strong, so that destruction comes upon the fortress.
5:10 They hate him that reproves in the gate, and they abhor him that speaks uprightly.
5:11 Forasmuch therefore as ye trample upon the poor, and take exactions from him of wheat: ye have built houses of hewn stone, but ye shall not dwell in them; ye have planted pleasant vineyards, but ye shall not drink the wine thereof.
5:12 For I know how manifold are your transgressions, and how mighty are your sins-ye that afflict the just, that take a bribe, and that turn aside the needy in the gate from their right.
5:13 Therefore he that is prudent shall keep silence in such a time; for it is an evil time.
5:14 Seek good, and not evil, that ye may live; and so Yehovah, the God of hosts, will be with you, as ye say.

5:15 Hate the evil, and love the good, and establish justice in the gate: it may be that Yehovah, the God of hosts, will be gracious to the remnant of Joseph.
5:16 Therefore thus says Yehovah, the God of hosts, the Lord: Wailing shall be in all the broad ways; and they shall say in all the streets, alas! Alas! and they shall call the husbandman to mourning, and such as are skilful in lamentation to wailing.
5:17 And in all vineyards shall be wailing; for I will pass through the midst of you, says Yehovah.
5:18 Woe to you that desire the day of Yehovah! Why would ye have the day of Yehovah? It is darkness, and not light.
5:19 As if a man did flee from a lion, and a bear met him; or went into the house and leaned his hand on the wall, and a serpent bit him.
5:20 Shall not the day of Yehovah be darkness, and not light? even very dark, and no brightness in it?
5:21 I hate, I despise your feasts, and I will take no delight in your solemn assemblies.
5:22 Yes, though ye offer me your burnt offerings and meal offerings, I will not accept them; neither will I regard the peace offerings of your fat beasts.
5:23 Take you away from me the noise of your songs; for I will not hear the melody of your viols.
5:24 But let justice roll down as waters, and righteousness as a mighty stream.
5:25 Did ye bring to me sacrifices and offerings in the wilderness forty years, O house of Israel?
5:26 Yes, ye have carried along the tent of Moloch, and the star of your god Saturn,[59] which ye made for yourselves.
5:27 Therefore I will cause you to go into captivity beyond Damascus, says Yehovah, whose name is the God of hosts.
6:1 Woe to them that are at ease in Zion, and to them that are secure in the mountain of Samaria, the notable men of the chief of the nations, to whom the house of Israel come!
6:2 Pass ye to Calneh, and see; and from there go ye to Hamath the great; then go down to Gath of the Philistines: are they better than these kingdoms? or is their border greater than your border?
6:3 -ye that put far away the evil day, and cause the seat of violence to come near;
6:4 that lie upon beds of ivory, and stretch themselves upon their couches, and eat the lambs out of the flock, and the calves out of the midst of the stall;
6:5 that sing idle songs to the sound of the viol; that invent for themselves instruments of music, like David;
6:6 that drink wine in bowls, and anoint themselves with the chief oils; but they are not grieved for the affliction of Joseph.
6:7 Therefore shall they now go captive with the first that go captive; and the revelry of them that stretched themselves shall pass away.
6:8 The Lord Yehovah has sworn by himself, says Yehovah, the God of hosts: I abhor the excellency of Jacob, and hate his palaces; therefore I will deliver up the city with all that is therein.
6:9 And it shall come to pass, if there remain ten men in one house, that they shall die.
6:10 And when a man's uncle shall take him up, even he that burns him, to bring out the bones out of the house, and shall say to him that is in the innermost parts of the house, Is there yet any with you? and he shall say, No; then shall he say, Hold your peace; for we may not make mention of the name of Yehovah.
6:11 For, behold, Yehovah commands, and the great house shall be smitten with breaches, and the little house with clefts.
6:12 Shall horses run upon the rock? will one plow there with oxen? that ye have turned justice into gall, and the fruit of righteousness into wormwood;
6:13 ye that rejoice in a thing of nought, that say, Have we not taken to us horns by our own strength?

[59] Amos 5:26: see Acts 7:43.

6:14 For, behold, I will raise up against you a nation, O house of Israel, says Yehovah, the God of hosts; and they shall afflict you from the entrance of Hamath to the brook of the Arabah.
7:1 Thus the Lord Yehovah showed me: and, behold, he formed locusts in the beginning of the shooting up of the latter growth; and, lo, it was the latter growth after the king's mowings.
7:2 And it came to pass that, when they made an end of eating the grass of the land, then I said, O Lord Yehovah, forgive, I beseech you: how shall Jacob stand? for he is small.
7:3 Yehovah repented concerning this: It shall not be, says Yehovah.
7:4 Thus the Lord Yehovah showed me: and, behold, the Lord Yehovah called to content by fire; and it devoured the great deep, and would have eaten up the land.
7:5 Then said I, O Lord Yehovah, cease, I beseech you: how shall Jacob stand? for he is small.
7:6 Yehovah repented concerning this: this also shall not be, says the Lord Yehovah.
7:7 Thus he showed me: and, behold, the Lord stood beside a wall made by a plumb-line, with a plumb-line in his hand.
7:8 And Yehovah said to me, amos, what see you? And I said, a plumb-line. Then said the Lord, Behold, I will set a plumb-line in the midst of my people Israel; I will not again pass by them any more;
7:9 and the high places of Isaac shall be desolate, and the sanctuaries of Israel shall be laid waste; and I will rise against the house of Jeroboam with the sword.
7:10 Then Amaziah the priest of Beth-el sent to Jeroboam king of Israel, saying, amos has conspired against you in the midst of the house of Israel: the land is not able to bear all his words.
7:11 For thus Amos says, Jeroboam shall die by the sword, and Israel shall surely be led away captive out of his land.
7:12 Also Amaziah said to Amos, O you seer, go, flee away into the land of Judah, and there eat bread, and prophesy there:
7:13 but prophesy not again any more at Beth-el; for it is the king's sanctuary, and it is a royal house.
7:14 Then answered Amos, and said to Amaziah, I was no prophet, neither was I a prophet's son; but I was a herdsman, and a dresser of sycomore-trees:
7:15 and Yehovah took me from following the flock, and Yehovah said to me, Go, prophesy to my people Israel.
7:16 Now therefore hear you the word of Yehovah: You say, Prophesy not against Israel, and drop not your word against the house of Isaac;
7:17 therefore thus says Yehovah: Your wife shall be a harlot in the city, and your sons and your daughters shall fall by the sword, and your land shall be divided by line; and you yourself shall die in a land that is unclean, and Israel shall surely be led away captive out of his land.
8:1 Thus the Lord Yehovah showed me: and, behold, a basket of summer fruit.
8:2 And he said, amos, what do you see? And I said, a basket of summer fruit. Then said Yehovah to me, The end is come upon my people Israel; I will not again pass by them any more.
8:3 And the songs of the temple shall be wailings in that day, says the Lord Yehovah: the dead bodies shall be many: in every place shall they cast them forth with silence.
8:4 Hear this, O ye that would swallow up the needy, and cause the poor of the land to fail,
8:5 saying, When will the new moon be gone, that we may sell grain? and the sabbath, that we may set forth wheat, making the ephah small, and the shekel great, and dealing falsely with balances of deceit;
8:6 that we may buy the poor for silver, and the needy for a pair of shoes, and sell the refuse of the wheat?
8:7 Yehovah has sworn by the excellency of Jacob, Surely I will never forget any of their works.

8:8 Shall not the land tremble for this, and every one mourn that dwells therein? yes, it shall rise up wholly like the River; and it shall be troubled and sink again, like the River of Egypt.
8:9 And it shall come to pass in that day, says the Lord Yehovah, that I will cause the sun to go down at noon, and I will darken the earth in the clear day.
8:10 And I will turn your feasts into mourning, and all your songs into lamentation; and I will bring sackcloth upon all loins, and baldness upon every head; and I will make it as the mourning for an only son, and the end thereof as a bitter day.
8:11 Behold, the days come, says the Lord Yehovah, that I will send a famine in the land, not a famine of bread, nor a thirst for water, but of hearing the words of Yehovah.
8:12 And they shall wander from sea to sea, and from the north even to the east; they shall run to and fro to seek the word of Yehovah, and shall not find it.
8:13 In that day shall the fair virgins and the young men faint for thirst.
8:14 They that swear by the sin of Samaria, and say, as your god, O Dan, lives; and, as the way of Beer-sheba lives; they shall fall, and never rise up again.
9:1 I saw the Lord standing beside the altar: and he said, Smite the capitals, that the thresholds may shake; and break them in pieces on the head of all of them; and I will slay the last of them with the sword: there shall not one of them flee away, and there shall not one of them escape.
9:2 Though they dig into Sheol, there shall my hand take them; and though they climb up to heaven, there I will bring them down.
9:3 And though they hide themselves in the top of Carmel, I will search and take them out there; and though they be hid from my sight in the bottom of the sea, there I will command the serpent, and it shall bite them.
9:4 And though they go into captivity before their enemies, there I will command the sword, and it shall slay them: and I will set my eyes upon them for evil, and not for good.
9:5 For the Lord, Yehovah of hosts, is he that touches the land and it melts, and all that dwell therein shall mourn; and it shall rise up wholly like the River, and shall sink again, like the River of Egypt;
9:6 it is he that builds his chambers in the heavens, and has founded his vault upon the earth; he that calls for the waters of the sea, and pours them out upon the face of the earth; Yehovah is his name.
9:7 Are ye not as the children of the Ethiopians to me, O children of Israel? says Yehovah. Have not I brought up Israel out of the land of Egypt, and the Philistines from Caphtor, and the Syrians from Kir?
9:8 Behold, the eyes of the Lord Yehovah are upon the sinful kingdom, and I will destroy it from off the face of the earth; except that I will not utterly destroy the house of Jacob, says Yehovah.
9:9 For, lo, I will command, and I will sift the house of Israel among all the nations, like as grain is sifted in a sieve, yet shall not the least kernel fall upon the earth.
9:10 All the sinners of my people shall die by the sword, who say, The evil shall not overtake nor meet us.
9:11 In that day I will raise up the tabernacle of David that is fallen, and close up the breaches thereof; and I will raise up its ruins, and I will build it as in the days of old;
9:12 that they may possess the remnant of Edom, and all the nations that are called by my name, says Yehovah that does this.
9:13 Behold, the days come, says Yehovah, that the plowman shall overtake the reaper, and the treader of grapes him that sows seed; and the mountains shall drop sweet wine, and all the hills shall melt.
9:14 And I will bring back the captivity of my people Israel, and they shall build the waste cities, and inhabit them; and they shall plant vineyards, and drink the wine thereof; they shall also make gardens, and eat the fruit of them.
9:15 And I will plant them upon their land, and they shall no more be plucked up out of their land which I have given them, says Yehovah your God.

The Book of the Prophet Obadiah

Obadiah

1:1 The vision of Obadiah. Thus says the Lord Yehovah concerning Edom: We have heard tidings from Yehovah, and an ambassador is sent among the nations, saying, arise ye, and let us rise up against her in battle.
1:2 Behold, I have made you small among the nations: you are greatly despised.
1:3 The pride of your heart has deceived you, O you that dwell in the clefts of the rock, whose habitation is high; that says in his heart, Who shall bring me down to the ground?
1:4 Though you mount on high like the eagle, and though your nest be set among the stars, I will bring you down from there, says Yehovah.
1:5 If thieves came to you, if robbers by night (how are you cut off!), would they not steal only till they had enough? if grape-gatherers came to you, would they not leave some gleaning grapes?
1:6 How are the things of Esau searched! how are his hidden treasures sought out!
1:7 All the men of your confederacy have brought you on your way, even to the border: the men that were at peace with you have deceived you, and prevailed against you; they that eat your bread lay a snare under you: there is no understanding in him.
1:8 Shall I not in that day, says Yehovah, destroy the wise men out of Edom, and understanding out of the mount of Esau?
1:9 And your mighty men, O Teman, shall be dismayed, to the end that every one may be cut off from the mount of Esau by slaughter.
1:10 For the violence done to your brother Jacob, shame shall cover you, and you shall be cut off for ever.
1:11 In the day that you stood on the other side, in the day that strangers carried away his substance, and foreigners entered into his gates, and cast lots upon Jerusalem, even you were as one of them.
1:12 But look not on the day of your brother in the day of his disaster, and rejoice not over the children of Judah in the day of their destruction; neither speak proudly in the day of distress.
1:13 Enter not into the gate of my people in the day of their calamity; yes, look not you on their affliction in the day of their calamity, neither lay ye hands on their substance in the day of their calamity.
1:14 And stand not in the crossway, to cut off those of his that escape; and deliver not up those of his that remain in the day of distress.
1:15 For the day of Yehovah is near upon all the nations: as you have done, it shall be done to you; your dealing shall return upon your own head.
1:16 For as ye have drunk upon my holy mountain, so shall all the nations drink continually; yes, they shall drink, and swallow down, and shall be as though they had not been.
1:17 But in mount Zion there shall be those that escape, and it shall be holy; and the house of Jacob shall possess their possessions.
1:18 And the house of Jacob shall be a fire, and the house of Joseph a flame, and the house of Esau for stubble, and they shall burn among them, and devour them; and there shall not be any remaining to the house of Esau; for Yehovah has spoken it.
1:19 And they of the South shall possess the mount of Esau, and they of the lowland the Philistines; and they shall possess the field of Ephraim, and the field of Samaria; and Benjamin shall possess Gilead.
1:20 And the captives of this host of the children of Israel, that are among the Canaanites, shall possess even to Zarephath; and the captives of Jerusalem, that are in Sepharad, shall possess the cities of the South.
1:21 And saviours shall come up on mount Zion to judge the mount of Esau; and the kingdom shall be Yehovah's.

End of Obadiah

The Book of the Prophet Jonah

Jonah

1:1 Now the word of Yehovah came to Jonah the son of Amittai, as follows:
1:2 "Get up, go to Nineveh, that great city, and cry against it; for their wickedness is come up before me."
1:3 But Jonah got up to flee to Tarshish, away from the presence of Yehovah; and he went down to Joppa, and found a ship going to Tarshish. So he paid the fare for it, and got down into it to go with them to Tarshish, away from the presence of Yehovah.
1:4 But Yehovah sent out a great wind upon the sea, and there was a mighty storm upon the sea, such that the ship was likely to be wrecked.
1:5 Then the mariners were afraid, and they cried every man to his god. And they threw off the wares that were in the ship into the sea, to lighten it for them. But Jonah had since gone down into the far interior parts of the ship; and he laid down, and was fast asleep.
1:6 So the shipmaster came to him, and said to him, “What do you mean, O sleeper? Arise, call upon your God, if so be that God will think upon us, that we perish not.”
1:7 And they said every one to his fellow, “Come, and let us cast lots, that we may know for whose cause this evil is upon us.” So they cast lots, and the lot fell upon Jonah.
1:8 Then they were saying to him, "Please tell us, we ask of you, for whose cause is this evil upon us? What is your occupation? And where do you come from? What is your country? And of what people are you?"
1:9 And he said to them, "I am a Hebrew; and I fear Yehovah, the God of heaven, who has made the sea and the dry land."
1:10 Then were the men exceedingly afraid, and said to him, "What is this that you have done?" (You see, the men knew that he was fleeing from the presence of Yehovah, because he had told them so.)
1:11 Then they said to him, "What shall we do to you, so that the sea will be calm for us?" For the sea grew more and more tempestuous.
1:12 And he said to them, "Take me up, and throw me out into the sea, and that way the sea will be calm for you. For I know it is for my sake that this great storm is upon you."
1:13 Nevertheless the men rowed hard to get them back to the land. But they could not, because the sea grew more and more tempestuous against them.
1:14 Wherefore they cried out to Yehovah, and said, "We beseech you, O Yehovah, we beseech you, do not let us perish for this man's life, and do not lay upon us innocent blood. For you, O Yehovah, have done as it pleased you."
1:15 So they took Jonah up, and threw him out into the sea. And the sea ceased from its raging.
1:16 Then the men feared Yehovah exceedingly; and they offered a sacrifice to Yehovah, and made vows.
1:17 And Yehovah prepared a great fish to swallow up Jonah; and Jonah was in the belly of the fish three days and three nights.
2:1 Then Jonah prayed to Yehovah his God out of the fish's belly.
2:2 And he said, “I called by reason of my affliction to Yehovah, and he answered me. Out of the belly of Sheol cried I, and you heard my voice.
2:3 For you did cast me into the depth, in the heart of the seas, and the flood was round about me; All your waves and your billows passed over me.
2:4 And I said, I am cast out from before your eyes; Yet I will look again toward your holy temple.
2:5 The waters compassed me about, even to the soul; The deep was round about me; The weeds were wrapped about my head.
2:6 I went down to the bottoms of the mountains; The earth with its bars closed upon me for ever: Yet have you brought up my life from the pit, O Yehovah my God.

2:7 When my soul fainted within me, I remembered Yehovah; And my prayer came in toward you, into your holy temple.
2:8 They that regard lying vanities forsake their own mercy.
2:9 But I will sacrifice to you with the voice of thanksgiving; I will pay that which I have vowed. Salvation is of Yehovah."
2:10 And Yehovah spoke to the fish, and it vomited out Jonah upon the dry land.
3:1 And the word of Yehovah came to Jonah the second time, as follows:
3:2 "Arise, go to Nineveh, that great city, and preach to it the preaching that I bid you."
3:3 So Jonah arose, and went to Nineveh, according to the word of Yehovah. Now Nineveh was an exceedingly great city, three days' journey across.
3:4 And Jonah began to enter into the city a day's journey, and he cried, and said, "Yet forty days, and Nineveh shall be overthrown."
3:5 And the people of Nineveh believed God; and they proclaimed a fast, and put on sackcloth, from the greatest of them even to the least of them.
3:6 And the reports reached the king of Nineveh, and he arose from his throne, and laid his robe from him, and covered himself with sackcloth, and sat in ashes.
3:7 And he made proclamation and published through Nineveh by the decree of the king and his nobles, saying, "Let neither man nor beast, herd nor flock, taste anything; let them not feed, nor drink water;
3:8 but let them be covered with sackcloth, both man and beast, and let them cry mightily to God: yes, let them turn every one from his evil way, and from the violence that is in his hands.
3:9 Who knows whether God will not turn and repent, and turn away from his fierce anger, so that we perish not?"
3:10 And God saw their works, that they turned from their evil way; and God repented of the evil which he said he would do to them; and he did not do it.
4:1 But it displeased Jonah exceedingly, and he was angry.
4:2 And he prayed to Yehovah, and said, "I pray you, O Yehovah, was not this my saying, when I was yet in my country? Therefore I hastened to flee to Tarshish; for I knew that you are a gracious God, and merciful, slow to anger, and abundant in lovingkindness, and you repent of the evil.
4:3 Therefore now, O Yehovah, take, I beseech you, my life from me; for it is better for me to die than to live."
4:4 And Yehovah said, "Do you do well to be angry?"
4:5 Then Jonah went out of the city, and sat on the east side of the city, and there made him a booth, and sat under it in the shade, till he might see what would become of the city.
4:6 And Yehovah God prepared a gourd, and made it to come up over Jonah, that it might be a shade over his head, to deliver him from his evil situation. So Jonah was exceedingly glad because of the gourd.
4:7 But God prepared a worm when the morning rose the next day, and it struck the gourd, such that it withered.
4:8 And it came to pass, when the sun arose, that God prepared a sultry east wind; and the sun beat upon the head of Jonah, such that he fainted, and requested for himself that he might die, and said, "It is better for me to die than to live."
4:9 And God said to Jonah, "Do you do well to be angry for the gourd?" And he said, "I do well to be angry, even to death."
4:10 And Yehovah said, "You have had regard for the gourd, for which you have not labored, neither made it grow; which came up in a night, and perished in a night:
4:11 and I should not have regard for Nineveh, that great city, in which are more than 120,000 persons that cannot discern between their right hand and their left hand; and also much cattle?"

End of Jonah

Micah

1:1 The word of Yehovah that came to Micah the Morashtite in the days of Jotham, Ahaz, and Hezekiah, kings of Judah, which he saw concerning Samaria and Jerusalem.
1:2 Hear, ye peoples, all of you: hearken, O earth, and all that therein is: and let the Lord Yehovah be witness against you, the Lord from his holy temple.
1:3 For, behold, Yehovah comes forth out of his place, and will come down, and tread upon the high places of the earth.
1:4 And the mountains shall be melted under him, and the valleys shall be cleft, as wax before the fire, as waters that are poured down a steep place.
1:5 For the transgression of Jacob is all this, and for the sins of the house of Israel. What is the transgression of Jacob? is it not Samaria? and what are the high places of Judah? are they not Jerusalem?
1:6 Therefore I will make Samaria as a heap of the field, and as places for planting vineyards; and I will pour down the stones thereof into the valley, and I will uncover the foundations thereof.
1:7 And all her graven images shall be beaten to pieces, and all her wages shall be burned with fire, and all her idols I will lay desolate; for from the fee of a harlot has she gathered them, and to the fee of a harlot shall they return.
1:8 For this I will lament and wail; I will go stripped and naked; I will make a wailing like the jackals, and a lamentation like the ostriches.
1:9 For her wounds are incurable; for it is come even to Judah; it reaches to the gate of my people, even to Jerusalem.
1:10 Tell it not in Gath, weep not at all: at Beth-le-aphrah have I rolled myself in the dust.
1:11 Pass away, O inhabitant of Shaphir, in nakedness and shame: the inhabitant of Zaanan is not come forth; the wailing of Beth-ezel shall take from you the stay thereof.
1:12 For the inhabitant of Maroth waits anxiously for good, because evil is come down from Yehovah to the gate of Jerusalem.
1:13 Bind the chariot to the swift steed, O inhabitant of Lachish: she was the beginning of sin to the daughter of Zion; for the transgressions of Israel were found in you.
1:14 Therefore shall you give a parting gift to Moresheth-gath: the houses of Achzib shall be a deceitful thing to the kings of Israel.
1:15 I will yet bring to you, O inhabitant of Mareshah, him that shall possess you: the glory of Israel shall come even to Adullam.
1:16 Make you bald, and cut off your hair for the children of your delight: enlarge your baldness as the eagle; for they are gone into captivity from you.
2:1 Woe to them that devise iniquity and work evil upon their beds! when the morning is light, they practise it, because it is in the power of their hand.
2:2 And they covet fields, and seize them; and houses, and take them away: and they oppress a man and his house, even a man and his heritage.
2:3 Therefore thus says Yehovah: Behold, against this family do I devise an evil, from which ye shall not remove your necks, neither shall ye walk haughtily; for it is an evil time.
2:4 In that day shall they take up a parable against you, and lament with a doleful lamentation, and say, We are utterly ruined: he changes the portion of my people: how does he remove it from me! to the rebellious he divides our fields.
2:5 Therefore you shall have no one that shall cast the line by lot in the assembly of Yehovah.
2:6 Prophesy ye not, thus they prophesy. They shall not prophesy to these: reproaches shall not depart.
2:7 Shall it be said, O house of Jacob, "Is the Spirit of Yehovah impatient? are these his doings? Do not my words do good to him that walks uprightly?"

2:8 But of late my people is risen up as an enemy: ye strip the robe from off the garment from them that pass by securely as men averse from war.
2:9 The women of my people ye cast out from their pleasant houses; from their young children ye take away my glory for ever.
2:10 Arise ye, and depart; for this is not your resting place; because of uncleanness that destroys, even with a grievous destruction.
2:11 If a man walking in a spirit of falsehood do lie, saying, I will prophesy to you of wine and of strong drink; he shall even be the prophet of this people.
2:12 I will surely assemble, O Jacob, all of you; I will surely gather the remnant of Israel; I will put them together as the sheep of Bozrah, as a flock in the midst of their pasture; they shall make great noise by reason of the multitude men.
2:13 The breaker is gone up before them: they have broken forth and passed on to the gate, and are gone out thereat; and their king is passed on before them, and Yehovah at the head of them.
3:1 And I said, Hear, I pray you, ye heads of Jacob, and rulers of the house of Israel: is it not for you to know justice?
3:2 ye who hate the good, and love the evil; who pluck off their skin from off them, and their flesh from off their bones;
3:3 who also eat the flesh of my people, and flay their skin from off them, and break their bones, and chop them in pieces, as for the pot, and as flesh within the caldron.
3:4 Then shall they cry to Yehovah, but he will not answer them; yes, he will hide his face from them at that time, according as they have wrought evil in their doings.
3:5 Thus says Yehovah concerning the prophets that make my people to err; that bite with their teeth, and cry, Peace; and whoso puts not into their mouths, they even prepare war against him:
3:6 Therefore it shall be night to you, that ye shall have no vision; and it shall be dark to you, that ye shall not divine; and the sun shall go down upon the prophets, and the day shall be black over them.
3:7 And the seers shall be put to shame, and the diviners confounded; yes, they shall all cover their lips; for there is no answer of God.
3:8 But as for me, I am full of power by the Spirit of Yehovah, and of judgment, and of might, to declare to Jacob his transgression, and to Israel his sin.
3:9 Hear this, I pray you, ye heads of the house of Jacob, and rulers of the house of Israel, that abhor justice, and pervert all equity.
3:10 They build up Zion with blood, and Jerusalem with iniquity.
3:11 The heads thereof judge for reward, and the priests thereof teach for hire, and the prophets thereof divine for money: yet they lean upon Yehovah, and say, Is not Yehovah in the midst of us? no evil shall come upon us.
3:12 Therefore shall Zion for your sake be plowed as a field, and Jerusalem shall become heaps, and the mountain of the house as the high places of a forest.
4:1 But in the latter days it shall come to pass, that the mountain of Yehovah's house shall be established on the top of the mountains, and it shall be exalted above the hills; and peoples shall flow to it.
4:2 And many nations shall go and say, Come ye, and let us go up to the mountain of Yehovah, and to the house of the God of Jacob; and he will teach us of his ways, and we will walk in his paths. For out of Zion shall go forth the law, and the word of Yehovah from Jerusalem;
4:3 and he will judge between many peoples, and will decide concerning strong nations afar off: and they shall beat their swords into plowshares, and their spears into pruning-hooks; nation shall not lift up sword against nation, neither shall they learn war any more.
4:4 But they shall sit every man under his vine and under his fig-tree; and no one shall make them afraid: for the mouth of Yehovah of hosts has spoken it.
4:5 For all the peoples walk every one in the name of his god; and we will walk in the name of Yehovah our God for ever and ever.
4:6 In that day, says Yehovah, I will assemble that which is lame, and I will gather that which is driven away, and that which I have afflicted;

4:7 and I will make that which was lame a remnant, and that which was cast far off a strong nation: and Yehovah will reign over them in mount Zion from from now on even for ever.
4:8 And you, O tower of the flock, the hill of the daughter of Zion, to you shall it come, yes, the former dominion shall come, the kingdom of the daughter of Jerusalem.
4:9 Now why do you cry out aloud? Is there no king in you, is your counsellor perished, that pangs have taken hold of you as of a woman in travail?
4:10 Be in pain, and labor to bring forth, O daughter of Zion, like a woman in travail; for now shall you go forth out of the city, and shall dwell in the field, and shall come even to Babylon: there shall you be rescued; there will Yehovah redeem you from the hand of your enemies.
4:11 And now many nations are assembled against you, that say, Let her be defiled, and let our eye see our desire upon Zion.
4:12 But they know not the thoughts of Yehovah, neither understand they his counsel; for he has gathered them as the sheaves to the threshing-floor.
4:13 Arise and thresh, O daughter of Zion; for I will make your horn iron, and I will make your hoofs brass; and you shall beat in pieces many peoples: and I will devote their gain to Yehovah, and their substance to the Lord of the whole earth.
5:1 Now shall you gather yourself in troops, O daughter of troops: he has laid siege against us; they shall strike the judge of Israel with a rod upon the cheek.
5:2 But you, Beth-lehem Ephrathah, which are little to be among the thousands of Judah, out of you shall one come forth to me that is to be ruler in Israel; whose goings forth are from of old, from everlasting.
5:3 Therefore will he give them up, until the time that she who travails has brought forth: then the residue of his brethren shall return to the children of Israel.
5:4 And he shall stand, and shall feed his flock in the strength of Yehovah, in the majesty of the name of Yehovah his God: and they shall abide; for now shall he be great to the ends of the earth.
5:5 And this man shall be our peace. When the Assyrian shall come into our land, and when he shall tread in our palaces, then shall we raise against him seven shepherds, and eight principal men.
5:6 And they shall waste the land of Assyria with the sword, and the land of Nimrod in the entrances thereof: and he shall deliver us from the Assyrian, when he comes into our land, and when he treads within our border.
5:7 And the remnant of Jacob shall be in the midst of many peoples as dew from Yehovah, as showers upon the grass, that tarry not for man, nor wait for the sons of men.
5:8 And the remnant of Jacob shall be among the nations, in the midst of many peoples, as a lion among the beasts of the forest, as a young lion among the flocks of sheep; who, if he go through, treads down and tears in pieces, and there is no one to deliver.
5:9 Let your hand be lifted up above your adversaries, and let all your enemies be cut off.
5:10 And it shall come to pass in that day, says Yehovah, that I will cut off your horses out of the midst of you, and will destroy your chariots:
5:11 and I will cut off the cities of your land, and will throw down all your strongholds.
5:12 And I will cut off witchcrafts out of your hand; and you shall have no more soothsayers:
5:13 and I will cut off your graven images and your pillars out of the midst of you; and you shall no more worship the work of your hands;
5:14 and I will pluck up your Asherim out of the midst of you; and I will destroy your cities.
5:15 And I will execute vengeance in anger and wrath upon the nations which hearkened not.
6:1 Hear ye now what Yehovah says: Arise, contend you before the mountains, and let the hills hear your voice.

6:2 Hear, O ye mountains, Yehovah's controversy, and ye enduring foundations of the earth; for Yehovah has a controversy with his people, and he will contend with Israel.
6:3 O my people, what have I done to you? and in what way have I wearied you? testify against me.
6:4 For I brought you up out of the land of Egypt, and redeemed you out of the house of bondage; and I sent before you Moses, aaron, and Miriam.
6:5 O my people, remember now what Balak king of Moab devised, and what Balaam the son of Beor answered him; remember from Shittim to Gilgal, that ye may know the righteous acts of Yehovah.
6:6 With which shall I come before Yehovah, and bow myself before the high God? shall I come before him with burnt offerings, with calves a year old?
6:7 will Yehovah be pleased with thousands of rams, or with ten thousands of rivers of oil? shall I give my first-born for my transgression, the fruit of my body for the sin of my soul?
6:8 He has shown you, O man, what is good. And what does Yehovah require of you, but to do justly, and to love kindness, and to walk humbly with your God?
6:9 The voice of Yehovah cries to the city, and the man of wisdom will see your name: hear ye the rod, and who has appointed it.
6:10 Are there yet treasures of wickedness in the house of the wicked, and a scant measure that is abominable?
6:11 Shall I be pure with wicked balances, and with a bag of deceitful weights?
6:12 For the rich men thereof are full of violence, and the inhabitants thereof have spoken lies, and their tongue is deceitful in their mouth.
6:13 Therefore I also have smitten you with a grievous wound; I have made you desolate because of your sins.
6:14 You shall eat, but not be satisfied; and your humiliation shall be in the midst of you: and you shall put away, but shall not save; and that which you save I will give up to the sword.
6:15 You shall sow, but shall not reap; you shall tread the olives, but shall not anoint you with oil; and the vintage, but shall not drink the wine.
6:16 For the statutes of Omri are kept, and all the works of the house of Ahab, and ye walk in their counsels; that I may make you a desolation, and the inhabitants thereof a hissing: and ye shall bear the reproach of my people.
7:1 Woe is me! for I am as when they have gathered the summer fruits, as the grape gleanings of the vintage: there is no cluster to eat; my soul desires the first-ripe fig.
7:2 The godly man is perished out of the earth, and there is no one upright among men: they all lie in wait for blood; they hunt every man his brother with a net.
7:3 Their hands are upon that which is evil to do it diligently; the prince asks, and the judge is ready for a reward; and the great man, he utters the evil desire of his soul: thus they weave it together.
7:4 The best of them is as a brier; the most upright is worse than a thorn hedge: the day of your watchmen, even your visitation, is come; now shall be their perplexity.
7:5 Trust ye not in a neighbor; put ye not confidence in a friend; keep the doors of your mouth from her that lies in your bosom.
7:6 For the son dishonors the father, the daughter rises up against her mother, the daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law; a man's enemies are the men of his own house.
7:7 But as for me, I will look to Yehovah; I will wait for the God of my salvation: my God will hear me.
7:8 Rejoice not against me, O my enemy: when I fall, I shall arise; when I sit in darkness, Yehovah will be a light to me.
7:9 I will bear the indignation of Yehovah, because I have sinned against him, until he plead my cause, and execute judgment for me: he will bring me forth to the light, and I shall behold his righteousness.
7:10 Then my enemy shall see it, and shame shall cover her who said to me, Where is Yehovah your God? Mine eyes shall see my desire upon her; now shall she be trodden down as the mire of the streets.
7:11 A day for building your walls! in that day shall the decree be far removed.

7:12 In that day shall they come to you from Assyria and the cities of Egypt, and from Egypt even to the River, and from sea to sea, and from mountain to mountain.
7:13 Yet shall the land be desolate because of them that dwell therein, for the fruit of their doings.
7:14 Feed your people with your rod, the flock of your heritage, which dwell solitarily, in the forest in the midst of Carmel: let them feed in Bashan and Gilead, as in the days of old.
7:15 As in the days of your coming forth out of the land of Egypt I will show to them marvellous things.
7:16 The nations shall see and be ashamed of all their might; they shall lay their hand upon their mouth; their ears shall be deaf.
7:17 They shall lick the dust like a serpent; like crawling things of the earth they shall come trembling out of their close places; they shall come with fear to Yehovah our God, and shall be afraid because of you.
7:18 Who is a God like to you, that pardons iniquity, and passes over the transgression of the remnant of his heritage? he retains not his anger for ever, because he delights in lovingkindness.
7:19 He will again have compassion upon us; he will tread our iniquities under foot; and you will cast all their sins into the depths of the sea.
7:20 You will perform the truth to Jacob, and the lovingkindness to Abraham, which you have sworn to our fathers from the days of old.

The Book of the Prophet Nahum

Nahum

1:1 The burden concerning Nineveh. The book of the vision of Nahum the Elkoshite.
1:2 Yehovah is a jealous God and avenges; Yehovah avenges and is full of wrath; Yehovah takes vengeance on his adversaries, and he reserves wrath for his enemies.
1:3 Yehovah is slow to anger, and great in power, and will by no means clear the guilty: Yehovah has his way in the whirlwind and in the storm, and the clouds are the dust of his feet.
1:4 He rebukes the sea, and makes it dry, and dries up all the rivers: Bashan languishes, and Carmel; and the flower of Lebanon languishes.
1:5 The mountains quake at him, and the hills melt; and the earth is upheaved at his presence, yes, the world, and all that dwell therein.
1:6 Who can stand before his indignation? and who can abide in the fierceness of his anger? his wrath is poured out like fire, and the rocks are broken asunder by him.
1:7 Yehovah is good, a stronghold in the day of trouble; and he knows them that take refuge in him.
1:8 But with an over-running flood he will make a full end of her place, and will pursue his enemies into darkness.
1:9 What do ye devise against Yehovah? he will make a full end; affliction shall not rise up the second time.
1:10 For entangled like thorns, and drunken as with their drink, they are consumed utterly as dry stubble.
1:11 There is one gone forth out of you, that devises evil against Yehovah, that counsels wickedness.
1:12 Thus says Yehovah: Though they be in full strength, and likewise many, even so shall they be cut down, and he shall pass away. Though I have afflicted you, I will afflict you no more.
1:13 And now I will break his yoke from off you, and will burst your bonds in sunder.
1:14 And Yehovah has given commandment concerning you, that no more of your name be sown: out of the house of your gods I will cut off the graven image and the molten image; I will make your grave; for you are vile.
1:15 Behold, upon the mountains the feet of him that brings good tidings, that publishes peace! Keep your feasts, O Judah, perform your vows; for the wicked one shall no more pass through you; he is utterly cut off.
2:1 He that dashes in pieces is come up against you: keep the fortress, watch the way, make your loins strong, fortify your power mightily.
2:2 For Yehovah restores the excellency of Jacob, as the excellency of Israel; for the emptiers have emptied them out, and destroyed their vine-branches.
2:3 The shield of his mighty men is made red, the valiant men are in scarlet: the chariots flash with steel in the day of his preparation, and the cypress spears are brandished.
2:4 The chariots rage in the streets; they rush to and fro in the broad ways: the appearance of them is like torches; they run like the lightnings.
2:5 He remembers his nobles: they stumble in their march; they make haste to the wall thereof, and the mantelet is prepared.
2:6 The gates of the rivers are opened, and the palace is dissolved.
2:7 And it is decreed: she is uncovered, she is carried away; and her handmaids moan as with the voice of doves, beating upon their breasts.
2:8 But Nineveh has been from of old like a pool of water: yet they flee away. Stand, stand, they cry; but no one is looking back.
2:9 Take ye the spoil of silver, take the spoil of gold; for there is no end of the store, the glory of all goodly furniture.
2:10 She is empty, and void, and waste; and the heart melts, and the knees knock together, and anguish is in all loins, and the faces of them all are grown pale.

2:11 Where is the den of the lions, and the feeding-place of the young lions, where the lion and the lioness walked, the lion's whelp, and no one made them afraid?
2:12 The lion did tear in pieces enough for his whelps, and strangled for his lionesses, and filled his caves with prey, and his dens with ravin.
2:13 Behold, I am against you, says Yehovah of hosts, and I will burn her chariots in the smoke, and the sword shall devour your young lions; and I will cut off your prey from the earth, and the voice of your messengers shall no more be heard.
3:1 Woe to the bloody city! it is all full of lies and rapine; the prey departs not.
3:2 The noise of the whip, and the noise of the rattling of wheels, and prancing horses, and bounding chariots,
3:3 the horseman mounting, and the flashing sword, and the glittering spear, and a multitude of slain, and a great heap of corpses, and there is no end of the bodies; they stumble upon their bodies;-
3:4 because of the multitude of the whoredoms of the well-favored harlot, the mistress of witchcrafts, that sells nations through her whoredoms, and families through her witchcrafts.
3:5 Behold, I am against you, says Yehovah of hosts, and I will uncover your skirts upon your face; and I will show the nations your nakedness, and the kingdoms your shame.
3:6 And I will cast abominable filth upon you, and make you vile, and will set you as a gazing-stock.
3:7 And it shall come to pass, that all they that look upon you shall flee from you, and say, Nineveh is laid waste: who will bemoan her? where shall I seek comforters for you?
3:8 Are you better than No-amon, that was situate among the rivers, that had the waters round about her; whose rampart was the sea, and her wall was of the sea?
3:9 Ethiopia and Egypt were her strength, and it was infinite; Put and Lubim were your helpers.
3:10 Yet was she carried away, she went into captivity; her young children also were dashed in pieces at the head of all the streets; and they cast lots for her honorable men, and all her great men were bound in chains.
3:11 You also shall be drunken; you shall be hid; you also shall seek a stronghold because of the enemy.
3:12 All your fortresses shall be like fig-trees with the first-ripe figs: if they be shaken, they fall into the mouth of the eater.
3:13 Behold, your people in the midst of you are women; the gates of your land are set wide open to your enemies: the fire has devoured your bars.
3:14 Draw you water for the siege; strengthen your fortresses; go into the clay, and tread the mortar; make strong the brickkiln.
3:15 There shall the fire devour you; the sword shall cut you off; it shall devour you like the canker-worm: make yourself many as the canker-worm; make yourself many as the locust.
3:16 You have multiplied your merchants above the stars of heaven: the canker-worm ravages, and flees away.
3:17 Your princes are as the locusts, and your marshals as the swarms of grasshoppers, which encamp in the hedges in the cold day, but when the sun arises they flee away, and their place is not known where they are.
3:18 Your shepherds slumber, O king of Assyria; your nobles are at rest; your people are scattered upon the mountains, and there is no one to gather them.
3:19 There is no assuaging of your hurt: your wound is grievous: all that hear the report of you clap their hands over you; for upon whom has not your wickedness passed continually?

End of Nahum

The Book of the Prophet Habakkuk

Habakkuk

1:1 The burden which Habakkuk the prophet did see.
1:2 O Yehovah, how long shall I cry, and you will not hear? I cry out to you of violence, and you will not save.
1:3 Why do you show me iniquity, and look upon perverseness? for destruction and violence are before me; and there is strife, and contention rises up.
1:4 Therefore the law is slacked, and justice does never go forth; for the wicked does compass about the righteous; therefore justice goes forth perverted.
1:5 Behold ye among the nations, and look, and wonder marvellously; for I am working a work in your days, which ye will not believe though it be told you.
1:6 For, lo, I raise up the Chaldeans, that bitter and hasty nation, that march through the breadth of the earth, to possess dwelling-places that are not theirs.
1:7 They are terrible and dreadful; their judgment and their dignity proceed from themselves.
1:8 Their horses also are swifter than leopards, and are more fierce than the evening wolves; and their horsemen press proudly on: yes, their horsemen come from far; they fly as an eagle that hastens to devour.
1:9 They come all of them for violence; the set of their faces is forward; and they gather captives as the sand.
1:10 Yes, he scoffs at kings, and princes are a derision to him; he derides every stronghold; for he heaps up dust, and takes it.
1:11 Then shall he sweep by like a wind and pass over, and be guilty, whose own might is his god.
1:12 Are you not from everlasting, O Yehovah my God, my Holy One? we shall not die. O Yehovah, you have ordained him for judgment; and you, O Rock, have established him for correction.
1:13 You that are of purer eyes than to behold evil, and who cannot look on perverseness, why do you look upon them that deal treacherously, and hold your peace when the wicked swallows up the man that is more righteous than he;
1:14 and make men as the fishes of the sea, as the creeping things, that have no ruler over them?
1:15 He takes up all of them with the angle, he catches them in his net, and gathers them in his drag: therefore he rejoices and is glad.
1:16 Therefore he sacrifices to his net, and burns incense to his drag; because by them his portion is fat, and his food plenteous.
1:17 Shall he therefore empty his net, and spare not to slay the nations continually?
2:1 I will stand upon my watch, and set me upon the tower, and will look forth to see what he will speak with me, and what I shall answer concerning my complaint.
2:2 And Yehovah answered me, and said, Write the vision, and make it plain upon tablets, that he may run that reads it.
2:3 For still the vision anticipates its appointed time, and hastens toward the end, and shall not lie. Though it tarry, wait for it; because it will surely come, it will not delay.
2:4 Behold, his soul is puffed up, it is not upright in him; but the righteous shall live by his faith.
2:5 Yes, moreover, wine is treacherous, a haughty man, that keeps not at home; who enlarges his desire as Sheol, and he is as death, and cannot be satisfied, but gathers to him all nations, and heaps to him all peoples.
2:6 Shall not all these take up a parable against him, and a taunting proverb against him, and say, Woe to him that increases that which is not his! how long? and that loads himself with pledges!
2:7 Shall they not rise up suddenly that shall bite you, and awake that shall vex you, and you shall be for booty to them?
2:8 Because you have plundered many nations, all the remnant of the peoples shall plunder you, because of men's blood, and for the violence done to the land, to the city and to all that dwell therein.

2:9 Woe to him that gets an evil gain for his house, that he may set his nest on high, that he may be delivered from the hand of evil!
2:10 You have devised shame to your house, by cutting off many peoples, and have sinned against your soul.
2:11 For the stone shall cry out of the wall, and the beam out of the timber shall answer it.
2:12 Woe to him that builds a town with blood, and establishes a city by iniquity!
2:13 Behold, is it not from Yehovah of hosts that the peoples labor for the fire, and the nations weary themselves for vanity?
2:14 For the earth shall be filled with the knowledge of the glory of Yehovah, as the waters cover the sea.
2:15 Woe to him that gives his neighbor drink, to you that add your venom, and make him drunken also, that you may look on their nakedness!
2:16 You are filled with shame, and not glory: drink you also, and be as one uncircumcised; the cup of Yehovah's right hand shall come round to you, and foul shame shall be upon your glory.
2:17 For the violence done to Lebanon shall cover you, and the destruction of the beasts, which made them afraid; because of men's blood, and for the violence done to the land, to the city and to all that dwell therein.
2:18 What profits the graven image, that the maker thereof has graven it; the molten image, even the teacher of lies, that he that fashions its form trusts in it, to make dumb idols?
2:19 Woe to him that says to the wood, awake; to the dumb stone, arise! Shall this teach? Behold, it is overlaid with gold and silver, and there is no breath at all in the midst of it.
2:20 But Yehovah is in his holy temple: let all the earth keep silence before him.
3:1 A prayer of Habakkuk the prophet, set to Shigionoth.
3:2 O Yehovah, I have heard the report of you, and am afraid: O Yehovah, revive your work in the midst of the years; In the midst of the years make it known; In wrath remember mercy.
3:3 God came from Teman,[60] and the Holy One from Mount Paran.[61] Selah. His glory covered the heavens, and the earth was full of his praise.
3:4 And his brightness was as the light; He had rays coming forth from his hand; And there was his power hidden.
3:5 Before him went the pestilence, and fiery bolts went forth at his feet.
3:6 He stood, and measured the earth; He beheld, and drove asunder the nations; And the eternal mountains were scattered; The everlasting hills did bow; His goings were as of old.
3:7 I saw the tents of Cushan[62] in distress; the tent curtains of the land of Midian[63] trembling.
3:8 Was Yehovah displeased with the rivers? Was your anger against the rivers, Or your wrath against the sea, That you did ride upon your horses, Upon your chariots of salvation?
3:9 Your bow was made quite bare; The oaths to the tribes were a sure word. Selah. You did divide the earth with rivers.
3:10 The mountains saw you, and were afraid; The tempest of waters passed by; The deep uttered its voice, and lifted up its hands on high.
3:11 The sun and moon stood still in their habitation, at the light of your arrows they went away, at the shining of your glittering spear.
3:12 You did march though the land in indignation; You did thresh the nations in anger.
3:13 You went forth for the salvation of your people, For the salvation of your anointed; You wound the head out of the house of the wicked man, Laying bare the foundation even to the neck. Selah.

3:14 You did pierce with his own staves the head of his warriors: They came as a whirlwind to scatter me; Their rejoicing was as to devour the poor secretly.
3:15 You did tread the sea with your horses, The heap of mighty waters.
3:16 I heard, and my body trembled, My lips quivered at the voice; Rottennessenters into my bones, and I tremble in my place; Because I must wait quietly for the day of trouble, For the coming up of the people that invades us.
3:17 For though the fig-tree shall not flourish, Neither shall fruit be in the vines; The labor of the olive shall fail, and the fields shall yield no food; The flock shall be cut off from the fold, and there shall be no herd in the stalls:
3:18 Yet I will rejoice in Yehovah, I will joy in the God of my salvation.
3:19 Yehovah, the Lord, is my strength; And he makes my feet like hinds' feet, and will make me to walk upon my high places.

The Book of the Prophet Zephaniah

Zephaniah

1:1 The word of Yehovah which came to Zephaniah the son of Cushi, the son of Gedaliah, the son of Amariah, the son of Hezekiah, in the days of Josiah the son of Amon, king of Judah.
1:2 I will utterly consume all things from off the face of the ground, says Yehovah.
1:3 I will consume man and beast; I will consume the birds of the heavens, and the fishes of the sea, and the stumblingblocks with the wicked; and I will cut off man from off the face of the ground, says Yehovah.
1:4 And I will stretch out my hand upon Judah, and upon all the inhabitants of Jerusalem; and I will cut off the remnant of Baal from this place, and the name of the Chemarim with the priests;
1:5 and them that worship the host of heaven upon the housetops; and them that worship, that swear to Yehovah and swear by Malcam;
1:6 and them that are turned back from following Yehovah; and those that have not sought Yehovah, nor inquired after him.
1:7 Hold your peace at the presence of the Lord Yehovah; for the day of Yehovah is at hand: for Yehovah has prepared a sacrifice, he has consecrated his guests.
1:8 And it shall come to pass in the day of Yehovah's sacrifice, that I will punish the princes, and the king's sons, and all such as are clothed with foreign apparel.
1:9 And in that day I will punish all those that leap over the threshold, that fill their master's house with violence and deceit.
1:10 And in that day, says Yehovah, there shall be the noise of a cry from the fish gate, and a wailing from the second quarter, and a great crashing from the hills.
1:11 Wail, ye inhabitants of Maktesh; for all the people of Canaan are undone; all they that were laden with silver are cut off.
1:12 And it shall come to pass at that time, that I will search Jerusalem with lamps; and I will punish the men that are settled on their lees, that say in their heart, Yehovah will not do good, neither will he do evil.
1:13 And their wealth shall become a spoil, and their houses a desolation: yes, they shall build houses, but shall not inhabit them; and they shall plant vineyards, but shall not drink the wine thereof.
1:14 The great day of Yehovah is near, it is near and hastens greatly, even the voice of the day of Yehovah; the mighty man cries there bitterly.
1:15 That day is a day of wrath, a day of trouble and distress, a day of wasteness and desolation, a day of darkness and gloominess, a day of clouds and thick darkness,
1:16 a day of the trumpet and alarm, against the fortified cities, and against the high battlements.
1:17 And I will bring distress upon men, that they shall walk like blind men, because they have sinned against Yehovah; and their blood shall be poured out as dust, and their flesh as dung.
1:18 Neither their silver nor their gold shall be able to deliver them in the day of Yehovah's wrath; but the whole land shall be devoured by the fire of his jealousy: for he will make an end, yes, a terrible end, of all them that dwell in the land.

2:1 Gather yourselves together, yes, gather together, O nation that has no shame;
2:2 before the decree bring forth, before the day pass as the chaff, before the fierce anger of Yehovah come upon you, before the day of Yehovah's anger come upon you.
2:3 Seek ye Yehovah, all ye meek of the earth, that have kept his ordinances; seek righteousness, seek meekness: it may be ye will be hid in the day of Yehovah's anger.
2:4 For Gaza shall be forsaken, and Ashkelon a desolation; they shall drive out Ashdod at noonday, and Ekron shall be rooted up.

2:5 Woe to the inhabitants of the sea-coast, the nation of the Cherethites! The word of Yehovah is against you, O Canaan, the land of the Philistines; I will destroy you, that there shall be no inhabitant.
2:6 And the sea-coast shall be pastures, with cottages for shepherds and folds for flocks.
2:7 And the coast shall be for the remnant of the house of Judah; they shall feed their flocks thereupon; in the houses of Ashkelon shall they lie down in the evening; for Yehovah their God will visit them, and bring back their captivity.
2:8 I have heard the reproach of Moab, and the revilings of the children of Ammon, with which they have reproached my people, and magnified themselves against their border.
2:9 Therefore as I live, says Yehovah of hosts, the God of Israel, Surely Moab shall be as Sodom, and the children of Ammon as Gomorrah, a possession of nettles, and saltpits, and a perpetual desolation: the residue of my people shall make a prey of them, and the remnant of my nation shall inherit them.
2:10 This shall they have for their pride, because they have reproached and magnified themselves against the people of Yehovah of hosts.
2:11 Yehovah will be terrible to them; for he will famish all the gods of the earth; and men shall worship him, every one from his place, even all the isles of the nations.
2:12 You Ethiopians also, ye shall be slain by my sword.
2:13 And he will stretch out his hand against the north, and destroy Assyria, and will make Nineveh a desolation, and dry like the wilderness.
2:14 And herds shall lie down in the midst of her, all the beasts of the nations: both the pelican and the porcupine shall lodge in the capitals thereof; their voice shall sing in the windows; desolation shall be in the thresholds: for he has laid bare the cedar-work.
2:15 This is the joyous city that dwelt carelessly, that said in her heart, I am, and there is none besides me: how is she become a desolation, a place for beasts to lie down in! every one that passes by her shall hiss, and wag his hand.

3:1 Woe to her that is rebellious and polluted! to the oppressing city!
3:2 She obeyed not the voice; she received not correction; she trusted not in Yehovah; she drew not near to her God.
3:3 Her princes in the midst of her are roaring lions; her judges are evening wolves; they leave nothing till the morrow.
3:4 Her prophets are light and treacherous persons; her priests have profaned the sanctuary, they have done violence to the law.
3:5 Yehovah in the midst of her is righteous; he will not do iniquity; every morning does he bring his justice to light, he fails not; but the unjust knows no shame.
3:6 I have cut off nations; their battlements are desolate; I have made their streets waste, so that no one passes by; their cities are destroyed, so that there is no man, so that there is no inhabitant.
3:7 I said, Only fear you me; receive correction; so her dwelling shall not be cut off, according to all that I have appointed concerning her: but they rose early and corrupted all their doings.
3:8 Therefore wait ye for me, says Yehovah, until the day that I rise up to the prey; for my determination is to gather the nations, that I may assemble the kingdoms, to pour upon them my indignation, even all my fierce anger; for all the earth shall be devoured with the fire of my jealousy.
3:9 For then I will turn to the peoples of a pure language, that they may all call upon the name of Yehovah, to serve him with one consent.
3:10 From beyond the rivers of Ethiopia my suppliants, even the daughter of my dispersed, shall bring my offering.
3:11 In that day shall you not be put to shame for all your doings, in which you have transgressed against me; for then I will remove from your midst your proud, exulting ones, and you will never again be haughty in my holy mountain.

3:12 But I will leave among you a humble and lowly people, and they shall take refuge in the name of Yehovah.
3:13 The remnant of Israel shall not do iniquity, nor speak lies; neither shall a deceitful tongue be found in their mouth; for they shall feed and lie down, and no one shall make them afraid.
3:14 Sing, O daughter of Zion; shout, O Israel; be glad and rejoice with all the heart, O daughter of Jerusalem.
3:15 Yehovah has taken away your judgments, he has cast out your enemy: the King of Israel, even Yehovah, is in the midst of you; you shall not fear evil any more.
3:16 In that day it shall be said to Jerusalem, Fear you not; O Zion, let not your hands be slack.
3:17 Yehovah your God is in the midst of you, a mighty one who will save; he will rejoice over you with joy; he will rest in his love; he will joy over you with singing.
3:18 I will gather them that sorrow for the solemn assembly, who were of you; to whom the burden upon her was a reproach.
3:19 Behold, at that time I will deal with all them that afflict you; and I will save that which is lame, and gather that which was driven away; and I will make them a praise and a name, whose shame has been in all the earth.
3:20 At that time I will bring you in, and at that time I will gather you; for I will make you a name and a praise among all the peoples of the earth, when I bring back your captivity before your eyes, says Yehovah.

The Book of the Prophet Haggai

Haggai

1:1 In the second year of Darius the king, in the sixth month, in the first day of the month, came the word of Yehovah by Haggai the prophet to Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, governor of Judah, and to Joshua the son of Jehozadak, the high priest, saying,
1:2 Thus speaks Yehovah of hosts, saying, This people say, It is not the time for us to come, the time for Yehovah's house to be built.
1:3 Then came the word of Yehovah by Haggai the prophet, saying,
1:4 Is it a time for you yourselves to dwell in your ceiled houses, while this house lies waste?
1:5 Now therefore thus says Yehovah of hosts: Consider your ways.
1:6 You have sown much, and bring in little; ye eat, but ye have not enough; ye drink, but ye are not filled with drink; ye clothe yourselves, but there is none warm; and he that earns wages earns wages to put it into a bag with holes.
1:7 Thus says Yehovah of hosts: Consider your ways.
1:8 Go up to the mountain, and bring wood, and build the house; and I will take pleasure in it, and I will be glorified, says Yehovah.
1:9 You looked for much, and, lo, it came to little; and when ye brought it home, I did blow upon it. Why? says Yehovah of hosts. Because of my house that lies waste, while ye run every man to his own house.
1:10 Therefore for your sake the heavens withhold the dew, and the earth withholds its fruit.
1:11 And I called for a drought upon the land, and upon the mountains, and upon the grain, and upon the new wine, and upon the oil, and upon that which the ground brings forth, and upon men, and upon cattle, and upon all the labor of the hands.
1:12 Then Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, and Joshua the son of Jehozadak, the high priest, with all the remnant of the people, obeyed the voice of Yehovah their God, and the words of Haggai the prophet, as Yehovah their God had sent him; and the people did fear before Yehovah.
1:13 Then spoke Haggai Yehovah's messenger in Yehovah's message to the people, saying, I am with you, says Yehovah.
1:14 And Yehovah stirred up the spirit of Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, governor of Judah, and the spirit of Joshua the son of Jehozadak, the high priest, and the spirit of all the remnant of the people; and they came and did work on the house of Yehovah of hosts, their God,
1:15 in the four and twentieth day of the month, in the sixth month, in the second year of Darius the king.

2:1 In the seventh month, in the one and twentieth day of the month, came the word of Yehovah by Haggai the prophet, saying,
2:2 Speak now to Zerubbabel the son of Shealtiel, governor of Judah, and to Joshua the son of Jehozadak, the high priest, and to the remnant of the people, saying,
2:3 Who is left among you that saw this house in its former glory? and how do ye see it now? is it not in your eyes as nothing?
2:4 Yet now be strong, O Zerubbabel, says Yehovah; and be strong, O Joshua, son of Jehozadak, the high priest; and be strong, all ye people of the land, says Yehovah, and work: for I am with you, says Yehovah of hosts,
2:5 according to the word that I covenanted with you when ye came out of Egypt, and my Spirit abode among you: fear ye not.
2:6 For thus says Yehovah of hosts: Yet once, it is a little while, and I will shake the heavens, and the earth, and the sea, and the dry land;
2:7 and I will shake all nations; and the precious things of all nations shall come; and I will fill this house with glory, says Yehovah of hosts.
2:8 The silver is mine, and the gold is mine, says Yehovah of hosts.

2:9 The latter glory of this house shall be greater than the former, says Yehovah of hosts; and in this place I will give peace, says Yehovah of hosts.
2:10 In the four and twentieth day of the ninth month, in the second year of Darius, came the word of Yehovah by Haggai the prophet, saying,
2:11 Thus says Yehovah of hosts: Ask now the priests concerning the law, saying,
2:12 If one bear holy flesh in the skirt of his garment, and with his skirt do touch bread, or pottage, or wine, or oil, or any food, shall it become holy? And the priests answered and said, No.
2:13 Then said Haggai, If one that is unclean by reason of a dead body touch any of these, shall it be unclean? And the priests answered and said, It shall be unclean.
2:14 Then answered Haggai and said, So is this people, and so is this nation before me, says Yehovah; and so is every work of their hands; and that which they offer there is unclean.
2:15 And now, I pray you, consider from this day and backward, before a stone was laid upon a stone in the temple of Yehovah.
2:16 Through all that time, when one came to a heap of twenty measures, there were but ten; when one came to the winevat to draw out fifty vessels, there were but twenty.
2:17 I smote you with blasting and with mildew and with hail in all the work of your hands; yet ye turned not to me, says Yehovah.
2:18 Consider, I pray you, from this day and backward, from the four and twentieth day of the ninth month, since the day that the foundation of Yehovah's temple was laid, consider it.
2:19 Is the seed yet in the barn? yes, the vine, and the fig-tree, and the pomegranate, and the olive-tree have not brought forth; from this day I will bless you.
2:20 And the word of Yehovah came the second time to Haggai in the four and twentieth day of the month, saying,
2:21 Speak to Zerubbabel, governor of Judah, saying, I will shake the heavens and the earth;
2:22 and I will overthrow the throne of kingdoms; and I will destroy the strength of the kingdoms of the nations; and I will overthrow the chariots, and those that ride in them; and the horses and their riders shall come down, every one by the sword of his brother.
2:23 In that day, says Yehovah of hosts, I will take you, O Zerubbabel, my servant, the son of Shealtiel, says Yehovah, and will make you as a signet; for I have chosen you, says Yehovah of hosts.

End of Haggai

The Book of the Prophet Zechariah

Zechariah

1:1 In the eighth month, in the second year of Darius, came the word of Yehovah to Zechariah the son of Berechiah, the son of Iddo, the prophet, saying,
1:2 Yehovah was sore displeased with your fathers.
1:3 Therefore say to them, Thus says Yehovah of hosts: Return to me, says Yehovah of hosts, and I will return to you, says Yehovah of hosts.
1:4 Be ye not as your fathers, to whom the former prophets cried, saying, Thus says Yehovah of hosts, Return ye now from your evil ways, and from your evil doings: but they did not hear, nor hearken to me, says Yehovah.
1:5 Your fathers, where are they? and the prophets, do they live for ever?
1:6 But my words and my statutes, which I commanded my servants the prophets, did they not overtake your fathers? and they turned and said, Like as Yehovah of hosts thought to do to us, according to our ways, and according to our doings, so has he dealt with us.
1:7 Upon the four and twentieth day of the eleventh month, which is the month Shebat, in the second year of Darius, came the word of Yehovah to Zechariah the son of Berechiah, the son of Iddo, the prophet, saying,
1:8 I saw in the night, and, behold, a man riding upon a red horse, and he stood among the myrtle-trees that were in the bottom; and behind him there were horses, red, sorrel, and white.
1:9 Then said I, O my lord, what are these? And the angel that talked with me said to me, I will show you what these are.
1:10 And the man that stood among the myrtle-trees answered and said, These are they whom Yehovah has sent to walk to and fro through the earth.
1:11 And they answered the angel of Yehovah that stood among the myrtle-trees, and said, We have walked to and fro through the earth, and, behold, all the earth sits still, and is at rest.
1:12 Then the angel of Yehovah answered and said, O Yehovah of hosts, how long will you not have mercy on Jerusalem and on the cities of Judah, against which you have had indignation these seventy years?
1:13 And Yehovah answered the angel that talked with me with good words, even comfortable words.
1:14 So the angel that talked with me said to me, Cry, saying, Thus says Yehovah of hosts: I am jealous for Jerusalem and for Zion with a great jealousy.
1:15 And I am very sore displeased with the nations that are at ease; for I was but a little displeased, and they helped forward the affliction.
1:16 Therefore thus says Yehovah: I am returned to Jerusalem with mercies; my house shall be built in it, says Yehovah of hosts, and a line shall be stretched forth over Jerusalem.
1:17 Cry yet again, saying, Thus says Yehovah of hosts: My cities shall yet overflow with prosperity; and Yehovah shall yet comfort Zion, and shall yet choose Jerusalem.
1:18 And I lifted up my eyes, and saw, and, behold, four horns.
1:19 And I said to the angel that talked with me, What are these? And he answered me, These are the horns which have scattered Judah, Israel, and Jerusalem.
1:20 And Yehovah showed me four smiths.
1:21 Then said I, What come these to do? And he spoke, saying, These are the horns which scattered Judah, so that no man did lift up his head; but these are come to terrify them, to cast down the horns of the nations, which lifted up their horn against the land of Judah to scatter it.
2:1 And I lifted up my eyes, and saw, and, behold, a man with a measuring line in his hand.
2:2 Then said I, Where are you going? And he said to me, To measure Jerusalem, to see what is the breadth thereof, and what is the length thereof.

2:3 And, behold, the angel that talked with me went forth, and another angel went out to meet him,
2:4 and said to him, Run, speak to this young man, saying, Jerusalem shall be inhabited as villages without walls, by reason of the multitude of men and cattle therein.
2:5 For I, says Yehovah, will be to her a wall of fire round about, and I will be the glory in the midst of her.
2:6 Ho, ho, flee from the land of the north, says Yehovah; for I have spread you abroad as the four winds of the heavens, says Yehovah.
2:7 Ho Zion, escape, you that dwell with the daughter of Babylon.
2:8 For thus says Yehovah of hosts: After glory has he sent me to the nations which plundered you; for he that touches you touches the apple of his eye.
2:9 For, behold, I will shake my hand over them, and they shall be a spoil to those that served them; and ye shall know that Yehovah of hosts has sent me.
2:10 Sing and rejoice, O daughter of Zion; for, lo, I come, and I will dwell in the midst of you, says Yehovah.
2:11 And many nations shall join themselves to Yehovah in that day, and shall be my people; and I will dwell in the midst of you, and you shall know that Yehovah of hosts has sent me to you.
2:12 And Yehovah shall inherit Judah as his portion in the holy land, and shall yet choose Jerusalem.
2:13 Be silent, all flesh, before Yehovah; for he is waked up out of his holy habitation.
3:1 And he showed me Joshua the high priest standing before the angel of Yehovah, and Satan standing at his right hand to be his adversary.
3:2 And Yehovah said to Satan, Yehovah rebuke you, O Satan; yes, Yehovah that has chosen Jerusalem rebuke you: is not this a brand plucked out of the fire?
3:3 Now Joshua was clothed with filthy garments, and was standing before the angel.
3:4 And he answered and spoke to those that stood before him, saying, Take the filthy garments from off him. And to him he said, Behold, I have caused your iniquity to pass from you, and I will clothe you with rich apparel.
3:5 And I said, Let them set a clean mitre upon his head. So they set a clean mitre upon his head, and clothed him with garments; and the angel of Yehovah was standing by.
3:6 And the angel of Yehovah protested to Joshua, saying,
3:7 Thus says Yehovah of hosts: If you will walk in my ways, and if you will keep my charge, then you also shall judge my house, and shall also keep my courts, and I will give you a place of access among these that stand by.
3:8 Hear now, O Joshua the high priest, you and your fellows that sit before you; for they are men that are a sign: for, behold, I will bring forth my servant the Branch.
3:9 For, behold, the stone that I have set before Joshua; upon one stone are seven eyes: behold, I will engrave the graving thereof, says Yehovah of hosts, and I will remove the iniquity of that land in one day.
3:10 In that day, says Yehovah of hosts, shall ye invite every man his neighbor under the vine and under the fig-tree.
4:1 And the angel that talked with me came again, and waked me, as a man that is wakened out of his sleep.
4:2 And he said to me, What see you? And I said, I have seen, and, behold, a candlestick all of gold, with its bowl upon the top of it, and its seven lamps upon it; there are seven pipes to each of the lamps, which are upon the top thereof;
4:3 and two olive-trees by it, one upon the right side of the bowl, and the other upon the left side thereof.
4:4 And I answered and spoke to the angel that talked with me, saying, What are these, my lord?
4:5 Then the angel that talked with me answered and said to me, Know you not what these are? And I said, No, my lord.

4:6 Then he answered and spoke to me, saying, This is the word of Yehovah to Zerubbabel, saying, Not by might, nor by power, but by my Spirit, says Yehovah of hosts.
4:7 Who are you, O great mountain? before Zerubbabel you shall become a plain; and he shall bring forth the top stone with shoutings of Grace, grace, to it.
4:8 Moreover the word of Yehovah came to me, saying,
4:9 The hands of Zerubbabel have laid the foundation of this house; his hands shall also finish it; and you shall know that Yehovah of hosts has sent me to you.
4:10 For who has despised the day of small things? for these seven shall rejoice, and shall see the plummet in the hand of Zerubbabel; these are the eyes of Yehovah, which run to and fro through the whole earth.
4:11 Then answered I, and said to him, What are these two olive-trees upon the right side of the candlestick and upon the left side thereof?
4:12 And I answered the second time, and said to him, What are these two olive-branches, which are beside the two golden spouts, that empty the golden oil out of themselves?
4:13 And he answered me and said, Know you not what these are? And I said, No, my lord.
4:14 Then said he, These are the two anointed ones, that stand by the Lord of the whole earth.
5:1 Then again I lifted up my eyes, and saw, and, behold, a flying roll.
5:2 And he said to me, What see you? And I answered, I see a flying roll; the length thereof is twenty cubits, and the breadth thereof ten cubits.
5:3 Then said he to me, This is the curse that goes forth over the face of the whole land: for every one that steals shall be cut off on the one side according to it; and every one that swears shall be cut off on the other side according to it.
5:4 I will cause it to go forth, says Yehovah of hosts, and it shall enter into the house of the thief, and into the house of him that swears falsely by my name; and it shall abide in the midst of his house, and shall consume it with the timber thereof and the stones thereof.
5:5 Then the angel that talked with me went forth, and said to me, Lift up now your eyes, and see what is this that goes forth.
5:6 And I said, What is it? And he said, This is the ephah that goes forth. He said moreover, This is their appearance in all the land
5:7 (and, behold, there was lifted up a talent of lead); and this is a woman sitting in the midst of the ephah.
5:8 And he said, This is Wickedness: and he cast her down into the midst of the ephah; and he cast the weight of lead upon the mouth thereof.
5:9 Then lifted I up my eyes, and saw, and, behold, there came forth two women, and the wind was in their wings; now they had wings like the wings of a stork; and they lifted up the ephah between earth and heaven.
5:10 Then said I to the angel that talked with me, Whither do these bear the ephah?
5:11 And he said to me, To build her a house in the land of Shinar: and when it is prepared, she shall be set there in her own place.
6:1 And again I lifted up my eyes, and saw, and, behold, there came four chariots out from between two mountains; and the mountains were mountains of brass.
6:2 In the first chariot were red horses; and in the second chariot black horses;
6:3 and in the third chariot white horses; and in the fourth chariot grizzled strong horses.
6:4 Then I answered and said to the angel that talked with me, What are these, my lord?
6:5 And the angel answered and said to me, These are the four winds of heaven, which go forth from standing before the Lord of all the earth.
6:6 The chariot in which are the black horses goes forth toward the north country; and the white went forth after them; and the grizzled went forth toward the south country.
6:7 And the strong went forth, and sought to go that they might walk to and fro through the earth: and he said, Get you away from here, walk to and fro through the earth. So they walked to and fro through the earth.

6:8 Then cried he to me, and spoke to me, saying, Behold, they that go toward the north country have quieted my spirit in the north country.
6:9 And the word of Yehovah came to me, saying,
6:10 Take of them from the captivity, even of Heldai, of Tobijah, and of Jedaiah; and come the same day, and go into the house of Josiah the son of Zephaniah, whither they are come from Babylon;
6:11 yes, take from them silver and gold, and make crowns, and set them upon the head of Joshua the son of Jehozadak, the high priest;
6:12 and speak to him, saying, Thus speaks Yehovah of hosts, saying, Behold, the man whose name is the Branch: and he shall grow up out of his place; and he shall build the temple of Yehovah;
6:13 even he shall build the temple of Yehovah; and he shall bear the glory, and shall sit and rule upon his throne; and he shall be a priest upon his throne; and the counsel of peace shall be between them both.
6:14 And the crowns shall be to Helem, and to Tobijah, and to Jedaiah, and to Hen the son of Zephaniah, for a memorial in the temple of Yehovah.
6:15 And they that are far off shall come and build in the temple of Yehovah; and ye shall know that Yehovah of hosts has sent me to you. And this shall come to pass, if ye will diligently obey the voice of Yehovah your God.
7:1 And it came to pass in the fourth year of king Darius, that the word of Yehovah came to Zechariah in the fourth day of the ninth month, that is, Chislev.
7:2 Now they of Beth-el had sent Sharezer and Regem-melech, and their men, to entreat the favor of Yehovah,
7:3 and to speak to the priests of the house of Yehovah of hosts, and to the prophets, saying, Should I weep in the fifth month, separating myself, as I have done these so many years?
7:4 Then came the word of Yehovah of hosts to me, saying,
7:5 Speak to all the people of the land, and to the priests, saying, When ye fasted and mourned in the fifth and in the seventh month, even these seventy years, did ye at all fast to me, even to me?
7:6 And when ye eat, and when ye drink, do not ye eat for yourselves, and drink for yourselves?
7:7 Should ye not hear the words which Yehovah cried by the former prophets, when Jerusalem was inhabited and in prosperity, and the cities thereof round about her, and the South and the lowland were inhabited?
7:8 And the word of Yehovah came to Zechariah, saying,
7:9 Thus has Yehovah of hosts spoken, saying, Execute true judgment, and show kindness and compassion every man to his brother;
7:10 and oppress not the widow, nor the fatherless, the sojourner, nor the poor; and let none of you devise evil against his brother in your heart.
7:11 But they refused to hearken, and pulled away the shoulder, and stopped their ears, that they might not hear.
7:12 Yes, they made their hearts as an adamant stone, lest they should hear the law, and the words which Yehovah of hosts had sent by his Spirit by the former prophets: therefore there came great wrath from Yehovah of hosts.
7:13 And it is come to pass that, as he cried, and they would not hear, so they shall cry, and I will not hear, said Yehovah of hosts;
7:14 but I will scatter them with a whirlwind among all the nations which they have not known. Thus the land was desolate after them, so that no man passed through nor returned: for they laid the pleasant land desolate.
8:1 And the word of Yehovah of hosts came to me, saying,
8:2 Thus says Yehovah of hosts: I am jealous for Zion with great jealousy, and I am jealous for her with great wrath.
8:3 Thus says Yehovah: I am returned to Zion, and will dwell in the midst of Jerusalem: and Jerusalem shall be called The city of truth; and the mountain of Yehovah of hosts, The holy mountain.
8:4 Thus says Yehovah of hosts: There shall yet old men and old women dwell in the streets of Jerusalem, every man with his staff in his hand for very age.

8:5 And the streets of the city shall be full of boys and girls playing in the streets thereof.
8:6 Thus says Yehovah of hosts: If it be marvellous in the eyes of the remnant of this people in those days, should it also be marvellous in my eyes? says Yehovah of hosts.
8:7 Thus says Yehovah of hosts: Behold, I will save my people from the east country, and from the west country;
8:8 and I will bring them, and they shall dwell in the midst of Jerusalem; and they shall be my people, and I will be their God, in truth and in righteousness.
8:9 Thus says Yehovah of hosts: Let your hands be strong, ye that hear in these days these words from the mouth of the prophets that were in the day that the foundation of the house of Yehovah of hosts was laid, even the temple, that it might be built.
8:10 For before those days there was no wage for a man, nor any wage for beast; neither was there any peace to him that went out or came in, because of the adversary: for I set all men every one against his neighbor.
8:11 But now I will not be to the remnant of this people as in the former days, says Yehovah of hosts.
8:12 For there shall be the seed of peace; the vine shall give its fruit, and the ground shall give its increase, and the heavens shall give their dew; and I will cause the remnant of this people to inherit all these things.
8:13 And it shall come to pass that, as ye were a curse among the nations, O house of Judah and house of Israel, so I will save you, and ye shall be a blessing. Fear not, but let your hands be strong.
8:14 For thus says Yehovah of hosts: As I thought to do evil to you, when your fathers provoked me to wrath, says Yehovah of hosts, and I repented not;
8:15 so again have I thought in these days to do good to Jerusalem and to the house of Judah: fear ye not.
8:16 These are the things that ye shall do: speak ye every man the truth with his neighbor; execute the judgment of truth and peace in your gates;
8:17 and let none of you devise evil in your hearts against his neighbor; and love no false oath: for all these are things that I hate, says Yehovah.
8:18 And the word of Yehovah of hosts came to me, saying,
8:19 Thus says Yehovah of hosts: The fast of the fourth month, and the fast of the fifth, and the fast of the seventh, and the fast of the tenth, shall be to the house of Judah joy and gladness, and cheerful feasts; therefore love truth and peace.
8:20 Thus says Yehovah of hosts: It shall yet come to pass, that there shall come peoples, and the inhabitants of many cities;
8:21 and the inhabitants of one city shall go to another, saying, Let us go speedily to entreat the favor of Yehovah, and to seek Yehovah of hosts: I will go also.
8:22 Yes, many peoples and strong nations shall come to seek Yehovah of hosts in Jerusalem, and to entreat the favor of Yehovah.
8:23 Thus says Yehovah of hosts: In those days it shall come to pass, that ten men shall take hold, out of all the languages of the nations, they shall take hold of the skirt of him that is a Jew, saying, We will go with you, for we have heard that God is with you.
9:1 The burden of the word of Yehovah upon the land of Hadrach, and Damascus shall be its resting-place (for the eye of man and of all the tribes of Israel is toward Yehovah);
9:2 and Hamath, also, which borders upon it; Tyre and Sidon, because they are very wise.
9:3 And Tyre did build herself a stronghold, and heaped up silver as the dust, and fine gold as the mire of the streets.
9:4 Behold, the Lord will dispossess her, and he will strike her power in the sea; and she shall be devoured with fire.
9:5 Ashkelon shall see it, and fear; Gaza also, and shall be sore pained; and Ekron, for her expectation shall be put to shame; and the king shall perish from Gaza, and Ashkelon shall not be inhabited.
9:6 And a bastard shall dwell in Ashdod, and I will cut off the pride of the Philistines.

9:7 And I will take away his blood out of his mouth, and his abominations from between his teeth; and he also shall be a remnant for our God; and he shall be as a chieftain in Judah, and Ekron as a Jebusite.
9:8 And I will encamp about my house against the army, that none pass through or return; and no oppressor shall pass through them any more: for now have I seen with my eyes.
9:9 Rejoice greatly, O daughter of Zion; shout, O daughter of Jerusalem: behold, your king comes to you; he is just, and having salvation; lowly, and riding upon a donkey, on a colt, the foal of a donkey.
9:10 And I will cut off the chariot from Ephraim, and the horse from Jerusalem; and the battle bow shall be cut off; and he shall speak peace to the nations: and his dominion shall be from sea to sea, and from the River to the ends of the earth.
9:11 As for you also, because of the blood of your covenant I have set free your prisoners from the pit in which is no water.
9:12 Turn you to the stronghold, ye prisoners of hope: even today do I declare that I will render double to you.
9:13 For I have bent Judah for me, I have filled the bow with Ephraim; and I will stir up your sons, O Zion, against your sons, O Greece, and will make you as the sword of a mighty man.
9:14 And Yehovah shall be seen over them; and his arrow shall go forth as the lightning; and the Lord Yehovah will blow the trumpet, and will go with whirlwinds of the south.
9:15 Yehovah of hosts will defend them; and they shall devour, and shall tread down the sling-stones; and they shall drink, and make a noise as through wine; and they shall be filled like bowls, like the corners of the altar.
9:16 And Yehovah their God will save them in that day as the flock of his people; for they shall be as the stones of a crown, lifted on high over his land.
9:17 For how great is his goodness, and how great is his beauty! grain shall make the young men flourish, and new wine the virgins.
10:1 Ask ye of Yehovah rain in the time of the latter rain, even of Yehovah that makes lightnings; and he will give them showers of rain, to every one grass in the field.
10:2 For the teraphim have spoken vanity, and the diviners have seen a lie; and they have told false dreams, they comfort in vain: therefore they go their way like sheep, they are afflicted, because there is no shepherd.
10:3 Mine anger is kindled against the shepherds, and I will punish the he-goats; for Yehovah of hosts has visited his flock, the house of Judah, and will make them as his goodly horse in the battle.
10:4 From him shall come forth the corner-stone, from him the nail, from him the battle bow, from him every ruler together.
10:5 And they shall be as mighty men, treading down their enemies in the mire of the streets in the battle; and they shall fight, because Yehovah is with them; and the riders on horses shall be confounded.
10:6 And I will strengthen the house of Judah, and I will save the house of Joseph, and I will bring them back; for I have mercy upon them; and they shall be as though I had not cast them off: for I am Yehovah their God, and I will hear them.
10:7 And they of Ephraim shall be like a mighty man, and their heart shall rejoice as through wine; yes, their children shall see it, and rejoice; their heart shall be glad in Yehovah.
10:8 I will hiss for them, and gather them; for I have redeemed them; and they shall increase as they have increased.
10:9 And I will sow them among the peoples; and they shall remember me in far countries; and they shall live with their children, and shall return.
10:10 I will bring them again also out of the land of Egypt, and gather them out of Assyria; and I will bring them into the land of Gilead and Lebanon; and place shall not be found for them.
10:11 And he will pass through the sea of affliction, and will strike the waves in the sea, and all the depths of the Nile shall dry up; and the pride of Assyria shall be brought down, and the sceptre of Egypt shall depart.

10:12 And I will strengthen them in Yehovah; and they shall walk up and down in his name, says Yehovah.
11:1 Open your doors, O Lebanon, that the fire may devour your cedars.
11:2 Wail, O fir-tree, for the cedar is fallen, because the goodly ones are destroyed: wail, O ye oaks of Bashan, for the strong forest is come down.
11:3 A voice of the wailing of the shepherds! for their glory is destroyed: a voice of the roaring of young lions! for the pride of the Jordan is laid waste.
11:4 Thus said Yehovah my God: Feed the flock of slaughter;
11:5 whose possessors slay them, and hold themselves not guilty; and they that sell them say, Blessed be Yehovah, for I am rich; and their own shepherds pity them not.
11:6 For I will no longer pity the inhabitants of the land, says Yehovah; but, lo, I will deliver the men every one into his neighbor's hand, and into the hand of his king; and they shall smite the land, and out of their hand I will not deliver them.
11:7 So I fed the flock of slaughter, verily the poor of the flock. And I took to me two staves; the one I called Beauty, and the other I called Bands; and I fed the flock.
11:8 And I cut off the three shepherds in one month; for my soul was weary of them, and their soul also loathed me.
11:9 Then said I, I will not feed you: that which dies, let it die; and that which is to be cut off, let it be cut off; and let them that are left eat every one the flesh of another.
11:10 And I took my staff Beauty, and cut it asunder, that I might break my covenant which I had made with all the peoples.
11:11 And it was broken in that day; and thus the poor of the flock that gave heed to me knew that it was the word of Yehovah.
11:12 And I said to them, If ye think good, give me my fee; and if not, forbear. So they weighed for my payment thirty pieces of silver.
11:13 And Yehovah said to me, Throw it to the potter, that magnificent price at which I was prized by them. And I took the thirty pieces of silver, and threw them to the potter[64] in the house of Yehovah.
11:14 Then I cut asunder my other staff, even Bands, that I might break the brotherhood between Judah and Israel.
11:15 And Yehovah said to me, Take to you yet again the instruments of a foolish shepherd.
11:16 For, lo, I will raise up a shepherd in the land, who will not visit those that are cut off, neither will seek those that are scattered, nor heal that which is broken, nor feed that which is sound; but he will eat the flesh of the fat sheep, and will tear their hoofs in pieces.
11:17 Woe to the worthless shepherd that leaves the flock! the sword shall be upon his arm, and upon his right eye: his arm shall be clean dried up, and his right eye shall be utterly darkened.
12:1 The burden of the word of Yehovah concerning Israel. Thus says Yehovah, who stretches forth the heavens, and lays the foundation of the earth, and forms the spirit of man within him:
12:2 behold, I will make Jerusalem a cup of reeling to all the peoples round about, and upon Judah also shall it be in the siege against Jerusalem.
12:3 And it shall come to pass in that day, that I will make Jerusalem a burdensome stone for all the peoples; all that burden themselves with it shall be sore wounded; and all the nations of the earth shall be gathered together against it.
12:4 In that day, says Yehovah, I will smite every horse with terror, and his rider with madness; and I will open my eyes upon the house of Judah, and will smite every horse of the peoples with blindness.
12:5 And the chieftains of Judah shall say in their heart, The inhabitants of Jerusalem are my strength in Yehovah of hosts their God.

[64] Hebrew; the Greek Septuagint says "throw it into the treasury…and I threw it into the treasury, in the house of the Lord." The Hebrew words for treasury and potter are quite similar when written without the vowels.

12:6 In that day I will make the chieftains of Judah like a pan of fire among wood, and like a flaming torch among sheaves; and they shall devour all the peoples round about, on the right hand and on the left; and they of Jerusalem shall yet again dwell in their own place, even in Jerusalem.
12:7 Yehovah also shall save the tents of Judah first, that the glory of the house of David and the glory of the inhabitants of Jerusalem be not magnified above Judah.
12:8 In that day shall Yehovah defend the inhabitants of Jerusalem: and he that is feeble among them at that day shall be as David; and the house of David shall be as God, as the angel of Yehovah before them.
12:9 And it shall come to pass in that day, that I will seek to destroy all the nations that come against Jerusalem.
12:10 And I will pour upon the house of David, and upon the inhabitants of Jerusalem, the spirit of grace and of supplication; and they shall look to me whom they have pierced; and they shall mourn for him, as one mourns for his only son, and shall be in bitterness for him, as one that is in bitterness for his first-born.
12:11 In that day shall there be a great mourning in Jerusalem, as the mourning of Hadadrimmon in the valley of Megiddon.
12:12 And the land shall mourn, every family apart; the family of the house of David apart, and their wives apart; the family of the house of Nathan apart, and their wives apart;
12:13 the family of the house of Levi apart, and their wives apart; the family of the Shimeites apart, and their wives apart;
12:14 all the families that remain, every family apart, and their wives apart.
13:1 In that day there shall be a fountain opened to the house of David and to the inhabitants of Jerusalem, for sin and for uncleanness.
13:2 And it shall come to pass in that day, says Yehovah of hosts, that I will cut off the names of the idols out of the land, and they shall no more be remembered; and also I will cause the prophets and the unclean spirit to pass out of the land.
13:3 And it shall come to pass that, when any shall yet prophesy, then his father and his mother that begat him shall say to him, You shall not live; for you speak lies in the name of Yehovah; and his father and his mother that begat him shall thrust him through when he prophesies.
13:4 And it shall come to pass in that day, that the prophets shall be ashamed every one of his vision, when he prophesies; neither shall they wear a hairy mantle to deceive:
13:5 but he shall say, I am no prophet, I am a tiller of the ground; for I have been made a bondman from my youth.
13:6 And one shall say to him, What are these wounds between your arms? Then he shall answer, Those with which I was wounded in the house of my friends.
13:7 Awake, O sword, against my shepherd, and against the man that is my fellow, says Yehovah of hosts: strike the shepherd, and the sheep shall be scattered; and I will turn my hand upon the little ones.
13:8 And it shall come to pass, that in all the land, says Yehovah, two parts therein shall be cut off and die; but the third shall be left therein.
13:9 And I will bring the third part into the fire, and will refine them as silver is refined, and will try them as gold is tried. They shall call on my name, and I will hear them: I will say, It is my people; and they shall say, Yehovah is my God.
14:1 Behold, a day of Yehovah comes, when your spoil shall be divided in the midst of you.
14:2 For I will gather all nations against Jerusalem to battle; and the city shall be taken, and the houses rifled, and the women ravished; and half of the city shall go forth into captivity, and the residue of the people shall not be cut off from the city.
14:3 Then shall Yehovah go forth, and fight against those nations, as when he fought in the day of battle.
14:4 And his feet shall stand in that day upon the mount of Olives, which is before Jerusalem on the east; and the mount of Olives shall be cleft in the midst thereof toward the east and toward the west, and there shall be a very great valley; and half of the mountain shall remove toward the north, and half of it toward the south.

14:5 And ye shall flee by the valley of my mountains; for the valley of the mountains shall reach to Azel; yes, ye shall flee, like as ye fled from before the earthquake in the days of Uzziah king of Judah; and Yehovah my God shall come, and all the holy ones with you.
14:6 And it shall come to pass in that day, that there shall not be light; the bright ones shall withdraw themselves:
14:7 but it shall be one day which is known to Yehovah; not day, and not night; but it shall come to pass, that at evening time there shall be light.
14:8 And it shall come to pass in that day, that living waters shall go out from Jerusalem; half of them toward the eastern sea, and half of them toward the western sea: in summer and in winter shall it be.
14:9 And Yehovah shall be King over all the earth: in that day shall Yehovah be one, and his name one.
14:10 All the land shall be made like the Arabah, from Geba to Rimmon south of Jerusalem; and she shall be lifted up, and shall dwell in her place, from Benjamin's gate to the place of the first gate, to the corner gate, and from the tower of Hananel to the king's wine-presses.
14:11 And men shall dwell therein, and there shall be no more curse; but Jerusalem shall dwell safely.
14:12 And this shall be the plague with which Yehovah will smite all the peoples that have warred against Jerusalem: their flesh shall consume away while they stand upon their feet, and their eyes shall consume away in their sockets, and their tongue shall consume away in their mouth.
14:13 And it shall come to pass in that day, that a great tumult from Yehovah shall be among them; and they shall lay hold every one on the hand of his neighbor, and his hand shall rise up against the hand of his neighbor.
14:14 And Judah also shall fight at Jerusalem; and the wealth of all the nations round about shall be gathered together, gold, and silver, and apparel, in great abundance.
14:15 And so shall be the plague of the horse, of the mule, of the camel, and of the donkey, and of all the beasts that shall be in those camps, as that plague.
14:16 And it shall come to pass, that every one that is left of all the nations that came against Jerusalem shall go up from year to year to worship the King, Yehovah of hosts, and to keep the feast of tabernacles.
14:17 And it shall be, that whoso of all the families of the earth goes not up to Jerusalem to worship the King, Yehovah of hosts, upon them there shall be no rain.
14:18 And if the family of Egypt go not up, and come not, neither shall it be upon them; there shall be the plague with which Yehovah will smite the nations that go not up to keep the feast of tabernacles.
14:19 This shall be the punishment of Egypt, and the punishment of all the nations that go not up to keep the feast of tabernacles.
14:20 In that day shall there be upon the bells of the horses, HOLY UNTO YEHOVAH; and the pots in Yehovah's house shall be like the bowls before the altar.
14:21 Yes, every pot in Jerusalem and in Judah shall be holy unto Yehovah of hosts; and all they that sacrifice shall come and take of them, and boil therein: and in that day there shall be no more a Canaanite in the house of Yehovah of hosts.

The Book of the Prophet Malachi

Malachi

1:1 The burden of the word of Yehovah to Israel by Malachi.
1:2 I have loved you, says Yehovah. Yet ye say, In what way have you loved us? Was not Esau Jacob's brother, says Yehovah: yet I loved Jacob;
1:3 but Esau I hated, and made his mountains a desolation, and gave his heritage to the jackals of the wilderness.
1:4 Whereas Edom says, We are beaten down, but we will return and build the waste places; thus says Yehovah of hosts, They shall build, but I will throw down; and men shall call them The border of wickedness, and The people against whom Yehovah has indignation for ever.
1:5 And your eyes shall see, and ye shall say, Yehovah be magnified beyond the border of Israel.
1:6 A son honors his father, and a servant his master: if then I am a father, where is my honor? and if I am a master, where is my fear? says Yehovah of hosts to you, O priests, that despise my name. And ye say, In what way have we despised your name?
1:7 You offer polluted bread upon my altar. And ye say, How have we polluted you? In that ye say, The table of Yehovah is contemptible.
1:8 And when ye offer the blind for sacrifice, it is no evil! and when ye offer the lame and sick, it is no evil! Present it now to your governor; will he be pleased with you? or will he accept your person? says Yehovah of hosts.
1:9 And now, I pray you, entreat the favor of God, that he may be gracious to us: this has been by your means: will he accept any of your persons? says Yehovah of hosts.
1:10 Oh that there were one among you that would shut the doors, that ye might not kindle fire on my altar in vain! I have no pleasure in you, says Yehovah of hosts, neither will I accept an offering at your hand.
1:11 For from the rising of the sun even to the going down of the same my name shall be great among the Gentiles; and in every place incense shall be offered to my name, and a pure offering: for my name shall be great among the Gentiles, says Yehovah of hosts.
1:12 But ye profane it, in that ye say, The table of Yehovah is polluted, and the fruit thereof, even its food, is contemptible.
1:13 You say also, Behold, what a weariness is it! and ye have snuffed at it, says Yehovah of hosts; and ye have brought that which was taken by violence, and the lame, and the sick; thus ye bring the offering: should I accept this at your hand? says Yehovah.
1:14 But cursed be the deceiver, who has in his flock a male, and vows, and sacrifices to the Lord a blemished thing; for I am a great King, says Yehovah of hosts, and my name is terrible among the Gentiles.
2:1 And now, O ye priests, this commandment is for you.
2:2 If ye will not hear, and if ye will not lay it to heart, to give glory to my name, says Yehovah of hosts, then I will send the curse upon you, and I will curse your blessings; yes, I have cursed them already, because ye do not lay it to heart.
2:3 Behold, I will rebuke your seed, and will spread dung upon your faces, even the dung of your feasts; and ye shall be taken away with it.
2:4 And ye shall know that I have sent this commandment to you, that my covenant may be with Levi, says Yehovah of hosts.
2:5 My covenant was with him of life and peace; and I gave them to him that he might fear; and he feared me, and stood in awe of my name.
2:6 The law of truth was in his mouth, and unrighteousness was not found in his lips: he walked with me in peace and uprightness, and turned many away from iniquity.
2:7 For the priest's lips should keep knowledge, and they should seek the law at his mouth; for he is the messenger of Yehovah of hosts.

2:8 But ye are turned aside out of the way; ye have caused many to stumble in the law; ye have corrupted the covenant of Levi, says Yehovah of hosts.
2:9 Therefore have I also made you contemptible and base before all the people, according as ye have not kept my ways, but have had respect of persons in the law.
2:10 Have we not all one father? has not one God created us? why do we deal treacherously every man against his brother, profaning the covenant of our fathers?
2:11 Judah has dealt treacherously, and an abomination is committed in Israel and in Jerusalem; for Judah has profaned the holiness of Yehovah which he loves, and has married the daughter of a foreign god.
2:12 Yehovah will cut off, to the man that does this, him that wakes and him that answers, out of the tents of Jacob, and him that offers an offering to Yehovah of hosts.
2:13 And this again ye do: ye cover the altar of Yehovah with tears, with weeping, and with sighing, insomuch that he regards not the offering any more, neither receives it with good will at your hand.
2:14 Yet ye say, Why does he not? It is because Yehovah has been witness between you and the wife of your youth, against whom you have dealt treacherously, though she is your partner, and the wife of your covenant.
2:15 And did he not make them one, and it had the residue of the Spirit? And why did he make them one? He sought a godly seed. Therefore take heed to your spirit, and let none deal treacherously against the wife of his youth.
2:16 For I hate divorce, says Yehovah, the God of Israel, and him that covers his garment with violence, says Yehovah of hosts: therefore take heed to your spirit, that ye deal not treacherously.
2:17 You have wearied Yehovah with your words. Yet ye say, In what way have we wearied him? In that ye say, Every one that does evil is good in the sight of Yehovah, and he delights in them; or where is the God of justice?
3:1 Behold, I send my messenger, and he shall prepare the way before me: and the Lord, whom ye seek, will suddenly come to his temple; and the messenger of the covenant, whom ye desire, behold, he comes, says Yehovah of hosts.
3:2 But who can abide the day of his coming? and who shall stand when he appears? for he is like a refiner's fire, and like fuller's soap:
3:3 and he will sit as a refiner and purifier of silver, and he will purify the sons of Levi, and refine them as gold and silver; and they shall offer to Yehovah offerings in righteousness.
3:4 Then shall the offering of Judah and Jerusalem be pleasant to Yehovah, as in the days of old, and as in ancient years.
3:5 And I will come near to you to judgment; and I will be a swift witness against the sorcerers, and against the adulterers, and against the false swearers, and against those that oppress the hireling in his wages, the widow, and the fatherless, and that turn aside the sojourner from his right, and fear not me, says Yehovah of hosts.
3:6 For I, Yehovah, change not; therefore ye, O sons of Jacob, are not consumed.
3:7 From the days of your fathers ye have turned aside from my ordinances, and have not kept them. Return to me, and I will return to you, says Yehovah of hosts. But ye say, In what way shall we return?
3:8 Will a man rob God? yet ye rob me. But ye say, In what manner have we robbed you? In tithes and offerings.
3:9 You are cursed with the curse; for ye rob me, even this whole nation.
3:10 Bring ye the whole tithe into the store-house, that there may be food in my house, and prove me now herewith, says Yehovah of hosts, if I will not open you the windows of heaven, and pour you out a blessing, that there shall not be room enough to receive it.
3:11 And I will rebuke the devourer for your sakes, and he shall not destroy the fruits of your ground; neither shall your vine cast its fruit before the time in the field, says Yehovah of hosts.
3:12 And all nations shall call you happy; for ye shall be a delightsome land, says Yehovah of hosts.
3:13 Your words have been stout against me, says Yehovah. Yet ye say, What have we spoken against you?

3:14 You have said, It is vain to serve God; and what profit is it that we have kept his charge, and that we have walked mournfully before Yehovah of hosts?
3:15 And now we call the proud happy; yes, they that work wickedness are built up; yes, they tempt God, and escape.
3:16 Then they that feared Yehovah spoke one with another; and Yehovah hearkened, and heard, and a book of remembrance was written before him, for them that feared Yehovah, and that thought upon his name.
3:17 And they shall be mine, says Yehovah of hosts, even my own possession, in the day that I make; and I will spare them, as a man spares his own son that serves him.
3:18 Then shall ye return and discern between the righteous and the wicked, between him that serves God and him that serves him not.
4:1 For, behold, the day comes, it burns as a furnace; and all the proud, and all that work wickedness, shall be stubble; and the day that comes shall burn them up, says Yehovah of hosts, that it shall leave them neither root nor branch.
4:2 But to you that fear my name the sun of righteousness shall arise with healing in his wings;[65] and ye shall go forth, and gambol as calves from the stall.
4:3 And ye shall tread down the wicked; for they shall be ashes under the soles of your feet in the day that I make, says Yehovah of hosts.
4:4 Remember ye the law of Moses my servant, which I commanded to him in Horeb for all Israel, even statutes and ordinances.
4:5 Behold, I will send you Elijah the prophet before the great and terrible day of Yehovah come.
4:6 And he shall turn the heart of the fathers to the children, and the heart of the children to their fathers; lest I come and smite the earth with a curse.

The New Testament

Matthew

Chapter 1

The Genealogy of Jesus

[1]A record of the genealogy of Jesus[66] the Christ, the son of David, the son of Abraham:

[2]Abraham begot Isaac, and Isaac begot Jacob,
and Jacob begot Judah and his brothers,
[3]and Judah begot Perez and Zerah, by Tamar,
and Perez begot Hezron,
and Hezron begot Aram,
[4]and Aram begot Amminadab, and Amminadab begot Nahshon,
and Nahshon begot Salmon,
[5]and Salmon begot Boaz, by Rahab, and Boaz begot Obed, by Ruth,
and Obed begot Jesse,
[6]and Jesse begot David the King.

David begot Solomon, by her who belonged to Uriah,

[7]and Solomon begot Rehoboam, and Rehoboam begot Abijah,
and Abijah begot Asa,[67]
[8]and Asa begot Jehoshaphat, and Jehoshaphat begot Joram,
and Joram begot Uzziah,
[9]and Uzziah begot Jotham, and Jotham begot Ahaz,
and Ahaz begot Hezekiah,
[10]and Hezekiah begot Manasseh, and Manasseh begot Amon,
and Amon begot Josiah,
[11]and Josiah begot Jeconiah and his brothers at the time of the exile to Babylon.

[12]After the exile to Babylon:

Jeconiah begot Shealtiel, and Shealtiel begot Zerubbabel, [13]and Zerubbabel begot Abiud, and Abiud begot Eliakim,
and Eliakim begot Azor,
[14]and Azor begot Zadok,

---

66 Greek, Ἰησους, "Yaysoos," from the Hebrew "Yayshua," which was a later form of the Hebrew name of Joshua, "Y'hoshua."

67 Instead of Asa, many manuscripts read Asaph. In the genealogy in I Chronicles 3:10 most Greek manuscripts read Asa, though ms. 60 reads Asab. In Antiquities VIII.XI.3—xii.6 Josephus uses Asanos, though in the Latin translation Asaph appears. The man's name, of course, was Asa. Is it not written in the annals of the kings of Israel and Judah?

and Zadok begot Akim, and Akim begot Eliud, 15and Eliud begot Eleazar,
and Eleazar begot Matthan,
and Matthan begot Jacob, 16and Jacob begot Joseph,
the husband of Mary,
of whom was born Jesus,
the one called the Christ.

17Thus there were fourteen generations in all from Abraham to David, fourteen from David to the exile to Babylon, and fourteen from the exile to the Anointed One.[68]

The Birth of Jesus

18This is how the birth of Jesus Christ came about. His mother Mary therefore was pledged to be married to Joseph, but before they consummated, she was found to be pregnant, from the Holy Spirit. 19But her husband Joseph, being a righteous man, did not want to publicly humiliate her, and planned to divorce her secretly.

20But while he was mulling these things over, an angel of the Lord appeared to him by means of a dream, and said, "Joseph son of David, do not be afraid to take Mary home as your wife, because what is conceived in her is by the Holy Spirit. 21She will give birth to a son, and you are to call his name Jesus, because he will save his people from their sins."[69]

22All this took place in order that what was said by the Lord through the prophet would be fulfilled, which says: 23"Behold, the virgin shall be pregnant, and shall bear a son, and they shall call his name Immanuel,"[70] which when translated is, "God with us."

24And when Joseph awoke from his sleep, he did what the angel of the Lord had commanded him, and he took his bride home. 25But he did not know her[71] until she gave birth to her firstborn son. And he called his name Jesus.

Chapter 2

The Visit of the Magi

1Now after Jesus had been born in Bethlehem of Judea, in the days of King Herod, behold, Magi[72] from out of the east showed up in Jerusalem, 2saying, "Where is the one born king of the Jews? For we saw his star in the east[73] and have come to worship him."

---

68 Matthew skips after Josiah, Jehoiakim and Jehoiachin (2 Kings 23:34 - 24:6). And his last set of generations are only 13, not 14. So this arrangement must be a teaching or memorization aid. Another interesting thing is that fourteen plus fourteen plus fourteen equals six groups of seven generations, 42 in all (6 sevens). In Hebrew, in the Old Testament, a group of seven of something is called a week of something. There were six weeks of generations prior to the Messiah, and the Messiah ushered in the seventh week, the Sabbath week of generations. The Messiah brought in another rest from creation. As God took six days to create the First Adam, and then he ceased, so God also took six weeks of generations to create the Second Adam, and then he ceased.

69 The Greek name, Ἰησους, "Yaysoos," came from the "Yayshua," which was a later form of the Hebrew name of Joshua, "Y'hoshua."

70 Isaiah 7:14

71 "Did not know her" is a euphemism meaning, "he did not have sex with her."

72 Plural of Magus, one trained in astrology and dream interpretation, probably in a tradition based on Zoroastrianism, founded by the Persian prophet Zarathustra or Zoroaster.

73 Or in the rising...Also in verse 9.

[3]Upon hearing this, Herod the king was disturbed, and all Jerusalem with him. [4]And having assembled all the chief priests and Torah scholars of the people, he inquired of them as to where the Messiah was to be born.

[5]And they told him, "In Bethlehem in Judea, for this is what has been written through the prophet:

[6]" 'And you, Bethlehem, in the land of Judah, are by no means least among the rulers of Judah;
for out of you will come a ruler who will be the shepherd of my people Israel.'[74]"

[7]Then Herod called the Magi secretly and ascertained from them what time the star had appeared. [8]And he sent them to Bethlehem and said, "Go and search diligently for the child. And when you have found him, bring word back to me, so I may come and worship him also."

[9]After they had heard the king, they went on their way, and lo, the star, the one they had seen in the east, kept moving on in front of them, until it arrived and stopped above where the child was. [10]When they saw the star, they rejoiced with a surpassingly great joy. [11]And upon coming to the house, they saw the child with his mother Mary, and they fell prostrate and worshipped him. Then they opened their treasures, and presented him with gifts of gold, and of incense and of myrrh. [12]And having been warned in a dream not to return to Herod, they went back to their country by another route.

The Escape to Egypt

[13]And when they had gone, behold, an angel of the Lord appears in a dream to Joseph, saying, "Get up, take the child and his mother, and flee into Egypt, and be there until I tell you, for Herod intends to search for the child to destroy him."

[14]So he got up, took the child and his mother during the night, and escaped into Egypt, [15]and was there until the death of Herod, in order that the thing spoken by the Lord through the prophet would be fulfilled, which says: "Out of Egypt I called my son."[75]

[16]When Herod realized that he had been fooled by the Magi, he was extremely enraged, and sent orders and did away with all the male children in Bethlehem and all its environs who were two years old or under, in accordance with the time he had ascertained from the Magi. [17]Then what was spoken by the prophet Jeremiah was fulfilled, which says:

[18]"A voice heard in Ramah,
a lamentation and weeping and loud wailing,
Rachel weeping for her children and refusing to be comforted, because they are no more."[76]

The Return to Nazareth

[19]And after Herod died, behold, an angel of the Lord appears by a dream to Joseph in Egypt, [20]saying, "Get up, take the child and his mother and go into the land of Israel, for those who were seeking the child's life are dead."

74 Micah 5:2

76 Jeremiah 31:15

[21]So he got up, took the child and his mother and entered the land of Israel. [22]But when he heard that Archelaus was reigning in Judea in place of his father Herod, he was afraid to go there. And having been warned in a dream, he withdrew to the district of Galilee, [23]and went and lived in a town called Nazareth, so that what was spoken through the prophets would be fulfilled, that he would be called a Nazarene.[77]

Chapter 3

John the Baptizer Prepares the Way

[1]And in those days John the Baptizer appears, preaching in the desert, [2]and he was saying, "Repent, for the kingdom of heaven has drawn near." [3]This is the one spoken of by Isaiah the prophet:

"A voice calling in the wilderness,
'Prepare the way for the Lord,
make the paths straight for him.[78]

[4]This man John had clothing of camel's hair and a leather belt around his waist, and his food was locusts and wild honey. [5]At that time Jerusalem and all Judea and the whole region of the Jordan went out to him. [6]And confessing their sins, they were baptized by him in the Jordan.

[7]But when he saw many of the Pharisees and Sadducees coming to his baptism, he said to them, "You spawn of snakes! Who warned you to flee from the coming wrath? [8]Then produce fruit characteristic of repentance. [9]And do not think you can say to yourselves, 'We have Abraham as our father.' For I tell you that out of these stones God can raise up children for Abraham. [10]And even now the ax is set to the root of the trees. Every tree therefore not producing good fruit is cut down and thrown into the fire.

[11]"I baptize you in water for repentance, but after me will come one who is more powerful than I, whose sandals I am not worthy to remove. He will baptize you in the Holy Spirit and in fire: [12]his winnowing fork is in his hand, and he will clear out his threshing floor, gathering the wheat into the barn, but the chaff he will burn up with fire unquenchable."

The Baptism of Jesus

[13]At that time Jesus arrives at the Jordan, out of Galilee, to John, to be baptized by him. [14]But John tried to deter him, saying, "I need to be baptized by you, and you are coming to me?"

[15]In reply, Jesus said to him, "Permit it now; it is proper for us to complete all righteousness this way." Then John consented.

[16]And as soon as he was baptized, Jesus came up out of the water, and behold, heaven was opened to him, and he saw the Holy Spirit of God coming down like a dove, and coming onto him. [17]And behold, a voice from heaven, saying, "This is my Son, whom I love; with whom I am well pleased."

[77] Greek: Nazoraios. A Nazarene is someone from the town of Nazareth, just as a Houstonian is someone from the city of Houston. A Nazarene is not to be confused with a Nazirite, which is someone who took a time-limited vow not to cut his hair or to eat grapes or drink wine. We know Jesus was not a Nazirite, because he drank wine. But what Old Testament prophecies was Matthew referring to? See the endnote at the end of my stand-alone translation of Matthew, which addresses this question at length.

[78] Isaiah 40:3

Chapter 4

The Temptation of Jesus

[1]Then Jesus was led up into the desert by the Spirit, to be tempted by the devil. [2]And he fasted forty days and forty nights, and afterward he was hungry. [3]And the tempter came to him and said, "If you are the Son of God, command that these stones become loaves of bread."

[4]But he in answer said, "It is written, 'Man shall not live on bread alone, but on every word coming out of the mouth of God.'[79]"

[5]Then the devil takes him into the holy city and has him stand on the gable of the temple, [6]and he says to him, "If you are the Son of God, throw yourself down. For it is written:

'He will command his angels
concerning you;
and they will lift you up on their hands,
so you will not strike your foot against a stone.'[80]"

[7]Jesus said to him, "It is also written: 'You shall not put Yehovah your God to a test.'[81]"

[8]Again, the devil led him to a very high mountain, and showed him all the kingdoms of the world and their splendor, [9]and he says to Jesus, "All these I will give to you, if you will fall down and worship me."

[10]Then Jesus said to him, "Go away, Satan! For it is written: 'You shall worship Yehovah your God, and him only shall you serve.'[82]"

[11]Then the devil left him alone, and lo, angels had come and were attending him.

Jesus Begins to Preach

[12]And when Jesus heard that John had been arrested, he went away to Galilee. [13]And forsaking Nazareth, he went and lived in Capernaum, beside the sea, in the territory of Zebulun and Naphtali, [14]so that the thing spoken through Isaiah the prophet might be fulfilled, which says:

[15]"Land of Zebulun and land of Naphtali, the road by the sea,
on the other end of the Jordan,
Galilee of the Gentiles—
[16]the people sitting in darkness have seen a great light; and on those sitting in the land of the shadow of death
a light has dawned."[83]

[17]From that time on Jesus began to preach and to say, "Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is near."

82 Deuteronomy 6:13

83 Isaiah 9:1, 2

The Calling of Simon, andrew, James, and John

[18]And walking beside the Sea of Galilee, Jesus saw two brothers, Simon called Peter, and his brother Andrew, casting a net into the sea, for they were fishers.
[19]And he says to them, "Come you two, follow me, and I will make you fishers of people." [20]And they followed him immediately, leaving the nets.
[21]And going on from there, he saw another set of two brothers, James the son of Zebedee and his brother John, in the boat with their father Zebedee, mending their nets, and he called them. [22]And they immediately followed him, leaving the boat and their father.

Jesus Heals the Sick

[23]And Jesus went around all of Galilee, teaching in their synagogues, and proclaiming the good news of the kingdom, and healing every disease and sickness among the people. [24]And news about him spread all over Syria, and they brought to him all who were ill with various diseases and severe pain, and the demon-possessed, and epileptics and the paralyzed, and he healed them. [25]And many crowds followed him, from Galilee and the Ten Cities, and from Jerusalem and Judea, and beyond the Jordan.

Chapter 5

The Beatitudes

[1]And seeing the crowds, he went up to the mountainside. And when he sat down his disciples came to him, [2]and opening his mouth, he began to teach them, saying:

[3]"Blessed are the poor in spirit,[84]
for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.
[4]Blessed are those who mourn, for they will be comforted.
[5]Blessed are the meek,
for they will inherit the earth.
[6]Blessed are they who hunger and thirst for righteousness,
for they will be satisfied.
[7]Blessed are the merciful, for they will be shown mercy.
[8]Blessed are the pure in heart,
for they will see God.
[9]Blessed are the peacemakers, for they will be called offspring of God.
[10]Blessed are those who are persecuted
because of righteousness,
for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

[11]"Blessed are you when people insult you, persecute you and falsely say all kinds of evil things against you because of me. [12]Rejoice and be glad, because great is your reward in heaven, for in the same way they persecuted the prophets before you."

---

[84] The meaning of the expression poor in spirit is difficult to determine with certainty. Bauer says the sense is probably those who are poor in their inner life, not having a Pharisaic confidence in their own spiritual adequacy. But I think the meaning is that we should, even if we are materially rich, live as though we were poor, and think like we are poor. As the apostle Paul says also in I Cor. 7:30-31: "those who buy, should live as though they did not possess, and those who use this world, as though they did not make full use of it."

Salt and Light

13"You are the salt of the earth. But if the salt is blanded down, with what will it be made salty? It is no longer potent enough for anything except to be thrown outside and trampled underfoot of people.

14"You are the light of the world. A city set on a hill cannot be hidden. 15Neither do they light a lamp to put it under a basket, but rather on the stand, so it enlightens all those in the house. 16In the same way, let your light shine in the view of people, such that they will see your good works and give glory to your Father who is in heaven.

The Fulfillment of the Law

17"Do not think that I have come to abolish the Law or the Prophets; I have not come to abolish them but to fulfill them. 18For truly I say to you, until the sky and the earth pass away, not one iota, not one serif, will by any means pass away from the Law until everything is carried out. 19Therefore, whoever looses one of the least of these commandments, and teaches people the same, will be called least in the kingdom of heaven, but whoever practices them and teaches them, this one will be called great in the kingdom of heaven. 20For I tell you that unless your righteousness surpasses that of the Torah scholars and Pharisees, you will by no means enter the kingdom of heaven.

Adversaries

21"You have heard that it was said to the people of long ago, 'Do not murder,[85] and anyone who murders will be subject to judgment.'[86] 22But I tell you that anyone who is angry with his brother without a cause will be subject to judgment.[87]

---

85 Exodus 20:13. This word phoneuw did not mean just murder, but homicide in general, including by carelessness or negligence, and manslaughter. See for example Deuteronomy 19:6; Joshua 21:13. And the word phoneuw did NOT include in its meaning the killing of non-human life. It was not used for the killing of animals. Perhaps this verse would be better rendered, "Do not kill a human."

86 This is because the judgment, a trial, was necessary for the purpose of deciding whether the homicide was justifiable or not. Not all homicide was punishable. The Law of Moses was full of discussion as to which killings of a human being were punishable, and which were not. In the same way, later in verse 22, if you are angry with your brother, you are subject to judgment. This is because not all anger is punishable; some anger is righteous. Note that Jesus does not forbid anger here. He says that if you are angry, you are subject to a trial. Quite a difference. The trial may find that your anger was justified. Paul said, "In your anger do not sin..." (Ephesians 4:26, Psalm 4:4)

87 The Majority Text contains the word "eikeei," "without cause." This word is not in many witnesses, including Papyrus 64, our oldest Greek manuscript of Matthew. Jerome states that the majority of ancient manuscripts did not contain this addition. Opponents of the UBS Greek text object to this omission, because they say that it forbids all anger, even righteous anger. Not so; it only says that if you are angry, you are in danger of judgment. On the other hand, if the text reads "Do not be angry with your brother without a cause," that is so easy to get around. Practically everyone who is angry with his brother believes he has cause to be angry. The end result is that there is no meaningful prohibition, no truly solemn warning here. Plus, it misses the whole point of the phrase "will be subject to judgment." The whole point of the judgment is to decide if there IS a cause. It makes no sense to say that if you are angry with your brother without a cause, you will be tried, to see if there is a cause. Often the argument is made that the UBS reading, the one without the phrase "without a cause," makes Jesus look like a sinner, since he was angry sometimes. Then what do the people who argue this, do with the phrase later in this same verse, where the Majority Text says that someone who says "You fool," is in danger of the fire of Gehenna? For Jesus did say to someone "You fool" in the Majority Text, in Matthew 23:17.

And anyone who says to his brother, 'Raca,[88] is answerable to the council.[89] But anyone who says, 'You fool!' will be in danger of the fire of Gehenna.[90]

[23]"Therefore, if you are offering your gift at the altar and there you remember that your brother has something against you, [24]leave your gift there in front of the altar, and first go be reconciled to your brother, and then come and offer your gift.

[25]"Get on good terms with your legal adversary quickly, while you are with him on the way, or your adversary may hand you over to the judge, and the judge hand you over to the officer, and you be thrown in prison. [26]Truly I tell you, by no means will you come out of there until you have paid the last penny.

Adultery

[27]"You have heard that it was said to the people of long ago, 'Do not commit adultery.[91] [28]But I tell you that anyone who looks at a woman to lust for her has already committed adultery with her in his heart. [29]So if your right eye causes you to fall, rip it out and cast it away from you. For it is expedient for you that one of your parts be destroyed and not your whole body be cast into Gehenna. [30]And if your right hand causes you to fall, cut it off and cast it away from you. For it is expedient for you that one of your parts be destroyed and not your whole body be cast into Gehenna.

[31]"And it has been said, 'Anyone who releases[92] his wife must give her a "release of interest form".'[93] [32]But I tell you that whoever releases his wife, except

88 An Aramaic term of contempt

89 The council of elders at the town gate was a common scene in the life of an ancient Israelite. By the time of Jesus, there were three sizes of council, or religious court, in Judea. A local religious court (Bet Din) was composed of three judges, at least one a Rabbi. This council would hear disputes and accusations and try cases like a court. For higher cases, however, such as involving offenses punishable by death, as in Deuteronomy 21:18-21 and 22:13-21, a court of twenty-three or more judges was required. Finally, the supreme Sanhedrin in Jerusalem was composed of seventy men, plus the High Priest who presided over it. The seventy was made up of three kinds of members: (1) high priests- the current high priest and former high priests; (2) the Elders: tribal and family representatives of the lay aristocracy; and (3) and the Scribes, the experts in the law from the Torah. The Sanhedrin's authority in civil matters was subject to the Romans' limits, but in Jewish religious matters, it had complete authority, including a body of police and guards under its command, by which to enforce its rulings. The Sanhedrin was abolished with the destruction of Jerusalem in A.D. 70. The scribes later codified its accumulated conclusions, however, in the form of the written Mishnah.

90 Γεεννα From Gey-Hinnom, the name of a ravine south of Jerusalem, The Valley of the Son of Hinnom, which was the trash heap or landfill for the city. The gargabe was perpetually on fire; the fire never went out. See II Chron. 28:3; II Kings 23:10; Jeremiah 7:31-32; Joshua 15:8, 18:16. According to Jewish popular belief, the Last Judgment was to take place there. Thus in the New Testament Gehenna means a place of perpetual fire, further described as a lake of burning sulfur, whose fire can never be put out, and in which a person never loses his being, but forever loses his well-being— that is, is forever separated from God and thus anything good. At the present time, anyone who dies while out of God's favor goes to Hades (see chapter 21:27-33), which is a temporary storage hell. But later, at the end of Christ's kingdom on earth, Hades and everyone in it will be thrown permanently into Gehenna (Revelation 20:5,10-15). This is called the Second Death. There is no remedy for the Second Death. Jesus mentions Gehenna eleven times (nine times in the Diatessaron). James uses the word once, in 3:6.

91 Exodus 20:13

92 "Releasing" is the opposite of "cleaving" or "joining."

93 Deuteronomy 24:1; but note that in the same passage in Deuteronomy, in verse 4, it says that such a release defiles her. The Greek word translated "release of interest form" was used to signify a relinquishment of property, a quit-claim.

for grounds of fornication,[94] causes her to commit adultery, and anyone who marries a released woman commits adultery.

Oaths

[33]"Again, you have heard that it was said to the people of long ago, 'Do not break your oath,[95] but pay out to the Lord your oaths.'[96] [34]But I tell you not to promise with an oath at all: neither by heaven, because it is God's throne; [35]nor by the earth, for it is the footstool of his feet, nor by Jerusalem, because it is the city of the Great King. [36]Neither swear by your head, since you have not the power to make a single hair white or black. [37]But let your word be 'Yes' for 'Yes,' 'No' for 'No,' and beyond these is from evil.

An Eye For an Eye

[38]"You have heard that it was said, 'An eye for an eye, and a tooth for a tooth.'[97] [39]But I tell you not to resist the evil. On the contrary, whoever strikes you on your right cheek, turn to him the other also. [40]And the one wanting to sue and take your shirt, surrender to him your jacket as well. [41]And whoever conscripts you for one mile, go with him two miles. [42]Give to the one who asks you, and do not turn away from the one who wants to borrow from you.

Love For Enemies

[43]"You have heard that it was said, 'Love your neighbor[98] and hate your enemy.' [44]But I say to you: Love your enemies, bless those who curse you, do good to those who hate you, and pray for those who insult you and are persecuting you, [45]so that you be children of your Father who is in heaven. For he causes his sun to rise upon the evil and the good, and rains upon the righteous and the unrighteous. [46]For if you love the ones who love you, what reward do you have? Do not even the revenue agents do the same? [47]And if you greet your own kind only, what are you doing beyond the ordinary? Do not even the revenue agents do that? [48]Be perfect, therefore, as your Father in heaven is perfect.

Chapter 6

Giving to the Needy

[1]"Be careful not to do your charitable giving in front of people, trying to be seen by them, for in that case you have no reward with your Father in heaven.

[2]"So when you do your charitable giving, do not sound a trumpet before you as the hypocrites do in the synagogues and in the lanes, so they may be esteemed by people. Truly I tell you, they have their reward in full. [3]But you, when you do your giving to the needy, do not let your left hand know what your right hand is doing, [4]so that your giving may be in secret. And your Father, who sees in secret, will himself reward you openly.

---

94 Greek, porneia This word was used for generally any sexual intercourse that is not between a married person and his or her spouse of the opposite sex. There was a different, more specific word for marital unfaithfulness in particular: moicheia, and Jesus did not use it here. We know by the disciples' reaction in verse 26 that Jesus was saying something more narrow and strict than what they had heard before.

95 Or Do not make an oath not intending to keep it.

Prayer

5"And when you pray, do not be like the hypocrites, for they love to pray standing in the synagogues and on the corners of the boulevards, so they may be seen by people. Truly I tell you, they have their reward in full. 6But you when you pray, go into your inner room, and when you have shut your door, pray to your Father who is in secret. Then your Father, who sees in secret, will reward you openly.
7But when you pray, do not speak thoughtless repetition like the Gentiles do.
For they suppose that because of the greater number of their words they will be heard. 8Do not be like them therefore. You see, your Father knows what you need before you ever ask him.
9"This, then, is how you should pray:

" 'Our Father in heaven,
hallowed be your name.
10Your kingdom come,
your will be done
on earth as it is in heaven.
11Give us today our daily bread.
12And forgive us our debts,
as we also forgive
our debtors.
13And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.[99]"
For yours is the kingdom,
and the power,
and the glory, for ever. Amen."

14For if you forgive people their trespasses, your heavenly Father will also forgive
you. 15But if you do not forgive people their trespasses, neither will your Father forgive you your trespasses.

Fasting

16"And when you fast, do not become of somber countenance like the hypocrites do, for they disfigure their faces so that they will appear to people as fasting.
Truly I tell you, they have their reward in full. 17But you when you fast, anoint your head and wash your face, 18so that you do not appear to people as fasting, but rather to your Father, who is in secret. And your Father, who sees in secret, will reward you openly.

Treasures in Heaven

19"Do not accumulate for yourselves treasures on earth, where moth and corrosion eat away, and thieves break through and steal. 20But accumulate for yourselves treasures in heaven, where neither moth nor corrosion eat away, and thieves do not break through and steal. 21For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also.
22"The eye is the lamp of the body. So if your eye is open and generous, your whole body will be bright. 23But if your eye is suspicious and stingy, your whole body will be dark. If then darkness is the light in you, how great the darkness!
24"No one can serve two masters. Either you will spurn the one and love the other, or be devoted to the one and despise the other. You cannot serve both God and Mammon.[100]

---

99 Or from the evil one.

Do Not Worry

[25]"Considering this, I tell you, do not worry for your life, what you will eat or what you will drink, or for your body, what you will put on. Does not life mean more than food, and the body more than clothes? [26]Look at the birds of the sky, that they neither sow nor reap nor gather into barns, yet your heavenly Father feeds them. Do you not matter more than they? [27]And who of you by worrying is able to add onto his life span one foot?[101]

[28]"And about dress, why do you worry? Consider the lilies of the field, how they grow. They neither labor nor weave. [29]Yet I tell you, not even Solomon in all his splendor was dressed like one of these. [30]Now if God so dresses the grass of the field, which is here today and tomorrow thrown into the stove, how much more would he rather dress you, O you of little faith? [31]Therefore do not worry, saying, 'What would we eat?' or 'What would we drink?' or 'What would we wear?' [32]For the Gentiles are pursuing all those things, and your heavenly Father knows that you need all those things. [33]But pursue first rather the kingdom of God and his righteousness, and all those things will be included for you as well.

[34]"Do not worry, then, for the next day, because the next day will have worries of itself. Today's trouble is enough for the day.[102]

Chapter 7

Correcting Others

[1]"Do not judge, so that you will not be judged. [2]For with what judgment you are judging, you will be judged, and with what measure you are measuring out, it will be measured back to you.

[3]"Why do you look at the speck in your brother's eye, but the log in your own eye you do not consider? [4]Or how will you say to your brother, 'Let me pluck the speck out of your eye,' and behold, in your own eye is a log? [5]You hypocrite, first take the log out of your eye, and then you will see clearly to pluck the speck out of your brother's eye.

[6]"Do not give to curs what is sacred, and do not toss your pearls before swine, lest they trample them with their feet, and turn and tear you to pieces.

Ask, Seek, Knock

[7]"Keep asking, and it will be given to you; keep seeking, and you will find; keep knocking, and it will be opened to you. [8]For everyone who keeps asking receives, and the one who keeps seeking finds, and to the one who keeps knocking, it will be opened.

[9]"Or is there a man among you who if his child asks for a loaf, will give him a rock? [10]Or if he asks for a fish, will give him a snake? [11]If you therefore, though you are evil, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will your Father in heaven give good things to those who ask him?

[12]"In all things, then, whatever you would want people to do to you, this you also should do to them, for this is the meaning of the Law and the Prophets.

---

100 A common Aramaic word for wealth and property. Jesus taught us not to worry even about food or clothes. He also said to pray: "Give us this day our DAILY bread." That means that to work so that you have more than enough stores for just one day at a time, that is serving mammon. The apostle Paul said that with food and clothes we should be content. (1 Timothy 6:8)

101 Literally, one cubit. There was an expression in classical Greek, "only one cubit of time." It is legitimate therefore to translate this as "a single hour to his life."

102 There is no verb in the Greek text of this last sentence. Therefore, we cannot declare with certainty whether this sentence is a command (imperative mood), or a statement (indicative mood). So this could also be translated: "Let today's trouble be enough for the day."

False Prophets

13"Enter through the narrow gate. How wide the gate and broad the road that leads to destruction, and how many are those going through it!
14How narrow the gate and difficult the road that leads to life, and how few are the ones finding it!
15"And be on your guard against false prophets, who come to you in sheep's clothing, but inwardly are ravenous wolves. 16By their fruits you will find them out. Do people pick grapes from thorn bushes, or sweet figs from thistles? 17In the same way, every good tree produces good fruit, but the weed tree produces evil fruit. 18A good tree cannot bear evil fruit, nor a weed tree bear good fruit.
19Every tree that does not produce good fruit is cut down and thrown into the fire.
20Thus by their fruits you will find them out.

The Wise and Foolish Builders

21"Not everyone saying to me, 'Lord, Lord,' will enter the kingdom of heaven, but only the one doing the will of my Father who is in heaven. 22Many will say to me on that day, 'Lord, Lord, did we not prophesy in your name, and in your name drive out demons and in your name perform many miracles?' 23And then I will declare to them on record: 'I have never known you. Away from me, you workers of lawlessness!'
24"Everyone therefore who hears these words of mine and does them, I will liken him to a prudent man who built his house on the bedrock. 25And the rain came down, and the rivers came up, and the winds blew and beat against that house, and it did not fall, for it had been founded on the rock.
26"And everyone who hears these words of mine and does not do them shall be likened to a foolish man who built his house on the sand. 27And the rain came down and the rivers came up and the winds blew and beat against that house, and it fell, and great was its fall."

28And it came about that when Jesus had finished saying these things, the crowds were amazed at his teaching, 29for he was teaching them as one who had authority, and not like the Torah scholars.

Chapter 8

A Man With Leprosy

1And when he came down from the mountainside, large crowds followed him.
2And behold, a leper came and worshipped him, saying, "Lord, if you are willing, you are able to cleanse me."
3And stretching out his hand, Jesus touched him, saying, "I am willing. Be cleansed." And immediately his leprosy[103] was cleansed. 4And Jesus says to him, "See that you tell no one. But go instead and show yourself to the priest and offer the gift Moses commanded, as a testimony to them."

The Faith of the Centurion

5And when Jesus had entered Capernaum, a centurion[104] came to him entreating him, 6and saying, "My servant is laid up in the house a paralytic, being tormented terribly."
7And Jesus says to him, "I will come and heal him."

---

103 The Greek word was used for various diseases of the skin— not necessarily leprosy.

104 A Roman military officer commanding from 50 to 100 men, 100 if the cohort was a complete one. A full cohort— 1,000 men, would have ten centurions, each commanding 100 of the men.

[8]Then the centurion answered and said, "Lord, I am not worthy that you enter under my roof. But just say a word, and my servant will be healed. [9]For I too am a man under authority, having soldiers under myself. And I say to this one, 'Go,' and he goes, and to another, 'Come,' and he comes, and to my slave, 'Do this,' and he does."

[10]And Jesus was astonished hearing this, and he said to those following him, "Truly I tell you, I have not found faith like this even in Israel. [11]And I tell you, many will come from east and west, and will recline with Abraham and Isaac and Jacob in the kingdom of heaven. [12]But natural heirs of the kingdom will be cast into the outer darkness. Out there will be weeping, and gnashing of teeth."

[13]Then Jesus said to the centurion, "Go. And let it be for you as you believed." And in that hour his servant was healed.

Jesus Heals Many

[14]And coming into Peter's house, Jesus saw Peter's mother-in-law bedridden and fever-stricken. [15]And he touched her hand, and the fever left her; and she got up and began to wait on them.

[16]And when evening came, they brought to him many who were demon-possessed, and he drove out the spirits with a word. And all those who had an illness he healed, [17]so that the thing spoken through the prophet Isaiah might be fulfilled, which says:

"Our infirmities he took,
and our diseases he carried."[105]

The Cost of Following Jesus

[18]But when Jesus saw a large crowd around him, he gave the order to leave to the other side of the lake.

[19]And one Torah scholar approached him and said, "Teacher, I will follow you wherever you go."

[20]And Jesus says to him, "The foxes have holes, and the birds of the sky have nests, but the Son of Man has nowhere he can lay his head."

[21]And another man,[106] one of his disciples, said to him, "Lord, allow me first to leave and bury my father."

[22]But Jesus told him, "You follow me, and leave the dead to bury their own dead."

Jesus Calms the Storm

[23]And his disciples followed him as he embarked in the boat. [24]And behold a great storm arose in the sea, such that the boat was getting covered over by the waves. But he himself was sleeping.

[25]And coming up to him, his disciples roused him, saying, "Lord, save us! We are perishing!"

[26]And he says to them, "Why are you afraid, O you of little faith?"

Then, once he was up, he rebuked the wind and the sea, and there came a complete calm.

[27]And the men marvelled, saying, "What kind of man is this, that even the winds and the sea obey him?"

[105] Isaiah 53:4

[106] Mt 8:21 The word ἕτερος without the article means another, different kind of man; that is, not another scribe, but another man of a different kind.

The Legion of Demons Near Gergesa

[28]And when he came to the other side to the region of the Gergesenes, two men coming out of the tombs met him, demon-possessed, extremely dangerous, such that no one was able to pass that way.

[29]And behold they cried out saying, "What business do you have with us, O Jesus, you Son of God? Have you come here to torture us before the time?"

[30]Now some distance from them there was a herd of many pigs feeding. [31]And the demons begged him saying, "If you drive us out, allow us to go into the herd of pigs."

[32]And he said to them, "Go!" So coming out they went into the herd of pigs; and behold, the whole herd of pigs rushed down the steep bank into the sea, and died in the waters.

[33]And the herders fled. And when they had gone into the town they reported all things, including the things about the demon-possessed men. [34]And behold all the town came out to have a meeting with Jesus. And when they saw him they begged him that he would move out of their borders.

Chapter 9

Jesus Heals a Paralytic

[1]And embarking in the boat, he crossed over and came into his own town. [2]And behold they brought to him a paralytic placed on a mat. And when Jesus saw their faith, he said to the paralytic, "Take heart, son; your sins are forgiven you."

[3]And behold, some of the Torah scholars said to themselves, "This fellow is blaspheming!"

[4]And knowing their thoughts, Jesus said, "Why do you think evil things in your hearts? [5]For which is easier: to say 'Your sins are forgiven you,' or to say: 'Get up and walk'? [6]But so that you may know that the Son of Man has authority on earth to forgive sins..." Then he says to the paralytic, "Get up, take your mat and go to your house." [7]And he stood up and went away to his house. [8]After seeing this, the crowd was amazed, and they praised the God who had given such authority to humans.

The Calling of Matthew

[9]And moving on from there, Jesus saw a man named Matthew sitting at the taxes post, and he says to him, "Follow me." And he got up and followed him.

[10]And it came about that Jesus and his disciples were reclining at table in the house of Matthew, and behold a large crowd of revenue agents and sinners came and were eating with them. [11]And seeing this the Pharisees said to his disciples, "Why does your rabbi eat with revenue agents and sinners?"

[12]But Jesus heard, and said to them, "The healthy have no need of a doctor, but only those who have something bad do. [13]But go learn what this means: 'I desire mercy and not sacrifice.'[107] For I have not come to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance."

Jesus Questioned About Fasting

[14]Then the disciples of John came to him, saying, "Why is it that we and the Pharisees are fasting often, but your disciples do not fast?"

[15]And Jesus said to them, "Are the members of the bridegroom's party able to mourn while the bridegroom is with them? But days will come when the bridegroom is taken away from them; and then they will fast.

[16]"Now no one puts a patch of unshrunk cloth onto an old garment. For the patch of it tears away from the garment, and a worse tear results. [17]Neither do they put new wine into old wineskins. Otherwise, the wineskins will burst, the wine will spill out, and the wineskins will be ruined. Rather, they put new wine into new wineskins, and both are preserved."

A Dead Damsel and a Sick Woman

[18]While he was speaking these things to them, behold a certain ruler came, prostrating himself to him, saying, "My daughter has just now died. But come and put your hand on her and she will revive." [19]And getting up Jesus followed him, including his disciples.

[20]And behold a woman suffering a twelve year flow of blood came up behind and touched the tassel[108] of his cloak. [21]For she was saying to herself, "If I only touch his cloak, I will be healed."

[22]And Jesus turning and seeing her said, "Take heart, daughter, your faith has healed you." And the woman was healed from that time on.

[23]And Jesus came into the ruler's house, and when he saw the flute players and the crowd in commotion, [24]he said to them, "Go your ways. For the maiden has not died but sleeps." And they laughed at him with scorn.

[25]And when the crowd was put out, he went in and took hold of her hand, and the maiden was raised from the dead. [26]And this news went out into all that region.

Jesus Heals the Blind and Mute

[27]And as Jesus went on from there, two blind men followed him, crying out and saying, "Have mercy on us, O Son of David!"

[28]And when he had come into the house, the blind men came to him, and Jesus says to them, "Do you believe that I am able to do this?"

They say to him, "Yes, Lord."

[29]Then he touched their eyes, saying, "According to your faith let it be done for you." [30]And their eyes were opened. And Jesus warned them sternly, saying, "See that no one knows about this." [31]But they went out and spread the news about him throughout that whole region.

[32]And as they were going out, behold a mute who was demon-possessed was brought to him. [33]And when the demon was expelled, the mute spoke. The crowd was amazed, and said, "Nothing like this has ever been seen in Israel!"

[34]But the Pharisees said, "By the prince of the demons he expels the demons."

The Workers Are Few

[35]And Jesus went through all the towns and villages, teaching in their synagogues and proclaiming the good news of the kingdom, and healing every disease and every sickness among the people. [36]And when he saw the crowds, he was moved with compassion for them, because they were like sheep without a shepherd: wearied and laid down in resignation. [37]Then he says to his disciples, "The harvest is truly plentiful, but the workers are few. [38]Ask the Lord of the harvest, therefore, that he send out workers into his harvest."

Chapter 10

Jesus Sends Out the Twelve

[1]And calling forward his twelve disciples, he gave them authority over unclean spirits, so as to expel them, and to heal every disease and every illness. [2]And these are the names of the twelve apostles: First, Simon, the one called Peter, and his

---

[108] See Numbers 15:38, Deut. 22:12, and Malachi 4:2. The “tassels” or “corners” were also Jesus’ “wings,” because the Hebrew word is the same. So, the prophecy of Malachi 4:2: “But to you that fear my name the sun of righteousness shall arise with healing in his wings;[108] and ye shall go forth, and gambol as calves from the stall.”

brother Andrew; James the son of Zebedee and John his brother; [3]Philip and Bartholomew; Thomas and Matthew the revenue agent; James son[109] of Alphaeus and Lebbaeus who was called Thaddaeus; [4]Simon from Cana and Judas of Kerioth, the one who also betrayed him.

[5]These Twelve Jesus sent out, giving orders to them, saying: "Do not go down a Gentile road, and do not enter a town of Samaritans. [6]But go rather to the lost sheep of the house of Israel. [7]And as you go, preach saying: 'The kingdom of heaven has drawn near.' [8]Heal the sick, cleanse the lepers, raise the dead, drive out the demons. Freely you have received; freely give. [9]Pack neither gold nor silver nor copper in your belts, [10]neither a bag for the trip, nor two tunics, nor sandals, nor staffs; for the worker is worthy of his food.

[11]"And whatever town or village you enter, find out who in it is worthy, and stay there until you leave. [12]But when entering the house, greet it. [13]And if indeed the house is worthy, let your peace arrive upon it. But if it is not worthy, let your peace return to you. [14]And whoever does not welcome you or listen to your words, leave that house or town and shake their dust off your feet. [15]Truly I tell you, on the day of judgment it will be more bearable for the land of Sodom and the land of Gomorrah, than for that town.

[16]"Behold, I am sending you out like sheep in the midst of wolves. Be shrewd as snakes therefore, yet innocent as doves. [17]And be on your guard against people. For they will hand you over to councils, and they will flog you in their synagogues. [18]And also before governors and kings you will be brought, because of me, to be a testimony to them and to the nations. [19]But when they are delivering you to trial, do not worry how or what you might say. For it will be given to you at that hour what you shall say; [20]because you are not the ones speaking, but the Spirit of your Father is the one speaking, through you.

[21]"And brother will betray brother to death, and a father a child; and children will rise up against parents and put them to death. [22]And you will be hated by all because of my name, but the one who endures to the end, this one will be saved. [23]But when they persecute you in this town, flee to a new one; for truly I tell you, you will not finish all the towns of Israel before the Son of Man has come.

[24]"A disciple is not above the rabbi, nor a servant above his lord. [25]It is sufficient for the disciple that he become like his rabbi, and the servant like his lord. If the head of the house has been called Beelzebub, how much more the members of his household.

[26]"So do not fear them. For there is nothing veiled that will not be unveiled, or hidden that will not be made known. [27]What I say to you in the dark, you are to say in the light; and what you hear whispered into your ear, you are to proclaim on the housetops. [28]And do not fear because of those who kill the body but are not able to kill the soul. But do fear on the other hand the one who is able to destroy both soul and body in Gehenna. [29]Are not two sparrows sold for a penny?[110] Yet not one of them will fall to the ground apart from your Father. [30]And as for you, even the hairs of your heads are all numbered. [31]So fear not; you matter more than many sparrows.

[32]"Everyone therefore who shall acknowledge me before people, I also shall acknowledge them before my Father in heaven. [33]And whoever disowns me before people, I also shall disown that person before my Father in heaven.

[34]"Do not suppose that I have come to bring peace upon the earth. I did not come to bring peace, but a sword. [35]For I have come to turn and a daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law—

[36] a man's enemies will be members of his own household.[111]

[37]"He who loves father or mother more than me is not worthy of me; and he who loves son or daughter more than me is not worthy of me; [38]and the one who does not take up his cross and follow behind me is not worthy of me. [39]The person who finds his life will lose it, and the one who loses his life for my sake will find it.

[40]"He who receives you receives me, and he who receives me receives the one who sent me. [41]He who receives a prophet because of the title of prophet will receive a prophet's reward, and he who receives a righteous one because of the title of righteous one will receive a righteous one's reward. [42]Truly I tell you, whoever gives even just a cup of cold water to one of these little ones because of the title of disciple, will certainly not lose his reward."

Chapter 11

Jesus and John the Baptizer

[1]And it came about that when Jesus had finished giving orders to his twelve disciples, he removed himself from there to teach and preach in their towns.

[2]And when John was hearing in prison about the works of Christ, he, sending two of his disciples, [3]said to him, "Are you the one who was to come, or should we expect another?"

[4]And in answer, Jesus said to them, "Go and report back to John what things you are hearing and seeing: [5]The blind see again and the lame walk, lepers are cleansed and the deaf hear, the dead are raised and the good news is preached to the poor. [6]And tell him, 'Blessed be whoever is not offended on account of me.' "

[7]And as they were leaving, Jesus began to speak to the crowd about John: "What did you go out into the desert to see? A reed being swayed to and fro by the wind? [8]On the contrary, what did you go out to see? Someone dressed in delicate clothing? Behold, those wearing delicate clothing are in kings' houses. [9]On the contrary, what did you go out to see? A prophet? Yes indeed I tell you, and more than a prophet. [10]For this is the one about whom it is written:

'Behold, I am sending my messenger
before your face,
who will prepare your way
before you.'[112]

[11]Truly I tell you: Among those born of women there has not risen anyone greater than John the Baptizer. But the one who is least in the kingdom of heaven is greater than he. [12]And from the days of John the Baptizer until now, the kingdom of heaven has been aggressively advancing, and the aggressive are seizing it. [13]For all the Prophets and the Law prophesied until John. [14]And if you are willing to receive it, he is the Elijah who was to come. [15]Let the one who has ears to hear, hear."

[16]"To what, then, shall I compare this generation? It is like little children sitting in the marketplaces, and they call out to their playmates, [17]and say:

'We played the flute for you,
and you didn't dance;
we sang a dirge for you,
and you didn't mourn.'

---

[111] Micah 7:6

[112] This quote appears to be a blend of Exodus 23:20 and Malachi 3:1.

[18]For John the Baptizer came neither eating nor drinking, and they say, 'He has a demon.' [19]The Son of Man came eating and drinking, and they say, 'Behold a glutton and a wino, a friend of revenue agents and sinners.' Well, wisdom is vindicated by her works."

Woe on Unrepentant Cities

[20]Then he began to denounce the cities in which most of his miracles had occurred, because they had not repented: [21]"Woe to you, Korazin! Woe to you, Bethsaida! For if the miracles that happened in you had taken place in Tyre and Sidon, they would have repented long ago in sackcloth and ashes. [22]Regardless, I tell you, it will be more bearable for Tyre and Sidon on the day of judgment than for you. [23]And you, Capernaum, which has been lifted up to heaven, you will be cast down to Hades. Because if the miracles that happened in you had taken place in Sodom, they would have remained until this day. [24]Regardless, I tell you, it will be more bearable on the day of judgment for Sodom than for you."

Rest for the Weary

[25]At that time Jesus continued, and said, "I praise you, Father, Lord of heaven and earth, because you have hidden these things from the sophisticated and learned, and revealed them to little children. [26]Yes, Father, for it was pleasing this way in your sight.

[27]"All things have been handed over to me by my Father. No one knows the Son except the Father, and no one knows the Father except the Son and those to whom the Son chooses to reveal him.

[28]"Come to me, all you who are weary and burdened, and I will give you rest. [29]Take my yoke upon you and learn from me, for I am gentle and humble in heart, and you will find rest for your souls. [30]For my yoke is easy and my burden is light."

Chapter 12

Lord of the Sabbath

[1]At that time Jesus on a Sabbath was going through the grain fields. And his disciples were hungry, and began to pluck and eat some heads of grain.[113] [2]And when the Pharisees saw this, they said to him, "Look! Your disciples are doing what on a Sabbath is not permissible[114] to do!"

[3]And he said to them, "Have you not read what David did, when he and those with him were hungry? [4]How he entered the house of God, and the loaves of offering he ate, which for him was not permissible to eat, neither for those with him, but only for the priests? [5]Or haven't you read in the Torah that on the Sabbath the priests can, in the temple, desecrate the Sabbath, and yet are innocent? [6]And I tell you, something greater than the temple is here. [7]But if you had known what this means: 'I desire mercy, not sacrifice,'[115] you would not have condemned the innocent. [8]For the Son of Man is lord also of the Sabbath."

[113] This was the allowable practice of "plucking the heads," see Deuteronomy 23:24, 25, "If you enter your neighbor's vineyard, you may eat grapes until you are fully satisfied, but do not put any in a container. If you enter your neighbor's grain field, you may pluck the heads with your hands, but you must not put a sickle to your neighbor's standing grain."

[114] The Greek word translated "permissible" is the impersonal participle "exestin," which is derived from the same root as "exousia," the word for authority. If an activity was "exestin," that means it was "loosed," or ruled by the rabbis to be something "allowed" by the Torah. If something was not "exestin," as is the case here, that means it was "bound," that is, the rabbis had adjudged that it was forbidden by the Torah.

[115] Hosea 6:6

[9]And going on from that place, he went into their synagogue, [10]and behold, there was a man with a shriveled hand. And they questioned him, in order that they might accuse him, saying, "Is it permissible to heal on the Sabbath?"

[11]Then he said to them, "Is there anyone among you who, if he has one sheep, and it falls into a pit on the Sabbath, will not take hold of it and lift? [12]And how much more valuable is a human being than a sheep! Therefore, it is permissible to do good on the Sabbath."

[13]Then he says to the man, "Stretch out your hand." So he stretched it out, and it was restored, just as sound as the other. [14]And the Pharisees went out and began to plot against him, as to how they might kill him.

Crowds Follow Jesus

[15]But being aware of this, Jesus departed from there, and many crowds followed him, and he healed them all, [16]and ordered them not to make him manifest, [17]so that the thing spoken through the prophet Isaiah might be fulfilled, which says:

[18]"Behold, my servant whom I have chosen,
my beloved, in whom my soul is well pleased;
I will put my Spirit upon him, and he will announce righteous judgment
to the nations.
[19]He will not quarrel or cry out;
nor will anyone hear his voice in the streets.
[20]A bruised reed he will not break, and a smoldering wick he will not snuff out, till he leads righteous judgment
to victory.
[21]And in his name the Gentiles will put their hope."[116]

Jesus and Beelzebub

[22]Then a demonized man who was blind and mute was brought to him, and he healed him so that the blind and mute man both spoke and saw. [23]And all the multitudes were astonished and said, "Could this be the Son of David?"

[24]But when the Pharisees heard this, they said, "Only by Ba'al-zibbul,[117] the ruler of the demons, is this fellow driving out the demons."

[25]But knowing their thoughts, Jesus said to them, "Every kingdom divided against itself will be desolated, and every city or house divided against itself will not stand. [26]And if Satan is driving out Satan, he is divided against himself, so how will his kingdom stand?

[117] Some Greek manuscripts, Beelzeboul, others, Beelzebub, Beelzebul, and even Beeldebaba. The Hebrew is Ba'al-zibbul. "Ba'al." means Lord or Prince. Baal was a Canaanite god, the son of Dagon, the god of grain. Baal was the bull prince, the bull being a symbol of fertility. Baalzebub, as in the Hebrew text of II Kings 1:2, is a derisive alteration of Baalzibbul meaning "Prince of flies." In this way the followers of Yehovah made fun of Baal. Later the name Baalzebub became associated with the Aramaic Beeldebaba, "enemy." Thus the conflation of Baalzebub and Beeldebaba, "Beelzebub," came to be a name for Satan. To avoid confusion in all the names, this author thought it best to revert to the original form of the name.

[27]"And if I am driving out the demons by Beelzebub, by whom are your disciples driving them out? Therefore, they will be your judges. [28]But if I am driving out the demons by the Spirit of God, then the kingdom of God has come upon you.

[29]"Or how can anyone enter the house of the strong man and carry away his things, unless he first binds the strong man? And then he will plunder his house.

[30]"The person who is not with me is against me, and the one who does not gather with me is scattering.

[31]"Therefore I tell you, all kinds of sin and blasphemy will be forgiven people, but the blasphemy of the Spirit will not be forgiven to people. [32]And whoever speaks a word against the Son of Man will be forgiven, but whoever speaks against the Holy Spirit, that will not be forgiven him, either in this age or in the one to come.

[33]"Either call the tree good and its fruit good, or call the tree bad and its fruit bad; for the tree is known by its fruit.

[34]"You spawn of vipers, how are you able to speak good things, since you are evil? For out of the abundance of the heart the mouth speaks. [35]The good person brings forth good things out of the treasure of good in his heart, and the evil person brings forth evil out of his treasure of evil. [36]And I tell you, every idle word which human beings speak, they will have to give an explanation for it on the day of judgment. [37]For out of your words you will be justified, and out of your words you will be condemned."

The Sign of Jonah

[38]Then some of the Torah scholars and Pharisees responded to him saying, "Teacher, we want to see a miraculous sign from you."

[39]But he answered and said to them, "An evil and adulterous generation asks for a miraculous sign. And no sign will be given to it except the sign of the prophet Jonah. [40]For as Jonah was three days and three nights in the belly of the huge sea creature, so the Son of Man will be three days and three nights in the heart of the earth.

[41] "Men of Nineveh will rise at the judgment with this generation and condemn it, for they repented at the preaching of Jonah, and behold, something greater than Jonah is here. [42]The Queen of the South will be resurrected at the judgment with this generation and condemn it, for she came from the ends of the earth to hear the wisdom of Solomon, and behold, something greater than Solomon is here.

[43]"Now when an unclean spirit comes out from a human being, it goes through waterless places, seeking rest, and does not find it. [44]Then it says, 'I will return to my house from which I came.' And when it arrives, it finds the house standing empty, swept clean and put in order. [45]Then it goes and brings with it seven other spirits more evil than itself, and they enter inside and live there. And the final condition of that human is worse than the first. That is also how it will be with this evil generation."

Jesus' Mother and Brothers

[46]Now while he was still speaking to the crowd, behold, his mother and brothers had been standing outside, wanting to talk to him. [47]And someone said to him, "Behold, your mother and your brothers have been standing outside, wanting to talk to you."

[48]And he replied to the one who informed him, and said, "Who is my mother, and who are my brothers?" [49]And extending his hand toward his disciples, he said, "Behold, my mother and my brothers. [50]For whoever does the will of my Father in heaven, that person is my brother and sister and mother."

Chapter 13

The Parable of the Sower

[1]Now that same day Jesus went out of the house and sat down by the lake. [2]And such large crowds gathered around him, that he got into a boat to sit in it, and all the people stood on the shore.

[3]And he spoke many things to them in parables, and said: "Behold, the sower went out to sow. [4]And as he sowed, some seed fell beside the row, and the birds came and ate them up. [5]And other seed fell on the rocky spots, where it did not have much soil, and it sprang up quickly, because it did not have depth of soil. [6]And when the sun came up, it was scorched, and because it had no root, it dried up. [7]And others fell on the thorns, and the thorns grew up and choked them. [8]And others fell on the good soil, and yielded fruit, one a hundredfold, the other sixty, and another thirty. [9]Let the one who has ears to hear, hear."

The Parable of the Sower Explained

[10]And the disciples came to him and said to him, "Why do you speak to them in parables?"

[11]And he answered and said to them, "To you it has been granted to know the mysteries of the kingdom of heaven, but to them it has not been granted. [12]For to the one who has, it will be given, and he will have an abundance. As for the one who does not have, even what he has will be taken away from him. [13]For this reason I speak to them in parables, that

'Though looking they do not see, and though listening
they neither hear nor understand.'

[14]In them the prophecy of Isaiah is fulfilled, which says:

'With an ear you will hear and never understand;
and looking, you will see,
and not at all perceive.
[15]For this people's heart has become impervious;
they hardly hear with the ears,
and they have shut up their eyes,
lest they see with the eyes and hear with the ears and understand with the heart, and turn,
and I would heal them.'[118]

[16]"But blessed are your eyes because they see, and your ears, because they hear. [17]For truly I tell you, many prophets and righteous ones longed to see what you are seeing, but did not see it, and to hear what you are hearing, but did not hear it.

[18] "Hear then the parable of the sower: [19]When anyone hears the word of the kingdom and does not understand, the evil one comes and snatches away what was sown in his heart. This is the seed sown beside the row. [20]And what was sown on the rocky spots, this is someone who hears the word and immediately with joy receives it. [21]But having no root in himself, he is alive only a short time. For when tribulation comes, or persecution because of the word, he quickly falls away. [22]And what was sown in the thorns, this is someone who hears the word, and the worry of this world, and the seductiveness of wealth[119] choke the word, and it becomes unfruitful. [23]And what was sown on the good soil, this is someone who hears the word and understands, who does bear fruit and produces; one a hundredfold, the other sixty, and another thirty."

[118] Isaiah 6:9,10; This and other quotes of the Old Testament may differ from what your English Old Testament says, because your Old Testament was translated mainly from the Masoretic Text. When the gospels writers were recalling the words of Jesus, the differences between how they say Jesus quoted the O.T. and what our Old Testament says could be because they were quoting from the Septuagint, which is the Greek translation of the Hebrew Old Testament, done a couple hundred years before Christ.

The Parable of the Look-alike Weeds

[24]He put before them another parable, as follows: "The kingdom of heaven is likened to a man sowing good seed in his field. [25]But while the people were sleeping, his enemy came and sowed zizania[120] in between the wheat, and went away. [26]And when the wheat grass had sprung up and formed seed,[121] at that same time the zizania became apparent.

[27]"So the owner's servants came to him and said to him, 'Sir, you sowed good seed in your field, did you not? How then does it have zizania?'

[28]"And he said to them, 'A hateful person did this.'

"And the servants said to him, 'Do you want us to go out, then, and collect them?'

[29]"But he said, 'No, in case while collecting the zizania you uproot the wheat along with them. [30]Leave both to grow together until the harvest, and at the time of harvest I will tell the reapers: Collect the zizania first and tie them in bundles to be burned, but gather the wheat into my barn.' "

The Parables of the Mustard Seed and the Yeast

[31]Another parable he put before them, and said, "The kingdom of heaven is like a mustard seed, which a person took and sowed in his garden, [32]which indeed is smaller than all the seeds, but when it grows, it becomes a tree, larger than all the herbs, such that the birds of the sky come and nest in its branches."

[33]He told them another parable: "The kingdom of heaven is like yeast, which a woman took and buried into three measures[122] of dough, until the whole batch was leavened."

[34]Jesus spoke all these things to the crowds in parables; indeed he would typically not speak to them without a parable, [35]so that the thing spoken through the prophet might be fulfilled, which says:

"I will open my mouth in parables,
I will utter things hidden since the creation of the world."[123]

The Parable of the Look-alike Weeds Explained

[36]Then, leaving the crowds, Jesus went into the house. And his disciples came to him and said, "Explain to us the parable of zizania in the field."

[37]And he answered and said to them, "The one sowing the good seed is the Son of Man, [38]and the field is the world, and the good seed, these are the children of the kingdom. The zizania are the children of the evil one, [39]and the enemy who sows them is the devil. The harvest is the end of the age, and the reapers are angels.

[40]"And as the zizania are collected and consumed by fire, so it will be at the end of this age. [41]The Son of Man will send out his angels, and they will collect out of his kingdom all the things that lead to sin and those who practice lawlessness; [42]and they will throw them into the furnace of fire. There will be weeping there, and gnashing of teeth. [43]At that time, the righteous will shine forth like the sun in the kingdom of their Father. Let the one who has ears to hear, hear.

The Parables of the Hidden Treasure and the Pearl

[44]"Again, the kingdom of heaven is like treasure hidden in a field, which when a man found it, he hid it again. Then out of his joy he goes and sells what things he has, and buys that field.

[45]"Again, the kingdom of heaven is like a merchant who was looking for fine pearls. [46]Who, when he found a single valuable pearl, he went away and sold every thing that he had and bought it.

The Parable of the Net

[47]"Again, the kingdom of heaven is like a net cast into the sea and catching every kind of fish, [48]which when full, the fishers pulled up onto the shore, and sitting down, they collected the good kinds into baskets, but threw away the bad. [49]This is how it will be at the end of the age. The angels will go forth and will separate the evil ones from out of the midst of the righteous, [50]and throw them into the furnace of fire. There will be weeping there, and gnashing of teeth."

[51]Jesus said to them, "Have you understood all these things?"

They are saying to him, "Yes, Lord."

[52]And he said to them, "Therefore every Torah scholar discipled into the kingdom of heaven is like a person who owns a house, who puts forward out of his treasure room items both new and old."

A Prophet Without Honor

[53]And it came about that when Jesus had finished these parables, he moved on from there. [54]And coming into his home town, he taught them in their synagogue, such that they were astounded, and said, "Where did this man get this wisdom and these miraculous powers? [55]Isn't this the son of the carpenter? Isn't his mother named Mary, and his brothers Jacob and Joses and Simon and Judah? [56]And aren't all his sisters here with us? Where then did this man get all these things?" [57]And they were offended by him.

And Jesus said to them, "A prophet is not without honor except in his home town, and among his relatives."

[58]And he did not do many miracles there, because of their unbelief.

Chapter 14

John the Baptizer Beheaded

[1]At that time, Herod the tetrarch heard the report about Jesus, [2]and said to his attendants, "This is John the Baptizer! He is risen from the dead, and that is why miraculous powers are at work in him!"

[3]Now Herod had arrested John, and bound him, and put him away in prison, because of Herodias, his brother Philip's wife. [4]For John had been saying to him, "It is not lawful for you to have her." [5]And though wanting to kill him, he feared the crowd, because they regarded him as a prophet.

[6]And when Herod's birthday was being celebrated, the daughter of Herodias danced among them, and she pleased Herod; [7]for which reason he promised with an oath to give her whatever she might ask for.

[8]So after being instructed by her mother, she says, "Give me here on a platter the head of John the Baptizer."

[9]And the king was greatly distressed, but because of his words of oath and those reclining with him, he commanded that it be given, [10]and sent orders and beheaded John in the prison. [11]And his head was brought on a platter and given to the girl, and she carried it to her mother. [12]And his disciples came and took the body and buried it. Then they went and told Jesus.

Jesus Feeds the Five Thousand

[13]And hearing this, Jesus went away from there, in a boat, to a remote place by himself. And the crowds heard, and followed him on foot from the towns.

[14]And when he got out, Jesus saw the large crowd, and was moved with compassion for them, and healed their sick.

[15]Now as evening came on, his disciples came to him, saying, "The place is remote, and the hour is already late. Therefore, dismiss the crowds, so they can go away into the villages and buy food for themselves."

[16]But Jesus said to them, "They do not need to go away. You give them something to eat."

[17]But they are saying to him, "We have nothing here except five loaves and two fish."

[18]And he said, "Bring them here to me." [19]And he directed the crowds to recline on the grass, and he took the five loaves and the two fish, and looking up to heaven, he blessed God. And after he broke the loaves, he gave them to the disciples, and the disciples to the crowds.

[20]And all ate and were satisfied. And they picked up the extra of the fragments, twelve large baskets full. [21]Now the ones eating were about five thousand men, without[124] women and children.

Jesus Walks on the Water

[22]And Jesus immediately ordered his disciples to get into the boat and go on ahead of him to the other side, while he would dismiss the crowds. [23]And after he had dismissed the crowds, he went up into the mountain by himself to pray. And as evening came on he was alone there.

[24]The boat was now in the middle of the lake, being battered by the waves, because the wind was contrary. [25]And in the fourth watch[125] of the night Jesus went out toward them, walking on the lake. [26]And when the disciples saw him walking on the lake, they were terrified, saying, "It's a ghost!" And they cried out in fear.

[27]Jesus immediately spoke to them and said: "Take heart, it is I. Don't be afraid."

[28]And Peter answered him and said, "Lord, if it's you, order me to come to you on the water."

[29]And he said, "Come."

And Peter got down out of the boat and walked on the water, to go to Jesus. [30]But when he saw the violent wind, he became afraid, and beginning to sink, he cried out, saying, "Lord, save me!"

[31]And immediately Jesus reached out his hand and grabbed him, and says to him, "O you of little faith, why did you doubt?"

---

[124] The Greek word for "without" in Matthew 14:21 is "choris," which generally means "without, apart from." Here it could mean "besides, in addition to, not counting." But it is also possible that there were no women and children present at all, since according to the gospel of John, this incident took place during one of the three annual festival pilgrimages to Jerusalem required of adult males only.

[125] Between 3 a.m. and 6 a.m.

[32]And when they got into the boat, the wind died down. [33]Then those in the boat came and worshipped him, saying, "You truly are the Son of God."

[34]And once they had crossed over, they came to the land of Gennesaret. [35]And when the men of that place recognized him, they sent word into that whole area, and they brought to him all those who were sick. [36]And they were entreating him that they could just touch the tassel of his cloak; and as many as touched were completely healed.

Chapter 15

Clean and Unclean

[1]Then some Torah scholars and Pharisees who were from Jerusalem come to Jesus, saying, [2]"Why do your disciples break the tradition of the elders?[126] For they do not wash their hands when they eat."

[3]And in response he said to them, "And you, why do you break the commandment of God for the sake of your tradition? [4]For God commanded saying: 'Honor your father and mother' and 'The one who curses father or mother must be put to death.' [5]But you say, whoever says to father or mother: 'Whatever you might be owed from me is a gift vowed to God,' [6]and he shall not at all honor his father or his mother with it, and you have annulled the commandment of God for the sake of your tradition.

[7]"You hypocrites! Isaiah has prophesied rightly about you, in saying,

> [8]" 'This people draw near to me with their mouth, > and honor me with their lips,
> but their heart is far from me.
> [9]They worship me in vain,
> teaching as Torah
> the decrees of human beings.'[127]

[10]And calling the crowd forward, he said to them, "Listen, and understand: [11]The thing entering into the mouth does not make a human being unclean, but rather the thing coming forth out of the mouth, that is what makes the human being unclean."

[12]Then his disciples came and said to him, "Do you know that the Pharisees were offended when they heard this statement?"

[13]And he in answer said, "Every plant that my heavenly Father has not planted will be uprooted. [14]Leave them; they are blind leaders of the blind. And if a blind person leads a blind person, both will fall into a pit."

[15]And in response Peter said to him, "Explain this parable to us."

[16]And Jesus said, "Are you also this unintelligent? [17]Do you not yet understand that everything entering the mouth goes into the stomach, and then is ejected into the sewer? [18]But the things coming forth out of the mouth come from

[126] 15:2 Ezra had set up a group of men called the Sopherim, whose task it was to teach the Torah to the people. This was well and good. But the Sopherim decided that to make absolutely sure that no one broke one of the 613 Mosaic laws, they would make a "fence" around those 613 laws by making some more finely tuned laws, which, if people obeyed these latter, they would be assured of not even getting close to breaking one of the 613 Torah laws. The Sopherim (scribes) acknowldged that only the Torah was authoritative, and that their "fence" laws could be debated. A few generations later, other teachers of the law arose, called the Tanaim. These made another fence around the fence laws of the Sopherim. Now, however, the Tanaim's laws were considered debatable, but the laws of the Sopherim were considered as final authority. Into this situation Jesus Christ was born, where the laws of the Sopherim were considered greater in authority than the actual Torah. In fact, where the "fence" laws conflicted with the Torah, the "fence" laws were considered to have priority. These laws were called the Mishna, or the Oral Law, or here called the Tradition of the Elders. You were considered to have sinned if you broke one of them, just as if you had broken one of the laws of Moses the heart, and those things make the human being unclean. [19]For out of the heart, come forth evil reasoning, murder, adultery, fornication, theft, false testimony, slander. [20]Those are the things making the human being unclean; but the eating with unwashed hands, that does not make the human being unclean."

The Faith of the Canaanite Dog

[21]And leaving there, Jesus departed to the areas of Tyre and Sidon. [22]And behold a Canaanite woman from those borders, after coming forward cried out to him, saying, "Have mercy on me, Lord, Son of David! My daughter is suffering terribly from a demon."

[23]But he answered not a word to her. So his disciples are coming to him and urging him, saying, "Send her away, because she keeps crying out behind us."

[24]And in response to her he said, "I was sent only to the lost sheep of the house of Israel."

[25]But she comes and bows down to him saying, "Lord, help me."

[26]And he in answer said, "It is not right to take the children's bread and toss it to the dogs."

[27]And she said, "True, Lord; yet the dogs certainly eat of the crumbs falling from their master's table."

[28]Then in answer Jesus said to her, "Oh, woman, great is your faith! Let it be for you as you desire." And her daughter was healed from that very hour.

Jesus Feeds the Four Thousand

[29]And when he departed from there, Jesus came near the Sea of Galilee; and having gone up into the mountain, he was sitting there. [30]And many large crowds came to him, having with them the lame, the blind, the mute, the cheiroplegic,[128] and many others, and they laid them at Jesus' feet, and he healed them, [31]causing the crowds to marvel, seeing the mute speaking, the impaired of hand whole, the lame walking and the blind seeing, and they glorified the God of Israel.

[32]And calling forward his disciples, Jesus said, "I feel for the crowd, because they have been staying with me three days now and do not have anything to eat. And to dismiss them without eating, I am not willing, lest they collapse on the journey."

[33]And his disciples say to him, "Where in the desert could we obtain so many loaves of bread, enough to satisfy so large a crowd?"

[34]And Jesus says to them, "How many loaves do you have?"

And they said, "Seven, and a few fish."

[35]And he ordered the crowds to recline on the ground, [36]and after taking the seven loaves of bread and the fish, he gave thanks, and broke and gave to his disciples, and the disciples to the crowd. [37]And all ate and were satisfied, and they picked up the fragments that were left over, seven full baskets. [38]Now the ones eating were four thousand men, apart from women and children. [39]And after he dismissed the crowd, he embarked in the boat, and went into the territory of Magdala.

Chapter 16

The Yeast of the Pharisees, Sadducees, and Herod

[1]And the Pharisees and Sadducees approach him, and testing him, they asked him to show them a sign from heaven.

[2]But he in answer said to them, When evening comes, you say, 'Fair weather, the sky is red.' [3]And in the morning, 'Today, stormy weather, for the sky is red and threatening.' "You hypocrites. The face of the sky you know how to judge, but the signs of the times you are not able to? [4]"A wicked and adulterous generation demands a sign, and no sign will be given it except the sign of the prophet Jonah." And he left them and went away.

[5]And when his disciples were going to the other side, they forgot to take bread loaves. [6]And Jesus said to them, "Watch out. Be on your guard against the yeast of the Pharisees and Sadducees."

[7]And they were deliberating among themselves, saying, "We didn't bring bread loaves."

[8]And Jesus knowing, said to them, "You of little faith, why are you reasoning among yourselves, 'We didn't bring bread loaves'? [9]Do you still not understand nor remember the five loaves for the five thousand, and how many basketfuls you got? [10]Nor the seven loaves for the four thousand, and how many basketfuls you got? [11]How do you not understand, it was not about bread when I told you to be on your guard against the yeast of the Pharisees and Sadducees?" [12]Then they understood, that he had not meant they should be on their guard against the yeast of bread, but against the teaching of the Pharisees and Sadducees.

Peter's Confession of Messiah

[13]And upon entering into the area of the Caesarea that was in Philip's jurisdiction, Jesus queried his disciples, saying, "Who are the people saying I the Son of Man am?"

[14]And they said, "Some, John the Baptizer; others, Elijah; and still others, Jeremiah or one of The Prophets."

[15]He says to them, "And you, who do you say I am?"

[16]And Simon Peter answered, and said to him, "You are the Christ, the son of the living God."

[17]And Jesus in response said to him, "Blessed are you, Simon son of Jonah, because it was not flesh and blood that revealed this to you, but my Father, who is in heaven. [18]And I also say to you, that you are Peter, and upon this rock I will build my church, and the gates of Hades will not prevail against it. [19]And to you I will give the keys of the kingdom of heaven, and whatever you declare to be forbidden on earth shall have been forbidden in heaven, and whatever you declare to be permitted on earth shall have been permitted in heaven."[129] [20]Then he admonished his disciples, that they not tell anyone that he was Jesus the Christ.

Jesus Predicts His Death

[21]From that point on, Jesus began to reveal to his disciples that he had to leave for Jerusalem, and suffer many things at the hands of the elders and chief priests and Torah scholars, and be killed, and on the third day rise again. [22]And after pulling Jesus aside, Peter began correcting him, saying, "God forbid, Lord! This will never happen to you."

[23]But he turned and said to Peter, "Get behind me, Satan! A hindrance you are to me, because you are not considering the concerns of God, but the concerns of mortals."

[24]Then, Jesus said to his disciples, "If someone wants to follow me, he must deny himself, and take up his cross and follow me. [25]For whoever tries to keep his life will lose it. But whoever loses his life for my sake, will find it. [26]For what does it gain a human being, if he acquires the whole world, but is penalized his soul? In other words, what shall a human being pay, in trade for his soul? [27]For

[129] Or, "Whatever you forbid on earth is as good as forbidden by heaven, and whatever you permit on earth is as good as permitted by heaven." This "binding and loosing" teaching appears also in Matthew 18:18. It should be noted that here in 16:19, the verbs are in the 2nd person singular, Jesus saying it to and about Peter only, whereas in chapter 18 v. 18, the verbs are in the second person plural, Jesus saying it to, and giving this authority to, all of the apostles.

the Son of Man will soon come in the glory of his Father with his angels, and then, he will pay back to each one, according to the way of life of each. [28]Truly I tell you, There are some of those present here, who will certainly not taste death before they see the Son of Man coming in his kingship."

Chapter 17

The Transfiguration

[1]And after six days Jesus takes Peter, and James, and John his brother, and he is leading them up into a high mountain, by themselves. [2]And he was transfigured in front of them, and his face shone like the sun, and his garments became bright as the daylight. [3]And behold, Moses and Elijah appeared to them, conversing with Him.

[4]And in response, Peter said to Jesus, "Master, it is good for us to be here. If you want, let's make three shelters here, one for you, one for Moses, and one for Elijah."

[5]While he was still speaking, behold a bright cloud overshadowed them, and behold, a voice from the cloud, saying as follows: "This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased. Listen to him." [6]And when they heard this, the disciples fell on their faces, and were extremely frightened.

[7]And Jesus approached them and touched them reassuringly, and he said, "Stand up, and do not be afraid." [8]And when they opened their eyes, they saw no one except Jesus alone.

[9]And as they were coming down from the mountain, Jesus was admonishing them, as follows: "Do not tell anyone about the vision, until such time the Son of Man rises from the dead."

[10]And his disciples queried him, as follows, "So why do the Torah scholars say that Elijah has to come first?"

[11]In answer, Jesus said to them, "Elijah does indeed come first, and will restore all things. [12]But I am telling you, that Elijah has already come, and they did not recognize him, but did with him whatever they wished." [13]Then the disciples understood that he had spoken to them about John the Baptizer.

The Healing of a Boy Who Had an Evil Spirit

[14]And when they had returned to the crowd, a man came up to him, kneeling down to him, [15]and saying, "Lord, have mercy on my son, because he is lunatic and suffering horribly. For example, he often falls into fire, and often into water. [16]And I brought him to your disciples, and they were not able to heal him."

[17]And in answer, Jesus said, "O unbelieving and perverted generation! How long shall I stay with you? How long shall I put up with you? Bring him here to me." [18]And Jesus rebuked him, and the demon departed from him, and the child was healed from that time on.

[19]At that time, the disciples came to him in private, and said, "Why were we not able to drive it out?"

[20]And Jesus said to them, "Because of your unbelief. For truly I tell you, if you have faith as small as a mustard seed, you will say to this mountain, 'Move from here to there,' and it will move. In fact, nothing will be impossible to you. [21]But this kind does not come out except by prayer and fasting."

[22]And when they were back in Galilee, Jesus said to them, "The Son of Man is about to be betrayed into the hands of human beings, [23]and they will kill him, and during the third day he will rise again." And they were very sad.

The Two Drachma Tax

[24]And when they arrived in Capernaum, the collectors of the two drachmas[130] approached Peter, and they said, "Does your rabbi not pay the two drachmas?"

[25]He says, "Yes he does."

And when Peter had come into the house, Jesus spoke to him first, saying, "What do you think, Simon: the kings of the earth, from whom do they collect toll and tribute— from their sons,[131] or from others?"

[26]Peter says to him, "From others."

Jesus said to him, "Alright then, the sons are free.[132] [27]But, so that we not scandalize them, go to the lake, cast a hook, and the first fish that comes up, take, and when you have opened its mouth, you will find a four-drachma coin.[133] Take that, and give it to them, as mine and yours."

Chapter 18

Who Is the Greatest?

[1]In that same hour, the disciples approached Jesus, saying, "So who is the greatest in the kingdom of heaven?"

[2]And calling a child over, Jesus stood him in the midst of them, [3]and he said, "I tell you truly: unless you change and become like little children, there is no way you will enter into the kingdom of heaven. [4]Whoever therefore humbles himself like this child, that is the one who is greatest in the kingdom of heaven. [5]And whoever receives one little child such as this on the basis of my name, is receiving me.

More About Little Ones

[6]As for that person through whom one of these little ones who believe in me might ever be scandalized, it would be better for that person that a mill stone be hung upon his neck and be sunk in the bottom of the sea. [7]Woe to the world, because of those scandalizings. Certainly, the scandalizings are bound to come. Nevertheless, woe to that person through whom the scandalizing comes.

[8]And if your hand or your foot scandalizes you, cut them off, and throw them away from you. It is better for you to enter into life crippled or maimed, than to be thrown into everlasting fire, having both hands or both feet.

130 A drachma was worth about a day's wage. The two drachma collection, 6 grams of silver, was the so-called temple tax in Exodus 30:11-16. But this payment was not intended to be a tax at all. Quoting Exodus 30:12, "When you take a census of the Israelites to number them, at the time he is numbered each man shall give a ransom for his life to Yehovah, so that no plague may come upon him for being numbered." The money was primarily an offering as atonement for the evil act of a man being numbered. Then it was merely incidental that as long as the temple personnel had this money anyway, "You shall take the atonement money from the Israelites and shall designate it for the service of the tent of meeting; before Yehovah it will be a reminder of the ransom given for his life." Ex. 30:16. It was an offering or ransom money to atone for the repugnant stench to God caused by the act of numbering the people. It was supposed to be a one-time thing.

131 The meaning of the Greek word huioi, "sons," here, could be an extended meaning; that is, "from their own relatives in race and culture, extended to their countrymen, from their citizens." This is a possible interpretation because it is made an antonym of "allotrioi," which in Jewish Greek like in the Septuagint, meant "aliens." Here the meaning would be, that since the two drachma tax was supposedly for maintenance of the temple- God's house, then God's children, the citizens of the kingdom of God, were exempt from that tax.

132 This word free, will not be understood properly, unless one understands "tribute" properly. Tribute was a poll tax paid to the conqueror, by a conquered or subjugated people. Anyone paying tribute, was by definition not free, but rather a member of an enslaved nation.

133 A silver coin worth four drachmas, equivalent to 12 grams of silver. Each man was to pay 6 grams of silver, which =1 stater=1 Babylonian shekel=1/2 of a sanctuary shekel (Phoenician or Hebrew standard).

[9]And if your eye scandalizes you, tear it out, and throw it away from you. It is better for you to enter into life one-eyed, than be thrown into fiery Gehenna with two eyes.

[10]See that you not despise or overlook even one of these little ones; for I tell you, in heaven their angels through it all are seeing the face of my Father who is in heaven.

[11]For the Son of Man came to save what was lost.

[12]What do you think? Suppose a man has a hundred sheep, and one of them is lost. Would he not leave the ninety-nine on the mountain, and go look for the one that is wandering? [13]And if he happens to find it, truly I tell you, he rejoices over it more than the ninety-nine that were not lost.

[14]That is how undesirable it is, in the eyes of your Father in heaven, that even one of these little ones be lost.[134]

A Brother Who Sins

[15]Now if your brother sins against you, go and show him his fault, just between you and him. If he listens to you, you have won back your brother. [16]But if he does not listen, take with you one or two others, so that 'upon the mouths of two or three witnesses every matter be established.' [17]And if he refuses to listen to them, tell it to the assembly. And if he refuses to listen to the assembly, he should be considered by you as no different than a gentile or a revenue agent.

[18]Truly I tell you, whatever you apostles on earth declare to be forbidden, shall have been forbidden in heaven; and whatever you on earth declare to be permitted, shall have been permitted in heaven.[135] [19]Again I say to you, if two of you on earth agree with one voice concerning any and all matters about which you make request, it will be brought about for you by my Father who is in heaven. [20]For where two or three are gathered together in my name, there am I in the midst of them.

The Parable of the Unmerciful Servant

[21]At that time Peter approached him and said, "Lord, how many times shall my brother sin against me and I forgive him? Up to seven times?"

[22]Jesus says to him, "I tell you, not up to seven times, but up to seventy times seven times.[136]

[23]"Therefore, the kingdom of heaven may be likened to a man in ruling power who desired to settle accounts with his servants. [24]So he proceeded to settle, and had one of his debtors brought to him, one who owed him ten thousand talants. [25]But since he did not have the means to repay, the master ordered him to be sold as a slave, and also his wife and children and everything he had, and then to be paid back.

[26]"The servant therefore fell down, and was entreating him, saying, 'Master, be patient with me, and I will pay you back everything.' [27]And moved with compassion, the master of that servant released him, and forgave his debt.

134 Or, "...that even one of these little ones be ruined."

135 Or, "Whatever you forbid on earth is as good as forbidden by heaven, and whatever you permit on earth is as good as permitted by heaven." This "binding and loosing" teaching appears also in Matthew 16:19. It should be noted that here in 18:18, the verbs are in the second person plural, Jesus saying it to, and giving this authority to, all of the apostles, whereas in 16:19, the verbs are in the 2nd person singular, Jesus saying it to and about Peter only.

136 cf. Genesis 4:24: "If Cain is *avenge*d seven times, then Lamech seventy-seven times." It is equally beyond human nature to forgive the same person 77 times in one day, as it is to forgive 490 times. But Gentiles do not need to know this reference in order to understand that Matthew means to indicate a number that is large beyond human nature. In a story taken from older accounts, Plutarch, Mor. 245d uses the number 7,777 for the same purpose (cf. Polyaenus 8, 33).

[28]"But then after he went out, that servant found one of his fellow servants who owed him a hundred denarii, and he seized him, and was choking him, saying, 'Pay me back everything you owe.'

[29]"The fellow servant therefore fell down at his feet, and was begging him, saying, 'Be patient with me, and I will pay you everything back.' [30]But he was not willing, and went and threw him into the debtors' prison, until such time he could pay back the debt.

[31]"When therefore his fellow servants witnessed these events, they were extremely upset, and went and reported to their master everything that had happened. [32]Then summoning him, his master is saying to him, 'You wicked servant! All that debt of yours I forgave you, because you begged me. [33]Aren't you then also obligated to forgive your fellow servant, as I have forgiven you?'

[34]"And in anger, his master handed him over to the jailers, until such time he could pay back everything he owed him. [35]This is how my Father in heaven will act toward you also, unless you each forgive your brother his trespasses from your heart."

Chapter 19

Jesus Tested on Divorce

[1]And it came about that when Jesus had finished these discourses he departed from Galilee, and went into the region of Judea on the other side of the Jordan. [2]And large crowds followed him, and he healed them there. [3]And the Pharisees came to him, testing him, and saying, “Is it permitted for someone to release[137] his wife for any cause at all?”

[4]But in answer he said to them, “Have you never read, that from the beginning the Maker made them male and female, [5]and said, 'For this reason a man shall leave father and mother, and be joined to his woman, and the two shall become one flesh’? [6]As a result, they are no longer two, but one flesh. What therefore God has joined together, no human being is allowed to separate."

[7]They are saying to him, "Why then did Moses command to give a release of interest form[138] in order to release her?”

[8]He says to them, "Moses, in view of the hardness of your hearts, permitted you to release your wives, though it is not originally designed this way. [9]But I tell you that whoever releases his wife, except upon grounds of fornication, and marries another, commits adultery, and whoever marries her who was released, commits adultery.”

[10]His disciples are saying to him, "If this is the situation of a man with a wife, it is not advisable to marry!”

[11]And he said to them, "Not everyone can receive this word, but only those to whom it has been given. [12]For there are some who are eunuchs, who were born that way from their mother’s womb. And there are some who are eunuchs who were made to be eunuchs by human beings. And there are some who are eunuchs who have made themselves eunuchs for the sake of the kingdom of heaven. The person who is able to receive this, should receive it.”

The Little Children and Jesus

[13]At that time, little children were brought to him, so that he might lay his hands on them and pray for them. But the disciples scolded them. [14]But Jesus said, "Let the little children come to me, and do not hinder them. For of such is the 137 "Releasing" is the opposite of the cleaving or joining commanded in the Genesis passage.

138 The Greek word translated "release of interest form" was used to signify a relinquishment of property, a quit-claim. (Deuteronomy 24:1) It should be emphasized that Moses never commanded that anyone release his wife, but only that if/when he does, he must write the form.

kingdom of heaven." [15]And when he had laid hands on them, he moved on from there.

The Rich Young Ruler

[16]And behold, someone came up to him and said, "Good Teacher, what good must I do so that I may have eternal life?"

[17]And he said to him, "Why are you calling me good? No one is good except One, God. But if you want to enter eternal life, keep the commandments."

[18]He says to him, "Which ones?" And Jesus said to him, "Do not murder, do not commit adultery, do not steal, do not give false testimony, [19]honor your father and your mother,'[139] and, love your neighbor as yourself."[140]

[20]The young man says to him, "All these I have kept since my youth. What am I still missing?"

[21]Jesus said to him, "If you want to be perfect, go sell your possessions and give it to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven, and then come follow me."

[22]But when the young man heard this statement, he went away regretting, for he was owner of much property. [23]And Jesus said to his disciples, "Truly I say to you, hardly will a rich person get into the kingdom of heaven. [24]And again, I say to you, it is easier for a camel[141] to pass through the eye of a needle, than for a rich person to enter into the kingdom of God."

[25]And when his disciples heard this, they were greatly astonished, saying, "Who then can be saved?"

[26]And Jesus looked at them, and said to them, "With human beings, this is impossible; but with God, all things are possible."

[27]Then Peter answered and said to him, "Look how we have left everything, and followed you. What then will there be for us?"

[28]And Jesus said to them, "Truly I say to you: In the new beginning, when the Son of Man sits on his glorious throne, you who have followed me will also yourselves sit upon twelve thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Israel. [29]And everyone who has left houses or brothers or sisters or father or mother or wife or children or fields for the sake of my name, will receive a hundred times as much, and inherit eternal life. [30]But many who are first will be last, and many who are last will be first."

Chapter 20

The Parable of the Workers in the Vineyard

[1]"Similar therefore is the kingdom of heaven to a landowner, who went out early in the morning to hire workers together into his vineyard. [2]And he came to an agreement with the workers, of a denarius a day, and sent them into his vineyard. [3]And when he went out, about the third hour,[142] he saw others, standing in the market place idle. [4]To them also he said, "You also go out into my vineyard, and whatever is right, I will give you." [5]So they left. Again, he went out about the

[140] Leviticus 19:18

[141] Just as it is impossible, humanly speaking, for a camel to go through the eye of a needle, Jesus says in v. 27 that it is "impossible" for a rich man to enter the kingdom of God. Some people teach that Jesus really instead said "rope to go through the eye of a needle," because he was speaking in the Aramaic language, and the Aramaic word for camel was also the word for a kind of rope. Regardless, Jesus would want to invent a simile that was in line with his main point: "something impossible." His illustration must demonstrate something that is impossible, naturally speaking. "Camel" is more impossible than "rope," so at worst, camel works just fine, and at best, camel is the best rendering because it is more impossible.

[142] That is, about 9 a.m. Then again at 3 p.m. and 5 p.m. The Jewish clock began at sunrise and sunset; thus the third hour was about 3 hours after sunrise, hence 9 a.m. The 11th hour was only one hour before dark.

sixth hour and also the ninth hour, and did the same thing. [6]And about the eleventh hour he went out and found others standing idle, and he says to them, "Why are you standing here the whole day idle?"

[7]They say to him, "Because no one has hired us."

He says to them, "You also go out into my vineyard. And whatever is right, that you will receive."

[8]And when evening had come, the owner of the vineyard says to his foreman, "Call the workers and pay them their wages, starting from the last ones, to the first ones." [9]And those who had arrived at about the eleventh hour, each received a denarius. [10]And the ones who had arrived first expected to receive more, yet they also received a denarius each. [11]So they got together and were complaining to the landowner, [12]saying, "These last ones worked one hour, and you have treated them the same as us who have borne the burden of the whole day, and the scorching heat."

[13]And he in answer to one of them said, 'Friend, I am not doing you wrong. Did you not agree to a denarius with me? [14]Take what is yours and go your way. So this is what I want to give to the last ones, as I also gave to you. [15]Is it not permissible for me to do what I want with things that are mine? Is your eye evil[143] because I am generous?'

[16]Thus, the last will be first, and the first will be last. For many are called, but few are chosen."

Jesus Again Predicts His Death

[17]And as he was going up to Jerusalem, Jesus took the twelve disciples aside in private, and said to them on the way, [18]"Behold we are going up to Jerusalem, and the Son of Man is going to be betrayed to the chief priests and the Torah scholars, and they will condemn him to death. [19]And he will be handed over to the Gentiles, to be ridiculed and crucified, and during the third day he will rise again."

A Mother's Request

[20]At that time, the mother of the sons of Zebedee approached him, along with her sons. She is worshiping him and asking a favor from him. [21]And he said to her, "What do you want?" She says to him, "Decree that in your kingdom, these two sons of mine sit one on your right and one on your left."

[22]But in answer Jesus said, "You do not know what you are asking.[144] Are you able to drink the cup which I am about to drink, and be baptized with the baptism I am baptized with?"

They say to him, "We are able."

[23]And he says to them, "My cup you will indeed drink, and be baptized with the baptism I am baptized with, but to sit on my right or on my left is not mine to grant, but is only for those for whom it has been prepared by my Father."

[24]And when the other ten heard, they were upset about the two brothers. [25]And Jesus, calling them to him, said, "You know that the rulers among the nations lord it over them, and the great ones exercise authority over them. [26]But it shall not be so among you. Instead, whoever wants to be great among you shall be your servant, [27]and whoever wants to be first among you must be your slave. [28]Just as the Son of Man did not come to be served, but to serve, and to give his life a ransom for many."

[143] The "evil eye," is a Semitic concept, in which the attitude of the heart or the force of a person's thoughts, are focused out through, and cause the narrowing of the person's eye, out of envy, resentment, scheming, or even voodoo, toward one's neighbor.

[144] In this phrase, "you are asking" is plural. Whereas, when the mother was worshiping and asking, it was singular. Whether or not it was the mother's idea, or the sons', or both, Jesus addresses them in the plural. In the next sentence when he asks, 'Are you able...", plural, he is surely addressing the sons, not the mother.

Two Blind Beggars Receive Their Sight

29And as they were leaving Jericho, very large crowds were following them. 30And behold, two blind men sitting alongside the road, when they hear that Jesus is passing by, they cry out, saying, "Have mercy on us, Lord, Son of David!"

31But the crowd scolded them, that they should be quiet. But they kept crying out the more, saying, "Have mercy on us, Lord, Son of David!"

32And Jesus stopped, and called out to them and said, "What do you want me to do for you?"

33They are saying to him, "Lord, that our eyes be opened." 34And feeling sorry for them, Jesus touched their eyes, and immediately their eyes received sight, and they followed him.

Chapter 21

The Triumphal Entry

1And when they drew near to Jerusalem and came to Bethphage, to the Mount of Olives, at that time Jesus sent two disciples, 2telling them, "Go into the village ahead of you, and immediately you will find a donkey tied up, and her colt with her. Untie them and bring them to me. 3And if anyone says anything to you, say, 'The Lord needs them, and will send them right back.'"

4Now this happened so that what was spoken through the prophet would be fulfilled, which says,

5"'Say to the Daughter of Zion:
'Behold, your king is coming to you meek,
and riding on a donkey,
and a colt, the foal of a donkey.'[145]"

6And those disciples went, and did just as they were instructed by Jesus. 7They brought the donkey and the colt, and placed their cloaks on them, and they set him on them. 8And the large crowd of people spread their garments out on the road; and some were cutting branches off the trees and spreading those on the road. 9And the crowd proceeding ahead, and those following after, were shouting out as follows:

"Hosha na[146] to the Son of David!"
"Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord!"[147]
"Hosha na in the highest!"

10And when he came into Jerusalem, the whole city was stirred, saying, "Who is this?"

11And the crowds would say, "This is Jesus the prophet, from Nazareth, Galilee."

145 Zechariah 9:9

146 "Hosanna" here is similar to the Hebrew in Psalm 118:25 meaning "Help" or "Save, I pray," an appeal that became a liturgical formula. As part of the Hallel (Ps. 113-118), it was familiar to everyone in Israel. The Septuagint Psalm 117:25 has "O Lord, save now!" or "Save indeed!" No doubt some in the crowd accompanying him expected him, as the Messiah ben David, to literally "save now," and deliver them from the Romans and set up the kingdom of David.

147 21:9b Psalm 118:26

Jesus Clears the Temple

[12]And Jesus went into the temple of God, and he threw out all the ones who were selling or buying in the temple. And the tables of the moneychangers[148] he overturned, and the seats of the ones selling doves. [13]And he says to them, "It is written:

'My house shall be called a house of prayer';[149]
but you have made it
'a den of thieves.'[150]"

[14]And the blind and the lame came to him in the temple, and he healed them. [15]But when the chief priests and the Torah scholars saw the wonders that he performed, and the children crying out in the temple and saying, "Hosha na to the Son of David," they were indignant, [16]and they said to him, "Do you hear what they are saying?!"

And Jesus says to them, "Yes. Have you never read,

'Out of the mouths of children and those still nursing you have arranged for yourself praise'[151]?"

[17]And he left them, and went outside the city, to Bethany, and found lodging there.

The Withered Fig Tree

[18]And early in the morning, as he was on his way back to the city, he was hungry. [19]And when he saw a lone fig tree by the road, he went up to it. And he found nothing on it but only leaves. And he says to it, "May there never be fruit from you again." And immediately the fig tree withered.

[20]And when the disciples saw this they marvelled, saying, "How did the fig tree immediately wither?"

[21]And in answer Jesus said to them, "Truly I say to you, if you have faith, and do not second guess, not only will you do something like the fig tree, but also should you say to this mountain, 'Be lifted up and thrown into the sea,' it would happen. [22]In fact anything whatsoever that you ask for in prayer believing, you will receive."

The Authority of Jesus Questioned

[23]And after he had come into the temple, as he was teaching, the high priests and the elders of the people approached, saying, "By what authority are you doing these things? And who gave you the authority for these things?"

[24]And in answer Jesus said to them, "I will also ask you one question, which if you answer me, I will then tell you by what authority I do these things. [25]The baptism of John, where was it from, from heaven, or from human beings?"

---

148 The Greek word here, κολλυβιστης, is traditionally translated "moneychangers," but bankers is what they were. They are called moneychangers here because the main purpose of their "tables" when in the temple area was to break up larger currency into smaller change, and also perhaps to change foreign currency, if there was such a thing in the Roman empire. But the fact is, what the "tables" were is little in-temple, mini-branches of banks. We know they were tables of bankers offering other banking services such as savings accounts paying interest, because of Luke 19:23, where the "tables" were places to put money on deposit to earn interest.

149 Isaiah 56:7

150 Jeremiah 7:11

151 Psalm 8:2 Note also that in that culture, it was normal for children of speaking age to still be breast feeding.

So they discussed it away by themselves, saying, "If we say, 'From heaven,' he will say to us, 'Then why didn't you believe in him?' [26]And if we say, 'From human beings,' we fear the people, for they all hold John to be a prophet."

[27]And they in answer said to Jesus, "We do not know."

So he also told them, "Neither am I telling you by what authority I am doing these things."

The Parable of the Two Sons

[28]"So what do you think? A man had two sons. And he went to the first son and said, 'Son, go work in my vineyard today.' [29]And he in answer said, 'I will not,' but with a subsequent change of heart, he did go. [30]And he went to the second son and said the same thing. And he in answer said, 'I will, sir,' and did not go.

[31]Who of the two performed the will of the father?"

They are saying to him, "The first one."

Jesus says to them, "Truly I say to you: the revenue agents and prostitutes are getting into the kingdom of God before you. [32]For John came to you with the way of righteousness, and you did not believe in him. The revenue agents and prostitutes, however, did believe in him. And you, when you saw that, did not subsequently have a change of heart and believe in him."

The Parable of the Tenants

[33]"Listen to another parable. There was a landowner who planted a vineyard, and he put a hedge around it, and dug a winepress in it, and built a watchtower, and leased it out to tenant farmers, and journeyed away. [34]And when the time of harvest had drawn near, he sent servants of his to the farmers, to take his fruit.

[35]And this is the reception the farmers gave his servants: one they flogged, another they killed, another they stoned. [36]Again he sent other servants, more than before, and they treated them the same way. [37]So finally he sent his own son to them, thinking, 'They will respect my son.'

[38]But the farmers when they saw the son said to each other, 'This is the heir. Hey, let's kill him, and his inheritance will be ours.' [39]And they took him and cast him outside the vineyard and killed him.

[40]When therefore the owner of the vineyard comes, what will he do to those farmers?"

[41]They are saying to him, "He will kill those creeps catastrophically, and give the vineyard to other farmers, who will pay him back the fruits in their seasons."

[42]Jesus says to them, "Have you never read in the scriptures,

" 'A stone which the builders rejected, this one has become the chief cornerstone.
From the Lord this came about,
and it is marvelous
in our eyes'[152]?"

[43]Therefore I say to you, that the kingdom of God will be taken away from you, and given to a nation producing its fruit. [44]And the person who trips over that stone will be broken into pieces, and upon whomever the stone falls, it will turn him into powder."[153]

[152] Psalm 118:22,23

[153] This verse is not found in Codex Bezae (D), 33, nor in many old Latin manuscripts, nor in the Sinaitic Syriac, nor possibly, in Papyrus 104 from Oxyrhynchus (early III century). Some say the verse is an interpolation from Luke 20:18. Yet the words are quite different at the beginning, and according to the UBS committee, the verse's omission can be accounted 45And when the chief priests and the Pharisees heard this parable of his, they knew that it was about them that he was speaking. 46And though seeking to arrest him, they feared the crowds, since they held him to be a prophet.

Chapter 22

The Parable of the Wedding Banquet

1And once again Jesus in response to them spoke by means of a parable, saying, 2"The kingdom of heaven may be likened to a king, who put on a wedding feast for his son. 3And he sent his servants to summon those who were invited to the wedding, and they did not want to come.

4Once more, he sent other servants, telling them, 'Say to those invited, "Look, my noon meal has been prepared, my bulls and fattened animals are slaughtered, and everything is ready. Come now to my wedding feast." 5But they disregarded this and went off, one to his own field, another to his trade route, 6and others of them captured his servants, and insulted and killed them.

7And when the king heard, he became angry, and sending his soldiers, he slew those murderers, and burned their city. 8Then, he says to his servants, 'Seeing as how my wedding feast is ready, and the ones invited were not worthy, 9go out therefore onto the crossings of the roads, and whomever you find, invite them to the wedding feast." 10So going out into the roads, those servants gathered everyone that they could find, both the evil and the good. And so the wedding hall was filled with guests reclining.

11Now when the king went in to observe the ones reclining, he saw there a man who was not dressed in wedding clothes. 12And he says to him, 'Friend, how is it you have come in here without having wedding clothes?' And he was speechless.

13Then the king said to his servants, 'Bind his feet and hands, take him away, and throw him in the outer darkness; there, there will be keening, and gnashing of teeth.' 14For many are invited, but few are chosen."

Paying the Tribute Tax to Caesar

15Then the Pharisees left, and plotted how they might entrap him in a saying. 16And they send disciples of theirs to him, along with Herodians, saying as follows, "Teacher, we know that you are honest, and that you teach the way of God with integrity,[154] and it makes no difference to you about anyone, for you pay no attention to the personage of people.[155] 17Tell us then, what do you think? Is it permissible to pay the tribute to Caesar, or not?"

18But aware of their evil, Jesus said, "Why are you testing me, you hypocrites? 19Show me the coinage used for the tribute." And they brought him a denarius. 20And he says to them, "Whose image is this, and whose inscription?"

21They say to him, "Caesar's."

Then he says to them, "So Caesar's things you give back to Caesar, and God's things to God." 22And when they heard this, they were amazed, and they left him, and went away.

Marriage at the Resurrection

23During that same day, Sadducees approached him, (Sadducees say there is no resurrection), and they questioned him 24as follows: "Teacher, Moses said, 'If a man for when the eye of the copyist passed from "auths" (last word of ver. 43) to auton (the last word of ver. 44). Also, the committee says, the more appropriate place for copyists to have inserted it, if it was an interpolation, would have been after verse 42.

154 Matthew says "you teach the way of God "en alhtheia," whereas Mark and Luke say "epi alhtheias."

155 In other words, "It makes no difference to you who you are dealing with, as far as their status in society."

dies without having a child, his brother shall marry the man's wife, and raise up descendants for his brother.' [25]Well, there were seven brothers near us, and the first one after marrying, died, and since he had no descendant, his brother took his wife. [26]And it was the same with the second, and the third, up till and including all the seven. [27]And last of all, the woman died.

[28]In the resurrection, then, of which of the seven will she be wife? For all of them had her."

[29]And in answer Jesus said to them, "You are mistaken, from not knowing either the scriptures or the power of God. [30]For in the resurrection, they neither marry nor are given in marriage, but are like the angels of God in heaven.[156]

[31]Now about the resurrection of the dead, have you never read the declaration to you from God, where he says, [32]'I am the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob'[157]? God is not the God of the dead, but of the living."

[33]And when the crowds heard this, they were astonished at his teaching.

The Weightiest Commandment

[34]And when the Pharisees heard that he had silenced the Sadducees, they gathered together on that same place, [35]and one of them, a lawyer, questioned him, testing him and saying: [36]"Teacher, which is the greatest commandment in the law?"

[37]And Jesus told him, "'You shall love Yehovah your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your strength.'[158] [38]This is the first and greatest commandment. [39]And the second one is like it: 'You shall love your neighbor as yourself.'[159] [40]On these two commandments hang all the law and the prophets."

Whose Son is the Messiah?

[41]And as long as the Pharisees were collected together, Jesus questioned them, [42]saying: "What do you all think about the Christ— whose son is he?"

They are saying, "David's."

[43]He says, "How is it then that David, by the Spirit, calls him Lord, saying, [44]'Yehovah said to my Lord,[160] "Sit at my right hand, until I make your enemies a footstool for your feet."[161] [45]So, since David calls him Lord, how is he his son?"

[46]And no one was able to answer this argument, nor did anyone from that day on dare ask him anything else.

Chapter 23

Jesus Denounces the Rabbis

[1]Then Jesus spoke to the crowd and to his disciples, [2]saying, "The Torah scholars and Pharisees sit in the seat of Moses; [3]therefore whatever they tell you to keep, you should keep and do, but not according to their works should you do. For they say and don't do.

[4]For they bind heavy loads oppressive to bear and place them on the backs of the people, but they would not budge them with a finger of theirs.

[5]But every act of theirs they do with the goal to be seen by people. So they enlarge their phylacteries, and lengthen the tassels of their cloaks. [6]And they love the places of honor in the banquets, and the prominent seats in the synagogues [7]and the greetings in the marketplaces and being called "Rabbi, Rabbi" by the people.

[160] "Yehovah said to my Lord" is from the Hebrew of Psalm 110:1. In this verse, both the Tetragrammaton (YHVH) and Adonai are found, together. But one could hardly say, "Adonai said to Adonai." In an attempt to avoid this, the Masoretes inserted a paseq in between, to make separate them.

[8]But you, you should not be called Rabbi, because there is only one master of you, the Messiah, and you are all brothers. [9]And call no one on earth your father, because there is only one father of you, the one who is in heaven. [10]Neither should you be called Teacher, because your teacher is the Messiah. [11]But the greatest among you shall be your servant. [12]And whoever promotes himself will be lowered, and whoever lowers himself will be promoted.

[13]Woe to you, Torah scholars and Pharisees, you hypocrites! For you close the kingdom of heaven in people's faces; you yourselves do not enter, and neither do you allow those who are entering to enter.

[14]Woe to you, Torah scholars and Pharisees, you hypocrites! For you devour the houses of widows, and for a front, make lengthy prayers. Because of this, you will receive a greater condemnation.

[15]Woe to you, Torah scholars and Pharisees, you hypocrites! Because you traverse sea and land to make one convert, and when it happens, you make him twice the son of Gehenna that you are.

[16]Woe to you, you blind guides, that say, 'Whoever swears by the temple, that is nothing; but whoever swears by the gold of the temple, he is obligated.' [17]O blind fools! For which is greater– the gold, or the temple that makes the gold something holy?

[18]Or that say, 'Whoever swears by the altar, that is nothing; but whoever swears by the gift that lies upon it, he is obligated.' [19]You blind fools! For which is greater– the gift, or the altar that makes the gift something holy?

[20]It follows therefore, that when you swear by the altar, you are swearing by it AND everything that lies upon it, [21]and when you swear by the temple, you are swearing by it AND by the One residing in it.

[22]And when you swear by heaven, you are swearing by the throne of God AND by him who sits upon it.

[23]Woe to you, Torah scholars and Pharisees, you hypocrites! For you tithe the mint and dill and cumin, and have passed over more important matters of the law– justice, mercy and faith. These latter you ought to practice, without leaving the former undone. [24]You blind guides, straining out a gnat, but swallowing a camel!

[25]Woe to you, Torah scholars and Pharisees, you hypocrites! For you clean the outside of the cup and dish, but the inside is full of grabbiness and intemperance.

[26]O blind Pharisee! First clean the inside of the cup and dish, such that their outside will be clean as well.

[27]Woe to you, Torah scholars and Pharisees, you hypocrites! For you are like whitewashed tombs, that sparkle beautifully on the outside, but inside are full of bones of the dead and all sorts of unclean things.

[28]So you also, outside you appear to people as righteous, but inside you are loaded up with hypocrisy and lawlessness.

[29]Woe to you, Torah scholars and Pharisees, you hypocrites! For you build the tombs of the prophets, and decorate the graves of the righteous, [30]and you say, 'If we had lived in the days of our forefathers we would not have been parties to the blood of the prophets.'

[31]By so saying, you are bearing witness against yourselves, that you are sons of the murderers of the prophets.

[32]You fill indeed the measure of your forefathers.[162]

[33]You snakes, you spawn of vipers, how will you wiggle out of the sentence of Gehenna?

[162] This is traditionally translated as an imperative: "Fill up then, the measure of your forefathers." But the imperative inflection of verbs was usually identical to the indicative. Therefore, it is possible that this could be an indicative, and be rendered, "You fill indeed the measure of your forefathers."

[34]Therefore behold, I am sending to you prophets, and wise men, and Torah scholars; and some of them you will kill and crucify, and some of them you will flog in your synagogues and pursue from town to town, [35]so that on you will come all the blood of the righteous that gets spilled upon the earth,[163] from the blood of righteous Abel to the blood of Zechariah son of Barachiah, whom you slaughtered between the sanctuary and the altar. [36]Truly I tell you, this will all fall upon this generation.

[37]O Jerusalem, Jerusalem, that kills the prophets, and stones those sent to it! How often I have wished to gather together your children, as a hen gathers together her young under her wings, and you were not willing. [38]Now behold, your house will be left to you desolate.

[39]For I tell you, from now on, me you will not see, until such time you say, 'Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.'"[164]

Chapter 24

Signs of the Times

[1]And Jesus was proceeding on his way, and left the temple, and his disciples approached to show him the construction of the temple. [2]But Jesus said to them, "Do you see all these things? Truly I tell you, by no means will there be a stone left upon a stone that will not be thrown down."

[3]Then as he was sitting on the Mount of Olives, his disciples came to him privately, saying, "Tell us, when will these things happen, and what will be the sign of your coming and of the end of the age?"

[4]And in answer Jesus said to them, "See that no one misleads you. [5]For many will come in my name, saying, 'I am the Christ,' and they will deceive many. [6]And you will hear about wars and rumors of wars. Do not be alarmed. For all these things must happen, but the end is still not yet.

[7]For nation will rise up against nation, and king against king, and there will be famines and plagues and earthquakes in various places. [8]But all these are just the beginning of birth pains.

[9]At that time they will deliver you over to trial, and you will be hated by all nations because of my name. [10]And then many will be scandalized, and others will betray and hate each other; [11]and many false prophets shall arise, and lead many astray. [12]And because of the increase of lawlessness, the love of many will grow cold. [13]But the person who remains to the end, that one will be saved. [14]And this gospel of the kingdom will be preached in the whole inhabited earth, for a witness to all nations, and then the end will come.

[15]When therefore you see the abomination of desolation spoken of through the prophet Daniel being in the holy place, (Reader, think.)[165] [16]then those in Judea should flee onto the mountains, [17]the one on the rooftop should not come down to take something from his house, [18]and the person in the field should not turn back to get his clothes.

[19]And alas for those who are pregnant, and the ones giving milk during those days! [20]And pray that your flight not happen during winter or on a sabbath. [21]For there will be great distress then, of a sort that has not happened from the beginning of the world till now, nor ever will again.[166] [22]And if those days had not been made short, no flesh would survive; but for the sake of the elect, those days will be short.

[163] Mt 23:35 Revelation 18:24, "And in her was found the blood of prophets and of saints, indeed of all the slain upon the earth."

[164] Psalm 118:26

[165] Daniel 9:27; 11:31; 12:11

[166] Daniel 12:1; Joel 2:2

[23]At that time, if anyone says to you, 'Behold, here is the Messiah,' or "There is the Messiah,' do not believe it. [24]For there shall arise many false prophets, and they will perform great signs and miracles, so as to deceive if possible, even the elect. [25]See, I have told you ahead of time.

[26]If therefore they say to you, 'Behold, he is in the desert,' do not go out. Or, 'Behold, he is in a private room,' do not believe it. [27]For just as lightning comes out of the east and shines as far as the west, so also shall be the appearing of the Son of Man.[167] [28]For wherever the carcass is, there the vultures[168] will be gathered.

[29]And immediately after the tribulation of those days, the sun will be darkened and the moon will not give its glow, and the stars will fall from heaven, and the forces of the heavens will be shaken.[169]

[30]And then the sign of the Son of Man will appear in the sky, and at that time, all the tribes of the land will mourn,[170] and they will see the Son of Man coming on the clouds of the sky, with great power and great glory. [31]And he will send his angels with a loud trumpet sound, and they will gather his elect from the four winds, from one end of sky to the other.

[32]Now learn this parable from the fig tree: when its branch becomes tender and it puts forth leaves, you know that summer is near. [33]In the same way you also, when you see all these things, you know that the time is near, right at the door. [34]Truly I tell you: this age will by no means pass away until all these things have taken place. [35]Sky and earth will pass away, but my words will certainly not pass away.

The Day and Hour Unknown

[36]But as for that day and hour, no one knows it except my Father alone; not even the angels of heaven. [37]And just like the days of Noah, that is also how the coming of the Son of Man will be. [38]For just as in the days before the flood they were eating and drinking, marrying and being given in marriage, right up until the day that Noah entered the ark, [39]and they did not know it right up until the flood came and carried them away, that is how it will also be with the coming of the Son of Man. [40]At that time, two men will be in the field; one will be taken and the other left.

[41]Two women will be grinding at the mill; one will be taken and the other left.

[42]Be watchful therefore, because you do not know at what hour your Lord is coming.

[43]But this you know: that if the home owner had known at what watch of the night the thief was coming, he would have watched and not allowed his house to be broken into.

[44]For this reason you also must be the same: because the Son of Man is coming at an hour you would not think he would.

[45]Who then is the faithful and sensible servant, whom his master has placed over his domestic servants, to be giving out rations in due time?

[46]Happy is that servant whom his lord will find so doing when he comes.

[47]Truly I tell you, he will place him over all his possessions.

[48]But if that servant says in his heart, 'My lord is taking a long time to come,' [49]and his fellow servants he begins to slap around, and to eat and drink with the drunkards, [50]the lord of that servant will come at an hour he is not expecting, and at a time he does not know, [51]and will cut him in two, and appoint him his inheritance with the hypocrites. There, there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth.

[167] Or, so shall be the coming of the Son of Man. Both 'appearing' and 'coming' are true and appropriate, and included in the meaning of the Greek word "parousia" here. When someone comes to you, they also "show." Coming is also an appearing, in English.

[168] Greek: "ho aetos," a word used for both eagles and vultures.

Chapter 25

The Parable of the Ten Virgins

[1]"At that time, the kingdom of heaven will be like ten virgins who after grabbing their torches, went out for the meeting up with the bridegroom. [2]Now five of them were wise, and the other five were foolish, [3]who, when they brought their torches, had not brought oil along with them. [4]The wise, however, brought along with their torches, some oil in a container.

[5]Now after the bridegroom was taking a long time, they all became drowsy, and fell asleep. [6]And in the middle of the night, there came a loud cry, 'Look, the bridegroom is coming! Come out to join him.'

[7]Then at that time, all those virgins woke up, and trimmed their torches. [8]And the foolish ones said to the wise ones, 'Give us some of your oil, because our torches are going out.'

[9]But the wise ones answered saying, 'There may not be enough for both us and you. You should go instead to the vendors and buy your own.'

[10]And while they were gone away to buy some, the bridegroom came, and the ones who were ready went in with him to the wedding, and then the door was locked.

[11]And later on, the other virgins also arrive, and they are saying, 'Sir! Sir! Open the door for us.'

[12]"But in response, he said, 'Truly I tell you, I do not know you.'

[13]You all should keep watch therefore; because you do not know the day or the hour in which the Son of Man comes."

The Parable of the Talants

[14]"For it is like a man going away on a journey. He summoned his own servants, and entrusted his possessions over to them. [15]And to one he gave five talants,[171] and to another two talants, and to another, one talant, each according to his own ability, and then he immediately went abroad. [16]And the one who received the five talants went out and worked with them and made five more talants. [17]Similarly also, the one with the two, he also gained another two. [18]But the one who had received the one talant went out and dug a hole in the ground, and he hid his master's silver.

[19]And after a long time, the lord of those servants returns, and he is settling accounts with them. [20]And when the one who had received the five talants came forward, he presented another five talants to him, saying, 'Lord, you entrusted to me five talants. Look, I have gained another five talants in addition them.'

[21]His lord said to him, 'Well done, good and faithful servant. You have been faithful over a little; over much I will appoint you. Enter into the joy of your lord.'

[22]Then also when the one who had received the two talants came forward, he said, 'Lord, you entrusted to me two talants. Look, I have gained another two talants in addition to them.'

[23]His lord said to him, 'Well done, good and faithful servant. You have been faithful over a little; over much I will appoint you. Enter into the joy of your lord.'

[24]But then when the one who had received the one talant came forward, he said, 'Lord, I knew you, that you are a hard man, who reaps where he has not sown, and gathers what he has not winnowed. [25]And because I was afraid, I went out and hid your talant in the ground. See here, you still have what is yours.'

[26]But in response, his master said to him, 'You wicked and idle servant! You knew that I reap where I have not sown and gather what I have not winnowed?

---

[171] A talant was a measurement of weight for gold, silver, or copper, from 58 to 80 pounds (26 to 36 kg.). There came to be a coin called a talant, whose worth varied depending on the metal, time, and place used. The talant here was probably worth about two thousand dollars, and probably a box or case of smaller silver coins that added up to that.

[27]Then you should have deposited my money with the bankers, and when I returned I would recover what is mine with interest.

[28]Now then, take the talant away from him, and give it to the one who has the ten talants. [29]For to everyone who has, more will be given, and he will have himself an abundance. But from the person who does not have, even such that he has will be taken away from him. [30]And as for that worthless servant, cast him into the outer darkness. There, there will be weeping and gnashing of teeth."

The Sheep and the Goats

[31]"And when the Son of Man returns in his glory, and all the holy angels with him, then he will sit on his glorious throne, [32]and all the nations will be brought together before him, and he will separate them one from the other, just as a shepherd separates the sheep from the goats, [33]and he will put the sheep on his right and the goats on his left.

[34]Then, the king will say to the ones on his right, 'Come, you blessed by my Father, receive as your inheritance the kingdom that has been prepared for you since the foundation of the world. [35]For I was hungry, and you gave me something to eat. I was thirsty, and you gave me a drink. I was traveling through, and you invited me in. [36]Naked, and you put clothes on me. Sick, and you came to look over me. I was in prison, and you came to visit with me.'

[37]Then the righteous will answer him saying, 'Lord, when did we see you hungry and feed you, or thirsty and give you a drink? [38]And when did we see you a traveler and invite you in, or naked and put clothes on you? [39]And when did we see you sick or in prison and come to visit with you?'

[40]"And in answer, the king will say, 'Truly I say to you, as many times as you have done those things to the least of these of my brethren, you have done them to me.'

"[41]Then, he will say also to the ones on his left, 'Depart from me, accursed ones, into the everlasting fire prepared for the devil and his angels. [42]For I was hungry, and you did not give me anything to eat. I was thirsty, and you did not give me a drink. [43]I was traveling through, and you did not invite me in. Naked, and you did not put clothes on me. Sick, or in prison, and you did not come and look over me.'

"[44]Then those also will answer him, saying, 'Lord, when did we see you hungry or thirsty or traveling through or naked or sick or in prison and not minister to you?'

"[45]Then he will answer them saying, 'Truly I say to you, as many times as you did not do those things to one of the least of these, you did not do them to me.' [46]And those he will send off into everlasting punishment, but the righteous into everlasting life."

Chapter 26

The Plot Against Jesus

[1]And it came about that when Jesus had finished all these discourses, he said to his disciples, [2]"As you know, two days from now the Passover takes place, and the Son of Man will be handed over to be crucified." [3]Then the chief priests gathered together, along with the Torah scholars and the elders of the people, in the courtyard of the high priest, whose name was Kaiapha; [4]and they came to the decision that they would capture Jesus by trickery and kill him. [5]"But," they were saying, "not in the festival, or there might be an uproar among the people."

Jesus Anointed at Bethany

[6]Now once when Jesus was in Bethany, in the house of Simon the leper, [7]a woman came to him holding an alabaster bottle of very expensive myrrh, and she poured it on his head as he was reclining. [8]And when his disciples saw this they were indignant, saying,[172] "This is such waste, for what? [9]Because this myrrh could have been sold for a lot of money, to be given to the poor."

[10]But aware of this, Jesus said to them, "Why are you causing trouble for this woman? For she has performed a good work in me. [11]For the poor you always have with you, but me you do not always have. [12]For she did the pouring of this myrrh on my body to prepare me for burial. [13]Truly I tell you, wherever in the whole world this good news is preached, what this woman has done will also be spoken, in honorable remembrance of her."

[14]At that time one of the twelve went to the high priests, the one called Judas of Kerioth, [15]and he said, "What will you give me to betray him to you?" And they placed out for him thirty pieces of silver.[173] [16]And from then on, he was looking for a suitable time to betray him.

The Passover Supper

[17]And on the first day of Unleavened Bread, the disciples came to Jesus, saying to him, "Where do you want us to get the Passover meal ready for you to eat?"

[18]And he said, "Go into the city to a certain person and say to him, 'The Teacher says, "My time is near. I am doing Passover with you, along with my disciples."'" [19]And those disciples did as Jesus told them, and prepared the Passover.

[20]And as evening was coming on, he was reclining with the Twelve. [21]And while he was eating with them he said, "Truly I say to you, one of you will betray me."

[22]And deeply saddened, they began each one of them to say to him, "It's not me, is it, Lord?"

[23]And in answer he said, "The one who dips his hand with mine in the bowl, he is the one who will betray me. [24]The Son of Man is going just indeed like it is written about him, but nevertheless woe to that man through whom the Son of Man is being betrayed. It would have been better for that man if he had not been born."

[25]And in response, Judas, the one betraying him, said, "It's not me, is it Rabbi?"

He says to him, "You said it."

[26]And as they ate, Jesus took bread, and when he had given thanks, he broke it, and was giving it to the disciples, and he said, "Take and eat. This is my body." [27]And when he had taken the cup and given thanks, he gave it to them, saying, "Drink from it everyone. [28]For this is my blood of the new covenant, being shed on behalf of many for the forgiveness of sins.[174] [29]And I say to you, I will certainly not drink from this fruit of the vine from now on, until that day when I drink it with you new in the kingdom of my Father." [30]And when they had sung a hymn, they went out toward the Mount of Olives.

[31]Then Jesus is saying to them, "You will all be scandalized because of me this very night, for it is written:

" 'I will strike down the shepherd, and the sheep of the flock will be scattered.'[175]

[32]But after I am resurrected, I will go ahead of you into Galilee."

[33]But in response Peter said to him, "Even if everyone else is scandalized because of you, I will never be scandalized."

[34]Jesus said to him, "Truly I tell you, This very night before the rooster crows, you will disown me three times."

---

[172] Or possibly, "thinking."

[173] Bauer says under "argurion" 2.(c) that this means 30 silver coins called shekels, each worth about 4 drachmas.

[174] Isaiah 53:11

[175] Zechariah 13:7

[35]Peter says to him, "Even if I have to die with you, I will never disown you." And all the other disciples said the same.

Gethsemane

[36]Then Jesus goes with them to a park named Gethsemane, and he says to the disciples, "Sit here during such time I am gone over there to pray." [37]And he took Peter along, and the two sons of Zebedee, and he began to be sorrowful and deeply depressed.

[38]Then he says to them, "My soul is too sad, to the point of death. Remain here and stay awake with me." [39]And then after he had moved forward a little, he fell on his face, praying and saying, "My Father, if it is possible, remove this cup from me. Nevertheless, not as I will, but as you will."

[40]And he returns to the disciples, and finds them sleeping. And he says to Peter, "This is how you guys are,[176] lacking the self-control to stay awake with me one hour? [41]Stay awake and pray, that you not go into temptation. The spirit indeed is willing, but the flesh is weak."

[42]Again for the second time he went away and was praying, saying, "My Father, if it is not possible for this cup to go away from me unless I drink it, may your will be done." [43]And when he returned, he again finds them sleeping, because their eyelids were weighed down heavily.

[44]And again he left them and went away, praying for the third time, saying the same thing. [45]Then at that time he comes to his disciples and says to them, "Still sleeping away and resting? Behold, the hour has drawn near, and the Son of Man is being betrayed into the hands of sinners. [46]Get up, let's go. Look, the one betraying me is approaching."

Jesus Arrested

[47]And while he was still speaking, behold, Judas, one of the Twelve, arrived, and with him a large crowd of people with swords and clubs, from the chief priests and elders of the people. [48]And the one betraying him had given them a signal, as follows: "Whomever I kiss is the one. Him you seize."

[49]And he came straight up to Jesus and said, "Good morning, Rabbi."[177] Then he kissed him.

[50]And Jesus said to him, "Friend, why are you here?" Then at that time they came up and laid their hands on Jesus, and arrested him.

[51]And behold, one of those in the company of Jesus raised his hand and drew his sword, and he struck the servant of the high priest and cut off his ear.

[52]Jesus then says to him, "Return your sword to its place. For all who take up the sword will perish by the sword. [53]Or do you think I cannot call right now on my Father and he make available to me more than twelve legions of angels? [54]But then how would the scriptures be fulfilled which indicate that all this needs to happen?"

[55]At that time, Jesus said to the crowd, "As though after a bandit you have come out with swords and clubs to capture me? Every day I was sitting near you in the temple teaching and you didn't arrest me. [56]But, this has all come about so the writings of the prophets would be fulfilled." Then the disciples all abandoned him and fled.

---

[176] There is no Greek word corresponding to the word "guys," but I added it to show that the words here are plural inflection, and that Jesus is addressing not just Peter but all three of them.

[177] The Greek word used as greeting here means literally something like "Joy" or "Rejoice." But insert any cheerful greeting here used in your culture or language.

Before the Sanhedrin

[57]And the ones arresting Jesus led him away to Kaiapha the high priest, where the Torah scholars and the elders had gathered. [58]Now Peter had been following him from a distance, up to the courtyard of the high priest, and once he got inside, he was sitting with the servants, to see the outcome. [59]And the high priest and the elders and the entire Sanhedrin were looking for false testimony against Jesus by which they could put him to death, [60]and they had not found it. Even though many false witnesses had come forward, they had not found it. [61]But then later, two false witnesses came forward and said, "This man said, 'I am able to destroy the temple of God, and in three days to build it again.'"

[62]And the high priest rose and said to him, "Aren't you answering anything? What about this they are testifying against you?" [63]But Jesus was keeping silent. And in response the high priest said to him, "I adjure you by the living God that you declare under oath whether you are the Messiah, the Son of God."

[64]Jesus says to him, "You said that. Nevertheless I say to you: after now you shall all see the Son of Man sitting at the right hand of the Power, and coming on the clouds of heaven."

[65]Then the high priest tore his robe, saying, "He has blasphemed! What more need do we have for witnesses? See, now you have heard his blasphemy. [66]How does it look to you?"

And they said in answer, "He is guilty enough for death." [67]Then they spit on his face and pummeled him; they slapped him [68]while saying, "Prophesy to us, you Messiah– who is the one who hit you?"

Peter Disowns Jesus

[69]And Peter was sitting outside in the courtyard, and one maidservant approached him, saying, "You also were with Jesus the Galilean."

[70]But he was denying it before all of them, saying, "I do not know what you are saying."

[71]And after he had moved off into the entrance way, another maidservant saw him and is saying to the ones there, "This man was also with Jesus the Nazarene."

[72]And again he was denying it, with an oath: "I do not know the man."

[73]And after a little while those standing there said to Peter, "You definitely are also one of them, because your speech also gives you away."

[74]Then he began to curse vehemently and to swear, saying, "I do not know the man." And immediately a rooster crowed. [75]And Peter was reminded of the statement which Jesus had said to him, that "Before the rooster crows, you will deny me three times." And he went off outside, and wept bitterly.

Chapter 27

Judas Hangs Himself

[1]And very early in the morning, they all, the chief priests and elders of the people, reached the decision against Jesus that they would put him to death. [2]And they bound him, and led him away, and handed him over to Pontius Pilate the governor.

[3]Then, when Judas the one who betrayed him saw that he was condemned, he with remorse returned the thirty pieces of silver to the chief priests and the elders, [4]saying, "I have sinned; I have betrayed innocent blood."

But they said, "What is that to us? You deal with that."

[5]And after throwing[178] the silver in the temple, he departed, and went off and hung himself. [6]But the chief priests took the pieces of silver, and said, "It is not permissible to put them in the temple treasury, since it is blood price money."

[7]And after conferring on a course of action, they bought with the coins the potter's field, as a burial place for foreigners. [8]For which reason that field has been called "the Field of Blood" to this day. [9]Then was fulfilled what was spoken through Jeremiah the prophet, which says,

"And they took the thirty pieces of silver, the price of him on whom a price had been set,
as priced by the sons of Israel,
[10]and they traded them for the potter's field, just as the Lord directed me."[179]

Jesus Before Pilate

[11]And Jesus stood before the governor; and the governor examined him, saying, "YOU are the king of the Jews?"

And he said, "You are saying that, not I." [12]And during the whole time he was being accused by the chief priests and elders, he was not responding at all.

[13]Then Pilate says to him, "Don't you hear all the things they are charging you with?" [14]And he gave him no answer, not to even a single charge, causing the governor to be greatly astonished.

[15]Now the governor had become accustomed at every Festival to release one prisoner to the crowd that they wanted. [16]And they were holding at that time a particularly well-known prisoner named Barabbas.[180] [17]When therefore they were gathered together, Pilate said to them, "Which do you want me to release to you, Barabbas, or Jesus who is called Christ?" [18](For he knew that it was out of envy that they had handed him over.)

[19]And while he was sitting on the judgment seat, his wife sent word to him as follows: "Have nothing to do with that righteous man, for I have suffered much today because of a dream about him." [20]And the chief priests and the elders manipulated the crowd so that they would ask to have Barabbas, but Jesus they would put to death.

[21]But when the governor answered, he said to them, "Which of the two do you want me to release to you?"

And they said, "Barabbas."

---

[178] It is possible this meant "depositing" the money in the temple, since in Greek the verbs for "throw" were also used for "depositing." The temple had a donation chest or pot into which people could donate to the temple treasury (Mk 12:41; Lk 21:1).

[179] Zechariah 11:12,13; Jeremiah 32:6-9

[180] It is possible that the original gospel of Matthew said "Jesus Barabbas." And possible that, according to the Editorial Committee of the United Bible Societies Greek New Testament, the word "Jesus" in connection to Barabbas was "deliberately suppressed in most witnesses for reverential donsiderations." For example, acc. to the UBS textual commentary, Origen stated, it cannot be right, because, "In the whole range of the scriptures we know that no one who is a sinner [is called] Jesus." Origen, though admitting that Barabbas was called Jesus, nevertheless suppressed this in his work. In many even later witnesses, the copyists state in the margin that the earlier copies call Barabbas Jesus as well. But, they suppressed it, and the subsequent copies did not say Jesus Barabbas. Westcott and Hort however, state that the reading "Jesus Barabbas" was probably due to a scribe's error in transcription. Some say it is still easier to explain why "Jesus" might have been deleted than why it might have gotten added. In addition, having two men named Jesus fits better with the phrase of Pilate, found in all manuscripts, "or Jesus called Christ," where he seems to be setting them off in a needed contradistinction. According to Josephus, Jesus was a not uncommon name among Jews. Jesus is a form of the name Joshua.

[22]Pilate is saying to them, "What then should I do with Jesus who is called Christ?"

They all are saying to him, "Let him be crucified!"

[23]But the governor was saying, "Why? What crime has he committed?"

But they kept shouting that much more, saying, "Let him be crucified!"

[24]And when Pilate saw that he was accomplishing nothing, but that instead an uproar was starting, he took some water and washed his hands in front of the crowd, saying, "I am not going to be guilty of the blood of this innocent man. You see to that yourselves."

[25]And in response the whole crowd said, "Let his blood be on us and on our children." [26]At that time, he released Barabbas to them, but Jesus, after scourging him, he handed over to be crucified.

The Soldiers Mock Jesus

[27]Then the soldiers who were guarding Jesus, after taking him into the Praetorium, gathered together onto him the whole cohort. [28]And they stripped him of his clothes and placed around him a scarlet robe, [29]and after weaving together a crown of thorns they set that on his head, and a rod in his right hand, and then they dropped to their knees before him and were mocking him, saying, "Hail, King of the Jews!" [30]And after they spit on him, they took the rod, and repeatedly beat on his head. [31]And when they had mocked him, they stripped him of the scarlet robe and put his own clothes on him, and led him away to crucify him.

The Crucifixion

[32]And as they were leading him out, they encountered a Cyrenian man by the name of Simon. This man they conscripted to carry his cross. [33]And when they came to the place called Gulgolta [גֻּלְגֹּלְתָא], which is called the "skull" place, [34]they offered him sour wine to drink, mixed with a bitter drug; and after tasting it, he refused to drink it. [35]And once they had crucified him, they divied up his garments by casting lots, so that the word spoken by the prophet would be fulfilled, “They divided my garments among them, and cast lots over my clothing.” [36]And sitting down, they kept watch over him there. [37]And they fastened above his head his specific charge, written as follows: "THIS IS JESUS, THE KING OF THE JEWS." [38]There were being crucified along with him at that time two bandits, one on his right and one on his left. [39]And those passing by defamed him, wagging their heads [40]and saying, "Hey, you who destroys the temple and builds another one in three days, save yourself! If you are the son of God, come down from the cross." [41]And in the same way also the chief priests, making fun along with the Torah scholars and the elders, were saying, [42]"Others he saved; himself he cannot save. If he is the King of Israel, let him come down now from the cross, and we will believe in him. [43]He put his trust in God; let Him now rescue him, if he wants him. Because he did say, 'I am God's son.'" [44]In the same way the bandits who were crucified with him were also taunting him.

Jesus' Death

[45]And starting from the sixth hour, darkness came over the whole land until the ninth hour.[181] [46]And at about the ninth hour, Jesus cried out in a very loud voice, saying, "Eli, Eli, lema shebaqtani?" Which means, "My God, my God, why have you forsaken me?"

---

[181] That is, from noon until 3:00 p.m. In the Jewish system of that time, the first hour was the first hour of daylight, or 6:00 a.m. Thus, the sixth hour would be 12:00, six hours later, and the ninth hour was 9 hours after 6, which is 3:00 o'clock.

[47]And some standing there who heard this were saying, "This man is calling Elijah."[182] [48]And quickly one of them ran and got a sponge and soaked it with sour wine, and after sticking it on a reed, was giving him a drink.

[49]But the rest were saying, "Back off. Let's see if Elijah comes to save him." [50]But Jesus, after crying out again in a loud voice, gave up his spirit. [51]And behold, the veil of the temple was rent in two from top to bottom, and the earth was shaken, and the rocks split open, [52]and the tombs were opened up, and many bodies of the saints who had fallen asleep were raised again, [53]and after coming out of the tombs at the time of His resurrection, they went into the holy city and showed themselves to many.

[54]And the centurion and the ones with him who were guarding Jesus, when they saw the earthquake and the other things that happened, they were severely frightened, saying, "This man really was the Son of God."

[55]And there were present many women off at a distance observing, who had followed Jesus from Galilee providing for him; [56]among whom were Mary the Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James and Joses, and the mother of Zebedee's sons as well.

Jesus' Burial

[57]And when evening had come, a certain rich man of Arimathea by the name of Joseph came, who himself also was a disciple of Jesus. [58]This man went to Pilate and asked for the body of Jesus. Pilate thereupon ordered that the body be handed over to him. [59]And after taking the body, Joseph wrapped it in clean linen cloth, [60]and placed it in his own new tomb that he had hewn out of the rock. And after rolling a large stone up against the entrance of the tomb, he departed.

[61]Now Mary the Magdalene, along with the other Mary, was[183] there throughout, sitting opposite the grave site.

The Guard at the Tomb

[62]The next day, that is, the one which is after Preparation Day, the chief priests and the Pharisees gathered together before Pilate, [63]saying, "Sir, we remember how that deceiver, when he was still living, said, 'After three days I will rise again.' [64]Give orders therefore to secure the grave site through the third day, or his disciples might go at night and steal him, and then tell the people, 'He has risen from the dead,' and this last deception will be worse than the first."

[65]But Pilate said to them, "You have a guard.[184] Go secure it as best you know how." [66]So they went and secured the grave site, sealing the stone along with stationing the guard.

Chapter 28

The Empty Tomb

[1]And after the Sabbath, at the dawning of the first day of the week, Mary the Magdalene and the other Mary went to view the grave site. [2]And behold, there came a great earthquake. For an angel of the Lord had come down from heaven.

---

[182] This shows that the bystanders did not know Hebrew or Aramaic. The sign above Jesus' head was written in three languages for good reason. Most Jews of that day could not read the scriptures in Hebrew, and so it is no surprise that they did not recognize this spoken form of the Hebrew name for God.

[183] The verb "was" is in the singular, because the main subject of and focus of this account is Mary the Magdalene.

[184] The word "guard" here is a collective noun. It does not mean one man who is a guard, but a contingent of guards. Pilate may be giving them some guards here, but more likely, he is referring to the company of guards that the Jewish religious authorities already had charge of, by Pilate's authority, for the purpose of guarding the temple, and enforcing their exclusive legal jurisdiction, which Rome allowed in some matters of their Jewish religious law.

He had gone up to the tomb and rolled the stone away from the entrance, and was sitting down now on top of it. [3]And his face was like lightning, and his garments a gleaming white like snow. [4]And for fear of him, the guards trembled, and became as dead men.

[5]But in response, the angel said to the women, "You should not be afraid, for I know that you are looking for Jesus the crucified man. [6]He is not here. For he has risen just as he said. Come, see the place where the Lord was lying. [7]And quick, go tell his disciples as follows, 'He has risen from the dead. And behold, he is going ahead of you into Galilee; there you will see him.' There, I have told you."

[8]And they got quickly out of the tomb, and with fear and great joy they ran to report this to his disciples. [9]And it was while they were on their way to tell his disciples, that behold, Jesus met up with them, saying, "Good morning." And after approaching him, they grasped onto his feet, and worshiped him.

[10]Then Jesus is telling them, "Do not be afraid. Go report to my brothers that I am leaving for Galilee, and they will see me there."

The Official Cover-Up

[11]And while those were on their way, behold, some of the guard went into the city and reported to the chief priests everything that had happened. [12]And after coming together with the elders, they came up with a plan, and took the sufficient amount of silver coins and gave them to the soldiers, [13]telling them, "Say that his disciples came by night and stole him while you were sleeping. [14]And if this should ever reach the ears of the governor, we will satisfy him and make you have no worries." [15]And they accepted the silver coins and did as they were told. And this story has been propagated by the Jews to this day.

The Assembly on the Mountain in Galilee

[16]And the eleven disciples went to Galilee, to the mountain where Jesus had directed them. [17]And when they saw him, they worshiped him, though some hesitated. [18]And Jesus approached them and spoke to them, saying, "All authority in heaven and on earth has been given to me. [19]Go therefore and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit, [20]teaching them to keep everything, whatever things I have commanded you. And lo, I am with you always, even to the end of the age." Amen.

End of Matthew

Mark

Chapter 1

John the Baptizer Prepares the Way

[1]The beginning of the good news about Jesus Christ, the Son of God.
[2]As it is written the prophets:

"Behold, I am sending my messenger
before your face,
who will prepare your way before you,"[185]
[3]"a voice of one calling in the wilderness,
'Prepare the way for the Lord,
make the paths straight for him,'"[186]

[4]so John appeared, baptizing in the wilderness, and proclaiming a baptism of repentance for the forgiveness of sins. [5]And the whole region of Judea was going out to him, even all the Jerusalemites, and were getting baptized by him in the Jordan River, confessing their sins. [6]Now John was dressed in camel's hair, with a leather belt around his waist, and eating locusts and wild honey.
[7]And he would preach, saying, "After me is coming someone more powerful than I, the thongs of whose sandals I am not worthy to stoop down and untie. [8]I have baptized you in water, but he will baptize you in the Holy Spirit."

The Baptism and Temptation of Jesus

[9]And it came about in those days that Jesus came from Nazareth in Galilee and was baptized by John in the Jordan. [10]And going up out of the water he immediately saw the heavens opening, and the Spirit as a dove coming down upon him. [11]And a voice from heaven said, "You are my beloved Son; with whom I a well pleased."
[12]And immediately the Spirit thrusts him forth into the wilderness. [13]And he was there in the wilderness forty days being tempted by Satan, and was with the wild beasts. And the angels were attending him.

The Calling of Simon, andrew, James, and John

[14]And after John was put in prison, Jesus went into Galilee, proclaiming the good news of the kingdom of God, [15]and saying, "The time is fulfilled, and the kingdom of God has come near. Repent and believe the good news."
[16]Now as he was walking beside the Sea of Galilee, he saw Simon, and Andrew his brother, casting a net in the sea, for they were fishers. [17]And Jesus said to them, "Come, you two. Follow me, and I will make you fishers of people." [18]And they followed him right away, leaving their nets.
[19]And when he had gone a little farther from there, he saw James the son of Zebedee, and his brother John. They also were on board a boat, mending the nets. [20]At once he called them, and they went off after him, leaving their father Zebedee in the boat with the hired hands.

Jesus' Teaching Has Authority

[21]And they enter into Capernaum, and having gone straight into the synagogue on the Sabbath, he began to teach. [22]And they were amazed at his teaching,

---

185 This quotation appears to be a blend of Exodus 23:20 and Malachi 3:1.
186 Isaiah 40:3

because he was teaching them as one having authority, and not like the Torah scholars.[187]

[23]And there was a man in their synagogue who was in an unclean spirit. And he cried out, [24]saying, "Ha! What business do you have with us, Jesus, you Nazarene?[188] Have you come to destroy us? I know who you are— the Holy One of God!"

[25]And Jesus rebuked him, saying, "Be quiet and come out of him!" [26]And the unclean spirit shook him violently back and forth and came out of him, crying out with a very loud voice.

[27]And all were astonished, such that they were discussing it, saying, "What is this? What is this new teaching, that with authority, he even commands the unclean spirits, and they obey him." [28]And immediately the report went out about him in the whole region of Galilee.

Jesus Heals All in Capernaum

[29]And as soon as they came out of the synagogue, they went into the house of Simon and Andrew, accompanied by James and John. [30]And Simon's mother-in-law was bedridden, burning a high fever, and right away they are telling him about her. [31]And after approaching her and grasping her hand, he lifted her, and the fever immediately left her, and she began to wait on them.

[32]And when evening had come, when the sun had set,[189] they were bringing to him all who had an illness, and those being tormented by demons. [33]Indeed the entire town was gathered at the door. [34]And he healed many who were ill with various diseases, and many demons he expelled; and he would not allow the demons to speak, because they knew him.

Jesus Keeps Moving

[35]And rising up very early, in the darkness, Jesus went outside and went off to a solitary place, and he was praying there. [36]And Simon and those with him hunted him down, [37]and when they found him, they are saying to him, "Everyone is looking for you!"

[38]And he says to them, "Let us go to the next villages, so I may preach there also. For that is why I have come."

[39]And he was in their synagogues in all of Galilee preaching, and driving out the demons.

A Leper Healed Spreads the Word

[40]And a leper comes to him, falling on his knees before him, and saying to him, "If you are willing, you can cleanse me."

[41]And Jesus, filled with compassion, reached out his hand and touched him, and says to him, "I am willing. Be cleansed." [42]And as soon as He had spoken, the leprosy went away from him and he was cleansed.

[43]And he immediately thrust him outside, sternly admonishing him, [44]and saying to him, "See that you don't tell a thing to anyone. Only go show yourself to the priest, and offer the things Moses commanded for your cleansing, as a testimony to them."

[187] Traditionally translated 'scribe.' The original meaning was "writer; clerk; copyist," but after the captivity, it came to mean a member of the class of professional interpreters of the Jewish Law. They were also one component of the Sanhedrin, who sat as judges because of their expertise in the law.

[188] A Nazarene is someone from the town of Nazareth, just as a Houstonian is someone from the city of Houston. A Nazarene is not to be confused with a Nazirite, someone who took a time-limited vow not to cut his hair or to eat grapes or drink wine.

[189] The people waited until the Sabbath was over.

[45]But when he left he proceeded to speak out freely, and to spread the word around, with the result that Jesus could no longer enter a town openly but stayed outside in deserted places. Yet people were still coming toward him from all directions.

Chapter 2

The Paralytic Lowered Through the Roof

[1]And some days later, he entered again into Capernaum, and it was heard that he was home. [2]And soon many gathered, so many that there was no room left, not even at the door; and he was speaking the word to them.

[3]Then some arrive, bringing to him a paralytic, carried by four. [4]And not being able to get to him because of the crowd, they removed the roof where he was, and when they had dug through, they lowered the pallet bed on which the paralytic is lying.

[5]And when Jesus saw their faith, he says to the paralytic, "Son, your sins are forgiven you."

[6]And some of the Torah scholars were sitting there, and debating in their hearts, [7]"Why does this fellow speak such blasphemies? Who can forgive sins but God alone?"

[8]And Jesus, knowing immediately in his spirit that they were debating like this inside themselves, said to them, "Why are you debating these things in your hearts? [9]Which is easier to say to the paralytic: 'Your sins are forgiven,' or to say, 'Get up, take up your bed and walk'? [10]But so that you may know that the Son of Man has authority on earth to forgive sins..." He said to the paralytic, [11]"I say to you, get up, take up your bed, and go to your house." [12]And he stood up immediately, and took up his bed and went out in front of them all, with the result that they were all astonished, and glorified God, saying, "We have never seen anything like this!"

A Tax Collector Joins Jesus

[13]And he went out, along beside the lake again. And the entire crowd came with him, and he was teaching them. [14]And as he went along, he saw Levi son of Alphaeus sitting at the taxes post. And he says to him, "Follow me." And rising up, he followed him.

[15]And it comes about that Jesus is reclining at Levi's house, and many tax collectors and sinners were reclining with him and his disciples, for there were many who followed him. [16]And when the Torah scholars and the Pharisees saw him eating with tax collectors and sinners, they were saying to his disciples, "Why does he eat and drink with tax collectors and sinners?"

[17]And hearing, Jesus says to them, "It is not the healthy who need a doctor, but the sick. I have not come to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance."

Jesus Questioned About Fasting

[18]And the disciples of John and of the Pharisees were fasting. And they come and say to him, "How is it that the disciples of John and of the Pharisees fast, but your disciples do not fast?"

[19]And Jesus said to them, "Are the members of the bridegroom's party able to fast while the bridegroom is with them? So long as they have the bridegroom with them, they cannot fast. [20]But the days will come when the bridegroom is taken away from them, and then, in those days, they will fast.

[21]"And no one sews a piece of unshrunk cloth onto an old garment. For then, what filled it up pulls away from it, the new from the old, and a worse tear occurs. [22]And no one puts new wine into old wineskins. For then, the new wine will burst the wineskins, and the wine is poured out, and the wineskins destroyed. Rather, new wine must be put into new wineskins."

Man Over the Sabbath

[23]And it came about during a Sabbath that he was passing through the grainfields, and his disciples began to practice a custom, plucking the heads.[190] [24]And the Pharisees said to him, "Look! Why are your disciples doing what on the Sabbath is not permissible?"[191]

[25]And he said to them, "Have you never read what David did, when he and those with him were in need and hungry, [26]how in the account about Abiathar the high priest, he entered the house of God and ate the bread of offering, which was not permissible to eat, except for the priests, and he gave also to those who were with him."

[27]Then he said to them, "The Sabbath came about because of humankind,[192] not humankind because of the Sabbath. [28]Therefore, the Son of Man also is lord of the Sabbath."

Chapter 3

[1]And again he went into a synagogue. And a man was there who had a shriveled hand. [2]And they were watching him carefully whether he would heal him on the Sabbath, so that they might accuse him.

[3]And he says to the man with the shriveled hand, "Stand up into view."

[4]And he says to them, "Is it permissible on the Sabbath to do good or do evil, to save life or destroy it?" But they were not speaking.

[5]And after looking around at them with anger, deeply distressed at the hardness of their hearts, he says to the man, "Stretch out your hand." So he stretched it out, and his hand was restored, as sound as the other. [6]And the Pharisees went out and immediately began to conspire against him with the Herodians,[193] how they might kill him.

The Thronging Crowds Endanger Jesus

[7]And Jesus departed with his disciples to the lake, and a great multitude from Galilee followed him. And from Judea, [8]and from Jerusalem, and from Idumea and beyond the Jordan, and the vicinity of Tyre and Sidon also, a great multitude, when they heard what things he was doing, came to him. [9]And he told his disciples that a boat should be kept handy for him, because of the crowd, in case they should crush him. [10]For he had healed many, with the result that everyone who had a disease would charge upon him, in order to touch him. [11]And whenever

[190] The "plucking of the heads," was the allowable Jewish practice of Deuteronomy 23:25, "If you enter your neighbor's grainfield, you may pluck the heads with your hands, but you must not put a sickle to your neighbor's standing grain." Still, this practice was not allowed on the Sabbath day. And Jesus admitted that it was unlawful, by comparing it to something David did, which in v. 26, he admits was not permissible.

[191] The Greek word translated "permissible" is the impersonal participle ἐξεστιν, which is derived from the same root as ἐξουσία, the word for authority. If an activity was ἐξεστιν, that means it was "loosed," or ruled by the rabbis to be something "allowed" by the Torah. If something was not ἐξεστιν, as is the case here, that means it was "bound," that is, the rabbis had adjudged that it was forbidden by the Torah.

[192] God created man on the 6th day, and rested on the 7th day. He had sabbath rest because he was finished, as the end goal of creation was man. The ceasing of his work (sabbath) came about because of humankind.

[193] The Herodians were neither a religious sect nor a political party, but people with a certain attitude and outlook, Jews of influence and standing who supported the Herodian rule, and hence also that of the Romans, by whose authority the Herodian dynasty was maintained. In such allegiance they were definitely in the minority, for most Palestinian Jews were strongly opposed to that regime. In the gospels the Herodians are mentioned as enemies of Jesus, once in Galilee (Mark 3:6; Diatess. 8:23), and again at Jerusalem (Matt. 22:16; Mark 12:13; Diatess. 26:1).

the unclean spirits saw him, they fell down before him and cried out, saying, "You are the Son of God!" [12]And he would strongly warn them not to make him known.

The Twelve Apostles

[13]And he goes up into the mountain, and calls to him those he wanted, and they came to him. [14]And he appointed twelve, that they might be with him, and that he might send them out to preach, [15]and to have authority to heal the sick and drive out demons.

[16]And to Simon he added the name Peter; [17]and James the son of Zebedee, and John the brother of James, and to them he added a name: Boanerges, which means Sons of Thunder; [18]and Andrew, and Philip, and Bartholomew, and Matthew, and Thomas, and James son of Alphaeus, and Thaddaeus, and Simon of Cana, [19]and Judas of Kerioth, the very one who betrayed him.

Jesus Thought to be Out of His Mind

And they go into a house, [20]and once again a crowd gathered, such that they were not even able to eat bread. [21]And when they heard, his relatives set out to go and take custody of him; for they were saying, "He is out of his mind." [22]And the Torah scholars who had come down from Jerusalem said, "He has Beelzebub," and, "By the prince of demons he drives out the demons."

[23]And calling them to him, he spoke to them in parables: "How can Satan drive out Satan? [24]And if a kingdom is divided against itself, that kingdom cannot stand; [25]and if a house is divided against itself, that house cannot stand. [26]And if Satan has stood up against himself and is divided, he cannot stand, but has met his end. [27]And no one can enter the house of a strong man to steal his stuff unless he first ties up the strong man, and then, he may plunder his house.

[28]"Truly I tell you, there will be children of humankind being forgiven of all sin, and of all blasphemy, no matter how they blaspheme, [29]except that whoever blasphemes against the Holy Spirit will have no forgiveness ever, but is bound by an eternal judgement." [30](He said this because they were saying, "He has an unclean spirit.")

Jesus' Mother and Brothers

[31]Then his brothers and his mother arrive, and standing outside, they sent word to him, calling for him. [32]And the crowd was sitting around him, and they said to him, "Behold, your mother and brothers are wanting you outside."

[33]And he answered them by saying, "Who are my mother, or my brothers?" [34]And looking around at the ones sitting around him in a circle, he says, "Behold my mother and my brothers. [35]For whoever does the will of God, that one is my brother and sister and mother."

Chapter 4

The Parable of the Sower

[1]And he began to teach beside the lake again, and a very large crowd collected around him, such that he boards a boat to sit on the lake, and all the crowd was on the land up to the water's edge.

[2]And he taught them many things by parables, and in his teaching said to them: [3]"Listen! Behold, the sower went out to sow. [4]And it came about in the process of sowing that some seed fell beside the row, and the birds of the sky came and ate it up. [5]And other seed fell on the rocky place, where it did not have much soil, and it sprang up immediately, because it had no depth of soil. [6]And when the sun arose, it was scorched thereby, and it dried up, because it had no taproot. [7]And other seed fell among thorns, and the thorns grew up and choked it, and it yielded no fruit. [8]And other seed fell into good soil, and came up, grew, and produced, thirtyfold, and sixtyfold, and a hundredfold."

[9]And he said to them, "Whoever has ears to hear, hear."

The Parable of the Sower Explained

[10]And when he was alone, those around him together with the Twelve were asking him about the parable.

[11]And he told them, "It has been given to you to know the mystery of the kingdom of God, but to those outside, all things are in parables, [12]so that:

'Though seeing, they will look,
and not perceive,
and though hearing, they will listen,
and not understand–
lest they turn,
and their sins be forgiven.' "[194]

[13]And he says to them, "You don't understand this parable? How then will you understand any parable? [14]The sower is sowing the word. [15]And the ones beside the row where the word is sown, these are those who when they hear, immediately comes Satan and takes away the word that was sown in their hearts. [16]And likewise, the ones sown on the rocky places, these are those who when they hear the word, they immediately receive it with joy. [17]Yet they do not have a root in themselves, but are short-lived. When difficulty or persecution come because of the word, they quickly fall away. [18]And the ones sown among thorns are those hearing the word, [19]and the worries of this age, and the seductiveness of wealth, and the desires concerning other things, come in and choke the word, and it becomes unfruitful. [20]And the ones sown on the good soil, these are those who hear the word and embrace it, and bear fruit, thirtyfold, and sixtyfold, and a hundredfold."

You Determine How Much You Receive

[21]And he said to them, "Does the lamp exist to be put under a basket or under a bed? Is it not meant to be set upon a stand? [22]For there is nothing hidden that is not meant to be made manifest, nor covered up but to come into view. [23]If anyone has ears to hear, hear."

[24]And he said to them, "Consider carefully what you hear. In what size container you measure, it will be measured to you, and increased for you, you who are listening. [25]For whoever has, to him it will be given, and whoever has not, even what he has will be taken away from him."

The Parable of the Automatic Earth

[26]And he said, "It is with God's kingdom the same way a human might scatter seed on the ground, [27]then may sleep and get up, night and day, and still the seed sprouts and lengthens; how, he does not know. [28]For by itself the earth bears fruit, first the grass, then the head, then the full kernel in the head. [29]And when the grain is ready, he immediately sends out the sickle, because the harvest has come."

The Parable of the Mustard Seed

[30]And he said, "To what may we compare the kingdom of God? Or what kind of parable shall we use to illustrate it? [31]It is like a mustard seed, which when sown in the soil is smaller than all the seeds in the soil, [32]yet when it is sown, it grows, and becomes larger than all the vegetables, and makes branches big enough that the birds of the sky can dwell under its shadow."

[194] Isaiah 6:9-10

[33]And with many such parables he was speaking the word to them, as long as they were able to listen. [34]To the crowds, he would not say anything without a parable; but in private with his disciples, he would explain everything.

Jesus Commands the Elements

[35]That same day, when evening had come, he says to them, "Let's cross over to the other side."

[36]And leaving the crowd behind, they take him along, just as he was, in the boat. And there were also other boats with him.

[37]And a great storm of wind is coming up, and the waves crashed into the boat, such that it is now filling up.

[38]And he was in the stern, sleeping on the cushion. And they rouse him and say to him, "Teacher, doesn't it matter to you that we are perishing?"

[39]And when he was awake, he rebuked the wind, and said to the sea, "Hush. Be still." And the wind died down, and there came a total calm.

[40]And he said to them, "Why are you this afraid? How is it you have no faith?" [41]And they were very much afraid, and saying to one another, "Who, then, is this, that even the wind and the sea obey him?"

Chapter 5

The Legion of Demons Near Gadara

[1]And they went to the other side of the lake into the territory of the Gadarenes. [2]And as he gets out of the boat, immediately there met him out of the tombs a man in an evil spirit, [3]whose abode was in the tombs, and no one was able to bind him even with a chain, [4]because he had often been bound hand and foot, only to have the chains burst apart and the leg irons broken, and no one had the strength to subdue him. [5]And through all, night and day, in the hills and among the tombs, he was crying out and cutting himself with stones.

[6]And seeing Jesus from afar, he ran and fell down before him, [7]and shouting with a loud voice, he said: "What business between you and me, O Jesus, you son of the Most High God? In the name of God, I beg you, do not torture me." [8]For Jesus was saying to him, "Come out of the human, unclean spirit!"

[9]And Jesus questioned him: "What is your name?"

And he answered and said, "Legion is my name, for we are many." [10]And he begged him earnestly not to send them out of the area.

[11]And on a hillside near there, a large herd of pigs was feeding, [12]and all the demons pled with him, saying, "Send us into the pigs, so that we may enter into them."

[13]And Jesus immediately allowed them. And coming out, the unclean spirits went into the pigs. And the herd rushed down the steep bank into the lake, there being about two thousand, and they were drowned in the lake.

[14]Then those tending the pigs fled, and reported to the town and to the farms, and people came out to see what it is that took place. [15]And they come near to Jesus, and they see the demon-possessed man sitting, and dressed and in his right mind, he who had had the legion, and they were afraid. [16]Then the ones who had seen how it happened to the demon-possessed man rehearsed it to them, also about the pigs. [17]And they began to beg him to go away from their territory.

[18]And as he stepped onto the boat, the man who had been demon-possessed was begging him that he might always be with Jesus. [19]And Jesus did not allow him, but says to him, "Go home to your people and report to them what things the Lord has done for you, and what mercy he has shown you." [20]And he left and began to proclaim in the Ten Cities what things Jesus had done for him. And all were amazed.

A Dead Damsel and a Sick Woman

[21]And when Jesus crossed back over to the other side, a large crowd had assembled for him, and he was beside the lake. [22]And behold, one of the synagogue rulers comes, Jairus by name, and when he sees him he falls at his feet, [23]and was pleading with him earnestly, saying, "My little daughter is at the point of death. Oh, that you might come and lay your hands on her, so that she be healed and will live." [24]And he went with him.

And a large crowd was following with him, and compressing around him. [25]And a woman was there with a flow of blood of twelve years, [26]and had suffered many things under many doctors and spent everything she had, and not been helped, but rather had moved toward the worse. [27]And she had heard the things about Jesus, and coming up behind in the crowd, she touched his garment, [28]for she was saying, "If I can touch even his clothes, I will be healed." [29]And immediately the source of her blood dried up and she knew by her body that she was healed of the scourge.

[30]And Jesus, noticing immediately in himself that power was going out from him, turned around in the crowd and said, "Who touched my clothes?"

[31]And his disciples said to him, "You see the crowd pressing in together around you, and you say, 'Who touched me?'" [32]Yet he was still looking around to see the one who had done this.

[33]The woman then, knowing what had happened to her, came and fell down before him, fearing and trembling, and told him all the truth. [34]And he said to her, "Daughter, your faith has healed you. Go with peace, and be free from your scourge."

[35]While he was still speaking, they come from the synagogue ruler's, saying, "Your daughter has died. Why inconvenience the teacher any farther?"

[36]But Jesus, having immediately heard the message being spoken, says to the synagogue ruler, "Don't be afraid; only believe."

[37]And he did not allow anyone to come along with him, except Peter, James, and John the brother of James. [38]And he is coming into the house of the synagogue ruler, and sees an uproar, weeping and much loud wailing. [39]And when he had come in he says to them, "Why are you making a commotion and weeping? The child is not dead but sleeping." [40]And they laughed him to scorn.

Then, having put them all out, he takes the father of the child, and the mother, and the ones who were with him, and he goes in where the child was lying. [41]And taking hold of the child's hand, he says to her, "Talitha, koumi." (which when translated is, "O little damsel, I say to you, stand up.") [42]And the damsel stood up immediately, and was walking (for she was twelve years of age). And they were stunned with amazement. [43]And he was ordering them sternly that no one know this. And he said to give her something to eat.

Chapter 6

Jesus Rejected by his Home Town

[1]And he moved on from there, and came into his home town, and his disciples are accompanying him. [2]And when the Sabbath came, he proceeded to teach in the synagogue, and the many hearing were astonished, saying, "Where did this man get these things? Namely, what is this wisdom given to him? And the miracles happening by his hands? [3]Isn't this the carpenter, the son of Mary, and the brother of James, Joseph, Judas and Simon? Aren't also his sisters here with us?" And they were offended by him.

[4]And Jesus said to them, "A prophet is not without honor, except in his home town and among his relatives, and in his house."

[5]And he was never able to do any miracles there, except lay his hands on a few sick people; he did heal them. [6]And he was amazed at their unbelief.

Jesus Sends Out the Twelve

And he went around the villages in a circuit teaching. [7]And calling the Twelve to him, he began to send them out two by two, and he gave them authority over the unclean spirits, [8]and gave orders to them: that they should take nothing for the trip except a staff only; no bread, no bag, nothing in the money belt, [9]but only the sandals already tied on; also not to put on two tunics.

[10]And he further said to them, "Wherever you enter into a house, there stay up until when you leave that place. [11]And whatever places do not receive you nor will they listen to you, leaving there, shake off the dust under your feet, as a testimony to them. Truly I say to you, it will be more bearable in the day of judgement for Sodom and Gomorrah than for that town."

[12]And going forth, they proclaimed that people should repent. [13]And many demons they expelled, and many sick ones they anointed with oil and healed.

John the Baptizer Beheaded

[14]And Herod the king heard, for his name had become well known, and he was saying, "John the Baptizer has been raised from the dead; that is why miraculous powers are at work in him."

[15]Others were saying, "He is Elijah."

But others were saying, "He is a prophet, or as though one of The Prophets."

[16]But when Herod heard this, he said, "This is John, the man I beheaded; he has been raised from the dead!"

[17]For Herod himself, sending orders, had seized John and bound him in prison, because of Herodias his brother Philip's wife, whom he had married. [18]For John had been saying to Herod, "It is not permissible for you to have your brother's wife." [19]And Herodias had been maintaining a grudge against him, and was wanting to kill him, and could not, [20]for Herod feared John, knowing him to be a righteous and holy man, and he protected him. And when he listened to him, he did many things, and he enjoyed listening to him.

[21]And a suitable day came, when Herod in his birthday celebration made a supper for his courtiers, and the chiliarchs,[195] and the prominent of Galilee. [22]And when the daughter of the said Herodias came in and danced, and pleased Herod and those reclining with him, the king said to the girl, "Ask me anything you want, and I will give it to you." [23]And he swore to her, "Whatever you ask for, I will give it to you, up to half my kingdom."

[24]And going out, she said to her mother, "What shall I ask for?"

And she said, "The head of John the Baptizer."

[25]And she went in at once to the king with speed, saying this request: "I wish that you would give to me right now the head of John the Baptizer on a platter."

[26]And the king became greatly distressed. He did not want to refuse her, because of the words of oath and those reclining with him. [27]And the king immediately gave orders for his head to be brought, sending an executioner. [28]And he went, and beheaded John in the prison, and brought his head on a platter and gave it to the girl. And the girl gave it to her mother. [29]And when his disciples heard, they came and took his corpse and laid it in a tomb.

Jesus Feeds the Five Thousand

[30]And the apostles are collecting around Jesus, and they reported everything to him, both what they had done, and what they had taught. [31]And he said to them, "Come by yourselves to a remote place and rest a little." For those coming and going were many, and they did not even have opportunity to eat.

---

[195] Commanders of a thousand; the military leaders of one cohort each. The cohort was a thousand only when counting the reserves, and usually about 600 men.

[32]And they went away in a boat by themselves to a remote place. [33]And the crowds saw them leaving and recognized him, and ran together there on foot from all the towns and arrived ahead of them, and they gathered toward him.

[34]And getting out Jesus saw the large crowd, and felt compassion for them, because they were like sheep not having a shepherd, and he began to teach them many things.

[35]And now as an advanced hour comes, his disciples approached him. They are saying, "The place is remote, and it's now an advanced hour. [36]Dismiss them so they may go into the surrounding farms and villages and buy bread for themselves. For they have nothing to eat."

[37]But he in answer said to them, "You give them something to eat."

And they say to him, "Are we to go and buy two hundred denarii[196] of loaves of bread and give it to them to eat?"

[38]And he says to them, "How many loaves do you have? Go and see."

And finding out, they say, "Five, and two fish."

[39]And he instructed them to get all to recline in dining fellowships on the green grass. [40]And they reclined, in groups of a hundred and in groups of fifty. [41]And taking the five loaves of bread and the two fish, and looking up to heaven, he blessed and broke the loaves of bread and gave to his disciples to set before the people. The two fish also he divided for all.

[42]And they all ate and were satisfied, [43]and they picked up twelve large baskets full of fragments from the loaves of bread, and from the fish. [44]And there were about five thousand men eating the loaves.

[45]And he immediately told his disciples to get into the boat and go on ahead of him to the other side to Bethsaida, while he would dismiss the crowd. [46]And after saying farewell to them, he went away into the hills to pray.

Jesus Walks on the Water

[47]And after evening had come, the boat was in the middle of the lake, and he was alone on the land. [48]And he saw them being sorely taxed in the process of rowing, because the wind was against them. And about the fourth watch[197] of the night, he goes toward them, walking on the lake, and was intending to pass them. [49]But when they saw him walking on the lake, they thought it was a ghost, and cried out. [50]For they all saw him, and were disturbed by it.

And he immediately talked with them, and he is saying to them: "Take courage! It is I. Don't be afraid."

[51]And he went up into the boat with them, and the wind stopped. And they were very much, extremely stunned, and marveling among themselves. [52]For they had not learned from the incident of the loaves of bread; their hearts were hardened.

[53]And crossing over, they came to the land of Gennesaret and anchored. [54]And as soon as they got out of the boat, people recognized him [55]and ran around that whole region, and those who had invalids began to carry them around on pallets to where they heard that he was. [56]And wherever he would go, into villages, or towns, or countryside, they would place the invalids in the plazas, and the invalids would implore him that they could just touch the tassel of his cloak. And they were being healed, as many as were touching him.

Chapter 7

Clean and Unclean

[1]And the Pharisees and some of the Torah scholars are coming from Jerusalem and gathering toward him, [2]and when they saw some of his disciples eating bread with unclean[198]— that is, unwashed— hands, they complained. [3]For the Pharisees and all the Jews do not eat unless they wash their hands with the fist, holding to the tradition of the elders.[199] [4]And they do not eat from the marketplaces unless they wash. And there are many others which they have received instruction to keep, the baptizing of cups, pitchers, kettles, and couches.

[5]So then the Pharisees and Torah scholars are questioning him: "Why are your disciples not walking according to the tradition of the elders, but eating bread with unwashed hands?"

[6]And he in answer said to them, "Isaiah prophesied rightly about you hypocrites, as it is written:

" 'This people honor me with the lips,
but their heart is far from me.
[7]They worship me in vain, their instruction is the drilling of the rules of human beings.'

[8]"For dropping the commandment of God, you are holding on to the tradition of humans —the washing of pitchers and cups— and many other similar things you do."

[9]And he said to them, "You have a fine way of setting aside the commandment of God in order to keep your own tradition. [10]For Moses said, 'Honor your father and your mother,' and, 'The person cursing father or mother must be put to death.' [11]But you say that if someone says to father or mother, 'Whatever financial help you would receive from me is now korban' (that is, a gift vowed to God), [12]and you relieve him of doing anything more for his father or his mother, [13]annulling the word of God by your tradition which you have handed down. And many similar such things you do."

[14]And calling to the whole crowd, he said to them, "Listen to me everyone, and understand: [15]There is nothing outside a human being which by entering him is able to make him unclean. Rather, the things coming out of him, those are the things making the human being unclean. [16]If anyone has ears to hear, hear."

[17]And when he had entered a house, away from the crowd, the disciples asked him about the parable.

[18]And he says to them, "Are you also this obtuse? Do you not understand that everything entering a human being from the outside is unable to make him unclean, [19]since it is not entering his heart but his stomach, and then goes out into the sewer?" (He is declaring all foods clean.)

[20]He went on: "What comes out of a human being, that is what makes the human being unclean. [21]For from within, out of the heart of human beings, come evil

198 Koinos hands, that is, common, not consecrated, having touched anything and everything without having that washed off. Also in verse 5.

199 Mark 7:3- Ezra had set up a group of men called the Sopherim, whose task it was to teach the Torah to the people. This was well and good. But the Sopherim decided that to make absolutely sure that no one broke one of the 613 Mosaic laws, they would make a "fence" around those 613 laws by making some more finely tuned laws, which, if people obeyed these latter, they would be assured of not even getting close to breaking one of the 613 Torah laws. The Sopherim (scribes) acknowldged that only the Torah was authoritative, and that their "fence" laws could be debated. A few generations later, other teachers of the law arose, called the Tanaim. These made another fence around the fence laws of the Sopherim. Now, however, the Tanaim's laws were considered debatable, but the laws of the Sopherim were considered as final authority. Into this situation Jesus Christ was born, where the laws of the Sopherim were considered greater in authority than the actual Torah. In fact, where the "fence" laws conflicted with the Torah, the "fence" laws were considered to have priority. These laws were called the Mishna, or the Oral Law, or here called the Tradition of the Elders. You were considered to have sinned if you broke one of them, just as if you had broken one of the laws of Moses. In modern times, orthodox Jews do not read the Bible, but read books that interpret the books that interpret the books that interpret the Bible.

reasoning, adultery, fornication, murder, [22]theft, covetousness, malice, deceit, lewdness, an evil eye,[200] slander, haughtiness, and folly. [23]All these evil things come forth from within and make the human being unclean."

The Faith of the Gentile Dog

[24]And getting up, he departed from there into the vicinity of Tyre and Sidon. And entering a house, he wanted no one to know, yet he could not escape notice. [25]For upon hearing about him, a woman whose daughter had an unclean spirit came, and fell at his feet. [26]And the woman was a Gentile, a Syro-Phoenician by race. And she kept begging him that he drive the demon out of her daughter.

[27]But Jesus said to her, "Allow the children first to eat their fill, for it is not right to take the children's bread and toss it to the dogs."

[28]But she in answer says to him, "True, Lord; yet the dogs certainly eat of the children's crumbs under the table."

[29]And he said to her, "Because of this reply, go your way; the demon has left your daughter." [30]And going away to her house, she found the demon gone, and the child lying on the bed.

Jesus Does All Things Well

[31]And going back out of the district of Tyre and Sidon, he went to the Sea of Galilee, into the midst of the region of the Ten Cities. [32]And they bring a man to him, deaf and speaking with difficulty, and they are begging him to place his hand on him.

[33]And taking him aside privately, away from the crowd, he put his fingers into his ears. And after spitting on his fingers, he touched the man's tongue. [34]And looking up to heaven he sighed, and he says to him, "Eppatach!" (which means, "Be opened!"). [35]And immediately his ears were completely opened, and the bond of his tongue was released, and he began to speak normally.

[36]And he was ordering them that they tell no one. But as much as he ordered them, all the more they were talking about it. [37]And they were being overwhelmed with admiration, saying, "He has done all things well. He makes both the deaf to hear and the mute to speak."

Chapter 8

Jesus Feeds the Four Thousand

[1]During those days when there was a very large crowd and they had nothing to eat, Jesus calls his disciples to him and says to them, [2]"I feel compassion for this crowd, because they have stayed with me three days now, and have nothing to eat. [3]And if I dismiss them to their homes, without eating they will collapse in the journey, for some of them are from a long distance."

[4]And his disciples answered him, "Where here in the desert will anyone be able to get enough loaves of bread to fill these people?"

[5]And he asked them, "How many loaves do you have?"

And they said, "Seven."

[6]And he directed the crowd to recline on the ground. And taking the seven loaves of bread, giving thanks he broke them, and gave to his disciples, for them to serve. And they served the crowd. [7]They also had a few fish, and blessing them, he ordered them to be served as well. [8]And they ate and were filled, and they picked up the fragments left over, seven basketfuls. [9]And those who had eaten were about four thousand; and he dismissed them. [10]And immediately boarding the boat with his disciples, he went to the area of Dalmanutha.

[200] The evil eye is is a Semitic concept, in which the attitude of the heart or the force of a person's thoughts, are focused out through, and cause the narrowing of the person's eye, out of envy, resentment, scheming, or even voodoo, toward one's neighbor. See also Matt. 6:23; 20:15; Luke 11:34.

The Yeast of the Pharisees and Herod

[11]And the Pharisees came forward and began to debate with him, asking him for a sign from heaven, testing him.

[12]And sighing deeply in his spirit, he says, "Why does this generation seek after a sign? Truly I say to you, a sign will certainly not be given this generation!" [13]And leaving them, he got back into the boat and went away to the other side.

[14]And the disciples had forgotten to take bread; and except for one loaf, they had none with them in the boat. [15]And he started warning them, saying, "Take heed, be on your guard against the yeast of the Pharisees, and the yeast of Herod."

[16]And they were discussing this with one another, saying, "We have no bread loaves."

[17]And knowing, Jesus says to them, "Why are you discussing with one another the fact that you have no bread loaves? Are you still not understanding, nor putting it together? You still have completely hardened hearts? [18]You have eyes; can't you see? And you have ears; can't you hear? And don't you remember? [19]When I broke the five loaves of bread to the five thousand, how many basketfuls of fragments did you pick up?"

They say to him, "Twelve."

[20]"And when I broke the seven to the four thousand, how many basketfuls of fragments did you pick up?"

And they said, "Seven."

[21]And he said to them, "How do you not understand?"

The Healing of a Blind Man at Bethsaida

[22]And he comes to Bethsaida. And they bring a blind man to him, and they are begging Jesus to touch him. [23]And taking hold of the blind man's hand, he led him outside the village. And after spitting in his eyes and placing his hands on him, he asked him if he saw anything.

[24]And looking up he said, "I see people as trees walking around."

[25]Then he put his hands on the man's eyes again. And he made him look up, and his sight was restored, and he saw everything clearly again. [26]And he sent him home, saying, "Do not go into the village, nor tell anyone in the village."

Peter's Confession of Messiah

[27]And Jesus and his disciples went on to the villages of Caesarea of Philip, and on the way, he was inquiring of his disciples, saying to them, "Who do the people say I am?"

[28]And they answered, "John the Baptizer; and others, Elijah; and still others, one of the Prophets."

[29]And he says to them, "And you, who do you say I am?"

And Peter in answer says to him, "You are the Messiah."

[30]And Jesus warned them that they should tell no one about him.

Peter Opposes Jesus' Death

[31]And he began to teach them that the Son of Man had to suffer many things and be rejected by the elders and the chief priests and the Torah scholars, and must be killed, and after three days, rise again. [32]And he was stating the matter plainly. And Peter, taking him aside, started correcting him.

[33]But he, turning around and seeing his disciples, corrected Peter, saying, "Get behind me, Satan! For you are not thinking the things of God, but the things of human beings."

[34]And calling the crowd to him, together with his disciples, he said to them, "Anyone who wants to come after me, he must deny himself and take up his cross and follow me. [35]For whoever tries to save his life[201] will lose it, but whoever will lose his life for my sake, and of the good news, that person will save it. [36]For what good will it do a human being to gain the whole world, only to be penalized his soul? [37]Or what could a human being tender in trade for his soul? [38]For if anyone is ashamed of me and my words in this adulterous and sinful age, the Son of Man will also be ashamed of him, when he comes in the glory of his Father with the holy angels."

Chapter 9

[1]Then he was saying to them, "Truly I say to you, there are some standing here who will certainly not taste death before they see the kingdom of God having come with power."

The Transfiguration

[2]And after six days Jesus takes Peter and James and John, and he is leading them up into a high mountain, alone in private. And he was transfigured in front of them, [3]and his clothes became an exceedingly brilliant white, like snow, such as no launderer on earth is able to whiten. [4]And Elijah appeared to them, together with Moses, and they were conversing with Jesus.

[5]And Peter is responding and saying to Jesus, "Rabbi, it is good for us to be here, and we should make three shelters, one for you, and one for Moses, and one for Elijah." [6](For he had not known what to say, because they were so frightened.)

[7]And there came a cloud overshadowing them, and a voice came from the cloud which said: "This is my beloved Son. Listen to him."

[8]And suddenly, when they looked around, they saw no one else anymore, but only Jesus, along with themselves.

[9]As they were coming down off the mountain, he admonished them not to report the things they had seen to anyone, except until such time the Son of Man should rise from the dead. [10]And they kept the matter to themselves, discussing what the words "rise from the dead" meant.

[11]And they queried him, saying, "Why do the Torah scholars say that Elijah has to come first?"

[12]And in answer, he said to them, "Elijah indeed having come first will restore all things.[202] And why is it written about the Son of Man, that he would 'suffer much and be rejected?' [13]But I tell you that Elijah has indeed come, and they did to him whatever they wished, just as it is written about him."

Disciples Accused of Impotence to Heal

[14]And as he came near the other disciples, he saw a large crowd around them, and the Torah scholars debating with them. [15]And all the crowd were overcome with awe as soon as they saw him, and they were running up to him, greeting him.

[16]And he asked the Torah scholars, "What are you debating with them?"

[17]And in response one of the crowd said, "Teacher, I brought my son to you, who has a spirit of speechlessness. [18]And wherever it seizes him, it convulses him. And he foams at the mouth, and gnashes his teeth and becomes rigid. And I asked your disciples to drive it out, and they did not have the power."

[19]And in answer to him, he says, "O unbelieving generation, how long shall I stay with you? How long shall I put up with you? Bring him to me."

[201] The Greek word means either life or soul, as throughout this passage.

[202] Malachi 4:5-6 (3:23-24 in some Bibles); Luke 1:17; Diatess. 1:5

[20]And they brought him to him. And seeing Jesus, the spirit immediately convulsed him, and falling onto the ground, he was rolling over, foaming at the mouth.

[21]And he asked his father, "Over what period of time has this happened to him?"

And he said, "From childhood. [22]And it has often thrown him into both fire or water, trying to kill him. But if you can do anything, take pity on us and help us."

[23]Jesus said to him, "If you are able to believe, all things are possible to one who believes."

[24]And immediately the boy's father cried out saying with tears, "I believe Lord! Help my unbelief!"

[25]Then Jesus, seeing that a crowd is running together, rebuked the unclean spirit, saying to it, "You mute and deaf spirit, I command you, come out of him. And you may no longer go into him."

[26]And it shrieked, and convulsed him greatly, and came out. And he appeared as dead, so as to cause many to say, "He's dead." [27]But Jesus, taking him by the hand, lifted him, and he stood up.

[28]And after he went into a house, his disciples asked him in private: "Why weren't we able to drive it out?"

[29]And he told them, "This kind cannot be made to go out by anything except prayer and fasting."

[30]And moving on from there, they were passing through Galilee, and he did not want anyone to know, [31]because he was teaching his disciples. And he told them, "The Son of Man is being transferred into the hands of human beings. And they will kill him. And after he is killed, he will rise again the third day." [32]But they did not understand the statement, and they were afraid to query him.

Who is the Greatest?

[33]And he came to Capernaum. And when he was in the house, he asked them, "What were you arguing with each other about on the way?" [34]But they were keeping quiet, because on the way they had argued over who was greater.

[35]And sitting down, he called the Twelve and says to them, "If anyone wants to be first, he must be last of all, and servant of all."

[36]And taking a child he set him in the midst of them. And wrapping him in his arms, he said to them, [37]"Whoever welcomes one child like this on the basis of my name, is welcoming me; and whoever welcomes me is welcoming not me but the one who sent me."

Do Not Hinder Other Camps of God's Little Ones

[38]Then John responded to him, saying, "Teacher, we saw someone who is not following with us driving out demons in your name, and we forbade him, because he is not following with us."

[39]But Jesus said, "Do not forbid him, for there is no one who shall do a miracle on the basis of my name, who can then be quick to speak evil of me; [40]for someone who is not against us is for us. [41]For whoever gives you a cup of water for my sake, because you are of Christ, truly I tell you: he will by no means lose his reward. [42]And whoever causes one of these believing little ones to fall, it would be better for him to wear a millstone around his neck and be thrown into the depths of the sea.

[43]"And if your hand causes you to fall, cut it off. It is better for you to go into life maimed, than with both hands to go away into Gehenna, into the fire unquenchable, [44]where " 'their worm never dies,

and the fire is never quenched.'

45And if your foot causes you to fall, cut it off. It is better for you to go into life crippled, than with both feet to be thrown into Gehenna, into the fire unquenchable, 46where

" 'their worm never dies,
and the fire is never quenched.'

47And if your eye causes you to fall, yank it out. It is better for you to go into the kingdom of God one-eyed, than with two eyes to be thrown into the Gehenna of fire, 48where

" 'their worm never dies,
and the fire is never quenched.'

49For everyone shall be salted with fire, and every sacrifice shall be salted with salt.
50"Salt is good, but if the salt becomes bland, what will you spice it with? Have salt in yourselves, and cultivate peace among each other."

Chapter 10

Jesus Tested on Divorce

1And getting up to leave from there, he goes into the territory of Judea along the other side of the Jordan. And once again, crowds are going along with him, and as was his custom he again was teaching them. 2And the Pharisees came and, testing him, asked him, "Is it permissible for a husband to release a wife?"
3In answer he said to them, "What did Moses command you?"
4They said, "Moses permitted one to write a release of interest form[203] and to release."
5And in answer Jesus said to them, "It was in view of the hardness of your hearts he wrote you this instruction. 6But from the beginning of creation God 'made them male and female.'[204] 7For this reason, a man shall leave his father and mother, and be united to his woman, 8and the two shall become one flesh. As a result, they are no longer two, but one flesh.[205] 9What therefore God has joined together, a human being must not separate."
10And when back in the house, the disciples were questioning him about this. 11And he says to them, "Whoever releases his wife and marries another commits adultery against her, 12and if the wife releases her husband and marries another, she commits adultery."

Little Children Come to Jesus

13And people were bringing little children to him to have him touch them, but the disciples were scolding the ones who were bringing them.
14Seeing this, Jesus was indignant, and said to them, "Let the little children come to me, and do not hinder them, for the kingdom of God is made of such as these. 15Truly I tell you, whoever does not receive the kingdom of God like a little child will certainly not enter it." 16And he wrapped them in his arms, and placed his hands on them, blessing them.

203 This was a property document, which quit the man's claim to the woman as his property. There was no provision in the law of Moses for a woman to divorce her husband, since he was not her property. The apostle Paul in the New Testament, however, states in I Corinthians 7:4, "The wife has not authority over her own body, but rather the husband: and likewise also the husband has not authority over his own body, but rather the wife." This is a consequence of being "one flesh.

204 Genesis 1:27

205 Genesis 2:24

The Rich Young Man

[17]And as he was going forth onto the road, someone ran up to him and fell on his knees before him, asking him, "Good teacher, what should I do so that I will inherit eternal life?"

[18]And Jesus said to him, "Why are you calling me good? No one is good except one, God. [19]The commandments you know: Do not commit adultery, do not murder, do not steal, do not give false testimony, do not defraud, honor your father and mother.'[206]"

[20]And in response he said to him, "Teacher, all these I have kept since my youth."

[21]And Jesus looked at him and loved him, and said to him, "One thing you are lacking. Go sell what things you own and give to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven. Then come, take up your cross and follow me."

[22]But he with face aghast because of this word, went away regretting, for he was owner of much property.

[23]And looking around, Jesus says to his disciples, "How hard it will be for the ones who have wealth to enter the kingdom of God."

[24]The disciples were astonished at his words. But in response Jesus says to them again, "Children, how hard it is for those who rely on wealth, to enter the kingdom of God. [25]It is easier for a camel[207] to go through the eye of a needle than for a rich person to enter into the kingdom of God."

[26]And they became even more astonished, saying to each other, "Who, then, can be saved?"

[27]Then Jesus looking at them says, "With human beings it is impossible, but not with God. For all things are possible with God."

[28]And Peter began to tell him, "Behold how we have left everything and followed you."

[29]And in answer Jesus said, "Truly I tell you, there is no one who has left house or brothers or sisters or father or mother or wife or children or fields for my sake and for the gospel, [30]who will not receive a hundred times as much in this present time, of houses and brothers and sisters and mothers and children and fields, along with persecutions, and, in the coming age, eternal life. [31]But many first ones will be last, and the last ones first."

Jesus Again Predicts His Death

[32]And they were on the road, going up to Jerusalem, and Jesus was going on ahead of them; and they were stunned, and followed behind fearing. And taking the Twelve aside again, he began to tell them the things about to happen to him. [33]"See, we are going up to Jerusalem, and the Son of Man will be betrayed to the chief priests and Torah scholars. And they will condemn him to death, and hand him over to the Gentiles. [34]And they will mock him, and flog him, and spit on him, and execute him. And on the third day he will rise again."

The Ambition of James and John

[35]And James and John the sons of Zebedee come up to him, saying, "Teacher, we wish that you would do for us whatever we will ask."

---

206 Exodus 20:12-16; Deuteronomy 5:16-20

207 Just as it is impossible, humanly speaking, for a camel to go through the eye of a needle, Jesus says in v. 27 that it is "impossible" for a rich man to enter the kingdom of God. Some people teach that Jesus really instead said "rope to go through the eye of a needle," because he was speaking in the Aramaic language, and the Aramaic word for camel was also the word for a kind of rope. Regardless, Jesus would want to invent a simile that was in line with his main point: "something impossible." His illustration must demonstrate something that is impossible, naturally speaking. "Camel" is more impossible than "rope," so at worst, camel works just fine, and at best, camel is the best rendering because it is more impossible.

[36]And he said to them, "What do you want me to do for you?"

[37]And they said to him, "Grant to us that in your glory, we may sit one on your right, and one on your left."

[38]And Jesus said to them, "You don't know what you are asking. Are you able, to drink the cup I am drinking, and to be baptized the baptism I am being baptized?"

[39]And they said to him, "We are able."

And Jesus said to them, "The cup which I drink you will indeed drink, and the baptism I am baptized you will indeed be baptized. [40]But to sit on my right and on my left is not for me to grant; they belong rather to those for whom they have already been prepared."

[41]And when the ten heard, they began to be angry about James and John. [42]And Jesus calling them together says to them, "You know that the ones considered to be rulers among the nations, lord it over them, and their great ones exercise authority over them. [43]But it shall not be so among you. Instead, whoever wants to be great among you must be your servant, [44]and whoever wants to be first among you shall be slave of all. [45]For even the Son of Man did not come to be served, but to serve, and to give his life a ransom for many."

An Obnoxious Beggar Gets His Wish

[46]And they come into Jericho. And as he was going away from Jericho, plus his disciples and a large crowd, there was sitting beside the road the blind man Bartimaeus (the Son of Timaeus), who was begging. [47]And hearing that it is Jesus the Nazarene, he began to shout, and say, "Jesus, Son of David, have mercy on me!"

[48]And many were telling him to be quiet. But he kept shouting much more: "Son of David, have mercy on me!"

[49]Jesus stopped and ordered he be called.

So they call the blind man, saying to him, "Take heart! Get up! He's calling you!" [50]So throwing his cloak aside, he got up and came to Jesus.

[51]In answer to him, Jesus said, "What do you want me to do for you?"

The blind man said to him, "Rabboni, that I could see."

[52]And Jesus said to him, "Go. Your faith has healed you." And immediately he saw, and was following Jesus in the way.

Chapter 11

The Triumphal Entry

[1]And when they had come close to Jerusalem, to Bethphage and Bethany on the Mount of Olives, he sends two of his disciples, [2]and tells them, "Go into the village ahead of you, and just as you enter it you will find a colt[208] tied, upon which no one has ever yet sat. Untie it and bring it. [3]And if anyone says to you, 'Why are you doing that?' say, 'The Lord needs it and will send it here shortly.' "

[4]So they went, and found a colt tied at a doorway, outside in the street. And they are untying it. [5]And some people standing there said to them, "What are you doing untying the colt?"

[6]And they said to them as Jesus had instructed, and they allowed them. [7]And they brought the colt to Jesus, and threw their cloaks on it, and he sat on it.

[8]And many people spread their cloaks on the road, and others were cutting leafy branches from the trees and spreading them on the road. [9]And those proceeding ahead of him, and those following after, were shouting:

"Hosha na!'[209]

---

[208] Polos, a young mount animal, a word used for the foals of both donkeys and horses. But we know from the other accounts that this was the foal of a donkey.

[209] Similar to the Hebrew in Psalm 118:25 meaning "Help" or "Save, I pray," an appeal that became a liturgical formula. As part of the Hallel (Ps. 113-118), it was familiar to

"Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord!'[210]
[10]"Blessed is the kingdom of our father David that comes in the name of the Lord!"
"Hosha na in the highest!"

[11]And Jesus went into Jerusalem to the temple, and after looking around at everything, he went out to Bethany with the Twelve, since the hour was now late.

Jesus Clears the Temple

[12]And the next day as they were on their way from Bethany, he was hungry. [13]And seeing afar off a fig tree that had leaves, he went, if perchance he would find something on it. And coming upon it he found nothing but leaves. (For it was not the season of figs.) [14]And in response Jesus said to it, "May no one ever eat fruit from you again." And his disciples heard.

[15]And they come into Jerusalem. And when Jesus had entered the temple, he proceeded to drive out the ones selling and the ones buying in the temple, and the tables of the moneychangers and the seats of the ones selling doves he overturned, [16]and he did not allow anyone to carry stuff through the temple courts.

[17]And he started teaching, saying to them, "Is it not written:

" 'My house will be called a house of prayer for all nations'?[211]

But you have made it 'a den of robbers.'[212]"

[18]And the Torah scholars and the chief priests heard, and they were looking for a way to kill him, for they feared him, because the entire crowd was being held enrapt during his teaching.

The Withered Fig Tree

[19]And when it got late, he would go outside the city.

[20]And early, as they were traveling along, they saw the fig tree, withered from the roots. [21]And reminded, Peter says to him, "Rabbi, look! The fig tree you cursed has withered."

[22]And in response Jesus says to them, "Have faith in God. [23]For truly I tell you, whoever can say to this mountain, 'Be lifted up and thrown into the sea,' and it is not being questioned in his heart, but he believes that what he is saying is happening, it will happen for him, whatever he says.

[24]"Therefore I tell you, whatever you are asking for in prayer, believe that you are receiving it, and it will happen for you. [25]Also, when you stand praying, forgive, if you are holding anything against anyone, so that your Father in heaven may also forgive you your trespasses. [26]But if you do not forgive, neither will your Father in heaven forgive your trespasses."

The Authorities Question Jesus' Authority

[27]And they arrive again in Jerusalem, and as he was walking in the temple, the chief priests and the Torah scholars come up to him, along with the elders, [28]and everyone in Israel. The Septuagint Psalm 117:25 has, "O Lord, save now!" or "Save indeed!" No doubt some in the crowd accompanying him expected him, as the Messiah ben David, to literally "save now," and deliver them from the Romans and set up the kingdom of David.

---

210 Psalm 118:26

211 Isaiah 56:7

212 Jeremiah 7:11

they are saying to him, "By what authority are you doing these things? And who gave you this authority, that you may do these things?"

[29]And Jesus in response said to them, "I will also ask you one question. You answer me, and I will tell you by what authority I am doing these things. [30]John's baptism— was it from heaven, or from human beings? Answer me."

[31]And they were discussing it among themselves, as follows: "If we say, 'From heaven,' he will say, 'Then why didn't you believe him?' [32]But if we say, 'From human beings…'" (They were fearing the people, for the people all held that John really was a prophet.)

[33]And in answer they say to Jesus, "We do not know."

And Jesus in response says to them, "Neither am I telling you by what authority I do these things."

Chapter 12

The Parable of the Tenants

[1]And he began to speak to them in parables. "A man planted a vineyard, and put a hedge around it, and dug a winepress, and built a watchtower, and leased it out to tenant-farmers, and journeyed away. [2]And in the time of harvest he sent a servant to the tenants, that he might be paid by the tenants out of the fruit of the vineyard. [3]But seizing him they beat him, and sent him away empty-handed. [4]And again he sent a servant to them, a different one. That one they stoned and wounded in the head and sent away insulted. [5]And again he sent another, and that one they killed. And he sent many others; some they beat, some they killed.

[6]Having therefore one left, his beloved son, finally him he also sent to them, saying 'They will respect my son.'

[7]"But those tenants said among themselves, 'This is the heir. Come, let us kill him, and the inheritance will be ours.' [8]And taking him they killed him, and cast him outside the vineyard.

[9]"What then will the owner of the vineyard do? He will come and kill the tenants, and he will give the vineyard to others.

[10]"Have you not read this scripture:

' A stone which the builders rejected,
this one has become the chief cornerstone;
[11]from the Lord this came about,
and it is marvelous
in our eyes'[213]?"

[12]And they were looking for a way to arrest him, for they knew he had told the parable in reference to them. Yet they were afraid of the crowd. And they went away, leaving him alone.

Paying the Tribute Tax to Caesar

[13]And they send some of the Pharisees and Herodians, in order to trap him in a saying. [14]So coming, they say to him, "Teacher, we know that you are honest, and it matters not to you about anyone, in that you pay no attention to the personage of people, but rather on the basis of truth you teach the way of God. Is it permissible to pay the tribute[214] to Caesar, or not? Should we pay, or should we not pay?"

---

[213] Psalm 118:22, 23

[214] Kensos, a loan word from the Latin word census, which means just what you would think it means– a head count. The Roman Caesar would charge a head tax (capita tax) based on a head count or census. The Latin root word for head is cap. Thus, this tax was a per capita tax, or a capitation. It was a flat tax, having no relation to graduated percentages, or ability to pay. It was not an income tax. Every head had to cough up the same amount. Black's Law Dictionary, Sixth Ed., defines a Capitation tax thusly: "A poll tax. A tax or [15]But he, perceiving their hypocrisy, said to them, "Why are you testing me? Bring me a denarius, so that I may look at it." [16]And they brought one. And he says to them, "Whose image is this, and inscription?"

They say to him, "Caesar's."

[17]And in answer Jesus said to them, "Caesar's things give back to Caesar, and God's things to God."

And they were amazed at him.

Marriage and the Resurrection

[18]Then some Sadducees come up to him (Sadducees say there is no resurrection), and they questioned him as follows: [19]"Teacher, Moses wrote for us that if a man's brother dies and leaves behind a wife and does not leave behind a child, that the brother of the deceased should take that wife of his and raise up descendants for his brother.[215]

[20]"Now then, there were seven brothers. And the first one took a wife, and dying, he left no descendant. [21]And the second one took her, and he died, and he did not leave a descendant either. It was the same with the third. [22]In fact, all seven took her and left no descendant. Last of all, the woman also died.

[23]"In the resurrection therefore, when they rise again, of which of them will she be wife? For all seven had her as wife."

[24]And in answer Jesus said to them, "Is this not the reason you are mistaken, that you know neither the scriptures nor the power of God? [25]For when they rise from the dead, they neither marry nor are given in marriage, but are like the angels who are in heaven.[216] [26]Now about the dead, that they do rise, have you not read in the scroll of Moses, at the part about the bush, how God spoke to him, saying, 'I am the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob'?[217] [27]He is not the God of the dead, but the God of the living. You therefore are badly mistaken!"

The Weightiest Commandment

[28]And one of the Torah scholars who had approached, after listening to them debating, recognized that Jesus had answered them well. He asked Jesus, "Teacher, out of all of them, which commandment is primary?"

imposition upon the person. It is a very ancient kind of tribute, and answers to what the Latins called 'tributum,' by which taxes on persons are distinguished from taxes on merchandise, called 'vectigalia.'" Remember, a census was forbidden by God, and King David incurred God's wrath when he numbered the people. (A census tax or capita tax is also the kind expressly prohibited by the Constitution for the United States of America.) Black's Law Dictionary defines Tribute in turn as: "A contribution which is raised by a prince or sovereign from his subjects to sustain the expenses of the state. A sum of money paid by an inferior sovereign or state to a superior potentate, to secure the friendship or protection of the latter." Now as for coinage, Jesus obviously knew some principles of law. When he said in verse 17, "Caesar's things give back to Caesar," he recognized that every single coin circulated that bore Caesar's portrait and inscription, already belonged to Caesar. And everything purchased using Caesar's coins also belonged to Caesar. The Jewish religious taxes, on the other hand, were paid in weight of silver– shekels, or even drachmas, but not in Roman coins.

[215] Deuteronomy 25:5; Genesis 38:8

[217] Exodus 3:6.

[218] Deuteronomy 6:4,5

similarly is this: 'You shall love your neighbor as yourself.'[219] There is no other commandment greater than these."

[32]And the Torah scholar said to him, "Well done, Teacher. It is on true basis you have said, that there is one God, and there is no other but him; [33]and to love him with all your heart, all your intelligence, all your soul, and all your strength, and to love your neighbor as yourself, is more important than all the burnt offerings and sacrifices."

[34]And Jesus, having observed that he had answered thoughtfully, said to him, "You are not far from the kingdom of God." And no one dared to ask him any more questions.

Whose Son Is the Messiah?

[35]And continuing to teach in the temple, Jesus said, "How do the Torah scholars say that the Messiah is the Son of David? [36]For David himself said, by the Holy Spirit,

" 'Yehovah said to my Lord:
"Sit at my right hand
until I make your enemies
a footstool for your feet." '[220]

[37]David himself therefore calls him 'Lord,' so how is he his son?"

And the large crowd was listening to him with delight.

Jesus Denounces the Torah Scholars

[38]Also in his teaching he was saying to them, "Look warily at the Torah scholars, those loving to walk around in robes, greetings in the marketplaces, [39]and chief seats in the synagogues, and places of honor at banquets; [40]who eat up the houses of widows, and for a front, make lengthy prayers. These will receive extra damnation."

The Widow's Offering

[41]And while sitting opposite the temple treasury, Jesus was watching how the crowd was dropping copper into the donation chest. And many rich people put in much. [42]And when one poor widow came, she put in two lepta (which is equivalent to one quarter of a penny).

[43]And calling his disciples to him, he says to them, "Truly I tell you, this poor widow has put in more than all the others putting into the treasury. [44]For they all put in out of the extra they had. But she out of her lack put in everything, all she had to live on."

Chapter 13

Signs of the Times

[1]And as he is going forth out of the temple, one of his disciples says to him, "Teacher, look! What large stones. What great buildings."

[2]And Jesus in response said to him, "See all these great buildings? By no means will there be a stone left upon a stone that will not be thrown down."

[3]And as he was sitting on the Mount of Olives opposite the temple, Peter and James and John and Andrew asked him privately, [4]"Tell us, when will these things be, and what will be the sign that they are all about to be accomplished?"

219 Leviticus 19:18

[5]And in answer Jesus proceeded to tell them, "See that no one misleads you. [6]For many will come in my name, saying, 'I am He,' and they will deceive many. [7]But when you hear of wars and rumors of wars, do not be alarmed. For these things must happen, but the end is not yet. [8]Nation will rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom. There will also be earthquakes in various places, and there will be famines and riots. These are the beginning of birth pains.

[9]"But you, you watch yourselves. For they will deliver you over to courts, and you will be beaten in synagogues, and you will be brought before governors and kings, for my sake, to be a witness to them. [10]Indeed the gospel must first be preached to all nations.

[11]"So when they take you delivering you to trial, do not concern yourself beforehand what you will speak, do not even think about it. Rather, whatever is given you in that hour, that you are to speak. For you are not the ones speaking, but the Holy Spirit.

[12]"And a sibling will betray a sibling to death, and a parent a child, and children will rise up against parents and put them to death. [13]And you will be hated by all because of me. But the person enduring to the end, that one will be saved.

[14]"But when you see the abomination of desolation, spoken of by the prophet Daniel, standing where it should not, (Reader, understand),[221] then the ones in Judea should flee to the mountains, [15]and the one on the rooftop should not come down into the house nor go inside to get something from his house, [16]and the one who is in the field should not turn back to get his coat. [17]And alas for the ones who are pregnant, and the ones giving milk during those days! [18]And pray that your escape not happen in winter. [19]For those will be days of suffering, such that has not happened from the beginning of creation which God created until now, nor ever will again. [20]And if the Lord had not made those days short, no flesh would survive. But, because of the elect, those whom he has chosen, he has made the days short. [21]And at that time, if anyone says to you, 'Look, here is the Messiah!' or, 'Look, there!' do not believe it. [22]For false Messiahs and false prophets will appear, and they will do signs and miracles, trying to deceive, if possible, even the elect. [23]But you, you be watchful. See, I have told you everything ahead of time.

[24]"But in those days, after that suffering,

" 'the sun will be darkened,
and the moon will not give its light,
[25]and the stars will be falling from the sky, and the forces[222] in space will be shaken.'[223]

[26]"And at that time they will see the Son of Man coming on the clouds, with great power and glory. [27]And at that time he will send forth his angels, and they will gather together his elect out of the four winds, from the farthest points of the earth to the farthest points of the horizon.

[28]"Now learn the parable from the fig tree. When its twig has already become tender and it puts forth leaves, you know that summer is near. [29]And likewise you, when you see these things happening, you know that it is near, right at the door. [30]Truly I tell you: by no means will this age pass away before all these things have happened. [31]Sky and earth will pass away, but my words will certainly not pass away.

No One Knows the Day or Hour

[32]"But as to that day and that hour, no one knows, not even the angels which are in heaven, not even the Son, but only the Father. [33]Be watchful, be alert and pray, for you do not know when the time is. [34]It is like a man going away on a journey, leaving his house and giving the authority of it to his servants, and to each his task, and the doorman he admonished to keep watch. [35]Thus you must keep watch, for you do not know when the lord of the house is coming, in the evening, or at midnight, or when the rooster crows, or at dawn. [36]No good if he comes suddenly, and finds you sleeping. [37]And what I am saying to you, I am saying to all: 'Keep watch!'"

Chapter 14

Mary Anoints Jesus at Bethany

[1]And the Passover and the Festival of Unleavened Bread were two days away. And the chief priests and the Torah scholars were seeking how they might kill him after arresting him in stealth. [2]But they were saying, "Not in the festival, or there will be a riot of the people."

[3]And when he was in Bethany, in the house of Simon the Leper, and reclining, a woman came holding an alabaster bottle of very expensive perfume ointment, pure oil of nardroot. And breaking the alabaster, she poured it out onto his head.

[4]But some were expressing indignation to each other, and saying, "Why has this waste of perfume occurred? [5]For this could have been sold for over three hundred denarii[224] and given to the poor." And they were scolding her.

[6]But Jesus said, "Leave her alone. Why are you causing her hardship? She has performed a good work towards me. [7]For the poor you always have with you,[225] and you can do them good whenever you want, but me you do not always have. [8]She did what was available to her. She was early to anoint my body in preparation for its burial. [9]Truly I tell you, wherever this gospel is preached throughout the whole world, what she has done will also be told, as an honorable remembrance of her."

[10]And Judas of Kerioth, one of the Twelve, went to the chief priests, to betray him to them. [11]And hearing this delighted them, and they promised to give him silver. Then he was planning how he might betray him the best time.

The Passover Supper

[12]And on the first day of Unleavened Bread, when they would sacrifice the Passover lamb, his disciples say to him, "Where are you wanting us to go to make preparations so you may eat the Passover?"

[13]And he sends two of his disciples and tells them, "Go into the city, and a man carrying a jar of water will meet you. Follow him. [14]And wherever he enters say to the owner of the house, 'The Teacher says: Where is the guestroom, where I may eat the Passover with my disciples?' [15]And he will show you a large upper room furnished and ready. Make preparations for us there."

[16]And his disciples left and went into the city, and found things just as he had told them. And they prepared the Passover.

[17]And as evening is coming on, he arrives with the Twelve. [18]And as they are reclining and eating, Jesus said, "Truly I tell you: one of you will betray me. One who is eating with me."

[19]Then they began to be very sad and to say to him one by one, "Surely not I?" And another, "Surely not I?"

[224] A single denarius was the usual daily wage for a laborer, so 300 denarii would be worth about a year's wages.

[225] Deuteronomy 15:11

[20]And in answer he said to them, "It is one of the Twelve, the one dipping into the bowl with me. [21]The Son of Man indeed is going just as it is written about him. But woe to that one through whom the Son of Man is betrayed! It would have been better for that man if he had not been born!"

[22]And when they were eating, Jesus, after taking a loaf of bread and blessing God, broke it and distributed to them, and said, "Take ye, eat. This is my body."

[23]And taking a cup and giving thanks, he gave it to them, and they all drank from it.

[24]And he said to them, "This is my blood of the new covenant, being shed on behalf of many. [25]Truly I tell you: By no means will I drink of the fruit of the vine any more, until that day when I drink it new in the kingdom of God."

[26]And when they had sung a hymn, they went out toward the Mount of Olives.

Jesus Predicts Peter's Denials

[27]And Jesus is saying to them, "This very night you will all be scandalized because of me, for it is written: 'I will strike down the shepherd, and the sheep will be scattered.' [28]But after I am raised up, I will go ahead of you into Galilee."

[29]But Peter said to him, "Even if everyone else will be scandalized, not I."

[30]And Jesus says to him, "Truly I tell you: Today, this very night, before the rooster crows two times, you will disown me three times."

[31]But he said all the more vehemently, "Even if I have to die with you, no way will I disown you." And the rest of them were saying things similar.

Gethsemane

[32]And they come to an orchard the name of which was Gethsemane, and he says to his disciples, "Sit here while I pray." [33]And he takes Peter, and also James and John with him. And he began to be overwhelmed with dread and heaviness. [34]And he says to them, "My soul is too sad, to the point of death. Remain here and stay awake." [35]And going forward a little, he dropped to the ground, and prayed that if it is possible, the hour might pass aside from him. [36]And he was saying, "Abba, Father, all things are possible for you. Remove this cup from me. Nevertheless, not what I will, but what you will."

[37]And he comes back, and finds them sleeping, and he says to Peter, "Simon, are you sleeping? Had you not the self-control to keep awake one hour? [38]Keep awake and pray, that you not come into temptation. The spirit indeed is willing, but the flesh is weak."

[39]And going away again, he prayed, saying the same thing. [40]And when he returned, he again found them sleeping, for their eyelids were heavy; and they did not know what to say to him.

[41]And he comes the third time and says to them, "Are you still sleeping and resting? Enough! The hour has come. Behold, the Son of Man is being betrayed into the hands of sinners. [42]Get up, let us go. Behold, the one betraying me has come near."

The Arrest of Jesus

[43]And right then while he was still speaking, Judas comes, who was one of the Twelve, along with a large crowd with swords and clubs, from the chief priests and the Torah scholars and the elders.[226]

[44]And the one betraying him had given them a signal, saying, "Whomever I kiss is he; him you arrest and lead away under guard." [45]And coming straight up to him, he says, "Rabbi, Rabbi" and fervently kissed him. [46]And they put their hands on him and arrested him. [47]Then a certain one of those standing near drew a sword and struck the servant of the high priest, and cut off his ear.

[48]And Jesus said to them in response, "As though after a bandit, you have come out with swords and clubs to capture me? [49]Day after day I was right next to you in the temple, teaching, and you never arrested me. But, may the scriptures be fulfilled." [50]Then everyone fled, abandoning him.

[51]And a certain young man was following him, a linen wrap thrown over his bare body. And the young men are seizing him, [52]but he fled from them naked, leaving the linen behind.

Jesus' Trial by the Sanhedrin

[53]And they led Jesus away to the high priest, and all the chief priests and the elders and the Torah scholars are gathering together with him. [54]And Peter followed him at a distance, right up to within the courtyard of the high priest, and remained, sitting with the guards and warming himself by the fire.

[55]And the chief priests and the whole Sanhedrin were trying to find evidence against Jesus in order to put him to death, and they were not finding it. [56]For many were bearing false witness against him, yet their statements were not consistent.

[57]Then some appeared and bore false witness against him as follows: [58]"We heard him saying, 'I will destroy this handmade temple, and by three days I will build another, not handmade.'" [59]Yet not even their testimony was so consistent.

[60]And after standing up in front of them all, the high priest examined Jesus, saying, "You are not making any answer? What about this testimony these are bearing against you?" [61]But he was keeping silent, and making no answer at all.

Again, the high priest was examining him, and saying to him, "Are you the Messiah, the Son of the Blessed One?"

[62]And Jesus said, "I am, and you will all see the Son of Man sitting at the right hand of Power, and coming with the clouds of heaven."

[63]Then the high priest tearing his robes says, "What more need do we have for witnesses? [64]You have heard the blasphemy. What does it look like to you?" And they all condemned him as deserving to be put to death.

[65]And some began to spit on him, and to cover his face and punch him, and say to him, "Prophesy!" The guards were also throwing face punches at him.

Peter Disowns Jesus

[66]And with Peter still below in the courtyard, one of the maidservants of the high priest comes, [67]and having seen Peter warming himself, and having peered at him, she says, "You were also with that Nazarene, Jesus."

[68]But he denied it, saying, "I neither know nor understand what you are saying." And he moved away, outside into the forecourt. And a rooster crowed.

[69]And the maidservant who had seen him began again to say to those standing around, "This fellow is one of them." [70]Again, he was denying it.

And after a little while, again, those standing around were saying to Peter, "You surely are one of them, because you are also Galilean and your accent is the same."

[71]Then he began to curse and to swear: "I do not know this man of whom you are speaking." [72]And a rooster crowed a second time. And Peter remembered the statement that Jesus had said it to him: "Before a rooster crows two times, you will disown me three times." And when he thought upon it, he wept.

Chapter 15

Jesus' Examination by Pilate

[1]And as soon as it was early morning, the chief priests, having made a consultation with the elders and Torah scholars and the whole Sanhedrin, after first restraining Jesus, led him away and handed him over to Pilate.

[2]And Pilate examined him: "Are you the king of the Jews?"

And he in answer to him said, "You are the one saying it."

[3]And the chief priests were charging him with many things; but he did not answer even one charge. [4]So Pilate again examined him, as follows: "You are not answering anything? Look how many accusations they are bringing against you!"

[5]But Jesus made no further answer, causing Pilate to be astonished.

[6]Now every Festival he would release for them one prisoner, whomever they would make plea for. [7]And there was one named Barabbas, bound with his fellow rebels who had committed murder during the uprising. [8]And the crowd shouted out and began to ask that Pilate do for them just as he always did.

[9]And Pilate answered them, saying, "Do you wish that I release to you the king of the Jews?" [10]For he knew it was because of envy that the chief priests had handed him over.

[11]But the chief priests had stirred up the crowd to ask that he release Barabbas to them instead.

[12]And Pilate when he answered again, said to them, "What then do you want me to do with the one you call the king of the Jews?"

[13]And they shouted back, "Crucify him."

[14]And Pilate said to them, "Why? What crime has he committed?"

But they shouted all the more, "Crucify him!"

[15]So Pilate, wanting to make the crowd contented, released Barabbas to them, and Jesus, after scourging him, he handed over to be crucified.

The Soldiers Mock Jesus

[16]And the soldiers led him away, inside the palace, that is, the Praetorium, and they are calling together the whole cohort. [17]And they are putting a purple robe on him, and setting around him a crown of interweaving thorns. [18]And they began to salute him: "Hail, King of the Jews!" [19]And they were striking his head with a cane, and spitting on him. And dropping their knees, they were doing homage to him. [20]And when they had mocked him, they stripped him of the purple robe and put his own garments on him.

The Crucifixion of Jesus

And they are leading him out to crucify him. [21]And a certain Simon passing by, a Cyrenian coming from the country, the father of Alexander and Rufus, they conscript to carry his cross. [22]And they bring him to the place Gulgolta [גֻּלְגֻּלְתָּא], which when translated is "skull" place. [23]And they were holding out to him wine to drink mixed with myrrh. He, however, did not take it. [24]And when they had crucified him, they were dividing his garments, casting a lot for them, who would take what.

[25]And it was 9:00 a.m.[227] when they crucified him. [26]And the notice of the charge against him was written above him: THE KING OF THE JEWS. [27]And with him they crucify two bandits, one to the right and one to the left of him. [28]And the scripture was fulfilled which says, 'And he was numbered with the transgressors.' [29]And those passing by were defaming him, shaking their heads and saying, "Aha, the one destroying the temple and building in three days! [30]Save yourself and come down from the cross."

[31]And likewise also the chief priests, making fun with one another along with the Torah scholars, were saying, "Others he saved. Himself he cannot save.

---

[227] Greek, "the third hour," that is, the third hour from 6 a.m. when the daytime starts, which makes this 9:00 a.m. So also the remaining references to time in Mark: the darkness came over the land at noon (Grk-the sixth hour), and lasted until 3:00 p.m. (Grk-the ninth hour), when Jesus cried out to the Father. See the endnote in my Diatessaron regarding the differing clock systems and divisions of the day used by the synoptic evangelists in contrast to John.

[32]Let the Messiah, the king of Israel, come down now from the cross, so that we may see and believe."

Even the ones crucified with him were shaming him.

The Death of Jesus

[33]And when it was twelve o'clock noon, darkness came over the whole land, until 3:00 o'clock p.m. [34]And at 3:00 p.m. Jesus cried out in a loud voice, “Eloi, Eloi, lama sabachthani?”— which when translated is, "My God, my God, why have you forsaken me?"

[35]And some of the bystanders hearing were saying, "Behold, he is calling Elijah." [36]And one ran, and after filling a sponge with sour wine and sticking it on a reed, was helping him to drink, saying, "Back off. Let's see if Elijah comes to take him down."

[37]But Jesus expired, letting out a loud cry.

[38]And the veil of the temple was rent in two from top to bottom. [39]And the centurion, standing across from and facing him, after seeing the way that he cried out and died, said, "This man truly was the Son of God."

[40]And there were also women watching from a distance, among whom were both Mary the Magdalene and Mary the mother of James the younger and of Joses; and Salome, [41]who also, when he was in Galilee used to follow him and provide for him, plus many others who had come up to Jerusalem with him.

The Burial of Jesus

[42]And evening had now come, and since it was Preparation Day, that is, before the Sabbath, [43]Joseph of Arimathea came, a respected council member, himself also looking forward to the kingdom of God, who, taking courage, went in to Pilate and asked for the body of Jesus. [44]But Pilate doubted that he was already dead, and calling the centurion to him, asked him if he had already died. [45]And knowing from the centurion, he granted the body to Joseph.

[46]And he had bought linen, and he took him down and wrapped him in the linen, and laid him in a tomb which was hewn out of the rock, and rolled a stone up against the entrance of the tomb. [47]And Mary the Magdalene and Mary the mother of Joses were watching where he was laid.

Chapter 16

The Empty Tomb

[1]And when the Sabbath had passed, Mary the Magdalene, and Mary the mother of James, and Salome, bought spices so that they might go and anoint him. [2]And very early on the first day of the week, they are coming upon the tomb, as the sun broke. [3]And they were saying to each other, "Who will roll away for us the stone from the entrance of the tomb?" [4]And when they look up, they behold: the stone has been rolled away! For it was very large. [5]And entering into the tomb, they saw a young man sitting on the right side, dressed in a white robe. And they were greatly alarmed.

[6]But he says to them, "Do not be alarmed. You are seeking Jesus the Nazarene, who was crucified. He is risen! He is not here. Behold the place where they laid him. [7]But go tell his disciples and Peter, that he is going ahead of you into Galilee. There you will see him, just as he told you."

[8]And they quickly went out, and flew from the tomb. But trembling shock was holding them and they said nothing to anyone, because they were afraid.

[9]And having risen early on the first day of the week, he appeared first to Mary the Magdalene, from whom he had expelled seven demons. [10]She went and reported to the ones mourning and weeping, who had been with him. [11]And they, when they heard that he was living and was seen by her, did not believe it.

12And after these things he was manifested in a different form to two of them as they were walking along in the country. 13And those went and reported to the rest; neither did they believe those.

14Last of all, once when they had reclined, he was manifested to the Eleven themselves, and he denounced their disbelief and hardness of heart, in that they had not believed the ones who had seen him risen. 15And he said to them, "Go into all the world, and proclaim the good news to the whole creation. 16He who believes and is baptized will be saved, but he who does not believe will be condemned. 17And these signs will accompany those who believe: in my name they will drive out demons, they will speak in new tongues, 18they will pick up serpents, and if they drink something deadly it will in no wise hurt them; they will lay their hands on the sick and they will have health again."

19And so the Lord after speaking to them was taken up into heaven, and sat at the right hand of God. 20And they went forth and preached everywhere, the Lord co-working and confirming the word by the signs accompanying. Amen.

Luke

Chapter 1

Introduction

[1]Since many have undertaken to draw up an account of the things fully attested among us, [2]as delivered to us by the original eyewitnesses who became stewards of the word, [3]it seemed good to me also, having meticulously traced everything again from the top, to write it down in sequence for you, O most excellent Theophilus, [4]so that you may know the reliability of things you have been told.

The Birth of John the Baptizer Foretold

[5]It came about in the time of Herod, king of Judea, that there was a priest, Zechariah by name, of the division of Abijah.[228] He had a wife from the daughters of Aaron, and her name was Elizabeth. [6]Both were upright in the sight of God, walking blamelessly in all the commandments and requirements of the Lord. [7]But a child they did not have, because Elizabeth was barren. And they were both advanced in age.

[8]And it came about, that once when his rotation was on duty and he was serving as priest before God, his lot fell [9](normal custom for the priesthood) to go into the temple of the Lord, and to burn incense.

[10]The hour of incense came, and all the people in the assembly were praying outside. [11]Then an angel of the Lord appeared to him, standing at the right side of the altar of incense. [12]Seeing it disturbed Zechariah, and fear fell over him. [13]But the angel said to him: "Fear not, Zechariah, for your request was heard. Your wife Elizabeth will bear you a son, and you shall call his name John. [14]Joy and gladness will be with you, and many will rejoice over his birth. [15]For he will be great in the eyes of the Lord. Wine and intoxicating beverages by no means shall he drink, and he will be filled with the Holy Spirit, beginning yet in his mother's womb. [16]He will turn many of the children of Israel toward the Lord their God. [17]And he will procede in front of Him, in the spirit and power of Elijah, such that the hearts of fathers will turn toward their children, and the disobedient toward the outlook of the righteous: a prepared people will be arranged for the Lord."

[18]Zechariah said to the angel, "By what will I know this? For I am old, and my wife is well advanced in age."

[19]And in answer the angel said to him, "I am Gabriel, one who stands in the presence of God, and I have been sent to speak to you and to tell you these glad announcements. [20]And behold, you will be silent and unable to speak, until the day these things take place, because you did not believe my words, which will be fulfilled in their time."

[21]And the people were waiting for Zechariah, and wondering about his delay in the temple. [22]And when he came out, he was not able to speak to them, and they knew: a vision he had seen in the temple. He kept motioning to them, and remained mute. [23]And when his days of service were completed, he went home.

[24]After those days, his wife Elizabeth conceived, and she hid herself for five months. [25]"The way the Lord has done this for me," she said, "these are days he has looked with concern upon me, to take away my disgrace among the people."

The Birth of Jesus Foretold

[26]And in the sixth month, the angel Gabriel was sent out by God, to a town in Galilee named Nazareth, [27]to a virgin pledged to be married to a man named Joseph, of the house of David. And the virgin's name was Mary. [28]And the angel went in to her, and said, "Hail, O favored one! The Lord is with you. Blessed are you among women."

[29]But when she saw him she was very troubled by his utterance, and wondered what sort of greeting this might be. [30]Then the angel said to her, "Fear not, Mary, for you have found favor with God. [31]You shall conceive in your womb, and shall bear a son, and you are to call his name Jesus. [32]This man will be great, and will be called the Son of the Most High. And the Lord God will give him the throne of his father David, [33]and he will reign over the house of Jacob for ever; and of his kingdom there will be no end."

[34]And Mary said to the angel, "How will this happen, since I am not knowing a man?"[229]

[35]And in answer the angel said to her, "The Holy Spirit will come upon you, and the power of the Most High will overshadow you. For this reason also, the one to be born of you will be called holy,[230] the Son of God. [36]And behold, Elizabeth your relative, even she in her old age, has conceived a son, and this is the sixth month with her, she who was called barren. [37]Therefore with God, nothing will be impossible."

[38]"Here am I, the slave girl of the Lord," Mary said. "May it be to me according to your statement." Then the angel left her.

Mary Stays With Elizabeth

[39]At that time Mary got up and went with speed to the hill country, to a town of Judah, [40]where she entered the house of Zechariah, and greeted Elizabeth. [41]And it came about that when Elizabeth heard Mary's greeting, the baby in her womb did leap, and Elizabeth was filled with the Holy Spirit. [42]And she shouted out in a loud voice, saying, "Blessed are you among women, and blessed is the fruit of your womb! [43]And why does it come to me, that to me the mother of my Lord should come? [44]For when the sound of your greeting came into my ears, the baby in my womb did leap in exultation. [45]Blessed is she who believed that there will be a completion of the things announced to her from the Lord!"

Mary's Song

[46]And Mary said:

"My soul does magnify the Lord,
[47]and my spirit did rejoice
in God my Savior,
[48]because he looked toward the lowly station of his servant.
So behold: all generations after now will consider me blessed,
[49]because the Mighty One did great things for me.
And holy will be his name,
[50]and his mercy
to those who fear him,
into age after age.
[51]Power he wrought with his arm.
He scattered those who were proud in the thoughts of their heart.

---

229 "I am not knowing a man," with the verb for know in the continuous aspect, is a euphemism meaning, "I am not being intimate- having sex with a man, now or in the near future."

230 The one to be born would already have been called holy, in that it would be a firstborn male; see Exodus 13:2, 14-16.

[52]He pulled down rulers from their thrones
and lifted high the humble.
[53]Hungry ones he filled up with good things and rich ones he sent away empty.
[54]He helped his servant Israel, and remembered about mercy
[55]'to Abraham and his seed for ever,'
as he said to our fathers."

[56]Mary remained with her about three months, and then returned to her home.

The Birth of John the Baptizer

[57]And the time was fulfilled for Elizabeth to give birth, and she produced a son. [58]Her neighbors and relatives heard that the Lord had magnified his mercy to her, and they rejoiced with her.

[59]And it came about that on the eighth day, they came to circumcise the child, and they were about to call him by the name of his father, Zechariah, [60]and his mother responded and said, "No! He shall be called John."

[61]And they said to her, "There is no one among your relatives called by that name."

[62]Then they signaled to his father, to find out what he wanted him to be called. [63]And he asked for a tablet, and wrote as follows, "His name is John." Everyone was surprised. [64]And immediately his mouth was opened, and also his tongue, and he spoke, blessing God.

[65]An awe came over everyone who lived around them, and all through the hill country of Judea these things were being discussed. [66]And everyone who heard, kept thinking about it, saying, "What then will this child be?" And the hand of the Lord was with him.

Zechariah's Song

[67]And his father Zechariah was filled with the Holy Spirit, and he prophesied, saying:

[68]"Blessed be the Lord,
the God of Israel,
because he has turned to concern himself and has accomplished redemption for his people.
[69]He has raised up a horn of salvation for us in the house of David his servant
[70]as he has said through the mouths of his holy prophets who have been since eons ago,
[71]salvation from our enemies and from the hand of all who hate us—[72]to demonstrate mercy to our fathers to remember his holy covenant,
[73]the oath he swore to our father Abraham:
[74]to give us rescue from the hand of our enemies,
that we may serve him without fear
[75]in holiness and righteousness before him all the days of our lives.
[76]And you, child, will be called a prophet of the Most High; for you will go on before the face of the Lord to prepare his paths, 77 to give his people the knowledge of salvation through the forgiveness of their sins,

78 because of the tender feelings of our God with which the Sunrise from on high has looked over us
79 to appear to those sitting in darkness and in the shadow of death, to guide our feet along the path of peace."

80 And the child grew and became strong in spirit; and he was in the deserts, until the days of his being presented to Israel.

Chapter 2

The Birth of Jesus

1 And it came about in those days, that a decree went out from Caesar Augustus, that all the inhabited earth should be registered.[231] 2 This was the first registration that took place while Quirinius was governor of Syria. 3 And all were making their way to be registered, each to his own town.

4 Thus Joseph also went up, from the town of Nazareth in Galilee, to Judea, to the town of David, which is called Bethlehem, because he was from the house and line of David; 5 to be registered along with Mary, the one pledged to be his wife, who was pregnant. 6 And it came about that while they were there, the days for her to give birth were completed, 7 and she bore her firstborn son. And she swaddled him and placed him in a feeding trough, because there was no room for them in the inn.

The Shepherds and the Angels

8 And there were shepherds in that same region, camping out in the fields, keeping watch over their flocks by night. 9 And lo, an angel of the Lord came upon them, and the glory of the Lord shone all around them, and they were terrified. 10 And the angel said to them, "Fear not. For behold, I am announcing to you a great joy that will be with all the people. 11 Because for you is born this day, in the town of David, a Savior, who is Messiah the Lord. 12 And this will be a sign to you: you will find a baby swaddled, lying in a feeding trough."

13 And suddenly, there was with the angel a great company of the army of heaven, praising God and saying, 14 "Glory to God in the highest realms! And on earth peace, good will toward men!"

15 And it came about that when the angels had departed from them into heaven, that the shepherds said to one another, "Let us go over to Bethlehem and see this thing that has happened, which the Lord has made known to us."

16 And they went speeding, and found both Mary and Joseph, and the baby lying in the feeding trough. 17 And once they had seen, they gave an exact report of the message spoken to them concerning this child. 18 And all who heard it were amazed at what the shepherds said to them. 19 As for Mary, she memorized these words, and pondered them in her heart. 20 And the shepherds returned, glorifying

231 The whole inhabited earth... This is hype, commonly used in order to magnify the emperors. The meaning is the whole empire. The registration here is the recording of the names for the purpose of adding everyone to the tax rolls. The phrase could also be translated that a census should be taken of all the inhabited earth. The tax is a poll tax, or head tax, or a capitation, as forbidden in the constitution for the U.S.A. This was a form of tribute forced upon the conquered by the conqueror.

and praising God, because of the fact that all the things which they had heard and seen, were just as it had been told them.

Jesus Presented in the Temple

[21]And when the eighth day had arrived, the time to circumcise the child, he was called the name Jesus, the name called by the angel before he was conceived in the womb.

[22]And when the days of her cleansing according to the Law of Moses[232] had been completed, they took him up to Jerusalem to present him to the Lord, [23]as it is written in the Law of the Lord, "Every male to open a womb[233] shall be called holy to the Lord,"[234] [24]and to offer a sacrifice, in keeping with what is said in the Law of the Lord: "a pair of doves or two young pigeons."[235]

[25]And behold, a man was in Jerusalem whose name was Simeon. This man was righteous and devout, waiting for the consolation of Israel, and the Holy Spirit was upon him. [26]It had been communicated to him by the Holy Spirit, that he would not see death before he had seen the Lord's Anointed. [27]And he came by the Spirit into the temple, at the same time that the parents of the child Jesus brought him to do for him what the custom of the Law required. [28]And Simeon took him into his arms and blessed God, and said:

[29]"Now, Master, keeping your word,
you are dismissing your slave in peace.
[30]For my eyes have seen your salvation,
[31]which you have prepared in the sight of all the peoples;
[32]a light to be a revelation for the Gentiles, and the glory of your people Israel."

[33]And Joseph and his mother were marveling at the things being said about him. [34]And Simeon blessed them, and said to Mary, his mother: "Behold, this one is being laid down to cause the stumbling or rising of many in Israel, and to be a sign that will be continually denounced— [35]yes a sword will be run through your own soul too— so that the thoughts of many hearts will be revealed."

[36]And there was also a prophetess, Anna, daughter of Penuel, of the tribe of Asher. This woman had grown to be very old, having lived with a husband for seven years after her virginity, [37]and being a widow of about eighty-four years of age, she hardly departed from the temple, but served night and day, in fasting and praying. [38]And coming up at that very time, she gave thanks to the Lord, and spoke about the child to all those expecting redemption in Jerusalem.

[39]And when they had completed everything required by the Law of the Lord, they returned to their own town of Nazareth. [40]And the child grew and became strong in spirit; he was filled with wisdom, and the grace of God was upon him.

The Boy Jesus at the Temple

[41]Now his parents would go every year to Jerusalem for the festival of Passover. [42]And when he turned twelve years old, they went up to Jerusalem, according to the custom of the Festival. [43]And when the days were completed and they were returning home, the boy Jesus remained in Jerusalem, and Joseph was not aware of it, neither his mother. [44]Thinking he was in their company, they went a day's journey, and then began looking for him among their relatives and acquaintances.

232 Leviticus 12:1-8

233 Or, "every male to inaugurate a womb," or "every offspring first to open a womb, if it is male."

234 Exodus 13:2,12-16

235 Leviticus 12:8

[45]And when they did not find him, they went back to Jerusalem to look for him. [46]And it came about that after three days they found him, sitting in the temple, in the midst of the teachers, both listening to them and questioning them. [47]And all those who heard him were amazed at the understanding of his responses. [48]And when his parents saw him, they were stunned. His mother said to him, "Son, why have you treated us this way? Look at how distressed your father and I are, searching for you."

[49]And he said to them, "Why would you be searching for me? Shouldn't you have known that I would have to be among my Father's things?" [50]But they did not understand what he said to them.

[51]Then he went down with them and arrived in Nazareth, and continued to subordinate himself to them. But his mother was recording all these words in her heart.[236] [52]And Jesus kept growing in wisdom and stature, and in favor with God and with people.

Chapter 3

John the Baptizer Prepares the Way

[1]In the fifteenth year of the reign of Tiberius Caesar, with Pontius Pilate governor of Judea, and Herod as tetrarch[237] of Galilee, his brother Philip tetrarch of Iturea and Trachonitis, and Lysanias as tetrarch of Abilene, [2]during the high priesthood of Hananiah and Kayafa, the word of God came upon John the son of Zechariah in the desert. [3]And he appeared, in all the areas around the Jordan, proclaiming a baptism of repentance for forgiveness of sins, [4]as it is written in the scroll of the words of Isaiah the prophet:

"The voice of one calling in the desert,
'Prepare the way for the Lord,
make the paths straight for him.
[5]Every valley shall be filled up, every mountain and hill laid low.
The crooked places shall be made straight,
the rough ways smooth.
[6]And all flesh shall see the salvation of God.'[238]"

[7]So John would say to the crowds coming out to be baptized by him, "You spawn of snakes! Who warned you to flee from the coming wrath? [8]Then produce fruit characteristic of repentance. And do not begin to say to yourselves, 'We have Abraham as our father.' For I tell you that God can raise up children for Abraham from these stones. [9]Even now the axe is poised at the root of the trees, and every tree that does not produce good fruit will be cut down and thrown into the fire."

[10]And the crowds would ask him, "What should we do then?"

[11]And in answer he would say to them, "The person who has two tunics should give away to the one who has none, and the person who has foodstuffs should do the same."

[12]Revenue agents also came to be baptized, and they asked him, "Teacher, what should we do?"

[13]He said to them, "Collect nothing in excess, beyond what is prescribed for you."

---

236 Compare Genesis 37:11.

237 From the Greek tetra, four, and arche, to rule. As a monarch is a one and only ruler of a realm, in the same way a tetrarch is a ruler of one fourth of a realm. (Which implies that there must exist three other one-fourth divisions of the realm.)

238 Isaiah 40:3-5a

[14]Some soldiers were also questioning him, saying, "And us, what should we do?"

And he said to them, "You should no longer shake down anyone, nor frame anyone, always staying content with your pay."

[15]And all the people were waiting expectantly, wondering in their hearts if John might possibly be the Anointed One.

[16]John responded speaking to everyone, "I baptize you in water, but one who is more powerful than I is coming, the thongs of whose sandals I am not worthy to untie. He will baptize you in the Holy Spirit and in fire: [17]his winnowing fork is in his hand, and he will clear out his threshing floor, and gather the wheat into the barn. But the chaff he will burn up in unquenchable fire."

[18]And with many and varied other exhortations John was preaching the good news to the people.

[19]But when Herod the Tetrarch was rebuked by him, regarding Herodias his brother's wife, and all the other evil things he had done, [20]Herod piled this on top of them all: he shut John up in prison.

The Baptism of Jesus

[21]When all the people were being baptized, Jesus was baptized too. And as he was praying, the heavens were torn open, [22]and the Holy Spirit descended on him in the bodily form of a dove. And a voice came from heaven, saying, "You are my Son, whom I love; with you I am well pleased."

The Genealogy of Jesus

[23]And this Jesus, being about thirty years old, was the son, so it was thought, of Joseph, the son[239] of Eili, [24]the son of Matthat,

the son of Levi, the son of Melki,
the son of Yanna, the son of Joseph,
[25]the son of Mattathias, the son of Amos,
the son of Nahum, the son of Esli,
the son of Naggai, [26]the son of Maath,
the son of Mattathias, the son of Semei,
the son of Joseph, the son of Joda,
[27]the son of John, the son of Rhesa,
the son of Zerubbabel, the son of Shealtiel,
the son of Neri, [28]the son of Melki,
the son of Addi, the son of Cosam,
the son of Elmodam, the son of Er,
[29]the son of Joshua, the son of Eliezer, the son of Jorim, the son of Matthat,
the son of Levi, [30]the son of Simeon,
the son of Judah, the son of Joseph,

---

[239] 3:23b Probably, son-in-law of Eili. (In Hebrew this name Eili starts with the consonant Ayin, a gutteral stop. The NA27/UBS Greek text and the 1550 Textus Receptus have it spelled Eili, but the Hodges & Farstad "Majority Text" has a Greek rough breathing mark in front, so spelled "Heli.") In that culture, the word "son" was used more broadly. Ben Crick of England has a good commentary on this, as follows: "The genealogies in Matthew 1 and Luke 3 are both ostensibly of Joseph, not of Mary. But whereas Matt. 1:16 gives Jacob as the father of Joseph, Luke 3:23 states that Joseph was the son of Heli. How do we explain this? We know that Mary had a sister (John 19:25), but nowhere is a brother mentioned. So if Heli had no son, his inheritance would pass to his nearest male relative, in this case his son-in-law (Numbers 27:1-11), provided he was of the same tribe (Numbers 36:1-9). Therefore we should read in Luke 3:23 that Joseph was son-in-law of Heli. So Heli was Mary's father, and Mary was descended from David. Gabriel's words to Mary, "the Lord God shall give unto Him the throne of His father David," (Luke 1:32) confirm this.

the son of Jonan, the son of Eliakim,
[31]the son of Melea, the son of Menan, the son of Mattatha, the son of Nathan,
the son of David, [32]the son of Jesse,
the son of Obed, the son of Boaz,
the son of Salmon, the son of Nahshon,
[33]the son of Amminadab, the son of Aram,
the son of Hezron, the son of Perez,
the son of Judah, [34]the son of Jacob,
the son of Isaac, the son of Abraham,
the son of Terah, the son of Nahor, [35]the son of Saruch, the son of Reu,
the son of Peleg, the son of Eber, the son of Shelah, [36]the son of Cainan,
the son of Arphaxad, the son of Shem,
the son of Noah, the son of Lamech, [37]the son of Methuselah, the son of Enoch,
the son of Jared, the son of Mahalaleel,
the son of Cainan, [38]the son of Enos,
the son of Seth, the son of Adam,
the son of God.

Chapter 4

The Temptation of Jesus

[1]Jesus, full of the Holy Spirit, returned from the Jordan, and was led by the Spirit into the desert, [2]being tempted forty days by the devil. And he ate nothing during those days, and afterward at the end of them he was hungry.

[3]And the devil said to him, "If you are the Son of God, speak to this stone, that it become a loaf of bread."

[4]And Jesus responded to him by saying "It is written, 'A human being shall not live on bread alone, but on every word of God.'"

[5]Then leading him up into a high mountain, the devil showed him all the kingdoms of the inhabited earth, in a moment of time. [6]And he said to Jesus, "All this authority and their glory I will give to you, for it has been handed over to me, and I give it to whomever I wish. [7]Now then, if you worship in front of me, it will all be yours."

[8]In answer Jesus said to him, "You get behind me, Satan. For it is written: 'You shall worship Yehovah your God, and him only shall you serve.'[240]"

[9]Then the devil led him into Jerusalem, and had him stand on the gable of the temple. And he said to him, "If you are the Son of God, throw yourself down from here. [10]For it is written:

'He will command his angels
concerning you
to guard you carefully,
[11]and they will bear you up in their hands, so you will not strike your foot against a stone.'[241]"

[12]Jesus answered and said to him, "It says: 'You shall not test Yehovah your God.'[242]"

[13]And having carried out every sort of temptation, the devil left him until an opportune time.

Jesus Begins to Preach

[14]And Jesus returned to Galilee in the power of the Spirit, and a rumor about him spread throughout the whole region. [15]And he taught in their synagogues, being praised by everyone.

Jesus Rejected at Nazareth

[16]And he came to Nazareth, where he had been brought up, and went into the synagogue on the Sabbath day, as was his custom. And he stood up to read. [17]And the scroll of the prophet Isaiah was handed to him. Unrolling the scroll, he found the place where it is written:

> [18]"The Spirit of Yehovah is upon me, > because he has anointed me;
> He has sent me
> to heal the broken-hearted;
> to preach good news to the poor;
> to announce release for the prisoners > and sight for the blind;
> to send off the crushed into liberty;
> [19]to proclaim the year > of Yehovah's favor..."

[20]And having closed the scroll, he gave it back to the attendant and sat down. The eyes of everyone in the synagogue were fastened on him. [21]And he began to speak to them: "Today this scripture is fulfilled in your hearing."

[22]All were speaking well of him and amazed at the gracious words coming from his mouth. And they were saying, "Isn't this Joseph's son?"

[23]And he said to them, "No doubt you will quote to me this proverb: 'Physician, heal yourself! The things we heard were happening in Capernaum, do here in your home town.'"

[24]And he said, "Truly I tell you, no prophet is accepted in his home town. [25]I tell you, in Elijah's days, during the three years and six months that the sky was shut and there was a great famine covering the whole land, it is a fact that there were plenty of widows in Israel. [26]Yet it was not to any of them that Elijah was sent, but to Zarephath in the country of Sidon, to a widow woman there. [27]Again, in the case of Elisha the prophet, there were plenty of lepers in Israel, and not one of them was cleansed; only Naaman the Syrian."

[28]And all the people in the synagogue were furious when they heard these things. [29]They got up and drove him outside the town, intending to throw him down the cliff. [30]But he walked right through them, and went on his way.

Jesus' Teaching Has Authority

[31]And he went down to Capernaum, a town in Galilee, and on the Sabbath began to teach them. [32]And they were amazed at his teaching, because his word was authoritative.

[33]And in the synagogue was a man who had a demon, an unclean spirit. He shouted out with a very loud voice, [34]"Ha! What business do you have with us, Jesus, you Nazarene? Have you come to destroy us? I know who you are— the Holy One of God!"

[35]And Jesus rebuked him, saying, "Be quiet and come out of him!" And the demon threw him down before them all and came out of him, doing him no damage.

[36]And astonishment overwhelmed them all, and they spoke to each other, saying, "What is this message, that with authority and power he commands unclean spirits, and they come out?" [37]And a rumor went out about him into every place in that region.

Jesus Heals All in Capernaum

[38]And rising up out of the synagogue, he went into the home of Simon. And Simon's mother-in-law was suffering a high fever, and they asked him about her. [39]So he stood over her and rebuked the fever, and it left her. And she got up at once, and proceeded to wait on them.

[40]And as the sun was setting, everyone who had anyone ill with various kinds of sickness brought them to him, and laying his hands on each one of them, he healed them. [41]Moreover, demons were coming out from many, shouting and saying, "You are the Anointed One, the Son of God!" And he would rebuke them, not allowing them to speak, because they knew him to be the Messiah.

Jesus Keeps Moving

[42]And when day came, he left and went off to a solitary place. And the crowds were searching for him, and they came up to him and detained him from leaving them. [43]But he said to them, "I must preach the kingdom of God to the other towns also, because for that reason I have been sent." [44]And he kept on preaching in the synagogues of Galilee.

Chapter 5

The Calling of Simon, andrew, James, and John

[1]And it came about that as he was standing by the Lake of Gennesaret, with the crowd pressing urgently around him and listening to the word of God, [2]he saw two boats standing idle by the lake; the fishers had gotten out of them to wash the nets. [3]And getting on board one of the boats, which was Simon's, he asked him to put out a little from shore. And sitting down, he taught the people from the boat.

[4]And when he had finished speaking, he said to Simon, "Put out into the deep, and let down your nets for a catch."

[5]And in response Simon said to him, "Master, working hard through the whole night we took nothing. But on the basis of your word, I will let down the net."

[6]And when they had done so, they had enclosed a great number of fish, and their net was beginning to tear. [7]So they signaled to their partners, those in the other boat, to come and help them, and they came, and they filled both the boats, such that they began to sink.

[8]And when Simon Peter saw this, he fell at Jesus' knees and said, "Go away from me Lord; I am a sinful man!" [9]For astonishment had seized him and all those with him, at the catch of fish that they had taken, and likewise also James and John the sons of Zebedee, who were partners with Simon.

[10]But Jesus said to Simon, "Don't be afraid. From now on you will be catching human beings." [11]And when they had pulled the boats to shore, they gave it all up and followed him.

A Leper Healed Spreads the Word

[12]And it came about that he was in one of the towns, and behold, a man covered with leprosy.[243] And when he saw Jesus, he fell on his face and begged him, saying, "Lord, if you are willing, you can cleanse me."

[13]And reaching out his hand, he touched him, saying, "I am willing. Be cleansed." And immediately the leprosy left him.

[14]And he ordered him to tell no one, but "Go, show yourself to the priest, and offer for your cleansing what Moses commanded, as a testimony to them."

---

[243] The Greek word was used for various diseases of the skin— not necessarily leprosy.

[15]But word about him was spreading all the more, and many crowds would walk alongside to listen, and to be healed by him of their sicknesses. [16]And he would take retreat in deserted places, and pray.

The Paralytic Lowered Through the Roof

[17]And it came about during one of the days that, as he was teaching, Pharisees and teachers of the Torah also were sitting there, who had come from every village of Galilee and from Judea and Jerusalem. And the power of the Lord was present to heal them.

[18]And behold, men carrying on a pallet a man who was paralyzed. And they were trying to carry him in, to lay him before him. [19]And not finding a way to carry in because of the crowd, they went up onto the roof, and lowered him with his bed down through the tiles, into the middle, in front of Jesus.

[20]And when Jesus saw their faith, he said to him, "Friend, your sins are forgiven you."

[21]And the Torah scholars and Pharisees began to reason as follows: "Who is this fellow who speaks blasphemy! Who can forgive sins but God alone?"

[22]But knowing their reasonings, Jesus in response said to them, "Why are you debating this in your hearts? [23]Which is easier: to say 'Your sins are forgiven you,' or to say, 'Get up and walk'? [24]But so that you may know that the Son of Man has authority on earth to forgive sins..." He said to the paralyzed man, "I tell you, get up, pick up your mat and be on your way home." [25]And immediately he stood up, in full view of them, and taking up that upon which he had been lying, he went away toward home, praising God. [26]Everyone was stunned with amazement. And they glorified God, and were filled with awe, saying, "We have seen remarkable things today."

A Revenue Agent Joins Jesus

[27]And after these things he went out, and he saw a revenue agent by the name of Levi, sitting at the taxes post, and he said to him, "Follow me." [28]And he rose up and followed him, giving it all up.

[29]Then Levi held a great banquet for him at his house. And there was also a large crowd of revenue agents and others who were reclining with him. [30]And their Torah scholars and the Pharisees grumbled to his disciples, saying, "Why do you eat and drink with revenue agents and sinners?"

[31]And Jesus responded and said to them, "It is not the healthy who need a doctor, but those who are sick. [32]I have not come to call the righteous, but sinners to repentance."

Jesus Questioned About Fasting

[33]They then said to him, "Why is it the disciples of John are often fasting and making prayers, and likewise those of the Pharisees, but yours go on eating and drinking."

[34]And he said to them, "Can you make the members of the bridegroom's party fast during days in which the bridegroom is with them? [35]But the days will come. Yes, when the bridegroom is taken away from them, then in those days they will fast."

[36]And he also spoke a parable to them: "No one puts a patch from a new garment onto an old garment. For then, not only is the new getting torn, but the patch from the new does not match the old. [37]And no one puts new wine in old wineskins. For then, the new wine will burst the wineskins, and it will be spilled, and the wineskins will be ruined. [38]On the contrary, new wine must be put in new wineskins, and then both are preserved. [39]And no one, right after drinking old wine wants the new, for he says, 'The old is better.' "

Chapter 6

Man Over the Sabbath

[1]And he happened during the second high Sabbath to be passing through grainfields, and his disciples were plucking and eating the heads, rubbing them in their hands.[244] [2]But some of the Pharisees said to them, "Why are you doing what on a Sabbath is not permissible to do?"[245]

[3]And in answer to them Jesus said, "Have you never read what David did when he and those with him were hungry? [4]How he went into the house of God, and took the loaves of offering and ate, and gave also to the ones with him, which was not permissible to eat, except for the priests only?"

[5]Then he said to them, "The Son of Man is lord also of the Sabbath."

[6]And it came about that on another Sabbath also, he went into the synagogue and was teaching, and a man was there whose right hand was shriveled. [7]And the Torah scholars and the Pharisees were carefully watching him, whether he would heal on the Sabbath, in order to find a charge against him. [8]But he knew their reasoning, and said to the man with the shriveled hand, "Get up and stand in view." And he got up and stood.

[9]Then Jesus said to them, "I ask you, which is permissible on the Sabbath days: to do good or to do evil, to save life or destroy it?"

[10]And looking around at them all, he said to the man, "Stretch out your hand." He did so, and his hand was restored, as sound as the other. [11]And they were filled with rage, and discussed with each other what they should do to Jesus.

The Twelve Apostles

[12]And it came about in those days that he went out into the hills to pray, and spent the whole night praying to God. [13]And when it was day, he called his disciples to him, and from them he selected twelve, whom he then designated apostles: [14]Simon, whom he also named Peter, and his brother Andrew; James and John; Philip and Bartholomew; [15]Matthew and Thomas; James the son of Alphaeus and Simon the Zealot; [16]and Judas son[246] of James; and Judas of Kerioth, who also became a betrayer.

Blessings and Woes

[17]And when he came down, he stopped at a level place with them and with a crowd of his disciples, and with a great multitude of the people from all of Judea and Jerusalem, and from the coastal areas of Tyre and Sidon who had come to hear him and to be healed of their diseases. [18]And those oppressed by unclean spirits were being cured as well. [19]And the entire crowd was trying to touch him, because power was going out from him, and curing everyone.

[20]And he lifted his eyes toward his disciples, and began to speak:

"Blessed are you who are poor,
for yours is the kingdom of God.
[21]Blessed are you who go hungry now, for you will be satisfied.

[244] This was the allowable practice of "plucking the heads," see Deuteronomy 23:24, 25, "If you enter your neighbor's vineyard, you may eat grapes until you are fully satisfied, but do not put any in a container. If you enter your neighbor's grainfield, you may pluck the heads with your hands, but you must not put a sickle to your neighbor's standing grain."

[245] The Greek word translated "permissible" is the impersonal participle ἐξεστιν, which is derived from the same root as ἐξουσία, the word for authority. If an activity was ἐξεστιν, that means it was "loosed," or ruled by the rabbis to be something "allowed" by the Torah. If something was not ἐξεστιν, as is the case here, that means it was "bound," that is, the rabbis had adjudged that it was forbidden by the Torah.

[246] Or brother

Blessed are you who weep now, for you will laugh.
[22]Blessed are you
when people hate you, excommunicate you and shame you and cast out your name as evil, because of the Son of Man.

[23]"Rejoice in that day, and skip for joy! For behold, great is your reward in heaven, for those things their ancestors likewise did to the prophets.

[24]"But woe to you who are rich, because you have received your comfort.
[25]Woe to you who are well fed now,
for you will go hungry.
Woe to you who laugh now,
for you will mourn and weep.
[26]Woe to you when all people speak well of you,
for those things their ancestors did likewise to the false prophets.

Love Your Enemies

[27]"But I say to you who are listening, love your enemies, treat well the ones hating you, [28]bless the ones cursing you, and pray for the ones insulting you. [29]To the one striking you on the cheek, offer the other cheek also. And the person taking your jacket, do not prevent him from taking your shirt as well. [30]And to everyone asking you, give, and from the one forcefully taking your things, do not demand them back. [31]And just as you wish people would do to you, do the same also to them.

[32]"And if you love the ones loving you, what credit is that to you? For the sinners also love the ones loving them. [33]And if you do good to the ones doing good to you, what credit is that to you? For the sinners also do the same. [34]And if you lend to the ones from whom you foresee repayment, what credit is that to you? For sinners also lend to sinners, in such a way they may receive the equal back. [35]But love your enemies, and do good and lend, expecting nothing, and great will be your reward, and you will be children of the Most High, for he is kind to the unthankful and evil. [36]Be compassionate therefore, as your Father also is compassionate.[247]

The Law of Reciprocity

[37]"Do not judge, and you will not be judged. Do not condemn, and you will not be condemned. Forgive, and you will be forgiven.

[38]"Give, and it will be given to you. A generous container, and compacted, and shaken and running over, they will hand into your arms. For with the same standard you measure out, it will be measured back to you."

Correcting Others

[39]He then spoke a parable to them: "Can a blind person lead a blind person? Will they not both fall into a ditch? [40]A student is not above his teacher, but rather, every student when fully trained will be like his teacher.

[41]"Why do you look at the speck in your brother's eye, but the log that is in your own eye you do not consider? [42]Or how are you able to say to your brother,

[247] Exodus 34:6-7; Psalm 103:8-14; Joel 2:13; Jonah 4:10-11

'Brother, allow me to take out the speck that is in your eye,' while you are not seeing the log that is in your own eye? You hypocrite, first get the log out of your own eye, and then you will see clearly to remove the speck that is in your brother's eye.

A Tree and its Fruit

43"Now there is no good tree producing bad fruit, nor a bad tree producing good fruit. 44For each tree is known by its own fruit. For they do not gather figs from thornbushes, neither do they pick a grape from a brier.

45"The good person, out of the good stockpile of his heart, brings forth good, and the evil person out of the evil stockpile of his heart, brings forth evil. For out of the abundance of the heart one's mouth speaks.

The Two Kinds of Builders

46"And why do you keep calling me 'Lord, Lord,' and yet not do the things which I say? 47Anyone who comes to me and hears my words and does them, I will show you what that person is like. 48That person is like a man building a house, who dug and deepened and laid a foundation on the rock. And when a flood occurred, the river dashed against that house, but was not able to shake it, because it was founded firmly on the rock.

49"But the one who has heard them and not done them, is like a man who built a house on the ground without a foundation, against which dashed the river, and very soon it fell down, and the destruction of that house was great."

Chapter 7

One Centurion's Faith with Authority

1When he had finished all his sayings in the ears of the people, he entered Capernaum. 2And the slave of a certain centurion, who was very valuable to him, was sick and about to die. 3And having heard about Jesus, he sent elders of the Jews to him, asking him to come and heal his slave. 4So when they came to Jesus, they were pleading earnestly with him, saying, "He is worthy that you confer this upon him, 5for he loves our nation, and he built us the synagogue."

6So Jesus went with them. And when he was not far from the house, the centurion sent friends to him saying to him as follows: "Lord, don't trouble yourself, for I am not fit that you should enter under my roof. 7So also neither did I consider myself worthy to come to you. But say it with a word, and my slave will be healed. 8For I too am a man stationed under authority, having soldiers under myself. And I say to this one, 'Go,' and he goes; and to another, 'Come,' and he comes; and to my slave, 'Do this,' and he does."

9And when Jesus heard these words, he was amazed at him, and turning to the crowd following him, he said, "I tell you, not in Israel have I found such faith."

10And when the ones who had been sent returned to the house, they found the ailing slave was well.

Jesus Raises a Dead Man at Nain

11And it came about that on the next day he was going into a town called Nain, and many of his disciples and a large crowd were going along with him. 12And as he approached the town gate, behold, a dead person was being carried out, the only son of his mother, and she was a widow. And a considerable crowd from the town was with her. 13When he saw her, the Lord was moved with pity for her, and he said to her, "Don't cry."

14And he went up to the coffin and touched it, and the pallbearers stood still. And he said, "Young man, I say to you, rise up!" 15And the dead man sat up and began to speak. And he gave him back to his mother.

16And fear took hold of all, and they praised God, saying, "A great prophet has been raised up among us," and, "God has come to help his people." 17And this news about him spread throughout the land of the Jews and in the surrounding country.

Jesus and John the Baptizer

[18]And John's disciples reported to him about all these things. And after calling two of his disciples to him, John [19]sent word to Jesus, as follows: "Are you the one who was to come, or should we expect another?"

[20]And when they had come to him, the men said, "John the Baptizer sent us to you saying, 'Are you the one who was to come, or should we expect another?'"

[21]Now in that same hour he healed many people of diseases and sicknesses and evil spirits, and gave sight to many who were blind. [22]And in answer, Jesus said to them, "Go and report back to John what things you saw and heard: The blind see again, the lame walk, the lepers are cleansed, the deaf hear, the dead are raised, and good news is preached to the poor. [23]And tell him, 'Blessed be whoever is not offended on account of me.' "

[24]And as John's messengers were leaving, he began to speak to the crowd about John: "What have you gone out into the desert to see? A reed being swayed to and fro by the wind? [25]On the contrary, what have you gone out to see? A man dressed in delicate clothes? Behold, those in expensive clothes and living in luxury are in royal palaces. [26]On the contrary, what have you gone out to see? A prophet? Yes indeed I tell you, and more than a prophet. [27]This is the one about whom it is written:

'Behold, I am sending my messenger
before your face,
who will prepare your way
before you.'[248]

[28]For I tell you, among those born of women, no prophet is greater than John the Baptizer. Yet the one who is least in the kingdom of God is greater than he."

[29](And all the people who heard, even the revenue agents, vindicated God, having been baptized with the baptism of John. [30]But the Pharisees and the lawyers, not baptized by him, rejected the purpose of God for themselves.)

[31]And the Lord said, "To what, then, shall I compare the people of this generation? And what are they like? [32]They are like children sitting in the marketplace and calling out to one another and saying:

'We played the flute for you,
and you didn't dance;
we sang a dirge to you,
and you didn't cry.'

[33]For John the Baptizer came neither eating bread nor drinking wine, and you say, 'He has a demon.' [34]The Son of Man came eating and drinking, and you say, 'Behold a glutton and a drunkard, a friend of revenue agents and sinners.' [35]Regardless, wisdom is vindicated by all her children."[249]

---

[248] This quote appears to be a blend of Exodus 23:20 and Malachi 3:1.

[249] Greek: TEKNWN; perhaps a misunderstanding of the Aramaic for "works." Which would make sense: emphasis on ALL. You have to look at ALL the works of a person, not judge on superficial things like eating and drinking, which in fact Paul says in Romans 14:17, but of righteousness, peace, and joy in the Holy Spirit.

A Prostitute Washes Jesus' Feet with her Tears

[36]But one of the Pharisees asked him to eat with him, and he went to the Pharisee's house and reclined.[250] [37]And behold, a woman who was being a sinner in that town came, who having learned that he is reclining at the Pharisee's house, had brought an alabaster bottle of perfume, [38]and appeared behind Jesus, weeping at his feet. And with the tears she began to bathe his feet. And with the hairs of her head she was wiping off, and earnestly kissing his feet, and anointing them with the perfume.

[39]When the Pharisee who had invited him saw this, he thought to himself as follows, "If this man were a prophet, he would know who and of what sort is the woman touching him— that she is a sinner."

[40]And Jesus spoke up, and said to him, "Simon, I have something to tell you."

And he says, "Tell me, teacher."

[41]"Two men were debtors to a certain moneylender. One owed five hundred denarii,[251] and the other fifty. [42]And as they did not have the money to pay him back, he freely forgave them both. Now tell me, which of them will love him more?"

[43]And in answer Simon said, "I suppose the one whom he freely forgave more."

And he said to him, "You have judged correctly." [44]And turning toward the woman, he was saying to Simon, "Do you see this woman? Your house I entered. Water you did not give me for my feet, but this woman bathed my feet with her tears, and wiped them off with the hairs of her head. [45]A kiss you did not give me, but this woman, from the time I entered, has not stopped earnestly kissing my feet. [46]With oil you did not anoint my head, but this woman with perfume anointed my feet. [47]For which reason, I tell you, her many sins have been forgiven, that she loved much.[252] But someone who has been forgiven little, loves little."

[48]And he said to her, "Your sins are forgiven."

[49]And those reclining with him began to say to themselves, "Who is this who even forgives sins?"

[50]But he said to the woman, "Your faith has saved you. Go with peace."

Chapter 8

Jesus' Financiers

[1]And it came about after this that he traveled about through one city and village after another, proclaiming the good news of the kingdom of God. The Twelve were with him, [2]and also some women who had been cured of evil spirits and diseases: Mary, called the Magdalene,[253] from whom seven demons had come out; [3]and Joanna the wife of Kuza, the manager of Herod's household; and Susanna; plus many others; these women were providing for him out of their own means.

The Parable of the Sower

[4]And when a great crowd was coming together, people from every one of those towns coming toward him, he spoke by means of a parable: [5]"The sower went out to sow his seed. And in the process of sowing, some seed fell beside the row and was trampled on, and the birds of the sky devoured it. [6]And other seed fell on rock, and after it grew, it withered, having no way to get moisture. [7]And other seed fell in the midst of thorns, and the thorns grew up and choked it. [8]And other seed fell into good soil, and when grown it produced fruit a hundredfold."

---

250 In that time and culture, those eating a meal lay on a futon of sorts, on their sides and resting on an elbow, with their feet off the floor. That is how the woman could both stand behind him at his feet, and wipe his feet with her hair.

251 A denarius was a coin worth about a day's wages.

252 "Love covers a multitude of sins."

253 A Magdalene is someone who is from the town of Magdala.

After he said these things, he called out, "Whoever has ears to hear, hear."

The Parable of the Sower Explained

[9]And his disciples questioned him, saying, What is the intent of this parable?" [10]And he said, "To you it is given such that you will know the mysteries of the kingdom of God, but to the rest in parables, so that,

"'Though seeing, they will not see,
and though hearing,
they will not understand.'[254]

[11] "This, then, means the parable: The seed is the word of God. [12]And the ones beside the row are those who when they hear, next comes the devil, and takes away the word from their heart, so that they will not believe and be saved. [13]And the ones on the rock are those who when they hear, receive the word with joy. They are also ones who have no root, and believe for a time, and in the time of trial shrink back. [14]And the seed falling in the thorns, these are those who hear, and as they go, are choked by the worries and riches and pleasures of life, and do not bear fruit to the end. [15]And the seed in good soil, these are those who when they hear the word, retain it in a good and worthy heart, and bear fruit with perseverance.

[16]"Now no one after lighting a lamp covers it with a bucket, or puts it under a bed, but instead puts it on the lamp stand, so that those coming in may see the light. [17]For there is nothing hidden that will not be made manifest, nor secret, that will not become known, and come into illumination. [18]Watch therefore how you listen, for whoever has, it will be granted him, and whoever has not, even what he seems to have will be taken away from him."

Jesus' Mother and Brothers

[19]And his mother and brothers came to him, and were not able to get near him because of the crowd. [20]And it was reported to him as follows: "Your mother and brothers are standing outside, wanting to see you."

[21]But he in answer said to them, "These are my mother and brothers, the ones hearing the word of God and doing it."

Jesus Commands the Elements

[22]And it came about during one of those days when he and his disciples had gotten into a boat, that he said to them, "Let's cross over to the other side of the lake." And they put out to sea.

[23]And as they sailed, he fell asleep. And a storm of wind came down onto the lake, and they were being swamped, and in great danger.

[24]And after approaching him, they roused him, saying, "Master, we are going to die!"

And when he was awake, he rebuked the wind and the roughness of the water, and they stopped, and it was calm. [25]And he said to them, "Where is your faith?"

But they were amazed and fearful, saying to one another, "Who then is this? For he even commands the wind and the water, and they obey him!"

The Legion of Demons Near Gadara

[26]And they sailed down into the territory of the Gadarenes, which is opposite Galilee. [27]And as he was going on shore, a man from the town met him, who was demon-possessed, and had not put clothes on for quite some time, and who was living not in a house but in the tombs.

---

[254] Isaiah 6:9

[28]And when he had seen Jesus, and cried out, he fell down before him, and in a loud voice he said: "What business is there between you and me, O Jesus, you son of the Most High God? I beg you, do not torture me!"

[29]For Jesus was commanding the evil spirit to come out of the man. For many times it had possessed him, and he would be bound with chains and leg irons and guarded, but tearing the bonds apart, he would be driven by the demon into solitary places.

[30]And Jesus questioned him: "What is your name?"

And he said, "Legion."[255] For many demons had entered into him. [31]And they began to plead with him that he not order them to depart into the Abyss.

[32]And a considerable herd of pigs was feeding there on a hillside, and they were begging him that he allow them to enter into them, and he allowed them.

[33]So coming out from the man, the demons entered into the pigs, and the herd rushed down the steep bank into the lake, and drowned.

[34]And seeing what had happened, the herders fled, and went and reported it to the town and to the farms. [35]And they came out to see what had happened. And they came to Jesus, and found the man from whom the demons had gone out sitting at Jesus' feet, dressed, and in his right mind, and they were afraid. [36]Then the ones who had seen also reported to them how the demon-possessed man had been cured. [37]And all the population of the neighborhood of the Gadarenes asked him to go away from them, for they were overcome with great fear. So he got into the boat and turned back.

[38]But the man from whom the demons had gone out was begging to accompany him. But Jesus sent him away, saying, [39]"Return to your house, and recount all the things God has done for you." And he went, throughout the whole town, proclaiming what things Jesus had done for him.

A Dead Damsel and a Sick Woman

[40]And it came about that upon his return, a crowd was welcoming him, for they were all expecting him. [41]And behold, a man had come whose name was Jairus, and he was a synagogue ruler. And falling at Jesus' feet, he begged him to come to his house, [42]because he had an only daughter, about twelve years of age, and this girl was dying.

And as he was on his way, the crowds were pinching him in. [43]And a woman suffering a flow of blood for twelve years, who had spent everything she owned on doctors, and not been able to get cured by anyone, [44]came up behind and touched the tassel[256] of his cloak, and immediately her flow of blood stopped.

[45]And Jesus said, "Who was it touching me?"

When everyone denied it, Peter and those who were with him said, "Master, the crowds are pushing in together and jostling you, and you say 'Who touched me?' "

[46]But Jesus said, "Someone touched me, for I sensed power go out from me."

[47]Then the woman, seeing that she was not going unnoticed, came, trembling. And falling at his feet, she related to him before all the people the reason she had touched him, and how she had been instantly healed. [48]And he said to her, "Take heart, daughter, your faith has healed you. Go with peace."

[49]While he was still speaking, someone comes from the synagogue ruler's, telling him, "Your daughter has died. Do not trouble the teacher."

[50]But having heard, Jesus responded to him by saying, "Don't be afraid. Only believe, and she will be healed."

---

[255] Among the Romans a legion was a select body of soldiers— a complete army of cavalry and infantry, numbering from 4,200 to 6,000 men, usually with approximately an equal number of auxiliary troops, thus totaling about 10,000. The legion was divided into ten cohorts of 1,000 each. In this case, a more general meaning of the word legion probably applies: a very large number.

[256] See Numbers 15:38, Deut. 22:12

[51]And when he went into the house, he did not allow anyone to enter except Peter and James and John, and the father of the maiden and the mother. [52]And all were weeping and wailing for her. But he said, "Do not weep. She is not dead but sleeping." [53]And they laughed scornfully at him, knowing that she had died.

[54]Then, after throwing everyone outside, he held her hand, and called out as follows: "Damsel, wake up!" [55]And her spirit returned, and she stood up at once, and he ordered that she be given something to eat. [56]And her parents were astonished. Then he charged them not to tell anyone what had happened.

Chapter 9

Jesus Sends Out the Twelve

[1]And having called his Twelve disciples together, he gave them power and authority over all the demons and diseases, in order to heal. [2]And he sent them to proclaim the kingdom of God and to cure the sick, [3]and said to them: "Take nothing for the journey— neither staffs, nor knapsack, nor bread, nor silver, neither have two tunics each.

[4]"And into whatever house you might enter, there remain, and from there go forward. [5]And all the places that do not welcome you, go out from that town, and shake the dust off your feet, as a testimony against them."

[6]And going forth they went throughout all the villages, preaching the good news, and healing everywhere.

Herod Hears of Jesus

[7]Now Herod the tetrarch heard about all the things being done by him, and kept becoming perplexed, because it was said by some that John had been raised from the dead, [8]and by some that Elijah had appeared, and still others that a prophet, one of the Ancients, had come back to life.

[9]And Herod said, "John, I beheaded. Who, then, is this I hear such things about?" And he tried to see him.

Jesus Feeds the Five Thousand

[10]And when the apostles returned, they reported to him what things they had done. Then he took them, and retreated in private to a deserted place belonging to a town called Bethsaida. [11]But the crowds who knew, followed him. So, welcoming them, he spoke to them about the kingdom of God, and the ones having need of healing, he cured.

[12]But the daylight began to decline, and the twelve approached and said to him, "Dismiss the crowd, so they can go to the surrounding villages and farms to sleep and find supplies. Because here, we are in a remote place."

[13]And he said to them, "You give them something to eat."

But they said, "We have no more than five loaves and two fish, unless we were to go and buy food for all this crowd." [14]For there were about five thousand men.

And he said to his disciples, "Get them to recline in groups of fifty each." [15]And they did so, and got them all to recline. [16]And taking the loaves and the two fish, and looking up to heaven, he blessed them and broke them, and gave to the disciples to set before the people.

[17]And they all ate and were satisfied, and their leftovers picked up were twelve large baskets of fragments.

Peter's Confession of Messiah

[18]And it came about that, when he was praying in private, the disciples were with him, and he queried them, saying, "Who do the crowds maintain me to be?"

[19]And they in answer said, "John the Baptizer; and others, Elijah; and others that a prophet, one of the Ancients, has risen again."

[20]And he said to them, "But you, who do you maintain me to be?"
And Peter in answer said, "The Christ[257] of God."

Jesus Predicts His Death

[21]But he, admonishing them, charged them to tell this to no one, [22]saying, "The Son of Man must suffer many things and be rejected by the elders, the chief priests, and Torah scholars, and be killed, and on the third day be raised again."

[23]Then toward everyone he was saying, "If someone wants to come after me, he must deny himself, and take up his cross daily, and follow me. [24]For whoever wants to save his life will lose it; but whoever loses his life for my sake, this one will save it. [25]For how does it benefit a human being when he has gained the whole world, but has lost or been forfeited his very self? [26]For whoever is ashamed of me and of my words, that person the Son of Man will be ashamed of, when he comes in his glory, and of the Father, and of the holy angels. [27]But truly I say to you: There are some, of the ones standing here, who will certainly not taste death until they see the kingdom of God."

The Transfiguration

[28]And it came about, something like eight days after these words, that having taken Peter and John and James, he went up into the mountain, to pray. [29]And it came about that as he prayed, the appearance of his face was different, and his clothes were a glistening white. [30]And behold, two men were conversing with him, who were Moses and Elijah, [31]who, having been made visible in glory, were relating about the exodus[258] of him, which was soon to be coming true in Jerusalem.

[32]But Peter and the ones with him were heavy-eyed with sleepiness. But when they had fully woken up, they saw his glory, and the two men standing with him. [33]And it came about that as those were moving off from Jesus, Peter said to him, "O Master, it is good for us to be here, and we should make three shelters, one for you and one for Moses and one for Elijah." (Not knowing what he is saying.)

[34]And as he was saying these things, a cloud came, and it overshadowed them. And they were afraid as they went into the cloud. [35]And a voice came from the cloud, saying, "This is my beloved Son; listen to him." [36]And when the voice happened, they found Jesus alone. And they kept quiet and told no one in those days anything that they had seen.

The Disciples Accused of Impotence to Heal

[37]And it came about that during the following day, as they were coming down from the mountain, a large crowd met him. [38]And behold, a man in the crowd shouted out, saying, "Teacher, I beg of you to look at my son; because he is my only born, [39]and behold, a spirit takes over him and he suddenly cries out, and it convulses him with foaming at the mouth. And it hardly goes away from him, wearing him out. [40]And I pleaded with your disciples that they cast it out, and they were not able to."

[41]And in response Jesus said, "O unbelieving and perverted generation, how long must I be with you, and put up with you? Bring your son here."

[42]And even as he was approaching Him, the demon dashed him to the ground, and thrashed him back and forth. But Jesus rebuked the unclean spirit, and the child was restored to wholeness, and He gave him back to his father. [43]And all were struck by the majesty of God.

---

257 That is, the Anointed One of God, or God's anointed; the one God chose and enabled to be the Messiah, prophet, priest and king of Israel.

258 A euphemism for death, like our phrase, "passing on."

And while everyone marvelled at all that Jesus had done, he said to his disciples, [44]"You place into your ears these words. For the Son of Man is about to be transferred into the hands of human beings."

[45]But they were not understanding this statement, and the meaning was being kept hidden from them, with the result that they did not see it. And they were afraid to ask him about this statement.

Who Is the Greatest?

[46]So contention came into them, as to who of them was greatest.

[47]But Jesus, when he saw the contention of their hearts, took a child by the hand, and stood him next to himself. [48]And he said to them, "Whoever welcomes this child on the basis of my name, is welcoming me, and whoever welcomes me, is welcoming the one who sent me. For the person who is smallest among you all, that is who will be great."

Do Not Hinder Other Camps of God's People

[49]And in response, John said, "Master, we saw someone casting out demons in your name, and we stopped him; because he is not following you together with us."

[50]And Jesus said to him, "Do not stop such, for someone who is not against us is for us."

Jesus Rejected by a Samaritan Village

[51]And it came about that the days leading to his being taken up were running out, and he set his face to head toward Jerusalem. [52]And he sent out messengers before his face. And when they proceeded forth they went into a Samaritan village, so as to prepare it for him. [53]And they did not welcome him, because his face was heading toward Jerusalem.

[54]And when they saw this, his disciples James and John said, "Lord, do you will that we command fire to come down from heaven and consume them as also Elijah did?"

[55]But when he turned to them, he rebuked them, and said, “You do not know what spirit you are of. [56]For the Son of Man came not to destroy people’s lives, but to save them.” And they moved on, to a different village.

The Cost of Following Jesus

[57]And it came about that as they were proceeding on the way, someone said to him, "I will follow you, wherever you might go Lord."

[58]And Jesus said to him, "The foxes have dens, and the birds of the sky, nestling places, but the Son of Man has nowhere he can lay his head."

[59]And to another man, he said, "Follow me."

But he said, "Lord, give me leave to first go and bury my father."

[60]But Jesus said to him, "Leave those who are dead to bury their dead themselves; and you, after you have come away, you publicize the kingdom of God."

[61]And another also said, "I will follow you, Lord. But first give me leave to say farewell to my household."

[62]But Jesus said to him, "No one putting his hand to the plow and looking back to the things behind, is cut out for the kingdom of God."

Chapter 10

Jesus Sends Out the Seventy-Two

[1]And after these things, the Lord appointed another seventy, and sent them out two by two before his face, into every town and place where he himself was about to go. [2]Then he was saying to them, "The crop is large, but the workers are few. Request therefore of the lord of the harvest, that he send out workers into his harvest. [3]Be on your way. Behold, I am sending you out like sheep in the midst of wolves. [4]You must carry neither moneybag, nor knapsack, nor sandals, and greet no one along the way.

[5]"And into whatever house you enter, first you say, 'Peace to this house.' [6]And if a child of peace is there, your peace will settle upon him. Otherwise, it will bounce back onto you. [7]And in that same house you are to remain, eating and drinking the things belonging to them; for the worker is worthy of his pay; you are not to be moving from house to house.

[8]"And into whatever town you enter that they welcome you, eat the things being set before you, [9]and heal the sick in it, and say to them, 'The kingdom of God has drawn over you.' [10]But into whatever town you enter that they do not welcome you, go out into the streets of it, and say, [11]'Even the dust sticking to us from your town, we are shaking off to you. Even so, know this, that the kingdom of God has drawn near to you.' [12]And I assure you, it will be more bearable for Sodom in That Day, than for that town.

[13]"Woe to you, Khorazin! Woe to you, Bethsaida! For if the miracles that took place in you took place in Tyre and Sidon, they would have repented long ago, sitting in sackcloth and ashes. [14]In any case, it will be more bearable in the judgment for Tyre and Sidon than for you. [15]And you, Capernaum, which has been lifted up to heaven, you will be cast down to Hades!

[16]"The person who listens to you is listening to me, and the one rejecting you, is rejecting me. And the one rejecting me, is rejecting the one who sent me."

[17]And the seventy-two returned, with joy, saying, "Lord, even the demons submit themselves to us in your name."

[18]And he said to them, "I was watching as Satan fell from heaven like lightning.

[19]"Behold, I give you authority to tread upon snakes and scorpions, and over all the power of the enemy; and nothing will by any means harm you. [20]Nevertheless, do not rejoice in this, that the spirits submit to you; but rejoice rather that your names are written down in heaven."

[21]In that same hour, Jesus exulted in the Holy Spirit, and said, "I praise you, Father, O Lord of heaven and earth, that you have hidden these things from the learned and intelligent, and revealed them to babes. Yes, O Father, for that is what was pleasing in your sight.

[22]"Everything has been turned over to me by my Father, and no one knows who the Son is, except the Father; and who the Father is, except the Son, and those to whom the Son decides to reveal it."

[23]And after he had turned toward his disciples privately, he said, "Blessed are the eyes that see what you see. [24]For I tell you, many prophets and kings wanted to see what you are seeing, and did not see it, and to hear what you are hearing, and did not hear it."

The Parable of the Good Samaritan

[25]And behold, a lawyer arose, testing him, and saying, "Teacher, what must I do to inherit eternal life?"

[26]And he said to him, "What is written in the law? What is your reading of it?"

[27]And he in answer said, "You shall love Yehovah your God from your whole heart, and all your soul, and all your strength, and all your mind, and your neighbor as yourself."

[28]And He said, "You have answered correctly. Do this, and you will live."

[29]But wanting to justify himself, he said to Jesus, "And who is my neighbor?"

[30]And in reply, Jesus said, "A man was going down from Jerusalem to Jericho, and he fell among bandits. And they, when they had stripped him and inflicted wounds, went away, leaving him for half dead, as indeed he was. [31]And by chance a priest was going down that road, and when he saw him, he avoided him. [32]And likewise also a Levite, when he was near that place, he came, and saw, and passed on around. [33]But a Samaritan came traveling by him, and when he saw him, was moved with pity. [34]And he approached and stopped up his wounds, and applied olive oil and wine. And mounting him on his own animal, he took him to an inn and took care of him. [35]And on the morrow, as he left he took out two denarii,[259] gave them to the innkeeper, and told him, 'Take care of him, and whatever you spend beyond this, I will reimburse you when I return.'

[36]"Now then, which of these three seems to you a neighbor for the one who fell among bandits?"

[37]And he said, "The one who did the mercy with him."

So Jesus said to him, "Go yourself and do likewise."

Jesus at Mary and Martha's House

[38]And it came about that when he moved on, he entered a certain village. And a woman by the name of Martha hosted him for dinner at her house. [39]There was also a sister to that one, named Mary, and she having sat down at Jesus' feet, was listening to his word.

[40]But Martha was being drawn away by many chores of hospitality. But when she did come over, she said, "Lord, doesn't it concern you that my sister has left me to serve alone? Tell her therefore that she should help carry the load with me."

[41]But in answer, Jesus said to her, "Martha, Martha. You are getting concerned and agitated over many things. [42]But there is only one thing that warrants it. And Mary has selected the good portion, which will not be taken away from her."

Chapter 11

Prayer

[1]And it came about when he was praying in a certain place, that as he was finishing, one of his disciples said to him, "Lord, teach us to pray, even as John taught his disciples."

[2]And he said to them, "When you pray, say:

" 'Our Father who is in heaven,
hallowed be your name.
May your kingdom come.
May your will be done:
as in heaven, also on the earth.
[3]Give us each day our daily bread.
[4]And forgive us our sins, for we ourselves forgive
everyone who is indebted to us.
And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.' "

[5]And he said to them, "Suppose one of you shall have a friend, and will go to him at midnight and say to him, 'Friend, lend me three loaves, [6]because a friend of mine has shown up, from a journey toward me, and I have nothing to set before him.'

[7]"That one inside may say in answer, 'Do not cause me hassles. The door is already shut up, and my children are in bed with me. I can't get up to give you something.' [8]I tell you, even if he will not get up and give him something because of being his friend, yet because of his brash persistence he will get up, and give him as much as he needs.

[9]"So I say to you: Keep asking, and it will be given to you; keep seeking, and you will find; keep knocking, and it will be opened to you. [10]For everyone who keeps asking, receives; and the person who keeps seeking, finds; and to the one who keeps on knocking, it will be opened.

[259] One denarius was worth a day's wage.

[11]"And which father among you, if his child will ask for bread, will give him a stone? Or if a fish, will hand him a snake instead? [12]Or again, if he asks for an egg, will hand him a scorpion? [13]If you, then, though you are evil, know how to give good gifts to your children, how much more will the Father from heaven give the Holy Spirit to those who ask him?"

Jesus and Baalzibbul

[14]And he was casting out a demon, and it was of muteness. And it came about that after the demon went out, the mute man spoke. And the crowd was amazed.

[15]But some of them said, "It is by Beelzebub, the prince of demons, that he drives out demons." [16]And others, testing him, wanted from him a sign out of heaven.

[17]But he, knowing their thoughts, said to them, "Every kingdom divided against itself is desolated, and a house divided against itself falls. [18]So also, if Satan was divided against himself, how will his kingdom stand? I say this because you claim I drive out demons by Beelzebub. [19]Now if I drive out demons by Beelzebub, by whom do your followers drive them out? So then, they will be your judges. [20]But if I am driving out demons by the finger of God, then the kingdom of God has come upon you.

[21]"When a strong man, fully armed, guards his own castle, his possessions are safe. [22]But when a stronger one than he comes and overpowers him, he takes away the armor upon which his confidence was based, and divides out the spoils.

[23]"The person who is not with me is against me, and the one not gathering with me is scattering."

[24]"When an evil spirit comes out of a human being, it goes through waterless places, seeking rest. And not finding it, it says, 'I will return to the house from which I came out.' [25]And when it arrives, it finds the house unoccupied, swept clean and put in order. [26]Then it goes and brings with it seven other spirits more wicked than itself, and they come inside and live there. And the final condition of that human is worse than the first."

[27]And it came about that as Jesus was saying these things, a woman in the crowd lifted up her voice and said to him, "Blessed are the womb that bore you, and the breasts on which you sucked."

[28]But he replied, "Blessed rather[260] are those who hear the word of God and obey it."

The Sign of Jonah

[29]And as the crowds were pressing together upon him, he began to say, "This generation is a wicked generation; it asks for a sign. And no sign will be given it except the sign of the prophet Jonah. [30]For just as Jonah was a sign to the Ninevites, so also the Son of Man will be to this generation. [31]The Queen of the South will be raised at the judgment with the men of this generation and condemn them, for she came from the ends of the earth to listen to the wisdom of Solomon, and behold, one greater than Solomon is here. [32]The men of Nineveh will rise at the judgment with this generation and condemn it, for they repented at the preaching of Jonah, and behold, one greater than Jonah is here.

The Light of the Body

[33]"Now no one after lighting a lamp puts it out of view, or under a basket, but rather on the lamp stand, so that those who come in may see the light. [34]The lamp of the body is the eye. Therefore when your eye is open and generous, your entire body is brightly lit also. But when your eye is suspicious and stingy, your body is in darkness also. [35]See to it, therefore, that the light in you is not darkness. [36]If then your whole body is brightly lit, not having any part dark, it will all be lighted, like when the lamp by its brightness illumines you."

---

[260] Or possibly, "Well yes, but blessed more are those who..."

Six Woes

37And as he was speaking, a Pharisee asks him to have lunch with him; so having gone inside, he reclined. 38And the Pharisee when he saw, was shocked that he did not first baptize before the meal.[261]

39And the Lord said to him, "As it is, you Pharisees clean the outside of the cup and platter, but the inside of you is loaded with acquisitiveness and wickedness.

40"O foolish ones! Did not the one who made the outside, make the inside also? 41But the things lying within give to the poor, and behold, all things are now clean for you.

42"But woe to you, Pharisees! For you tithe the mint, and even the rue and every kind of garden herb, and neglect the justice and the love of God. These latter things you ought to practice, without leaving the former undone.

43"Woe to you, Pharisees! For you love the prominent seats in the synagogues, and the greetings in the marketplaces.

44"Woe to you Torah scholars and Pharisees, you hypocrites! For you are like graves that are not marked, and the people when walking over them do not know it."

45And in response, someone from the class of lawyers says to him, "Teacher, in saying these things, you are insulting us also."

46But he said, "And to you lawyers also, woe! For you make people carry loads oppressive to bear, and you yourselves, not one of your fingers do you touch to such loads.

47"Woe to you! For you build mausoleums for the prophets, and it was your forefathers who murdered them. 48So then, approving witnesses you are, to the deeds of your forefathers; for they kill them, and you build their tombs.

49"For this reason also the wisdom of God has said, 'I am sending to them prophets and apostles; and some of them they will kill, and some of them they will persecute,' 50with the result that the blood of all the prophets spilled since the founding of the world will be demanded of this generation, 51from the blood of Abel, up until the blood of Zechariah, who perished between the altar and the sanctuary; yes, I tell you, all will be demanded of this generation.

52"Woe to you, lawyers! For you have taken away the key to the door of knowledge. You yourselves have not gone in, and the ones going in you have barred."

53And after he said these things to them, the Torah scholars and Pharisees began to be extremely hostile, and to provoke him to speak unpreparedly about a great variety of topics, 54ambushing him, and seeking to pounce on something coming from his mouth, in order to prosecute him.

Chapter 12

Warnings and Encouragements

1When a vast multitude had gathered, such that they were trampling on one another, he began to say to his disciples first, "Be on your guard against the yeast of the Pharisees, which is hypocrisy. 2But there is nothing covered up that will not be revealed, and nothing secret that will not be made known. 3Therefore, what things you have said in the darkness will be heard in the light, and what you have spoken close to an ear in the cellars, will be proclaimed on the housetops.

4"I tell you, my friends, do not be afraid of the ones killing the body, and after that having nothing worse left to do. 5But I will suggest to you whom you should fear. Fear the one who after the killing, has the power to cast into Gehenna. Yes, I tell you, fear him.

[261] The Greek word βαπτίζω (baptizo) was used for the ceremonial dunking of not only human beings' bodies (vessels), but for the ceremonial dunking of dishes and hands as well.

[6]"Are not five sparrows sold for a penny? And not one of them is forgotten before God. [7]But in your case, even the hairs of your head, each is numbered. You should not be afraid therefore. You matter more than many sparrows.

[8]"But I tell you, whoever stands up for me before human beings, the Son of Man also will stand up for him before the angels of God. [9]Whereas the one disowning me before human beings, will be disowned before the angels of God. [10]And everyone who will speak a word against the Son of Man, it will be forgiven him. But to the person who blasphemes against the Holy Spirit, it will not be forgiven.

[11]"And when they deliver you over to the synagogues, and to the rulers and to the authorities, do not worry how or what you should defend, or what you should say. [12]For the Holy Spirit will instruct you in that very hour what needs to be said."

False Financial Security

[13]And someone in the crowd said, "Teacher, tell my brother to divide the inheritance with me."

[14]But he said to him, "Man, who appointed me judge or arbiter over you two?"

[15]And he said to them, "Watch out, and be on your guard against covetousness. For the life of one is not in the abundance of one's possessions."

[16]And he spoke a parable to them as follows: "The land of a certain rich man yielded abundantly, [17]and he was thinking to himself, 'What shall I do? For I have no place where I can stack my produce.'

[18]And he said, 'This is what I will do. I will pull down my warehouses, and build bigger ones, and there I will stack all my produce and all my goods. [19]And I will say to my soul, "Soul, you have much goods sitting there into many years. Relax, eat, drink, be merry." '

[20]But God said to him, 'You fool, this very night they are demanding your soul back from you,[262] and the provisions you have made, whose will they be?'

[21]"Such is the person saving up for himself, and not becoming rich to God."

True Financial Security

[22]And to his disciples, he said, "Because of this I say to you, do not worry about your life, what you will eat, nor about the body, what you will wear. [23]Life means more than food, and the body more than clothes.

[24]"Consider the ravens, that they neither sow nor reap, and God feeds them. How much higher priority you are than birds!

[25]"Now which of you by worrying is able to add onto his lifespan one foot?[263] [26]If therefore you cannot accomplish even this very little thing, why do you worry about the rest?

[27]"Consider the lilies, how they grow. They neither labor nor weave. But I tell you, not even Solomon, in all his splendor, was bedecked like one of these.

---

[262] Bauer says this is a figure of speech, found in other writers such as Cicero, and Epictetus, using the concept of a human being's life as a loan. And that now, "they," the creditors, are demanding payment in full, of the loan, "calling in the loan." This plural "they" reminds me of the place in the prophet Daniel, in chapter 4 verses 13 & 17, where it says, "This sentence is by the decree of the angelic watchers, and the decision is the command of the holy ones, in order that the living may know that the Most High is ruler over the realm of mankind..." It implies in v. 17 that there exists a council of some sort, composed of "holy ones," that is, angels, who make decisions on behalf of God. See also Psalm 82:1, "God stands in the assembly of gods, and in their midst, he judges gods." Sometimes angels are referred to as gods, or "sons of god." But the point I am making is that such a council of angels, like the group who decided when Nebuchadnezzar was to die, are a "they," plural, like when God told the rich man here in Luke, "they are demanding your soul back from you."

[263] Literally, one cubit. There was an expression in classical Greek, "only one cubit of time." It is legitimate therefore to translate this as "a single hour to his life."

[28]Now if God thus clothes the wild grass, which is here this day and the next is thrown into the stove, how much more would he rather clothe you, O you of little faith?

[29]"And you also should not seek after how you will eat, or how you will drink; that is, do not be anxious. [30]Because all these things, the nations of the world are striving for. But your Father knows that you have need of these things. [31]Only seek instead the kingdom of God, and all these things will be included for you.

[32]"Do not be afraid, little flock; for it has given your Father pleasure to give you the kingdom. [33]Sell your possessions, and give to the poor: make for yourselves money bags unfailing, a stockpile not shrinking; in the heavens, where neither a thief ever gets close, nor a moth ever destroys. [34]For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also.

Be Ready

[35]"You must keep your waists girded and your lamps burning, [36]and you must be like people waiting for their own master, waiting for when he returns from the wedding celebrations, so that when he arrives and is knocking, they may immediately open for him. [37]Happy are those slaves who when the master arrives, he finds watching. Truly I tell you, he will gird himself and bid them recline, and after coming in, he will serve them. [38]And those slaves are happy, whether he arrives in the second watch and finds them so, or even in the third watch. [39]And this you know, that if the manager of the household knew what hour the thief was coming, he would have kept watch and not allowed his house to be broken into. [40]Therefore you also must be the same, because the Son of Man is coming at an hour you would not think he would."

[41]Then Peter said to him, "Lord, are you saying this parable to us, or to everyone else as well?"

[42]And the Lord said, "So who is the faithful and sensible steward, whom the master will place over his domestic service, to be giving out rations in due time? [43]Happy will be that slave who when his lord comes, he finds doing so. [44]Truly I tell you, he will place him over all his possessions.

[45]"But if that slave says in his heart, 'My master is taking his time to come,' and he begins to slap around the workboys and the workgirls, and to eat and drink and get drunk, [46]the master of that slave will come at an hour he is not expecting, and at a time he does not know, and will cut him in two, and appoint him his inheritance with the unbelieving.

[47]"And that slave, knowing the will of his master, and not having prepared or done in accordance with his will, he will be lashed many times. [48]Whereas the one not knowing, and having done things deserving of scourgings, he will be lashed few times. So then, anyone to whom much has been given, much will be required of him, and from him to whom much has been entrusted, that much more will be demanded.

Jesus Causes Division

[49]"I have come to cast fire upon the earth, and how I wish it were already kindled! [50]But I have a baptism to be baptized, and how tormented I am until that has been accomplished.

[51]"You think that I have come to provide peace on the earth. Not at all, I tell you, but rather division. [52]For from now on, five in one household will be divided: three against two, and two against three. [53]Father will be divided against son, and son against father; mother against daughter and daughter against mother; mother-in-law against her daughter-in-law, and daughter-in-law against her mother-in-law."

Judge For Yourselves

[54]And he was also saying to the crowds, "When you see a cloud rising from the west, right away you say, 'A rainstorm is coming,' and it happens so. [55]And when the south wind blows, you say, 'It will be hot,' and it happens. [56]Hypocrites! The face of the sky and the earth you know how to interpret, so how is it you do not interpret this present time?

[57]"And why also do you not judge equity yourselves? [58]For as you are going with your adversary to court, on the way make every effort to be free of him, lest he drag you before the judge, and the judge hand you over to the officer, and the officer throw you in prison. [59]I tell you, no way will you come out of that place, until you have paid back the very last penny."

Chapter 13

Repent or Perish

[1]And some who were present at that time, were reporting to him about the Galileans whose blood Pilate had mingled with the blood of their sacrifices. [2]And in response Jesus said to them, "Do you think that because they suffered such things, those Galileans were sinners, more so than all the rest of the Galileans? [3]Not at all, I tell you; but on the other hand, if you do not repent, you shall all likewise perish. [4]Or those eighteen, on whom the tower in Siloam fell and killed them, do you think they were debtors worse than all the rest of the people living in Jerusalem? [5]Not at all, I tell you; but on the other hand, if you do not repent, you shall all likewise perish."

[6]And he continued with this parable: "A man had a fig tree planted in his vineyard. And he came seeking fruit on it, and did not find any. [7]And he said to the vine dresser, 'Look, it has been three years I have been coming, seeking fruit on this fig tree and not finding it. Cut it down. Why is it still using up the soil?'

[8]"But in answer, he says to him, 'Sir, leave it for this year also, until such time I have dug and put manure around it; [9]and if it does produce fruit, so much the better. But if not, in the next year cut it down.'"

A Crippled Woman Healed on the Sabbath

[10]And he was teaching in one of the synagogues during the Sabbath. [11]And behold, a woman having had a spirit of disability for eighteen years was there. And she was bent over double, and not able to look up at all. [12]And when Jesus saw her, he called to her and said to her, "Woman, be set free from your disability." [13]And he laid hands on her; and she became erect at once, and was praising God.

[14]But in response, the synagogue ruler, being indignant that Jesus had healed during the Sabbath, was saying to the crowd, "There are six days in which you are supposed to work; you should therefore be coming during those to be healed, and not during the day of rest."

[15]The Lord then answered him, and said, "You hypocrite! Who among you on the Sabbath does not free his ox or his donkey from its stall, and after leading it out, give it drink? [16]But this woman, a daughter of Abraham, whom Satan has kept bound lo these eighteen years, she should not be freed from this bondage on the day of rest?!"

[17]And with his saying these things, all his opponents were being humiliated, and the whole crowd was cheering, for all the glorious things being accomplished by him.

The Parables of the Mustard Seed and the Yeast

[18]Then he said, "What is the kingdom of God like? And to what may I compare it? [19]It is like a mustard seed, which a man took and cast into his garden, and it grew and became a large tree, and the birds of the sky nested in its branches."

[20]And again he said, "To what may I compare the kingdom of God? [21]It is like yeast that a woman took and folded into three measures[264] of dough until the whole was leavened."

The Narrow Door

[22]And he was going through every city and village teaching, even as he was making his journey toward Jerusalem. [23]And someone said to him, "Lord, are those being saved going to be few?"

And he said to him, [24]"Make every effort to go in through the narrow gate. For many, I tell you, will try to enter, and not be able to. [25]Once the master of the house has gotten up and closed the door, after that you may begin to stand outside, and knock on the door, saying, 'Lord, Lord, open to us,' and in answer he will say to you, 'I don't know where you are from.' [26]At that time you will begin to say, 'We ate and drank in your presence, and you taught in our streets.' [27]And then at that time he will say, 'I tell you, I don't know where you are from. Depart from me, all you workers of unrighteousness.' [28]In that place there will be weeping, and gnashing of teeth, when you see Abraham and Isaac and Jacob and all the prophets in the kingdom of God, and you are being cast outside, [29]and people will have come from the east and the west, and from the north and the south, and be reclined in the kingdom of God. [30]And behold, there are those who are last, who will be first; and there are those who are first who will be last."

Jesus Laments Jerusalem

[31]During that day, some Pharisees came up to him, saying to him, "You should move on, and get out of this place, because Herod is trying to kill you."

[32]And he said to them, "Go tell that fox: 'Behold, I am casting out demons and accomplishing healings today and tomorrow, and on the third day I will reach my goal.' [33]Regardless, I would have to be continuing on today and tomorrow and the next day. For it is not possible for a prophet to be killed outside Jerusalem!

[34]"O Jerusalem, Jerusalem, that kills the prophets, and stones those sent to it! How often I have wished to gather your children, as a hen does her brood under her wings, and you were not willing. [35]Behold, your house is now left to you desolate. And truly I tell you, you will not see me, until the day when you say, 'Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord.'"[265]

Chapter 14

Jesus at a Pharisee's House

[1]And it came about that when he went into the house of a certain ruler of the Pharisees on a Sabbath, to eat bread, they were watching him closely. [2]And behold, a man with dropsy was right in front of him.

[3]And in response, Jesus said to the lawyers and Pharisees as follows: "Is it permissible during a Sabbath to heal?" [4]But they kept quiet. And after grasping him, he healed him, and dismissed him.

[5]And in response he said to them, "Who among you whose donkey or ox should fall into a pit during the Sabbath day, would not immediately pull it out?" [6]And they were not able to give him a reply to this.

[7]And toward those who had been invited, he was speaking a parable, referring to how they were claiming the most prestigious seats, saying to them as follows: [8]"When you are invited by someone to a banquet, do not recline at the place of honor, in case someone more distinguished than you is invited by him, [9]and the one who invited both you and him comes and says to you, 'Yield place to this person.' And then you would proceed with embarrassment to make for the last seat.

---

264 Greek: three sata, about 5 gallons, or 22 liters.

265 Psalm 118:26

[10]Instead, when you are invited, make your way to the least desirable place and recline, so that when the one who invited you comes, he will say to you, 'Friend, move up to a better place.' Then there will be honor for you in front of your fellow dinner guests. [11]For anyone who exalts himself will be humbled; and the one who humbles himself will be exalted."

[12]And he was also saying to the man who had invited him, "When you make a breakfast or dinner, do not call your friends, or your siblings or relatives or rich neighbors, lest they also invite you back in return, and that would be repayment for you. [13]Instead, when you make a banquet, invite the poor, the crippled, the lame, the blind, [14]and you will be blessed, because they do not have the means to repay you. For it will be repaid to you, you see, at the resurrection of the righteous."

The Parable of the Great Banquet

[15]And after hearing these things, one of the dinner guests said to him, "Blessed is that person who will eat bread in the kingdom of God."

[16]And Jesus said to him, "A man held a great banquet, and invited many people. [17]And at the hour of the banquet, he sent his slave out to tell those who were invited, 'Come, for everything is now ready.'

[18"]And they all alike began to ask to be excused. The first one said to him, 'I have bought a field, and I urgently have to go out and see it. I ask you, consider me excused.'

[19"]And another one said, 'I have bought five yoke of oxen, and I'm on my way to try them out. I ask you, consider me excused.'

[20"]And another one said, 'I have married a wife, and for this reason I am not able to come.'

[21"]And when he came back, that slave reported these things to his master. Angered then, the master of the house said to his slave, 'Quick, go out into the boulevards and lanes of the town. And the poor, the crippled, the lame, the blind, lead them here.'

[22"]And the slave said, 'Master, it has been done as you commanded, and still there is room.'

[23"]And the master said to the slave, 'Go out into the trails and the fence lines, and urgently invite them to come in, so that my house will be filled. [24]You can be sure, I tell you, that not one of those men who were invited, will taste of my banquet!'"

Jesus Qualifies the Crowds

[25]And great crowds were going along with him, and he turned around, and said to them, [26"]If someone is coming with me, and does not spurn his father, and mother, and wife, and children, and brothers, and sisters, and yes, even his own life, he cannot be my disciple. [27]And anyone that does not take up his cross and follow after me, cannot be my disciple.

[28"]For who of you wishing to build a tower, does not first sit down and count the cost, whether he has enough for completion? [29]It would be no good if he lays the foundation, and not being able to finish, all those observing start to ridicule him, [30]saying, 'This fellow began to build, and was not able to finish.'

[31"]Or what king, going out to another king to meet in battle, does not first sit down to consider whether he is strong enough with ten thousand, to match the one who is coming against him with twenty thousand? [32]For indeed if not, while he is still at a distance he sends out a delegation, and asks what are the conditions for peace.

[33"]In the same way, then, any of you who does not say good-bye to everything that he has, cannot be my disciple.

[34"]Salt is a good thing; but if the salt becomes bland, what will it be spiced with? [35]It is fit neither for the soil, nor for the manure pile; they throw it out.

"Whoever has ears to hear, hear."

Chapter 15

The Parable of the Lost Sheep

[1]And all the tax collectors and the sinners were coming up next to him, to listen to him. [2]And the Pharisees and the Torah scholars were complaining, saying, "This fellow welcomes sinners, and eats with them."

[3]But he spoke this parable to them, as follows: [4]"What man among you who has a hundred sheep and is missing one of them, does not leave behind the ninety-nine in the desert, and go out after the lost one, until he finds it? [5]And when he has found it, he places it on his shoulders, rejoicing. [6]And upon returning home he calls his friends and neighbors together, saying to them, 'Rejoice with me; for I have found my sheep that was lost.' [7]I tell you, in just the same way, there will be more joy in heaven over one sinner repenting, than over ninety-nine righteous persons having no need of repentance.

The Parable of the Lost Coin

[8]"Or what woman having ten drachmas,[266] if she loses one drachma, does not light a lamp and sweep the house clean, and search diligently until such time she finds it? [9]And when she has found it, she calls her friends and neighbors together, saying, 'Rejoice with me; for I have found the drachma that was lost.' [10]In just the same way, I tell you, rejoicing breaks out among the angels of God over one sinner repenting."

The Parable of the Lost Son

[11]And he said, "A certain man had two sons. [12]And the younger of them said to the father, 'Father, pay out to me the applicable share of the holdings.' So he divided to them the life savings.

[13]"And not many days later, having gathered everything together, the younger son journeyed off, to a far away country, and there he wasted his estate, living indulgently. [14]And after he had spent everything he had, a severe famine took place over that whole country, and he himself began to be without. [15]And so going forth, he joined on with one of the citizens of that country, who sent him into his fields to tend swine. [16]And he was craving to fill his belly with the carob pods that the swine were eating, and no one gave him any.

[17]"And when he came to himself, he was saying, 'How many hired men of my father's have more than enough food, and I am perishing with hunger. [18]I will arise and go to my father, and I will say to him, "Father, I have sinned against heaven, and before you, [19]and am no longer worthy to be called your son; make me as one of your hired men." '

[20]"And he arose and went to his father. But while he was still a long way off, his father saw him, and was moved with pity. And he ran out, flung his arms around him and kissed him. [21]But the son said to him, 'Father, I have sinned against heaven, and before you, and am no longer worthy to be called your son.'

[22]"But the father said to his servants, 'Bring out the best robe and drape it on him, and put a ring on his hand, and shoes to his feet, [23]and bring the fattened calf, and slaughter it, and let us feast and celebrate; [24]for this my son was dead and is alive again; and was lost, and has been found!' And they proceeded to celebrate.

[25]"But his elder son was in the fields. And as he was getting close to the house, he heard the sound of music and of dancing. [26]And calling over one of the workboys, he was asking what it was all about.

[27]"And he told him, 'Your brother has returned, and your father has slaughtered the fattened calf, because he has him back safe and sound.'

266 A drachma was worth about a day's wage.

[28]"Then he was angry, and refused to go inside. So his father came out, pleading with him. [29]But in response he said to his father, 'All these years I have been serving you, and not once did I ever deviate from your instructions. Yet to me, you have never given so much as a baby goat so I could celebrate with my friends. [30]But when this son of yours comes who ate up your life savings with prostitutes, you slaughter for him the fattened calf!'

[31]"But he said to him, 'Dear child, you are always with me, and everything that is mine is yours. [32]But to celebrate and be cheered up, is only right; for this your brother was dead and is alive again; and was lost, and has been found!' "

Chapter 16

The Shrewd Money Manager

[1]And then toward his disciples he was saying: "There was a rich man, who had a business manager. And accusations were brought to him against this manager, that he was wasting his property. [2]So having summoned him, he said to him, 'What is this I am hearing about you? Surrender the records of your management; for you can no longer be manager.'

[3]"And the manager said to himself, 'What will I do, now that my master is taking the management away from me? I am not strong enough to dig. I am ashamed to beg. [4]I know what I will do, so that after I am removed from my management, people will welcome me into their homes.'

[5]"And calling in each and every one of his master's debtors, he said to the first one, 'How much do you owe my master?'

[6]"And he said, 'A hundred baths of olive oil.'

"And he told him, 'Take your bill, and sit down quickly and write "fifty." '

[7]"Then, to another one he said, 'And you, how much do you owe?'

"And he said, 'A hundred kors of wheat.'

"And he says to him, 'Take your bill and write "eighty."'

[8]"And that master gave credit to the unrighteous manager, in that he had acted shrewdly. For the children of this age are more shrewd toward their own generation than are the children of light. [9]And as for me, I say to you, make friends for yourselves by means of the undependable[267] wealth, so that when it fails, they may welcome you into perpetual dwellings.

[10]"The person who is faithful with little, is also faithful with much, and the one who is undependable with little is also undependable with much. [11]If therefore you do not prove faithful with the undependable wealth, who will trust you with the true? [12]And if with someone else's property you have not turned out to be faithful, who will grant you property of your own?

[13]"No house slave is able to serve two masters; for he would either spurn the one and love the other, or devote himself to the one and despise the other. You cannot serve both God and Wealth."

[14]Now the Pharisees also had been listening to all this and, being moneylovers, were sneering at him.

[15]And he said to them, "You are ones who justify yourselves before human beings, but God knows your hearts. For what is highly esteemed among human beings, is detestable in God's sight.

[267] The Greek word “adikos” here is usually rendered “unrighteous, but can also mean “untrustworthy, undependable,” as indeed Jesus uses it here and in vv. 10-11 with that meaning. Jesus is also making a play on words, on the word Mammon (here rendered Wealth), which word is based on a Semitic root for “dependable, reliable.” The idea of mammon was a wealth to such an extent that one could relax and feel secure and confident financially. But Jesus here is saying that it will fail. When Jesus says “unrighteous Mammon,” he is saying something like “insecure security.” And this is the same word he used to describe the manager. A false manager, an undependable manager. Another play is the contrast of the undependable property with the "true" or "real" property. Wherever I have the word "undependable," you can substitute the word "false, dishonest" as in whoever is false with little, is also false with much;" and, "false wealth."

16"The law and the prophets were until John; from that time on the kingdom of God is being proclaimed, and everyone is pushing their way into it. 17But it is easier for sky and earth to pass away, than for one serif of the law to fall. 18Anyone who dismisses his wife and marries another is committing adultery, and anyone who marries her who has been dismissed by a husband, is committing adultery.

The Rich Man and Lazarus

19"Now a certain man was rich, and used to put on a purple robe and fine linen and live it up splendidly every day. 20And there was a beggar, Lazarus by name, who was laid at his gate, covered with sores, 21and he kept longing in vain to eat the scraps dropping from that rich man's table. In contrast, the dogs at least would come and lick his sores.

22"Now the beggar came to die, and was carried off by the angels to Abraham's bosom. And the rich man also died, and was buried. 23And in Hades, when he lifted up his eyes, from being in torment, he sees Abraham far away, and Lazarus in his bosom. 24So after calling out to him, he said, 'Father Abraham, have pity on me, and send Lazarus to dip the tip of his finger in water, to cool my tongue, because I am in agony in this fire.'

25"But Abraham said, 'Son, recall that in your lifetime, you received your good things, while Lazarus likewise received his bad; so now here, he is comforted, and you are suffering. 26And besides all this, between us and you a great chasm[268] has been fixed, such that those who want to go from here to you are not able to, neither can anyone cross over from there to us.'

27"And he said, 'Then I beg you, father, please send him to my father's house, 28since I have five brothers, in order that he solemnly warn them not to also come to this place of torment.'

29"But Abraham says to him, 'They have Moses and the Prophets; let them take heed to them.'

30"And he said, 'Hardly, father Abraham; but if someone from the dead goes to them, they will repent.'

31"And he said to him, 'If they are not taking heed to Moses and the Prophets, neither will they be persuaded if someone rises from the dead.'"

Chapter 17

A Brother Who Sins

1And he said to the disciples, "It is not possible for there not to come things that cause people to fall. Nevertheless, woe to that person by whom such comes! 2It would be better for him if a mill stone is lying around his neck and he is thrown into the sea, than that he cause one of these little ones to fall.

3"Watch yourselves. Now if your brother sins against you, rebuke him, and if he repents, forgive him. 4And if he sins against you seven times in a day, and seven times in a day he turns toward you, saying, 'I repent,' you must forgive him."

Faith and Duty

5And the apostles said to the Lord, "Give us more faith."

6But the Lord said, "If you have faith as small as a mustard seed, you could say to this mulberry tree, 'Be uprooted and planted in the sea,' and it would obey you.

7"Now who of you having a servant plowing or tending sheep, when he comes in from the field would immediately say, 'Come over here and recline'? 8Would he not instead say to him, 'Fix something I can eat, and after you have girded yourself, serve me while I eat and drink, and after these things, you shall eat and drink'? 9He does not thank that servant, that he has done what he has been told does he? I think not. [10]In the same way, you also, when you have done all the things that were prescribed for you, you should say, 'We are unprofitable servants; for we have done what we are supposed to have done.'"

---

268 See Enoch 22:4-12

Ten Healed of Leprosy

[11]And it came about that as he was on his way to Jerusalem, he was passing through the middle of Samaria and Galilee. [12]And as he was coming into a village, ten men who had leprosy met him, who stopped and stood at a distance. [13]And they called out loudly, saying, "Jesus, Master, have pity on us!"

[14]And when he saw this, he said to them, "Go show yourselves to the priests." And it came about that as they went, they were cleansed.

[15]And one of them, when he saw that he had been healed, turned and came back, praising God with a very loud voice. [16]And he fell on his face at Jesus' feet, thanking him. And he was a Samaritan.

[17]So in response Jesus said, "Were there not ten cleansed? Where then are the other nine? [18]Were none found to have come back to give glory to God, except this foreigner?"

[19]And he said to him, "Get up and go your way; your faith has saved you."

The Coming of the Kingdom of God

[20]And when he was questioned by the Pharisees as to when the kingdom of God was coming, he answered them as follows: "The kingdom of God does not show with careful observation, [21]neither will people say, 'Behold, here,' or 'Behold, there.' For behold, the kingdom of God is within you."

[22]And he said to the disciples, "Days are coming, when it is one of the days of the Son of Man you will long to see, and you will not have that experience. [23]And people will say to you, 'Behold, here!' or 'Behold, there!' Do not go, neither follow after them. [24]For just as lightning shines forth flashing from one end of the sky to the other, so shall it be also with the Son of Man in his day. [25]But first he must suffer much at the hands of this generation and be rejected.

[26]"And just as it was in the days of Noah, so shall it be also in the days of the Son of Man. [27]People were eating, drinking, marrying, being given in marriage, up until the day that Noah entered into the ark, and the flood came, and destroyed them all.

[28]"It was the same also in the days of Lot. People were eating, drinking, buying, selling, planting, building, [29]but the day that Lot left Sodom, fire and sulfur rained down from heaven, and destroyed them all.

[30]"Along those lines will be the day in which the Son of Man is being revealed. [31]In that day, if someone is on the roof, and his stuff is in the house, he should not go down to get it, and the one in the field should likewise not turn back around. [32]Remember Lot's wife. [33]Whoever tries to save his life will lose it, and whoever loses it will keep it alive. [34]I tell you, in that night there will be two men on one couch; one will be taken, and the other left. [35]There will be two women together grinding grain; one will be taken, and the other left. [36]Two men will be in the field; the one will be taken, and the other left."

[37]And they in response are saying to him, "Where, Lord?"

And he said to them, "Where the body is, there also the eagles[269] will be gathered."

---

[269] Greek: ho aetos, a word used for both eagles and vultures. But this appears to be an allusion to Job 39:27-30.

Chapter 18

The Parable of the Persistent Widow

[1]Now he was also speaking a parable to them, with the moral that they ought always to pray, and not to lose heart, [2]as follows: "There was a judge in a certain city, who had no fear of God, and no regard for man. [3]But there was a widow in that city, and she kept on coming to him, saying, 'Give me redress from my adversary.'

[4]"And for some time he had refused, but after all this, he said to himself, 'Even if I don't fear God, and have no regard for man, [5]just because this widow is causing me trouble, I will avenge her, lest all her coming in the end wears me out.' "

[6]And the Lord said, "Listen to what the unjust kind of judge was saying. [7]So God, will he not bring about the avenging of his elect, who keep crying out to him day and night? And is he slow to respond to them? [8]I tell you, he would bring about justice for them, in short order. However, when the Son of Man comes, will he find any faith on the earth at all?"

The Parable of the Pharisee and the Revenue Agent

[9]And also, to some, who were convinced within themselves that they were righteous, and looking down on everyone else, he told this parable: [10]"Two men went up to the temple to pray, one a Pharisee, and the other a revenue agent. [11]When the Pharisee stood, he was praying inside himself as follows: 'O God, I thank you that I am not like other people, who are swindlers, dishonest, adulterers, or indeed, like this revenue agent. [12]I fast twice a week, I tithe of everything I get.'

[13]"But the revenue agent, standing a distance off, was not even willing to lift his eyes toward heaven, but was beating on his chest, saying, 'O God, be merciful to me, a sinner.'

[14]"I tell you, this latter went down to his house justified, rather than the former. For all who exalt themselves will be humbled, and those who humble themselves will be exalted."

The Little Children and Jesus

[15]And people were bringing little children to him, so that he would touch them. But when the disciples saw this, they rebuked them. [16]But Jesus called them over to him and said, "Allow the children to come to me, and stop preventing them, for of such is the kingdom of God. [17]Truly I tell you, whoever does not receive the kingdom of God like a child will certainly not enter it."

The Rich Young Ruler

[18]And a certain ruler queried him as follows: "Good teacher, with what done will I inherit eternal life?"

[19]And Jesus said to him, "Why are you calling me good? No one is good, except God alone. [20]The commandments you know: Do not commit adultery, Do not murder, Do not steal, Do not give false testimony, Honor your father and your mother."

[21]And he said, "All these I have kept since my youth."

[22]And when Jesus heard this, he said to him, "There is still one thing lacking with you. Everything you have, sell and hand out to the poor, and you will have treasure in heaven, and then come follow me."

[23]But when he heard these words he became very sad, for he was extremely wealthy. [24]And when Jesus saw him becoming very sad, he said, "How hard it is for those who have wealth to go into the kingdom of God. [25]Indeed, it is easier for a camel[270] to go through the eye of a needle, than for the rich to enter into the kingdom of God."

[26]And those who heard said, "Who then CAN be saved?"

[27]And he said, "Things impossible with human beings are possible with God."

[28]And Peter said, "Behold, we have left everything to follow you."

[29]And he said to them, "Truly I say to you, there is no one who has left house or parents or siblings or wife or children, for the sake of the kingdom of God, [30]who will not receive back many times as much in this present time; and in the coming age, eternal life."

Jesus Again Predicts His Death

[31]And after having taken the twelve aside, he told them, "Behold, we are going up to Jerusalem, and everything that is written by the prophets about the Son of Man will be carried out. [32]For he will be handed over to the Gentiles, and be made fun of and mistreated and spit upon, [33]and after scourging him they will kill him, and on the third day he will rise again."

[34]And they understood none of these things. Indeed, this statement was hidden from them, and they did not realize the things being said.

An Obnoxious Beggar Gets His Wish

[35]And it came about that when he was drawing near to Jericho, a blind man was sitting beside the road, begging. [36]And when he heard the crowd going through, he was inquiring what this was all about. [37]And they informed him that Jesus the Nazarene was passing by. [38]Then he cried out, saying, "Jesus, son of David, have mercy on me!"

[39]And those leading the way were rebuking him, that he should be quiet. But he was shouting that much more, "Son of David, have mercy on me!"

[40]And after stopping, Jesus ordered that he be brought to him. And when he had come near, Jesus questioned him, [41]saying, "What do you want me to do for you?"

And he said, "Lord, that I could see again."

[42]And Jesus said to him, "See again; your faith has saved you."[271] [43]And at once he saw again, and he was following him, giving glory to God. And all the people also, when they saw, gave praise to God.

Chapter 19

Zacchaeus the Revenue Officer

[1]And he entered, passing on through Jericho. [2]And behold, there was a man called by the name of Zacchaeus, and he was a revenue officer. And this man was rich. [3]And he was trying to see who Jesus was, but was prevented by the crowd, since he was short in stature. [4]And after running ahead, he climbed up onto a sycamore tree, so that he could see him, for he was about to pass that way.

[5]And when Jesus arrived to the place, he looked up and saw him, and said to him, "Hurry down, Zacchaeus, for today I need to stay at your house."

[6]And he hurried down, and took him in gladly. [7]And all who had seen this were complaining, saying, "He has gone in to stay the night with a sinful man."

---

[270] Just as it is impossible, humanly speaking, for a camel to go through the eye of a needle, Jesus says in v. 27 that it is "impossible" for a rich man to enter the kingdom of God. Some people teach that Jesus really instead said "rope to go through the eye of a needle," because he was speaking in the Aramaic language, and the Aramaic word for camel was also the word for a kind of rope. Regardless, Jesus would want to invent a simile that was in line with his main point: "something impossible." His illustration must demonstrate something that is impossible, naturally speaking. "Camel" is more impossible than "rope," so at worst, camel works just fine, and at best, camel is the best rendering because it is more impossible.

[271] Or, "your faith has healed you." As also in many other places in Luke.

[8]And Zacchaeus stood up, and said to the Lord, "Look, one half of all I possess, Lord, I am giving to the poor, and where I have defrauded anyone of anything, I am making restitution threefold."

[9]And Jesus said in reference to him, "Today, salvation has come to this house, in view of the fact that this man too is a son of Abraham. [10]For the Son of Man came to seek and to save that which was lost."[272]

The Parable of the Ten Servants

[11]And as they were listening to these things, he included and spoke another parable, because he was drawing near to Jerusalem, and they thought that the kingdom of God was about to be appearing shortly. [12]He said therefore, "A certain man well born journeyed off to a far country, to receive for himself a kingdom and then return. [13]Now after calling ten of his servants, he had given to them ten minas,[273] and said to them, 'Do business until I return.'

[14]"But his subjects hated him, and they sent ambassadors behind him saying, 'We do not want this man to be king over us.'

[15]"And it came about that when he returned, he had received the kingship. And he ordered his servants to be summoned to him, those to whom he had given the money, in order to find out what each had earned.

[16]"So the first one came, reporting as follows: 'Lord, your mina has grown to ten minas.'

[17]"And he said to him, 'Well done, good servant. Since with a little you have proven faithful, be therefore ruler over ten cities.'

[18]"And the second one came, saying, 'Lord, your mina has become five minas.'

[19]"So he said to that one, 'And you, you shall be over five cities.'

[20]"And the other one came, saying as follows: 'Lord, here is your mina, which I have been keeping laid away in a napkin. [21]For I was afraid of you, since you are a demanding man; you collect what you did not deposit, and reap what you did not sow.'

[22]"And he says to him, 'By your own mouth I judge you, you wicked servant. You knew, did you, that I am a demanding man, collecting what I did not deposit, and reaping what I did not sow? [23]Why then did you not put my money in the bank, and I having returned would collect it with interest?' [24]And to some standing there he said, 'Take the mina away from him, and give it to the one who has ten minas.'

[25]"And they said to him, 'Lord, he has ten minas!'

[26]"'Indeed I tell you, to everyone who has, it will be given, but the one who has not, even such that he has will be taken away from him. [27]But as for my enemies, those who had not wanted me to be king over them, bring them here, and slay them in front of me.'"

The Triumphal Entry

[28]And having said these things, he was pressing his way onward, going up to Jerusalem. [29]And it came about that as he drew near to Bethphage and Bethany at the hill called the Mount of Olives, he sent away two of his disciples, [30]saying, "Go into the village ahead of you, in which as you are entering you will find a colt[274] tethered, upon which no one has ever yet sat. Untie it and bring it. [31]And if someone asks you, 'Why are you untying it,' say to them, 'The Lord needs it.'"

[272] Jesus is the Good Shepherd of Ezekiel 34:16, and not a false shepherd of Ezekiel 34:4, and does search for that which was lost, Ezekiel 34:11.

[273] That is, he gave the ten servants one mina each. The mina, which was originally a Semitic word that the Greek language had long since borrowed, was equivalent to 100 drachmas. One drachma was not insignificant in purchasing power. Culling Greek literature, you can find quite a variance: some times and places, one drachma could buy you one sheep, but was only one-fifth the price of an ox. Other times, one drachma could buy you an ox. Either way, a mina was worth at least 100 sheep. That is a lot of money. Anyone could take that amount of money and by investing, turn it into more.

[32]And when the ones who were sent went, they found things just as he had told them. [33]And as they were untying the colt, the owners of it said to them, "Why are you untying the colt?"

[34]And they said, "The Lord needs it."

[35]And they brought it to Jesus, and after throwing garments of theirs on the colt, they mounted Jesus upon it. [36]And as he was proceeding along, people were spreading their cloaks in the road beneath.

[37]And having come near now to the descent of the Mount of Olives, the whole company of disciples started rejoicing, to lift God up with a loud voice for all the miracles that they had seen. [38]They were saying,

"Blessed is the king who comes in the name of the Lord![275]

Peace in heaven, and glory in the highest!"

[39]And some Pharisees in the crowd said to him, "Teacher! Rebuke your disciples!"

[40]And he in answer said to them, "I tell you, if these go silent, the stones will cry out."

[41]And as he drew near and saw the city, he wept over it, [42]saying, "If you, yes you,[276] had only known what would bring your peace on this your day! But now it is hidden from your eyes. [43]For the days will come upon you that your enemies will throw a palisade up against you, and encircle you, and press in on you from every side, [44]and throw you to the ground, you and your children within you, and there will not be left within you a stone upon a stone, in retribution for the fact you did not recognize the time of your gracious visitation."

Jesus Clears the Temple

[45]And when he had entered the temple, he proceeded to drive out those who were buying and selling in it, [46]telling them, "It is written, 'My house is a house of prayer,'[277] but you have made it 'a haunt of bandits.'[278]"

[47]And he was teaching daily in the temple. And the chief priests and the Torah scholars, along with the leaders of the people, were trying to kill him. [48]Yet they were not finding any way they could do it, because the entire crowd was hanging on him, listening to him.

Chapter 20

The Authorities Question Jesus' Authority

[1]And it came about during one of those days of his teaching the crowd in the temple and preaching the good news, that the high priests and Torah scholars and elders came up, [2]and they said to him as follows: "Tell us, by what authority are you doing these things? Or, who is the one who gave you the authority for these things?"

275 Psalm 118:26

276 Jesus says, "yes, even you," because of the irony that the city of Jerusalem, whose name includes the Semitic root word for peace, did not recognize what would bring it peace, and did not recognize the Prince of Peace.

277 Isaiah 56:7

278 Jeremiah 7:11

[3]And in answer Jesus said to them, "I will also ask you something, that you must tell me: [4]John's baptism, was it from heaven, or from human beings?"

[5]So they discussed it among themselves, saying, "If we say, 'From heaven,' he will say, 'Then why didn't you believe him?' [6]But if we say, 'From human beings,' all the people will stone us, because they are convinced that John was a prophet.'"

[7]And they professed not to know where it was from. [8]And Jesus said to them, "Neither am I telling you by what authority I do these things."

The Parable of the Tenants

[9]And he began to speak this parable to the crowd: "A man planted a vineyard, and leased it out to tenant-farmers, and journeyed away for quite some time. [10]And in the time of harvest, he sent a servant to the tenants, so they could pay him rent out of the fruit of the vineyard. But the tenants, after beating him, sent him away empty-handed. [11]And he proceeded to send a another servant; and that one also, after beating and insulting him, they sent away empty-handed. [12]And he proceeded to send a third; and that one also they threw out, after injuring him.

[13]"So the owner of the vineyard said, 'What should I do? I will send my beloved son; maybe when they see him, they will have respect.'

[14]"But when they saw him, the tenants discussed it among themselves, saying, 'This is the heir. Come, let us kill him, so that the inheritance will be ours.' [15]And they threw him outside the vineyard and killed him. "What then will the owner of the vineyard do to them? [16]He will come, and he will kill those tenants, and he will give the vineyard to others."

And those who heard this said, "May it never be!"

[17]But he, after looking at them, said, "Why then is this written:

'A stone which the builders rejected,
this one has become the chief cornerstone'?[279]

[18]Everyone who trips over that stone will be broken into pieces; upon whomever the stone falls, it will turn him into powder."

[19]And at that time, the chief priests and the Torah scholars wanted to lay their hands on him, yet they were afraid of the people. For they knew that he had spoken this parable in reference to them.

Paying the Tribute Tax to Caesar

[20]And beginning to watch him closely, they sent spies presenting themselves as sincere, in order to catch some statement of his, so that they could hand him over to the jurisdiction and authority of the governor.

[21]And they questioned him as follows: "Teacher, we know that you talk straight, and you teach straight; that is, you do not acknowledge personage, but only on the basis of truth you teach the way of God. [22]Is it permissible for us to pay the tribute tax to Caesar, or not?"

[23]But he perceived their trickery, and said to them, "Why are you testing me? [24]Show me a denarius. Whose image does it bear, and whose inscription?"

So in answer they said, "Caesar's."

[25]And he said to them, "Well then, Caesar's things give back to Caesar, and God's things to God."

[26]And they were not able to catch him in a saying in the presence of the people; and having been astonished by his answer, they remained silent.

Marriage at the Resurrection

[27]Then some of the Sadducees approached (they declare in opposition, that there is no resurrection), and they questioned him [28]as follows: "Teacher, Moses wrote for us, 'If a man's brother dies having a wife, and that deceased dies childless, that the man should take the wife of his brother, and raise up descendants for his brother.'[280]

---

[29]"Well, there were seven brothers. And the first one, who had taken a wife, died childless. [30]And the second one took the woman, and this man died childless. [31]And the third one took her. And in fact, all seven in the same way, left behind no child, and died. [32]Last of all, the woman also died.

[33]"So in the resurrection, whose wife is she going to be? For all seven had her as wife."

[34]And in answer Jesus said to them, "The children of this age marry and are given in marriage; [35]but those considered worthy to taste of that age and of the resurrection from the dead, will neither marry nor be given in marriage, [36]nor will they be able to die any more, for they will be like the angels and be children of God, since they are children of the resurrection.

[37]"But that the dead are rising, even Moses intimated so, at the part about the bush, the way he says Yehovah is the God of Abraham, and the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob. [38]Now God is not the God of dead people, but of living for to him all of those are alive."

[39]And one of the Torah scholars said in response, "Teacher, well said."

Whose Son Is the Messiah

[40]No longer then did any of them dare to question him. [41]So he said in reference to them, "How do they maintain the Messiah to be the son of David? [42]You see David himself says in the scroll of the Psalms,

'Yehovah said to my Lord:
"Sit at my right hand
[43]until such time I make your enemies
a footstool for your feet.'[281]"

[44]So, David calls him Lord. How then is he his son?"

Jesus Denounces the Torah Scholars

[45]And with the entire crowd listening, he said to his disciples, [46]"Beware of the Torah scholars, wanting to walk around in robes, and loving the greetings in the marketplaces, and chief seats in the synagogues, and places of honor at banquets; [47]they devour the houses of widows, and for a front, make lengthy prayers. These will receive greater condemnation."

Chapter 21

The Widow's Offering

[1]And when he looked up, he saw rich people putting their gifts into the donation chest. [2]Then he saw also a penniless widow dropping there two lepta,[282] [3]and he said, "Truly I tell you, this poor widow has put in more than all the rest. [4]For they all donated into God's offerings from the extra they had, but she out of her lack put in all she had to live on."

Signs of the Times

[5]And as some of them were talking about the temple, how with such beautiful stones and gifts it was adorned, he said: [6]"These things that you are looking at, days will come in which there will not be left a stone upon a stone that will not be thrown down."

[7]And they questioned him as follows, "Teacher, so when will these things be, and what sign will happen when they are all about to take place?"

[8]And he said, "See to it that you are not led astray. For many will come in my name, saying, 'I am He,' and, 'The Lord is near.' Do not go off after them therefore. [9]So when you hear of wars and unrest, do not be alarmed; for these things need to happen first, but the end does not come immediately."

[10]Then, he was saying to them, "Nation will rise up against nation, and kingdom against kingdom, [11]and there will be mega-quakes, and famines and epidemics in various places, and frightful and awesome signs from heaven.

[12]"But before all these things, they will lay their hands on you and will persecute you, handing you over to synagogues and prisons, being led all the way up to kings and governors for the sake of my name; [13]but it will work out for you to be a testimony. [14]Put it in your hearts therefore, not to be practicing how to answer in defense; [15]for I will give you utterance and wisdom that none of those opposing you will be able to stand against or rebut.

[16]"But you will also be turned in by parents and siblings and relatives and friends, and they will put some of you to death. [17]And indeed you will be hated by everyone because of my name. [18]Yet not a hair of your head will perish: [19]by your enduring, you will gain your lives.

[20]"But when you see Jerusalem surrounded by armies, then you will know that her desolation is near. [21]Then, those in Judea should flee to the mountains, and those within Jerusalem should get without, and those in the fields should not go into her. [22]For those are days of vengeance, in fulfillment of all that is written. [23]But alas for the ones who are pregnant, and the ones giving milk during those days! For it will be a great calamity upon the land, and wrath toward this people. [24]And they will fall by the edge of the sword, and be taken captive to all the nations; and Jerusalem will be trampled over by Gentiles, until the times of the Gentiles are played out.

[25]And there will be signs in the sun, the moon and the stars, and on earth anxiety of the nations, in uncertainty over the roar and surge of the sea, [26]people holding their breath in fear and anticipation because of the things overtaking the world; for the forces of space will be shaken.

[27]"And then at that time they will see the Son of Man coming in a cloud, with power and great glory. [28]So when these things are beginning to take place, stand yourselves tall and lift up your heads, because your redemption is drawing near."

[29]And he spoke a parable to them: "Consider the fig tree, indeed all the trees. [30]When they are now putting forth leaves, you see for yourselves and know that summer is now near. [31]So also you, when you see these things taking place, you know that the kingdom of God is near. [32]Truly I tell you: this age will by no means pass away until this all has taken place. [33]Sky and earth will pass away, but my words will certainly not pass away.

[34]"But watch yourselves, that your hearts not be held back[283] by over-indulgence and drunkenness, and by ordinary concerns of this mortal life, and that day come upon you suddenly [35]like a trap. For it will come upon everyone who lives over the face of the whole earth. [36]So you must be watchful at all times, praying that you might be considered worthy to escape all these things about to come to pass, and stand before the Son of Man."

[37]And he was spending the days teaching in the temple, and the nights he was going out and lodging on the hill called the Mount of Olives. [38]And all the people would get up early to come to the temple and hear him.

[283] Or, "desensitized." The heart is not literally weighed down. The spiritual strength, alertness, sensitivity, sharpness, and passion might be lessened by the things mentioned.

Chapter 22

The Contract on Jesus

[1]And the Festival of Unleavened Bread, called Passover, was approaching, [2]and the chief priests and the Torah scholars were still yet looking for a way to put him to death, because they were still yet fearing the people.

[3]Then Satan entered into Judas, the one called Ish Keriot, who was one of their number, of the Twelve. [4]And he went away, and discussed with the chief priests and the commanders of the temple guard how he might hand him over to them. [5]And they were delighted, and contracted to give him money. [6]And he accepted, and was looking for the best time for handing him over to them, without the crowd.

The Passover Supper

[7]And the day of Unleavened Bread arrived in which it was customary to slaughter the Passover. [8]And he sent Peter and John, saying, "Go, prepare the Passover for us so we can eat it."

[9]And they said to him, "Where do you want us to prepare it?"

[10]And he told them, "Behold, at the point of your arriving into the city a man carrying a water jar will encounter you. Follow him to whatever house he goes into. [11]And say to the owner of the house, 'The teacher says to you, "Where is the guest room where I may eat the Passover with my disciples?" ' [12]And that person will show you a large upstairs room all furnished. You shall prepare it there." [13]So when they went, they found things just as he had told them; and they prepared the Passover.

[14]And when the hour had come, he reclined, and the twelve disciples along with him. [15]And he said to them, "It is with great longing and anticipation I have wanted to eat this Passover with you before my suffering. [16]For I tell you: I will certainly not eat of it again until such time it has been fulfilled in the kingdom of God."

[17]And after taking hold of the cup, he gave thanks, and said, "Take this, and share it among yourselves; [18]for I tell you: By no means will I drink of the fruit of the vine until such time the kingdom of God has come."

[19]And after taking the bread and giving thanks, he broke it and gave it to them, saying, "This is my body, being given for you. This you should do as a commemoration of me."[284]

[20]In the same way also the cup after the meal,[285] saying: "This cup is the new covenant in my blood, being poured out for you.

[21]"But lo, the hand of the one betraying me is with mine on the table. [22]Thus indeed the Son of Man is going out exactly as is planned. Even so, woe to that man through whom he is betrayed!"

[23]And they began to debate with each other which of them therefore might be the one about to do this.

[24]Then there also arose another dispute among them, as to which of them was considered to be greater.

[25]And he said to them, "The kings of the nations lord it over them, and those exercising authority over them are called 'benefactors.' [26]But not so with you. Rather, the greatest among you should be like the youngest,[286] and the leader as the one who serves. [27]For who is greater: the one reclining, or the one serving? Is it not the one reclining? Among you though, I am as the one serving.

---

[284] "This you should do" is referring to the Passover. From now on, they and we should do the Passover in commemoration of Jesus' death on our behalf. Both the unleavened bread and the Passover lamb or kid are His body figuratively.

[285] Or possibly, "with" the meal.

[286] The youngest, as in Acts 5:6, customarily performed the menial tasks, and submitted to the elders.

[28]"But you are the ones who have stuck with me through my trials; [29]and I am assigning to you a kingdom, just as my Father did to me, [30]such that you will eat and drink at my table in my kingdom, and sit upon thrones, judging the twelve tribes of Israel.

Jesus Predicts the Disciples' Crisis of Faith

[31]And the Lord said, "Simon, Simon, behold, Satan has obtained permission to have you all, to sift you all like wheat. [32]But I have prayed for you, that your faith will not completely die. And you, when you have come back around, strengthen your brothers."

[33]But he said to him, "Lord, I am prepared to go with you both to prison and to death."

[34]But Jesus said, "I tell you, Peter: the rooster will not crow this day, until you have denied three times that you know me."

[35]And he said to them, "When I sent you without purse, knapsack and sandals, did you lack anything?"

And they said, "Nothing."

[36]Then he said, "But now, he who has a purse should bring it, or a knapsack likewise, and he who does not have a sword, should sell his cloak and buy one. [37]For I tell you, this which is written still has to be fulfilled in me:

'And he was considered one of the outlaws.'[287]

Yes indeed, that about me is reaching fulfillment."

[38]So they said, "Lord, look. There are two swords here."

And he said to them, "That is enough."

Gethsemane

[39]And after going out, he proceeded as was his custom to the Mount of Olives; and his disciples followed him also. [40]And coming upon the place he said to them, "Pray not to come into temptation." [41]And he withdrew from them, about a stone's throw away. And having dropped his knees, he was praying, [42]as follows: "Father, if you are willing, remove this cup from me. However, not my will, but yours be done." [43]And an angel from heaven appeared to him, strengthening him. [44]And being in agony, he was praying more earnestly; and his sweat became like drops of blood falling onto the ground.

[45]And after rising from prayer and returning to the disciples, he found them sleeping, out of sorrow. [46]And he said to them, "Why are you sleeping? Get up and pray, that you not go into temptation."

Jesus Arrested

[47]And while he was yet speaking, behold, a crowd, and the one called Judas, one of the Twelve, was leading them. And he came up to Jesus, and kissed him. [48]But Jesus said to him, "Judas, with a kiss you betray the Son of Man?"

[49]And seeing what was going to be happening, those around him said to him, "Lord, shall we strike with swords?" [50]And one of them struck the servant of the high priest, and cut off his right ear.

[51]But in response Jesus said, "Let that be enough of that." And he touched his ear and healed him.

[52]Then, toward those coming against him, the chief priests, temple officers and elders, Jesus said, "As though after a bandit, you have come out with swords and clubs? [53]Every day with me being next to you in the temple you didn't lay your hands on me. But this is the hour for you, and the authority of darkness."

---

287 Isaiah 53:12

Peter's Denials

[54]And after seizing him, they took him and led him into the house of the high priest; and Peter was following at a distance. [55]And since people had lit a fire in the middle of the courtyard and were all sitting together, Peter was sitting among them. [56]But a maidservant noticed him sitting toward the fire, and after studying him, she said, "This man also was with him."

[57]But he denied Him, saying, "Woman, I do not know him."

[58]And shortly thereafter, another person who saw him was saying, "You are also one of them."

And Peter was saying, "Man, I am not."

[59]And after about an hour had passed, someone else was affirming, saying, "Definitely, this man was also with him; he is also Galilean."

[60]But Peter said, "Man, I do not know what you are talking about." And immediately as he was still speaking, the rooster crowed. [61]And the Lord turned and looked at Peter, and he remembered the statement of the Lord, how he had said to him, "Before the rooster crows, you will deny me three times." [62]And Peter went off outside, and bitterly wept.

Before the Sanhedrin

[63]And the men guarding Jesus were making fun of him as they beat him up. [64]After blindfolding him, they were pummeling his face, and questioning him, saying, "Prophesy, who is it that hit you?" [65]And they were saying many other insulting things against him.

[66]And as the day broke, the elders of the people and the high priests and the Torah scholars were assembled, and they brought him over into their Sanhedrin, [67]saying, "Tell us whether you are the Christ."

And he said to them, "If I told you, you would certainly not believe, [68]and if I also asked questions, you would certainly not answer me, nor release me. [69]From now on, the Son of Man will be sitting at the right hand of the power of God."

[70]So they all said, "You are the Son of God then?"

And he was saying to them, "You are saying that I am."

[71]And they said, "What more need do we have for witnesses? For we ourselves have heard from his own mouth."[288]

Chapter 23

Jesus Before Pilate and Herod

[1]And the whole assembly of them got up, and they took him before Pilate. [2]And they began to accuse him, as follows. "We found this man misleading the nation and forbidding to give tribute to Caesar, claiming to be a king himself, the Christ."

[3]So Pilate examined him, saying, "Are you the king of the Jews?"

And he in answer to him was saying, "You are the one saying that."

[4]And Pilate said to the chief priests and the crowds, "I find no causa capitalis in this man."[289]

[5]But they were getting more insistent, saying, "He incites the people, teaching throughout the entire land of the Jews, starting from Galilee and all the way to here."

---

[288] The Sanhedrin would not be satisfied with anything less than a vehement and passionate denial from Jesus. Thus the Sanhedrin's reaction, of needing no more witnesses or evidence. But even what Jesus had already said here earlier, in 22:69, that Jesus would be seated at the right hand of God, that would be offense enough.

[289] That is, basis for capital punishment.

[6]And when Pilate heard "Galilee," he asked, "Is the man a Galilean?" [7]And when he had confirmed that he is in fact from Herod's jurisdiction, he referred him to Herod, who was in Jerusalem too for those days.

[8]Now Herod was very glad when he saw Jesus. He had been wanting for some time to meet him, because of hearing many things about him, and he hoped to see something miraculous happening through him. [9]So he was plying him with a considerable amount of questions; but Jesus never gave any response at all. [10]And the chief priests and the Torah scholars were standing there throughout, vehemently accusing him.

[11]Then Herod, together with his soldiers, after treating him with contempt and mocking him by draping a splendid robe around him, sent him back to Pilate. [12]Which caused Pilate and Herod to become friends with each other that same day (for they had previously always been hostile toward each other).

[13]And Pilate summoned the high priest, together with the rulers and the people, [14]and he said to them, "You have brought this man up to me as someone inciting the people to treason, and here now is my finding after trying him in your presence. I have found in this man no basis for the charges you are bringing against him. [15]And neither has Herod, for he has sent him back to us. So you see, nothing being done by him is worthy of death. [16]Therefore, having scourged him, I will release him." [17]Now he was obligated by custom according to the festival to release one person to them.

[18]But they all together shouted back, saying, "Away with this man! Release to us Barabbas!" [19](He was someone who had been thrown in prison because of a certain uprising and murder that took place in the city.)

[20]Pilate therefore, wanting to release Jesus, called out to them again. [21]But they cried out, saying, "Crucify him, crucify him!"

[22]But a third time, he said to them, "Why? What crime has this man committed? Having scourged him therefore, I will release him."

[23]But with loud shouts the crowd kept urgently demanding that he be crucified. And their shouts along with those of the high priests prevailed, [24]and Pilate decided to grant their request. [25]And he released for them the man who had been thrown into prison for insurrection and murder, the one whom they had asked for, and Jesus he handed over to their will.

The Crucifixion

[26]And as they led him away, they seized a Cyrenian, Simon, who was returning from the country, and they placed the cross on him, to carry it behind Jesus. [27]And a great multitude of the people were following him, and women who also were mourning and lamenting him.

[28]But Jesus turned to them, and he said, "Daughters of Jerusalem, do not weep for me, but weep for yourselves, and for your children. [29]For behold, days are coming in which they will say, 'Blessed are the barren, and the wombs that never bore, and the breasts that never nursed.' [30]At that time they will begin to say to the mountains, 'Fall on us,' and to the hills, 'Cover us.'[290] [31]For if they do these things when the tree is green, what will happen when it is dry?"

[32]Now two others, criminals, were also being taken with him to be executed. [33]And when they came to the place called The Skull [גֻּלְגַּלְתָּא], there they crucified him, along with the criminals, one on his right and one on his left. [34]And Jesus said, "Father, forgive them, for they do not know what they are doing." And they cast lots, for dividing out his clothing.

[35]And the people stood there, watching. Now the rulers also were with them, sneering at him, saying, "He saved others; he should save himself, if this is the Christ, the chosen one of God."

---

[290] Hosea 10:8

[36]And the soldiers, when they were approaching and bringing him vinegar, also made fun of him. [37]They also were saying, "If you are the king of the Jews, save yourself."

[38]Now there was also an inscription written above him in Greek, Latin and Hebrew letters: "THIS IS THE KING OF THE JEWS."

[39]And one of the criminals hung there was deriding him, saying, "If you are the Christ, save yourself and us."

[40]But in response the other one was rebuking him, saying, "Don't you fear God at all, considering that you yourself are in this same judgment? [41]And we indeed justly; for we have gotten back what was fitting to how we have lived. But this man, he has done nothing wrong."

[42]And then he was saying to Jesus, "Remember me, Lord, when you come into your kingdom."

[43]And Jesus said to him, "I tell you the truth, today you will be with me in Paradise."

Jesus' Death

[44]Now it was about noon,[291] and darkness came across the whole land until 3:00 p.m. [45]And the sun was darkened. And the curtain of the temple was torn in two. [46]And crying out with a loud voice, Jesus said, "Father, into your hands I commit my spirit."[292] And after he had said this, he expired.

[47]Now the centurion when he saw what had happened, he gave glory to God, saying, "This really must have been a righteous man."

[48]And all the crowds who had gathered around for this spectacle, when they observed what took place, they were turning away, beating their breasts. [49]But all those who knew him, including the women who had followed with him from Galilee, stood off at a distance throughout, watching these things.

Jesus' Burial

[50]And behold, there was a council member named Joseph, who was a good and righteous man [51](he was not going along with their decision and actions), from Arimathea, a city in Judea, who even himself was also looking forward to the kingdom of God. [52]This man went to Pilate and asked for the body of Jesus. [53]And when he had taken it down he wrapped it in linen, and laid it in a hewn-out tomb, which no one was lying in yet. [54]And it was the day of Preparation, and the Sabbath was coming on.

[55]Now some women had also followed close behind, which were the ones who had come with him from Galilee. They observed the tomb, and how his body was interred. [56]Then when they returned home, they prepared spices and perfumes. And for the Sabbath though, they did rest, in keeping with the commandment;

Chapter 24

The Resurrection

[1]but at the crack of dawn on the first day of the week, they went to the tomb, carrying the spices they had prepared. Some others also were with them. [2]But they found the stone had been rolled away from the tomb.

[291] Greek, "the sixth hour," that is, the sixth hour from 6 a.m. when the daytime starts, which makes this 12:00 noon. So also the remaining references to time in Luke: the darkness lasted until 3:00 p.m. (Grk-the ninth hour), when Jesus cried out to the Father. Jesus Appears to the Women

[3]And when they went inside, they did not find the body of the Lord Jesus. [4]And it happened that while they were puzzling over this, behold, two men appeared to them, in gleaming robes.

[5]And when terror came over them, such that they had bowed their faces down to the ground, the men said to them, "Why are you looking for the living among the dead? [6]He is not here, but is risen! Recall how he spoke to you while still in Galilee, [7]saying that the Son of Man must be transferred into the hands of sinful mortals, and be crucified, and on the third day rise again."

[8]And they did recall his statements. [9]And when they returned from the tomb, they related all these things to the Eleven and to all the rest.

[10]Now it was the Magdalene Mary, and Joanna, and Mary the mother of James, and the others with them who were telling these things to the apostles; [11]and their statements appeared to them as nonsense, and they did not believe them.

[12]But Peter got up and ran to the tomb, and after stooping down, he sees only the linen bandages lying there. And he went away, wondering to himself what had happened.

On the Road to Emmaus

[13]And behold, that same day, two of them were on their way to a village named Emmaus, which was seven miles[293] from Jerusalem. [14]And these two were conversing with each other about the outcome of all these things.

[15]And it came about, that they are in conversation, and Jesus himself has come up, walking along with them. [16]Their eyes, however, were being restrained, so as not to recognize him.

[17]And he said to them, "What is this discussion you are having with each other as you are walking along and looking dismal?"

[18]And in response, one, who was named Cleopas, said to him, "Are you just a visitor in Jerusalem, and unaware of the things happening in it during these days?"

[19]And he said to them, "What things?"

And they said to him, "The things concerning Jesus the Nazarene, who was a prophet powerful in deed and in word, in the eyes of both God and all the people; [20]how the chief priests and our rulers handed him over for the sentence of death, and how they crucified him. [21]And here we had been hoping he was the one who was going to redeem Israel. And what is more, today he is already spending his third day in the grave since when these things took place.

[22]"And not only that, now some of our women have confounded us. They were at the tomb early this morning, [23]and not finding his body, they came back, claiming also to have seen a vision of angels, which were maintaining that he was alive. [24]So some of our number went to the tomb, and found it just as the women had said; but him they did not see."

[25]And he said to them, "O you thick headed, and slow of heart to believe on all the things the prophets have spoken! [26]Were not these things required for the Christ to suffer in order to go on into his glory?" [27]And beginning with Moses, and through all the prophets, he was interpreting for them the things in all the writings that were about himself.

[28]And they came near to the village to which they were going, and he was pretending to go on farther. [29]And they urged him insistently, saying, "Lodge with us, because it is near evening, and the daylight is almost gone." And he went inside, to lodge with them.

[30]And it came about that as he reclined with them, he took bread, gave thanks and broke it, and was distributing it to them. [31]Then their eyes were opened, and they recognized him. And he disappeared from them.

293 Greek: sixty stadia, or about 11 kilometers.

[32]And they said to each other, "Were not our hearts burning within us as he talked to us on the road, and as he explained the scriptures to us?" [33]And after rising up that very hour, they returned to Jerusalem, and found the Eleven and those with them all gathered together, [34]who were saying that the Lord really was risen, and had appeared to Simon. [35]And then the former were recounting the events on the road, and how he was made known to them in the breaking of the bread.

Jesus Appears to the Apostles

[36]And while they were speaking these things, Jesus himself stood in the midst of them, and he is saying to them, "Peace be with you."

[37]But alarmed they were, and terrified, thinking they were seeing a ghost. [38]And he said to them, "Why are you troubled? And for what reason are doubts arising in your hearts? [39]Behold my hands and my feet, that I am me. Touch me, and know, because a ghost does not have flesh and bones as you see me having." [40]And when he had said this, he showed them his hands and his feet.

[41]But, since they were still not believing, out of joy and astonishment, he said to them, "What do you have to eat in this place?" [42]So they handed him a piece of broiled fish and part of a honeycomb. [43]And he took it, and ate it in front of them.

The Ascension

[44]And he said to them, "These are the words which I spoke to you while I was still with you, how all the things written about me in the law of Moses and the prophets and the psalms must be fulfilled." [45]Then at that time he opened their minds to understand the scriptures.

[46]And he said to them, "Thus it is written, and thus it was necessary for the Christ to suffer, and to rise from the dead the third day, [47]and that repentance and forgiveness of sins is to be preached in his name to all the nations, beginning from Jerusalem. [48]And you are witnesses of these things. [49]And behold I am sending my Father's promise down upon you. So you are to stay in the city of Jerusalem until such time you are endued with power from on high."

[50]Then he led them outside, as far as Bethany. And after lifting up his hands, he blessed them. [51]And it came about that as he was blessing them, he parted from them, and was taken up into heaven.

[52]And they, after worshiping him, returned back to Jerusalem with great rejoicing. [53]And throughout those days they were continually at the temple, praising and thanking God. Amen.

John

Chapter 1

The Word Became Flesh Among Us

[1]In the beginning was the Word, and the Word was with God, and the Word was God. [2]He was with God in the beginning.

[3]All things were made by him, and without him not one thing was made that has been made. [4]In him was life, and that life was the light for humankind. [5]And the light shines in the darkness, and the darkness has not mastered it.

[6]There came a man sent from God; his name was John. [7]He came as a witness to testify about that light, so that through him all people might believe. [8]He himself was not the light; he came rather to bear witness to the light. [9]The true light, which gives light to every human being, was coming into the world.

[10]He was in the world, and though the world was made by him, the world did not recognize him. [11]He came to that which was his own, and his own did not receive him. [12]But to all who did receive him, to those believing on his name, he gave the right to become children of God— [13]children born, not from bloods, nor from body desire, nor from a man's decision, but born of God.

[14]And the Word became flesh, and moved his tent in among us; and we beheld his glory, the glory as of an only begotten from a Father, full of grace and truth.

[15]John testifies concerning him, and he has cried out, saying: "This is he of whom I said, 'The one coming after me has outranked me, because he existed before me.'"

[16]And out of his fulness we have all received, yes, grace upon grace. [17]For the law was given through Moses; grace and truth came through Jesus Christ. [18]No one has ever seen God; but the Only Begotten Son, who is in the bosom of the Father, he has made him known.

The Pharisees Question John

[19]And this is the testimony of John, when the Jews sent priests and Levites from Jerusalem in order to ask him, "Who are you?" [20]And he confessed, and did not resist; but confessed, "I am not the Anointed One."

[21]And they asked him, "Who then? Are you Elijah?"

And he says, "I am not."

"Are you the Prophet?"[294]

And he answered, "No."

[22]They said therefore to him, "Who are you? So we may give an answer to those who sent us, what do you say about yourself?"

[23]He said, "I am just as Isaiah the prophet said: 'the voice of one calling in the wilderness, "Prepare the way for the Lord." ' "[295]

[24]And those who were sent were of the Pharisees. [25]And they questioned him and said to him, "Why then do you baptize, if you are not the Anointed One, nor Elijah, nor the Prophet?"

[294] Deuteronomy 18:14-20

[295] Isaiah 40:3 Or, "He said just what the prophet Isaiah said: ..." A matter of interpretation here is how to place the quotation marks. Is John the Baptizer the one saying, "just as Isaiah the prophet said"? (NASB, NAB, NKJV, CBW, JB, JBP) Or is it John the apostle narrating who said it? (NIV, NRSV, NCV, CEV, NLT, JNT, REB) It is reasonable to think that John the Baptizer was aware of how the Isaiah passage pertained to himself, and that he so stated. Verse 20 says that he confessed and did not resist. In other words, he communicated openly and freely about what he believed he was. On the other hand, it may be well to leave it such that the Isaiah prophecy is applicable to both John the Baptizer and to the two witnesses in Revelation 11:3-12, one of which is Elijah.

[26]John answered them as follows, "I baptize in water, but among you stands one you do not know, [27]he is the one coming after me, who is preferred before me, the thong of whose sandal I am not worthy to untie."

[28]These things happened in Bethabara, on the other side of the Jordan, where John was baptizing.

Behold the Lamb of God

[29]The next day John sees Jesus coming toward him, and says, "Behold! The lamb of God, who takes away the sin of the world! [30]This is he of whom I said, 'After me will come a man who has outranked me because he existed before me.' [31]And I myself did not know him, but the reason I came baptizing in water was that he might be revealed to Israel."

[32]Then John testified, saying: "I have seen the Spirit come down from heaven like a dove, and it remained upon him. [33]And I myself had not known him, but the one who sent me to baptize in water, he told me, 'On whomever you see the Spirit coming down and remaining upon, this is the one who will baptize in the Holy Spirit.' [34]And now I have seen, and now I have testified, that this is the Son of God."

John and Andrew Have Found the Messiah

[35]The next day, again, John was standing with two[296] of his disciples. [36]And seeing Jesus walking, he says, "Behold, the Lamb of God!"

[37]The two disciples heard him saying this, and they followed Jesus. [38]And Jesus turned around; and seeing them following, says to them, "What do you want?"

And they said to him, "Rabbi," (which when translated is Teacher), "where are you staying?"

[39]He says to them, "Come and see."

They went, and saw where he was staying, and spent the rest of that day with him. (And the hour was about 10 a.m.)

[40]Andrew, the brother of Simon Peter, was one of the two hearing from John and following Jesus. [41]This man first thing finds his own brother Simon, and he tells him, "We have found the Messiah" (which when translated is the Anointed One).

[42]And he led him to Jesus.

And when Jesus saw him he said, "You are Simon son of Jonah. You will be called Kephas" (which when translated is Rock.)[297]

Philip and Nathaniel

[43]The next day Jesus decided to go forth into Galilee; and he finds Philip. And he says to him, "Follow me."

[44]And Philip was from Bethsaida, of the city of Andrew and Peter. [45]Philip finds Nathaniel, and tells him, "We have found him of whom Moses in the Law, and also the prophets wrote: Jesus son of Joseph, from Nazareth."

[46]And Nathaniel said to him, "Is it possible for anything good to be from Nazareth?"

Philip says to him, "Come and see."

[47]When Jesus saw Nathaniel coming toward him, he says about him, "Behold a true Israelite, in whom there is no artifice."

[48]Nathaniel answered, and says to him, "Where do you know me from?"

---

[296] John the son of Zebedee and Andrew the brother of Peter

[297] Greek, Petros. The writers of the gospels translated the name from the Aramaic language, which Jesus spoke, to the language of the readers— Greek, because they apparently desired that their readers know the man as Rock, which is the English translation of Petros. In that spirit of the writers, we English speakers are to know him as Rock. With that in mind, I have nonetheless from this point on used the Anglicized transliteration of Petros, which is Peter, since it is so familiar.

And Jesus answered and said to him, "I saw you while you were under the fig tree, before Philip called you."

[49]Nathaniel answered, and says to him, "Rabbi, you are the Son of God, you are the King of Israel."

[50]Jesus answered and said to him, "You believe because I told you I saw you under the fig tree? You shall see greater things than that." [51]He then says to him, "Truly, truly I say to you, hereafter you shall all see heaven torn open, and the angels of God ascending and descending on the Son of Man."

Chapter 2

Water Into Wine

[1]And on the third day a wedding took place at Cana in Galilee. Jesus' mother was there, [2]and both Jesus and his disciples had been invited to the wedding. [3]And when wine was lacking, Jesus' mother says to him, "They have no wine."

[4]Jesus says to her, "What business is there between you and me, woman? My time has not yet come."

[5]His mother says to the servants, "Whatever he tells you, do."

[6]And there were six stone water jars lying there, for the ceremonial washing of the Jews, each holding from two to three measures.[298]

[7]Jesus says to them, "Fill the jars with water." So they filled them to the brim.

[8]And he tells them, "Now draw some out, and take it to the master of the banquet." And they took some.

[9]When the master of the banquet tasted the water become wine, not knowing where it had come from, but the servants having drawn the water knowing, the master of the banquet calls the bridegroom, [10]and says to him, "Everyone sets out the good wine first, and after they have become drunk, then the cheaper wine. You have kept the good wine till now."

[11]This, the first of the miraculous signs, Jesus did in Cana of Galilee, and manifested his glory, and his disciples believed in him.

[12]After this he went down to Capernaum, he and his mother and his brothers and his disciples, and there they stayed for a few days.

Jesus Cleanses the Temple

[13]And the Passover of the Jews was near, and Jesus went up to Jerusalem. [14]And in the temple he found those selling cattle, sheep and doves, and the money changers sitting. [15]And having made a whip out of ropes, he expelled all from the temple, including the sheep and the cattle, and he poured out the coins of the money changers, and overturned the tables, [16]and he said to those selling the doves, "Take these out of here! Do not make the house of my Father a house of commerce!"

[17]Then his disciples remembered that it is written: "The zeal for your house has consumed me."[299]

[18]The Jews[300] responded therefore and said to him, "What sign are you showing us, that you can do these things?"

---

[298] Twenty to thirty gallons, or from 75 to 115 liters. Each measure contained 72 sextarii or pints.

[299] Psalm 69:9

[300] Wasn't Jesus a Jew? Wasn't the apostle John, who wrote this account, a Jew? Yes they were, so why does John set "the Jews" as a contrast to Jesus? There are a couple possible explanations of this. One explanation is that he means, "Judeans, those who live in Jerusalem and Judea as opposed to Galilee, people who did in fact look down on Galileeans. John 7:1 says, "And after these things, Jesus was walking around in Galilee, for he was not wanting to walk in Judea, because the Jews were seeking to kill him." John 11:53-54 says, "Thus from that time on they [the Sanhedrin] were resolved that they would kill him. Therefore, Jesus no longer walked openly among the Jews, but departed from there to an area next to the desert, to a town called Ephraim, and there he stayed, along with his disciples."

[19]Jesus answered and said to them, "Destroy this temple, and in three days I will raise it."

[20]Then the Jews said, "This temple was built in forty-six years, and you in three days will raise it?" [21]But he had spoken of the temple of his body. [22]When therefore he was raised from the dead, his disciples remembered that he had said this to them, and they believed the scripture, and the word that Jesus had spoken.

[23]And while he was in Jerusalem at the Passover during the Festival, many believed in his name— seeing the miraculous signs he was doing. [24]But Jesus on his part did not commit himself to them, because he knew all people, [25]and because he had no need that anyone testify about a person, for he knew what was in the person.

Chapter 3

You Must Be Born Again

[1]And there was a man of the Pharisees named Nicodemus, a ruler of the Jews. [2]He came to Jesus by night, and said to him, "Rabbi, we know that you are a teacher who has come from God. For no one would be able to do these miraculous signs you are doing, unless God were with him."

[3]Jesus answered and said to him, "Truly, truly I say to you, Unless one is born again from above, it is not possible to see the kingdom of God."

[4]Nicodemus says to him, "How is it possible for someone who is old, to be born? Can he enter a second time into his mother's womb, and be born?"

[5]Jesus answered, "Truly, truly I say to you, unless one is born from water and spirit, it is not possible to enter into the kingdom of God. [6]That born from flesh is flesh, and that born from Spirit is spirit. [7]You should not be surprised that I said to you, 'You[301] must be born from above.' [8]The wind blows where it will, and the sound of it you hear, but you do not know where it is coming from, and where it is going. Such is everyone born from the Spirit."

[9]Nicodemus answered and said to him, "How can these things be?"

[10]Jesus answered and said to him, "You are Teacher for Israel, and not familiar with these things?[302] [11]Truly, truly I tell you, we are saying what we know, and testifying to what we have seen, and you people do not accept our testimony. [12]If I have told you earthly things and you do not believe, how will you believe if I tell you heavenly things? [13]And no one has gone up into heaven except the one who came down from heaven, the Son of Man who abides in heaven. [14]And as Moses lifted up the snake in the desert, in like manner the Son of Man must be lifted up, [15]so that everyone who believes in him would not perish, but have everlasting life.

[16]"For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, so that everyone who believes in him would not perish, but have everlasting life. [17]For God did not send his Son into the world to condemn the world, but that the world might be saved through him. [18]The person who believes in him is not condemned. The person who does not believe is condemned already, because he has not believed in the name of God's only begotten Son.

[19]And this is the condemnation:

The light has come into the world.
And human beings loved the darkness

This may be a hint indicating that by leaving the area of Jerusalem, he was leaving "the Jews." Another explanation is that by the time John wrote his gospel, the followers of Jesus, even the Jewish ones, thought of themselves more as Christians than as Jews.

[301] The Greek is in the plural.

[302] Nicodemus should have known these concepts from I Samuel 10:6,7,9,11; Ezekiel 11:19,20; 18:31,32; 36:26,27; Isaiah 26:11-19 more than the light, because their works

were continually evil.

[20]For everyone practicing evil things, hates the light, and does not come toward the light, so that his works not be exposed. [21]But one doing the truth comes toward the light, so that his works may be manifest, that they have been accomplished in God."

"He Must Increase; I Must Decrease"

[22]After these things, Jesus and his disciples went into the Judean territory, and there he was spending time with them, and baptizing. [23]And John also was baptizing at Aenon near Salim, because there was plenty of water there, and they were coming and getting baptized. [24]For John was still not yet thrown into prison.

[25]Then a dispute arose between the disciples of John and the Jews about ceremonial washing. [26]And they came to John and said to him, "Rabbi, he who was with you on the other side of the Jordan, about whom you testified, behold, that man is baptizing, and everyone is moving to him."

[27]John answered and said, "A human being is not able to receive a thing that is not given to him from heaven. [28]You yourselves bear me witness that I said, 'I am not the Anointed One, but am sent ahead of him.' [29]The one possessing the bride is bridegroom, and the one standing and hearing him, the friend of the bridegroom, who rejoices with a joy on account of the voice of the bridegroom. That joy, my joy, is therefore fulfilled. [30]He must increase, and I must decrease.

[31]"The one who comes from above is above all; the one who is from the earth is of the earth, and speaks of the earth. The one who comes from heaven is above all. [32]And what he has seen and heard, this he testifies to, and no one accepts his testimony. [33]The person who accepts his testimony has vouched that God is truthful. [34]For he whom God has sent speaks the words of God; because to him God gives the Spirit without measure. [35]The Father loves the Son, and has given all things into his hand. [36]The person who believes in the Son, has eternal life, but the one who disobeys the Son will not see life, but rather, the wrath of God remains upon him."

Chapter 4

The Samaritan Woman at the Well

[1]Then, when the Lord knew that the Pharisees had heard that Jesus was making and baptizing more disciples than John, [2](although Jesus himself was not baptizing, but his disciples), [3]he left Judea, and went back into Galilee.

[4]But he had to pass through Samaria.[303] [5]Thus it is he comes to a town in Samaria called Sychar, near the plot of ground Jacob had given to his son Joseph. [6]And Jacob's well was there. So there Jesus was, sitting down by the well, tired from the journey. It was about 6 p.m.

[7]A woman of Samaria comes to draw water. Jesus says to her, "Give me a drink." [8](For his disciples had gone into the town to buy food.)

[9]Then the Samaritan woman says to him, "How is it you, being a Jew, are asking for a drink from me, being a Samaritan woman?" (For Jews do not use dishes in common with Samaritans.)

[10]Jesus answered and said to her, "If you knew the gift of God, and who it is saying to you, 'Give me a drink,' you would have asked him, and he would have given you living water."

---

[303] Samaria was the district north of Judea and south of Galilee. For Jesus to get to Galilee from where he was (Judea), he had to pass through Samaria in between; either that or go all the way around the east side of the Jordan River and Sea of Galilee, as some Jews would actually do, wanting so much to avoid Samaria.

[11]The woman says to him, "Sir, you do not have a bucket, and the shaft is deep. Where then do you hold the living water? [12]Are you greater than our forefather Jacob, who gave us the well, and drank from it himself, and also his sons and his animals?"

[13]Jesus answered and said to her, "Everyone who drinks from this water will thirst again, [14]but whoever drinks from the water which I will give him would never thirst again. Indeed, the water I give him will become in him a fountain of water springing up into life without end."

[15]The woman says to him, "Sir, give me this water. Then I wouldn't get thirsty, and neither would I have to keep coming over here to draw."

[16]Jesus says to her, "Go call your husband, and come back here."

[17]The woman answered and said, "I do not have a husband."

Jesus says to her, "Commendably, you said, 'I do not have a husband.' [18]For you have had five husbands, and he you now have is not your husband. This you have said honestly."

[19]The woman says to him, "Sir, I am perceiving that you are a prophet. [20]Our ancestors worshiped on this mountain, and you Jews say that the place where one must worship is in Jerusalem."

[21]Jesus says to her, "Woman, believe me, that a time is coming when you[304] will worship the Father neither on this mountain nor in Jerusalem. [22]You Samaritans worship what you do not know. We worship what we know, for salvation is of the Jews. [23]Nevertheless, a time is coming, and is now come, when the true worshipers will worship the Father in spirit and in truth, for indeed that is the kind the Father seeks as those worshiping him. [24]God is spirit, and those worshiping him, must worship in spirit and in truth."

[25]The woman says to him, "I do know that Messiah" (called Christ) "is coming. When he comes, he will teach us everything."

[26]Jesus says to her, "I, the one speaking to you, am he."

Lift Your Eyes, See My Food and My Harvest

[27]And at this point his disciples came, and they were surprised that he was talking with a woman. Still, no one said, "What do you want?" or, "Why are you talking with her?"

[28]Then, the woman left her water jar, and went away into the town. And she says to the people, [29]"Come, see a man who told me everything I ever did. Could he be the Messiah?"

[30]They therefore were proceeding out of the town and coming toward him. [31]And in the meantime, his disciples were pleading with him, saying, "Rabbi, eat."

[32]But he said to them, "I have food to eat that you do not know about."

[33]His disciples therefore were saying to each other, "Has someone brought him something to eat?"

[34]Jesus says to them, "That I may do the will of him who sent me, is food to me, and that I may finish his work. [35]Do you not say, 'There is four months yet, and then comes the harvest'? Behold, I say to you, lift up your eyes, and look upon the fields. For they are white even now for harvest. [36]And the one harvesting is taking his wages, and gathering fruit resulting in eternal life, so that both the one sowing and the one harvesting may rejoice together. [37]For the saying, 'One is the sower and another is the reaper,' is true in this: [38]I have sent you to harvest what you have not worked. Others have done the hard work, and you have joined in their labor."

The Woman's Talk Bears Fruit

[39]And many of the Samaritans from that town had believed in him because of the woman's word testifying, "He told me everything I ever did." [40]When therefore the Samaritans came to him, they asked him to remain with them, and he remained two days. [41]And, because of his word, many more believed.

---

[304] In the Greek, "you" is in the plural.

[42]And to the woman they said, "No longer because of your talk do we believe; for we have heard for ourselves, and we know that this man truly is the Messiah, the Savior of the world."

The Official's Son Stays Alive

[43]And after the two days he departed from there and went into Galilee. [44](Now Jesus himself testified, that in his own native place a prophet has no honor.) [45]When then he arrived in Galilee, the Galileans welcomed him– having seen all the things that he had done in Jerusalem at the festival, for they also had gone to the festival.

[46]Jesus came again therefore to Cana in Galilee, where he had made the water wine. And there was a certain royal official there whose son lay sick at Capernaum. [47]When this man heard that Jesus was coming out of Judea into Galilee, he went to him and asked him to come and heal his son, for he was about to die.

[48]Jesus therefore said to him, "Unless you people see miraculous signs and terrifying omens, you will never believe."

[49]The royal official says to him, "Sir, come down before my child dies."

[50]Jesus says to him, "Go. Your son stays alive."

And the man believed the word that Jesus had said to him, and departed. [51]And even as he was going back down, his servants met him and reported, saying "Your boy is alive." [52]He therefore ascertained from them the exact time in which he had gotten better. And they said to him, "The fever left him yesterday at 7 p.m."

[53]Then the father realized: that was the hour in which Jesus had said to him, "Your son stays alive." And he and his whole household believed.

[54]Again, this second miraculous sign Jesus performed while coming out of Judea into Galilee.

Chapter 5

Jesus Heals in the Spa on the Sabbath

[1]After these things, there was a festival of the Jews, and Jesus went up to Jerusalem. [2]Now there is in Jerusalem near the Sheep Gate a pool, which in Hebrew is called Bethesda, having five colonnades. [3]In these a great number of disabled people used to lie, the blind, the lame, the paralyzed, waiting for the movement of the water. [4]For an angel from time to time would come down into the pool, and stir up the water. So the first one getting down in after the stirring of the water would be healed, whatever disease he had formerly been afflicted with. [5]And one man was there who had had a disability thirty-eight years. [6]When Jesus saw him lying there and learned that he had had his condition now for a long time, he says to him, "Do you want to get well?"

[7]The invalid answered him, "Sir, I have no one to put me into the pool when the water is stirred, and while I am going, someone else goes down ahead of me."

[8]Jesus says to him, "Stand up. Pick up your mat and walk." [9]And immediately the man became well, and he picked up his mat and walked. And that day was during a Sabbath.

[10]The Jews therefore said to the man who had been healed, "It is a Sabbath; it is not lawful for you to carry your mat."

[11]He answered them, "The man who made me well, he told me, 'Pick up your mat and walk.' "

[12]So they asked him, "Who is the man telling you to pick up your mat and walk?"

[13]But the man who was healed had not known who it was, for Jesus had slipped away, a crowd being in the place.

[14]After these things Jesus finds him at the temple and said to him, "Behold, you are well. Do not sin any longer, or something worse might happen to you." [15]The man went away and reported to the Jews that Jesus was the one who had made him well.

Hear the Voice of the Son and Live

[16]And for this reason the Jews persecuted Jesus and looked for a way to kill him, because he was doing these things on the Sabbath. [17]But Jesus answered them, "My Father is working continuously up to now, so I also am working." [18]For this reason the Jews tried all the more to kill him, because not only was he breaking the Sabbath, but he was also saying God was his own father, making himself equal to God.

[19]Therefore Jesus responded and said to them, "Truly, truly I say to you, the Son is not able to do anything of himself,[305] but only what he sees the Father doing. For whatever things that One does, these things also the Son does likewise. [20]For the Father loves the Son, and shows him every thing that he does. And indeed, greater works than these he will show him, such that you will be constantly amazed. [21]For just as the Father raises the dead and makes them alive, in this way also the Son makes alive those whom he wishes. [22]Moreover, the Father judges no one, but instead has given all judgment to the Son, [23]that all may honor the Son just as they honor the Father. The person who does not honor the Son is not honoring the Father who sent him.

[24]"Truly, truly I say to you, the person who hears my word and believes the one who sent me, has eternal life, and is not going into judgment, but has crossed over out of death into life. [25]Truly, truly I say to you, a time is coming, and is now come, when the dead will hear the voice of the Son of God, and the ones who hear will live. [26]For just as the Father has life in himself, so he has granted also to the Son to have life in himself. [27]And to him he has given authority also to do the judging, because he is the son of a human.[306]

[28]"Do not be amazed at this, for a time is coming, when all those in the graves will hear his voice, [29]and stream out, the ones who have done good into a resurrection of life, and the ones who have done evil into a resurrection of judgment.[307] [30]I of myself am not able to do a thing; only as I hear do I judge, and my judgment is righteous, because I am not seeking my own will, but the will of the Father who sent me.

Testimonies About Jesus

[31]"If I testify about myself, my testimony is not valid. [32]There is another who testifies about me, and I know that the testimony which he testifies about me is true.

[33]"You have sent to John, and he has testified to the truth. [34]I do not accept testimony from a human being; but I am saying these things so that you may be saved. [35]That one was a burning and shining lamp, and in his light you were willing to exult, for a time.

[36]"But I have testimony weightier than that of John. For the works which the Father has given me to finish, the same works which I am doing, they testify about

[305] According to Bauer, ap' heaoutou is an expression known in Classical Greek using the preposition apo to indicate the originator or authorizer of the action. So also 5:30; 7:17; 7:28; 8:28, 42; 10:18; 11:51; 14:10; 15:4; 16:13; 18:34 me that the Father has sent me. [37]And the Father who sent me, He has testified about me. You have neither heard His voice at any time nor seen His form. [38]And His word, you do not have living in you, because the one He has sent, him you do not believe. [39]You diligently study the Scriptures, because you think that in them you have eternal life. And these are the ones that testify about me. [40]Yet you refuse to come to me so that you may have life.

[306] Or, "The Son of Man." "Therefore, since the children share in flesh and blood, he himself likewise also partook of the same, that through death he might render powerless him who had the power of death, that is, the devil," Hebrews 2:14. "For we do not have a high priest who cannot sympathize with our weaknesses, but one who has been tempted in all things as we are, yet without sin," Hebrews 4:15. And because Jesus became flesh and overcame the flesh, the Father gave him jurisdiction of all flesh, John 17:2.

[41]"I do not accept praise from human beings; [42]but I know you, that you do not have the love of God in yourselves. [43]I have come in my Father's name, and you do not accept me; if someone else comes in his own name, him you will accept. [44]How is it possible for you to believe, accepting honor from one another, and not seeking the praise from the only God?

[45]"But do not think that I will accuse you before the Father. The one accusing you is Moses, on whom you have placed your hope. [46]For if you were believing Moses, you would be believing me, for he wrote about me. [47]But since you are not believing his writings, how will you believe my statements?"

Chapter 6

Jesus Feeds the Five Thousand

[1]After these things, Jesus went across to the other side of the Sea of Galilee (the Sea of Tiberias). [2]And a large crowd followed him, because they had seen his miraculous signs he had been performing on the sick.

[3]Jesus went up on the mountain, and there he was sitting, with his disciples. [4]And the Passover was near, the festival of the Jews. [5]Then, lifting up his eyes and seeing that a large crowd was coming toward him, Jesus says to Philip, "Where shall we buy loaves so that these people can eat?" [6]But he said this testing him, for he himself had known what he was about to do.

[7]Philip answered him, "Two hundred denarii[308] are not enough loaves for them to each get a little!

[8]One of his disciples, andrew the brother of Simon Peter, said to him, [9]"There is a youth here who has five barley loaves and two fish, but what are they in the face of so many?"

[10]But Jesus said, "Get the people to recline." Now there was plenty of green grass in the place. The men therefore reclined, the number about five thousand. [11]Then Jesus took the loaves, and after giving thanks, he distributed to the disciples, and the disciples to those reclining, and likewise from the fish, as much as they wanted.

[12]And when they were full, he says to his disciples, "Gather the fragments that are left over, so that nothing is wasted." [13]So they gathered, and filled twelve large baskets with fragments of the five barley loaves left over by those who had eaten.

[14]Then the people, having seen the miraculous sign Jesus had done, were saying, "This surely is the Prophet who was to come into the world."[309] [15]Jesus therefore, knowing that they were about to come and take him by force to try to make him king, withdrew again into the mountain, himself alone.

Jesus Walks on the Water

[16]And when evening had come, his disciples had gone down to the lake, [17]and gotten into a boat, and were proceeding across the lake toward Capernaum. And now darkness came, and Jesus had not come to them, [18]and as a great wind was blowing, the lake was becoming very rough. [19]Then, after having rowed about twenty-five or thirty stadia,[310] they behold him walking on the lake, and getting close to the boat, and they were afraid.

[20]But he says to them, "It is I. Don't be afraid."

[21]Then they willingly took him into the boat. And immediately the boat was at the shore to which they were headed.

I Am the Bread Come Down out of Heaven

[22]The next day, the crowd that had stayed on the other side of the lake saw that no other boat had been there except the one onto which his disciples had boarded, and that Jesus had not gotten into the boat with his disciples, but his disciples had gone away alone. [23](But then other boats, from Tiberias, arrived near the place where they had eaten the loaves, where the Lord had given thanks.) [24]When therefore the crowd saw that neither Jesus nor his disciples were there, they also got into boats, and went to Capernaum in search of Jesus.

[25]And finding him across the lake, they said to him, "Rabbi, when did you get here?"

[26]Jesus answered them, and said, "Truly, truly I say to you, you are looking for me, not because you saw miraculous signs but because you ate the loaves and were satisfied. [27]Do not work for food that perishes, but for food that abides, resulting in eternal life, which the Son of Man will give you. For him God the Father has sealed."

[28]They therefore said to him, "What should we do in order to be working the works of God?"

[29]Jesus answered, and said to them, "This is the work of God, that you believe in that one whom he has sent."

[30]So they said to him, "What miraculous sign then are you performing, so that we may see, and believe you? What works are you working? [31]Our forefathers ate the manna in the desert; as it is written: 'He gave them bread out of heaven to eat.'[311]"

[32]Jesus therefore said to them, "Truly, truly I say to you, the bread out of heaven is not given you by Moses; no, the real bread out of heaven my Father is giving you. [33]For the bread of God, is the one coming down out of heaven and giving life to the world."

[34]They said therefore to him, "Sir, give us that bread evermore."

[35]Then Jesus said to them, "I am the bread of life. The person who comes to me, would never hunger, and the one believing in me would never thirst. [36]But as I told you, you have seen me and still you are not believing. [37]All flesh that the Father gives to me will come to me, and the one who comes to me, I would certainly not drive away. [38]For I have come down from heaven not to do my will, but the will of Him who sent me. [39]And this is the will of the Father who sent me: that of all flesh that he has given me, I would not lose any of it, but raise it up at the last day. [40]And this is the will of Him who sent me: that anyone looking to the Son and believing in him would have eternal life, and I would raise him up at the last day."

[41]Then the Jews started grumbling about him, because he said, "I am the bread having come down out of heaven." [42]And they were saying, "Isn't this the Jesus son of Joseph whose father and mother we know? How then can this man say, 'I have come down out of heaven'?"

[43]Jesus therefore answered and said to them, "Stop grumbling among yourselves. [44]No one can come to me unless the Father who sent me draws him, and I would raise him up at the last day. [45]It is written in the Prophets: 'And they shall all be taught by God.[312'] Everyone therefore who has heard and learned from the Father, comes to me. [46]Not that anyone has seen the Father except the one who is from God; he has seen the Father. [47]Truly, truly I say to you, the person who does believe in me has eternal life. [48]I am the bread of life. [49]Your forefathers ate the manna in the desert, and they died. [50]But this is bread coming down out of heaven such that one may eat of it and would not die. [51]I am the living bread come down out of heaven. If someone eats of this bread, he will live for ever. And the bread I will give is my flesh, which I will give for the life of the world."

[52]Then the Jews began to argue sharply among themselves, saying, "How can this man give us his flesh to eat?"

[53]Jesus therefore said to them, "Truly, truly I say to you, unless you eat the flesh of the Son of Man and drink his blood, you have no life in you. [54]The person eating my flesh and drinking my blood has eternal life, and I will raise him up at the last day. [55]For my flesh is truly food, and my blood is truly drink. [56]The person eating my flesh and drinking my blood abides in me, and I in him. [57]Just as the living Father has sent me, and I live by means of the Father, so also that one eating me will live by means of me. [58]This bread coming down out of heaven is not like the bread your forefathers ate, the manna, and then died. The person eating this bread will live for ever." [59]These things he said while teaching in the synagogue at Capernaum.

A Teaching Too Scandalous for Some

[60]Then many of his disciples hearing said, "This is a hard teaching. Who can listen to it?"

[61]But knowing in himself that his disciples were grumbling about this, Jesus said to them, "This is shocking you? [62]Then what if you were seeing the Son of Man ascend to where he was before? [63]Spirit is what makes alive; flesh counts for nothing. The words that I speak to you are spirit, and they are life. [64]Yet some of you are not believing." For Jesus had known from the beginning who the ones not believing were, and who the one was, who would betray him. [65]He went on to say, "This is why I told you that no one has the ability to come to me, unless it is given to him from my Father."

[66]From this, many of his disciples drew back, and no longer went along with him.

[67]Jesus therefore said to the twelve, "You are not thinking of leaving too, are you?"

[68]Then Simon Peter answered him, "Lord, to whom shall we go? You have the words of eternal life. [69]And we have believed and have come to know that you are the Christ, the Son of the living God."

[70]Jesus responded to them, "Have I not chosen you, the Twelve, for myself? Yet one of you is a devil." [71]He was speaking of Judas, son of Simon of Kerioth; for he, though being one of the Twelve, was going to betray him.

Chapter 7

Jesus' Brothers Judge Him Falsely

[1]And after these things, Jesus was walking around in Galilee, for he was not wanting to walk in Judea, because the Jews were seeking to kill him. [2]But the Jewish Festival of Booths was near. [3]So his brothers said to him, "Remove yourself from here and go to Judea, so that your disciples there also may see your miracles which you are doing. [4]For no one who wants to become famous, acts in secret. If you really are doing these things, show yourself to the world." [5]For even his own brothers did not believe in him.

[312] Isaiah 54:13

[6]Jesus therefore said to them, "The time for me has not yet come. But for you the time is always suitable. [7]The world cannot hate you, but me it hates, because I testify about it, that its works are evil. [8]You go up to this festival. I am not yet going up to this festival, because my time is not yet fully come." [9]And having said these things to them, he remained in Galilee.

Jesus Goes Up for Sukkot

[10]And when his brothers had gone up to the festival, then he also went up, not openly, but secretly. [11]The Jews therefore were looking for him in the festival, and saying, "Where is that fellow?"

[12]And there was much whispering about him in the crowds. Some were maintaining, "He is a good man."

But others were saying, "No. On the contrary, he is misleading the people." [13]Though none would speak about him openly, for fear of the Jews.

[14]And when it was already the middle of the festival, Jesus went up to the temple, and was teaching. [15]And the Jews were marveling, saying, "How does this man know letters, not having received instruction?"

[16]Jesus answered them and said, "My teaching is not mine, but rather his who sent me. [17]If someone is inclined to do His will, he will find out about the teaching, whether it is from God, or I am speaking from myself. [18]One who speaks from himself is seeking his own glory. But one seeking the glory of Him who sent him, such a one is true, and there is no unrighteousness in him. [19]Has not Moses given you the law? Yet none of you performs the law. Why are you trying to kill me?"

[20]The crowd responded and said, "You have a demon. Who is trying to kill you?"

[21]Jesus answered and said to them, "One work I did,[313] and you are all appalled. [22]Why is it Moses gave you circumcision (not that it is from Moses, but rather from the patriarchs) and during the Sabbath you circumcise a man?[314] [23]If a man receives circumcision during the Sabbath so that the law of Moses not be broken, why are you incensed at me that I have made the whole man whole during the Sabbath? [24]Judge not by appearances, but judge the righteous judgment."[315]

Is Jesus the Anointed One?

[25]Then some of the Jerusalemites were saying, "Is this not the man they are trying to kill? [26]And behold he is speaking openly, and they say nothing to him. Could it be the authorities have actually come to know that this man really is the Christ? [27]Except this man, we know where he is from; but the Christ, when he comes, no one will know where he is from."

[28]Then Jesus cried out in the temple, teaching and saying, "Yes, me you know, and you know where I am from. Yet I have not come of myself. True rather is

---

[313] They were still indignant that he had worked on the Sabbath, healed the cripple on the Sabbath the last time he was in Jerusalem, in John 5:8-10; Diatessaron 8:3-4.

[314] When a male child was born, it was commanded he be circumcised on the eighth day. (Gen. 17:12; Ex. 22:30; Lev. 12:3) If the eighth day happened to fall on a Sabbath, no matter; they had to cut part of the boy off on the Sabbath, even though it was work on the Sabbath. This aspect of cutting off part of a man, circumcision, is also what Jesus was asking about- “You cut off part of a man on the Sabbath, so how can you be upset with me if I made the whole man whole on the Sabbath?”

[315] "judge the righteous judgment." The definite article in this use may well be "anaphoric," in that it is meant to refer back to something with which they are already familiar: that judgment commanded in Deuteronomy 16:18, "they shall judge a righteous judgment," without the article. For indeed, those Jesus was probably talking to were judges. The scribes also sat in judgment, being one component of the Sanhedrin, and the subjects of Deuteronomy 16:18 were "judges and clerks."

the one who sent me; him you do not know. [29]But I know him, because I am from him, and that one has sent me."

[30]Then they were trying to seize him, yet no one laid a hand on him, because his hour had not yet come. [31]But many of the crowd put trust on him, and they were saying, "When the Christ comes, will he perform more signs than those which this man has done?" [32]The Pharisees heard these whisperings of the crowd about him, and the Pharisees and the chief priests sent officers[316] to arrest him.

[33]Jesus continued and said to them, "Just a short time more I am with you, and then I am going away, to the one who sent me. [34]You will look for me, and will not find me, and where I am, you are not able to come."

[35]The Jews therefore said among themselves, "Where is this man about to go, that we will not find him? Is he about to go into the Dispersion among the Greeks, and teach the Greeks? [36]What is the meaning of this statement that he said, 'You will look for me and will not find me, and where I am you are not able to come'?"

[37]And in the great and final day of the festival, there stood Jesus. And he cried out, saying, "If anyone is thirsty, he should come to me; and drink, [38]he who believes on me. As the scripture has said, streams of living water will flow from His belly." [39]Now this he said in reference to the Spirit, whom those believing in him were about to receive. For the Holy Spirit was not yet present, because Jesus had not yet been glorified.

[40]Many in the crowd therefore who heard this declaration were saying, "Surely this man is the Prophet."[317]

[41]Others were saying, "This man is the Christ."

Others were saying, "What? The Christ comes from Galilee? [42]Didn't the scripture say that the Christ comes from the seed of David and from Bethlehem, the village where David lived?" [43]A split therefore occurred among the crowd because of him. [44]And some of them wanted to arrest him, but no one laid a hand on him.

Unbelief of the Jewish Authorities

[45]Then the officers went to the chief priests and Pharisees, and those said to them, "Why have you not brought him?"

[46]The officers answered, "Never has someone spoken so, like this man speaks."

[47]The Pharisees therefore answered them, "Have you also been deceived? [48]Has anyone of the authorities or of the Pharisees believed on him? [49]As for this crowd, accursed are they, not knowing the law."

[50]Nicodemus, the one who had come to him by night, who was one of them, says to them, [51]"Our law does not judge the man unless it first hears from him, and knows what he is doing, does it?"

[52]They answered and said to him, "You aren't from Galilee too, are you? Investigate and see, that there is no prophet risen out of Galilee."[318]

The Woman Caught in Adultery

[53]And each went to his home.

---

[316] Probably temple police officers or guards. Rome did authorize the Sanhedrin to have a company of guards with powers of arrest.

[317] Deuteronomy 18:14-20

[318] A prophet had in fact come out of Galilee before. According to II Kings 14:25, the prophet Jonah was from Gath Hepher, in Galilee, in the territory of the tribe of Zebulun (Joshua 19:13), only one hill over from Nazareth, if not the same hill. This is yet another way in which Jonah was a sign of Christ.

Chapter 8

[1]But Jesus went to the Mount of Olives. [2]And at dawn, he showed up in the temple again, and all the people were coming toward him. And having sat down he was teaching them. [3]And the Torah scholars and the Pharisees are bringing toward him a woman caught in adultery. And after they stood her in the midst, [4]they say to him, "Teacher, this woman was caught in the very act of adultery. [5]In the Law, Moses commanded us that such women be stoned. What then do you say?" [6]Now this they were saying tempting him, in order that they might obtain basis to accuse him.

But Jesus bent down and was writing in the earth[319] with his finger, taking no notice. [7]But as they kept on questioning him, he straightened up and said to them, "The one among you who is sinless should throw a stone at her first." [8]And after bending down again, he continued writing in the earth.

[9]And after they heard this, and were convicted by their conscience, they went away one by one, starting with the oldest, until the last one, and Jesus alone was left, and the woman standing in the midst. [10]And Jesus straightened up, and seeing no one but the woman, he said to her, "Woman, where are those accusers of yours? Has no one condemned you?"

[11]And she said, "No one, sir."

And Jesus said to her, "Neither am I condemning you. Go and sin no more."

The Validity of Jesus' Testimony

[12]Again therefore, Jesus spoke to them, saying, "I am the light of the world. The person who follows me will not walk around in the darkness, but on the contrary, he will have for himself the light of life."

[13]The Pharisees therefore said to him, "You are testifying about yourself. Your testimony is not valid."

[14]Jesus answered and said to them, "Even if I testify about myself, my testimony is valid, because I know where I came from, and where I am going. But you do not know where I am coming from and where I am going. [15]You judge by the flesh; I judge no one. [16]But even if I judge, my judgment is valid, because I am not alone: it is I and the one who sent me. [17]Now even in your law it is written, that the testimony of two persons is valid.[320] [18]I am one testifying about myself, and the one who sent me is testifying about me, the Father."

[19]Then they were saying to him, "Where is your father?"

Jesus answered, "Neither me nor my Father do you know. If you knew me, you would know my Father also." [20]These statements Jesus spoke at the treasury, teaching in the temple, and no one seized him, because his hour had not yet come.

[21]Continuing, Jesus said to them, "I am going; and you will seek me, and you will die in your sins. Where I am going, you are not able to come."

[22]So the Jews were saying, "Is he going to kill himself, that he says, 'Where I am going, you are not able to come'?"

[23]And he said to them, "You are from below, I am from above; you are of this world, I am not of this world. [24]I said to you that you will die in your sins. For if you do not believe that I am who I am, you will die in your sins."

[25]Therefore they were saying to him, "Who are you?"

And Jesus said to them, "Why am I speaking to you at all?[321] [26]I have many things to say about you, and to judge. But the one who sent me is true, and I, what things I hear from him, those are the things I say in the world."

---

[320] Deutronomy 19:15

[321] A problem with the traditional rendering "I am what I have told you from the beginning," is that Jesus had not really told them who he was, prior to this. He was rather evasive to them about it. Clearly from context, these are not conversation partners with whom he was sympathetic: "You are from below, I am from above... You shall die in your sins..." And Jesus' next words, "I have much to say to you, but...I only speak what I hear from the [27]They did not understand that he was speaking to them of the Father. [28]Then Jesus said to them, "When you lift up the Son of Man, then you will find out that I am he, and of myself I do nothing, but rather exactly as my Father has taught me, those things I speak. [29]And the one who sent me is continually with me. The Father has not left me alone, because I always do the things pleasing to him." [30]As he was speaking these things, many believed in him.

The Children of Abraham

[31]Jesus was therefore saying to the ones who had believed in him, "If you continue in my word, you are true disciples of mine, [32]and you will know the truth, and the truth will make you free."

[33]They responded to him, "We are seed of Abraham, and to no one have we ever been enslaved. How do you mean, that we will become free?"

[34]Jesus answered them, "Truly, truly I say to you, everyone doing sin is a slave of sin. [35]And the slave does not abide in the house in perpetuity; the Son abides in perpetuity. [36]If therefore the Son should make you free, you will be free indeed. [37]I know that you are seed of Abraham; yet you are trying to kill me, because my word has no room in you. [38]What I have seen with my Father, I speak, and you then what you have seen with your father, you are doing."

[39]They answered and said to him, "Our father is Abraham."

Jesus says to them, "If you were children of Abraham, you would be doing the works of Abraham. [40]But as it is, you are trying to kill me, someone who has spoken to you the truth he has heard from God. This, Abraham did not do. [41]You are doing the works of your father."

They then said to him, "We were not conceived in fornication. We have one father: God."

The Children of the Devil

[42]Jesus said to them, "If God were your father, you would love me, for I went out from God and have arrived here. For neither did I come of myself, but that One sent me. [43]What is the reason you do not understand my speech? Because you are not able to tolerate my word. [44]You are of your father, the Devil, and the yearnings of your father you want to do. That one has been homicidal from the beginning, and in the truth he has never stood still, because there is no truth in him. When he speaks a lie, he is speaking from his own things, for he is a liar, and the father of the lie. [45]So I, because I am saying the truth, you do not believe me. [46]Who of you is convicting me of a sin? And if I am saying the truth, why is it you do not believe me? [47]The ones who are of the Father hear the statements of the Father. This is why you do not hear; you are not of God."

The Authorities Attempt Stoning for Claim of Pre-Eminence of Abraham

[48]The Jews then answered and said to him, "Do we not rightly say that you are a Samaritan, and have a demon?"

[49]Jesus answered, "I do not have a demon. Quite the opposite, I am honoring my Father. And you are dishonoring me. [50]It is not me seeking my glory. There is One seeking, and judging. [51]Truly, truly I say to you, If someone follows my word, death he will by no means see, into all time."

[52]Then the Jews said to him, "Now we know that you have a demon. Abraham died, and also the Prophets, and you say, 'If someone follows my word, death he will by no means experience, into all time.' [53]Are you greater than our forefather

---

Father," would be a natural continuance from him saying something like "Why do I speak to you at all?" For his next words indicate a holding back from speaking. Both sentences then would have a theme of him not speaking.

Abraham, who died? And the Prophets also died. What sort of man do you reckon yourself?"

[54]Jesus answered, "If I glorify myself, that glory of mine is worthless. My Father is the one glorifying me, the one that you say is your God. [55]And you have never known him, but I know him. Now if I were to say that I do not know him, I would be a liar like you. But I do know him, and his word I am following. [56]Abraham, your forefather, made exultation yearning to see my day. And he saw it, and was thrilled."

[57]The Jews therefore said to him, "You are not yet fifty, and you have beheld Abraham?"

[58]Jesus said to them, "Truly, truly I say to you, before Abraham was, I am." [59]Then they picked up stones to throw at him. But Jesus hid himself, and went forth from the temple, having passed through the midst of them; and thus moved on.

Chapter 9

Jesus Heals a Man Born Blind

[1]And as he was going along, he saw a man blind from birth. [2]And his disciples queried him, saying, "Rabbi, who sinned, this man or his parents, that he would be born blind?"

[3]Jesus answered, "Neither that this man sinned, nor his parents, but that the works of God might be displayed in him. [4]I must be working at the works of him who sent me, while it is day. Night is coming, when no one can work. [5]As long as I am in the world, I am the light of the world."

[6]When he had said these things, he spit on the ground, and made mud with the saliva, and rubbed the mud on the blind man's eyes. [7]And he said to him, "Go, wash in the pool of 'Siloam'" (which when translated is 'Sent'). He went therefore and washed, and came back seeing.

[8]His neighbors therefore, and those who had previously seen him, that he was blind, were saying, "Isn't this the man usually sitting and begging?"

[9]Some were saying, "This is the same man."

But others said, "He looks like him."

He himself kept saying, "I am the one."

[10]They were saying therefore to him, "How were your eyes opened?"

[11]He answered and said, "A man named Jesus made mud and rubbed my eyes with it, and he told me, 'Go to the pool of Siloam and wash.' So when I went and washed, I saw again."

[12]They said therefore to him, "Where is that man?

He says, "I don't know."

The Authorities Investigate the Healing

[13]And they take him to the Pharisees, the man who had once been blind. [14]Now it was a Sabbath when Jesus had made mud and opened his eyes. [15]So again, the Pharisees also asked him how he came to see. And he told them, "He put mud on my eyes, and I washed, and now I see."

[16]Some of the Pharisees therefore were saying, "This man is not from God, because he does not keep the Sabbath."

Others were saying, "How can a sinful man do such miracles?" So there was a split among them.

[17]They are talking to the blind man again: "What do you say about him? For it was your eyes he opened."

And he said, "He is a prophet."

[18]The result was the Jews did not believe about him that he used to be blind and then saw; until they summoned the parents of the one who had received his sight. [19]And they questioned them, saying, "Is this your son, the one you say was born blind? And if so, how does he now see?"

[20]His parents answered them and said, "We know that this is our son, and that he was born blind. [21]But how he now sees, we do not know. Or who opened his eyes, we do not know. He has majority, ask him. He will speak for himself." [22]His parents said these things because they were fearing the Jews. For the Jews had already decided that anyone who acknowledged Him to be the Christ would be put out of the synagogue. [23]This is why his parents said, "He has majority; ask him."

[24]Then the man who had been blind they summoned a second time. And they said to him, "Give credit to God. We know that this man is sinful."[322]

[25]He then answered and said, "Whether he is sinful, I do not know. One thing I know: Whereas I used to be blind, now I see."

[26]But they said to him again, "What did he do to you? How did he open your eyes?"

[27]He answered them, "I told you already, and you didn't listen. Why do you want to hear it again? Do you want to become his disciples too?"

[28]They then ridiculed him and said, "You are the disciple of that one. We are disciples of Moses. [29]We know for sure that God has spoken to Moses; but this fellow, we don't know where he comes from."

[30]The man answered and said to them, "There certainly is something strange in this, that you don't know where he comes from, and he opened my eyes. [31]Now we know that God does not hear the sinful. But if someone is God-fearing, and practicing his will, this kind he hears. [32]Since time began, reports have not been heard that someone opened the eyes of one born blind. [33]If this man were not from God, no way could he have done this thing."

[34]They answered and said to him, "You were born totally in sin, and you are teaching us?" Then they threw him out.

Spiritual Blindness

[35]Jesus heard that they had thrown him out, and finding him, he said to him, "Do you believe in the Son of God?"

[36]That one answered and said, "Who is he, sir, so that I may believe in him."

[37]And Jesus said to him, "Not only have you seen him, but he is the one talking with you."

[38]And he said, "I believe, Lord." And he worshipped him.

[39]And Jesus said, "For judgment I have come into this world, so that those not seeing may see, and that those seeing, may become blind."

[40]And some of the Pharisees heard these words, some who were with him, and they said to him, "And us, we are not blind, are we?"

[41]Jesus said to them, "If you were blind, you would have no sins. But as you are now saying, 'We see,' your sins therefore remain.

Chapter 10

The Good Shepherd

[1]"Truly, truly I say to you, the one not entering the sheep fold through the door, but instead climbing up another way, that one is a thief and a bandit. [2]But the one entering through the door, is the shepherd of the sheep. [3]The doorkeeper opens for this one, and the sheep hear his voice. And he calls his own sheep by name, and leads them forth. [4]And when he has brought out his own sheep, he goes on before them, and the sheep follow him, because they know his voice. [5]But a stranger they will not follow, but will flee from him, because they do not know the voice of strangers."

---

[322] Literally, "Give glory to God." Or give credit to God, that he knows the truth anyway, so you might as well admit that this man is sinful. Give up on trying to hide the truth from God.

[6]This parable Jesus told them, but they did not understand what the principles were that he was speaking to them.

[7]Again therefore Jesus said to them, "Truly, truly I say to you, I am the door of the sheep. [8]All who came before me are thieves and bandits; but the sheep did not hear them. [9]I am the door. If anyone enters through me, he will be saved, and will go in and go out, and find pasture. [10]The thief does not come, except to steal, and to kill, and to ruin. I have come so they might have life, and have it more.

[11]"I am the good shepherd. The good shepherd lays down his life for the sheep. [12]But the wage earner, not being a shepherd, and for whom the sheep are not his own, sees the wolf coming and abandons the sheep and flees, and the wolf seizes the sheep and scatters them. [13]The wage earner flees because he is a wage earner and it matters not to him about the sheep.

[14]"I am the good shepherd, and I know my own, and am known by my own. [15]Just as the Father knows me, and I know the Father. And I lay down my life for the sheep. [16]Other sheep I also have, which are not of this fold. Those also I am to bring, and my voice they will hear, and the result will be one flock, one shepherd. [17]For this reason my Father loves me, that I lay down my life, such that I will take it up again. [18]No one takes it from me; I lay it down of myself. I have authority to lay it down, and I have authority to take it up again; this order I received from my Father."

[19]Because of these words therefore, there was again a split among the Jews. [20]Many of them were saying, "He has a demon, and he's crazy. Why are you listening to him?"

[21]Others were saying, "These are not the expressions of someone demonized. Can a demon open the eyes of the blind?"

The Authorities Again Attempt Stoning for Claim of Equality With God

[22]Then came the Festival of Dedication[323] at Jerusalem. And it was winter, [23]and Jesus was walking in the temple, in the Portico of Solomon. [24]Then the Jews surrounded him, and were saying to him, "How long are you keeping our souls in suspense? If you are the Christ, tell us clearly."

[25]Jesus answered them, "I told you, and you do not believe. The works that I am doing in the name of my Father, these testify for me. [26]Yet, you are not believing, because you are not of my sheep, as I told you. [27]My sheep hear my voice, and I know them, and they follow me. [28]And I give to them eternal life, and they will by no means perish, into all time, and no one will snatch them out of my hand. [29]My Father, the one who gave them to me, he is greater than all, and no one is able to snatch them out of my Father's hand. [30]I and the Father are one."

[31]Again therefore, the Jews lifted up stones in order to stone him. [32]Jesus responded to them, "Many good works I have shown you from my Father. For which work of them are you stoning me?"

[33]The Jews answered him, saying, "Not for good works are we stoning you, but for blasphemy, because you, being a human, are making yourself God."

[34]Jesus answered them, "Is it not written in your law, 'I have said, "You are gods"'?[324] [35]Why, since he called those to whom the word of God came 'gods,' and the scripture cannot be voided, [36]do you say to the one the Father has consecrated and sent into the world, 'You are blaspheming,' because he said, 'I am the Son of God'? [37]If I am not doing the works of my Father, do not believe me. [38]And if I am doing them, even if you do not believe me, believe the works, so that you may know and believe that the Father is in me, and I in him." [39]And again therefore, they were trying to arrest him. And he got out of their grasp.

[40]And he went back to the other side of the Jordan, to the place where John had earlier been baptizing, and he stayed there a while. [41]And many came to him. And they were saying, "Though John performed no miraculous sign, everything John said about this man was true." [42]And many there believed in him.

Chapter 11

The Death of Lazarus

[1]Now a certain man was ailing, Lazarus from Bethany, the village of Mary and her sister Martha. [2]And the Mary who anointed the Lord with perfumed ointment and who wiped his feet off with her hair, was the one whose brother was ailing. [3]The sisters therefore sent to him, saying, "Lord, behold, the one you love is ailing."

[4]And when he heard, Jesus said, "This sickness is not to death, but rather for the glory of God, in order that the Son of God be glorified through it." [5](But Jesus loved Martha, and her sister, and Lazarus.) [6]When then he heard that he was ailing, at that time he actually remained in the place in which he was, for two days. [7]Only then, after this, he says to the disciples, "Let us go back to Judea."

[8]The disciples are saying to him, "Rabbi, the Jews were just now trying to stone you, and you are going back there?"

[9]Jesus answered, "Are there not twelve hours of day? If someone walks around in the day, he does not stumble, because he sees the light of this world. [10]But if someone walks around in the night, he stumbles, because the light is not with him."

[11]He said these things. And after this, he is saying to them, "Our friend Lazarus has fallen asleep, but I am going in order to wake him up."

[12]Then his disciples said to him, "Lord, if he has fallen asleep, that will help him." [13]But Jesus had spoken of his death, whereas they thought he was speaking of the repose of sleep.

[14]So then, Jesus said to them plainly, "Lazarus died. [15]And for your sakes I am glad I was not there, so that you may believe. But let us go to him."

[16]Then Thomas, the one called the Twin, said to the rest of the disciples, "Let us go also, and die with him."

"I Am the Resurrection and the Life"

[17]Arriving therefore, Jesus found him already in the tomb four days since. [18]Now Bethany was close to Jerusalem, about fifteen stadia apart,[325] [19]and many of the Jews had joined the women around Martha and Mary to console them regarding their brother. [20]When therefore Martha heard that Jesus was coming, she went to meet him; but Mary stayed put in the house.

[21]Martha therefore said to Jesus, "Lord, if you had been here, my brother would not have died. [22]But even now, I know that whatever things you ask God for, God will grant you."

[23]Jesus says to her, "Your brother will rise again."

[24]Martha says to him, "I know that he will rise again in the resurrection at the last day."

[25]Jesus said to her, "I am the resurrection, and the life. The person who believes in me, even though he dies, will live; [26]and everyone who is living and believes in me, will never die. Do you believe this?"

[27]She says to him, "Yes, Lord. I have come to believe that you are the Christ, the Son of God, the one expected to come into the world."

[325] About 3 kilometers, less than 2 miles.

[28]And having said these things she went off, and discreetly invited her sister Mary, as follows, "The Teacher is here, and is asking for you." [29]That one, when she heard, quickly got up and starts coming toward him. [30](Jesus had not yet come into the village, but was at the place where Martha had met him.) [31]The Jews therefore who were with Mary in the house and consoling her, when they saw how she quickly got up and went out, they followed her, saying, "She is going to the tomb, to grieve there."

[32]Mary therefore, when she arrived where Jesus was, fell at his feet when she saw him, saying to him, "Lord, if you had been here, my brother would not have died."

[33]Then Jesus, when he saw her weeping, and the Jews who had come with her weeping, heaved with deep emotion, and churned inside himself. [34]And he said, "Where have you laid him?"

They are saying to him, "Lord, come and see."

[35]Jesus showed tears.

[36]The Jews therefore were saying, "See how he loved him."

[37]But some of them said, "Shouldn't he who opened the eyes of the blind man, also have been able to make it so this man would not have died?"

Jesus Raises Lazarus from the Dead

[38]Then Jesus, again heaving inside himself, arrives at the tomb. And a cave it was, and a stone was there, covering over it. [39]Jesus says, "Take away the stone."

Martha, the sister of the one who was dead, says, "Lord, by now he smells; it is the fourth day."

[40]Jesus says to her, "Did I not tell you, that if you believed, you would see the glory of God?"

[41]They therefore took away the stone from where the dead man was lying. And Jesus lifted his eyes aboveward, and said, "Father, I thank you, that you have heard me. [42]But I already knew that you always hear me. Only for the sake of the crowd standing around did I say this, so that they may believe that it was you who sent me."

[43]And having said these things, he shouted out with a loud voice, "Lazarus, come out!" [44]And the dead man came out, his feet and hands bound up with bandages, and his face wrapped in a handkerchief.

Jesus says to them, "Untangle him and allow him to go."

Sanhedrin Decides Jesus Must Die

[45]Many of the Jews therefore, of those who had come to Mary and seen what Jesus did, believed in him. [46]But some of them went to the Pharisees, and told them what things Jesus had done. [47]So the chief priests and the Pharisees assembled a Sanhedrin.

And they were saying, "What are we doing, that this man is performing so many signs? [48]If we leave him alone like this, everyone will believe in him, and the Romans will come, and take away both our place[326] and our nation."

[49]But one of them, Caiaphas, who was high priest that year, said to them, "You people know nothing. [50]Neither are you considering how it is expedient for us that one man die for the people, and not the whole nation perish."

[51]But this, from himself he did not say. But rather, being high priest that year, he prophesied, that Jesus was about to die for the nation. [52]And not for the nation only, but such that the children of God scattered about, he would gather also, into one people.[327]

[53]Thus from that time on they were resolved that they would kill him. [54]Therefore, Jesus no longer walked openly among the Jews, but departed from there to an area next to the desert, to a town called Ephraim, and there he spent time with his disciples.

[55]But then the Passover of the Jews was near, and many went up to Jerusalem from out of the country before the Passover, to purify themselves. [56]They were watching for Jesus therefore, and speaking with one another, as they stood in the temple, "How does it seem to you? That he is not coming to the festival at all?" [57]Now the chief priests and the Pharisees had also given the order, that if anyone knew where he was, he should report it, so that they might arrest him.

Chapter 12

Jesus Anointed at Bethany

[1]Then, six days before the Passover, Jesus came to Bethany, where Lazarus the man who had died was, whom He had raised from the dead. [2]So they made a supper for him there, and Martha was serving, and Lazarus was one of those reclining with him. [3]Then Mary, having taken a litre[328] of expensive ointment of pure oil of nardroot, anointed the feet of Jesus, and with her hair, she wiped his feet. And the house was filled with the smell of the ointment.

[4]Then one of his disciples, Judas the Keriothite son of Simon, the one about to betray him, says, [5]"Why was this ointment not sold for three hundred denarii[329] and given to the poor?" [6]But he said this not because it mattered to him about the poor, but because he was a thief, and he was usually in charge of the moneybag and would steal from what was put in.

[7]Jesus said therefore, "Leave her alone. She has kept it for the day of my burial. [8]The poor you always have with you, but me, you do not always have."

[9]Then a great crowd of the Jews found out that he was there, and they came, not only because of Jesus, but also that they might see Lazarus, whom he had raised from the dead. [10]So the chief priests resolved that they would kill Lazarus also, [11]for many of the Jews were going out because of him, and then believing in Jesus.

The Triumphal Entry

[12]The next day, a great crowd that had come for the festival, hearing that Jesus is arriving into Jerusalem, [13]took the fronds of palm trees, and went out into a merging with him. And they were crying out:

"Hosha na!'[330]
"Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord,[331]
the king of Israel!'

[14]And Jesus, having found a young donkey, took his seat upon it, just as it is written:

[15]"Fear not, O daughter of Zion;
Behold, your king is coming sitting on the foal of a donkey."[332]

16Now these things his disciples did not know at first, but once Jesus was glorified, then they remembered that these things had been written in reference to him, and that they had done these things to him.

17The crowd therefore, the one that had been with him when he called Lazarus from the tomb and raised him from the dead, had been bearing witness. 18For this reason also the crowd had come out to join him, because they had understood him to have done this sign. 19Then the Pharisees said to each other, "Observe, that you are not prevailing at all. Behold, the world has gone after him!"

Jesus Ponders Crucifixion

20And among those going up to worship at the festival, were some Greeks. 21These, then, came up to Philip, he from Bethsaida, Galilee. And they beseeched him, saying, "Sir, we wish to see Jesus." 22Philip comes and tells Andrew; and Andrew and Philip in turn tell Jesus.

23And Jesus responded to them as follows: "The hour has come, that the Son of Man should be glorified. 24Truly, truly I say to you, if a kernel of wheat does not fall to the ground and die, it remains only one; but if it dies, it bears much fruit. 25The person who loves his life will lose it, and the one who hates his life in this world will preserve it into eternal life. 26If someone is serving me, he must follow me; and where I am, there also my servant will be. And if someone is serving me, my Father will honor him.

27"Now, my soul has become troubled. And what shall I say– 'Father, save me from this hour?' No, for this very thing I have arrived to this hour."

28"Father, glorify your name."

Then a voice came from heaven: "I both have glorified it, and will glorify again." 29The crowd therefore standing and hearing was maintaining thunder to have happened. Others were saying, "An angel spoke to him."

30Jesus answered and said, "Not for my sake has this voice happened, but for you. 31Now comes judgment of this world. Now the ruler of this world will be thrown out. 32And I, if I be lifted up from the earth, will attract all mankind to me." 33Now this he was saying signaling what manner of death he was about to die.

34The crowd responded to him: "We have heard out of the law that the Christ remains for ever, so how is it you are saying that the Son of Man is to be lifted up?[333] Who is this Son of Man?"

35Jesus therefore said to them, "The light is with you a little while longer. Walk, while you have the light, so that darkness does not overtake you. For the person walking in darkness does not know where he is going. 36While you have the light, believe in the light, so that you may be children of light."

Jesus spoke these things, then went away and was hidden from them.

The Authorities Continue in Unbelief

37But, though having done so many signs right in front of them, they were not believing in him, 38so that the word of Isaiah the prophet would be fulfilled, which said,

"Lord, who has believed our report?
And the arm of the Lord,
to whom has it been revealed?"[334]

---

[332] Zechariah 9:9

[333] Even the Jews understood the phrase "lifted up" to mean crucifixion and death. It does not mean "praised."

[334] Isaiah 53:1

[39]Because of this they were not able to believe: that again, Isaiah said,

[40]"He has blinded their eyes, and he has hardened their hearts, so that they would neither see with their eyes,
nor understand with their hearts,
nor look back around,
such that I would heal them."[335]

[41](Isaiah said these things when he saw Jesus' glory and spoke about him.)
[42]Even so, many even of the rulers believed in him. But, because of the Pharisees, they were not confessing it, for fear they would be put out of the synagogue. [43]For:

They loved the approval of human beings over and above
the approval of God.[336]

[44]But Jesus cried out, and said, "The person believing in me is not believing in me but in the one who sent me, [45]and the one looking upon me is looking upon the one who sent me. [46]I have come into the world as a light, so that everyone believing in me may not abide in darkness.
[47]"And if someone hears my sayings and does not believe, I do not judge him. For I did not come in order to judge the world, but to save the world. [48]The person rejecting me and not believing my statements, has what judges him: the word which I spoke, that will judge him at the last day. [49]For I from myself have not spoken; rather, the Father who sent me, he has given me commandment, what I should say, and how I should speak. [50]And I know, that his commandment means eternal life. Therefore, what things I speak, just as the Father has said them to me, I speak them just so."

Chapter 13

The Passover Supper

[1]And before the Festival of Passover, Jesus, aware that the hour had come for him to pass on from this world to the Father, and having loved those of his own in the world, loved them to the end. [2]And supper having started, with the devil having already put it in the heart of Judas son of Simon of Kerioth to betray him, [3]and Jesus being aware that the Father had given all things into his hands, and that he had come forth from God and to God he was going, [4]he rises from the supper and lays down his clothing, and taking a towel, he fastened it around himself. [5]Then, he is putting water into a basin. And he began to wash the feet of the disciples, and to wipe them off with the towel in which he was girded.
[6]Thus he comes to Simon Peter. And that one says to him, "Lord, You are washing my feet?"
[7]Jesus answered, and said to him, "What I am doing, you do not know yet, but after these things, you will know."
[8]Peter says to him, "No way will you ever wash my feet."
Jesus answered him, "Unless I wash you, you have no place with me."

---

335 Isaiah 6:10

336 The words are in the character of a solemn pronouncement or verdict.

[9]Simon Peter says to him, "Lord. Not just my feet, but my hands and my head as well."

[10]Jesus says to him, "One who is bathed has no need, other than the feet, to wash, but is clean on the whole. And you men are clean; though not all of you." [11]For he already knew of the one betraying him; for this reason he said, "Not all of you are clean."

[12]When therefore he had washed their feet and taken his clothes, he reclined again and said to them, "Do you know what I have done for you? [13]You call me 'Teacher' and 'Lord,' and rightly you say so, for I am. [14]If therefore I, the Lord and the Teacher, have washed your feet, you also ought to wash the feet of one another. [15]For I have given an example for you, so that just as I have done, you also might do. [16]Truly, truly I say to you: A servant is not greater than his lord, neither an emissary greater than the one who sent him. [17]Since these things you are knowing, blessed are you if you do them.

[18]"I am not speaking about all of you; I know whom I have chosen; but, so that the scripture is fulfilled, 'Someone eating bread with me has lifted up his heel against me.'[337]

[19]"Yes indeed: I am telling you before it happens, so that when it happens, you may believe who I am.[338] [20]Truly, truly I say to you, The person who accepts whomever I send, is accepting me; and the person who accepts me, is accepting the One who sent me."

[21]When he had said these things, Jesus was disturbed in his spirit, and he testified, and he said, "Truly, truly I say to you: One of you will betray me."

[22]Then the disciples were looking at one another, puzzling over about whom he was speaking. [23]Now one of his disciples was reclining in the bosom of Jesus, the one Jesus loved. [24]Simon Peter therefore nods to this one to inquire of Jesus about whom he was speaking. [25]That one therefore leaned back onto the chest of Jesus and says to him, "Lord, who is it?"

[26]Jesus replied, "It is that one for whom I shall dip and give the piece of bread." And after dipping the piece of bread , he gives it to Judas of Kerioth, son of Simon.

[27]And after the bread transaction, at that time Satan entered into that one. Then Jesus says to him, "What you are doing, do quickly."

[28]But none of those reclining knew why he said this to him. [29]For some thought that since Judas was in charge of the money bag, Jesus was telling him, "Buy things we need for the festival," or, that he should give something to the poor. [30]When therefore that one had taken the piece of bread, he immediately went out. And it was night.

Where Is Jesus Going?

[31]Then after he had gone out, Jesus says, "Now is the Son of Man glorified, and in him God is glorified. [32]If God is glorified in him, God will also glorify the Son in himself, and glorify him at once.

[33]"Children, I am with you only a little while longer. You will seek me, and just as I said to the Jews, I now say to you also: 'Where I am going, you are not able to come.'

[34]"A new commandment I give to you, that you love one another. Just as I have loved you, so you also should love one another. [35]By this will everyone know that you are my disciples: if you have love among one another."

[36]Simon Peter says to him, "Lord, where are you going?"

Jesus answered him, "Where I am going, you are not able to follow me now, but you will follow me later."

[338] Or, "you may believe that I am he," or, "may believe that I AM," or, "may believe that I am who I am."

[37]Peter says to him, "Why am I not able to follow you now? I will lay down my life for you."

[38]Jesus answered him, "You will lay down your life for me? Truly, truly I say to you, a rooster will not crow, until such time you disown me three times.

Chapter 14

[1]"Do not let your hearts be troubled. Trust in God. Trust also in me. [2]In my Father's house there are many abodes.[339] Otherwise, would I have told you I am going to prepare a place for you?[340] [3]And if I go and prepare a place for you, I will come back and take you in with myself, so that where I am, there you may be also. [4]And where I am going, you know, and the way you know."

Jesus the Way to the Father

[5]Thomas says to him, "Lord, we do not know where you are going. And how can we know the way?"

[6]Jesus says to him, "I am the way, and the truth and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me. [7]If you had known me, you would have known my Father as well; indeed, from now on you know him, and have seen him."

[8]Philip says to him, "Lord, show us the Father, and that will satisfy us."

[9]Jesus says to him, "All this time I have been with you, and you have not come to know me, Philip? The person who has seen me has seen the Father; so how is it you say, 'Show us the Father'? [10]Do you not believe that I am in the Father and the Father is in me? The statements which I speak to you I do not speak from myself, but the Father who abides in me, he is doing the works.[341] [11]Believe me that I am in the Father and the Father is in me. But if not, believe me because of those works. [12]The person who believes in me, truly, truly I say to you, the works that I do, that one also shall do, and even greater than these shall do, because I am going to my Father. [13]Indeed, whatever you shall request in my name, this I will do, so that the Father may be glorified in the Son. [14]If you ask for anything in my name, I will do it.

Jesus Promises the Holy Spirit

[15]"If you love me, keep my commandments. [16]And I will ask the Father, and he will give you another Counselor, that he may abide with you for ever, [17]the Spirit of truth, which the world is unable to receive, because it neither perceives him nor knows him. But you know him, because he abides among you, and will be in you. [18]I will not leave you as orphans; I am coming to you. [19]Just a little while longer and the world will be seeing me no more; but you will be seeing me. Because I will be living, you also will live. [20]In that day you will know, that I am in my Father, and you in me, and I in you. [21]The person who has my commandments and also keeps them, that is the one who loves me. And the one who loves me, will be loved by my Father, and I also will love him, and will reveal myself to him."

[22]Judas (not the Keriothite) says to him, "Lord, on what basis is it that, to us, you intend to reveal yourself, and not to the world?"

And Galatians 2:20, "I am no longer living, but Christ lives in me; and what life I now live in the flesh, I am living by faith in the Son of God, who loved me and gave himself up for me."

[23]Jesus answered, and said to him, "If someone loves me, he will keep my word, and my Father will love him; and we will come to him, and make our abode with him. [24]One who does not love me will not keep my word. And the word that you are hearing is not mine, but the Father's, who sent me.

[25]"These things I have spoken to you while abiding with you. [26]But the Counselor, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in my name, that one will teach you all things, and remind you of all the things I have said to you.

[27]"Peace I leave with you; my peace I give to you. Not as the world gives, do I give to you. Do not let your heart be troubled, neither let it be afraid.

[28]"You heard how I said to you, 'I am going away, and will be coming to you.' If you loved me, you would rejoice that I said, 'I am going to the Father;' for my Father is greater than I. [29]And now I have told you, before it happens, so that when it happens, you will believe. [30]I will not speak with you much longer, for the ruler of this world is coming. And he has no pull in me; [31]but, just as the Father has commanded me, this I do, so that the world may know that I love the Father.

"Arise, let us leave here."

Chapter 15

"I Am the Vine, You Are the Branches"

[1]"I am the true vine, and my Father is the farmer. [2]Every branch in me bearing no fruit, he removes, and every branch bearing the fruit, he cleans, so it may bear more fruit. [3]You are now clean, because of the word which I have spoken to you. [4]Abide in me, and I in you. Just as the branch is not able to bear fruit from itself, unless it abides in the vine, in the same way neither are you, unless you abide in me.

[5]"I am the vine; you are the branches. The one who abides in me and I in him, this one bears much fruit, for without me you can produce nothing. [6]If someone does not abide in me, he is thrown aside like the branch that is withered; and they gather such and cast them in the fire, and they are burned.[342] [7]If you abide in me, and my sayings abide in you, you will ask whatever you will, and it will happen for you. [8]In this my Father is glorified, that you bear much fruit, and you will be my disciples.

[9]"Just as the Father has loved me, I also have loved you; abide ye in my love. [10]If you keep my commandments, you are abiding in my love, just as I have kept my Father's commandments and am abiding in his love. [11]These things I have spoken to you, so that my joy may abide in you, and that your joy may be full. [12]This is my commandment: that you love one another, as I have loved you. [13]Greater love has no one than this: that one lay down one's life for one's friends. [14]You are my friends, if you practice the things I am commanding you. [15]No longer do I call you servants, for the servant does not know what his lord is doing. But you I have called friends, because all things that I have heard from my Father, I have made known to you. [16]You have not chosen me, but I have chosen you, and appointed you, that you go and bear fruit, and that your fruit might abide, so that whatever you ask the Father in my name, it may be granted to you. [17]These instructions I am giving you, so that you will love one another.

For This the World Hates You

[18]"If the world hates you, be assured that it hated me first, before you. [19]If you were of the world, the world would like its own; but because you are not of the world, and indeed rather I have chosen you out of the world, for this the world hates you. [20]Be mindful of the word that I said to you, 'A servant is not greater than his lord.'[343] If they persecuted me, they will persecute you also. If they took my word to heart, they will take yours to heart also. [21]But all these things they will do to because of my name, for they do not know the One who sent me. [22]If I had not come and spoken to them, they would have no sin; but now, they have no excuse for their sin. [23]One who hates me also hates my Father. [24]If I had not done works among them which no one else has done, they would have no sin; but now they have both seen and hated both me and my Father. [25]But so that the word written about them in the law might be fulfilled, 'They hated me without a cause.'[344]

[26]"But when the Counselor has come, whom I will send to you from the Father, the Spirit of Truth, who flows forth from the Father, he will bear witness about me. [27]And you also will bear witness, because you have been with me from the beginning.

Chapter 16

[1]"These things I have spoken to you so that you may not fall away. [2]They will cause you to be put out of the synagogue; but an hour is coming such that everyone who kills you will reckon to be offering up religious service to God. [3]And these things they will do to you, because they have not known the Father, neither me. [4]But these things I have spoken to you, so that when the hour comes, you might remember them, that I told you.

The Holy Spirit Will Finish My Work

"And I have not told you these things from the beginning, because I was with you. [5]But now, I am going to the one who sent me, and none of you is asking me, 'Where are you going?' [6]Instead, because I have spoken these things to you, sorrow has filled your heart. [7]But I am telling you the truth: it works out better for you that I go away, for if I were not to go away, the Counselor would not come to you. Whereas if I go, I will send him to you. [8]And when he has come, that one will refute the world concerning sin, and concerning righteousness, and concerning judgment; [9]concerning sin, because they do not believe in me; [10]concerning righteousness, because I am going to my Father and you will be observing me no longer; [11]and concerning judgment, because the ruler of this world has been judged.

[12]"I have many things yet to say to you, but you are not able at the present time to bear it. [13]But when that one comes, the Spirit of truth, he will guide you into all truth. For he will not speak from himself, but rather, whatever things he hears he will speak; and he will report to you the things that are coming. [14]That one will glorify me, because from mine he will take, and report it to you. [15]Everything the Father has is mine; this is how I said, 'from mine he will take, and report it to you.'

[16]"A little while, and you will not be observing me; and another little while, and you will see me. Because I am going to the Father."

The Disciples' Pain Will Be Turned to Joy

[17]Then some of his disciples said to one another, "What is this that he is saying to us, 'A little while, and you will not be observing me; and another little while, and you will see me'? And, 'I am going to the Father'?" [18]They kept saying therefore, "What is this 'little while'? We don't know what he is saying."

[19]Jesus knew then that they were wanting to query him, and he said to them, "Is it this you are deliberating among yourselves about, that I said, 'A little while and you will not be observing me, and another little while and you will see me'? [20]Truly, truly I say to you, You will weep and lament, and the world will be cheered. You therefore will be in pain. But your pain will be turned into joy.

[343] John 13:16; Diatessaron 28:32

[21]In the case of the woman about to give birth, she has pain, because for her the hour has come. But when she has delivered the child, no longer is she mindful of the distress, because of the joy that a human being is brought forth into the world. [22]Thus you also, now you do have pain; but I will see you again, and your hearts will be cheered, and your joy, no one is taking away from you. [23]And in that day you will not query me at all. Truly, truly I say to you: whatever you will ask the Father in my name, he will grant it to you. [24]Up to now you have not asked anything in my name; ask, and you will receive, so that your joy may be full.

[25]"These things I have spoken to you in allegories. An hour is coming when I will no longer speak to you in allegories, but I will tell you about the Father plainly. [26]In that day you will make requests in my name, and I am not saying to you that I will make request of the Father on your behalf. [27]For the Father himself likes you, because you have liked me, and have believed that I came forth from God. [28]I went forth from the Father and have come into the world; I am taking leave of the world, and going my way back to the Father."

[29]His disciples are saying to him, "There, now you are talking with clarity and not speaking any allegory. [30]Now we know that you know all, and with you there is no need that someone query you. By this we believe that you have come forth from God."

[31]Jesus answered them, "For now you believe. [32]Behold, an hour is coming, and has now come, that you will be scattered apart, each to his own, and me you will have abandoned, alone. Yet I am not alone, because the Father is with me.

[33]"These things I have spoken to you, so in me you may have peace. In the world you will have tribulation; but be of good cheer: I have overcome the world."

Chapter 17

Jesus Prays for Himself

[1]Jesus spoke these things, and then he lifted up his eyes to heaven, and said:

"Father, the hour has come; glorify your Son, so that your Son may also glorify you; [2]inasmuch as to him you have granted jurisdiction of all flesh, so that to all flesh that[345] you have given him, he may grant to them eternal life. [3]And this is eternal life: to know you, the only true God, and the one whom you have sent, Jesus Christ. [4]I have glorified you upon the earth, I have finished the work which you have given me to do. [5]And now, Father, glorify thou me, along with yourself, with the glory which I used to have along with you, before the existence of the world.

Jesus Prays for His Disciples

[6]"I have made known your name to the humans of the world that you have given to me. They had been yours, and you gave them to me, and they have taken your word to heart. [7]Now they are persuaded that all the things you have given to me are indeed from you; [8]for the sayings which you have given to me I have given to them, and they accepted and knew for sure that I came forth from you, and they believed that you had sent me. [9]I am making request concerning them; not concerning the world am I making request, but only concerning those whom you have given to me. For they are yours; [10]indeed everything of mine is yours, and of yours is mine. And I am glorified in them; [11]yes, no longer am I to be in the world, yet they are in the world, and I am coming to you. O holy Father, keep them in your name, those whom you have given to me, so that they may be one, just as we are one. [12]While I was with them in the world, I kept them in your name. Those whom you have given to me, I guarded, and not one of them met destruction, except the Son of Destruction, so that the scripture may be brought to completion.

---

[345] See the footnote on 6:39.

13"But now I am coming to you, and I am speaking these things in the world, so that they may have in them my joy brought to completion. 14I have given them your word, and the world has hated them, because they are not of the world, just as I am not of the world. 15I am not asking that you take them out of the world, but that you keep them from the evil one. 16They are not of the world, just as I am not of the world. 17Sanctify[346] them in your truth; your word is truth. 18Just as you sent me into the world, I also have sent them into the world. 19And on their behalf
I sanctify myself, so that they also may be ones sanctified in truth.

Jesus Prays for All Believers

20"And not concerning these only am I making request, but also concerning the ones who through their word will believe in me, 21that they all may be one. Just as you, Father, are in me and I in you, so let them also be one in us, so that the world might believe that you sent me. 22The glory which you have given to me, I also have given to them, so that they may be one, just as we are one: 23I in them, and you in me, so that they may become fully developed into one,[347] and so that the world may know that you sent me, and that you have loved them just as you loved me.

24"O Father, those whom you have given to me, I desire that where I am, they might also be along with me, so that they may behold that glory of mine, which you have given to me, for you loved me before the foundation of the world.

25"O righteous Father, indeed the world has not known you, but I have known you, and these have known that you sent me. 26And I have made known to them your name, and will do so in the future, so that the love with which you have loved me might always be in them, and I also in them."

Chapter 18

Gethsemane

1After he said these things, Jesus went forth with his disciples to the other side of the wadi Kidron, where there was a garden, into which he himself went, and also his disciples. 2And Judas, the one betraying him, knew the place, because Jesus had often met there with his disciples.

Jesus Arrested

3Judas therefore, after taking the cohort[348] and some guards, from the high priests and the Pharisees, comes there, with lamps and torches and weapons.
4Then, aware of all the things coming upon him, Jesus went forward and said to them, "Whom are you seeking?"

5They answered him, "Jesus the Nazarene."

Jesus says to them, "I am he.

And Judas the one betraying him is also standing there with them. 6When therefore he said, "I am he," they moved away backward, and fell to the ground.
7Again therefore, he asked them, "Whom are you seeking?"

---

346 That is, dedicate or set something apart for God's holy purposes.

347 This is the way the apostle Paul understood it; see Ephesians 4:11-16. Pauls says that God gave the apostles and other offices so that someday the believers will be fully developed into one, in unity with God and with one another. Apparently, neither Jesus nor Paul expected such oneness to occur in his own lifetime. Just as with the individual new birth, mautirity is a process and not instantaneous at birth, so also it is with the corporate man, that maturity is a process, and not instantaneous at its creation. But, if you believe that Jesus was asking that this unity take place at once, then surely you must admit that Jesus' prayer has gone ungranted, up to and including this present day.

348 A cohort, if a complete one including reserves, was a thousand soldiers, (one tenth of a legion) commanded by ten centurions, who commanded a hundred men each. The number here was probably the lesser, about 600 soldiers, but could have been up to 1,000.

And they said, "Jesus the Nazarene."

[8]Jesus answered, "I told you that I am he. If therefore it is me you are seeking, allow these to go their way." [9]In order that the word which he had said would be fulfilled: "Of those you have given me, I have not lost even one."

[10]Then Simon Peter, having a sword, drew it and struck the servant of the high priest, and cut off his right ear. And the name of the servant was Malchus. [11]Jesus therefore said to Peter, "Put your sword in the sheath. The cup which the Father has given me, am I not to drink it?"

Jesus Taken to Hananiah

[12]Then the cohort and its chiliarch and the guards from the Jews took Jesus prisoner and bound him, [13]and they led him away, to Hananiah first, for he was father-in-law of Caiaphas, who was high priest for that year. [14]And Caiaphas was the one having advised the Jews that it was expedient that one man die instead of the people.

Peter's First Denial

[15]And Simon Peter was following Jesus, along with another disciple. And that other disciple was known to the high priest, and he entered with Jesus into the courtyard of the high priest, [16]but Peter had stopped outside, at the door. The other disciple therefore, who was known to the high priest, went out and spoke to the doormaid, and brought Peter in. [17]Then the maidservant, the doorkeeper, says to Peter, "You are not also one of this man's disciples, are you?"

He says, "No I am not."

[18]And the servants and the guards stood by a fire they had made, for it was cold, and they were warming themselves. So Peter was with them, standing and warming himself.

The High Priest Questions Jesus

[19]The high priest, then, questioned Jesus, about his disciples and about his teaching.

[20]Jesus answered him, "I have spoken openly to the world. I always taught in the synagogue or in the temple, where the Jews always come together, and not said any of it in secret. [21]Why ask me? Ask the ones who have heard, what I spoke to them. You see, they know what things I said."

[22]As he was saying these things, one of the guards standing by gave Jesus a whack, saying, "Is that how you answer the high priest?"

[23]Jesus answered him, "If I spoke wrongly, testify to the wrong; but if acceptably, why are you hitting me?" [24](Hannaniah had sent him to Caiaphas the high priest bound, you see.)

Peter's Second and Third Denials

[25]And Peter was standing and warming himself. They said therefore to him, "Are you not also one of his disciples?"

He denied it, and said, "No I am not."

[26]One of the servants of the high priest, who was a relative of him whose ear Peter had cut off, says, "Did I not see you with him in the garden?" [27]Again therefore, Peter denied it, and immediately a rooster crowed.

Jesus Before Pilate and Herod

[28]They then are leading Jesus away from Caiaphas toward the Praetorium; and it was early. And they entered not into the Praetorium, so that they would not be defiled but rather might eat the Passover. [29]So Pilate came out to them. And he said, "This man? You are bringing what kind of charge against him?"

[30]They answered, and said to him, "If he were not wrongdoer, we would not have brought him over to you."

[31]Pilate therefore said to them, "You take him, and you judge him according to your law."

The Jews then said to him, "For us it is not lawful to execute anyone." [32]So the word of Jesus would be fulfilled, which he had spoken indicating by what means of death he was going to die.

[33]So Pilate went back into the Praetorium, and summoned Jesus, and he said to him, "You are the king of the Jews?"

[34]Jesus answered him, "From yourself are you saying this, or have others spoken to you about me?"

[35]Pilate answered, "Am I a Jew? It was your people and your chief priests who handed you over to me. What have you done?"

[36]Jesus answered, "My kingdom is not of this world. If my kingdom were of this world, my servants would have fought so that I not be handed over to the Jews. But in fact my kingship is not from here."

[37]Pilate therefore said to him, "So then you ARE a king."

Jesus answered, "You are saying that I am a king; I, for this reason have been born, and for this reason have come into the world: to testify to the truth. Everyone on the side of truth hears my voice."

[38]Pilate says to him, "What is truth?" And with that said, he went out again to the Jews, and says to them, "I find in him no causa capitalis.[349] [39]But there is a custom with you that I release to you one prisoner during the Passover. Would you therefore have me release to you the king of the Jews?"

[40]They then all shouted back, saying, "Not this man, but Barabbas!" Now Barabbas was a bandit.

Chapter 19

[1]At that time therefore, Pilate took Jesus and scourged him. [2]And the soldiers, after weaving a wreath of thorns, set it on his head, and threw a purple robe around him. [3]And they were saying, "Hail, O king of the Jews," and giving him slaps in the face.

[4]Pilate then went outside again, and says to them, "Look, I am bringing him out to you, so that you will know that I find no causa capitalis in him." [5]Jesus came outside therefore, wearing the crown of thorns and the purple robe. And Pilate says to them, "Behold the man."

[6]When therefore the chief priests and their officers saw him, they shouted out, saying, "Crucify! Crucify!"

Pilate says to them, "You take him yourselves and crucify him. As for me, I do not find causa capitalis in him.

[7]The Jews answered him, "We have a law, and according to that law of ours, he deserves to die because he called himself the son of God."

[8]When therefore Pilate heard this information, he was more afraid, [9]and he entered the Praetorium again, and says to Jesus, "Where are you from?" But Jesus did not give him an answer.

[10]Pilate then says to him, "To me you are not speaking? Do you not know, that I have authority to crucify you, and I have authority to free you?"

[11]Jesus answered, "You would have no authority over me if it had not been given you from above. Because of this, the one who handed me over to you has the greater guilt."

[12]From this point on Pilate tried to free him; but the Jews began shouting out, saying, "If you release this man, you are no friend of Caesar! Everyone calling himself a king is opposing Caesar."

---

[349] Basis for capital punishment.

[13]When therefore Pilate heard this reason, he brought Jesus outside, and he sat down on the judgment seat, at a place called The Pavement, but in Hebrew called Gabbatha. [14]And it was Preparation for the Passover, and the hour about 6:00 am. And he says to the Jews, "Behold, your king."

[15]But they shouted out, "Away with him! Away with him! Crucify him!"

Pilate says to them, "Shall I crucify your king?"

The chief priests responded, "We have no king but Caesar."

[16]At that time therefore he handed him over to them, to be crucified.

The Crucifixion

They took Jesus therefore, and led him away. [17]And carrying his cross, he proceeded forth, to what is called the Skull Place, which in Hebrew is pronounced Gulgolta [גֻּלְגֻלְתָּא], [18]where they crucified him, and with him, two others, one on this side and one on the other, and Jesus in the middle. [19]And Pilate also wrote a notice and put it on the cross, and it was inscribed: "JESUS THE NAZARENE, THE KING OF THE JEWS." [20]Many of the Jews therefore read this notice, because the place where Jesus was crucified was close to the city, and it was written in Hebrew, in Greek, and in Latin.

[21]The chief priests of the Jews therefore were saying to Pilate, "Do not write 'The King of the Jews,' but rather: 'He SAID, I am King of the Jews.'"

[22]Pilate answered, "What I have written I have written."

[23]The soldiers then, when they crucified Jesus, took his garments and made four shares, a share for each soldier, plus the tunic. For the tunic was seamless, woven continuously from the top through the whole. [24]They said therefore to one another, "We should not tear it, but cast lots as to whose it shall be." So that the scripture would be fulfilled which says,

> "They divided my garments
> among them;
> and cast lots
> over my clothing,"[350]

those things therefore the soldiers did.

[25]And near the cross of Jesus stood his mother, and his mother's sister; and the Mary belonging to Clopas, and the Magdalene Mary. [26]Jesus therefore, seeing his mother and the disciple whom he loved standing near, says to his mother, "Dear woman, behold your son."

[27]Then he says to the disciple, "Behold, your mother." And from that time on, that disciple took her into his own home.

Jesus' Death

[28]Jesus, knowing that after these things, all things were now completed, next says, "I am thirsty," so that the scripture would be fulfilled.[351] [29]A container full of vinegar[352] therefore was sitting there, so after filling a sponge with vinegar and sticking it around a hyssop stem, they held it out to his mouth. [30]When therefore he had received the vinegar, Jesus said, "It is finished." And after he bowed his head, he gave up his spirit.

[31]Then the Jews, since it was Preparation Day, asked Pilate that their legs be broken and they be taken away, so that the bodies would not remain on the cross during the Sabbath; for that day was great among Sabbaths. [32]The soldiers came therefore, and broke the legs of the first one, and of the other crucified with him,

[350] Psalm 22:18

[351] Psalm 22:15

[352] Psalm 69:21; This was a sour wine, a cheaper drink than regular wine, and yet more refreshing to the thirst.

[33]but when they came to Jesus they realized he was already dead, and did not in his case break the legs. [34]But one of the soldiers pierced his side with a spear, and immediately there came out blood and water. [35]And the one who has seen has borne witness, and his testimony is reliable, and he knows that he is saying something true; so you may believe. [36]And these things happened so that the scripture would be fulfilled:

"Not a bone of it shall be broken."[353]

[37]And again, another scripture says:

"They shall look upon him whom they have pierced."[354]

Jesus' Burial

[38]And after these things, Joseph from Arimathea, who was a disciple of Jesus, but secretly because of the fear of the Jews, made request of Pilate that he might take the body of Jesus; and Pilate consented. He went therefore, and took Jesus' body. [39]And Nicodemus, the one who earlier had come to Jesus by night, came as well, carrying a mixture of myrrh and aloes, about a hundred pounds.[355] [40]They then took the body of Jesus, and bound it in linen cloths, with the spices, as is the burial custom with the Jews. [41]And there was in the place where he was crucified, a garden, and in the garden a new tomb, one in which no one had ever yet been laid. [42]So, since it was Preparation for the Jews, and because the tomb was close at hand, that is where they laid Jesus.

Chapter 20

The Empty Tomb

[1]And on the first day of the week, very early while still dark, Mary the Magdalene is coming to the tomb; and she sees the stone having been removed from the tomb. [2]She runs therefore, and goes to Simon Peter and to the other disciple, the one whom Jesus loved, and she says to them, "They have taken the Lord out of the tomb, and we[356] don't know where they have put him."

[3]Peter therefore went out, and the other disciple also, and they were going toward the tomb. [4]And the two were running together; and the other disciple ran faster ahead, and came to the tomb first. [5]And after stooping down, he sees the linen cloths lying there. He did not enter inside, however. [6]Then comes Simon Peter, following behind him. And he entered into the tomb, and he observes the linen cloths lying there, [7]and also the sweat cloth which used to be on his head, except not lying with the linen cloths, but folded up in one place apart. [8]Then at that time the other disciple entered, the one who had arrived to the tomb first; and he saw and believed. [9]For they did not yet understand the scripture that he had to rise from the dead.

[355] Greek, "a hundred litras," a loan-word from the Latin, libra. The libra was the Roman pound, which was comprised of 12 ounces, so when translated to 16-ounce pounds, it comes to about 75 pounds, or 34 kilograms.

[356] Some people make much of the fact that John mentions only Mary the Magdalene by name, as if she were the only woman who went to the tomb, as a contradiction of the other gospels, like the gospel of Mark, which names three women. But here in John, Mary the Magdalene says "We" don't know where they have put him, indicating that she was not alone. And so also, most other so-called contradictions between the four gospels may be resolved by those truly wanting to know the truth, and not coming to it with prejudice.

Jesus Appears to Mary of Magdala

[10]The disciples then went back to their own homes. [11]But Mary stayed with the tomb, and there she stands, outside, weeping. As she thus was weeping, she stooped down into the tomb, [12]and she beholds two angels in white, one sitting at the head and one sitting at the foot of where the body of Jesus had been lying.

[13]And they say to her, "Woman, why are you weeping?"

She says to them, "They have taken my Lord away, and I don't know where they have put him."

[14]And when she had said these things, she looked toward the rear, and beholds Jesus having been standing; and she did not realize that it was Jesus.

[15]Jesus says to her, "Woman, why are you weeping? Who are you looking for?"

She, thinking he is the gardener, says to him, "Sir, if it is you who took him, tell me where you put him, and I will get him.

[16]Jesus says to her, "Mary."

She when she turned around, says to him, "Rabbouni!" (which means Teacher).

[17]Jesus says to her, "Do not cleave to me, for I have not yet ascended to my Father; but go to my brothers, and tell them: 'I am ascending to my Father and your Father; to my God and your God.'"

[18]Mary goes, announcing to the disciples that she had seen the Lord, and also announcing those things he had said to her.

Jesus Appears to the Ten Apostles

[19]Then, when it was evening on that first day of the week, with the doors locked where the disciples were assembled, because of the fear of the Jews, Jesus appeared, and stood in their midst. And he says to them, "Peace be with you." [20]And when he had said this, he showed them both his hands and his side. Therefore the disciples rejoiced, seeing the Lord.

[21]Then Jesus again said to them, "Peace be with you. As the Father has sent me, so also I send you." [22]And having said this, he blew,[357] and says to them, "Receive the Holy Spirit. [23]Whose ever sins you forgive, they are forgiven them; whose ever you retain, they are retained."

Jesus Appears to Thomas

[24]But Thomas, one of the Twelve, the one who was called the Twin, was not with them when Jesus came. [25]So the other disciples were telling him, "We have seen the Lord."

But he said to them, "Unless I see in his hands the mark of the nails, and put my finger into the place from the nails, and put my hands into his side, there is no way I will believe."

[26]And after eight days, his disciples again were inside, and Thomas with them. Jesus is appearing, even though the doors were locked. And he stood in the midst, and said, "Peace be with you." [27]Thereupon he says to Thomas, "Bring your finger here, and see my hands, and bring your hand and put it into my side, and do not be unbelieving, but believing."

[28]And Thomas responded and said to him, "My Lord and my God."

[29]Jesus says to him, "Because you have seen me, Thomas, you have believed. Blessed are those believing without having seen."

---

[357] Greek: emphusaw, breathe out or blow; the same verb used in Genesis 2:7 to translate the Hebrew verb used for how God breathed into the nostrils of the dust-man the breath of life, causing the man to become a living being. Here in John, there is no object for the verb; I do not believe we are to imagine that Jesus approached each of the ten individually, and breathed upon each of them in turn, but rather gave them a corporate breathing on.

[30]While therefore Jesus did also do many other signs in the sight of his disciples which are not written in this book, [31]these have been written so that you might believe that Jesus is the Christ,[358] the Son of God, and that believing, you might have life through his name.

Chapter 21

Resurrection Fish & Bread

[1]After these things, Jesus revealed himself another time to his disciples, on the Sea of Tiberius. And this is how he revealed himself. [2]Simon Peter, and Thomas called the Twin, and Nathaniel from Cana of Galilee, and the sons of Zebedee, and two other disciples of his, were together. [3]Simon Peter says to them, "I am going to fish."

They say to him, "We are also coming with you."

They went directly, and embarked in the boat. And throughout that night, they caught nothing. [4]And now that it is turning morning, Jesus had stood at the shoreline. However, the disciples have not realized that it is Jesus. [5]Jesus therefore says to them, "Children, have you no fish?"

They answered, "No."

[6]And he said to them, "Cast the net into the area to the right of the boat, and you will find something." They cast it therefore, and now they were not able to retrieve it, because of a fullness of fish.

[7]So that disciple whom Jesus loved says to Peter, "It is the Lord." When therefore Simon Peter heard that it is the Lord, he fastened his cloak around himself, for he was stripped for work, and he threw himself into the lake [8](for they were not far from shore, but only about two hundred cubits[359] away), while the other disciples came in the boat, towing the fish net. [9]As they get down therefore onto the beach, they see a fire of coals established, and fish lying on it, and bread.

[10]Jesus says to them, "Bring some of the fish which you have now caught." [11]Simon Peter got up, and dragged the net onto the beach, very full of fish, 153 of them; and though there were so many, the net was not torn.

[12]Jesus says to them, "Come, eat breakfast." And not one of the disciples got up the courage to challenge him, "Who are you?" For they knew it was the Lord. [13]Jesus comes therefore, and he takes the bread and distributes to them, and the fish likewise. [14]This was now the third time Jesus had revealed himself to his disciples after having risen from the dead.

Jesus Reappoints Peter

[15]When therefore they had eaten breakfast, Jesus says to Simon Peter, "Simon son of Jonah, do you love me more than these?"

He says to him, "Yes, Lord, you know that I love you."

He says to him, "Feed my lambs."

[16]Again, he says to him a second time, "Simon son of Jonah, do you love me?"

He says to him, "Yes, Lord, you know that I love you."

He says to him, "Pastor my sheep."

[17]He says to him the third time, "Simon son of Jonah, do you love me?"

Peter was hurt that he said to him the third time, "Do you love me." And he said to him, "Lord, you know all. You know that I love you."

Jesus says to him, "Feed my sheep." [18]Truly, truly I say to you: When you were younger, you would dress yourself, and walk around where you wanted; but after you have become old, you will stretch out your hand, and someone else will dress you, and lead you somewhere you will not want." [19]This he said signifying by what kind of death he would glorify God. And having said this, he says to him, "Follow me."

And What About John?

[20]Then Peter turned around, and he sees the disciple whom Jesus loved following, that is, the one who in the supper had leaned back onto His chest and said, "Lord, who is the one betraying you?" [21]When he saw this one, Peter says to Jesus, "Lord, and what about him?"

[22]Jesus says to him, "If I want him to remain until I come, what is that to you? You follow me." [23]This therefore is the word that got out to the brothers: that that disciple would not die. Yet Jesus had not said to him that he would not die; rather, "If I want him to remain until I come, what is that to you?"

[24]That disciple is the one who is bearing witness to these things, and the one who wrote these things; and we know that his testimony is true.

[25]And there are also many other things that Jesus did, which if written in detail, I reckon not even the world itself would be able to hold the books that would be written. Amen.

Acts of the Apostles

Chapter 1

[1]I made my previous account, O Theophilus, about all that Jesus began both to do and to teach, [2]up until the day he was taken up, after he had given orders through the Holy Spirit to the apostles he had chosen; [3]to whom also he showed himself to be alive, following his suffering, by many convincing proofs (being seen by them over a period of forty days) and telling them things about the kingdom of God.

[4]And when he was assembled together with them, he ordered them: "Do not leave Jerusalem, but wait for the promise of the Father, which you have heard about from me. [5]For John baptized in water, but you will be baptized in the Holy Spirit, not many days from now."

[6]When therefore they were gathered together, they queried him, saying, "Lord, are you at this time going to restore the kingdom to Israel?"

[7]And he said to them, "It is not for you to know the times and the seasons, which the Father has placed within his own authority; [8]but you will receive power when the Holy Spirit comes upon you, and you will be my witnesses, both in Jerusalem and in all Judea and Samaria, and out to the farthest part of the earth." [9]And after he had said these things, he was lifted up away while they were watching. And a cloud removed him from their view. [10]And as he was going, they were concentrating intently into the sky, and behold! Two men dressed in white clothing had been standing beside them.

[11]And they said: "Men of Galilee, why are you standing looking intently into the sky? This same Jesus who was taken up from you into heaven will come in the same manner in which you saw him go into heaven."

[12]At that time they went back into Jerusalem, from the hill called the Mount of Olives, which is near Jerusalem, a Sabbath day's walk away. [13]And when they got back inside the city, they went up into the upper room where they were staying: Peter and James and John and Andrew, Philip and Thomas, Bartholomew and Matthew, James son of Halphaeus and Simon the Zealot, and Judas son of James. [14]These all with one mind were devoting themselves persistently to prayer and petition, along with the women, including Mary the mother of Jesus, and including his brothers.

[15]And during those days Peter stood up in the midst of the disciples, (and altogether the company of persons was about 120). He said, [16]"Brethren, it was necessary for that scripture to be fulfilled which the Holy Spirit spoke beforehand through the mouth of David concerning Judas, who became a guide for those who arrested Jesus, [17]because he was numbered with us and obtained one portion of this ministry." [18](This man therefore had bought himself a field out of the payment from unrighteousness, and after falling headlong, he burst open in the middle, and all his intestines spilled out. [19]And it became known to everyone living in Jerusalem, so that the field is called in their language, "Akeldama." This means "Field of Blood.") [20]"For it is written in the book of Psalms: 'Let his settlement be desolate, and be in it no inhabitant,' and, 'Let someone else take his position.' [21]So then, it must be out of the men who have been with us during the whole time the Lord Jesus went in and out among us, [22]beginning from the baptism of John all the way until the day he was taken up from us; one of those who were witnesses of his resurrection with us."

23And they nominated two, Joseph called Barsabas, who was surnamed Justus; and Matthias.

24And getting down in prayer, they said, "You, Lord, are knower of all hearts. Reveal which one of these two you have chosen 25to receive this portion of the ministry and apostleship, from which Judas turned aside to go to his own proper place."

26And they cast lots over them, and the lot fell to Matthias. And he was added in with the eleven apostles.

Chapter 2

1And when it was time for the Day of Pentecost, they were all of one mind in one place, 2and suddenly there came the sound of words from heaven as if being carried by a swirling wind, and it filled the entire house where they were sitting, 3and there appeared to them tongues of flame, dividing apart, just as if a fire, and it came to rest on each one of them, 4and they were all filled with the Holy Spirit, and they began to speak in other tongues, as the Spirit was giving them utterance.

5Now there were Jews staying in Jerusalem who were devout men from all the nations under heaven. 6And as the sound of this was produced, a crowd gathered on, and they were captivated, because each one was hearing them speaking in his own particular language. 7And they were all astonished and marveling, saying to one another, "Behold, these people speaking, are they not all Galileans? 8So how are we each hearing them in our own particular language in which we were born? 9Parthians, Medes and Elamites and residents of Mesopotamia; Jews also from Cappadocia, Pontus and Asia; 10both Phrygia and Pamphylia; Egypt and the parts of Libya near Cyrene; and Romans who are visiting, 11both Jews and proselytes; Cretans and Arabs; we hear them telling the mighty deeds of God in our own tongues!" 12And they were all stunned and struggling. Some were saying to each other, "What could this mean?"

13But others were saying with scorn, "They are full of new wine."

14But Peter stood forward, along with the Eleven, and he lifted up his voice, and spoke out boldly to them: "Fellow Jews, and all of you staying in Jerusalem, let this be known to you, and take heed to my words. 15For these people are not drunk, as you are thinking, since it is the third hour of the day. 16But rather this is what was spoken through the prophet Joel:

17 'And it will be, in the last days,' God says,
'I will pour out of my spirit onto all flesh,
and your sons and your daughters will prophesy,
and your young will see visions,
and your older will dream dreams;
18and onto both my male servants and my female servants will I pour out from my Spirit in those days, and they will prophesy.
19And I will provide wonders in the heaven above, and signs on the earth below,

blood and fire and a smoky mist;
[20]the sun will be turned into darkness and the moon into blood before that great and terrible Day of the Lord is come.
[21]And it will be, that whoever calls on the name of the Lord will be saved.'

[22]"Men of Israel, listen to these words. Jesus of Nazareth, a man commended to you from God by powerful deeds and wonders and signs, which God performed through him in your midst, as indeed you yourselves know, [23]you took this man and handed him over, according to the established plan and foreknowledge of God, and you lifted him up to be nailed, through the hands of Torah-less men; [24]him God has raised again, breaking the bonds of death, since it was never possible for him to be held by it.
[25]For David says regarding him,

'I have foreseen the Lord going before me through it all.
Because he is at my right hand, I will not be shaken.
[26]For this reason my heart was cheered,
and my tongue did rejoice,
and my flesh also will now dwell in hope, [27]because you will not abandon my soul in Hades, nor will you assign your holy one to see decay.
[28]You have made known to me the paths of life.
You will fill me with joy with your company.'

[29]Brothers, I venture to say with certainty to you about the patriarch David, that he both died and was buried, and his tomb remains among us to this day. [30]But because of being a prophet, and knowing that God had sworn to him with an oath that from fruit of his loins according to the flesh, he would raise up the Messiah to sit on his throne, [31]it was in reference to the resurrection of the Messiah he spoke, with foresight, that His soul was not abandoned in Hades, nor did His flesh see decay. [32]This man Jesus, God has raised to life, to which we all are witnesses. [33]Having been exalted then to the right hand of God, and having received from the Father the promise of the Holy Spirit, he has poured out this which you are now seeing and hearing. [34]For David did not ascend to heaven, yet he says, 'Yehovah said to my Lord: Sit at my right hand, [35]until I make your enemies a footstool for your feet.' [36]Therefore let all the house of Israel know for a certainty, that the one whom you crucified, God has made that same Jesus both Lord and Messiah."
[37]And when they heard this, they were shocked to the core. And they said to Peter and the rest of the apostles, "Brothers, what should we do?"
[38]And Peter said to them, "Repent, and be baptized each one of you in the name of Jesus Christ for the forgiveness of sins. And you will receive for yourselves the gift of the Holy Spirit. [39]For the promise is to you, and to your children, and also to everyone far off, however many the Lord our God will call."
[40]With many other words also, he was solemnly testifying, and urging them, saying, "You must be saved from this perverse generation." [41]The ones therefore who accepted his message were baptized, and about three thousand souls were added during that day.

42And they were devoting themselves continually to the teaching of the apostles, and to the fellowship, and to the breaking of bread, and to the prayers. 43And and awe came into every soul, and many wonders and signs were taking place through the apostles. 44And all the believers were together, and possessing everything in common. 45And they were selling their property and possessions, and distributing the proceeds to everyone, according to whomever had the need. 46And every day they were as one mind, devoting themselves constantly in the temple, and breaking bread from house to house, sharing food with gladness and simplicity of heart, 47praising God, and having favor in the eyes of all the people. And the Lord was adding to the assembly daily those who were being saved.

Chapter 3

1Now Peter and John went up together to the temple at the ninth hour, the hour of prayer, 2and a man lame from his mother's womb was being carried, whom they would place daily at the gate of the temple called the Beautiful Gate so he could ask for charity from those going into the temple; 3who when he saw Peter and John about to enter the temple, he asked for charity. 4And Peter, after studying him together with John, said, "Look at us."

5So he was holding his attention on them, expecting to receive something from them.

6And Peter said, "Silver and gold, I have none. But what I do have, this I give you. In the name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, rise up and walk!" 7And he gripped him by the right hand and lifted him. And his feet and ankles were instantly strengthened, 8and springing up, he stood, and started walking around. And he went into the temple with them, walking and leaping and praising God. 9And all the people saw him walking and praising God, 10and they recognized him, that this was the man usually sitting at the Beautiful Gate of the temple to ask for charity, and they were filled with amazement and wonder over what had happened to him. 11And as the lame man who was healed kept holding on to Peter and John, all the people ran together toward them in admiration, at the gate called Solomon's Gate.

12But when Peter saw this, he responded to the people: "Men of Israel, why are you marveling over this, and why are you looking upon us as if our own power or godliness caused him to walk again? 13The God of Abraham and Isaac and Jacob, the God of our fathers, has glorified his servant Jesus, whom you delivered up, and disowned him before the face of Pilate. He had made the judgement to release him, 14but you rejected the holy and righteous one, and asked that a murderer be released on pardon to you, 15and you killed the architect of life, whom God has raised from the dead, to which we all are witnesses. 16And it is on the basis of faith in his name, Jesus' name, that this man whom you see and know has been made firm, and this faith, which is through that Jesus, has given this man complete healing in front of you all.

17So now, brothers, I realize it was because you were unaware, that you acted so, and likewise your leaders. 18But in this way were fulfilled the things God had foretold through the mouths of all his prophets— that the Messiah had to suffer. 19Repent therefore, and turn yourselves around, so that your sins be wiped away, so that times of refreshing may come from having access to the Lord, 20and he send Jesus the Messiah to you, who was announced before to you, 21whom heaven must take in until the time of the restoration of all things, about which God has spoken through the mouths of all his holy prophets since long ago.

22For indeed Moses said to our fathers, 'The Lord your God will raise up for you a prophet like me from your brethren. To him you must take heed, in accordance with everything he says to you, 23and it will be that every soul who does not listen to that prophet will be utterly cut off from among the people.' 24And in fact all the prophets from Samuel and those in succession, as many as have spoken, have also predicted these days. 25You are the heirs of the prophets, and of the covenant which God set in place with our fathers, saying to Abraham, 'And through your seed will all the families of the earth be blessed.' 26God, having now raised up his servant Jesus, has sent him to you, blessing you first, in order to turn each of you from your wicked ways."

Chapter 4

1And as they were talking to the people, the priests and the captain of the temple guard and the Sadducees pressed upon them, 2all worked up because they were teaching the people and proclaiming in Jesus the resurrection of the dead, 3and they put their hands on them and placed them under guard until morning (for by then it was evening). 4But many of those who had heard the word believed, and the number of the men was about 5,000.

5And the next morning an assembly of the leaders and elders and Torah scholars was convened in Jerusalem, 6including Hananiah the high priest, and Caiaphas, and John, and Alexander, and all the ones who were relatives of the high priest. 7And after they had stood them in their midst, they were inquiring, "By what power or what name did you do this?"

8Then Peter, filled with the Holy Spirit, said to them, "Leaders of the people, and elders of Israel, 9If we are on trial for a good deed done to a lame man, as to by what means he was healed, 10be it known to you all, and to all the people of Israel, that in this name of Jesus Christ of Nazareth, whom you crucified, whom God has raised from the dead, in that name this man is presented before you healthy. 11This Jesus is 'the stone that you builders rejected; he has become the cornerstone.' 12And salvation is not in anyone else, for there is no other name under heaven given among man by which we must be saved."

13Now when they observed the confident speech of Peter and John, and considered the fact that they were uneducated and ordinary men, they were amazed. And they recognized them, that they had been with Jesus. 14But as they saw that the man who was with them was standing, the one who had been healed, they had nothing to say to refute them. 15And after ordering them to go outside the Sanhedrin, they were conferring with one another, 16saying, "What shall we do with these men? For to be sure, a notable sign has happened through them, well known to everyone living in Jerusalem, and we cannot deny it. [17]But, so it does not spread to the people any further, let us warn them with a threat, not to speak any longer in this name to anyone." [18]And after summoning them, they gave them orders not to utter at all, nor to teach in, the name of Jesus.

[19]But in response Peter and John said to them, "Whether it is right in God's eyes to obey you rather than obey God, you decide. [20]Because for us, it impossible not to tell the things we have seen and heard."

[21]But they threatened them further, and then released them, having found no way to punish them, because of the people. For they were all praising God over what had happened. [22]For the man on whom this sign of healing had happened was over forty years old. [23]So being released they went to their own people and reported what things the chief priests and elders had said to them.

[24]And who when they heard, they with one mind lifted up their voice to God, and said, "Master, you, O God, who made the heaven and the earth and the sea and all the things that are in them, [25]you said by the mouth of David your servant, 'Why have the nations raged, and the peoples devised vain things? [26]The kings of the earth rise up, and the rulers assemble together against the Lord and against his Anointed.' [27]They have in fact assembled against your holy servant Jesus whom you anointed, both Herod and Pontius Pilate, along with the nations and the assemblies of Israel, [28]to do those things which your hand and your design have fore-ordained to happen. [29]And now, Lord, look upon their threats, and give to all your servants the ability to speak your word with boldness, [30]by stretching forth your hand so that curing and signs and wonders will happen through the name of your holy servant Jesus."

[31]And as they were making this request, the place in which they were assembled was shaken, and they all were filled with the Holy Spirit, and they spoke the word of God with boldness. [32]Now the hearts and souls of the multitude of those who had believed were one, and no one said any of his possessions were his own, but instead were held in common for every one of them. [33]And with great power the apostles gave the testimony about the resurrection of the Lord Jesus. And great grace was upon them all. [34]For not even one among them was needy. Because whoever of them were owners of lands or houses, they were selling, and they would bring the proceeds of the things that were sold, [35]and donate it at the feet of the apostles. Then it was distributed to each person, according as anyone had the need.

[36]Thus it was that Joses, who was nicknamed Barnabas by the apostles (which when translated is Son of Encouragement), a Levite, Cypriot by birth, [37]who was the owner of a field, he sold it and brought the proceeds and donated it at the feet of the apostles.

Chapter 5

[1]Then a man named Hananiah, together with his wife Saphira, sold some property, [2]and part of the proceeds he secretly set aside for himself (his wife also aware) and part of it he brought to the feet of the apostles and donated.

[3]And Peter said, "Hananiah, why has Satan emboldened your heart to lie to the Holy Spirit and secretly set aside part of the proceeds from the field?

4Was not the field yours, and after it was sold, the proceeds still within your rights to keep? What happened, that put this issue in your heart? It was not to people that you lied, but to God."

5And after Hananaiah heard these words, he fell down dead. And great fear gripped all those who heard these things. 6And the young men got up, and when they had wrapped him, they carried him out and buried him. 7And there was an interval of about three hours, and then his wife came in, not knowing what had happened. 8And Peter responded to her, "Tell me, was this how much you sold the land for?"

And she said, "Yes, this much."

9And Peter said to her, "What happened, that you two were united to tempt the Spirit of the Lord? Look, the feet of those who buried your husband are at the door. They will also carry you out." 10And she immediately dropped near his feet and died. And when the young men came in, they found her dead, and they carried her out and buried her next to her husband. 11And great fear came over the whole assembly, and over all those who heard these things.

12And through the hands of the apostles many signs and wonders were happening among the people, and they were regularly at the Portico of Solomon with one accord. 13But none of the rest dared to be seen with them. (Though the people thought highly of them.)

14Even so, more believers were added to the Lord, multitudes of both men and women; 15with the result that they also brought out their sick into the streets and placed them on pallets and mats, in case if Peter came by even his shadow might pass over one of them. 16And the multitude from the cities surrounding Jerusalem also collected there, carrying the sick and those being tormented by unclean spirits, who were healed, all of them.

17But the high priest rose up, and all those with him, which was the sect of the Sadducees. They were filled with jealousy, 18and they put their hands on the apostles and placed them in custody publicly. 19But during the night an angel of the Lord opened the doors of the prison, and led them out, and said, 20 "Go, stand in the temple, and speak to the people all the words of this life."

24And as the high priest and the captain of the temple guard and the chief priests heard these words, they were completely at a loss as to what might become of it all. 25Then someone came and reported to them, saying, "Behold, the men you had put in prison are standing in the temple, and teaching the people." 26At that time the captain went out, along with the attendants, and brought them, not with force, because they were afraid of the people, not wanting to be stoned.

27And they brought them and stood them in the Sanhedrin. And the high priest interrogated them, 28saying, "Did we not very strictly charge you not to teach in this name, and behold you have filled Jerusalem with your teaching. And you intend to bring upon us this man's blood."

29And in answer Peter and the apostles said, "We ought to obey God rather than humans. 30The God of our fathers raised up Jesus, whom you killed by hanging him to a tree. 31This man God has exalted to his right hand as Ruler and Savior, to give repentance to Israel and forgiveness of sins. 32And we are his witnesses of these matters, and so is also the Holy Spirit, whom God has given to those who obey him."

33And those who heard this were enraged, and began planning to kill him. 34But a certain man in the council stood up, a Pharisee by the name of Gamaliel, a teacher of the law respected by all the people. And he ordered that the men be put outside for a little while. 35And he said to them, "Men, Israelites, take heed to yourselves over these men, what you intend to do. 36For prior to these days, Theudas had risen up, declaring himself to be someone, to whom a number of men attached themselves, about four hundred. He was killed, and all who obeyed him were dispersed and came to nothing. 37After that, during the days of the registration, Judas the Galilean rose up and drew away considerable people after him. That man also perished, and all who obeyed him were scattered. 38And the ones now, I am telling you, stand back from these men, and leave them alone. Because if this argument is of man, or this effort, it will come to an end. 39On the other hand, if it is of God, you cannot defeat it. You might even be found acting as opponents of God."

With that they obeyed him. 40And they called for the apostles, and beat them, and ordered them not to speak on the name of Jesus, and released them. 41They as a result were proceeding from the presence of the Sanhedrin rejoicing that they were considered worthy to be despised for the sake of His name. 42And every day, in the temple, and from house to house, they never ceased teaching and preaching Jesus as Messiah.

Chapter 6

1Now during those days, with the number of disciples having multiplied greatly, there arose some grumbling from the Greek speakers toward the Hebrew speakers, that their widows were being overlooked in the daily distribution of food. 2Then the Twelve called the multitude of the disciples to them, and said, "It is not fitting that we abandon the word of God to minister in money matters. 3So, brothers, search out seven men of you who are witnessed to be full of the Holy Spirit and of wisdom, whom we will appoint over this office; 4whereas we will be devoted to prayer and service of the word."

5And this word was pleasing before all the multitude, and they chose Stephen, a man full of faith and of the Holy Spirit; and Philip, and Prochorus, and Nicanor, and Timon, and Parmenas, and Nicolaus, a proselyte from Antioch. 6Whom they set before the apostles. And they prayed and laid their hands on them.

7And the word of God grew, and the number of disciples in Jerusalem multiplied greatly. A large crowd of the priests also was coming to obey the faith. 8And Stephen, full of faith and power, was performing great signs and wonders among the people.

9But some men stood up, debating with Stephen, men from what was called the Synagogue of the Freedmen, including Cyrenians and Alexandrians, and some from Cilicia and Asia, 10and they were not able to withstand the wisdom and the spirit with which he was speaking. 11Then they secretly instigated some men to say, "We have heard him speaking blasphemous things against Moses and against God." 12And that stirred up the people, and the elders, and the Torah scholars. And having stood ready nearby, they seized him and took him to the Sanhedrin. 13They also had arranged false witnesses, who were now saying, "This man never stops saying blasphemous things against this holy place and the law. 14For we have heard him saying that this Jesus the Nazarene will destroy this place and change the customs that Moses handed down to us."

15And everyone sitting in the Sanhedrin who watched him saw that his face was like the face of an angel.

Chapter 7

1Then the high priest said, "Are these things true?"

2And he said, "Brothers and fathers, listen: The glorious God appeared to our father Abraham while he was in Mesopotamia, before he lived in Haran, 3and He said to him, 'Leave your country and your relatives, and go to whatever country I will show you.'

4At that time he left Chaldea, and lived in Haran. And then, after his father died, God removed him to this country in which you now live. 5Yet he did not give him tenure in this country, not even a foothold, yet promised to give it for a possession to his seed after him, this while he had no child. 6But God spoke this: 'Your seed will be aliens in the country of others, who will enslave them and treat them badly for 400 years. 7And whatever nation enslaves them, I will judge,' said God, 'and after those things they will come out, and will worship me in this place.'

8And He gave him the covenant of circumcision; and thus Abraham begat Isaac and circumcised him on the eighth day, and Isaac Jacob, and Jacob the twelve patriarchs. 9And the patriarchs, out of jealousy, sold Joseph off to Egypt. Yet God was with him. 10And He rescued him from all his troubles, and gave him favor and wisdom in the eyes of Pharaoh king of Egypt, who made him ruler over Egypt, and over his entire household.

11But a famine came over all the land of Egypt and Canaan, and great suffering, and our fathers were not finding food. 12So when Jacob heard there was bread in Egypt, he sent our fathers out the first time. 13And during the second time, Joseph allowed himself to be recognized by his brothers, and his race became evident to Pharaoh.

14So Joseph sent word inviting his father to come, Jacob and his whole clan, 75 souls in all, 15and Jacob went down to Egypt. And he and our fathers died, 16and were transferred to Shechem and laid in the tomb which Abraham had bought with a payment in silver from the sons of Hamor [father] of Shechem.

17Now just as the time was drawing near for the promise which God had sworn to Abraham, the people grew in strength and were multiplied in Egypt, 18until such time another king arose who did not know Joseph. 19This man dealt shrewdly with our race. He mistreated our fathers, causing their newborn babies to be thrown out, so they would not survive.

[20]At which time Moses was born, and he was very good looking. For three months he was nurtured in the house of his father. [21]Then when he was put out, Pharaoh's daughter took him and raised him as her own son. [22]And Moses was trained in all the wisdom of the Egyptians, and was powerful in his words and deeds.

[23]But when he reached 40 years old, it came upon his heart to go check on his brothers the sons of Israel. [24]And when he saw one being injured he defended him, and he got vengeance for the one getting the worse, by striking the Egyptian. [25]Now he thought his brothers would understand that God would give salvation to them through his hand. But they did not understand. [26]And on the following day he appeared to some of them, who were fighting, and he attempted to reconcile them in peace saying, "Men, you are brothers. Why are you injuring each other?"

[27]But the one injuring his neighbor pushed him away, saying, "Who appointed you ruler and judge over us? [28]Do you intend to kill me the same way you killed that Egyptian yesterday?"

[29]And with this said, Moses fled. And he became an alien camping out in Midian, where he begat two sons. [30]And when he was forty years old, the angel of the Lord appeared to him in the desert of Mount Sinai, in the flame of a burning thorn bush.

[31]And Moses saw it and marvelled at the vision. As he approached it therefore to investigate, the voice of the Lord came to him: [32]'I am the God of your fathers, the God of Abraham, the God of Isaac, and the God of Jacob.' But Moses started to tremble and dared not look.

[33]And the Lord said to him, 'Remove the sandals from your feet; because the place on which you are standing is holy ground. [34]I have looked, I have seen the ill treatment of my people in Egypt, and I have heard their groans, and I have come down to rescue them. And now, you come; I will send you to Egypt.'

[35]This Moses, the one they had denied saying, 'Who appointed you ruler and judge;' this very man God sent as ruler and redeemer by means of the angel appearing to him in the bush. [36]This man led them forth, performing wonders and signs, in Egypt and in the Red Sea, and in the desert for forty years. [37]This is the Moses who said to the sons of Israel, 'God will raise up a prophet for you like me out of your brothers. You must listen to him' [38]This is the one who was present in the congregation in the desert, who was with the angel speaking to him in Mount Sinai, and who was with our fathers. He who received living oracles to give to us. [39]To whom our fathers refused to be obedient, but pushed him away, and turned their hearts toward Egypt, [40]saying to Aaron, 'Make gods for us that will go before us. Because this Moses who led us out of Egypt, we do not know what has happened to him.' [41]And they moulded a calf in those days, and led a sacrifice up to the idol, and rejoiced in the works of their own hands.

[42]And God turned away, and gave them up to worship the heavenly bodies, just as it is written in the scroll of the prophets: 'Have you presented Me slaughtered animals and sacrifices for forty years in the desert, O house of Israel? [43]Yet you carried around the booth of Moloch, and the star of your god Saturn. The images which you made, you worshiped them. I therefore will deport you beyond Babylon.'

44The tent of testimony was there for our fathers in the desert, just as the one speaking had directed Moses to make it according to the model which he had seen. 45Which then our fathers had passed on to them, and they with Joshua, took it into the land possessed by the nations whom God drove away from the face of our fathers until the days of David. 46Who found favor before God and asked to find a tent for the God of Jacob.

47But Solomon built a house for him. 48But the Most High does not dwell in temples made with hands. As the prophet says, 49'Heaven is my throne, and the earth is my foot-stool.[360] What kind of house will you build for me?' says the Lord, 'or what place for my rest? 5Has not my hand created all these things?'

51O you stiff-necked people, and uncircumcised in hearts and ears, you always resist the Holy Spirit. Just as your fathers were, so are you. 52Which of the prophets have your fathers not persecuted? And they killed those who predicted the coming of the Righteous One, of whom you now are become the betrayers and murderers. 53Who have received the law by the direction of angels, and not kept it."

54Now those hearing these things had been seething inside, and grinding their teeth at him. 55But he, being filled with the Holy Spirit, gazed intently into heaven, and saw the glory of God, and Jesus standing at the right hand of God. 56And he said, "Look! I can see heaven open, and the Son of Man standing at the right hand of God!"

57But they howled loudly while plugging their ears, and with one accord charged upon him, 58and when they had cast him outside the city, they proceeded to stone him. And the witnesses laid their cloaks at the feet of a young man named Saul. 59And as they stoned Stephen, he was calling out, and saying, "Lord Jesus, receive my spirit." 60Then he dropped to his knees, and he cried out with a loud voice: "Lord, do not hold these sins against them." And after he said these things, he died.

Chapter 8

1And Saul was in agreement with his killing. Then there occurred at that time a great persecution against the congregation at Jerusalem, and they all became scattered over the territories of Judea and Samaria, except for the apostles. 2But some devout men recovered the body of Stephen, and made a great lamentation over him.

3Meanwhile Saul was ravaging the church, entering house to house, dragging off both men and women and handing them over to prison. 4But those who were scattered consequently passed through preaching the word. 5Thus Philip, having gone down to a city of Samaria, preached Christ to those people.

6And those crowds, when they heard, and saw the signs he was performing, with one mind took heed to the things that were spoken by Philip. 7For many had unclean spirits, which were coming out with loud shrieks, and many who had been paralyzed and lame were healed. 8And so there was great joy in that city.

9Now there was a man in that city named Simon who had been practicing sorcery and astonishing the nation of Samaria, declaring himself to be someone great. [10]To whom they all would pay attention, from the small to the great, saying, "This is the great power of God." [11]And they were paying attention to him because it was for quite a while he had been astonishing them with his sorceries. [12]But when they believed what Philip had preached about the kingdom of God and the name of Jesus Christ, they were getting baptized, both men and women. [13]And Simon himself also believed, and after he was baptized, he was staying close to Philip, and when he saw the signs and miracles that were happening, he was astonished.

[360] Acts 7:49 See Isaiah 66:1,2; Enoch 83:4 (Laurence) or 84:2 (R. H. Charles)

[14]And when the apostles in Jerusalem heard that Samaria had welcomed the word of God, they sent Peter and John to them, [15]who went down and prayed for them that they might receive the Holy Spirit. [16]For He had not yet fallen upon even one of them. They were baptized ones, but baptized only in the name of the Lord Jesus. [17]Then at that time, they laid their hands on them, and they did receive the Holy Spirit.

[18]Now when Simon saw that the Holy Spirit was given by the laying on of the apostles' hands, he offered them money, [19]saying, "Give me this authority also, so that whoever I lay my hands on receives the Holy Spirit."

[20]But Peter said to him, "May your silver perish with you, because you presumed to buy the gift of God with money! [21]There is no part or place for you in this preaching, because your heart is not pure before God. [22]Repent therefore of this evil of yours, and petition to God if the intent of your heart will be forgiven. [23]For I see you being with a root of bitterness and the bondage of unrighteousness."

[24]And in response Simon said, "Pray to the Lord on my behalf so that none of what you said will befall me."

[25]When therefore they had given solemn testimony, they also returned to Jerusalem speaking the word of the Lord, evangelizing even more Samaritan villages.

[26]Then an angel of the Lord spoke to Philip, saying: "Get up, and go down southward on the road that goes from Jerusalem to Gaza." (This is desert.)

[27]And he got up and went, and behold, an Ethiopian man, who was an official eunuch of the Kentake (the queen of the Ethiopians),[361] in charge of all her finance. He had come to Jerusalem to worship, [28]and was going back home. And he was sitting on his chariot, reading the prophet Isaiah.

[29]And the Spirit said to Philip, "Go up and meet this chariot."

[30]So Philip ran up to him. And he heard him reading the prophet Isaiah and said to him, "Do you understand what you are reading?"

[31]And he said, "How would I truly be able to, unless someone guides me?" And he invited Philip up, to sit with him.

[32]And the passage of scripture he was reading was,

"He was led like a sheep to the slaughter.
And as a lamb before the shearer is silent,
so he did not open his mouth.
[33]In his meekness his right was taken away.

[361] Acts 8:27 The word κανδακη - Kandake was a title, used for at least 5 known queens of the Nubian kingdom. This Kandake's personal name was apparently Amantitere, who ruled about the years 25-41 A.D. "Kentakay" approximates the actual Nubian pronunciation.

And who will describe his generation?
For his life is being removed from the earth."

34So in response the eunuch said to Philip, "I ask you please, about whom is the prophet saying this? About himself? Or about someone else?"
35Then Philip opened his mouth, and beginning with that very scripture, told him all the good news about Jesus. 36And as they were proceeding along the road, they came upon some water, and the eunuch said, "Look, water. Is there anything forbidding me to be baptized?"
37And Philip said, "If you believe with all your heart, it is permissible."
And he answered and said, "I believe that Jesus Christ is the Son of God."
38And he ordered the chariot to stop, and the two went down into the water, both Philip and the eunuch, and Philip baptized him. 39And when they had come up out of the water, the Spirit of the Lord snatched Philip up, and the eunuch saw him no more. He sure was rejoicing as he went on his way.
40Then Philip was found in Azotus, and he preached the gospel to all the towns as he passed through, until he arrived at Caesarea.

Chapter 9

1Now Saul was still breathing threats of murder against the disciples of the Lord. And he approached the high priest, 2and obtained letters from him to the synagogues at Damascus, to the effect that anyone he found belonging to The Way, both men and women, he could bind them and bring them to Jerusalem. 3When therefore he was on his way, it came about, that as he was getting close to Damascus, suddenly a light from heaven shone all around him, 4and he fell to the ground. He heard a voice. It was saying to him, "Shaul, Shaul, why are you persecuting me?"
5And he said, "Who are you, Lord?"
And the Lord said, "I am Jesus, whom you are persecuting. It is hard for you to kick against the goads."
6Then, trembling and awe-struck, he said, "Lord, what do you want me to do?"
And the Lord said to him, "Arise and go into the city, and it will be told you what you are to do."
7Now the men who were traveling with him stood speechless, hearing the voice, but not seeing anyone. 8Then Saul got up off the ground, and though his eyes were open, he could see nothing. So leading him by the hand, they took him into Damascus. 9And he went three days without seeing, and neither ate nor drank.
10Now there was a disciple in Damascus by the name of Hananiah, and the Lord spoke to him in a dream, "Hananiah."
And he said, "Here I am, Lord."
11And the Lord said to him, "Get up, go to the street called Straight Street, and inquire in the house of Judas for a man named Saul of Tarsus. For behold, he is praying, 12and in a vision he has seen a man named Hananiah come in and lay hands on him so that he would see again."
13But Hananiah answered, "Lord, I have heard from many people about this man, what bad things he has done to your saints in Jerusalem; 14and he has authority here from the high priest to bind all those who are called by your name."

15And the Lord said to him, "Go. For this man is to me a choice vessel to bear my name before the Gentiles, and before kings, and before the sons of Israel as well. 16Indeed I will show him what things he himself is destined to suffer for the sake of my name."

17So Hananiah went, and came into the house. And he placed his hands on him and said, "Brother Saul, the Lord has sent me—Jesus, who appeared to you in the road on which you came—so that you may see again, and so you may be filled with the Holy Spirit."

18And immediately something like scales fell off his eyes, and he instantly saw again, and he rose up and was baptized. 19And after receiving food, he gained strength.

And Saul was with the disciples in Damascus a few days, 20and then immediately began preaching Christ in the synagogues, saying "This is the Son of God."

21And those hearing were amazed, and saying, "Is this not the man who ravaged those in Jerusalem connected to this name? Was this not also the reason he had come here, to take them chained up before the chief priests?"

22And Saul was getting stronger and stronger, and confounding the Jews who lived in Damascus, proving that this man was the Messiah. 23And after many days of this had gone by, the Jews conspired to kill him. 24(But their plan was made known to Saul.) And they were keeping a close watch on the gates, both by day and by night, so as to kill him. 25So the disciples took him away at night by way of the wall instead. They lowered him down in a basket.

26And when Saul arrived in Jerusalem, he kept trying to join with the disciples, and everyone was afraid of him, not believing he was a disciple. 27But Barnabas came beside him, and led him to the apostles, and recounted to them how the Lord had appeared to Saul on the road, and that He had spoken to him, and how in Damascus Saul had spoken boldly in the name of Jesus.

28So he was with them at Jerusalem, going in and going out, 29and speaking boldly in the name of the Lord Jesus, both speaking to and debating with the Greek-speaking Jews. They however were taking steps to kill him. 30And when the brethren found out, they took him to Caesarea, and assigned him out to Tarsus.

31Then the congregations throughout all of Judea, Galilee and Samaria had peace, and were strengthened. And proceeding in the fear of the Lord and the assurance of the Holy Spirit, they were gowing in numbers.

32Now it came about that as Peter was going through all those areas, he went to be with the saints that were living in Lydda. 33And he found there a man by the name of Aeneas, who was paralyzed, lying in bed for eight years. 34And Peter said to him, "Aeneas, Jesus the Messiah is healing you. Get up and make your bed." And he got up immediately. 35And everyone living in Lydda and Sharon saw him, and they turned to the Lord.

36And in Joppa there was a disciple by the name of Tabitha, which when translated means Dorkas. This woman was wholly occupied with the good works and charitable giving that she was doing. 37And it came about that during those days she became ill, and died. And after they washed her, they placed her in the upper room. [38]And since Lydda was close to Joppa, and the disciples heard that Peter was in that town, they sent two men to him, begging him to come to their town without delay.

[39]So Peter got up and went with them. When he arrived, they led him up into the upper room. And all the widows came forward, weeping, showing him the coats and garments that Dorkas had made when she was with them. [40]But Peter put everyone outside, and he got down on his knees, and prayed. Then he turned toward the body, and said, "Tabitha, get up." And she opened her eyes. And when she saw Peter, she sat up. [41]And lending her a hand, he lifted her up, and called the saints and widows, and presented her to them alive. [42]And this became known throughout all of Joppa, and many believed on the Lord. [43]And it came about that Peter stayed on for a considerable number of days in Joppa, with a tanner, Simon.

Chapter 10

[1]Now there was a man in Caesarea by the name of Cornelius, the centurion of the cohort called The Italian Cohort, [2]a devout and God-fearing man along with his whole household; and he was doing many charitable deeds for the Jewish people, and praying to God continually. [3]He saw distinctly at about the ninth hour of the day in a vision, that an angel of God had come in to him, and who said to him, "Cornelius."

[4]And Cornelius looked upon him, and became very afraid, and said, "What is it, Lord?"

And he said to him, "Your prayers and your deeds of charity have gone up as a memorial before God. [5]And now, send men to Joppa, and invite a Simon to come to you who is nicknamed Peter. [6]This man is staying as a guest with Simon the tanner, whose house is by the sea. He will tell you something you need to do."

[7]So when the angel speaking to Cornelius had left, he called two of his house servants from among those who attended him, plus a devout soldier, [8]and after recounting it to each one of them, he sent them to Joppa.

[9]The next day, as those men were walking the road and getting close to the city, Peter went up onto the roof to pray, around the sixth hour. [10]Then he became very hungry, and wanted to eat. And while they were preparing it, a trance came over him, [11]and he sees heaven being opened, and then a container coming down to him, something like a giant bedsheet tied at the four corners, being lowered to the earth. [12]In it were all the four-footed animals of the earth, and wild beasts, and creeping things, and birds of the sky.

[13]And there came a voice to him, "Get up, Peter. Kill and eat."

[14]But Peter said, "Certainly not, Lord. Because never have I ever eaten anything common or unclean."

[15]And the voice spoke again to him, a second time: "What God has made clean you must not call unclean."

[16]Now this happened three times; and then the container was taken back up into heaven. [17]And as Peter was puzzling inside himself as to what might be the meaning of the vision he had seen, then behold, the men who were sent from Cornelius had asked directions to the house of Simon, and they stood at the gate. [18]And they called out, asking if Simon who was nicknamed Peter was staying as a guest there. [19]And as Peter was reflecting on the vision, the Spirit said to him, "Behold, three men are looking for you. [20]Get up instead, and go downstairs, and leave with them, not questioning anything, since I have sent them."

[21]So Peter went down to the men who were sent to him from Cornelius; and he said, "Here I am, the one you are looking for. What is the reason you are here?"

[22]And they said, "Cornelius the centurion, a righteous man and fearing God, and vouched for by the whole Jewish nation, he has been directed by a holy angel to summon you to his house, and to hear some words from you." [23]He invited them inside therefore as his guests.

And the next morning Peter left with them, and some of the brothers from Joppa accompanied him. [24]And the following day they came into Caesarea. And since Cornelius was expecting him, he had called together his relatives and his close friends. [25]And it came about that as Peter was entering, Cornelius met him and fell at his feet and worshipped him.

[26]But Peter lifted him up saying, "Stand up. I myself am also a human being."

[27]And as he was talking with him he went inside, and finds many people gathered. [28]And he said to them, "You know full well how it is unlawful for a Jewish man to join with or visit someone of another race. Yet God has shown me to call no human being common or unclean. [29]This then is the reason I came without objection to the summons. I ask therefore, what is the reason you have summoned me?"

[30]And Cornelius said, "Four days ago to this hour, I was fasting, and I was in my house praying at the ninth hour, and behold, a man in radiant clothing stood before me. [31]And he said, 'Cornelius, your prayer has been answered, and your deeds of charity have gone up as a memorial before God. [32]Send therefore to Joppa and call for Simon who is knick-named Peter. This man is staying as a guest in the house of Simon the tanner, by the sea. Who, when he comes to you, will speak to you.' [33]Right away then I sent men to you, and you on your part did well getting here. Now therefore, we all are present before God, to hear all the things told to you by God."

[34]Then Peter opened his mouth, and said, "I truly understand now, that God is not a discriminator of faces, [35]but that a person of any nation who fears him and works at righteousness is acceptable to Him. [36]This is the word which He sent to the sons of Israel, that announces peace through Jesus Christ: This man is the Lord of everyone.

[37]You know the thing that happened throughout the whole land of the Jews, beginning from Galilee after the baptism which John preached, [38]the man from Nazareth, Jesus, how God anointed him with the Holy Spirit and power, who traveled around doing good and healing all those oppressed by the Devil, because God was with him. [39]And we are witnesses of everything he did in the country of the Jews and Jerusalem; whom they killed by hanging him to a tree. [40]This man God raised up on the third day, and granted him to be visible; [41]not to all the people but to witnesses chosen beforehand by God; to us, who ate and drank with him after he rose from the dead. [42]And he commanded us to preach to the people and to solemnly testify that this man is the one appointed by God as judge of the living and the dead. [43]All the prophets testify: that all who believe on him are to receive forgiveness of sins through his name."

[44]While Peter was still speaking these things, the Holy Spirit fell upon everyone who was listening to the word. [45]And those believers who were of the Circumcision, who had come with Peter, were astonished that the gift of the Holy Spirit was poured out upon Gentiles also. [46]For they were hearing them speaking in tongues and glorifying God.

Then Peter responded: [47]"Can anyone forbid water baptism to these people, who received the Holy Spirit just as we did?" [48]And so he ordered them to be baptized in the name of the Lord. Then they asked him to remain for several days.

Chapter 11

[1]Now those apostles and brothers who were living throughout Judea, they heard that Gentiles had also received the word of God. [2]And when Peter went up to Jerusalem, they began to argue against him, those who were of the Circumcision.

[3]They were saying, "You have gone indoors with uncircumcised men, and you ate with them!"

[4]So Peter began explaining to them step by step, saying, [5]"I was in the city of Joppa, praying, and in a trance, I saw a vision: a container, something like a giant bedsheet, being let down out of heaven by its four corners, and it came close to me. [6]When I looked inside, I recognized and saw the four-footed animals of the earth, and the wild beasts, and the creeping things, and the birds of the sky. [7]And then I heard a voice, and it said, 'Get up, Peter. Kill and eat.'

[8]But I said, 'Certainly not, Lord. Because never has anything common or unclean ever gone into my mouth.'

[9]And the voice from heaven answered me a second time, 'What God has made clean you must not call unclean.'

[10]And this happened three times, then it was all pulled back into heaven. [11]And behold, right then three men stood at the house in which I was staying, sent from Caesarea to me. [12]And the Spirit said to me, 'Go with them, not questioning anything. And these six brothers went with me also, and we entered the man's house. [13]And he related to us how he saw an angel who had stood in his house and had said to him, 'Send to Joppa and summon a Simon who is knick-named Peter, [14]who will speak words to you by which you and all your household will be saved.' [15]And so, as I began to speak, the Holy Spirit fell upon them just as upon us at the beginning. [16]Then I remembered the statement of the Lord, how he said, 'John baptized in water, but you will be baptized in the Holy Spirit.' [17]If therefore God has given them the same gift as to us when we also believed on the Lord Jesus Christ, then who was I to have been able to hold back God?"

[18]And after they heard these things they calmed down, and began to glorify God, saying, "So, even to Gentiles, God has granted repentance unto life."

[19]Those then who had been scattered as a result of the persecution in connection to Stephen, they had gone as far as Phoenicia and Cyprus and Antioch, generally speaking the word to no one except Jews only. [20]But there were a few of them, Cypriot and Cyrenian men, who had gone into Antioch speaking to Greeks, preaching the good news about the Lord Jesus. 21And the hand of the Lord was with them, and the number of those who believed and turned to the Lord was large.

22And the report about them was heard as far as the ears of the congregation in Jerusalem, and they assigned Barnabas out to go over to Antioch. 23Who, when he arrived and saw the blessedness that is from God, was glad, and exhorted them all to continue in the Lord with determination in their hearts. 24For he was a good man, and full of the Holy Spirit and faith. And a great number of people were brought to the Lord. 25Then Barnabas went away to Tarsus, to look for Saul, 26and when he found him he brought him to Antioch. And so it came about that, for a whole year they joined forces to work with that congregation, and to teach a considerable throng of people. It was also in Antioch the disciples were first called "Christians."

27And during those same days some prophets came down to Antioch from Jerusalem. 28And one of them by the name of Agabus indicated through the Spirit that a great famine was going to take place over the whole inhabited earth. Which did indeed take place during the reign of Claudius Caesar. 29Then the disciples determined, according to the extent each of them was prospering, to send money in support to the brethren living in Judea. 30And this they did, sending it to the elders by the hands of Barnabas and Saul.

1Now around that time, King Herod arrested some from the church, and mistreated them. 2And James the brother of John he put to death by the sword. 3And when he saw that this was pleasing to the Jews, he went on to hunt down Peter also (and it was during the days of Unleavened Bread), 4whom he then arrested and put in prison, delivering him over to be guarded by four squads of four soldiers each, intending after Passover to bring him out before the people.

5While Peter was being kept in prison, prayer was earnestly being made by the church on his behalf to God. 6And when Herod was just about to bring him up, that very night before, Peter was sleeping chained between two soldiers by two chains, with guards also in front of the door watching the prison. 7And behold, an angel of the Lord stood over him, and light shone in the room. And he tapped on the side of Peter's body and woke him, saying, "Get up quickly." And the chains fell off his wrists.

8And the angel said to him, "Get dressed and put on your sandals." And Peter did so. And the angel says to him, "Throw your cloak on and follow me."

9And Peter was following him outside, not realizing, that what was happening through the angel was real. He thought he was seeing a dream. 10So after passing by the first guards, then the second, they were at the iron gate that leads out to the city. Which opened for them by itself. And they got outside, and when they had gone one block, the angel pulled away from him.

11And Peter came to himself, and said, "Now I truly know, that the Lord has sent out his angel, and plucked me out of Herod's hand and from all that the Jewish people were expecting." 12And once he realized this, he went to the house of Mary, the mother of the John whose other name was Mark, which was where a lot of those convened and praying were. [13]And Peter knocked on the door of the courtyard, and a maidservant by the name of Rhoda came out to answer, [14]and when she recognized Peter's voice, from her joy she did not open the gate but ran inside and reported Peter to be standing at the gate.

[15]And they said to her, "You're crazy." But she kept insisting it was true. So then they were saying, "It's his angel."

[16]But Peter kept knocking. And when they opened the gate they saw him, and were astounded. [17]And he waved his hand downward for silence, and recounted to them how the Lord had brought him out of the prison. Then he said, "Report these things to James and the brothers." And he left and went to another location.

[18]Now when morning came, there was no small anxiety among the soldiers as to what had happened to Peter. [19]And Herod conducted a search for him, and when he did not find him he interrogated the guards, then ordered them off to be executed, and went down to Caesarea, spending some time away from Judea.

[20]Now Herod had become angry with the people of Tyre and Sidon. So they made a joint appearance before him, and after they had first won Blastus over to their cause, the man in charge of the king's bedroom, they sued for peace. This was because their region was dependent upon the food crops from the royal farms. [21]And on the day appointed, Herod dressed in the royal robes and sat at the tribunal, and delivered a speech before them. [22]And the crowd began raising a cheer: "The voice of a god, and not of a man!" [23]But an angel of the Lord struck him on the spot, because he did not give the glory to God. And he was eaten by worms, and died.

[24]Now the word of God was spreading, and winning over more and more people. [25]And Barnabas and Saul returned from Jerusalem, having fulfilled their mission, and they brought with them John whose other name was Mark.

Chapter 13

[1]Now among that congregation in Antioch, were some prophets and teachers: both Barnabas and Simeon —the one called black Simeon— and also Lucius the Cyrenian; Manaen the foster brother of Herod the Tetrarch; and Saul. [2]And while they were devoting themselves to the Lord and fasting, the Holy Spirit said, "Now set apart both Barnabas and Saul to me, for the work to which I have called them."

[3]Then, after fasting and praying and laying their hands on them, they released them. [4]Those two therefore, sent out by the Holy Spirit, went down to Seleucia, and from there they sailed to Cyprus, [5]and once they were in Salamis, were proclaiming the word of God in the synagogues of the Jews. Now they also had John along as an assistant.

[6]And when they had traveled through the island as far as Paphos, they encountered a man who was a magician and Jewish false prophet, whose name was Bar-Jesus, [7]who was with the proconsul Sergius Paulus. This latter was an intelligent man, and he summoned Barnabas and Saul, desiring to hear the word of God. [8]But Elymas the magician (for that is how his name is translated) kept working against them, always trying to steer the proconsul away from the faith.

9Then Saul, who was also Paul, filled with the Holy Spirit, fixed his gaze straight at him, 10and said, “O you, full of all spincraft and every kind of fraud, you son of the devil, you opponent of all that is righteous, are you never going to stop distorting the right ways of the Lord? 11And now behold, the hand of the Lord is against you, and you will be blind, not seeing the sun for a time."

And immediately there fell upon him a mist, and darkness, and he was going around looking for a guiding hand. 12At that time the proconsul believed, when he saw what had happened, completely amazed at the teaching about the Lord.

13Then, setting sail from Paphos, Paul and his companions came to Perga of Pamphylia; except for John, who parted from them and returned to Jerusalem. 14And they passed on through from Perga and arrived in Antioch of Pisidia. And on the Sabbath day they went into the synagogue and sat down. 15And after the reading of the law and the prophets, the synagogue rulers sent word to them, saying, "Brothers, if there is among you a word of exhortation to the people, you may speak."

16So Paul stood up, and waving his hand downward for silence, he said, Men, Israelites, and those who fear God, please listen. 17The God of this people Israel chose our fathers, and he exalted the people during their sojourning in Egypt, and with a mighty arm led them out of it, 18and, for about forty years time he bore them in the desert, 19then after destroying seven nations in the land of Canaan, he divided their land out to them as an inheritance. 20And after those things, over a period of about 450 years he gave them the judges, until Samuel the prophet.

21"And from then on they asked for a king, and God gave them Saul the son of Kish for 40 years, a man of the tribe of Benjamin. 22And after removing him, he raised up for them David as king, about whom he also testified and said, 'I have found David son of Jesse, a man after my own heart, who will perform all my wishes.' 23From the seed of that man, according to the promise, God brought to Israel a savior, Jesus, 24with John having announced ahead of His appearance a baptism of repentance to all the people Israel.

25"And as John was completing his run, he was saying, 'Whom are you surmising me to be? I am not the one. But behold, there is coming after me someone whose sandals I am not worthy to untie.'

26"Men and brothers, sons of the race of Abraham, and those among you who fear God, to you the message of this salvation has been sent, 27since those living in Jerusalem and their rulers, being ignorant of this and of the voices of the prophets which are read on every Sabbath, fulfilled them by condemning Him. 28And even though they found no case for the death penalty, they asked Pilate to execute Him. 29And when they had fulfilled all those things written about him, they took him down from the tree and laid him in a tomb.

30"But God raised him up from the dead. 31Over a period of many days he appeared to those who had come up to Jerusalem with him from Galilee, those who are witnesses of him to the people. 32And we are announcing to you this good news: that the promise made to the fathers, God has fulfilled that promise to us their children by raising up Jesus, [33]as it is also written in the second Psalm about him: 'You are my son. Today I have begotten you.'

[34]"And that he raised him from the dead, to revert no more to decay, this is spoken: 'I will grant to you the sure blessings of David.'

[35]"Therefore it also says in another place, 'You will grant that your blessed one not see decay.'

[36]"Now certainly: David fell asleep, after he had served his own generation by the will of God, and he was laid to rest with his fathers and he saw decay. [37]But the one whom God has raised, he did not see decay. [38]Be it known to you therefore, men and brothers, that through this man forgiveness of sins is being announced to you. [39]And of everything from which it was not possible to be justified through the Law of Moses, he who believes in this man is being justified.

[40]"Take heed therefore, so that this which was spoken in the prophets may not apply to you:

> [41]'Watch, O scornful ones, and marvel, and perish.
> Because I am accomplishing a feat in your days, > a feat which you would not believe > if someone were explaining it to you.' "

[42]And when they went outside the synagogue of the Jews, the Gentiles were inviting them to come midweek, to speak these same words to them. [43]Then after the synagogue meeting had broken up many of the Jews and devout proselytes accompanied Paul and Barnabas, who, as they continued to speak to them, were prevailing upon them to continue with this grace of God. [44]Consequently on the following Sabbath, almost the entire city gathered to hear the word of God.

[45]But when the Jews saw the crowds, they were filled with jealousy, and they were rebutting the arguments of Paul by contradicting and denigrating him. [46]So Paul and Barnabas bluntly said, "It was mandatory that the word of God be spoken to you first. But since you are pushing it away and convicting yourselves not worthy of eternal life, behold: we turn to the Gentiles. [47]For the Lord has commanded us this: 'I have set you to be a light for the Gentiles, salvation reaching the farthest part of the earth.'" [48]And the Gentiles listening were cheering, and praising the message about the Lord; and as many as had been appointed to eternal life believed.

[49]So the message about the Lord was being carried throughout that whole region. [50]But the Jews stirred up the pious women and the influential and the chief men of the city, and instigated a persecution against Paul and Barnabas. And they expelled them out of their borders. [51]So they, after shaking the dust off their feet against them, were on their way to Iconium, [52]while the disciples were filled with joy and the Holy Spirit.

Chapter 14

[1]And the same thing happened in Iconium. They went into the synagogue of the Jews and spoke in this same manner, with the result that a large number of both Jews and Greeks believed. [2]As for those Jews who would not believe, they stirred up and embittered the souls of the Gentiles against the brothers.

[3]They then stayed though quite a while, speaking boldly on the Lord, who was bearing witness to the word of his grace and granting signs and wonders to happen through their hands. [4]But the multitude of the city became divided, and some were with the Jews and some were with the apostles. [5]And when a campaign arose on the part of both the Gentiles and Jews with their leaders to assault and stone them, [6]they heard about it, and fled to the Lycaonian cities of Lystra and Derbe and the surrounding country, [7]and started evangelizing there.

[8]And a man was sitting in Lystra who was disabled in his feet, remaining lame from his mother's womb, who never at any time had walked. [9]This man was listening to the preaching of Paul, who studied him, and knew that he had the faith to be healed. [10]He said in a loud voice, "Stand up straight, on your feet!" And he started leaping and walking.

[11]And when the crowds saw what Paul had done, they lifted up their voices in Lycaonian, saying, "The gods have come down to us, made like humans." [12]And they were calling Barnabas Zeus, and Paul Hermes, since Hermes was the ruler of speech. [13]And the priest of Zeus, who dwelt before the city, brought bulls and garlands to the gates, intending to join with the crowds to offer sacrifice.

[14]But when the apostles Barnabas and Paul heard this, they ripped their clothing and rushed in among the crowd, crying out [15]and saying, "Men, why are you doing this? We also are humans with the same frailties as you, preaching that you should turn from these worthless things to the God that is alive, the one who made the heaven, and the earth, and the sea, and everything that is in them; [16]who in the ages gone by has allowed all nations to go in their own paths; [17]though he did not leave himself without evidence, acting good toward us, providing rain for us from the heaven and seasons bearing fruit, satisfying our hearts with food and good cheer."

[18]And saying these things just barely dissuaded the crowds from sacrificing to them. [19]But some Jews arrived from Antioch and Iconium, and after winning over the crowds and stoning Paul, they dragged him outside the city, because they thought he was dead.

[20]But the disciples circled around him, and carried him into the city. And the following day, he left for Derbe with Barnabas. [21]And after evangelizing that city and making many disciples, they reversed their tracks through Lystra and Iconium and Antioch, [22]confirming the hearts of the disciples, exhorting them to persevere in the faith, seeing as how we must go through much tribulation into the kingdom of God. [23]And after appointing elders for them in each congregation, and praying for them with fasting, they handed them over to the Lord in whom they had placed their trust.

[24]And when they had passed all the way through Pisidia they came into Pamphylia, [25]and after speaking the word in Perga they went down to Attalia, [26]and from there set sail for Antioch, for that is where they had been commended to the grace of God for the work they had completed. [27]So they presented themselves. When they had brought the congregation together, they reported what things God had done through them, and how He had opened the door of faith to the Gentiles. [28]And it was no small amount of time they were spending there with those disciples.

Chapter 15

[1]And some who had come down from Judea had been teaching the brothers, "Unless you are circumcised according to the custom of Moses, you cannot be saved." [2]So after there arose no small division and debate between those men versus Paul and Barnabas, they appointed Paul and Barnabas plus some others among them to go up to the apostles and elders in Jerusalem about this question.

[3]They therefore were sent forth now by the assembly, passing through Phoenicia and Samaria, telling all about the conversion of the Gentiles, and causing great joy among the brethren. [4]And when they arrived in Jerusalem they were welcomed by the congregation and the apostles and the elders, and they reported the things God had done through them.

[5]But some from the sect of the Pharisees who had believed stood up, saying it was necessary to circumcise them and to command them to keep the law of Moses. [6]And the apostles and elders gathered together to deliberate about this issue.

[7]But after an intense debate occurred, Peter stood up, and he said to them, "Men and brothers, you know full well from the early days, that God chose in your presence Gentiles to hear by my mouth the word of the gospel and to believe, [8]and God, the knower of hearts, has borne them witness, in that he gave the Holy Spirit to them also, just as to us, [9]and he made no distinction between us and them, cleansing both of our hearts by means of faith. [10]So why test God now by attempting to place upon the necks of the disciples a yoke which neither our fathers nor we were able to bear? [11]But rather we believe to be saved by the grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, the same way also as they."

[12]Then the whole multitude was quiet and listening to Barnabas and Paul recounting at length what signs and wonders God had done among the Gentiles through them.

[13]And after they had held their peace, James responded, saying, "Men, brothers, listen to me. [14]Simeon has described how it was that God first turned his attention to obtain from the Gentiles people to his name. [15]And this is in harmony with the words of the prophets, just as it is written:

[16]'After these things I will turn back around, and raise again the fallen tent of David, and rebuild the ruins of it and set it up aright [17]so the rest of humanity may seek the Lord, even all the Gentiles upon whom my name is applied,' says the Lord, the one doing all these things.
[18]Known to God are all his works
since long ago."

[19]Therefore it is my judgment not to further dismay those from the Gentiles who are turning to God, [20]but to write to them to abstain from the pollutions of idols and sexual sins and strangled animals and blood. [21]After all, Moses since ancient times has people proclaiming him in every city, reading him aloud in the synagogues on every Sabbath."

[22]At that time, it seemed good to them, the apostles and elders, together with the whole church, to send select men from among them to Antioch with Paul and Barnabas: Judas the one called Barsabas, and Silas; leading men among the brothers, 23having sent a letter by their hand, as follows: "The apostles and elders and brethren, to the brethren of the Gentiles of Antioch and Syria and Cilicia: Greetings. 24Because we have heard that some men have troubled you with words, upending your souls, by saying to get circumcised and to keep the law, who came from among us but to whom we had given no such direction, 25it seemed good to us, after coming to one accord, to send select men to you together with our beloved brothers Barnabas and Paul, 26people who have dedicated their lives to the cause of the name of our Lord Jesus Christ. 27Therefore we have sent Judas and Silas, and they will be telling you by speech these same things: 28for it seemed good to the Holy Spirit and to us to place no burden upon you beyond these essentials: 29to abstain from things sacrificed to idols, and from blood, and from anything strangled, and from sexual sins. Keeping yourselves from these, you will do well. Farewell."

30Those men therefore when they were dismissed they went to Antioch, and after gathering the congregation together, they delivered the letter. 31And when they had read it, they rejoiced over its encouragement. 32And Judas and Silas, both being prophets also themselves, encouraged the brethren with much speaking, and they strengthened them as well. 33And after they had spent some time, they were released back from those brethren with a "Peace be with you" to the ones who sent them. 34But it seemed good to Silas to remain there. 35Paul and Barnabas, however, stayed in Antioch, teaching and preaching the word about the Lord, along with many others.

36Then some days later, Paul said to Barnabas, "Now let us go back and check on our brethren in all the cities in which we have announced the word of the Lord, to see how they are doing." 37So, Barnabas was wanting to take John with them, who was called Mark. 38But Paul thought it better not to take this man along with them, who had withdrawn from them, and from Pamphylia onward had not continued with them in the work.

39There was a disagreement therefore, so sharp, that they parted ways from each other. And Barnabas took Mark, to sail to Cyprus. 40Paul however chose Silas, and went forth, committed by the brethren to the grace of God. 41And he was traveling through Syria and Cilicia, confirming those congregations.

Chapter 16

1Then he went over to Derbe and Lystra. And behold, there was a disciple there by the name of Timothy, the son of a Jewish woman who believed, but whose father was a Gentile. 2He was well spoken of by the brethren in Lystra and Iconium. 3Paul wanted this man to journey with him, and he took him and circumcised him, because of the Jews living in those places. For they all knew that his father was a Gentile.

4So as they were going through the cities, they were delivering the decrees that had been decided for them to keep by the apostles and elders in Jerusalem. 5Those congregations were thus indeed being strengthened in the faith; and they were growing in number daily. 6And when they passed through the Phrygian and Galatian territory, and were prevented from speaking the word in Asia by the Holy Spirit, 7they went along the border of

Mysia, trying to go into Bithynia— and the Spirit would not let them. [8]So they passed all the way through Mysia and went down to Troy.

[9]And during the night a vision appeared to Paul. It was a man of Macedonia standing, pleading with him and saying, "Cross over to Macedonia and help us." [10]So since he had seen that vision, we worked on leaving for Macedonia immediately, because we gathered that the Lord had called us to evangelize them. [11]We set sail therefore from Troy, and made a straight run to Samothraiki, and the next day on to Neapolis, [12]and from there to Philippi, which was the first city in the region of Macedonia, a Roman colony. And we continued in that city, spending some days.

[13]And on the Sabbath, we went outside the gate by the river, where we were expecting prayer usually to take place. And after sitting down, we were talking to the women who had gathered. [14]And a woman of the city of Thyatira was listening, by the name of Lydia, a merchant dealing in purple cloth, who worshiped God. Whose heart the Lord opened so that she would take heed to the things being said by Paul. [15]And after she and her household were baptized, she made an appeal as follows, "If you really have judged me to be a believer in the Lord, come stay at my house." And she persuaded us.

[16]And it came about that once when we were heading to prayer, a slave girl who had an oracle spirit came across us, who generated much income for her owners by her fortune telling. [17]She continued to follow close after Paul and us, yelling and saying, "These men are servants of the most high God, who are announcing to us the way of salvation!" [18]She kept doing this over a period of many days. And Paul was fed up, and he turned to the spirit and said, "I command you in the name of Jesus Christ to come out of her." And it came out of her that very instant.

[19]Then when her owners saw that their hope of income was gone, they grabbed Paul and Silas, and dragged them into the public square before the authorities. [20]And when they moved them up to the magistrates, they said, "These men, who are Jews, are agitating our city, [21]and they are proclaiming customs which are not permissible for us, being Romans, to either accept or to practice." [22]And the crowd rushed together onto them, and then the magistrates ripped off the clothing and ordered them to be beaten. [23]And after imposing many blows, they threw them in prison, and ordered the warden to keep them in high security; [24]who when he got such orders, he put them in the inner cell, and secured their legs in stocks.

[25]And around midnight, Paul and Silas as they prayed were singing hymns to God, and the prisoners were listening to them attentively. [26]And suddenly there was an earthquake, so big, that it caused the foundation of the prison to shift, and all the doors to instantly open. Everyone's chains were released as well. [27]And when the warden woke up and saw that the doors of the prison were open, he drew his dagger, and was about to kill himself, figuring the prisoners had escaped. [28]But Paul called out in a loud voice, and said, "Do not harm yourself. We are all here." [29]So he ordered lights, and rushed inside. And he was trembling, and threw himself down before Paul and Silas. [30]Then he led them outside, and said, "Sirs, what must I do to be saved?"

[31]And they said, "Believe on the Lord Jesus Christ, and you will be saved, you and your household." [32]And they spoke to him the word about the Lord, including to all those in his household. [33]Then he took Paul and Silas, washed them of their wounds, and got baptized on the spot, he and all his household, at that hour of the night. [34]And after leading them back into his house, he served a meal. And he and all his household rejoiced, having believed in God.

[35]And when it was daytime, the magistrates sent the sheriffs, saying, "Release those men." [36]So the prison warden declared these words to Paul, as follows: "The magistrates have sent orders that you be released. Now therefore, you may go in peace."

[37]But Paul said to them, "They gave us a beating in public without due process of law, though we men are Roman citizens, and threw us into prison. And now they are pushing us away quietly? Certainly not! On the contrary they shall come personally and escort us out." [38]So the sheriffs reported these statements to the magistrates. And when they heard that they were Roman citizens, they were afraid. [39]And they came and apologized to them. And they escorted them out, and asked them to go away from the city.

[40]Now after getting out of prison, they went and stayed with Lydia. And they saw those brethren, exhorted them, and moved on.

Chapter 17

[1]And when they had passed through Amphipolis and Apollonia, they came to Thessalonica, where there was a synagogue of the Jews. [2]And as was Paul's custom, he went in to them, and on three Sabbath days he reasoned with them from the scriptures, [3]explaining and pointing out that the Messiah had to suffer, and to rise from the dead, and saying, "This man Jesus who I am telling you about, he is the Messiah." [4]And some of them were persuaded, and attached themselves to Paul and Silas, including a great many of the Greek proselytes, and of the leading women not a few.

[5]But the disobedient Jews were jealous, and recruited some worthless men off the streets, and when they had formed a mob, they were putting the city in an uproar. And they assaulted the house of Jason, intending to bring them out to the people's assembly. [6]But when they did not find them, they proceeded to drag Jason and some other brothers up before the magistrates, crying, "Those men who have overturned the whole inhabited earth, they have arrived here also; [7]whom Jason has taken under his roof. And they all are acting contrary to the decrees of Caesar, declaring someone else to be king— Jesus." [8]Thus they riled up the crowd and the magistrates who were hearing these words. [9]And after taking a bail bond from Jason and the others, they released them.

[10]Then the brethren sent Paul and Silas immediately away during the night to Berea. Once they were there, they were going daily into the synagogue of the Jews. [11]And these Jews were more noble than those in Thessalonica— they received the word with a completely open mind, each day examining the scriptures to see if they were there as described. [12]Consequently many of them believed, and also some Greek women of high standing, and of the Greek men not a few.

[13]But when the Jews from Thessalonica found out that the word of God was proclaimed by Paul in Berea also, they came over there as well, stirring up the people. [14]So immediately at that time the brethren sent Paul away, to journey to the sea coast, while both Silas and Timothy remained there. 15And those escorting Paul took him as far as Athens, and after receiving orders for Silas and Timothy that they should come join him with all speed, they left.

16Now while Paul was waiting for them in Athens, his spirit was getting stirred up within him, when he saw how rife with idols that city was. 17He therefore every day was holding discussions with the Jews and devout proselytes in the synagogues, and also in the public square with anyone who happened to be nearby. 18Thus some of the Epicurean and Stoic philosophers began joining him. And some were saying, "Whatever is this blowhard trying to say?" And others said, "He seems to be a herald for foreign deities." (For he was announcing Jesus and the resurrection to them.) 19And they took hold of him and led him to the Hill of Aries, saying, "May we know what this new teaching is, the one being spoken by you? 20For you are announcing some things that are strange to our ears. Therefore we wish to know what these things mean." 21For you see, all the Athenians, and also non-citizens visiting, would devote their spare time to nothing else than to speak or to hear anything that was new.

22So Paul stood at the center of the Hill of Aries, and he said, "Men of Athens, I notice that you are thorough in religion. 23For, as I was passing along and reviewing your objects of worship, I even found an altar on which had been inscribed, 'TO THE UNKNOWN GOD.' Now then, the one you venerate without knowing, that God I am proclaiming to you. 24The God who created the world and everything in it, being Master of both heaven and earth, he does not settle in shrines made with hands. 25Nor is he served by human hands as though he needed anything— he is the one who gives to all, life and breath, and everything else. 26And he has made of one blood all nations of people, to dwell over the face of the whole earth, having marked off the predetermined time periods and boundaries for their habitation, 27to see if they will seek after the Lord, whether perhaps they will grope for him and find him, though he is not far from each one of us. 28For in Him we live, and move, and have our being. As even one of your own prophets has said, 'We are his offspring.' 29Since we are offspring of God then, we ought not to think that the divine nature is anything like gold or silver or stone, like an engraved work of art, and of human conception. 30Though God indeed forbore the times of such ignorance, he now commands all people in all places to repent. 31Because he has set a day on which he is about to judge the world with righteousness by the man whom he appointed, giving assurance to everyone by raising him from the dead."

32But some, when they heard resurrection from the dead, were scoffing, while others said, "We will hear from you on this again." 32And with that Paul went out from their midst. 33But some men joined up with him and believed; among whom was Dionysius— a member of the Hill of Aries; and a woman also, by the name of Damaris, plus others with them.

Chapter 18

1And after these things, Paul departed from Athens, and went to Corinth. 2And he encountered a Jew by the name of Aquila, Pontic by birth, who had recently come from Italy along with his wife Priscilla, since Claudius had ordered all Jews to go away from Rome. Paul approached them, 3and because of being in the same trade, he stayed with them, and they were doing the work together, for they were tentmakers by trade. [4]Except every Sabbath he would have a discussion in the synagogue, persuading both Jews and Greeks. [5]But when both Silas and Timothy came down from Macedonia, Paul was pressed by the Spirit, solemnly testifying Messiah Jesus to the Jews. [6]But when they set themselves against him and were reviling him, Paul shook out his garments toward them, and said, "Your blood is on your own heads. I am clean. From now on, I am going to the Gentiles."

[7]And he left there, and went into the home of someone by the name of Justus, a worshiper of God, whose house abutted the synagogue. [8]Then Crispus, a leader of the synagogue, believed in the Lord, together with his whole house, and many of the Corinthians hearing this were believing and getting baptized.

[9]And the Lord said to Paul during the night in a dream: "Do not be afraid, but speak, and not be silent. [10]Because I am with you, and no one will lay hands on you to harm you, for in this city the crowd that is mine is large." [11]And he stayed put for a year and six months, teaching the word of God among them.

[12]But when Gallio was proconsul of Achaia, the Jews with one mind rose up against Paul. And they took him to the tribunal, [13]saying, "This man misleads the people, to worship God apart from the Law."

[14]And when Paul was about to open his mouth, Gallio said to the Jews, "O you Jews, if it were a case of intentional crime or a harmful misdeed, then I would admit you; [15]but if a dispute about a word or a term or a law specific to you all, you take care of that. For I am not willing to be the judge of those things." [16]And he expelled them from the tribunal. [17]Then all the Greeks grabbed Sosthenes, the chief ruler of the synagogue, and were beating him right in front of the tribunal. And that mattered to Gallio not one bit.

[18]But Paul after remaining several more days with those brethren, bid them farewell, got his head shaved in Kengkreia, keeping a vow, and then sailed away for Syria, and with him Priscilla and Aquila. [19]And Paul made landfall at Ephesus, and left them there, and went rather by himself into the synagogue, and reasoned with the Jews. [20]And when they asked him to stay with them additional time, he did not agree, [21] but bid them farewell, and said, "I must by all means keep this feast that is coming up in Jerusalem, but I will swing back to you again if God wills."

And he sailed away from Ephesus, [22]and arrived over at Caesarea, disembarked and greeted that church, then went down to Antioch, [23]and after spending some time, he left, and went through one place after another in the Galatian and Phrygian territory, strengthening all the disciples.

[24]And a Jew by the name of Apollos, Alexandrian by birth, an eloquent man, came to Ephesus, who was powerful in the scriptures. [25]This man was orally instructed in the way of the Lord. And burning with spirit, he was speaking and teaching accurately the things about the Lord, knowing only the baptism of John; [26]and he began to speak boldly in the synagogue. And when Aquila and Priscilla heard him, they took him and explained to him more accurately the way of God.

[27]And when he wanted to go into Achaia, he was encouraged by the brethren, who wrote to those disciples to welcome him. When he was there, he was contributing much to those who through grace had believed; [28]for he was thoroughly refuting the Jews in view of all, proving by the scriptures that Jesus was the Messiah.

Chapter 19

[1]And it came about that while Apollos was in Corinth, Paul traveled through the inland districts and arrived in Ephesus. And he found some disciples, [2]and said to them, "When you believed, did you receive the Holy Spirit?"

But they answered, "We have not even heard there is a Holy Spirit."

[3]And he said to them, "Into what then were you baptized?"

And they said, "Into John's baptism."

[4]And Paul said, "John baptized a baptism of repentance, telling the people they should believe the one coming after him. That 'one' is Messiah Jesus."

[5]So those who heard this were baptized into the name of the Lord Jesus. [6]And when Paul laid his hands on them, the Holy Spirit came upon them, and they were speaking in tongues and prophesying. [7]And they were about 12 men in all.

[8]And Paul was speaking boldly when he went into the synagogue, reasoning and persuading about the things of the kingdom of God, for a period of three months. [9]But when some became hardened and were disobeying, and speaking ill of the Way before the multitude, Paul withdrew from them, and separated the disciples, and began daily lecturing in the school of a man named Tyrannus. [10]And this went on for two years, with the result that everyone who lived in Asia[362] heard the word of the Lord Jesus, both Jews and Greeks.

[11]Through the hands of Paul as well, God was doing powerful, extraordinary things. [12]Even such that handkerchiefs or aprons were conducted from his skin onto those who were sick and the diseases would be removed from them, and any evil spirits would come out from them.

[13]Then some from the itinerant Jewish exorcists decided to try their hand at invoking the name of the Lord Jesus over those who had evil spirits. They would be saying, "We adjure you by Jesus whom Paul proclaims." [14]Now they were the seven sons of Skeva, a Jewish high priest, who were doing this. [15]But in response the evil spirit said, "Jesus I know and Paul I know, but who are you?" [16]And the man in whom the evil spirit was, he sprang up onto them and owned them, and beat them up, and the result was they fled out of that house naked and wounded.

[17]And this became known to everyone living in Ephesus, both Jews and Greeks, and fear fell over them all, and the name of the Lord Jesus was getting magnified. [18]And many of them after they believed were coming forward confessing and publicising their practices. [19]And a considerable number of the ones who had been practicing magic, they collected the sacred scrolls together in a pile, and burnt them in view of everyone. And they added up the prices of them, and found it to be 50,000 pieces of silver. [20]With power like that, the word of the Lord was growing in influence, and prevailing.

[362] Acts 19:10 The word "Asia" meaning, acc. to the BADG, "the Roman province by that name, (Asia proprie dicta-Asia properly so called) in western Asia Minor, formed in 133-130 BC, from the time of Augustus ruled by procunsuls." The Oxford Bible Atlas says "The western part of Anatolia, q.v., bordering Aegean Sea; name possibly derived from Assuwa, q.v.; under Roman empire an important and wealthy province."

[21]And after these things were completed, Paul resolved in his spirit that after passing through Macedonia and Achaia, he would go to Jerusalem, saying, "After I am there, I must see Rome as well." [22]Then he sent two of those who were helping him, Timothy and Erastus, on into Macedonia. He himself remained some more time in Asia.

[23]Now about that time there arose no little disturbance concerning the Way. [24]For someone by the name of Demetrius, a silversmith, who manufactured silver shrines of Artemis and provided the artisans no little business, [25]he convened the tradesmen who worked at such things, and he said, "Men, you know, that from this trade, a comfortable income is ours, [26]and you see and hear, that this Paul, who states that gods made by hands are not gods, he has won over and led astray a considerable crowd from not only Ephesus but from almost all of Asia. [27]Now not only does this put our profession in danger of coming into disrepute, but it also risks the temple of the great goddess Artemis being counted as nothing, and even she herself, whom all Asia and the inhabited earth worships, is about to be deposed from her greatness."

[28]And after hearing this, they were filled with anger. They began to shout, saying, "Great is Artemis of the Ephesians!" [29]And the entire city was filled with confusion, and they rushed as with one mind into the theater, keeping a firm grip on Gaius and Aristarchus, Macedonian traveling companions of Paul. [30]And when Paul tried to enter the people's assembly, the disciples would not let him. [31]And some of the Asiarchs also, who were friends with him, sent word to him urging him not to present himself in the theater.

[32]Then, others began shouting something different. For the assembly was confused, and most had no idea why they were gathered together. [33]Now as the Jews brought Alexander forward, some of the crowd instructed him, and so Alexander signaled with his hand that he wished to defend himself to the mob. [34]But because they knew he was a Jew, there arose the sound of them all shouting in unison, continuously for about two hours: "Great is Artemis of the Ephesians!"

[35]But after the town clerk had quieted the crowd, he says: "Men of Ephesus, who indeed is there that does not know that the city of the Ephesians is keeper of the temple of the great goddess Artemis who fell from the sky? [36]Since these things are undeniable, it behoves you to calm down and do nothing rash. [37]For you brought these men who are neither temple robbers, nor blaspheming your goddess. [38]If therefore Demetrius and the artisans with him truly have a case against anyone, court days are observed, and there are proconsuls. They should charge one another. [39]So, if you are seeking anything further, that will be settled in the lawful assembly. [40]For indeed, we are liable to be charged with insurrection because of today, there being no good reason we can give for this unscheduled gathering." [41]And after saying these things, he dismissed the assembly.

Chapter 20

[1]Now after the uproar had quieted down, Paul sent for the disciples and exhorted them. And after saying goodbye, he left, to go to Macedonia. [2]Then after he had passed through those parts and exhorted them to a greater degree, he went to Greece. [3]And when he had spent three months there, a plot was formed against him by the Jews. As he was about to escape by sea to Syria, the idea came to go back via Macedonia. [4]And traveling with him as far as Asia were: Sopater the Berean, and the Thessalonians Aristarchus and Secundus, and the Derbian Gaius, and Timothy, and the Asians Tychicus and Trophimus; [5]except these men went on ahead, and waited for us in Troy. [6]And after the days of Unleavened Bread we sailed away from Philippi, and at the end of five days came to them in Troy, where we spent seven days.

[7]And on the first day of the week, as we were gathered together to break bread, Paul was preaching to them. It was about to go on into the next day and he was extending the word time to midnight, [8]but there were plenty of lamps on the top floor where we were meeting. [9]And a youth by the name of Eutychus was sitting in the window, gradually sinking down into a deep sleep because of Paul's lecture going extra time. When he was completely sunken by sleep, he fell down from the third floor, and was picked up dead. [10]So Paul went down, and he fell onto him and embraced him, and said, "Do not be troubled, for his life is in him."

[11]And after he had gone upstairs and broken bread and eaten, he also socialized for quite a while, until dawn, thus he departed. [12]And the boy they led away alive, and were comforted not a little. [13]We however proceeded on by ship, and put to sea for Assos, where we were going to pick up Paul, for that is how it was arranged. He wanted to go on foot. [14]So when he met us at Assos, we took him up on board, and we went to Mitylene. [15]Then, sailing away from there the next day, we arrived off Chios, and the day after that went across to Samos and stayed at Trogyllium, arriving the following day at Miletus.

[16]For Paul had decided to sail past Ephesus, so as not to lose time in Asia, because he was hurrying to be in Jerusalem, if possible, for the Day of Pentecost. [17]So instead, from Miletus he sent to Ephesus a summons for the elders of that church.

[18]And when they had joined him he said to them, "You yourselves are familiar with the manner in which I was with you the whole time since the first days I set foot in Asia, [19]serving the Lord with all lowliness of mind, and many tears; and the trials that have befallen me through the plots of the Jews; [20]how I did not withhold anything that was profitable for you, but showed you, and taught you, in public, and from house to house, [21]solemnly bearing witness to both Jews and Greeks, the repentance toward God and the faith that is toward our Lord Jesus Christ. [22]And now behold, constrained by the Spirit, I am going to Jerusalem, not knowing what things will befall me in there, [23]only that the Holy Spirit in every city testifies to me that chains and afflictions await me. [24]But on no account do I make or hold my life precious to myself, so that I may finish with joy my run and the ministry I received from the Lord Jesus: to solemnly declare the gospel of the grace of God.

[25]And now behold: I know that none of you among whom I passed through preaching the kingdom of God will see my face again. [26]Therefore, I am testifying to you on this day: that I am innocent of everyone's blood, [27]for I did not shrink back from declaring to you the whole counsel of God. [28]Therefore take heed to yourselves, and to all the flock among whom the Holy Spirit has placed you as overseers, to shepherd the church of God, which he purchased with his own blood. [29]For this I know: that after my departure, overbearing wolves will come in among you, not sparing the flock. [30]Out of your own number also, men will arise, speaking changed up things, to draw away disciples after them. [31]For this reason you must be vigilant, recalling what over a period of three years I did not cease to warn each one of you night and day with tears. [32]And now, brothers, I hand you over to God, and to the word of his grace, which is able to build you up, and establish for you an inheritance among all those who are sanctified.

[33]I have desired silver or gold or clothing of no one. [34]You yourselves know rather that these hands of mine have provided the needs of myself and of those with me. [35]I have demonstrated everything to you by example, how with such labor one must support the weak, and remember the words of the Lord Jesus, that he himself said, 'It is more blessed to give than to receive.' "

[36]And after he had said these things, he got on his knees, together with them all, and prayed. [37]And there was quite a bit of crying from everyone, and they were hugging onto Paul's neck, and kissing him goodbye. [38]They were especially pained by the word he had spoken, that they would not see his face again. Then they were escorting him to the ship.

Chapter 21

[1]And when we had put out to sea and pulled away from them, we ran a straight course, and came to Kos, and then to Rhodes, and from there to Patara. [2]Then we found a ship crossing over to Phoenicia, and boarded that and set sail. [3]And when we sighted Cyprus, we left it behind on port side, and sailed toward Syria, and made landfall at Tyre, because that is where the ship was unloading its cargo. [4]And there, we stayed put for seven days, after we had searched out the disciples, who kept telling Paul, by the Spirit, not to go up to Jerusalem. [5]But when we had finished the days, and were leaving and on our way, they were all seeing us off, including the women and children, escorting us to the outside of the city. And we all placed our knees on the beach, and prayed. [6]And after saying our goodbyes to each other, we got onto the ship, while they returned to their homes. [7]And we finished the voyage from Tyre, to come to Ptolemais, and we greeted those brothers, and stayed with them one day.

[8]And the following day we who were with Paul departed and came to Caesarea, and entered the house of Philip the evangelist, who was one of the Seven, and we stayed with him. [9]Now this man had four virgin daughters, who were prophesying. [10]And during the many days we stayed there, a prophet by the name of Agabus came down from Judea. [11]And he came up next to us, and took off Paul's belt. And he tied up both his hands and his feet. And he said, "Thus says the Holy Spirit: This is how the Jews in Jerusalem will tie up the man whose belt this is, and they will deliver him into the hands of the Gentiles." [12]And when we heard these things, both we and the ones in that place were pleading with him not to go up to Jerusalem.

[13]Then Paul answered, "What are you doing crying and breaking my heart? For I am ready, not only to be chained in Jerusalem, but also to die for the name of the Lord Jesus."

[14]And he would not be persuaded, so we held our peace, and said, "May the Lord's will be done."

[15]And after those days, we packed our stuff, and went up to Jerusalem. [16]Now some of the disciples from Caesarea also went with us, to introduce us to an early disciple, Mnason the Cypriot, with whom we would be staying as guests. [17]And when we got to Jerusalem, the brethren received us gladly.

[18]So the following day, Paul has gone in to James, together with us, plus all the elders present. [19]And after greeting them, Paul was relating in detail everything that God had done among the Gentiles through his ministry.

[20]Now when they heard it, they were praising the Lord. And they said to him, "Be aware, brother, how many thousands there are of Jews who have believed. And they all remain zealous for the Law. [21]And they have been told about you, that you are teaching all the Jews throughout the nations apostasy from Moses, saying not to circumcise their sons nor to walk according to the traditions. [22]What then is there to do? A crowd must certainly assemble, for they will hear that you have come. [23]Therefore do this that we tell you. We have four men who have obligated themselves with a vow. [24]Take these men and purify yourself together with them, and pay for them to have their heads shaved, and everyone will know that there is nothing to what they were told about you, but in fact you yourself are walking in conformity and keeping the law.

[25]"But as for the Gentile believers, we have informed them by letter that we have decided they need observe nothing of that sort, but only keep themselves from food offered to idols and from blood and from anything strangled and from sexual sin."

Then Paul took the men, and the next day purifying himself with them entered into the temple, to signify the accomplishment of the days of purification, until that an offering should be offered for every one of them.

[26]Then Paul took those men the following day, and when he had purified himself along with them, he went into the temple announcing when the days of their purification would be finished and when the offering would be made for each of them.

[27]But when the seven days were almost finished, the Jews from Asia saw him in the temple, and stirred up all the crowd, and laid their hands on him, [28]crying out, "Men of Israel, come and help! This is that man who is teaching everyone everywhere against this people and Law and place! And worse yet, he has even brought Greeks into the temple, and profaned this holy place!"

[29]For they had previously seen Trophimus the Ephesian in the city with him, whom they assumed Paul had taken into the temple. [30]And the entire city was stirred up, and the people ran and gathered together. And after they had taken hold of Paul, they proceeded to drag him outside the temple, and immediately the doors were locked. [31]Now while they were working on killing him, the report went up to the commander of the Roman cohort that all Jerusalem was in an uproar, [32]who promptly took some soldiers and centurions and ran down toward them. And when the crowd saw the commander and the soldiers, they stopped beating Paul. [33]At that time the commander came up to him and seized him and ordered that he be bound with two chains, and then was inquiring who he was and what he had done.

[34]But some in the crowd were yelling one thing and some another. Not able to find out for sure through the din, he ordered him brought into the barracks. [35]But by the time he was on the steps, Paul had to be carried high by the soldiers, because of the violence of the crowd. [36]For a large number of the people were following and shouting, "Away with him!"

[37]And when he was just about to be taken inside the barracks, Paul says to the commander, "Is it permissible for me to say something to you?"

And he said, "You know Greek? [38]Then you are that Egyptian aren't you, who prior to these days rebelled and led four thousand terrorists out in the desert."

[39]But Paul said, "I am a Jew, a citizen of a city not insignificant, Tarsus in Cilicia. So I ask you, give me permission to speak to the people."

[40]And after he gave him permission, Paul stood on the steps, and motioned to the people downward with his hand. And when it was largely quiet, he addressed them in the Hebrew language, and said,

Chapter 22

[1]"Men, brothers and fathers, hear now my defense to you." [2]And when they heard him addressing them in the Hebrew language, they offered greater silence.

And he said, [3]"I am a Jewish man, born in Tarsus of Cilicia, but raised in this city at the feet of Gamaliel, instructed according to the strictest tradition of the law of the fathers, and I was zealous for God, as you all are being today. [4]I persecuted this group, The Way, even as far as death, binding them, both men and women, and delivering them to prison, [5]to which even the high priest bears witness for me, and all the elders, since from them I took letters of authority to the brothers in Damascus, that I was going to take the members who were there as well, bound, to Jerusalem to be punished.

[6]But it came about that as I was going, and about noon had gotten close to Damascus, that suddenly a great light from heaven flashed all around me, [7]and I fell to the ground. And I heard a voice saying to me, 'Shaul, Shaul, why are you persecuting me?'

[8]And I answered, 'Who are you lord?'

And he said to me, "I am Jesus the Nazarene, whom you are persecuting." [9]Now those who were with me saw the light, and were frightened, but they did not hear the voice that was speaking to me.

[10]And I said, "What should I do, Lord?

And the Lord said to me, "Get up, and go to Damascus, and there you will be instructed about all that is assigned for you to do."

[11]So we proceeded toward Damascus, with me being led by the hand by my companions, since I could not see, because of the brightness of that light. [12]And Hananiah, a devout man in relation to the Torah, of good report by all the Jews who lived there, [13]he came to me and stood over me, and he said, 'Brother Shaul, see again.' And at that very time I looked at him and saw him. 14And he said, "The God of our fathers pre-assigned you to know his will, and to see the Righteous One, and to hear the voice from out of his mouth. 15Because you will be a witness for him to all humankind about what you have seen and heard. 16And now, why delay? Arise and get baptized to wash away your sins, calling on the name of the Lord.'

17And then it happened to me that when I returned to Jerusalem and was praying in the temple, I was put into a trance 18and saw Him saying to me: 'Hurry, and get away quickly from Jersusalem, for they are not going to accept your testimony about me.'

19And I said, 'Lord, they know very well that I myself was imprisoning and binding from each synagogue those who believed in you. 20And when the blood of Stephen your witness was being spilled, I also was there and consenting to his death, and guarding the cloaks of those who were killing him."

21And he said to me, "Go on your way, for I am assigning you afar off to the Gentiles."

22Now the crowd had been listening— until those words. Then they lifted up their voice, saying, "Remove such a man from the earth, for it is not fitting for him to live!" 23And as they kept up their shouting, and were tossing off their cloaks, and throwing dust up in the air, 24the commander ordered him brought inside the barracks, and said to interrogate him by flogging, so that he could find out the reason for all this clamor over him. 25But as they stretched him out in the straps, Paul said toward the centurion standing there, "Is it legal for you to flog a Roman citizen without a trial?"

26And when the centurion heard this, he approached the commander and informed him, saying, "Be careful what are you about to do. For this man is a Roman citizen."

27So the commander came up to Paul, and he said to him, "Tell me, are you a Roman citizen?"

And he said, "Yes."

28And the commander responded, "It took me a large sum of money to get that citizenship."

And Paul said, "But I was actually born one."

29Then those about to interrogate him immediately withdrew from him. And even the commander was afraid, finding out that Paul was a Roman citizen and he had been strapping him up. 30And the next day, wanting to find out exactly why he had been charged by the Jews, he freed him from the chains and ordered the chief priests to come, together with their whole Sanhedrin, and he brought Paul and stood him before them.

Chapter 23

1And Paul, with an earnest gaze upon the Sanhedrin, said, "Men, brothers, I have conducted myself in all good conscience to this day."

2But Hananiah the high priest ordered those standing near him to slap his mouth.

3Then toward him, Paul said, "God is about to slap you, you whitewashed wall. And you sit judging me by the law, yet you transgress the law ordering me to be slapped."

4But those standing near him said, "You insult God's high priest?"

5And Paul said, "I did not know, brothers, that he was the high priest. For it is written, 'You shall not speak ill of the ruler of your people.' "

6Now Paul, knowing that one part were Sadducees and the other part Pharisees, cried out to the Sanhedrin, "Men, brothers, I am a Pharisee, the son of a Pharisee. It is for hope, namely the resurrection of the dead, that I am being condemned."

7And after these words of his, discord arose between the Pharisees and the Sadducees, and the whole body was divided. 8For whereas the Saduccees say there exists no resurrection, nor an angel, nor a spirit, the Pharisees confess to all three.

9Then there was a loud shout, and the Torah scholars of the faction of the Pharisees stood up, and began to insist vehemently as follows: "We find nothing wrong in this man. And if a spirit or an angel has spoken to him, let us not fight against God."

10And such a great uproar occurred that the commander was worried they might tear Paul apart. He ordered the troops under him to go down and snatch him out from their midst and into the barracks.

11And during that night the Lord appeared to him, and said, "Take courage, Paul. For just as you solemnly declared the things about me in Jerusalem, you must in the same way testify in Rome as well."

12And when it was day, some of the Jews made a compact and bound themselves, swearing neither to eat, nor to drink, till they had killed Paul. 13And there were more than forty who made this plot. 14They went to the chief priests and elders and said, "We have bound ourselves with an oath to taste nothing until we have killed Paul. 15Now therefore, you together with the Sanhedren should explain to the commander how he should bring Paul down to you tomorrow, as though you are wanting to find out more accurately the issues concerning him. But we are prepared to kill him before he gets near."

16But when the son of Paul's sister heard about the ambush, he paid a visit and went inside the barracks, and told Paul. 17So Paul called one of the centurions over, and he said, "Take this young man to the commander, for he has something to report to him."

18He then did accept him, and he took him to the commander and said, "The prisoner Paul called me over and asked me to bring this young man to you. He has something to tell you."

19And the commander took his arm and withdrew to a private place, and began inquiring, "What is it you have to tell me?"

20And he said, "The Jews have agreed to ask you to bring Paul down tomorrow to the Sanhedrin, as though they want to investigate more accurately concerning him. 21You therefore should not trust them, because more than forty men of theirs are lying in wait for him, who have bound themselves neither to eat nor to drink until they have killed him. And now they are ready, waiting for a promise from you."

22Then the commander dismissed the young man, and ordered everyone not to divulge that he had reported these things to him. 23And he called over two of his centurions, and said, "Get 200 infantry ready for a move as far as Caesarea, and 70 horsemen and 200 spearmen, departure three hours after dark. 24And provide an animal such that mounting Paul on it they can deliver him safely to Felix the governor."

25He wrote a letter containing this text: 26"Claudius Lysias, to the most excellent Governor Felix: Greetings. 27This man had been seized by the Jews and was about to be done away with by them, when I intervened with the army and got him out, after I learned he was a Roman citizen. 28And wanting to find out the reason they were charging him, I took him down to their Sanhedrin. 29Which I found out was a charge that concerns things from their law that are disputed. But the charge was nothing deserving of death or imprisonment. 30Then when it was divulged to me that there would be a plot by the Jews against the man, I immediately transferred him to you, giving orders also to his accusers to state their charges against him before you. Farewell."

31The soldiers therefore mounted him according to their orders, and took him by night to Antipatris. 32And the next day, they let the horsemen go on with him, and went back to the barracks. 33Who when they came into Caesarea and delivered the letter to the governor, also presented Paul to him.

34And after the governor had read it, and inquired as to which province he was from, and found out he was from Cilicia, 35he announced: "I will hear you when your accusers are also present." And he ordered him kept under guard at the Praetorium of Herod.

Chapter 24

1And after five days, the high priest Hananaiah came down, together with some of the elders and an orator, Tertullus, and they presented charges against Paul before the governor.

2And when he was called upon, Tertullus began to prosecute, saying, "Since we have experienced much peace because of you, and public reforms beneficial to this nation instituted through your foresight, 3both at all times and in all places we receive it with all gratitude, most excellent Felix.

4But lest I delay you any longer, I ask you, with your indulgence, to hear us briefly. 5For we have found this man to be a public menace, and stirring up rebellion among all the Jews throughout the world, and to be the ringleader of the sect of the Nazarenes, 6who was even trying to desecrate the temple, whom we then arrested, and we wanted to judge him according to our law. 7But Lysias the chiliarch came, and with much force took him from our hands, 8ordering his accusers to come before you; from whom you will be able, after examining him yourself, to confirm all these things of which we are accusing him."

9Then the Jews also joined in, affirming these things to be so.

10And when the governor had signaled for him to speak, Paul said in answer, "Knowing it is for many years you have been judge for this nation, happy am I to answer these things in my defense. 11You can verify for yourself, that it has not been more than twelve days since I came up to worship in Jerusalem, 12and they have not found me disputing with anyone, or stirring up a crowd, either in the synagogues or in the city, 13nor can they prove the things they are now charging me with.

14But I admit this to you, that I do serve our ancestral God in the manner of The Way, which they are calling a sect, believing everything in accordance with what is written in the law and the prophets, 15having a hope in God which these men themselves also accept, that there is to be a resurrection of the dead, both of the righteous and the unrighteous. [16]It is in that very hope then, that I always strive to maintain an innocent conscience, toward God and toward people.

[17]"And after several years, I have come to practice charity in my own nation and to present offerings. [18]While engaged in that, some Jews from Asia found me, purified in the temple, not with a crowd, nor with a disturbance, [19]who therefore ought to have appeared before you as well to state charges if they have anything against me. [20]Or, these men here should declare if any wrongdoing was found in me when I stood before the Sanhedrin.

[21]Or is it about this one thing that I had proclaimed while standing among them: 'For the resurrection of the dead I am being tried by you today.' "

[22]And when he had heard these things, Felix, who knew quite accurately the issues concerning The Way, adjourned them, and said, "When Lysias the commander comes down I will decide your case." [23]And he gave orders to the centurion for Paul to be kept under guard, yet have some freedom, and that no one prevent his friends from serving him or coming to him.

[24]And after some days, when Felix was present, with his wife Drusilla, who was a Jewess, he sent for Paul, and listened to him about the belief in the Messiah.

[25]But when Paul spoke about righteousness and self-control, and the judgment that was to come, Felix became frightened, and responded, "Go your way for now, and when I find the time I will send for you."

[26]At the same time, he was also hoping some cash would be delivered to him from Paul so he would release him. And for that reason, he was summoning him frequently and conversing with him. [27]But after two full years went by, Felix was replaced by a successor, Porcius Festus, and Felix left Paul in chains, wanting to earn favor with the Jews.

Chapter 25

[1]Festus then, three days after coming to the province, went up from Caesarea to Jerusalem, [2]and the high priest and Jewish leaders presented charges against Paul, and were urging Festus, [3]asking for a favor concerning him, that he summon Paul to Jerusalem, (as they were staging an ambush to kill him on the way).

[4]However, Festus then answered that Paul was being kept in Caesarea and that he himself was about to go there soon. [5]"So," he said, "Let the authorities among you go down with me. If there is anything amiss in this man they can accuse him."

[6]And after spending more than ten days among them, he went down to Caesarea, and the next day sat on the tribunal seat and ordered Paul be brought. [7]And when he arrived, the Jews who had come down from Jerusalem surrounded him, bringing against Paul many charges even more serious. Which they could not prove.

[8]While he said in defense, "Neither against the law of the Jews, nor against the temple, nor against Caesar, have I committed any offense."

[9]Then Festus, wanting to earn favor with the Jews, answered Paul and said, "Would you like to go up to Jerusalem and be tried by me for these things there?"

10And Paul said, "I am standing where it is proper for me to be judged, at the tribunal of Caesar. I have done nothing wrong against the Jews, as you know very well. 11For if I am a wrongdoer and have done something worthy of death, I do not ask to be spared that death. But on the other hand, if there is nothing to what these men are accusing me of, no one has the authority to give me up to them. I appeal to Caesar."

12Then Festus, after consulting with counsel, responded: "You have appealed to Caesar. Before Caesar you will go."

13And after some days had passed, King Agrippa and Bernice arrived in Caesarea to greet Festus. 14And as they were spending many days there, Festus submitted before the king the issues concerning Paul, saying, "There is a man who was left in chains by Felix, 15about whom, when I was in Jerusalem, the chief priests and elders of the Jews brought charges, asking for a conviction against him. 16To whom I answered, that it is not the custom of the Romans to hand a person over for destruction before the accused has had his accusers face to face and the opportunity to answer them concerning the offense. 17When therefore they had come together here, I made no delay. The next day I sat at the judgement seat and ordered the man to be brought. 18About whom, when his accusers stood up, they were not bringing any charge that I was expecting, 19but rather they had some points of dispute with him about their religion, and about a dead man Jesus, whom Paul was asserting is alive. 20So, being at a loss how to investigate this, I asked if he was willing to go to Jerusalem to be judged there concerning these things. 21But Paul appealed to be reserved for the decision of Augustus, and I ordered that he be kept until such time I should send him to Caesar."

22And Agrippa said to Festus, "I also would like to hear this man myself."

"Tomorrow," he then answered, "you will hear him."

23The next day therefore, after Agrippa and Bernice had arrived and entered the audience with great pomp and spectacle, with also the chiliarchs and the men who were prominent in the city, Festus gave the order, and Paul was brought in.

24And Festus said, "O King Agrippa, and all you men present with us, behold this man, about whom the entire Jewish community has petitioned me, both in Jerusalem and then also here, shouting out that he ought not to live any longer. 25But after finding that he had not committed anything worthy of death, and also since this man himself had appealed to the Emperor, I decided to send him. 26I do not have anything certain to write to My Lord about him. Which is why I have brought him before you all, and especially before you, King Agrippa, so that after this investigation has taken place I may have something to write. 27Because sending a prisoner without also indicating a charge against him seems out of the question to me."

Chapter 26

1So Agrippa said to Paul, "You may speak for yourself."

Then Paul began making his defense with extended hand: 2"O king Agrippa, I consider myself fortunate that before you I am to make my defense today concerning all the things I am charged with by the Jews.

[3]Particularly since you are knowledgeable regarding the customs and even the controversies among the Jews. So then, I ask you to hear me out with patience.

[4]My manner of life since youth therefore, which was from the beginning in my own country in Jerusalem, is known by all the Jews. [5]They have previously known of me from the start, if they are willing to testify, that I have lived as a Pharisee, following the strictest sect of our religion. [6]And now I stand on trial because of my hope in the promise which God made to our forefathers, [7]to which our twelve tribes, serving zealously night and day, hope to attain. It is about this hope I am being called to account by the Jews, O king Agrippa."

[8]"Why is it deemed unbelievable by you people that God raises the dead?"

[9]"Now I myself once considered it necessary to carry out every effort in opposition to the name of Jesus the Nazarene; [10]which indeed I did, not only in Jerusalem, but I shut up many other saints in prison, by the authority I received from the chief priests, and I cast my vote for their executions. [11]And I punished them often, in all the synagogues, and would try to get them to blaspheme. And I was so enraged at them, that I pursued them to foreign cities.

[12]And among those to which I went was Damascus, with authority and a commission from the high priests. [13]On the way there, at midday, I saw, O king, a light from heaven, brighter than the sun, that shone all around me and those traveling with me. [14]And all of us fell to the ground. I heard a voice speaking to me and saying in the Hebrew language, 'Sha'ul, Sha'ul, why are you persecuting me? It is hard for you to kick against the goads.'

[15]So I said, 'Who are you, lord?'

And he said, 'I am Jesus, whom you are persecuting. [16]But get up, and stand on your feet. Because for this I have appeared to you, to appoint you minister and witness, of both the things you have seen and the things which I will show you, [17]all the while delivering you from the Jewish people and from the Gentiles to whom I am now sending you; [18]to open their eyes, that they turn away from darkness toward the light, and from the power of Satan back to God, and receive forgiveness of sins, and an inheritance with those who are sanctified by the faith which is in me.'

[19]Whereupon, O king Agrippa, I was not disobedient to the heavenly vision, [20]but to those first in Damascus, and to those in Jerusalem and every other territory of the Jews, and also to the Gentiles, I was declaring repentance and the turning back to God, the practicing of works befitting of repentance. [21]It is because of these things the Jews seized me in the temple, trying to kill me.

[22]So then, with the benefit of assistance from God up until these very days I have stood testifying to both the small and the great, nothing other than what the prophets and Moses have said was going to take place, [23]that the Messiah would suffer, that as the first of the resurrection of the dead, he would proclaim light to his people, and to the Gentiles."

[24]And when Paul was finished this his defense, Festus said in a loud voice, "You are raving, Paul! All that learning is driving you to madness."

[25]But he replied, "I am not raving, excellent Festus. On the contrary, I am uttering true and rational words. [26]The King is informed about these things, thus I speak freely before him. For I am sure there was no way for these things to escape his notice, since they were not done in a corner.

[27]You believe, O king Agrippa, in the prophets. I know that you believe."

[28]Then Agrippa said to Paul: "With a few words you persuade me to be a Christian?"

[29]And Paul said, "I hope to God that, whether with few or with many, not only you but also everyone hearing me today will become exactly what I am, except for these chains."

[30]And when he had said those things, the king got up, and also the governor and Bernice and those seated with them, [31]and as they were leaving they were saying to each other, "This man is not committing anything worthy of death or of chains."

[32]But Agrippa said to Festus, "This man could have been set free, had he not appealed to Caesar."

Chapter 27

[1]And when it was approved for us to sail to Italy, they gave custody of both Paul and some other prisoners to a centurion with the Emperor's Regiment by the name of Julius. [2]And so Paul boarded an Adramyttian ship about to set sail for stops along the coast of Asia, and we weighed anchor, with Aristarchus the Macedonian from Thessalonica continuing with us. [3]The next day we docked in Sidon, and Julius kindly allowed Paul to go to his friends to receive care. [4]And from there we sailed alee of Cyprus, because the winds were contrary. [5]Then, after we sailed across the deep sea facing Cilicia and Pamphylia, we disembarked at Myra of Lycia. [6]And there, when the centurion found an Alexandrian ship sailing to Italy, he boarded us onto that.

[7]But after quite a few days of slow going and only getting near Cnidus, the wind not allowing us better progress, we sailed alee of Crete close against Salmone. [8]And after sailing past it with difficulty, we came to a place called Fair Havens, which was near the city of Lasea. [9]But a lot of time had been used up, and by this point it was dangerous for sailing, and also since the Day of Atonement had now arrived, Paul was announcing a warning, [10]saying to them, "Men, I forsee that this voyage is likely to be with much violence, and loss, not only of the cargo and the ship, but also of our lives."

[11]But the centurion was being swayed more by the captain and by the owner, than by the things Paul was saying. [12]And since that harbor was not well situated for wintering, the majority thought it the best decision to sail away from there as well, if they could somehow make it to Phoenix to stay the winter, which was a safe harbor on Crete, facing both southwest and northwest. [13]So when a gentle breeze started blowing from the south, they figured they had obtained their objective, and they weighed anchor, sailing close against Crete.

[14]But not long afterward, a typhoon wind called the Euroclydon assailed her; [15]and it seized the ship, and since we were not able to counteract that wind, we gave in, and let ourselves be driven. [16]But when we were running alee of a small island called Clauda, we managed, barely, to get the skiff under control, [17]which they hoisted up. Then they applied frapping to undergird the ship. And because they were afraid they might run aground on the Syrtis sandbars, they lowered the rigging. This way they were carried away.

18But the following day, we were getting tossed around extremely, and they started throwing the cargo overboard. 19And by the third day, we were throwing the ship's mast and rigging off with our own hands. 20But many days went by with neither sun nor starlight to be seen. And with a lot of winter still ahead, all remaining hope of our survival was being stripped away.

21And after they had gone for many days fasting, at that time Paul stood in the midst. He said, "Men, you should have listened to me, and not sailed away from Crete and reaped this damage and loss. 22Yet now, I am advising you to be of good cheer, because there will be no loss of life among you; only of the ship. 23For this very night there appeared to me, from the God to whom I belong, and whom I serve, an angel, 24who said,

'Do not be afraid, Paul; you must stand before Caesar. And behold, on account of you, God has granted all the lives who are sailing with you.'

25Therefore be of good cheer men. For I trust in God, that this is how it will be, exactly the way it was told me. 26But, we must run aground on some island."

27Now as the fourteenth night arrived, and we were drifting on the Adriatic Sea, at about midnight the sailors were sensing some land looming near them. 28And when they took a sounding, they got 20 fathoms. And then some distance farther they took a sounding again, and got 15 fathoms. 29And fearing we might crash into some rocks, they tossed four anchors from the stern, and prayed for daylight to come.

30But some of the sailors were trying to escape from the ship, and they lowered the skiff onto the sea, pretending their purpose was to let out some anchors from the bow. 31Paul said to the centurion and the soldiers, "Unless these men stay on the ship, you cannot survive." 32Then the soldiers cut the lines to the skiff and let it drift away.

33And just before daylight, Paul began urging everyone to partake of some food, saying, "Fourteen days now, you have fasted in constant apprehension, taking nothing to eat. 34Therefore I urge you to partake of food, because this is for your survival; for there shall not a hair of any of your heads perish." 35And after he said these things, he took some bread, gave thanks to God in front of everyone, and broke it and proceeded to eat. 36Then they all cheered up, and took some food themselves.

37Now we on the ship were 276 souls altogether. 38Then, after they had enough food, they continued lightening the ship, throwing the wheat into the sea. 39And when morning came, they did not recognize the land. But they noticed a bay that had a beach, onto which they decided, if possible, to direct the ship. 40And they left the anchors alone in the sea while at the same time disconnecting the bands to the rudder; and when they hoisted the foresail to the breeze, they were heading toward the beach. 41But they hit a sandbar between two currents, and ran the boat aground, and the bow jammed in and remained stuck, while the stern was being broken apart by the violence of the waves.

42Then the plan of some of the soldiers was to kill the prisoners, in case any might swim away and escape. 43But the centurion, preferring to deliver Paul safe, stopped them from their plan, and gave orders that those who were able to swim should jump overboard first, and get to shore, 44and then the rest on planks or some other piece of the ship. And thus it was, that everyone got safely onto land.

Chapter 28

1And once they were safe, at that time they figured out that the island was called Malta. 2And the barbarians showed us no small kindness, for they built a fire, and were in the process of housing every one of us, because of the rain that came, and the cold.

3So Paul gathered a bundle of sticks, and as he was adding it to the fire a viper came out of it from the heat, and it fastened onto his hand. 4And when the barbarians saw the snake hanging from his hand, they were saying to one another, "This man must be a murderer. He escaped alive from the sea, and Justice has still not allowed him to live." 5Meanwhile Paul shook the snake off into the fire, and experienced nothing bad. 6But they were waiting for him any minute to swell up, or suddenly drop dead. However after a long time waiting and seeing nothing symptomatic happening to him, they were changing their minds and saying he was a god.

7Now in the environs of that place lay the estates of the chief of the island, named Publius, who received us with hospitality for three days and entertained us as friends. 8And it so happened that the father of Publius was burning a fever, and in bed suffering from dysentery. Paul went in with him, and prayed and laid hands on him, and healed him. 9Then because this occurred, everyone else on the island who had an illness was also being brought and being healed. 10And so they honored us with all kinds of gifts, and when we were about to sail, they loaded on the supplies that we needed.

11And thus after three months, we set sail in an Alexandrian ship that had wintered at the island, that had for its badge the Twin Sons of Zeus. 12Then we moored at Syracuse and stayed put for three days. 13And from there we tacked about, and made it to Rhegium. Then one day later, because a southerly wind came up, we arrived at Puteoli the next day. 14We found the brethren there and exhorted them, staying seven days with them. And thus we departed for Rome. 15And the brethren from there, when they heard the news about us, came out to meet us, as far as the Appian Market and Three Taverns. Seeing them caused Paul to feel encouraged, and he gave thanks to God.

16And once we arrived in Rome, the centurion delivered the prisoners to the military commander. And Paul was allowed to live by himself, with a soldier guarding him.

17And it came about that after three days, Paul called together the leaders of the Jews. And when they had come together, he said to them, "Brothers, though I had done nothing against our people or against the customs of our fathers, I was delivered as a prisoner into the hands of the Romans, 18who, after they examined me, were intending to order that I be freed, since they had found in me no basis for the death penalty. 19But when the Jews moved against it, I was compelled to appeal to Caesar— though not for bringing any complaint against my nation. 20This therefore is the reason I asked to see you and converse with you: it is for the hope of Israel I am wearing all this."

21And they said to him, "We have neither received a letter about you from Judea, nor has any of the brothers arrived with news about you, or said anything bad about you. 22But we think it is fitting that we hear from you what things you believe. For regarding this sect, it is known to us that it is spoken against everywhere."

23So when they had arranged a day for him, a great many were coming to the house. From dawn until evening, he was explaining to them and solemnly testifying to the kingdom of God, and trying to convince them of the things about Jesus, from both the law of Moses and the prophets. 24And some were being convinced by the things being said, but others would not believe. 25So they were in disagreement with one another, and were leaving when Paul said this one last thing: "How rightly the Holy Spirit spoke against our forefathers through Isaiah the prophet, 26saying,

'Go to this people and say,
"Though hearing, you will listen and not understand,
and though seeing, you will look and not perceive.
27For this people's heart has become impervious—
they hardly hear with the ears,
and they have shut up their eyes;
lest they see with the eyes and hear with the ears and understand with the heart and turn,
and I would heal them."

28Be it known to you therefore, that the salvation of God is ordered to go out to the Gentiles. They also will hear it." 29And when he had said these things, the Jews left, having great debates among themselves.

30And Paul remained a whole two years in his own rented house, welcoming everyone who came in to him. 31He was preaching the kingdom of God, and teaching the doctrines concerning the Lord Jesus Christ with complete openness and freedom.

Romans

Chapter 1

1:1 Paul, a servant of Jesus Christ, called to be an apostle, separated to the gospel of God,
1:2 (Which he had promised afore by his prophets in the holy scriptures,)
1:3 Concerning his Son Jesus Christ our Lord, who was made of the seed of David according to the flesh;
1:4 And declared to be the Son of God with power, according to the spirit of holiness, by the resurrection from the dead:
1:5 By whom we have received grace and apostleship, for obedience to the faith among all nations, for his name:
1:6 Among whom are you also the called of Jesus Christ:
1:7 To all that be in Rome, beloved of God, called to be saints: Grace to you and peace from God our Father, and the Lord Jesus Christ.
1:8 First, I thank my God through Jesus Christ for you all, that your faith is spoken of throughout the whole world.
1:9 For God is my witness, whom I serve with my spirit in the gospel of his Son, that without ceasing I make mention of you always in my prayers;
1:10 Making request, if by any means now at length I might have a prosperous journey by the will of God to come to you.
1:11 For I long to see you, that I may impart to you some spiritual gift, to the end you may be established;
1:12 That is, that I may be comforted together with you by the mutual faith both of you and me.
1:13 Now I would not have you ignorant, brothers, that oftentimes I purposed to come to you, (but was hindered until now,) that I might have some fruit among you also, just as among other Gentiles.
1:14 I am debtor both to the Greeks, and to the barbarians; both to the wise, and to the unwise.
1:15 So, as much as in me is, I am ready to preach the gospel to you that are at Rome also.
1:16 For I am not ashamed of the gospel of Christ: for it is the power of God for salvation to every one that believes; to the Jew first, and also to the Greek.
1:17 For in it is the righteousness of God revealed from faith to faith: as it is written, The just shall live by faith.
1:18 For the wrath of God is revealed from heaven against all ungodliness and unrighteousness of humankind, who possess the truth with unrighteousness;
1:19 Because that which may be known of God is manifest in them; for God has shown it to them.
1:20 For the invisible things of him from the creation of the world are clearly seen, being understood by the things that are made, that is, his eternal power and Godhead; so that they are without excuse:
1:21 Because when they did know God, they did not glorify him as God, neither were they thankful; but became foolish in their imaginations, and their unintelligent heart was darkened.
1:22 Professing themselves to be wise, they became fools,
1:23 And exchanged the glory of the incorruptible God for an image made like corruptible man, and like birds, and four footed beasts, and creeping things.[363]
1:24 Therefore God also gave them up to uncleanness in the lusts of their own hearts, to dishonor their own bodies with each other:
1:25 Who exchanged the truth of God for a lie, and worshipped and served the creature more than the Creator, who is blessed forever. Amen.
1:26 For this cause God gave them up to dishonorable affections: for both the females among them have quit the natural intimacy for that which is against nature:

[363] Ps 106:20

1:27 And likewise also the males, leaving the natural intimacy with the female, burned in their lust toward one another; males committing with males that which is unfitting, and receiving in themselves that recompense for their error which was due.
1:28 And according as they did not like to retain God in their knowledge, God gave them over to a reprobate mind, to do those things which are not fitting;
1:29 Being filled with all unrighteousness, fornication, wickedness, covetousness, maliciousness; full of jealousy, murder, debate, deceit, malignity; they are whisperers,
1:30 backbiters, haters of God, despiteful, proud, boasters, inventors of evil things, disobedient to parents,
1:31 Without understanding, covenant breakers, without natural affection, implacable, unmerciful:
1:32 Who knowing the judgment of God, that they which commit such things are worthy of death, not only do the same, but give approval to those that commit them.

Chapter 2

2:1 Therefore you are inexcusable, O human, whoever you are that judges: for in that which you judge another, you condemn yourself; for you that judge are doing the same things.
2:2 But we are sure that the judgment of God is according to truth against those who commit such things.
2:3 And do you think this, O human who judges those who do such things, and are doing the same, that you shall escape the judgment of God?
2:4 Or do you despise the riches of his goodness and forbearance and longsuffering; not knowing that the goodness of God leads you to repentance?
2:5 But after your hardness and impenitent heart you are storing up wrath upon yourself against the day of wrath and revelation of the righteous judgment of God;
2:6 Who will render to every person according to his deeds:
2:7 To those who by patient continuance in well doing seek for glory and honor and immortality, eternal life:
2:8 But to those that are contentious, and do not obey the truth, but obey unrighteousness, indignation and wrath,
2:9 Tribulation and anguish, upon every soul of man that does evil, of the Jew first, and also of the Gentile;
2:10 But glory, honor, and peace, to every person working what is good, to the Jew first, and also to the Gentile:
2:11 For there is no respect of persons with God.
2:12 For as many as have sinned without law shall also perish without law: and as many as have sinned under the law shall be judged by the law;
2:13 (For not the hearers of the law are just before God, but the doers of the law shall be justified.
2:14 For when the Gentiles, which have not the law, do by nature the things contained in the law, these, having not the law, are a law to themselves:
2:15 Which show the work of the law written in their hearts, their conscience also bearing witness, and their thoughts the mean while accusing or else excusing one another;)
2:16 In the day when God shall judge the secrets of men by Jesus Christ according to my gospel.
2:17 Behold, you are called a Jew, and rest in the law, and make your boast of God,
2:18 And know his will, and approve the things that are more excellent, being instructed out of the law;
2:19 And are confident that you yourself are a guide of the blind, a light of them which are in darkness,
2:20 An instructor of the foolish, a teacher of babes, and have the form of knowledge and of the truth in the law.
2:21 You therefore which teach another, teach you not yourself? you that preach a man should not steal, do you steal?

2:22 You that say a man should not commit adultery, do you commit adultery? you that abhor idols, do you commit sacrilege?
2:23 You that make your boast of the law, through breaking the law do you dishonor God?
2:24 For the name of God is blasphemed among the Gentiles because of you, as it is written.
2:25 For circumcision truly profits, if you keep the law: but if you be a breaker of the law, your circumcision is made uncircumcision.
2:26 Therefore if the uncircumcision keep the righteousness of the law, shall not his uncircumcision be counted as circumcision?
2:27 And shall not uncircumcision, which is naturally speaking, if they fulfill the law, judge you, who by the letter and circumcision do transgress the law?
2:28 For he is not a Jew, which is one outwardly; neither is that circumcision, which is outward in the flesh:
2:29 But he is a Jew, which is one inwardly; and circumcision is that of the heart, in the spirit, and not in the letter; whose praise is not from men, but from God.

Chapter 3

3:1 What advantage then has the Jew? or what profit is there of circumcision?
3:2 Much every way: chiefly, because to them were committed the oracles of God.
3:3 For what if some did not believe? shall their unbelief make the faith of God without effect?
3:4 By no means. But let God be true, and every man a liar; as it is written, That you might be justified in your sayings, and might overcome when you are judged.
3:5 But if our unrighteousness commends the righteousness of God, what shall we say? Is God unrighteous who takes vengeance? (I speak as a man)
3:6 By no means: for then how shall God judge the world?
3:7 For if the truth of God has more abounded through my lie to his glory; why still am I also judged as a sinner?
3:8 And not rather, (as we be slanderously reported, and as some affirm that we say,) Let us do evil, that good may come? whose damnation is just.
3:9 What then? are we better than they? No, in no way: for we have before proven both Jews and Gentiles, that they are all under sin;
3:10 As it is written, There is none righteous, no, not one:
3:11 There is no one that understands, there is no one that seeks after God.
3:12 They are all gone out of the way, they are together become unprofitable; there is no one who does good, no, not one.
3:13 Their throat is an open sepulcher; with their tongues they have used deceit; the poison of asps is under their lips:
3:14 Whose mouth is full of cursing and bitterness:
3:15 Their feet are swift to shed blood:
3:16 Destruction and misery are in their ways:
3:17 And the way of peace they have not known:
3:18 There is no fear of God before their eyes.
3:19 Now we know that what things soever the law says, it says to them who are under the law: that every mouth may be stopped, and all the world may become guilty before God.
3:20 Therefore by the deeds of the law there shall no flesh be justified in his sight: for by the law is the knowledge of sin.
3:21 But now the righteousness of God apart from the law is manifested, being witnessed by the law and the prophets;
3:22 Even the righteousness of God which is by faith of Jesus Christ to all and upon all them that believe: for there is no difference:
3:23 For all have sinned, and come short of the glory of God;
3:24 Being justified freely by his grace through the redemption that is in Christ Jesus:

3:25 Whom God has set forth to be a propitiation through faith in his blood, to declare his righteousness for the remission of sins that are past, through the forbearance of God;
3:26 To declare, I say, at this time his righteousness: that he might be just, and the justifier of him which believes in Jesus.
3:27 Where is boasting then? It is excluded. By what law? of works? No: but by the law of faith.
3:28 Therefore we conclude that a man is justified by faith apart from the deeds of the law.
3:29 Is he the God of the Jews only? is he not also of the Gentiles? Yes, of the Gentiles also:
3:30 Seeing it is one God, which shall justify the circumcision by faith, and uncircumcision through faith.
3:31 Do we then make void the law through faith? By no means; on the contrary, we establish the law.

Chapter 4

4:1 What shall we say then that Abraham our father, as pertaining to the flesh, has found?
4:2 For if Abraham were justified by works, he has whereof to glory; but not before God.
4:3 For what says the scripture? Abraham believed God, and it was counted to him for righteousness.
4:4 Now to him that works is the reward not reckoned of grace, but of debt.
4:5 But to him that works not, but believes on him that justifies the ungodly, his faith is counted for righteousness.
4:6 Just as David also describes the blessedness of the man, to whom God imputes righteousness without works,
4:7 Saying, Blessed are they whose iniquities are forgiven, and whose sins are covered.
4:8 Blessed is the man to whom the Lord will not impute sin.
4:9 Comes this blessedness then upon the circumcision only, or upon the uncircumcision also? for we say that faith was reckoned to Abraham for righteousness.
4:10 How was it then reckoned? when he was in circumcision, or in uncircumcision? Not in circumcision, but in uncircumcision.
4:11 And he received the sign of circumcision, a seal of the righteousness of the faith which he had while yet uncircumcised: that he might be the father of all them that believe, though they be not circumcised; that righteousness might be imputed to them also:
4:12 And the father of circumcision to them who are not of the circumcision only, but who also walk in the steps of that faith of our father Abraham, which he had while yet uncircumcised.
4:13 For the promise, that he should be the heir of the world, was not to Abraham, or to his seed, through the law, but through the righteousness of faith.
4:14 For if they which are of the law be heirs, faith is made void, and the promise made of no effect:
4:15 Because the law works wrath: for where no law is, there is no transgression.
4:16 Therefore it is of faith, that it might be by grace; to the end the promise might be sure to all the seed; not to that only which is of the law, but to that also which is of the faith of Abraham; who is the father of us all,
4:17 (As it is written, I have made you a father of many nations,) before him whom he believed, even God, who gives life to the dead, and calls those things which be not as though they were.
4:18 Who against hope believed in hope, that he might become the father of many nations, according to that which was spoken, So shall your seed be.
4:19 And being not weak in faith, he considered not his own body now dead, when he was about a hundred years old, neither yet the deadness of Sarah's womb:

4:20 He staggered not at the promise of God through unbelief; but was strong in faith, giving glory to God;
4:21 And being fully persuaded that, what he had promised, he was able also to perform.
4:22 And therefore it was imputed to him for righteousness.
4:23 Now it was not written for his sake alone, that it was imputed to him;
4:24 But for us also, to whom it shall be imputed, if we believe on him that raised up Jesus our Lord from the dead;
4:25 Who was delivered for our offenses, and was raised again for our justification.

Chapter 5

5:1 Therefore being justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ:
5:2 By whom also we have access by faith into this grace in which we stand, and rejoice in hope of the glory of God.
5:3 And not only so, but we glory in tribulations also: knowing that tribulation works patience;
5:4 And patience, experience; and experience, hope:
5:5 And hope makes not ashamed; because the love of God is shed abroad in our hearts by the Holy Spirit which is given to us.
5:6 For when we were yet without strength, in due time Christ died for the ungodly.
5:7 For scarcely for a righteous man will one die: yet perhaps for a good man some would even dare to die.
5:8 But God commends his love toward us, in that, while we were yet sinners, Christ died for us.
5:9 Much more then, being now justified by his blood, we shall be saved from wrath through him.
5:10 For if, when we were enemies, we were reconciled to God by the death of his Son, much more, being reconciled, we shall be saved by his life.
5:11 And not only so, but we also joy in God through our Lord Jesus Christ, by whom we have now received the atonement.
5:12 Therefore, as by one man sin entered into the world, and death by sin, and thus death passed upon all men, since all have sinned:
5:13 (For until the law sin was in the world: but sin is not imputed when there is no law.
5:14 Nevertheless death reigned from Adam to Moses, even over them that had not sinned in the likeness of Adam's transgression, who is the figure of him who was to come.
5:15 But not as the offense, is the free gift. For if through the offense of one many be dead, much more the grace of God, and the gift by grace, which is by one man, Jesus Christ, has abounded to many.
5:16 And not like the result of that one man sinning is the gift; for after that one sin came the judgment unto condemnation, but after the many who have trespassed came the gracious gift unto justification.
5:17 For if by one man's offense death reigned through one; much more they which receive abundance of grace and of the gift of righteousness shall reign in life through one, Jesus Christ.)
5:18 Therefore as by the offense of one, judgment came upon all men to condemnation; even so by the righteousness of one the free gift came upon all men unto justification of life.
5:19 For as by one man's disobedience many were made sinners, so by the obedience of one shall many be made righteous.
5:20 Moreover the law entered, that the offense might abound. But where sin abounded, grace did much more abound:
5:21 That as sin has reigned unto death, even so might grace reign through righteousness unto eternal life by Jesus Christ our Lord.

Chapter 6

6:1 What shall we say then? Shall we continue in sin, that grace may abound?
6:2 May it never be! How shall we, that are dead to sin, live any longer in it?
6:3 Do you not know, that as many of us as were baptized into Jesus Christ were baptized into his death?
6:4 Therefore we are buried with him by baptism into death: that just as Christ was raised up from the dead by the glory of the Father, even so we also should walk in newness of life.
6:5 For if we have been planted together in the likeness of his death, we shall be also in the likeness of his resurrection:
6:6 Knowing this, that our old man is crucified with him, that the body of sin might be destroyed, that from now on we should not serve sin.
6:7 For he that is dead is freed from sin.
6:8 Now if we be dead with Christ, we believe that we shall also live with him:
6:9 Knowing that Christ being raised from the dead dies no more; death has no more dominion over him.
6:10 For in that he died, he died to sin once: but in that he lives, he lives to God.
6:11 Likewise reckon you also yourselves to be dead indeed to sin, but alive to God through Jesus Christ our Lord.
6:12 Let not sin therefore reign in your mortal body, that you should obey it in the lusts of it.
6:13 Neither yield your members as instruments of unrighteousness to sin: but yield yourselves to God, as those that are alive from the dead, and your members as instruments of righteousness to God.
6:14 For sin shall not have dominion over you: for you are not under the law, but under grace.
6:15 What then? shall we sin, because we are not under the law, but under grace? May it never be!
6:16 Do you not know, that to whom you yield yourselves servants to obey, his servants you are to whom you obey; whether of sin to death, or of obedience to righteousness?
6:17 But God be thanked, that you were the servants of sin, but you have obeyed from the heart that form of doctrine which was delivered to you.
6:18 Being then made free from sin, you became the servants of righteousness.
6:19 I speak after the manner of men because of the weakness of your flesh: for as you have yielded your members servants to uncleanness and to iniquity to iniquity; even so now yield your members servants to righteousness to holiness.
6:20 For when you were the servants of sin, you were free from righteousness.
6:21 What fruit did you have then in those things of which you are now ashamed? for the end of those things is death.
6:22 But now being made free from sin, and become servants to God, you have your fruit unto holiness, and the end everlasting life.
6:23 For the wages of sin is death; but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord.

Chapter 7

7:1 Do you not know, brothers, (for I speak to them that know the law,) that the law has dominion over a man so long as he lives?
7:2 For the woman which has a husband is bound by the law to her husband so long as he lives; but if the husband be dead, she is loosed from the law of her husband.
7:3 So then if, while her husband lives, she be married to another man, she shall be called an adulteress: but if her husband be dead, she is free from that law; so that she is no adulteress, though she be married to another man.
7:4 Therefore, my brothers, you also have become dead to the law by the body of Christ; that you should be married to another, even to him who is raised from the dead, that we should bring forth fruit to God.
7:5 For when we were in the flesh, the motions of sins, which were by the law, did work in our members to bring forth fruit to death.

7:6 But now we are delivered from the law, having died to that in which we were held, so that we serve in newness of spirit, and not in the oldness of the letter.
7:7 What shall we say then? Is the law sin? By no means. No, I had not known sin, but by the law: for I had not known lust, except the law had said, You shall not covet.
7:8 But sin, taking occasion by the commandment, wrought in me all manner of desire. For without the law sin was dead.
7:9 For I was alive without the law once: but when the commandment came, sin revived, and I died.
7:10 And the commandment, which was ordained to life, I found to be unto death.
7:11 For sin, taking occasion by the commandment, deceived me, and by it slew me.
7:12 Therefore the law is holy, and the commandment holy, and just, and good.
7:13 Was then that which is good made death to me? By no means. But sin, that it might appear sin, produces death in me by that which is good, so that sin by means of the commandment might become exceedingly sinful.
7:14 For we know that the law is spiritual: but I am carnal, sold under sin.
7:15 For that which I do I understand not: for what I would, that I do not do; but what I hate, that I do.
7:16 If then I do that which I would not, I consent to the law that it is good.
7:17 Now then it is no more I that do it, but sin that dwells within me.
7:18 For I know that in me (that is, in my flesh,) dwells no good thing: for to will is present with me; but how to perform that which is good I find not.
7:19 For the good that I would, I do not: but the evil which I would not, that I do.
7:20 Now if I do what I would not, it is no more I that do it, but sin that dwells within me.
7:21 I find then a law, that, when I would do good, evil is present with me.
7:22 For I delight in the law of God after the inward man:
7:23 But I see another law in my members, warring against the law of my mind, and bringing me into captivity to the law of sin which is in my members.
7:24 O wretched man that I am! who shall deliver me from the body of this death?
7:25 I thank God through Jesus Christ our Lord. So then with the mind I myself serve the law of God; but with the flesh the law of sin.

Chapter 8

8:1 There is therefore now no condemnation to those who are in Christ Jesus, who walk not after the flesh but after the Spirit..
8:2 For the law of the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus has made me free from the law of sin and death.
8:3 For what the law could not do, in that it was weak through the flesh, God sending his own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh, and for sin, condemned sin in the flesh:
8:4 That the righteousness of the law might be fulfilled in us, who walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit.
8:5 For they that are after the flesh do mind the things of the flesh; but they that are after the Spirit the things of the Spirit.
8:6 For to be carnally minded is death; but to be spiritually minded is life and peace.
8:7 Because the carnal mind is enmity against God: for it is not subject to the law of God, neither indeed can be.
8:8 So then they that are in the flesh cannot please God.
8:9 But you are not in the flesh, but in the Spirit, if so be that the Spirit of God dwell in you. Now if any man have not the Spirit of Christ, he is none of his.
8:10 And if Christ be in you, the body is dead because of sin; but the Spirit is life because of righteousness.
8:11 But if the Spirit of him that raised up Jesus from the dead dwell in you, he that raised up Christ from the dead shall also give life to your mortal bodies by his Spirit that dwells in you.
8:12 Therefore, brothers, we are debtors, not to the flesh, to live after the flesh.

8:13 For if you live after the flesh, you shall die: but if you through the Spirit do mortify the deeds of the body, you shall live.
8:14 For as many as are led by the Spirit of God, they are the sons of God.
8:15 For you have not received the spirit of bondage again to fear; but you have received the Spirit of adoption, whereby we cry, abba, Father.
8:16 The Spirit itself bears witness with our spirit, that we are the children of God:
8:17 And if children, then heirs; heirs of God, and joint-heirs with Christ; if so be that we suffer with him, that we may be also glorified together.
8:18 For I reckon that the sufferings of this present time are not worthy to be compared with the glory which shall be revealed in us.
8:19 For the eager anticipation of creation waits for the revealing of the sons of God.
8:20 For the creation was made subject to futility, not willingly, but by reason of him who has subjected the same, in the hope
8:21 that the creation itself also shall be freed from the bondage of corruption into the glorious liberty of the children of God.
8:22 For we know that the whole creation groans and travails in pain together until now.
8:23 And not only they, but ourselves also, who have the first fruits of the Spirit, even we ourselves groan within ourselves, waiting for the adoption, which means the redemption of our body.
8:24 For we are saved by hope: but hope that is seen is not hope. For who hopes for what he sees?
8:25 But if we hope for what we see not, then do we with patience wait for it.
8:26 Likewise the Spirit also helps us in our weakness: for we know not what we should pray for as we ought: but the Spirit itself makes intercession for us with groanings which cannot be uttered.
8:27 And he that searches the hearts knows what is the mind of the Spirit, because he makes intercession for the saints according to the will of God.
8:28 And we know that all things work together for good to them that love God, to them who are the called according to his purpose.
8:29 For whom he did foreknow, he also did predestinate to be conformed to the image of his Son, that he might be the firstborn among many brothers.
8:30 Moreover whom he did predestinate, them he also called: and whom he called, them he also justified: and whom he justified, them he also glorified.
8:31 What shall we then say to these things? If God be for us, who can be against us?
8:32 He that spared not his own Son, but delivered him up for us all, how shall he not with him also freely give us all things?
8:33 Who shall lay any thing to the charge of God's elect? It is God that justifies.
8:34 Who is he that condemns? It is Christ that died, indeed rather, that is risen again, who is even at the right hand of God, who also makes intercession for us.
8:35 Who shall separate us from the love of Christ? shall tribulation, or distress, or persecution, or famine, or nakedness, or peril, or sword?
8:36 As it is written, For your sake we are killed all the day long; we are accounted as sheep for the slaughter.
8:37 No, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him that loved us.
8:38 For I am persuaded, that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor powers, nor things present, nor things to come,
8:39 Nor height, nor depth, nor any other created thing, shall be able to separate us from the love of God which is in Christ Jesus our Lord.

Chapter 9

9:1 I say the truth in Christ, I lie not, my conscience also bearing me witness in the Holy Spirit,
9:2 That I have great heaviness and continual sorrow in my heart.
9:3 For I could wish that I myself were accursed from Christ for my brothers, my kinsmen according to the flesh:

9:4 Who are Israelites; to whom pertains the adoption, and the glory, and the covenants, and the giving of the law, and the service of God, and the promises;
9:5 Whose are the fathers, and of whom as concerning the flesh Christ came, who is over all, God blessed forever. Amen.
9:6 Not as though the word of God has taken no effect. For they are not all Israel, which are of Israel:
9:7 Neither, because they are the seed of Abraham, are they all children: but, In Isaac shall your seed be called.
9:8 That is, They which are the children of the flesh, these are not the children of God: but the children of the promise are counted for the seed.
9:9 For this is the word of promise, at this time will I come, and Sarah shall have a son.
9:10 And not only this; but when Rebecca also had conceived children by one man, even by our father Isaac;
9:11 (With the children being not yet born, neither one having practiced anything good or evil, that the purpose of God according to election might stand, not of works, but of him that calls;)
9:12 It was said to her, The elder shall serve the younger.
9:13 As it is written, "Jacob have I loved, but Esau have I hated."
9:14 What shall we say then? Is there unrighteousness with God? By no means.
9:15 For he says to Moses, I will have mercy on whom I will have mercy, and I will have compassion on whom I will have compassion.
9:16 So then it is not of him that wills, nor of him that runs, but of God who shows mercy.
9:17 For the scripture says to Pharaoh, For this very purpose have I raised you up, that I might show my power in you, and that my name might be declared throughout all the earth.
9:18 Therefore he has mercy on whom he wishes to have mercy, and whomever he wishes, he hardens.
9:19 You will say then to me, Why does he still find fault? For who has resisted his will?
9:20 No but, O mortal, who are you that replies against God? Shall the thing formed say to him that formed it, Why have you made me thus?
9:21 Has not the potter power over the clay, from the same lump to make one vessel for honor, and another for dishonor?
9:22 What if God, wishing to show his wrath, and to make his power known, endured with much longsuffering the vessels of wrath fitted for destruction:
9:23 And that he might make known the riches of his glory on the vessels of mercy, which he had previously prepared for glory,
9:24 Even us, whom he has called, not of the Jews only, but also of the Gentiles?
9:25 As he says also in Hosea, I will call them my people which were not my people; and her beloved which was not beloved.
9:26 And it shall come to pass, that in the place where it was said to them, You are not my people; there shall they be called the children of the living God.
9:27 Isaiah also cries concerning Israel, Though the number of the children of Israel be as the sand of the sea, a remnant shall be saved:
9:28 For he will finish the work, and cut it short in righteousness: because a short work will the Lord make upon the earth.
9:29 And as Isaiah said before, Unless Yehovah Sabaōth had left us a seed, we had been as Sodom, and been made like to Gomorrha.
9:30 What shall we say then? That the Gentiles, which followed not after righteousness, have attained to righteousness, a righteousness which is of faith.
9:31 But Israel, which followed after the law of righteousness, has not attained to the law of righteousness.
9:32 Why? Because they sought it not by faith, but as it were by the works of the law. For they stumbled at that stumblingstone;
9:33 As it is written, Behold, I lay in Zion a stumblingstone and rock of offense: and whoever believes on him shall not be ashamed.

Chapter 10

10:1 Brethren, my heart's desire and prayer to God for Israel is, that they might be saved.
10:2 For I bear them record that they have a zeal for God, but not according to knowledge.
10:3 For they being ignorant of God's righteousness, and going about to establish their own righteousness, have not submitted themselves to the righteousness of God.
10:4 For Christ is the end of the law for righteousness to every one that believes.
10:5 For Moses describes the righteousness which is of the law, That the man which does those things shall live by them.
10:6 But the righteousness which is of faith it says like this: Say not in your heart, Who shall ascend into heaven? (that is, to bring Christ down from above:)
10:7 Or, Who shall descend into the deep? (that is, to bring up Christ back from the dead.)
10:8 But what does it say? The word is close to you, even in your mouth, and in your heart: that is, the word of faith, which we preach;
10:9 That if you shall confess with your mouth the Lord Jesus, and shall believe in your heart that God has raised him from the dead, you shall be saved.
10:10 For with the heart man believes unto righteousness; and with the mouth confession is made unto salvation.
10:11 For the scripture says, Whoever believes on him shall not be put to shame.
10:12 For there is no difference between the Jew and the Greek: for the same Lord over all is rich to all that call upon him.
10:13 For whoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved.
10:14 How then shall they call on him in whom they have not believed? and how shall they believe in him of whom they have not heard? and how shall they hear without a preacher?
10:15 And how shall they preach, unless they are sent? as it is written, How beautiful are the feet of them that preach the gospel of peace, and bring glad tidings of good things!
10:16 But they have not all obeyed the gospel. For Isaiah says, Lord, who has believed our report?
10:17 So then faith comes by hearing, and hearing by the word of God.
10:18 But I say, Have they not heard? yes truly, their sound went into all the earth, and their words to the ends of the world.
10:19 But I say, Did not Israel know? First Moses says, I will provoke you to jealousy by them that are not a people, and by a foolish nation I will anger you.
10:20 But Isaiah is very bold, and says, I was found of them that sought me not; I was made manifest to them that asked not after me.
10:21 But to Israel he says, all day long I have stretched forth my hands to a disobedient and obstinate people.

Chapter 11

11:1 I say then, Has God cast away his people? By no means. For I also am an Israelite, of the seed of Abraham, of the tribe of Benjamin.
11:2 God has not cast away his people which he foreknew. Do you not know what the scripture says of Elijah? how he appeals to God against Israel saying,
11:3 Lord, they have killed your prophets, and dug down your altars; and I alone am left, and they seek my life.
11:4 But what says the answer of God to him? I have reserved for myself seven thousand men, who have not bowed the knee to the image of Baal.
11:5 Even so then at this present time also there is a remnant according to the election of grace.
11:6 And if by grace, then is it no more of works: otherwise grace is no longer grace. But if it be of works, then it is no more grace: otherwise work is no longer work.
11:7 What then? Israel has not obtained that which he seeks for; but the elect have obtained it, and the rest were blinded.

11:8 (According as it is written, God has given them the spirit of slumber, eyes that they should not see, and ears that they should not hear;) to this day.
11:9 And David says, Let their table be made a snare, and a trap, and a stumbling block, and a recompense to them:
11:10 Let their eyes be darkened, that they may not see, and bow down their back always.
11:11 I say then, Have they stumbled that they should fall? By no means: but rather through their fall, salvation is come to the Gentiles, for to provoke them to jealousy.
11:12 Now if the fall of them be the riches of the world, and the diminishing of them the riches of the Gentiles; how much more their fullness?
11:13 For I speak to you Gentiles, inasmuch as I am the apostle of the Gentiles, I magnify my office:
11:14 If by any means I may provoke to jealousy those who are my flesh, and might save some of them.
11:15 For if the casting away of them be the reconciling of the world, what shall the receiving of them be, but life from the dead?
11:16 For if the first fruit be holy, the lump is also holy: and if the root be holy, so are the branches.
11:17 And if some of the branches be broken off, and you, being a wild olive tree, were grafted in among them, and with them partake of the root and fatness of the olive tree;
11:18 Boast not against the branches. But if you boast, you do not bear the root, but the root bears you.
11:19 You will say then, The branches were broken off, that I might be grafted in.
11:20 Fine; because of unbelief they were broken off, and you stand by faith. Be not high minded, but fear:
11:21 For if God spared not the natural branches, take heed lest he also not spare you.
11:22 Behold therefore the goodness and severity of God: on those who fell, severity; but toward you, goodness, if you continue in his goodness: otherwise you also shall be cut off.
11:23 And they also, if they abide not still in unbelief, shall be grafted in: for God is able to graft them in again.
11:24 For if you were cut out of the olive tree which is wild by nature, and were grafted contrary to nature into a good olive tree: how much more shall these, which are the natural branches, be grafted into their own olive tree?
11:25 For I do not want you to be ignorant of this mystery, brothers, lest you should be wise in your own conceits: That blindness in part is happened to Israel, until the fullness of the Gentiles be come in.
11:26 And in this way all Israel shall be saved. As it is written, There shall come out of Zion the Deliverer, and shall turn away ungodliness from Jacob:
11:27 For this is my covenant with them, when I shall take away their sins.
11:28 As concerning the gospel, they are enemies for your sakes: but as concerning election, they are beloved for the fathers' sakes.
11:29 For the gifts and calling of God are without change of mind.
11:30 For as you in times past have not believed God, yet have now obtained mercy through their unbelief:
11:31 Even so have these also now not believed, that through your mercy they also may obtain mercy.
11:32 For God has bound them all in unbelief, that he might have mercy upon all.
11:33 O the depth of the riches both of the wisdom and knowledge of God! how unsearchable his judgments, and his ways past finding out!
11:34 For who has known the mind of the Lord? or who has been his counselor?
11:35 Or who has first given to Him, such that it could be payed back to him?
11:36 For from him, and through him, and to him, are all things: to whom be glory forever. Amen.

Chapter 12

12:1 I beseech you therefore, brothers, by the mercies of God, that you present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable to God, which is your reasonable service.
12:2 And be not conformed to this world: but be transformed by the renewing of your mind, that you may prove what is that good, and acceptable, and perfect, will of God.
12:3 For I say, through the grace given to me, to everyone that is among you, not to think of himself more highly than he ought to think; but to think soberly, according as God has dealt to each one the measure of faith.
12:4 For as we have many members in one body, and all members have not the same function:
12:5 So we, being many, are one body in Christ, and every one members one of another.
12:6 Having then gifts differing according to the grace that is given to us, whether prophecy, let us prophesy according to the proportion of faith;
12:7 Or ministry, let us wait on our ministering: or he that teaches, on teaching;
12:8 Or he that exhorts, on exhortation: he that gives, let him do it with simplicity; he that rules, with diligence; he that shows mercy, with cheerfulness.
12:9 Let love be without pretention. Abhor that which is evil; cleave to that which is good.
12:10 Be kindly affectioned one to another with brotherly love; in honor preferring one another;
12:11 Not lagging in diligence; fervent in spirit; serving the Lord;
12:12 Rejoicing in hope; patient in tribulation; continuing instant in prayer;
12:13 Distributing to the need of saints; given to hospitality.
12:14 Bless those who persecute you: bless, and curse not.
12:15 Rejoice with them that do rejoice, and weep with them that weep.
12:16 Be of the same mind one toward another. Mind not only high things, but be conversant with men of low estate. Be not wise in your own conceits.
12:17 Return to no man evil for evil. Have regard for what is right in the view of all men.
12:18 If it be possible, as much as lies in you, live peaceably with all men.
12:19 Dearly beloved, avenge not yourselves, but rather leave room for wrath: for it is written, Vengeance is mine; I will repay, says the Lord.
12:20 Therefore if your enemy hungers, feed him; if he thirsts, give him a drink: for in so doing you shall heap coals of fire on his head.
12:21 Be not overcome by evil, but overcome evil with good.

Chapter 13

13:1 Let every soul be subject to the higher powers. For there is no power but of God: the powers that be are ordained by God.
13:2 Whoever therefore resists the power, resists the ordinance of God: and they that resist shall receive to themselves damnation.
13:3 For rulers are not a terror to good works, but to the evil. Wish you then not be afraid of the power? do that which is good, and you shall have praise of the same:
13:4 For he is the minister of God to you for good. But if you do that which is evil, be afraid; for he bears not the sword in vain: for he is the minister of God, a revenger to execute wrath upon him that does evil.
13:5 Therefore you must be subject, not only for wrath, but also for conscience sake.
13:6 For for this cause you pay tribute tax also: for they are God's ministers, attending continually upon this very thing.
13:7 Render therefore to all their dues: tribute to whom tribute is due; custom to whom custom; fear to whom fear; honor to whom honor.
13:8 Owe no man any thing, but to love one another: for he that loves another has fulfilled the law.

13:9 For this, You shall not commit adultery, You shall not murder, You shall not steal, You shall not bear false witness, You shall not covet; and if there be any other commandment, it is briefly comprehended in this saying, namely, You shall love your neighbor as yourself.
13:10 Love works no ill to his neighbor: therefore love is the fulfilling of the law.
13:11 And that, knowing the time, that now it is high time to awake out of sleep: for now is our salvation nearer than when we believed.
13:12 The night is far spent, the day is at hand: let us therefore cast off the works of darkness, and let us put on the armour of light.
13:13 Let us walk honestly, as in the day; not in rioting and drunkenness, not in promiscuity and wantonness, not in strife and envying.
13:14 But put you on the Lord Jesus Christ, and make not provision for the flesh, to fulfill the lusts of it.

Chapter 14

14:1 Receive him that is weak in the faith, but not to doubtful disputations.
14:2 For one believes that he may eat all things: another, who is weak, eats herbs.
14:3 Let not him that eats something despise him that does not eat it; and let not him which does not eat, judge him that eats: for God has received him.
14:4 Who are you that judges another man's servant? to his own master he stands or falls. Yes, he shall be held up: for God is able to make him stand.
14:5 One man esteems one day above another: another esteems every day alike. Let every man be fully persuaded in his own mind.
14:6 He that regards the day, regards it to the Lord; and he that regards not the day, to the Lord he does not regard it. He that eats, eats to the Lord, for he gives God thanks; and he that eats not, to the Lord he eats not, and gives God thanks.
14:7 For none of us lives to himself, and no man dies to himself.
14:8 For whether we live, we live to the Lord; and whether we die, we die to the Lord: whether we live therefore, or die, we are the Lord's.
14:9 For to this end Christ both died, and rose, and revived, that he might be Lord both of the dead and the living.
14:10 But why do you judge your brother? or why do you set at nought your brother? for we shall all stand before the judgment seat of Christ.
14:11 For it is written, as I live, says the Lord, every knee shall bow to me, and every tongue shall confess to God.
14:12 So then every one of us shall give account of himself to God.
14:13 Let us not therefore judge one another any more: but judge this rather, that no man put a stumbling block or an occasion to fall in his brother's way.
14:14 I know, and am persuaded by the Lord Jesus, that there is nothing unclean of itself: but to him that esteems any thing to be unclean, to him it is unclean.
14:15 But if your brother be grieved with your food, now you do not walk with love. Do not destroy him with your food, for whom Christ died.
14:16 Let not then your good be evil spoken of:
14:17 For the kingdom of God is not food and drink; but righteousness, and peace, and joy in the Holy Spirit.
14:18 For he that in these things serves Christ is acceptable to God, and approved by men.
14:19 Let us therefore follow after the things which make for peace, and things with which one may edify another.
14:20 For food destroy not the work of God. All things indeed are pure; but it is evil for that man who eats with offense.
14:21 It is good neither to eat flesh, nor to drink wine, nor any thing whereby your brother stumbles, or is offended, or is made weak.
14:22 Have you faith? have it to yourself before God. Happy is he that condemns not himself in that thing which he allows.
14:23 But he that doubts is condemned if he eats, because he eats not of faith: for whatsoever is not of faith is sin.

Chapter 15

15:1 We then that are strong ought to bear the infirmities of the weak, and not to please ourselves.
15:2 Let every one of us please his neighbor for his good to edification.
15:3 For even Christ pleased not himself; but, as it is written, The reproaches of them that reproached you fell on me.
15:4 For whatsoever things were written earlier were written for our learning, that we through patience and comfort of the scriptures might have hope.
15:5 Now the God of patience and consolation grant you to be likeminded one toward another according to Christ Jesus:
15:6 That you may with one mind and one mouth glorify God, even the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ.
15:7 Therefore receive ye one another, as Christ also received us to the glory of God.
15:8 Now I say that Jesus Christ was a minister of the circumcision for the truth of God, to confirm the promises made to the fathers:
15:9 And that the Gentiles might glorify God for his mercy; as it is written, For this cause I will confess to you among the Gentiles, and sing to your name.
15:10 And again he says, Rejoice, you Gentiles, with his people.
15:11 And again, Praise the Lord, all you Gentiles; and laud him, all you people.
15:12 And again, Isaiah says, There shall be a root of Jesse, and he that shall rise to reign over the Gentiles; in him shall the Gentiles trust.
15:13 Now the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace in believing, that you may abound in hope, through the power of the Holy Spirit.
15:14 And I myself also am persuaded of you, my brothers, that you also are full of goodness, filled with all knowledge, able also to admonish one another.
15:15 Nevertheless, brothers, I have written the more boldly to you in some sort, as putting you in mind, because of the grace that is given to me from God,
15:16 That I should be the minister of Jesus Christ to the Gentiles, ministering the gospel of God, that the offering up of the Gentiles might be acceptable, being sanctified by the Holy Spirit.
15:17 I have therefore about which I may glory through Jesus Christ in those things which pertain to God.
15:18 For I will not dare to speak of any of those things which Christ has not wrought by me, to make the Gentiles obedient, by word and deed,
15:19 Through mighty signs and wonders, by the power of the Spirit of God; so that from Jerusalem, and round about to Illyricum, I have fully preached the gospel of Christ.
15:20 Yes, so have I strived to preach the gospel, not where Christ was named, lest I should build upon another man's foundation:
15:21 But as it is written, To whom he was not spoken of, they shall see: and they that have not heard shall understand.
15:22 For which cause also I have been much hindered from coming to you.
15:23 But now having no more place in these parts, and having a great desire these many years to come to you;
15:24 Whensoever I take my journey into Spain, I will come to you: for I trust to see you in my journey, and to be brought on my way to there by you, if first I be somewhat filled with your company.
15:25 But now I go to Jerusalem to minister to the saints.
15:26 For it has pleased them of Macedonia and Achaia to make a certain contribution for the poor saints which are at Jerusalem.
15:27 It has pleased them truly; and their debtors they are. For if the Gentiles have been made partakers of their spiritual things, their duty is also to minister to them in carnal things.
15:28 When therefore I have performed this, and have sealed to them this fruit, I will come by you into Spain.
15:29 And I am sure that, when I come to you, I shall come in the fullness of the blessing of the gospel of Christ.

15:30 Now I beseech you, brothers, for the Lord Jesus Christ's sake, and for the love of the Spirit, that you strive together with me in your prayers to God for me;
15:31 That I may be delivered from them that do not believe in Judaea; and that my service which I have for Jerusalem may be accepted of the saints;
15:32 That I may come to you with joy by the will of God, and may with you be refreshed.
15:33 Now the God of peace be with you all. Amen.

Chapter 16

16:1 I commend to you Phoebe our sister, which is a servant of the church which is at Cenchrea:
16:2 That you receive her in the Lord, as becomes saints, and that you assist her in whatsoever business she has need of you: for she has been a helper of many, and of myself also.
16:3 Greet Priscilla and Aquila my helpers in Christ Jesus:
16:4 Who have for my life laid down their own necks: to whom not only I give thanks, but also all the churches of the Gentiles.
16:5 Likewise greet the church that is in their house. Salute my well-beloved Epaenetus, who is the first fruits of Achaia to Christ.
16:6 Greet Mary, who bestowed much labor on us.
16:7 Salute Andronicus and Junia, my kinsmen, and my fellow prisoners, who are well known to the apostles, and were in Christ before me.
16:8 Greet Amplias my beloved in the Lord.
16:9 Salute Urbane, our helper in Christ, and Stachys my beloved.
16:10 Salute Apelles approved in Christ. Salute those who are of Aristobulus' household.
16:11 Salute Herodion my kinsman. Greet them that be of the household of Narcissus, which are in the Lord.
16:12 Salute Tryphena and Tryphosa, who labor in the Lord. Salute the beloved Persis, which labored much in the Lord.
16:13 Salute Rufus chosen in the Lord, and his mother and mine.
16:14 Salute Asyncritus, Phlegon, Hermas, Patrobas, Hermes, and the brothers which are with them.
16:15 Salute Philologus, and Julia, Nereus, and his sister, and Olympas, and all the saints which are with them.
16:16 Salute one another with a holy kiss. The churches of Christ salute you.
16:17 Now I beseech you, brothers, mark those who cause divisions and offenses contrary to the doctrine which you have learned; and avoid them.
16:18 For they that are such serve not our Lord Jesus Christ, but their own belly; and by good words and fair speeches deceive the hearts of the simple.
16:19 For your obedience is come abroad to all men. I am glad therefore on your behalf: but yet I would have you wise to that which is good, and simple concerning evil.
16:20 And the God of peace shall bruise Satan under your feet shortly. The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you. Amen.
16:21 Timotheus my fellow worker, and Lucius, and Jason, and Sosipater, my kinsmen, salute you.
16:22 I Tertius, who wrote this epistle, salute you in the Lord.
16:23 Gaius my host, and of the whole church, salutes you. Erastus the chamberlain of the city salutes you, and Quartus a brother.
16:24 The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all. Amen.
16:25 Now to him that is of power to establish you according to my gospel, and the preaching of Jesus Christ, according to the revelation of the mystery, which was kept secret since the world began,
16:26 But now is made manifest, and by the scriptures of the prophets, according to the commandment of the everlasting God, made known to all nations for the obedience of faith:
16:27 To God only wise, be glory through Jesus Christ forever. Amen.

The First Epistle of Paul the Apostle to the Corinthians

1 Corinthians

Chapter 1

1:1 Paul, called to be an apostle of Jesus Christ through the will of God, and Sosthenes our brother,
1:2 to the church of God which is at Corinth, to them that are sanctified in Christ Jesus, called to be saints, with all who in every place call upon the name of Jesus Christ our Lord, both theirs and ours:
1:3 Grace be to you, and peace, from God our Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ.
1:4 I thank my God always on your behalf, for the grace of God which is given you by Jesus Christ;
1:5 That in everything you are enriched by him, in all utterance, and in all knowledge;
1:6 Just as the testimony of Christ was confirmed in you:
1:7 So that you are lacking in no gift; waiting for the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ:
1:8 Who shall also confirm you to the end, that you may be blameless in the day of our Lord Jesus Christ.
1:9 God is faithful, by whom you were called to the fellowship of his Son Jesus Christ our Lord.
1:10 Now I beseech you, brothers, by the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that you all speak the same thing, and that there be no divisions among you; but that you be perfectly joined together in the same mind and in the same judgment.
1:11 For it has been declared to me about you, my brothers, by those who are of the house of Chloe, that there are contentions among you.
1:12 Now this I say, that each of you says, I am of Paul; and I of Apollos; and I of Cephas; and I of Christ.
1:13 Is Christ divided? was Paul crucified for you? or were you baptized in the name of Paul?
1:14 I thank God that I baptized none of you, except Crispus and Gaius;
1:15 Lest any should say that I had baptized in my own name.
1:16 And I baptized also the household of Stephanas: besides that, I know not whether I baptized anyone else.
1:17 For Christ sent me not to baptize, but to preach the gospel: not with wisdom of words, lest the cross of Christ be made of no effect.
1:18 For the preaching of the cross is to them that perish foolishness; but to us which are saved it is the power of God.
1:19 For it is written, I will destroy the wisdom of the wise, and bring to nothing the understanding of the prudent.
1:20 Where is the wise? where is the scribe? where is the disputer of this world? has not God made foolish the wisdom of this world?
1:21 For since in the wisdom of God the world by wisdom did not know God, it pleased God by the foolishness of preaching to save them that believe.
1:22 For the Jews require a sign, and the Greeks seek after wisdom:
1:23 But we preach Christ crucified, to the Jews a stumbling block, and to the Greeks foolishness;
1:24 But to those who are called, both Jews and Greeks, Christ the power of God, and the wisdom of God.
1:25 Because the foolishness of God is wiser than men; and the weakness of God is stronger than men.
1:26 For you see your calling, brothers, that not many wise men after the flesh, not many mighty, not many noble, are called:
1:27 But God has chosen the foolish things of the world to confound the wise; and God has chosen the weak things of the world to confound the things that are mighty;
1:28 And base things of the world, and things that are despised, has God chosen, yes, and things which are not, to bring to nothing things that are:

1:29 So that no flesh should glory in his presence.
1:30 But of him are you in Christ Jesus, who of God is made unto us wisdom, and righteousness, and sanctification, and redemption:
1:31 That, according as it is written, He that glories, let him glory in the Lord.

Chapter 2

2:1 And I, brothers, when I came to you, came not with excellence of speech or of wisdom, declaring to you the testimony of God.
2:2 For I determined not to know any thing among you, except Jesus Christ, and him crucified.
2:3 And I was with you in weakness, and in fear, and in much trembling.
2:4 And my speech and my preaching were not with enticing words of man's wisdom, but in demonstration of the Spirit and of power:
2:5 That your faith should not stand in the wisdom of men, but in the power of God.
2:6 Yet we speak wisdom among those who are mature: but not the wisdom of this world, nor of the princes of this world, that come to nothing:
2:7 But we speak the wisdom of God in a mystery, even the hidden wisdom, which God ordained before the world to our glory:
2:8 Which none of the princes of this world knew: for had they known it, they would not have crucified the Lord of glory.
2:9 But as it is written, eye has not seen, nor ear heard, neither have entered into the heart of man, the things which God has prepared for them that love him.
2:10 But God has revealed them to us by his Spirit: for the Spirit searches all things, even the deep things of God.
2:11 For what man knows the things of a man, except the spirit of the man which is in him? So also the things of God no man knows, except the Spirit of God.
2:12 Now we have received, not the spirit of the world, but the spirit which is of God; that we might know the things that are freely given to us of God.
2:13 Which things also we speak, not in the words which man's wisdom teaches, but which the Holy Spirit teaches; comparing spiritual things with spiritual.
2:14 But the natural man receives not the things of the Spirit of God: for they are foolishness to him: neither can he know them, because they are spiritually discerned.
2:15 But he that is spiritual judges all things, yet he himself is judged by no man.
2:16 For who has known the mind of the Lord, that he may instruct him? But we have the mind of Christ.

Chapter 3

3:1 And I, brothers, could not speak to you as to spiritual, but as to carnal, as to babes in Christ.
3:2 I have fed you with milk, and not with food: for until now you were not able to bear it, but neither now are you able still.
3:3 For you are still carnal: for since there is among you envying, and strife, and divisions, are you not carnal, and walking as men?
3:4 For when one says, I am of Paul; and another, I am of Apollos; are you not carnal?
3:5 Who then is Paul, and who is Apollos, but ministers by whom you believed, as the Lord has given to each?
3:6 I have planted, apollos watered; but God gave the increase.
3:7 So then neither is he that plants any thing, neither he that waters; but God who gives the increase.
3:8 Now he that plants and he that waters are one: and every man shall receive his own reward according to his own labor.
3:9 For we are laborers together with God: you are God's farming, you are God's building.
3:10 According to the grace of God which is given to me, as a wise master builder, I have laid the foundation, and another one builds on it. But let every man take heed how he builds upon it.

3:11 For other foundation no man can lay but what is laid, which is Jesus Christ.
3:12 Now if any man builds upon this foundation gold, silver, precious stones, wood, hay, stubble;
3:13 Every man's work shall be made manifest, for the day shall declare it, because it shall be revealed by fire; and the fire shall try every man's work of what sort it is.
3:14 If any man's work abides which he has built upon it, he shall receive a reward.
3:15 If any man's work shall be burned, he shall suffer loss: but he himself shall be saved; yet so as by fire.
3:16 Do you not know that you are the temple of God, and that the Spirit of God dwells in you?
3:17 If any man defiles the temple of God, him shall God destroy; for the temple of God is holy, which temple you are.
3:18 Let no man deceive himself. If any man among you seems to be wise in this world, let him become a fool, that he may be wise.
3:19 For the wisdom of this world is foolishness with God. For it is written, He takes the wise in their own craftiness.
3:20 And again, The Lord knows the thoughts of the wise, that they are vain.
3:21 Therefore let no man glory in men. For all things are yours;
3:22 Whether Paul, or Apollos, or Cephas, or the world, or life, or death, or things present, or things to come; all are yours;
3:23 And you are Christ's; and Christ is God's.

Chapter 4

4:1 Let a man so account of us, as of the ministers of Christ, and stewards of the mysteries of God.
4:2 Moreover it is required in stewards, that a man be found faithful.
4:3 But with me it is a very small thing that I be judged by you, or by man's judgment: neither judge I even my own self.
4:4 For I know nothing by myself; yet I am not hereby justified; but he who judges me is the Lord.
4:5 Therefore judge nothing before the time, until the Lord comes, who both will bring to light the hidden things of darkness, and will make manifest the counsels of the hearts: and then shall each man have praise from God.
4:6 And these things, brothers, I have in a figure transferred to myself and to Apollos for your sakes; that you might learn in us not to think of men above that which is written, so that no one of you be puffed up for one against another.
4:7 For who makes you differ from another? and what do you have that you did not receive? now if you did receive it, why do you glory, as if you had not received it?
4:8 Now you are full, now you are rich, you have reigned as kings without us: and I wish to God that you did reign, that we also might reign with you.
4:9 For I think that God has set forth us the apostles last, as it were appointed to death: for we are made a spectacle to the world, and to angels, and to men.
4:10 We are fools for Christ's sake, but you are wise in Christ; we are weak, but you are strong; you are honorable, but we are despised.
4:11 Even to this present hour we both hunger, and thirst, and are naked, and are buffeted, and have no steady dwelling place;
4:12 And labor, working with our own hands. Though reviled, we bless; though persecuted, we bear it:
4:13 Though defamed, we entreat: we are made as the filth of the world, and are the offscouring of all things to this day.
4:14 I do not write these things to shame you, but as my beloved sons I warn you.
4:15 For though you have ten thousand instructors in Christ, yet have you not many fathers: for in Christ Jesus I have begotten you through the gospel.
4:16 Therefore I beseech you, be followers of me.
4:17 For this cause have I sent to you Timotheus, who is my beloved son, and faithful in the Lord, who shall bring you into remembrance of my ways which be in Christ, as I teach every where in every church.

4:18 Now some are puffed up, as though I would not come to you.
4:19 But I will come to you shortly, if the Lord will, and will know, not the speech of those who are puffed up, but the power.
4:20 For the kingdom of God is not in word, but in power.
4:21 What do you wish? shall I come to you with a rod, or in love, and in the spirit of meekness?

Chapter 5

5:1 It is reported commonly that there is sexual immorality among you, and such sexual immorality as is not so much as named among the Gentiles, that one should have his father's wife.
5:2 And you are puffed up, and have not instead mourned, that he that has done this deed might be taken away from among you.
5:3 For I indeed, as absent in body, but present in spirit, have judged already, as though I were present, concerning him that has so done this deed.
5:4 In the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, when you are gathered together, and my spirit, with the power of our Lord Jesus Christ,
5:5 You are to deliver such a one to Satan for the destruction of the flesh, that the spirit may be saved in the day of the Lord Jesus.
5:6 Your glorying is not good. Do you not know that a little leaven leavens the whole lump?
5:7 Purge out therefore the old leaven, that you may be a new lump, as you are unleavened. For even Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us:
5:8 Therefore let us keep the feast, not with old leaven, neither with the leaven of malice and wickedness; but with the unleavened bread of sincerity and truth.
5:9 I wrote to you in an epistle not to keep company with fornicators:
5:10 yet not at all meaning with the fornicators of this world, or with its covetous or extortioners, or with its idolaters; for then you would have to leave out of the world.
5:11 But rather I have written to you not to keep company if any man that is called a brother be a fornicator, or covetous, or an idolater, or a railer, or a drunkard, or an extortioner; with such a one not even to eat.
5:12 For what have I to do with juding them also that are outside? do you not judge them that are inside?
5:13 But them that are outside God judges. Therefore put away from among yourselves that wicked person.

Chapter 6

6:1 Dare any of you, having a matter against another, go to law before the unjust, and not before the saints?
6:2 Do you not know that the saints shall judge the world? and if the world shall be judged by you, are you unworthy to judge the smallest matters?
6:3 Do you not know that we shall judge angels? how much more things that pertain to this life?
6:4 If then you have judgments of things pertaining to this life, set even those to judge who are least esteemed in the church.
6:5 I say this to your shame. Is it so, that there is not a wise man among you? Not even one, that shall be able to judge between his brothers?
6:6 But brother goes to law with brother, and that before the unbelievers.
6:7 Now therefore there is utterly a fault among you, because you go to law with one another. Why do you not rather accept wrong? why do you not rather permit yourselves to be defrauded?
6:8 Instead, you do wrong, and defraud, and that your brothers.
6:9 Do you not know that the unrighteous shall not inherit the kingdom of God? Be not deceived: neither fornicators, nor idolaters, nor adulterers, nor male prostitutes, nor males who have sex with males,
6:10 Nor thieves, nor covetous, nor drunkards, nor revilers, nor extortioners shall inherit the kingdom of God.

6:11 And such were some of you: but you are washed, you are sanctified, you are justified in the name of the Lord Jesus, and by the Spirit of our God.
6:12 All things are lawful for me, but not all things are expedient. All things are lawful for me, but I will not be brought under the power of any.
6:13 Foods for the belly, and the belly for foods: but God shall destroy both it and them. Now the body is not for fornication, but for the Lord; and the Lord for the body.
6:14 And God has both raised up the Lord, and will also raise up us by his own power.
6:15 Do you not know that your bodies are the members of Christ? shall I then take the members of Christ, and make them the members of a harlot? May it never be!
6:16 What? do you not know that he which is joined to a harlot is one body? for two, says he, shall be one flesh.
6:17 But he that is joined to the Lord is one spirit.
6:18 Flee fornication. Every sin that a man does is outside the body; but he that commits fornication sins against his own body.
6:19 What? do you not know that your body is the temple of the Holy Spirit which is in you, which you have of God, and you are not your own?
6:20 For you are bought with a price: therefore glorify God in your body, and in your spirit, which are God's.

Chapter 7

7:1 Now concerning the things about which you wrote to me: It is good for a man not to touch a woman.
7:2 Nevertheless, to avoid fornication, let every man have his own wife, and let every woman have her own husband.
7:3 Let the husband render to the wife the sexual duty: and likewise also the wife to the husband.
7:4 The wife has not authority over her own body, but rather the husband: and likewise also the husband has not authority over his own body, but rather the wife.
7:5 Deprive ye not one the other, unless it be with mutual consent for a time in order to devote yourselves to fasting and prayer; then come together again, lest Satan tempt you for your lack of self control.
7:6 But I speak this by concession, and not by commandment.
7:7 For I wish that all men were just as I myself am. But every man has his proper gift from God, one after this manner, and another after that.
7:8 I say therefore to the unmarried and widows, It is good for them if they remain so, as I also remain.
7:9 But if they cannot contain, let them marry: for it is better to marry than to burn.
7:10 And to the married I command, yet not I, but the Lord, The wife must not depart from her husband:
7:11 But even if she departs, she must remain unmarried or be reconciled to her husband: and the husband must not put away his wife.
7:12 But to the rest speak I, not the Lord: If any brother has a wife that believes not, and she is pleased to dwell with him, let him not put her away.
7:13 And the woman which has a husband that believes not, and he is pleased to dwell with her, let her not leave him.
7:14 For the unbelieving husband is sanctified by the wife, and the unbelieving wife is sanctified by the husband: else your children would be unclean; but now are they holy.
7:15 But if the unbelieving departs, let him depart. A brother or a sister is not under bondage in such cases: but God has called us to peace.
7:16 For how do you know, O wife, whether you shall save your husband? or how do you know, O man, whether you shall save your wife?
7:17 But as God has distributed to every man, as the Lord has called every one, so let him walk. And so ordain I in all churches.

7:18 Was any man circumcised at the time of being called? let him not become uncircumcised. Was any in uncircumcision when called? let him not be circumcised.
7:19 Circumcision is nothing, and uncircumcision is nothing, but rather the keeping of the commandments of God.
7:20 Let every man remain in the same calling in which he was called.
7:21 Were you called while a slave? Let it not concern you; yet if you become able to be free, rather take advantage of it.
7:22 For he that is called in the Lord while being a slave, is the Lord's freeman: likewise also he that is called while being free, is Christ's slave.
7:23 Ye are bought with a price; be ye not the slaves of men.
7:24 Brethren, let every man, in the state in which he was called, in that remain with God.
7:25 Now concerning virgins I have no commandment of the Lord: yet I give my judgment, as one that has obtained mercy of the Lord to be faithful.
7:26 I suppose therefore that this is good for the present distress, I say, that it is good for a man so to be.
7:27 Are you bound to a wife? seek not to be loosed. Are you loosed from a wife? seek not a wife.
7:28 But even if you marry, you have not sinned; and if a virgin marries, she has not sinned. Nevertheless, such shall have trouble in the flesh, and I am trying to spare you this.
7:29 Now this I say, brothers, the time is short: for the remaining time, they also that have wives should live as though they had none;
7:30 And they that weep, as though they wept not; and they that rejoice, as though they rejoiced not; and they that buy, as though they possessed not;
7:31 And they that use this world, as not abusing it: for the fashion of this world passes away.
7:32 But I wish you to be free of care. He that is unmarried cares for the things that belong to the Lord, how he may please the Lord:
7:33 But he that is married cares for the things that are of the world, how he may please his wife.
7:34 There is difference also between a wife and a virgin. The unmarried woman cares for the things of the Lord, that she may be holy both in body and in spirit: but she that is married cares for the things of the world, how she may please her husband.
7:35 And this I speak for your own benefit; not that I may cast a snare upon you, but for that which is proper, and so you may attend upon the Lord without distraction.
7:36 But if any man thinks that he is conducting himself improperly toward his virgin, if she is past the flower of her age, and so it has to be, let him do what he will, he sins not: let them marry.
7:37 Nevertheless he that stands steadfast in his heart, having no necessity, but has power over his own will, and has so decreed in his heart that he will keep his virgin, he does well.
7:38 So then he that gives her in marriage does well; but he that gives her not in marriage does better.
7:39 The wife is bound by the law as long as her husband lives; but if her husband be dead, she is at liberty to be married to whom she will; only in the Lord.
7:40 But she is happier if she so remains, after my judgment: and I think also that I have the Spirit of God.

Chapter 8

8:1 Now as touching things offered to idols, we know that we all have knowledge. Knowledge puffs up, but love edifies.
8:2 And if any man thinks that he knows any thing, he knows nothing yet as he ought to know.
8:3 But if any man loves God, this one is known by Him.

8:4 As concerning therefore the eating of those things that are offered in sacrifice to idols, we know that an idol is nothing in the world, and that there is no other God but one.
8:5 For though there do exist what are called gods, whether in heaven or in earth, (as there be gods many, and lords many,)
8:6 Yet to us there is but one God, the Father, of whom are all things, and we in him; and one Lord Jesus Christ, by whom are all things, and we by him.
8:7 But there is not in every man that knowledge: for some with conscience of the idol to this hour eat it as a thing offered to an idol; and their conscience being weak is defiled.
8:8 But food commends us not to God: for neither if we eat, are we the better; nor if we eat not, are we the worse.
8:9 But take heed lest by some means this liberty of yours becomes a stumbling block to them that are weak.
8:10 For if someone sees you who have knowledge sit at food in the idol's temple, shall not the conscience of him which is weak be emboldened to eat those things which are offered to idols;
8:11 And through your knowledge shall the weak brother perish, for whom Christ died?
8:12 But when you sin in this manner against the brothers, and wound their weak conscience, you sin against Christ.
8:13 Therefore, if food causes my brother to stumble, I will eat no flesh while the world stands, lest I cause my brother to stumble.

Chapter 9

9:1 Am I not an apostle? am I not free? have I not seen Jesus Christ our Lord? are not you my work in the Lord?
9:2 If I be not an apostle to others, yet doubtless I am to you: for the seal of mine apostleship are you in the Lord.
9:3 Mine answer to them that do examine me is this,
9:4 Have we not power to eat and to drink?
9:5 Have we not power to lead about a sister, a wife, as well as other apostles, and as the brothers of the Lord, and Cephas?
9:6 Or I only and Barnabas, have not we the right to refrain from working?
9:7 Who goes to warfare any time at his own expense? who plants a vineyard, and eats not of the fruit of it? or who feeds a flock, and eats not of the milk of the flock?
9:8 Say I these things as a man? or says not the law the same also?
9:9 For it is written in the law of Moses, You shall not muzzle the mouth of the ox that treads out the corn. Is God taking care for oxen?
9:10 Or is he saying it altogether for our sakes? It is for our sakes, no doubt, this is written: that he who plows should plow in hope; and that he who threshes in hope should be partaker of his hope.
9:11 If we have sown to you spiritual things, is it a great thing if we shall reap your carnal things?
9:12 If others be partakers of this power over you, are not we more so? Nevertheless we have not used this power; but bear all things, lest we should hinder the gospel of Christ.
9:13 Do you not know that they which minister about holy things live off the things of the temple? and they which wait at the altar are partakers with the altar?
9:14 Even so has the Lord ordained that they which preach the gospel should live off the gospel.
9:15 But I have used none of these things: neither have I written these things that it might be done so for me: for it would be better to me to die, than that any man should make my glorying void.
9:16 For though I preach the gospel, I have nothing to glory of: for necessity is laid upon me; yes, woe to me, if I preach not the gospel!

9:17 For if I do this thing willingly, I have a reward: but if against my will, a dispensation of the gospel is committed to me.
9:18 What is my reward then? it is that, when I preach the gospel, I may make the gospel of Christ free of charge, that I abuse not my power in the gospel.
9:19 For though I am free from all men, yet have I made myself servant to all, that I might gain the more.
9:20 And to the Jews I became as a Jew, that I might gain the Jews; to them that are under the law, as under the law, that I might gain them that are under the law;
9:21 To them that are without law, as without law, (being not without law to God, but under the law to Christ,) that I might gain them that are without law.
9:22 To the weak became I as weak, that I might gain the weak: I am made all things to all men, that I might by all means save some.
9:23 And this I do for the gospel's sake, that I might be partaker of it with you.
9:24 Do you not know that they which run in a race all run, but one receives the prize? Run in such a manner that you will obtain it.
9:25 And every man that strives for the mastery is temperate in all things. Now they do it to obtain a corruptible crown; but we an incorruptible.
9:26 I therefore so run, not as uncertainly; so fight I, not as one that beats the air:
9:27 But I keep my body under, and bring it into subjection: lest that by any means, when I have preached to others, I myself should be a castaway.

Chapter 10

10:1 Moreover, brothers, I would not have you be ignorant, how that all our fathers were under the cloud, and all passed through the sea;
10:2 And were all baptized to Moses in the cloud and in the sea;
10:3 And did all eat the same spiritual food;
10:4 And did all drink the same spiritual drink: for they drank of that spiritual Rock that followed them: and that Rock was Christ.
10:5 But with many of them God was not well pleased: for they were overthrown in the wilderness.
10:6 Now these things were our examples, to the intent we should not lust after evil things, as they also lusted.
10:7 Neither be idolaters, as were some of them; as it is written, The people sat down to eat and drink, and rose up to play.
10:8 Neither let us commit fornication, as some of them committed, and fell in one day three and twenty thousand.
10:9 Neither let us tempt Christ, as some of them also tempted, and were destroyed by serpents.
10:10 Neither murmur, as some of them also murmured, and were destroyed by the destroyer.
10:11 Now all these things happened to them for examples: and they are written for our admonition, upon whom the ends of the world are come.
10:12 Therefore let him that thinks he stands take heed lest he fall.
10:13 There has no temptation taken you but such as is common to man: but God is faithful, who will not permit you to be tempted above what you are able; but will with the temptation also make a way to escape, that you may be able to bear it.
10:14 Therefore, my dearly beloved, flee from idolatry.
10:15 I speak as to wise men; judge what I say.
10:16 The cup of blessing which we bless, is it not the communion of the blood of Christ? The bread which we break, is it not the communion of the body of Christ?
10:17 For we being many are one bread, and one body: for we are all partakers of that one bread.
10:18 Behold Israel after the flesh: are not they which eat of the sacrifices partakers of the altar?
10:19 What say I then? that the idol is any thing, or that which is offered in sacrifice to idols is any thing?
10:20 But I say, that the things which the Gentiles sacrifice, they sacrifice to devils, and not to God: and I would not that you should have fellowship with devils.

10:21 You cannot drink the cup of the Lord, and the cup of devils: you cannot be partakers of the Lord's table, and of the table of devils.
10:22 Do we provoke the Lord to jealousy? are we stronger than he?
10:23 All things are lawful for me, but all things are not expedient: all things are lawful for me, but all things edify not.
10:24 Let no man seek his own good, but every man that of the other.
10:25 Whatsoever is sold in the meat market, that eat, asking no question for conscience sake:
10:26 For the earth is the Lord's, and the fullness of it.
10:27 If any of them that believe not invite you to a feast, and you be disposed to go; whatsoever is set before you, eat, asking no question for conscience sake.
10:28 But if any man says to you, "This is offered in sacrifice to idols," eat not for his sake who showed it, and for conscience sake: for the earth is the Lord's, and the fullness of it:
10:29 Conscience, I say, not your own, but of the other. For why should my liberty be condemned by another man's conscience?
10:30 For if I by grace am a partaker, why be evil spoken of for that for which I give thanks?
10:31 Whether therefore you eat, or drink, or whatsoever you do, do all to the glory of God.
10:32 Give no one offense, neither to the Jews, nor to the Gentiles, nor to the church of God:
10:33 Just as I please all men in all things, not seeking my own profit, but the profit of many, that they may be saved.

Chapter 11

11:1 Be followers of me, just as I also am of Christ.
11:2 Now I praise you, brothers, that you remember me in all things, and keep the traditions, as I delivered them to you.
11:3 But I would have you know, that the head of every man is Christ; and the head of the woman is the man; and the head of Christ is God.
11:4 Every man praying or prophesying, having his head covered, dishonors his head.
11:5 But every woman that prays or prophesies with her head uncovered dishonors her head: for that is even all one as if she were shaven.
11:6 For if the woman be not covered, let her also be shorn: but if it be a shame for a woman to be shorn or shaven, let her be covered.
11:7 For a man indeed ought not to cover his head, forasmuch as he is the image and glory of God: but the woman is the glory of the man.
11:8 For the man is not of the woman: but the woman of the man.
11:9 Neither was the man created for the woman; but the woman for the man.
11:10 For this cause ought the woman to have authority on her head because of the angels.
11:11 Nevertheless neither is the man without the woman, neither the woman without the man, in the Lord.
11:12 For as the woman is of the man, even so is the man also born by the woman; but all things are of God.
11:13 Judge in yourselves: is it comely that a woman pray to God uncovered?
11:14 Does not even nature itself teach you, that, if a man has long hair, it is a shame to him?
11:15 But if a woman has long hair, it is a glory to her: for her hair is given her for a covering.
11:16 But if any man seem to be contentious, we have no such custom, neither the churches of God.
11:17 Now in this that I declare to you I praise you not, in that you come together not for the better, but for the worse.
11:18 For first of all, when you come together in the church, I hear that there be divisions among you; and I partly believe it.

11:19 For there must be also heresies among you, that they which are approved may be made manifest among you.
11:20 When you come together therefore into one place, this is not to eat the Lord's supper.
11:21 For in eating every one takes before other his own supper: and one is hungry, and another is drunken.
11:22 What? have you not houses to eat and to drink in? or do you despise the church of God, and shame them that have not? What shall I say to you? shall I praise you in this? I praise you not.
11:23 For I have received of the Lord that which also I delivered to you, That the Lord Jesus the same night in which he was betrayed took bread:
11:24 And when he had given thanks, he broke it, and said, Take, eat: this is my body, which is broken for you: this do in remembrance of me.
11:25 After the same manner also he took the cup, when he had supped, saying, This cup is the new testament in my blood: this do, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of me.
11:26 For as often as you eat this bread, and drink this cup, you do show the Lord's death till he comes.
11:27 Therefore whoever shall eat this bread, and drink this cup of the Lord, unworthily, shall be guilty of the body and blood of the Lord.
11:28 But let a man examine himself, and so let him eat of that bread, and drink of that cup.
11:29 For he that eats and drinks unworthily, eats and drinks damnation to himself, not discerning the Lord's body.
11:30 For this cause many are weak and sickly among you, and many sleep.
11:31 For if we would judge ourselves, we should not be judged.
11:32 But when we are judged, we are chastened of the Lord, that we should not be condemned with the world.
11:33 Therefore, my brothers, when you come together to eat, tarry one for another.
11:34 And if any man is hungry, let him eat at home; so that you not come together to condemnation. And the rest will I set in order when I come.

Chapter 12

12:1 Now concerning spiritual gifts, brothers, I would not have you ignorant.
12:2 You know that you were Gentiles, carried away to these dumb idols, just as you were led.
12:3 Therefore I give you to understand, that no man speaking by the Spirit of God calls Jesus accursed: and that no man can say that Jesus is the Lord, but by the Holy Spirit.
12:4 Now there are diversities of gifts, but the same Spirit.
12:5 And there are differences of administrations, but the same Lord.
12:6 And there are diversities of operations, but it is the same God which works all in all.
12:7 But the manifestation of the Spirit is given to every man for the profit of all.
12:8 For to one is given by the Spirit the word of wisdom; to another the word of knowledge by the same Spirit;
12:9 To another faith by the same Spirit; to another the gifts of healing by the same Spirit;
12:10 To another the working of miracles; to another prophecy; to another discerning of spirits; to another different kinds of tongues; to another the interpretation of tongues:
12:11 But all these works that one and the very same Spirit, dividing to every man severally as he will.
12:12 For as the body is one, and has many members, and all the members of that one body, being many, are one body: so also is Christ.
12:13 For by one Spirit are we all baptized into one body, whether we be Jews or Gentiles, whether we be bond or free; and have been all made to drink into one Spirit.

12:14 For the body is not one member, but many.
12:15 If the foot shall say, Because I am not the hand, I am not of the body; is it therefore not of the body?
12:16 And if the ear shall say, Because I am not the eye, I am not of the body; is it therefore not of the body?
12:17 If the whole body were an eye, where were the hearing? If the whole were hearing, where were the smelling?
12:18 But now has God set the members every one of them in the body, as it has pleased him.
12:19 And if they were all one member, where were the body?
12:20 But now are they many members, yet but one body.
12:21 And the eye cannot say to the hand, I have no need of you: nor again the head to the feet, I have no need of you.
12:22 No, much more those members of the body, which seem to be more feeble, are necessary:
12:23 And those members of the body, which we think to be less honorable, upon these we bestow more abundant honor; and our uncomely parts have more abundant comeliness.
12:24 For our comely parts have no need: but God has tempered the body together, having given more abundant honor to that part which lacked.
12:25 That there should be no schism in the body; but that the members should have the same care one for another.
12:26 And whether one member suffer, all the members suffer with it; or one member be honored, all the members rejoice with it.
12:27 Now you are the body of Christ, and members in particular.
12:28 And God has set some in the church, first apostles, secondarily prophets, thirdly teachers, after that miracles, then gifts of healings, helps, governments, diversities of tongues.
12:29 Are all apostles? are all prophets? are all teachers? are all workers of miracles?
12:30 Have all the gifts of healing? do all speak with tongues? do all interpret?
12:31 But covet earnestly the best gifts: and yet show I you a more excellent way.

Chapter 13

13:1 Though I speak with the tongues of men and of angels, and have not love, I am become as sounding brass, or a tinkling cymbal.
13:2 And though I have the gift of prophecy, and understand all mysteries, and all knowledge; and though I have all faith, so that I could remove mountains, and have not love, I am nothing.
13:3 And though I bestow all my goods to feed the poor, and though I give my body to be burned, and have not love, it profits me nothing.
13:4 Love suffers long, and is kind; love envies not; love vaunts not itself, is not puffed up,
13:5 Does not behave itself unseemly, seeks not its own, is not easily provoked, thinks no evil;
13:6 Rejoices not in iniquity, but rejoices in the truth;
13:7 Bears all things, believes all things, hopes all things, endures all things.
13:8 Love never fails: but whether there be prophecies, they shall fail; whether there be tongues, they shall cease; whether there be knowledge, it shall vanish away.
13:9 For we know in part, and we prophesy in part.
13:10 But when that which is perfect is come, then that which is in part shall be done away.
13:11 When I was a child, I spoke as a child, I understood as a child, I thought as a child: but when I became a man, I put away childish things.
13:12 For now we see through a glass, darkly; but then face to face: now I know in part; but then shall I know just as also I am known.
13:13 And now abide faith, hope, love, these three; but the greatest of these is love.

The First Epistle of Paul the Apostle to the Corinthians

Chapter 14

14:1 Follow after love, and desire spiritual gifts, but rather that you may prophesy.
14:2 For he that speaks in an unknown tongue speaks not to men, but to God: for no man understands him; howbeit in the spirit he speaks mysteries.
14:3 But he that prophesies speaks to men to edification, and exhortation, and comfort.
14:4 He that speaks in an unknown tongue edifies himself; but he that prophesies edifies the church.
14:5 I wish that you all spoke with tongues, but even more, that you prophesied: for greater is he that prophesies than he that speaks with tongues, unless he interprets, that the church may receive edifying.
14:6 Now, brothers, if I come to you speaking with tongues, what shall I profit you, unless I shall speak to you either by revelation, or by knowledge, or by prophesying, or by doctrine?
14:7 And even things without life that give sound, whether pipe or harp, unless they give a distinction in the sounds, how shall it be known what is piped or harped?
14:8 For if the trumpet gives an uncertain sound, who shall prepare himself for the battle?
14:9 So likewise you, unless you utter by the tongue words easy to be understood, how shall it be known what is spoken? for you shall speak into the air.
14:10 There are, it may be, so many kinds of voices in the world, and none of them is without signification.
14:11 Therefore if I do not know the meaning of the voice, I shall be to him that speaks a barbarian, and he that speaks shall be a barbarian to me.
14:12 Even so you, forasmuch as you are zealous for spiritual gifts, seek that you may excel to the edifying of the church.
14:13 Therefore let him that speaks in an unknown tongue pray that he may interpret.
14:14 For if I pray in an unknown tongue, my spirit prays, but my understanding is unfruitful.
14:15 What is it then? I will pray with the spirit, and I will pray with the understanding also: I will sing with the spirit, and I will sing with the understanding also.
14:16 Else when you shall bless with the spirit, how shall he that occupies the room of the unlearned say Amen at your giving of thanks, seeing he does not understand what you say?
14:17 For you may in fact give thanks well, but the other is not edified.
14:18 I thank my God, I speak with tongues more than you all:
14:19 yet in the church I would rather speak five words with my understanding, that by my voice I might teach others also, than ten thousand words in an unknown tongue.
14:20 Brethren, be not children in understanding: howbeit in malice be children, but in understanding be men.
14:21 In the law it is written, With men of other tongues and other lips will I speak to this people; and yet for all that they will not hear me, says the LORD.
14:22 Therefore tongues are for a sign, not to them that believe, but to them that believe not: but prophesying serves not for them that believe not, but for those who believe.
14:23 If therefore the whole church be come together into one place, and all speak with tongues, and there come in those that are unlearned, or unbelievers, will they not say that you are mad?
14:24 But if all prophesy, and there come in one that believes not, or one unlearned, he is convinced of all, he is judged of all:
14:25 And thus are the secrets of his heart made manifest; and so falling down on his face he will worship God, and report that God is in you of a truth.
14:26 What then is the conclusion, brothers? when you come together, every one of you has a psalm, has a doctrine, has a tongue, has a revelation, has an interpretation. Let it all be done to edifying.

14:27 If any man speak in an unknown tongue, let it be by two, or at the most by three, and that by course; and let one interpret.
14:28 But if there be no interpreter, let him keep silence in the church; and let him speak to himself, and to God.
14:29 Let the prophets speak two or three, and let the others judge.
14:30 If any thing be revealed to another that sits by, let the first hold his peace.
14:31 For you may all prophesy one by one, that all may learn, and all may be comforted.
14:32 And the spirits of the prophets are subject to the prophets.
14:33 For God is not the author of confusion, but of peace, as in all churches of the saints.
14:34 Let your women keep silence in the churches: for it is not permitted to them to speak; but they are commanded to be under obedience as also says the law.
14:35 And if they will learn any thing, let them ask their husbands at home: for it is a shame for women to speak in the church.
14:36 What? came the word of God out from you? or came it to you only?
14:37 If any man think himself to be a prophet, or spiritual, let him acknowledge that the things that I write to you are the commandments of the Lord.
14:38 But if any man be ignorant, let him be ignorant.
14:39 Therefore, brothers, covet to prophesy, and forbid not to speak with tongues.
14:40 Let all things be done decently and in order.

Chapter 15

15:1 Moreover, brothers, I declare to you the gospel which I preached to you, which also you have received, and in which you stand;
15:2 By which also you are saved, if you keep in memory what I preached to you, unless you have believed in vain.
15:3 For I delivered to you first of all that which I also received, that Christ died for our sins according to the scriptures;
15:4 And that he was buried, and that he rose again the third day according to the scriptures:
15:5 And that he was seen by Cephas, then by the twelve:
15:6 After that, he was seen by over five hundred brothers at one time; of whom the majority remain to this present time, but some are fallen asleep.
15:7 After that, he was seen by James; then by all the apostles.
15:8 And last of all he was seen by me also, as of one born out of due time.
15:9 For I am the least of the apostles, that am not suitable to be called an apostle, because I persecuted the church of God.
15:10 But by the grace of God I am what I am: and his grace which was bestowed upon me was not in vain; but I labored more abundantly than they all: yet not I, but the grace of God which was with me.
15:11 Therefore whether it were I or they, so we preach, and so you believed.
15:12 Now if Christ be preached that he rose from the dead, how say some among you that there is no resurrection of the dead?
15:13 But if there be no resurrection of the dead, then is Christ not risen:
15:14 And if Christ be not risen, then is our preaching vain, and your faith is also vain.
15:15 Yes, and we are found false witnesses of God; because we have testified of God that he raised up Christ: whom he raised not up, if so be that the dead rise not.
15:16 For if the dead rise not, then is not Christ raised:
15:17 And if Christ be not raised, your faith is vain; you are yet in your sins.
15:18 Then they also which are fallen asleep in Christ are perished.
15:19 If in this life only we have hope in Christ, we are of all men most miserable.
15:20 But now is Christ risen from the dead, and become the first fruits of them that slept.
15:21 For since by man came death, by man came also the resurrection of the dead.
15:22 For as in Adam all die, even so in Christ shall all be made alive.

15:23 But every man in his own order: Christ the first fruits; afterward they that are Christ's at his coming.
15:24 Then comes the end, when he shall have delivered up the kingdom to God, even the Father; when he shall have put down all rule and all authority and power.
15:25 For he must reign, till he has put all enemies under his feet.
15:26 The last enemy that shall be destroyed is death.
15:27 For he has put all things under his feet. But when he says all things are put under him, it is manifest that he is excepted, which did put all things under him.
15:28 And when all things shall be subdued to him, then shall the Son also himself be subject to him that put all things under him, that God may be all in all.
15:29 Else what shall they do which are baptized for the dead, if the dead rise not at all? why are they then baptized for the dead?
15:30 And why stand we in jeopardy every hour?
15:31 I protest by your rejoicing which I have in Christ Jesus our LORD, I die daily.
15:32 If after the manner of men I have fought with beasts at Ephesus, what advantages it me, if the dead rise not? let us eat and drink; for tomorrow we die.
15:33 Be not deceived: evil communications corrupt good manners.
15:34 Awake to righteousness, and sin not; for some have not the knowledge of God: I speak this to your shame.
15:35 But some man will say, How are the dead raised up? and with what body do they come?
15:36 You fool, that which you sow is not given life, unless it die:
15:37 And that which you sow, you do not sow that body that shall be, but bore grain, it may chance of wheat, or of some other grain:
15:38 But God gives it a body as it has pleased him, and to every seed his own body.
15:39 All flesh is not the same flesh: but there is one kind of flesh of men, another flesh of beasts, another of fishes, and another of birds.
15:40 There are also celestial bodies, and bodies terrestrial: but the glory of the celestial is one, and the glory of the terrestrial is another.
15:41 There is one glory of the sun, and another glory of the moon, and another glory of the stars: for one star differs from another star in glory.
15:42 So also is the resurrection of the dead. It is sown in corruption; it is raised in incorruption:
15:43 It is sown in dishonor; it is raised in glory: it is sown in weakness; it is raised in power:
15:44 It is sown a natural body; it is raised a spiritual body. There is a natural body, and there is a spiritual body.
15:45 And so it is written, The first man Adam was made a living soul; the last Adam was made a life-giving spirit.
15:46 Howbeit that was not first which is spiritual, but that which is natural; and afterward that which is spiritual.
15:47 The first man is of the earth, earthy; the second man is the Lord from heaven.
15:48 As is the earthy, such are they also that are earthy: and as is the heavenly, such are they also that are heavenly.
15:49 And as we have borne the image of the earthy, we shall also bear the image of the heavenly.
15:50 Now this I say, brothers, that flesh and blood cannot inherit the kingdom of God; neither does corruption inherit incorruption.
15:51 Behold, I show you a mystery; We shall not all sleep, but we shall all be changed,
15:52 In a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trump: for the trumpet shall sound, and the dead shall be raised incorruptible, and we shall be changed.
15:53 For this corruptible must put on incorruption, and this mortal must put on immortality.
15:54 So when this corruptible shall have put on incorruption, and this mortal shall have put on immortality, then shall be brought to pass the saying that is written, Death is swallowed up in victory.

15:55 O death, where is your sting? O grave, where is your victory?
15:56 The sting of death is sin; and the strength of sin is the law.
15:57 But thanks be to God, who gives us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ.
15:58 Therefore, my beloved brothers, be steadfast, unmovable, always abounding in the work of the Lord, forasmuch as you know that your labor is not in vain in the Lord.

Chapter 16

16:1 Now concerning the collection for the saints, as I have given the order to the churches of Galatia, even so should you do.
16:2 Upon the first day of the week let every one of you lay by him in store, as God has prospered him, that there be no gatherings when I come.
16:3 And when I come, whomsoever you shall approve by your letters, them will I send to bring your liberality to Jerusalem.
16:4 And if it be suitable that I go also, they shall go with me.
16:5 Now I will come to you, when I shall pass through Macedonia: for I do pass through Macedonia.
16:6 And it may be that I will abide, yes, and winter with you, that you may bring me on my journey to wheresoever I go.
16:7 For I will not see you now by the way; but I trust to tarry a while with you, if the Lord permit.
16:8 But I will tarry at Ephesus until Pentecost.
16:9 For a great and effective door is opened to me, and there are many adversaries.
16:10 Now if Timotheus come, see that he may be with you without fear: for he works the work of the Lord, as I also do.
16:11 Let no man therefore despise him: but conduct him forth in peace, that he may come to me: for I look for him with the brothers.
16:12 As touching our brother Apollos, I greatly desired him to come to you with the brothers: but his will was not at all to come at this time; but he will come when he shall have convenient time.
16:13 Be watchful, stand fast in the faith, comport yourselves like men, be strong.
16:14 Let all your things be done with love.
16:15 I beseech you, brothers, (you know the house of Stephanas, that it is the first fruits of Achaia, and that they have addicted themselves to the ministry of the saints,)
16:16 That you submit yourselves to such, and to every one that helps with us, and labors.
16:17 I am glad of the coming of Stephanas and Fortunatus and Achaicus: for that which was lacking on your part they have supplied.
16:18 For they have refreshed my spirit and yours: therefore acknowledge them that are such.
16:19 The churches of Asia salute you. Aquila and Priscilla salute you much in the Lord, with the church that is in their house.
16:20 All the brothers greet you. Greet one another with a holy kiss.
16:21 The salutation of me Paul with my own hand.
16:22 If anyone loves not the Lord Jesus Christ, let him be Anathema. Maranatha.
16:23 The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you.
16:24 My love be with you all in Christ Jesus. Amen.

Corinthians

2 Corinthians

Chapter 1

1:1 Paul, an apostle of Jesus Christ by the will of God, and Timothy our brother, to the church of God which is at Corinth, with all the saints which are in all Achaia:
1:2 Grace be to you, and peace, from God our Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ.
1:3 Blessed be God, even the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of mercies, and the God of all comfort;
1:4 Who comforts us in all our tribulation, that we may be able to comfort those who are in any trouble, by the comfort with which we ourselves are comforted by God.
1:5 For as the sufferings of Christ abound in us, so our consolation also abounds by Christ.
1:6 And whether we be afflicted, it is for your consolation and salvation, which is effective in the enduring of the same sufferings which we also suffer: or whether we be comforted, it is for your consolation and salvation.
1:7 And our hope of you is steadfast, knowing, that as you are partakers of the sufferings, so shall you be also of the consolation.
1:8 For we would not, brothers, have you ignorant of our trouble which came to us in Asia, that we were pressed out of measure, above strength, insomuch that we despaired even of life:
1:9 But we had the sentence of death in ourselves, that we should not trust in ourselves, but in God which raises the dead:
1:10 Who delivered us from so great a death, and does deliver: in whom we trust that he will yet deliver us;
1:11 You also helping together by prayer for us, that for the gift bestowed upon us by the means of many persons thanks may be given by many on our behalf.
1:12 For our rejoicing is this, the testimony of our conscience, that in simplicity and godly sincerity, not with fleshly wisdom, but by the grace of God, we have had our conduct in the world, and more abundantly toward you.
1:13 For we write no other things to you, than what you read or acknowledge; and I trust you shall acknowledge even to the end;
1:14 As also you have acknowledged us in part, that we are your rejoicing, even as you also are ours in the day of the Lord Jesus.
1:15 And in this confidence I was minded to come to you before, that you might have a second benefit;
1:16 And to pass by you into Macedonia, and to come again out of Macedonia to you, and of you to be brought on my way toward Judaea.
1:17 When I therefore was thus minded, did I use lightness? or the things that I purpose, do I purpose according to the flesh, that with me there should be yes yes, and no no?
1:18 But as God is true, our word toward you was not yes and no.
1:19 For the Son of God, Jesus Christ, who was preached among you by us, even by me and Silvanus and Timotheus, was not yes and no, but in him was yes.
1:20 For all the promises of God in him are yes, and in him Amen, to the glory of God by us.
1:21 Now he which establishes us with you in Christ, and has anointed us, is God;
1:22 Who has also sealed us, and given the earnest of the Spirit in our hearts.
1:23 Moreover I call God for a record upon my soul, that to spare you I came not as yet to Corinth.
1:24 Not for that we have dominion over your faith, but are helpers of your joy: for by faith you stand.

*The Second Epistle Of Paul The Apostle To The Corinthians

Chapter 2

2:1 But I determined this with myself, that I would not come again to you in heaviness.
2:2 For if I make you sorry, who is he then that makes me glad, but the same which is made sorry by me?
2:3 And I wrote this same to you, lest, when I came, I should have sorrow from them of whom I ought to rejoice; having confidence in you all, that my joy is the joy of you all.
2:4 For out of much affliction and anguish of heart I wrote to you with many tears; not that you should be grieved, but that you might know the love which I have more abundantly to you.
2:5 But if any have caused grief, he has not grieved me, but in part: that I may not overcharge you all.
2:6 Sufficient to such a man is this punishment, which was inflicted of many.
2:7 So that contrariwise you ought rather to forgive him, and comfort him, lest perhaps such a one should be swallowed up with overmuch sorrow.
2:8 Therefore I beseech you that you would confirm your love toward him.
2:9 For to this end also did I write, that I might know the proof of you, whether you be obedient in all things.
2:10 To whom you forgive any thing, I forgive also: for if I forgave any thing, to whom I forgave it, for your sakes forgave I it in the person of Christ;
2:11 Lest Satan should get an advantage of us: for we are not ignorant of his devices.
2:12 Furthermore, when I came to Troas to preach Christ's gospel, and a door was opened to me of the Lord,
2:13 I had no rest in my spirit, because I found not Titus my brother: but taking my leave of them, I went from there into Macedonia.
2:14 Now thanks be to God, which always causes us to triumph in Christ, and makes manifest the savour of his knowledge by us in every place.
2:15 For we are to God a sweet savour of Christ, in them that are saved, and in them that perish:
2:16 To the one we are the savour of death to death; and to the other the savour of life to life. And who is sufficient for these things?
2:17 For we are not as many, which peddle the word of God: but as of sincerity, but as of God, in the sight of God speak we in Christ.

Chapter 3

3:1 Do we begin again to commend ourselves? or need we, as some others, epistles of commendation to you, or letters of commendation from you?
3:2 You are our epistle written in our hearts, known and read of all men:
3:3 Since as you are manifestly declared to be the epistle of Christ ministered by us, written not with ink, but with the Spirit of the living God; not in tables of stone, but in fleshy tables of the heart.
3:4 And such trust have we through Christ to God-ward:
3:5 Not that we are sufficient of ourselves to think any thing as of ourselves; but our sufficiency is of God;
3:6 Who also has made us able ministers of the new testament; not of the letter, but of the spirit: for the letter kills, but the spirit gives life.
3:7 But if the ministration of death, written and engraved in stones, was glorious, so that the children of Israel could not steadfastly behold the face of Moses for the glory of his countenance; which glory was to be done away:
3:8 How shall not the ministration of the spirit be rather glorious?
3:9 For if the ministration of condemnation be glory, much more does the ministration of righteousness exceed in glory.
3:10 For even that which was made glorious had no glory in this respect, by reason of the glory that excels.

3:11 For if that which is done away was glorious, much more that which remains is glorious.
3:12 Seeing then that we have such hope, we use great plainness of speech:
3:13 And not as Moses, which put a veil over his face, that the children of Israel could not steadfastly look to the end of that which is abolished:
3:14 But their minds were blinded: for until this day remains the same veil untaken away in the reading of the old testament; which veil is done away in Christ.
3:15 But even to this day, when Moses is read, the veil is upon their heart.
3:16 Nevertheless when it shall turn to the Lord, the veil shall be taken away.
3:17 Now the Lord is that Spirit: and where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is liberty.
3:18 But we all, with open face beholding as in a glass the glory of the Lord, are changed into the same image from glory to glory, just as by the Spirit of the LORD.

Chapter 4

4:1 Therefore seeing we have this ministry, as we have received mercy, we faint not;
4:2 But have renounced the hidden things of dishonesty, not walking in craftiness, nor handling the word of God deceitfully; but by manifestation of the truth commending ourselves to every man's conscience in the sight of God.
4:3 But if our gospel be hid, it is hid to them that are lost:
4:4 In whom the god of this world has blinded the minds of those who believe not, lest the light of the glorious gospel of Christ, who is the image of God, should shine to them.
4:5 For we preach not ourselves, but Christ Jesus the Lord; and ourselves your servants for Jesus' sake.
4:6 For God, who commanded the light to shine out of darkness, has shined in our hearts, to give the light of the knowledge of the glory of God in the face of Jesus Christ.
4:7 But we have this treasure in earthen vessels, that the excellency of the power may be of God, and not of us.
4:8 We are troubled on every side, yet not distressed; we are perplexed, but not in despair;
4:9 Persecuted, but not forsaken; cast down, but not destroyed;
4:10 Always bearing about in the body the dying of the Lord Jesus, that the life also of Jesus might be made manifest in our body.
4:11 For we which live are always delivered to death for Jesus' sake, that the life also of Jesus might be made manifest in our mortal flesh.
4:12 So then death works in us, but life in you.
4:13 We having the same spirit of faith, according as it is written, I believed, and therefore have I spoken; we also believe, and therefore speak;
4:14 Knowing that he which raised up the Lord Jesus shall raise up us also by Jesus, and shall present us with you.
4:15 For all things are for your sakes, that the abundant grace might through the thanksgiving of many redound to the glory of God.
4:16 For which cause we faint not; but though our outward man perish, yet the inward man is renewed day by day.
4:17 For our light affliction, which is but for a moment, works for us a far more exceeding and eternal weight of glory;
4:18 While we look not at the things which are seen, but at the things which are not seen: for the things which are seen are temporal; but the things which are not seen are eternal.

Chapter 5

5:1 For we know that if our earthly house of this tabernacle were dissolved, we have a building of God, a house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens.

5:2 For in this we groan, earnestly desiring to be clothed upon with our house which is from heaven:
5:3 If so be that being clothed we shall not be found naked.
5:4 For we that are in this tabernacle do groan, being burdened: not for that we would be unclothed, but clothed upon, that mortality might be swallowed up of life.
5:5 Now he that has wrought us for the very same thing is God, who also has given to us the earnest of the Spirit.
5:6 Therefore we are always confident, knowing that, while we are at home in the body, we are absent from the Lord:
5:7 (For we walk by faith, not by sight:)
5:8 We are confident, I say, and willing rather to be absent from the body, and to be present with the Lord.
5:9 Therefore we labor, that, whether present or absent, we may be accepted of him.
5:10 For we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ; that every one may receive the things done in his body, according to what he has done, whether it be good or bad.
5:11 Knowing therefore the terror of the Lord, we persuade men; but we are made manifest to God; and I trust also are made manifest in your consciences.
5:12 For we commend not ourselves again to you, but give you occasion to glory on our behalf, that you may have somewhat to answer those who glory in appearance, and not in heart.
5:13 For whether we be beside ourselves, it is to God: or whether we be sober, it is for your cause.
5:14 For the love of Christ constrains us; because we thus judge, that if one died for all, then were all dead:
5:15 And that he died for all, that they who live should no longer live for themselves, but for him who died for them, and rose again.
5:16 Therefore from now on we know no man after the flesh: yes, though we have known Christ after the flesh, yet from now on know we him so no more.
5:17 Therefore if any man be in Christ, he is a new creature: old things are passed away; behold, all things have become new.
5:18 And all things are of God, who has reconciled us to himself by Jesus Christ, and has given to us the ministry of reconciliation;
5:19 That is, that God was in Christ, reconciling the world to himself, not imputing their trespasses to them; and has committed to us the word of reconciliation.
5:20 Now then we are ambassadors for Christ; as though God did beseech you by us, we pray you in Christ's stead: be reconciled to God.
5:21 For he has made him who knew no sin to be sin for us; that we might be made the righteousness of God in him.

Chapter 6

6:1 We then, as workers together with him, beseech you also that you receive not the grace of God in vain.
6:2 (For he says, I have heard you in a time accepted, and in the day of salvation have I helped you: behold, now is the accepted time; behold, now is the day of salvation.)
6:3 Giving no offense in any thing, that the ministry be not blamed:
6:4 But in all things approving ourselves as the ministers of God, in much patience, in afflictions, in necessities, in distresses,
6:5 In stripes, in imprisonments, in tumults, in labors, in watchings, in fastings;
6:6 By pureness, by knowledge, by longsuffering, by kindness, by the Holy Spirit, by love unfeigned,
6:7 By the word of truth, by the power of God, by the armour of righteousness on the right hand and on the left,
6:8 By honor and dishonor, by evil report and good report: as deceivers, and yet true;

6:9 As unknown, and yet well known; as dying, and, behold, we live; as chastened, and not killed;
6:10 As sorrowful, yet always rejoicing; as poor, yet making many rich; as having nothing, and yet possessing all things.
6:11 O you Corinthians, our mouth is open to you, our heart is enlarged.
6:12 You are not restricted by us, but you are restricted in your own affections.
6:13 Now for a recompense in the same, (I speak as to my children,) be you also enlarged.
6:14 Be not unequally yoked together with unbelievers: for what fellowship has righteousness with unrighteousness? and what communion has light with darkness?
6:15 And what concord has Christ with Belial? or what part has he that believes with an infidel?
6:16 And what agreement has the temple of God with idols? for you are the temple of the living God; as God has said, I will dwell in them, and walk in them; and I will be their God, and they shall be my people.
6:17 Therefore come out from among them, and be separate, says the Lord, and touch not the unclean thing; and I will receive you.
6:18 And will be a Father to you, and you shall be my sons and daughters, says the Lord Almighty.

Chapter 7

7:1 Having therefore these promises, dearly beloved, let us cleanse ourselves from all filthiness of the flesh and spirit, perfecting holiness in the fear of God.
7:2 Receive us; we have wronged no man, we have corrupted no man, we have defrauded no man.
7:3 I speak not this to condemn you: for I have said before, that you are in our hearts to die and live with you.
7:4 Great is my boldness of speech toward you, great is my glorying of you: I am filled with comfort, I am exceedingly joyful in all our tribulation.
7:5 For, when we had come into Macedonia, our flesh had no rest, but we were troubled on every side; outside were fightings, within were fears.
7:6 Nevertheless God, that comforts those that are cast down, comforted us by the coming of Titus;
7:7 And not by his coming only, but by the consolation with which he was comforted in you, when he told us your earnest desire, your mourning, your fervent mind toward me; so that I rejoiced the more.
7:8 For though I made you sorry with a letter, I do not repent, though I did repent: for I perceive that the same epistle has made you sorry, though it were but for a season.
7:9 Now I rejoice, not that you were made sorry, but that you sorrowed to repentance: for you were made sorry after a godly manner, that you might receive damage by us in nothing.
7:10 For godly sorrow works repentance to salvation not to be repented of: but the sorrow of the world works death.
7:11 For behold this very same thing, that you sorrowed after a godly sort, what carefulness it wrought in you, yes, what clearing of yourselves, yes, what indignation, yes, what fear, yes, what vehement desire, yes, what zeal, yes, what revenge! In all things you have approved yourselves to be clear in this matter.
7:12 Therefore, though I wrote to you, I did it not for his cause that had done the wrong, nor for his cause that suffered wrong, but that our care for you in the sight of God might appear to you.
7:13 Therefore we were comforted in your comfort: yes, and exceedingly the more we rejoiced for the joy of Titus, because his spirit was refreshed by you all.

7:14 For if I have boasted any thing to him of you, I am not ashamed; but as we spoke all things to you in truth, even so our boasting, which I made before Titus, is found a truth.
7:15 And his inward affection is more abundant toward you, while he remembers the obedience of you all, how with fear and trembling you received him.
7:16 I rejoice therefore that I have confidence in you in all things.

Chapter 8

8:1 Moreover, brothers, we do you to know of the grace of God bestowed on the churches of Macedonia;
8:2 That in a great trial of affliction the abundance of their joy and their deep poverty abounded to the riches of their liberality.
8:3 For to their power, I bear record, yes, and beyond their power they were willing of themselves;
8:4 Praying us with much entreaty that we would receive the gift, and take upon us the fellowship of the ministering to the saints.
8:5 And this they did, not as we hoped, but first gave their own selves to the Lord, and to us by the will of God.
8:6 Insomuch that we desired Titus, that as he had begun, so he would also finish in you the same grace also.
8:7 Therefore, as you abound in everything, in faith, and utterance, and knowledge, and in all diligence, and in your love to us, see that you abound in this grace also.
8:8 I speak not by commandment, but by occasion of the forwardness of others, and to prove the sincerity of your love.
8:9 For you know the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ, that, though he was rich, yet for your sakes he became poor, that you through his poverty might be rich.
8:10 And herein I give my advice: for this is expedient for you, who have begun before, not only to do, but also to be forward a year ago.
8:11 Now therefore perform the doing of it; that as there was a readiness to will, so there may be a performance also out of that which you have.
8:12 For if there be first a willing mind, it is accepted according to what a man has, and not according to what he has not.
8:13 For I mean not that other men be eased, and you burdened:
8:14 But by an equality, that now at this time your abundance may be a supply for their want, that their abundance also may be a supply for your want: that there may be equality:
8:15 As it is written, He that had gathered much had nothing over; and he that had gathered little had no lack.
8:16 But thanks be to God, which put the same earnest care into the heart of Titus for you.
8:17 For indeed he accepted the exhortation; but being more forward, of his own accord he went to you.
8:18 And we have sent with him the brother, whose praise is in the gospel throughout all the churches;
8:19 And not that only, but who was also chosen of the churches to travel with us with this grace, which is administered by us to the glory of the same Lord, and declaration of your ready mind:
8:20 Avoiding this, that no man should blame us in this abundance which is administered by us:
8:21 Providing for honest things, not only in the sight of the Lord, but also in the sight of men.
8:22 And we have sent with them our brother, whom we have oftentimes proved diligent in many things, but now much more diligent, upon the great confidence which I have in you.

8:23 Whether any do inquire of Titus, he is my partner and fellow helper concerning you: or our brothers be inquired of, they are the messengers of the churches, and the glory of Christ.
8:24 Therefore show you to them, and before the churches, the proof of your love, and of our boasting on your behalf.

Chapter 9

9:1 For as touching the ministering to the saints, it is superfluous for me to write to you:
9:2 For I know the forwardness of your mind, for which I boast of you to them of Macedonia, that Achaia was ready a year ago; and your zeal has provoked very many.
9:3 yet have I sent the brothers, lest our boasting of you should be in vain in this behalf; that, as I said, you may be ready:
9:4 Lest haply if they of Macedonia come with me, and find you unprepared, we (that we say not, you) should be ashamed in this same confident boasting.
9:5 Therefore I thought it necessary to exhort the brothers, that they would go before to you, and make up beforehand your bounty, whereof you had notice before, that the same might be ready, as a matter of bounty, and not as of covetousness.
9:6 But this I say, He which sows sparingly shall reap also sparingly; and he which sows bountifully shall reap also bountifully.
9:7 Every man according as he purposes in his heart, so let him give; not grudgingly, or of necessity: for God loves a cheerful giver.
9:8 And God is able to make all grace abound toward you; that you, always having all sufficiency in all things, may abound to every good work:
9:9 (As it is written, He has dispersed abroad; he has given to the poor: his righteousness remains forever.
9:10 Now he that ministers seed to the sower both minister bread for your food, and multiply your seed sown, and increase the fruits of your righteousness;)
9:11 Being enriched in everything to all bountifulness, which causes through us thanksgiving to God.
9:12 For the administration of this service not only supplies the want of the saints, but is abundant also by many thanksgivings to God;
9:13 Whiles by the experiment of this ministration they glorify God for your professed subjection to the gospel of Christ, and for your liberal distribution to them, and to all men;
9:14 And by their prayer for you, which long after you for the exceeding grace of God in you.
9:15 Thanks be to God for his unspeakable gift.

Chapter 10

10:1 Now I Paul myself beseech you by the meekness and gentleness of Christ, who in presence am base among you, but being absent am bold toward you:
10:2 But I beseech you, that I may not be bold when I am present with that confidence, with which I think to be bold against some, which think of us as if we walked according to the flesh.
10:3 For though we walk in the flesh, we do not war after the flesh:
10:4 (For the weapons of our warfare are not carnal, but mighty through God to the pulling down of strongholds;)
10:5 Casting down imaginations, and every high thing that exalts itself against the knowledge of God, and bringing into captivity every thought to the obedience of Christ;
10:6 And having in a readiness to revenge all disobedience, when your obedience is fulfilled.

10:7 Do you look on things after the outward appearance? If any man trust to himself that he is Christ's, let him of himself think this again, that, as he is Christ's, even so are we Christ's.
10:8 For though I should boast somewhat more of our authority, which the Lord has given us for edification, and not for your destruction, I should not be ashamed:
10:9 That I may not seem as if I would terrify you by letters.
10:10 For his letters, say they, are weighty and powerful; but his bodily presence is weak, and his speech contemptible.
10:11 Let such a one think this, that, such as we are in word by letters when we are absent, such will we be also in deed when we are present.
10:12 For we dare not make ourselves of the number, or compare ourselves with some that commend themselves: but they measuring themselves by themselves, and comparing themselves among themselves, are not wise.
10:13 But we will not boast of things without our measure, but according to the measure of the rule which God has distributed to us, a measure to reach even to you.
10:14 For we stretch not ourselves beyond our measure, as though we reached not to you: for we are come as far as to you also in preaching the gospel of Christ:
10:15 Not boasting of things without our measure, that is, of other men's labors; but having hope, when your faith is increased, that we shall be enlarged by you according to our rule abundantly,
10:16 To preach the gospel in the regions beyond you, and not to boast in another man's line of things made ready to our hand.
10:17 But he that glories, let him glory in the Lord.
10:18 For not he that commends himself is approved, but whom the Lord commends.

Chapter 11

11:1 Would to God you could bear with me a little in my folly: and do bear with me.
11:2 For I am jealous over you with godly jealousy: for I have espoused you to one husband, that I may present you as a chaste virgin to Christ.
11:3 But I fear, lest by any means, as the serpent beguiled Eve through his trickery, so your minds should be corrupted from the simplicity that is in Christ.
11:4 For if he that comes preaches another Jesus, whom we have not preached, or if you receive another spirit, which you have not received, or another gospel, which you have not accepted, you might well bear with him.
11:5 For I suppose I was not a whit behind the very chiefest apostles.
11:6 But though I be rude in speech, yet not in knowledge; but we have been thoroughly made manifest among you in all things.
11:7 Have I committed an offense in abasing myself that you might be exalted, because I have preached to you the gospel of God freely?
11:8 I robbed other churches, taking wages of them, to do you service.
11:9 And when I was present with you, and wanted, I was chargeable to no man: for that which was lacking to me the brothers which came from Macedonia supplied: and in all things I have kept myself from being burdensome to you, and so will I keep myself.
11:10 As the truth of Christ is in me, no man shall stop me of this boasting in the regions of Achaia.
11:11 Why? because I love you not? God knows.
11:12 But what I do, that I will do, that I may cut off occasion from those who desire occasion; that in which they glory, they may be found just as we.
11:13 For such are false apostles, deceitful workers, transforming themselves into the apostles of Christ.
11:14 And no marvel; for Satan himself is transformed into an angel of light.
11:15 Therefore it is no great thing if his ministers also be transformed as the ministers of righteousness; whose end shall be according to their works.

11:16 I say again, Let no man think me a fool; if otherwise, yet as a fool receive me, that I may boast myself a little.
11:17 That which I speak, I speak it not after the Lord, but as it were foolishly, in this confidence of boasting.
11:18 Seeing that many glory after the flesh, I will glory also.
11:19 For you tolerate fools gladly, seeing you yourselves are wise.
11:20 For you suffer, if a man bring you into bondage, if a man devour you, if a man take of you, if a man exalt himself, if a man strike you on the face.
11:21 I speak as concerning reproach, as though we had been weak. Howbeit in whichsoever any is bold, (I speak foolishly,) I am bold also.
11:22 Are they Hebrews? so am I. Are they Israelites? so am I. Are they the seed of Abraham? so am I.
11:23 Are they ministers of Christ? (I speak as a fool) I am more; in labors more abundant, in stripes above measure, in prisons more frequent, in deaths often.
11:24 Of the Jews five times received I forty stripes less one.
11:25 Three times was I beaten with rods, once was I stoned, three times I suffered shipwreck, a night and a day I have been in the deep;
11:26 In journeyings often, in perils of waters, in perils of robbers, in perils by my own countrymen, in perils by the heathen, in perils in the city, in perils in the wilderness, in perils in the sea, in perils among false brothers;
11:27 In weariness and painfulness, in watchings often, in hunger and thirst, in fastings often, in cold and nakedness.
11:28 Beside those things that are outside, that which comes upon me daily, the care of all the churches.
11:29 Who is weak, and I am not weak? who is offended, and I burn not?
11:30 If I must glory, I will glory of the things which concern mine infirmities.
11:31 The God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, which is blessed for evermore, knows that I lie not.
11:32 In Damascus the governor under Aretas the king kept the city of the Damascenes with a garrison, desirous to apprehend me:
11:33 And through a window in a basket was I let down by the wall, and escaped his hands.

Chapter 12

12:1 It is not expedient for me doubtless to glory. I will come to visions and revelations of the Lord.
12:2 I knew a man in Christ above fourteen years ago, (whether in the body, I cannot tell; or whether out of the body, I cannot tell: God knows;) such a one caught up to the third heaven.
12:3 And I knew such a man, (whether in the body, or out of the body, I cannot tell: God knows;)
12:4 That he was caught up into paradise, and heard unspeakable words, which it is not lawful for a man to utter.
12:5 Of such a one will I glory: yet of myself I will not glory, but in my infirmities.
12:6 For though I would desire to glory, I shall not be a fool; for I will say the truth: but now I hold back, lest any man should think of me above that which he sees me to be, or that he hears of me.
12:7 And lest I should be exalted above measure through the abundance of the revelations, there was given to me a thorn in the flesh, the messenger of Satan to buffet me, lest I should be exalted above measure.
12:8 For this thing I asked the Lord three times, that it might depart from me.
12:9 And he said to me, My grace is sufficient for you: for my strength is made perfect in weakness. Most gladly therefore will I rather glory in my infirmities, that the power of Christ may rest upon me.
12:10 Therefore I take pleasure in infirmities, in reproaches, in necessities, in persecutions, in distresses for Christ's sake: for when I am weak, then am I strong.

12:11 I am become a fool in glorying; you have compelled me: for I ought to have been commended of you: for in nothing am I behind the very chiefest apostles, though I be nothing.
12:12 Truly the signs of an apostle were wrought among you in all patience, in signs, and wonders, and mighty deeds.
12:13 For what is it in which you were inferior to other churches, except it be that I myself was not burdensome to you? forgive me this wrong.
12:14 Behold, the third time I am ready to come to you; and I will not be burdensome to you: for I seek not yours but you: for the children ought not to lay up for the parents, but the parents for the children.
12:15 And I will very gladly spend and be spent for you; though the more abundantly I love you, the less I be loved.
12:16 But be it so, I did not burden you: nevertheless, being crafty, I caught you with guile.
12:17 Did I make a gain of you by any of them whom I sent to you?
12:18 I desired Titus, and with him I sent a brother. Did Titus make a gain of you? walked we not in the same spirit? walked we not in the same steps?
12:19 Again, think you that we excuse ourselves to you? we speak before God in Christ: but we do all things, dearly beloved, for your edifying.
12:20 For I fear, lest, when I come, I shall not find you such as I would, and that I shall be found to you such as you would not: lest there be debates, envyings, wraths, strifes, backbitings, whisperings, swellings, tumults:
12:21 And lest, when I come again, my God will humble me among you, and that I shall bewail many which have sinned already, and have not repented of the uncleanness and fornication and lasciviousness which they have committed.

Chapter 13

13:1 This is the third time I am coming to you. In the mouth of two or three witnesses shall every word be established.
13:2 I told you before, and foretell you, as if I were present, the second time; and being absent now I write to those who heretofore have sinned, and to all others, that, if I come again, I will not spare:
13:3 Since you seek a proof of Christ speaking in me, which to you-ward is not weak, but is mighty in you.
13:4 For though he was crucified through weakness, yet he lives by the power of God. For we also are weak in him, but we shall live with him by the power of God toward you.
13:5 Examine yourselves, whether you be in the faith; prove your own selves. Do you not know your own selves, that Jesus Christ is in you, unless you be reprobates?
13:6 But I trust that you shall know that we are not reprobates.
13:7 Now I pray to God that you do no evil; not that we should appear approved, but that you should do that which is honest, though we be as reprobates.
13:8 For we can do nothing against the truth, but for the truth.
13:9 For we are glad, when we are weak, and you are strong: and this also we wish, even your perfection.
13:10 Therefore I write these things being absent, so that when I come I might not need to use sharpness, according to the power which the Lord has given me for edification, and not for destruction.
13:11 Finally, brothers, farewell. Be perfect, be of good comfort, be of one mind, live in peace; and the God of love and peace shall be with you.
13:12 Greet one another with a holy kiss.
13:13 All the saints salute you.
13:14 The grace of the Lord Jesus Christ, and the love of God, and the communion of the Holy Spirit, be with you all. Amen.

The Epistle of Paul the Apostle to the Galatians

Galatians

Chapter 1

1:1 Paul, an apostle, (not of men, neither by man, but by Jesus Christ, and God the Father, who raised him from the dead;)
1:2 And all the brothers which are with me, to the churches of Galatia:
1:3 Grace be to you and peace from God the Father, and from our Lord Jesus Christ,
1:4 Who gave himself for our sins, that he might deliver us from this present evil world, according to the will of God and our Father:
1:5 To whom be glory forever and ever. Amen.
1:6 I marvel that you are so soon removed from him who called you into the grace of Christ, to another gospel:
1:7 Which is not another; but there are some who trouble you, and would pervert the gospel of Christ.
1:8 But should we, or an angel from heaven, preach any gospel to you other than that which we have preached to you, let him be accursed.
1:9 As we said before, so I now say again, if anyone preaches any gospel to you other than that which you have received, let him be accursed.
1:10 For do I now persuade men, or God? or am I seeking to please men? for if I still pleased men, I should not be the servant of Christ.
1:11 But I certify to you, brothers, that the gospel which was preached by me is not after man.
1:12 For I neither received it from man, neither was I taught it, but rather by the revelation of Jesus Christ.
1:13 For you have heard of my manner of life in times past in the Jews' religion, that beyond measure I used to persecute the church of God, and tried to destroy it:
1:14 And was advancing in the Jews' religion above many of my equals in my own nation, being more exceedingly zealous for the traditions of my fathers.
1:15 But when it pleased God, who separated me from my mother's womb, and called me by his grace,
1:16 To reveal his Son in me, that I might preach him among the Gentiles; immediately I conferred not with flesh and blood:
1:17 Neither went I up to Jerusalem to those who were apostles before me; but I went into Arabia, and returned again to Damascus.
1:18 Then after three years I went up to Jerusalem to see Peter, and stayed with him fifteen days.
1:19 But others of the apostles saw I none, except James the Lord's brother.
1:20 Now the things which I am writing to you, behold, before God, I am not lying.
1:21 Afterwards I came into the regions of Syria and Cilicia;
1:22 And was unknown by face to the churches of Judaea which were in Christ:
1:23 But all they had heard was, He who persecuted us in times past now preaches the faith which he once tried to destroy.
1:24 And they glorified God in me.

Chapter 2

2:1 Then fourteen years later, I went up once again to Jerusalem with Barnabas, and took Titus with me also.
2:2 And I went up by revelation, and communicated to them that gospel which I preach among the Gentiles, but privately to those who were of reputation, lest by any means I should run, or had run, in vain.
2:3 But not even Titus, who was with me, being a Greek, was compelled to be circumcised:
2:4 And that I bring up because of false brothers secretly brought in, who snuck in to spy out our liberty which we have in Christ Jesus, that they might bring us into bondage:

2:5 To whom we gave way in subjection not even for an hour; that the truth of the gospel might continue with you.
2:6 But regarding these who seemed to be something, (what they were, it makes no difference to me: God accepts no man's personage:) for they who seemed to be something in conference added nothing to me:
2:7 But on the contrary, when they saw that the gospel for the uncircumcision was committed to me, as the gospel for the circumcision was to Peter;
2:8 (For he that wrought effectively in Peter to the apostleship for the circumcision, the same was mighty in me toward the Gentiles:)
2:9 And when James, Cephas, and John, who seemed to be pillars, perceived the grace that was given to me, they gave to me and Barnabas the right hand of fellowship; that we should go to the Gentiles, and they to the circumcision.
2:10 Only they desired that we should remember the poor; the same which I also was eager to do.
2:11 But when Peter was come to Antioch, I withstood him to his face, because he was to be blamed.
2:12 For before certain ones had come from James, he would eat with the Gentiles: but when they had come, he withdrew and separated himself, fearing those who were of the circumcision.
2:13 And the other Jews joined him in hypocrisy; to the extent that Barnabas also was carried away with their hypocrisy.
2:14 But when I saw that they walked not uprightly according to the truth of the gospel, I said to Peter before them all, If you, being a Jew, live after the manner of Gentiles, and not as the Jews, why do you compel the Gentiles to live like the Jews?
2:15 We who are Jews by nature, and not sinners of the Gentiles,
2:16 Knowing that a man is not justified by the works of the law, but by the faith of Jesus Christ, even we have believed in Jesus Christ, that we might be justified by the faith of Christ, and not by the works of the law: for by the works of the law shall no flesh be justified.
2:17 But if, while we seek to be justified by Christ, we ourselves also are found sinners, is therefore Christ the minister of sin? By no means.
2:18 For if I build again the things which I destroyed, I make myself a transgressor.
2:19 For I through the law am dead to the law, that I might live to God.
2:20 I am crucified with Christ: nevertheless I live; yet not I, but Christ lives in me. And the life which I now live in the flesh I live by the faith of the Son of God, who loved me, and gave himself for me.
2:21 I do not frustrate the grace of God: for if righteousness comes by the law, then Christ is dead in vain.

Chapter 3

3:1 O foolish Galatians, who has bewitched you, that you should not obey the truth, before whose eyes Jesus Christ has been evidently set forth, crucified among you?
3:2 This only would I learn of you, Did you receive the Spirit by the works of the law, or by the hearing of faith?
3:3 Are you so foolish? having begun in the Spirit, are you now made perfect by the flesh?
3:4 Have you suffered so many things in vain? if it be yet in vain.
3:5 He therefore that ministers to you the Spirit, and works miracles among you, does he do it by the works of the law, or by the hearing of faith?
3:6 Just as Abraham believed God, and it was accounted to him for righteousness.
3:7 Know therefore that they which are of faith, the same are the children of Abraham.
3:8 And the scripture, foreseeing that God would justify the heathen through faith, preached in advance the gospel to Abraham, saying, In you shall all nations be blessed.
3:9 So then they which are of faith are blessed with faithful Abraham.

3:10 For as many as are of the works of the law are under the curse: for it is written, Cursed is every one that continues not in all things which are written in the book of the law to do them.
3:11 But that no man is justified by the law in the sight of God, it is evident: for, "The just shall live by faith."
3:12 And the law is not of faith: but, "The man that does them shall live in them."
3:13 Christ has redeemed us from the curse of the law, being made a curse for us: for it is written, "Cursed is every one that hangs on a tree: "
3:14 That the blessing of Abraham might come on the Gentiles through Jesus Christ; that we might receive the promise of the Spirit through faith.
3:15 Brethren, I speak after the manner of men; Though it be but a man's covenant, yet if it be confirmed, no man annuls, or adds to it.
3:16 Now to Abraham and his seed were the promises made. He says not, "And to seeds," as of many; but as of one, "And to your seed," which is Christ.
3:17 And this I say, that the covenant, that was confirmed before of God in Christ, the law, which was four hundred and thirty years after, cannot disannul, that it should make the promise of no effect.
3:18 For if the inheritance be of the law, it is no more of promise: but God gave it to Abraham by promise.
3:19 How then serves the law? It was added because of transgressions, till the seed should come to whom the promise was made; and it was ordained by angels in the hand of a mediator.
3:20 Now a mediator is not a mediator of one, but God is one.
3:21 Is the law then against the promises of God? By no means: for if there had been a law given which could have given life, then certainly righteousness would have been by the law.
3:22 But the scripture has concluded all under sin, so that the promise by faith of Jesus Christ might be given to them that believe.
3:23 But before faith came, we were kept under the law, shut up unto the faith which should afterwards be revealed.
3:24 Therefore the law was our schoolmaster to bring us to Christ, that we might be justified by faith.
3:25 But after faith is come, we are no longer under a schoolmaster.
3:26 For you are all the children of God by faith in Christ Jesus.
3:27 For as many of you that are baptized into Christ have put on Christ.
3:28 There is neither Jew nor Greek, there is neither bond nor free, there is neither male nor female: for you are all one in Christ Jesus.
3:29 And if you be Christ's, then you are Abraham's seed, and heirs according to the promise.

Chapter 4

4:1 Now I say, That the heir, as long as he is a child, differs nothing from a servant, though he be lord of all,
4:2 But is under tutors and governors until the time appointed by the father.
4:3 Even so we, when we were children, were in bondage under the elements of the world:
4:4 But when the fullness of the time was come, God sent forth his Son, made of a woman, made under the law,
4:5 To redeem them that were under the law, that we might receive the adoption of sons.
4:6 And because you are sons, God has sent forth the Spirit of his Son into your hearts, crying, abba, Father.
4:7 Therefore you are no more a servant, but a son; and if a son, then an heir of God through Christ.
4:8 Howbeit then, when you did not know God, you did service unto those who by nature are no gods.

4:9 But now, after you have known God, or rather are known of God, how turn you again to the weak and beggarly elements, whereunto you desire again to be in bondage?
4:10 You observe days, and months, and times, and years.
4:11 I am afraid of you, lest I have bestowed upon you labor in vain.
4:12 Brethren, I beseech you, be as I am; for I am as you are: you have not injured me at all.
4:13 You know how through infirmity of the flesh I preached the gospel unto you at the first.
4:14 And my temptation which was in my flesh you looked down upon not, nor rejected; but received me as an angel of God, just as Christ Jesus.
4:15 Where is then the blessedness you spoke of? for I bear you record, that, if it had been possible, you would have plucked out your own eyes, and have given them to me.
4:16 Am I therefore become your enemy, because I tell you the truth?
4:17 They zealously affect you, but not well; yes, they would exclude you, that you might affect them.
4:18 But it is good to be zealously affected always in a good thing, and not only when I am present with you.
4:19 My little children, of whom I travail in birth again until Christ be formed in you,
4:20 I desire to be present with you now, and to change my voice; for I stand in doubt of you.
4:21 Tell me, you that desire to be under the law, do you not hear the law?
4:22 For it is written, that Abraham had two sons, the one by a bondmaid, the other by a freewoman.
4:23 But he who was of the bondwoman was born after the flesh; but he of the freewoman was by promise.
4:24 Which things are an allegory: for these are the two covenants; the one from the mount Sinai, which genders to bondage, which is Agar.
4:25 For this Agar is mount Sinai in Arabia, and answers to Jerusalem which now is, and is in bondage with her children.
4:26 But Jerusalem which is above is free, which is the mother of us all.
4:27 For it is written, Rejoice, you barren that bear not; break forth and cry, you that travail not: for the desolate has many more children than she which has a husband.
4:28 Now we, brothers, as Isaac was, are the children of promise.
4:29 But as then he that was born after the flesh persecuted him that was born after the Spirit, even so it is now.
4:30 Nevertheless what says the scripture? Cast out the bondwoman and her son: for the son of the bondwoman shall not be heir with the son of the freewoman.
4:31 So then, brothers, we are not children of the bondwoman, but of the free.

Chapter 5

5:1 Stand fast therefore in the liberty with which Christ has made us free, and be not entangled again with the yoke of bondage.
5:2 Behold, I Paul say unto you, that if you be circumcised, Christ shall profit you nothing.
5:3 For I testify again to every man that is circumcised, that he is a debtor to do the whole law.
5:4 Christ is become of no effect unto you, whoever of you are justified by the law; you are fallen from grace.
5:5 For we through the Spirit wait for the hope of righteousness by faith.
5:6 For in Jesus Christ neither circumcision avails any thing, nor uncircumcision; but faith which works by love.
5:7 You did run well; who did hinder you that you should not obey the truth?
5:8 This persuasion comes not of him that calls you.
5:9 A little leaven leavens the whole lump.

5:10 I have confidence in you through the Lord, that you will be none otherwise minded: but he that troubles you shall bear his judgment, whoever he be.
5:11 And I, brothers, if I yet preach circumcision, why do I yet suffer persecution? then is the offense of the cross ceased.
5:12 I would they were even cut off which trouble you.
5:13 For, brothers, you have been called unto liberty; only use not liberty for an occasion to the flesh, but by love serve one another.
5:14 For all the law is fulfilled in one word, even in this; You shall love your neighbor as yourself.
5:15 But if you bite and devour one another, take heed that you be not consumed one of another.
5:16 This I say then, Walk in the Spirit, and you shall not fulfill the lust of the flesh.
5:17 For the flesh lusts against the Spirit, and the Spirit against the flesh: and these are contrary the one to the other: so that you cannot do the things that you would.
5:18 But if you be led of the Spirit, you are not under the law.
5:19 Now the works of the flesh are manifest, which are these; Adultery, fornication, uncleanness, lasciviousness,
5:20 Idolatry, witchcraft, hatred, variance, emulations, wrath, strife, seditions, heresies,
5:21 Envyings, murders, drunkenness, revellings, and such like: of the which I tell you before, as I have also told you in time past, that they which do such things shall not inherit the kingdom of God.
5:22 But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, longsuffering, gentleness, goodness, faith,
5:23 Meekness, temperance: against such there is no law.
5:24 And they that are Christ's have crucified the flesh with the affections and lusts.
5:25 If we live in the Spirit, let us also walk in the Spirit.
5:26 Let us not be desirous of vain glory, provoking one another, envying one another.

Chapter 6

6:1 Brethren, if a man be overtaken in a fault, you who are spiritual, restore such a one in the spirit of meekness; considering yourself, lest you also be tempted.
6:2 Bear one another's burdens, and so fulfill the law of Christ.
6:3 For if a man think himself to be something, when he is nothing, he deceives himself.
6:4 But let every man prove his own work, and then shall he have rejoicing in himself alone, and not in another.
6:5 For every man shall bear his own burden.
6:6 Let him that is taught in the word share all good things unto him that teaches.
6:7 Be not deceived; God is not mocked: for whatsoever a man sows, that shall he also reap.
6:8 For he that sows to his flesh shall of the flesh reap corruption; but he that sows to the Spirit shall of the Spirit reap life everlasting.
6:9 And let us not be weary in well doing: for in due season we shall reap, if we do not quit.
6:10 As we have therefore opportunity, let us do good unto all men, especially to them who are of the household of faith.
6:11 You see how large a letter I have written unto you with my own hand.
6:12 As many as desire to make a fair show in the flesh, they constrain you to be circumcised; only so they will not suffer persecution for the cross of Christ.
6:13 For neither they themselves who are circumcised keep the law; but desire to have you circumcised, that they may glory in your flesh.
6:14 But may it never be that I should glory, unless in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ, by whom the world is crucified to me, and I unto the world.
6:15 For in Christ Jesus neither circumcision avails anything, nor uncircumcision, but to be a new creature.

6:16 And as many as walk according to this rule, peace be on them, and mercy, and upon the Israel of God.
6:17 From now on let no man trouble me: for I bear in my body the marks of the Lord Jesus.
6:18 Brethren, the grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit. Amen.

The Epistle of Paul the Apostle to the Ephesians

Ephesians

Chapter 1

1:1 Paul, an apostle of Jesus Christ by the will of God, to the saints which are at Ephesus, and to the faithful in Christ Jesus:
1:2 Grace be to you, and peace, from God our Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ.
1:3 Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has blessed us with all spiritual blessings in heavenly places in Christ:
1:4 According as he has chosen us in him before the foundation of the world, that we should be holy and without blame before him in love:
1:5 Having predestinated us unto the adoption of children by Jesus Christ to himself, according to the good pleasure of his will,
1:6 To the praise of the glory of his grace, in which he has made us accepted in the beloved.
1:7 In whom we have redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of sins, according to the riches of his grace;
1:8 In which he has abounded toward us in all wisdom and prudence;
1:9 Having made known to us the mystery of his will, according to his good pleasure which he has purposed in himself:
1:10 That in the dispensation of the fullness of times he might gather together in one,all things in Christ, both which are in heaven, and which are on earth; even in him:
1:11 In whom also we have obtained an inheritance, being predestinated according to the purpose of him who works all things after the counsel of his own will:
1:12 That we should be to the praise of his glory, who first trusted in Christ.
1:13 In whom you also trusted, after you heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation: in whom also after you believed, you were sealed with that Holy Spirit of promise,
1:14 Which is the earnest of our inheritance until the redemption of the purchased possession, to the praise of his glory.
1:15 Therefore I also, after I heard of your faith in the Lord Jesus, and love toward all the saints,
1:16 Cease not to give thanks for you, making mention of you in my prayers;
1:17 That the God of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of glory, may give to you the spirit of wisdom and revelation in the knowledge of him:
1:18 The eyes of your understanding being enlightened; that you may know what is the hope of his calling, and what the riches of the glory of his inheritance in the saints,
1:19 And what is the exceeding greatness of his power toward us who believe, according to the working of his mighty power,
1:20 Which he wrought in Christ, when he raised him from the dead, and set him at his own right hand in the heavenly places,
1:21 Far above all principality, and power, and might, and dominion, and every name that is named, not only in this world, but also in that which is to come:
1:22 And has put all things under his feet, and gave him to be the head over all things to the church,
1:23 Which is his body, the fullness of him that fills all in all.

Chapter 2

2:1 And you he has made alive, who were dead in trespasses and sins;
2:2 In which in time past you walked according to the course of this world, according to the prince of the power of the air, the spirit that now works in the children of disobedience:

2:3 Among whom also we all had our conduct in times past in the lusts of our flesh, fulfilling the desires of the flesh and of the mind; and were by nature the children of wrath, just as others.
2:4 But God, who is rich in mercy, for his great love with which he loved us,
2:5 Even when we were dead in sins, has made us alive together with Christ, (by grace you are saved;)
2:6 And has raised us up together, and made us sit together in heavenly places in Christ Jesus:
2:7 That in the ages to come he might show the exceeding riches of his grace in his kindness toward us through Christ Jesus.
2:8 For by grace are you saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God:
2:9 Not of works, lest any man should boast.
2:10 For we are his workmanship, created in Christ Jesus for good works, which God has before ordained that we should walk in them.
2:11 Therefore remember, that you being in time past Gentiles in the flesh, who are called Uncircumcision by that which is called the Circumcision in the flesh made by hands;
2:12 That at that time you were without Christ, being aliens from the commonwealth of Israel, and strangers to the covenants of promise, having no hope, and without God in the world:
2:13 But now in Christ Jesus you who at one time were far off are made near by the blood of Christ.
2:14 For he is our peace, who has made both one, and has broken down the middle wall of partition between us;
2:15 Having abolished in his flesh the enmity, even the law of commandments contained in ordinances; for to make in himself out of two one new man, so making peace;
2:16 And that he might reconcile both to God in one body by the cross, having slain the enmity thereby:
2:17 And came and preached peace to you who were afar off, and to them that were near.
2:18 For through him we both have access by one Spirit to the Father.
2:19 Now therefore you are no longer strangers and foreigners, but fellow citizens with the saints, and of the household of God;
2:20 And are built upon the foundation of the apostles and prophets, Jesus Christ himself being the chief corner stone;
2:21 In whom all the building fitly framed together grows unto a holy temple in the Lord:
2:22 In whom you also are built together for a habitation of God through the Spirit.

Chapter 3

3:1 For this cause I Paul, the prisoner of Jesus Christ for you Gentiles,
3:2 If you have heard of the dispensation of the grace of God which is given me toward you:
3:3 That by revelation he made known to me the mystery; (as I wrote before in few words,
3:4 Whereby, when you read, you may understand my knowledge in the mystery of Christ)
3:5 Which in other ages was not made known to the sons of men, as it is now revealed to his holy apostles and prophets by the Spirit;
3:6 That the Gentiles should be fellow heirs, and of the same body, and partakers of his promise in Christ by the gospel:
3:7 Whereof I was made a minister, according to the gift of the grace of God given to me by the effective working of his power.
3:8 To me, who am less than the least of all saints, is this grace given, that I should preach among the Gentiles the unsearchable riches of Christ;

3:9 And to make all men see what is the fellowship of the mystery, which from the beginning of the world has been hid in God, who created all things by Jesus Christ:
3:10 To the intent that now to the principalities and powers in heavenly places might be known by the church the manifold wisdom of God,
3:11 According to the eternal purpose which he purposed in Christ Jesus our Lord:
3:12 In whom we have boldness and access with confidence by the faith of him.
3:13 Therefore I desire that you faint not at my tribulations for you, which is your glory.
3:14 For this cause I bow my knees to the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ,
3:15 Of whom the whole family in heaven and earth is named,
3:16 That he would grant you, according to the riches of his glory, to be strengthened with might by his Spirit in the inner man;
3:17 That Christ may dwell in your hearts by faith; that you, being rooted and grounded in love,
3:18 May be able to comprehend with all saints what is the breadth, and length, and depth, and height;
3:19 And to know the love of Christ, which passes knowledge, that you might be filled with all the fullness of God.
3:20 Now to him that is able to do exceedingly abundantly above all that we ask or think, according to the power that works in us,
3:21 To him be glory in the church by Christ Jesus throughout all ages, world without end. Amen.

Chapter 4

4:1 I therefore, the prisoner of the Lord, beseech you that you walk worthy of the vocation with which you are called,
4:2 With all lowliness and meekness, with longsuffering, forbearing one another in love;
4:3 Endeavoring to keep the unity of the Spirit in the bond of peace.
4:4 There is one body, and one Spirit, just as you are called in one hope of your calling;
4:5 One Lord, one faith, one baptism,
4:6 One God and Father of all, who is above all, and through all, and in you all.
4:7 But unto every one of us is given grace according to the measure of the gift of Christ.
4:8 Therefore he says, When he ascended up on high, he led captivity captive, and gave gifts to men.
4:9 (Now that he ascended, what is it but that he also descended first into the lower parts of the earth?
4:10 He who descended is the same also who ascended up far above all heavens, that he might fill all things.)
4:11 And he gave some, apostles; and some, prophets; and some, evangelists; and some, pastors and teachers;
4:12 For the perfecting of the saints, for the work of the ministry, for the edifying of the body of Christ:
4:13 Till we all come in the unity of the faith, and of the knowledge of the Son of God, unto a perfect man, unto the measure of the stature of the fullness of Christ:
4:14 That we henceforth be no more children, tossed to and fro, and carried about with every wind of doctrine, by the sleight of men, and cunning craftiness, whereby they lie in wait to deceive;
4:15 But speaking the truth in love, may grow up into him in all things, which is the head, even Christ:
4:16 From whom the whole body fitly joined together and compacted by that which every joint supplies, according to the effective working in the measure of every part, makes increase of the body unto the edifying of itself in love.
4:17 This I say therefore, and testify in the Lord, that you from now on walk not as other Gentiles walk, in the vanity of their mind,

4:18 Having the understanding darkened, being alienated from the life of God through the ignorance that is in them, because of the blindness of their heart:
4:19 Who being past feeling have given themselves over to lasciviousness, to work all uncleanness with greediness.
4:20 But you have not so learned Christ;
4:21 If so be that you have heard him, and have been taught by him, as the truth is in Jesus:
4:22 That you put off concerning the former conduct the old man, which is corrupt according to the deceitful lusts;
4:23 And be renewed in the spirit of your mind;
4:24 And that you put on the new man, which after God is created in righteousness and true holiness.
4:25 Therefore putting away lying, speak every one truth with his neighbor: for we are members one of another.
4:26 Be angry, and sin not: let not the sun go down on your wrath:
4:27 Neither give place to the devil.
4:28 Let him that stole steal no more: but rather let him labor, working with his hands the thing which is good, that he may have to give to him that needs it.
4:29 Let no corrupt communication proceed out of your mouth, but only that which is good to the use of edifying, that it may minister grace to the hearers.
4:30 And grieve not the holy Spirit of God, whereby you are sealed until the day of redemption.
4:31 Let all bitterness, and wrath, and anger, and clamor, and denigrating, be put away from you, along with all malice:
4:32 And be kind one to another, tenderhearted, forgiving one another, just as God for Christ's sake has forgiven you.

Chapter 5

5:1 Be therefore imitators of God, as dear children;
5:2 And walk in love, as Christ also has loved us, and given himself for us as an offering and a sacrifice to God for a sweet smelling savour.
5:3 But fornication, along with all uncleanness or covetousness, let it not be once named among you, as is becoming to saints;
5:4 Neither filthiness, nor foolish talking, nor jesting, which are not fitting: but rather giving of thanks.
5:5 For this you know, that no fornicator, nor unclean person, nor covetous person, who is an idolater, has any inheritance in the kingdom of Christ and of God.
5:6 Let no one deceive you with vain words: it is because of these things the wrath of God is coming upon the children of disobedience.
5:7 Be not therefore partakers with them.
5:8 For you were at one time darkness, but now you are light in the Lord: walk as children of light:
5:9 (For the fruit of the Spirit is in all goodness and righteousness and truth;)
5:10 Proving what is acceptable in the eyes of the Lord.
5:11 And have no fellowship with the unfruitful works of darkness, but rather reprove them.
5:12 For it is a shame even to speak of those things which are done by them in secret.
5:13 But all things that are reproved are made manifest by the light: for whatsoever does make manifest is light.
5:14 Therefore he says, "Awake you that sleep, and arise from the dead, and Christ shall give you light."
5:15 See then that you walk circumspectly, not as fools, but as wise,
5:16 Redeeming the time, because the days are evil.
5:17 Therefore be not unwise, but understanding what the will of the Lord is.
5:18 And be not drunk with wine, in which is excess; but be filled with the Spirit;
5:19 Speaking to one another in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing and making melody in your heart to the Lord;

5:20 Giving thanks always for all things unto God and the Father in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ;
5:21 Submitting yourselves one to another in the fear of God.
5:22 Wives, submit yourselves to your own husbands, as unto the Lord.
5:23 For the husband is the head of the wife, just as Christ is the head of the church: and he is the saviour of the body.
5:24 Therefore as the church is subject unto Christ, so let the wives be to their own husbands in everything.
5:25 Husbands, love your wives, just as Christ also loved the church, and gave himself for it;
5:26 That he might sanctify and cleanse it with the washing of water by the word,
5:27 That he might present it to himself a glorious church, not having spot, or wrinkle, or any such thing; but that it should be holy and without blemish.
5:28 So ought men to love their wives as their own bodies. He that loves his wife loves himself.
5:29 For no man ever yet hated his own flesh; but nourishes and cherishes it, just as the Lord the church:
5:30 For we are members of his body, of his flesh, and of his bones.
5:31 For this cause shall a man leave his father and mother, and shall be joined unto his wife, and they two shall be one flesh.
5:32 This is a great mystery: but I speak concerning Christ and the church.
5:33 Nevertheless let every one of you so love his own wife just as himself; and the wife see that she reverence her husband.

Chapter 6

6:1 Children, obey your parents in the Lord: for this is right.
6:2 honor your father and mother; which is the first commandment with a promise;
6:3 That it may be well with you, and you may live long on the earth.
6:4 And, you fathers, provoke not your children to wrath: but bring them up in the nurture and admonition of the Lord.
6:5 Servants, be obedient to them that are your masters according to the flesh, with fear and trembling, in singleness of your heart, as if to Christ;
6:6 Not with eyeservice, as people pleasers; but as the servants of Christ, doing the will of God from the heart;
6:7 With good will doing service, as to the Lord, and not to men:
6:8 Knowing that whatsoever good thing any man does, the same shall he receive from the Lord, whether he be bond or free.
6:9 And, you masters, do the same things to them, forbearing threatening: knowing that your Master also is in heaven; neither is there respect of persons with him.
6:10 Finally, my brothers, be strong in the Lord, and in the power of his might.
6:11 Put on the whole armour of God, that you may be able to stand against the wiles of the devil.
6:12 For our combat is not against flesh and blood, but against the principalities, authorities, powers of darkness of this world, the spiritual wickedness in heavenly realms.
6:13 Therefore take to yourself the whole armour of God, that you may be able to withstand in the evil day, and having done all, to stand.
6:14 Stand therefore, having your loins girded around with truth, and having on the breastplate of righteousness;
6:15 And your feet shod with the preparation of the gospel of peace;
6:16 Above all, taking the shield of faith, with which you shall be able to quench all the fiery darts of the wicked.
6:17 And take the helmet of salvation, and the sword of the Spirit, which is the word of God:
6:18 Praying always with all prayer and supplication in the Spirit, and watching thereunto with all perseverance and supplication for all saints;
6:19 And for me, that utterance may be given to me, that I may open my mouth boldly, to make known the mystery of the gospel,

6:20 For which I am an ambassador in chains: that in it I may speak boldly, as I ought to speak.
6:21 But so you also may know my affairs, and how I do, Tychicus, a beloved brother and faithful minister in the Lord, shall make known to you all things:
6:22 Whom I have sent to you for the same purpose, that you might know our affairs, and that he might comfort your hearts.
6:23 Peace be to the brothers, and love with faith, from God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.
6:24 Grace be with all them that love our Lord Jesus Christ in sincerity. Amen.

The Epistle of Paul the Apostle to the Philippians

Philippians

Chapter 1

1:1 Paul and Timotheus, the servants of Jesus Christ, to all the saints in Christ Jesus which are at Philippi, with the overseers and deacons:
1:2 Grace be unto you, and peace, from God our Father, and from the Lord Jesus Christ.
1:3 I thank my God upon every remembrance of you,
1:4 Always in every prayer of mine for you all making request with joy,
1:5 For your fellowship in the gospel from the first day until now;
1:6 Being confident of this very thing, that he which has begun a good work in you will perform it until the day of Jesus Christ:
1:7 Just as it is suitable for me to think this of you all, because I have you in my heart; inasmuch as both in my bonds, and in the defense and confirmation of the gospel, you all are partakers of my grace.
1:8 For God is my record, how greatly I long after you all with the affection of Jesus Christ.
1:9 And this I pray, that your love may abound yet more and more in knowledge and in all judgment;
1:10 That you may approve things that are excellent; that you may be sincere and without offense till the day of Christ.
1:11 Being filled with the fruits of righteousness, which are by Jesus Christ, unto the glory and praise of God.
1:12 But I would you should understand, brothers, that the things which happened to me have fallen out rather unto the furtherance of the gospel;
1:13 So that my bonds in Christ are manifest in all the palace, and in all other places;
1:14 And many of the brothers in the Lord, growing confident by my bonds, are much more bold to speak the word without fear.
1:15 Some indeed preach Christ even of jealousy and strife; and some also of good will:
1:16 The one preach Christ of contention, not sincerely, supposing to add affliction to my bonds:
1:17 But the other of love, knowing that I am set for the defense of the gospel.
1:18 What then? notwithstanding, every way, whether in pretense, or in truth, Christ is preached; and I in it do rejoice, yes, and will rejoice.
1:19 For I know that this shall turn to my salvation through your prayer, and the supply of the Spirit of Jesus Christ,
1:20 According to my earnest expectation and my hope, that in nothing I shall be ashamed, but that with all boldness, as always, so now also Christ shall be magnified in my body, whether it be by life, or by death.
1:21 For to me to live is Christ, and to die is gain.
1:22 But if I live in the flesh, this is the fruit of my labor: yet what I shall choose I know not.
1:23 For I am in a tight place between the two, having a desire to depart, an to be with Christ; which is far better:
1:24 Nevertheless to abide in the flesh is more needed by you.
1:25 And having this confidence, I know that I shall abide and continue with you all for your furtherance and joy of faith;
1:26 That your rejoicing may be more abundant in Jesus Christ for me by my coming to you again.
1:27 Only let your conduct be as it becomes the gospel of Christ: that whether I come and see you, or else be absent, I may hear of your affairs, that you stand fast in one spirit, with one mind striving together for the faith of the gospel;
1:28 And in nothing terrified by your adversaries: which is to them an evident token of perdition, but to you of salvation, and that of God.

1:29 For unto you it is given in the behalf of Christ, not only to believe on him, but also to suffer for his sake;
1:30 Having the same conflict which you saw in me, and now hear to be in me.

Chapter 2

2:1 If there be therefore any consolation in Christ, if any comfort of love, if any fellowship of the Spirit, if any tenderness and mercies,
2:2 Fulfill ye my joy, that you be likeminded, having the same love, being of one accord, of one mind.
2:3 Let nothing be done through strife or vainglory; but in lowliness of mind let each esteem other better than themselves.
2:4 Look not every man on his own things, but every man also on the things of others.
2:5 Let this mind be in you, which was also in Christ Jesus:
2:6 Who, being in the form of God, thought it not robbery to be equal with God:
2:7 But made himself of no reputation, and took upon him the form of a servant, and was made in the likeness of men:
2:8 And being found in fashion as a man, he humbled himself, and became obedient unto death, even the death of the cross.
2:9 Therefore God also has highly exalted him, and given him a name which is above every name:
2:10 That at the name of Jesus every knee should bow, of things in heaven, and things in earth, and things under the earth;
2:11 And that every tongue should confess that Jesus Christ is Lord, to the glory of God the Father.
2:12 Therefore, my beloved, as you have always obeyed, not as in my presence only, but now much more in my absence, work out your own salvation with fear and trembling.
2:13 For it is God which works in you both to will and to do of his good pleasure.
2:14 Do all things without murmurings and disputings:
2:15 That you may be blameless and harmless, the sons of God, without rebuke, in the midst of a crooked and perverse nation, among whom you shine as lights in the world;
2:16 Holding forth the word of life; that I may rejoice in the day of Christ, that I have not run in vain, neither labored in vain.
2:17 Yes, and if I be offered upon the sacrifice and service of your faith, I joy, and rejoice with you all.
2:18 For the same cause also do you joy, and rejoice with me.
2:19 But I trust in the Lord Jesus to send Timotheus shortly unto you, that I also may be of good comfort, when I know your state.
2:20 For I have no man likeminded, who will naturally care for your state.
2:21 For all seek their own, not the things which are Jesus Christ's.
2:22 But you know the proof of him, that, as a son with the father, he has served with me in the gospel.
2:23 Him therefore I hope to send presently, so soon as I shall see how it will go with me.
2:24 But I trust in the Lord that I also myself shall come shortly.
2:25 Yet I supposed it necessary to send to you Epaphroditus, my brother, and companion in labor, and fellow soldier, but your messenger, and he that ministered to my wants.
2:26 For he longed after you all, and was full of heaviness, because that you had heard that he had been sick.
2:27 For indeed he was sick close unto death: but God had mercy on him; and not on him only, but on me also, lest I should have sorrow upon sorrow.
2:28 I sent him therefore the more carefully, that, when you see him again, you may rejoice, and that I may be the less sorrowful.
2:29 Receive him therefore in the Lord with all gladness; and hold such in reputation:

2:30 Because for the work of Christ he was close unto death, not regarding his life, to supply your lack of service toward me.

Chapter 3

3:1 Finally, my brothers, rejoice in the Lord. To write the same things to you, to me indeed is not grievous, but for you it is safe.
3:2 Beware of dogs, beware of evil workers, beware of the concision.
3:3 For we are the circumcision, which worship God in the spirit, and rejoice in Christ Jesus, and have no confidence in the flesh.
3:4 Though I might also have confidence in the flesh. If any other man thinks that he has whereof he might trust in the flesh, I more:
3:5 Circumcised the eighth day, of the stock of Israel, of the tribe of Benjamin, a Hebrew of the Hebrews; as touching the law, a Pharisee;
3:6 Concerning zeal, persecuting the church; touching the righteousness which is in the law, blameless.
3:7 But what things were gain to me, those I counted loss for Christ.
3:8 Yes doubtless, and I count all things but loss for the excellency of the knowledge of Christ Jesus my Lord: for whom I have suffered the loss of all things, and do count them but dung, that I may win Christ,
3:9 And be found in him, not having my own righteousness, which is of the law, but that which is through the faith of Christ, the righteousness which is of God by faith:
3:10 That I may know him, and the power of his resurrection, and the fellowship of his sufferings, being made conformable unto his death;
3:11 If by any means I might attain unto the resurrection of the dead.
3:12 Not as though I had already attained, either were already perfect: but I follow after, if that I may apprehend that for which also I am apprehended of Christ Jesus.
3:13 Brethren, I count not myself to have apprehended: but this one thing I do, forgetting those things which are behind, and reaching forth unto those things which are before,
3:14 I press toward the mark for the prize of the high calling of God in Christ Jesus.
3:15 Let us therefore, as many as be perfect, be thus minded: and if in any thing you be otherwise minded, God shall reveal even this unto you.
3:16 Nevertheless, whereto we have already attained, let us walk by the same rule, let us mind the same thing.
3:17 Brethren, be followers together of me, and mark those who walk so as you have us for an example.
3:18 (For many walk, of whom I have told you often, and now tell you even weeping, that they are the enemies of the cross of Christ:
3:19 Whose end is destruction, whose God is their belly, and whose glory is in their shame, who mind earthly things.)
3:20 For our citizenship is in heaven; from where also we look for the Saviour, the Lord Jesus Christ:
3:21 Who shall change our vile body, that it may be fashioned like unto his glorious body, according to the working whereby he is able even to subdue all things unto himself.

Chapter 4

4:1 Therefore, my brothers dearly beloved and longed for, my joy and crown, so stand fast in the Lord, my dearly beloved.
4:2 I beseech Euodias, and beseech Syntyche, that they be of the same mind in the Lord.
4:3 And I entreat you also, true yokefellow, help those women which labored with me in the gospel, with Clement also, and with other my fellow laborers, whose names are in the book of life.
4:4 Rejoice in the Lord always: and again I say, Rejoice.
4:5 Let your moderation be known unto all men. The Lord is at hand.
4:6 Be anxious for nothing; but in everything by prayer and supplication with thanksgiving let your requests be made known unto God.

4:7 And the peace of God, which passes all understanding, shall keep your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus.
4:8 Finally, brothers, whatsoever things are true, whatsoever things are honest, whatsoever things are just, whatsoever things are pure, whatsoever things are lovely, whatsoever things are of good report; if there be any virtue, and if there be any praise, think on these things.
4:9 Those things, which you have both learned, and received, and heard, and seen in me, do: and the God of peace shall be with you.
4:10 But I rejoiced in the Lord greatly, that now at the last your care of me has flourished again; in which you were also anxious, but you lacked opportunity.
4:11 Not that I speak in respect of want: for I have learned, in whatsoever state I am, therewith to be content.
4:12 I know both how to be abased, and I know how to abound: every where and in all things I am instructed both to be full and to be hungry, both to abound and to suffer need.
4:13 I can do all things through Christ who strengthens me.
4:14 Notwithstanding you have well done, that you did communicate with my affliction.
4:15 Now you Philippians know also, that in the beginning of the gospel, when I departed from Macedonia, no church communicated with me as concerning giving and receiving, but you only.
4:16 For even in Thessalonica you sent once and again unto my necessity.
4:17 Not because I desire a gift: but I desire fruit that may abound to your account.
4:18 But I have all, and abound: I am full, having received from Epaphroditus the things which were sent from you, an odor of a sweet smell, a sacrifice acceptable, well pleasing to God.
4:19 But my God shall supply all your need according to his riches in glory by Christ Jesus.
4:20 Now unto God and our Father be glory forever and ever. Amen.
4:21 Salute every saint in Christ Jesus. The brothers which are with me greet you.
4:22 All the saints salute you, chiefly they that are of Caesar's household.
4:23 The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all. Amen.

The Epistle of Paul the Apostle to the Colossians

Colossians

Chapter 1

1:1 Paul, an apostle of Jesus Christ by the will of God, and Timothy our brother,
1:2 To the saints and faithful brothers in Christ which are at Colossae: Grace be to you, and peace, from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.
1:3 We give thanks to God and the Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, praying always for you,
1:4 Since we heard of your faith in Christ Jesus, and of the love which you have to all the saints,
1:5 For the hope which is laid up for you in heaven, of which you heard before in the word of the truth of the gospel;
1:6 Which is come to you, as it is in all the world; and brings forth fruit, as it does also in you, since the day you heard of it, and knew the grace of God in truth:
1:7 As you also learned of Epaphras our dear fellow servant, who is for you a faithful minister of Christ;
1:8 Who also declared to us your love in the Spirit.
1:9 For this cause we also, since the day we heard it, do not cease to pray for you, and to desire that you might be filled with the knowledge of his will in all wisdom and spiritual understanding;
1:10 That you might walk worthy of the Lord unto all pleasing, being fruitful in every good work, and increasing in the knowledge of God;
1:11 Strengthened with all might, according to his glorious power, to all patience and longsuffering with joyfulness;
1:12 Giving thanks to the Father, who has qualified us to be partakers of the inheritance of the saints in light:
1:13 Who has delivered us from the power of darkness, and has translated us into the kingdom of his dear Son:
1:14 In whom we have redemption through his blood, even the forgiveness of sins:
1:15 Who is the image of the invisible God, the firstborn of all creation:
1:16 For by him were all things created, that are in heaven, and that are in earth, visible and invisible, whether they be thrones, or dominions, or principalities, or powers- all things were created by him, and for him:
1:17 And he is before all things, and by him all things consist.
1:18 And he is the head of the body, the church: who is the beginning, the firstborn from the dead; that in all things he might have the preeminence.
1:19 For it pleased the Father that in him should all fullness dwell;
1:20 And, having made peace through the blood of his cross, by him to reconcile all things to himself; by him, I say, whether they be things in earth, or things in heaven.
1:21 And you, who were once alienated and enemies in your mind because of wicked works, yet now he has reconciled
1:22 In the body of his flesh through death, to present you holy and blameless and unreproveable in his sight:
1:23 If you continue in the faith grounded and settled, and be not moved away from the hope of the gospel, which you have heard, and which was preached to every creature which is under heaven; whereof I Paul am made a minister;
1:24 Who now rejoice in my sufferings for you, and in my flesh I am completing what is lacking of the afflictions of Christ for his body's sake, which is the church:
1:25 Whereof I am made a minister, according to the dispensation of God which is given to me for you, to fulfill the word of God;
1:26 Even the mystery which has been hidden from ages and from generations, but is now made manifest to his saints:
1:27 To whom God would make known what is the riches of the glory of this mystery among the Gentiles; which is Christ in you, the hope of glory:
1:28 Whom we preach, warning every person, and teaching every person in all wisdom; that we may present every person perfect in Christ Jesus:

1:29 Toward this I also labor, striving according to his working, which works in me mightily.

Chapter 2

2:1 For I wish you knew what a great struggle I have for you, and for those at Laodicea, and for as many as have not seen my face in the flesh;
2:2 That their hearts might be comforted, being knit together in love, even toward all riches of the full assurance of understanding, toward the knowledge of the mystery of God, and of the Father, and of Christ;
2:3 In whom are hidden all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge.
2:4 And this I say, so that no one will beguile you with enticing words.
2:5 For though I am absent in the flesh, yet I am with you in the spirit, enjoying and beholding your orderly procedure, and the steadfastness of your faith in Christ.
2:6 As you have therefore received Christ Jesus the Lord, so walk in him:
2:7 Rooted and built up in him, and established in the faith, as you have been taught, abounding in it with thanksgiving.
2:8 Beware lest anyone spoil you through philosophy and vain deceit, after the tradition of men, after the rudiments of the world, and not after Christ.
2:9 For in him dwells all the fullness of the Godhead bodily.
2:10 And you are complete in him, which is the head of all principality and power:
2:11 In whom also you are circumcised with the circumcision made without hands, in putting off the body of the sins of the flesh by the circumcision of Christ:
2:12 Buried with him in baptism, in which also you are risen with him through the faith of the operation of God, who has raised him from the dead.
2:13 And you, who were dead in your sins and the uncircumcision of your flesh, to you he has given life together with him, having forgiven you all your trespasses;
2:14 Blotting out the handwriting of ordinances that was against us, which was contrary to us, and took it out of the way, nailing it to the cross;
2:15 And having disarmed principalities and powers, he made a show of them openly, triumphing over them in it.
2:16 Let no one therefore judge you in the matter of food, or drink, or with respect to a holy day, or the new moon, or the Sabbath days:
2:17 Which are a shadow of things to come; but the body is of Christ.
2:18 Let no one beguile you of your reward in a false humility and worshipping of angels, intruding into those things which he has not seen, vainly puffed up by his fleshly mind,
2:19 And not holding the Head, from which all the body by joints and bands having nourishment ministered, and knit together, increases with the increase of God.
2:20 Therefore if you are now dead with Christ from the rudiments of the world, why, as though living in the world, are you subject to ordinances,
2:21 (Touch not; taste not; handle not;
2:22 Which all are to perish with the using;) after the commandments and doctrines of men?
2:23 Which things have indeed a show of wisdom in self-imposed servitude, and humiliation, and severity to the body: with no value for the placating of the flesh.

Chapter 3

3:1 Since then you are risen together with Christ, seek those things which are above, where Christ sits on the right hand of God.
3:2 Set your affection on things above, not on things on the earth.
3:3 For you are dead, and your life is hid with Christ in God.
3:4 When Christ, who is our life, shall appear, then shall you also appear with him in glory.
3:5 Mortify therefore your members which are on the earth; fornication, uncleanness, inordinate affection, evil sexual desire, and covetousness, which is idolatry:
3:6 For which things' sake the wrath of God comes on the children of disobedience:
3:7 In which you also in time past walked, when you lived in them.

3:8 But now you also put off all these; anger, wrath, malice, denigrating, filthy communication out of your mouth.
3:9 Lie not one to another, seeing that you have put off the old man with his deeds;
3:10 And have put on the new man, which is renewed in knowledge after the image of him that created him:
3:11 Where there is neither Greek nor Jew, circumcision nor uncircumcision, Barbarian, Scythian, bond nor free: but Christ is all, and in all.
3:12 Put on therefore, as the elect of God, holy and beloved, tender hearts, kindness, humbleness of mind, meekness, longsuffering;
3:13 Forbearing one another, and forgiving one another if anyone has a quarrel against any: just as Christ forgave you, so also you do.
3:14 And above all these things put on love, which is the perfect bond.
3:15 And let the peace of God be the umpire in your hearts, to which also you are called in one body; and be thankful.
3:16 Let the word of Christ dwell in you richly in all wisdom; teaching and admonishing one another in psalms and hymns and spiritual songs, singing with grace in your hearts to the Lord.
3:17 And whatsoever you do in word or deed, do all in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God and the Father by him.
3:18 Wives, submit to your own husbands, as it is fitting in the Lord.
3:19 Husbands, love your wives, and be not bitter against them.
3:20 Children, obey your parents in all things: for this is well pleasing to the Lord.
3:21 Fathers, provoke not your children to anger, lest they be discouraged.
3:22 Servants, obey in all things your masters according to the flesh; not with eyeservice, as people pleasers; but in singleness of heart fearing God;
3:23 And whatsoever you do, do it heartily, as to the Lord, and not to people;
3:24 Knowing that from the Lord you shall receive the reward of the inheritance: for you serve the Lord Christ.
3:25 But he that does wrong shall receive for the wrong which he has done: and there is no respect for classes.

Chapter 4

4:1 Masters, give to your servants what is just and equitable; knowing that you also have a Master in heaven.
4:2 Continue always in prayer, keeping alert therein with thanksgiving;
4:3 Meanwhile praying also for us, that God would open to us a door of utterance, to speak the mystery of Christ, for the sake of which I am also in chains:
4:4 That I may make it plain, as I ought to speak.
4:5 Walk in wisdom before them that are outside, redeeming the time.
4:6 Let your speech be always with grace, seasoned with salt, that you may know how you ought to answer each individual person.
4:7 All my situation Tychicus will make known to you, who is a beloved brother, and a faithful minister and fellow servant in the Lord:
4:8 Whom I have sent to you for the same purpose, that he might know your situation, and comfort your hearts;
4:9 Along with Onesimus, a faithful and beloved brother, who is one of you. They shall make known to you all things which are done here.
4:10 Aristarchus my fellow prisoner salutes you, and Marcus, sister's son to Barnabas, (touching whom you received instructions: if he comes to you, receive him;)
4:11 And Jesus, which is called Justus, who are of the circumcision. These only are my fellow workers for the kingdom of God, which have been a comfort to me.
4:12 Epaphras, who is one of you, a servant of Christ, salutes you, always laboring fervently for you in prayers, that you may stand perfect and complete in all the will of God.
4:13 For I bear him record, that he has a great zeal for you, and those that are in Laodicea, and those in Hierapolis.
4:14 Luke, the beloved physician, and Demas, greet you.

4:15 Salute the brothers which are in Laodicea, and Nymphas, and the church which is in his house.
4:16 And when this epistle is read among you, cause that it be read also in the church of the Laodiceans; and that you likewise read the epistle from Laodicea.
4:17 And say to Archippus, Take heed to the ministry which you have received in the Lord, that you fulfill it.
4:18 The salutation is by the hand of me, Paul. Remember my chains. Grace be with you. Amen.

The First Epistle of Paul the Apostle to the Thessalonians

1 Thessalonians

Chapter 1

1:1 Paul, and Silvanus, and Timothy, to the church of the Thessalonians which is in God the Father and in the Lord Jesus Christ: Grace be unto you, and peace, from God our Father, and the Lord Jesus Christ.
1:2 We give thanks to God always for you all, making mention of you in our prayers;
1:3 Remembering without ceasing your work of faith, and labor of love, and patience of hope in our Lord Jesus Christ, in the sight of God and our Father;
1:4 Knowing, brothers beloved, your election of God.
1:5 For our gospel came not unto you in word only, but also in power, and in the Holy Spirit, and in much assurance; as you know what manner of men we were among you for your sake.
1:6 And you became followers of us, and of the Lord, having received the word in much affliction, with joy of the Holy Spirit.
1:7 So that you were examples to all who believe in Macedonia and Achaia.
1:8 For from you sounded out the word of the Lord not only in Macedonia and Achaia, but also in every place your faith toward God is spread abroad; so that we need not to speak any thing.
1:9 For they themselves show of us what manner of entering in we had unto you, and how you turned to God from idols to serve the living and true God;
1:10 And to wait for his Son from heaven, whom he raised from the dead, which is Jesus, which delivered us from the wrath to come.

Chapter 2

2:1 For you yourselves, brothers, know our entrance in unto you, that it was not in vain:
2:2 But even after we had suffered before, and were shamefully treated, as you know, at Philippi, we were bold in our God to speak to you the gospel of God with much contention.
2:3 For our exhortation was not of deceit, nor of uncleanness, nor in guile:
2:4 But as we were allowed of God to be put in trust with the gospel, even so we speak; not as pleasing men, but God, which tries our hearts.
2:5 For neither at any time did we use flattering words, as you know, nor a cloak of covetousness; God is witness:
2:6 Nor of men sought we glory, neither of you, nor yet of others, when we might have been burdensome, as the apostles of Christ.
2:7 But we were gentle among you, just as a nurse cherishes her children:
2:8 So being affectionately desirous of you, we were willing to have imparted unto you, not the gospel of God only, but also our own souls, because you were dear to us.
2:9 For you remember, brothers, our labor and travail: for laboring night and day, because we wanted not to be a burden to any of you, we preached unto you the gospel of God.
2:10 You are witnesses, and God also, how devoutly and justly and unblameably we behaved ourselves among you that believe:
2:11 As you know how we exhorted and comforted and charged every one of you, as a father does his children,
2:12 That you would walk worthy of God, who has called you unto his kingdom and glory.
2:13 For this cause also thank we God without ceasing, because, when you received the word of God which you heard from us, you received it not as the word of men, but as it is in truth, the word of God, which effectively works also in you that believe.

2:14 For you, brothers, became followers of the churches of God which in Judaea are in Christ Jesus: for you also have suffered similar things from your own countrymen, just as they have from the Jews:
2:15 Who both killed the Lord Jesus, and their own prophets, and have persecuted us; and they please not God, and are contrary to all men:
2:16 Forbidding us to speak to the Gentiles that they might be saved, to fill up their sins always: for the wrath is come upon them to the uttermost.
2:17 But we, brothers, being taken from you for a short time in presence, not in heart, endeavored the more abundantly to see your face with great desire.
2:18 Therefore we would have come unto you, even I Paul, once and again; but Satan hindered us.
2:19 For what is our hope, or joy, or crown of rejoicing? Are not even you in the presence of our Lord Jesus Christ at his coming?
2:20 For you are our glory and joy.

Chapter 3

3:1 Therefore when we could no longer hold back, we thought it good to be left at Athens alone;
3:2 And sent Timothy, our brother, and minister of God, and our fellow laborer in the gospel of Christ, to establish you, and to comfort you concerning your faith:
3:3 That no man should be moved by these afflictions: for you yourselves know that we are appointed unto them.
3:4 For indeed, when we were with you, we told you before that we should suffer tribulation; just as it came to pass, and you know.
3:5 For this cause, when I could no longer hold back, I sent to know your faith, lest by some means the tempter may have tempted you, and our labor be in vain.
3:6 But now when Timothy came from you to us, and brought us good tidings of your faith and love, and that you have good remembrance of us always, desiring greatly to see us, as we also to see you:
3:7 Therefore, brothers, we were comforted over you in all our affliction and distress by your faith:
3:8 For now we live, if you stand fast in the Lord.
3:9 For what thanks can we render to God again for you, for all the joy with which we joy for your sakes before our God;
3:10 Night and day praying exceedingly that we might see your face, and might perfect that which is lacking in your faith?
3:11 Now may God himself and our Father, and our Lord Jesus Christ, direct our way unto you.
3:12 And the Lord make you to increase and abound in love one toward another, and toward all men, just as we do toward you:
3:13 To the end he may establish your hearts unblameable in holiness before God, even our Father, at the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ with all his saints.

Chapter 4

4:1 Furthermore then we beseech you, brothers, and exhort you by the Lord Jesus, that as you have received from us how you ought to walk and to please God, so you would abound more and more.
4:2 For you know what commandments we gave you by the Lord Jesus.
4:3 For this is the will of God, even your sanctification, that you should abstain from fornication:
4:4 That every one of you should know how to possess his vessel in sanctification and honor;
4:5 Not in the lust of sexual desire, just as the Gentiles which know not God:
4:6 That no man go beyond and defraud his brother in any matter: because that the Lord is the avenger of all such, as we also have forewarned you and testified.
4:7 For God has not called us to uncleanness, but to holiness.
4:8 He therefore that despises, despises not man, but God, who has also given to us his Holy Spirit.

4:9 But as touching brotherly love you need not that I write to you: for you yourselves are taught from God to love one another.
4:10 And indeed you do it toward all the brothers which are in all Macedonia: but we beseech you, brothers, that you increase more and more;
4:11 And that you study to be quiet, and to do your own business, and to work with your own hands, as we commanded you;
4:12 That you may walk honestly toward them that are outside, and that you may have lack of nothing.
4:13 But I would not have you to be ignorant, brothers, concerning those who are asleep, that you sorrow not, as others which have no hope.
4:14 For if we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so them also which sleep in Jesus will God bring with him.
4:15 For this we say to you by the word of the Lord, that we which are alive and remain unto the coming of the Lord shall not precede those who are asleep.
4:16 For the Lord himself shall descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of the archangel, and with the trump of God: and the dead in Christ shall rise first:
4:17 Then we which are alive and remain shall be caught up together with them in the clouds, to meet the Lord in the air: and so shall we ever be with the Lord.
4:18 Therefore comfort one another with these words.

Chapter 5

5:1 But of the times and the seasons, brothers, you have no need that I write unto you.
5:2 For yourselves know perfectly that the day of the Lord so comes as a thief in the night.
5:3 For when they shall say, Peace and safety; then sudden destruction comes upon them, as travail upon a woman with child; and they shall not escape.
5:4 But you, brothers, are not in darkness, that that day should overtake you as a thief.
5:5 You are all the children of light, and the children of the day: we are not of the night, nor of darkness.
5:6 Therefore let us not sleep, as do others; but let us watch and be sober.
5:7 For they that sleep sleep in the night; and they that be drunken are drunken in the night.
5:8 But let us, who are of the day, be sober, putting on the breastplate of faith and love; and for a helmet, the hope of salvation.
5:9 For God has not appointed us to wrath, but to obtain salvation by our Lord Jesus Christ,
5:10 Who died for us, that, whether we wake or sleep, we should live together with him.
5:11 Therefore comfort yourselves together, and edify one another, just as also you do.
5:12 And we beseech you, brothers, to know those who labor among you, and are over you in the Lord, and admonish you;
5:13 And to esteem them very highly in love for their work's sake. And be at peace among yourselves.
5:14 Now we exhort you, brothers, warn them that are unruly, comfort the fainthearted, support the weak, be patient toward all men.
5:15 See that no one renders evil for evil unto any man; but always follow that which is good, both among yourselves, and to all men.
5:16 Rejoice evermore.
5:17 Pray without ceasing.
5:18 In everything give thanks: for this is the will of God in Christ Jesus concerning you.
5:19 Quench not the Spirit.
5:20 Despise not prophesyings.
5:21 Test all things; hold fast that which is good.
5:22 Abstain from every form of evil.

5:23 And the very God of peace sanctify you wholly; and I pray God your whole spirit and soul and body be preserved blameless unto the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ.
5:24 Faithful is he that calls you, who also will do it.
5:25 Brethren, pray for us.
5:26 Greet all the brothers with a holy kiss.
5:27 I charge you by the Lord that this letter be read unto all the holy brothers.
5:28 The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you. Amen.

The Second Epistle of Paul to the Thessalonians

2 Thessalonians

Chapter 1

1:1 Paul, and Silvanus, and Timotheus, unto the church of the Thessalonians in God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ:
1:2 Grace unto you, and peace, from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.
1:3 We are bound to thank God always for you, brothers, as it is suitable, because that your faith grows exceedingly, and the love of every one of you all toward each other abounds;
1:4 So that we ourselves glory in you in the churches of God for your patience and faith in all your persecutions and tribulations that you endure:
1:5 Which is a manifest token of the righteous judgment of God, that you may be counted worthy of the kingdom of God, for which you also suffer:
1:6 Seeing it is a righteous thing with God to recompense tribulation to them that trouble you;
1:7 And to you who are troubled rest with us, when the Lord Jesus shall be revealed from heaven with his mighty angels,
1:8 In flaming fire taking vengeance on them that know not God, and that obey not the gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ:
1:9 Who shall be punished with everlasting destruction from the presence of the Lord, and from the glory of his power;
1:10 When he shall come to be glorified in his saints, and to be admired in all them that believe (because our testimony among you was believed) in that day.
1:11 Therefore also we pray always for you, that our God would count you worthy of this calling, and fulfill all the good pleasure of his goodness, and the work of faith with power:
1:12 That the name of our Lord Jesus Christ may be glorified in you, and you in him, according to the grace of our God and the Lord Jesus Christ.

Chapter 2

2:1 Now we beseech you, brothers, concerning the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ and our gathering together unto him,
2:2 That you be not soon shaken in mind, or be troubled, neither by spirit, nor by word, nor by letter as from us, as that the day of Christ is at hand.
2:3 Let no man deceive you by any means: for that day shall not come, unless there come a falling away first, and that man of sin be revealed, the son of perdition;
2:4 Who opposes and exalts himself above all that is called God, or that is worshipped; so that he as God sits in the temple of God, showing himself that he is God.
2:5 Do you not remember, that, when I was still with you, I told you these things?
2:6 And now you know what restrains that he might be revealed in his time.
2:7 For the mystery of lawlessness does already work: only he that[364] now restrains will restrain, until he is taken out of the way.
2:8 And then shall that Wicked One be revealed, whom the Lord shall consume with the spirit of his mouth, and shall destroy with the brightness of his coming:
2:9 Even him, whose coming is after the working of Satan with all power and signs and lying wonders,
2:10 And with all deceivableness of unrighteousness in them that perish; because they received not the love of the truth, that they might be saved.
2:11 And for this cause God shall send them strong delusion, that they should believe a lie:
2:12 That they all might be damned who believed not the truth, but had pleasure in unrighteousness.

[364] Or possibly, "that which restrains...until it is taken out of the way"

2:13 But we are bound to give thanks always to God for you, brothers beloved of the Lord, because God has from the beginning chosen you to salvation through sanctification of the Spirit and belief of the truth:
2:14 Whereunto he called you by our gospel, to the obtaining of the glory of our Lord Jesus Christ.
2:15 Therefore, brothers, stand fast, and hold the traditions which you have been taught, whether by word, or our epistle.
2:16 Now our Lord Jesus Christ himself, and God, even our Father, which has loved us, and has given us everlasting consolation and good hope through grace,
2:17 Comfort your hearts, and establish you in every good word and work.

Chapter 3

3:1 Finally, brothers, pray for us, that the word of the Lord may have free course, and be glorified, just as it is with you:
3:2 And that we may be delivered from unreasonable and wicked men: for all men have not faith.
3:3 But the Lord is faithful, who shall establish you, and keep you from evil.
3:4 And we have confidence in the Lord regarding you, that you both do and will do the things which we command you.
3:5 And the Lord direct your hearts into the love of God, and into the patient waiting for Christ.
3:6 Now we command you, brothers, in the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that you withdraw yourselves from every brother that walks disorderly, and not after the tradition which he received of us.
3:7 For yourselves know how you ought to follow us: for we behaved not ourselves disorderly among you;
3:8 Neither did we eat any man's bread for nothing; but wrought with labor and travail night and day, that we might not be chargeable to any of you:
3:9 Not because we have not power, but to make ourselves an example unto you to follow us.
3:10 For even when we were with you, this we commanded you, that if any would not work, neither should he eat.
3:11 For we hear that there are some which walk among you disorderly, working not at all, but are busybodies.
3:12 Now them that are such we command and exhort by our Lord Jesus Christ, that with quietness they work, and eat their own bread.
3:13 But you, brothers, be not weary in well doing.
3:14 And if any man obey not our word by this letter, note that man, and have no company with him, that he may be ashamed.
3:15 Yet count him not as an enemy, but admonish him as a brother.
3:16 Now the Lord of peace himself give you peace always by all means. The Lord be with you all.
3:17 The salutation of Paul with my own hand, which is the token in every letter: so I write.
3:18 The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all. Amen.

*The First Epistle of Paul the Apostle to Timothy

1 Timothy

Chapter 1

[1]Paul, an apostle of Jesus Christ by the commandment of God our Saviour and Lord Jesus Christ our hope;

[2]to Timothy, a true son in the faith:

Grace, mercy, and peace, from God our Father and Jesus Christ our Lord.

[3]The reason I asked you to remain at Ephesus while I went on to Macedonia, was so you might command some not to teach differing doctrine, [4]neither to give attention to inconclusive legends and genealogies, which produce uncertainties rather than godly edifying which is in faith. [5]Now the goal of the commandment is love out of a pure heart and good conscience, and a faith that is unpretended; [6]from which some have swerved, and detoured into idle talk. [7]Desiring to be teachers of the law, they have no understanding of what they are saying, not even about the things they are dogmatically asserting.

[8]But we know that the law is good, if one uses it correctly, [9]knowing this, that the law is not there for a righteous person, but for the lawless and disobedient, for the ungodly and for sinners, for unholy and profane, for assaulters of fathers and assaulters of mothers, for murders, [10]for fornicators, for homosexuals, for human traffickers, for liars, for perjurers, and whatever else is contrary to sound teaching, [11]in accordance with the glorious gospel of the blessed God with which I have been entrusted.

[12]And I am thankful to Christ Jesus our Lord who enabled me. Because he deemed me trustworthy, he appointed me to this stewardship, [13]even though I was before a blasphemer, and a persecutor, and violent: but I obtained mercy, because I did it ignorantly in unbelief. [14]And with faith and love in Christ Jesus, the grace of our Lord abounded all the more. [15]This is a trustworthy saying, and deserving of all acceptance: Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners, of whom I am the worst. [16]But I received mercy for this reason: so that in me first, Jesus Christ might show forth all longsuffering, as a pattern for those who in the future were to believe on him unto eternal life. [17]Now to the King eternal, immortal, invisible, the only wise God, be honor and glory for ever and ever. Amen.

[18]This charge I commit to you, son Timothy, in accordance with the prophecies that were made about you before, that with them you might soldier a good warfare, [19]holding onto faith, and also a good conscience, which some having cast off, have experienced shipwreck as to faith; [20]among whom are Hymenaeus and Alexander; whom I have delivered over to Satan, so they may learn not to blaspheme.

Chapter 2

[1]I exhort therefore, that, first of all, petitions, prayers, intercessions, and giving of thanks be made for every person, [2]for kings, and for all who are in authority, that we may live lives peaceful and undisturbed in all godliness and dignity. [3]For this is good and pleasing in the eyes of God our Saviour, [4]who wants every human to be saved and to come to the knowledge of the truth. [5]For there is one God, and one mediator between God and humans, the man Christ Jesus; [6]who gave himself as a ransom for us all, a testimony for its proper times, [7]about which I was appointed a proclaimer and an apostle, (I speak the truth in Christ, I am not lying), a teacher of the Gentiles in the faith and in the truth.

[8]I want the men in every place therefore, to be lifting up holy hands without anger and contention. [9]So also the women, to be modest in dress, with reverence and chastity, decorating themselves, not with braiding of hair, or gold, or pearls, or expensive garments, [10]but with what suits women professing devotion to God—with good works.

[11]A woman must learn in silence with full submissiveness. [12]And I do not permit a woman to teach, nor to have authority over a man; rather she must be silent. [13]For Adam was first formed, then Eve. [14]And Adam was not deceived. But woman, upon being deceived, is become in a transgression. [15]But she will be healed through childbearing, provided she perseveres in faith and love and holiness with chastity.

Chapter 3

[1]This is a trustworthy saying: If any man aspires to be an overseer, he desires a good work. [2]An overseer, then, must be above reproach, the husband of one woman, circumspect, temperate, orderly, hospitable, able to teach; [3]not given to wine, not violent, not greedy for gain, but gentle, not combative, not covetous; [4]one who rules his own household well, having his children in subjection with all dignity. [5]For if someone does not know how to rule his own household, how will he take care of the church of God? [6]Not a new convert, or he might get puffed up, and fall into the condemnation of the devil. [7]Moreover he must have a good reputation with those outside, so that he not fall into reproach and the snare of the devil.

[8]Likewise also deacons must be dignified, not double-tongued, not given to much wine, not greedy for gain, [9]holding to the mystery of the faith in a clear conscience. [10]And these however you must first prove, and then they shall serve, after being found blameless. [11]Likewise also the wives must be dignified, not slanderers, but temperate, trustworthy in all things. [12]Deacons must be the husband of one woman, ruling well their own children and households. [13]For those serving well as deacons gain a good standing for themselves, and great assurance in the faith that is in Christ Jesus.

[14]I am writing these things to you even though I expect to be present with you soon; [15]but it is so that in case I delay, you may know how to conduct yourself in the house of God, which is the church of the living God, the pillar and the foundation of the truth.

[16]And without question, great is the mystery of godliness: God was manifested in the flesh, certified by the Spirit, visited by angels, proclaimed among the nations, believed on in the world, taken up into glory.

Chapter 4

[1]Now the Spirit clearly says, that in future times some people will fall away from the faith, giving heed to seductive spirits and teachings of demons. [2]With deceiving hypocrisy, their consciences seared beyond sensitivity, [3]they will forbid to marry, and command to abstain from foods, which things God created to be partaken of with thankfulness by those who are believing and acquainted with the truth. [4]For every creation of God is good, and none to be rejected, when received with giving of thanks: [5]because it is made holy through the word of God and prayer. [6]By instructing the brethren these things, you will be a good servant of Jesus Christ, nourished up with the word of faith and the good teachings which you have faithfully followed.

[7]But avoid profane old wives' fables. And exercise yourself toward godliness; [8]for bodily exercise is a little beneficial; but godliness is beneficial in all respects, having the promise of life both present and future. [9]This is a trustworthy saying, and deserving of all acceptance. [10]For this therefore we both toil and suffer reproach, because our hope is placed upon the living God, who is the savior for all, most certainly for those who believe. [11]Command and teach these things.

[12]Let no one despise your youth, but be an example for the believers, in word, in manner of life, in love, in spirit, in faith, in purity. [13]Until I come, devote yourself to the public reading of scripture, to exhortation, to teaching. [14]Do not neglect the gift that is in you, which was given to you by the laying on of hands of the elders. [15]Be earnestly attentive to these things, so your progress may be seen by everyone. [16]Pay close attention to yourself and your teaching. Persevere in them; for by so doing you will save yourself and your hearers.

Chapter 5

[1]Do not rebuke an older man, but appeal to him as a father; exhort the younger men as brothers, [2]the older women as mothers, the younger women as sisters, with all purity.

[3]Support financially the widows who are truly bereft. [4]But if a widow has children or grandchildren, those should practice godliness toward their own family first, and give back in repayment to their parents. For this is good and acceptable in the sight of God. [5]Whereas one who is a widow and is left all alone, she has placed her hope in God, and continues in supplications and prayers night and day. [6]But the one that lives for self-indulgence is dead while she lives. [7]And you must command these things so they are blameless. [8]But if someone of their own family and especially of their immediate relatives, is not providing for them, that person has denied the faith, and is worse than a non-believer. [9]Enroll as a widow the following: not younger than 60 years old, was the wife of only one husband, [10]is witnessed to be with good works, has brought up children, hosted strangers, washed the feet of the saints, helped the afflicted, been devoted to every good work. [11]But deny younger widows. For when they get desires away from Christ, they want to marry, [12]having condemnation, because they have cast off their first faith. [13]At the same time moreover they acquire the habit of being idle, going from house to house, not just idle but tattletales and gossipers as well, speaking things they ought not.. [14]Therefore I want the younger ones to marry, to have children, to maintain a home, for the sake of giving the adversary no opportunity to accuse. [15]Because some have already turned away after Satan. [16]If any male or female believer has widows, let that person assist them and not burden the church, so that the widows who are truly bereft may be assisted.

[17]Those who serve well as elders shall be considered worthy of double financial support, especially those toiling in the word and in teaching. [18]For the scripture says, 'Do not muzzle an ox while it is treading out the grain,'[365] and, 'the worker deserves his pay.'[366] [19]Do not accept an accusation against an elder, unless upon the testimony of two or three witnesses. [20]Those who are sinning, rebuke in front of everyone, so that the others also have fear.

[21]I solemnly charge you before God, and the Lord Jesus Christ, and the elect angels, that you observe these things without preference, doing nothing according to partiality. [22]Do not be hasty laying hands on anyone, neither be partaker in someone else's sins; keep yourself pure. [23]Drink no longer only water, but use a little wine for your stomach's sake and your frequent illnesses.

[365] 1 Tim 5:18a Deut. 25:4
[366] 1 Tim 5:18b Luke 10:7

[24]Some people's sins are evident beforehand, preceding them to judgment; and some people, they follow after. [25]Likewise also the good works of some are evident beforehand; and those which are otherwise, cannot remain hidden.

Chapter 6

[1]Command those who are under the yoke as slaves to render all due honor to their masters, so that the name of God and his doctrine not be slandered. [2]And the ones who have believing masters should not respect them less because they are brothers, but serve them all the better because it is believers and beloved who are benefiting from their good service. Teach and encourage these things.

[3]If anyone teaches different doctrine, and does not accede to sound words, those of our Lord Jesus Christ, and what is according to godly teaching, [4]he is puffed up, expert at nothing, but is obsessed with controversies and disputes about words, from which come rivalry, strife, slanders, evil suspicions, [5]constant arguing by people of corrupt mind and devoid of the truth, who think godliness means financial gain. From such withdraw yourself. [6]But godliness with contentment is great gain. [7]For we brought nothing into this world, so obviously neither can we take anything out. [8]But having food and clothing, let us be content with that. [9]But those who want to be rich get entangled in temptation and a snare and many unwise and hurtful desires, which sink human beings into eternal punishment and damnation. [10]For the love of money is the root of all kinds of evil; which some reaching out for have wandered away from the faith, and pierced themselves deep with many pangs.

[11]But you, O man of God, flee from these things. And pursue righteousness, godliness, faith, love, perseverance, humility. [12]Fight the good fight of the faith, grasp onto eternal life, to which you were also called and confessed the good confession before many witnesses. [13]I charge you in the presence of God who gives life to all things and Christ Jesus who testified the good confession before Pilate, [14]that you keep this charge blamelessly, above reproach, until the appearing of our Lord Jesus Christ, [15]which will be revealed in its proper times, the blessed and only sovereign, the king of kings, and lord of rulers, [16]the only one who has immortality, who inhabits unapproachable light, whom no human has seen or is even able to see; to whom be the honor and the power for ever. Amen.

[17]Charge those who are rich in this present age not to feel superior, neither to place reliance upon the uncertain wealth, but rather in the living God, who abundantly provides to us everything that benefits us, [18]that they show generosity, be rich in good works, prone to give away, quick to share, [19]thereby saving up for themselves a good foundation for the future, so they may secure the everlasting life.

[20]O Timothy, guard what was entrusted to you, avoiding the profane, fruitless blather and oppositions of science falsely so called; [21]which some professing have missed the mark concerning the faith.

Peace be with you. Amen.

*The Second Epistle of Paul the Apostle to Timothy

2 Timothy

Chapter 1

1:1 Paul, an apostle of Jesus Christ by the will of God, according to the promise of life which is in Christ Jesus,
1:2 To Timothy, my dearly beloved son: Grace, mercy, and peace, from God the Father and Christ Jesus our Lord.
1:3 I thank God, whom I serve from my forefathers with pure conscience, that without ceasing I have remembrance of you in my prayers night and day;
1:4 Greatly desiring to see you, being mindful of your tears, that I may be filled with joy;
1:5 When I call to remembrance the unfeigned faith that is in you, which dwelled first in your grandmother Lois, and your mother Eunice; and I am persuaded that in you also.
1:6 Therefore I put you in remembrance that you stir up the gift of God, which is in you by the putting on of my hands.
1:7 For God has not given us the spirit of fear; but of power, and of love, and of a sound mind.
1:8 Be not therefore ashamed of the testimony of our Lord, nor of me his prisoner: but be you partaker of the afflictions of the gospel according to the power of God;
1:9 Who has saved us, and called us with a holy calling, not according to our works, but according to his own purpose and grace, which was given us in Christ Jesus before the world began,
1:10 But is now made manifest by the appearing of our Saviour Jesus Christ, who has abolished death, and has brought life and immortality to light through the gospel:
1:11 Whereunto I am appointed a preacher, and an apostle, and a teacher of the Gentiles.
1:12 For the which cause I also suffer these things: nevertheless I am not ashamed: for I know whom I have believed, and am persuaded that he is able to keep that which I have committed unto him against that day.
1:13 Hold fast the form of sound words, which you have heard of me, in faith and love which is in Christ Jesus.
1:14 That good thing which was committed unto you keep by the Holy Spirit which dwells in us.
1:15 This you know, that all they which are in Asia be turned away from me; of whom are Phygellus and Hermogenes.
1:16 The Lord give mercy unto the house of Onesiphorus; for he often refreshed me, and was not ashamed of my chain:
1:17 But, when he was in Rome, he sought me out very diligently, and found me.
1:18 The Lord grant unto him that he may find mercy of the Lord in that day: and in how many things he ministered to me at Ephesus, you know very well.

Chapter 2

2:1 You therefore, my son, be strong in the grace that is in Christ Jesus.
2:2 And the things that you have heard of me among many witnesses, the same commit you to faithful men, who shall be able to teach others also.
2:3 You therefore endure hardness, as a good soldier of Jesus Christ.
2:4 No man that wars entangles himself with the affairs of this life; that he may please him who has chosen him to be a soldier.
2:5 And if a man also strive for masteries, yet is he not crowned, unless he strive lawfully.
2:6 The husbandman that labors must be first partaker of the fruits.
2:7 Consider what I say; and the Lord give you understanding in all things.
2:8 Remember that Jesus Christ of the seed of David was raised from the dead according to my gospel:

2:9 For which I suffer trouble, as an evil doer, even unto bonds; but the word of God is not bound.
2:10 Therefore I endure all things for the elect's sakes, that they may also obtain the salvation which is in Christ Jesus with eternal glory.
2:11 It is a faithful saying: For if we be dead with him, we shall also live with him:
2:12 If we suffer, we shall also reign with him: if we deny him, he also will deny us:
2:13 If we believe not, yet he abides faithful: he cannot deny himself.
2:14 Of these things put them in remembrance, charging them before the Lord that they strive not about words to no profit, but to the subverting of the hearers.
2:15 Study to show yourself approved unto God, a workman that needs not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth.
2:16 But shun profane and vain babblings: for they will increase unto more ungodliness.
2:17 And their word will eat as does a canker: of whom is Hymenaeus and Philetus;
2:18 Who concerning the truth have erred, saying that the resurrection is past already; and overthrow the faith of some.
2:19 Nevertheless the foundation of God stands sure, having this seal, The Lord knows them that are his. And, Let every one that names the name of Christ depart from iniquity.
2:20 But in a great house there are not only vessels of gold and of silver, but also of wood and of earth; and some to honor, and some to dishonor.
2:21 If a man therefore purge himself from these, he shall be a vessel unto honor, sanctified, and suitable for the master's use, and prepared unto every good work.
2:22 Flee also youthful lusts: but follow righteousness, faith, love, peace, with them that call on the Lord out of a pure heart.
2:23 But foolish and unlearned questions avoid, knowing that they do gender strifes.
2:24 And the servant of the Lord must not strive; but be gentle unto all men, apt to teach, patient,
2:25 In meekness instructing those that oppose themselves; if God perhaps will give them repentance to the acknowledging of the truth;
2:26 And that they may recover themselves out of the snare of the devil, who are taken captive by him at his will.

Chapter 3

3:1 This know also, that in the last days perilous times shall come.
3:2 For men shall be lovers of their own selves, covetous, boasters, proud, blasphemers, disobedient to parents, unthankful, unholy,
3:3 Without natural affection, trucebreakers, false accusers, incontinent, fierce, despisers of those that are good,
3:4 Traitors, heady, high-minded, lovers of pleasures more than lovers of God;
3:5 Having a form of godliness, but denying the power of it: from such turn away.
3:6 For of this sort are they which creep into houses, and lead captive silly women laden with sins, led away with different lusts,
3:7 Ever learning, and never able to come to the knowledge of the truth.
3:8 Now as Jannes and Jambres withstood Moses, so do these also resist the truth: men of corrupt minds, reprobate concerning the faith.
3:9 But they shall proceed no further: for their folly shall be manifest unto all men, as theirs also was.
3:10 But you have fully known my doctrine, manner of life, purpose, faith, longsuffering, love, patience,
3:11 Persecutions, afflictions, which came to me at Antioch, at Iconium, at Lystra; what persecutions I endured: but out of them all the Lord delivered me.
3:12 Yes, and all that will live godly in Christ Jesus shall suffer persecution.
3:13 But evil men and seducers shall grow worse and worse, deceiving, and being deceived.
3:14 But continue you in the things which you have learned and have been assured of, knowing of whom you have learned them;

3:15 And that from a child you have known the holy scriptures, which are able to make you wise unto salvation through faith which is in Christ Jesus.
3:16 All scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness:
3:17 That the man of God may be perfect, thoroughly furnished unto all good works.

Chapter 4

4:1 I charge you therefore before God, and the Lord Jesus Christ, who shall judge the quick and the dead at his appearing and his kingdom;
4:2 Preach the word; be instant in season, out of season; reprove, rebuke, exhort with all longsuffering and doctrine.
4:3 For the time will come when they will not endure sound doctrine; but after their own lusts shall they heap to themselves teachers, having itching ears;
4:4 And they shall turn away their ears from the truth, and shall be turned unto fables.
4:5 But watch you in all things, endure afflictions, do the work of an evangelist, make full proof of your ministry.
4:6 For I am now ready to be offered, and the time of my departure is at hand.
4:7 I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith:
4:8 Henceforth there is laid up for me a crown of righteousness, which the Lord, the righteous judge, shall give me at that day: and not to me only, but unto all them also that love his appearing.
4:9 Do your diligence to come shortly to me:
4:10 For Demas has forsaken me, having loved this present world, and is departed unto Thessalonica; Crescens to Galatia, Titus unto Dalmatia.
4:11 Only Luke is with me. Take Mark, and bring him with you: for he is profitable to me for the ministry.
4:12 And Tychicus have I sent to Ephesus.
4:13 The cloak that I left at Troas with Carpus, when you come, bring with you, and the books, but especially the parchments.
4:14 Alexander the coppersmith did me much evil: the Lord reward him according to his works:
4:15 Of whom be you ware also; for he has greatly withstood our words.
4:16 At my first answer no man stood with me, but all men forsook me: I pray God that it may not be laid to their charge.
4:17 Notwithstanding the Lord stood with me, and strengthened me; that by me the preaching might be fully known, and that all the Gentiles might hear: and I was delivered out of the mouth of the lion.
4:18 And the Lord shall deliver me from every evil work, and will preserve me unto his heavenly kingdom: to whom be glory forever and ever. Amen.
4:19 Salute Prisca and Aquila, and the household of Onesiphorus.
4:20 Erastus abode at Corinth: but Trophimus have I left at Miletum sick.
4:21 Do your diligence to come before winter. Eubulus greets you, and Pudens, and Linus, and Claudia, and all the brothers.
4:22 The Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit. Grace be with you. Amen.

The Epistle of Paul the Apostle to Titus

Titus

Chapter 1

[1]Paul, a servant of God, and apostle of Jesus Christ, according to the faith of God's elect, and the discernment of the truth according to godliness, [2]in the hope of eternal life, which God, who is not a liar, promised before times eternal, [3]and has revealed at the proper times his word, by preaching, with which I am entrusted, by the decree of God our savior, [4]to Titus, a true son in relation to the common faith: Grace, mercy, and peace to you, from God the Father and the Lord Jesus Christ our savior.

[5]For this reason I left you in Crete, so that what was lacking be made right, and you may appoint elders in every town, as I had instructed you: [6]if any man is blameless, the husband of one woman, has believing children not accused of being wild or disobedient. [7]For as a steward of God an overseer must be above reproach: not arrogant, not easily angry, not overbearing, not violent, not eager for money, [8]but welcoming to strangers, a seeker of virtue, temperate, just, devout, a master over himself, [9]holding firmly in accordance with the faithful teaching of the word, so he then may be powerful to exhort with sound teaching, and to convince those who speak to the contrary.

[10]For indeed there are many who are errant, deceivers, trivial squabblers, especially those who are of the circumcision, [11]who need to be silenced. They subvert whole families, teaching things they ought not, for filthy lucre's sake. [12]One of their own poets has said about them, 'Cretans are always dishonest, worthless brutes, lazy gluttons.' [13]This testimony is true. For which reason you must rebuke them sharply, so they may be uncorrupted in the faith, [14]not giving heed to Jewish myths and the rules of humans who pervert the truth.

[15]All things are pure to those who are pure; but to the morally polluted and unbelieving, nothing is pure. Whereas actually polluted is their mind and conscience. [16]They profess to know God, but with their works they contradict him, being detestable and disobedient, and worthless when it comes to any good work.

Chapter 2

[1]You however must speak what is appropriate to sound doctrine:

[2]The older men must be self-controlled, dignified, discreet, sound in the faith, in love, in perseverance;

[3]the older women likewise in reverent demeanor, not tattletales, not given to much wine, teachers of what is good, [4]so they may instruct the younger women how to be lovers of their husbands, [5]discreet, chaste, stayers at home, kind, submitting to their husbands, so that the word of God not be defamed;

[6]the younger men likewise exhort them to be sober;

[7]in all respects holding yourself out as the example: of good works, in your teaching impartiality, dignity, incorruptibility, [8]healthy expression, irreproachable, so that anyone from the opposition may be put to shame, having nothing bad to say about you.

9Slaves should submit to their masters, and be well pleasing in all things, not talking back, 10not pilfering, but showing themselves completely trustworthy, in order to make the teaching of God our savior attractive in every way.

11For the grace of God that brings salvation has been shown toward all humankind, 12admonishing us, to turn from godlessness and worldly desires, that we might live soberly and rightly and godly in this present age, 13looking forward to that blessed hope, which is the glorious appearing of the great God and our Savior Jesus Christ, 14who gave himself up for us, that he might redeem us from all iniquity, and purify a people specially for himself, zealous for every good work.

15These things you are to speak, and exhort and rebuke with all authority.
No one may disregard you.

Chapter 3

1Remind them to be subject to the rulers and authorities, to be obedient, to be ready for every good deed, 2to badmouth no one, to be peaceable, patient, showing themselves humble toward all persons.

3For we in time past were also foolish, disobedient, getting deceived, enslaved to lust and sensual pleasures, passing the time in ill-will and envy, hated by, and hating one another. 4But when the kindness and benevolence of God our savior toward mankind appeared, 5he saved us, not because of works of righteousness which we have done, but according to his mercy, through the washing of regeneration and renewal by the Holy Spirit, 6whom he poured out upon us abundantly, through Jesus Christ our savior, 7so that being justified by his grace, we might be made heirs according to the hope of eternal life.

8This is a trustworthy saying, and regarding this I want you to firmly insist: that they who are believers in God should be careful to practice good works. This is good and worthwhile in the eyes of people.

9But avoid foolish disputes and genealogies, and strife and quarrels about the law; for they are unfruitful and worthless. 10After one or two warnings, reject a divisive person, 11knowing that such a one is perverted, and sinning, being self-condemned.

12After I send Artemas to you, or Tychicus, be diligent to come to me in Nicopolis; for I have decided to winter there. 13Do your best to help Zenas the lawyer and Apollos on their way, so they lack nothing.

14And our people too must learn to practice good works that meet an immediate need, so that they are not unfruitful.

15All who are with me send you greetings. Greet those who love us in the faith. Grace be with you all. Amen.

The Epistle of Paul to Philemon

Philemon

Chapter 1

[1]Paul, a prisoner of Christ Jesus, and Timothy our brother, to Philemon our dearly beloved fellow laborer, [2]and to our beloved Apfia, and Archippus our fellow soldier, and to the church in your house: [3]Grace to you, and peace, from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ.

[4]I thank my God, making mention of you always in my prayers, [5]hearing of your love and faith which you have toward the Lord Jesus and toward all the saints, [6]that your participation in the faith may be potent by recognizing every good thing that is in you in Christ Jesus. [7]For we have great joy and consolation in your love, because the hearts of the saints are refreshed by you, brother.

[8]Because of this, though I have freedom in Christ to command you what is fitting, [9]I instead for love's sake beseech you, being such a one as Paul the aged, and now also a prisoner of Jesus Christ. [10]I beseech you concerning my son Onesimus, whom I have begotten in my bonds. [11]He in time past was unprofitable to you, but is now profitable[367] to you and to me: [12]whom I have sent back: you therefore receive him, that is, my own heart: [13]Whom I would have retained with me, that in your stead he might minister to me in the bonds of the gospel: [14]But I did not want to do anything without your consent, so that your good deed would not be by force but free will. [15]For perhaps this was the reason he was gone for a while: so that you would have him back forever; [16]Not now as a servant, but above a servant, a brother beloved, very much so to me, but how much more to you, both in the flesh, and in the Lord? [17]If you count me therefore a partner, receive him as myself. [18]If he has wronged you, or owes you anything, put that on my account; [19]I Paul have written it with my own hand, I will repay it (not mentioning to you how you owe me your very life). [20]Yes, brother, let me have joy of you in the Lord: refresh my heart in the Lord. [21]Having confidence in your compliance I wrote to you, knowing that you will also do more than I say.

[22]But meanwhile prepare me also a lodging: for I trust that through your prayers I shall be brought to you.

[23]Those greeting you are Epaphras, my fellow prisoner in Christ Jesus; [24]Mark, Aristarchus, Demas, and Luke, my fellow laborers.

[25]The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with your spirit. Amen.

[367] Phlm 11 The name Onesimus means "useful, beneficial, profitable."

The Epistle to the Hebrews

Hebrews

Chapter 1

1:1 God, who at various times and in diverse manners spoke in time past unto the fathers by the prophets,
1:2 Has in these last days spoken unto us by his Son, whom he has appointed heir of all things, by whom also he made the worlds;
1:3 Who being the brightness of his glory, and the express image of his person, and upholding all things by the word of his power, when he had by himself purged our sins, sat down on the right hand of the Majesty on high:
1:4 Being made so much better than the angels, as he has by inheritance obtained a more excellent name than they.
1:5 For unto which of the angels said he at any time, You are my Son, this day I have begotten you? And again, I will be to him a Father, and he shall be to me a Son?
1:6 And again, when he brings in the first-begotten into the world, he says, and let all the angels of God worship him.
1:7 And of the angels he says, Who makes his angels spirits, and his ministers a flame of fire.
1:8 But unto the Son he says, Your throne, O God, is for ever and ever: a scepter of righteousness is the scepter of your kingdom.
1:9 You have loved righteousness, and hated iniquity; therefore God, even your God, has anointed you with the oil of gladness above your fellows.
1:10 And, You, Lord, in the beginning have laid the foundation of the earth; and the heavens are the works of your hands:
1:11 They shall perish; but you remain; and they all shall become old as does a garment;
1:12 And as a vesture shall you fold them up, and they shall be changed: but you are the same, and your years shall not fail.
1:13 But to which of the angels said he at any time, Sit on my right hand, until I make your enemies your footstool?
1:14 Are they not all ministering spirits, sent forth to minister for those who shall be heirs of salvation?

Chapter 2

2:1 Therefore we ought to give the more earnest heed to the things which we have heard, lest at any time we should let them slip.
2:2 For if the word spoken by angels was steadfast, and every transgression and disobedience received a just recompense of reward;
2:3 How shall we escape, if we neglect so great salvation; which at the first began to be spoken by the Lord, and was confirmed unto us by them that heard him;
2:4 God also bearing them witness, both with signs and wonders, and with different miracles, and gifts of the Holy Spirit, according to his own will?
2:5 For not unto the angels has he put in subjection the world to come, whereof we speak.
2:6 But one in a certain place testified, saying, What is man, that you are mindful of him? or the son of man that you visit him?
2:7 You made him a little while lower than the angels; you crowned him with glory and honor, and set him over the works of your hands:
2:8 You have put all things in subjection under his feet. For in that he put all in subjection under him, he left nothing that is not put under him. But now we do not yet see all things put under him.
2:9 But we see Jesus, who was made a little lower than the angels for the suffering of death, crowned with glory and honor; that he by the grace of God should taste death for every man.

2:10 For it became him, for whom are all things, and by whom are all things, in bringing many sons unto glory, to make the captain of their salvation perfect through sufferings.
2:11 For both he that sanctifies and they who are sanctified are all of one: for which reason he is not ashamed to call them brothers,
2:12 Saying, I will declare your name unto my brothers, in the midst of the congregation will I sing praise unto you.
2:13 And again, I will put my trust in him. And again, Behold I and the children which God has given me.
2:14 Since the children are partakers of flesh and blood, he also himself likewise took part of the same; that through death he might destroy him that had the power of death, that is, the devil;
2:15 And deliver them who through fear of death were all their lifetime subject to bondage.
2:16 For surely it is not angels he helps; but the seed of Abraham.
2:17 Therefore in all things it was proper for him to be made like unto his brothers, that he might be a merciful and faithful high priest in things pertaining to God, to make reconciliation for the sins of the people.
2:18 For in that he himself has suffered being tempted, he is able to help them that are tempted.

Chapter 3

3:1 Therefore, holy brothers, partakers of the heavenly calling, consider the Apostle and High Priest of our profession, Christ Jesus;
3:2 Who was faithful to him that appointed him, as also Moses was faithful in all his house.
3:3 For this man was counted worthy of more glory than Moses, inasmuch as he who has built the house has more honor than the house.
3:4 For every house is built by some man; but he that built all things is God.
3:5 And Moses was faithful in all his house, as a servant, for a testimony of those things which were to be spoken after;
3:6 But Christ as a son over his own house; whose house are we, if we hold fast the confidence and the rejoicing of the hope firm unto the end.
3:7 Therefore (as the Holy Spirit says, Today if you will hear his voice,
3:8 Harden not your hearts, as in the provocation, in the day of temptation in the wilderness:
3:9 When your fathers tempted me, proved me, and saw my works forty years.
3:10 Therefore I was grieved with that generation, and said, They do always err in their heart; and they have not known my ways.
3:11 So I swore in my wrath, They shall not enter into my rest.)
3:12 Take heed, brothers, lest there be in any of you an evil heart of unbelief, in departing from the living God.
3:13 But exhort one another daily, while it is called Today; lest any of you be hardened through the deceitfulness of sin.
3:14 For we are made partakers of Christ, if we hold the beginning of our confidence steadfast unto the end;
3:15 While it is said, Today if you will hear his voice, harden not your hearts, as in the provocation.
3:16 For some, when they had heard, did provoke: howbeit not all that came out of Egypt by Moses.
3:17 But with whom was he grieved forty years? was it not with them that had sinned, whose carcasses fell in the wilderness?
3:18 And to whom swore he that they should not enter into his rest, but to them that believed not?
3:19 So we see that they could not enter in because of unbelief.

Chapter 4

4:1 Let us therefore fear, lest, a promise being left us of entering into his rest, any of you should seem to come short of it.
4:2 For unto us was the gospel preached, as well as to them: but the word preached did not profit them, not being mixed with faith in them that heard it.
4:3 For we which have believed do enter into rest, as he said, as I have sworn in my wrath, if they shall enter into my rest: although the works were finished from the foundation of the world.
4:4 For he spoke in a certain place of the seventh day on this wise, and God did rest the seventh day from all his works.
4:5 And in this place again, If they shall enter into my rest.
4:6 Seeing therefore it remains that some must enter in it, and they to whom it was first preached entered not in because of unbelief:
4:7 Again, he limits a certain day, saying in David, Today, after so long a time; as it is said, Today if you will hear his voice, harden not your hearts.
4:8 For if Jesus had given them rest, then would he not afterward have spoken of another day.
4:9 There remains therefore a rest to the people of God.
4:10 For he that is entered into his rest, he also has ceased from his own works, as God did from his.
4:11 Let us labor therefore to enter into that rest, lest any man fall after the same example of unbelief.
4:12 For the word of God is quick, and powerful, and sharper than any two edged sword, piercing even to the dividing asunder of soul and spirit, and of the joints and marrow, and is a discerner of the thoughts and intents of the heart.
4:13 Neither is there any creature that is not manifest in his sight: but all things are naked and opened unto the eyes of him with whom we have to do.
4:14 Seeing then that we have a great high priest, that is passed into the heavens, Jesus the Son of God, let us hold fast our profession.
4:15 For we have not a high priest which cannot be touched with the feeling of our infirmities; but was in all points tempted just as we are, yet without sin.
4:16 Let us therefore come boldly unto the throne of grace, that we may obtain mercy, and find grace to help in time of need.

Chapter 5

5:1 For every high priest taken from among men is ordained for men in things pertaining to God, that he may offer both gifts and sacrifices for sins:
5:2 Who can have compassion on the ignorant, and on them that are out of the way; for that he himself also is compassed with infirmity.
5:3 And by reason hereof he ought, as for the people, so also for himself, to offer for sins.
5:4 And no man takes this honor unto himself, but he that is called of God, as was Aaron.
5:5 So also Christ glorified not himself to be made a high priest; but he that said unto him, You are my Son, today have I begotten you.
5:6 As he says also in another place, You are a priest forever after the order of Melchisedek.
5:7 Who in the days of his flesh, when he had offered up prayers and supplications with strong crying and tears unto him that was able to save him from death, and was heard in that he feared;
5:8 Though he were a Son, yet learned he obedience by the things which he suffered;
5:9 And being made perfect, he became the author of eternal salvation unto all them that obey him;
5:10 Called of God a high priest after the order of Melchisedek.
5:11 Of whom we have many things to say, and hard to be uttered, seeing you are dull of hearing.

5:12 For when for the time you ought to be teachers, you have need that one teach you again which be the first principles of the oracles of God; and have become such as have need of milk, and not of strong food.
5:13 For every one that uses milk is unskillfully in the word of righteousness: for he is a babe.
5:14 But strong food belongs to them that are of full age, even those who by reason of use have their senses exercised to discern both good and evil.

Chapter 6

6:1 Therefore leaving the principles of the doctrine of Christ, let us go on unto perfection; not laying again the foundation of repentance from dead works, and of faith toward God,
6:2 Of the doctrine of baptisms, and of laying on of hands, and of resurrection of the dead, and of eternal judgment.
6:3 And this will we do, if God permit.
6:4 For it is impossible for those who were once enlightened, and have tasted of the heavenly gift, and were made partakers of the Holy Spirit,
6:5 And have tasted the good word of God, and the powers of the world to come,
6:6 If they shall fall away, to renew them again unto repentance; seeing they crucify to themselves the Son of God afresh, and put him to an open shame.
6:7 For the earth which drinks in the rain that comes often upon it, and brings forth herbs suitable for them by whom it is dressed, receives blessing from God:
6:8 But that which bears thorns and briers is rejected, and is close unto cursing; whose end is to be burned.
6:9 But, beloved, we are persuaded better things of you, and things that accompany salvation, though we thus speak.
6:10 For God is not unrighteous to forget your work and labor of love, which you have shown toward his name, in that you have ministered to the saints, and do minister.
6:11 And we desire that every one of you do show the same diligence to the full assurance of hope unto the end:
6:12 That you be not slothful, but followers of them who through faith and patience inherit the promises.
6:13 For when God made promise to Abraham, because he could swear by no greater, he swore by himself,
6:14 Saying, Surely blessing I will bless you, and multiplying I will multiply you.
6:15 And so, after he had patiently endured, he obtained the promise.
6:16 For men swear by the greater: and an oath for confirmation is to them an end of all strife.
6:17 Wherein God, willing more abundantly to show unto the heirs of promise the immutability of his counsel, confirmed it by an oath:
6:18 That by two immutable things, in which it was impossible for God to lie, we might have a strong consolation, who have fled for refuge to lay hold upon the hope set before us:
6:19 Which hope we have as an anchor of the soul, both sure and steadfast, and which enters into that within the veil;
6:20 Where the forerunner is for us entered, even Jesus, made a high priest forever after the order of Melchisedek.

Chapter 7

7:1 For this Melchisedek, king of Salem, priest of the most high God, who met Abraham returning from the slaughter of the kings, and blessed him;
7:2 To whom also Abraham gave a tenth part of all; first being by interpretation King of righteousness, and after that also King of Salem, which is, King of peace;
7:3 Without father, without mother, without descent, having neither beginning of days, nor end of life; but made like unto the Son of God; abides a priest continually.
7:4 Now consider how great this man was, unto whom even the patriarch Abraham gave the tenth of the spoils.

7:5 And they that are of the sons of Levi, who receive the office of the priesthood, have a commandment to take tithes of the people according to the law, that is, of their brothers, though they come out of the loins of Abraham:
7:6 But he whose descent is not counted from them received tithes of Abraham, and blessed him that had the promises.
7:7 And without all contradiction the less is blessed of the better.
7:8 And here men that die receive tithes; but there he receives them, of whom it is witnessed that he lives.
7:9 And as I may so say, Levi also, who receives tithes, paid tithes in Abraham.
7:10 For he was yet in the loins of his father, when Melchisedek met him.
7:11 If therefore perfection were by the Levitical priesthood, (for under it the people received the law,) what further need was there that another priest should rise after the order of Melchisedek, and not be called after the order of Aaron?
7:12 For the priesthood being changed, there is made of necessity a change also of the law.
7:13 For he of whom these things are spoken pertains to another tribe, of which no man gave attendance at the altar.
7:14 For it is evident that our Lord sprang out of Juda; of which tribe Moses spoke nothing concerning priesthood.
7:15 And it is yet far more evident: for that after the similitude of Melchisedek there arises another priest,
7:16 Who is made, not after the law of a carnal commandment, but after the power of an endless life.
7:17 For he testifies, You are a priest forever after the order of Melchisedek.
7:18 For there is an annulling of the commandment going before for the weakness and unprofitableness of it.
7:19 For the law made nothing perfect, but the bringing in of a better hope did; by the which we draw close unto God.
7:20 And inasmuch as not without an oath he was made priest:
7:21 (For those priests were made without an oath; but this with an oath by him that said unto him, The Lord swore and will not repent, You are a priest forever after the order of Melchisedek:)
7:22 By so much was Jesus made a surety of a better testament.
7:23 And they truly were many priests, because they were not permitted to continue by reason of death:
7:24 But this man, because he continues ever, has an unchangeable priesthood.
7:25 Therefore he is able also to save them to the uttermost that come unto God by him, seeing he ever lives to make intercession for them.
7:26 For such a high priest became us, who is holy, harmless, undefiled, separate from sinners, and made higher than the heavens;
7:27 Who needs not daily, as those high priests, to offer up sacrifice, first for his own sins, and then for the people's: for this he did once, when he offered up himself.
7:28 For the law makes men high priests which have infirmity; but the word of the oath, which was since the law, makes the Son, who is consecrated for evermore.

Chapter 8

8:1 Now of the things which we have spoken this is the sum: We have such a high priest, who is set on the right hand of the throne of the Majesty in the heavens;
8:2 A minister of the sanctuary, and of the true tabernacle, which the Lord pitched, and not man.
8:3 For every high priest is ordained to offer gifts and sacrifices: therefore it is of necessity that this man have somewhat also to offer.
8:4 For if he were on earth, he should not be a priest, seeing that there are priests that offer gifts according to the law:
8:5 Who serve unto the example and shadow of heavenly things, as Moses was admonished of God when he was about to make the tabernacle: for, See, says he, that you make all things according to the pattern shown to you in the mount.

8:6 But now has he obtained a more excellent ministry, by how much also he is the mediator of a better covenant, which was established upon better promises.
8:7 For if that first covenant had been faultless, then should no place have been sought for the second.
8:8 For finding fault with them, he says, Behold, the days come, says the Lord, when I will make a new covenant with the house of Israel and with the house of Judah:
8:9 Not according to the covenant that I made with their fathers in the day when I took them by the hand to lead them out of the land of Egypt; because they continued not in my covenant, and I regarded them not, says the Lord.
8:10 For this is the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel after those days, says the Lord; I will put my laws into their mind, and write them in their hearts: and I will be to them a God, and they shall be to me a people:
8:11 And they shall not teach every man his neighbor, and every man his brother, saying, Know the Lord: for all shall know me, from the least to the greatest.
8:12 For I will be merciful to their unrighteousness, and their sins and their iniquities will I remember no more.
8:13 In that he says, a new covenant, he has made the first old. Now that which decays and grows old is ready to vanish away.

Chapter 9

9:1 So then the first covenant had also ordinances of divine service, and a worldly sanctuary.
9:2 For there was a tabernacle made; the first, in which was the candlestick, and the table, and the showbread; which is called the sanctuary.
9:3 And after the second veil, the tabernacle which is called the Holiest of all;
9:4 Which had the golden censer, and the ark of the covenant overlaid round about with gold, in which was the golden pot that had manna, and Aaron's rod that budded, and the tables of the covenant;
9:5 And over it the cherubim of glory shadowing the mercy seat; of which we cannot now speak particularly.
9:6 Now when these things were thus ordained, the priests went always into the first tabernacle, accomplishing the service of God.
9:7 But into the second went the high priest alone once every year, not without blood, which he offered for himself, and for the errors of the people:
9:8 The Holy Spirit this signifying, that the way into the holiest of all was not yet made manifest, while as the first tabernacle was yet standing:
9:9 Which was a figure for the time then present, in which were offered both gifts and sacrifices, that could not make him that did the service perfect, as pertaining to the conscience;
9:10 Which stood only in foods and drinks, and different washings, and carnal ordinances, imposed on them until the time of reformation.
9:11 But Christ being come a high priest of good things to come, by a greater and more perfect tabernacle, not made with hands, that is to say, not of this building;
9:12 Neither by the blood of goats and calves, but by his own blood he entered in once into the holy place, having obtained eternal redemption for us.
9:13 For if the blood of bulls and of goats, and the ashes of an heifer sprinkling the unclean, sanctifies to the purifying of the flesh:
9:14 How much more shall the blood of Christ, who through the eternal Spirit offered himself without spot to God, purge your conscience from dead works to serve the living God?
9:15 And for this cause he is the mediator of the new testament, that by means of death, for the redemption of the transgressions that were under the first testament, they which are called might receive the promise of eternal inheritance.
9:16 For where a testament is, there must also of necessity be the death of the testator.
9:17 For a testament is of force after men are dead: otherwise it is of no strength at all while the testator lives.

9:18 Whereupon neither the first testament was dedicated without blood.
9:19 For when Moses had spoken every precept to all the people according to the law, he took the blood of calves and of goats, with water, and scarlet wool, and hyssop, and sprinkled both the book, and all the people,
9:20 Saying, This is the blood of the testament which God has enjoined unto you.
9:21 Moreover he sprinkled with blood both the tabernacle, and all the vessels of the ministry.
9:22 And almost all things are by the law purged with blood; and without shedding of blood is no remission.
9:23 It was therefore necessary that the patterns of things in the heavens should be purified with these; but the heavenly things themselves with better sacrifices than these.
9:24 For Christ is not entered into the holy places made with hands, which are the figures of the true; but into heaven itself, now to appear in the presence of God for us:
9:25 Nor yet that he should offer himself often, as the high priest enters into the holy place every year with blood of others;
9:26 For then must he often have suffered since the foundation of the world: but now once in the end of the world has he appeared to put away sin by the sacrifice of himself.
9:27 And as it is appointed to men once to die, but after this the judgment:
9:28 So Christ was once offered to bear the sins of many; and to them that look for him shall he appear the second time without sin unto salvation.

Chapter 10

10:1 For the law having a shadow of good things to come, and not the very image of the things, can never with those sacrifices which they offered year by year continually make the comers thereunto perfect.
10:2 For then would they not have ceased to be offered? because that the worshipers once purged should have had no more conscience of sins.
10:3 But in those sacrifices there is a remembrance again made of sins every year.
10:4 For it is not possible that the blood of bulls and of goats should take away sins.
10:5 Therefore when he comes into the world, he says, Sacrifice and offering you would not, but a body have you prepared me:
10:6 In burnt offerings and sacrifices for sin you have had no pleasure.
10:7 Then said I, Lo, I come (in the volume of the book it is written of me,) to do your will, O God.
10:8 Above when he said, Sacrifice and offering and burnt offerings and offering for sin you would not, neither had pleasure in it; which are offered by the law;
10:9 Then said he, Lo, I come to do your will, O God. He takes away the first, that he may establish the second.
10:10 By the which will we are sanctified through the offering of the body of Jesus Christ once for all.
10:11 And every priest stands daily ministering and offering oftentimes the same sacrifices, which can never take away sins:
10:12 But this man, after he had offered one sacrifice for sins forever, sat down on the right hand of God;
10:13 From now on expecting till his enemies be made his footstool.
10:14 For by one offering he has perfected forever them that are sanctified.
10:15 Whereof the Holy Spirit also is a witness to us: for after that he had said before,
10:16 This is the covenant that I will make with them after those days, says the Lord, I will put my laws into their hearts, and in their minds will I write them;
10:17 And their sins and iniquities will I remember no more.
10:18 Now where remission of these is, there is no more offering for sin.
10:19 Having therefore, brothers, boldness to enter into the holiest by the blood of Jesus,

10:20 By a new and living way, which he has consecrated for us, through the veil, that is to say, his flesh;
10:21 And having a high priest over the house of God;
10:22 Let us draw near with a true heart in full assurance of faith, having our hearts sprinkled from an evil conscience, and our bodies washed with pure water.
10:23 Let us hold fast the profession of our hope without wavering; (for he is faithful that promised;)
10:24 And let us consider one another to provoke unto love and to good works:
10:25 Not forsaking the assembling of ourselves together, as the manner of some is; but exhorting one another: and so much the more, as you see the day approaching.
10:26 For if we sin willfully after we have received the knowledge of the truth, there remains no more sacrifice for sins,
10:27 But a certain fearful looking for of judgment and fiery indignation, which shall devour the adversaries.
10:28 He that disregarded Moses' law died without mercy under two or three witnesses:
10:29 Of how much more severe punishment, do you suppose, shall he be thought worthy, who has trodden under foot the Son of God, and has counted the blood of the covenant, with which he was sanctified, an unholy thing, and has done despite unto the Spirit of grace?
10:30 For we know him that has said, Vengeance belongs to me, I will recompense, says the Lord. And again, The Lord shall judge his people.
10:31 It is a fearful thing to fall into the hands of the living God.
10:32 But call to remembrance the former days, in which, after you were illuminated, you endured a great fight of afflictions;
10:33 Partly, while you were made a gazingstock both by reproaches and afflictions; and partly, while you became companions of them that were so used.
10:34 For you had compassion of me in my bonds, and took joyfully the plundering of your goods, knowing in yourselves that you have in heaven a better and an enduring substance.
10:35 Cast not away therefore your confidence, which has great recompense of reward.
10:36 For you have need of patience, that, after you have done the will of God, you might receive the promise.
10:37 For yet a little while, and he that shall come will come, and will not tarry.
10:38 Now the just shall live by faith: but if any man draw back, my soul shall have no pleasure in him.
10:39 But we are not of them who draw back unto perdition; but of them that believe to the saving of the soul.

Chapter 11

11:1 Now faith is the substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen.
11:2 For by it the elders obtained a good report.
11:3 Through faith we understand that the worlds were framed by the word of God, so that things which are seen were not made of things which do appear.
11:4 By faith Abel offered unto God a more excellent sacrifice than Cain, by which he obtained witness that he was righteous, God testifying of his gifts: and by it, though he is dead, still speaks.
11:5 By faith Enoch was translated such that he did not see death; and was found no more, because God had translated him: for before his translation he had this testimony, that he pleased God.
11:6 But without faith it is impossible to please him: for he that comes to God must believe that he is, and that he is a rewarder of them that diligently seek him.
11:7 By faith Noah, being warned by God of things not seen as yet, moved with fear, prepared an ark to the saving of his house; by this he condemned the world, and became heir of the righteousness which is by faith.

11:8 By faith Abraham, when he was called to go out into a place which he should later receive for an inheritance, obeyed; and he went out, not knowing to where he went.
11:9 By faith he sojourned in the land of promise, as in a strange country, dwelling in tents with Isaac and Jacob, the heirs with him of the same promise:
11:10 For he looked for a city which has foundations, whose builder and maker is God.
11:11 Through faith also Sara herself received strength to conceive seed, and bore a child when she was past age, because she judged him faithful who had promised.
11:12 Therefore there sprang even from one, and him as good as dead, so many descendants as the stars of the sky in multitude, and as the sand which is by the sea shore innumerable.
11:13 These all died in faith, without receiving the things promised but having seen them afar off, and they were persuaded of them, and embraced them, and confessed that they were strangers and pilgrims on the earth.
11:14 For they that say such things declare plainly that they are seeking a country.
11:15 And truly, if they had been mindful of that country from where they came out, they would have had opportunity to return.
11:16 But now they desire a better country, that is, a heavenly one: therefore God is not ashamed to be called their God: for he has prepared for them a city.
11:17 By faith Abraham, when he was tested, offered up Isaac: and he that had received the promises offered up his only begotten son,
11:18 Of whom it was said, That in Isaac shall your seed be called:
11:19 Accounting that God was able to raise him up, even from the dead; from whence also he received him as a type.
11:20 By faith Isaac blessed Jacob and Esau concerning things to come.
11:21 By faith Jacob, when he was a dying, blessed both the sons of Joseph; and worshipped, leaning upon the top of his staff.
11:22 By faith Joseph, when he died, made mention of the departing of the children of Israel; and gave instruction concerning his bones.
11:23 By faith Moses, when he was born, was hid three months by his parents, because they saw he was a good looking child; and they were not afraid of the king's commandment.
11:24 By faith Moses, when he was come to years, refused to be called the son of Pharaoh's daughter;
11:25 Choosing rather to suffer affliction with the people of God, than to enjoy the pleasures of sin for a season;
11:26 Esteeming the reproach of Christ greater riches than the treasures in Egypt: for he was looking ahead to the reward.
11:27 By faith he forsook Egypt, not fearing the wrath of the king: for he endured, as seeing him who is invisible.
11:28 Through faith he kept the Passover, and the sprinkling of blood, lest he that destroyed the firstborn should touch them.
11:29 By faith they passed through the Red sea as by dry land: which when the Egyptians tried to do were drowned.
11:30 By faith the walls of Jericho fell down, after they had been encircled for seven days.
11:31 By faith the harlot Rahab perished not with them that believed not, when she had taken in the spies with peace.
11:32 And what more shall I say? for the time would fail me to tell of Gideon, and of Barak, and of Samson, and of Jephthae; of David also, and Samuel, and of the prophets:
11:33 Who through faith subdued kingdoms, wrought righteousness, obtained promises, stopped the mouths of lions.
11:34 Quenched the violence of fire, escaped the edge of the sword, out of weakness were made strong, grown valiant in fight, turned to flight the armies of the aliens.
11:35 Women received their dead raised to life again: and others were tortured, not accepting deliverance; so they might obtain a better resurrection:

11:36 And others had trial of cruel mockings and scourgings, yes, moreover of bonds and imprisonment:
11:37 They were stoned, they were sawn asunder, were tempted, were slain with the sword: they wandered about in sheepskins and goatskins; being destitute, afflicted, tormented;
11:38 (Of whom the world was not worthy:) they wandered in deserted places, and in mountains, and in dens and caves of the earth.
11:39 And these all, having obtained a good report through faith, received not the promise:
11:40 God having provided something better for us, such that without us they would not be made complete.

Chapter 12

12:1 Therefore seeing we also are surrounded by so great a cloud of witnesses, let us lay aside every weight, and the sin which does so easily beset us, and let us run with patience the race that is set before us,
12:2 Looking unto Jesus the author and finisher of our faith; who for the joy that was set before him endured the cross, despising the shame, and is set down at the right hand of the throne of God.
12:3 For consider him that endured such contradiction of sinners against himself, lest you be wearied and faint in your minds.
12:4 You have not yet resisted unto blood, striving against sin.
12:5 And you have forgotten the exhortation which speaks unto you as unto children, My son, despise not the chastening of the Lord, nor faint when you are rebuked of him:
12:6 For whom the Lord loves he chastens, and scourges every son whom he receives.
12:7 If you are enduring chastening, God is dealing with you as with sons; for what son is he whom the father does not chasten?
12:8 But if you be without chastisement, whereof all are partakers, then are you bastards, and not sons.
12:9 Furthermore we have had fathers of our flesh who corrected us, and we gave them respect: shall we not much rather be in subjection unto the Father of spirits, and live?
12:10 For they for a few days chastened us as seemed best to them; but He for our profit, that we might be partakers of his holiness.
12:11 Now no chastening for the present seems to be joyous, but grievous: nevertheless afterward it yields the peaceable fruit of righteousness unto those who are exercised thereby.
12:12 Therefore lift up the hands which hang down, and the feeble knees;
12:13 And make straight paths for your feet, lest that which is lame be turned out of the way; but let it rather be healed.
12:14 Follow peace with all men, and holiness, without which no man shall see the Lord:
12:15 Looking diligently lest any man fail of the grace of God; lest any root of bitterness springing up trouble you, and thereby many be defiled;
12:16 Lest there be any fornicator, or profane person, as Esau, who for one morsel of food sold his birthright.
12:17 For you know that afterward, when he would have inherited the blessing, he was rejected: for he found no place of repentance, though he sought it anxiously with tears.
12:18 For you are not come unto the mount that might be touched, and that burned with fire, nor unto blackness, and darkness, and tempest,
12:19 And the sound of a trumpet, and the voice of words; which voice they that heard entreated that the word should not be spoken to them any more:
12:20 (For they could not endure that which was commanded, and if so much as a beast touch the mountain, it shall be stoned, or thrust through with a dart:
12:21 And so terrible was the sight, that Moses said, I exceedingly fear and quake:)

12:22 But you are come to mount Zion, and to the city of the living God, the heavenly Jerusalem, and to an innumerable company of angels,
12:23 To the general assembly and church of the firstborn, which are written in heaven, and to God the Judge of all, and to the spirits of just men made perfect,
12:24 And to Jesus the mediator of the new covenant, and to the blood of sprinkling, that speaks better things that that of Abel.
12:25 See that you refuse not him that speaks. For if they escaped not who refused him that spoke on earth, much more shall not we escape, if we turn away from him that speaks from heaven:
12:26 Whose voice then shook the earth: but now he has promised, saying, yet once more I shake not the earth only, but also heaven.
12:27 And this word, yet once more, signifies the removing of those things that are shaken, as of things that are made, that those things which cannot be shaken may remain.
12:28 Therefore we receiving a kingdom which cannot be moved, let us have grace, whereby we may serve God acceptably with respect and godly fear:
12:29 For our God is a consuming fire.

Chapter 13

13:1 Let brotherly love continue.
13:2 Be not forgetful to entertain strangers: for thereby some have entertained angels unawares.
13:3 Remember them that are in bonds, as bound with them; and them which suffer adversity, as being yourselves also in the body.
13:4 Marriage is honorable in all, and the bed undefiled: but fornicators and adulterers God will judge.
13:5 Let your conduct be without covetousness; and be content with such things as you have: for He has said, I will never leave you, nor forsake you.
13:6 So that we may boldly say, The Lord is my helper, and I will not fear what man shall do to me.
13:7 Remember those who have the rule over you, who have spoken unto you the word of God: whose faith follow, considering the end of their conduct.
13:8 Jesus Christ the same yesterday, and today, and forever.
13:9 Be not carried about with different and strange doctrines. For it is a good thing that the heart be established with grace; not with foods, which have not profited them that have been occupied in it.
13:10 We have an altar, from which they have no right to eat who serve the tabernacle.
13:11 For the bodies of those beasts, whose blood is brought into the sanctuary by the high priest for sin, are burned outside the camp.
13:12 Therefore Jesus also, that he might sanctify the people with his own blood, suffered outside the gate.
13:13 Let us go forth therefore unto him outside the camp, bearing his reproach.
13:14 For here we have no continuing city, but we seek one to come.
13:15 By him therefore let us offer the sacrifice of praise to God continually, that is, the fruit of our lips giving thanks to his name.
13:16 But to do good and to share, forget not: for with such sacrifices God is well pleased.
13:17 Obey them that have the rule over you, and submit yourselves: for they watch for your souls, as they that must give account, that they may do it with joy, and not with grief: for that is unprofitable for you.
13:18 Pray for us: for we trust we have a good conscience, in all things willing to live honestly.
13:19 But I beseech you the rather to do this, that I may be restored to you the sooner.
13:20 Now the God of peace, that brought again from the dead our Lord Jesus, that great shepherd of the sheep, through the blood of the everlasting covenant,

13:21 Make you perfect in every good work to do his will, working in you that which is well pleasing in his sight, through Jesus Christ; to whom be glory forever and ever. Amen.
13:22 And I beseech you, brothers, suffer the word of exhortation: for I have written a letter unto you in few words.
13:23 Know you that our brother Timothy is set at liberty; with whom, if he come shortly, I will see you.
13:24 Salute all them that have the rule over you, and all the saints. They of Italy salute you.
13:25 Grace be with you all. Amen.

The General Epistle of James

The Epistle of

James

Chapter 1

[1]James, a servant of God and the Lord Jesus Christ, to the twelve tribes that are in the Diaspora, Greetings. [2]Consider it pure joy, my brethren, when you fall into all sorts of trials, [3]because you know that the testing of your faith produces endurance. [4]But you must allow endurance its finished job to the end so you will be complete and faultless, deficient in nothing.

[5]And if any of you lacks wisdom, he should request it from God, who gives to everyone cheerfully without complication or lecturing, and it will be given to him. [6]Only he must ask with faith, not doubting at all. For he who doubts is like a wave of the sea driven back and forth by the wind. [7]That kind of person should certainly stop thinking he will receive anything from the Lord. [8]A double-minded man is unstable in all his ways.

[9]And the brother of the lower class should boast about his being lifted up, [10]and the rich one about his lowering, how like a flower of the grass he will drop. [11]For as the sun comes up with scorching heat and dries the grass, and the flower of it falls off, and the glory of its face has perished, so also the rich in their goings will be faded in importance.

[12]The man is blessed who withstands temptation, for when he has stood the test, he will receive the crown of life, which the Lord has promised to those who love Him. [13]No one who is being tempted should say, "I am being tempted by God." For God is unskilled in the bad and he does not tempt anyone. [14]Rather each person is tempted through his own desires, which get lured out and enticed; [15]and then after the desire is fertilized, it gives birth to a sin, and the sin when finished developing produces death. [16]Do not be deceived, my beloved brethren.

[17]All good giving, and every perfect gift is from above, coming down from the father of lights, with whom there is no varying or shadow from turning. [18]According to his will he gave birth to us through the word of truth, planning for us to be of his creations a kind of firstfruits.

[19]Know this, my beloved brethren: all persons should be quick to listen, slow to speak, and slow to anger. [20]For the anger of a man does not accomplish the righteousness of God. [21]Therefore, having put away all the moral uncleanness and bad things that are prevalent, you must welcome with humility the implanted word, which is able to save your souls. [22]Only be doers of the word and not hearers only, deceiving your own selves. [23]For if someone is a hearer of the word and not a doer, he is like a man who was contemplating his born face in the mirror: [24]for that he took note of himself, and went away, and immediately forgot what kind of man he was. [25]But he who focuses intently into the perfect law, the law of liberty, and stays with it, he not being a forgetful hearer but a doer of the deed, this person will be blessed in his deed that he will do.

[26]If any among you considers himself to be religious but does not bridle his tongue, he is fooling his own heart. Such religion is worthless. [27]Here is a religiousness from our God and Father that is pure and simple: to look after the orphan and the widow during their hard times, and to keep oneself unspotted from the world.

Chapter 2

[1]My brethren, you should not hold the faith of our glorious Lord Jesus Christ with partiality to personages.[368] [2]For if a man with gold rings on his fingers enters your meeting, dressed in bright clothes, and a poor man also enters, dressed in dirty clothes, [3]and you look over the one wearing the bright clothes and tell him, "You take this good seat here," and to the poor one you say, "You stand there," or, "Sit here below my footstool," [4]are you not then discriminating between each other, and become judges with evil thoughts? [5]Listen my beloved brethren: has not God chosen the poor of this world to be rich in faith and called for the kingdom he has prepared for those who love him? [6]You though have devalued the poor. Is it not the rich who trouble you, and they who summon you into courts? [7]Do they not defame the good name by which you are known? [8]If you really keep the royal law according to that scripture, "Love your neighbor as yourself," you are doing well. [9]But if you show partiality to personages, you are committing a sin, convicted by that law as violators. [10]Now whoever keeps the whole rest of the law, and only violates in one matter, he has become guilty of all of it. [11]For that which says "Do not commit adultery" also says "Do not commit murder." So if you do not commit adultery, but you commit murder, you have become a violator of the law. [12]Speak this way and act this way: as if you are about to be judged according to the law of liberty. [13]For judgment without mercy comes to those who act without mercy. Triumphant though is mercy over judgment.

[14]What good is it, my brethren, when someone claims to have faith, but he has no works? Is such a faith really able to save him? [15]Now if a brother or sister has no coat and they are lacking daily food, [16]and one of you says to them, "Go with peace, be warmed and fed," but you don't give to them the basic needs of the body, what good is it? [17]So this kind of faith by itself, when not having works, is dead. [18]Someone will rightly say, "You have faith, and I have works. Show me that faith of yours without your works, and I will show you my faith by my works." [19]You believe that there is only one God. You are doing well. The demons also believe that, and tremble. [20]But are you convinced, foolish person, that faith without works is dead? [21]Our father Abraham, was he not justified by means of works, when he offered his son Isaac up on the altar? [22]See how faith was working together with his works, and through his works his faith was made complete? [23]Thus also was completed the scripture which says, "And Abraham believed God, and it was credited to him as righteousness." And he was called a friend of God. [24]You should see then that a person is justified by works and not by faith alone. [25]And in the same way Rahab the prostitute, was she not also justified by works, when she sheltered the messengers and sent them out by another way? [26]For just as a body without the spirit is dead, so also faith without works is dead.

Chapter 3

[1]Not many should become teachers, my brethren, knowing we will receive a stricter judgment. [2]For we all stumble on many occasions. If someone does not stumble in speech, he is a perfect man, able to bridle the whole rest of his body. [3]Behold, we place bits in the mouths of horses to make them obey us, and we steer the whole rest of their body. [4]And consider ships. As large as they are and driven by fierce winds, they are turned around by a small rudder wherever the will of the one steering it wishes. [5]In the same way also, our tongue is a small member, and boasts great feats. See how a small flame sets ablaze such a large forest.

[368] Ja 2:1 The online Merriam-Webster dictionary defines "personage" as follows: 1: a person of rank, note, or distinction; especially : one distinguished for presence and personal power.

[6]The tongue also is a flame, a world of damage. The tongue is so situated among our members as contaminator of the entire body, and sets on fire the circular racetrack of our existence, and is itself set on fire by Gehenna. [7]Indeed every race of beast, even of birds, reptiles and marine life, is being tamed or has been tamed by the human race. [8]But no one can tame the tongue. It is an uncontrollable menace, replete with fatal venom. [9]With it we praise our God and Father, and with it we curse human beings created in the image of God. [10]Out of the same mouth come both praise and cursing. My brethren, these things ought not so to be. [11]Does a spring from the same opening well up both sweet water and bitter? [12]It is not possible, my brethren, for a fig tree to produce olives, or a grapevine figs. In the same way, neither can a spring produce both bitter water and sweet.

[13]Who is wise and learned among you? Let him show his works from good conduct: with the humility that comes from wisdom. [14]But if you have bitter jealousy and rivalry in your hearts, do not make yourselves superior to the truth and lie against it. [15]This wisdom does not come down from above, but is earthly, natural, of the devil. [16]For where there is jealousy and rivalry, there is disorder and every thing that is evil. [17]But the wisdom from above is first pure, then peace-loving, gentle, persuadable, replete with compassion and other good fruits, impartial, and sincere. [18]And a harvest of justice is planted, with peace, for those who make peace.

Chapter 4

[1]Where do battles and quarrels between you come from? Is it not from this: your pleasures that are making war inside your members? [2]You covet, yet you do not have. You kill and strive for, and cannot obtain. You keep on quarreling and battling. You do not have, because you do not ask. [3]And you ask, and do not receive, because you ask badly, so you may spend it in your pleasures. [4]You adulterers and adulteresses, do you not know that love of the world means the enmity of God? Whoever chooses to be a friend of the world therefore is rendered an enemy of God. [5]Or do you think the scripture says for no reason, "The Spirit whom God made to dwell in us craves possession of us, tending toward jealousy"?[369] [6]But he gives more grace. Accordingly it says, "God opposes the proud, but gives grace to the humble." [7]Submit yourselves therefore to God. Fight against the devil, and he will flee from you. [8]Move closer to God, and he will move closer to you. Cleanse your hands, O sinners, and purify your hearts, O double-minded. [9]Be distressed and mourn and wail. Change your laughter into lamentation, and your joy into gloom. [10]Humble yourselves in the sight of the Lord, and he will lift you up.

[11]Do not denigrate each other, brethren. Someone who denigrates a brother and condemns his brother is denigrating the law and condemning the law. Now if you are condemning the law, you are not being a doer of the law, but a judge instead. [12]There is only one lawmaker who is able to save or to damn. Who then are you, condemning another?

[13]Come now, you who say, "We will travel today and tomorrow to that particular city, and spend one year there, and do business and make a profit," [14]you who have no solid knowledge of tomorrow. For what is your life? It is a vapor that appears a little while and then is gone. [15]The thing for you to say instead is, "If the Lord wills, we will even be alive and do this or that." [16]But as it is you are vaunting your own selves with your presumptuous words. All such boasting is evil. [17]So, he who has learned the good to do and does not do it, for him it is sin.

[369] Ja 4:5 Or, "craves possession of us, approaching envy." God says of himself that he is a jealous God: Ex. 20:5; 34:14; Zech. 8:2

Chapter 5

[1]Come now you wealthy people, weep with loud wailing over the hard times which are coming for you. [2]Your wealth is become corrupt, and your clothes are moth-eaten. [3]Your gold and silver are tarnished, and their corrosion will be a testimony to you, and eat your bodies like fire. You have stored it up in the last days. [4]Behold, the wage is crying out, which was for the laborers who sickled your fields, which you deprived them of. And the cries of those who worked the harvest have gone into the ears of Yehovah Sabaōth. [5]You have lived in luxury and excessive comfort on the earth. You have fattened your hearts as in a day of slaughter. [6]You have passed sentence on, you have killed the righteous. He does not resist you.

[7]Patiently endure therefore brethren, until the coming of the Lord. Behold, the farmer expects the valuable fruit of the earth, waiting patiently on it until it gets the early and the latter rain. [8]You must be patient as well, make your hearts steadfast, because the coming of the Lord is approaching. [9]Do not grumble against one another, brethren, lest you be judged. Behold, the judge stands almost at the door. [10]Receive for use as a pattern, brethren, the suffering of ill treatment and the patience of the prophets who spoke in the name of the Lord. [11]Behold we consider fortunate those who patiently endure. You have heard about the patience of Job, and seen the Lord's result, how the Lord is full of compassion and merciful.

[12]But above all, my brethren, do not swear, either by heaven, or by the earth, or any other oath. Rather, your "Yes" should be "Yes" and your "No" be "No," so that you not fall into hypocrisy. [13]Is anyone among you suffering? He should pray. Is anyone cheerful? He should sing praises. [14]Is anyone among you ill? He should call the elders of the church to him, and they should pray over him, anointing him with oil in the name of the Lord. [15]And the prayer of faith will heal the ailing, and the Lord will raise him. And if he has committed sin, it will be forgiven him. [16]Confess your faults one to another, and pray for one another, so you may be healed. The fully operating prayer of a righteous person is able to accomplish much. [17]Elijah was a human, subject to the same frailties as we are. And he prayed the prayer for it not to rain, and no rain fell on the land for a period of three years and six months. [18]And he prayed again, and the sky gave rain, and the land sprouted up its fruit.

[19]Brethren, if any among you wanders away from the truth and someone turns him back around, [20]he should know that he who turns a sinner from the error of his way will save a soul from death and cover a multitude of sins.

*The First Epistle General of Peter

1 Peter

Chapter 1

1:1 Peter, an apostle of Jesus Christ, to the elect who are sojourners of the Diaspora in Pontus, Galatia, Cappadocia, Asia and Bithynia,
1:2 elect according to the foreknowledge of God the Father by sanctification of the Spirit for obedience and the sprinkling of the blood of Jesus Christ; may grace and peace be multiplied to you.
1:3 Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who according to the greatness of his mercy has given us second birth, into the hope of salvation, because of the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead,
1:4 into an inheritance that is incorruptible, unimpaired, and unfailing, reserved in heaven for you,
1:5 who are being guarded by the power of God, through faith, for the salvation made ready to be revealed in the end time,
1:6 in which you exult, though you still have distress for a little while if necessary in various trials,
1:7 which happen so that the testing of your faith, much more valuable than gold which perishes, but is tested through fire, may be found out to result in praise and honor and glory when Jesus Christ is revealed,
1:8 whom you love without having seen; in whom you believe, still not having looked upon; yet you exult with a joy that is indescribable and full of glory,
1:9 obtaining for yourselves the goal of your faith: the salvation of your souls.
1:10 About which salvation the prophets, who prophesied about the grace that was coming to your benefit, sought out and researched,
1:11 trying to find out exactly which time or what kind of time the spirit of Christ in them was indicating, when he testified beforehand to the sufferings of Christ and these glorious things that come after.
1:12 It was shown to them it was not for themselves but for us they were being stewards of these things, which have now been announced to you through those who evangelized you in the Holy Spirit sent from heaven. Which things the angels wish they could look into.
1:13 Therefore, girding up the loins of your mind, be perfectly sober, and place your hope on the grace being brought to you at the revelation of Jesus Christ.
1:14 Like obedient children, not fashioning yourselves to the longings you had in your former ignorance,
1:15 but rather, in accordance with the holy one who called you, you must become holy as well, in all your conduct,
1:16 because it is written: "You shall be holy, because I am holy."
1:17 And if you invoke as Father him who without respect to faces judges the work of each person, spend this time of your sojourning in fear,
1:18 knowing it was not with corruptible things, silver or gold, that you were redeemed from the futile way of life passed on to you from your ancestors,
1:19 but rather with blood very dear, as of a lamb without blemish or defect, the blood of Christ,
1:20 foreknown before the foundation of the world, but manifested in the latter of times for your sakes,
1:21 who by way of him are believers in God, the one who has raised him from the dead and given him glory. So your faith and hope are in God.
1:22 Having purified your souls by obedience to the truth through the Spirit toward brotherly love, love one another earnestly from a pure heart,
1:23 having been regenerated, not by corruptible seed but by incorruptible, through the word of God which lives and abides for ever.
1:24 Because all flesh is like grass, and all human glory like the flower of grass. The grass dries up, and its flower falls off,
1:25 but the word of the Lord abides for ever. And this is the word that was announced to you.

Chapter 2

2:1 Putting away therefore all malice, and all guile and pretenses, and envies and all slanders,
2:2 as newborn babes, desire the pure spiritual milk, so that you may grow by it,
2:3 since you have tasted that the Lord indeed is good.
2:4 To whom approaching, a living stone, by humans on the one hand rejected, on the other hand chosen by God as precious,
2:5 you yourselves also as living stones are being built as a spiritual house, a holy priesthood, to offer spiritual sacrifices acceptable to God through Jesus Christ;
2:6 because it is also contained in scripture: "Behold I lay in Zion a chosen precious corner foundation stone, and the person believing on it will by no means be disappointed."
2:7 To you therefore who believe, value, but to those refusing to believe, it is a stone the builders rejected. This one turns out to be for the head of the corner,
2:8 yet also a stone of stumbling, and a rock of downfall for those who stumble at the word by disobeying, to which in fact they were appointed.
2:9 But you are a chosen race, a royal priesthood, a holy nation, a people for a treasured possession, so you may proclaim the virtues of him who called you out of darkness into his marvelous light;
2:10 who before were not a people, but now are a people of God; ones who were not pitied, but now are pitied.
2:11 Beloved, I exhort you: as sojourners and aliens, abstain from fleshly lusts, which war against the soul;
2:12 having your conduct good among the gentiles, in order that while they denounce you as evil-doers, by observing your good works they may glorify God in the day of visitation.
2:13 Submit therefore to every human authority for the Lord's sake, whether to a king as he is highly placed,
2:14 or to governors; as they are the Lord's agent for vengeance on evil-doers and praise of well-doers;
2:15 because so is the will of God: by doing good to silence the ignorance of foolish people;
2:16 as free, yet not having the freedom for a pretext for wrongdoing, but for being servants of God.
2:17 Value all persons, love the brotherhood, fear God, honor the king.
2:18 House slaves, submit yourselves in all fear to your masters, not only to good and forbearing ones but also to the harsh.
2:19 For this gains favor if because of consciousness of God anyone bears up under griefs they are suffering unjustly.
2:20 For what glory is it if when sinning and buffeted for it you endure? But if when doing good and suffering for it you endure, this gains favor with God.
2:21 For you were called to this, because Christ also suffered, on our behalf, leaving for us an example that you should follow in his steps;
2:22 he who did no sin, neither was any guile found in his mouth;
2:23 who when being insulted, did not insult in return; who when suffering mistreatment made no threat, but committed himself over to him who judges righteously;
2:24 who himself in his body carried our sins up onto a tree, in order that by dying to sins, we might live to righteousness; by whose bruise you have been healed.
2:25 For you were like sheep wandering astray, but now you have returned to the shepherd and overseer of your souls.

Chapter 3

3:1 Likewise wives, submit yourselves to your own husbands, in order that even if any of them disobeys the word, they will be gained without a word by the conduct of their wives,
3:2 when they see your pure conduct, mixed with reverence for them.

3:3 Whose adornment let it not be the outward, of the plaiting of hair, wearing of gold ornaments, or decoration of putting on clothing,
3:4 but rather of the hidden person of the heart, adorned with the incorruptible beauty of a gentle and quiet spirit, which adornment in the eyes of God is very high priced.
3:5 For indeed that is historically how holy women hoping in God have adorned themselves, submitting to their own husbands;
3:6 like how Sarah obeyed Abraham, calling him master. Whose daughters you have become, doing good, and not fearing any terror.
3:7 Likewise husbands, dwelling together according to knowledge: as to a more delicate vessel, assigning to the woman a special care, and like you are co-heirs of the gracious privilege of life, so that your prayers will not be hindered.
3:8 Finally, everyone, be all of one mind, sympathetic, loving the brethren, compassionate, courteous,
3:9 not returning evil for evil, or insult for insult, but instead blessing, knowing you were called to this, so you might inherit blessing.
3:10 For "He who wants to love life and see good days must restrain his tongue from evil, and his lips, to speak no guile.
3:11 He must turn aside from evil, and do good, and seek peace, and pursue it.
3:12 For the eyes of the Lord are on the righteous, and his ears open to their petition; but the face of the Lord is against those who do evil."
3:13 And who is going to harm you if you become imitators of what is good?
3:14 But, if you do suffer indeed because of righteousness, you become blessed ones. And do not fear their intimidations, or be troubled.
3:15 Instead, dedicate God in your hearts as Lord, and always be prepared for a speech in response to anyone who asks you the reason for the hope that is in you, with humility and respect;
3:16 having a good conscience, in order that while they criticize you as wrong-doers, the ones abusing you may be shamed by your good conduct in Christ.
3:17 For it is better to suffer while doing good, if the will of God wills, than while doing evil.
3:18 Because indeed Christ died once for sins, the righteous on behalf of the unrighteous, that he might bring us to God, being put to death in the flesh, but made alive in the spirit,
3:19 in which also he preached, when he went to the spirits that were in prison,
3:20 to people who disobeyed long ago when the patience of God was waiting in the days of Noah while an ark was being prepared, in which a few, that is, eight souls, were saved through water.
3:21 Which is a shadow of the baptism that saves us now also, not the removing of dirt off the flesh, but the response toward God of a good conscience, through the resurrection of Jesus Christ,
3:22 who is at the right hand of God, having gone into heaven, with angels and authorities and powers made subordinate to him.

Chapter 4

4:1 Therefore Christ having suffered in the flesh on our behalf, you also arm yourselves of the same mind, that someone who has suffered in the flesh is finished with sin,
4:2 to the result that, the time he still has left in the flesh he lives not for human desires any longer, but rather for the will of God.
4:3 For enough is the time gone by of our lives to have carried out the goal of the Gentiles, having gone on in promiscuity, lusts, debaucheries, carousals, drinking bouts, and serving idols.
4:4 In which since you are not joining them running in the same excess of indulgence, they think it strange, denigrating you.
4:5 They will have to give an explanation to the one that is about to judge the living and the dead.

4:6 It is for that reason as well that the gospel is preached to the dead. On the one hand so they might be judged according to humans in the flesh; on the other hand in the hope they might live according to God in the Spirit.
4:7 Now the end of all things has drawn near. Be soberminded therefore, and be sober for prayers.
4:8 But above all else have fervent love between each another, because love will cover a multitude of sins.
4:9 Be hospitable to one another without grumbling.
4:10 According to how each person has received a gift, minister it to each other as good stewards of the manifold grace of God:
4:11 if anyone speaks, as the oracles of God; if anyone serves, as by the power that God supplies; such that in everything God will be glorified, through Jesus Christ, whose is the glory and the power for ever and ever. Amen.
4:12 Beloved, do not be surprised at the fiery trial happening with you to test you, as if it is an odd co-incidence,
4:13 but rather rejoice; inasmuch as you are sharing in the sufferings of Christ in order that you may also rejoice in the revelation of his glory, exulting.
4:14 If you are reproached because of the name of Christ, blessed are you. That means the spirit of glory, which is the Spirit of God, is resting upon you! While according to them, He is getting denigrated, according to you He is getting glorified.
4:15 Certainly none of you should be suffering as a murderer or a thief or an evildoer, or as a pryer into other people's affairs;
4:16 but if it is for being a Christian, let him not be downcast, but praise God because of this.
4:17 Because the time has come for judgment to begin, starting with the household of God. And if firstly with us, what will be the fate of those disobeying the gospel of God?
4:18 And if the righteous person is barely saved, where will the ungodly and the sinner appear?
4:19 So then those suffering according to the will of God should entrust their souls as with a faithful creator, all the while doing good.

Chapter 5

5:1 I, being a co-elder, and a witness of the sufferings of Christ, and a sharer also of the glory about to be revealed, the elders among you I exhort:
5:2 shepherd the flock of God among you, overseeing not from compulsion, but voluntarily, not out of greed for money, but out of amateur zeal;
5:3 not as exercising lordship over your charges, but being examples for the flock.
5:4 And when the chief shepherd appears, you will receive the unfading crown of glory.
5:5 Likewise, young people, submit yourselves to the older people. And everyone, tie on the apron of humility, being subject to one another, because God opposes the proud and gives grace to the humble.
5:6 Be humbled therefore under the mighty hand of God, so he may exalt you in his time,
5:7 casting every worry of yours onto him, because it matters to him about you.
5:8 Be sober, be alert. For your adversary, the devil, is like a lion walking about, seeking someone to devour;
5:9 whom you resist firmly in the faith, knowing that the same kind of suffering is being imposed upon your brethren in the world.
5:10 But the God of all grace, who called us into his eternal glory in Christ Jesus, whenever you suffer a little, may He himself adjust you, confirm, strengthen, found you.
5:11 The glory and the power are with him for ever. Amen.
5:12 It was by way of Silvanus, a brother who is faithful by my reckoning, that I have written to you with a few words, exhorting you, and bearing witness that this grace in which you stand is the true grace of God.

5:13 The church of fellow chosen ones in Babylon greets you, and also Mark my son.
5:14 Greet one another with a kiss of "agape" love. Peace be unto you, all who are in Christ Jesus. Amen.

*The Second Epistle General of Peter

2 Peter

Chapter 1

[1]Simon Peter, a servant and an apostle of Jesus Christ, to those who have obtained along with us equally precious faith by means of the righteousness of our God and Savior Jesus Christ, [2]grace and peace be multiplied to you, through the knowledge of God and of Jesus our Lord, [3]as his divine power has given to us all things pertaining to life and godliness, through the knowledge of him who called us to glory and virtue, [4]through which he has given to us very great and precious promises, in order that through these you might become partakers of the divine nature, having escaped the corruption that is in the world from lust.

[5]But especially for that very reason, bringing to bear all diligence, add to your faith virtue, and to virtue knowledge, [6]and to knowledge self-control, and to self-control endurance, and to endurance godliness, [7]and to godliness brotherly friendship, and to brotherly friendship add love. [8]For these things abounding in you make you not barren or unfruitful in the knowledge of our Lord Jesus Christ. [9]For someone in whom these things are not present is blind, being short-sighted, forgetful of receiving the cleansing of his sins in the past. [10]Therefore instead, brethren, be diligent to make your calling and election sure, for by doing these things you will never fail. [11]For so will be richly supplied to you entry into the eternal kingdom of our Lord and savior Jesus Christ.

[12]Wherefore I will never neglect to remind you about these things, even though you know them and are confirmed in the truth that has come. [13]And I deem it right, as long as I am in this tent, to rouse you by a reminder, [14]knowing that soon is the putting off of my tent, as indeed our Lord Jesus Christ has made clear to me, [15]but I will strive to have you also after my departure always make mention of these reminders.

[16]For it is not after the fashion of skillfully fabricated stories we have made known to you the power and coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, but we were eye-witnesses of that majesty. [17]For after receiving honor and glory from God the Father, what a voice was brought for him by that majestic glory: “This is my beloved Son, in whom I am well pleased.” [18]And we heard this voice, produced from heaven, when we were with him on the holy mountain. [19]And we have a very sure word of prophecy, to which you would do well to take heed, as to a lamp shining in a dismal place, until the daylight shines through, and the Light Bearer dawns in your hearts, [20]knowing this first of all, that no prophecy of scripture arises from personal illumination, [21]for no prophecy was ever brought by the will of a human being, but holy men of God spoke as they were carried along by the Holy Spirit.

Chapter 2

[1]But false prophets have also arisen among the people, as there will be false teachers among you as well. Such people will introduce destructive personal opinions, and contradicting the master who purchased them, bring upon themselves swift damnation. [2]And many will follow their loose ways, because of whom, the way of truth will be disparaged. [3]And in covetousness they will defraud you with baseless teachings. Whose sentence from of old was never idle, nor is their damnation sleeping.

[4]For if God did not spare the angels who sinned, but transferred them down to Tartarus, kept in chains of deep darkness for judgment day, [5]and the ancient world he did not spare, when he brought a flood upon a world full of wicked people, except for Noah, one of eight he protected, heralder of righteousness, [6]and the cities of Sodom and Gomorrah he condemned to ruin, reducing them to ashes, setting them as an example to those about to be ungodly, [7]and rescued righteous Lot, who was overwhelmed by the behavior of them unrestrained in sensuality, [8](for that righteous man, though he lived among them, seeing and hearing day after day their lawless acts grated on his righteous soul) [9]the Lord certainly knows how to deliver the godly out of trial, but store up the unrighteous for punishment on the day of judgment, [10]and especially those running after the flesh in defiling lust, and who despise authority. Bold, over-bearing, they do not tremble as they disparage higher powers, [11]whereas angels who are much more able and powerful do not bring against them a disparaging accusation before the Lord.

[12]But these, like unreasoning beasts of instinct, are born for capture and death: hurling invective about things in which they are not knowledgeable. In the manner of their demise, these will be destroyed, [13]receiving back the wages of doing injury. When they eat a communal meal with you, they are blights and sores, in their delusion, reveling, thinking it is partying in the daytime for pleasure; [14]having eyes full of adultery, and who cannot cease from sin, enticing unsure souls, having a heart trained on material gain, inheritors of doom. [15]Leaving the right path, they have gone astray, following in the path of Balaam son of Bosor, who loved the payment from unrighteousness,[370] [16]but received a rebuke for his transgression. A donkey, that has not speech, reigned in the madness of the prophet, by speaking up with a human voice.

[17]These are springs without water, clouds driven away by a storm, for whom the absolute blackness of everlasting darkness is reserved. [18]For by uttering high sounding but worthless words they entice through the untempered desires of the flesh those who had actually escaped the ones who live in error, [19]promising them freedom, themselves being slaves of seduction. For by whatever someone has been defeated, to that he has also become a slave.

[20]For if after having escaped the moral corruptions of the world through the knowledge of the Lord and Savior Jesus Christ they are but again entangled, defeated by them, their latter state has become worse for them than their former. [21]For it would have been better for them not to have known the path of righteousness, than though knowing it, to turn back from the holy commandment that was delivered to them. [22]But the definition of that true proverb is met in them: "A dog returns to its vomit, and a sow after washing herself to rolling in the filth."

Chapter 3

[1]This now, beloved, is the second epistle I write to you in which I rouse your sincere minds by a reminder, [2]to recall the statements spoken in the past by the holy prophets, and the direction from the Lord and Savior through your apostles, [3]knowing this first of all, that there will come in the last days mockers, conducting themselves according to their own desires, [4]and saying, "Where is the promise of his coming? Because from the time our fathers passed away, everything continues like it was from the beginning of creation."

---

[370] 2:15c The elders of Moab and Midian were offering to pay a fee, (Numbers 22:7) or payment, an "honor" (24:11) to be paid to Baalam if he would curse the Israelites. Balaam inquired of God, and God told him not to go with the men, and not to curse Israel. But Balaam kept re-inquiring of God, in prayer that is wicked, (wicked prayer, because he already had received the answer, but did not like the answer), Balaam kept inquiring of God, even looking for omens (24:1) by sacrificing at different places, apparently hoping that God might change his mind, and then Balaam could earn the fee after all. Certainly, that would be a payment from unrighteousness. The thing to note is, that Balaam was a true prophet of Yehovah, and he rightly spoke only what Yehovah told him to speak; yet he is eternally damned because of his heart, because his heart kept hoping to earn some money that was wrong to earn. Motives count to God, not just deeds. Balaam's heart loved money too much.

[5]For this "escapes them" on purpose, that the heavens existed long ago, and the earth from water and through water was put together by the word of God, [6]by which also the then world perished when it was flooded with water;[371] [7]and the present heavens and earth by the same word are reserved for fire, kept until the day of judgment and destruction of ungodly people.

[8]But this one thing must not escape you, beloved, that with the Lord, one day is like a thousand years, and a thousand years like one day. [9]The Lord of that promise is not loitering, as some consider loitering. Instead, he is being very patient toward us, not wanting anyone to perish, but rather all to come to repentance. [10]But the day of the Lord will come like a thief in the night, in which the heavens will pass away with a roar, and the elements be dissolved by burning, and the earth and the works in it will be completely burned up.

[11]Since all these things are being dissolved, what kind of people ought you to be, in holy ways of life, and godliness, [12]looking forward to and cheering on the arrival of the day of God, by which it is all melted, the heavens to be dissolved by fire and the elements by burning up? [13]And we are looking forward, according to his promise, to a new heaven and a new earth, in which righteousness is at home.

[14]Wherefore, beloved, looking forward to these things, be diligent to be found by him at peace, from being pure and blameless. [15]And consider the patience of our Lord to be salvation,[372] just as also our beloved brother Paul has written to you according to the wisdom given to him, [16]as also in all his epistles, talking in them about these things, in which are some things hard to understand, which untaught and unstable persons distort, as they do also the rest of the scriptures, to their own destruction.

[17]You therefore, beloved, knowing this ahead of time, guard yourselves so that you not be led away by the error of unprincipled persons and fall from your own firm conviction, [18]but grow in grace and in the knowledge of our lord and savior Jesus Christ. To him be glory both now and for ever. Amen.

[371] 3:6b Peter is saying the scoffers know perfectly well that everything has not stayed the same way it was at the beginning of creation. They are intentionally passing over how the earth was radically changed by the flood.

[372] 3:15b Romans 2:4

*The First Epistle General of John

1 John

[1]That which existed from the beginning, which we have heard, which we have seen with our eyes, which we have looked at and our hands have examined, talking about the word of life, [2]even that life has been revealed, and we have seen it, and we are bearing witness and announcing to you eternal life, which was with the Father and has been revealed to us. [3]What we have seen and heard we are declaring to you also, so you too may have fellowship with us. And that fellowship of ours is with the Father, and with his son Jesus Christ. [4]And these things we write to you, so your joy may be full.

[5]And this is the message that we have heard from him and announce to you: that God is light, and in him is no darkness at all. [6]If we say we are in fellowship with him, and are walking in darkness, we are lying, and not doing the truth. [7]But if we walk in the light, as he is in the light, we have fellowship one with another, and the blood of Jesus Christ his Son cleanses us from all sin. [8]If we say we have no sin, we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us. [9]If we confess our sins, he is faithful and just to forgive us our sins, and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness. [10]If we say we have not sinned, we are calling him a liar, and his word is not in us.

Chapter 2

[1]My children, these things I am writing to you so that you will not sin. And if anyone sins, we have an advocate with the Father, Jesus Christ the righteous; [2]and he is the appeasement for our sins; and not for ours only, but also for the sins of the whole world.

[3]And by this we know that we have known him: if we keep his commandments. [4]Someone who says, "I know him," and does not keep his commandments, is a liar, and the truth is not in him. [5]But whoever keeps his word, that is the person in whom the love of God really is accomplished. By this we know that we are in him. [6]Someone who claims to abide in him ought also to walk just as he walked.

[7]Brethren, I am not writing to you a new commandment, but an old commandment, that you have had from the beginning. The old commandment is the word that you have heard from the beginning. [8]Yet, it is a new commandment I am writing to you, which is true in him and in you, since the darkness passes away and the true light keeps shining even now.[373] [9]Someone who claims to be in the light, and hates his brother, is in darkness as of now. [10]Someone who loves his brother is abiding in the light, and there is no cause of stumbling in him. [11]But someone who hates his brother is in the darkness, and walks in the darkness, and does not know where he is going, because the darkness has blinded his eyes.

[12]To you children, I write: "Your sins are forgiven you for his name's sake."

[13]To you fathers, I write: "You know him who existed from the beginning."

To you young men, I write: "You have overcome the evil one." I write to you children that you have known the Father.

[14]I have written to you fathers that you have known him who existed from the beginning. I have written to you young men that you are strong and the word of God abides in you and you have overcome the evil one.

[15]Love not the world, neither the things that are in the world. If someone loves the world, the love of the Father is not in him. [16]Because all that is in the world, the lust of the flesh, and the lust of the eyes, and the pride of possessions, is not of [373] 2:8 The point that the light keeps shining even now, is that it puts new light on the old commandment; thus he can say that he is writing to us a commandment that is both old and new.

the Father, but is of the world. [17]And the world passes away, along with the lust of it, but whoever does the will of God abides for ever.

[18]Children, it is the last hour, and just as you have heard that antichrist is coming, even now many antichrists have arisen; for which reason we know it is the last hour. [19]They went out from us, but were not of us. For had they been of us, they would have remained with us. But they went out so that they would be made apparent, that none of them are of us. [20]And you have an anointing from the Holy One, and know all. [21]I have not written to you that you don't know the truth, but that you do know it. And that every lie is not of the truth.

[22]Who is the liar, if not someone denying as follows, "Jesus is not the Anointed One"? This is antichrist, someone denying the Father and the Son.[374] [23]Everyone who denies the Son, does not have the Father either. Someone who confesses the Son, has the Father as well.

[24]You therefore, what you have heard from the beginning, let it abide in you. If what you heard from the beginning abides in you, you also in the Son and in the Father will abide. [25]And this is the message that He announced to us: eternal life. [26]These things I have written to you because of those deceiving you.

[27]And you, the anointing that you received from him, it abides in you, and you have no need that someone teach you. But rather, as that same anointing has taught you concerning all things, and is true and is not a lie, so also, just as it has taught you, you will abide in him. [28]And now, children, abide in him, so that when he is revealed, we may have confidence, and not feel ashamed because of him at his coming. [29]If you know that he is righteous, you know that everyone who practices righteousness is born of him.

Chapter 3

[1]Behold what manner of love the Father has given to us, that we should be called the children of God. The reason the world does not know us is this: it has not known him. [2]Beloved, now we are children of God, though it is not yet revealed what exactly we will be. But we know that when he is revealed, we will be like him. For we will see him as he is. [3]And everyone who has this hope on Him purifies himself, just as that one is pure.

[4]Everyone practicing sin is also practicing lawlessness, and sin is lawlessness. [5]And you know that he was revealed so that our sins be taken away, and there is no sin in him. [6]Everyone abiding in him does not sin. Everyone who keeps sinning has not seen him, neither known him.

[7]Children, let no one deceive you: someone who practices righteousness is righteous just as that one is righteous. [8]Someone who practices sin is of the devil, for the devil has been sinning from the beginning. For this purpose the son of God has been revealed: to destroy the works of the devil. [9]Everyone born of God does not practice sin, because His seed abides in him, and it is not able to sin, because it is born from God.[375] [10]By this the children of God are evident versus the children

---

[374] 2:22 An example of such a denial is found in the Qu'ran: [9.30] And the Jews say: Uzair is the son of Allah; and the Christians say: The Messiah is the son of Allah; these are the words of their mouths; they imitate the saying of those who disbelieved before; may Allah destroy them; how they are turned away! [9.31] They have taken their doctors of law and their monks for lords besides Allah, and (also) the Messiah son of Marium and they were enjoined that they should serve one God only, there is no god but He; far from His glory be what they set up (with Him).

[375] 3:9 It is a problem here for most Bibles, which say that a person born of God is not able to sin. The above is the only sensible and possible rendering of the Greek of this verse. John is in unity with Paul, in that he teaches there is a new man in us and an old man. Also in unity with Paul that we must continually make the decision to "put off the old man, and put on the new." The new is that part that came from the Father, just as we physically were born from our earthly father's sperm. That sperm was wholly our father, and not us. That of the devil: everyone who does not practice righteousness is not of God, and also someone who does not love his brother.

[11]Because this is the message which you have heard from the beginning: that we should love one another. [12]Not like Cain, who was of the evil one, and killed his brother. And what was the reason he killed him? Because his own works were evil, and those of his brother were righteous.

[13]Do not marvel, my brethren, if the world hates you. [14]We know that we have crossed over out of death into life, because we love the brethren. Someone who does not love his brother still abides in death. [15]Everyone who hates his brother is a murderer, and you know that no murderer has eternal life abiding in him. [16]By this we know love: because He laid down his life for us. And we ought to lay down our lives for the brethren.

[17]Now whoever has the substance of the world, and sees his brother having need of it, and closes off his compassion from him, how does the love of God abide in him? [18]My children, we should love, not in word or tongue, but in action and truth, [19]and by this we know that we are of the truth, and will assure our hearts before him [20]that when our heart accuses, that God is greater than our heart, and he knows all. [21]Beloved, when our heart does not accuse us, we have confidence with God, [22]and whatever we ask, we receive from him, because we are keeping his commandments, and doing the things that are pleasing in his sight.

[23]And this is his commandment: that we believe in the name of his son Jesus Christ, and that we love one another, just as he gave commandment. [24]And someone keeping his commandments is abiding in Him, and He in that person. And by this we know that we abide in him: by the Spirit which he has given to us.

Chapter 4

[1]Beloved, do not believe every spirit, but test the spirits, whether they are of God; because many false prophets have gone out into the world. [2]By this you know the spirit of God: every spirit that confesses that Jesus Christ has come in the flesh, is of God, [3]and every spirit that does not confess Jesus Christ has come in the flesh, is not of God. And this is the spirit of antichrist, which you have heard was coming, and now is in the world already. [4]You are of God, children, and have overcome him, because greater is he that is in you than he that is in the world. [5]They are of the world; therefore speak they of the world, and the world hears them. [6]We are of God. Someone who knows God hears us; someone who is not of of God does not hear us. From this we recognize the spirit of truth versus the spirit of error.

[7]Beloved, let us love one another; for love is of God, and everyone who loves is born of God, and knows God. [8]Someone who does not love does not know God, for God is love. [9]To us the love of God was made known in this: that God sent his only begotten son into the world so we might be saved through him. [10]Herein is love, not that we loved God, but that he loved us, and sent his Son as the appeasement for our sins.

[11]Beloved, if that is how God loved us, we ought also to love one another. [12]No one has ever seen God. When we love one another, God abides in us, and his love sperm, that seed, was no part of us, but is from outside us. It cannot sin. Our old man can. BUT, do not think that I say you canot lose your salvation. That would require much space; suffice it to say that John states in this epistle that if you continually sin your whole life until you die, you are not God's child and do not know God. There needs to be the miracle of new birth, and newness of life. Even the unbeliever can commit his favorite sin every day, and repent every day, until the day he dies. How are you different in that case, from someone who has not been born again? So even if you have a born again experience, but then later backslide, and continually sin the rest of your life, and never are an overcomer over the sins that are your weakness, I do not think you will enter the kingdom of heaven. The apostle Peter says as much in his epistles.

is accomplished in us. 13By this we know that we are abiding in him and he in us: because he has given to us of his Spirit.

14And we have seen, and we bear witness, that the Father has sent the Son as savior of the world. 15Whoever confesses that Jesus is the son of God, God abides in that person, and that person in God. 16And we have known and believed the love that God has in us. God is love; and someone who abides in love is abiding in God, and God in him. 17In this, love is accomplished with us, so that in the day of judgment we may have confidence that just as that one is, we in this world also are. 18There is no fear in love, but perfect love casts out fear. Because fear has torment, and someone who is afraid is not accomplished in love. 19We love him, because he first loved us.

20If anyone says, "I love God," and he hates his brother, he is a liar. For someone who does not love his brother whom he has seen, how can he love God whom he has not seen? 21And this commandment we have from him: that he who loves God must also love his brother.

1Everyone who believes that Jesus is the Anointed One is born of God, and everyone who loves the one who begat will also love someone begotten from him. 2By this we know that we love the children of God: when we love God and are keeping his commandments. 3For this is love of God: that we keep his commandments. And his commandments are not heavy to bear, 4because everyone who has been born of God overcomes the world. And this is the victory that overcomes the world: our faith. 5Who is overcomer of the world, except someone who believes that Jesus is the Son of God?

6He is the one who came through water and blood, Jesus Christ. Not only by water, but by water and blood. And the Spirit is one bearing witness, because the Spirit is truth. 7For there are three that bear witness in heaven: the Father, the Word, and the Holy Spirit; and these three are one. 8And there are three that bear witness on earth: the Spirit, and the water, and the blood, and these three agree as one.[376] 9If we accept the witness of human beings, the witness of God is greater. For this is the witness of God that he has testified concerning his Son. 10Someone who believes in the Son of God has the witness in himself. But someone who does not trust in God has called him a liar, because he has not trusted the testimony that God has testified concerning his Son. 11And this is the testimony: God has given to us eternal life, and that life is in his Son. 12Someone who has the Son of God has life. Someone who does not have the Son of God does not have life.

13I have written these things to you who believe in the name of the Son of God, that you may know you have eternal life, and that you may believe in the name of the Son of God. 14And this is the confidence that we have with him, that, if we ask for something that is in accordance with his will, he hears us.[377] 15And if we know that he hears us, whatever we ask, we know that we have the petitions that we have asked of him.

16If anyone sees his brother sinning a sin not to death, he shall ask, and God will give him life, for those not sinning to death. There is sin to death; I am not saying to ask about that. 17All unrighteousness is sin, and there is sin not to death. 18We know that everyone born of God does not practice sin, but instead what was generated of God keeps itself, and the evil one does not touch him.[378]

---

[376] 5:8 Literally, "these three are as one," which means, "these three agree." The point is that "by the testimony of two or three witnesses every matter must be established."

[377] 5:14 TR says "he hears you."

[378] 5:18 Or, "does not touch it." This is along the lines of Paul's teaching in Romans 7:15-25, that when I sin, it is not "I" who is sinning, but sin that dwells within me. Thus the idea that the new man, the new creation, the new generation in me born from God, does not sin, but the former man does, and is still present in me, trying to control my body, at war with the [19]We know that we are of God, and the whole world lies captive in the evil one. [20]And we know that the Son of God has come, and he has given us the understanding to know the truth. And we are in the truth, in his son Jesus Christ. He is the true God, and eternal life.

[21]Children, keep yourselves from idols. Amen.

new man in me that was generated by God. The new generation, that part of me that was born from God cannot sin; everything born of God does not sin. It is correct to expect the two different apostles to be in harmony with each other in their teachings, since they had the same teacher and the one and the same Holy Spirit. As in fact they are.

*The Second Epistle General of John

2 John

Chapter 1

[1]The Elder, to the elect lady, and to her children; whom I love in the truth; and not only I, but also everyone who knows assuredly the truth, [2]by means of the truth that is dwelling within us, and will stay with us for eternity. [3]Grace and mercy and peace shall follow us, from God the Father and from the Lord Jesus Christ the Father's Son, in truth and love.

[4]It cheered me greatly that I have found children of yours walking in the truth, in accordance with the commandment we received from the Father. [5]And now, I beseech you, Lady, not as writing a new commandment to you, but one which we have had from the beginning: that we should love one another. [6]And this is love: that we walk according to his commandments. This commandment is just as you have heard from the beginning, so that you would walk in it.

[7]For many deceivers have entered into the world, who do not confess Jesus Christ as coming in the flesh. This is the Deceiver and Antichrist. [8]Watch yourselves, so that we not lose the things we have worked for, but receive our full reward.

[9]Anyone deviating and not staying in the teaching of Christ, does not have God. Someone staying in the teaching of Christ, that person has both the Father and the Son. [10]If anyone comes to you and does not bring this teaching, do not receive him into your house and do not say 'Welcome' to him. [11]For someone who says 'Welcome' to him takes part in his evil works.

[12]Though I have many things to write to you, I did not want to do it by paper and ink, but instead hope to come to you and talk face to face, so our joy may be full.

[13]The children of your elect sister greet you. Amen.

*The Third Epistle General of John

3 John

Chapter 1

[1]The Elder, to the beloved Gaius, whom I love in the truth.

[2]Dear friend, I wish for you to prosper and be healthy in every regard, just as your soul is prospering. [3]For it cheered me greatly when some brothers came, bearing witness to your truth, how you are walking in the truth. [4]I have no greater joy than this, hearing that my children are walking in the truth.

[5]Dear friend, you do commendably whatever you labor at for the brothers, that is, for those travelers, [6]who have testified before the church about your love. Whom you will do well to supply for their journeys in a manner worthy of God. [7]Because, you see, for the sake of the Name they have gone forth, accepting nothing from the Gentiles.

[8]We therefore ought to welcome them who are like this, so we will become co-laborers with them in the truth. [9]I have written this to your church; but Diotrephes, who wishes to be the leader over them,[379] does not welcome us. [10]For which reason when I come, I will bring up the works that he has been doing, making frivolous charges against us with oppressive words. And not satisfied with this, neither does he welcome those brothers. And the ones that try to, he prevents, even throws them out of the church.

[11]Dear friend, do not imitate the bad, but rather the good. Someone practicing the good is of God. But someone practicing the bad, has not seen God.

[12]Demetrius is borne witness to by all, and by the truth itself. And we also bear witness, and you know that our testimony is true.

[13]I had many things to write, but do not wish to write to you by paper and ink. [14]Instead I hope to see you soon, and we will talk face to face.

Peace to you. The friends here greet you. Greet the friends there each by name.

[379] v. 9b This is the first example of the error of the idea of one leader who is over all the other leaders. This idea is contrary to the teachings of the apostles, who deliberately appointed multiple, co-equal pastors in each church. The apostles as well, were co-equal to each other. In fact, I think the primary purpose of this third epistle of John is to combat the arising error of Diotrephes, the error of the idea of one supreme leader.

The General Epistle of Jude

Jude

Chapter 1

1Jude, a servant of Jesus Christ, and brother of James, to those who are called, sanctified by God the Father, and preserved by Jesus Christ, 2mercy, peace and love be multiplied to you.

3Beloved, as I was making all speed to write to you concerning our shared salvation, I felt a need to write to you exhorting that you earnestly contend for the faith that was once delivered to the saints. 4For a certain type have crept in, already designated for this fate, ungodly people, turning the grace of our God into licentiousness, and thus contradicting our only Master, God and our Lord Jesus Christ.

5But I want to remind you, though you once knew this, that even though the Lord delivered the people from the land of Egypt, he later nevertheless destroyed the ones who did not believe. 6And the angels that did not preserve their high position, but deserted their proper home, those he has held under heavy darkness with eternal chains, for the judgment of the great day. 7In the same way, Sodom and Gomorra and the surrounding towns, who engaged in sexual debauchery and went after abnormal flesh, they are set forth as an example of people undergoing the punishment of eternal fire.

8Yet despite all that, these people, deluded, not only defile the flesh, but despise authority, and insult higher powers. 9In contrast Michael the archangel, during a dispute with the Devil, when he was arguing over the body of Moses, he dared not make a disparaging accusation, but said, "The Lord rebuke you." 10But this type, what things they don't understand, they denigrate, and things instinctive, like what unreasoning animals understand, by those things they are destroyed.

11Woe to them! For they have gone the way of Cain, for a payment rushed headlong in the error of Balaam, and perished in the rebellion of Korah.

12This type are the unseen obstacles in your communal meals, feasting with you without reverence; shepherding only themselves, clouds without water, carried about by the winds; trees turned color without fruiting, doubly dead, uprooted; 13wild waves of the sea frothing up their disgrace; wandering stars; for whom absolute blackness of darkness is reserved for ever.

14But even Enoch, the seventh from Adam, prophesied these things, saying, "Behold, the Lord has come, with myriads of his holy ones, 15to pass judgment against all, and to convict all the ungodly among them concerning all their ungodly acts which they have godlessly done, and concerning all the harsh words which ungodly sinners have spoken against him." 16These are grumblers, blamers, proceeding according to their own desires, yet their mouth speaks swelling things admiring important people to gain favor.

17But you, beloved, recall the matters foretold by the apostles of our Lord Jesus Christ, 18how they told you that in the end time there would be imitators, who proceed according to their own impious desires. 19These are those who separate themselves; natural, not having the Spirit.

20But you, beloved, building yourselves up in your most holy faith, praying in the Holy Spirit, 21keep yourselves in the love of God, anticipating the mercy of our Lord Jesus Christ, into eternal life.

22And on some you should have mercy, who are doubting; 23others, save, with fear snatching them from the fire, hating even the garment defiled by their flesh.

24Now to Him who has the power to keep them from stumbling, and to stand you in the presence of his glory blameless and exulting, 25to the only wise God our Savior be glory and majesty, dominion and power, both now, and into all the ages to come. Amen.

The Revelation of John

Revelation

Chapter 1

Prologue

[1]The Revelation of Jesus Christ, which God gave to him to show his servants what things must soon take place, and which he communicated when he sent it via his angel to his servant John, [2]who has confirmed as the word of God and the testimony of Jesus Christ, even what all things he saw.

[3]Blessed are the one reading and those listening to the words of this prophecy, and keeping the things written herein, for the time is near.

[4]John, to the seven churches in Asia, grace to you, and peace, from Him who is, and who was, and who is to come, and from the seven spirits which are before his throne, [5]and from Jesus Christ, the faithful witness, the firstborn from the dead, and ruler over the kings of the earth. To him who loved us, and washed us from our sins in his blood, [6]and made us kings and priests to his God and Father– to him be glory and power, for ever and ever. Amen.

[7]Behold, he is coming with the clouds, and every eye shall see him, including of those who pierced him. And all the peoples of the earth shall beat their breasts over him.[380] Let it be so, amen.

[8]"I am the Alpha and the Omega, the Beginning and the End," says the Lord, "the one who is, and who was, and who is to come, the Almighty."

Someone Like a Son of Man

[9]I, John, both your brother and fellow in the oppression and kingdom and endurance of Jesus Christ, was on the island called Patmos because of the word of God and because of the witness about Jesus Christ. [10]I was in the Spirit during the Lord's day, and I heard behind me a loud voice, like of a trumpet, [11]saying, "I am the Alpha and the Omega; the Beginning and the End. What you see, write in a book, and send it to the seven churches which are in Asia– to Ephesus, and to Smyrna, and to Pergamum, and to Thyatira, and to Sardis, and to Philadelphia, and to Laodicea."

[12]And I turned around to see the voice that spoke with me. And when I turned, I saw seven golden lampstands, [13]and in among the seven lampstands was someone like a son of man,[381] dressed in a cloak reaching down to his feet, and gird around at the pecs with a golden sash, [14]except his head and his hairs were white like wool, as white as snow, and his eyes like flames of fire, [15]and his feet like bronze as if made to glow in a furnace, and his voice like the sound of many waters, [16]and he was holding in his right hand seven stars, and out of his mouth was coming a sharp two-edged sword, and his face was like the sun shining in the strength of it.

[17]And when I saw him, I fell down by his feet as though dead. And he placed his right hand upon me, saying to me, "Do not fear. I am the First and the Last, [18]and the Living One, and I was dead, and behold, living for ever and ever. Amen. And I have the keys of Hades and of death.

[19]"Write what things you see and what things are now, and also what things are about to take place after these things. [20]The mystery of the seven stars which you

[380] Beating their breasts over something means a sign of great consternation and mourning because of what is happening.

[381] It is customary to render this phrase "like a Son of Man," so that it reminds the reader of this phrase in the prophets Ezekiel and Daniel. But it would be more accurate to translate it as "like a human," because that is what seems to be the emphasis here in contrast to later given non-human traits. John first gives traits of him that are human, and then he begins verse 14 with "but," and proceeds in the next several verses to tell us traits that are not human.

see upon my right hand, and the seven golden lampstands: The seven stars are the angels of the seven churches, and the seven lampstands which you saw, are the seven churches.

Chapter 2

To the Church in Ephesus

[1]"To the angel of the church of Ephesus, write: 'These things says He who grips the seven stars in his right hand, who walks among the seven golden lampstands: [2]"I know your works, and your toil and endurance, and how you are not able to tolerate evil people, and have put to the test those who claim to be apostles and are not and have found them to be liars. [3]And you have held up and have endurance. Yes you have labored for the sake of my name and not become weary.

[4]"But I have against you that you have left your first love. [5]Remember therefore from where you have fallen, and repent and do your first works; otherwise I will come to you quickly and remove your lampstand from its place, unless you repent.

[6]"But this you have, that you hate the deeds of the Nicolaitans, which I also hate. [7]He who has an ear should listen to what the Spirit is saying to the churches. To him who overcomes, I will grant to eat from the tree of life, which is in the midst of the paradise of God.

To the Church in Smyrna

[8]"And to the angel of the church of Smyrna, write: 'These things says the First and the Last, who was dead and came alive again: [9]'I know your works and your affliction and your poverty (but you are rich) and the blasphemy of those claiming to be Jews and are not but are a synagogue of Satan. [10]Do not be afraid of any of the things you are about to suffer. Behold, the devil is about to throw some of you into prison, so that you may be tried, and you will have affliction for ten days. Be faithful until death, and I will give you the crown of life. [11]He who has an ear should listen to what the Spirit is saying to the churches. He who overcomes will certainly not be harmed by the second death.

To the Church in Pergamum

[12]"And to the angel of the church in Pergamum, write: 'These things says He who has the sharp two-edged sword: [13]I know your works and where you live, where Satan's throne is; yet you hold fast to my law and have not denied my faith, even in the days in which Antipas my faithful witness was put to death near you, where Satan lives.

[14]"But I have a few things against you, that you have some there who hold to the teaching of Balaam, who taught Balak to put a stumbling block before the children of Israel, to eat idol sacrifices and to commit sexual immorality. [15]So also you have some who hold to the teaching of the Nicolaitans, which thing I hate. [16]Repent! Otherwise I will come to you quickly and fight against them with the sword of my mouth.

[17]"He who has an ear should listen to what the Spirit is saying to the churches. He who overcomes, I will give to him from the hidden manna to eat, and I will also give him a white stone, and on the stone a new name is written, which no one knows except the one receiving it.

To the Church in Thyatira

[18]"And to the angel of the church in Thyatira, write: 'These things says the Son of God, he who has his eyes like flames of fire and his feet like glowing bronze: [19]I know your works and love and service and faith, and your perseverance, how your last works are even greater than your first.

20"But I have a few things against you, that you allow that woman Jezebel, who calls herself a prophetess, to teach, and to lead my servants astray, to commit sexual immorality and to eat things sacrificed to idols. 21And I have given her time to repent of her sexual immorality, and she is not willing to repent. 22Behold, I am casting her onto a bed, along with the ones committing adultery with her, for an affliction of great magnitude, unless they repent of their works. 23And her children I will destroy in death; and all the churches will know that I am He who searches minds[382] and hearts, and that I will pay to each of you according to your works.

24"And to the rest of you also in Thyatira I say, as many as do not hold to these teachings and who have not known 'the deep things of Satan,' as they say, I will not lay any further burden upon you. 25Except what things you have, hold on to them until I come. 26And he who overcomes and keeps my works to the end, I will give him authority over the nations, 27and he will rule them with a rod of iron, shattering them to pieces like pots of clay, even as I also have received from my Father; 28and I will give to him the morning star.

29"He who has an ear should listen to what the Spirit is saying to the churches."

Chapter 3

To the Church in Sardis

1"And to the angel of the church in Sardis, write: 'These things says He who has the seven spirits of God and the seven stars: "I know your works, how you have the name that you are living, and you are dead. 2Be watchful, and strengthen the things that remain, which are about to die. For I have not found your works complete before God. 3Remember therefore how you received and how you heard, and maintain that, and repent. Now then, if you are not watchful, I will come upon you like a thief, and you will not know at what hour I will come upon you.

4"You do have a few names even in Sardis who have not defiled their garments, and they will walk with me in white,[383] because they are worthy. 5He who overcomes, he shall be dressed in garments of white, and I will never wipe his name out of the book of life, and I will confess his name before my Father and before his angels. 6He who has an ear should listen to what the Spirit is saying to the churches."

To the Church in Philadelphia

7"And to the angel of the church in Philadelphia, write: 'These things says the Holy One, the True One, the one holding the key of David, who opens and no one closes, and closes and no one opens: 8'I know your works, (behold, before you I have provided an open door, and no one is able to close it) how you have little power, yet have kept my word, and have not denied my name.

382 The Greek says kidneys. Different languages and cultures use varying body parts for designating the seat of desire and affection. This use of "kidneys" isn't any less reasonable than how we use the heart for some things. The heart of course is really just a muscle. The tribe I was raised with in Papua New Guinea used several body organs. They would say, "God cleansed my stomach, and came in to live in my liver." This use of the kidneys came from the Hebrew culture, and the King James Version and older English translations render it "reins." (When you look at a picture in a medical book of the tubes coming down from the kidneys to the bladder, it does look like reins on a horse.) And according to Diodorus, the kidneys and the heart were the only organs left in the body cavity by Egyptian embalmers. See also Jeremiah 11:20; 17:10; 20:12.

383 Or "in brightness." Compare Daniel 12:3; Mark 9:3; Matt. 28:3; Luke 9:29; I Timothy 6:16;

9"Behold I will bring of the synagogue of Satan, of those claiming to be Jews and are not, but are lying; behold, I will make them such that they will come and fall down before your feet and know that I have loved you.

10"Because you have kept my word about endurance, I also will keep you from the hour of trial which is about to come upon the whole inhabited earth, to try those dwelling on the earth.

11"Behold, I am coming soon.[384] Hold fast to what you have, so that no one takes away your reward. 12He who overcomes, I will make him a pillar in the temple of my God, and he will never depart outside anymore, and I will write on him the name of my God and the name of the city of my God, the New Jerusalem, which comes down out of heaven from my God, and also my new name.

13"He who has an ear should listen to what the Spirit is saying to the churches.

To the Church in Laodicea

14"And to the angel of the church of the Laodiceans, write, 'These things says the Amen, the faithful and true witness, the origin of the creation of God: 15'I know your works, that you are neither cold nor hot. I wish that you were either cold or hot. 16Thus, because you are lukewarm, and neither cold nor hot, I am about to spew you out of my mouth.

17"Because you say 'I am rich; I have acquired wealth and have need of nothing,' and do not know that you are wretched and pitiful and poor and blind and naked, 18I counsel you to purchase from me gold purified by fire so you will be rich, and white garments so you will be clothed and your shameful nakedness not exposed, and salve your eyes so you will see. 19All whom I love, I punish and discipline. Be zealous therefore, and repent.

20"Behold, I stand at the door and knock. If anyone hears my voice and opens the door, I will come in to him and dine with him and he with me. 21To him who overcomes, I will grant to sit with me on my throne, just as I also overcame and sat with my Father on his throne. 22He who has an ear should listen to what the Spirit is saying to the churches."

Chapter 4

The Throne in Heaven

1After these things I looked, and behold, a door was opened in heaven, and a voice was speaking with me, the voice like a trumpet I had heard at first; and it was saying, "Come up here, and I will show you what things must take place after this." 2And immediately I was in the Spirit; and behold, there was situated in heaven a throne, and on the throne someone sitting. 3And the one sitting was like jasper stone and carnelian[385] in appearance. And an aura[386] encircles the throne, like emerald in appearance. 4And in a circle around the throne are twenty-four thrones, and on those thrones, I saw twenty-four elders dressed in white robes, and on their heads crowns of gold. 5And from the throne come flashes and sounds and

[384] 3:11 Yes, Jesus is coming soon, not "quickly." Jesus says "I am coming soon" 3 more times, all in chapter 22. See 22:10 where he says, "The time is near." That means "soon."

[385] Greek, sardion. Some also render this as Sardius. The English word carnelian is derived from the Latin root carn, from which we get carnal and carnivore and carne, and was named that because the stone was flesh-colored. The Oxford dictionary defines carnelian as a flesh-colored, deep red, or reddish-white variety of chalcedony.

[386] This is from the Greek word "iris," which can mean rainbow or halo. Webster's second definition of aura is: "a luminous radiation: Nimbus." I didn't like rainbow, since the rainbow by definition includes the whole spectrum of colors, whereas this phenomenon is only green. Halo is possibly suitable; it's just that the English reader is accustomed to it being only something around the heads of holy people or saints in art. But halo is also used in astronomy.

thunderings.[387] And there are seven flaming torches burning before the throne, which are the seven spirits of God, 6and in front of the throne is like a sea of glass, like crystal.

And in between the throne and the circle around the throne are four living beings,[388] full of eyes, front and back. 7And the first being is like a lion, and the second being like an ox, and the third being has a face like a human, and the fourth being is like an eagle in flight. 8And the four beings, every one of them has six wings each, which are covered completely around with eyes, even inward. And they take no rest day or night, continually saying, "Holy, holy, holy is the Lord God Almighty, who was and who is and who is to come." 9And whenever the beings give glory and honor and thanks to the One sitting on the throne, to Him who lives for ever and ever, 10the twenty-four elders will fall down before the One sitting on the throne, and worship Him who lives for ever and ever, and they will place their crowns before the throne, saying, 11"You are worthy, O Lord, to receive glory and honor and power, for you created all things, and for your purpose they exist and were created."

Chapter 5

Who is Worthy to Open the Scroll?

1And I saw upon the right hand of the One sitting on the throne a scroll, written on, inside and back,[389] sealed up with seven seals. 2And I saw a powerful angel, heralding in a loud voice: "Who is worthy to open the scroll, and to loose the seals of it?"

3And no one was able, not in heaven, nor on the earth, nor under the earth, to open the scroll, or even to look at it. 4And I was weeping greatly, that no one worthy was found, to open the scroll, or even to look at it. 5Then one of the elders is saying to me, "Do not weep. Look, the Lion of the tribe of Judah, the Root of David, he has overcome, so as to open the scroll and to loose the seven seals of it."

6And I saw in between the throne and the four living beings and the elders, a lamb, postured as though slain, having seven horns and seven eyes, which are the seven spirits of God sent forth into all the earth.[390] 7And he went and took the scroll from the right hand of the One sitting on the throne. 8And when he had taken the scroll, the four living beings and the twenty-four elders fell down before the Lamb, each one holding a lyre[391] and a golden bowl filled with incenses, which are the prayers of the saints,

---

387 Many phrase this as "flashes of lightning and peals of thunder." Compare Exodus 19:16

388 The Greek word rendered "living being" is zōion, which is defined in the BAGD lexicon as follows: "Living thing or being, to denote beings that are not human and yet not really animals of the usual kind."

389 txt "inside and on the back" TR NA28 {\} // "inside and outside" HF RP PK. The UBS textual commentary says that after codices came to be used, the terminology for scrolls seemed strange, thus the later change to the Majority Text reading.

390 Zechariah 4:10

391 The Greek word is "kithara," which with that era's pronunciation would sound to us as "gitarra," like the Spanish word for guitar. The Online Encyclopedia Britannica defines it as follows: "Large lyre of Classical antiquity, the principal stringed instrument of the Greeks and later of the Romans. It had a box-shaped resonating body from which extended two parallel arms connected by a crossbar to which 3–12 strings were attached. It was held vertically and plucked with a plectrum; the left hand was used to stop and damp the strings. It was played by singers of the Greek epics, as well as by later professional accompanists and soloists." The lyre was an intermediate transition step from the harp to the guitar and viol which have finger boards. The English word "harp" is no more accurate a rendering here than guitar, since a harp today is usually a 6 foot tall instrument mainly used with orchestras, whereas a guitar is a portable, personal instrument, more like here in Revelation than is a harp.

9and they began singing a new song, saying: "You are worthy to take the scroll, and to open the seals of it, because you were slain, and thereby purchased us for God with your blood out of every tribe and tongue and people and nation!" 10"And you made us kings and priests to our God, and we will reign on the earth."

11And I looked, and I heard the voices of many angels circled around the throne, and of the living beings and of the elders, and the number of them was ten thousand times ten thousand and thousands upon thousands, 12saying with a very great voice, "Worthy is the Lamb that was slain, to receive power and riches and wisdom and strength and honor and glory and blessing!"

13And every creature that is in heaven, and on the earth, and under the earth, and such as are in the sea, and all the things that are in them, I heard saying, "Blessing and honor, glory and power, be to Him who sits on the throne, and to the Lamb, for ever and ever!"

14And the four beings were saying "Amen." And the twenty-four elders fell down, and worshiped Him who lives for ever and ever.

Chapter 6

The Seven Seals

1And I watched as the Lamb opened the first of the seals. And I heard one of the four living beings saying in a thunderous voice, "Come and see." 2And I looked, and behold, a white horse, and the one sitting on it holding a bow, and to him was given a crown, and he went out conquering and to conquer.

3And when the Lamb opened the second seal, I heard the voice of the second being saying, "Come and see." 4And another horse came, a red one, and the one sitting on it, to him the order was given to take peace away from the earth, that is, so that they slaughter one another. And a large sword was given to him..

5And when the third seal was opened, I heard the voice of the third being saying, "Come and see." And I looked, and behold, a black horse, and the one sitting on it holding a pair of scales in his hands. 6And I heard a voice in the midst of the four living beings, saying, "A quart of wheat for a day's wage, and three quarts of barley for a day's wage. And don't you damage the oil or the wine."

7And when the fourth seal was opened, I heard the voice of the fourth being saying, "Come and see." 8And I looked, and behold, a pale green horse, and the one who is sitting on it, his name is Death, and Hades is trailing after him; and authority is given them over one fourth of the earth, to kill them with war, and famine, and death, and by the wild animals of the earth.

9And when the fifth seal was opened, I saw beneath the altar, the souls of those slain for the word of God and for the witness that they were bearing. 10And they were crying out with a loud voice, saying, "Until when, O Master, holy and true, are you refraining from adjudicating and avenging our blood from those who dwell on the earth?"

11And white robes were given to each one of them, and it was prescribed for them that they would take rest a little while longer, until such time the number of their fellow-servants and brethren would also be complete, those about to be killed even as they.

The Sixth Seal

12And I watched as he opened the sixth seal, and behold, a mighty earthquake took place, and the sun became black like animal hair sack-cloth, and the moon became like blood, 13and the stars of heaven fell to the earth, as a fig tree shaken by a strong wind casts its unripe figs, 14and the sky retreated like a scroll being rolled up, and every mountain and island was removed from its place.

15And the kings of the earth, and the great and the rich and the generals and the powerful, and every slave and every free person, hid themselves in caverns, and among the rocks of the mountains, 16and they are saying to the mountains and to the rocks, "Fall on us, and hide us from the face of the One sitting on the throne, and from the wrath of the Lamb; 17for the great day of His wrath has come, and who shall be able to stand?"[392]

Chapter 7

The 144,000 Sealed

1And after these things I saw four angels standing at the four points of the earth, holding back the four winds of the earth, so that no wind would blow upon the earth, or upon the sea or upon any tree.

2And I saw another angel had ascended from the east, holding the seal of the living God, and he cried out in a very great voice toward the four angels to whom the orders had been given to harm the earth and the sea, 3saying, "Do not harm the earth or the sea or the trees until such time we have sealed the servants of our God on their foreheads."

4And I heard the number of the ones sealed, 144,000, sealed from every tribe of the sons of Israel: 5from the tribe of Judah twelve thousand were sealed, from the tribe of Reuben twelve thousand were sealed, from the tribe of Gad twelve thousand were sealed, 6from the tribe of Asher twelve thousand were sealed, from the tribe of Naphtali twelve thousand were sealed, from the tribe of Manasseh[393] twelve thousand were sealed, 7from the tribe of Simeon twelve thousand were sealed, from the tribe of Levi twelve thousand were sealed, from the tribe of Issachar twelve thousand were sealed, 8from the tribe of Zebulun twelve thousand were sealed, from the tribe of Joseph twelve thousand were sealed, from the tribe of Benjamin twelve thousand were sealed.

The Multitude out of the Tribulation

9After these things I looked, and behold, a great multitude, which no one could count, from every nation and tribe and people and tongue, standing before the throne and before the Lamb, dressed in white robes, and palm branches in their hands; 10and shouting out with a loud voice, saying, "Salvation is with Him who sits on the throne of our God, and with the Lamb!"

11And all the angels stood in a circle around the throne and around the elders and the four living beings, and they fell on their faces before the throne and worshiped God, 12saying, "Amen. Blessing and glory and wisdom and thanks and honor and power and strength to our God for ever and ever. Amen."

13And one of the elders responded saying to me, "These wearing the white robes, who are they, and where did they come from?"

14And I spoke[394] to him, "Sir, you know."

And he said to me, "These are those coming out of the great tribulation, and they have washed their robes, and made their robes white in the blood of the Lamb. 15Because of this they are before the throne of God, and they serve him day and night in his temple, and the One sitting on the throne will spread his tent over them. 16No longer will they hunger, neither will they thirst any more, nor will the sun attack them nor any scorching heat. 17For the Lamb that is in the midst of the throne will shepherd them, and he will lead them to the springs of living waters; and God will wipe away every tear from their eyes."[395]

392 Malachi 3:2; Zephaniah 1:18; 2:3

393 Note that Joseph is represented here twice, as his own name in verse 8 and as his son Manasseh here in verse 6. Israel only had 12 sons, so if Joseph is here twice, that means that one of the other sons of Israel is missing. Dan is missing. See my endnote at the end of my separate Revelation document which explains this.

394 This is the first time John speaks. He has been spoken to many times before this, but he had not responded verbally until now.

Chapter 8

The 7th Seal: the Seven Trumpets

1And when he opened the seventh seal, there was silence in heaven for about half an hour. 2And I saw the seven angels which stand before God, and seven trumpets were given to them. 3And another angel came and stood at the altar, holding a golden censer, and many incenses were given to him so that he might present the prayers of all the saints at the golden altar which is before the throne.
4And the smoke of the incenses went up before God from the hand of the angel mingled with the prayers of the saints. 5And the angel took the censer and filled it with the burning incense, and he hurled it to the earth; and there came voices and rumblings and peals of thunder and an earthquake. 6And the seven angels who had the seven trumpets readied themselves to play.

7And the first angel sounded his trumpet; and there came hail and fire mixed with blood, and it was rained on the earth. And one third of the trees were burned up, and all the green grass was burned up.

8And the second angel sounded his trumpet; and something like a huge mountain burning with fire was hurled into the sea. And one third of the sea was turned to blood, 9and one third of the creatures that have lives in the sea died, and one third of the ships were destroyed.

10And the third angel sounded his trumpet; and a huge star fell from heaven, burning like a lamp, and it fell on a third of the rivers, and on the sources of the waters. 11And the name of the star means "Wormwood." And one third turns into bitterness, and many of the people died from the waters because they were made bitter.

12And the fourth angel sounded his trumpet; and a third of the sun was struck, and a third of the moon and a third of the stars, such that one third of their light was darkened[396] and a third of the daylight would not be shined, and the same with the night.

13And I looked, and I heard an angel flying at zenith saying with a very loud voice, "Woe, woe, woe to those dwelling on the earth, because of the remaining sounds of the trumpet from the three angels about to sound!"

Chapter 9

The Fifth Trumpet

1And the fifth angel sounded his trumpet; and I saw a fallen star,[397] fallen out of heaven onto earth, and the key to the bottomless pit had been given to him. 2And he opened the bottomless pit, and smoke ascended from the pit like smoke from a giant furnace. And the sun and the sky were darkened from the smoke of the pit.
3And from the smoke, locusts went out over the earth, and they were given a power like the power that the scorpions of Earth have.

4And it was commanded them that they not harm the grass of the earth or anything green or any tree, but only humans who do not have the seal of God on their foreheads. 5And orders were given them that they not kill them, but that they be tormented for five months. And their torment will be like the pain of a scorpion when it strikes a person. 6And during those days the people will seek death, and will not find it. Yes, they will long earnestly to die, and death will elude them.

---

396 Compare Isaiah 13:10; Ezekiel 32:7; Joel 3:15

397 That is, a fallen angel. Angels are called stars also in Judges 5:20; Job 38:7; Isaiah 14:13; Daniel 8:10 / Rev. 12:4; Rev. 1:20. In this verse in Revelation, it is a "fallen star," which is another way to refer to a demon; one of the 1/3 of the angels that Satan took with him when he was expelled from heaven.

7And the appearance of the locusts was like horses outfitted for war, and on their heads something like golden crowns, and their faces like human faces, 8and they had hair like the hair of women, and their teeth were like lions' teeth, 9and they had thoraxes like breastplates of iron, and the sound of their wings was like the sound of many chariot horses rushing to battle. 10And they have tails like scorpions, and in their tails were were stingers, and their power to do harm to humans for five months. 11And they have as king over them the angel of the Abyss. His name in Hebrew is Abaddōn, and in Greek he has the name Apollyōn.

12The first woe has passed. Behold, even after all this, two woes still are coming.

13And the sixth angel sounded his trumpet. And I heard a voice from the four horns of the golden altar before God, 14saying to the sixth angel, who was holding the trumpet, "Release the four angels that are bound at the great river Euphrates." 15And he released the four angels, held ready for that hour and day and month and year in order to kill one third of humanity. 16And the number of their mounted troops was 200,000,000. And I heard the number of them.

17And this is how I saw the horses in the vision, and those sitting on them: Having breastplates like fire, that is, dusky red and sulphur colored; and the heads of the horses like heads of lions, and from their mouths comes fire and smoke and sulphur. 18By these three things, by the fire and by the smoke and by the sulphur coming from their mouths, one third of humanity was killed. 19Now their powers are in their mouths and in their tails; for their tails are like snakes, having heads, and with these they do harm.

20And the rest of humanity, those who were not killed by these plagues, they did not repent, neither of the works of their hands, such that they worship demons and idols made of gold and silver and bronze and stone and wood, which can neither see nor hear nor walk, 21and neither did they repent of their murders, nor their sorceries, nor their sexual immorality, nor their thefts.

Chapter 10

The Prophet's Bitter Burden

1And I saw another powerful angel coming down out of heaven, wrapped in a cloud, and a nimbus[398] above his head, and his face like the sun, and his legs like columns of fire, 2and he was holding in his hands a little scroll that was opened. And he placed his right foot upon the sea, and his left upon the land, 3and cried out with a great voice, like a lion roaring. And when he had cried out, the seven thunders spoke with their sounds.[399]

4And when the seven thunders had spoken, I was about to write, and I heard a voice from heaven saying to me, "Seal up what things the seven thunders have spoken, and do not write them."

5And the angel which I had seen standing on the sea and on the land, he lifted his hand to heaven, 6and swore by Him who lives for ever and ever, who gave birth to the heaven and the things in it, and to the earth and the things in it, and to the sea and the things in it, he swore that there shall be no more time, 7but that in the days of the blast of the seventh angel, whenever he is about to sound his trumpet, even then will be brought to completion the mystery of God, as he has announced it to his servants the prophets.

8And the voice that I had heard from heaven, it spoke with me again, and said, "Go take the little scroll that is opened in the hand of the angel standing on the sea and on the land."

398 Or, halo, or aura. Halo is an astronomical term meaning any bright-colored circle surrounding another body, like the lunar rainbow. This is the Greek word Iris, which originally was the messenger going back and forth between the gods.

399 Or, “with their voices.”

9And I went over to the angel, saying to him, "Give me the little scroll." And he says to me, "Take it and eat it, and it will make your stomach bitter, though in your mouth it will be sweet like honey." 10And I took the little scroll from the hand of the angel, and I ate it, and in my mouth it was sweet like honey. And after I had eaten it, my stomach was made bitter.

11And he is saying to me, "You must again prophesy concerning many peoples and nations and tongues and kings."

Chapter 11

The Two Witnesses

1And a reed was given to me, like a measuring rod, as he[400] was saying, "Get up, and measure the temple of God along with the altar and those worshiping in it. 2And the outer courtyard of the temple you shall exclude, and not measure it, for it has been given to the Gentiles, and they will trample on the holy city for forty-two months. 3And I will give authority to my two witnesses, and they will prophesy for 1,260 days clothed in sackcloth."

4These are the two olive trees and the two lampstands which stand before the God of the earth.[401] 5And if anyone wants to harm them, fire comes from their mouth and consumes their enemies. And if anyone would want to harm them, this is how he ought to be killed. 6These have the authority to shut up the sky so that no rain will fall during the days of their prophesying, and they have authority over the waters to turn them into blood, and to strike the earth with any kind of plague as often as they wish. 7And when they complete their witness, the beast coming up out of the bottomless pit will make war with them, and will conquer them and kill them.

8And their corpses lie on the boulevard of the great city which is spiritually named Sodom[402] and Egypt, where also our Lord was crucified. 9And from peoples and tribes and tongues and nations they will see their corpses for three and a half days. And they are not allowing their corpses to be put into graves. 10And those dwelling on the earth will rejoice over them, and celebrate, and will send gifts to one another. For these two prophets had tormented those dwelling on the earth.

11And after the three and a half days, the breath of life from God went onto them, and they stood up on their feet. And great fear fell over those watching them. 12And they heard a great voice from heaven saying to them, "Come up here." And they went up into heaven in a cloud, and their enemies watched them. 13And in that hour a great earthquake took place, and one tenth of the city collapsed, and 7,000 people were killed. And the survivors were terrified, and they gave glory to the God of heaven.

14The second woe has passed. Behold, the third woe comes quickly.

The Last Trumpet

15And the seventh angel sounded his trumpet; and there were great voices in heaven, saying, "The kingdoms of the world have become the kingdom of our Lord, and of his Christ![403] And he shall reign for ever and ever!"

16And the twenty-four elders, who sit on their thrones before God, fell on their faces and worshiped God, 17saying, "We thank you, Lord God Almighty, who is and who was, that you have taken that great power of yours and begun to reign.

400 A singular masculine subject; it must be God speaking, because later in v. 3 the speaker says, "I will give authority to my two witnesses."

401 Zechariah 4:3, 14 These two lampstands are Elijah and Enoch, the two human beings who never died. Their flames never went out; they are witnesses who have never slept in the grave, eyes that have never closed.

18And the nations have become angry, and your anger also has come, and the time for the dead to be judged, and reward to be given to your servants the prophets and to the saints and to those fearing your name, both small and great, and to destroy the ones destroying the earth."

19And the temple of God in heaven opened, and the ark of his covenant was seen in his temple; and there came peals of thunder, and noises and rumblings and an earthquake, and large hailstones.

Chapter 12

The Woman, Her Seed, and the Dragon

1And a great sign was seen in heaven: a woman clothed with the sun, and the moon under her feet, and on her head a crown of twelve stars, 2and being with child, she was crying out with contractions and anguish to deliver.

3And another sign was seen in heaven, and behold, a great red dragon, having seven heads and ten horns, and on his heads seven crowns,[404] 4and his tail is pulling one third of the stars[405] from heaven; and it threw them to the earth. And the dragon took his stand in front of the woman who was about to deliver, so that he might devour the child whenever it was born.

5And she bore a son, a male child, who was destined to shepherd all the nations with a rod of iron. And her child was snatched up to God and to his throne. 6And the woman fled to the desert, to where she has a place prepared by God, so that there they might take care of her for 1,260 days.

7And there was war in heaven, Michael and his angels made war against the dragon. And the dragon made war, and his angels also, 8and they were not strong enough, neither was their place found anymore in heaven. 9And the great dragon was thrown out, that ancient serpent, which is called the Devil and Satan, who deceives the whole world, he was thrown to the earth, and his angels thrown along with him.

10And I heard a great voice in heaven, saying, "Now has come the salvation and power and kingdom of our God, and the authority of his Christ; for the accuser of our brethren has been thrown down, the one accusing them before our God day and night, 11and these have overcome him by the blood of the Lamb and by the word of their testimony, and they did not love their lives even unto death.

12"Rejoice over this, O heaven,[406] and you who dwell therein! Woe to those who inhabit the earth and the sea! For the devil has come down to you with great fury, because he knows that he has but little time."

13And when the dragon saw that he was thrown to the earth, he went after the woman that bore the male child. 14And she was given the two wings of a great eagle to fly to the desert to that place of hers, where she gets taken care of for a time, times, and half a time,[407] away from the face of the serpent.

15And the serpent poured water from his mouth like a river after the woman, to cause her to be swept away by a flood, 16and the earth helped the woman, and the

405 That is, one third of the angels. We know of only three archangels: the being who is now Satan, and Michael, and Gabriel. Therefore it is reasonable to conclude that each archangel ruled one third of the angels. When Satan was cast out of heaven, he took the one third of the angels with him. See for example 12:7, where it says "Michael and HIS angels." Jesus said in Luke 10:18, "I was watching as Satan fell from heaven like lightning."

406 The plural of "heavens" is a Semitism, and does not translate to a plural in English, so BDF § 141(1) and § 4(2).

407 The expression "a time, times, and half a time" no doubt means "for three and a half years." We know this because that is essentially what the 1,260 days of Rev. 11:2,3; 12:6 add up to. And compare Daniel 12:7.

earth opened its mouth and swallowed the flood that the dragon had poured from his mouth.

17And the dragon was enraged over the woman, and went off to make war with the rest of her seed, those keeping the commandments of God and bearing the witness of Jesus Christ.

Chapter 13

The First Beast, out of the Sea

1And I [408] stood at the shore of the sea. And I saw a beast coming up from the sea, with seven heads and ten horns, and on its horns ten crowns, and on its heads a name that is blasphemy. 2And the beast which I saw was like a leopard, and the feet of it like a bear's, and his mouth like the mouth of a lion. And the dragon gave his power to him, and his throne, and great authority. 3And I saw one of his heads as good as slain[409] to death, and the fatal wound was healed. And the whole earth admired and followed after the beast, 4and they worshiped the dragon who had given authority to the beast, and they worshiped the beast, saying, "Who is like the beast? Who is able to wage war with him?"

5And there was given to him a mouth speaking big things and blasphemies, and authority was given to him to act for forty-two months. 6And he opened his mouth for blasphemy toward God, to blaspheme his name and his tabernacle, and those tabernacling in heaven.[410] 7And it was given to him to make war with the saints and to conquer them, and authority was given to him over every tribe and tongue and nation. 8And they worship him, all those dwelling on the earth, all those whose names are not written in the book of life of the Lamb that was slain from the foundation of the world.

9If anyone has an ear, hear. 10If anyone takes into captivity, into captivity he is going. If anyone will kill with the sword, with the sword he must be killed. Here is the endurance and faith of the saints.

The Second Beast, out of the Earth

11And I saw another beast, coming up from the earth, and it had two horns like a lamb, and it spoke as the dragon. 12And all the authority of the first beast it exercises before him. And he causes the earth and those dwelling in it to worship

[408] txt "I stood" TR HF RP PK // "it/he stood" NA27 {B}. This textual difference about who or what was standing at the shore of the sea, is what determines whether a Greek New Testament edition places this sentence here as verse 12:18 in this context, or places this sentence in Chapter 13:1. Thus, since the UBS and NA29 editions follow the second reading, they place this sentence in 12:18, with the beast the one standing rather than the seer John. The UBS textual commentary says, "The latter reading appears to have arisen when copyists accommodated 'he stood' to the first person of the following 'I saw.' " In addition, it is attractive to make it John the one standing on the shore of the sea, since the next thing he does is observe a beast rising out of the sea. But it also makes perfect sense that the dragon stood at the shore of the sea, because it was expecting or bringing up the beast out of the sea. It has just said in the previous verse that the dragon went to make war with the woman's seed, and this is how he made war: he brought up the beast, which later in 13:7 of this chapter makes war on the saints and conquers them.

[409] It is important to keep the word in the same form as when referring to the Lamb that was slain, since this beast is a pseudo-christ.

[410] God's people, along with his Son, ARE the tabernacle. See Eph 2:20-22; 1 Peter 2:5; Rev. 21:14 etc.

the first beast, whose mortal wound had been healed. 13And he performs great signs, such that he even causes fire to come down from heaven to earth before the people. 14And he deceives those dwelling on the earth by means of the signs which were given him to do before the beast, telling those dwelling on the earth to make an image to the beast which has the wound of the sword and yet has lived. 15And it was given to him to give breath to the image of the beast, such that the image of the beast can even talk, and also to cause anyone who does not worship the image of the beast to be put to death.

16And he causes all, the small and the great, and the rich and the poor, and the free and the slave, to receive a mark on their right hand[411] or on their foreheads, 17and makes it so that no one is able to buy or sell without having the mark or the name of the beast or the number of his name. 18Here is wisdom: he who has the understanding should calculate the number of the beast, for it is the number of a human being; and his[412] number is 666.

Chapter 14

The Lamb and the 144,000

1And I looked, and behold, the Lamb is standing on Mount Zion, and with him the 144,000 who have the name of His father written on their foreheads. 2And I heard a voice from heaven like the sound of many waters and like the sound of loud thunder. I also heard the sound of lyre players playing their lyres. 3And they are singing like a new song before the throne and before the four living beings and the elders. And no one was able to learn the song except the 144,000, the ones purchased from the earth. 4These are men who have not been defiled with women, for they are virgins. These are the ones following the Lamb wherever he goes. They were purchased from humanity as a firstfruits to God and to the Lamb, 5and in their mouths has been found no guile.[413] For they are blameless before the throne of God.

The Three Angels

6And I saw another angel flying at zenith, having an eternal gospel to herald to those dwelling on the earth, even to every nation and tribe and tongue and people, 7saying in a loud voice, "Fear God and give him glory; for the hour of his judgment has come; and worship him who created the heaven and the earth and the sea and the sources of waters."

8And another angel followed, saying, "Fallen! Fallen is Babylon that great city! Because she had given all nations to drink of the wine of the wrath of her whoredom."

9And a third angel followed those, saying with a loud voice, "If anyone worships the beast and his image, and takes the mark on his forehead or on his hand, 10he shall himself also drink of the wine of the wrath of God, mixed undiluted in the cup of his anger,[414] and he shall be tormented with fire and sulfur before the holy angels and before the Lamb. 11And the smoke of their torment goes up for ever and ever, and they have no relief day or night, those who worship the beast and the image of him, and anyone who takes the mark of his name."

411 The Greek word is χείρ, and meant the entire limb/arm, including the hand all the way up to the shoulder, as so also the word for foot can mean the whole leg; compare Revelation 10:1, where the Greek word is πόδες (feet, sg. πούς), but can and does mean there, the entire leg or limb. This is true also in many of the languages where I was raised – the word for hand or foot can mean the entire extremity. Thus here, this mark could be anywhere from the hand on up.

414 In Hebraistic terminology, the cup signifies destiny. See for example Psalm 11:6.

12Here is the endurance of the saints, here those keeping the commandments of God and the faith of Jesus. 13And I heard a voice from heaven saying to me, "Write, 'Blessed are the dead, those dying in the Lord from now on.'"

"Yes," says the Spirit, "in that they may rest from their labors, and their works follow right with them."[415]

The Angels Harvest the Earth

14And I looked, and behold, a white cloud, and someone like a son of man sitting on the cloud, having a crown of gold on his head, and a sharp sickle in his hand. 15And another angel came, from the temple, calling out in a loud voice toward the one sitting on the cloud, "Send out your sickle and reap, for the hour for you to reap has come, since the harvest has become dry."[416]

16And the one sitting on the cloud launched his sickle over the earth, and the earth was harvested.

17And another angel came from the temple that is in heaven, he also holding a sharp sickle.

18And another angel came from the altar, having authority over the fire, and he called out with a loud cry to the one holding the sharp sickle, saying, "Send out your sharp sickle, and collect the clusters of the vine of the earth, for its grapes have peaked." 19And the angel launched his sickle onto the earth, and gathered the vine of the earth, and he cast it into the great winepress of God's wrath. 20And the winepress outside the city was trampled, and the blood went out from the winepress as deep as the bridles of the horses for a distance of 1,600 stadia.[417]

Chapter 15

The Seven Bowls Full of Wrath

1And I saw another sign in heaven, great and awesome: seven angels having the seven last plagues, for[418] with them is completed the wrath of God. 2And I saw like a sea of glass mixed with fire, and the ones overcoming of the beast and of his image and of his mark, of the number of his name, were standing on the glassy sea, holding lyres of God. 3And they are singing the song of Moses the servant of God, and the song of the Lamb, as follows,

"Great and marvelous are your deeds,
    O Lord God Almighty.
Just and true are your ways,
    O king of the saints.
4Who shall not fear you, O Lord,
    and glorify your name?
Because you alone are pure.
For all the nations will come,
    and will worship before you, because your righteous judgments have been revealed."

5And after these things I looked, and behold, the temple of the tabernacle of testimony was opened in heaven, 6and out of the temple came the seven angels having the seven plagues, dressed in linen clean and bright, and gird around the chest with golden sashes. 7And one of the four living beings handed to the seven angels seven bowls made of gold, which were becoming full of the wrath of God, who lives for ever and ever. [8]And the temple was filled with smoke, from the glory of God and from his power, and no one was able to go into the temple until the seven plagues of the seven angels were carried out.

Chapter 16

[1]And I heard a great voice from the temple saying to the seven angels, "Go and pour out the bowls of the wrath of God onto the earth."

[2]And the first one went and poured out his bowl onto the earth. And there came a nasty and painful ulcer on the people who had the mark of the beast and on those worshiping his image.

[3]And the second angel poured out his bowl onto the sea. And it became blood like of the dead, and every living soul in the sea died.

[4]And the third angel poured out his bowl onto the rivers and onto the sources of the waters. And they became blood.

[5]And I heard the angel of the waters saying, "You are righteous, O Lord, you who are and were and will be, that you have judged these things, [6]for they poured out the blood of saints and prophets, and you have given them blood to drink. They certainly deserve it."

[7]And I heard another voice out of the altar, saying, "Agreed,[419] Lord God Almighty, your punishments are true and just."

[8]And the fourth angel poured out his bowl on the sun. And it was given to the sun to scorch the people by fire. [9]And the people were burned a very bad burn, and they cursed the name of God, the one having authority over these plagues, yet they did not repent and give him glory.

[10]And the fifth angel poured out his bowl on the throne of the beast. And his kingdom became covered in darkness. And they were biting their tongues in pain, [11]and they cursed the God of heaven, because of their pains[420] and because of their ulcers, yet they did not repent of their works.

[12]And the sixth angel poured out his bowl on the great river Euphrates. And it caused its water to dry up, so that a route was prepared for the kings from places east. [13]And I saw coming from the mouth of the dragon, and from the mouth of the beast, and from the mouth of the false prophet, three unclean spirits, like frogs; [14]for they are spirits of demons performing miracles, which are going out to the kings of the whole inhabited earth, to gather them together for the war of the great day of God Almighty. [15](Behold, I am coming like a thief. Blessed are those keeping vigilant and guarding their garments, so they are not walking around naked and people seeing their private parts.) [16]And He gathered them together at the place called in Hebrew Harmagedōn.

[17]And the seventh angel poured out his bowl into the air. And there came a loud voice from the temple of heaven, from the throne, saying, "It is done!" [18]And there were voices and thunderings and lightnings, and a powerful earthquake occurred, such as has not happened since humans existed on the earth, so great an earthquake it was. [19]And the great city was split into three, and the cities of the Gentiles collapsed. And Babylon the Great, it was remembered in the presence of God to give her the cup of the wine of the fury of God's wrath. [20]And every island vanished away, and no mountains were found. [21]And huge hailstones, about 100 pounds in weight, came down on the people out of heaven; and the people cursed God because of the plague of hail. For severe is the blow of it, extremely.

[419] This is the principle of "every matter must be established by the agreement of two or three witnesses."

[420] Pains from previous scorpion stings, flame thrown from the mouths of beasts, ulcers, severe sunburns.

Chapter 17

The Mysterious Prostitute

[1]Then one of the seven angels who had the seven bowls came and spoke with me, saying to me, "Come, I will show you the judgment of the great prostitute who sits on many waters, [2]with whom the kings of the earth have fornicated. And those dwelling on the earth have become intoxicated from the wine of her sexual immorality."

[3]And he carried me away in the Spirit to a wilderness. And I saw a woman sitting on a scarlet beast that had seven heads and ten horns, which was full of blasphemous names. [4]And the woman was dressed in purple and scarlet, and covered with gold and precious stones and pearls, holding a golden cup in her hand, full of abominations and the uncleanness of her prostitution. [5]And on her forehead a title was written:

A Mystery
Babylon the Great,
the mother of prostitutes
and of the abominations of the earth.

[6]And I saw the woman drunk from the blood of the saints and from the blood of Jesus' witnesses. And I was astonished when I saw her, with a great astonishment.

[7]And the angel said to me, "Why are you astonished? I will declare to you the mystery of the woman, and of the beast carrying her which has the seven heads and ten horns. [8]The beast which you saw, was, and now is not, and in the future is to rise again from the Abyss, and will go to destruction. And those dwelling on the earth whose names have not been written in the book of life since the foundation of the world, they will marvel when they see the beast, which was, and is not, and yet is.

[9]"Consider this, O mind having wisdom: the seven heads are seven mountains, where the woman sits upon them. [10]They are also seven kings. Five have fallen and one is; the other has not yet appeared, and, when he appears, he must continue a little while. [11]And the beast which was and is not, he also is an eighth king, and from the seven he is, and to destruction he is going.

[12]"And the ten horns which you saw, they are ten kings who have not yet received kingship; they only receive authority as kings for one hour with the beast. [13]These have one purpose, and they give their power and authority to the beast. [14]These will make war with the Lamb, and the Lamb will overcome them, because he is lord of lords, and king of kings, and those with him are the called, and elect, and faithful."

[15]And he says to me, "The waters which you saw, where the prostitute sits, they are peoples and populaces, and ethnic groups and tongues. [16]And the ten horns which you saw, upon the beast, these will hate the prostitute, and they will lay her waste, and bare, and eat her flesh, and burn her up with fire. [17]For God has given it into their hearts, to carry out that purpose of His, even to accomplish one single purpose, and that is to give their kingdoms to the beast, until the words of God are accomplished. [18]And the woman which you saw is that great city that has rule over the kings of the earth."

Chapter 18

Fallen Is Babylon the Great

[1]And after these things I saw another angel coming down out of heaven, having great authority, and the earth was lit up from his glory. [2]And he cried out with great power, in a loud voice, saying, "Fallen! Fallen is Babylon the Great, and has become the dwelling place of demons and the haunt of every unclean spirit and the haunt of every unclean and detestable bird![421] 3Because all nations have drunk of the wine of the wrath of her prostitution, and the kings of the earth have fornicated with her, and the merchants of the earth by virtue of her luxury have become rich."

4And I heard another voice from heaven saying, "Get out of her, O my people, so that you not be parties to her sins, and not receive of her plagues. 5For her sins are piled all the way up to heaven, and God has remembered her crimes. 6Deal back to her even as she dealt out to you, and pay to her double, as befits her deeds. In the cup in which she had mixed, mix her a double. 7As much as she glorified herself and experienced luxury, that much suffering and mourning deal to her. For she says in her heart, 'I sit as a queen, and no widow am I, and mourning I will never see.'[422] 8Because of this, her blows will come in a single day, death and mourning and famine, and she will be consumed by fire. For able is the Lord God who is sentencing her."

9And the kings of the earth when they see the smoke of her burning, shall mourn her, and beat their breasts over her, they who had fornicated and experienced luxury with her, 10standing a long distance away, for the horror of her torment, saying, "Alas, alas! Babylon, strong city! For in a single hour your doom has come!"

11And the merchants of the earth lament and mourn over her, because no one buys their cargo anymore, 12cargo of gold, silver, precious stones and pearls, and of linen, silk, purple and scarlet cloth, and every aromatic wood,[423] and every item of ivory, and every article of expensive wood, copper, iron, and marble, 13and cinnamon, and incenses, myrrh and frankincense, and wine, olive oil, finest flour, and wheat, and cattle, sheep and horses, and carriages, and the bodies and souls of human beings.

14And the fruit your soul had lusted for has left you; yes, all the luxuries and the splendor, are gone from you, and never shall you find them again.

15Those merchants who became rich from her will stand afar off for the horror of her torment, lamenting and mourning, 16and saying, "Alas, alas, great city dressed in fine linen and purple and scarlet, and gilded in gold and precious stone and pearls, 17that this kind of wealth has been ruined in one hour!"

And every pilot and every company in ships, and mariners and such as work the sea, stood afar off, 18and cried out, watching the smoke of her fire, saying, "What city is like the great city?" 19And they threw dust above their heads and cried out lamenting and mourning, saying, "Alas, alas, great city, through whom all those owning ships on the sea became rich from her Priceyness.[424] How has she been laid waste in one hour?"

20Rejoice over her, O heaven, and you holy apostles and prophets! For God has adjudicated your redress from her.[425] 21And a powerful angel lifted up a stone, like a giant millstone, and threw it into the sea, saying, "With such violence will that great city Babylon be thrown down, and never more be found."

22"And the sound of guitarists and musicians and flutists and trumpeters will never more be heard in you, nor will any craftsman of any skill be found in you anymore, nor the sound of a factory be heard in you anymore, 23and the light of a lamp will will not shine in you anymore, and the sound of bridegroom and bride will not be heard in you anymore. For your merchants were the lords[426] of the earth, in that by your sorceries all nations were deceived. 24And in her was found the blood of prophets and of saints, indeed of all the slain upon the earth.[427]

Chapter 19

Hallelujah!

1And after these things I heard the sound of a very large multitude in heaven, saying, "Hallelujah! Salvation and glory and honor and power be unto the Lord our God! 2How true and right are his judgments! For he has judged the great prostitute who was destroying the earth with her prostitution, and has avenged the blood of his servants spilled by her hand."

3And a second time they said, "Hallelujah! And the smoke from her ascends for ever and ever."

4And the twenty-four elders and the four living beings fell down and worshiped God, the one sitting on the throne, saying, "Amen. Hallelujah!"

5And there came a voice from the throne, saying, "Praise our God, all you his servants, and you who fear him, both small and great."

6And I heard like the sound of a great multitude, and like the sound of many waters and like the sound of powerful thunderclaps, saying, “Hallelujah! For the Lord God Almighty reigns. 7Let us rejoice and exult, and give him glory, for the wedding of the Lamb has come, and his wife has made herself ready.” 8And it was given to her that she be dressed in fine linen clean and bright, for the fine linen is the righteous acts of the saints.

9And he says to me, "Write: 'Blessed are those who are invited to the wedding banquet of the Lamb.' " And he says to me, "These are true words from God."

10And I fell down before his feet to worship him. And he says to me, "Watch out! I am your fellow servant, and one of your brothers in having the testimony of Jesus. Worship God. For the testimony of Jesus is the spirit of prophecy."

Behold a White Horse

11And I saw heaven opened, and behold, a white horse, and the one sitting on it called faithful and true, and in righteousness he judges and makes war. 12And his eyes are like flames of fire, and on his head many diadems, having a name written on them which no one knows but himself, 13and he is clothed in a robe dipped in blood, and called by the name "the Word of God."

14And the armies that are in heaven are following him on white horses, dressed in linen bright and clean. 15And from his mouth goes out a sharp sword, so that with it he might strike the nations, and then he himself will shepherd them with a rod of iron; and he himself will tread the press of the wine of the passion and wrath of God Almighty. 16And he has a name written on his robe and on his thigh: King of Kings and Lord of Lords.

17And I saw an angel standing on the sun, and he cried out in a very great voice, saying, "To all the birds flying in mid-air, Come and gather toward the feast of the great God, 18that you may eat the flesh of kings, and the flesh of generals, and the flesh of the mighty, and the flesh of horses and of those riding on them; even the flesh of every sort, both free and slave, both the small and the great."

19And I saw the beast and the kings of the earth and their armies, gathered together to make war with the one sitting on the horse and with his army. 20And the beast was arrested, and with him the false prophet who did the wonders before him by which he deceived those receiving the mark of the beast and worshiping his image. The two were thrown while living into the lake of fire burning with sulfur.

Chapter 20

The One Thousand Years

1And I saw an angel coming down from heaven, holding the key to the abyss and a giant chain in his hand. 2And he captured the dragon, the ancient serpent, which is the Devil and Satan, and bound him for a thousand years, 3and cast him into the abyss, and closed it and sealed it over him, so that he could no longer deceive the nations, until the end of the thousand years. And after them, he must be released for a short time.

4And I saw thrones, and they took their seat on them, and judgeship was given to them, that is, the souls of those beheaded because of the testimony of Jesus, and because of the word of God, and who did not worship the beast, neither the image of him, and did not take the mark on their forehead or on their hand. And they came to life, and reigned with Christ a thousand years. 5(But the rest of the dead did not come back to life until the thousand years were finished.) This is the first resurrection. 6Blessed and holy is he who takes part in the first resurrection; over such, the second death has no power, but instead they shall be priests of God and of Christ, and shall reign with him a thousand years.

The Last War

7And when the thousand years are finished, Satan shall be released from his prison, 8and he shall go forth to deceive the nations which are in the four points of the earth, Gōg and Magōg,[428] to gather them together for war, the number being as the sand of the seashore. 9And they rose up over the breadth of the earth, and surrounded the company of the saints and the beloved city. And fire came down from God out of heaven and consumed them. 10And the Devil, the deceiver of them, was cast into the lake of fire and sulfur, where the beast and false prophet were, and they shall be tormented day and night, for ever and ever.[429]

The Great White Throne of Judgment

11And I saw a great white throne and the one sitting on it, from whose face the earth and the heaven fled away, and their place was found no more. 12And I saw the dead, the small and the great, standing before God, and books were opened. Another book was also opened, which is the book of life. And the dead were judged from what was written in the books, according to their works. 13And the sea gave up the dead which were in it, and Death and Hades gave up the dead which were in them, and each person was judged according to their works. 14And Death and Hades were cast into the lake of fire. This is the second death. 15And if anyone was not found written in the book of life, he was cast into the lake of fire.

Chapter 21

The New Jerusalem

1And I saw a new heaven and a new earth; for the first heaven and first earth had vanished away, and the sea does not exist anymore. 2And I, John, saw the holy city, the new Jerusalem, coming down from God out of heaven, prepared as a bride made beautiful for her husband. 3And I heard a great voice from heaven saying, "Behold, God's tent is with humanity. And he shall dwell with them, and they shall be his people. Yes, God himself shall be among them and be their God.

428 Ezekiel 38, 39

429 See Enoch 10:9 (Laurence) or 10:13 (Knibb) or 10:13-14 (Charles)

4And God shall wipe away every tear from their eyes. And death shall no longer exist, neither sadness, nor crying, nor pain, shall exist anymore. Because the former things have passed away."

5And the One sitting on the throne said, "Behold, I am making all things anew."

And he says to me, "Write, 'These words are trustworthy and true.' "

6And he said to me, "It is accomplished. I am the Alpha and the Omega, the beginning and the end. To him who is thirsty I will give freely from the spring of the water of life. 7He who overcomes will inherit all this, and I will be his God and he will be my son. 8But as for the cowardly and unbelieving and abominable[430] and murderers and fornicators and sorcerers[431] and idolaters and all liars, their inheritance is in the lake that burns with fire and sulfur, which is the second death."

The Bride and Wife of the Lamb

9And one of the seven angels who had the seven bowls full of the seven last plagues came to me, and he spoke with me, saying, "Come, I will show you the bride, the wife of the Lamb."[432] 10And he carried me away in the Spirit onto a great and high mountain, and showed me the great, holy city Jerusalem, descending out of heaven from God, 11having the glory of God. And her radiance was similar to a precious gemstone, like a jasper stone shimmering as crystal; 12and having a wall, great and high, with twelve gates, and at the gates twelve angels, and names written on them, which are the names of the twelve tribes of the sons of Israel; 13from[433] the east three gates, from the north three gates, from the south three gates, and from the west three gates; 14with the wall of the city having twelve foundations, and on them twelve names, of the twelve apostles of the Lamb.

15And the one speaking with me had a rod of gold, to measure the city, and its gates and its wall. 16And the city lies foursquare; that is, the length of it is also as great as the width. And with the rod, he measured the city at 12,000 stadia.[434] The length and width and height of it are the same. 17And he measured the wall of it,[435] 144 forearms,[436] the dimension of a man, which is the angel's.[437]

430 Abhorrent, repugnant, extremely filthy and polluted, unclean ritually, all these are part of the history of the word.

431 This Greek word pharmakos or pharmakeus (they mean pretty much the same) means in the Bible primarily a person who uses drugs and poisons to practice magic or sorcery. The drugger aspect can be clearly seen in the word itself, "pharmakos." The word in some classical literature also meant drug seller, though with the connotation of the medicinal v. pejorative meaning of drugs.

432 This is significant that both the words wife and bride are used. Israel has been called the wife, and the church the bride, and here in the New Jerusalem we see both of them built into one. The twelve gates are the twelve tribes of Israel, and the twelve foundations are the twelve apostles of Jesus Christ. Is it a co-incidence that there are twenty-four elders?

433 The gates are named after the direction you are coming from when entering them, the way winds are named.

434 A stadion was 6 plethra, one plethra being 100 Greek feet, so 600 Greek feet, 625 Roman feet (⅛ of a Roman mile), 606¾ English feet, 185 metres. This comes to 1,379 miles or 2,220 kilometres. As the crow flies, this is about the distance of San Diego to Kansas City, or San Diego to Kamloops, or Buenos Aires to La Paz, or Sydney to Cooktown, or Brisbane to Port Moresby, or Perth to Lake Torrens, or Seoul to Hong Kong, or Nairobi to Harare, or Lagos to Bissau, or Cairo to Tehran, Tehran to Ahmadabad, or Calcutta to Kabul, or Banda Aceh to Surabaya.

435 This must be the thickness of the wall, since we already know from v. 16 that the height of the wall is 12,000 stadia.

436 About 200 feet or 60 meters.

437 This phrase is ambiguous; it could either be saying that the angel in the context here measuring, has the same dimensions of his fore-arm as a man has, or it could be saying that

18And the material of its wall was jasper, and the city was pure gold, clear like crystal. 19And the foundations of the walls of the city are adorned with every precious stone; the first foundation with jasper, the second sapphire, the third chalcedony, the fourth emerald, 20the fifth sardonyx, the sixth sardius, the seventh chrysolite, the eighth beryl, the ninth topaz, the tenth chrysoprase, the eleventh hyacinth, the twelfth amethyst. 21And the twelve gates are twelve pearls; each one of the gates was made out of one pearl. And the streets of the city are pure gold, transparent as glass.

22And I did not see a temple in it, for the Lord God Almighty is its temple, and the Lamb. 23And the city has no need of either a sun or a moon to shine in it, for the glory of God has illumined it, and its lamp is the Lamb. 24And the nations of those who are saved will walk by its light; and the kings of the earth bring their glory and honor into it; 25and its gates are never closed by day; in fact, night will not exist there; 26and they will bring the glory and honor of the nations into it. 27And nothing that defiles, or who practices abomination or falsehood, will ever go into it– only those who are written in the Lamb's book of life.

Chapter 22

The River of Living Water

1And he showed me the pure river of the water of life, bright like crystal, flowing from the throne of God and of the Lamb 2in the middle of its boulevard. And on either side of the river, the tree of life producing twelve fruits, yielding one fruit of it for each month, and the leaves of the tree are for the healing of the nations. 3And every accursed thing will no longer exist. And the throne of God and of the Lamb will be in it, and his servants will serve him, 4and they will look upon his face,[438] and his name will be on their foreheads. 5And night will not exist there, and they have no need for a lamp or the light of the sun, because the Lord God gives them light, and they will reign for ever and ever.

6And he said to me, "These words are trustworthy and true. Yes, the Lord, the God of the holy prophets, he has sent his angel to show his servants what things must soon take place."

7"Behold, I am coming soon. Blessed is he who keeps the words of the prophecy of this book."

8And I, John, was the seer and the hearer of these things. And when I heard and I saw, I fell down to worship before the feet of the angel who had been showing them to me. 9And he says to me, "Watch out! For I am a fellow servant of yours and of your brothers the prophets, and of those keeping the words of this book. Worship God."

10And he says to me, "Do not seal up the words of the prophecy of this book, because the time is near. 11He who is doing wrong, let him continue to do wrong, and the unclean continue to be unclean, and he who is righteous continue to be righteous, and the holy continue to be holy."

Behold, I am Coming Soon

12"And behold, I am coming soon, and the repayment from me along with me, to pay back to each one such as his work will truly be. 13I am the Alpha and the Omega, the beginning and the end, the first and the last.

14"Blessed are those who do his commandments, so that access to the tree of life will be theirs, and to the gates, so they may go into the city. 15But outside are the angels in general use the same measurements as human beings, which was cubits. The former seems more likely, than that angels will always use cubits.

438 Or possibly, with "see his face" as a Hebraism, "and they will have access to Him." But the Son of Man, having a face, is the expression of God for the rest of eternity.

dogs,[439] and sorcerers, and fornicators and murderers and idolaters and anyone who loves or does falsehood.

16"I Jesus have sent my angel to testify these things to you regarding the churches. I am the root and line of David, the bright and morning star.

17And the Spirit and the bride say, "Come." And he who is hearing this should say "Come." And he who is thirsty, should come, and whoever wants to, receive the water of life without cost.

18For I testify to everyone who is hearing these words of the prophecy of this book: if anyone adds to them, God will add to him the plagues that are written in this book; 19and if anyone takes away from the words of this book of prophecy, God will take away his share of the book of life and of the holy city, and of the things written in this book.

20The one who is testifying these things says, "Yes, I am coming soon." Amen; yes, come Lord Jesus.

21The grace of our Lord Jesus Christ be with you all. Amen.
